(١٠٠٦/٣٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ يَوْمٍ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ أَنْ يَغْتَقَّ اللَّهُ فِيهِ عَبْدًا مِنَ النَّارِ مِنْ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ وَإِنَّهُ لَيَدْنُوهُمْ يُبَاهِي بِهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ فَيَقُولُ مَا رَأَيْتُمْ هَؤُلَاءِ (رواه مسلم)

(1006/39) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "On no other day God decides in a greater measure for release of His bondsmen from Hell than on the Day of Arafat (i.e., the decision for the forgiveness and freedom from Hell of sinning bondsmen is taken on the largest scale in the year, on the Day of Arafat). On that day, God comes very close to the bondsmen (present in Arafat) with His Attribute of Mercy, and feeling proud of them says to the angels: Do you see with what object these bondsmen of Mine have come here?" (Muslim)

(١٠٠٧/٤٠) عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ كَرِيزٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا رَأَى الشَّيْطَانُ يَوْمًا هُوَ فِيهِ أَصْغَرُ وَلَا أَدْحَرُ وَلَا أَحْقَرُ وَلَا أَغْيَظُ مِنْهُ فِي يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ وَمَا ذَاكَ إِلَّا لِمَا يَرَى مِنْ تَنْزِيلِ الرَّحْمَةِ وَتَجَاوُزِ اللَّهِ عَنِ الذُّنُوبِ الْعِظَامِ (رواه مالك مرسلاً)

(1007/40) It is related by Talha bin Ubaidah bin Kareez, a Taba'ee that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Satan never feels more dejected, humiliated and crestfallen than on the day of Arafat for the simple reason that, on that day, he sees the Mercy of the Lord descending upon the earth (like a torrent of rain), and grievous sins being forgiven."

(Muwatta Imam Malik (by way of a Mursal)

Commentary: When thousands, nay millions of people, attired like beggars, assemble at Arafat on the 9th of Zul Hajjah, which is a special day for the descent of Divine favours, and beseech the Lord devoutly for forgiveness for themselves as well as for others and cry and bewail before Him, the boundless sea of compassion of the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful Lord is aroused and He gives such extraordinary decisions of forgiveness in favour of erring bondsmen that the Devil feels extremely bitter and heart broken.

Rami Jamrat

In Mina there are three pillars, built at some distance from one another. These are called Jamrat. To throw pebbles at them, also, is a rite of the Hajj. Seven pebbles are to be thrown at every pillar on the 11th, 12th and 13th of Zul Hajjah. Manifestly, there is no virtue in throwing pebbles by itself but every act becomes an act of worship at the command of God, and servility, in its essence, denotes neither more nor less than that the orders, dictates and ordinances of Allah are carried out willingly and with good grace. Besides, when the bondsmen of God, with the conviction of His Power and Majesty firmly embedded in the mind and the cry of Allah-u-Akbar on the lips, throw pebbles, at His command, at Jamrat, believing that their target, in reality, are the satanic notions, desires and practices, and they are actually stoning sinfulness and perversion to death, the heavenly joy they experience defies all descriptions. In any case, to throw pebbles at Jamrat, in the name of God and at His bidding, is a Faith-sitrring event for those who know.

(١٠٠٨/٤١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ رَمِيُّ

الْجَمَارِ وَالسَّعْيُ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ لِقَامَةِ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ (رواه الترمذى والدارمى)

(1008/41) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Prophet ﷺ said: "To throw pebbles at Jamrat, and to perform Sa'ee between Safa and Marwa, and to circumambulate are (not things of sport) (but) aids to the intensity and fulness of the remembrance of God." (Tirmizi and Daarami)

(١٠٠٩/٤٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَمَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْجَمْرَةَ

يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ صُبْحِي وَأَمَّا بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَإِذَا زَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1009/42) It is related on the authority of Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ carried out Rami against Jamra Uqaba on the 10th of Zul Hajjah in the morning, and after that, he carried out Rami against (all) the (three) Jamrat on the days of Tashriq,¹ after the declining of the sun. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The same is the prescribed method of carrying out

①. Meaning the 11th, 12th, and 13th of Zul Hajjah.

Rami. On the 10th of Zul Hajjah the Rami against Jamra Uqaba should be carried out before noon, and, on the subsequent days, when the sun has begun to decline from the meridian.

(١٠١٠/٤٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ أَنَّهُ انْتَهَى إِلَى الْجَمْرَةِ الْكُبْرَى فَجَعَلَ الْبَيْتَ عَنْ يَسَارِهِ وَمِنْهُ عَنْ يَمِينِهِ وَرَمَى بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ مَعَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ هَكَذَا رَمَى الَّذِي أَنْزَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ سُورَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1010/43) It is related on the authority of Abdullah bin Mas'ud رضي الله عنه that he came to Jamra Kubra (i.e., Jamra Uqaba) for performing Rami and stood facing it so that the House of God (i.e., Makkah) was to his left and Mina to his right. After it, he threw seven pebbles at the Jamra and said Allah-u-Akbar at each throw. he, then, said, "In the same manner had the blessed one carried out Rami to whom Surah Al-Baqara (in which the commands and rites of the Hajj are given) was revealed."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ud رضي الله عنه remembered, in detail, how the sacred Prophet ﷺ used to perform Rami, and he showed it to the people by doing so himself.

(١٠١١/٤٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْمِي عَلَى رَاحِلَتِهِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ وَيَقُولُ لِنَاخِذُوا مَنَاسِكُكُمْ فَإِنِّي لَا أَدْرِي لَعَلِّي لَا أَحُجُّ بَعْدَ حَجَّتِي هَذِهِ (رواه مسلم)

(1011/44) Jaber رضي الله عنه narrated "I saw the Prophet ﷺ performing Rami, on the 10th of Zul Hajjah, seated on the back of his camel. At that time, he was saying: 'I do not know if I will perform another Hajj after it (and you will have an opportunity of learnig about it from me in future)'." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: When the holy Prophet ﷺ reached Mina from Muzdalifa on his camel, he carried out Rami against Jamra Uqaba in the same state, i.e., in the state of being mounted so that people could see him performing the Rami and learn how it was to be done and make enquiries from him about the rites of the Hajj. But on the second and third days, he carried it out on foot. The rite, however, can be performed both on foot and mounted.

(١٠١٢/٤٥) عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَرْمِي جَمْرَةَ الدُّنْيَا بِسَبْعِ حَصِيَّاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ عَلَىٰ إِثْرِ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ يَتَقَدَّمُ حَتَّىٰ يُسَهِّلَ فَيَقُومُ مُسْتَقْبِلَ الْقِبْلَةِ طَوِيلًا وَيَدْعُو وَيَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَرْمِي الْوُسْطَىٰ بِسَبْعِ حَصِيَّاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ كُلَّمَا رَمَىٰ بِحَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ يَأْخُذُ بِذَاتِ الشِّمَالِ فَيُسَهِّلُ وَيَقُومُ مُسْتَقْبِلَ الْقِبْلَةِ ثُمَّ يَدْعُو وَيَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ وَيَقُومُ طَوِيلًا ثُمَّ يَرْمِي جَمْرَةَ ذَاتِ الْعُقْبَةِ مِنْ بَطْنِ الْوَادِي بِسَبْعِ حَصِيَّاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ عِنْدَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ وَلَا يَقِفُ عِنْدَهَا ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ فَيَقُولُ هَكَذَا رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَفْعَلُهُ

(رواه البخارى)

(1012/45) Saalim bin Abdullah related about his father, Abdullah bin Uamr رضي الله عنه, "his custom about Rami was that he threw seven pebbles at the first Jamra, and said Allah-u-Akbar at every throw, and, then, came down to the low ground in front, and stood there facing the Qibla and supplicating the Lord, with his hands raised, for a long time. After that, he, in the same way, threw seven pebbles at the middle Jamra, and said Allah-u-Akbar at every throw, and, then, came down to the low ground on the left hand side, and stood there facing the Qibla and beseeching the Lord, with his hands raised, for a long time. After that, he threw seven pebbles from the bottom of the valley at the last Jamra (i.e., Jamra Uqabah) and said Allah-u-Akbar at each throw but instead of staying near it, he returned. He used to say that 'I have seen the Messenger of Allah ﷺ carrying out Rami in the same manner'." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It shows that after the Rami of the first two Jamrat the holy Prophet ﷺ stood near them and prayed to God for a long time, with his face towards the Qiblah, but turned immediately after carrying out Rami against the third Jamra. This is the Musnoon way but, unfortunately, few people know and follow it today.

Qurbani

Traditions regarding Qurbani have been discussed earlier. Here, however, we will take up one more.

(١٠١٣/٤٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ قُرْطٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ

أَعْظَمَ الْأَيَّامِ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ يَوْمُ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ يَوْمُ الْقَرِّ (قَالَ تَوْرَ وَهُوَ الْيَوْمُ الثَّانِي) قَالَ
وَقَرَّبَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَدَنَاتٍ خَمْسَ أَوْ سِتٍّ فَطَفِقْنَ يَزْدَلِفْنَ إِلَيْهِ بَايَتِهِنَّ يَدًى

(رواه ابو داود)

(1013/46) It is related by Abdullah bin Qurth رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "In the sight of Allah, the greatest day is Yaum-un-Nahr (the Day of Qurbani) (i.e., the 10th of Zul Hajjah), (meaning that like Yaumul-Arfa, Yaum-un-Nahr, too, is a day of utmost significance). After it is the day next to it, i.e., Yaumul Qarr (or the 11th of Zul Hajjah). (Thus, Qurbani should be carried out, as far as possible, on the 10th of Zul Hajjah or, at the latest, on the 11th. If it is performed after that, on the 12th of Zul Hajjah, the duty will be fulfilled but it will be wholly lacking in goodness)." The narrator, then, described an unusual thing he had witnessed. He said that, once, five or six camels were brought to the Prophet ﷺ for Qurbani and every one of them struggled to get close to him so that it was the first to be killed as a sacrifice. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: God has the power to endue not only animals but clay and stones as well with consciousness of events that are taking place around them. The five or six camels brought to the Prophet ﷺ had been made aware by God how glorious it was to be offered by the sacred Prophet ﷺ as a sacrifice in His path, and, therefore, each of them wanted to come near the Prophet ﷺ in order that it was slaughtered before the others.

(١٠١٤/٤٧) عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ
ضَحَّى مِنْكُمْ فَلَا يُضْبِحَنَّ بَعْدَ ثَلَاثَةٍ وَفِي بَيْتِهِ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ فَلَمَّا كَانَ الْعَامُ الْمُقْبِلُ
قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ نَفْعَلُ كَمَا فَعَلْنَا الْعَامَ الْمَاضِي قَالَ كُلُّوْا وَأَطْعِمُوا وَادْخِرُوا
فَإِنَّ ذَلِكَ الْعَامَ كَانَ بِالنَّاسِ جَهْدٌ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ تُعِينُوا فِيهِمْ (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1014/47) It is related by Sayyidina Salmah bin Al-Akwa رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Those of you who make a sacrifice must not have any of it in their house after three days." The next year the people asked him whether they should do as they had done the previous year, he said, "Eat, provide for others and store some up, for that year there was distress among the people and I wanted you to help them."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٠١٥/٤٨) عَنْ نُبَيْشَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّا كُنَّا نَهَيَّاكُمْ عَنْ لُحُومِهَا أَنْ تَأْكُلُوهَا فَوْقَ ثَلَاثٍ لِكَيْ تَسَعَّكُمْ جَاءَ اللَّهُ بِالسَّعَةِ فَكُلُوا وَادَّخِرُوا وَاتَّجِرُوا وَلَا إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْأَيَّامَ أَيَّامٌ أَكَلٍ وَشَرْبٍ وَذِكْرِ اللَّهِ

(رواه ابو داود)

(1015/48) Nubaysha رضي الله عنه reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "I forbade you to eat their meat for more than three days in order that you might have abundance (for charity). But, may Allah, has produced abundance, so you may eat, store up and seek reward. These are days of eating, drinking and remembrance of Allah."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: We learn from the two foregoing hadith that we are allowed to eat and store up the sacrificial meat as long as we like. The second hadith concludes with the information that Allah likes His slaves to eat and drink during the days of Tashriq. However, we must keep up the remembrance of Allah during these days by extolling Him, declaring His praise and His unity.

اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ وَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ

Tawaf Ziyarat and Tawaf Wada

The chief aim of the rites of the Hajj and the way they have been arranged is the expression of reverence for and deep attachment to the House of God which is the distinctive mark of Millat Ibrahimī. Circumambulation, as such, is the first rite of the Hajj, after arrival in Makkah, so much so much so that Tahayyatul Masjid is not offered on entering Masjid-ul-Haram.¹ Tawaf is done first, and, then, two Rak'at of Sunnat-ut-Tawaf are offered.

In common usage, the first Tawaf the pilgrim performs is called Tawaf Qudoom, the Tawaf he performs after having carried out the rites of Qurbani and Halq is called Tawaf Ziyarat, and the last Tawaf that is to be performed before leaving Makkah for home is called Tawaf Wuda'. Thus, the rites of the Hajj begin and with the Tawaf of the House of Ka'bah.

①. Denoting the area of worship within the sacred enclosure at Makkah.

(١٠١٦/٤٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَرْمَلْ فِي

السَّبْعِ الَّذِي أَقَاضَ فِيهِ (رواه ابو داؤد وابن ماجه)

(1016/49) Abdullah bin Abbas رضي الله عنه narrates that the Prophet ﷺ did not do Ramal in the seven circuits of Tawaf Ziyarat, i.e., the whole of Tawaf was done at usual pace.

(Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: As we have seen, already, the pilgrim has to do Ramal in the first three circuits of the Tawaf he performs on arrival in Makkah. The holy Prophet ﷺ and his Companions had done the same during the Farewell Hajj, but when the Prophet ﷺ performed Tawaf Ziyarat on the 10th of Zul Hajjah, on coming back to Makkah from Mina, he did not do Ramal, as the above Tradition tells.

(١٠١٧/٥٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

أَخَّرَ طَوَافَ الزِّيَارَةِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ إِلَى اللَّيْلِ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(1017/50) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ deferred Tawaf Ziyarat (i.e., allowed to be deferred) till the night of the 10th of Zul Hajjah.

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that the most appropriate day for Tawaf Ziyarat is Yaum-un-Nahr (i.e., the day of Eidul Adha) but the holy Prophet ﷺ has permitted that it can be done in the night, after the end of the day of the sacrificial offering of the animals, as well, and the Tawaf of that night will be reckoned to be as meritorious as the Tawaf of the 10th of Zul Hajjah.

According to the Arab practice, the date of the night is the date of the day coming after it and every night is joined to the succeeding day. But for the rite of the Hajj it has been reversed for the sake of the pilgrims' convenience and the nights have been joined to the days preceding them. Thus, the Tawaf which will be carried out in the night, after the passage of the day of 10th of Zul Hajjah, will be regarded as having been performed on that day though it will be the 11th according to the established usage.

(١٠١٨/٥١) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّاسُ يَنْصِرُ فُؤُونَ فِي كُلِّ وَجْهِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْفِرُونَ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّى يَكُونَ آخِرَ عَهْدِهِ بِالْبَيْتِ إِلَّا أَنَّهُ خَفَّفَ عَنِ الْحَائِضِ (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1018/51) It is related by Abdullah bin Abbas رضي الله عنه that (after performing the Hajj) people used to leave for their homes, (and they did not care for Tawaf Wada'). The Prophet ﷺ observed: "None of you should leave for home till he had made his last appearance in the House of God (i.e., performed Tawaf Wada'). The woman who is unable to perform the Tawaf owing to menstruation is, of course, exempted." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that earlier the people did not perform Tawaf Wada' but started for their native lands after staying at Mina till the 12th or 13th of Zul Hajjah and carrying out the rites of Rami Jamrat etc. In the above Tradition, the Prophet ﷺ has stressed the importance and obligatoriness of this Tawaf. The legists, as such, have held Tawaf Wada' to be indispensable. Women, certainly, are free from the operation of the command if they are having their periods and can leave Makkah for home without carrying out Tawaf Wada'. Otherwise, for all pilgrims coming from a foreign land it is necessary to perform this last Tawaf with the intention of bidding adieu to the House of Ka'bah before starting on the return journey. It should be the final ritual in connection with the Hajj.

(١٠١٩/٥٢) عَنِ الْحَارِثِ الثَّقَفِيِّ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ حَجَّ هَذَا الْبَيْتِ أَوْ اعْتَمَرَ فَلْيَكُنْ آخِرَ عَهْدِهِ الطَّوَّافُ بِالْبَيْتِ (رواه احمد)

(1019/52) It is related by Haris Thaqafi رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever performs the Hajj or Umrah, his last appearance ought to be in the House of God and his last act, Tawaf." (Musnad Ahmad)

(١٠٢٠/٥٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ أَخْرَمْتُ مِنَ التَّعِيمِ بِعُمْرَةٍ فَدَخَلْتُ فَقَضَيْتُ عُمْرَتِي وَانْتَظَرَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْأَبْطَحِ حَتَّى فَرَعْتُ وَأَمَرَ النَّاسَ بِالرَّحِيلِ قَالَتْ وَاتَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

الْبَيْتِ فَطَافَ بِهِ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ

(رواه ابو داود)

(1020/53) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها related to us that "(during the Farewell Hajj), I went to the place (called) Tan'eem and assumed the Ihram of Umrah and carried out its rites like Tawaf and Sa'ee (during the last night of our stay in Makkah and during which we were to leave for Madinah), and the Prophet ﷺ waited for me at Abtah (situated between Mina and Makkah). When I had completed the Umrah, he ordered the people to depart and came to the House of God for Tawaf Wada' and carried out the Tawaf and left Makkah for Madinah directly after it."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: When Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها departed from Madinah, she had intended to perform the Tamattu Hajj, but as we have seen, her periods began as she was approaching Makkah and she could not perform any of the rituals of Umrah. She, accordingly, gave up the idea of Umrah and put on the Ihram of Hajj on the 8th of Zul Hajjah, on the advice of the Prophet ﷺ, and performed the Hajj with him.

When, on the 13th of Zul Hajjah, the Prophet ﷺ returned from Mina, after carrying out Rami against Jamrat, he halted at Abtah and decided to spend the night there. On the same night, he told Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها to go with her brother, Abdul Rahman bin Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, to Tan'eem, outside the territory of Haram, and assume there the Ihram for Umrah and return after performing Umrah. The same incident has been alluded to in the above Tradition.

As she came back after performing the Umrah, the Prophet ﷺ ordered the Companions to depart. All the pilgrims came to the House of Ka'bah from Abtah where the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions رضي الله عنهم carried out Tawaf Wada' in the morning and left for Madinah immediately after it.

This Umrah of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was to make amends for the Umrah she could not perform in spite of donning the Ihram.

We learn, further, from the above report that Tawaf Wada' should be performed at the time of departure for home from Makkah.

Hugging The Multazam

The portion of the wall of the House Ka'bah between Ka'bah

and the Black Stone, which is about two yards long, is called Multazam. It is also among the observances confirmed by the practice of the sacred Prophet ﷺ that, if possible, the pilgrims should pray to God by hugging it at the end of Tawaf. As the Traditions given below will show, the Prophet ﷺ had done so during the Farewell Haji.

(١٠٢١/٥٤) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ كُنْتُ أَطُوفُ مَعَ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ وَرَأَيْتُ قَوْمًا اتَّزَمُوا الْبَيْتَ فَقُلْتُ لَهُ انْطَلِقْ بِنَا نَتَزَمُ الْبَيْتَ مَعَ هَؤُلَاءِ فَقَالَ أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ فَلَمَّا فَرَغَ مِنْ طَوَافِهِ اتَّزَمَ الْبَيْتَ بَيْنَ الْبَيْتِ وَالْحَجَرِ وَقَالَ هَذَا وَاللَّهِ الْمَكَانُ الَّذِي رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اتَّزَمَهُ

(رواه البيهقي بهذا اللفظ)

(1021/54) It is related by the Amr bin Shu'ayb, on the authority of his father, Shu'ayb, that he said: "I was carrying out Tawaf with my grandfather, Abdullah bin Amr bin al-'Aas رضي الله عنه, when I saw some people hugging the House of Ka'bah. I, then, asked my grandfather to take me there so that I could, also, hug the House of Ka'bah like them. The grandfather remarked: "I seek the refuge of God against the accursed Devil!" (Meaning, probably, that if during Tawaf, he hugged any portion of the walls of Ka'bah, without particular regard to Multazam, it would be opposed to Sunnah and more pleasing to Satan than to God). "When my grandfather had finished Tawaf," related shu'ayb, "he came to the portion of the wall of Ka'bah which is between the gate of Ka'bah and the Black Stone (and is known as Multazam) and said to me: 'I swear by God that this is the place which the Prophet ﷺ had hugged'." (Baihaqi)

(In another version of the same Tradition, quoted in Abu Dawood, it is stated that Abdullah bin Amr رضي الله عنه had hugged Multazam by placing his face and chest against it, with his arms spread to the full, and said: "I had seen the Prophet ﷺ carrying it out like that)."

Commentary: It tells that the hugging of Multazam ought to be done at the end of Tawaf and the proper place for it is the portion of the wall of the House of Ka'bah between Ka'bah and the Black Stone.

HOLY CITIES OF MAKKAH AND MADINAH

Sanctity of Makkah

Allah has declared Ka'bah His Bayt or House and owing to the same association, the town of Makkah in which it is situated is called Baldullaahul Haraam, i.e., the Sanctified City of God. Or, in other words, just as, among all the houses in the world, Ka'bah enjoys a unique association with God, among all the towns, Makkah is blessed with a singular affinity with Him. On the same ground, again, the outlying territory on all sides of the town, for several miles, has been marked out as Haram i.e., worthy of respect, and extraordinary rules and proprieties are laid down for it. Thus, many things that are allowed all over the world are prohibited within it, such as, hunting, warfare, felling of trees or striking of them for leaves. All such acts are condemned as sinful.

The territory of Haram was, first, demarcated by Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, and, after him, the sacred Prophet ﷺ redefined the boundaries. The whole area, as one would say, forms the courtyard of the Sanctified Town of God and commands the same respect as the city of Makkah.

(١٠٢٢/٥٥) عَنْ عِيَّاشِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبِيعَةَ الْمَخْزُومِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى

اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَزَالُ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةُ بِخَيْرٍ مَا عَظَّمُوا هَذِهِ الْحُرْمَةَ حَقَّ تَعْظِيمِهَا

(رواه ابن ماجه)

فَإِذَا ضَيَعُوا ذَلِكَ هَلَكُوا

(1022/55) It is related by Ayyash bin Abu Rabia'h رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "My followers will remain with safety and well-being as long as they show respect to the Haram and render the claim of reverence to it and will be destroyed when they cease to do so."

(Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that the veneration of the House of God, the City of God, i.e., Makkah, and the whole of Haram is a mark of true devotion and loyalty to Him. As long as this virtue will be present among the Muslims, collectively, God will be their Protector and they will live with honour and security and when they will become devoid of it, as a whole, they will forfeit the claim to the benign care of the Lord and all sorts of calamities will start visiting them.

Though owing to modern facilities of travel and some other reasons the number of pilgrims has increased manifold, the standard of veneration has fallen and it is one of the reasons why the Ummah everywhere, has got deprived of the help and protection of God.

(١٠٢٣/٥٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ لَا هِجْرَةَ وَلَكِنْ جِهَادٌ وَنِيَّةٌ فَإِذَا سْتَنْفِرْتُمْ فَانْفِرُوا وَقَالَ يَوْمَ فَتَحِ مَكَّةَ إِنَّ هَذَا الْبَلَدَ حَرَمُ اللَّهِ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فَهُوَ حَرَامٌ بِحُرْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ وَإِنَّهُ لَمْ يَحِلَّ الْقِتَالُ فِيهِ لِأَحَدٍ قَبْلِي وَلَمْ يَحِلَّ لِي إِلَّا سَاعَةٌ مِنْ نَهَارٍ فَهُوَ حَرَامٌ بِحُرْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ لَا يُعْصَدُ شَوْكُهُ وَلَا يُنْفَرُ صَيْدُهُ وَلَا يَلْتَقِطُ لُقْطَتُهُ إِلَّا مَنْ عَرَفَهَا وَلَا يُخْتَلَى خَلَاهَا قَالَ الْعَبَّاسُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْإِذْخَرُ فَإِنَّهُ لِقَيْنِهِمْ وَلِبُيُوتِهِمْ فَقَالَ إِلَّا الْإِذْخَرَ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1023/56) It is related on the authority of Abdullah bin Abbas رضي الله عنه that, on the day of the Victory of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ said: "Migration has ceased from today but Jihad and Niyat remain. Start out, at once, when you are called up for Faith." The Prophet ﷺ, further, said: "God has granted sanctity to this town of Makkah from the day on which He created the heavens and the earth. (This sanctity will endure till the end of time). Even before me warfare was forbidden within it, and to me, also, it was allowed (only) for a short time of the day. Now it is forbidden, with the sanctity of Allah, till the Last Day, and, also, any other act which may infringe on the solemnity and sacredness of this place. In it, neither a thorn can be plucked nor a straw broken nor a bird or animal driven for game nor an article (dropped by anyone) picked up except by one who makes an announcement of it, according to law." (Upon it), (the Prophet's  uncle), Abbas, requested that *Izkhar*¹ might be excluded from it as ironsmiths, often, used it and it was, also, needed for making roofs. The Prophet , then, omitted it.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In it, two commands of the sacred Prophet  are mentioned which he had, particularly, given on the day of the Victory of Makkah. The first was that "Migration has ceased from today", in order to understand which it is necessary to know that when, before the Victory of Makkah, the Pagans held sway over it and they were such inveterate enemies of Faith that it was not possible for a Muslim living there to follow his religion, the order was that anyone who embraced Islam in Makkah should, circumstances permitting, migrated from Makkah to Madinah which in those days, was the only sanctuary of Muslims and centre for teaching and learning the Islamic way of life in the world. In those special conditions, anyhow, Migration was a duty and possessed great merit and importance. But as, in the 8th A.H., Islam became supreme in Makkah as well, the need for Migration ended, and, hence, on the day of the victory of Makkah the Prophet  proclaimed that Migration had "ceased". The announcement, naturally, caused much disappointment to those who had only then been favoured with the boon and blessing of Islam but were deprived of the opportunity to have a share in the propitiousness of Migration by the Commandment. As a redress to their grief and regret, the Prophet  observed that though Migration had come to an end, the door of Jihad and of the resolve to obey the Divine laws and readiness to make every sacrifice for the glory of the Word of God was open and everyone could attain the heights of virtue and felicity by means of those endeavours.

The other proclamation made by the Prophet , on that day, was that the sanctity of the city of Makkah which had been coming down the ages was not merely traditional or the brainwave of an individual or group but stemmed from an eternal Command of the Lord. It had been enjoined by God that Makkah should be held in exceptional esteem and reverence till the end of the world. That was why, even Jihad which was worship of a very high order was not permitted in it. It had been allowed only to him and that, too, for a limited time and the permission had ended with the expiry of those few hours and now no one could wage war within it till the Doomsday.

①. A kind of aromatic grass.

(١٠٢٤/٥٧) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَا يَحِلُّ

(رواه مسلم)

لِأَحَدٍ أَنْ يَحْمِلَ بِمَكَّةَ السِّلَاحَ

(1024/57) Jabir رضي الله عنه related that the Prophet ﷺ said: "It is not permitted to a Muslim to take up arms in Makkah." (Muslim)

(١٠٢٥/٥٨) عَنْ أَبِي شُرَيْحٍ الْعَدَوِيِّ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِعَمْرٍو بْنِ سَعِيدٍ وَهُوَ يَبْعَثُ

الْبُعُوثَ إِلَى مَكَّةَ إِنْدَنْ لِي أَتِيهَا الْأَمِيرُ أَحَدْتُكَ قَوْلًا قَامَ بِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى

اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْغَدَ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْفَتْحِ سَمِعْتُهُ أَدْ نَايَ وَوَعَاهُ قَلْبِي وَأَبْصَرَ تَهْ

عَيْنَايَ حِينَ تَكَلَّمَ بِهِ حَمِيدُ اللَّهِ وَآتَنِي عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ إِنَّ مَكَّةَ حَرَمَهَا اللَّهُ وَلَمْ

يُحَرِّمَهَا النَّاسُ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لِأَمْرٍءٍ يَوْمُنْ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ يَسْفِكَ بِهَا دَمًا وَلَا

يَعْضُدُ بِهَا شَجَرَةً فَإِنْ أَحَدٌ تَرَخَّصَ بِقِتَالِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيهَا

فَقُولُوا لَهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ آذَنَ لِرَسُولِهِ وَلَمْ يَأْذَنْ لَكُمْ وَإِنَّمَا آذَنَ لِي فِيهَا سَاعَةً مِنَ

النَّهَارِ وَقَدْ عَادَتْ حُرْمَتُهَا الْيَوْمَ كَحُرْمَتِهَا بِالْأَمْسِ وَلِيُبَلِّغَ الشَّاهِدُ الْغَائِبَ

فَقِيلَ لِأَبِي شُرَيْحٍ مَا قَالَ لَكَ عَمْرٍو؟ قَالَ قَالَ أَنَا أَعْلَمُ بِذَلِكَ مِنْكَ يَا أَبَا

شُرَيْحٍ إِنَّ الْحَرَمَ لَا يُعِيدُ غَاصِيًا وَلَا فَارًا بِدَمٍ وَلَا فَارًا بِخَرَبَةٍ

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1025/58) It is related on the authority of Shurayh Adawi رضي الله عنه that he said to 'Amr bin Sa'eed when (he was the Governor of Makkah during the reign of Yazid, and) was despatching the army (at his command) to invade Makkah (against Abdullah bin al-Zubair رضي الله عنه): "O Amir (i.e., leader)! Permit me to tell you of the proclamation of the Prophet ﷺ had made (in Makkah) on the day following the Victory of Makkah. I had heard it with my own ears and my mind had preserved it and my eyes were seeing him when he gave utterance to it. He (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ), first, praised the Lord, and, then said: 'God has declared Makkah and its outlying territories holy. The decision concerning its sacredness has been taken by Last day, to him it is forbidden to wage war, even to cut down trees, in it.' (The Prophet ﷺ added): 'If anyone sees justification for war in the military operation carried out by me, tell him that God has permitted (it to) the Prophet ﷺ, and He has not permitted it to thee, and to me, also, it was permitted (temporarily) for a short time of the day, and sanctity has returned (to Makkah) after the expiry of that period of time, and now, there is no justification for it till the Day of Resurrection.' (With it, the Prophet ﷺ had, also, said that) 'those who are present and have heard me should convey it to others'. (It is for this reason, O Amir, and in compliance with this command of the Prophet ﷺ that I have communicated it to you)." Someone asked what reply did 'Amr bin Sa'eed ؓ give. Abu Shurayh 'Adawi ؓ replied that Amr bin Sa'eed ؓ said: "O Abu Shurayh! I know (about) these things more than you. Haram does not give protection to the rebel or to a person who runs away after killing anyone unjustly or doing harm to him (i.e., action can be taken against such a man even in Haram)".

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The exploitation of Islam, for selfish ends, by unscrupulous men, and the distortion of its laws and precepts during the first century marks a most painful chapter of its history. Abu Shurayh 'Adawi ؓ who was a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ, did his duty by speaking the truth in front of the Umayyad Governor, Amr bin Sa'eed ؓ, and telling him plainly what the Prophet ﷺ had proclaimed.

It is not mentioned in this Tradition whether Abu Shurayh ؓ had made any comment on the reply given by Amr bin Sa'eed ؓ but in the account of the same incident quoted in Abu Dawood it is added that he had observed: "When the Prophet ﷺ had said it on the day of the Victory of Makkah, I was present while you were not, and he had ordered us that those who were present should communicate it to those who were absent. I have carried out the command of the Prophet ﷺ and transmitted it to you."

The above remark implies that those before whom the sacred Prophet ﷺ had made the proclamation were in a better position to appreciate its meaning and purpose.

(١٠٢٦/٥٩) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَدِيٍّ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ واقفاً على الحزورة فقال والله إنك لخير أرض الله وأحب أرض الله إلى الله ولولا أني أخرجت منك ما خرجت

(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)

(1026/59) It is related by Abdullah bin 'Adi رضی اللہ عنہ that he saw that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was standing on top of Hazawrah¹ and, addressing Makkah, he was saying: "By God! Thou art the best place on God's earth and most beloved in His sight. Had I not been forced to leave thee and migrate I would never have done so."

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It emphasises that Makkah is the best and most sacred place in the world. It is the most beloved town in the sight of God. It could, indeed, not have been otherwise for if the House of Ka'bah not situated in it which is the fore most seat of His epiphany and the eternal Qibla of the Believers and around which the Prophet ﷺ, himself, used to curcumambulate and facing which he offered his prayers (Salah)?

(١٠٢٧/٦٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِمَكَّةَ مَا أَطْيَيْتُكَ مِنْ بَلَدٍ وَأَحْبَبْتُ إِلَيَّ وَلَوْلَا أَنَّ قَوْمِي أَخْرَجُونِي مِنْكَ مَا سَكَنْتُ غَيْرَكَ

(رواه الترمذی)

(1027/60) It is related by Abdullah bin Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, addressing Makkah, said: "What a holy city thou art and how much do I love thee! Had my community not driven me out, I would never have left thee and gone to live at any other place."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: It is not clear from the aforementioned Tradition when had the Prophet ﷺ spoken these words. But as reards Abdullah bin Abbas's رضی اللہ عنہ narrative the commenators believe that it had taken place when the Prophet ﷺ was returning after the Victory of Makkah.

Glory of Madinah

It is the practice of the Scholars to relate the merits of Makkah

①. The name of a low hill in Makkah.

in the chapter of Hajj and follow it with merits of Madinah, we emulate that practice.

(١٠٢٨/٦١) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمَّى الْمَدِينَةَ طَابَةً
(رواه مسلم)
(1028/61) Jabir bin Samurah رضي الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "God has given the name of Taabah to Madinah."
(Muslim)

Commentary: All the three words, Taabah, Teebah and Tayyabah denote sanctity and charm. God named Madinah, Taabah and made it like that. The joy and serenity it imparts to the soul is not equalled by any other place in the world.

(١٠٢٩/٦٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ حَرَّمَ مَكَّةَ فَجَعَلَهَا حَرَامًا وَإِنِّي حَرَّمْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ حَرَامًا مَا بَيْنَ مَا زِمَيْهَا أَنْ لَا يُهْرَاقَ فِيهَا دَمٌ وَلَا يُحْمَلَ فِيهَا سِلَاحٌ وَلَا يُخْبَطَ فِيهَا شَجَرَةٌ إِلَّا لِعَلْفٍ
(رواه مسلم)
(1029/62) It is related by Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام had marked out Makkah as Haram, and I declare Madinah as Haram. The entire territory between the mountain passes on the two sides of it is worthy of respect. Blood must not be shed in it nor arms taken up against anyone nor trees struck for leaves except for the fodder of animals."
(Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that like Makkah, Madinah, too, is deserving of respect and everything inimical to the spirit of sanctity and reverence is forbidden within its limits but the commands for it are not exactly the same as for the Haram of Makkah as is evident from this Tradition as well. In it, while striking the trees for fodders is allowed in Madinah, it is prohibited in Makkah.

(١٠٣٠/٦٣) عَنْ سَعْدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي أُحَرِّمُ مَا بَيْنَ لَابَتَيِ الْمَدِينَةِ أَنْ يُقَطَّعَ عِصَاهُهَا أَوْ يُقْتَلَ صَيْدُهَا وَقَالَ الْمَدِينَةُ خَيْرٌ لَهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ لَا يَدْعُهَا أَحَدٌ رَغْبَةً عَنْهَا إِلَّا أَبَدَلَ اللَّهُ فِيهَا مَنْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنْهُ

وَلَا يَنْبُتُ أَحَدٌ عَلَى لَا وَائِهَا وَجَهْدَهَا إِلَّا كُنْتُ لَهُ شَفِيعًا أَوْ شَهِيدًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ

(رواه مسلم)

(1030/63) It is related by Sa'd bin Abu Waqas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I declare the territory of Madinah between the mountain ranges on both the sides of it as Haram and enjoin that not even its thorny trees be cut down nor the animals living in it killed for game." (He added that "in spite of the scarcity of certain necessities of life) Madinah is good for the people and if they knew how blessed this town is (they would never leave it because of a difficulty or inconvenience). Whoever leaves it of his own accord, God will send, in his place, a bondsman who will be better than him, and whoever will bear the hardness of life patiently and stay in it, I shall intercede for him on the Day of Judgement and give evidence in his favour."

(Muslim)

Commentary: Intercession to get sins forgiven and evidence that he is a righteous believer patiently bearing hardship in Madinah.

(١٠٣١/٦٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَصْبِرُ

عَلَى لَاوَاءِ الْمَدِينَةِ وَشِدَّتِهَا أَحَدٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي إِلَّا كُنْتُ لَهُ شَفِيعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ

(رواه مسلم)

(1031/64) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whichever of my followers will endure patiently the hardship of Madinah, I shall plead, on his behalf, on the Day of Judgement."

(Muslim)

(١٠٣٢/٦٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّاسُ إِذَا رَأَوْا أَوَّلَ الثَّمَرَةِ جَاءُوا بِهِ إِلَى

النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِذَا أَخَذَهُ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مَدِينَتِنَا

وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِي صَاعِنَا وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مَدِينَتِنَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَبْدَكَ

وَخَلِيلَكَ وَنَبِيَّكَ وَإِنِّي عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيَّكَ وَإِنَّهُ دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوكَ

لِلْمَدِينَةِ بِمِثْلِ مَا دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَدْعُوا أَصْغَرَ وَلَيْدٍ لَهُ فَيُعْطِيَهُ

ذَلِكَ الثَّمَرُ

(1032/65) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه related to us that it was the custom of the people (of Madinah) that whenever they saw the first fruit of the season on a tree, they presented it to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ accepted it and prayed: "O God! Grant abundance in our furits and crops. and grant abundance in our city of Madinah, and grant abundance in our Sa'a and Mudd. O God! Ibrahim عليه السلام was Thy chosen bondsman and Thy Friend and Messenger عليه السلام, and I, too, am Thy slave and Messenger عليه السلام. He had implored Thee for Makkah, and I make the same supplication to Thee for Madinah, and with addition." The Prophet ﷺ would, then, call some litle child to him and give him the fruit. (Muslim)

Commentary: Abundance in crop and fruits, apparently, denotes that more and more of them were produced, and abundance in Makkah, that it flourished and there was the favour of Allah on its citizens. Sa'a and Mudd are grain measures and what the supplication here means is that a Sa'a or Mudd of foodgrains sufficed for more people or days than it usually did.

The supplication of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام alluded to in this saying has, also, been mentioned in the Qur'an. When he had settled his small family in the uncultivable valley of Makkah, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام had prayed:

رَبَّنَا فَاجْعَلْ أَفْئِدَةً مِّنَ النَّاسِ تَهْوِي إِلَيْهِمْ وَارْزُقْهُمْ مِّنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَشْكُرُونَ

(ابراهيم ١٤: ٣٧)

(Our Allah)! So incline some hearts of men that may yearn toward them and provide Thou them with fruits in order that they may be grateful. (Ibrahim 14:37)

Referring to Sayyidina Ibrahim's عليه السلام supliation as a precedent, the Prophet ﷺ used to beseech the Lord in the same vein for the people of Madinah. A distinct effect of it is that Believers all over the world have an indential, or, rather , great love for Madinah than Makkah.

The Prophet ﷺ has described Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام "Chosen bondsman, Friend and Messenger of God عليه السلام" while, for himself, he has used the words of "Slave" and "Messenger ", and omitted to say that he was, also, the Beloved of the Lord. This modesty and unpretentiousness was an essential part of his disposition.

The offering of the first fruit of the season to a child contains the lesson that, on such occasions, preference should be given to innocent children.

(١٠٣٣/٦٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ حَتَّى تَنْفَى الْمَدِينَةُ شِرَارَهَا كَمَا يَنْفَى الْكَبِيرُ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيدِ

(رواه مسلم)

(1033/66) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The Hour (of Doom) Shall not be until Madinah has thrown away its vicious elements as the furnace of the ironsmith removes impurities from iron." (Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that before the occurrence of the Last Day Madinah will be purged clean of all the people with despicable beliefs, ideas or morals.

(١٠٣٤/٦٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى أَنْقَابِ الْمَدِينَةِ مَلَائِكَةٌ لَا يَدْخُلُهَا الطَّاعُونَ وَلَا الدَّجَالُ

(رواه البخارى)

(1034/67) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Angels are stationed at the roads leading to Madinah. Plague and *Dajjal*¹ cannot come into it."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In some Traditions it is said about Makkah as well that Dajjal shall not enter it. It is, perhaps, because of the auspiciousness of the prayers made by Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and the sacred Prophet ﷺ for the two cities.

(١٠٣٥/٧٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اسْتَطَاعَ أَنْ يَمُوتَ بِالْمَدِينَةِ فَلْيَمُتْ بِهَا فَإِنِّي أَشْفَعُ لِمَنْ يَمُوتُ بِهَا

(رواه احمد والترمذى)

(1035/68) It is related by Abdullah bin Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever can strive that death comes to him in Madinah should do so (and) die in it. I shall intercede for those who die and are buried in Madinah."

(Musnad Ahmad and Tirmizi)

Commentary: It does not lie in the hands of anyone to die at the place of his choice. But he can wish and pray and, to some extent, try for it. For instance, one can go and take up permanent residence where one wants to die and the chances are that he will die there.

①. The Imposter

The object of this saying is that whoever wants to attain the good fortune of dying in Madinah should make an effort for it, as far as he can. God, indeed, helps those who strive with a sincere heart.

(١٠٣٦/٦٩) عَنْ يَحْيَى ابْنِ سَعِيدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ جَالِسًا وَقَبْرٌ يُحْفَرُ بِالْمَدِينَةِ فَاطَّلَعَ رَجُلٌ فِي الْقَبْرِ فَقَالَ بِنَسْ مَضَجَعَ الْمُؤْمِنِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِنَسْ مَا قُلْتَ قَالَ الرَّجُلُ إِنِّي لَمْ أَرِدْ هَذَا إِنَّمَا أَرَدْتُ الْقَتْلَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا مِثْلَ الْقَتْلِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ مَا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ بُقْعَةً أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ أَنْ يَكُونَ قَبْرِي فِيهَا مِنْهَا ثَلَاثُ مَرَّاتٍ
(رواه مالك مرسلًا)

(1036/69) It is related, by way of Irsal, on the authority of Yahya bin Sa'eed (a Tabaa'ee) that (once) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was sitting in the graveyard of Madinah where the grave (for the burial of a dead body) was being dug. A person looked into the grave and remarked, "It is not a good resting-place for a Muslim." The Prophet ﷺ said: 'You uttered a very wrong thing (i.e., a Muslim died in Madinah and was blessed with burial in it and you say that it was not a good resting-place for him).'" The man replied: "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! I did not mean that (i.e., I did not say that death and burial in Madinah were not good), but what I had in mind was martyrdom in the path of God (i.e., it would have been better had brother not died in bed and was buried in the grave but had been killed in the cause of Allah and his dead body lay in the field of Jihad).'" The Prophet ﷺ observed: "Though it is not equal to martyrdom (i.e., the place of martyrdom, undoubtedly, is very high but to die and be buried in Madinah, also, is a great blessing), there is no place on the face of the earth where it may be more pleasing to me to have my grave." (Malik)

Commentary: The purport of the above Tradition, evidently, is that notwithstanding the superiority of martyrdom and the fact that to die in bed can never be the same as dying in the field of battle for a noble cause, to die in Madinah and be buried in it, also, is a means of great felicity and the Prophet ﷺ desired it for himself.

[After mentioning the sayings concerning the superiority of Madinah, Imam Bukhari brings the chapter to a close with the following supplication of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه:

"O Allah! Bestow upon me martyrdom in Thy path and the good fortune to die and be buried in the holy city of Thy beloved Messenger (i.e., Madinah)."

”اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي شَهَادَةً فِي سَبِيلِكَ وَاجْعَلْ مَوْتِي فِي بَلَدِ رَسُولِكَ“.

The circumstances attending this supplication have been related by Ibn Sa'd with full documentary evidence. He says that Awf bin Maalik Ashja'ee saw in a dream that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had been martyred. On hearing of it, Sayyidina Umar wistfully remarked, "How can I attain martyrdom when I live in the Peninsula of Arabia (all of which has become the House of Islam) and I do not take part in Jihad personally and the bondsmen of the Lord are always surrounding me?" He, then, said by himself, "Why can I not attain martyrdom? If God desires, He will bless me with martyrdom even in this situation." After it, Umar رضي الله عنه made the supplication upon which his daughter and the Prophet's wife, Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها, asked, "How can it be that you are killed in the path of God and your death, also, takes place in Madinah." "If God wills," replied Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, "both the things can happen."

It is, further, mentioned in the various accounts of the above incident that people were surprised at the strange and seemingly impossible supplication of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. When, however, Abu Lulu fatally stabbed him in the Mihrab¹ of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Mosque, they knew how Sayyidina Umar's رضي الله عنه entreaty was destined to be accepted].

Superiority of Masjid Nabawi

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had laid foundation of *Masjid Nabawi*² in Madinah, after Migration. It was here that he regularly offered his prayers (Salah) and it, also, served as the centre of his glorious mission and of all of his efforts and endeavours in the cause of Faith. God has conferred greater eminence and distinction on it than on any other place of worship except Masjid al-Haraam. As ①. Denoting the principal place in the mosque where the Imam stands when he leads the congregation.

②. Meaning the Prophet's Mosque in Madinah.

authentic Traditions have it, the reward on a prayer offered in it is a thousand times greater than in any other mosque.

(١٠٣٧/٧٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَوةٌ

فِي مَسْجِدِي هَذَا خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَلْفِ صَلَوةٍ فِيمَا سِوَاهُ إِلَّا الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1037/70) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A prayer in this mosque of mine is better than a thousand prayers in all the other mosques excluding Masjid al-Haraam.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In this Tradition a prayer in Masjid Nabawi is declared to be superior to a thousand prayers in any other mosque, save Masjid al-Haraam of Makkah, but it is silent on the worth and merit of a prayer in Masjid al-Haraam. the sayings given below, however, make it clear.

(١٠٣٨/٧١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ صَلَوةٌ فِي مَسْجِدِي هَذَا أَفْضَلُ مِنْ أَلْفِ صَلَوةٍ فِيمَا سِوَاهُ مِنَ الْمَسَاجِدِ

إِلَّا الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ وَصَلَوةٌ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ مِائَةِ صَلَوةٍ فِي هَذَا

(رواه احمد)

(1038/71) It is related on the authority of Abdullah bin Zubayr رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A prayer (Salah) in this mosque of mine is superior except Masjid al-Haraam, and a prayer in Masjid al-Haraam is superior to a hundred prayers in this mosque."

(Musnad Ahmad)

(١٠٣٩/٧٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى

فِي مَسْجِدِي أَرْبَعِينَ صَلَوةً لَا تَفَوْتُهُ صَلَوةٌ كُتِبَ لَهُ بَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ النَّارِ وَبَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ

الْعَذَابِ وَبَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ النِّفَاقِ

(رواه احمد والطبراني فى الاوسط)

(1039/72) It is related by Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever offers 40 prayers in succession, without a break, (in this mosque of mine), for him shall be decreed Paradise and deliverance from Hell and from Punishment and, in the same way, from Hypocrisy." (Musnad Ahmad and Tabarani)

Commentary: Some acts lead to exceptional results owing to their pleasureableness in the judgement of Allah. In the above Tradition, glad tidings are given on offering 40 prayers (Salah) consecutively in Masjid Nabawi that about such a bondsman it is written down that he is free from the taint of Hypocrisy and liberation is granted to him from Hell and from every kind of chastisement.

(١٠٤٠/٧٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا بَيْنَ

بَيْتِي وَمِنْبَرِي رَوْضَةٌ مِنْ رِيَاضِ الْجَنَّةِ وَمِنْبَرِي عَلَى حَوْضِي

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1040/73) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The place between my house and pulpit is a garden among the Gardens of Paradise and my pulpit is upon my Pond of Kausar."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: What the phrase, "my pulpit is upon my Pond of Kusar", apparently, signifies that as in this world, the sacred Prophet ﷺ imparted guidance and conveyed the message of God from his pulpit, in the same way, in the Hereafter, from the pulpit that will be installed on the Pond of Kausar, he will offer goblets of benevolence and mercy to those who have accepted the Divine Guidance. Hence, whoever was desirous of drinking the water of Kausar on the Day of Resurrection should step forward and accept the Call that was being given from the Prophet's pulpit and make it his spiritual sustenance in the present existence.

(١٠٤١/٧٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُشَدُّ الرَّحَالُ إِلَّا إِلَى ثَلَاثَةِ مَسَاجِدَ مَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ وَالْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَى

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

وَمَسْجِدِي هَذَا

(1041/74) It is related by Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There are only three mosques in the world, and no other mosque, to which a journey can be made. Masjid al-Haraam (in Makkah), Masjid Aqsa (in Jerusalem), and this mosque of mine (in madinah)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that the distinction that people are permitted to travel for worshipping in them is possessed only by these three mosques. Otherwise, it is forbidden to undertake a journey specifically for offering one's prayers (Salah) in any other mosque in any part of the world.

It should be noted that the above Tradition appertains only to mosques and it has nothing to do with travelling for other legitimate worldly or religious needs like trade, education, preaching and propagation of Faith, and profiting from the company of godly men.

VISITING THE GRAVE OF THE PROPHET

Though visiting the Rawdah of the sacred Prophet ﷺ is not a part of the Hajj, it has been a regular practice from the olden times that when Muslims, particularly from distant lands, come for the Hajj they, also, take the opportunity to pay a visit to the Prophet's ﷺ tomb in Madinah. Thus, in all the standard collections of the Traditions, narratives regarding the visiting of the grave of the Prophet ﷺ are given at the end of Kitab-ul-Hajj (The Book of Pilgrimage), and we shall be following the same practice here as well.

(١٠٤٢/٧٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ حَجَّ

فَزَارَ قَبْرِي بَعْدَ مَوْتِي كَانَ كَمَنْ زَارَنِي فِي حَيَاتِي

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان والطبراني في الكبير والوسط)

(1042/75) It is related by Abdullah bin Umar ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever performed the Hajj, and, then, paid a visit to my grave, after my death, is like those who came to see me in my life-time." (Baihaqi and Tabarani)

Commentary: It is, generally, accepted as true in the Ummah that the holy Prophet ﷺ, in fact all the Divine Prophets, are alive in their luminous graves although there is a difference of opinion on the nature of this existence. It, again, is established by irrefutable evidence and confirmed by the repeated experience of the chosen bondsmen of Allah that the Prophet ﷺ hears the Salaam (i.e., Salutation) of those who address it to him on visiting his grave and responds to it. In that way, to visit the Prophet's ﷺ grave, after his death, and make one's respectful salutation to him is a form of calling at him and saluting him directly and a source of good fortune one ought to try to the utmost to avail oneself of.

(١٠٤٣/٧٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ زَارَ

قَبْرِى وَجَبَتْ لَهُ شَفَاعَتِى (رواه ابن خزيمة فى صحيحه والدارقطنى والبيهقى)

(1043/76) It is related by Abdullah bin Umar ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever paid a visit to my grave, my intercession became due for him." (Ibn Khazeemah, Daar Qutni and Baihaqi)

Commentary: We have already seen the Traditions, earlier denoting that a person cannot, in the real sense, enjoy the fruits of Faith unless one's love for the Prophet ﷺ exceeds his the love he has for anyone else in the world, save God even for his parents, wife and children and for his life, and the visiting of the Prophet's grave in Madinah is a natural consequence of his devotion.

Moreover, the state of the believing heart of the pilgrim at the time of the visit, the renewal of the covenant of Faith, the feeling of sorrow and repentance at his faults and lapses, the surging forth of love for the Prophet ﷺ and its crystallisation into tears under the overwhelming blessedness of adjacency to the Prophet ﷺ — each of these things is so marvellously precious as to lead automatically to intercession by the Prophet ﷺ and even forgiveness by the Lord. Without fail, therefore, every truthful pilgrim to the grave of the Prophet ﷺ will, Insha Allah, be favoured with his intercession on the Day of Reckoning. Should a pilgrim, however, feel none of these emotions, it would mean that his heart was devoid of the effulgence of Faith and the visit was a mere formality.

When we examine, the Traditions exhorting the Believers to visit the grave of the Prophet ﷺ against the background of these advantages, we are induced to believe that whatever one may feel about the documentary evidence of their transmission¹, from the point of view of their intrinsic meaning and purport they are wholly in accord with both the conceptional and practical design of Islam and no right-minded person will have any difficulty in agreeing that the visit to the holy grave of the Prophet ﷺ is immeasurably efficacious for the promotion of love and respect for him and an unfailing source of spiritual advancement.

①. Shaikh Taqiuddin Subki has, in Shifa-us-Siqam (written, according to him in refutation of Ibn Taimiya), quoted a number of Traditions

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى اٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى اٰلِ
اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى اٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى
اٰلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ.

Continued...appertaining to the virtues of visitng the grave of the Prophet ﷺ, foremost among which is the narrative of Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضي الله عنه we have just seen. After thoroughly discussing its various versions and analysing the documentary evidence of its transmission, Sheikh Subki concludes that it, at least, belongs to the class of Hasan, i.e., credible and satisfactory Traditions. On the other hand, Hafiz Abu Abdullah Abdul Hadi Hanbali, a pupil of Ibn Taimiyah remarks in Saarimul Munki, intended to be a rejoinder to Shifa-us-Siqaaam, that all the Traditions mentioned in it are decidedly below the standard of reliability. But he, too, admits that the visitng of the grave of the Prophet ﷺ is a virtuous act, and deserving of Divine reward. He, further points out that this was, also, the way of Imam Ibn Taimiyah and those who attribute to him what is in contrast with it utter a slander against him. Hafiz Abu Abdullah, again, has quoted a Salaam, i.e., a poem conveying one's compliments and greetings, composed by Ibn Taimiyah for the pilgrims to the grave of the Prophet ﷺ which is full of the sentiments of love and reverence.

The most balanced opinion about the grade of Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar's رضي الله عنه report, from the aspect of the chain of its narrators, in our view, is of Zahabi. Referring to it, Mulla Ali Qaari writes in Sharah-i-Shifa "this saying has been related in different ways and there are proofs and verifications on the basis of which Hafiz Zahabi has pronounced it to be apparently worthy of belief." (-Mulla Ali Qaari: Sharh-i-Shifa, Vol. II, p. 149).

كتاب الاذكار والدعوة

KITABUL-AZKAR WADDA'WAT

(BOOK OF AZKAR AND DA'AWAT)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا ذُكِّرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا O

وَسَبِّحُوهُ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا O (الاحزاب ٤١: ٤٢-٤٣)

O You who believe! Remember Allah with much remembrance, and glorify Him morning and evening.

(Al Ahzaab, 33:41-42)

وَادْعُوهُ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا إِنَّ رَحْمَتَ اللَّهِ قَرِيبٌ مِّنَ

الْمُحْسِنِينَ (الاعراف ٥٦: ٤)

Call upon Him in fear and hope. Surely the mercy of Allah is nigh to the good-doers

(Al-Aaraf, 7:56)

In the series of Ma'arif Al Hadith in the Kitab At-Taharah, we have reproduced the words of Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه as found in Hujjat Allah Al Balighah:

"Allah has been most merciful to me in explaining to me that the invitation to success that the Prophets عليهم السلام were sent for is divided into many headings and sub-hearings. However, in spite of the large number of these headings they are divided mainly into four sections Taharah (Purification), Akhbat (humility), Samahat (generosity) and Adalat (justice)."

He has then spoken on each of these four at length so that it becomes clear that indeed Shari'ah is based on these four principles.

In the volume three (Kitab At Taharah) we had only reproduced briefly what he has said on Taharah.

Whatever he has said about Akhbat is reproduced here briefly. Akhbat is to humble oneself Allah.

"It is an open and tacit demonstration before Allah, the Glorious, the Omnipotent, of worship, acquiescence since submission and helplessness in a state of fear and love and a craving for His pleasure and favours."

In other words, it is worship which is the main purpose of the creation of man.

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ (الذريت ٥١:٥٦)

And I have not created the jinn and mankind but to worship Me.

(Az zariyat 51:56)

Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has written in Hujjat Allah Al Baligha under the head Al Insan "For accomplishing the first, the Taharah (punification), we have the commands of Wudu (ablution) and ghusl (Purifying bath) etc. while the second, Akhbat is obtained through prayer Zikr and recital of the Qur'an".

So we may say that remembrance of Allah (Zikr) is the main means to gain Akhbat while prayer and recital of the Qur'an and Du`a are its special forms.

Prayer, mention of Allah and recital of the Qur'an have the object of producing Akhbat in the worshipper. They may, therefore, be bracketed together as of one nature.

We have already presented ahadith of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on prayer in the third volume of this book. In this volume we will present ahadith on Zikr, Du`a and recital of Qur'an. May Allah cause this sinful writer, and the readers of this book to benefit from them and to put them into practice. Aameen.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ZIKR AND ITS BLESSINGS

As we have stated already that in its widest sense Zikr encompasses prayer, recital of the Qur'an, Du'a and istighfar. All these are its forms. However, in common practice and terminology, Zikr is to glorify and sanctify Allah, to mention His unity and majesty, His greatness and omnipotence and His perfect attributes, and to meditate and think on these. We will see in the ahadith to follow that it is a means to attain nearness to Allah and His pleasure, and get spiritual progress and bridge the path to the higher world.

Shaykh Ibn Al-Qayyim has written a very inspiring article in Madarij-As-Salikeen on the subject of Zikr. We will present here a summary of one of its sections for this will help us understand the ahadith on the significance of Zikr that will follow in this book. He has said.

We find the following ten headings in the Qur'an on remembrance of Allah (Zikr).

1. The Believers are particularly commanded in some verses to observe Zikr for instance

O you who believe! Remember Allah with much remembrance, and glorify Him morning and evening (Al Azhab, 33:41-42)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا
كَثِيرًا، وَسَبِّحُوا بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا
(الاحزاب ٤١: ٤٢)

And remember your Lord within yourself with humility and fear. (Al Araf 7:205)

وَادْكُرْ رَبَّكَ فِي نَفْسِكَ
تَضَرُّعًا وَخِيفَةً (الاعراف ٧: ٢٠٥)

2. Some verses severely forbid us to forget Allah and neglect His remembrance. This is another way of laying stress on Zikr. Some of these verses are:

And be not among the heedless
(Al Araf 7:205)

وَلَا تَكُنْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ
(الاعراف ٧: ٢٠٥)

And be not like those who forget Allah, so He makes them forget their own souls
(Al Hader, 59:19)

وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ نَسُوا اللَّهَ
فَأَنسَاهُمْ أَنفُسَهُمْ (الحشر ٥٩: ١٩)

3. Some verses tell us that the secret of success lies in frequently remembering Allah. For instance,

And remember Allah much, that you may prosper.
(Al Jumu'ah 62:10)

وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ
(سورة الجمعة ٦٢: ١٠)

4. Some verses praise those who observe Zikr. They assure them of mercy and forgiveness and a great reward. The characteristics of the Believing men and women are mentioned in surah Al Ahzab, and then it is said:

And the men who remember Allah much and the women who remember — Allah has prepared forgiveness and a mighty reward for them.
(Al Ahzab 33:35)

وَالَّذَاكِرِينَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا
وَالَّذَاكِرَاتِ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً
وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا (الاحزاب ٣٣: ٣٥)

5. Some verses warn those who lose themselves in worldly pursuits and forget Allah that they will be unsuccessful and hopeless. We see in surah Al Munafiqoon, for instance:

O you who believe, let not your children divert you from the remembrance of Allah: and whosoever does that, so those they are the losers.
(Al Munafiqoon 63:10)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَلْهِكُمُ
أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ
اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَلِكَ فَأَلَيْكَ هُمُ
الْخَاسِرُونَ (المنافقون ٦٣: ٩)

6. Allah has also said that those slaves who remember Him, He will remember them.

So remember Me, I shall remember you: and give thanks to Me, and be you not ungrateful to Me.

فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكُرْكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لِي
وَلَا تَكْفُرُونِ O (البقره ٢: ١٥٢)

(Al Baqarah 2: 152)

Glory be to Allah, and praise! what better success and auspiciousness could a slave hope for than that the Creator and Master of all the universe should remember him!

7. Some verses tell us that Zikr, is superior and greater than everything else. It is higher than everything in the universe.

And the remembrance of Allah is the greatest

(Al Ankabut, 29:45)

وَلَدِكُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ (العنكبوت ٤٥:٢٩)

Surely, if a slave gains awareness and knowledge then he knows that Zikr is greater than everything else in the universe.

8. It is mentioned in some verses about the elevated deeds that they should be followed by Zikr, So, remembrance of Allah must form the conclusion of these deeds. For instance, it is said about prayers:

So when you have finished as-Salah (prayers), remember Allah, standing and sitting and reclining on your sides.

(Al Nisa 4:103)

فَإِذَا قَضَيْتُمُ الصَّلَاةَ فَادْكُرُوا اللَّهَ
قِيَامًا وَقُعُودًا وَعَلَىٰ جُنُوبِكُمْ

(النساء ١٠٣:٤)

It is specially mentioned about the Friday prayers.

Then, when as salah (the prayer) is ended, disperse in the land and seek Allah's bounty.
and remember Allah much, that you may prosper (Al Jumah 62:10)

فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي
الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِن فَضْلِ اللَّهِ
وَادْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ
تُفْلِحُونَ

(الجمعة ١٠٦:٦٢)

It is stated about Hajj, the pilgrimage:

And when you have performed your devotional rites, remember Allah, like your remembrance of your forefathers or even with a stronger remembrance.

(Al Baqarah, 2:200)

فَإِذَا قَضَيْتُم مَّنَاسِكَكُمْ فَادْكُرُوا اللَّهَ
كَذِكْرِكُمْ آبَاءَكُمْ أَوْ أَشَدَّ ذِكْرًا

(البقرة ٢:٢٠٠)

These verses tell us that a worshipper is not allowed to neglect Zikr even after such important forms of worship as prayer and Hajj. He must have Allah's remembrance on his lips and in his heart as the concluding act of these forms of worship.

9. Some verses describe those who do not neglect the worship of Allah as intelligent people and men with insight. It clearly means that those who are neglectful of Zikr are deprived of intellect and insight. We are told in surah, Aal Imran:

Surely in the creation of the heavens and the earth and in the alteration of night and day, there are signs for men of understanding who remember Allah, standing and sitting and (lying) on their sides.

(Aal Imran 3:190-191)

إِنَّ فِي خَلْقِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَإِخْتِلَافِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ لآيَاتٍ
لِّأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ الَّذِينَ يَذْكُرُونَ اللَّهَ
قِيَامًا وَقُعُودًا وَعَلَىٰ جُنُوبِهِمْ

(ال عمران ٣: ١٩٠، ١٩١)

10. Some of the verses tell us that the purpose behind the most significant of the righteous deeds and the spirit behind them is remembrance of Allah. For instance, we are told about prayer:

And establish salah for My remembrance (Ta Ha, 20:14)

أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ لِذِكْرِي (طه ٢٠: ١٤)

About the rites of Hajj, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said:

"Indeed the circumambulation of the House, the walk between as safa and Al Marwah and the casting of pebbles at the Jimar are appointed only for the remembrance of Allah"

(Abu Dawood # 1883)

إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ الطَّوَافُ بِالْبَيْتِ
وَالسَّعْيُ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ
وَرَمَى الْجِمَارِ لِإِقَامَةِ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ

And Allah has said about jihad:

O you who believe, whenever you encounter a host (of the enemy in battle), then stand firm, and remember Allah much, that you may triumph.

(Al Anfal, 8:45)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا لَقِيتُمْ فِئَةً
فَاتَّبِعُوا وَادْكُرُوا اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ
تُفْلِحُونَ (الأنفال ٨: ٤٥)

We also learn from a hadith qudsi (a hadith that is traced to Allah):

Indeed, My slave — the perfect slave is he who remembers Me even when he meets his enemy in battle.

(Tirmizi)

إِنَّ عَبْدِي كُلَّ عَبْدِي الَّذِي
يَذْكُرُنِي وَهُوَ مُلَاقٍ قَرْنَهُ

These texts of the Qur'an and ahadith make it clear that the spirit behind, all deeds ranging from prayer to jihad, is remembrance of Allah (Zikr). It is Zikr and the mention of Allah by the heart and lips that is a sign of nearness to Allah which causes anyone who gets it to become close to Allah, a friend of Allah. He who does not get that attitude distances himself from Allah and is foresaken and lonely. Zikr is food for the hearts of men of Allah and source of life and if they do not get it their bodies are graves for their hearts. In Zikr lies the survival of hearts and if hearts are deprived of it, they become desolate. Zikr is the weapon with which they confront the highwaymen of spiritualism, and it is the cool water with which they extinguish the fire within them. It is the medicine for their ills and if they will not get it, their hearts begin to crumble. And Zikr indeed is the bond between them and their Lord, knower of the secrets. Someone has said very well

إِذَا مَرَضْنَا تَدَاوَيْنَا بِذِكْرِكَمُ فَتَرَكُ الذِّكْرَ أَحْيَانًا فَتَنَكُّسُ

"When we fall ill we find cure in Your remembrance, and when we become neglectful of remembering you we begin to die".

Just as Allah enlightened the seeing eyes with sight and glow so too He has adorned the tongues that remember with Zikr. The tongue that neglects remembrance of Allah is like the eye that is deprived of sight, or the ear that is deaf, or the hand that is paralysed.

Remembrance of Allah is the only door that is left open between Allah and His slave through which the slave can make it to His elevated court. But, if a slave is neglectful of Zikr then the door is shut. What beautiful words are these that someone has spoken:

فَنَسِيَانُ ذِكْرَ اللَّهِ مَوْتُ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَأَجْسَامُهُمْ قَبْلَ الْقُبُورِ قُبُورُ
وَأَرْوَاحُهُمْ فِي وَخْشَةٍ مِّنْ جُسُومِهِمْ وَلَيْسَ لَهُمْ حَتَّى النُّشُورِ نُشُورُ

"To be forgetful of Zikr of Allah is death for thier hearts. Their bodies are graves for their dead hearts even before the earthly graves. And their souls are strictly tired of their bodies, and there is no life for them before Qiyamah and Hashr".

(summarised form Madarij As Salikeen, Ibn Qayyim). Let me submit that apart from the ten headings of Zikr suggested in the foregoing quotation from Ibn Qayyim, the Qur'an has urged its readers to engage in Zikr through other headings too. For instance, we learn from it that the hearts (of those people who keep contact with Allah) find peace and comfort in Zikr alone.

أَلَا يَذْكُرُ اللَّهُ تَطْمَئِنُّ الْقُلُوبُ (الرعد ١٣: ٢٨)

Behold in the remembrance of Allah, hearts do find satisfaction

(Ar Rad, 13:28)

We may also go on reading a few quotations from another scholar and a Sufi, author of Tarsee Al Jawahir Al Makkiyah for these would be helpful in understanding the ahadith that are to follow.

"Of all forms of obedience and worship, remembrance of Allah (Zikr) is the quickest way to enlighten hearts and make conducts praise worthy.

Allah has said it Himself:

Surely as salah (prayer) forbids indecency and evil. And the remembrance of Allah is the greatest (consolation of soul).

(Al Ankaboot 29:45)

إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ تَنْهَى عَنِ الْفَحْشَاءِ
وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَلَذِكْرُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ.

(العنكبوت ٤٥: ٢٩)

Our elders have said. "The utility of Zikr in cleaning hearts is like that of sand in cleaning copper while that of other forms of worship in cleaning hearts may be compared to soap in cleaning copper". (Taseer` al Jawahir al Makkiyah)

The preliminary discourse over, let us now read the valuable sayings of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about the significance and blessings of Zikr or remembrance of Allah.

(١٠٤٤/١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ وَ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَقْعُدُ قَوْمٌ يَذْكُرُونَ اللَّهَ إِلَّا حَفَّتْهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَغَشِيَتْهُمُ الرَّحْمَةُ وَنَزَلَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّكِينَةُ وَذَكَرَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِيمَنْ عِنْدَهُ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1044/1) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abu Saeed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said "Whenever and wherever people sit and remember Allah, angels surround them surely, mercy of Allah covers them, peace descends on them and Allah mentions them among the angels who are near to Him.

(Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith tells us very clearly that if some people gather together at any place and mention Allah then there are special blessings of Allah on them. Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has explained this hadith, saying:

"There is no doubt at all that the gathering together of Muslims and remembering Allah is a distinct means of attracting mercy and tranquility, and the angels are drawn near".

(Hajjat Allah Al Balighah)

This hadith mentions four distinct blessings for those who remember Allah.

1. The angels of Allah surround them from all sides.
2. The mercy of Allah envelops them under its shade and embrace.

As a necessary corollary of these two blessings, they receive the third.

3. Peace descends on their hearts which is among the greatest of blessings. Sakeenah, which has been rendered peace in this passage is truly solace and satisfaction of the heart and spiritual tranquillity which is a special favour from Allah for His dearest slaves. The mystics call this condition جمعيت قلبي (Jami'at Qalbi) or peace of heart. This blessing is sensed by him on whom it descends.
4. Allah mentions His slaves who remember Him to His angels who are near to Him. For instance, He says "Look! These too are my slaves from the children of Aadam who have not seen Me and yet believe in Me. Not only that, look, with what love and fear and eager desire they remember Me. Surely, if the Master of the kingdoms remembers anyone in this way before His close angels then that is the biggest of blessings beyond which no other bounty, favour or blessing can be imagined. May Allah not let us be deprived of that.

Observation: There is an indication in this hadith that if anyone does not get the feeling of peace in his heart after observing Zikr then he must know that he has not yet attained the station which entitles anyone to these blessings. Or, there are some deficiencies within him which obstruct receipt of blessings. So, he must work to reform himself for the promises of the Lord are always true.

(١٠٤٦/٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ مُعَاوِيَةُ عَلَى حَلَقَةٍ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَقَالَ مَا أَجَلَسَكُمْ قَالُوا جَلَسْنَا نَذْكُرُ اللَّهَ قَالَ اللَّهُ مَا أَجَلَسَكُمْ إِلَّا ذَالِكُ؟ قَالُوا اللَّهُ مَا أَجَلَسْنَا غَيْرَهُ قَالَ أَمَا إِنِّي لَمْ أَسْتَحْلِفْكُمْ تَهْمَةً لَكُمْ وَمَا كَانَ أَحَدٌ بِمَنْزِلَتِي مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَقَلَّ عَنْهُ حَدِيثًا مِنِّي وَإِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ عَلَى حَلَقَةٍ مِنْ أَصْحَابِهِ فَقَالَ مَا أَجَلَسَكُمْ هُنَا قَالُوا جَلَسْنَا نَذْكُرُ اللَّهَ وَنُحَمِّدُهُ عَلَى مَا هَدَانَا لِلْإِسْلَامِ وَمَنْ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا قَالَ اللَّهُ مَا أَجَلَسَكُمْ إِلَّا ذَالِكُ؟ قَالُوا اللَّهُ مَا أَجَلَسْنَا إِلَّا ذَالِكُ قَالَ أَمَا إِنِّي لَمْ أَسْتَحْلِفْكُمْ تَهْمَةً لَكُمْ وَلَكِنَّهُ أَتَانِي جِبْرِيلُ فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ يُبَاهِي بِكُمْ الْمَلَائِكَةَ

(رواه مسلم)

(1045/2) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-khudri رضي الله عنه has narrated that Sayyidina Muawiyah رضي الله عنه found a circle of men in the mosque. He asked them why they sat together and when they said that they had sat down to remember Allah, he asked them, "I adjure you by Allah, is there no other reason for your sitting together? They said "By Allah, there is nothing else but to remember Allah that we are sitting here." He said, "You must realise that I did not adjure you because I suspected you. The truth is that in my position with relation to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, no one has narrated fewer ahadith than I have. (I am very careful in transmitting a hadith, more careful than other people, but I will now narrate to you a hadith and had adjured you in abiding by it). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ went out to a circle of his Companions رضي الله عنهم and asked them what had made them sit there. They replied that they had sat down to remember Allah and they praised and thanked him for guiding them to Islam and thus bestowing on them a great favour. He reiterated his question. "I adjure by Allah, has nothing else prompted you to sit together?" They said. "By Allah, we are sitting here for that purpose only and are remembering Allah. "The Prophet ﷺ said, "You must know that I did not adjure you because I suspected you, but Jibril عليه السلام came to me telling me that Allah speaks of you proudly to the angels." (Muslim)

Commentary: The sitting together of the slaves of Allah to remember Him sincerely and mention Him and recall His favours with praise is very dear to Allah. He then expresses His pleasure before His close angels. اللهم اجعلنا منهم (O Allah! Cause us to be of them!)

(١٠٤٦/٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

تَعَالَى يَقُولُ أَنَا مَعَ عَبْدِي إِذَا ذَكَرَنِي وَتَحَرَّكَتْ بِي شَفَتَاهُ (رواه البخارى)

(1046/3) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that Allah, the Exalted, has said. "I am with My slave when he remembers Me and his lips move mentioning Me." (Bukhari)

Commentary: Allah is near everyone and everything in this universe, good or bad, a believer or an unbeliever. Nothing is ever distant from Him. He surrounds everything and He is there every moment and sees always. But there is also another way in which Allah is with anyone. This is a hadith qudsi and it speaks of Allah being with one who remembers Him and it means that He is pleased and approves (and is with His slave in this way too). The hadith means to say that if a slave of Allah remembers Him so that he may be near to Him and to receive His pleasure then he gets the nearness and pleasure immediately. "He remembers Me out of love for Me and I am then right with him." In this way, he gets the wealth promptly which he hopes to get through Zikr. May Allah let us crave for this wealth and have it promptly!

(١٠٤٧/٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ اللَّهُ

تَعَالَى أَنَا عِنْدَ ظَنِّ عَبْدِي بِي وَأَنَا مَعَهُ إِذَا ذَكَرَنِي فَإِنْ ذَكَرَنِي فِي نَفْسِهِ ذَكَرْتُهُ فِي نَفْسِي وَإِنْ ذَكَرَنِي فِي مَلَأٍ ذَكَرْتُهُ فِي مَلَأٍ خَيْرٍ مِنْهُمْ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1047/4) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that Allah says, "I live in the thought of My slave as he thinks of Me and I am with him when he remembers Me. If he remembers Me inwardly, I shall remember him inwardly. If he remembers Me among an assembly, I shall remember him among an assembly that is better than they are". (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The first sentence of the hadith اِنَاعَنهُ ظَفَرُ عَبْدِي بِي (I live in the thought of My slave as he thinks of Me) means, "I will treat My slave exactly as he will believe about Me. "For instance, if he imagines Allah to be Merciful and Benevolent then he will find that Allah is indeed Merciful and Benevolent. Hence, we must have a good conception about Him and behave accordingly. The last Portion of the hadith that if a slave remembers Allah in private without anyone knowing about it then Allah's blessings on him too will be bestowed quietly without anyone knowing. If he mentions Allah in public (inviting the people to Islam and preaching to them) then Allah lets the angels know about His connection with that slave and His approval of him, and the slave of Allah then receives general acclaim and approval in the world.

It is a result of this practice of Allah that the great saints, who conceal their links with Allah, lead an unknown life and do not receive acclaim in the world although they have earned the approval of Allah. On the other hand, those whose links with Allah are known universally and they openly invite people to religion are recipients of wide acclaim in the world.

(١٠٤٨/٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسِيرُ فِي طَرِيقِ مَكَّةَ فَمَرَّ عَلَى جَبَلٍ يُقَالُ لَهُ جَمْدَانُ فَقَالَ سِيرُوا هَذَا جَمْدَانُ سَبَقَ الْمَفَرِّدُونَ قَالُوا وَمَا لِمُفَرِّدُونَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ الذَّاكِرُونَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ (رواه مسلم)

(1048/5) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was travelling along the path leading to Makkah when he passed by a mountain called Jumdan. He said "Proceed on, this is Jumdan, Mufarridoon have gone ahead". Some one asked, "Messenger of Allah! Who are the Mufarridoon?" He said, "Those men who remember Allah often and those" women who remember Him." (Muslim)

Commentary: Jamdan is a mountain a day's distance from Madinah. It is learnt from a number of ahadith that when Zikr (mention of Allah) is made on any portion of earth, it does recognise and sense the Zikr. Accordingly, we know from a hadith that a mountain asks another "Did anyone go over you today, taking the Name of Allah?" when it affirms that someone did pass who remembered Allah, the first mountain congratulates the second over which such a person passed. It seems that while passing by Jumdan, the facts were disclosed to Messenger of Allah ﷺ that the men and women who remember Allah frequently have attained high stations of approval and pleasure and progressed much ahead. So he said that the Mufarridoon — those who remember Allah much — have gone ahead. The dictionary meaning of mufarridoon, (plural of mufarrid) is those who "Single themselves out" "separate themselves". Hence, it refers to those people who set themselves apart from the hustle and bustle of the world in their pursuit of nearness to Allah and His pleasure. They sever all ties and single themselves out for the sake of Allah. This is the station of Tafreed (singularity, uniqueness). In the terminology of the Qur'an this is تَبَلَّ (Tabattul), to "detach oneself from wordly things and devote oneself entirely to Allah."

وَاذْكُرْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ وَتَبَلَّلْ إِلَيْهِ تَبَيُّلاً (المزمل ٧٣:٨)

And remember the Name of your Lord and devote yourself to Him very devoutly. (Al Muzammil, 73:8)

Thus, the words اَلَّذَاكِرُونَ اللّٰهَ كَثِيْرًا وَالَّذَاكِرَاتُ (the men and women who remember Allah often) apply to the slaves who detach themselves from everything and devote themselves to Allah alone.

Significance of Zikr, In Relation to Other Deeds

(١٠٤٩/٦) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ رَضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِخَيْرٍ اَعْمَالِكُمْ وَاَزْكَاهَا عِنْدَ مَلِيْكِكُمْ وَاَرْفَعُهَا فِيْ دَرَجَاتِكُمْ وَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ مِنْ اِنْفَاقِ الدَّهَبِ وَالْوَرَقِ وَخَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ مِنْ اَنْ تَلْقَوْا عَدُوَّكُمْ فَتَضْرِبُوْا اَعْنَاقَهُمْ وَيَضْرِبُوْا اَعْنَاقَكُمْ؟ قَالُوْا بَلَى قَالَ ذِكْرُ اللّٰهِ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى وابن ماجه)

(1049/6) Sayyidina Abu Ad Darda رضي الله عنه said, "Shall I not tell you the best of your deeds and the purest in the estimation of your Master, through which your ranks are raised highest, better for you than spending gold and silver and better for you than that you meet your enemy and Allah's enemy and kill them and they kill you?" They said, "Yes, Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Do show us this precious deed." He said, "It is to remember Allah (Zikr)."

(Ahmad, Tirmi, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: This hadith is really an explanation of the verse of the Qur'an

وَلَذِكْرُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ (العنكبوت ٤٥:٢٩)

And the remembrance of Allah is the greatest (Al Ankaboot, 28:45)

Surely, remembrance of Allah is the greatest by its nature and reality for the noblest objective which is to secure the pleasure of Allah and nearness to Him. This statement does not contradict the significance of other deeds on certain occasions, like sadaqah, spending for the sake of Allah, fighting for His sake, and so on. A deed may be more meritorious and important from one angle, and another deed from another angle.

The two next ahadith related by Abu Sa'eed Al Khudri ؓ and Abdullah bin Umar ؓ are of similar import. In fact, these ahadith are a commentary on one another.

(١٠٥٠/٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سُئِلَ أَيُّ الْعِبَادِ أَفْضَلُ؟ وَارْفَعَ دَرَجَةً عِنْدَ اللَّهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ؟ قَالَ الذَّاكِرُونَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ، قِيلَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَمِنَ الْغَارِزِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ لَوْ ضَرَبَ بِسَيْفِهِ فِي الْكُفَّارِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ حَتَّى يَنْكَسِرَ وَيَخْتَضِبَ دَمًا فَإِنَّ الذَّاكِرَ لِلَّهِ أَفْضَلُ مِنْهُ دَرَجَةً

(رواه احمد والترمذی)

(1050/7) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al Khudri ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked who would be most excellent and most exalted in the sight of Allah on the Day of Resurrection (as regards the deeds that one performs). He said, "The men and women who remember Allah often (they will gain excellence and ranks on the Day of Resurrection)." He was asked, "Would they be superior even to him who fought in the path of Allah?" He said, "even if he plied his sword among infidels and polytheists till it was broken and smeared with blood, the one who made mention of Allah would have a more excellent degree than he."

(Ahmad, Tirmizi)

(١٠٥١/٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ صِقَالَةٌ وَصِقَالَةُ الْقُلُوبِ ذِكْرُ اللَّهِ وَمَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ أَنْجَى مِنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ قَالُوا وَلَا الْجِهَادُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ قَالَ وَلَا أَنْ يُضْرَبَ بِسَيْفِهِ حَتَّى يَنْقَطِعَ
(رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1051/8) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ used to say, "Every thing has a polish, and the polish for hearts is remembrance of Allah. Nothing is as effective in rescuing from the punishment of Allah as remembrance of Allah". He was asked whether this did not apply also to jiḥād, in the path of Allah. He said. "Not even if one should ply his sword till it is broken. (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The fact is that of all the righteous deeds, Zikr (remembrance of Allah) is the most meritorious and the dearest in the estimation of Allah. The nearness to Allah that a worshipper senses and the auspiciousness that he derives at the time of remembrance of Allah are lacking when he performs any other deed provided his remembrance is with concentration and a realisation of Allah's greatness and with love and.

Allah has said

فَاذْكُرُونِي أَذْكُرْكُمْ (البقرة ١٥٢:٢)

So remember Me, I shall remember you (Al Baqarah, 2:152)

The words of a hadith qudsi are:

أَنَا جَلِيسٌ مَنْ ذَكَرَنِي، وَأَنَا مَعَ عَبْدِي إِذَا ذَكَرَنِي وَتَحَرَّكَتْ بِي شَفَتَاهُ

I sit with My slave who remembers Me.

(and) I am with My slave when he remembers Me and moves his lips with remembrance.

While Zikr is the most excellent and the dearest of all deeds, we must bear in mind that prayer, recital of the Qur'an (and so on) are incuded in its definition.

The Excellence of Zikr By The Tongue

(١٠٥٢/٩) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُسَيْرٍ قَالَ جَاءَ أَعْرَابِيٌّ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَيُّ النَّاسِ خَيْرٌ؟ فَقَالَ طُوبَى لِمَنْ طَالَ عُمْرُهُ وَحَسُنَ عَمَلُهُ قَالَ يَا

رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَيُّ الْأَعْمَالِ أَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ أَنْ تَفَارِقَ الدُّنْيَا وَلِسَانُكَ رَطْبٌ مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ.
(رواه أحمد والترمذی)

(1052/9) Sayyidina Abdullah bin Busr رضی اللہ عنہ has said that a desert Arab came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him who was the best among men (meaning, who could expect a successful next life.) He said "Those are happy whose lives are long and deeds are good". Then he asked, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ, which deed is most excellent?" He said, "That you leave this world while your tongue is fresh with remembrance of Allah". (Ahmad, Tirmizi)

Commentary: Whatever the Holy Prophet ﷺ said in reply to the first question means that the longer a man lives, the more he will do righteous deeds, and if he does that then he will progress that much and he will be entitled to as much pleasure and mercy of Allah. In answer to the second question, the Prophet ﷺ said that his tongue should be moist with mention of the name of Allah till he dies but particularly at the last moment. He should be repeating the name of Allah with eagerness and relish. This deed and such a condition is very dear and valuable and one who realises that would be willing to pay all he owns to get it. Obviously, only he may hope to achieve the distinction who has devoted himself to remembrance of Allah all his life so that Zikr is the nourishment of his soul.

(١٠٥٣/١٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُسْرِ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ أَبْوَابَ الْخَيْرِ كَثِيرَةٌ وَلَا أَسْتَطِيعُ الْقِيَامَ بِكُلِّهَا فَأَخْبِرْنِي عَنْ شَيْئٍ أَتَشَبُّهُ بِهِ وَلَا تُكْثِرْ عَلَيَّ فَإِنْسَى قَالَ لَا يَزَالُ لِسَانُكَ رَطْبًا مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1053/10) Sayyidina Abdullah bin Busr رضی اللہ عنہ has narrated that someone said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. "There are too many virtuous deeds for anyone to do and it is beyond me to perform all of them, so tell me of something to which I may cling strongly (and that should be enough for me): And, whatever you recommend should not be too much for me, for I might forget it." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Let your tongue continue to be supple by mention of the name of Allah." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ advised him that it was enough for him to succeed that his tongue should be occupied with remembrance of Allah.

(١٠٥٤/١١) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْثِرُوا ذِكْرَ اللَّهِ حَتَّى يَقُولُوا مَجْنُونُونَ.
(رواه احمد وابويعلی)

(1054/11) It is related by Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said "Make mention of Allah frequently, so often that people may call you mad." (Ahmad, Abi Ya'la)

Commentary: The people of this world are deprived of relationship with Allah so that when they see a man of Allah who is blessed with this wealth and he shows unconcern to the world but devotion to Allah then according to their standards these people suppose that he is mad. The truth, however, is that they are the ones who are mad, not he.

To Neglect Zikr is To Regret

(١٠٥٥/١٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَعَدَ مَقْعَدًا لَمْ يَذْكُرِ اللَّهَ فِيهِ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ تَبَرَةٌ وَمَنْ اضْطَجَعَ مَضْجَعًا لَا يَذْكُرُ اللَّهَ فِيهِ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ تَبَرَةٌ
(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1055/12) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying "If anyone sits at a place where he fails to remember Allah deprivation and loss will descend on him from Allah because of that neglectful sitting. And if anyone lies down somewhere and fails to remember Allah there then that lying down will bring on him deprivation and loss from Allah." (Abu Dawood)

(١٠٥٦/١٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُكْثِرْ وَالْكَلَامَ بِغَيْرِ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّ كَثْرَةَ الْكَلَامِ بِغَيْرِ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ قَسْوَةٌ لِلْقَلْبِ وَإِنَّ أَبْعَدَ النَّاسِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْقَلْبُ الْقَاسِي
(رواه الترمذی)

(1056/13) Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar ؓ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said "Do not speak much without mentioning Allah for much speech without mention of Allah produces hardness of heart. And he is the farthest from Allah who has a hard heart." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The man who is used to speaking without mentioning Allah will be hard hearted. His heart will be deprived of feelings and light and he will lack nearness to Allah and His mercy. اعاذنا الله منه (O Allah, protect us from that:)

THE WORDS OF ZIKR AND THEIR BLESSINGS

Just as he has encouraged us to observe Zikr (remembrance of Allah), so too the Prophet ﷺ has told us what phrases to use in Zikr. If he had not done that, many of us might not have done justice to this worship because of lack of knowledge and awareness. We might have done the wrong thing instead of praising Allah. The people of Prophet Musa (عليه السلام) and the shepherd narrated by Rumi is an example of what we fear.

The words and phrases taught by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ fall into the following classes.

- (i) They bring out the purity and sanctity of Allah. (That he is free of blemish of every kind). سبحان الله brings that out, for instance (meaning, Allah is without blemish).
- (ii) They praise and glorify Allah (that all the good things are found in Him and all the perfect attributes belong to Him so only He is worthy of praise). الحمد لله (All praise belongs to Allah) is an example of this class.
- (iii) They speak of the Unity of Allah and His Oneness. This is found in لا اله الا الله (There is no god but Allah).
- (iv) They express the high and elevated nature of Allah. He is far above what we think of Him, more superior than our imagination of Him. الله اكبر (Allah is the Greatest) is exactly what we mean by this class.
- (v) They confirm that only He is the One who does everything, there is nothing anyone else can do. Hence, He is the only One whose help should be sought and who should be relied upon. The words that say these things are لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله (There is no power and might save with Allah).

In addition to such words and phrases, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has perfect Arifs (mystics, who have intimate knowledge of Allah) have assested that these four phrases have not missed the meaning of anyone of the Asma Al Husna (Beautiful Names of Allah) which reflect all the attributes of Allah. For example, Allah's Names القدوس (Al Quddus), السلام (As-salam), الطاهر (Al Tahir) which assert that He is without any blemish or defect are covered in the meaning of سبحان الله (Subhan Allah). Similarly, His Names الرحمن (Al Rehman), الرحيم (Al Reheem), الكريم (Al Kareem), العليم (Al Aleem), القدير (Al Qadeer), السميع (As Sami), البصير (Al Baseer), العزیز (Al Azeez), الحكيم (Al Hakeem) and such others which reflect on His attributes which He Possesses and are known as Positive are all encompassed within الحمد لله (Al-Hamdulillah). Again, His Names which point out to His Unity like الواحد (Al Wahid) and الاحد (Al Ahad) are found in لا اله الا الله (Laa ilaha illal lah). On the same line of discussion His Names like العلي (Al Aliyy), الاعلى (Al A'la), الكبير (Al Kabeer), المتعالی (Al Muta'alee) which mean that He is far above and higher than what anyone ever imagined are expressed in الله اكبر (Allahu Akbar).

Thus anyone who says these words sincerely, in fact recalls every praise and attribute of Allah, and affirms all the perfect attributes contained in the asma al husna سبحان الله والحمد لله ولا اله الا الله والله اكبر.

Therefore, these four phrases are superior to the entire universe in respect of their value and greatness.

Those People who have the power of faith know this fact very well. May Allah grant us that level of faith.

(١٠٥٩/١٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ عَلَى شَجَرَةٍ يَأْسِيَةِ الْوَرْقِ فَضَرَبَهَا بِعَصَاهُ فَتَنَازَرَتِ الْوَرْقُ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ لِلَّهِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ تُسَاقِطُ ذُنُوبُ الْعَبْدِ كَمَا يَتَسَاقِطُ وَرَقُ هَذِهِ الشَّجَرَةِ

(رواه الترمذی)

(1059/16) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ passed before a tree whose leaves had dried up. He showed its branches with his staff and the dried leaves fell on the ground. (His companions saw that). So, he said, "The words

سبحان الله والحمد لله ولا اله الا الله والله اكبر

(Glori be to Allah, all praise belongs to Allah. There is no God but Allah, and Allah is the most Great) shed away the sins of a slave just as you see the leaves of this tree being shed." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Qur'an also tells us of the peculiarity of pious deeds that they efface sins. Allah said:

إِنَّ الْحَسَنَاتِ يُذْهِبْنَ السَّيِّئَاتِ (هود ١١:١١٤)

Surely good deeds will drive away the erildeeds (Hud,11:114)

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has mentioned prayer and sadaqah, (charity) in particular as instrumental as hearing this characteristic, he has also mentioned other righteous deeds in this connection. In the above hadith he has disclosed that these phrases have the characteristic of removing a man's sins. He explained that to his Companions ﷺ by striking his staff at the tree. May Allah cause us to realise these truths and to derive benefit from these four phrases.

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ
سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ فِي يَوْمٍ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ حُطَّتْ خَطَايَاهُ وَ إِنْ كَانَتْ مِثْلَ
زَبَدِ الْبَحْرِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1060/17) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ﷺ has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that if anyone says a hundred times a day

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ

(Glory be to Allah, and I begin with praise to Him), then his sins will be forgiven for him even if they are like the foam of the sea.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The meaning of سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ is the same as سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ, that is, Allah is without blemish and pure of all that is not worthy of Him and He is sanctified and pure of whatever smacks of fault or defect even a little bit. At the same time, these two phrases confirm that He possesses all qualities of perfect nature. This hadith tells us that if anyone repeats these two words a hundred times a day then all his sins are removed though they may be as the foam of sea — limitless and uncountable. Just as bright light drives away darkness and severe heat dries down moisture, so too piety exterminates the filth of sin. However, we have emphasised often in this book that when the Qur'an or the ahadith speak of piety removing sins, it does not include the kabirah (grave) sins. The grave sins are forgiven only through tawbah, (repentance) and istighfar (seeking forgiveness). But Allah knows best.

(١٠٦١/١٨) عَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّ الْكَلَامِ

أَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ مَا أَصْطَفَى اللَّهُ لِمَلَائِكَتِهِ "سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ" (رواه مسلم)

(1061/18) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Zarr Al-Ghifari رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked, "Which words are most excellent? He said, "What Allah has chosen for His angels and I begin with praise of Him." (Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith discloses to us that the Zikr of the angels is سبحان الله وبحمده and these words are described as most excellent while the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Samurah bin Jundub رضي الله عنه describes سبحان الله والحمد لله ولا اله الا الله والله اكبر as the most excellent words as we have seen earlier. Yet another hadith tells us that لا اله الا الله is the best of Zikr. Nevertheless, there is no inconsistency in these three different statements. The truth is that these phrases are more excellent than every other phrase and more dear to Allah.

(١٠٦٢/١٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَلِمَتَانِ

خَفِيفَتَانِ عَلَى اللِّسَانِ ثَقِيلَتَانِ فِي الْمِيزَانِ حَبِيبَتَانِ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ

وَبِحَمْدِهِ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ الْعَظِيمِ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1062/19) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "There are two expressions which are light on the tongue but heavy in the scale and very dear to Allah سبحان الله وبحمده (Glory be to Allah and I begin with praise to Him, and Glory be to Allah, the Omnipotent)".

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It is easy to understand how these two expressions might be light on the tongue and also that they may be dear to Allah: But, it might not be easy for some people to understand how they would weigh heavily in the balance. The truth is that just as material substances may be weighed as light or heavy. So too such things as are not physical bodies may be light or heavy and just as the former have an instrument to weigh them the latter too are weighed or measured in an instrument suitable for that purpose. Thus temperature is not a physical substance yet it can be measured by a thermometer. In the same way, on the Day of Resurrection, the Name of Allah will be weighed, phrases of Zikr will be weighed, recital of the Qur'an will be weighed, prayer will be weighed and faith, fear of Allah and love for Him will be weighed. All these things will be weighed or measured. It will become very clear at that time that some of the very easy expressions will be considerably heavy.

We learn from another hadith that the Prophet ﷺ said:

لَا يَزَنُ مَعَ اسْمِ اللَّهِ شَيْءٌ

"Nothing will be comparable to the Name of Allah in weight".

(لا يثقل) (Timizi)

The meaning of the expression is: سبحان الله وبحمده . سبحان الله العظيم

"Glory be to Allah and I begin with His praise. Glory be to Allah the incomparably Great."

(١٠٦٣/٢٠) عَنْ جُوَيْرِيَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ مِنْ عِنْدَهَا بُكْرَةً حِينَ صَلَّى الصُّبْحَ وَهِيَ فِي مَسْجِدِهَا ثُمَّ رَجَعَ بَعْدَ أَنْ أَضْحَى وَهِيَ جَالِسَةٌ قَالَتْ مَا زِلْتُ عَلَى الْحَالِ الَّذِي فَارَقْتُكِ عَلَيْهَا؟ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ قُلْتُ بَعْدَكَ أَرْبَعَ كَلِمَاتٍ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ لَوْ رَزَنْتَ بِمَا قُلْتُ مِنْذُ الْيَوْمِ لَوَزَنْتَهُنَّ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ عَدَدَ خَلْقِهِ وَزِنَةَ عَرْشِهِ وَرَضِي نَفْسِهِ وَمِدَادَ كَلِمَاتِهِ (رواه مسلم)

(1063/20) The Mother of the faithful, Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضي الله عنها said that the Prophet ﷺ went out one morning at the time he offered the fajr prayer while she kept sitting at her place of worship reciting something. Then he returned at the time to the chasht prayers (forenoon) and found her seated on the prayer rug as when he had left her in the morning. So, he asked her, "Is it that you are sitting here as you were when I left you?" She answered in the affirmative and he said. "Since learning you, I have said four expressions three times which, if weighed against all you have said today, would prove heavier. Those four expressions are:

سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ عَدَدَ خَلْقِهِ وَزِنَةَ عَرْشِهِ وَرَضَىٰ نَفْسِهِ وَمِدَادَ كَلِمَاتِهِ

(Glory be to Allah, and with praise for Him equal to the number of His creatures, as weighty as His throne, in accordance with His pleasure, and to the extent of His words)". (Muslim)

(١٠٦٤/٢١) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ أَنَّهُ دَخَلَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى امْرَأَةٍ وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهَا نَوَىٰ أَوْ حَصَى تَسْبِيحٌ بِهِ فَقَالَ لَا أَخْبِرُكَ بِمَا هُوَ أَيْسَرُ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ هَذَا أَوْ أَفْضَلُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي السَّمَاءِ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ وَ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَالِقٌ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ (رواه الترمذی و ابو داود)

(1064/21) It is reported by Sayyidina Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ that alongwith the Messenger of Allah ﷺ he once visited a woman who had before her some date-stones or pebbles which she used as a rosary to glorify Allah. The Prophet ﷺ asked her, "Shall I not tell you that which is easier for you than this (or more excellent)?" And, he asked her to say:

Glory be to Allah as many times as the number of what He has created in the earth. Glory be to Allah as many times as the number of what is between them. Glory be to Allah as many times as the number of what He is creating. (Then) سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي السَّمَاءِ... وَ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي الْأَرْضِ... وَ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ... وَ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَالِقٌ.

Allah is the Greatest (in the same way from as many times), and All praise belongs to Allah (in the same way), and There is no God but Allah (in the same way), and There is no might and no power except with Allah (in the same way). (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Just as observing Zikr, often is a source of great reward, so too these two ahadith disclose an easier way of getting plenty of reward by using such words as refer to a greater number.

We must remember that the Prophet ﷺ has himself exhorted us to make Zikr frequently and has also said, as we have seen in a foregoing hadith that the repetition of سبحان الله وبحمده a hundred times is instrumental in getting the sins forgiven. Therefore, it is wrong for anyone to suppose that the hadith related by sa'd bin waqqas رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضى الله عنها discourage excess indulgence in Zikr. Both these ahadith merely disclose an easier way to get a greater reward particularly for those who are unable to devote more time because of their peculiar circumstances.

Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has said, "As for one whose aim is to dye his living condition in the colour of Zikr, he has no alternative but to indulge in Zikr, excessively. But, if anyone aims only at gaining reward in the Hereafter then he must choose from these expressious".

The narrative of Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه also discloses to us that although the rosary was not used in the times of the Prophet ﷺ yet some people used seeds or pebbles to count. The Prophet ﷺ did not forbid them from doing that. There is no difference in this method and counting on the rosary which is an advanced and easier form of counting. Those who have said that the rosary is an innovation (bid'ah) and, therefore, disapproved, have indeed judged wrongly.

لا اله الا الله

(١٠٦٥/٢٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَفْضَلُ الذِّكْرِ

“لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ.”
(رواه الترمذى وابن ماجه)

(1065/22) Sayyidina Jabir رضى الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The most excellent Zikr (remembrance of Allah) is (to say) لا اله الا الله (There is no God but Allah)."

(Tirmizi Ibn Majah)

Commentary: We have read already the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Samurah bin Jundub رضى الله عنه that four phrases are the most excellent of all expressions.

سبحان الله، والحمد لله، ولا اله الا الله، والله اكبر

This hadith describes لا اله الا الله as the best of expressions.

The truth is that the four expressions are the best of all and لا اله الا الله is the best of these four because it compresses within it the objectives of the remaining three. when a slave affirms that only Allah is worthy of worship (and no one besides Him) then it is obvious that He is free of blemish and defect and every unsuitable thing. He owns all the perfect attributes and has all the greatness. If He is Divine without any partner then surely He will possess all these qualities described in these expressions. Hence, he who says only لا اله الا الله is as though he has said everything that is in سبحان الله and الله اكبر and الحمد لله. Besides لا اله الا الله is the Kalimah (expression) of faith. Hence, it is the first lesson that every Prophet ﷺ has taught. Again, it is the experience of every Arif and Sufi that inward purity and heart are turned away from everything towards Allah most effectively by this expression. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said, therefore that the Kalimah, لا اله الا الله should be repeated frequently to refresh the condition of faith in the heart and then improve upon it.

(١٠٦٦/٢٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا قَالَ

عَبْدٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ مُخْلِصًا مِنْ قَلْبِهِ إِلَّا فُتِحَتْ لَهُ أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ حَتَّى تَقْضَى إِلَيَّ

الْعَرْشُ مَا اجْتَنَبَ الْكَبَائِرَ (رواه الترمذی)

(1066/23) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "No slave does utter لا اله الا الله

(There is no God but Allah) sincerely but that the gates of heaven are opened for him until it comes up to the Throne as long as he avoids major sins. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: This hadith defines the character of the expression لا اله الا الله that it reaches direct to the Throne if it is expressed sincerely and the grave sins that keep one away from Allah are avoided. It gets the reciter great approval. Another hadith also in Tirmizi tells us:

"There is no barrier between لا اله الا الله and Allah and it reaches Him directly." Thus, this is a distinct characteristic of this expression in relation to the other expressions.

وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ لَيْسَ لَهَا حِجَابٌ

مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ حَتَّى تَخْلُصَ إِلَيْهِ.

Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has stated in Hujjat Allah Al Balighah that there are many peculiarities of لا اله الا الله. It distances one from open polytheism and also the hidden form of it. The third peculiarity is that it removes barriers and allows the slave to gain an intimate knowledge of Allah.

(١٠٦٧/٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مُوسَى عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ يَا رَبِّ عَلِّمْنِي شَيْئًا أَذْكُرُكَ بِهِ أَوْ أَدْعُوكَ بِهِ فَقَالَ يَا مُوسَى قُلْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَقَالَ يَا رَبِّ كُلُّ عِبَادِكَ يَقُولُ هَذَا إِنَّمَا أُرِيدُ شَيْئًا تَخْصِنِي بِهِ قَالَ مُوسَى لَوْ أَنَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعَ وَعَامِرَ هُنَّ غَيْرِي وَالْأَرْضِينَ السَّبْعَ وَضِعْنَ فِي كِفَّةٍ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فِي كِفَّةٍ لَمَأَلَتْ بِهِنَّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شرح السنه)

(1067/24) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al khudri رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that Musa عليه السلام asked, "O lord! All your servants say this and I want something particularly for myself." Allah said to him, "Musa عليه السلام were the seven heavens and their inhabitants, apart from Me, and the seven earths put in a pan and لا اله الا الله in the other, the Kalimah لا اله الا الله would outweigh them". (Sharah As Sunnah)

Commentary: Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام had a very close relationship with Allah as His worshipper and Prophet ﷺ. Accordingly, he desired to have words exclusive to himself so that he may call Allah by those words. So, when Allah taught him the words la ilah a-ill Allah, he pleaded with Him that those were not exclusive words because all Allah's slaves used them. He was then told of the value of the kalimah. It is the mercy of Allah on all people that He disclosed the value of this expression to them through His Messenger ﷺ. No other expression was more valuable even for the Prophet and Messengers than لا اله الا الله.

We may show our gratitude to Allah for His highly valuable favours by making this very expression as our repeatedly chanted Zikr. The frequency of repetition should be a means to a special link with Allah.

Significance And Blessings Of Kalimah Tawheed

(١٠٦٨/٢٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ، فِي يَوْمٍ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ كَانَتْ لَهُ عِدْلُ عَشْرِ رِقَابٍ وَكُتِبَتْ لَهُ مِائَةُ حَسَنَةٍ وَمُحِيتَ عَنْهُ مِائَةُ سَيِّئَةٍ وَكَانَتْ لَهُ حِزْزًا مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ يَوْمَهُ ذَلِكَ حَتَّى يُمِيسَى وَلَمْ يَأْتِ أَحَدٌ بِالْفَضْلِ مِمَّا جَاءَ بِهِ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ عَمِلَ أَكْثَرَهُنَّ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1068/25) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said. "If anyone repeats a hundred times in a day"

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ
(There is no God but Allah, the one; He has no partner. His is the dominion and to Him belongs all praise, and He is Omnipotent), he will get a reward equal to the one for emancipating ten slaves. A hundred blessings will be recorded for him and a hundred evil deeds will be obliterated from him. It will be a protection for him from the devil all that day till evening and no one's deed will be more excellent than his unless he has done more than he has.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This is the kalimah tawheed which is an expansion on the kalimah لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ and it includes an explanation of its negative and positive expressions. The hadith tells us how great it is. We will know the truth of this statement after our death, Insha Allah. Some people cast doubts on ahadith which speak of rewards on such expressions although they would have witnessed in everyday living how one evil and mischievous word spreads corruption and unrest. And that goes on generations after generations ruining their lives. Similarly, a sincere word of reformation works like water in extinguishing the fire of mischief and gives comfort to troubled lives.

Thus, if a single human expression can change lives in this world, it should not be difficult for us to comprehend the long-term benefits in the Hereafter of these expressions.

لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله

(١٠٦٩/٢٦) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَدُلُّكَ عَلَى كَلِمَةٍ مِنْ كُنُوزِ الْجَنَّةِ؟ فَقُلْتُ بَلَى فَقَالَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ.
(رواه مسلم والبخارى)

(1069/26) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abu Musa Al Ashari رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him one day, "Shall I teach you an expression that is from the treasures of Paradise?" He said. "Yes Messenger of Allah ﷺ, do teach me!" He said that it was: لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله (There is no power or might except with Allah)
(Muslim and Bukhari)

Commentary: That this expression is from the treasures of Paradise could mean that anyone who says it sincerely will have limitless reward accumulated for him in Paradise. He will be able to draw from it in the same way as one draws from one's treasures in this life when he needs it. It could also mean that the Prophet ﷺ wished to describe its value as part of the treasures of Paradise. For , it is an excellent example of highlighting the significance of anything, But Allah knows best.

The meaning of this phrase لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله is that the effort, movement and ability to do anything is received from Allah alone and no individual can have it on his own. A third meaning is also suggested - "It is not possible to refrain from sin and to submit in obedience without the help of and motivation from Allah."

(١٠٧٠/٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْثَرُ مِنْ قَوْلٍ "لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ" فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ كُنُوزِ الْجَنَّةِ (رواه الترمذی)
(1070/27) It is narrated by sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, "Repeat often the words لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله for they are of the treasures of Paradise." (Tirmizi)

(١٠٧١/٢٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَدُلُّكَ عَلَى كَلِمَةٍ مِنْ تَحْتِ الْعَرْشِ مِنْ كُنُوزِ الْجَنَّةِ "لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ"

بِاللَّهِ يَقُولُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى أَسْلَمَ عَبْدِي وَاسْتَسَلَّمَ. (رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)
 (1071/28) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Shall I not guide you to an expression from under the throne which is part of the treasure of Paradise, It is لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله." He then explained that Allah says, "My slave has resigned and submitted himself to Me." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The hadith informs us that the expression لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله is from the treasures of Paradise, and also from under the Throne. This is a way to emphasise the significance of the expression and it means that the words were revealed to the Prophet ﷺ from the Throne of Allah. But, Allah knows best.

Observation: It is the suggestion of some of the revered saints that just as the Kalimah, لا اله الا الله (There is no God but Allah) is effective in fighting off open and secret polytheism and other ills of the self and heart, so the Kalimah, لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله is helpful in reforming one's practical life, in fighting off disobedient, sinful and disapproved way of living.

Al-Asma al Husna

Truly, Allah has only one proper Name and that is Allah. However, He has hundreds of attributes which are found in the Qur'an and ahadith. These are called Al Asma Al Husna (the beautiful Names). Imam Hajr Asqalani has referred to Ja'far bin Muhammad Sadiq and Sufyan bin Uyaynah and other scholars in his Fath Al Bari.

"The ninety-nine names of Allah are found in the Qur'an itself".

He has then mentioned the details from these men. Hafiz Mamdooh, has said about some of their names that they are not found in the Qur'an in their original form but in a derived form. He has then suggested other names from the Qur'an in their original form and has given the full list which we shall reproduce, Insha Allah, later on.

Some of our contemporary scholars searched for the names in the ahadith and found more than two hundred. These Attributive names are doors to the perfect attributes of Allah and intimate knowledge of Him. Thus, in these we have a comprehensive way to Zikr (remembrance of Allah) if we remember Him through these names. Let us now see some ahadith on the Beautiful Names.

(١٠٧٢/٢٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِلَّهِ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ اسْمًا مِائَةً إِلَّا وَاحِدًا مَنْ أَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1072/29) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Surely Allah has ninety-nine Names, one less than a hundred. He who retains them will go to Paradise."

(Bukhari, Muslim)

Commentary: Only this much is found in the narratives of the hadith books Bukhari and Muslim. They do not give details or the Names. We will reproduce the narrative of Tirmizi which gives the ninety-nine Names. The commentators of hadith and the scholars are agreed almost unanimously that the Names of Allah are not limited to ninety-nine, for we can find more than that in the ahadith. The narration of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, therefore, means that anyone who retains ninety-nine of these names in his memory and abides by them will be admitted to Paradise.

The words of the hadith من احصاها دخل الجنة is explained by the scholars variously.

- (i) That slave will go to Paradise who comprehends the Divine Name and gets an intimate knowledge of these and then believes in the attributes of Allah which these names point to.
- (ii) That slave will go to Paradise who behaves according to the demands of these Names.
- (iii) That slave will go to Paradise who remembers Allah by the ninety-nine Names and supplicates Him by these.

Imam Bukhari has explained من حفظها as من احصاها and these words are found in some versions too. Thus if anyone with perfect belief and faith preserves the ninety-nine Names to obtain nearness to Allah and gain His pleasure and remember Him by that then he will go to Paradise.

(١٠٧٣/٣٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ لِلَّهِ تَعَالَى تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ اسْمًا مِائَةً إِلَّا وَاحِدَةً مَنْ أَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ. هُوَ اللَّهُ

الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ السَّلَامُ الْمُؤْمِنُ
 الْمُهَيْمِنُ الْعَزِيزُ الْجَبَّارُ الْمُتَكَبِّرُ الْخَالِقُ الْبَارِئُ الْمُصَوِّرُ الْغَفَّارُ الْقَهَّارُ الْوَهَّابُ
 الرَّزَّاقُ الْفَتَّاحُ الْعَلِيمُ الْقَابِضُ الْبَاسِطُ الْخَافِضُ الرَّافِعُ الْمُعِزُّ الْمُدِلُّ السَّمِيعُ
 الْبَصِيرُ الْحَكَمُ الْعَدْلُ اللَّطِيفُ الْخَبِيرُ الْحَلِيمُ الْعَظِيمُ الْغَفُورُ الشَّكُورُ الْعَلِيُّ
 الْكَبِيرُ الْحَفِيفُ الْمُقِيتُ الْحَسِيبُ الْجَلِيلُ الْكَرِيمُ الرَّقِيبُ الْمُجِيبُ الْوَاسِعُ
 الْحَكِيمُ الْوَدُودُ الْمَجِيدُ الْبَاعِثُ الشَّهِيدُ الْحَقُّ الْوَكِيلُ الْقَوِيُّ الْمَتِينُ الْوَلِيُّ
 الْحَمِيدُ الْمُحْصِي الْمُبْدِي الْمُعِيدُ الْمُحْيِي الْمُمِيتُ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ الْوَاحِدُ
 الْمَاجِدُ الْوَاحِدُ الْوَاحِدُ الْأَحَدُ الصَّمَدُ الْقَادِرُ الْمُقْتَدِرُ الْمُؤَخِّرُ الْأَوَّلُ الْآخِرُ
 الظَّاهِرُ الْبَاطِنُ الْوَالِي الْمُتَعَالَى الْبَرُّ التَّوَّابُ الْمُنتَقِمُ الْعَفُو الرَّؤُوفُ مَالِكُ
 الْمُلْكِ ذُو الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ الْمُقْسِطُ الْجَامِعُ الْغَنِيُّ الْمُغْنَى الْمَانِعُ الضَّارُ
 النَّافِعُ النُّورُ الْهَادِي الْبَدِيعُ الْبَاقِي الْوَارِثُ الرَّشِيدُ الصَّبُورُ

(رواه الترمذی والبيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1073/30) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: Surely Allah has ninety-nine Names, one less than a hundred. He who retains them will go to Paradise.

هو الله الذي لا اله الا هو

He is Allah besides whom no one is worthy of worship.

1.	الرحمن	The Compassionate	2.	الرحيم	The Merciful
3.	الملك	The King, The Sovereign	4.	القدوس	The Holy
5.	السلام	The Author of Safety, Peace	6.	المومن	The Giver of Peace
7.	المهيمن	The Protector	8.	العزیز	The Strong
9.	الجبار	The Compeller	10.	المتكبر	The Majestic
11.	الخالق	The Creator	12.	البارئ	The Maker
13.	المصور	The Fashioner	14.	الغفار	The Great Forgiver
15.	القهار	The Dominant	16.	الوهاب	The Bestower
17.	الرزاق	The Sustainer	18.	الفتاح	The Opener, The Judge
19.	العليم	The All-Knowing	20.	القابض	The With holder

21.	الباسط	The Enlarger	22.	الخافض	The Pleaser
23.	الرافع	The Elevator	24.	المعز	The Honourer
25.	المذل	The Humiliator	26.	السميع	The All-Hearing
27.	البصير	The All-Seeing	28.	الحكم	The Judge
29.	العدل	The Just	30.	اللطيف	The Subtle
31.	الخبير	The Aware	32.	الحليم	The Clement
33.	العظيم	The Mighty	34.	الغفور	The Forgiving
35.	الشكور	The Appreciative	36.	العلی	The High, The Sublime
37.	الكبير	The Great	38.	الحفيظ	The Preserver
39.	المقيت	The Protector, The Guardian	40.	الحسب	The Reckoner
41.	الجليل	The Beneficient	42.	الكریم	The Bountiful The Gracious
43.	الرقیب	The Watcher	44.	المجيب	The Responsive
45.	الواسع	The All-Embracing	46.	الحكيم	The Judge
47.	الودود	The Loving	48.	المجيد	The Glorious
49.	الباعث	The Raiser from Death	50.	الشهيد	the Witness
51.	الحق	The True	52.	الوكيل	The Trustee
53.	القوى	The Strong	54.	المتين	The Firm
55.	الولى	The Protecting Friend	56.	الحميد	The Praise worthy
57.	المحصى	The Counter	58.	المبدي	The Originator
59.	المعيد	The Reproducer	60.	المحي	The Giver of Life
61.	المميت	The Destroyer	62.	الحي	The Active
63.	القيوم	The Self-Sustaining	64.	الواجد	The Perceiver
65.	الماجد	The Grand	66.	الواحد	The One, The Unique
67.	الاحد	The One	68.	الصمد	The Independent
69.	القادر	The Capable	70.	المقتدر	The Dominant
71.	المقدم	The Promoter	72.	الموخر	The Retarder
73.	الاول	The First	74.	الآخر	The Last
75.	الظاهر	The Manifest	76.	الباطن	The Hidden
77.	الوالى	The Governor	78.	المتعالى	The Exalted
79.	البر	The Righteous	80.	التواب	The Relenting

81.	المنتقم	The Avenger	82.	العفو	The Forgiver
83.	الروف	The Gracious	84.	مالك الملك	The Owner of Sovereignty
85.	ذو الجلال والاکرام	The Lord of Majesty & Bounty	86.	المقسط	The Equitable
87.	الجامع	The Gatherer	88.	الغنى	The Self-Sufficient
89.	المغنى	The Enricher	90.	المانع	The With Holder
91.	الضار	The Distresser	92.	النافع	The Propitious
93.	النور	The Light	94.	الهادى	The Guide
95.	البديع	The Originator	96.	الباقى	The Everlasting
97.	الوارث	The Heir	98.	الرشيد	The Guide to Right Path
99.	الصبور	The Patient

(Tirmizi, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The initial portion of this hadith is exactly the same as the hadith transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim. So, many scholars hold that the hadith from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is only to the extent carried by Bukhari and Muslim (Surely Allah has ninety-nine Names, one less than a hundred. He who retains them will go to Paradise). Whatever Tirmizi has transmitted in the foregoing hadith and Ibn Majah, Hakim and others have transmitted beyond that listing the ninety-nine Names is not part of the saying of the Prophet ﷺ. Rather, one of the students of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has mentioned the names in explanation as found in the Qur'an and ahadith. In the terminology of the scholars of hadith the Asma Al Husna are مدرج (Mudraj)

One of the explanations is that there is much difference in the list of names in Tirmizi, Ibn Majah and Hakim. If they were from the Prophet ﷺ, there would not have been so much of a difference.

Anyway, that was a technical discussion from the point of view of the science of hadith. The truth is that the names found in Tirmizi, Ibn Majah and Hakim are derived from the Qur'an and ahadith, and the Prophet ﷺ has given glad tidings of Paradise to those who retain or preserve the ninety-nine names. Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has said in this regard that the ninety-nine Names describe the positive attributes worthy of Allah and the attributes unsuitable to be ascribed for Him. Hence, they are part of the course of gaining intimate knowledge of Him. That is why there is extraordinary blessing in these ninety-nine Names and the observer receives special approval from the sacred world. And when they are credited in the Record of deeds of a slave then he will be entitled to Divine Mercy. (Allah knows best),

Two thirds of the names found in the hadith of Tirmizi are also found in the Qur'an. The rest are mentioned in the ahadith.

We have just referred to the contention of Imam Jafar Sadiq رحمه الله عليه and other scholars that the ninety-nine Names of Allah are found in the Qur'an. We have also referred to Ibn Hajr's رحمه الله عليه effort in deriving the ninety-nine names from the Qur'an in their original and underived forms.

If we agree with the contention of the scholars who assert that the ninety-nine Names in the foregoing hadith of Tirmizi are not part of the hadith but a mudraj from one of the narrators who appended them as a commentary then the list presented by Ibn Hajr رحمه الله عليه is worth considering. All the Names in this list have their source in the Qur'an in an almost unchanged form. We present this list here as found in Fath Al Bari. He has included the proper Names, Allah, in the list with which he has begun it.

The Ninety-nine Names, All from the Qur'an¹.

1.	الله	Allah	Allah
2.	الرحمن	Ar-Rahman	The Compassionate
3.	الرحيم	Ar-Rahim	The Merciful
4.	الملك	Al-Malik	The King, The Sovereign
5.	القدوس	Al-Quddoos	The Holy
6.	السلام	As-Salaam	The Author of Safety
7.	المومن	Al-Mumin	The Giver of Peace
8.	المهيمن	Al-Muhaimin	The Protector
9.	العزیز	Al-Azeez	The Strong
10.	الجبار	Al-Jabbar	The Compeller
11.	المتكبر	Al-Mutakabbir	The Majestic
12.	الخالق	Al-Khaliq	The Creator

①. Muhammad Chawla And Dr. Abdullah Abbas An Nadvi

13.	البارى	Al-Baree	The Maker
14.	المصور	Al-Musawwir	The Fashioner
15.	الغفار	Al-Ghaffar	The Great Forgiver
16.	القهار	Al-Qahhar	The Dominant
17.	التواب	Al-Tawwab	The Relenting
18.	الوهاب	Al-Wahhab	The Bestower, the most Powerful
19.	الخالق	Al-Khallaq	The Creator
20.	الرزاق	Al-Razzaq	The Sustainer
21.	الفتاح	Al-Fattah	The Opener, The Judge
22.	العليم	Al-Aleem	The All-Knowing
23.	الحليم	Al-Haleem	The Celement, The Forbearing
24.	العظيم	Al-Azeem	The Mighty
25.	الواسع	Al-Wasi	The All-Embracing
26.	الحكيم	Al-Hakeem	The Judge
27.	الحي	Al-Hayy	The Alive
28.	القيوم	Al-Qayyoom	The Self-Subsisting
29.	السميع	As-Samee	The All-Hearing
30.	البصير	Al-Baseer	The All-Seeing
31.	اللطيف	Al-Lateef	The Subtle
32.	الخبير	Al-Khabeer	The Aware
33.	العلى	Al-Aliyy	The High,
34.	الكبير	Al-Kabeer	The Great
35.	المحيط	Al-Muheet	The All Encompassing
36.	القدير	Al-Qadeer	The Doer of What He wills
37.	المولى	Al-Mawla	The Patron
38.	النصير	Al-Naseer	The Strong Helper
39.	الكريم	Al-Kareem	The Bountiful
40.	الرقيب	Al-Raqeeb	The Watcher
41.	القريب	Al-Qareeb	The Near
42.	المجيب	Al-Mujeeb	The Responsive
43.	الوكيل	Al-Wakeel	The Trustee
44.	الحسيب	Al-Haseeb	The Reckoner
45.	الحفيظ	Al-Hafeez	The Preserver

46.	المقيت	Al-Muqeeb	The Protector,
47.	الودود	Al-Wadood	The Loving
48.	المجيد	Al-Majeed	The Glorious
49.	الوارث	Al-Waarith	The Heir
50.	الشهيد	Al-Shaheed	The Witness
51.	الولي	Al-Waliyy	The Protecting Friend
52.	الحميد	Al-Hameed	The Praise worthy
53.	الحق	Al-Haq	The True
54.	المبين	Al-Mubeen	The Clear
55.	القوى	Al-Qawiyy	The Strong
56.	المتين	Al-Mateen	The Firm
57.	الغنى	Al-Ghani	The Self-Sufficient
58.	المالك	Al-Malaik	The Owner
59.	الشديد	Al-Shadeed	The Severe
60.	القادر	Al-Qaadir	The Capable
61.	المقتدر	Al-Muqtadir	The Dominant
62.	القاهر	Al-Qaahir	The Supreme, The Master
63.	الكافي	Al-Kafi	The Sufficient
64.	الشاكِر	Al-Shakir	The Appreciative
65.	المستعان	Al-Mustaan	The One whose help is sought
66.	الفاطر	Al-Faatir	The Creator
67.	البدیع	Al-Badce	The Originator
68.	الغافر	Al-Ghaafir	The Forgiver
69.	الاول	Al-Awwal	The First
70.	الآخر	Al-Aakhir	The Last
71.	الظاهر	Al-Zahir	The Manifest
72.	الباطن	Al-Batin	The Hidden
73.	الكفيل	Al-Kafeel	The Surety, The Surety
74.	الغالب	Al-Ghaalib	The Dominant, The Overcomer
75.	الحكم	Al-Hakam	The Judge
76.	العالم	Al-Aalim	The Knower
77.	الرفيع	Al-Rafi	The Elevator

78.	الحافظ	Al-Hafiz	The Protector
79.	المنتقم	Al-Muntaqim	The Avenger
80.	القائم	Al-Qaaim	The One Who Watches
81.	المحي	Al-Muhyee	The Giver of life
82.	الجامع	Al-Jaami	The Assembler
83.	المليك	Al-Maleek	The Mighty King
84.	المتعال	Al-Mut'aal	The High Exalted
85.	النور	Al-Noor	The Light
86.	الهادي	Al-Haadee	The Guide
87.	الغفور	Al-Ghafoor	The Forgiving
88.	الشكور	Al-Shakoor	The Appreciative
89.	العفو	Al-Afoo	The Forgiver
90.	الرؤف	Ar-Ra'oof	The Gracious
91.	الاکرم	Al-Akram	The Most Bounteous
92.	الاعلى	Al-A'la	The Great
93.	البر	Al-Barr	The Righteous
94.	الحفي	Al-Hafeey	The Ever Gracious
95.	الرب	Ar-Rabb	The Lord, The Sustainer
96.	الاله	Al-Ilaah	The God
97.	الواحد	Al-Waahid	The Unique
98.	الاحد	Al-Ahad	The One
99.	الصمد	As-Samad	The Independent
الَّذِي لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ			Who begets not, not was He begotten, and there is none co-equal with Him (112:3-4)

The ninety-nine Beautiful Names in the hadith of Tirmizi and those picked up from the Qur'an by Ibn Hajr are all indeed doors to an intimate knowledge of Allah. The Ulama of every age have explained them for the common people's guidance and it has been the practice of pious people to make supplications to Allah by virtue of these Names. The approval is assured thereby.

Al-Ism Al-A'zam* (The Great Name)

We know from the ahadith that of the Beautiful Names of Allah, there are some that stand out exclusively because if a supplication is made by calling them out there is a great possibility of that supplication being approved.

Such Names are termed Al-Ism Al Azam in hadith, but they are not clearly indicated. They are kept undisclosed in the same manner as the laylah Al Qadr (the Night of Power) is undisclosed and the most opportune moment of approval of supplication on Friday is not clearly defined. The ahadith also make it clear that Allah does not have only one Al-Ism Al Azam as most people wrongly suppose. There are a number of His Beautiful Names that are each called Al Ism Al Azam. The ahadith also reject the common fallacies attached to Al Ism Al Azam by the laymen while they confirm only what we have just said about it.

(١٠٧٤/٣١) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعَ رَجُلًا يَقُولُ
اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ بِأَنَّكَ أَنْتَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ الْأَحَدُ الصَّمَدُ الَّذِي لَمْ يَلِدْ
وَلَمْ يُولَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ فَقَالَ دَعَا اللَّهُ بِأَسْمِهِ الْأَعْظَمِ الَّذِي إِذَا سُئِلَ بِهِ
أُعْطِيَ وَإِذَا دُعِيَ بِهِ أَجَابَ
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1074/31) It is reported by Sayyidina Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ heard a man engaged in supplication, Saying "O Allah! I ask you by the fact that you are Allah than whom there is no God, One, the Independent, Who has not begotten and has not been begotten and to whom there is no equal." The Prophet ﷺ said "He has asked Allah using His great Name (Al Is'm Al Azam) when asked by which He gives and when supplicated by which He answers."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

(١٠٧٥/٣٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي
الْمَسْجِدِ وَرَجُلٌ يُصَلِّي فَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ بِأَنَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا
أَنْتَ الْحَنَّانُ الْمَنَّانُ بَدِيعُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ يَا حَيُّ
يَاقِيُومُ أَسْأَلُكَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعَا اللَّهُ بِأَسْمِهِ الْأَعْظَمِ الَّذِي
إِذَا دُعِيَ بِهِ أَجَابَ وَإِذَا سُئِلَ بِهِ أُعْطِيَ
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد والنسائي وابن ماجه)

(1075/32) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that he was sitting with the Prophet ﷺ in the mosque when a man, who had been offering his prayers, made this supplication: O Allah. I ask you by virtue of the fact that praise is due to you other than whom there is no God. Who shows favour and beneficence, the Originator of the heavens and the earth. O Lord of Majesty and Splendour, O living one, O Eternal One, I ask of You". The Prophet ﷺ said "This worshipper has supplicated Allah using His great Name (Al Ism Al Azam) when supplicated by which He answers and when asked by which He gives."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah)

(١٠٧٦/٣٣) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيدَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِسْمُ اللَّهِ الْأَعْظَمُ فِي هَاتَيْنِ الْآيَتَيْنِ وَاللَّهُمَّ إِلَهَ وَاحِدٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ وَقَاتِحَةُ آلِ عِمْرَانَ أَلَمْ اللَّهُ إِلَّا إِلَهٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ.

(راوه الترمذى و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1076/33) Sayyidah Asma bint Yazid رضى الله عنها has said that the Prophet ﷺ said, "The great Name (Al Ism Al Azam) of Allah is in these two verses:

وَاللَّهُمَّ إِلَهَ وَاحِدٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ (البقره ١٦٣:٢)

(i) And your God is One Allah, there is no God but He, the compassionate, the merciful. and the initial verses of Aal Imran:

أَلَمْ اللَّهُ إِلَّا إِلَهٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ (ال عمران ١:٣-٢)

(ii) Alif - Laam, Meem, Allah! there is no God but He, the ever-living, the self-subsisting.

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood Ibn Majah Daarami)

Commentary: If we look carefully at these ahadith, it will become very clear to us that they do not point out to any one Name of Allah as Al Ism Al Azam, (a great Name), Rather, the two verses referred to in the immediate foregoing hadith and the two supplications in two ahadith before that contain a certain arrangement and sequence of the Names of Allah which declare a comprehensive attribute belonging to Him. That is called the great Name or Al Ism Al Azam.

Indeed, Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه has derived the same conclusion from these *ahadith*¹. He is one whom Allah has particularly blessed with knowledge in this field.

①. He writes in Hujjat Allah Al-Balighah:

واعلم ان الاسم الاعظم الذى اذا سئل به اعطى واذا دعى به اجاب هو الاسم الذى يدل على اجمع تدل من تدليات الحق والذى تدا وله الملاء الا على اكثر تد اول ونطقته به الترجمة فى كل عصر..... وهذا معنى يصدق على "انت الله لا اله الا انت الاحد الصمد الذى لم يلد ولم يولد ولم يكن له كفواً احد" وعلى "لك الحمد لا اله الا انت الحنان المنان بديع السموات والارض يا ذا الجلال والاكرام يا حي يا قيوم" ويصدق على اسماء تضاهي ذلك.

RECITAL OF THE NOBLE QUR'AN

We have stated already that reciting the Holy Qur'an too is a form of Zikr, (remembrance of Allah). In fact, according to some ahadith, it is the best form of remembrance of Allah, and a slave's engagement in recital of Qur'an is very dear to Him.

Undoubtedly, Allah, the Exalted, is Incomparable and beyond similitude and example. Nevertheless, I do say about myself that whenever I found anyone reading any of my compositions, I was very pleased and happy and I began to feel a liking and a close relationship with the reader. It was a nearness which one does not have with one's close kind and friends too. On this basis, I feel that Allah must be feeling a great love for His slave who recites His Book, the Qur'an (unless he is not entitled to His love because of a serious crime he may have committed).

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has used different ways to exhort the ummah to recite the Qur'an and to realise its greatness. Accordingly, we have divided the ahadith under different headings so that the subject is seen from varying angles.

May Allah cause us to benefit from the sayings of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ exactly as they were intended to convey.

The Greatness and Excellence of The Qur'an

It is enough to say about the greatness and excellence of the Qur'an that it is the word of Allah, and His attribute. (Let us explain that). The truth is that whatever is on earth including the kabah and the Holy Prophets ﷺ, and whatever is in the higher world and the unseen world, the throne, the Chair, the Tablet, the Pen, Paradise with its bounties and the angels closest angels to Allah — are all a creation of Allah in spite of their known and affirmed greatness, and they are not Divine. As for the Qur'an, however, it is not created by Allah and not something outside Him. it is a real characteristic of Allah and it is part of His Great Being. Allah has been most merciful and generous to us that He let us have His word through His Messenger ﷺ and made us worthy of reciting that Word and able to read it with our tongues, and to understand it and abide by it.

The Qur'an tells us that Allah had caused a blessed tree in the valley of Tuwa to recite His word to Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام. Certainly that lifeless tree was very fortunate that Allah chose it to let sayyidina Musa عليه السلام hear His word from it. The slave who recites the Qur'an sincerely and with respect and carefulness receives the honour and had received auspiciousness which that tree of Prophet Musa عليه السلام had received. It is as though he were a recording of the sacred words of Allah. Indeed, man cannot imagine receiving an honour greater than that!

The introductory remarks having been read, let us now ponder over the following ahadith on the excellence of the Qur'an.

(١٠٧٧/٣٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
الرَّبُّ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى مَنْ شَغَلَهُ الْقُرْآنُ عَنْ ذِكْرِي وَمَسْأَلَتِي أَعْطَيْتُهُ أَفْضَلَ مَا
أُعْطِيَ السَّائِلِينَ وَفَضْلُ كَلَامِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى عَلَى سَائِرِ الْكَلَامِ كَفَضْلِ اللَّهِ عَلَى خَلْقِهِ.

(راوه الترمذى والدارمى والبيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

(1077/34) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al Khudri رضي الله عنه has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that the blessed and exalted Lord has said, "To him who is so occupied with the Qur'an as to neglect making mention of Me and making a supplication to Me. I will give better things than what I give to those who ask."

The superiority of the Words of Allah over all other words is like the superiority of Allah over His creatures.

(Tirmizi, Darami, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: We have stated earlier in the series Ma'arif Al Hadith, that if the Holy Prophet ﷺ tells us something on behalf of Allah and those words are not found in the Qur'an then that hadith is called hadith Qudsi. The present hadith is one such. Two, things are conveyed to us through this hadith.

(i) If anyone is occupied with the Qur'an day and night — reciting it, memorising it, pondering over it, learning it or teaching it — and he does not get an opportunity because of his sincere occupation with the Qur'an to engage in any other form of Zikr, praise or glorification of Allah, and to make supplications to Him then he need not feel deprived. He should not consider himself to be on the losing side and feel deprived of what other people get when they engage in Zikr and supplication. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has assured us that Allah has decided to grant such people more and better than what we will grant to those people who engage in Zikr and supplication.

(ii) The second thing is that the word of Allah is to all other words as Allah is to His creatures. This is because as we have said, it is His word and His attribute.

عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
 إِنَّهَا سَتَكُونُ فِتْنَةٌ، قُلْتُ مَا الْمَخْرَجُ مِنْهَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ كِتَابُ اللَّهِ فِيهِ نَبَأُ مَا
 قَبْلَكُمْ وَخَبَرُ مَا بَعْدَكُمْ وَحُكْمُ مَا بَيْنَكُمْ هُوَ الْفَصْلُ لَيْسَ بِالْهَزْلِ، مَنْ تَرَكَهُ
 مِنْ جَبَّارٍ قَصَمَهُ اللَّهُ، وَمَنْ ابْتَغَى الْهُدَى فِي غَيْرِهِ أَضَلَّهُ اللَّهُ، وَهُوَ حَبْلُ اللَّهِ
 الْمَتِينُ، وَهُوَ الذِّكْرُ الْحَكِيمُ، وَهُوَ الصِّرَاطُ الْمُسْتَقِيمُ هُوَ الَّذِي لَا تَزِيغُ بِهِ
 الْأَهْوَاءُ وَلَا تَلْتَبِسُ بِهِ الْأَلْسِنَةُ وَلَا يَشْبَعُ مِنْهُ الْعُلَمَاءُ وَلَا يَخْلُقُ عَنْ كَثْرَةِ الرَّدِّ
 وَلَا يَنْقُضِي عَجَائِظُهُ، هُوَ الَّذِي لَمْ تَنْتَهِ الْجِنَّ إِذْ سَمِعْتَهُ حَتَّى قَالُوا "إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا
 قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا يَهْدِي إِلَى الرُّشْدِ فَأَمْنًا بِهِ (الجن ١-٧٢)" مَنْ قَالَ بِهِ صَدَقَ وَمَنْ
 عَمِلَ بِهِ أَجَرَ وَمَنْ حَكَمَ بِهِ عَدَلَ وَمَنْ دَعَا إِلَيْهِ هَدَى إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ.

(رواه الترمذی والدارمی)

(1078/35) Sayyidina Ali ؑ said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say that a severe trial would take place. Sayyidina Ali ؑ asked him how could one protect oneself from it. He ﷺ said. Through the Book of Allah! It contains (lesson - bearing) events of people before you and information on what is to happen after you (the consequences of one's deeds and conduct that he will face in this life and the next. The Qur'an foretells all that). The Qur'an also delivers judgement on the disputes that arise amongst you (between Truth and Falsehood, and between Right and wrong). It is the final word. It is not vain talk. If any oppressor and rebel ignores it (that is, turns away from it out of pride and arrogance) then Allah will dismember him. If anyone looks for guidance outside the Qur'an (not in it) then Allah will mislead him (and he will be deprived of guidance). It is the Qur'an that is a strong rope of Allah, meaning that it is a reliable means of link with Allah and a firm charter of guidance. It is the straight path. The Qur'an is the clear truth which keeps thoughts from straying. Tongues of people cannot corrupt it. (While the earlier Books were misread by tongues and people read their own versions in the books by twisting their tongues. There will be no such changes in the Qur'an. Allah will preserve it till the last Day). Scholars will never finish getting knowledge from it. (the act of pondering over it and the search for facts and intimate knowledge will never cease. The time will never come when its students will feel that they have exhausted its teachings and knowledge and that they cannot expect anything more from it. Rather the more they learn from the Qur'an, the more will they crave for knowledge from it and realise that what they have learnt from it is nothing compared to what is yet available in it to learn). The Qur'an will never be stale with repeated reading. (With any other book, the reader cannot expect enjoyment from repeated reading but it is just the other way with the Qur'an. The more it is read and the more one ponders over it, the more one enjoys it). Its marvels (its finer meanings and truths) will never end. It is the greatness of the Qur'an that even the jinn when they heard it could not help but exclaim:

Surely we have heard a wonderful Qur'an, it guides to rectitude, so we believe in it.

إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا، يَهْدِي إِلَى
الرُّشْدِ فَآمَنَّا بِهِ. (الجن ١: ٢٢)

(Al-Jinn, 72:1-2)

He who spoke according to the Qur'an spoke the truth and he who acts in accordance with its directions entitles himself to reward. Again, he who judges according to the Qur'an is just and fair. Then as for him who invites People to the Qur'an is indeed guided on the Right Path.

(Tirmizi, Darami)

Commentary: This hadith gives a comprehensive account of the greatness and merits of the Qur'an. We have side by side with narrating it, given an explanation within paranthesis wherever necessary.

About The Teacher & Student of Qur'an

(١٠٧٩/٣٦) عَنْ عَثْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُكُمْ

(رواه البخارى)

مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَّمَهُ

(1079/36) Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The best among you and the most excellent is he who learns the Qur'an and teaches it to other People.(Bukhari)

Commentary: It is very obvious that to teach the Qur'an and learn it is superior to every other good deed because the Qur'an is superior to every other word just as Allah is superior to all His creatures. It is a fact that the most important assignment of the Prophet ﷺ as a Messenger was to receive the Qur'an through revelation from Allah, to understand it and to convey it to other people and make them understand it. Thus, whoever now, until the Last Day, takes up the task of learning and teaching the Qur'an as his occupation and assignment will carry on the mission of the holy Prophet ﷺ and be one of its servants. He will have a very special relationship with the Prophet ﷺ.

Thus, a student and a teacher of the Qur'an is bound to be the most excellent and noble person.

However, this distinction is dependent on the work being done sincerely and only for the sake of Allah. If anyone takes up the occupation of learning and teaching the Qur'an to further worldly ends then he must know what a hadith tells about the likes of him: he will be among the unfortunate people who will be cast into Hell before every one else destined to go there and he will be its initial fuel. اللهم احفظنا! (O Allah! Protect us from that!) (The hadith is found at the end of volume two.)

Envy For The Man With The Qur'an

(١٠٨٠/٣٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ لَا حَسَدَ إِلَّا عَلَى اثْنَيْنِ رَجُلٌ آتَاهُ اللَّهُ الْقُرْآنَ فَهُوَ

يَقُومُ بِهِ آتَاءَ اللَّيْلِ وَآتَاءَ النَّهَارِ وَ رَجُلٌ آتَاهُ اللَّهُ مَالًا فَهُوَ يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ آتَاءَ اللَّيْلِ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

وَآتَاءَ النَّهَارِ.

(1080/37) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying. "Envy is not justified except for two kinds of men: a man whom Allah has given the Qur'an and he is engaged with it every hour of the night and of the day; and a man whom Allah has given property and he spends it in the cause of Allah during the night and during the day.

(Bukhari, Muslim)

Commentary: There are different ways in which anyone may occupy himself with the Qur'an during day and night.

(i) learn it and teach it,

(ii) Recite it within (as Salah) Prayer and outside of it, and

(iii) Conduct oneself carefully according to its commands.

The words of the hadith can refer to all of these ways.

The way to thank Allah for the blessings of the Qur'an is that the slave of Allah may occupy himself with it and make it a guide for his life.

The Rights of Qur'an

(١٠٨١/٣٨) عَنْ عُبَيْدَةَ الْمَلَيْكِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَا أَهْلَ الْقُرْآنِ لَا تَتَوَسَّدُوا الْقُرْآنَ وَاتْلُوهُ حَقَّ تِلَاوَتِهِ مِنْ آتَاءِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَأَفْشُوهُ وَتَغَنُّوهُ وَتَذَبَّرُوا فِيهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ وَلَا تَعْجَلُوا ثَوَابَهُ فَإِنَّ لَهُ ثَوَابًا

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1081/38) Sayyidina Abidah al Mulayki رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying "O People of the Qur'an, do not make the Qur'an your pillow. But, recite it during the night and the day as it deserves to be recited. Diffuse it and read it with interest and cheer. Think over it that you may prosper. Do not seek to get reward for it in this world. You will get great reward for it from Allah.

(Bahaqi)

Commentary: The hadith tells us that those slaves of Allah whom He has given the wealth of Qur'an should not adopt a complacent attitude once they have the Qur'an with them and become negligent. Rather, they must give it its rights. During the hours of the night and the day, they must recite as it deserves to be recited and they must introduce it to other people and diffuse its teachings to them. They must recite it with ecstasy and ponder over its contents — the commands guidance, stories of the past and advice. If they abide by this counsel, they may prosper and succeed. And, they must not seek reward for their service to the Qur'an in this very life. They will get a great reward and recompense for their effort from Allah at the proper time.

Rise & Fall of Nations Through The Qur'an

(١٠٨٢/٣٩) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَرْفَعُ بِهَذَا الْكِتَابِ أَقْوَامًا وَيَضَعُ بِهِ آخَرِينَ
 (رواه مسلم)
 (1082/39) Sayyidina Umar bin Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Surely, Allah exalts some people and lowers others by this Book (the Qur'an)". (Muslim)

Commentary: The Qur'an is the word of Allah and His Command and Constitution for men. To be faithful and obedient to it is to be faithful and obedient to Allah and to turn away from it or show disobedience to it is to turn away from Allah and be disobedient to Him. Allah has said that the people who abide by the Qur'an and hold it as is worthy of it will be raised in this life and the next no matter who these people are as regards descent, colour and language. In contrast the people who disregard it and disobey it will be lowered to the lowest level even if they be on the highest of levels.

The history of Muslims and Islam confirms the truth of this hadith. In fact it reflects these words of Allah as if it was a mirror. The use of the word اقواما in the hadith discloses that the law of rise and fall as described in this hadith applies not to individuals alone but to nations.

Reward on Recital of Qur'an

(١٠٨٣/٤٠) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ
 حَرْفًا مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ فَلَهُ بِهِ حَسَنَةٌ وَالْحَسَنَةُ بِعَشْرِ أَمْثَالِهَا لَا أَقُولُ "آلَمَ" حَرْفٌ
 أَلِفٌ حَرْفٌ وَلَا مٌ حَرْفٌ وَمِمْ حَرْفٌ
 (رواه الترمذی والدارمی)
 (1083/40) Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ood رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ told them that if anyone recited one letter of the Book of Allah, he will be credited with one good deed, and each good deed gets a tenfold reward according to Allah's law of recompense. (He explained it further) that he did not say that الم (Alif laam Meem) was one letter, but Alif is a letter Laam is a letter and Meem is a letter. (So, one who reads الم will get reward for thirty good deeds). (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The gracious rule of Allah that if anyone does a good deed he gets a tenfold reward is mentioned in the Qur'an in a very clear and explicit manner. We read in the Surah al An'am.

Whosoever brings a good deed shall have tenfold the like of it.
(Al An'am, 6:160) (الانعام ١٦٠:٦) أَمْثَلَهَا

The foregoing hadith conveys to us the glad tidings of the Prophet ﷺ that anyone who recites the Qur'an sincerely will be doing a good deed against every letter. of the alphabet that he recites and that will spell out a reward against ten good deeds.

The version of the same hadith in Bayhaqi quotes the Prophet ﷺ as saying that he did not say that بسم الله (Bismillah) was one letter but that Ba was a letter, seen was a letter and meem was a letter and that he did not say that الم was a letter but that Alif, Laam and Meem were (three) seprate letters. May Allah grant us the believing mind. This hadith conveys abundant glad tidings for those who receite the Qur'an.

This hadith also indicates that to gain reward on recital of the Qurain, it is not necessary that the meanings and translation are understood by the reciting person because الم and other such muqattal letters are read without understanding. The hadith has told us that anyone who recites these letters too will get tenfold reward against each letter. (Allah knows best).

Recital of Qur'an is Polish for The Hearts

(١٠٨٤/٤١) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْقُلُوبَ تَصْدَأُ كَمَا يَصْدَأُ الْحَدِيدُ إِذَا أَصَابَهُ الْمَاءُ قِيلَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا جَلَاءُ هَا قَالَ كَثْرَةُ ذِكْرِ الْمَوْتِ وَتِلَاوَةُ الْقُرْآنِ.
(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)
(1084/41) According to Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضي الله عنه the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "These hearts become rusty just as iron becomes rusty when water gets into it". Someone asked, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! How may these be cleared?" He said, "A great deal of remembrance of death and recitation of the Qur'an." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The heart is said to be rusty when it is careless and neglectful of the Hereafter and its consequences. This attitude is the root of all minor and Major sins, and, without doubt, the panacea for this ill is to remember death frequently. One may think about it and consider himself in that state. The Qur'an may be recited with Proper etiquette knowing it to be the book of Allah. If Allah causes one to recite the Qur'an with concentration and due interest then, Insha Allah, the rust will be removed and he will be filled with light¹.

The Station of One Skilled In Qur'an

(١٠٨٥/٤٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَاهِرُ بِالْقُرْآنِ مَعَ السَّفَرَةِ الْكِرَامِ الْبَرَّةِ وَالَّذِي يَقْرَأُ الْقُرْآنَ وَيَتَتَعْتَعُ فِيهِ وَهُوَ عَلَيْهِ شَاقٌّ لَهُ أَجْرَانِ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1085/42) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "One who is skilled in the Qur'an is associated with the noble, upright recording angels, and he who falters when reciting (because he is not fluent with it and does not remember it well) and it is difficult for him will have a

1. Shah Waliullah has commented on the recital of Qur'an while discussing Ihsan in his book Hujjat Allah Al-Balighah:

He has said: The soul of the recital of the Qur'an is to recite it with deep interest and love, and extreme respect and glorification, the mind fully turned towards Allah. The reciter must pay attention to the advice and guidance of the Qur'an and try to absorb them. He must resolve to abide by its commands and guidance and derive lessons from the historical events narrated by the Qur'an. When he comes across the attributes of Allah, he should say: Subhan Allah (سبحان الله) and when he reads about Paradise and the mercy of Allah, he must pray for His blessings and Paradise. When he reads about Hell and the wrath of Allah, he must seek refuge in Him.

Surely, a recital of this kind is a polish for the hearts and whoever is able to recite in this way to whatever degree, receives the blessings of Allah. May Allah not deprive us of His blessings!

double reward (One for the recital and the other for enduring difficulty). (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The Arabic word سفره in this hadith has been taken generally to mean the angels who bring down the revelation. Some scholars take it to refer to the Prophets and Messengers عليهم السلام. The translation allows for both interpretations. The hadith says that the slaves of Allah, who believe ththe Qur'an to be the word of Allah and take an interest in it, reciting it often so that they have a close association with the Qur'an, are with the Prophets and Messengers or the angels who bring the revelation. However, there are also those believers who are not very skilled and lack fluency in reciting the Qur'an. Their reading is very interrupted and halting but they do not give up and continue to read in the hope of being rewarded. So, they will get a reward for their recital, and another for the effort they put in. They must, therefore, not lose heart.

Reward Against Recital & Practicing What is Recited

(١٠٨٦/٤٣) عَنْ مَعَاذِ الْجُهَنِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَمِلَ بِمَا فِيهِ الْبَسَ وَالِدَاهُ تَاجًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ ضَوْءُهُ أَحْسَنُ مِنْ ضَوْءِ الشَّمْسِ فِي بُيُوتِ الدُّنْيَا لَوْ كَانَتْ فِيكُمْ فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ بِالَّذِي عَمِلَ بِهَذَا.

(رواه احمد و ابو داود)

(1086/43) It is reported by Mu'aaz al Juhanni ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone recites the Qur'an and acts according to its contents, on the Day of Resurrection his parents will be given to wear a crown whose light is better than the light of the sun in the dwellings of this world if it were among you". He then added, "So what do you think of him who acts according to this?" (Ahmad, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The hadith asks us to imagine what Allah would grant to the man who recites the Qur'an if his parents would be given a crown whose light would outshine the light of the sun.

The Intercession Of The Qur'an

(١٠٨٧/٤٤) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَقُولُ اقْرَأُوا الْقُرْآنَ فَإِنَّهُ يَأْتِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ شَفِيعًا لِأَصْحَابِهِ اقْرَأُوا الزُّهْرَاوِينَ
الْبَقْرَةَ وَسُورَةَ آلِ عِمْرَانَ فَإِنَّهُمَا يَأْتِيَانِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ كَأَنْهُمَا غَمَامَتَانِ أَوْ غَيَّاتَانِ
أَوْ فِرْقَانِ مِنْ طَيْرٍ صَفَوَاتٍ تُحَاجَّانِ عَنْ أَصْحَابِهِمَا اقْرَأُوا سُورَةَ الْبَقْرَةِ فَإِنَّ
أَخَذَهَا بَرَكَةٌ وَتَرَكَهَا حَسْرَةٌ وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُهَا الْبَاطِلُ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1087/44) It is narrated by Abu Umamah Bahili رضي الله عنه that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say "Recite the Qur'an, for on the Day of Resurrection it will come as an intercessor for those who recite it. Recite the two shining ones, Surah Al-Baqarah, and Surah Aal Imran, for on the Day of Resurrection they will come as two clouds or two shades, or two flocks of birds in ranks pleading for those who recite them. Recite surah Al Baqarah for using it produces blessing and abandoning it produces regret, and the slothful are unable to recite it." (Muslim)

Commentary: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has encouraged us to recite the Qur'an and has disclosed that the Qur'an will recommend its people before the Lord. The people of the Qur'an are those people who associate themselves with it having believed in it and taken a keen interest in it to seek the pleasure of Allah and hope for His mercy. There are different ways in which they may do it. Some of these ways are: recite it frequently ponder over it and abide by its commands, preach its teachings and guidance to other people, and so on. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has given glad tidings to such people that the Qur'an will intercede for them. Of course, they must be sincere and seek to please Allah and receive reward.

The Prophet ﷺ has urged us generally to recite the Qur'an as a whole and then mentioned surah al Baqarah and surah Aul Imran in particular. He has said that on the Day of Resurrection and the Day of Gathering when all people will be in need of a shade to protect them from the terribly hot sun, these surahs will cast a shade on their people appearing as clouds or shades of some kind, or birds with wings spread. They will also speak for these people. Finally, the Prophet ﷺ said more about surah al Baqarah, that there is a great blessing in learning it and reciting it but a great loss in keeping oneself deprived of it. The slothful people are unable to handle that. Some of the narrators have suggested that it refers to the sorcerers. Thus it means that one who recites surah Al Baqarah cannot be subdued by sorcery.

We also learn of this characteristic of surah Al Baqarah from the hadith which says:

The devil flees from the house in which surah al Baqarah is recited.¹

Some other scholars have suggested that those who seek the wrong things will not be able to receive its blessings, Allah has closed the doors on them.

(١٠٨٨/٤٥) عَنْ النَّوَاسِ بْنِ سَمْعَانَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ يُوتَى بِالْقُرْآنِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَأَهْلُهُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ بِهِ تَقْدُمُهُ سُورَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ وَالْإِمْرَانِ كَمَا نَهْمَا غَمَامَتَانِ أَوْ ظِلَّتَانِ سَوْدَا وَإِنْ بَيْنَهُمَا شَرْقٌ أَوْ كَأَنَّهُمَا قِرْقَانِ مِنْ طَيْرٍ صَوَافٍ تُحَاجَّانِ عَنْ صَاحِبَيْهِمَا (رواه مسلم)

(1088/45) Sayyidina An Nawas bin Sam'an has said that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say, "On the Day of Resurrection, the Qur'an and those who acted according to it will be brought with Surah Al Baqarah and Surah Aal Imran preceding them like two clouds or canopies with light between them or as though they were flocks of birds in ranks pleading for the ones who recited them." (Muslim)

Commentary: The subject matter of this hadith is similar to that of the hadith narrated by Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه and presented earlier than this. Let us picture the serverity of the Day of Resurrection and the Day of Gathering, and then observe how fortunate will those people be who will have a shade over them on that severe day because of thier exceptional relationship with the Qur'an! They will have taken a keen interest in it and obeyed its commands and thus entitled themselves to its blessings. On that Day of Gathering, the Qur'an will accompany them as their intercessor and friend and its two initial surah Al Baqarah and Aal Imran, will be overhead with their lights..... How deprived are those people who are lazy in obtaining this auspicious blessing even after being told of these ahadith.

ان الشيطان ينفر من البيت الذي يقرأ فيه سورة البقرة — رواه مسلم عن ابي هريره

①. Transmitted by Muslim, narrated by Abu Hurayrah

THE BLESSINGS OF SPECIFIED VERSE & SURAH

Some ahadith also narrate the virtues and blessings of certain verses of the Qur'an and its surah (chapters). The narratives of Sayyidina Abu Umamah Bahili رضي الله عنه, for example, mention the excellence of the entire Qur'an and then make a specific mention of surah Al Baqarah and Aal Imran.

In the same way, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has mentioned the virtues and merits of certain other surah and verses of the Qur'an. We reproduce some ahadith on this topic.

Surah Al-Fatihah

(١٠٨٩/٤٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِأَبِي ابْنِ كَعْبٍ أَتَجِبُ أَنْ أَعْلِمَكَ سُورَةَ لَمْ يَنْزِلْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ وَلَا فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ وَلَا فِي الزَّبُورِ وَلَا فِي الْقُرْآنِ مِثْلَهَا قَالَ نَعَمْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ تَقْرَأُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ قَالَ فَقَرَأَ أَمَّ الْقُرْآنِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ مَا أُنْزِلَتْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ وَلَا فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ وَلَا فِي الزَّبُورِ وَلَا فِي الْقُرْآنِ مِثْلَهَا وَإِنَّهَا سَبْعُ مِنَ الْمَثَانِي وَالْقُرْآنُ الْعَظِيمُ الَّذِي أُعْطِيَتْهُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1089/46) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ "Do you wish that I should teach you the surah of the Qur'an the like of which was not revealed in the Torah, or the Injeel, or the Zaboor and not even in the Qur'an?" Ubayy said, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Yes! do teach me that surah. He asked "How do you recite during the Prayer?" Ubayy read out to the Prophet ﷺ the surah Al Fatihah, (saying that he recited it in prayer in that manner). The Prophet ﷺ said, "By Him in whose Hand is my soul, nothing like it has been sent down in the Torah, the Injeel the Zaboor, or the Qur'an itself. It is the seven often-repeated verses and the mighty Qur'an (سبع من المثاني و القرآن العظيم) which Allah has bestowed on me".

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: In surah Al Hijr, in the Qur'an, Allah has recalled His very special favour that He has bestowed on the Prophet ﷺ. He has said:

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَاكَ سَبْعًا مِّنَ الْمَثَانِي وَالْقُرْآنَ الْعَظِيمَ

And certainly we have given you (O Prophet) the seven of the of-repeated and the Mighty Qur'an. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has pointed out in the foregoing hadith that the seven oft-repeated verses are the surah al-Fatihah. It is such a great surah with much blessings that no other chapter like it was revealed in any celestial Book and the Qur'an too does not have any other surah of similar status. This surah, compresses within itself the subject matter of the whole Qur'an and it is therefore called the Ummal Qur'an (the mother of the Qur'an) and the preface of the Qur'an. It is necessary to recite it in every unit¹ of every prayer. We may say on the basis of this hadith that the believer, who knows surah Al Fatihah by heart and is inclined to recite it sincerely, also owns a large wealth and a huge blessing from Allah. Let him realise its value and greatness and let him fulfil his obligation.

Surah Al-Baqarah

(١٠٩٠/٤٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ سَنَامٌ وَسَنَامُ الْقُرْآنِ سُورَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ وَفِيهَا آيَةٌ هِيَ سَيِّدَةُ آيِ الْقُرْآنِ آيَةُ الْكُرْسِيِّ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1090/47) Sayyindina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said. "Everything has a prominence² (Which is the most elevated and apex part of it) and the Qur'an's prominence is surah Al- Baqarah, and one of its verses (the ayat al Kursi) is the chief of all verses of the Qur'an." (Tirmizi)

①. Every rak'ah of every Salah

②. The Arabic Word سنام means hump

Commentary: The detail with which surah al Baqarah, explains the basic principles and creed of Islam and the injunctions of Shari'ah is not found in any other surah of the Qur'an. Perhaps that is why it has been placed before every other surah of the Qur'an (except al Fatihah) and that is why it is called in the hadith the prominence of the Qur'an سنام القرآن, actually the hump of the Qur'an). But Allah knows best.

(١٠٩١/٤٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَجْعَلُوا بُيُوتَكُمْ مَقَابِرَ وَإِنَّ الْبَيْتَ الَّذِي تُقْرَأُ الْبَقْرَةُ فِيهِ لَا يَدْخُلُهُ الشَّيْطَانُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1091/48) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Do not make your houses grave yards (for there is no Zikr or recital of Qur'an in the graveyard where the dead lie and the atmosphere lacks the blessings of these things). Surely the devil does not enter the house where surah Al Baqarah, is recited (so pet there be Zikr and recital of Qur'an in your houses particularly of Al Baqarah). (Trimizi)

Commentary: Some characteristics apply to the surah of the Qur'an and some of its verses. This hadith tells us about surah al-Baqarah that the devil does not enter the houses where it is recited, and they are safe from his mischief.

In some of the earlier ahadith too we had seen the merits of surah Al Baqarah and surah Aal Imran.

Surah Al-Kahf

(١٠٩٢/٤٩) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ سُورَةَ الْكَهْفِ فِي يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ أَضَاءَ لَهُ النُّورُ مَا بَيْنَ الْجُمُعَتَيْنِ.

(رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1092/49) Sayyindina Abu Sa'eed Al Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ has quoted the Prophet ﷺ as saying, "If anyone recites surah Al Kahf on Friday, light will shine brightly for him between two Fridays."

(Bayhaqi)

Commentary: This hadith tells us that surah Al Baqarah has a distinct relationship with Friday. That is why the Prophet ﷺ has particularly exhorted us to recite it on Friday. He has said that if anyone recites this surah on Friday, an exclusive light will shine in his heart and its brightness and blessing will carry on until next Friday. This hadith has been transmitted by Hakim too, and he has said that its line of transmission is sound.

Surah Yaseen

(١٠٩٣/٥٠) عَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ الْمُزَنِيِّ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ
مَنْ قَرَأَ يَسْنَ إِبْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ فَأَقْرَأُواَهَا عِنْدَ
مَوْتَاكُمْ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1093/50) Sayyindina Ma'qil bin Yasar al Muzani رضي الله عنه has reported the Prophet ﷺ as saying. "If anyone recites surah yaseen. seeking the pleasure of Allah then his past sins will be forgiven. So, recite it before those of you who are dying."

(Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The hadith advises us to recite surah Yaseen, before those of us who are dying (عند موتاكم). The meaning obviously is that we should recite it before the dying person when he is taking his final breath and is on the verge of death. This is the contention of most of the ulama and, hence, the practice continues in this way. However, it could also mean that surah Yassen should be recited over the dead at his grave so that he is forgiven by virtue of the recital.

(١٠٩٤/٥١) عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ قَالَ بَلَغَنِي أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ يَسَ فِي صَدْرِ النَّهَارِ قُضِيَتْ حَوَائِجُهُ (رواه الدارمي مرسلاً)
(1094/50) Sayyidina Ata Ibn Abu Rabah, a taba'ee رحمة الله has said that he had heard of the saying of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. "If anyone recites surah Yaseen at the beginning of the day, his desires will be fulfilled."

(Daarami)

Surah Al Waqi'ah

(١٠٩٥/٥٢) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَرَأَ سُورَةَ الْوَاقِعَةِ فِي كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ لَمْ تُصِبْهُ فَاقَةٌ أَبَدًا وَكَانَ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ يَأْمُرُ بِنَاتِهِ يَقْرَأَنَّ بِهَا فِي كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ (رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1095/52) Sayyidina Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "He who recites surah Al Waqi'ah, every night will never be afflicted by want." (Bayhaqi)

Surah Al Mulk

(١٠٩٦/٥٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ سُورَةَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ ثَلَاثُونَ آيَةً شَفَعَتْ لِرَجُلٍ حَتَّى غُفِرَ لَهُ وَهِيَ تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ (رواه احمد والترمذى و ابو داود والنسائى وابن ماجه)

(1096/53) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "A surah of the Qur'an that has only thirty verses interceded before Allah for a slave until he was forgiven. That surah, is Tabarqk Al lazi biyadihil mulk." (Ahmad Tirmizi Abu Dawood Nasai, Ibn Majah)

Alif Laam meem Tanzeel

(١٠٩٧/٥٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ لَا يَنَامُ حَتَّى يَقْرَأَ أَلَمْ تَنْزِيلَ وَتَبَارَكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ (رواه احمد والترمذى والدارمى)

(1079/54) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه has said that the Holy Prophet ﷺ never did go to sleep till he had recited *Alif Laam Meem Tanzeel*¹ and *Tabarak Allazi bi yadi hil Mul*². (Ahmad, Tirmizi, Darami)

Surah Al A'la

(١٠٩٨/٥٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُحِبُّ هَذِهِ السُّورَةَ "سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى" (رواه احمد)

(1098/55) It is narrated by Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that this surah (Sabbihisma Rabbikal A'la)¹ was very dear to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (Ahmad)

Commentary: We have seen already in the Kitab As-Salah, the ahadith which tell us that the Prophet ﷺ frequently recited the surah Al-A'la in the first raka'ah, of Friday prayers and Eid prayers. This was his practice because the subject matter and the message of this surah were very dear to him.

Surah At Takathur

(١٠٩٩/٥٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَحَدُكُمْ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ أَلْفَ آيَةٍ فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ؟ قَالُوا وَمَنْ يَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ أَلْفَ آيَةٍ فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ؟ قَالَ أَمَّا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَحَدُكُمْ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ أَلْفَ آيَةٍ فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1099/56) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar ﷺ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked "Can anyone of you not recite a thousand verses daily?" They (his Companions ﷺ) said, "Who can recite a thousand verses daily?" So, he asked "Can anyone of you not recite al-haakumut takaa thur?"¹ (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: Some of the small chapters of the Qur'an contain very important message so that in respect of thier significance and message they equal thousands of verses. surah At-Taka thur, is one of them. It strikes a hard blow on those who seek worldly pleasures and forget the Hereafter. It describes vividly the reckoning and the punishment in Hell so that, unless his heart is dead to reception, the man is bound to awaken to the realities of the Hereafter and worry about his fate.

Perhaps this is why the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has compared recital of this surah, to the recital of one thousand verses. We must bear this in mind when we read the ahadith that will follow and exhort us to recite some of the Qur'an describing them as like one-half of the Qur'an, or one third, or one fourth. It is possible that reward on reciting them may accrue accordingly, for the treasures of Allah are greater than that we imagine.

Surah Az-Zilzal, Al Kafiroom & Al-Ikhlās

(١١٠٠/٥٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "إِذَا زُلْزِلَتْ" تَعْدِلُ نِصْفَ الْقُرْآنِ وَ "قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ" (اخلاص ١:١١٢) تَعْدِلُ ثُلُثَ الْقُرْآنِ وَ "قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ" (كفرون ١:١٠٩) تَعْدِلُ رُبْعَ الْقُرْآنِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1100/57) It is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidina Anas bin Malik رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "*Iza Zulzilat*¹ is equivalent to half the Qur'an, and *Qul huw Aliahu Ahad*² is equivalent to a third of the Qur'an, and *Qulyaa ayyuh Al Kafrioon*³ is equivalent to a quarter of the Qur'an.

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Qiyamah, or the Day of Resurrection, is described in the surah Az Zilzaal and a vivid picture is drawn. Its last two verses are:

فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ

(الزلزال ٨٠٧:٩٩)

So whosoever has done an atom's weight of good, shall see it,
And whosoever has done an atom's weight of evil, shall see it.

(Az Zilzaal 99:7-8).

In spite of its brevity it speaks of reward and punishment effectively. If we write a volume on this subject, that would not be as effective as these verses are. It is perhaps because of this distinction that this surah has been declared as equivalent to one-half of the Qur'an.

In the same way, surah Al Ikhlas mentions very briefly the unity of Allah, His Independence and His perfect attributes in marvellous way. This is indeed, peculiar to this called equivalent to one-third of the Qur'an.

As for the Surah Al Kafiroon, it declares freedom from polytheism and polytheists in a very interesting way and so gives a lesson in pure unity way and so gives a lesson in pure unity of Allah. (That, indeed, is the base of religion). It is possibly for this peculiarity of the surah that it is termed equivalent to one fourth of the Qur'an. And Allah knows best.

①. Surah Az Zilzaal

②. Surah Al-Ikhlas

③. Surah Al-Kafiroon

(١١٠١/٥٨) عَنْ قُرَّةَ بْنِ نَوْفَلٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَلِّمْنِي شَيْئًا أَقُولُهُ إِذَا أَوَيْتُ إِلَى فِرَاشِي فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ "قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ (الكفرون ١:١٠٩)"
 (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد والنسائی)

(1101/58) Farwah bin Naufal has quoted his father as saying that he had asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to teach him something to say when he went to bed and he ﷺ said, "Recite Qul Yaa Ayyuhal Kafiroon for it is a declaration of freedom from polytheism."
 (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasai)

(١١٠٢/٥٩) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيْعِجُزُ أَحَدُكُمْ أَنْ يَقْرَأَ فِي لَيْلَةٍ تِلْكَ الْقُرْآنَ قَالُوا وَكَيْفَ يَقْرَأُ تِلْكَ الْقُرْآنَ قَالَ "قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ (اخلاص ١:١١٢)" يَعْدِلُ تِلْكَ الْقُرْآنَ. (رواه مسلم ورواه البخاري)

عن ابی سعید وروی الترمذی عن ابی ایوب الانصاری بمعناه
 (1102/59) Sayyidina Alou Darda, ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked, "Is anyone of you incapable of reciting a third of the Qur'an in a night?" The companions ؓ asked, "How can anyone recite a third of the Qur'an?" He said to them, "Qulhuwa Allahu Ahad is equivalent to a third of the Qur'an."
 (Muslim)

Imam Bukhari has transmitted the same hadith from Abu Sa'eed Al-khudri ؓ

Surah Al-Ikhlās

(١١٠٣/٦٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أُحِبُّ هَذِهِ السُّورَةَ قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ (اخلاص ١:١١٢) قَالَ إِنَّ حُبَّكَ إِيَّاهَا أَذْخَلَكَ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه الترمذی وروی البخاری بمعناه)

(1103/60) Sayyidina Anas ؓ has reported that a man told the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that he held the Surah Qul Huw-Allahu dear. The Prophet ﷺ heard a man recite *Qul Huw-Allahu Ahad*¹ and remarked "It is certain." I (Abu Hurayrah ؓ) asked him what was certain, and he asserted. "Paradise!"

(Muwatta Imam Malik, Tirmizi, Nasa'i)

Commentary: The Companions ؓ received their education and training directly from the Prophet ﷺ and they were very eager to imitate him and follow in his footsteps all the time. Naturally, they must be reciting the Qur'an very effectively, particularly the chapters and verses declaring the oneness of Allah and His attributes. The condition of the hearts of the reciter must have been very obvious to their listeners to whom it may have seemed that they heard Allah from the reciters tongue. The Companion ﷺ who is stated in this hadith to be reciting Surah Al-Ikhlās must have been going through a similar experience and Prophet ﷺ may have observed that. The intensity of his feelings and the degree of his faith prompted the Prophet ﷺ to comment that paradise was obligatory for him.

(١١٠٥/٦٢) عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يَنَامَ عَلَى فِرَاشِهِ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَقُولُ لَهُ الرَّبُّ يَا عَبْدِي أَذْخُلُ عَلَى يَمِينِكَ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1105/62) Sayyidina Anas bin Maalik ﷺ has reported the Prophet ﷺ as saying, "If anyone who is about to sleep on his bed recites Qul huwAllahu Ahad a hundred times, Allah will say to him on the Day of Resurrection: O slave! Enter Paradise to your right!"

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The words على يمينك (to your right) could mean that Paradise would be to the right of the slave where he stands at the place of reckoning. He would be told to turn to his right and go to Paradise.

The other meaning could be that the right side of Paradise would be superior to its left portion. The slave would be told, "Go to the right portion of Paradise!"

Indeed, this is a very good bargain for it asks to recite Surah Al-Ikhlās only a hundred times before going to sleep to be allowed admittance to Paradise. May Allah enable us to do this thing which is not a very difficult task. Some of Allah's slaves practice much more than this before they go to sleep every night.

Ma'oozatayn

(١١٠٦/٦٣) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَمْ تَرَ آيَاتِ أَنْزَلَتْ الْإِلَهَ لَمْ يَرْمِثْهُنَّ قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ (العلق ١:١١٢) وَ قُلْ

أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ (الناس ١:١١٤).

(رواه مسلم)

(1106/63) It is reported by Sayyidina Uqbah bin Amir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "what wonderful verses have been sent down tonight! The like of them has never been seen.

They are *Qula'oozu bi Rabbil falaq*¹ and Qul A'oozu bi Rabbil Naas.²" (Muslim)

Commentary: These two chapters are unique in that from the beginning to the end their subject is uniform — the refuge of Allah is sought from the apparent and hidden mischief. They are very effective in protecting from evil and mischief as a strong fortress. Both the chapters are brief in words but very comprehensive and enough.

(١١٠٧/٦٤) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ بَيْنَا أَنَا أَسِيرُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ الْجُحْفَةِ وَالْأَبْوَاءِ إِذْ غَشِيَتْنَا رِيحٌ وَظُلْمَةٌ شَدِيدَةٌ فَجَعَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَعَوَّذُ بِأَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَأَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ وَيَقُولُ

يَا عُقْبَةُ تَعَوَّذْ بِهِمَا فَمَا تَعَوَّذَ مُتَعَوِّذٌ بِمِثْلِهِمَا

(رواه ابو داود)

(1107/64) Sayyidina Uqbah bin Amir رضي الله عنه said, "While I was travelling with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ between Al-Juhfah and Al-Abwa' (two places between Makkah and Madina), a wind and intense darkness enveloped us whereupon the Messenger of Allah ﷺ began to seek refuge in Allah reciting these two chapters (the Ma'oozatayn). He then asked me, 'Uqbah, you too recite these two surah and seek protection with Allah, for no one has given protection as they give.' (He meant that there was no supplication comparable to them to seek refuge in Allah. They are unique in this regard.)" (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: We learn from this hadith that when anyone faces a difficulty and danger, he may defend himself by reciting these two chapters, known as the Ma'oozatayn, and seeking protection of

①. Surah Al-Falaq

②. Surah An-Naas

Allah. There is no other way better than this — nay, as good as it — to seek the protection of Allah.

(١١٠٨/٦٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا أَوَى إِلَى فِرَاشِهِ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ جَمَعَ كَفَيْهِ ثُمَّ نَفَثَ فِيهِمَا فَقَرَأَ فِيهِمَا قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ (اخلاص ١:١١٢) وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ (الناس ١:١١٤) ثُمَّ يَمْسَحُ بِهِمَا مَا اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْ جَسَدِهِ يَبْدَأُ بِهِمَا عَلَى رَأْسِهِ وَوَجْهِهِ وَمَا أَقْبَلَ مِنْ جَسَدِهِ يَفْعَلُ ذَلِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1108/65) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that they Holy Prophet ﷺ, when he went to his bed every night, joined his hands together (as one does in supplication) and breathed into them, reciting *Qul huwAllahu Ahad*¹, *Qula`zooubi Rabbilfalaq*² and *Qula`zooubi Rabbin naas*³. Then he would wipe as much of his body as he could with his hands, beginning with his head, his face and the front of his body (following it with the rest of his body as far as his hands would carry), doing it three times.

(Bukhari)

Commentary: This brief practice of the Prophet ﷺ before he retired for the night should be very easy for us to imitate and we must do this much, at least, before we go to sleep. Its blessings are beyond words. May Allah incline us to do that!

①. Al-Ikhlās,

②. Al-falaq,

③. An-naas.

MERIT OF SOME SPECIFIED VERSES

We have seen that the Foregoing ahadith related the merit of some of the chapters of the Qur'an. In the same way, some ahadith tell us of the merit and significance of some verses of the Qur'an. We present here some of them.

Aayat Al-Kursi

(١٠٩/٦٦) عَنْ أَبِي بِنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا أَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ أَتَدْرِي أَيُّ آيَةٍ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى مَعَكَ أَعْظَمُ؟ قُلْتُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَعْلَمُ قَالَ يَا أَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ أَتَدْرِي أَيُّ آيَةٍ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى مَعَكَ أَعْظَمُ؟ قُلْتُ "اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ؟ قَالَ فَضْرَبُ فِي صَدْرِي وَقَالَ لِيَهْنِكَ الْعِلْمُ يَا أَبَا الْمُنْذِرِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1109/66) Sayyidina Ubayy bin Ka'b ؓ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (addressing him by his kunyah) said to him, "Abul Munzir رحمه الله عليه, do you know which verse of the book of Allah that you have is greatest?" He replied, "Allah and His Messenger ﷺ know best." So, the Prophet ﷺ repeated the question, "O Abul Munzir, do you know which verse of the Book of Allah that you have is greatest?" He replied, "Allahu Laa ilaha illa huwa al-Hayyu al-Qayyum.¹" Thereupon, the Prophet ﷺ struck him on the breast (as if to applaud him) and said, "May this knowledge suit you, Abul Munzir!" (Muslim)

Commentary: When the Prophet ﷺ asked him the first time Ubayy bin Ka'b ؓ replied, "Allah and his Messenger ﷺ know best," (which of the verses is greatest). This answer followed the demands of etiquette, but when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him a second time, Ubayy bin Ka'b ؓ replied according to the knowledge he had and how he understood it. He said that he thought the verse was the aayat al-kursi (the 255th verse of Surah Al-Baqarah). The Prophet ﷺ confirmed that he was right and commended him by striking at his chest because that houses the heart (the receptive of intimate knowledge). Anyway, this hadith discloses to us that the aayat al-kursi is the greatest of the verses of Qur'an because it declares the unity of Allah and His purity and perfect attributes as also His greatness and Majesty. In this sense, this verse is unique and unmatched.

1. Surah Al Baqarah (2:255)

The Last Verses of Surah Al-Baqarah

(١١١٠/٦٧) عَنْ أَبِي عَمْرِو بْنِ عَبْدِ الْكَلَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَأَيُّ سُورَةِ الْقُرْآنِ أَكْبَرُ؟ قَالَ قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ قَالَ فَأَيُّ آيَةٍ فِي الْقُرْآنِ أَكْبَرُ؟ قَالَ آيَةُ الْكُرْسِيِّ "اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ" قَالَ فَأَيُّ آيَةٍ يَأْتِيَنَّ اللَّهَ تَحِبُّ أَنْ تُصَيِّكَ وَأُمَّتَكَ؟ قَالَ خَاتِمَةُ سُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ خَزَائِنِ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى مِنْ تَحْتِ عَرْشِهِ أَعْطَاهَا هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةَ لَمْ تَتْرُكْ خَيْرًا مِنْ خَيْرِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا أَشْتَمَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه الدارمي)

(1110/67) Sayyidina Ayfa' bin Abd Al-Kila'ee (a Taba'ee) said that a man asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "which surah of the Qur'an is the greatest?" He was told that it is Qul Huwallahu Ahad (al-Ikhlās). He then asked, "which verse of the Qur'an is the greatest," and was told that aayat al-kursi, (allahu Laaila illaHuwal hayyul Qayyum) is the greatest verse. He asked once again, "O Prophet of Allah, which verse would you like to benefit you and your Ummah." The Prophet ﷺ said, "The last verses beginning with Aamanar Rasulu to the end of the surah" He also said that these verses were from the treasures of Allah's mercy from under His Throne which He has given to this people and there is no good in this world and the next which it does not include.

(Darami)

Commentary: The distinction of Surah Al-Ikhlās and the aayat al-kursi has been mentioned already by us. The foregoing hadith tells us about the last verses of surah Al-Baqarah that they are part of the treasures of Allah's mercy from under His Throne which He has given to the people of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. The initial words from Aqmar Rasoolu to laa nufar riqu bayna ahadin min rasulih, exhort Belivers to refresh their faith. The words sami'na wa ata'na extol them to submission and obedience and make them promise accordingly. Then ghufranaka rabbana wa ilaykalmaseer are words of the Belivers seeking His forgiveness for their lapses. The words Laa Yukatalu Allahu nafsan illa wus'aha console the weak salves and assure them that they will not be over-burdened nor will they be asked to do anything that is beyond their capacity to do. The final words from Rabbana laa tu aakhizna, to the end of surah exhort the Beliver to make a comprehensive supplication.

Surely, these verses are by themselves a treasure of the mercy of Allah. May Allah cause us to realise their value and benefit from them.

(١١١١/٦٨) عَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَتَمَ سُورَةَ الْبَقَرَةِ بَابَتَيْنِ أُعْطِيَتْهُمَا مِنْ كَنْزِهِ الَّذِي تَحْتَ الْعَرْشِ فَتَعَلَّمُوهُنَّ وَعَلِّمُوهُنَّ وَعَلِّمُوهُنَّ نِسَاءَكُمْ فَإِنَّهَا صَلَوةٌ وَقِرْبَانٌ وَدُعَاءٌ (رواه الدارمي مرسلاً)
(1111/68) Sayyidina Jubayr bin Nufayr, Taba'ee رحمه الله عليه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Allah finished Surah Al-Baqarah with two verses which I have been given from His treasure which is under the Throne, so learn them and teach them to your womenfolk, for they are a blessing, a means of approach (to Allah) and a supplication. (Darami)

Commentary: It must be understood that Jubayr bin Nufayr رحمه الله who has narrated this hadith as from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was a Taba'ee, a successor of the companion ﷺ from whom he had heard this hadith. Hence this hadith is called mursl in the terminology of the science of hadith. It is the same thing with the preceding hadith narrated by Ayfa' رحمه الله who was also a taba'ee and who too has not named the companion from when he had heard the hadith.

(١١١٢/٦٩) عَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا يَتَانِ مِنْ آخِرِ سُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ مَنْ قَرَأَهُمَا فِي لَيْلَةٍ كَفْتَأَهُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1112/69) Sayyidinalbn Mas'ud رحمه الله has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said "If anyone recites the two verses at the end of Surah Al-Baqarah at night that would be enough for him."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The hadith means to tell us that if anyone recites the last verses of Surah Al-Baqarah at night, Insha Allah he will be safe from harm. It could also mean that if anyone recites only these verses at the time of tahajjud, then that would suffice But Allah knows best.

Last Verses of Surah Aal Imran

(١١٣/٧٠) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ مَنْ قَرَأَ آخِرَ آلِ عِمْرَانَ فِي لَيْلَةٍ كُتِبَ

(رواه دارمی)

لَهُ قِيَامُ لَيْلَةٍ

(1113/70) Sayyidina Uthman bin 'Affan رضی اللہ عنہ said, "If anyone recites the closing verses of Surah Aal Imran on a night, the reward for a night spent in prayer will be recorded for him."

(Darami)

Commentary: The closing verses of Surah Aal Imran are the verses beginning with the words, inna fi khalqis samawati walard, (verse 190 onwards). The authentic ahadith, tell us that when he woke up for tahajjud the Prophet ﷺ first recited these verses (even before he made the ablution)

These verse of the last ruku (section) of Aal-Imran are comprehansive like the last verses of Al-Baqarah, made up of supplication. The particular merit of this section depends on the supplication. The words are put on the tongue of the slave who ponders over the universe and its creation and who remembers Allah under all circumstances. The words:

Our Lord! you have not created this vain. Glory be to You! Save us form the chastisement of the Fire. Our Lord! Whomsoever You admit in to the fire, You have surely humiliated him and for the evildoers shall be no helpers. Our Lord ! we have heard a caller, calling us to belief, saying, "Believe you in

رَبَّنَا مَا خَلَقْتَ هَذَا بَاطِلًا
سُبْحَانَكَ فَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ رَبَّنَا
إِنَّكَ مَنْ تَدْخُلِ النَّارَ فَقَدْ أَخْزَيْتَهُ
وَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ أَنْصَارٍ رَبَّنَا إِنَّنا
سَمِعْنَا مُنَادِيًا يُنَادِي لِلْإِيمَانِ أَنْ
آمِنُوا بِرَبِّكُمْ فَأَمْنًا رَبَّنَا فَاعْفُورُنَا
ذُنُوبَنَا وَكَفِّرْ عَنَّا سَيِّئَاتِنَا وَتَوَفَّنَا your Lord." So we believed,

Our Lord! Therefore forgive us our sins and remit us out evil deeds and make us die with the pious. Our Lord! Grant us that which You have promised us

مَعَ الْأَبْرَارِ ۚ رَبَّنَا وَاتَّخِذْنَا
عَلَىٰ رُسُلِكَ وَلَا تُخْزِنَا يَوْمَ
الْقِيَامَةِ ۚ إِنَّكَ لَا تُخْلِفُ
الْمِيعَادَ. (ال عمران ٣: ١٩١-١٩٤) through Your Messenger, and humiliate us not on the Day of Resurrection. Surely You never failest (Your) promise!"

(Aal Imran, 3:191-194)

This Supplication in the last ruku of Surah Aal Imran is among the few most comprehensive supplications of the Qur'an. The merit of this ruku, as we have stated already, is because of this supplication. The saying of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه that he who will recite these verses in the night will be recorded as one who has stood night-long in voluntary prayers is obviously according to what he had heard from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. None of the Companions رضي الله عنهم ever said anything on his own without hearing it from the Prophet ﷺ. Hence, this hadith is hadith marfoo.

Observation: Among the extraordinary Mercy of Allah on the Ummah of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is that on a little effort, He gives great reward. There are many possibilities and ways in which one can claim exceptionally great rewards which He has promised the Ummah through His Messenger ﷺ. Thus, those people who are unable to do many good deeds, or any of the great deeds, may entitle themselves to higher rewards by performing the little deeds.

The foregoing ahadith which cite the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as mentioning the virtues of specified surah and verses of the Qur'an are among these glad tidings. The purpose behind these ahadith is to guide those slaves of Allah who cannot recite the Qur'an very much to receive a large share of rewards and special favours of Allah by reciting these specified verses or surah. It is, therefore, the right of these ahadith on us that we believe in them and recite these surah and verses of the Qur'an. We may thereby receive the special favours of Allah and if we do not do it we will be depriving ourselves of these blessings.

The seventy ahadith narrated thus far were about Zikr and recital of the Qur'an. We now present ahadith about du'a. These focus on the significance of supplication, guide us concerning du'a and have preserved for us the supplication of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The supplication of the Prophet ﷺ are indeed a great heritage for his people. The book is wound up with istighfar and durood (seeking forgiveness and invoking blessings on the Prophet ﷺ)

DU`A (Supplication)

Allah, the Exalted, has bestowed upon the Prophet ﷺ with many marvelous and distinctions, the most excellent of which is the station of perfect worship.

What is worship? It is an unrelenting steadfast demonstration before Allah of extreme humility, servitude, submissiveness, incompetent helplessness and complete dependency, and it is to know with certainty that He owns everything and to place all hope in Him alone. This complete attitude is what raises a person to the station of worship which is the highest and supreme station. Indeed Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ is the perfect and highest of all creatures on this station and, therefore, the best of all creatures and the noblest.

Everything is considered perfect or imperfect according to how it fares in its own field and meets the purpose for which it is created. For instance, a horse is brought into existences for man to ride it and for its swiftness and it will be measured as perfect or imperfect according to how it fares on this standard. similarly, a cow is placed on the scale of perfection according to the milk it yields. On the same basis, the creator of mankind has set man's purpose servitude and worship.

And I have not created the jinn and mankind but to worship me.

(Az Zariyat, 51:56)

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا
لِيَعْبُدُونِ (الذاريات ٥٦:٥١)

Thus the best and the noblest of men will be he who is the most perfect and the highest on the scale of worship and servitude to Allah. And Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ is above everyone else on the scale of worship and servitude to Allah, so he is the most excellent and the noblest of all creatures. Hence, whenever he is mentioned in the Qur'an for his greatest characteristics and marvels, and everytime the special favours on him from Allah are recalled, he is referred to with the most honourable epithet — 'abd (slave).¹

When the mi'raj (his ascension to the heavens) is recalled, the Qur'an says:

Glorified be He who carried His servant (Muhammad) by night

(Al-Isra, 17:1)

سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ
(الاسراء ١٧:١)

Again, when the final stages of this very journey (mi'raj) are mentioned, the Qur'an says:

Thus did (Allah) reveal to His servant (Muhammad) that which He revealed.

(An Najm, 53:10)

فَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ عَبْدِهِ مَا أَوْحَىٰ
(النجم ٥٣:١٠)

Then Allah mentions the greatest blessing, the revelation of the Qur'an and says:

Blessed is He who sent down the criterion (the Qur'an) to
His servant (Muhammad)

(Al-Furqan, 25:1)

تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ الْفُرْقَانَ عَلَىٰ
عَبْدِهِ
(الفرقان ٢٥:١)

And also:

All praise belongs to Allah
Who has revealed the Book to
His servant (Muhammad)

(Al Kahf, 18:1)

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَىٰ عَبْدِهِ
الْكِتَابَ
(الكهف ١٨:١)

The gist of the discussion is that the highest station for man is that of servitude and worship to Allah and Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ is the leader on this scale. He is the highest on this standard of description.

Du'a (supplication) is the gem of worship and the most prominent demonstration of it. When a slave makes a (sincere) supplication to Allah, he is drowned in servitude both outwardly and inwardly. Therefore of the conditions and characteristics of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ the most predominant is of du'a of the great treasures of the spiritual blessings that his people got through him, the most precious are the supplications for different moments which he himself made to Allah or exhorted his people to make.

Some of these supplications relate to particular conditions and moments or specified purposes and needs. Most, however, are of a general nature. A general practical aspect of the value and benefit of these supplication is that we learn from them the etiquette and way to make a supplications to Allah and to beseech Him for our needs. We get guidance which is not found elsewhere. We have next the scholarly aspect with an intimate awareness that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had a deep spiritual link with Allah at every moment of his life, and that his heart was impressed by its majesty and beauty. We learn too that he was constantly aware of his own and of every other creature's entire helplessness and complete dependence on Allah and of the Omnipotence and continuous mercy of the Sovereign, king of kings and His perpetual nourishing of the creatures. This awareness of the Prophet ﷺ was to such a degree that the unseen looked like the obvious and seen.

If we ponder over the hundreds of supplications available in the treasures of hadith then we will feel clearly that they reflect an awareness of Allah and the Prophet's ﷺ spiritual perfectness and his sincere relationship with Him. In this way. Each of his supplications is his perfect miracle صلى الله عليه وآله وبارك وسلم. May blessings of Allah on him and his family, and may His favours and peace be on him.

It has been my practice to recite some of the supplications of the Prophet ﷺ before educated and intelligent non-Muslims whenever I meet them. My experience with them is that almost all of them are most impressed by the Prophet's ﷺ Du'a (supplications) — more than anything else. They are left in no doubt concerning his perfect link with Allah and His awareness.

After these introductory words, let us now read the ahadith in which the Prophet ﷺ has exhorted us to make supplications to that conduct. He has shown us the manners and etiquettes of making supplication and told us how to do it. After that, we will present those ahadith in a sequence in which are found supplications which he made to Allah on particular occasions or exhorted us to make them.

The Position of Dua And Its Importance

(١١١٤/٧١) عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الِدُعَاءُ هُوَ الْعِبَادَةُ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ "وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ
يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ (المؤمنون ٤٠:٦٠)

(رواه احمد و الترمذى و ابو داؤد والنسائى وابن ماجه)

(1114/71) Sayyidina Numan bin Bashir رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Supplication is worship," and he then recited the verse:

And your Lord says, "Call upon Me, and I shall answer you. Surely those who are too arrogant to worship me, they enter Hell disgraced."

وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ
لَكُمْ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ
عِبَادَتِي سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ
(المؤمن ٤٠:٦٠)

(Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The words of the hadith itself are simply. "Supplication is worship." The hadith perhaps means that a slave must not bracket his supplication with his other efforts to get his needs and desires so that if it is approved then he considers himself successful but if it is not approved then he thinks that his effort was in vain. Rather, supplication has a nature of its own and that is that beside being a means to receipt of worship. In fact, it is one's desires it is by itself a form of worship. Hence, from that point of view it is a sacred deed of the slave against which he would be rewarded in the Hereafter, surely.

The verse of the Qur'an that the Prophet ﷺ recited in support of his saying confirms that Allah regards supplications worship. The next hadith describes du'a as the narrow and essence of worship.

(١١١٥/٧٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الدُّعَاءُ مَخْ

الْعِبَادَةُ (رواه الترمذى)

(1115/72) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that, "Supplication is the pith of worship."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The spirit of worship is to be humble before Allah and to show extreme humility and submission to Him. This, in fact, is the total nature of du'a — its first part and last, its obvious and hidden. Therefore, du'a is undoubtedly the pith and essence of worship.

(١١١٦/٧٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ شَيْءٌ أَكْرَمَ عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنَ الدُّعَاءِ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابن ماجه)

(1116/73) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ told us that nothing is more honourable in the sight of Allah than supplication.
(Tirmizi, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Once we know that du'a is the essence and gist of worship and man is created to worship Allah then we should understand that of the deeds and conditions of men, du'a is the most honourable and precious thing. Besides it is most effective in attracting the mercy and help of Allah.

(١١١٧/٧٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ فَتِحَ لَهُ مِنْكُمْ بَابُ الدُّعَاءِ فَتَحَتْ لَهُ أَبْوَابُ الرَّحْمَةِ وَمَا سُئِلَ اللَّهُ شَيْئًا يَغْنَى أَحَبُّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ الْعَافِيَةَ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1117/74) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, " If the gate of supplication is opened for anyone of you then the gates of mercy will be opened for him. And nothing that Allah is asked for is as dear to Him as to be asked for security.
(Tirmizi)

Commentary: Security is to be protected from all trial and tribulations of this world and the next whether they are apparent or unseen. Thus any one who prays to Allah for security in fact concedes that, without the proection of Allah and His merey. He cannot even continue to live and is unable to save himself from a minor or major disaster or hardship. Thus, such a supplication is a confession of ones absolute helplessness and incompetence which is the essence of servitude. Thus, the supplication for security is dear to Allah more than any other supplication.

The next thing the hadith tells us is about the door of supplication being opened. It means that the reality of supplication is realised and one learns how to ask Allah. The hadith goes on to say that for such a person the door of Allah's mercy will be opened. Actually, supplication is not a name applied to the beseeching words uttered by the tongue which, at the most, are a dressing or a frame, but, it is the urge and the yearning of his heart. The gate which the hadith speaks of as opening is indeed this state of the supplicant. When he attains this state of mind and heart then the doors of mercy do open for him. May Allah grant us this condition and status.

(١١١٨/٧٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَمْ

(رواه الترمذی)

يَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ يَغْضَبَ عَلَيْهِ.

(1118/75) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Allah will be angry with those who do not make requests from Him." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: There is no one in the world who gets angry if a request is not made to him. Even parents lose their temper if children ask them again and again for something. But, this saying of the Prophet ﷺ informs us that Allah is so very much merciful and benevolent on His slaves that He gets angry on the slaves who does not ask Him for any thing, and loves the slave who makes a request to Him. We have seen a hadith that the deed of His slave dearest to Him is supplication and request:

(Praise belongs to you, O Lord of the worlds and O The Most Merciful of those who show mercy.)

لَكَ الْحَمْدُ يَا رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ

وَيَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

(١١١٩/٧٦) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَأَلُوا اللَّهَ

مِنْ فَضْلِهِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ أَنْ يُسْأَلَ وَأَفْضَلُ الْعِبَادَةِ أَنْ تَنْتَظِرَ الْقَرْجَ (رواه الترمذی)

(1119/76) It is related by Sayyidina Ibn Masud رضی اللہ عنہ that Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Ask Allah to grant from His bounties (that is. ask Him for His favours and mercy) for Allah loves to be asked. And the most excellent worship is hope and expectation of relief (from anxiety and distress, and it is a great form of worship because of its humble concentration) (Tirmizi)

Approval Of Supplication

(١١٢٠/٧٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الدُّعَاءَ يَنْفَعُ مِمَّا نَزَلَ وَمِمَّا لَمْ يَنْزَلْ فَعَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادَ اللَّهِ بِالْدُّعَاءِ.

(رواه الترمذی ورواه احمد عن معاذ بن جبل)

(1120/77) Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Supplication is beneficial regarding the accidents that have happened and the accidents that have not yet happened. So, O slaves of Allah, devote yourselves to supplication!" (Tirmizi)

(Imam Ahmed has transmitted this hadith in his musnad from Muza bin Jabal instead of Abdullah bin Umer.)

Commentary: It means that one must also pray for relief from the anxiety and distress that has not descended on one but there are fears about it Insha Allah supplication for relief will avert that threat. one must also supplicate Allah to ward off what has descended of anxiety and distress. Insha Allah that would be removed, and Allah would bestow security.

(١١٢١/٧٨) عَنْ سَلْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ رَبِّكُمْ حَسْبُ كَرِيمٌ يَسْتَحْيِي مِنْ عَبْدِهِ إِذَا رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ أَنْ يَرُدَّهُمَا صِفْرًا

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1121/78) Sayyidina Salman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "your Lord is extremely munificent and generous, and is ashamed to turn away empty the hands to a slave when he raises them to Him." (He does give him something.) (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

(١١٢٢/٧٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَى مَا يَنْجِيكُمْ مِنْ عَدُوِّكُمْ وَيَذُرُّ لَكُمْ أَرْزَاقَكُمْ تَدْعُونَ اللَّهَ فِي لَيْلِكُمْ وَنَهَارِكُمْ فَإِنَّ الدُّعَاءَ سِلَاحُ الْمُؤْمِنِ.

(رواه ابو يعلى فى مسنده)

(1122/79) Sayyidina Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "Shall I not point out to you what will rescue you from your enemy. and give you abundant livelihood? Supplicate Allah in your nights and your days, for supplication is the weapon of the Believer." (Abu Yala)

Commentary: Du'a is what emerges from the depths of the heart with a firm conviction that the treasures of heaven and earth are only in the Hands of Allah and He distributes them as He pleases. He grants them to the supplicants who knock at His door. An aspirant must realise that he will get his wish only when Allah gives it to him and he cannot get it from anyone else. It is this firm conviction coupled with a realisation of one's own utter helplessness that grows a feeling in the slave which the Qur'an has described as اضطرار (compulsion, force exigency, need). This is the spirit of du'a, and it is a fact that Allah approves a man's supplication which he makes to Him with this frame of mind to get relief from an enemy or any other anxiety, or to seek enhanced livelihood, or to fulfil one of his needs. Undoubtedly, therefore, du'a is a great weapon in the hands of such slaves of Allah who are blessed with faith and belief and who are aware of the power of supplication.

Guidance Concerning Du'a

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has give certain guidance concerning supplication. A supplicant must keep them before him while making a supplication.

(١١٢٣/٨٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
أَدْعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَنْتُمْ مُوقِنُونَ بِالْإِجَابَةِ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَسْتَجِيبُ دُعَاءَ مَنْ قَلَبٍ
غَافِلٍ لَاهٍ.

(رواه الترمذی)
(1123/80) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "make your supplication to Allah with a firm conviction of being answered. know that Allah does not answer a supplication that comes from a careless and inattentive heart."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The heart must be turned in properly to Allah at the time of making a supplication with an eye on his munificence and liberality and certainty of getting what one asks for the supplication that is made with a doubtful heart and lack of assurance will be spiritless.

(١١٢٤/٨١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَعَا أَحَدُكُمْ فَلَا يَقُلْ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي إِنْ شِئْتَ اِرْحَمْنِي إِنْ شِئْتَ أَرْزُقْنِي إِنْ شِئْتَ وَلْيَعِزُّمْ مَسْئَلَتَهُ إِنَّهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَلَا مَكْرَهَ لَهُ. (رواه البخارى)

(1124/81) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "when one of you makes a supplication let him not say. O Allah, forgive me if You will; show mercy to me, if You will; provide for me if You will. But, he must make his request definite. Surely, He does what He wills and there is no one to impose compulsion on Him."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The hadith stresses on the point that the demand of humility, dependence helplessness and request is that the supplicant must beseech his Lord without any sort of doubt and without a wavering mind. he should not say to the Benevolent Lord, "O Allah, if you wish, do it this way". This sort of a request has a semblance of showing independence and unconcern and it is contrary to the station of servitude and etiquette of supplication. Besides, such a supplication is lifeless. Therefore, a slave should make a supplication in this way, "My Lord, Do answer my supplication!" Surely, Allah will do as He pleases and there is none who can compell Him to do against His will.

(١١٢٥/٨٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يَسْتَجِيبَ اللَّهُ لَهُ عِنْدَ الشَّدَائِدِ فَلْيَكْثِرِ الدُّعَاءَ فِي الرِّخَاءِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1125/82) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said, "If anyone likes that Allah should grant him his supplications in times of difficulty and anxiety then he must make many supplications when times are easy."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: It is confirmed through experience that those people have a very weak link with Allah who turn to Him only in times of difficulty and anxiety and raise thier hands in supplication only in such a situation. Such people lack that confidence in the mercy of Allah which produces soul and life in their supplication. In contrast those slaves of Allah who are accustomed to request Him for their needs at all times have a strong link with Him and they have much confidence in the mercy of Allah on which they continue to rely. Thus their supplication is very strong.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has given us the advice in this hadith that we must make plenty of supplications to Allah in days of happiness and prosperity. The result will be that we will establish connection whereby our supplications in days of difficulty will be granted to us.

Do Not be Impatient For a Response

Du'a is an application from a slave to Allah who is the Absolute Owner and the Omnipotent. If He will He may grant the slave's request at the very moment but it is against His Wisdom to give the ingnorant and unjust slave promptly on his request. In fact, often it is in the interest of the slave that his request should be considered after some delay, but man is hasty and he always hopes to get what he asks for to be given to him promptly. When he does not get that immediately, he becomes despondent and stops making a supplication. Here lies his mistake which dis-entitles him from getting his supplication approved and, in other words, his haste is the cause of his loss.

(١١٢٦/٨٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسْتَجَابُ لِأَحَدِكُمْ مَا لَمْ يُعْجَلْ فَيَقُولُ قَدْ دَعَوْتُ فَلَمْ يُسْتَجَبْ لِي.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1126/83) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying. "Your supplications are worthy of approval so long as you do not make a haste. (To make a haste is that) A slave says that he had made a supplication but it was not granted. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The slave loses the opportunity of being granted his request because of his haste. He must always remember that he is a beggar at the door of Allah and he must never cease to make his supplications with a confidence that sooner or later the mercy of the most Merciful will descend upon him.

Also, supplications of many a slave which they make sincerely and with humility are not granted sooner because their exercise is a means to getting them nearer to Allah. If their supplications were granted to them forthwith then they would miss the great favour of nearness to Allah.

Supplication is Not Granted If The Supplicant Survives on The Unlawful (١١٢٧/٨٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ طَيِّبٌ لَا يَقْبَلُ إِلَّا طَيِّبًا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَمَرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ بِمَا أَمَرَهُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ فَقَالَ "يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ" وَقَالَ "يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُوا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ" ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ الرَّجُلَ يُطِيلُ السَّفَرَ أَشْعَثَ أَغْبَرَ يَمُدُّ يَدَيْهِ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ يَارَبِّ يَارَبِّ وَمَطْمَعُهُ حَرَامٌ وَمَشْرَبُهُ حَرَامٌ وَمَلْبَسُهُ حَرَامٌ وَغَدَى بِالْحَرَامِ فَأَنَّى يُسْتَجَابَ لِذَلِكَ.

(رواه مسلم عن أبي هريره)

(1127/84) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "O People, Allah is Pure and accepts only the Pure. And He has commanded the Believers what He had commanded the Messengers عليهم السلام, saying:

O you Messengers! Eat of the good things and do righteous deeds. Surely I am the knower of what you do.

(Al-Muminoon 23:51)

يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ
وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ
عَلِيمٌ
(المؤمنون ٥١:٢٣)

And He has said (to the Believers)

O you who believe! Eat of the wholesome things wherewith We have provided you. (and keep away from the unlawful).

(Al Baqarah, 2:172)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُوا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ
مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ
(البقره ١٧٢:٢)

"The Prophet ﷺ then said about a man who undertakes a long journey, his hair disbevelled and his body and clothes untidy with dust. He raises his hands towards the sky and prays, "My Lord! My Lord! " But the truth is that his food is unlawful, his drink is unlawful, his clothing is unlawful. He is nourished with unlawfully acquired food. "How then could his supplication be approved?"

(Muslim)

Commentary: Many supplicants ask themselves today. "Why is our prayer not granted when it is right to make a supplication and expect a response, and Allah has promised to give an answer? Allah has said:

Call upon Me and I shall answer you. (Al Mu'min 40:60)

أَدْعُونِي أَجِبْ لَكُمْ
(المومن ٤٠:٦٠)

Why, then, our supplication is not answered?

The foregoing hadith has answered the question convincingly. How many of the supplicants, today, can assert that what they eat, drink and wear is lawfully acquired? And is pure? May Allah have mercy on us!

Supplications That Are Disallowed

(١١٢٨/٨٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَدْعُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِكُمْ وَلَا تَدْعُوا عَلَى أَوْلَادِكُمْ وَلَا تَدْعُوا عَلَى أَمْوَالِكُمْ وَلَا تَوَافِقُوا مِنْ اللَّهِ سَاعَةً يُسْأَلُ فِيهَا عَطَاءٌ فَيَسْتَجِيبَ لَكُمْ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1128/85) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Do not invoke curses on yourselves, or on your children, or on your possessions lest you happen to do it at a time when Allah is asked for something and grants your requests (an opportune time for supplications and then you suffer harm to yourself, your children or your property). (Muslim)

(١١٢٩/٨٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَمَنَّى أَحَدُكُمْ الْمَوْتَ وَلَا يَدْعُ بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَهُ إِنَّهُ إِذَا مَاتَ انْقَطَعَ عَمَلُهُ وَإِنَّهُ لَا يَزِيدُ الْمُؤْمِنَ عُمرُهُ إِلَّا خَيْرًا.
(رواه مسلم)

(1129/86) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Let no one of you wish for death, nor pray to Allah for an early death. For, when death comes, the doing of deeds will cease (and the slave will not be able to do deeds that please Allah and fetch His mercy, deeds can only be done by the living). And, the life of a Believer does not increase but his good deeds (so do not ask for death). (Muslim)

(١١٣٠/٨٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَدْعُوا

بِالْمَوْتِ وَلَا تَتَمَنَّوْهُ فَمَنْ كَانَ دَاعِيًا لَأَبَدٍ فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَحْيِنِيْ مَا كَانَ الْحَيٰوةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ وَتَوَفَّنِيْ اِذَا كَانَتِ الْوُفَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّيْ.

(رواه النسائي)

(1130/87) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "None of you should make a request for death because of the trouble in which he is involved, but if there is no other help to it, then say, O Allah, keep me alive as long as there is goodness in life for me and bring death to me when there is goodness in death for me."

(Nasai)

Commentary: These ahadith disallow us to wish for death when we are faced with unhappy circumstances and the words do come up on our tongues. Some ahadith make that very clear as, for instance, the hadith transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim from Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه

Let none of you wish for death when faced with difficulty

لَا يَتَمَنَّيْ أَحَدُكُمْ الْمَوْتَ إِضْرَ
نَزَلَ بِهِ

One of the reasons it is forbidden to hope and pray for death under trying circumstances is that it is contrary to exercising patience. The second, and more important reason, is that as long as a man is alive, he has the opportunity to repent to Allah and seek forgiveness from Him and thus attain purity. He also has the opportunity to add to his assets of the next world and gain more nearness to Allah through performing good deeds and showing obedience. Hence, a supplication to receive death is in reality one to shut the door and terminate the opportunity. Obviously, there is nothing but loss for the slave in that.

Nevertheless, when the appointed time draws close, the close slaves of Allah are very eager to meet Him and, sometimes, they happen to express a desire to die and pray for that. The Qur'an recalls for us the supplication of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام

Originator of the heavens and the earth! You are my Protector in this world and the Hereafter, Make me to die a Muslim, and join me with the righteous.

(Yusuf 12:101)

فَاطْرَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ اَنْتَ
وَلِيّ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ تَوَفَّنِيْ
مُسْلِمًا وَّالْحِقْنِيْ بِالصّٰلِحِيْنَ

(١٠١:١٢)

(يوسف)

The supplication of the Holy Prophet ﷺ at the time of his death was,

O Allah! The most High Companion

اللَّهُمَّ الرَّفِيقَ الْأَعْلَى

Etiquettes of Supplication

(To supplicate for oneself before supplication for other people).

One of the etiquettes of supplication is that when we have to make a supplication for someone else, we must first make a supplication for ourself. If we make a supplication only for another person then the element of a helpless request would be taking and our role would be that of a recommender. This attitude does not suit a person who asks for anything from Allah. Hence, the Prophet ﷺ himself followed the procedure that when he prayed for someone else he first prayed for himself and that is the characteristic servitude.

(١١٣١/٨٨) عَنْ أَبِي بِنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا ذَكَرَ أَحَدًا فَدَعَا لَهُ بِدَأَى بِنَفْسِهِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1131/88) Sayyidina Ubayy bin Ka'ab ؓ said that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ mentioned someone for whom he made a supplication, he began with himself (and then prayed for the other). (Tirmizi)

(١١٣٢/٨٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سَلَوُا اللَّهَ بِيُطَوِّنِ أَكْفِئْكُمْ وَلَا تَسْأَلُوهُ بِظُهُورِهَا فَإِذَا قَرَعْتُمْ فَاْمَسَحُوا بِهَا وَجُوهَكُمْ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1132/89) It is reported by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Make your supplications to Allah with your hands raised, palms turned towards your face and do not keep the hands turned backwards. When you finish making your supplication wipe your face with the hands. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made a supplication to Allah to avert a calamity, he turned the backs of his hands towards the sky, as some other ahadith tell us. And, when he prayed for goodness of this life and the next, he had his palms straight (upwards) and the hands were spread in the manner a person who beseeches should spread his hands. In the light of this, the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbas رضي الله عنه made to Allah for anything, the hands must be spread before him straight, palms upwards in the manner of a beggar, supplicant. Finally, the spread-out hands should be drawn towards the face and wiped over it, with the imagination that the spreadout hands have not been left empty and without a portion of the mercy of the Benevolent Lord.

(١١٣٣/٩٠) عَنْ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

كَانَ إِذَا دَعَا فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ مَسَحَ وَجْهَهُ بِيَدَيْهِ. (رواه ابو داؤد والبيهقي)

(1133/90) The Taba'ee, Sayyidina Sa'ib bin Yazeed رحمة الله عليه has reported his father as saying that when the Prophet ﷺ made a supplication and raised his hands, he wiped his face with them. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is almost established from the ahadith that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made a supplication, he raised his hands at the conclusion wiped his face with them. Those people who deny this practice have misunderstood a hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه. Imam Nawawi رحمة الله عليه has collected about thirty ahadith on in great detail venturing to remove the misunderstanding.

Preface Du'a With Praise of Allah Be Blessings on The Prophet ﷺ

(١١٣٤/٩١) عَنْ فَضَالَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ رُجُلًا يَدْعُو فِي صَلَاتِهِ لَمْ يَحْمِدِ اللَّهَ وَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَجَلْ هَذَا ثُمَّ دَعَا فَقَالَ لَهُ أَوْ

لِغَيْرِهِ إِذَا صَلَّى أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَبْدَأْ بِتَحْمِيدِ رَبِّهِ وَالنَّشَاءِ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يُصَلِّ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ يَدْعُو بَعْدَ بِمَا شَاءَ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد والنسائی)

(1134/91) It is reported by Fadal bin Ubayd that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ heard a person making a supplication to Allah in prayer (as salah) but he did not mention the greatness and praise of Allah nor did he invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "This man made haste while making the supplication." and he called him to him and said either to him or to another person, "If any of you offers prayers, he should (before making a supplication) praise and glorify Allah and then invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. He may then supplicate Allah for whatever he wishes."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasai)

Saying Aameen At The Conclusion of Supplication

(١١٣٥/٩٢) عَنْ أَبِي زُهَيْرٍ النَّمَيْرِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةً فَاتَيْنَا عَلَى رَجُلٍ قَدْ أَلَحَّ فِي الْمَسْئَلَةِ فَوَقَفَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَمِعُ مِنْهُ فَقَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوْجَبَ إِنْ خَتَمَ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ بَأَيِّ شَيْءٍ يَخْتِمُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ بِأَمِينٍ فَإِنَّهُ إِنْ خَتَمَ بِأَمِينٍ فَقَدْ أَوْجَبَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1135/92) It is reported by Abu Zuhayr An-Numayri رضي الله عنه, "We went out with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ one night and came upon a man who made a supplication with persistence. The Prophet ﷺ stopped there and listened to him and he said, He will get a response if he sets a seal over it. One of us asked him how could it be concluded correctly and what seal he should use. He said, 'Aameen! If he seals it with Aameen, he will get a response, (and receive what he wants)."

Commentary: The Arabic word Khatama ختم could mean 'to put a seal, or to conclude. In fact, these are two ways of saying the same thing and the translation expresses both meanings. Anyway, the true lesson of the hadith is that a supplication must be concluded with the word Aameen which means, "O Allah, grant this, my prayer!" last word.

The Youngers Should Be Asked to Pray For Us

(١١٣٦/٩٣) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ إِسْتَأْذَنْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْعُمْرَةِ فَأَذِنَ وَقَالَ أَشْرِكُنَا يَا أُخَيَّ فِي دُعَائِكَ وَلَا تَنْسِنَا فَقَالَ كَلِمَةً مَا يَسْرُنِي أَنْ لِي بِهَا الدُّنْيَا.

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی)

(1136/93) Sayyidina Umar Ibn Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه reported that he asked for the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to perform an Umrah, and he gave him the permission to go, saying little brother, and do not forget me." Umar ؓ said further, "In this way he used a word for me for which I would not be willing to take the world in exchange." (Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

Commentary: This hadith discloses that supplication is something for which even the younger ones may be requested by their elders to make for them. This is more marked when they are about to perform an approved deed or to visit a sacred place where supplications are more likely to be approved. The Prophet ﷺ is reported to have addressed Sayyidina Umar ؓ as أَخِي (Ukhayya) which means little brother while أَخِي (akhee) means brother. This pleased Umar ؓ very much (as he expressed, indeed). This hadith also focuses the closeness of Umar ؓ in the sight of Allah.

Supplications That Meet Approval

(١١٣٧/٩٤) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْوَةُ الْمَرْءِ الْمُسْلِمِ لِأَخِيهِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ مُسْتَجَابَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ مَلَكَ مُوَكَّلٌ كُلَّمَا دَعَا لِأَخِيهِ بِخَيْرٍ قَالَ الْمَلِكُ الْمُوَكَّلُ بِهِ آمِينَ وَلَكَ بِمِثْلٍ. (رواه مسلم)

(1137/94) Sayyidina Abu Ad-Darda ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "A Muslim's supplication for an absent brother receives an answer. An angel is stationed at his head, and as often as he makes a supplication that his (absent) brother may be given what is good, the angel who is put in charge of him says, Aameen and may you receive the like." (Muslim)

Commentary: The hadith singles out supplication for an absent person as worthy of being approved perhaps because such a supplication is made with sincerity. But Allah knows best.

(١١٣٨/٩٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثُ دَعَوَاتٍ مُسْتَجَابَاتٌ لَا شَكَّ فِيهِنَّ دَعْوَةُ الْوَالِدِ وَدَعْوَةُ الْمُسَافِرِ وَدَعْوَةُ الْمَظْلُومِ. (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1138/95) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said "Three supplications are answered, there being no doubt about them: that of a parent (for their children), that of a traveller, and that of one who has been wronged."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The secret behind the worthiness of these supplications being approved is again that they are made very sincerely from the core of the heart. The sincerity of parents for their children is obvious while the traveller and the wronged one have a broken heart which has the characteristic of pulling the mercy off Allah to itself.

(١١٣٩/٩٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَمْسُ دَعَوَاتٍ يُسْتَجَابُ لَهُنَّ دَعْوَةُ الْمَظْلُومِ حَتَّى يَنْتَصِرَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْحَاجِّ حَتَّى يَصْدِرَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْمُجَاهِدِ حَتَّى يُفَقَدَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْمَرِيضِ حَتَّى يَبْرَأَ وَ دَعْوَةُ الْإِخِ لِإِخِيهِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَأَسْرَعُ هَذِهِ الدَّعَوَاتِ إِجَابَةً دَعْوَةُ الْإِخِ بِظَهْرِ الْغَيْبِ.

(رواه البيهقي فى الدعوات الكبير)

(1139/96) It is reported by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Five supplications receive an answer. that of one who is wronged until he receives help (or seizes revenge), that of the pilgrim of Hajj till he returns home, that of one engaged in Jihad, till he is martyred and is lost to this world, that of a sick person till he regains health, and that of someone for an absent brother." Having said all that, the Prophet ﷺ said, "The one of these supplications that gets the quickest answer is that for an absent brother." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: If a supplication is truly made and if there is no obstacle to its approval in the person of the supplicant or in his attitude and deeds then it is normally answered. However, a believing slave is sometimes surrounded by circumstances or performs certain deeds which attract the mercy of Allah to wards him very quickly and intensely. Then, there is a greater chance of his suplication being granted. Of the five people's supplication mentioned in this hadith, the one who is wronged and he one who prays for an absent brother have found mention in another hadith. As for Hajj and Jihad these are deeds which as long as a slave is occupied in them, he is in the court of Allah and very near to Him. Similarly, the illness of a Believer is a means to purify him of his sins and brings him close to Allah and affords him an exceptional progress to that end. He goes over the stages of nearness to Allah while he is on his sick bed so that his supplication is granted in particular.

The Particular Condition And Moments of Approval of Supplications

The basic ingredients for the approval of a supplication lie in the connection the supplicant maintains with Allah in his personal attitude and inner feelings. These are termed in the Qur'an as اضطرار (idtirar) and ابتهال (ibtihal). The former has been translated earlier (as compulsion, force, exigency, need) in the explanation to hadith 79. The later is to humiliate oneself before Allah (and call upon Him to invoke course on the liar¹).

Besides, there are certain peculiar conditions or situations and moments when there is a deep hope of the mercy and favour of Allah.

The following ahadith disclose to us these moments and situations as pointed out by the Prophet ﷺ.

(١١٤٠/٩٧) عَنْ الْعِرْبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى قَرِيبَةً فَلَهُ دَعْوَةٌ مُسْتَجَابَةٌ وَمَنْ خَتَمَ الْقُرْآنَ فَلَهُ دَعْوَةٌ مُسْتَجَابَةٌ.
(رواه الطبرانی فی الكبير)

(1140/97) It is reported by Irbad ibn Sariyah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Whosoever offers the fard² prayer (and makes a supplication with a sincere devotion), his supplication is answered. And whoso recites the Qur'an to the end, his supplication is granted."

Commentary: A slave is closest to Allah after prayer especially, the fard and recital of Qur'an, and he is in conversation with Allah. Of course prayer and recital of Qur'an must not be only in form but must be performed with a proper spirit. Then these two acts will be mi'raj of the believer so that when he makes a supplication after these acts, it is worthwhile for the mercy of Allah to come forward and receive it.

①. Vocabulary of the Holy Qur'an Dr. Abdullah Abbas An-Nadwi

②. Obligatory

(١١٤١/٩٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الدُّعَاءُ لَا يَرُدُّ بَيْنَ الْأَذَانِ وَالْإِقَامَةِ.

(رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

(1141/98) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that a supplication made between the azan and the iqamah is not rejected.

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

(١١٤٢/٩٩) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَفْتَحُ أَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ وَيُسْتَجَابُ الدُّعَاءُ فِي أَرْبَعَةِ مَوَاطِنَ عِنْدَ الْتِقَاءِ الصُّفُوفِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَعِنْدَ نَزُولِ الْغَيْثِ وَعِنْدَ إِقَامَةِ الصَّلَاةِ وَعِنْدَ رُؤْيَةِ الْكَعْبَةِ.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الكبير)

(1142/99) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Supplication is granted on four occasions particularly:

- (i) When fighting for the sake of Allah,
- (ii) When it is raining (mercifully),
- (iii) When it is time for prayer, and
- (iv) When the Ka'bah is before the eyes." (Tabarani)

(١١٤٣/١٠٠) عَنْ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ وَقَاصٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةُ مَوَاطِنَ لَا تَرُدُّ فِيهَا دَعْوَةُ رَجُلٍ يَكُونُ فِي بَرِيَّةٍ حَيْثُ لَا يَرَاهُ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا اللَّهَ فَيَقُومُ وَيُصَلِّي وَرَجُلٌ يَكُونُ مَعَهُ فِتْنَةٌ فَيَقْرَعَنَّ أَصْحَابَهُ فَيَنْتَبِثُ وَرَجُلٌ يَقُومُ مِنْ آخِرِ اللَّيْلِ.

(رواه ابن مندة في مسنده)

(1143/100) Sayyidina Rabia ibn Waqqas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "There are three occasions when a supplication is not rejected:

- (i) A man is all alone in the desert where no one except Allah sees him and he stands up in prayer (And then supplicates),
- (ii) A man is on a battlefield and continues to fight firmly while his companions flee (and he makes a supplication), and
- (iii) A man (deserts his bed) and stands up in prayer in the last part of the night.

(١١٤٤/١٠١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ فِي اللَّيْلِ لَسَاعَةً لَا يُوَافِقُهَا رَجُلٌ مُسْلِمٌ يَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ فِيهَا خَيْرًا مِنْ أَمْرِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا أَعْطَاهُ إِيَّاهُ وَذَلِكَ كُلُّ لَيْلَةٍ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1144/101) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say, "There is an hour during the night at which no Muslim man will ask Allah for good in this world and the next without His giving it to him. And that applies to every night (there being no exception for that). (Muslim)

Commentary: We have seen in an earlier volume of this book under tahajjud, the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim:

Allah descends every night to the lowest heaven when two third of the night have passed away and Himself calls out, Is there anyone to supplicate that I may answer him? Is there anyone to ask that I may give him? Is there anyone to seek My forgiveness that I may forgive him?

Keeping this hadith in view, therefore, we may determine that the hour in every night when supplications are answered as mentioned in a foregoing hadith of Jabir رضي الله عنه is the last portion of the night. But Allah knows best.

The circumstances and moments when du'a is granted as described in the ahadith discussed in this chapter may be summarised thus:

After the fard prayers, after the whole Qur'an is recited (Khatam al-Qur'an), between azan and iqamah, on the battle field of jihad, during fighting, when (merciful) rain falls down, when the Ka'bah, is before the eyes, after offering prayers in a desolate desert where there is no one besides Allah, on the field jihad when other companions have deserted and the last part of the night.

We have seen also ahadith at their proper places which have spoken of supplication being answered on laylatul Qadr, the plain of Arafat on the day of Arafah, at the particular moment on Friday, at the time of breaking the fast, during the journey for Hajj, during the journey for jihad, during illness and during travel.

However we must remember that supplication does not comprise the mere words or the outward form but it is its reality which has been mentioned earlier. Only that seed grows a plant which has a kernel.

We must now understand the meaning of the acceptance of a supplication, or the answer it receives.

What It Means to Have an Answer To a Supplication

Many people suppose that a supplication is answered only when they get what they had requested. If they do not get that then they feel that their supplication is rejected. This is a seriously wrong conception. Man's knowledge is incomplete. Rather, he is ignorant and gropes in darkness. There are many people for whom wealth is a blessing and many, again, for whom it is a trial. Many have been there for whom power and authority over people has been a means of nearness to Allah but there are those like Hujjaj and Ibn Ziyad for whom the reins of government became a cause of distancing them from Allah and inviting His wrath on them.

Man does not know what is good for him and what may be the cause of his anxiety and downfall. Hence, he often asks Allah for something which is not good for him, or giving it to him is not constant with the wisdom of Allah. Allah is wise and All-Knowing. He knows that it is not right to let His slave have everything that he asks. However, it is also against His benevolence and liberality that He turn away His slave who raises his hands to Him in supplication. He cannot turn him away empty handed. So, he does grant him something. Sometimes, He gives His slave exactly what he asks in his supplication and sometimes He allots him the blessings of the Hereafter instead of the thing he had asked. In that way, his supplication amasses for him a treasure for the next life. Sometimes, it also happens that He removes from the supplicant an anxiety or disaster that he was to have faced as part of the vicissitudes of life. These things happen in life as part of the cause and effect series determined beforehand and they are averted against the supplication that the man had made something and was not granted to him in the exact way he wanted.

So, the meaning of a supplication being answered is that it is not a vain exercise and the supplicant is not deprived. Allah lets him have one of the answers described in the foregoing lines. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has explained this fact in detail.

(١١٤٥/١٠٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَدْعُو بِدَعْوَةٍ لَيْسَ فِيهَا إِنْهُمْ وَلَا قَطِيعَةٌ رَحِمَ إِلَّا أَعْطَاهُ اللَّهُ بِهَا أَحَدِي ثَلَاثٍ إِمَّا أَنْ يُعَجَّلَ لَهُ دَعْوَتُهُ وَإِمَّا أَنْ يَدَّخِرَهَا لَهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَإِمَّا أَنْ يُصْرِفَ عَنْهُ مِنَ السُّوءِ مِثْلَهَا قَالُوا إِذَا نُكِّرَ قَالَ اللَّهُ أَكْثَرُ. (رواه احمد)

(1145/102) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه has said that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Any Muslim who makes a supplication containing nothing which is sinful or which involves breaking of ties of relationship will be given for it by Allah one of three things:

- (i) He will give him what he had asked, at that same time.
- (ii) He will store it up for him in the next world.
- (iii) He will turn away from him an equivalent amount of evil (anxiety or calamity).

The Companions رضي الله عنهم said, "(When that is the case,) we will make any supplications." He said, "Allah has more than that (and was more ready to answer than they were to ask) (Ahmad)

Commentary: The treasures of Allah are boundless and unperishable. If all His slaves request Him all the time and He decides to give all of them, His treasures will not diminish.

Hakim has transmitted a hadith from Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه which tells us "When Allah will give the slave the treasures in the next world stored for him against his supplications which he supposed had not been granted to him in this life, he will exclaim:

Would that none of my supplications had been answered in the world and I would have received the return in this life!"

يَا لَيْتَهُ لَمْ يُعَجَّلْ لَهُ شَيْءٌ مِنْ دُعَائِهِ
(كنز العمال: ص ٥٧ جلد ٢)

(Kanz al Ummal v2, p57)

THE SUPPLICATIONS OF THE MESSENGER OF ALLAH ﷺ

The ahadith about du'a narrated so far were of the kinds that exhorted us to make supplications, described their importance and blessings, dealt with etiquettes concerning them and advised how to make them and what made them liable to receive an answer. That was by way of an introduction, as it were, Let us now see the supplications of the Prophet ﷺ and his soul-stirring appeals to Allah. These are the best means to recognise the degree of his intimate knowledge and condition of his heart and they are the greatest legacy he has left behind for the Ummah. They may be appropriately termed the choicest part of the treasure of ahadith. We may divide them into three sections.

First are those ahadith that related to particular moments and specified situations. These include supplications made when dawn is manifest, those made in the evening, those made on reciting for the night, those made on waking up from sleep, and supplications when a violent wind blows or it rains and in times of anxiety or difficulty, and so on.

In the second kind are supplications of general nature. They are not limited to particular times or situations and most of them are comprehensive.

The third type of supplications are the ones which the Prophet ﷺ made in As-Salah (prayer) or on coming out of it after the salutation. It is third type that we begin this chapter with — the supplications made in prayer. May Allah cause us to value this great and precious gift that the Prophet ﷺ has left behind for us.

SUPPLICATIONS MADE IN AS-SALAH OR AFTER OFFERING IT

Initial Du'a After Takbeer Tahreemah

(١١٤٦/١٠٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اسْتَفْتَحَ الصَّلَاةَ كَبَّرَ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: "إِنَّ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ وَبِذَلِكَ أُمِرْتُ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ (الانعام ١٦١:٧-١٦٢) اللَّهُمَّ اهْدِنِي لَأَحْسَنِ الْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَخْلَاقِ لَا يَهْدِي لِأَحْسَنِهَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ وَقِنِي سَيِّئَ الْأَخْلَاقِ لَا يَقِي سَيِّئَهَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ." (رواه النسائي)

(1146/103) It is reported by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that when the Prophet ﷺ commenced his prayer, he called out Allahu Akbar (Allah is Most Great, and this is the takbeer tahreemah) and then said,

My prayer and my rites of worship, and my life, and my death are all for Allah, the Lord of the worlds, no associate has He. And this I have been commanded, and I am the first of the Muslims,¹ O Allah guide me to the best of the deeds and the best manners. No one can guide to the best of them but You, and guard me from evil deeds and evil manners and no one can guard from the worst of them but You.

إِنَّ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ وَبِذَلِكَ أُمِرْتُ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ (الانعام ١٦١:٧-١٦٢) اللَّهُمَّ اهْدِنِي لَأَحْسَنِ الْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَخْلَاقِ لَا يَهْدِي لِأَحْسَنِهَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ وَقِنِي سَيِّئَ الْأَخْلَاقِ لَا يَقِي سَيِّئَهَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ

(Nasa'i)

Commentary: The supplication begins, as it should, with the affirmation of unity of Allah and the worshipper's servitude to Him, and his utter dependence and faithful obedience to Him. The supplication concludes with a request to Allah to guide the worshipper to righteous deeds and character and to protect him from wicked deeds and character. In fact, man's honour and success evolves round this guidance and protection. In volume 3 of this book we have read the hadith narrated by Syyidina Ali عليه السلام. The same supplication is mentioned by him with many additions which are very heart warming and appealing. That hadith also contains supplications to be made in the postures of bowing (ruku), standing (qawmah), prostrations (sajdah) sitting (jalsah) and the final sitting (qa'dah). Indeed, that hadith is comprehensive as far as supplications of As-Salah (prayer) are concerned. In explaining that, we say that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم normally made those supplications in the supererogatory prayers offered in the night. If we observe carefully the supplications made by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in prayer as mentioned in the hadith of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام we might see into them a reflection of the inner condition of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in his prayer. We will not repeat the hadith here because it is fairly lengthy but those people who have a keen interest in such things may read it again in the third volume of this book, Ma'arif Al-hadith.

①. Thus far from Al-An'am 6:162-163

(١١٤٧/١٠٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ يَتَهَجَّدُ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ أَنْتَ قَيِّمُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ أَنْتَ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ أَنْتَ مَلِكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ وَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ أَنْتَ الْحَقُّ وَوَعْدُكَ الْحَقُّ وَلِقَاؤُكَ حَقٌّ وَقَوْلُكَ حَقٌّ وَالْجَنَّةُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّارُ حَقٌّ وَالنَّبِيُّونَ حَقٌّ وَمُحَمَّدٌ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ حَقٌّ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ أَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ أَمْنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَإِلَيْكَ أُنْبِتُ وَبِكَ خَاصَمْتُ وَإِلَيْكَ حَاكَمْتُ فَاعْفِرْ لِي مَا قَدَّمْتُ وَمَا أَخَّرْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا أَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنِّي أَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَأَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1147/104) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه has said that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up in the night for tahajjud, prayer he made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ أَنْتَ قَيِّمُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ

O Allah! To You belongs all praise. You are Supreme over the heavens and the earth and whatever and whoever is in them. And, to You belongs all praise, You are the light of the heavens and the earth and whoever and whatever is in them (Wherever the rays of light penetrate) And, to You belongs all praise, You are the king of the heavens and the earth and whatever and whoever is in them. And, to You belongs all praise, You are the Truth, Your promise is true, the meeting with You (after our death) is true, the Fire (Hell) is true, the Prophets عليهم السلام are true, and Mohammad ﷺ is true and the (coming of the) Last Hour is true. O Allah, to You I submit, and in You I believe, and upon You I trust and rely, and to You I repent. By Your help I have disputed (with enemies of Truth), and to You I have come for decision. So, forgive me my sins committed formerly and committed later on, and committed secretly and committed openly, and what You know than I. You are the One Who brings forward and You are the One who defers. There is no God besides You and there is no God other than You."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This too is of the supplications of the Prophet ﷺ which give us an insight into his degree of intimate knowledge of Allah and of his inner feelings.

(١١٤٨/١٠٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَامَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ افْتَتَحَ صَلَوَتَهُ فَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ إِلَهَ جِبْرِئِيلَ وَمِيكَائِيلَ وَإِسْرَافِيلَ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ اهْدِنِي لِمَا اخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ بِإِذْنِكَ إِنَّكَ تَهْدِي مَنْ تَشَاءُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ. (رواه مسلم)

(1148/105) It is narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that when the Prophet ﷺ got up at night he began his prayer by saying right at the beginning:

اللَّهُمَّ إِلَهَ جِبْرِئِيلَ وَمِيكَائِيلَ وَإِسْرَافِيلَ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ اهْدِنِي لِمَا اخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ بِإِذْنِكَ إِنَّكَ تَهْدِي مَنْ تَشَاءُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

"O Allah, Lord of Jibreel, Mika'eel, and Israfeel, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, Who knows the unseen and the seen. You are the One who decides among Your slaves concerning what they differ. Guide me to the path that is right and to Truth concerning which the people have come to differ. Surely, You guide whom You will to the Straight Path." (Muslim)

Supplications While Bowing & Prostrating

(١١٤٩/١٠٦) عَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ قُمْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا رَكَعَ مَكَتَ قَدْرَ سُورَةِ الْبَقَرَةِ وَيَقُولُ فِي رُكُوعِهِ "سُبْحَانَ ذِي الْجَبَرُوتِ وَالْمَلَكُوتِ وَالْكِبْرِيَاءِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ". (رواه النسائي)

(1149/106) Sayyidina Awf ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه said that he stood up to offer prayer alongwith the Prophet ﷺ once. And when he went to the bowing posture he took as long there as would take one to recite surah al-Baqarah and he recited while bowing:

Glory be to the Possessor of greatness, the Kindgom, grandeur and majesty. (Nasa'i) سُبْحَانَ ذِي الْجَبَرُوتِ وَالْمَلَكُوتِ وَالْكِبْرِيَاءِ وَالْعَظَمَةِ

Commentary: We have stated already in the third volume of this book, Ma'arif Al-hadith that the normal practice of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was to recite سبحان ربي العظيم (Glory be to my Lord, the Mighty) while bowing, and سبحان ربي الاعلى (Glory be to my Lord, the High) while prostraiting. In fact, this is what he taught his companions رضي الله عنهم. However, sometimes he glorified and sanctified Allah with some other expressions too and other supplications in ruku and sajdah. We have reproduced a number of ahadith on this subject in that volume in the relative chapter. We have also stated there that the Prophet ﷺ sometimes prolonged his ruku and sajdah of the supererogatory prayers particularly during the night. The prayer in which Awf ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه joined the Prophet ﷺ and in which he observed a ruku long enough to be able to recite surah al-Baqarah was also a voluntary feelings which the Prophet ﷺ might have experienced during this ruku of which the hadith speaks.

(١١٥٠/١٠٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ فَقَدْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةً مِنَ الْفَرَاشِ فَالْتَمَسْتُهُ فَوَقَعَتْ يَدَيَّ عَلَى بَطْنِ قَدَمَيْهِ وَهُوَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ. وَهُمَا مَنْصُوبَتَانِ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِرِضَاكَ مِنْ سَخِطِكَ وَبِمَعَا فَاتِكَ

مِنْ غُفُوبِكَ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْكَ لَا أَحْصِي ثَنَاءً عَلَيْكَ أَنْتَ كَمَا أَثْنَيْتَ عَلَيَّ
نَفْسِكَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1150/107) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has said that one night she did not find the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on his bed. When she sought him, her hand came on the soles of his feet while he was in the posture of prostration with the feet erect (as one has them while prostrating). He was saying:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِرِضَاكَ مِنْ سَخَطِكَ وَبِمُعَا فَاتِكَ مِنْ غُفُوبِكَ
وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْكَ لَا أَحْصِي ثَنَاءً عَلَيْكَ أَنْتَ كَمَا أَثْنَيْتَ عَلَيَّ نَفْسِكَ

O Allah, I seek refuge in Your good pleasure from Your anger, and in Your forgiveness from Your punishment. And, I seek refuge in You from Your wrath. I cannot reckon Your praise. You are as You have lauded Yourself. (Muslim)

(١١٥١/١٠٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ فِي سُجُودِهِ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذَنْبِي كُلَّهُ دِقَّةً وَجُلَّةً وَأَوَّلَهُ وَآخِرَهُ
وَعَلَانِيَتَهُ وَسِرَّهُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1151/108) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه said that the Prophet ﷺ used to say in the posture of prostration, sometimes:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذَنْبِي كُلَّهُ دِقَّةً وَجُلَّةً وَأَوَّلَهُ وَآخِرَهُ وَعَلَانِيَتَهُ وَسِرَّهُ

O Allah, forgive me my sins, all of them the small of them and the great, the first of them and the last, the publicised ones and the secret. (Muslim)

Commentary: The foregoing hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها have both been reproduced earlier in volume 3 also.

Some Supplications of The Last Qa'dah (Sitting Posture)

(١١٥٢/١٠٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَدْعُو
فِي الصَّلَاةِ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ
الْمَسِيحِ الدَّجَالِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْمَحْيَا وَالْمَمَاتِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ

مِنَ الْمَآثِمِ وَمِنَ الْمَغْرَمِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1152/109) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that the Prophet ﷺ would make supplication during As-Salah (prayer) too. He would say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْمَسِيحِ الدَّجَالِ
وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْمَحْيَا وَالْمَمَاتِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْمَآثِمِ وَمِنَ الْمَغْرَمِ

O Allah, I seek refuge in You from the punishment in the grave. I seek refuge in You from the trial of Dajjal. I seek refuge in You from the trial of life and the trial of death. O Allah, I seek refuge in You from sin and debt." (Bukhari & Muslim)

Commentary: In Saheeh Muslim this hadith is followed by a hadith of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه in which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is quoted as saying:

"When one of you finishes the last tashahhud he should seek refuge in Allah from the punishment of the Fire, the punishment in the grave, the mischief of dajjal, and all the trials of life and death."

This hadith of Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه determines that the supplication is made in the last sitting posture (qa'dah) before salutation. We have seen this hadith in Volume 3 of Ma'arif Al-Hadith.

(١١٥٣/١١٠) عَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ
فِي صَلَاتِهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الثَّبَاتَ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَالْعَزِيمَةَ عَلَى الرُّشْدِ
وَأَسْأَلُكَ شُكْرَ نِعْمَتِكَ وَحُسْنَ عِبَادَتِكَ وَأَسْأَلُكَ قَلْبًا سَلِيمًا وَلِسَانًا
صَادِقًا وَأَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا
تَعْلَمُ. (رواه النسائي)

(1153/110) Sayyidina Shaddad ibn Aws رضي الله عنه related that the Prophet ﷺ used to say in his prayer,

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الثَّبَاتَ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَالْعَزِيمَةَ عَلَى الرُّشْدِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ شُكْرَ
نِعْمَتِكَ وَحُسْنَ عِبَادَتِكَ وَأَسْأَلُكَ قَلْبًا سَلِيمًا وَلِسَانًا صَادِقًا وَأَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ

خَيْرَ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا تَعْلَمُ

O Allah! I ask You for steadfastness in carrying out what I am commanded and resolution in following right guidance. I ask You to make me grateful for Your favours and to enable me to worship You acceptable. I ask You for sound heart and a truthful tongue. I ask You for some of the good of what You know, I seek refuge in You from the evil of what You know, and I ask Your forgiveness for what You know. (Nasa'i)

(١١٥٤/١١١) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ عَبَادٍ قَالَ صَلَّى عَمَّارُ بْنُ يَاسِرٍ بِالْقَوْمِ صَلَوةً أَحَقَّهَا فَكَانَتْهُمْ أَنْكُرُوهَا فَقَالَ أَلَمْ أَتِمُّ الرُّكُوعَ وَالسُّجُودَ؟ قَالُوا بَلَى، قَالَ أَمَا إِنِّي دَعَوْتُ فِيهَا بِدَعَاءٍ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُو بِهِ، اللَّهُمَّ بِعِلْمِكَ الْغَيْبِ وَقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَى الْخَلْقِ أَحْيِنِي مَا عَلِمْتَ الْحَيَاةَ خَيْرًا لِي وَتَوَفَّنِي إِذَا عَلِمْتَ الْوَفَاةَ خَيْرًا لِي، اللَّهُمَّ أَسْأَلُكَ خَشْيَتَكَ فِي الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ كَلِمَةَ الْإِخْلَاصِ فِي الرِّضَا وَالْغَضَبِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ الْقَصْدَ فِي الْفَقْرِ وَالْغِنَى وَأَسْأَلُكَ نَعِيمًا لَا يَنْفَدُ وَأَسْأَلُكَ الرِّضَا بَعْدَ الْقَضَا وَأَسْأَلُكَ قُرَّةَ عَيْنٍ لَا تَنْقُطُ، وَأَسْأَلُكَ بَرْدَ الْعَيْشِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ لَذَّةَ النَّظَرِ إِلَى وَجْهِكَ وَالشُّوقَ إِلَى لِقَائِكَ فِي غَيْرِ ضَرَاءٍ مُضِرَّةٍ وَلَا فِتْنَةٍ مُضِلَّةٍ، اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا بِزِينَةِ الْإِيمَانِ وَاجْعَلْنَا هُدَاةً مُهْتَدِينَ.

(رواه النسائي)

رحمة الله عليه (1154/111) Sayyidina Qays ibn Abbad a Ṭaba'ee ر.ه. stated that once the renowned companion of the Prophet ﷺ, Ammar ibn Yasir ر.ه. as Imam, led the men and offered a light and brief prayer. People began to talk about it. He asked, "What is wrong?" Did I not make a proper ruku and sajdah (and other postures)? They said that they had no such complain but he had offered a very brief prayer. So Ammar ر.ه. said, "I had observed a proper bowing, prostration and other postures and even made the (fairly lengthy) dua which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ some times made (in prayer)." (He then disclosed the supplication:)

اللَّهُمَّ بِعِلْمِكَ الْغَيْبِ وَقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَى الْخَلْقِ أَحْيِنِي مَا عَلِمْتَ الْحَيَاةَ خَيْرًا لِي وَتَوَفَّنِي إِذَا عَلِمْتَ الْوَفَاةَ خَيْرًا لِي، اللَّهُمَّ أَسْأَلُكَ خَشْيَتَكَ فِي الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ كَلِمَةَ الْإِخْلَاصِ فِي الرِّضَا وَالْغَضَبِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ الْقَصْدَ

فِي الْفَقْرِ وَالْغِنَى وَأَسْأَلُكَ نَعِيمًا لَا يَنْفَدُ وَأَسْأَلُكَ الرِّضَا بَعْدَ الْقَضَا
وَأَسْأَلُكَ قُرَّةَ عَيْنٍ لَا تَنْقَطِعُ، وَأَسْأَلُكَ بَرْدَ الْعَيْشِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ لَذَّةَ
النَّظَرِ إِلَى وَجْهِكَ وَالشُّوقَ إِلَى لِقَائِكَ فِي غَيْرِ ضَرَاءٍ مُضِرَّةٍ وَلَا فِتْنَةٍ مُضِلَّةٍ
اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا بِزِينَةِ الْإِيمَانِ وَاجْعَلْنَا هَذَاهُ مُهْتَدِينَ

O Allah! You are the Knower of secrets and You are Omnipotent (having power over Your creatures). With Your knowledge of the secret, and Your absolute power let me live in this world as long as You know my living is good for me, and raise me up from this world when it is better for me to be raised up. O Allah I ask You fear of You in secret and in public, And, I ask you for ability to speak sincerely in times of pleasure and anger (that I may not suppress truth and justice fearing anyone's anger or desiring his pleasure). And, I ask You moderation in hardship and piety. And, I ask You for the ability to be pleased with fate, and I ask for success and comfort in the Hereafter, and for coolness of my eyes that never ends. And I ask You a cool, comfortable life after death and I ask You for the savor of the sight of Your countenance and the longing to meet You without my encountering a harmful condition and without being involved in a misleading trial¹. O Allah! Adorn us with the beauty of faith and cause us to be guided ourselves and guides for other people.

(Nasa'i)

Commentary: It is not stated explicitly in this hadith as well as the one preceding it at what posture in prayer did the Prophet ﷺ make this supplication. We can gather from other ahadith on the subject that he made the supplication in the final sitting posture before salutation and that is the normal position in prayer where supplication is made. The Prophet ﷺ taught Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ a supplication to be made in prayer at this posture when he requested him to teach him a supplication. It has been mentioned in volume 3 of this book and it begins:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي ظُلْمًا كَثِيرًا

(O Allah, I have wronged myself immensely.....)

In explaining it, we have presented our arguments to show that

- ①. Implying that the longing to meet Allah should not raise a condition that may be harmful or lead one astray. But Allah knows best.

this is the proper place for making supplications after the tashahhud but before the salutation.

(١١٥٥/١١٢) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُنَا بَعْدَ التَّشَهُّدِ "أَلْفَ اللَّهُمَّ عَلَى الْخَيْرِ بَيْنَ قُلُوبِنَا وَأَصْلَحِ ذَاتَ بَيْنِنَا وَاهْدِنَا سُبُلَ السَّلَامِ وَنَجِّنَا مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَجَنِّبْنَا الْفَوَاحِشَ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِي أَسْمَاعِنَا وَأَبْصَارِنَا وَقُلُوبِنَا وَأَرْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا وَتُبْ عَلَيْنَا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيمُ وَاجْعَلْنَا شَاكِرِينَ لِنِعْمَتِكَ قَابِلِيهَا وَآتِمَّهَا عَلَيْنَا.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1155/112) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has narrated this hadith. He said that the Prophet ﷺ used to teach them the supplication (to be made) after tashahhud:

O Allah! Join our hearts on goodness and mend our social relationship and guide us on the path of peace. Bring us out of darkness into light and save us from outward and inward obscenities and keep us away from them. And bless us in our ears, our eyes, our hearts, our spouses, and our offspring, and relent toward us. Indeed, You are Relenting, Merciful. And cause us to be grateful for Your blessings, their receivers with due praise and perfect and complete them on us (give us a full share of the blessings).

(Abu Dawood)

Supplications After As-Salah (Prayer)

(١١٥٦/١١٣) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ ذُبُرَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ "اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّكَ أَنْتَ الرَّبُّ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ، اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُكَ وَرَسُولُكَ اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّ الْعِبَادَ كُلَّهُمْ إِخْوَةٌ اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ اجْعَلْنِي مُخْلِصًا لَكَ وَأَهْلِي فِي كُلِّ سَاعَةٍ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ اسْمَعْ وَاسْتَجِبْ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1156/113) It is narrated by Zayd ibn Arqam رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication after prayers:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّكَ أَنْتَ الرَّبُّ وَحَدَّكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ، اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُكَ وَرَسُولُكَ اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ أَنَا شَهِيدٌ أَنَّ الْعِبَادَ كُلَّهُمْ إِخْوَةُ اللَّهِ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ اجْعَلْنِي مُخْلِصًا لَكَ وَأَهْلِي فِي كُلِّ سَاعَةٍ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ اِسْمَعْ وَاسْتَجِبْ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ الْأَكْبَرُ اللَّهُ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ الْأَكْبَرُ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ الْأَكْبَرُ

O Allah, our Lord and Lord of everything, I bear witness that You Alone are the Lord. No partner have You. O Allah, our Lord and Lord of everything, I bear witness that Muhammad ﷺ is Your slave and Your Messenger ﷺ. O Allah, our Lord and Lord of everything I bear witness that all (Your) slaves are brothers (of one another). O Allah, our Lord and Lord of everything cause me to be sincere to You, and (cause) my family too (accordingly) at every moment, always, in this world and in the Hereafter. O Possessor of glory and honour, listen to me (my request) and answer (my supplication). Allah is incomparably Great. Allah is Light of the heavens and earth (all the universe is bright and maintained with His Light). Allah is incomparably Great. Allah is sufficient for me, and an excellent guardian is He. Allah is incomparably Great." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Supplications are of two kinds:

- (i) In which the supplicant seeks something for this life or the next from Allah, or asks for His protection from evil and trial.
- (ii) In which the supplicant remembers the greatness of Allah and His glory, and recalls His innumerable favours and affirms his submission, worship, sincere obedience and gratefulness, seeking His mercy, favour and closeness to Him.

The supplication after prayer found in the foregoing hadith narrated by Zayd ibn Arqam رضي الله عنه is of the second kind. The same element is predominant in the supplications mentioned before this hadith, earlier in this chapter.

(١١٥٧/١١٤) عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ كُنَّا إِذَا صَلَّيْنَا خَلْفَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحْبَبْنَا أَنْ نَكُونَ عَنْ يَمِينِهِ يُقْبِلُ عَلَيْنَا بِوَجْهِهِ فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ رَبِّ قِنِي عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1157/114) It is reported by Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضي الله عنه he said, "When we prayed behind the Prophet ﷺ we liked to be on his right side (so that when he had finished prayers), he would turn his face towards us. And I heard him supplicate Allah:

My Lord, guard me from Your punishment on the day You raise Your servants to life again. (Muslim)

رَبِّ قِنِي عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ
عِبَادَكَ

Commentary: We learn from this hadith of Sayyidina Al-Bara رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ sat facing the right side after prayers. A hadith transmitted by Bukhari, too, and narrated by Sayyidina Samurah ibn Jundub رضي الله عنه tells us that, after salutation of prayer (known as tasleem) he sat facing the worshipper behind him. However, there is no contradiction in the two sayings. It seems that, after prayer, he faced the worshipper in such a way that he somewhat turned to the right side. On this basis, therefore, both the sayings are correct Allah knows best.

(١١٥٨/١١٥) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ ذُبُرَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ (رواه الترمذی)

(1158/115) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Bakrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ used to make this supplication after every prayer:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

O Allah, I seek refuger in You from disbelief, from poverty and want, and from punishment in the grave." (Tirmizi)

(١١٥٩/١١٦) عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سَلَّمَ مِنَ الصَّلَاةِ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي مَا قَدَّمْتُ وَمَا أَخَّرْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَفْتُ وَمَا أَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنِّي أَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَأَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1159/116) Sayyidina Ali Ibn Abu Talib عليه السلام has said that after offering the closing salutation in prayer the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي مَا قَدَّمْتُ وَمَا أَخَّرْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا أَسْرَفْتُ وَمَا أَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنِّي أَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَأَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ

O Allah! Forgive me all sins which I have committed earlier and which I committed later, which I committed secretly and which I committed openly, and the excesses that I have committed, and which You know better than I. You are the One to Advance and You are the One to Defer. There is no God but You.

(Abu Dawood)

(١١٦٠/١١٧) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ فِي

دُبْرِ الْفَجْرِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا وَعَمَلًا مُتَقَبَّلًا وَرِزْقًا طَيِّبًا (رواه رزين)

(1160/117) Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها has said that the Prophet ﷺ (sometimes) made this supplication after the Fajr prayers:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا وَعَمَلًا مُتَقَبَّلًا وَرِزْقًا طَيِّبًا

(O Allah! I ask You to give me knowledge that is beneficial, and deeds that are approved and lawful sustenance. (Razeen)

(١١٦١/١١٨) عَنْ مُسْلِمِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَسْرَأَ إِلَيْهِ

فَقَالَ إِذَا نُصِرْتُ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ فَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ اجْرِنِي مِنَ النَّارِ سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ

قَبْلَ أَنْ تَكَلَّمَ أَحَدًا فَإِنَّكَ إِذَا قُلْتَ ذَلِكَ ثُمَّ مِتَّ فِي لَيْلَتِكَ كُتِبَ لَكَ

جَوَارٌ مِنْهَا وَإِذَا صَلَّيْتَ الصُّبْحَ فَقُلْ ذَلِكَ فَإِنَّكَ إِذَا مِتَّ يَوْمَكَ كُتِبَ

لَكَ جَوَارٌ مِنْهَا. (رواه ابوداؤد)

(1161/118) It is reported by Sayyidina Muslim ibn Al-Harith رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ told him secretly that when he finished the Maghrib prayers then without speaking to anyone else he should say seven times: اللَّهُمَّ اجْرِنِي مِنَ النَّارِ "O Allah protect me from Hell."

Then if he died that night, he would be protected from Hell.

In the same way, when he finished the Fajr prayers, he should say seven times without speaking to anyone: اللَّهُمَّ اجْرِنِي مِنَ النَّارِ "O

Allah protect me from Hell." Then if he died that day, Allah will order that he should be saved from Hell. (Abu Dawood) (١١٦٢/١١٩) عَنْ مَعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ أَخَذَ بِيَدِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ يَا مَعَاذُ وَاللَّهِ لَا حُبَّكَ أَوْ صِيكَ يَا مَعَاذُ لَا تَدْعُهُنَّ فِي كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ أَنْ تَقُولَ "اللَّهُمَّ اعْنِي عَلَى ذِكْرِكَ وَشُكْرِكَ وَحُسْنِ عِبَادَتِكَ".

(رواه ابو داؤد والنسائي)

(1162/119) Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ held him by his hand one day and said to him, "Mu'az, by Allah, I love you and I advise you to make this supplication after every prayer: اللَّهُمَّ اَعْنِي عَلَى ذِكْرِكَ وَشُكْرِكَ "O Allah! Help me to remember You, to be grateful to You and to worship You in the best manner."

(Abu Dawood & Nasa'i)

Commentary: This is a very brief supplication, but it is a very great and important one. To realise its greatness and importance, it is enough that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ advised and urged Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه by virtue of his love for him, to make it after every prayer. In the same way, he had exhorted Muslim ibn Al-Harith رضي الله عنه to pray to Allah in these very brief words, اللَّهُمَّ اجْرِنِي مِنَ النَّارِ (O Allah, protect me from the Fire), as we have seen in the hadith preceding the above.

If we fail to make these supplications after the strong emphasis laid on them by the Holy Prophet ﷺ then we are a very ungrateful and unfortunate people, indeed. May Allah enable us to abide by his advice. Aameen!

The Prophet's Comprehensive Supplication After Tahajjud

(١١٦٣/١٢٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَيْلَةً حِينَ فَرَغَ مِنْ صَلَاتِهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَةً مِنْ عِنْدِكَ تَهْدِي بِهَا قَلْبِي وَتَجْمَعُ بِهَا أَمْرِي وَتَلْمَ بِهَا شَعْبِي وَتُصْلِحَ بِهَا غَائِبِي وَ تَرْفَعُ بِهَا شَاهِدِي وَتُزَكِّي بِهَا عَمَلِي وَ تُلْهِمْنِي بِهَا رُشْدِي وَتَعْصِمْنِي بِهَا مِنْ كُلِّ سُوءٍ اللَّهُمَّ اَعْطِنِي اِيْمَانًا وَ يَقِيْنًا لَيْسَ بَعْدَهُ كُفْرٌ وَ رَحْمَةً اَنَا لِبِهَا شَرَفِ كَرَامَتِكَ

فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْقَوْرَ فِي الْقَضَاءِ وَنُزْلِ الشَّهَادَةِ
وَعَيْشِ السُّعْدَاءِ وَالنُّصْرَ عَلَى الْأَعْدَاءِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَنْزِلْ بِكَ حَاجَتِي وَإِنْ قَصَرَ
رَأْيِي وَضَعَفَ عَمَلِي افْتَقِرْتُ إِلَى رَحْمَتِكَ فَأَسْأَلُكَ يَا قَاضِيَ الْأُمُورِ
وَيَاشَافِيَ الصُّدُورِ كَمَا تُجِيرُ بَيْنَ الْبُحُورِ أَنْ تُجِيرَنِي مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ وَمِنْ
دَعْوَةِ الثُّبُورِ وَمِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْقُبُورِ اللَّهُمَّ مَا قَصُرَ عَنْهُ رَأْيِي وَلَمْ تَبْلُغْهُ نَيْتِي وَلَمْ تَبْلُغْهُ
مَسْأَلَتِي مِنْ خَيْرٍ وَعَدْتَهُ أَحَدًا مِنْ خَلْقِكَ أَوْخِرَ أَنْتَ مُعْطِيهِ أَحَدًا مِنْ
عِبَادِكَ فَإِنِّي أَرْغَبُ إِلَيْكَ فِيهِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ بِرَحْمَتِكَ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ اللَّهُمَّ
ذَا الْحَبْلِ الشَّدِيدِ وَالْأَمْرِ الرَّشِيدِ أَسْأَلُكَ الْأَمْنَ يَوْمَ الْوَعْدِ وَالْجَنَّةَ يَوْمَ
الْخُلُودِ مَعَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ الشُّهُودِ الرُّكَّعِ السُّجُودِ الْمُؤَفِّينَ بِالْعُهُودِ إِنَّكَ رَحِيمٌ
وَدُودٌ وَإِنَّكَ تَفْعَلُ مَا تَرِيدُ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنَا هَادِينَ مُهْتَدِينَ غَيْرَ ضَالِّينَ وَلَا
مُضِلِّينَ سَلَامًا لِأَوْلِيَائِكَ وَعَدُوًّا لِأَعْدَائِكَ نُحِبُّ بِحُبِّكَ مَنْ أَحَبَّكَ
وَنُعَادِي بِعَدَاوَتِكَ مَنْ خَالَفَكَ اللَّهُمَّ هَذَا الدُّعَاءُ وَعَلَيْكَ الْإِجَابَةُ وَهَذَا
الْجَهْدُ وَعَلَيْكَ التَّكْلَانِ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ لِي نُورًا فِي قَلْبِي وَنُورًا فِي قَبْرِي وَ
نُورًا مِنْ بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ وَنُورًا مِنْ خَلْفِي وَنُورًا عَنْ يَمِينِي وَنُورًا عَنْ شِمَالِي وَنُورًا
مِنْ فَوْقِي وَنُورًا مِنْ تَحْتِي وَنُورًا فِي سَمْعِي وَنُورًا فِي بَصَرِي وَنُورًا فِي
شَعْرِي وَنُورًا فِي بَسَرِي وَنُورًا فِي لَحْيِي وَنُورًا فِي دُمِي وَنُورًا فِي عِظَامِي
اللَّهُمَّ اعْظِمْ لِي نُورًا وَاعْظِمْنِي نُورًا وَاجْعَلْ لِي نُورًا سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي تَعَطَّفَ الْعِزُّ
وَقَالَ بِهِ سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي لَيْسَ الْمَجْدُ وَتَكْرَمُ سُبْحَانَ ذِي الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1163/120) It is narrated by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that he heard the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say one night after he had finished offering his tahajjud prayers:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَةً مِنْ عِنْدِكَ تَهْدِي بِهَا قَلْبِي وَتَجْمَعُ بِهَا أَمْرِي
وَتَلْمُ بِهَا شَعْرِي وَتُصْلِحَ بِهَا غَائِبِي وَتَرْفَعُ بِهَا شَاهِدِي وَتُزَكِّي بِهَا عَمَلِي وَ
تُلْهِمْنِي بِهَا رُشْدِي وَتَعْصِمْنِي بِهَا مِنْ كُلِّ سُوءٍ اللَّهُمَّ اعْظِمْنِي إِيْمَانًا وَ يَقِينًا
لَيْسَ بَعْدَهُ كُفْرٌ وَ رَحْمَةً أَنَالُ بِهَا شَرَفَ كَرَامَتِكَ، فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ اللَّهُمَّ
إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْقَوْرَ فِي الْقَضَاءِ وَنُزْلِ الشَّهَادَةِ وَعَيْشِ السُّعْدَاءِ وَالنُّصْرَ عَلَى

الْأَعْدَاءِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اُنْزِلْ بِكَ حَاجَتِىْ وَاِنْ قَصُرَ رَاىِىْ وَضَعَفَ عَمَلِىْ اِفْتَقِرْتُ
اِلَى رَحْمَتِكَ فَاَسْأَلُكَ يَا قَاضِىَ الْاُمُوْر وَيَا شَافِىَ الصُّدُوْر كَمَا تُجِيبُ بَيْنَ
الْبُحُوْر اَنْ تُجِيبَنِىْ مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيْرِ وَمِنْ دَعْوَةِ الشُّبُوْرِ وَمِنْ فِتْنَةِ الْقُبُوْرِ اَللّٰهُمَّ
مَا قَصُرَ عَنْهُ رَاىِىْ وَلَمْ تَبْلُغْهُ نِيَّتِىْ وَلَمْ تَبْلُغْهُ مَسْأَلَتِىْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ وَعَدْتَهُ اَحَدًا مِنْ
خَلْقِكَ اَوْ خَيْرٍ اَنْتَ مُعْطِيْهِ اَحَدًا مِنْ عِبَادِكَ فَاِنِّىْ اَرْغَبُ اِلَيْكَ فِيْهِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ
بِرَحْمَتِكَ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ ذَا الْحَبْلِ الشَّدِيْدِ وَالْاَمْرِ الرَّشِيْدِ اَسْأَلُكَ
الْاَمْنَ يَوْمَ الْوَعْدِ وَالْجَنَّةَ يَوْمَ الْخُلُوْدِ مَعَ الْمُقَرَّبِيْنَ الشُّهُوْدِ الرُّكْعِ السُّجُوْدِ
الْمُؤَفِّيْنَ بِالْعَهُوْدِ اِنَّكَ رَحِيْمٌ وَدُوْدٌ وَاِنَّكَ تَفْعَلُ مَا تُرِيْدُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنَا هَادِيْنَ
مُهْتَدِيْنَ غَيْرَ ضَالِّيْنَ وَلَا مُضِلِّيْنَ سَلَامًا لِاَوْلِيَائِكَ وَعَدُوًّا لِاَعْدَائِكَ نَحْبُ
بِحُبِّكَ مِنْ اَحَبِّكَ وَنُعَادِيْ بِعَدَاوَتِكَ مَنْ خَالَفَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ هَذَا الدُّعَاءُ
وَعَلَيْكَ الْاِجَابَةُ وَهَذَا الْجَهْدُ وَ عَلَیْكَ التُّكْلَانِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ لِّىْ نُوْرًا فِىْ
قَلْبِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ قَبْرِىْ وَ نُوْرًا مِنْ بَيْنَ يَدَیْ وَ نُوْرًا مِنْ خَلْفِىْ وَ نُوْرًا عَنْ يَمِيْنِىْ
وَنُورًا عَنْ شِمَالِىْ وَ نُوْرًا مِنْ فَوْقِىْ وَ نُوْرًا مِنْ تَحْتِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ سَمْعِىْ وَ نُوْرًا
فِىْ بَصْرِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ شَعْرِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ بَشْرِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ لَحْمِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ
دَمِىْ وَ نُوْرًا فِىْ عَظَامِىْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَعْظِمْ لِّىْ نُوْرًا وَ اَعْطِنِىْ نُوْرًا وَاجْعَلْ لِّىْ نُوْرًا
سُبْحَانَ الَّذِىْ تَعَطَّفَ الْبَعْرُ وَقَالَ بِهِ سُبْحَانَ الَّذِىْ لَيْسَ الْمَجْدُ وَتَكْرَمَ سُبْحَانَ

ذِى الْحَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ

O Allah! I ask You for mercy from You whereby You guide my heart. And whereby You arrange my affairs. And correct my wrongs, open and secret, through that. And rectify and exalt what relates to me but is far away from me. And what is with me, let Your mercy raise and give them esteem. My deeds, purify them through Your mercy. Put in my heart what is right for me and let me have by virtue of Your mercy what I cherish and love and protect me from every evil.

O Allah! Grant me faith and belief allowing for nothing of disbelief thereafter (nothing which is in disagreement with belief). Bestow on me mercy by virtue of which I again honour and nobility in this life and the next.

O Allah! I beseech You for success in what is determined and the honour and respect that Your martyrs have received, and a life on the pattern of Your pious slaves, and Your help against the enemies.

O Allah! I have come to You with my needs and although my intellect and opinion are deficient and my deeds and efforts very weak and wanting, O Merciful and Benovelent One! I am in need of Your mercy! So, O The One Who decides all affairs and O, The One Who removes stains of the hearts and gives cure! Just as You keep the two oceans apart from each other (although they run side by side, not mixing the salty with the sweat), so keep me away from the Fire of Hell and its punishment and from seeking death and protect me from the punishment in the grave.

O Allah! I beseech You by virtue of Your mercy to let me have the good and the blessings (both of) which You have promised any of Your slaves or which You will give any without having promised them although my intellect and opinion have not imagined them and have failed to ask You them and I may not have ever thought of getting such a thing and I may not have asked You for that I am desirous of that through Your benevolence. So, grant me that good and blessing through Your mercy and favour, O Lord of the worlds!

O Allah! O The One Whose link is firm and strong, whose every Command is correct! I beseech You to let me have on the appointed day (the Day of Resurrection) peace and security. And, grant me paradise on the day of Al-Khulood (Hereafter) with those of Your slaves who are close to You and attendants of Your houses and observes of ruku (bowing) and sajdah (prostration) — that is, prayer and worship is their devotional, life-long exercise, who are known for their faithfulness to their covenant. Surely, You are Merciful, the Most Loving, and, indeed, You do what You intend to do!

O Allah! Cause us to guide other people, and be guided ourselves. Let us not be misguided ourselves nor ones who lead other people astray. Let us be at peace with Your friends, and at war with Your enemies. Let us love those who love. You because of affinity with You and despise those who oppose and go against You because of their opposition to You.

O Allah! This is the supplication and it is upon You to grant it. This is an humble effort but reliance is placed not on it but on You alone.

O Allah! Make for me Light in my heart and Light in my grave and make it shining bright. And make for me Light before me and Light behind me, Light to my right and Light to my left, Light above me and Light below me, Light in my hearing and Light in my sight, Light in my hair and Light in my flesh, Light in my blood and Light in my bones. O Allah! Magnify for me Light and bestow upon me Light and make for me Light.

Without blemish is He who has covered Himself with honour and has said it. Without blemish is He whose garment is glory and grace. Without blemish, and glorified, Owner of Majesty and Benevolence! (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Indeed, this is a very grand and comprehensive supplication. From the words of this one supplication (as from the words of others before it) we can gain an insight into the Prophet's awareness and deep knowledge of the works and Attributes of Allah. We can see how high he had gone in the field of servitude which is the most marvelous position of a worshipper. He was the chief of the worlds and the beloved of the Lord of the worlds, yet he considered himself dependent on the mercy and benevolence of Allah. How humbly and devotedly like an aspirant, he begged for his needs! We can imagine also the condition of his heart at the time of making his requests. How deep a consciousness Allah had granted him of the needs of mankind!

Keeping in view the attributes of Allah of Love, Mercy and Benevolence, we can imagine how much each expression of the supplications of the Messenger of Allah would be attracting the Mercy of Allah, and how deeply He would be loving the supplicant.

We have stated earlier that the supplications of the Prophet are the best legacy for the Ummah.

May Allah make us realise the value of this legacy and get a full share of it! Aameen!

SUPPLICATIONS AT DIFFERENT HOURS AND SITUATIONS

The supplications of the Prophet ﷺ, so far, were related to as-salah (prayer) or immediately after it. While the spirit and reality of prayer itself is that of supplication and presentation of petition in the most perfect way and calls for an expression of humility and submission, the supplications that we have gone through are signs of perfect knowledge and awareness and perfect servitude. In spite of that these supplications are not surprising.

However, the supplications that he has commended to be made at different Occasions are indeed a miracle of his teachings. These supplications are made at different times, like eating, drinking, sleeping and awakening and for other human needs. These supplications cause the deeds and actions to be blessed and they become spiritually bright and a means of securing nearness to Allah.

SUPPLICATIONS IN THE MORNING AND IN THE EVENING

It is with every man that he is a part of the rotation of day and night. Night gives way to morning and as the day wears out, evening sets in. Every morning and every evening, he passes through a stage of life whereafter a new stage begins. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave guidance to his Ummah through his sayings and practicals living that they should refresh and strengthen their links with Allah every morning and evening, show gratitude for His blessings, confess their omissions and ask for His forgiveness and make supplications to Him at appropriate times as mendicants before their gracious Lord.

(١١٦٤/١٢١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقَ قَالَ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ مُرْنِي بِكَلِمَاتٍ أَقُولُهُنَّ إِذَا أَصْبَحْتُ وَإِذَا أَمْسَيْتُ قَالَ قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ رَبِّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَمَلِيكَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي وَشَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَرِّكَه" قَالَ قُلْهَا إِذَا أَصْبَحْتَ وَإِذَا أَمْسَيْتَ وَإِذَا أَخَذْتَ مَضْجَعَكَ.

(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)
(1164/121) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ submitted to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "Teach me the expressions of supplications that I might make in the morning and evening." He said: "Say to Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ رَبِّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَمَلِيكَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي وَشَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَرِّكَه

O Allah! Creator of the heavens and the earth. Lord and Possessor of every thing, I testify that there is no God but You. I seek refuge in You from the evil within myself, from the evil of the devil, and his (incitement to) attributing partners (to You)".

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "O Abu Bakr! Make this supplication to Allah in the morning and evening and when you go to bed."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

(١١٦٥/١٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُ أَصْحَابَهُ يَقُولُ إِذَا أَصْبَحَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيَا وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ" وَإِذَا أَمْسَى فَلْيَقُلْ اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيَا وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ النُّشُورُ

(رواه ابو داود والترمذی واللفظ له)

(1165/122) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught his Companions رضی اللہ عنہم when they get up in the morning they should say:

اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيَا وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ

"O Allah, by You we come to the morning, by You we come to the evening, by You we live, by You we die, and to You do we come."

He taught them that when it is evening they should say:

اللَّهُمَّ بِكَ أَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ أَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيَا وَبِكَ نَمُوتُ وَإِلَيْكَ النُّشُورُ

"O Allah, by You we come to the evening, by You we come to the morning, by You we live, by You we die, and to You we are resurrected."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Brightness of the day after darkness of the night is, indeed, a great blessing of Allah. Men normally attend to their businesses during day time and if day did not follow night that would be a calamity. In the same way, it is a great blessing of Allah that the day gives way to evening which ushers in the night. In the evening, people begin to cease work and look forward to rest in the night. We can well imagine what would become of men if there was no evening time one day. In this hadith we have the message of the Prophet ﷺ that we must realise every morning and evening that these are blessings of Allah. This should also remind us that just as the age of the day ends by the Command of Allah and night begins, and the age of night ends to begin the day, so too our lives grow with His Command and will end at the appointed time. Then, we will be presented before Allah.

In short, we must remember the blessings of Allah every morning and evening and remember that death will come to us and there is a Hereafter. We must not forget it in the morning or in the evening.

(١١٦٦/١٢٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَمْسَى قَالَ "أَمْسَيْنَا وَأَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ. اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هَذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرِ مَا فِيهَا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا. اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَسُوءِ الْكِبَرِ وَفِتْنَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ." وَإِذَا أَصْبَحَ قَالَ ذَلِكَ أَيْضًا أَصْبَحْنَا وَأَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ الخ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1166/123) It is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه

that when evening came the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would say to Allah:

أَمْسَيْنَا وَأَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ. اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هَذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرِ مَا فِيهَا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا. اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَسُوءِ الْكِبَرِ وَفِتْنَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

"We and all creation have come to the evening and in the evening the dominion belongs to Allah; praise belongs to Allah; there is no God but Allah Alone Who has no partner; to Him belongs the dominion, to Him praise is due, and He is Omnipotent. O Allah! I ask You for something of the good of this night and the good of what it contains and seek refuge in You from its evil and the evil of what it contains. O Allah! I seek refuge in You from indolence, decrepitude, the evil of old age, temptation in this world, and punishment in the grave."

When morning came, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would say the same words with the change of just one word:

أَصْبَحْنَا وَأَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ الْخ.....

"We and all creation come to the morning and in the morning the dominion belongs to Allah"

(Muslim)

Commentary: There is a confirmation in this hadith of the belonging to Allah of oneself and all creation at the same time as He is praised and His unity is declared. There is a request for the good in the night, or day, and their blessings and protection is sought from weakness that could deprive one from blessings. There is also the seeking of protection from trials of the world and punishment in the grave. What a comprehensive supplication and an expression of one's dependence and servitude to Allah!

(١١٦٧/١٢٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُو هَؤُلَاءِ الْكَلِمَاتِ حِينَ يُمَسِّي وَحِينَ يُصْبِحُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي دِينِي وَدُنْيَايَ وَأَهْلِي وَمَالِي اللَّهُمَّ اسْتَرْعُو رَأْيِي وَأَمِنْ رَوْعَاتِي اللَّهُمَّ احْفَظْنِي مِنْ

بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ وَمِنْ خَلْفِي وَعَنْ يَمِينِي وَعَنْ شِمَالِي وَمِنْ فَوْقِي وَأَعُوذُ بِعَظَمَتِكَ
أَنْ أُغْتَالَ مِنْ تَحْتِي.”
(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1167/124) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ never failed to make supplication in these words in the evening and morning:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِیَةَ فِی الدُّنْیَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ
وَالْعَافِیَةَ فِیْ دِیْنِیْ وَدُنْیَایَ وَ اَهْلِیْ وَمَالِیْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتَرْعُوْ رَاتِیْ وَ اَمِنْ رَوْعَاتِیْ
اَللّٰهُمَّ اَحْفَظْنِیْ مِنْ بَیْنِ یَدَیْ وَمِنْ خَلْفِیْ وَعَنْ یَمِیْنِیْ وَعَنْ شِمَالِیْ وَمِنْ فَوْقِیْ
وَأَعُوذُ بِعَظَمَتِكَ اَنْ أُغْتَالَ مِنْ تَحْتِیْ

"O Allah! I ask You for forgiveness and security in this world and the next. O Allah! I ask You for forgiveness and security in my religion and my worldly affairs, in my family and my property. O Allah! conceal my faults and whatever shames me, and remove the fear of my heart (and give peace) and keep me safe from what I fear. O Allah! Guard me from in front of me and behind me, on my right and on my left, and from above me. And I seek refuge in Your greatness from receiving unexpected harm from below me (keep me safe from it always).

Commentary: Of the supplications made by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, this one too is very comprehensive. These few words do not omit any aspect of a man's life. May Allah enable us to recognise the significance of these supplications and practice accordingly.

(۱۱۶۸/۱۲۵) عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ مُسْلِمٍ يَقُولُ إِذَا أَمْسَى وَإِذَا أَصْبَحَ ثَلَاثًا "رَضِيتُ بِاللَّهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا وَبِ مُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا" إِلَّا كَانَ حَقًّا عَلَى اللَّهِ أَنْ يُرْضِيَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.

(رواه احمد والترمذی)

(1168/125) Sayyidina Thauban رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that there is not a Muslim slave who says three times morning and evening:

رَضِيتُ بِاللَّهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا وَبِ مُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا

"I am pleased with Allah as Lord, with Islam as religion and with Muhammad as Prophet ﷺ, but that Allah has taken it upon Himself to please him on the Day of Resurrection (Ahmad, Tirmizi)

Commentary: These are very brief words which refresh one's religious links with Allah, His Messenger ﷺ and the religion itself and are reported three times. To any one who recites them, Allah has promised to please him on the Day of Resurrection. How very unfortunate for us to neglect this practice after learning of the good news.

(١١٦٩/١٢٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ غَنَامٍ الْبَيَاضِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَالَ حِينَ يُصْبِحُ "اللَّهُمَّ مَا أَصْبَحَ بِي مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ أَوْ بِأَحَدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِكَ فَمِنْكَ وَحَدِّكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ. لَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ الشُّكْرُ." فَقَدْ أَدَّى شُكْرَ يَوْمِهِ وَمَنْ قَالَ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ حِينَ يُمَسِّي فَقَدْ أَدَّى شُكْرَ لَيْلَتِهِ.

(رواه أبو داود)

(1169/126) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Ghannam Bayadi رحمه الله has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that if anyone says the following words in the morning:

اللَّهُمَّ مَا أَصْبَحَ بِي مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ أَوْ بِأَحَدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِكَ فَمِنْكَ وَحَدِّكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ. لَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ الشُّكْرُ

"O Allah! What ever favour has come to me or to anyone else of Your creatures in the morning, it comes from You alone. You have no partner and all praise belongs to You and gratitude is due to You."

Then he will have expressed full thanks for the day. He also said that if anyone says the same thing in the evening then he will have expressed full thanks for the night. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The truth is that man cannot give thanks for the blessings of Allah as they deserve. This by itself is a blessing of the Benevolent Lord that He accepts the brief, humble thanks as sufficient. It is said that Sayyidina Dawood عليه السلام submitted to Allah, the Exalted, "My Lord! Your favours are innumerable, how may I express gratitude for them.? He got his answer, "Your simple realisation that the blessings are from Me alone is enough gratitude." لَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ الشُّكْرُ (All praise belongs to You and all thanks are due to You.)

(١١٧٠/١٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي مَالِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَصْبَحَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ "أَصْبَحْنَا وَأَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هَذَا الْيَوْمِ وَفَتْحَهُ وَنَصْرَهُ وَنُورَهُ وَبَرَكَتَهُ وَهُدَاهُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيهِ وَشَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهُ." ثُمَّ إِذَا أَمْسَى فَلْيَقُلْ مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1170/127) Sayyidina Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that when it is morning one should say:

أَصْبَحْنَا وَأَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هَذَا الْيَوْمِ وَفَتْحَهُ وَنَصْرَهُ وَنُورَهُ وَبَرَكَتَهُ وَهُدَاهُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيهِ وَشَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهُ

We have reached the morning and so has the creation (of Allah). To Allah, Lord of the worlds, do we all belong (and we are in His Hands). O Allah! I beg of You the good of this day, the victory thereof, the help thereof, the light thereof, the blessing thereof, and the guidance thereof. And I seek refuge in You from the evil that is in it and the evil that is after it."

Then, when he enters upon evening, he must make a similar supplication.

(Abu Dawood)

(١١٧١/١٢٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِينَ يُصْبِحُ "فَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ حِينَ تُمْسُونَ وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُونَ ۝ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِينَ تُظْهِرُونَ ۝ يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَيُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَكَذَلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ ۝" (روم ١٧: ٣٠-١٩) أَذْرَكَ مَا فَاتَهُ يَوْمَهُ ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ قَالَهُنَّ حِينَ يُمَسِّي أَذْرَكَ مَا فَاتَهُ فِي لَيْلَتِهِ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1171/128) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "If anyone recites the following verses of surah Ar-Room in the morning then he will receive all the benefits of that day which he may have missed. And, in the same way, he who recites them in the evening will get all the favours of that night which he may have missed. The verses of the Qur'an are:

فَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ حِينَ تُمْسُونَ وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُونَ ۝ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ

وَالْأَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِينَ تُظْهِرُونَ ۖ يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَيُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا ۚ وَكَذَٰلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ (الروم ١٧:٣٠-١٩)

So glorified be Allah when you enter the evening and when you enter the morning. And His is all praise in the heavens and the earth and (glorify Him) in the afternoon, and when you enter the time of declining of the sun. He brings forth the living from the dead, and brings forth the dead from the living, and He revives the earth after her death, and thus shall you be brought forth.¹

(Abu Dawood)

(١١٧٢/١٢٩) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ يَقُولُ فِي صَبَاحِ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ وَمَسَاءٍ كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي لَا يَضُرُّ مَعَ اسْمِهِ شَيْءٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ" ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ فَلَا يَضُرُّهُ شَيْءٌ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1172/129) Sayyidina Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that if anyone repeats the following words three times in the morning of every day and the same number of times in the evening of every night then he will not be harmed by anything and will not suffer by anything and will not suffer any accident. The words are:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي لَا يَضُرُّ مَعَ اسْمِهِ شَيْءٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

In the Name of Allah by virtue of Whose Name nothing in earth or heaven does hurt, and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing."

(Tirmizi, Abu-Dawood)

Commentary: This hadith was narrated by Aban, son of Sayyidina Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ. He was afflicted by a stroke of paralysis. One day, he related this hadith and a man gazed at him with questioning eyes. Aban understood that the man wondered how when he had heard this hadith from his father, Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ, he came to be smitten with paralysis, while the hadith guarantees that no harm would befall one who makes this supplication morning and evening. Aban said to the man, "Why do you stare at me? Neither do I give a false statement nor has Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه given me a wrong information. The hadith is very correct and the assurance it gives is true. The fact is that one day I had lost my temper because of some unpleasant happening so I forgot to make this supplication that day at the appointed time and I was afflicted with paralysis that very day. This malady was determined for me beforehand so I was made to forget these words that day." This statement of Aban is found with the hadith in Abu Dawood and Tirmizi.

1. Ar-Room, 30:17-19.

It is among the practice of the pious slaves of Allah to make this supplication three times every morning and every evening. And, there is no doubt that they hold out an assurance of protection from natural calamities of the earth and heaven.

(١١٧٣/١٣٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ حُبَيْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اقْرَأْ قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ وَالْمُعَوِّذَتَيْنِ حِينَ تُمْسِي وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ تَكْفِيكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ.
(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1173/130) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Khubayb رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him one day, "Recite Qul huwwAllahu Ahad (Surah al-Ikhlās), and the Ma'uzatayn (surah al-Falaq and surah an-Naas)¹, three times each, every morning and every evening. They will suffice you against every thing."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The surah Al-Ikhlās, Al-Falaq, and An-Naas are among the very small chapters of the Qur'an but they cover a vast subject. We have mentioned this fact in the chapter on the merits of the Qur'an. The hadith means to tell us that those people who cannot recite much then they must at least recite these three chapters thrice every morning and every evening. Insha Allah, they would be enough as the hadith assures us, and every Muslim can recite them from memory, too.

Supplications At The Time of Sleeping

Sleep resembles death. He who sleeps is unconcerned with the world and what it has, and he is unaware of its happenings; he is like a dead man in this regard. In this way, sleep is a condition between awakening and death. And, it is for this reason that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has instructed us emphatically that before we prepare to sleep, we must remember Allah with proper attention and concentration and seek forgiveness for our sins. We must also make appropriate supplications (recommended) for the hour.

①. Respectively surah 112, 113, 114.

We give below the supplications that he made or instructed us to make regularly.

(١١٧٤/١٣١) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ أَمَرَ رَجُلًا قَالَ إِذَا أَخَذْتَ مَضْجَعَكَ قُلْ
 اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ خَلَقْتَ نَفْسِي وَأَنْتَ تَوْفِّقُهَا لَكَ مَمَاتُهَا وَمَحْيَاهَا إِنْ أَحْيَيْتَهَا
 وَأَحْفَظْهَا وَإِنْ أَمَتَهَا فَاعْفِرْ لَهَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ، فَقِيلَ لَهُ
 سَمِعْتَ هَذَا مِنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُهُ مِنْ خَيْرٍ مِنْ عُمَرَ مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1174/131) It is said about Sayyidina Ibn Umar ؓ that he advised someone to make the following supplication when he lies down on his bed to sleep:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ خَلَقْتَ نَفْسِي وَأَنْتَ تَوْفِّقُهَا لَكَ مَمَاتُهَا وَمَحْيَاهَا إِنْ أَحْيَيْتَهَا
 وَأَحْفَظْهَا وَإِنْ أَمَتَهَا فَاعْفِرْ لَهَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ

"O Allah! You are the one to have created me and You are the One Who will give me death when You choose. My death and my life are in Your Power. If You keep me alive then protect me (from every trial and sin, and from every evil and calamity). If You cause me to die then forgive me and give me security in this life and the next."

When he taught these words to that man, someone asked him, "You must have heard this supplication from your respected father, Sayyidina Umar ؓ?" He said, "No! I have heard them from him who is better than Sayyidina Umar ؓ. I have learnt this supplication direct from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ." (Muslim)

Commentary: This brief supplication is full of sentiments of servitude to Allah. The mercy of Allah is best attracted by humility, humbleness and an expression of helplessness towards Him. Particularly, if a slave is prompted to make such a supplication when he is about to sleep then it is a sign of Allah's favours on him.

(١١٧٥/١٣٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا آوَى إِلَى فِرَاشِهِ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَكَفَانَا وَآوَانَاكُمْ مَنْ لَا كَافِيَ لَهُ وَلَا مُؤْوِي لَهُ." (رواه مسلم)

(1175/132) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to say when he went to his bed:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَكَفَانَا وَآوَانَاكُمْ مَنْ لَا كَافِيَ لَهُ وَلَا مُؤْوِي لَهُ
 "Praise be to Allah Who has fed us, given us drink, satisfied us and given us refuge. Many there are who have no one to provide sufficiently for them, or give them refuge." (Muslim)

Commentary: Whatever we eat and drink and whatsoever we get are all bestowed on us by our Merciful Lord. The credit does not go to our skill and ability. Hence, Allah alone is worthy of gratitude. He who makes this supplication at the time of sleeping does in fact thank Allah for the food and drink and other bounties He gives him.

(١١٧٦/١٣٣) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَضَعَ يَدَهُ تَحْتَ خَدِّهِ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ أَمُوتُ وَأَحْيُ" وَإِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ.

(رواه البخارى و رواه مسلم عن البراء بن عازب)

(1176/133) Sayyidina Huzayfah رضي الله عنه has said that when the Prophet ﷺ lay down on his bed at night, he placed his hand under his cheek (he placed his right hand under his cheek and lay down on his right side in the direction of the qiblah as we are told in other hadith) Then he made his submission before Allah:

"O Allah! In Your name I die and live." اللَّهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ أَمُوتُ وَأَحْيُ
 When he got up from his sleep, he used to say:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ

"Praise be to Allah who has given us life after causing us to die and to Whom we shall be resurrected." (Bukhari)

Commentary: Sleep resembles death in many ways. That is why this hadith refers to sleep as death and awakening to life. In this way, the daily routine of sleep and awakening is presented as a reminder of resurrection after death for which we must make proper preparations. Of the many supplications at the times of sleeping and awakening, this is a very brief supplication and it should be easy to memorise it. May Allah enable His slaves to take it up. Aameen!

(١١٧٧/١٣٤) عَنْ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَتَيْتَ مَضْجَعَكَ فَتَوَضَّأْ وَضُوءَكَ لِلصَّلَاةِ ثُمَّ اضْطَجِعْ عَلَى شِقِّكَ الْأَيْمَنِ وَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ وَجْهِي إِلَيْكَ وَفَوَّضْتُ أَمْرِي إِلَيْكَ وَالْجَنَاتِ ظَهْرِي إِلَيْكَ رَهْبَةً وَرَغْبَةً إِلَيْكَ لَا مَلْجَأَ وَلَا مَنْجَأَ مِنْكَ إِلَّا إِلَيْكَ أَمَنْتُ بِكِتَابِكَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلْتَ وَنَبِيِّكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ" فَإِنْ مِتُّ مِتُّ عَلَى الْفِطْرَةِ وَاجْعَلْهُمْ أَحْرَمًا تَقُولُ فَقُلْتُ أَسْتَذْكِرُهُمْ وَبِرَسُولِكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ قَالَ بَنِيكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1177/134) Sayyidina Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him that when he prepared to go to his bed to sleep he must first perform ablution and then lie down on his right side and submit to Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ وَجْهِي إِلَيْكَ وَفَوَّضْتُ أَمْرِي إِلَيْكَ وَالْجَنَاتِ ظَهْرِي إِلَيْكَ رَهْبَةً وَرَغْبَةً إِلَيْكَ لَا مَلْجَأَ وَلَا مَنْجَأَ مِنْكَ إِلَّا إِلَيْكَ أَمَنْتُ بِكِتَابِكَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلْتَ وَنَبِيِّكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ" فَإِنْ مِتُّ مِتُّ عَلَى الْفِطْرَةِ وَاجْعَلْهُمْ أَحْرَمًا تَقُولُ فَقُلْتُ أَسْتَذْكِرُهُمْ وَبِرَسُولِكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ قَالَ بَنِيكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ

"O Allah! I have handed over my soul to You and turned my face to You. I have entrusted my affairs to You and relied on You as my support fearing Your Greatness and craving for Your Mercy. There is no refuge and no place of safety from You except by having recourse to You. I believe in Your Book which You have sent down and in Your Prophet ﷺ whom You have sent."

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said to Sayyidina Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضي الله عنه that he should let these words be his last before he slept and he must not speak to anyone after that. If he died that night by the Command of Allah then his death would be blessed on a natural religion.

Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضي الله عنه said that he began to memorise this supplication before the Prophet ﷺ and the last sentence he rendered بِرسولك الذي ارسلت instead of بِنبيك الذي ارسلت (in Your Messenger ﷺ whom You have sent, instead of Your Prophet ﷺ whom You have sent). This was minor difference of word that did not change the meaning but the Prophet ﷺ corrected him, saying, "No! Say, In Your Prophet Whom You have sent.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This supplication is based on reliance on Allah and submission to Him. The supplicant places his affaris in the Hands of Allah. He renews belief in Allah. The words are so compact and appropriate that the best of litterateurs cannot compose the like of this passage. Indeed, it is one of the marvellous supplications of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

(١١٧٨/١٣٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْمُرُنَا إِذَا أَرَادَ أَحَدُنَا أَنْ يَنَامَ أَنْ يَضْطَجِعَ عَلَى شِقِّهِ الْأَيْمَنِ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبَّ الْأَرْضِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَالِقَ الْحَبِّ وَالنَّوَى، مُنْزِلَ التَّوْرَةِ وَالْإِنْجِيلِ وَالْقُرْآنِ، أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ أَنْتَ آخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهَا اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الْأَوَّلُ فَلَيْسَ قَبْلَكَ شَيْءٌ وَأَنْتَ الْآخِرُ فَلَيْسَ بَعْدَكَ شَيْءٌ إِقْضِ عَنَّا الدَّيْنَ وَآغِنَا مِنَ الْفَقْرِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1178/135) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to instruct them that when they intended to sleep they should lie down on the right side and supplicate Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبَّ الْأَرْضِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ رَبَّنَا وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَالِقَ الْحَبِّ وَالنَّوَى، مُنْزِلَ التَّوْرَةِ وَالْإِنْجِيلِ وَالْقُرْآنِ، أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ أَنْتَ آخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهَا اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الْأَوَّلُ فَلَيْسَ قَبْلَكَ شَيْءٌ وَأَنْتَ الْآخِرُ فَلَيْسَ بَعْدَكَ شَيْءٌ إِقْضِ عَنَّا الدَّيْنَ وَآغِنَا مِنَ الْفَقْرِ

"O Allah! Lord of the heavens and Lord of the earth, and Lord of the great Throne, Our Lord and Lord of everything else, (the Lord) Who splits the grain and kernel (and brings out the fruit) , Who has sent down the Torah, the Injeel and the Qur'an. I seek refuge in You from the evil of everything (that walks or creeps on land) on which You have complete control (seizing it by the forelocks).

O Allah! You are the First, there is nothing before You, You are the Last (Who will remain while all else perish), there is nothing after You. (O Master of all! Absolutely capable, the First and the Last) relieve me from debt that is against me and remove poverty and want and grant me riches and happiness. (Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith also instructs us to turn on the right side when sleeping as the Prophet ﷺ used to sleep. In this position the heart which is on the left side remains high and suspended and the men of Allah have learnt that this position of sleep is ideal for remembrance of Allah for making supplications with concentration.

This supplication is most suitable for those worshippers who are in debt and straitened circumstances. The worshipper who is in such a situation must make this representation to Allah and sleep with confidence that He would get him out of his predicament.

(١١٧٩/١٣٦) عَنْ حَفْصَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَرْقُدَ وَضَعَ يَدَهُ الْيُمْنَى تَحْتَ خَدِّهِ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ قِنِي عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ" ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ. (رواه أبو داود)

(1179/136) Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها has said that it was the practice of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ when he wanted to go to sleep that he placed his right hand under his cheek and said three times:

اللَّهُمَّ قِنِي عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ

"O Allah guard me from Your punishment on the day when You raise up Your slaves." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: one of the reasons he made this supplication at the time of sleeping was that sleep resembles death. When he lay on his bed to sleep, he would be remembering death and the Day of Resurrection, the reckoning, and reward and punishment. Anyone who has an intimate knowledge of Allah and if he remembers death and the Last Hour, he will wish to be protected from the punishment of that day.

(١١٨٠/١٣٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِينَ يَأْوِي إِلَى فِرَاشِهِ "أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ" ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ غُفِرَتْ لَهُ ذُنُوبُهُ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَدَدَ وَرَقِ الْأَشْجَارِ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَدَدَ رَمْلِ عَالَجٍ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَدَدَ أَيَّامِ الدُّنْيَا.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1180/137) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone says three times when going to bed:

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

I seek the forgiveness of Allah besides Whom there is no God, He is the Living, the Eternal, and I turn in repentance to Him.

Allah will forgive him his sins, even if they are like the foam of the sea, or in number like the sands of the deserts Aaliq, or as many as the leaves of the trees, or as numerous as the days of the world.

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: This hadith instructs us to seek forgiveness of Allah in the specified words at the time of sleeping and it promises that all sins of the supplicant would be forgiven. It will be a great loss to us if we fail to take advantage of this assurance, of course, we must be sincere in our repentance and not just repeat the words with our tongues. Allah cannot be deceived by oral expressions, He sees into our hearts.

(١١٨١/١٣٨) عَنْ فَرَوَةَ بْنِ نَوْفَلٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِأَبِي إِفْرَاءَ قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ (مُحْمَدُونَ ١: ١٠٩) ثُمَّ نَمْ عَلَى خَاتِمَتِهَا فَإِنَّهَا بَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ الشِّرْكِ.

(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1181/138) It is narrated by Farwah ibn Nawfal that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to his father, "(When you go to bed,) Recite Qul ya ayyooohal kafiroom (surah al-kafiroon) and then go to sleep for it is a declaration of freedom from polytheism."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

Commentary: The version in Tirmizi tells us that Nawfal رضی اللہ عنہ had asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to teach him something to say when he prepared to sleep. The Prophet ﷺ taught him to recite the surah al-kafiroon.

(١١٨٢/١٣٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا أَوَى إِلَى فِرَاشِهِ كُلَّ لَيْلَةٍ جَمَعَ كَفْيَيْهِ ثُمَّ نَفَثَ فِيهِمَا فَقَرَأَ فِيهِمَا قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ ثُمَّ يَمْسَحُ بِهِمَا مَا اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْ جَسَدِهِ يَبْدَأُ بِهِمَا عَلَى رَأْسِهِ وَوَجْهِهِ وَمَا أَقْبَلَ مِنْ جَسَدِهِ يَفْعَلُ ذَلِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ.

(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1182/139) Syidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that it was the practice of the Prophet ﷺ when he lay down on his bed to sleep, he recited Qul huwAllahu Ahad, Qul-a'ouzu bi rabbil falaq and *Qul a'aoozu bi rabibnaas*¹ and breathed on his hands. Then he wiped as much of his body as he could with them, beginning with his head, his face and the front of his body. He did it three times. (Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

Commentary: We learn from one version of this hadith that when the Prophet ﷺ was bed-ridden with his last illness, he asked sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها to recite the three chapters, blow on her own hands wipe his body with her hands. She has said that she used to do so.

Observation: It is possible that some people might find it difficult to memorise the other supplications of the Prophet ﷺ at the time of sleeping. Such people may, atleast, recite these three surah, namely, al-Ikhlaas, al-Falaq and an-Naas. That should suffice such people and they should abide by this little recital. If anyone of us cannot do this much then it is unfortunate for him.

Supplications for Sleeplessness

(١١٨٣/١٤٠) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ شَكَى خَالِدُ بْنُ الْوَلِيدِ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ لَا يَنَامُ اللَّيْلَ مِنَ الْآرَقِ فَقَالَ إِذَا أَوَيْتَ إِلَى فِرَاشِكَ فَقُلْ "اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَمَا أَظْلَتْ وَرَبَّ الْأَرْضَيْنِ وَمَا أَقْلَتِ وَرَبَّ الشَّيَاطِينِ وَمَا أَضَلَّتْ كُنْ لِيْ جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ خَلْقِكَ كُلِّهِمْ جَمِيعًا أَنْ يَفْرُطَ عَلَيَّ أَحَدٌ أَوْ أَنْ

①. Surah Al-Ikhlās, Al-Falaq, and An-Naas.

يَغْفِي عَلَيَّ عَزَّ جَارَكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1183/140) Sayyidina Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Sayyidina Khalid ibn Walid رضی اللہ عنہ complained to the Prophet ﷺ that he faced insomnia at night. The Prophet ﷺ suggested to him that when he went to bed he should say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمٰوٰتِ السَّبْعِ وَمَا اَظْلَلَتْ وَرَبَّ الْاَرْضَيْنِ وَمَا اَقْلَتْ وَرَبَّ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَمَا اَضَلَّتْ كُنْ لِيْ جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ خَلْقِكَ كُلِّهِمْ جَمِيْعًا اَنْ يُّفْرَطَ عَلَيَّ اَحَدٌ اَوْ اَنْ يُّغْفَى عَلَيَّ عَزَّ جَارَكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ

"O Allah! Lord of the seven heavens and of that over which they cast their shadows, and Lord of the earths and of what they bear, and Lord of the devils and what they mislead, be for a Protector from the evil of Your entire creation lest any of them do evil or oppress me. Strong is Your protection and great in Your praise. There is no God other than You. There is no God besides You."

(Tirmizi)

Supplication When Getting A Nightmare

(١١٨٤/١٤١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا فَرَعَ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي النَّوْمِ فَلْيَقُلْ "أَعُوذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ غَضَبِهِ وَعَذَابِهِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ عِبَادِهِ وَمِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِينِ وَأَنْ يَخْضُرُونَ" فَإِنَّهَا لَنْ تَضُرَّهُ وَكَانَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ يُلْقِنُهَا مَنْ بَلَغَ مِنْ أَوْلَادِهِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ مِنْهُمْ كَتَبَ فِي

صِكِّ وَعَلَّقَهَا فِي عُقْبِهِ.

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی)

(1184/141) it is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When one of you sees a nightmare (a frightening dream), he must make this supplication:

أَعُوذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ غَضَبِهِ وَعَذَابِهِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ عِبَادِهِ وَمِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِينِ وَأَنْ يَخْضُرُونَ" فَإِنَّهَا لَنْ تَضُرَّهُ وَكَانَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ يُلْقِنُهَا مَنْ بَلَغَ مِنْ أَوْلَادِهِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ مِنْهُمْ كَتَبَ فِي صِكِّ وَعَلَّقَهَا فِي عُقْبِهِ

"I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allah from His wrath and His punishment and from the mischief of His slaves and from the wishpers of the devils and what they bring and trouble me."

The Prophet ﷺ added, "The devil will not hurt him then in the least."

(this hadith was transmitted by Shu'ayb, the son of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr ؓ from him. And he said further) It was my fathers' practice that he taught this supplication to his adult, grown-up children so that they kept up his practice. for those children who were young, he wrote it down on a piece of paper and put it round their neck (as an amulet) (Abu Dawood, Trimizi)

Commentary: This hadith discloses to us that frightening dreams are from the devils. If the supplication is made regularly then, Insha Allah, the supplicant will be protected from their harm. This practice of the Companion ؓ of the Prophet ﷺ reveals to us that there is no wrong in writing down the Name of Allah and His words on a piece of paper and using it as an amulet worn round the neck or on other part of the body.

Supplication on Arising From Sleep

(١١٨٥/١٤٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ قَالَ "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ اسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِدُنْيِي وَأَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَتَكَ اللَّهُمَّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا وَلَا تُرْغِ قَلْبِي بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنِي وَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ.

(رواه ابو داود)
(1185/142) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that when the Prophet ﷺ got up from sleep he would make the following supplication to Allah:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ اسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِدُنْيِي وَأَسْأَلُكَ رَحْمَتَكَ اللَّهُمَّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا وَلَا تُرْغِ قَلْبِي بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَيْتَنِي وَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ رَحْمَةً إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ

There is no God save You. Glory be to You; O Allah! And with all praise for You. I seek Your forgiveness for my sins and I ask You for Your mercy. O Allah! Give me increase in knowledge, and guard my heart lest it turn away after having recieved Your guidance. And bestow on me Your mercy. Surely, You, only You, are the One Who bestows!" (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This is a brief but comprhensvie supplication. Each of its phrases smacks of the spirit of servitude. Anyone who has a little knowledge of the relationship between Allah and His creatures can recognise this distinction of the supplication. Any man who makes this supplication on arising from sleep sincerely surely deserves choicest of His mercy and favours, and love. May He grant us a true longing for His favours and mercy, and ability to receive them. Aameen (١١٨٦/١٤٣) عَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَعَارَّ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَقَالَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي أَوْدَعَا أُسْتَجِيبَ فَإِنْ تَوَضَّأْتُ قَبِلَتْ صَلَاتُهُ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1186/143) It is reported by Sayyidina Ubadah ibn As-Samit رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that if anyone wakes up in the night and makes this supplication:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَلَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

There is no God but Allah, Alone; He has no partner; to Him belong the dominion, and all praise is for Him, and He is over all things powerful; praise belongs to Allah and He is without blemish; and there is no God except Allah. And Allah is the Greatest, and there is no might or power except with Allah."

After which he says اللهم اغفر لي (O Allah, forgive me!) or makes any other supplication then Allah will grant him his request. After that if he draws himself together and (gets up and) performs ablution and offers prayer then his prayer will be accepted.

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The text of the haidth is as given by Bukhari and it has the words الحمد لله (Praise belongs to Allah) before the words سبحان الله (Allah is without blemish). However, in the text carried by other Books, among them Abu Dawood, Imam Tirmizi and others, the words سبحان الله precede the words الحمد لله as they are found in the kalimah tamjeed. Hence, Hafiz Ibn Hajr رحمه الله and other exegetes of Bukhari have held that the words الحمد لله have preceded سبحان الله in Bukhari's transmission because of the oversight of one of the narrators in the chain, and they agree with the sequence found in Abu Dawood and Tirmizi.¹

The hadith gives glad tidings to the slave of Allah who wakes up in the night and declares the unity, majesty, glory and praise of Allah and confirms that without His help he cannot do or achieve anything. It assures him that if he seeks pardon or makes any supplication then his request will be approved.

Again, if he performs ablution and offers prayer (Salah) then that too will be accepted from him. Some of the religious Scholars suggest that the person who comes to know of this hadith should consider it to be a precious gift of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to him. He should believe in the tidings of the Prophet ﷺ and put the teachings into practice, seeking forgiveness of Allah and making the supplication and thus receive acceptance of his efforts. Certainly, those who do not value the gift are deprived people.

Imam Abu Abdullah Farbari رحمه الله عليه who has transmitted the Sahih al-Bukhari from Imam Bukhari رحمه الله عليه said: "One night, I woke up from sleep and by the ability granted to me by Allah, I repeated these phrases. Then sleep overtook me and I had a dream, and saw someone met me and recited the verse:

وَهَدُّوْا إِلَى الطَّيِّبِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَهَدُّوْا إِلَى صِرَاطِ الْحَمِيدِ (الحج ٢٢: ٢٤)

"And guided they have been unto goodly speech, and guided they have been to the way of the Praiseworthy."²

Supplication At the Time of *Istinja*³

Like sleeping and eating visits to the toilet to relieve oneself are also part of a man's life. Surely, at the time when one is relieving oneself, it is against etiquette to call the Name of Allah and to make supplication to Him. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has taught us to supplicate Allah before we go to relieve ourselves and after we have done that. These supplications are found in the following hadith.

①. Accordingly, the Urdu translation follows the sequence of these authorities, not of the text reproduced here.

②. Fath Al-Bari V.5, p. 610. The verse is from Surah Al-Hajj (22: 24)

③. Absterion.

(١١٨٧/١٤٤) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ هَذِهِ الْحُشُوشُ مُحْتَضِرَةٌ فَإِذَا أَتَى أَحَدُكُمْ الْخَلَاءَ فَلْيَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الْخُبْثِ وَالْخَبَائِثِ.

(رواه ابو داود و ابن ماجه)
(1187/144) Sayyidina Zayd ibn Arqam ؓ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "These privies are the haunts of the devils and harmful things. Therefore, when anyone of you goes there to relieve himself, let him say:

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الْخُبْثِ وَالْخَبَائِثِ

I seek refuge in Allah from the foul male and female devils"¹

(Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Just as flies and filthy insects land themselves on excreta, so too the foul devils and some harmful creatures keep themselves in dirty, foul places. That is why the Prophet ﷺ has taught us the foregoing supplication to be made when going to such places. A hadith by Sayyidina Anas ؓ the very personal attendant of the Prophet ﷺ is transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim. He has said that it was the habit of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that before he entered the toilet he, made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْخُبْثِ وَالْخَبَائِثِ

O Allah! I seek regure in You from the foul male and female devils.

(١١٨٨/١٤٥) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا خَرَجَ مِنَ الْخَلَاءِ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ عَنِّي الْأَذَى وَعَافَانِي.

(رواه ابن ماجه)
(1188/145) Sayyidina Anas ؓ has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, when he came out of the privy said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ عَنِّي الْأَذَى وَعَافَانِي

Praise be to Allah who has removed harm from me and kept me in health."

(Ibn Majah)

Commentary: If it becomes difficult for anyone to pass urine or stool then that is a very painful experience. Doctors have to adopt

①. This is according to the Arabic text. The Urdu translation is different as may be seen in the explanation.

other means to relieve the patient of the unwanted body waste. If we pay attention to it, the natural process of discharge of urine and stool is a blessing from Allah and a great favour.

It was with this realisation that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ thanked Allah and praised Him in these words:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ عَنِّي الْأَذَى وَعَافَانِي

This is a very apt and mystic supplication.

Supplication At The Time of Coming Out of The House & Entering It

Among the various activities of man, going out of his home and coming back to it are also part of his daily routine and at every step he is dependent on the mercy and favour of Allah and His protection. So, whenever he steps out of his house or gets into it, he must call upon the name of Allah to get His blessings and help. The following ahadith tell us of the supplications the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made on these occasions and taught us.

(١١٨٩/١٤٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا خَرَجَ الرَّجُلُ مِنْ بَيْتِهِ فَقَالَ "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ" يُقَالُ لَهُ حَسْبُكَ هُدَيْتَ وَكُفِّيتَ وَوُقِّيتَ وَيَتَنَحَّى عَنْهُ الشَّيْطَانُ.

(رواه ابو داود والترمذى واللفظ له)

(1189/146) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone goes out of his house and says while going out:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

In the name of Allah, I trust in Allah. There is no might or power but in Allah.

Then it would be said about him in the unseen world (by the angels) (Slave of Allah, these words are enough for you, you are well guided and defended and protected), and the devil becomes dejected and goes away from him. (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This brief hadith conveys to us the message that when someone steps out of his house he should consider himself utterly helpless and entirely dependent on the mercy of Allah. He must submit himself to His protection. Allah will then take him in His protection and the devil will not be able to harm him.

(١١٩٠/١٤٧) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا خَرَجَ مِنْ بَيْتِهِ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ نَزِلَّ أَوْ نُضِلَّ أَوْ نُظْلِمَ أَوْ يُظْلَمَ عَلَيْنَا أَوْ نَجْهَلَ أَوْ يُجْهَلَ عَلَيْنَا. (رواه احمد والترمذى والنسائى)
(1190/147) Sayyidah Umm Salmah رضى الله عنها has said that it was the practice of the Prophet ﷺ that when he went out of his house he said:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ نَزِلَّ أَوْ نُضِلَّ أَوْ نُظْلِمَ أَوْ يُظْلَمَ عَلَيْنَا أَوْ نَجْهَلَ أَوْ يُجْهَلَ عَلَيْنَا

In the Name of Allah. I trust in Allah, O Allah, we seek refuge in You from slipping or straying (or causing other people to stray), or causing injustice or oppression, or suffering injustice, or doing wrong or having wrong done to us." (Ahmad, Tirmizi, Nasa'i)

Commentary: When a person goes out of his house to attend to some work, he encounters different people and faces different circumstances. If he does not have the help of Allah on his side then he might stray off path and do some wrong. Or, he may mislead someone else. Or, he may quarrel with someone, either causing injury to the other or suffering it himself. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, when he stepped out of his house, took the name of Allah and renewed his belief in Him, and placed reliance on Him. He also sought refuge in Him from these risks. He showed by his deeds that he was always dependent on the help of Allah and His protection.

The hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه preceding this one prescribed the brief expression of لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله. That too is enough for this purpose.

(١١٩١/١٤٨) عَنْ أَبِي مَالِكٍ الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا وَلَجَ الرَّجُلُ بَيْتَهُ فَلْيَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ اسْتَلِكْ خَيْرَ الْمَوَاجِ وَخَيْرَ الْمَخْرَجِ" بِسْمِ اللَّهِ وَلَجْنَا وَبِسْمِ اللَّهِ خَرَجْنَا وَعَلَى اللَّهِ رَبِّنَا تَوَكَّلْنَا" ثُمَّ يُسَلِّمُ عَلَى أَهْلِهِ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1191/148) Sayyidina Abu Maalik Al-Ash'ari رضى الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When any man enters his house, let him say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَ الْمَوْلِجِ وَخَيْرَ الْمَخْرَجِ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَلَجْنَا وَبِسْمِ اللّٰهِ خَرَجْنَا
وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ رَبِّنَا تَوَكَّلْنَا

(O Allah! I ask You for the good of coming in the house and good of the going out of it (so that my coming into it and going out of it produces good and blessings for me). We enter it in the Name of Allah. and we go out with His Name and we place our trust in Allah. our Lord).

He should then greet his family, saying السلام عليكم (Peace be on you)". (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The central point of the teaching of this hadith is that when one enters one's house or goes out of it, the eye of his heart must be towards Allah and the tongue must have on its edge the name of Allah. The heart must believe that He holds all good and blessings in His power. Supplication must be made to Him and trust His benevolence and mercy.

Then salutations must be presented to the members of the house, young or old. That, indeed is a supplication and favours on them.

Supplication On Entering & Going of The Mosque

The Masjid or mosque is the house of Allah and His court. The visitors to it come here to gain the pleasure and mercy of Allah through worshipping Him. So, the Prophet ﷺ has instructed us that none of us must enter the mosque carelessly nor emerge from it negligently. We must have proper words for supplication on our lips both when we enter it and when we come out of it. This is the correct etiquette for the court of Allah.

(١١٩٢/١٤٩) عَنْ أَبِي أُسَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا
دَخَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ الْمَسْجِدَ فَلْيَقُلْ "اَللّٰهُمَّ افْتَحْ لِيْ اَبْوَابَ رَحْمَتِكَ" وَإِذَا خَرَجَ
فَلْيَقُلْ "اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْئَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ".
(رواه مسلم)

(1192/149) Sayyidina Abu Usayd رضي الله عنه reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When one of you enters the mosque he must make supplication to Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ لِي أَبْوَابَ رَحْمَتِكَ

(O Allah! open for me the gates of Your mercy).

And when he comes out, he should say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ

(O Allah! I ask You for Your favour). (Muslim)

Commentary: We learn from the Qur'an that the word رحمة (mercy) is used particularly for the spiritual and next-world blessings, for example, nubuwat, wilayat, position of closeness to, and pleasure of, Allah and blessings of Paradise. Thus, we see in surah Az-zukhruf:

وَرَحْمَةُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ (الزخرف ٤٣:٣٢)

(And the mercy of your Lord is better than what they amass).

(Az Zakhruf 43:32)

The word فضل (favour, bounty) is used particularly for worldly blessings, for example, abundant sustenance, happy life, and so on. Thus, we see in Surah Al-Jumu'ah:

فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ (الجمعة ٦٢:١٠)

(Then, when the Salah is ended, disperse in the land and seek the bounty of Allah).

(Al Jumu'ah 62:10)

Hence, because masjid is the centre of deeds whose rewards are spiritual and next-world blessings, we pray, on entering it, for the gates of mercy to be opened. Similarly, on coming forth from it, we seek the favour of Allah.

Supplication On Getting Up From An Assembly

When one sits among some people, he sometimes says something, or listens to something, which does not behave a Believer. He might have to account for that. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has taught us that when we leave assembly we must praise and glorify Allah, utter words of testimony of unity of Allah, repentance and forgiveness. This would serve as an expiation for the carelessness in the meeting.

(١١٩٣/١٥٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ جَلَسَ مَجْلِسًا كَثُرَ فِيهِ لَغَطُهُ فَقَالَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَقُومَ مِنْ مَجْلِسِهِ ذَلِكَ "سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ" إِلَّا غَفَرَ اللَّهُ لَهُ مَا كَانَ فِي مَجْلِسِهِ ذَلِكَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1193/150) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone sits in an assembly where there is much clamour, wicked and meaningless talk and says before getting up:

سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ
إِلَيْكَ

(Glory be to You, O Allah, and I begin with Your praise; I testify that there is no God but You; I ask Your forgiveness for my sins and I turn to You in repentance).

He will be forgiven for what took place in that assembly where he was. (Tirmizi)

(١١٩٤/١٥١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَلِمَاتٌ لَا يَتَكَلَّمُ بِهِنَّ أَحَدٌ فِي مَجْلِسِهِ عِنْدَ قِيَامِهِ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ إِلَّا أَكْفَرَ بِهِنَّ عَنْهُ وَلَا يَقُولُهُنَّ فِي مَجْلِسٍ خَيْرٍ أَوْ مَجْلِسٍ ذِكْرٍ إِلَّا خُتِمَ لَهُ بِهِنَّ عَلَيْهِ كَمَا يُخْتَمُ بِالْخَاتَمِ عَلَى الصَّحِيفَةِ "سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ". (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1194/151) It is related by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There are some expressions which a man utters three times when he gets up from an assembly he will be forgiven for what happened in the assembly; and no one utters them in an assembly held for a noble cause or for remembrance of Allah but that is stamped with them just as a document is stamped with a signet-ring. These expressions are:

سُبْحَانَكَ اللَّهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْكَ

(Glory be to You, O Allah, and I begin with praise of You, there is no God but you; I ask for Your forgiveness and turn to You in repentance)."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This is a brief but comprehensive expression which glorifies and praises Allah. It also affirms that He is One and Alone, and it also has words of forgiveness and repentance for the supplicant.

I have seen some close slaves of Allah who, after every little while, particularly after speaking with someone, repeated this expression from the depth of their hearts. Their sincerity was apparent from their faces and their voices, and their listeners were impressed by their words.

Indeed, the expression is deep in meaning and choice of its word-sequence. If uttered sincerely before Allah then His mercy and favours would definitely descend on him. It is among the main gifts of the Prophet ﷺ. May Allah enable us to realise its value and cause us to benefit from it.

(١١٩٥/١٥٢) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَلَّمَا كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُومُ مِنْ مَجْلِسٍ حَتَّى يَدْعُوْهُ بِهَؤُلَاءِ الدُّعَوَاتِ لِأَصْحَابِهِ "اللَّهُمَّ أَقْسِمْ لَنَا مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ مَا تَحُولُ بِهِ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ مَعْصِيَتِكَ، وَمِنْ طَاعَتِكَ مَا تُبَلِّغُنَا بِهِ جَنَّتِكَ وَمِنَ الْيَقِينِ مَا تُهَوِّنُ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا مُصِيبَاتِ الدُّنْيَا، وَمَتَعْنَا بِأَسْمَاعِنَا وَأَبْصَارِنَا وَقُوتِنَا مَا أَحْيَيْتَنَا، وَاجْعَلْهُ الْوَارِثَ مِنَّا، وَاجْعَلْ ثَارَنَا عَلَى مَنْ ظَلَمْنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلَى مَنْ عَادَانَا، وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مُصِيبَتَنَا فِي دِينِنَا وَلَا تَجْعَلِ الدُّنْيَا أَكْبَرَ هَمِّنَا وَلَا مَبْلَغَ عِلْمِنَا وَلَا تَسْلُطْ عَلَيْنَا مَنْ لَا يَرْحَمُنَا.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1195/152) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ said that it was very rare that the Prophet ﷺ got up from an assembly and did not pray for his Companions ﷺ also when he prayed for himself.

اللَّهُمَّ أَقْسِمْ لَنَا مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ مَا تَحُولُ بِهِ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ مَعْصِيَتِكَ، وَمِنْ طَاعَتِكَ مَا تُبَلِّغُنَا بِهِ جَنَّتِكَ وَمِنَ الْيَقِينِ مَا تُهَوِّنُ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا مُصِيبَاتِ الدُّنْيَا

وَمَتَّعْنَا بِأَسْمَاعِنَا وَأَبْصَارِنَا وَقُوتِنَا مَا أَحْيَيْنَا، وَاجْعَلْ لَّارِثَ مِنَّا، وَاجْعَلْ ثَرَارَنَا
 عَلَى مَنْ ظَلَمْنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلَى مَنْ عَادَانَا، وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مُصِيبَتَنَا فِي دِينِنَا وَلَا
 تَجْعَلِ الدُّنْيَا أَكْبَرَ هَمًّا وَلَا مَبْلَغَ عِلْمِنَا وَلَا تُسَلِّطْ عَلَيْنَا مَنْ لَا يَرْحَمُنَا

"O Allah! Grant us so much fear of You as obstructs us from disobedience to You (so that our steps do not go towards disobedience from fear of You).

And grant us much obedience and worship so that by virtue of which You may send us to Paradise (and they become a means to our entry into Paradise).

And give us so much of belief in fate and decree as makes the worldly hardships light for us.

And let us use our ears, eyes and other senses and organs as long as You keep us alive. (So that until) we die we benefit from Your favours and blessings of the eyes, ears and so on) and retain them even after we die (so that we leave behind such things and deeds as are useful even after we are no more).

And (O Owner and Protector) let us retaliate against him who oppresses us (Your believing slaves).

And help us against him who displays enmity to us (and give us an upperhand against him)

And let us not misfortunes befall us in our religion (and protect us from religious problems and trials)

And do not make the world our chief goal and the limit of our knowledge and sight.

And (O Allah!) do not set him over us as authority who does not show mercy to us." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: This again is one of the most comprehensive supplications of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The truth is that we lack the words whereby we may express the value and esteem of his supplications.

May Allah grant light to the graves for the Companions رضي الله عنهم and their successors in every age who preserved these supplications for the Ummah! And may He enable us to recognise their worth and benefit from them. Aameen!

Supplication On Going To The Market

Man needs to go to the market to buy or sell and faces there possibilities of gain or loss. More than anywhere else, the market contains what may cause him to be neglectful and, therefore, it is called شر البقاع, the worst of places. So, whenever the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had to go there he was careful to pay more attention to Zikr (remembrance of Allah) and to make the following supplication.

(١١٩٦/١٥٣) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ السُّوقَ قَالَ "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هَذِهِ السُّوقِ وَخَيْرَ مَا فِيهَا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ أَنْ أَصِيبَ فِيهَا صَفْقَةً خَاسِرَةً."
(رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير).

(1196/153) Sayyidina Buraydah رضي الله عنه has reported that when the Prophet ﷺ went to the market, he was in the habit of making this supplication:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هَذِهِ السُّوقِ وَخَيْرَ مَا فِيهَا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ أَنْ أَصِيبَ فِيهَا صَفْقَةً خَاسِرَةً

"In the Name of Allah. O Allah, I ask You for the good of this market and the good of what it has, and I seek refuge in You from its evil and the evil of what it contains. O Allah! I seek refuge in You lest I strike a bad bargain in it and incur loss.

(Bayhaqi)

Zikr in The Evil Atmosphere of The Market Fetches Extraordinary Reward

(١١٩٧/١٥٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ رَسُولٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ دَخَلَ السُّوقَ فَقَالَ "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ لَا يَمُوتُ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ." كَتَبَ اللَّهُ لَهُ أَلْفَ أَلْفِ حَسَنَةٍ وَمَحَا عَنْهُ أَلْفَ أَلْفِ سَيِّئَةٍ وَرَفَعَ لَهُ أَلْفَ أَلْفِ دَرَجَةٍ وَبَنَاهُ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ.
(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)

(1197/154) Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of

Allah ﷻ said that if anyone goes to the market and (unimpressed by the loud and worldly atmosphere there, sincerely) says:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ لَا يَمُوتُ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

"There is no God but Allah, Alone; no partner has He, to Him belongs the dominion, and all praise is for Him; He gives life and causes death while He is Living and never dies; in His Hand is all the good and He is Omnipotent."

Then Allah records for him millions of good deeds, obliterates from him millions of evil deeds, raises him millions of degrees and builds him a house in Paradise. (Tirmizi, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Certainly, markets are places of negligence and sin, and haunts of the devils. The slave of Allah is worthy of being rewarded heavily if he chants such devotional expressions in the evil, devilish atmosphere of the market and remembers Allah much. In this way he counters the wicked atmosphere. He will receive credit for millions of pious deeds, millions of his wrongs will be erased from his record, his ranks will be raised millions of elevations and a beautiful palace will be built for him in Paradise.

In the market, a person sees so many things which divert him from Allah and make him forget that the world and what it contains will perish. He is attracted to those things which look to him beautiful and advantageous. He draws himself towards a big and successful trader or wealthy man in the hope that relations with him will further his ends. These are the thoughts and temptations that lead hearts and sights astray. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has suggested a cure and protective measure against this malady, the Kalimah tawheed:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ لَا يَمُوتُ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

"There is no God but Allah. He is Alone. He has no partner. The dominion belongs to Him. All praise is for Him. He gives life and death and He is the Ever-living Who does not die. He holds all the good and He is powerful over all things."

These phrases directly deal a blow on the misleading thoughts and devilish promptings which one gets in the markets. These phrases refresh the following facts:

1. Allah is True. It is worthy of Him that we should love Him dearly with heart and should, and worship Him. We must make Him alone the aim of our life, and not associate anyone with Him.
2. Only He is the Sovereign over all the creation. His Command and rule holds supreme without any other partnership and only He is the Absolute Owner and Ruler of the entire universe.
3. Only He deserves praise. Anything else that appeals to us and seems worthy of praise are His Own creation and making and their beauty is bestowed on them by Him alone.
4. Only He owns the attribute حي لا يموت (Ever living, who does not die). Everyone and everything besides Him will perish and He alone holds the life and death of everyone.
5. He has in His Hand all the good and no one else has authority and control over anything.
6. He alone is Omnipotent. He has power and authority over everything; every change and turn of events is determined by Him.

Therefore, the person who remembers Allah in this way in the hustle and bustle of the market is one who raises the banner of Allah in the land of the devil and lights the light of guidance in the darkness of misguidance. He thus deserves the bounties promised to him in the hadith.

The words of the hadith الف الف are not translated a million but millions. We agree with those commentators who say that here a specific number is not indicted but the words الف الف refer to excess. But Allah knows best.

Supplication On Seeing Anything In Distress

Sometimes we see slaves of Allah who are distressed and in very strained circumstances. They are in a very bad condition. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has commended us to praise Allah and thank Him for preserving us from that condition when we see anyone so afflicted. He has assured us that if we do that then Allah will keep us safe from that misfortune.

(١١٩٨/١٥٥) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ وَأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ رَأَى مُبْتَلًى فَقَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي عَافَانِي مِمَّا ابْتَلَاكَ بِهِ وَفَضَّلَنِي عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقَ تَفْضِيلًا" إِلَّا لَمْ يُصِبْهُ ذَلِكَ الْبَلَاءُ كَانُوا مَا كَانُوا. (رواه الترمذی ورواه ابن ماجه عن ابن عمر)

(1198/155) Sayyidina Umar Ibn Al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ have reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone sees a person who is afflicted and in distress and says:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي عَافَانِي مِمَّا ابْتَلَاكَ بِهِ وَفَضَّلَنِي عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقَ تَفْضِيلًا

(Praise belongs to Allah Who protected me from that which has afflicted you and made me to excel many others whom He has created with a marked excellence).

That affliction, whatever it be will not smite him." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: As if by way of, Imam Tirmizi has transmitted from Imam Baqir رضی اللہ عنہ the son of Imam Zayn al-Aabideen رضی اللہ عنہ that he said, "If anyone sees a person in distress, he must first ask for Allah's protection from that misfortune and then make this supplication inaudibly in such a way that the unfortunate person does not hear him otherwise his grief will increase."

It is stated about Shaykh Shibli رحمۃ اللہ علیہ that when he found anyone who was forgetful of Allah and unmindful of the Hereafter and occupied wholly in worldly affairs he made the above supplication, namely:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي عَافَانِي مِمَّا ابْتَلَاكَ بِهِ وَفَضَّلَنِي عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقَ تَفْضِيلًا

"Praise belongs to Allah Who has protected me from what has afflicted you and has shown me favour and many whom He has created with marked favour."

Supplications Before & After Meals

Eating and drinking are necessary for man to continue living. Whenever the Prophet ﷺ got any thing to eat or drink, he regarded that as a gift from Allah and praised and thanked Him for that. He exhorted his companions to behave likewise.

(١١٩٩/١٥٦) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَكَلَ
أَوْ شَرِبَ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَجَعَلَنَا مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ."

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی)

(1199/156) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه has said that when the Prophet ﷺ ate or drank something, he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَجَعَلَنَا مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ

"Praise belongs to Allah Who fed us and gave us drink and made us Muslims."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

(١٢٠٠/١٥٧) عَنْ مَعَاذِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ
أَكَلَ طَعَامًا ثُمَّ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنِي هَذَا الطَّعَامَ وَرَزَقَنِيهِ مِنْ
غَيْرِ حَوْلٍ مِنِّي وَلَا قُوَّةٍ" غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1200/157) Sayyidina Mu'az Ibn Anas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, that if anyone eats food and says:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنِي هَذَا الطَّعَامَ وَرَزَقَنِيهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ حَوْلٍ مِنِّي وَلَا قُوَّةٍ

"Praise belongs to Allah Who has fed me this food and provided me with it through no might or power on my part."

He will be forgiven his former sins because of his gratitude.

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: Some actions are very minor to look at but they are esteemed highly by Allah and very heavy in the balance. Their reward is exceptional. This hadith tells us of such people who eat their food and then affirm sincerely that their Lord had given them the food and their own skill or ability had nothing to do with its procurement. They affirm that Allah had given the food to them merely out of His mercy and favour and He is worthy of all praise. When they do that Allah values so much that He forgives all their past sins.

Sunan Abu Dawood carries this hadith with an addition:

If anyone wore a garment and praised Allah in these words:

"All praise belongs to Allah
Who has clothed me with this and provided me with it through no might or power on my part."

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ كَسَانِیْ هٰذَا
وَرَزَقَنِیْهِ مِنْ غَیْرِ حَوْلٍ مِّنِّیْ وَلَا
قُوَّةَ غَفِرَ لَهٗ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهٖ وَمَا
تَأَخَّرَ.

will be forgiven his former and latter sins.

In fact the confession by a slave of Allah that whatever he has is a bounty from the Lord and he himself has no ability to get those things is the essence of servitude. It is viewed by Allah very highly, and is one of those deeds against which past sins are pardoned. May Allah enable us to understand these things and to practice the teachings.

Supplication For The Host

(۱۲۰۱/۱۵۸) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ صَنَعَ أَبُو الْهَيْثَمِ التَّيْهَانُ طَعَامًا فَدَعَا النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَصْحَابَهُ فَلَمَّا فَرَّغُوا قَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُنْبِئُوا أَحَاكُمُ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَمَا أَثَابْتُهُ؟ قَالَ إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ إِذَا دَخَلَ بَيْتَهُ وَ أَكَلَ طَعَامَهُ وَ شَرِبَ شَرَابَهُ فَدَعَا لَهُ فَذَلِكَ إِثَابُهُ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1201/158) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه has reported that Abu Al-Haytham ibn At-Tayyihan prepared food at his house and invited the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions رضي الله عنهم to the meal. When they had partaken of the food, the Prophet ﷺ said: "Repay your brother." They said, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! How may we repay him?" He said, "When we visit a brother and eat and drink with him and if we pray for his welfare and for blessings on him then that is the return from fellow-men to him." (Abu Dawood)

(۱۲۰۲/۱۵۹) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَاءَ إِلَى سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَادَةَ فَجَاءَهُ بِخُبْزٍ وَزَيْتٍ فَأَكَلَ ثُمَّ قَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "أَفْطَرْتُكُمْ الصَّائِمُونَ" وَأَكَلَ طَعَامُكُمْ الْأَبْرَارُ وَصَلَّتْ عَلَيْكُمْ الْمَلَائِكَةُ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1202/159) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه has narrated that the Prophet ﷺ visited Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Ubadah ؓ He presented before him cooked bread and olive oil. He ate it and then prayed for him thus:

أَفْطَرَ عِنْدَكُمْ الصَّائِمُونَ، وَأَكَلَ طَعَامُكُمْ الْأَبْرَارُ وَصَلَّتْ عَلَيْكُمْ الْمَلَائِكَةُ

"May the fasting slaves of Allah break their fast with you. May the righteous pious eat your meals and may the angels of Allah keep praying for you." (Abu Dawood)

(١٢٠٣/١٦٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُسْرِ قَالَ نَزَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى أَبِي فَقَرَّبْنَا إِلَيْهِ طَعَامًا وَوَطْبَةً فَأَكَلَ مِنْهَا ثُمَّ أَتَى بِتَمْرٍ فَكَانَ يَأْكُلُهُ وَيُلْقِي النَّوَى بَيْنَ إِصْبَعَيْهِ وَيَجْمَعُ السَّبَابَةَ وَالْوُسْطَى ثُمَّ أَتَى بِشَرَابٍ فَشَرِبَهُ فَقَالَ أَبِي وَآخِذًا بِلِجَامِ دَابَّتِهِ أَدْعُ اللَّهَ لَنَا فَقَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَهُمْ فِي مَا رَزَقْتَهُمْ وَاعْفِرْ لَهُمْ وَارْحَمْهُمْ". (رواه مسلم)

(1203/160) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Busr ؓ said, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was a guest of my father, Busr Aslami, once. So, we presented before him food and *watbah*¹, He ate that and then dates were presented to him. He ate them and took the seeds with the middle finger and the fore-finger and threw them away with these fingers. Then he was given something to drink and he drank it. As he was departing, my father held the reins of his beast and said to him, 'Please pray for us!' So, he made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَهُمْ فِي مَا رَزَقْتَهُمْ وَاعْفِرْ لَهُمْ وَارْحَمْهُمْ

"O Allah! Bless them in the provision You have bestowed on them. Forgive them, and have mercy on them. (Muslim)

Commentary: These ahadith tell us that just as we are required to praise Allah and thank Him after we have eaten and drunk so too we must supplicate Allah for His slave who serves us with meal. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ made a supplication after eating with Sayyidina Ubadah ؓ as is seen in the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Anas ؓ (May the fasting men break their fast with you.....). He also made a supplication at the house of Sayyidina Busr Aslami ؓ Abdullah ibn Busr ؓ (O Allah! Bless them the provision You have given them.....). Perhaps, the difference in the words and request of the two supplications is because of the difference in the religious standing of the two men. Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Ubadah ؓ was very close to him and front-ranking Companion ؓ. The Prophet ﷺ prayed for him:

①. A preparation from dates, cheese and butter, Muslim p. 1127 H. M 5070

"May Allah always send fasting men to you to break their fasts, and may pious and righteous men always eat your food, and may the angels pray for blessings on you."

This supplication was more suited for the religious standing of Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Ubadah ؓ.

Sayyidina Busr Aslami ؓ did not belong to the same rank. So, the supplication made by the Prophet ﷺ was worthy for him in accordance with his rank — may they have goodness and blessings and may they receive forgiveness and mercy. But Allah knows best.

Supplication On Donning New Garments

Dress too is a great blessing of Allah and like food and drink it is a basic necessity of man. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has instructed us that when Allah lets one of us have a new garment and he puts it on, he must remember the favour of Allah and praise and thank Him and he must give away in charity the old clothes that he is discarding. He has assured us that one who follows this advice will be protected and his secrets concealed by Allah in this life and the next.

(١٢٠٤/١٦١) عَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَبَسَ ثَوْبًا جَدِيدًا فَقَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي كَسَانِي مَا أُوَارِي بِهِ عَوْرَتِي وَاتَّجَمَّلُ بِهِ فِي حَيَاتِي" ثُمَّ عَمِدَ إِلَى الثَّوْبِ الَّذِي أَخْلَقَ فَتَصَدَّقَ بِهِ كَانَ فِي كَنْفِ اللَّهِ وَفِي حِفْظِ اللَّهِ وَفِي سِتْرِ اللَّهِ حَيًّا وَمَيِّتًا.

(رواه احمد والترمذى وابن ماجه)

(1204/161) Sayyidina Umar ؓ reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone puts on a new garment and says:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي كَسَانِي مَا أُوَارِي بِهِ عَوْرَتِي وَاتَّجَمَّلُ بِهِ فِي حَيَاتِي

"(Praise be to Allah Who clad me with something with which I cover my shame and adorn myself in my lifetime), and takes the garment which he has worn out and gives it in charity then he will remain in Allah's protection, guardianship and cover as long as he is alive and after death.

(Ahmad, Tirmizi, Ibn Majah)

Supplication On Beholding Oneself in The Mirror

(١٢٠٥/١٦٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا نَظَرَ فِي الْمِرْآةِ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي سَوَّى خَلْقِي وَأَحْسَنَ صُورَتِي وَزَانَ مِنِّي مَآشَانَ مِنْ غَيْرِي."

(رواه البزار)

(1205/162) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that it was the practice of the Prophet ﷺ that when he saw the mirror, he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي سَوَّى خَلْقِي وَأَحْسَنَ صُورَتِي وَزَانَ مِنِّي مَآشَانَ مِنْ غَيْرِي
 "Praise belongs to Allah Who has formed my person well, made me fair of favour, and adorned in me that which He made unsightly in other than me."
 (Bazzar)

Commentary: The spirit of this du'a like that of all other supplications is that the man who sees in himself the beauty and fairness must regard it as given by Allah. He must praise and thank Allah for that. This behaviour will increase in him love for Allah and servitude for Him, and he will be safe from the wrong conduct of egotism and arrogance.

Supplications At the Time of Wedding

Marriage too is one of the necessities of a person's life. On the face of it, its purpose might seem merely to satisfy one's animal instincts and there is a great possibility of a man forgetting Allah in looking after the urge. however, the Prophet ﷺ has taught the ummah, that they must remember Allah even at the time of consummation of marriage. It is in the Hands of Allah to allot good or bad to His slaves who must persist in making supplications to Him. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave this aspect of life also the colour of religion."

(١٢٠٦/١٦٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا تَزَوَّجَ أَحَدُكُمْ امْرَأَةً أَوْ شَرَى خَادِمًا فَلْيَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي

أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ.
(رواه ابو داؤد وابن ماجه)

(1206/163) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr Ibn A-Aas ؓ has reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "If anyone of you marries a woman or buys slave to serve him then he must make the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ

O Allah! I seek of You, her goodness and the good of the nature upon which You created her, and I beg Your protection from her mischief and the mischievous nature upon which You created her.
(Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

(١٢٠٧/١٦٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَفَأَ الْإِنْسَانَ إِذَا تَزَوَّجَ قَالَ "بَارَكَ اللَّهُ لَكَ وَبَارَكَ عَلَيْكُمَا وَجَمَعَ بَيْنَكُمَا فِي خَيْرٍ."
(رواه احمد والترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(1207/164) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ congratulated the bridegroom with this supplication:

بَارَكَ اللَّهُ لَكَ وَبَارَكَ عَلَيْكُمَا وَجَمَعَ بَيْنَكُمَا فِي خَيْرٍ

"May Allah bless you and shower His blessings on both of you and may He grant you both a pleasant and prosperous life."
(May you both see eye to eye in affairs of the world and the hereafter and may the evil not make mischief between you."

(Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood Ibn Majah)

Supplication At The Time of Sexual Intercourse

(١٢٠٨/١٦٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ أَنَّ أَحَدَكُمْ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ أَهْلَهُ قَالَ "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا" فَإِنَّهُ إِنْ يُقَدَّرُ بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَدٌ فِي ذَلِكَ لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ شَيْطَانٌ أَبَدًا.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1208/165) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If one of you says, when he has sexual relations with his wife:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا

(In the Name of Allah, O Allah! Protect me from the devil and protect what you bestow upon us from the devil).

and if it is destined that they should have a child then the devil will never be able to harm him." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahalvi رحمة الله عليه in commenting on this hadith has written:

"It may be gathered from this hadith that if one does not make supplication to Allah in this manner (forgetting Allah and behaving like an animal) at the time of having sexual intercourse then children born out of such intercourse will not be protected from the mischief of the devil."

He has written further,

"The basic reason why the children of our times are misbehaved and ill-mannered is the omission to make supplication at the time of coupling."

May Allah enable us to hold the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ in this respect and to derive benefit from them.

Supplication Before & After Journey

The traveller to a new place may face many dangers and varying situations. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has instructed us what we should ask Allah for when we embark on a journey and at the time of departure we must picture ourselves embarking on the unavoidable journey to the Hereafter, the most important journey. We must make preparations for that journey.

(١٢٠٩/١٦٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا اسْتَوَى عَلَى بَعِيرِهِ خَارِجًا إِلَى السَّفَرِ كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ قَالَ "سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ إِذَا سَخَرْنَا هَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقَرَّنِينَ وَإِنَّا إِلَى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُونَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ فِي سَفَرِنَا هَذَا الْبِرَّ وَالتَّقْوَى وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَا تَرْضَى اللَّهُمَّ هَوِّنْ عَلَيْنَا سَفَرَنَا هَذَا وَاطْوِلْنَا بُعْدَهُ اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الصَّاحِبُ فِي السَّفَرِ وَالْخَلِيفَةُ فِي الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ وَعَثَاءِ السَّفَرِ وَكَآبَةِ الْمُنْظَرِ وَسُوءِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ فِي الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ. "وَإِذَا رَجَعَ قَالَهُنَّ وَزَادَ فِيهِنَّ أَتَيْوْنَ تَائِبُونَ، عَابِدُونَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُونَ".
(رواه مسلم)

(1209/166) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has reported that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ began a journey and sat down on a camel, he first called out thrice الله أكبر (Allah is greatest). Then, he said:

سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي سَخَّرْنَا هَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقَرَّبِينَ وَإِنَّا إِلَى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُونَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْتَلُكَ فِي سَفَرِنَا هَذَا الْبَرِّ وَالتَّقْوَى وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَا تَرْضَى اللَّهُمَّ هَوِّنْ عَلَيْنَا سَفَرَنَا هَذَا وَاطْوِلْنَا بُعْدَهُ اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الصَّاحِبُ فِي السَّفَرِ وَالْخَلِيفَةُ فِي الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ، اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ وَعَثَاءِ السَّفَرِ وَكَآبَةِ الْمُنْظَرِ وَسُوءِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ فِي الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ

"Glory be to Allah Who is without blemish Who has subjugated this creature (for our journey). By ourselves we were unable to subdue it (through our skill and strength and He did it out of mercy towards us). After all we are to return to our Lord. O Allah! We ask You in this journey of ours for righteousness and piety and a conduct which pleases You. O Allah! make this journey easy for us and, through Your mercy and power, roll up its distance for us.

O Allah! Only You are our Friend and Companion in this journey (and the greatest support lies in Your Companion). And, behind us, only You are the One to look after our family members and wealth and property (and in this regard too we rely on You and trust You).

O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the toil of this journey and from beholding a sad sight in the journey, and from finding a bad reverse in my wealth and household on returning from the journey."

And when returned, he said the same words again and added:

أَتَيْوْنَ تَائِبُونَ، عَابِدُونَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُونَ

"We are now returning, repenting to Allah, worshipping Him and praising our Lord."
(Muslim)

Commentary: Every phrase of this supplication carries a deep meaning. The hadith begins by telling us that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said Allahu Akbar three times on settling himself on the camel. People rode on camels in those days and both rider and the on lookers could be impressed by the height and the former (riders) could have taken it into his head. The Prophet ﷺ dealt three blows to such a fancy by calling out الله اكبر (Allah is the Greatest) and making it clear to everyone that greatness belongs to Allah alone.

He then said:

سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي سَخَّرْنَا هَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقَرَّنِينَ (الزخرف ٤٣:١٣)

"Glorified and without blemish is Allah Who has subjugated this beast to our use otherwise we had no ability to subdue it."

These words confirm that the speaker is unable on his own to seize control of his conveyance and us it for his own good; only Allah gives him control over it by His mercy.

The Prophet ﷺ said after that:

وَأَنَا إِلَى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُونَ (الزخرف ٤٣:١٤)

And, after all, we are to return to You.

This is to say that just as we are undertaking this journey today, in the same way we shall journey away from this world one day and travel to our God Who is our True Goal. That journey will be the real journey and we should never be careless in preparing ourselves for that journey and in thinking about it.

He then followed it with this supplication O Allah, enable me to be pious and righteous in this journey and to conduct myself in a manner that earns Your pleasure." In deed, this is the main concern of those who believe in Allah and the Hereafter and it, therefore was the Prophet's ﷺ first supplication.

He then requested Allah to make his journey easy and make him travel through the distance quickly. He placed reliance on Allah, saying:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ الصَّاحِبُ فِي السَّفَرِ وَالْخَلِيفَةُ فِي الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ

O Allah! You are my Companion in the journey and The Supervisor over my household and property."

It places trust in Allah's Companionship as well as in His supervision over his family members and possessions whom he has left behind.

The Prophet ﷺ then sought refuge in Allah from the hardship in the journey as well as the toil of travelling and of return journey. It is to say that His protection looked upon during the journey and upon returning too.

The concluding part of the hadith tells us that when he set forth for the return journey, the Prophet ﷺ presented the same request before Allah and at the final words he added:

أَبُوءُ تَائِبُونَ، عَابِدُونَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُونَ

"We are now returning home, repenting our shortcomings and mistakes and worshipping our Lord and Master with praise for Him."

We must imagine what his feelings would have been for Allah in solitude when this was his condition on riding the camel and journeying!

How fortunate are the people who own the treasure left behind by their Prophet ﷺ! And how unfortunate they ninety-nine percent of whom any more than that, are simply unaware of this treasure and so cannot use it!

(١٢١٠/١٦٧) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْتِهِ يُرِيدُ سَفَرًا أَوْ غَيْرَهُ فَقَالَ حِينَ يَخْرُجُ "أَمَنْتُ بِاللَّهِ" اِعْتَصَمْتُ بِاللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ" إِلَّا رَزَقَ خَيْرَ ذَلِكَ الْمَخْرُجِ وَصَرَفَ عَنْهُ شَرُّ ذَلِكَ الْمَخْرُجِ." (رواه احمد)

(1210/167) Sayyidina Uthman ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If a Muslim goes out of his house with an intention to travel or without such an intention and says on leaving his house:

أَمَنْتُ بِاللَّهِ اِعْتَصَمْتُ بِاللَّهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللَّهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

(I have believed in Allah and I hold fast to Him placing trust in Him and I am confident that no power or might can help me without the Command of Allah) then he will surely receive the blessings on emerging from his house and he will be protected from its evil."

(Ahmad)

Supplication During Transit

(١٢١١/١٦٨) عَنْ خَوْلَةَ بِنْتِ حَكِيمٍ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ نَزَلَ مِنْزِلًا فَقَالَ "أَعُوذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ" لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ شَيْءٌ حَتَّى يَرْتَجِلَ مِنْ مَنْزِلِهِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1211/168) Sayyidah Khawlah ibnt Hakeem رضى الله عنها said that she heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say that one who stops durign his journey and says:

أَعُوذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

"I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allah from the mischief of what He has created," no harm will be fall him for as long as he remains in that place.

(Muslim)

Supplication On Entering A Town

(١٢١٢/١٦٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا نَسَافِرُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِذَا رَأَى قَرْيَةً يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَدْخُلَهَا قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيهَا" ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ "اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنَا حَيَاَهَا وَحَبِّبْنَا إِلَى أَهْلِهَا وَحَبِّبْ صَالِحِي أَهْلِهَا إِلَيْنَا."

(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1212/169) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه has said that they used to travel with the Porphet ﷺ. It was his practice that when he saw a town or city which he intended to enter, he said three times:

اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيهَا

"O Allah grant us blessing and prosperity in this town."

He then said:

اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنَا حَيَاَهَا وَحَبِّبْنَا إِلَى أَهْلِهَا وَحَبِّبْ صَالِحِي أَهْلِهَا إِلَيْنَا

"O Allah! Let the best produce of this place be our sustenance and put in the hearts of these people love for us and let its pious people be lovable to us."

(Tabarani)

Commentary: These three things can be the most significant concern of any visitor to a new settlement. Praise be to Allah! How brief yet complete this supplication is!

Supplication For & Advice To a Traveller

(١٢١٣/١٧٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أُرِيدُ أَنْ أَسَافِرَ فَأَوْصِنِي قَالَ عَلَيْكَ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَالتَّكْبِيرِ عَلَى كُلِّ شَرَفٍ فَلَمَّا وَلَّى الرَّجُلُ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ اطْوِلْهُ الْبُعْدَ وَهَوِّنْ عَلَيْهِ السَّفَرَ". (رواه الترمذی)

(1213/170) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that someone came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and submitted to him that he intended to proceed on a journey and requested him to give him some advice and instructions. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ instructed him to maintain fear of Allah (and be mindful of not earning His wrath keeping himself away from even minor lapses and negligence). The next thing he advised him to do was to call out Allahu Akbar, (Allah is the Greatest) on every rising ground. As the man turned away, the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication for him:

اللَّهُمَّ اطْوِلْهُ الْبُعْدَ وَهَوِّنْ عَلَيْهِ السَّفَرَ

"O Allah, roll up the (long) distance for him and make the journey easy for him." (Tirmizi)

(١٢١٤/١٧١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أُرِيدُ سَفَرًا فَزَوِّدْنِي فَقَالَ زَوَّدَكَ اللَّهُ التَّقْوَى قَالَ زِدْنِي قَالَ وَغَفَرَ ذَنْبَكَ قَالَ زِدْنِي بِأَبِي أَنْتَ وَ أُمِّي قَالَ وَيَسِّرْ لَكَ الْخَيْرَ حَيْثُ مَا كُنْتَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1214/171) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ has reported that a man came to the Prophet ﷺ and submitted to him, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! I intend to make a journey so give me provisions (meaning make supplications for me which might assist me in my journey). "He said, "May Allah let piety be your provision for the journey (and may you find that wealth with you all through the journey)." That man requested him to give him more and the Prophet ﷺ obliged him, "And may Allah forgive you your sins." But, that man insisted, saying, "May my father and mother be ransomed to you, say more! "So, the Prophet ﷺ added. "May Allah give you abundance of good wherever you go and are."

(Tirmizi)

(١٢١٥/١٧٢) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْخَطَمِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يُسَوِّدَ الْجَيْشَ قَالَ أَسْتَوْدِعُ اللَّهَ دِينَكُمْ وَأَمَانَتَكُمْ وَخَوَاتِيمَ أَعْمَالِكُمْ.
(رواه ابو داود)

(1215/172) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abdullah al-Khutami رضى الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ used to say when he bid farewell to an army:

أَسْتَوْدِعُ اللَّهَ دِينَكُمْ وَأَمَانَتَكُمْ وَخَوَاتِيمَ أَعْمَالِكُمْ

"I entrust to Allah your religion, your trustworthy character and you final deeds."
(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In this passage the word amanah is rendered trustworthiness. It refers to that character and condition in man which requires him to give the rights of Allah and His creatures in a correct manner. We may briefly interpret it as the consciousness of the responsibilities of worship.

The main asset of a Believer is made up of his trustworthy nature, his religion and his pious deeds. This is why the Messenger of Allah ﷺ entrusted these thing of the warriors to Allah and prayed to Him to protect them.

In the same way, it was the habit of the Prophet ﷺ that when he bid farewell to anyone, he held his hand in his and said:

أَسْتَوْدِعُ اللَّهَ دِينَكُمْ وَأَمَانَتَكُمْ وَخَوَاتِيمَ أَعْمَالِكُمْ

"I entrust your religion, your trustworthiness and your last deed to Allah. May He protect them." (Tirmizi has transmitted it from Ibn Umar).

We learn from this hadith that it was a custom of the Prophet ﷺ that when he bid farewell to anyone he shook hands with him. Allah knows best.

Supplication In Times of Severe Danger

(١٢١٦/١٧٣) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قُلْنَا يَوْمَ الْخُنْدِ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ هَلْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ نَقُولُهُ فَقَدْ بَلَغَتِ الْقُلُوبُ الْحَنَاجِرَ قَالَ نَعَمْ "اللَّهُمَّ اسْتَرْعُو رَاتِنَا وَأَمِنْ رَوْعَاتِنَا" قَالَ فَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ وَجُوهَ أَعْدَائِهِ بِالرِّيحِ هَزَمَ اللَّهُ بِالرِّيحِ.

(رواه احمد)

(1216/173) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه that on the day of the Battle of Trenches الخندق they asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ if there was anything they could repeat and supplicate with for their hearts were in their mouths. He told them that they should make this supplication to Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ اسْتُرْعَوْ رَاتِنَا وَأَمِنْ رَوْعَاتِنَا

"O Allah! cover our openings (on the borders with the enemy) and give us security from fears."

Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه added that Allah sent a violet wind in the faces of His enemies and He routed them thus. (Ahmad)

Commentary: Of the most difficult days that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and his companions رضي الله عنهم faced were some days during the Battle of Trench (الخندق Al-Khundug). The Qur'an has also mentioned them:

(Recall) when they came upon you from above and you from below you, and when (your) eyes swerved and (your) heats reached (your) throats, you were imaging vain thoughts about Allah. There it was that the Believers were tried, and they were shaken with a severe shaking. (Al-Ahzab, 33:10-11)

إِذْ جَاءَكُمْ مِنْ فَوْقِكُمْ وَمِنْ أَسْفَلَ مِنْكُمْ
وَإِذْ رَاغَبِ الْأَبْصَارُ وَبَلَغَتِ الْقُلُوبُ
الْحَنَاجِرَ وَتَظُنُّونَ بِاللَّهِ الظُّنُونَا
هُنَالِكَ ابْتُلِيَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَزُلْزِلُوا زِلْزَالًا شَدِيدًا.

(الاحزاب ٣٣: ١١)

It was in these conditions that Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه requested the Prophet ﷺ if they could supplicate Allah in any way and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught him the brief supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اسْتُرْعَوْ رَاتِنَا وَأَمِنْ رَوْعَاتِنَا

as we have seen.

After that, violent wind was released by Allah which caused severe confusion in the enemy forces and they were compelled to flee.

(١٢١٧/١٧٤) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا خَافَ قَوْمًا قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَجْعَلُكَ فِي نُحُورِهِمْ وَنَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شُرُورِهِمْ."

(رواه احمد وابو داؤد)

(1217/174) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that when the Prophet ﷺ faced the threat of an enemy attack, he made supplication to Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَجْعَلُكَ فِي نُحُورِهِمْ وَنَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شُرُورِهِمْ

"O Allah, we put You in front of them and we seek refuge in You from their evils."

(Ahmad, Abu Dawood)

Supplication At The Time of Worry & Anxiety

(١٢١٨/١٧٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ عِنْدَ الْكَرْبِ "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْعَظِيمُ الْحَلِيمُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبُّ الْأَرْضِ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيمِ."

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1218/175) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه has said that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was anxious he would say:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْعَظِيمُ الْحَلِيمُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبُّ الْأَرْضِ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيمِ

"There is no God but Allah, the Incomparably Great, the Clement. There is no God but Allah, Lord of the mighty Throne. There is no God but Allah, Lord of the heavens, Lord of the earth, Lord of the noble Throne."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٢١٩/١٧٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَرِهَ أَمْرًا يَقُولُ "يَا حَيُّ يَا قَيُّوْمُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ أَسْتَغِيْثُ." وَقَالَ "أَلْطَوَابِيا ذَا جَلَالٍ وَإِلَهِاتٍ كَرَامٍ."

(رواه الترمذی)

(1219/176) It is reported by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that when anything caused anxiety to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ he made this supplication:

يَا حَيُّ يَا قَيُّوْمُ بِرَحْمَتِكَ أَسْتَغِيْثُ

"O Living One, O Eternal One! In Your mercy I seek help!"

and he said to the other people:

الطَّوَابِيَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ

"Attach yourselves to ya zal jalaliwa al-ikram (O the Lord of Majesty and Bounty)."

(Tirmizi)

(١٢٢٠/١٧٧) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ عُمَيْسٍ قَالَتْ لِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
أَلَا أَعْلِمُكُمْ كَلِمَاتٍ تَقُولِينَهِنَّ عِنْدَ الْكَرْبِ؟ "اللَّهُ اللَّهُ رَبِّي لَا أُشْرِكُ بِهِ شَيْئًا."

(رواه ابو داود)

(1220/177) Sayyidah Asma ibnt Umais رضى الله عنها said that the Prophet ﷺ said to her, "Shall I not teach you the words that you may say in times of anxiety?" (Insha Allah you will find peace on reciting them)." He taught her to say:

اللَّهُ اللَّهُ رَبِّي لَا أُشْرِكُ بِهِ شَيْئًا

"Allah, Allah! My Lord, I do not ascribe any associate with Him."

(Abu Dawood)

(١٢٢١/١٧٨) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ
كَثَرَ هَمُّهُ فَلْيَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي عَبْدُكَ وَابْنُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنُ أَمَتِكَ وَفِي قَبْضَتِكَ
نَاصِيَّتِي بِيَدِكَ مَا ضِ فِي حُكْمِكَ عَذْلٌ فِي قَضَاءِكَ أَسْأَلُكَ بِكُلِّ اسْمٍ
هُوَ لَكَ سَمِيَتْ بِهِ نَفْسِكَ أَوْ أَنْزَلْتَهُ فِي كِتَابِكَ أَوْ اسْتَأْثَرْتُ بِهِ فِي مَكْنُونِ
الْغَيْبِ عِنْدَكَ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْآنَ الْعَظِيمَ، رَبِيعَ قَلْبِي وَجِلَاءَ هَمِّي وَغَمِّي" مَا
قَالَهَا عَبْدٌ قَطُّ إِلَّا أَذْهَبَ اللَّهُ هَمَّهُ أَبَدَلَهُ بِهِ فَرَجًا.

(رواه رزين)

(1221/178) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that if anyone is afflicted by much care and worry, he should present his supplication to Allah thus:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي عَبْدُكَ وَابْنُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنُ أَمَتِكَ وَفِي قَبْضَتِكَ نَاصِيَّتِي بِيَدِكَ
مَا ضِ فِي حُكْمِكَ عَذْلٌ فِي قَضَاءِكَ أَسْأَلُكَ بِكُلِّ اسْمٍ هُوَ لَكَ سَمِيَتْ
بِهِ نَفْسِكَ أَوْ أَنْزَلْتَهُ فِي كِتَابِكَ أَوْ اسْتَأْثَرْتُ بِهِ فِي مَكْنُونِ الْغَيْبِ عِنْدَكَ أَنْ
تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْآنَ الْعَظِيمَ، رَبِيعَ قَلْبِي وَجِلَاءَ هَمِّي وَغَمِّي

"O Allah! I am Your slave, the son of Your bondsman and the son of Your bondwoman; and I am within Your grasp. My forelock is in Your Hand. Your Command is effective on me: Your decree is equitable concerning me. I ask You by every name You have, by which You have called Yourself, or which You have sent down in Your Book¹, or preferred to keep to Yourself among Your guarded secrets, to make the Qur'an the spring of my heart and the means of dispelling my anxiety and grief."

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "No slave of Allah ever says it but Allah takes away his grief and gives him joy and abundance instead."
(Razin)

Commentary: Every phrase of this supplication taught by the Prophet ﷺ is full of a slave's emotions of servitude. It begins with an expression and confirmation of his own and his parent's servitude. He affirms, "I am Your slave. My father too is Your slave and my mother, again, is Your bondwoman, so I am Your slave down generations, You are my Master and Lord as also Master and Lord of my parents. I am always in Your hands. Whatever You decree concerning me is fair and equitable and applicable. Neither I nor anyone else can raise an objection.

This supplication further quotes the supplicant as confessing that he has no deed or anything else against which he might ask Allah for anything. Hence, he goes on to say, I ask You by Your own names which you have called Yourself by, or revealed in Your Books, or kept to Yourself concealed as secret, which no one knows except You. So, I ask You by these Names to make Your Book, the Qur'an, the Spring of my heart and remove my anxieties through its blessings.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ declared, "If anyone makes a supplication in this manner then his anxieties will be dispelled surely."

①. There is a phrase here in other Books: او علمته احدا من خلقك meaning (or which You have taught any of Your creation).

Supplications When Faced With Problems, Difficulties & Distress

In his life, man does encounter problems and difficulties now and then. There is an aspect of good in these problems in that the trial trains the Believers and they get closer to Allah and their link with Him becomes stronger. The supplications that the Prophet ﷺ taught us to be made on such occasions are not only a means of removing problems and difficulties but also instrumental in achieving nearness to Allah.

(١١٢٢/١٧٩) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْوَةُ ذِي النُّونِ الَّذِي دَعَا بِهَا وَهُوَ فِي بَطْنِ الْحُوتِ "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ إِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ." لَمْ يَدْعُ بِهَا رَجُلٌ مُسْلِمٌ فِي شَيْءٍ قَطُّ إِلَّا اسْتَجَابَ اللَّهُ لَهُ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى والنسائى)

(1122/179) Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When Zu Al-Noon (the Prophet of Allah, Yunus رضى الله عنه) was swallowed by a fish in the ocean, his supplication and call was:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ إِنِّي كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِينَ

[There is no God except You. You are without blemish. Surely I am who has wronged himself. (Only You can be asked for mercy and help, and You have never wronged anyone).]

If a Muslim supplicates Allah in these words when he encounters difficulties, Allah certainly accepts his supplication."

(Ahmad, Tirmizi, Nasa'i)

Commentary: This supplication of Prophet Yunus رضى الله عنه is found in the Holy Qur'an (in Surah Al-Ambiya) in the same words. On the face of it, the expression simply declares the unity of Allah and glorifies Him and contains a confession of the supplicant that he is wrong and blameworthy; but, in reality it is the supplicant's repentance and request for forgiveness and his turning to Allah in the best possible manner. It has an unusual ability to draw the mercy of Allah to the supplicant.

(١١٢٣/١٨٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا وَقَعْتُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ الْعَظِيمِ فَقُولُوا "حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ". (رواه ابن مردويه) (1123/180) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When a heavy and difficult affair is before you, say:

حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ (آل عمران ١٧٣:٣)

(Allah is Sufficient for us, and He is an excellent Guardian)¹

(Ibn Mardawiyeh)

Commentary: This too is an expression from the Qur'an. It is transmitted by Bukhari that Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said that when the idolaters put Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام in the fire, he had these very words on his lips:

حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ (آل عمران ١٧٣:٣)

Allah is Sufficient for us, and He is an excellent Guardian

This must be the call on the tongues of every Muslim in times of difficulty and problems.

(١١٢٤/١٨١) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا قَالَ عَبْدُ

"اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ اكْفِنِي كُلَّ مُهِمٍّ مِنْ حَيْثُ

شِئْتُ مِنْ أَيْنَ شِئْتُ" إِلَّا أَذْهَبَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى هَمَّهُ. (رواه الخرائطي في مكارم الاخلاق)

(1124/181) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ stated that a slave of Allah (who is surrounded by distress and problem) barely make the following supplication when Allah removes his problems and solves his difficulty. The supplication is:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ اكْفِنِي كُلَّ مُهِمٍّ مِنْ حَيْثُ

شِئْتُ مِنْ أَيْنَ شِئْتُ

"O Allah! Lord of the seven heavens and Lord of the great Throne, suffice me in every difficulty and solve them as You desire and wherever You desire."

(Al-Khara'iti)

(١٢٢٥/١٨٢) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَلِيُّ

إِذَا حَزَبَكَ أَمْرٌ فَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ احْرُسْنِي بَعَيْنِكَ الَّتِي لَا تَنَامُ وَاكْفِنِي بِكَفِّكَ

الَّذِي لَا يَرَامُ وَاعْفِرْ لِي بِقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَيَّ فَلَا أَهْلِكَ وَأَنْتَ رَجَائِي رَبِّ كَمْ مِنْ
 نِعْمَةٍ أَنْعَمْتَهَا عَلَيَّ قُلْ لَكَ عِنْدَهَا شُكْرِي وَكَمْ بَلِيَّةٍ ابْتَلَيْتَنِي بِهَا قُلْ لَكَ
 عِنْدَهَا صَبْرِي قِيَامَنْ قُلْ عِنْدَ نِعْمَتِهِ شُكْرِي فَلَمْ يَحْرِمْنِي وَيَأْمَنْ قُلْ عِنْدَ بَلِيَّتِهِ
 صَبْرِي فَلَمْ يَخْذُلْنِي وَيَأْمَنْ رَأَيْتُ عَلَى الْخَطَايَا فَلَمْ يَفْضَحْنِي يَا ذَا الْمَعْرُوفِ
 الَّذِي لَا يَنْقُضِي أَبَدًا وَيَا ذَا النِّعَمَاءِ الَّتِي لَا تُحْصَى أَبَدًا أَسْأَلُكَ أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ عَلَيَّ
 مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَبِكَ أَدْرَأُ فِي نُحُورِ الْأَعْدَاءِ وَالْجَبَّارِينَ

(رواه الديلمي في مسند الفردوس)

(1225/182) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, "O Ali! If you are faced with a difficult affair, make this supplication to Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ احْرُسْنِي بِعَيْنِكَ الَّتِي لَا تَنَامُ وَانْكُفْنِي بِكَفِّكَ الَّذِي لَا يَرَامُ وَاعْفِرْ لِي
 بِقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَيَّ فَلَا أَهْلِكَ وَأَنْتَ رَجَائِي رَبِّ كَمْ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ أَنْعَمْتَهَا عَلَيَّ قُلْ
 لَكَ عِنْدَهَا شُكْرِي وَكَمْ بَلِيَّةٍ ابْتَلَيْتَنِي بِهَا قُلْ لَكَ عِنْدَهَا صَبْرِي قِيَامَنْ قُلْ
 عِنْدَ نِعْمَتِهِ شُكْرِي فَلَمْ يَحْرِمْنِي وَيَأْمَنْ قُلْ عِنْدَ بَلِيَّتِهِ صَبْرِي فَلَمْ يَخْذُلْنِي
 وَيَأْمَنْ رَأَيْتُ عَلَى الْخَطَايَا فَلَمْ يَفْضَحْنِي يَا ذَا الْمَعْرُوفِ الَّذِي لَا يَنْقُضِي أَبَدًا
 وَيَا ذَا النِّعَمَاءِ الَّتِي لَا تُحْصَى أَبَدًا أَسْأَلُكَ أَنْ تُصَلِّيَ عَلَيَّ مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ
 مُحَمَّدٍ وَبِكَ أَدْرَأُ فِي نُحُورِ الْأَعْدَاءِ وَالْجَبَّارِينَ

"O Allah! Watch me with Your eye that never sleeps and never even winks, protect me with Your strength which none can assail and show mercy to me with Your power over me (and forgive me, the helpless sinner that I am, my sins) so that I may not perish while You are my Hope.

How many a bounty there is with which You have favoured me! Yet little has been my gratitude for that ! And , how many a trial have You passed me through for which little has been my patience! So, O You, my Generous Lord, for Whose bounties my gratitude has been little, yet You have not deprived me (of Your boundless favours).

And, O You, against whose trial I showed little patience, yet You did not abandon me (and continued to favour me). And, O You, my Kind Lord, Who saw me committing sin yet did not disgrace me (before the creation and concealed my faults). O

Possessor (and Dispenser) of good that will never end, and O Possessor (and Dispenser) of favours that can never be counted, I beseech You to shower blessings on (our chief, Your Prophet and Messenger) Muhammad ﷺ. (O Allah, my Lord), it is with Your strength alone that I face enemies and oppressors." (Dailami)

Commentary: Let us ponder over each phrase of this supplication taught to us by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The entire appeal and request is from the tongue of a humble slave.

May Allah cause us to understand and esteem, and then benefit from the truth of these words. Aameen!

Supplication Against A Tyrant Ruler

It happens in a man's life, particularly if he is a pious and righteous man, that he falls down in the eyes of a ruler who is angered at and displeased with him. He naturally fears that he would be subject to oppression and punishment. The Prophet ﷺ has taught us a supplication to be made at such times.

(١٢٢٦/١٨٣) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا تَخَوَّفَ أَحَدُكُمْ السُّلْطَانَ فَلْيَقُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ كُنْ لِي جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ فَلَانِ ابْنِ فَلَانٍ وَشَرِّ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ وَاتَّبَاعِهِمْ أَنْ يَفْرُطَ عَلَى أَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ أَوْ أَنْ يُطْغَى عَزَّ جَارُكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ". (رواه الطبراني في الكبير)

(1226/183) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that if anyone of you fears oppression and wrong at the hands of the ruler then he must make the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَرَبَّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ كُنْ لِي جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ فَلَانِ ابْنِ فَلَانٍ وَشَرِّ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ وَاتَّبَاعِهِمْ أَنْ يَفْرُطَ عَلَى أَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ أَوْ أَنْ يُطْغَى عَزَّ جَارُكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا إِلَهَ غَيْرُكَ

"O Allah! Lord of the seven heavens and Lord of the great Throne, be my Protector from the mischief of such-and-such, and the mischief of all mischievous jinns and men and their henchmen — and take me in Your protection — lest any of them oppress me or exceed against me. Honoured is he who is in Your protection. Indeed, Your praise is great! And, there is none worthy of worship except You (You alone are the God).

(Tabarani)

Supplication For Relief From Debt

(١٢٢٧/١٨٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ دَخَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ الْمَسْجِدَ فَإِذَا هُوَ بِرَجُلٍ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ يُقَالُ لَهُ أَبُو أُمَامَةَ فَقَالَ يَا أَبَا أُمَامَةَ مَا لِي أَرَاكَ جَالِسًا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فِي غَيْرِ وَقْتِ الصَّلَاةِ قَالَ هُمُومٌ لِرِمْتِي وَدُيُونٌ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ أَقْلًا أَعْلَمَكَ كَلَامًا إِذَا قُلْتَهُ أَذْهَبَ اللَّهُ هَمَّكَ وَقَضَى عَنْكَ دَيْنَكَ قَالَ بَلَى يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ قُلْ إِذَا أَصْبَحْتَ وَإِذَا أَمْسَيْتَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ غَلَبَةِ الدَّيْنِ وَقَهْرِ الرِّجَالِ" قَالَ فَفَعَلْتُ ذَلِكَ فَأَذْهَبَ اللَّهُ هَمِّي وَقَضَى دَيْنِي.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1227/184) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه narrated that one day the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to the mosque and found an Ansar Companion, by the name of Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه, already seated there. So, the Prophet ﷺ asked him, "O Abu Umamah! Why is it that you are sitting in the mosque while it is not yet time of prayer?" The Companion رضي الله عنه said, "Messenger of Allah! I have a burden of debts over me, and I am drowned in anxiety." The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Shall I not teach you words which if you repeat, Allah will relieve you of your anxieties and pay all your debts?"

Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه said that he ask the Prophet ﷺ to teach him those words. So, he said that he should make this supplication in the morning and in the evening:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ غَلَبَةِ الدَّيْنِ وَقَهْرِ الرِّجَالِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from care and grief. I seek refuge in You from incapacity and slackness. I seek refuge in You from being overcome by debt and being put in subjection by men."

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه said that he followed the guidance of the Prophet ﷺ (making the supplication his daily exercise in the morning and evening). His care was removed and his debts were settled.

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The Companion who is mentioned in the hadith as (Sayyidina) Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه is not the same person as Sayyidina Abu Umamah Bahili رضي الله عنه, the well-known Companion.

(١٢٢٨/١٨٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ أَنَّهُ جَاءَهُ مُكَاتَبٌ فَقَالَ إِنِّي عَجَزْتُ عَنْ كِتَابَتِي فَأَعِنِّي قَالَ أَلَا أَعْلَمُكَ كَلِمَاتٍ عَلَّمَنِيَهُنَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ مِثْلُ جَبَلٍ كَبِيرٍ دَيْنًا آدَاهُ اللَّهُ عَنْكَ قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ اكْفِنِي بِحَلَالِكَ عَنْ حَرَامِكَ وَأَغْنِنِي بِفَضْلِكَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ."

(رواه الترمذی والبيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1228/185) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه has narrated that a mukatab, (a slave who had a contract with his master to pay for his freedom) came to him and said that he was unable to fulfil his contract so requested help. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه asked him, "Shall I not teach you the supplication which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had taught me? If you had a debt as large as a huge mountain, Allah would pay it for you." (The brief words are:)

اللَّهُمَّ اكْفِنِي بِحَلَالِكَ عَنْ حَرَامِكَ وَأَغْنِنِي بِفَضْلِكَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ

"O Allah! Grant me so much of what you make lawful as is enough for me so that I may dispense with what You make unlawful. And make me able, by Your benevolence, to be independent of all except You."

(Tirmizi, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: Mukatab is a slave whose Master has agreed to set him free if he pays a certain sum of money. When the slave will pay the specified amount he would be emancipated.

It was one such Mukatab who came to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه with his predicament that he was helpless and could not buy his freedom. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه did not help him monetarily but taught him a valuable supplication which he had learnt from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

We learn from this event that if we are unable to help a needy person monetarily then we must help him by guiding him to such a supplication. This too is a way to support and serve someone.

Supplication In Times Of Sorrow And Happiness

(١٢٢٩/١٨٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَأَى مَا يُسْرُّ بِهِ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي بِنِعْمَتِهِ تَتِمُّ الصَّالِحَاتُ" وَإِذَا رَأَى شَيْئًا مِمَّا يَكْرَهُ قَالَ "الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ".
(رواه ابن النجار)

(1229/186) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that when the Prophet ﷺ saw what pleased him he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي بِنِعْمَتِهِ تَتِمُّ الصَّالِحَاتُ

"All praise belongs to Allah by Whose favours and grace the good things are perfected."

And when he saw something that displeased, he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ

"All praise belongs to Allah under all circumstance."

(Ibn An Najjar)

Commentary: Whatever happens in this world, happens with the will of Allah whether it is pleasing to us or displeasing. Allah is All-Wise and his decision is never without wisdom. Therefore, he is always worthy of praise.

Supplication At the Time of Anger

(١٢٣٠/١٨٧) عَنْ مَعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ اسْتَبَّ رَجُلَانِ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى عُرِفَ الْغَضَبُ فِي وَجْهِ أَحَدِهِمَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي لَا أَعْلَمُ كَلِمَةً لَوْ قَالَ لَذَهَبَ غَضَبُهُ "أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ".
(رواه الترمذی)

(1230/187) Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal رضى الله عنه said that two men were disputing with each other in the presence of the Prophet ﷺ until anger was apparent on the countenance of one of them. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "I know of certain words of supplication which if he repeats, his anger would subside. These words are:

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ

"I seek refuge in Allah from the accursed devil." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: There is no doubt at all that if a man who is severely angry says these words consciously and with a spirit of supplication then Allah will cool down the heat of his anger. His anger will not produce evil consequences. the Qu'an says:

"If a provocation from Satan should provoke you (and arouse in you fiery anger) then seek refuge in Allah. Surely, He is the Hearer, the Knower.

(Ha-mim Al-Sajdah 41: 36)

وَأَمَّا يَنْزَغَنَّكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزْغٌ
فَاستَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ
(حم السجده ٤١: ٣٦)

But it is also true that when in his anger man loses control over himself and fails to recognise the difference between good and bad, he rarely remembers the directions of the Prophet ﷺ. At such times, well-wishers must intervene and draw the angry person's attention to the instructions of the Prophet ﷺ judiciously.

Supplications On Visiting The Sick

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has declared that visiting the sick and helping them out are very commendable deeds of worship. He has exhorted Muslims to adopt this behaviour. Besides, his practice and words teach us that we must visit the sick and pray for his recovery. Obviously, the patient will feel comforted by this behaviour. We have narrated many ahadith on this topic in the chapter Kitab Al-Jana'iz (Book of Funerals) in the third volume. We reproduce here some more ahadith on this subject.

(١٢٣١/١٨٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اشْتَكَى مِنْهُ إِنْسَانٌ مَسَحَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ "أَذْهَبِ الْبَاسَ رَبَّ النَّاسِ وَأَشْفِ أَنْتَ الشَّافِي لَا شِفَاءَ إِلَّا شِفَاءُكَ لَا يُغَادِرُ سَقَمًا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1231/188) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that if one of us complained (of an illness), the Messenger of Allah ﷺ wiped him (over the body) with his right hand saying the while:

أَذْهَبِ الْبَاسَ رَبَّ النَّاسِ وَاشْفِ أَنْتَ الشَّافِي لَا شِفَاءَ إِلَّا شِفَاءُكَ لَا يُغَادِرُ سَقَمًا

"Remove the harm, Lord of men. And give him healing, You only are the Healer. There is no healing but Yours, a healing that leaves no illness behind." (Bukhari and Muslim) (١٢٣٢/١٨٩) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ إِنَّ جِبْرِيلَ أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اشْتَكَيتَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَرْقِيكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ يُؤْذِيكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ نَفْسٍ وَحَاسِدٍ، اللَّهُ يَشْفِيكَ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَرْقِيكَ".

(رواه مسلم)

(1232/189) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khurdri that once Jibril (عليه السلام) came to the Prophet (ﷺ) (When he was a' en ill). He said, "Do you have a complaint, Muhammad?" The Prophet (ﷺ) affirmed that he was ill, Jibril (عليه السلام) made this supplication (and breathed over the Prophet (ﷺ)):

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَرْقِيكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ يُؤْذِيكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ نَفْسٍ وَحَاسِدٍ، اللَّهُ يَشْفِيكَ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَرْقِيكَ

"In the Name of Allah, I am applying a charm to you (and I am blowing over you) from every thing that may harm you, from the evil of every evil eye, or eye of an envious one. May Allah heal you. In the Name of Allah, I am applying a charm to you (and I am blowing over you)." (Muslim) (١٢٣٣/١٩٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اشْتَكَى نَفَثَ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ بِالْمُعَوِّذَاتِ وَمَسَحَ عَنْهُ بِيَدِهِ فَلَمَّا اشْتَكَى وَجَعَهُ الَّذِي تَوَفَّى فِيهِ كُنْتُ أَنْفُثُ عَلَيْهِ بِالْمُعَوِّذَاتِ الَّتِي كَانَ يَنْفُثُ وَأَمْسَحَ بِيَدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1233/190) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said when the Prophet (ﷺ) had a complaint (of illness) he would breathe on himself (ejecting saliva), reciting the Mu'awwizat, (Surah al-Falaq, and surah an-Naas, and wipe himself with his hand. When he suffered from the pain of which he died, she would blow on him ejecting saliva and recite the Mu'awwizat, as he did, and would take the Prophet's ﷺ hand to rub over his body.

(Bukhari, Muslim)

Commentary: The Mu'awwizat, in this hadith means the two surah of the Qur'an, al-falaq and an-Naas. It is also possible that this word refers to the supplications with which refuge in Allah is sought and which he often said in illness and blew over the sick. Some of these supplications have been mentioned above.

Supplication On Sneezing

It may seem to us that if a man sneezes, it is nothing of importance. But the Prophet ﷺ has recommended to us that we must make a supplication on sneezing too. Accordingly, it is one of the means of establishing closer links with Allah.

(١٢٣٤/١٩١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَلْيَقُلْ لَهُ أَخُوهُ أَوْ صَاحِبُهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ فَإِذَا قَالَ لَهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ فَلْيَقُلْ يَهْدِيكُمْ اللَّهُ وَيُصْلِحْ بَالَكُمْ. (رواه البخارى)

(1234/191) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When one of you sneezes, he must say الحمد لله (All praise belongs to Allah). And, his brothers who are near to him should say يرحمك الله (May Allah have mercy on you!). On hearing them the person who had sneezed must say,

يَهْدِيكُمْ اللَّهُ وَيُصْلِحْ بَالَكُمْ

"(May Allah guide you and correct your affairs)". (Bukhari)

Commentary: If someone sneezes without being ill with cold or a similar illness then it cleans his brain and makes him feel light. If he does not discharge mucus with sneeze then he might suffer from some kind of brain disease.

That is why the sneezer must praise Allah and thank Him, the least he must say is الحمد لله (All praise belongs to Allah). Some versions suggest that he should say:

الحمد لله على كل حال

(All praise belongs to Allah under all circumstances) and some others that he should say:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ (الفاتحه ١:١)

(All praise belongs to Allah, Lord of the worlds).

The one who hears him must respond يرحمك الله (May Allah have mercy on you!). This would be a supplication for the sneezer. Hence, he must now respond with a prayer for the second man and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said that he should say:

يهديكم الله ويصلح بالكم

"(May Allah guide you and correct your affairs!)."

Glory be to Allah! A sneeze is a means of getting blessings on the sneezer and those people who are around him and of increasing his relationship with Allah.

If anyone gets a bout of sneezes because of cold or any other illness then neither is he required to say الحمد لله every time nor are those around bound to respond to him with يرحمك الله (if he says الحمد لله every time).

عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَطَسَ رَجُلٌ عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ عَطَسَ أُخْرَى فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ مَزْكُومٌ. (رواه مسلم وفي رواية للترمذی انه قال له في الثالثة انه مذكوم)

(1235/192) Sayyidina Salamah ibn al-Akwa' ؓ has narrated that someone sneezed and the Prophet ﷺ who was there, said يرحمك الله. He sneezed again and the Prophet ﷺ said, "This man has a cold so it is not necessary to say يرحمك الله everytime."

(Muslim)

Commentary: A hadith in Tirmizi tells us that the Prophet ﷺ said this when the man had sneezed three times.

Another Companion Ubayd Ibn Rifa'ah ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

شَمِتَ الْعَاطِسُ ثَلَاثًا فَمَا زَادَ فَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَشِمْتُهُ وَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَلَا

"Say يرحمك الله to the sneezer (upto) three times. Beyond that say it, if you like, or do not say it, if you like".

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا عَطَسَ إِلَى جَنْبِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ فَقَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ

وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ قَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَأَنَا أَقُولُ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ وَآلِهِ هَكَذَا، عَلَّمَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ نَقُولَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1236/193) Sayyidina Nafi' رضی اللہ عنہ the attendant of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has related that someone who was sitting next to Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ sneezed and said :

الحمد لله والسلام على رسول الله

"All praise belongs to Allah, and peace be on the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, " I too agree that all praise belongs to Allah and peace be on His Messenger ." (That is, the expression is very auspicious without doubt, there being praise of Allah and blessings on the Prophet ﷺ)." But it is not correct to say it on this occasion. The Prophet ﷺ has taught us to say on this occasion:

الحمد لله على كل حال

(All praise belongs to Allah under all circumstances). (Tirmizi)

Commentary: We learn of an important principle from the saying of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. It is that it is not correct to make additions to the supplications taught by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ even by invoking blessings on him although by itself that is a commendable act. May Allah cause us to esteem the Prophet ﷺ in a proper way and to abide by his teachings correctly.

Supplication During Thunder & Lightening

Thunder and lightening are signs of Allah's glory and might. When a slave of Allah faces them, he must supplicate Allah very humbly for mercy and compassion, and forgiveness of his sins. This is exactly what the Prophet ﷺ has taught us and what he practiced.

(١٢٣٧/١٩٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا سَمِعَ

صَوْتُ الرُّعْدِ وَالصَّوَاعِقِ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَقْتُلْنَا بِغَضَبِكَ وَلَا تُهْلِكْنَا بِعَذَابِكَ وَعَافِنَا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ".
(رواه احمد والترمذی)

(1237/194) According to Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ when the Prophet ﷺ heard thunder-clap or a thunder-bolt he supplicated Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَقْتُلْنَا بِغَضَبِكَ وَلَا تُهْلِكْنَا بِعَذَابِكَ وَعَافِنَا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ

'O Allah! exterminate us not with Your wrath and destroy us not with Your punishment, but preserve us before that.'

(Ahmad, Tirmizi)

Supplication When The Wind Blows Violently

A strong wind or storm has brought punishment with it, sometimes and has come as mercy, sometimes (as a prelude to rain). Therefore, pious slaves of Allah must sit down to make supplications to Allah when a strong wind blows, fearing the wrath of Allah. They must pray that the winds should not be a fore runner for loss and destruction, but they should be the herald of the mercy of Allah. This is what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did.

(١٢٣٨/١٩٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ مَاهَبَتْ رِيحٌ قَطْرًا إِلَّا جَئَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى رُكْبَتَيْهِ وَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رَحْمَةً وَلَا تَجْعَلْهَا عَذَابًا اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رِيحًا وَلَا تَجْعَلْهَا رِيحًا.
(رواه الشافعي والبيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1238/195) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ has narrated that never did a wind blow but the Prophet ﷺ bowed down on his knees before Allah and made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رَحْمَةً وَلَا تَجْعَلْهَا عَذَابًا اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا رِيحًا وَلَا تَجْعَلْهَا رِيحًا
"O Allah, let this wind be a herald of mercy and life and let it not be a harbinger of punishment and death. Let it be what the Qur'an calls رِيحًا (Riyah), a blessed wind, not رِيحًا (Reeh), an accursed wind.
(Bayhaqi)

Commentary: Some of the verses of the Qur'an describe the wind which was sent to destroy the disobedient people as Reeh. Other verses of the Qur'an describe the wind that was sent as mercy as Riyah. On this basis the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication when a strong wind blew, "O Allah, let it not be Reeh that is the wind of punishment but let it be Riyah, the wind of mercy."

(١٢٣٩/١٩٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا عَصَفَ الرِّيحُ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا فِيهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا أُرْسِلَتْ بِهِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا وَشَرِّ مَا أُرْسِلَتْ بِهِ" وَإِذَا تَخَيَّلَتِ السَّمَاءُ تَغْيِيرَ لَوْنِهِ وَخَرَجَ وَدَخَلَ وَأَقْبَلَ وَأَذْبَرَ فَإِذَا مَطَرَتْ سُرِّي عَنْهُ فَعَرَفَتْ ذَلِكَ عَائِشَةُ فَسَأَلَتْهُ فَقَالَ لَعَلَّه يَا عَائِشَةُ كَمَا قَالَ قَوْمٌ عَادٍ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُسْتَقْبِلَ أَوْدِيَّتِهِمْ قَالُوا هَذَا عَارِضٌ مُمِطِرُنَا.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1239/196) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has said that when a strong wind blew and darkness enveloped the sky, the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا فِيهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا أُرْسِلَتْ بِهِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا فِيهَا وَشَرِّ مَا أُرْسِلَتْ بِهِ

"O Allah! I ask You for this wind and the good of what it contains, and the good of that with which it is sent. And I seek refuge in You from the evil of this wind and the evil of what it contains, and the evil of that with which it is sent."

When clouds gathered over head (which might spell good and evil or mercy and punishment), the Messenger of Allah ﷺ feared Allah's wrath and the colour of his face changed. He went out now, and came in now; he paced forward now and retrace his steps now. When the rain was over peacefully, this condition in him ended. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها observed this condition and asked him, "Why does this condition come over you?" He said, "On seeing the clouds above in the sky, I feel the danger lest these clouds may be of the kind that came over the people of Aad who saw them moving towards the valley and said that they would rain down and irrigate their fields (although they were the clouds of punishment that brought them destruction and annihilation)."

(Bukhari)

Supplication When Clouds Are Overhead & It Rains

(١٢٤٠/١٩٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَبْصَرْنَا شَيْئًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ تَعْنِي السَّحَابَ تَرَكَ عَمَلَهُ وَاسْتَقْبَلَهُ وَقَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيهِ." فَإِنْ كَشَفَهُ حَمْدُ اللَّهِ وَإِنْ مَطَرَتْ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ سَقِيَا نَافِعًا." (رواه ابو داؤد والنسائي وابن ماجة والشافعي واللفظ له)

(1240/197) It is reported by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that when they perceived clouds rising in the sky, the Prophet ﷺ ceased to work in what he was occupied and turning toward the cloud would say to Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيهِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the evil of that which is in these clouds."

Then, when the clouds dispresed and the sky was clear, he praised Allah and thanked Him. But, if the clouds burst down in rain, he would say:

"O Allah, make it a wholesome drink." اللَّهُمَّ سَقِيَا نَافِعًا

(Abu Dawood, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah, Musnad Shafa'ee)

(١٢٤١/١٩٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَأَى الْمَطَرَ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ صَيِّبًا نَافِعًا." (رواه البخارى)

(1241/198) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that when he saw it rain, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made this supplication to Allah:

"O Allah! Let it be a profitable downpour!" اللَّهُمَّ صَيِّبًا نَافِعًا (Bukhari)

Commentary: It is again the same thing with rain that it plays havoc with people and land, causes destrcution all round, or it comes as mercy for the creation and a means of life for them.

Therefore, the pious people must pray to Allah to make the rain profitable and merciful.

Also, when the need of rain was felt the Messenger of Allah ﷺ supplicated Allah to send to them which is profitable and merciful.

Supplication For Rain

(١٢٤٢/١٩٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوسِّئِي فَقَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ اسْقِنَا غَيْثًا مُغِيثًا مُرِيئًا مُرِيئًا نَافِعًا غَيْرَ ضَارٍ عَاجِلًا غَيْرَ أَجَلٍ" قَالَ فَاطْبَقْتُ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَاءَ. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1242/199) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه said that he once saw the Messenger of Allah ﷺ raise his hands and pray for rain. He was supplicating Allah, in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ اسْقِنَا غَيْثًا مُغِيثًا مُرِيئًا مُرِيئًا نَافِعًا غَيْرَ ضَارٍ عَاجِلًا غَيْرَ أَجَلٍ

O Allah, send us rain abundantly, good for the land, making the fields green, and fertile, profitable wholesomely, very harmless. (And, O Allah!) quickly, not delayed!" (Abu Dawood)

(١٢٤٣/٢٠٠) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سَتَسَقَى قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ اسْقِ عِبَادَكَ وَبَهِيمَتَكَ وَأَنْشُرْ رَحْمَتَكَ وَأَخْيِ بَلَدَكَ الْمَيِّتَ." (رواه مالك و ابو داؤد)

(1243/200) It is reported by Sayyidina Amr ibn Shuaib رضي الله عنه that when the Prophet ﷺ supplicated Allah for rain, he said:

اللَّهُمَّ اسْقِ عِبَادَكَ وَبَهِيمَتَكَ وَأَنْشُرْ رَحْمَتَكَ وَأَخْيِ بَلَدَكَ الْمَيِّتَ

"O Allah, send down rain to Your slaves and the mute quadrupeds and animals created by You. Send Your mercy. And, enliven with rain Your lands which have died for want of rain." (Muwatta Imam Malik, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: What an appeal this supplication has! And, how well may it attract the mercy of Allah to the supplicants!

Supplication on Observing The New Moon

(١٢٤٤/٢٠١) عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَأَى الْهِلَالَ قَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ أَهْلُهُ عَلَيْنَا بِالْأَمْنِ وَالْإِيمَانِ وَالسَّلَامَةِ وَالْإِسْلَامِ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكَ اللَّهُ." (رواه الترمذی)

(1244/201) Sayyidina Talha ibn Ubaydullah رضي الله عنه has reported that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saw the new moon he said:

اللَّهُمَّ اهْلُهُ عَلَيْنَا بِالْأَمْنِ وَالْإِيمَانِ وَالسَّلَامَةِ وَالْإِسْلَامِ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكَ اللَّهُ

"O Allah, make the new moon rise on us with security, faith, safety and Islam. (O moon!) My Lord and Your Lord is Allah".

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: Every month is a stage in a man's life. As a month ends and the new moon is signalling the beginning of the next month it seems to announce that a stage in every man's life has been passed and a new one begins. The most suitable supplication at this time can only be: "O Allah! Cause the new stage, which is the new month, to pass with peace, security, faith and Islam. and make us obedient to You."

Because there are people in the world who worship the moon, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made part of the supplication as a declaration that moon is merely a creation of Allah and just as Allah is our Lord so too He is the Lord of the moon.

(١٢٤٥/٢٠٢) عَنْ قَتَادَةَ بَلَّغَهُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَأَى الْهِلَالَ قَالَ "هِلَالٌ خَيْرٌ وَرُشْدٌ" هِلَالٌ خَيْرٌ وَرُشْدٌ هِلَالٌ خَيْرٌ وَرُشْدٌ "أَمَنْتُ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي ذَهَبَ بِشَهْرٍ كَذَا وَجَاءَ بِشَهْرٍ كَذَا.

(رواه ابو داود)
(1245/202) Sayyidina Qatadah ؓ has reported having heard that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ when he saw the new moon, said three times:

"Moon of good and right guidance," هِلَالٌ خَيْرٌ وَرُشْدٌ and added, again three times:

"I believe in Him Who created you." أَمَنْتُ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَكَ

And then he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي ذَهَبَ بِشَهْرٍ كَذَا وَجَاءَ بِشَهْرٍ كَذَا

"All praise belongs to Allah Who has made such-and-such a month to pass and has brought such-and-such a month."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This is the second supplication on beholding the new moon. The Prophet ﷺ made either of the two supplications on seeing the new moon.

The saying هلال خير و رشد (Moon of good and right guidance) three times was perhaps to counter those people who considered some months to be inauspicious. These words reject such an idea and suspicion and they confirm that every month is a month of good, blessings and guidance.

By saying امنت بالذى خلقك (I have believed in Him Who has created you), the misled, polytheists who regard the moon as a deity are firmly belied.

The narrator of this hadith, Qatadah, is probably Qatadah ibn Di'amah As-Sadusi, the taba'ee. He must have heard the hadith from one of the Companions. Some of these people, the taba'ee, or their successors even (known as the taba' taba'ee) related a hadith without naming the source of the narrators in the chain of transmissions, saying only that they had heard the hadith. These ahadith are called balaghat in the terminology of the science of hadith. There are many such in the Muwatta' of Imam Malik رحمه الله عليه.

Supplication On The Laylat-ul-Qadr

We have presented already the ahadith on the significance of Laylat ul-Qadr in regard to the acceptance of du'a. these will be found in volume 4 in the Chapter Kitab As-Sawm (Book of Fasting). We reproduce here, too, the briefest of supplications of the Prophet ﷺ on this night.

(١٢٤٦/٢٠٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنْ وَافَقْتُ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ مَا أَدْعُو بِهِ؟

قَالَ قُولِي "اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُورٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي". (رواه الترمذی)

(1246/203) It is narrated by Sayidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that she asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ what supplication should she make if she found out the Laylat al-Qadr. He said to her that she should make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ عَفُورٌ تُحِبُّ الْعَفْوَ فَاعْفُ عَنِّي

"O Allah! You are Forgiving (for those who are sinful), You love to forgive. So, forgive me."

(Tirmizi)

Supplication At Arafah

It is on the 9th Zul Hajjah that the pilgrims who perform Hajj stand on the plain of Arafah as guests of Allah. We have seen in the ahadith narrated in the Chapter on Hajj (Kitaab Al-Hajj) that mercy of Allah seems to rain on them heavily. That place is the most worthy place where supplications are answered. Let us read the du'a taught by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to us for this occasion.

عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَفْضَلُ الدُّعَاءِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ وَأَفْضَلُ مَا قُلْتُ أَنَا وَالنَّبِيُّونَ قَبْلِي "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ".
(رواه الترمذی)

(1247/204) It is reported by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The best du'a on the day of Arafah and the best expression that I have recited and the Prophets عليهم السلام before me have recited in the following expression:

لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ
"There is no deity except Allah. He is Alone. He has no partner. To Him belongs the dominion. All praise is for him. And, He is over all things Powerful."
(Tirmizi)

Commentary: This expression does not look like a supplication because there is no request in it. However, if one says, "Only You are the Lord and worthy of worship, You alone are Omnipotent and Sovereign," then this is a kind of resignation and, therefore, a supplication. Indeed, it is the most eloquent one. According to some ahadith and some angles it is the most excellent of supplications. We have explained this expression somewhat earlier in this Book when the phrases of Zikr were discussed.

(١٢٤٨/٢٠٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ أَكْثَرُ مَا دَعَا بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ فِي الْمَوْقِفِ "اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ كَالَّذِي تَقُولُ وَخَيْرًا مِمَّا نَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ صَلَاتِي وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي وَإِلَيْكَ مَابِي وَلَكَ رَبِّ تَرَانِي

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَ وَسْوَةِ الصَّدْرِ وَ شَتَاتِ الْأَمْرِ اللَّهُمَّ
 إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَجِيئُ بِهِ الرِّيحُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1248/205) It is related by Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام that the supplication the Prophet of Allah ﷺ made frequently on the day of Arafah was:

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ كَالَّذِي تَقُولُ وَخَيْرًا مِمَّا نَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ صَلَوَتِي
 وَنُسُكِي وَمَحْيَايَ وَمَمَاتِي وَإِلَيْكَ مَابِي وَلَكَ رَبِّ تُرَائِي اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي
 أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَ وَسْوَةِ الصَّدْرِ وَ شَتَاتِ الْأَمْرِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي
 أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَجِيئُ بِهِ الرِّيحُ

"O Allah, praise belongs to You just as You mention, and better than what we utter. O Allah! My prayer (as-Salah), my sacrifice and hajj and every worship, my living and my dying are all for You. To You is my returning (after death) and (whatever I leave behind) for You is my heritage. O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the punishment in the grave, from the evil suggestions of the heart and from confusion in affairs. O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the evil of what the wind brings." (Tirmizi)

(١٢٤٩/٢٠٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ دُعَاءُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ عَشِيَّةَ عَرَفَةَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ تَسْمَعُ كَلَامِي وَتَرَى مَكَانِي
 وَتَعْلَمُ سِرِّي وَعَلَانِيَتِي لَا يَخْفَى عَلَيْكَ شَيْءٌ مِنْ أَمْرِي وَأَنَا الْبَائِسُ الْفَقِيرُ
 الْمُسْتَغِيثُ الْمُسْتَجِيرُ الْوَجِلُ الْمُسْفِقُ الْمُقِرُّ الْمُعْتَرِفُ بِذَنْبِهِ اسْأَلُكَ مَسْئَلَةَ
 الْمُسْكِينِ وَابْتِهَالُ إِلَيْكَ ابْتِهَالُ الْمَذْنِبِ الدَّلِيلِ وَادْعُوكَ دُعَاءَ الْخَائِفِ
 الضَّرِيرِ وَدُعَاءَ مَنْ خَضَعَتْ لَكَ رَقَبَتُهُ وَفَاضَتْ لَكَ عَبْرَتُهُ وَذَلَّ لَكَ
 جِسْمُهُ وَرَغِمَ لَكَ أَنْفُهُ اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَجْعَلْنِي بِدُعَائِكَ شَقِيًّا وَكُنْ بِي رَوْفًا رَحِيمًا
 يَا خَيْرَ الْمَسْئُولِينَ يَا خَيْرَ الْمُعْطِينَ."

(رواه الطبرانی فی الکبیر)

(1249/206) It is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas عليه السلام that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made the following supplication in the evening at Arafah during his farewell pilgrimage (Hajjah Al-Wada'):

اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ تَسْمَعُ كَلَامِي وَتَرَى مَكَانِي وَتَعْلَمُ سِرِّي وَعَلَانِيَتِي لَا يَخْفَى

عَلَيْكَ شَيْءٌ مِنْ أَمْرِي وَأَنَا الْبَائِسُ الْفَقِيرُ الْمُسْتَغِيثُ الْمُسْتَجِيرُ الْوَجِلُ
 الْمُسْفِقُ الْمُقْرَأُ الْمُعْتَرِفُ بِذَنْبِهِ اسْتَأْذَنَ الْمَسْكِينُ الْيَتِيمَ الْيَتِيمَ
 الْيَتِيمَ الْمَذْنِبَ الدَّلِيلَ وَأَدْعُوكَ دُعَاءَ الْخَائِفِ الضَّرِيرِ وَدُعَاءَ مَنْ خَضَعَتْ
 لَكَ رَقَبَتُهُ وَقَاضَتْ لَكَ عِبْرَتُهُ وَذَلَّ لَكَ جِسْمُهُ وَرَغِمَ لَكَ أَنْفُهُ اللَّهُمَّ
 لَا تَجْعَلْنِي بِدُعَائِكَ شَقِيًّا وَكُنْ بِي رَوْفَارِحِيًّا يَا خَيْرَ الْمَسْئُولِينَ وَيَا خَيْرَ الْمُعْطِينَ

"O Allah! You hear my speech and behold my situation. You know my secret and that which is manifest in me. Nothing is concealed from You of my affairs. And I am the miserable, needy, suppliant who seeks succour and protection, fearful and anxious. I acknowledge and confess my sins. I beg of You the begging of the destitute. I implore You the imploring of an abased sinner. And I pray to You the prayer of the fearful inflicted, whose neck is bowed down before You, whose eyes pour out tears before You, whose body has languished for You and whose nose cleaves to ground for You. O Allah! Do not make me, my Lord, unblest in my supplication to You. And be You to me Compassionate, Merciful. O You! The Best of those who are asked, and the Best of all bestowers!" (Tabarani)

Commentary: Every word of this supplication comes out from the core of the supplicant's heart and shows how deep an intimate knowledge does he possess. We cannot find an example of these eloquence of this passage in the literature of the world in any language and in their supplications and prayers to Allah.

Quite often did I get an opportunity to read out the supplications of the beloved Prophet ﷺ to educate and intelligent non-Muslims. Their reaction on listening to them and the translation was that only one who has been granted specialised knowledge by Allah can make such deep meaning, heart-rendering supplications. They were compelled to agree that only one having an intimate knowledge of Allah and possessed of His awareness can make such soul-inspiring supplications. This person also has a proper awareness of the soul and its relationship with Allah.

May Allah enable us to value and esteem the worth of the heritage of the Prophet ﷺ and to benefit from it.

COMPREHENSIVE SUPPLICATIONS

We have stated earlier in this Book of Supplications that the supplications of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ may be divided into three types as far as their subject-matter is concerned.

- (i) Those that pertain to As-Salah (Prayer).
- (ii) Those that relate to specified moments or specified occasions and situations, and
- (iii) Those that do not fall in the forgoing two classes but are of a general nature.

We have narrated the supplications of the first two kinds in the preceding pages and now present the third kind before our readers. Most of these are comprehensive and blanket type as far as the nature of their contents is concerned. Therefore, scholars of hadith tend to place them under the heading Jami' ad-Do'waat (All-embracing Supplications) in their collections. These supplications are the choicest gift for the Ummah. May Allah inspire us to value them and to show gratitude, and to make these supplications the voice of our hearts and its palpitation. He who attains this position truly gets every thing.

(١٢٥٠/٢٠٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
اللَّهُمَّ أَصْلِحْ لِي دِينِي الَّذِي هُوَ عِصْمَةُ أَمْرِي وَأَصْلِحْ لِي دُنْيَايَ الَّتِي فِيهَا
مَعَاشِي وَأَصْلِحْ لِي آخِرَتِي الَّتِي فِيهَا مَعَادِي وَاجْعَلِ الْحَيَاةَ زِيَادَةً لِي فِي كُلِّ
خَيْرٍ وَاجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِي مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1250/207) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication often:

اللَّهُمَّ أَصْلِحْ لِي دِينِي الَّذِي هُوَ عِصْمَةُ أَمْرِي وَأَصْلِحْ لِي دُنْيَايَ الَّتِي فِيهَا
مَعَاشِي وَأَصْلِحْ لِي آخِرَتِي الَّتِي فِيهَا مَعَادِي وَاجْعَلِ الْحَيَاةَ زِيَادَةً لِي فِي كُلِّ

خَيْرٍ وَأَجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِّي مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ

"O Allah! Put in order for me my religion on which lies the safety of my affairs. And put in order for me my worldly affairs in which lies my livelihood. And put in order my life to come which is my ultimate destination and where I have to live for ever. And make life for me a means of increase in all that is good, and cause death a rest for me from every evil. (Muslim)

Commentary: This is a very comprehensive supplication. Its first sentence is:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْلِحْ لِيْ دِيْنِيْ الَّذِيْ هُوَ عِصْمَةُ اَمْرِيْ

"O Allah ! Correct for me my religious life which is the support of my living. The good of my affairs depends on that."

Actually, it is religion alone, which is sound and on a right course, allows man to be safe from the wrath of Allah and His curse and punishment. He then entitles himself to His pleasure and mercy. The Islamic law then allows him protection of his life, property and honour, and they are respected. Thus, his security, peace, well-being and success depend on religion. This is to what the words عصمة امرى (safety of my affairs) refer.

correction, or putting to order, of religion implies that the man's faith and belief are correct. So are his thoughts, sentiments, deeds and manners. In every department of life, he abides by the Commands of Allah and shuns the temptations of his base self. Obviously, this attitude depends on the prompting of Allah and the ability given by Him. Hence, this request should be made to Allah by every believing person and he should make it the demand of his heart.

The second phrase of the du'a is:

وَأَصْلِحْ لِيْ دُنْيَايَ الَّتِيْ فِيْهَا مَعَاشِيْ

"And correct for me my worldly life in which lies my livelihood."

To get one's worldly life corrected is to have one's needs like provision etc, in a proper lawful manner. Indeed, every Believer's second request to Allah must centre round these things.

The third phrase of the supplication is:

وَأَصْلِحْ لِيْ أُخْرَتِيْ الَّتِيْ فِيْهَا مَعَادِي

"And let my next life be good for I have to return to it for ever."

Although correction of religion necessarily means correction of the next life and success there, but the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has specifically included this phrase in the supplication. This could be because of the extra-ordinary importance of the Hereafter. The second reason is that even if a man is on a sound religious footing, he must continue to worry about the Hereafter and not become complacent about his chances. The Qur'an defines the nature of the pious people in these words:

وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْتُونَ مَا آتَوْا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ وَجَلَةٌ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَى رَبِّهِمْ رَاجِعُونَ (المؤمنون ٢٣:٦٠)

And those who give whatever they give, while their hearts are full of fear that to their Lord they are to be returned.

(al-Mu'minoon, 23:60)

The fourth and fifth phrases of the supplication are:

وَأَجْعَلِ الْحَيَاةَ زِيَادَةً لِّيْ فِي كُلِّ خَيْرٍ وَاجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِّيْ مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ.

"And cause life for me a means of increase in piety and goodness and death a means of comfort and protection from every evil."

Every man has to pass through his life in this world, spend the allotted number of days and die. Man can use the life allotted to him by Allah to do good deeds and be pious, or to be wicked. His life may become a means of auspiciousness, or a means of loss and degradation. Everything is in the Hand of Allah. Therefore, where the Messenger of Allah ﷺ prayed for success and progress in religion, worldly life and Hereafter, he also included a supplication to Allah to make his life a means of increase in piety and auspiciousness, to enable him to spend the moments of his life in a way that pleased Allah and thus progress to higher stations in life. His supplication also included a request to make death a means of relief from evil and trials. If there is a rise in evil and wickedness, Allah may cause his death to prevent him being subjected to that trial.

This supplication too is an example of comprehensive supplications. The phrase is very brief but the meanings are very significant and deep.

(١٢٥١/٢٠٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ أَكْثَرَ دُعَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 ”اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَةٌ وَقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ.“

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1251/208) It is reported by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ frequently made this supplication:

O Allah! Grant us what is good in this world, and what is good in the Hereafter, and save us from the chastisement of the Fire!"

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Glory be to Allah! This is a very brief but complete supplication. Allah is asked for the blessings of this life and of the next too. Clearly this includes all the wishes of the two worlds. The du'a concludes with a request for protection from punishment in Hell. In short, the supplication in its few words includes whatever a man could want in this life and the next. Further, it is its distinction that it is a supplication from the Qur'an with the only difference that it begins in the Qur'an with the word ربنا (Rabbana, meaning "Our Lord") while in the hadith the word is اللهم (Allahumma, "O Allah"), both referring to the same Being.

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه has said that the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication very often. May Allah make us follow in the footsteps of the Prophet ﷺ and supplicate Allah in these words frequently.

(١٢٥٢/٢٠٩) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ
 يَقُولُ ”اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْهُدَى وَالتَّقَى وَالْعِفَافَ وَالْغِنَى.“ (رواه مسلم)

(1252/209) It is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ often made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْهُدَى وَالتَّقَى وَالْعِفَافَ وَالْغِنَى

"O Allah! I ask you for guidance, piety, self-control and a complete independence from Your creatures." (Muslim)

Commentary: The Believer asks Allah for four things in this supplication:

- (i) Guidance — that is to tread the Right Path and be steadfast on that path.

- (ii) Piety and a Godfearing attitude — that is, fear of Allah should keep us away from disobedience, sin and forbidden things.
- (iii) Self-control — to be chaste and to shun immorality.
- (iv) Competence and independence from Allah's creatures — that is, the Believer must not feel dependent on anyone besides Allah in Whose obedience he must find satisfaction.

This is another example of a comprehensive supplication.

(١٢٥٣/٢١٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الصِّحَّةَ وَالْعِفَّةَ وَالْأَمَانَةَ وَحُسْنَ الْخُلُقِ

وَالرِّضَى بِالْقَدْرِ". (رواه البيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1253/210) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Aas ؓ has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الصِّحَّةَ وَالْعِفَّةَ وَالْأَمَانَةَ وَحُسْنَ الْخُلُقِ وَالرِّضَى بِالْقَدْرِ
 "O Allah! I ask You for health, chastity, integrity, good character and acceptance of what is decreed." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The first thing that the Prophet ﷺ has asked Allah for in this supplication is health. Sound health is indeed a great blessing from the point of view of this life and the next. A person comes to realise this fact when he is sometimes deprived of this blessing and falls ill. It is then that he knows that every moment of health was a great asset and a great blessing. The mystics feel the loss to a greater extent because their schedule of devotional exercises gets upset when they fall ill. Their condition and dedication to Allah is somewhat disturbed. Such a thing causes them a spiritual restlessness.

Integrity or trustworthiness is used here for the Arabic word Amanat (Amanat) which is an important word of the Qur'an having a wide meaning. It implies that the internal feelings of man are such that he is constantly thinking of ways and means to fulfil his responsibilities concerning Allah and fellow-men correctly.

As for good character and acceptance of what is decreed, these things are self-explanatory and need no more explanation. The Prophet ﷺ has prayed to Allah for sound health and with it for chastity, integrity, good character and acceptance of what is decreed. These things are characteristics of faith and are its departments, and if anyone is deprived of them then he misses many things. Like other blessings of religion and the world they too are favoured by Allah on whom He wishes.

(١٢٥٤/٢١١) عَنْ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى عَنْهُ قَالَ عَلَّمَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ سِرِّي خَيْرًا مِنْ عَلَانِيَتِي وَاجْعَلْ عَلَانِيَتِي صَالِحَةً اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ صَالِحِ مَا تُؤْتِي النَّاسَ مِنَ الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ وَالْوَلَدِ غَيْرِ الضَّالِّ وَالْمُضِلِّ." (رواه الترمذی)

(1254/211) Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم taught him a supplication and told him to make it to Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ سِرِّي خَيْرًا مِنْ عَلَانِيَتِي وَاجْعَلْ عَلَانِيَتِي صَالِحَةً اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ صَالِحِ مَا تُؤْتِي النَّاسَ مِنَ الْأَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ وَالْوَلَدِ غَيْرِ الضَّالِّ وَالْمُضِلِّ

"O Allah! make my secret conduct better than my known conduct and make my known good and righteous. O Allah! I too ask You of the abundance that You bestow upon Your slaves of family, wealth and property, and children who are neither misled nor mislead anyone." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The first part of this supplication requests Allah to make the outer nature of the supplicant good and righteous and his concealed or inner nature not only good and righteous but also better than the hidden nature in this respect.

The second part of the supplication requests that his family members, his children and his wealth and property may all be righteous, good and lawful. They may not be misled nor may they lead anyone astray.

(١٢٥٥/٢١٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ دُعَاءَ حَفِظْتُهُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا أَدْعُهُ "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي أَكْثَرُ شُكْرَكَ وَأَكْثَرُ ذِكْرَكَ وَاتَّبِعْ نَصِيحَكَ وَأَحْفَظْ وَصِيَّتَكَ." (رواه الترمذی)

(1255/212) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has narrated that he learnt a supplication from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (and kept supplicating Allah in those words) and never omitted it.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِيْ اَعْظَمُ شُكْرِكَ وَاَكْثَرُ ذِكْرِكَ وَاَتَّبِعْ نُصْحَكَ وَاَحْفَظْ وَصِيَّتَكَ
 "O Allah! Make me such as I may thank You for Your blessings regularly realising the importance of it, I may remember You much, I may follow Your counsel, and I may maintain and reserve Your Commands (and always abide by them). (Tirmizi)

(١٢٥٦/٢١٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُوْهُ يَقُوْلُ رَبِّ اَعِنِّيْ وَلَا تُعِنْ عَلَيَّ وَاَنْصُرْنِيْ وَلَا تَنْصُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاْمْكُرْنِيْ وَلَا تَمْكُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاَهْدِنِيْ وَيَسِّرْ لِّهْدْيِيْ وَاَنْصُرْنِيْ عَلٰى مَنْ بَغٰى عَلَيَّ رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِيْ لَكَ شَكَارًا لَكَ ذِكْرًا لَكَ رَهَابًا لَكَ مِطْوَاعًا لَكَ مُّحِبًّا اِلَيْكَ اَوْ اَهَا مُنِيًّا رَبِّ تَقَبَّلْ تَوْبَتِيْ وَاغْسِلْ حَوْبَتِيْ وَاَجِبْ دَعْوَتِيْ وَثَبِّتْ حُجَّتِيْ وَسَدِّدْ لِسَانِيْ وَاَهْدِ قَلْبِيْ وَاَسْأَلُ سَخِيْمَةَ صَدْرِيْ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1256/213) It is reported by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication:

رَبِّ اَعِنِّيْ وَلَا تُعِنْ عَلَيَّ وَاَنْصُرْنِيْ وَلَا تَنْصُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاْمْكُرْنِيْ وَلَا تَمْكُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاَهْدِنِيْ وَيَسِّرْ لِّهْدْيِيْ وَاَنْصُرْنِيْ عَلٰى مَنْ بَغٰى عَلَيَّ رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِيْ لَكَ شَكَارًا لَكَ ذِكْرًا لَكَ رَهَابًا لَكَ مِطْوَاعًا لَكَ مُّحِبًّا اِلَيْكَ اَوْ اَهَا مُنِيًّا رَبِّ تَقَبَّلْ تَوْبَتِيْ وَاغْسِلْ حَوْبَتِيْ وَاَجِبْ دَعْوَتِيْ وَثَبِّتْ حُجَّتِيْ وَسَدِّدْ لِسَانِيْ وَاَهْدِ قَلْبِيْ وَاَسْأَلُ سَخِيْمَةَ صَدْرِيْ

"My Lord help me and do not help my enemies against me, aid me to victory and do not aid my enemies to victory over me. Use Your plan for me and do not use Your plan against me. Guide me and make it easy for me to walk on the Right Path. Aid me to victory against those who act wrongfully towards me. My Lord, make me grateful to You, one who constantly remembers You, full of fear towards You, fully obedient to You, humble before You, earnest in supplication and petitioner. My Lord, accept my repentance, wash away my sin, grant my supplication, strengthen my faith (which will be evidence for me in the Hereafter), make my tongue true, guide my heart, and throw out the malice in my heart (and every lie).

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It is very obvious that this supplication is comprehensive. The peculiarity of all the above supplications is that the Prophet ﷺ has presented himself before Allah as one who depends on Him for everything and all his affairs of this life. He has shown himself absolutely dependent and helpless in all matters so much so that he confirmed that he had no say even on his outer and his inner nature, and on his tongue and his heart. Also, in correcting and setting to order his character and sentiments, his deeds and his conditions he depended on the mercy and guidance of Allah. His sound health and illness was in Allah's Hand and he could be protected from his enemies and antagonists only by Allah, he was always helpless and dependent. While Allah was his Lord, Merciful and Sustainer, he was the supplicant who begged of Him. This was the perfect servitude of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ in relation to Allah and, without doubt, perfection ended with him and the seal was applied at this stage. This perfection was superior to all other perfections:

صلى الله تعالى عليه وآله وصحبه وسلم

"(May blessings of Allah, the Exalted, be on him and his family, and his companions. And, likewise peace!)"

(١٢٥٧/٢١٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَّمَهَا هَذَا الدُّعَاءَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ كُلِّهِ عَاجِلِهِ وَآجِلِهِ مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهُ وَمَا لَمْ أَعْلَمْ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّرِّ كُلِّهِ عَاجِلِهِ وَآجِلِهِ مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهُ وَمَا لَمْ أَعْلَمْ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا سَأَلَكَ مِنْهُ عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اسْتَعَاذَ مِنْهُ عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْجَنَّةَ وَمَا قَرَّبَ مِنْهَا مِنْ قَوْلٍ وَعَمَلٍ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ النَّارِ وَمَا قَرَّبَ إِلَيْهَا مِنْ قَوْلٍ وَعَمَلٍ" وَأَسْأَلُكَ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ كُلَّ قَضَاءٍ تَقْضِيهِ لِي خَيْرًا.

(رواه ابن أبي شيبة وابن ماجه)

(1257/214) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had taught her the following comprehensive supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ كُلِّهِ عَاجِلِهِ وَآجِلِهِ مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهُ وَمَا لَمْ أَعْلَمْ
وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشَّرِّ كُلِّهِ عَاجِلِهِ وَآجِلِهِ مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهُ وَمَا لَمْ أَعْلَمْ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي
أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا سَأَلَكَ مِنْهُ عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا
اسْتَعَاذَ مِنْهُ عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الْجَنَّةَ وَمَا قَرَّبَ مِنْهَا مِنْ قَوْلٍ
وَعَمَلٍ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ النَّارِ وَمَا قَرَّبَ إِلَيْهَا مِنْ قَوْلٍ وَعَمَلٍ وَأَسْأَلُكَ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ كُلَّ قَضَاءٍ تَقْضِيهِ لِي خَيْرًا

'O Allah , I ask You for all the good and blessings of this world and of the next, even those of which I know and which I know not. And I seek refuge in You against all evil and wickedness of this world and of the next, even those of which I know and which I know not. O Allah! I ask You for every good that Your close slave and Prophet ﷺ asked You for, and I seek refuge in You from everything from which Your close slave and Prophet ﷺ sought refuge. O Allah! I ask You for Paradise and I ask You for the word and deed that may take me near to it. And, O Allah! I ask You that You make every decree, which You have ordained for me, a blessing for me. (Ibn Abi Sahybah, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Let us ponder over every word of this supplication which encompasses every need a man could want. In a version of this hadith, the circumstance are also mentioned in which the Prophet ﷺ taught it to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. One day Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه visited the Prophet ﷺ and wished to speak to him privately while Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها was also there and she was engaged in As-Salah (prayer) and making long supplication to Allah. In order to gain privacy with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, the Prophet ﷺ said to her, "Make a comprehensive supplication and hurry up!" She submitted that he may teach her one such supplication . So, the Prophet ﷺ taught her this supplication.

(١٢٠٨/٢١٥) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ دَعَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِدُعَاءٍ كَثِيرٍ
لَمْ نَحْفَظْ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ دَعَوْتَ بِدُعَاءٍ كَثِيرٍ لَمْ نَحْفَظْ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا
قَالَ إِلَّا أَذَلُّكُمْ عَلَى مَا يَجْمَعُ ذَالِكُ كُلُّهُ؟ تَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا
سَأَلَكَ مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اسْتَعَاذَ

مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنْتَ الْمُسْتَعَانُ وَعَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاغُ
وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1258/215) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet ﷺ taught them many supplications which they could not remember so they said to the Prophet ﷺ, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! You have made many supplications all of which we cannot remember (but wish to ask Allah for all that, so what should we do?)" The Prophet ﷺ said, "I will teach you a supplication that will include all those other requests. Pray to Allah in these words."

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْتَلِكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا سَاَلَكَ مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
وَنَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا اسْتَعَاذَ مِنْهُ نَبِيُّكَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنْتَ
الْمُسْتَعَانُ وَعَلَيْكَ الْبَلَاغُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ

"O Allah! We ask You for all the blessings and good that Your Prophet, Muhammad ﷺ, asked You for. and we seek refuge in You from all those things from which Your Prophet, Muhammad ﷺ, sought refuge in You. Indeed, You are The One Whose help is sought, and hopes and aims depend on reaching Your mercy. And, endeavour to attain an objective depends on power and might which rest in Allah alone and no one else.

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: There are many people in the world who cannot commit to memory all the supplications attributed to the Prophet ﷺ. This hadith shows them an easy way to make all those requests in these simple words: "O Allah! I ask You for whatever Your Prophet, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ, asked Your for, and I seek refuge in You from whatever he sought Your protection."

Humble and lowly that I am, I wish to submit that there is no harm and nothing wrong in making this request in one's own language. Only, the request must be made to Allah sincerely with proper devotion. For, du'a is actually what comes from the heart.

(١٢٥٩/٢١٦) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ مَرْفُوعًا "اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ مُوْجِبَاتِ
رَحْمَتِكَ وَعَزَائِمَ مَغْفِرَتِكَ وَالسَّلَامَةَ مِنْ كُلِّ اِثْمٍ وَالْغَنِيْمَةَ مِنْ كُلِّ بَرٍّ

وَالْفُورَ بِالْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّجَاةَ مِنَ النَّارِ. (رواه الحاكم)

(1259/216) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has reported the following supplication from the Prophet ﷺ:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ مُوَجِّبَاتِ رَحْمَتِكَ وَغَزَائِمَ مَغْفِرَتِكَ وَالسَّلَامَةَ مِنْ كُلِّ اِثْمٍ وَالْغَنِيْمَةَ مِنْ كُلِّ بَرٍّ وَالْفُورَ بِالْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّجَاةَ مِنَ النَّارِ

"O Allah! We ask You to make Your mercy on us definite, and (We ask You) for confirmation of Your forgiveness (through deeds of that type), and for safety from all sins, and to enable us to do pious deeds, and for honouring us with Paradise and delivering us from Hell." (Hakim)

(١٢٦٠/٢١٧) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ مَرْفُوعًا "اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ قَائِمًا وَّاحْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ قَاعِدًا وَّاحْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ رَاقِدًا وَلَا تُشْمِتْ بِيْ عَدُوًّا وَلَا حَاسِدًا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْتَلْكَ مِنْ كُلِّ خَيْرٍ خَزَائِنُهُ بِيَدِكَ وَاَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ خَزَائِنُهُ بِيَدِكَ." (رواه الحاكم)

(1260/217) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has reported that the following supplication from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ قَائِمًا وَّاحْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ قَاعِدًا وَّاحْفَظْنِيْ بِالْاِسْلَامِ رَاقِدًا وَلَا تُشْمِتْ بِيْ عَدُوًّا وَلَا حَاسِدًا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْتَلْكَ مِنْ كُلِّ خَيْرٍ خَزَائِنُهُ بِيَدِكَ وَاَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ خَزَائِنُهُ بِيَدِكَ

"O Allah! Protect me with Islam while I am standing, Protect me with Islam while I am sitting and Protect me with Islam while I am lying down (whether I am standing, sitting, or sleeping — in every condition, protect me with Islam). And let not an enemy or a jealous person feel happy over my plight. O Allah! I ask You for all the good and blessings whose treasures are in Your Hands, and I seek refuge in You from all the evil whose treasures are in Your Hands." (Hakim)

(١٢٦١/٢١٨) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ مَرْفُوعًا "اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِيْ شَكُوْرًا وَّاجْعَلْنِيْ صَبُوْرًا وَّاجْعَلْنِيْ فِيْ عَيْنِيْ صَغِيْرًا وَّفِيْ اَعْيُنِ النَّاسِ كَبِيْرًا." (رواه البزار)

(1261/218) Sayyidina Buraydah رضي الله عنه has reported the following du'a from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي شُكُورًا وَاجْعَلْنِي صَبُورًا وَاجْعَلْنِي فِي عَيْنِي صَغِيرًا وَفِي عَيْنِ النَّاسِ كَبِيرًا

"O Allah! Make me one who is grateful make me one who is patient and perseverant. And (O Allah! Let me (see myself) small in my sight but large and prominent in the eyes of other people."
(Bazaar)

Commentary: The concluding part of this supplication is worth heeding. One must consider oneself lowly and humble but go on requesting Allah not to cause him despised and degraded in the sight of other people.

(١٢٦٢/٢١٩) عَنْ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ مُرْسَلًا "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ التَّوْفِيقَ لِمَحَابِبِكَ مِنَ الْأَعْمَالِ وَصِدْقَ التَّوَكُّلِ عَلَيْكَ وَخُسْنَ الظَّنِّ بِكَ."

(رواه ابو نعيم في الحلية)

(1262/219) Imam Awza'ee has reorted the following supplication from the Prophet ﷺ in a mursal form:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ التَّوْفِيقَ لِمَحَابِبِكَ مِنَ الْأَعْمَالِ وَصِدْقَ التَّوَكُّلِ عَلَيْكَ وَخُسْنَ الظَّنِّ بِكَ

"O Allah! I beseech You to enable to do those deeds which You love and to grant me sincere reliance on You and pure thoughts about You."
(Abu Na'eem)

(١٢٦٣/٢٢٠) عَنْ عَلِيِّ مَرْفُوعًا "اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ مَسَامِعَ قَلْبِي لِذِكْرِكَ وَارْزُقْنِي طَاعَتَكَ وَطَاعَةَ رَسُولِكَ وَعَمَلًا بِكِتَابِكَ." (رواه الطبرانی فی الاوسط)

(1263/220) It is reported by Sayyidina Ali ؑ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ افْتَحْ مَسَامِعَ قَلْبِي لِذِكْرِكَ وَارْزُقْنِي طَاعَتَكَ وَطَاعَةَ رَسُولِكَ وَعَمَلًا بِكِتَابِكَ

"O Allah! Open the hearing of my heart to remember You (better, and to recieve Your guidance). And cause me to obey You and to obey Your Messenger ﷺ and to abide by Your Book, the Holy Qur'an."
(Tabarani)

(١٢٦٤/٢٢١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ مَرْفُوعًا "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ صِحَّةً فِي إِيمَانٍ وَإِيمَانًا فِي حُسْنِ خُلُقٍ وَنَجَاحًا تَتَّبِعُهُ فَلَاحًا وَرَحْمَةً مِنْكَ وَعَافِيَةً وَمَغْفِرَةً مِنْكَ وَرِضْوَانًا.
(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط والحاكم في المستدرک)

(1264/221) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ صِحَّةً فِي إِيمَانٍ وَإِيمَانًا فِي حُسْنِ خُلُقٍ وَنَجَاحًا تَتَّبِعُهُ فَلَاحًا وَرَحْمَةً مِنْكَ وَعَافِيَةً وَمَغْفِرَةً مِنْكَ وَرِضْوَانًا

"O Allah! I ask You for sound health with faith, and for faith with good manners, and for success in receiving my objectives followed by success in the Hereafter and mercy from You and Your security and forgiveness with Your pleasure."

(Tabarani, Hakim)

(١٢٦٥/٢٢٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ مَرْفُوعًا "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ إِيمَانًا يَبَاسِرُ قَلْبِي وَيَقِينًا صَادِقًا حَتَّى أَعْلَمُ أَنَّهُ لَا يُصِيبُنِي إِلَّا مَا كَتَبْتَ لِي وَرِضًا مِنَ الْمَعِيشَةِ بِمَا قَسَمْتَ لِي.
(رواه البزار)

(1265/222) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has said that the Prophet ﷺ made the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ إِيمَانًا يَبَاسِرُ قَلْبِي وَيَقِينًا صَادِقًا حَتَّى أَعْلَمُ أَنَّهُ لَا يُصِيبُنِي إِلَّا مَا كَتَبْتَ لِي وَرِضًا مِنَ الْمَعِيشَةِ بِمَا قَسَمْتَ لِي

"O Allah! I ask You for faith that settles deep in my heart and firm conviction with true belief so that I may know that nothing can afflict me beyond what You have decreed for me and that I may be pleased with the provision which You have appotioned for me."

(Bazzar)

(١٢٦٦/٢٢٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ مَرْفُوعًا "اللَّهُمَّ الْطُفْ بِي فِي تَسِيرِ كُلِّ عَسِيرٍ فَإِنَّ تَسِيرَ كُلِّ عَسِيرٍ عَلَيْكَ يَسِيرٌ وَأَسْأَلُكَ الْيُسْرَ وَالْمُعَافَاةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ."
(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1266/223) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ الطُّفْ بِى فِى تَيْسِيرِ كُلِّ عَسِيرٍ فَإِنَّ تَيْسِيرَ كُلِّ عَسِيرٍ عَلَيْكَ يَسِيرٌ
وَأَسْأَلُكَ الْيُسْرَ وَالْمُعَافَاةَ فِى الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ

"O Allah! be gracious to me in making all difficulties easy, for to make a difficulty easy is very easy for You. And, I ask You for ease and safety in the world and the Hereafter. (Tabarani)

(۱۲۶۷/۲۲۴) عَنْ مَالِكٍ قَالَ بَلَغَنِى أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ
يَدْعُو "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّى أَسْأَلُكَ فِعْلَ الْخَيْرَاتِ وَتَرْكَ الْمُنْكَرَاتِ وَحُبِّ
الْمَسَاكِينِ وَإِذَا أَرَدْتُ بِقَوْمٍ فِتْنَةً فَأَقِضْنِى إِلَيْكَ غَيْرَ مَقْتُونٍ."

(مالك فى الموطأ)

(1267/224) It is stated by Imam Maalik رحمه الله عليه that he learnt that the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّى أَسْأَلُكَ فِعْلَ الْخَيْرَاتِ وَتَرْكَ الْمُنْكَرَاتِ وَحُبِّ الْمَسَاكِينِ وَإِذَا
أَرَدْتُ بِقَوْمٍ فِتْنَةً فَأَقِضْنِى إِلَيْكَ غَيْرَ مَقْتُونٍ

"O Allah! I ask You to enable me to do good deeds and to shun bad deeds, and to love the poor. And when intend to try a people cause me to die without putting me to trial." (Imam Maalik)

Commentary: We have stated before that Imam Maalik رحمه الله عليه was a taba' taba'een (a successor of the successors of the Companions — third generation) and he has related some ahadith without mentioning the chain of narrators, saying simply بلغنى (Balaghni) it has reached me). These ahadith are known as (Balaghaat Maalik) and Scholars of hadith have regrated them as worthy of acceptance. The foregoing hadith is one of them.

(۱۲۶۸/۲۲۵) عَنْ بُسْرِ بْنِ أَرْطَاةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اللَّهُمَّ أَحْسِنْ عَاقِبَتَنَا فِى الْأُمُورِ
كُلِّهَا وَاجْرُنَا مِنْ خِزْيِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْآخِرَةِ" (رواه احمد وابن جهان والحاكم)
(1268/225) Sayyidina Busr ibn Artah has reported this supplication from the Prophet ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ أَحْسِنْ عَاقِبَتَنَا فِى الْأُمُورِ كُلِّهَا وَاجْرُنَا مِنْ خِزْيِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْآخِرَةِ
"O Allah, let the conclusion of all our affairs be the best and deliver us from disappointment and disgrace in this world and torment in the Hereafter. (Ahmad, Ibn Hiban, Hakim)

Commentary: This is a very brief but very complete supplication.

(١٢٦٩/٢٢٦) عَنْ أُمِّ مَعْبَدٍ الْخُزَاعِيَّةِ مَرْفُوعًا "اللَّهُمَّ طَهِّرْ قَلْبِي مِنَ النِّفَاقِ وَعَمَلِي مِنَ الرِّيَاءِ وَلِسَانِي مِنَ الْكِذْبِ وَعَيْنِي مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَإِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْأَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُورِ". (رواه الحكيم الترمذی والخطیب)

رضی اللہ عنہا (1269/226) Sayyidah Umm Ma'bad Khuza'iyah has reported that the Prophet ﷺ made the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ طَهِّرْ قَلْبِي مِنَ النِّفَاقِ وَعَمَلِي مِنَ الرِّيَاءِ وَلِسَانِي مِنَ الْكِذْبِ وَعَيْنِي مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَإِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْأَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُورِ

"O Allah! Purge my heart from hypocrisy, my deeds from vain show, my tongue from falsehood, and my eyes from wrongful glances. For, indeed, You know the treacherous looks of the eyes and that which is concealed in breasts. Nothing about me is hidden from You."

(Hakim, Tirmizi, Khateeb)

Commentary: It is very obvious that all these supplications are all-embracing and complete. They also do not demand further explanation. Those who ponder over them and understand their inner meaning know that they are part of a treasure of intimate knowledge of Allah.

May Allah cause us to value the precious gift of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ which is presented for us. May we receive blessings and mercy of the Absolute Sovereign by making these supplications to Him.

(١٢٧٠/٢٢٧) عَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَلِّمُنَا أَنْ نَقُولَ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ الثَّبَاتَ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ غَرِيمَةَ الرُّشْدِ وَأَسْأَلُكَ شُكْرَ نِعْمَتِكَ وَحُسْنَ عِبَادَتِكَ وَأَسْأَلُكَ لِسَانًا صَادِقًا وَقَلْبًا سَلِيمًا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ مِمَّا تَعْلَمُ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوبِ". (رواه الترمذی والنسائی)

(1270/227) Sayyidina Shaddad ibn Aws ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught them to make supplication to Allah in these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْئَلُكَ الثَّبَاتَ فِى الْاَمْرِ وَاَسْئَلُكَ عَزِيْمَةَ الرُّشْدِ وَاَسْئَلُكَ شُكْرَ نِعْمَتِكَ وَحُسْنَ عِبَادَتِكَ وَاَسْئَلُكَ لِسَانًا صَادِقًا وَ قَلْبًا سَلِيْمًا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَاَسْئَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ مَا تَعْلَمُ وَاَسْتَغْفِرُكَ مِمَّا تَعْلَمُ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ عَلَّامُ الْغُيُوْبِ

"O Allah! I ask You for steadfastness and firm footedness in religious affairs. And I ask You for great mental ability and guidance. And I ask You to enable me to show gratitude for Your bounties and to be able to worship You with best devotion. And I ask You for a truthful tongue and sound heart. And I seek Your protection from every evil of which You know. And, I ask You of the good and blessings of which You know. And I seek forgiveness from what You know (of my sins). Surely, You are the All-Knowing, and nothing is hidden from You. (Tirmizi, Nasa'i)

Commentary: Just pay attention to the words of this supplication. This du'a includes every request that a Believer should make.

This supplication is reported by Ibn Asakir too with the addition that after exhorting Shaddad ibn Aws رضي الله عنه to make this supplication, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

"O Shaddad ibn Aws! When you see people hoarding gold and silver ask their treasure, you must take this supplication as Your treasure."

(١٢٧١/٢٢٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ سَمِعْتُ دُعَاءَكَ اللَّيْلَةَ فَكَانَ الَّذِى وَصَلَ اِلَيَّ مِنْهُ اَنَّكَ تَقُوْلُ "اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ ذَنْبِيْ وَوَسِّعْ لِيْ فِىْ دَارِيْ وَبَارِكْ لِيْ فِىْمَا رَزَقْتَنِيْ" قَالَ فَهَلْ تَرَاهُنَّ تَرَكْنَ شَيْئًا (رواه الترمذى)
(1271/228) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that a man said to the Prophet ﷺ, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ, last night I heard you making a supplication. I received the words very well and you were saying:"

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ ذَنْبِيْ وَوَسِّعْ لِيْ فِىْ دَارِيْ وَبَارِكْ لِيْ فِىْمَا رَزَقْتَنِيْ

"O Allah! Forgive me my sin, and make my house spacious for me, and bless me in the provision You have provided me with."

The Prophet ﷺ asked him, "Did you find these words omit anything?"

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: A man gets everything from Allah when He blesses his provision for him, gives him a house to live in and then makes it spacious so that it is more than enough for him and then He forgives him so that he is safe in the Hereafter.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ concluded his message with the question. "Did you find the words omit anything?" It meanse that whatever one could wish for is found in this brief supplication. The three small phrases in Arabic have omitted nothing.

(١٢٧٢/٢٢٩) عَنْ طَارِقِ الْأَشْجَعِيِّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاتَّاهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ كَيْفَ أَقُولُ حِينَ أَسْأَلُ رَبِّي قَالَ قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي" (وَجَمَعَ أَصَابِعَهُ الْأَرْبَعَ إِلَّا الْإِبْهَامَ) فَإِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ يَجْمَعْنَ لَكَ دِينَكَ وَدُنْيَاكَ.

(رواه ابن أبي شيبة)

(1272/229) Sayyidina Tariq Al-Ashja'ee ؓ has narrated that someone came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and asked him, "Tell me when I ask my Lord for something what should I ask him for and how should I ask?" He said to him that he should say:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي

"O Allah! Forgive me my sins have mercy on me, give me comfort and peace, and provide me with sustenance."

Then he joined the four fingers of his hand leaving aside the thumb and said, "These four expressions are enough for all your needs of this world and the Hereafter." (Ibn Abi Shaybah)

Commentary: Indeed, if anyone gets from Allah in this life what he needs of sustenance and peace and comfort and is assured of forgiveness and mercy in the Hereafter then he has every thing one could wish for.

This supplication is again one of the brief and comprehensive supplication taught by the Prophet ﷺ.

There is a hadith in Sahih Muslim which tells us that when anyone embraced Islam, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught him how to offer prayers (salah) and urged him to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي

(١٢٧٣/٢٣٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِي قُدْرَتِكَ وَأَذِلِّنِي فِي رَحْمَتِكَ وَأَقْضِ أَجَلِي فِي طَاعَتِكَ وَاخْتِمْ لِي بِخَيْرِ عَمَلِي وَاجْعَلْ ثَوَابَهُ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه البيهقي في السنن)

(1273/230) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has reported this supplication from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِي قُدْرَتِكَ وَأَذِلِّنِي فِي رَحْمَتِكَ وَأَقْضِ أَجَلِي فِي طَاعَتِكَ وَاخْتِمْ لِي بِخَيْرِ عَمَلِي وَاجْعَلْ ثَوَابَهُ الْجَنَّةَ

"O Allah, grant me security with Your power, admit me to Your mercy, enable me to spend my life in Your obedience and worship (so that I continue to obey and worship You till the last moments of my life), and let my life end with my best deed and make Paradise its reward."

(Bayhaqi)

(١٢٧٤/٢٣١) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ وَرَحْمَتِكَ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَمْلِكُهُمَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ."

(رواه الطبراني في الكبير)

(1274/231) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ وَرَحْمَتِكَ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَمْلِكُهُمَا إِلَّا أَنْتَ

"O Allah! I ask You for Your favours and Your mercy for no one owns them except You."

(Tabarani)

Commentary: We have pointed out earlier in this book The Ma'riful Hadith that the material bounties and blessings of Allah received in this world are called in the terminology of the Qur'an فضل (Fadl) and the spiritual next-world blessings are called رحمة (Rahmah). Hence the supplication may be interpreted in this way:

"O Allah! You alone are the Owner of the blessings of this world and the next, the material and the spiritual. There is no one besides You who may give us anything. Hence, I request You alone for the blessings of both kinds."

(١٢٧٥/٢٣٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عِيشَةً نَقِيَّةً وَمِيتَةً

سَوِيَّةً وَمَرَدًّا غَيْرُ مُخْزِيٍّ وَلَا فَاضِحٍ. (رواه البزار والحاكم والطبراني في الكبير)
(1275/232) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made his supplication in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ عَيْشَةً نَقِيَّةً وَمِيتَةً سَوِيَّةً وَمَرَدًّا غَيْرُ مُخْزِيٍّ وَلَا فَاضِحٍ.
"O Allah! I ask You for a pure, righteous life and a clear, straight death (without disgrace or an evil mark) and a return (to the original place) without regret and disgrace.

(Bazzaar, Hakim, Tabarani)

Commentary: There are only three stages in a man's life:

- (i) The life of this world.
- (ii) Death.
- (iii) The life of the Hereafter.

The supplication covers all the three stages in very simple words and style.

(١٢٧٦/٢٣٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ أَنْفَعْنِي بِمَا عَلَّمْتَنِي وَعَلِّمْنِي مَا يَنْفَعُنِي وَزِدْنِي عِلْمًا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ وَأَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ حَالِ أَهْلِ النَّارِ.
(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)

(1276/233) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has narrated the following supplication from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْفَعْنِي بِمَا عَلَّمْتَنِي وَعَلِّمْنِي مَا يَنْفَعُنِي وَزِدْنِي عِلْمًا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ وَأَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ حَالِ أَهْلِ النَّارِ

"O Allah, Cause me to profit by what You have taught me (so that I am enabled to practice what I know) and give me the knowledge that will profit me and increase me in knowledge. All praise belongs to Allah in every condition and I seek refuge in Allah from the condition of the dwellers of the Fire."

(Tirmizi, Ibn Majah)

(١٢٧٧/٢٣٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَكِلْنِي إِلَى نَفْسِي طَرْفَةَ عَيْنٍ وَلَا تَنْزِعْ مِنِّي صَالِحَ مَا أُعْطِيتَنِي.
(رواه البزار)

(1277/234) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has transmitted this invocation from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ لَا تَكِلْنِي إِلَى نَفْسِي طَرْفَةَ عَيْنٍ وَلَا تَنْزِعْ مِنِّي صَالِحَ مَا أُعْطِيتَنِي

"O Allah, do not leave me to my self even for the twinkling of an eye and do not take away from me the good (deed or anything else) which You have bestowed on me." (Bazzaar)

Commentary: Whatever good man possesses is bestowed on him by Allah alone. If Allah turns away His sight from man for so much as a moment and leaves him to himself then he will deprive himself. Hence every knowing slave of Allah must make it his call: "O Allah, do not entrust me for a moment even to my self. Keep Your eyes on me always and ever be favourable to me."

(۱۲۷۸/۲۳۵) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ أَوْسَعَ رِزْقِكَ عَلَيَّ عِنْدَ

كِبَرِ سِنِّيْ وَإِنْقِطَاعِ عُمْرِيْ." (رواه الحاكم)

(1278/235) The mother of the Faithful, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ أَوْسَعَ رِزْقِكَ عَلَيَّ عِنْدَ كِبَرِ سِنِّيْ وَإِنْقِطَاعِ عُمْرِيْ

"O Allah! Let the greater share of my provision be during my old age and when my life is on the verge of being seized." Hakim

Commentary: Paucity of provision can be very telling in old age when one is at the fag end of one's life. The reason is that, at that age, one is not capable of doing much work. Besides, that period of one's life is just a step away from death and every Believer must hope to devote himself to Allah and prepare for the next world by giving up all other engagements. Therefore, this du'a of the Prophet ﷺ must be the heart beat of every Believer.

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ أَوْسَعَ رِزْقِكَ عَلَيَّ عِنْدَ كِبَرِ سِنِّيْ وَإِنْقِطَاعِ عُمْرِيْ

(۱۲۷۹/۲۳۶) عَنْ أَنَسٍ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ خَيْرَ عُمْرِيْ آخِرَهُ وَخَيْرَ

عَمَلِيْ خَوَاتِيمَهُ وَخَيْرَ أَيَّامِيْ يَوْمَ الْقَاكَ فِيهِ." (رواه الطبرانی)

(1279/236) Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made supplication in the following words:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ خَيْرَ عُمْرِيْ آخِرَهُ وَخَيْرَ عَمَلِيْ خَوَاتِيمَهُ وَخَيْرَ أَيَّامِيْ يَوْمَ الْقَاكَ فِيهِ

"O Allah, cause the last portion of my life to be the best, and the best of my deeds to be the last ones, and the best of my days the day on which I meet You."

(Tabarani)

(١٢٨٠/٢٣٧) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَارْحَمْنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا وَتَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا وَأَدْخِلْنَا الْجَنَّةَ وَنَجِّنَا مِنَ النَّارِ وَأَصْلِحْ لَنَا شَأْنَنَا كُلَّهُ." قِيلَ زِدْنَا قَالَ أَوْلَيْسَ قَدْ جَمَعْنَا الْخَيْرَ كُلَّهُ." (رواه احمد وابن ماجه والطبرانی فی الكبير)

(1280/237) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ has narrated the following supplication from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَارْحَمْنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا وَتَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا وَأَدْخِلْنَا الْجَنَّةَ وَنَجِّنَا مِنَ النَّارِ وَأَصْلِحْ لَنَا شَأْنَنَا كُلَّهُ." قِيلَ زِدْنَا قَالَ أَوْلَيْسَ قَدْ جَمَعْنَا الْخَيْرَ كُلَّهُ

"O Allah! Forgive us! Have mercy on us! And be pleased with us! Accept from us! Admit us to Paradise and protect us from Hell! And rectify our affairs!"

Someone said to the Prophet ﷺ, "Make more (supplication)," and he said, "Is it not that we have included the blessings, all of them?" (Ahmad, Ibn Majah, Tabarani)

Commentary: This supplication includes a request to Allah for forgiveness, His mercy, His pleasure and acceptance. It also includes a request for admittance to Paradise and deliverance from Hell. The final appeal is to correct and reform the suplicant's affairs and overall condition"

وَأَصْلِحْ لَنَا شَأْنَنَا كُلَّهُ

It leaves no human desire outside the scope of this supplication. If anyone asks more then that would only be an expansion of the basic requests contained in this invocation. That is why the Prophet ﷺ asked this supplication all that a man could need in this world and the next?)

(١٢٨١/٢٣٨) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيَ يَوْمًا..... فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَقَالَ "اللَّهُمَّ زِدْنَا وَلَا تَنْقُصْنَا وَآكِرْمْنَا وَلَا تُهِنَّا وَاعْظِنَا وَلَا تَحْرِمْنَا وَابْرُرْنَا وَلَا تُؤْبِرْ عَلَيْنَا وَارْضْنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا." (رواه احمد والترمذی)

(1281/238) Sayyidina Umar Ibn Al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ has said that one day the Prophet ﷺ received a revelation (wahi). He turned towards the qiblah and raised his hands and supplicated Allah in these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ زِدْنَا وَلَا تَقْصُصْنَا وَاکْرِمْنَا وَلَا تُهِنَّا وَاعْظِنَا وَلَا تَحْرِمْنَا وَائْتِرْنَا وَلَا تُؤْتِرْ عَلَيْنَا وَارْضِنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا

"O Allah! Increase us and do not decrease us (in numbers). Honour us and do not humiliate us. Give us all kinds of Your bounties and do not withhold from us. Choose us and do not prefer others to us. Please us and be pleased with us."

(Ahmad, Tirmizi)

Commentary: This hadith goes on to say that the initial ten verses of the surah Al-Mu'minoon were revealed to him and he had found an extra-ordinary effect on himself because of that. That is why he made this supplication for his Companions and Ummah. This hadith also tells us that if a supplication has to be made with a greater devotion then the supplicant must face the qiblah and raise his hands.

(۱۲۸۲/۲۳۹) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ (مَرْفُوعًا) "اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْلِحْ ذَاتَ بَيْنِنَا وَاَلِفَ بَيْنِ قُلُوْبِنَا وَاهْدِنَا سُبُلَ السَّلَامِ وَنَجِّنَا مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ وَجَنِّبْنَا الْفَوَاحِشِ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ اَسْمَاعِنَا وَابْصَارِنَا وَقُلُوْبِنَا وَاَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا وَتُبْ عَلَيْنَا اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ وَاجْعَلْنَا شَاكِرِيْنَ لِنِعْمَتِكَ مُتَمِيْنِيْنَ بِهَا قَابِلِيْهَا وَاتِمِّمْهَا عَلَيْنَا". (رواه الطبرانی فی الکبیر والحاکم فی المستدرک)

(1282/239) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ has reported that the Prophet ﷺ made the following supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْلِحْ ذَاتَ بَيْنِنَا وَاَلِفَ بَيْنِ قُلُوْبِنَا وَاهْدِنَا سُبُلَ السَّلَامِ وَنَجِّنَا مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ وَجَنِّبْنَا الْفَوَاحِشِ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِيْ اَسْمَاعِنَا وَابْصَارِنَا وَقُلُوْبِنَا وَاَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا وَتُبْ عَلَيْنَا اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ وَاجْعَلْنَا شَاكِرِيْنَ لِنِعْمَتِكَ مُتَمِيْنِيْنَ بِهَا قَابِلِيْهَا وَاتِمِّمْهَا عَلَيْنَا

"O Allah! Correct our mutual relations and affairs, and reconcile our hearts, and guide us to path of peace. And deliver us from the dark, misled ways into light, and save us from all kinds of immoral acts — whatever is open of that and whatever is secret.

O Allah! Grant us blessings in our hearing, our sight, our hearts and , indeed, in our spouses and our children. And relent towards us, You are the Ever-Relenting, the Most Merciful. And make us grateful for Your favours, make us appreciate and praise them and value and accept them. And (O Allah!) grant them to us fully and perfectly. (Tabarani, Hakim)

Commentary: This is the most comprehensive of supplications. It begins with a request to bring mutual relations on a correct line and join hearts in friendship. The truth is that if hearts are not compromised and people bear malice towards one another then they will find themselves losers from the religious angle as well as from the worldly point of view. The blessings of Allah, whether religious or worldly, material or spiritual , can all be properly utilised if society is not be set with the evil of malice and hatred. Also, mutual harmony of hearts and happy relationship are by themselves commendable characteristics of the Believers.

The request for blessings in eyes, ears, spouses and children implies constancy and continuance of these blessings without withdrawl. It is also a request for ability to recieve from them the benefit that Allah has placed in them.

The ability to value a blessing and be grateful for it and praise it is also a Divine blessing. One who is not given to appreciate a blessing is a deprived person. Hence, we must continue to ask for that; and in the manner of a helpless and needy person we must also request Allah to perfect His blessings on us.

(١٢٨٣/٢٤٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) رَبِّ أَعْطِ نَفْسِي تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكَّيْهَا أَنْتَ

خَيْرٌ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ وَلِيِّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا. (رواه احمد)

(1283/240) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has said that the Prophet ﷺ made the following supplication:

رَبِّ أَعْطِ نَفْسِي تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكَّيْهَا أَنْتَ خَيْرٌ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ وَلِيِّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا

"O my Lord! Bestow on my soul its piety (and remove its wrongs) Purify it, for You are the Best of those who purify. You alone are its Guardian and Master. (Ahmad)

(١٢٨٤/٢٤١) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ نَفْسًا

مُطْمَئِنَّةٌ تُؤْمِنُ بِإِلْقَائِكَ وَتَرْضَى بِقَضَائِكَ وَتَقْنَعُ بِعَطَائِكَ.

(رواه الضياء في المختار والطبراني في الكبير)

(1284/241) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made supplication to Allah in these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْئَلُكَ نَفْسًا مُّطْمَئِنَّةٌ تُؤْمِنُ بِإِلْقَائِكَ وَتَرْضَى بِقَضَائِكَ وَتَقْنَعُ بِعَطَائِكَ

"O Allah! I ask You for nafs mutma'innah (a peaceful soul) that finds happiness with You, and firmly believes in the meeting with You after its death, and is pleased with Your decrees, and is contented with what You bestow." (Al-Mukhtarab, Tabarani)

Commentary: The Nafs mutma'innah is described in the hadith. This blessings is granted to the chosen slaves of Allah. May He grant it to us! Aameen

(۱۲۸۵/۲۴۲) عَنِ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ عَلِيٌّ اَلَا اَعْلَمُكَ دُعَاءَ عَلَمَنِیْهِ

رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْتُ بَلٰی قَالَ قُلْ "اَللّٰهُمَّ افْتَحْ مَسَامِعِ قَلْبِيْ

لِلذِّكْرِ وَارْزُقْنِيْ طَاعَتَكَ وَطَاعَةَ رَسُوْلِكَ وَعَمَلًا بِكِتَابِكَ"

(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1285/242) Sayyidina Al-Harith al-A'war said that Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said to him that he would teach him a supplication he had learnt from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. And he said that it was:

اَللّٰهُمَّ افْتَحْ مَسَامِعِ قَلْبِيْ لِلذِّكْرِ وَارْزُقْنِيْ طَاعَتَكَ وَطَاعَةَ رَسُوْلِكَ

وَعَمَلًا بِكِتَابِكَ

"O Allah! Open the ears of my heart that I might remember You (and receive Your guidance and the Qur'an) and make me obey You and obey Your Messenger ﷺ and act according to Your Book, the Holy Qur'an." (Tabarani)

(۱۲۸۶/۲۴۳) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِيْ اَخْشَاكَ كَانِيْ

اَرَاكَ اَبَدًا حَتّٰی اَلْفَاكَ وَاَسْعِدْنِيْ بِتَقْوَاكَ وَلَا تُشَقِّنِيْ بِمَعْصِيَتِكَ.

(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1286/243) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي أَخْشَاكَ كَأَنِّي أَرَاكَ أَبَدًا حَتَّى الْقَاكَ وَأَسْعِدْنِي بِتَقْوَاكَ وَلَا تُشْقِنِي بِمَعْصِيَتِكَ

"O Allah! Make me such that fear You always as though I see You (full of Majesty and Authority) until I meet You (on my death). Make me fortunate by bestowing on me taqwa (Your fear and piety) and let me not be unfortunate by disobeying You."
(Tabarani)

Commentary: The foregoing supplications, particularly the above one, are made up of brief phrases which request great blessings. These supplications are a heritage of the Prophet ﷺ. May Allah cause us to value and esteem these legacies of the Prophet ﷺ.

(١٢٨٧/٢٤٤) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي عَيْنَيْنِ هَاطَتَيْنِ تَسْقِيَانِ
الْقَلْبَ بِذُرُوفِ الدَّمْعِ مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ قَبْلَ أَنْ تَكُونَ الدَّمُ دَمْعًا وَالْأَضْرَاسُ
جَمْرًا.

(رواه ابن عساكر)

(1287/244) Sayyidina Ibn Umar ؓ has related that the Prophet ﷺ made the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي عَيْنَيْنِ هَاطَتَيْنِ تَسْقِيَانِ الْقَلْبَ بِذُرُوفِ الدَّمْعِ مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ
قَبْلَ أَنْ تَكُونَ الدَّمُ دَمْعًا وَالْأَضْرَاسُ جَمْرًا

"O Allah! Let me have eyes that shed tears profusely and water the heart with tears that flow out of fear of Your punishment and wrath before the tears of many eyes become blood and the teeth of many wrong-doers become cinders."
(Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: Those people who are blessed with true knowledge and insight consider an eye as alive and seeing only if it weeps — raining tears, as it were, — from fear of Allah. Their hearts are quenched with these tears and that is why they request Allah to give them eyes that weep.

(١٢٨٨/٢٤٥) عَنِ الْهَيْثَمِ الطَّائِي (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ أَحَبَّ
الْأَشْيَاءِ إِلَيَّ كُلِّهَا وَاجْعَلْ خَشْيَتِكَ أَخَوْفَ الْأَشْيَاءِ عِنْدِي وَأَقْطَعْ عَنِّي
حَاجَاتِ الدُّنْيَا بِالشُّوقِ إِلَى لِقَائِكَ وَإِذَا أَفْرَرْتُ أَهْلَ الدُّنْيَا مِنْ دُنْيَاهُمْ
فَأَفْرُرُ عَيْنِي مِنْ عِبَادَتِكَ.

(رواه ابو نعيم فى الحلية)

(1288/245) Sayyidina Haytham ibn Maalik At-Taa'iy رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ أَحَبَّ الْأَشْيَاءِ إِلَيَّ كُلِّهَا وَاجْعَلْ خَشْيَتِكَ أَخْوَفَ الْأَشْيَاءِ عِنْدِي وَاقْطَعْ عَنِّي حَاجَاتِ الدُّنْيَا بِالشُّوقِ إِلَى لِقَائِكَ وَإِذَا أَقْرَرْتُ أَعْيُنَ أَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا مِنْ دُنْيَا هُمْ فَأَقْرُرُ عَيْنِي مِنْ عِبَادَتِكَ

"O Allah! Make Your love dearer to me than every other thing and let Your fear be to me the most feared of all things. And cut off from me desire of everything worldly against the longing to meet You. And while You cool the eyes of the men of the world with what they crave of worldly possessions, cool my eyes with obedinece and worship (by making me interested in worship so that I involve myself deeply in it and so have my eyes cooled)".

(Abu Na'eem)

(١٢٨٩/٢٤٦) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ مِنْ دُعَاءِ دَاوُدَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُحِبُّكَ وَالْعَمَلَ الَّذِي يُبَلِّغُنِي حُبَّكَ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ إِلَيَّ مِنْ نَفْسِي وَأَهْلِي وَمِنَ الْمَاءِ الْبَارِدِ" قَالَ وَكَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا ذَكَرَ دَاوُدَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ عَبْدًا لَبِشَرٍ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1289/246) Sayyidina Abu Darda' رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Of the invocations of Prophet Dawood عليه السلام this one stands out:"

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُحِبُّكَ وَالْعَمَلَ الَّذِي يُبَلِّغُنِي حُبَّكَ اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ إِلَيَّ مِنْ نَفْسِي وَأَهْلِي وَمِنَ الْمَاءِ الْبَارِدِ

"O Allah! I ask You for Your love (so cause me to love You), and love of him who loves You, and love for deeds that will take me to Your love.

O Allah! Make Your love dearer to me than myself, my family and cold water."

Sayyidina Abu Darda' رضي الله عنه added that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said about Sayyidina Dawood عليه السلام whenever he mentioned him that he was the most worshipping human being. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ liked very much this supplication of Sayyidina Dawood عليه السلام for it reflected Prophet Dawood's enthusiastic love for Allah. That is why he taught it to his Companions رضي الله عنهم. Although the qualities and characteristics of all Prophets عليهم السلام are common yet there are certain traits in some Prophets عليهم السلام which distinguish them from others. Accordingly, Prophet Dawood عليه السلام was known for greater devotion and much worship.

(١٢٩٠/٢٤٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ الْخَطِيمِيِّ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ فِي دُعَائِهِ "اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُنْفَعُنِي حُبُّهُ عِنْدَكَ اللَّهُمَّ مَا رَزَقْتَنِي مِمَّا أَحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ قُوَّةً لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ وَمَا رَزَوَيْتَ عَنِّي مِمَّا أَحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ فَرَاغًا لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ." (رواه الترمذی)

(1290/247) Sayyidian Abdullah ibn Yazid Al-Khatmi Ansari has stated that the following is one of the supplications of the Messenger of Allah:

اللَّهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُنْفَعُنِي حُبُّهُ عِنْدَكَ اللَّهُمَّ مَا رَزَقْتَنِي مِمَّا أَحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ قُوَّةً لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ وَمَا رَزَوَيْتَ عَنِّي مِمَّا أَحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ فَرَاغًا لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ

"O Allah! Provide me with Your love and the love of those whose love will benefit me with You.

O Allah! With the things that I love and which You have provided me grant me strength to do what You love.

O Allah! With the hours available to me because of the things that I crave but which You have not provided me let me devote myself to do what You love." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It is possible that man may use the things that he craves for, and which Allah gives him, in such a way that he begins to neglect Allah through deep involvement in them. It is also possible that he might distance himself from Allah because of his involvement in those things, may Allah forbid that. In the same way, if he does not get those things, he might involve himself in undesirable pursuit and waste his time.

Therefore, man must always pray to Allah that if he grants him his wishes. He may also enable him to use them to earn His pleasure and nearness to Him. Again, if he does not get what he wants, Allah may make him use the spare time available to him to please Allah.

Without doubt, every supplication of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and every phrase of it is a treasure of insight and intimate knowledge of Allah.

(١٢٩١/٢٤٨) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ الْهَمْنِي رُشْدِي أَعِزَّنِي مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي". (رواه الترمذی)

(1291/248) Sayyidina Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه said that the Prophet ﷺ taught him the following supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ الْهَمْنِي رُشْدِي أَعِزَّنِي مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي

"O Allah! Put in my heart that in which I find good for me, and save me from the mischief of my (base) self. And keep me in Your protection." (Tirmizi)

(١٢٩٢/٢٤٩) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ أَكْثَرَ دُعَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا
كَانَ عِنْدَهَا يَأْمُقِلِّبُ الْقُلُوبَ ثَبَّتَ قَلْبِي عَلَى دِينِكَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1292/249) It is narrated by the Mother of the Faithful, Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها that whenever the Prophet ﷺ was with her, he made this supplication frequently.

يَأْمُقِلِّبُ الْقُلُوبَ ثَبَّتَ قَلْبِي عَلَى دِينِكَ

"O Turner of hearts! Keep my heart steadfast on Your religion!" (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The hadith goes on to quote Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها that she asked the Prophet ﷺ why was it that he made this du'a often. (Perhaps, she meant to say that he was safe from committing mistakes and there was no need for him to make such a request.) The Prophet ﷺ said to her, "Allah holds the heart of every man. It is in His Power to keep it on the Straight Path or to let it go astray." The Prophet ﷺ meant to assert that his conduct also depended on the Will of Allah and so he too needed to pray to Allah and request Him.

Surely, he who has intimate knowledge of his own self and of Allah will behave in this manner and he will never consider himself safe and protected. Indeed, this is the elevated station of Allah's slaves:

قريباً را بیش بود حیرانی

(The more close one is, the more he is subject to censure.)

(۱۲۹۳/۲۵۰) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ (مَرْفُوعًا) اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي ضَعِيفٌ فَقْوَرٌ نِي رِضَاكَ ضَعْفِي وَخُذْ إِلَى الْخَيْرِ بِنَاصِيَتِي وَاجْعَلِ الْإِسْلَامَ مُنْتَهَى رِضَائِي اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي ضَعِيفٌ فَقْوَرٌ وَإِنِّي ذَلِيلٌ فَأَعِزَّنِي وَإِنِّي فَقِيرٌ فَارْزُقْنِي. (رواه الطبرانی فی الکبیر)
(1293/250) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has reported that the Prophet ﷺ made this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي ضَعِيفٌ فَقْوَرٌ وَإِنِّي ذَلِيلٌ فَأَعِزَّنِي وَإِنِّي فَقِيرٌ فَارْزُقْنِي

"O Allah! I am weak, give strength to my weakness that I may seek Your pleasure. And turn me by my forelocks towards what is good (piety). And, make Islam the ultimate goal of my pleasure (so that I am extremely happy on entering it fully).

O Allah! I am weak, so turn my weakness into strength. I am humiliated, so give me honour. And I am indigent and poor, so provide me with my necessities." (Tabarani) (۱۲۹۴/۲۵۱) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ (مَرْفُوعًا) إِلَيْكَ رَبِّ فَحَبِّبْنِي وَفِي نَفْسِي لَكَ فَذَلِّلْنِي وَفِي أَعْيُنِ النَّاسِ فَعَظِّمْنِي وَمِنْ سَيِّئِ الْأَخْلَاقِ فَجَنِّبْنِي.

(رواه ابن لال فی مکارم الاخلاق)

(1294/251) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the following supplication was among the Prophet's ﷺ supplications.

إِلَيْكَ رَبِّ فَحَبِّبْنِي وَفِي نَفْسِي لَكَ فَذَلِّلْنِي وَفِي أَعْيُنِ النَّاسِ فَعَظِّمْنِي وَمِنْ سَيِّئِ الْأَخْلَاقِ فَجَنِّبْنِي

"O Allah! Make me dear to You. And, make me such that I consider myself humble before You and in the eyes of other slaves (of Yours) make me honourable, and protect me from bad manners and distance me from them." (Ibn Laal)

Commentary: It is the greatest asset of a slave of Allah if Allah loves him. Every Believer must cherish it with his heart. This supplication requests for this blessing right in its first words.

In the same way, it is also a greater favour of Allah on a slave if he regards himself as humble and lowly but his fellow-men regard him highly and give him respect. In the preceding pages, we have seen the supplication of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ:

اللهم اجعلنى فى عينى صغيرا و فى اعين الناس كبيرا

("O Allah! Let me be small in my own eyes but great in the eyes of men.)

(١٢٩٥/٢٥٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْ
 "اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الْخَلَّاقُ الْعَظِيمُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ غَفُورٌ
 رَحِيمٌ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ الْجَوَادُ الْكَرِيمُ فَاعْفِرْ لِي
 وَارْحَمْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَرَزُقْنِي وَاسْتُرْنِي وَاجْبُرْنِي وَارْقِنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَلَا تُضِلَّنِي
 وَأَدْخِلْنِي الْجَنَّةَ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ." تَعْلَمُهُنَّ وَعَلِمَهُنَّ عَفَبِكَ مِنْ بَعْدِكَ.

(رواه الديلمي)

(1295/252) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ exhorted him to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ الْخَلَّاقُ الْعَظِيمُ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ
 اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّكَ الْجَوَادُ الْكَرِيمُ فَاعْفِرْ لِي
 وَارْحَمْنِي وَعَافِنِي وَرَزُقْنِي وَاسْتُرْنِي وَاجْبُرْنِي وَارْقِنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَلَا تُضِلَّنِي
 وَأَدْخِلْنِي الْجَنَّةَ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا أَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِينَ

"O Allah! You are the Mighty Creator of everything. O Allah! You are All-Hearing, All-Knowing. O Allah! You are the Forgiving, The Merciful. O Allah! You are the Lord of the great Throne! O Allah, You are The Most Generous, The Benevolent. Forgive me! Have mercy on me! Protect me! Provide me sustenance! Conceal my faults! Support me! Grant me honour and rank! Guide me a right! Do not let me go astray! And admit me to Paradise through Your mercy, O The Most Merciful of those who show Mercy."

Sayyidina Jabir  said further that the Messenger of Allah  exhorted him to make this supplication and said to him, "Learn it and teach it to those who will follow you." (Daylami)

Commentary: This is a very comprehensive supplication. He who does not learn it is indeed in a great loss.

May Allah cause us to realise the worth of these precious words. And, may He cause us to derive benefit from them. Aameen!

SEEKING REFUGE IN ALLAH

In the ahadith that transmit to us the supplications which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made to Allah himself or taught his Ummah, most of them comprise requests for blessings in this life or the next, physical or spiritual, individual or collective. They contain a specified request to get a desire or a need fulfilled. The supplications that we have seen in this Book so far are of this nature, and are positive.

There are supplications apart from these in which no request is made for any favour or a specified desire or need but the Prophet ﷺ has taught us to seek refuge in Allah from an evil, a trial or a punishment in this world or the Hereafter.

We have seen that the supplications of the first type do not leave out request for any good, favour or blessing of this life or the Next. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has not omitted any request to Allah in these supplications and every imaginable goodness and piety and desire is incuded. In the same way, we can safely say of the second type of supplications that he has sought protection of Allah from every imaginable evil, mischief, corruption, trial and calamity and has taught his Ummah accordingly.

For those people who are intelligent and understand it, this is a bright and clear a miracle as can be. His supplications embrace all needs and desires of man. They may relate to this life or the next. They may relate to his spiritual life or physical. Or, they may have to do with an individual life or a collective life and have manifest or secret character. They may be of an affirmative and definite nature or they may be requests to avert and avoid something. We cannot point out to the most trivial need of man and say that the Prophet's ﷺ supplications do not include it; in fact, he has requested Allah for the least imaginable needs in the best possible manner and has taught his Ummah to use those words. The Qur'an, too, has within its contents supplications of these two types — requests for something of a definite nature and requests to avert something. Its last two chapters, the sural Al-Falaq and the sural An-Naas are entirely of the second type from the first word to the last, they teach us to seek refuge in Allah and are, therefore, called the ma'uzatayn and the text of the Qur'an concludes with these sural.

It is in following the style of the Qur'an which has concluded its text with these chapters of the nature of seeking to avert something that we have chosen to place the ahadith of this nature in our concluding pages. These ahadith are made up of such invocations which seek Allah's protection from evil, mischief, trial, corruption, bad deeds and bad manners and all those things which are disliked. Let us now see the ahadith.

(١٢٩٦/٢٥٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
تَعَوَّذُوا بِاللَّهِ مِنْ جَهْدِ الْبَلَاءِ وَدَرْكِ الشَّقَاءِ وَسُوءِ الْقَضَاءِ وَشَمَاتَةِ الْأَعْدَاءِ.

(رواه البخاري و مسلم)

(1296/253) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Seek refuge in Allah from severe calamity, the depth of misery, evil destiny, and triumphant mockery of enemies."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: On the face of it this hadith exhorts us to seek refuge from four things. However, we cannot find any evil, hardship, difficulty or anxiety of this world or the next which may be outside the purview of this classification.

The first kind is جهْدُ الْبَلَاءِ (severity and pain of calamity). The البلاء (Al-Bala) is used for every condition which is painful and worrying to man and he is put to test because of it and it could be faced in religion or worldly life. It might be of a spiritual kind or physical, individual or collective. This one word embraces all problems, difficulties, calamities and trial.

The second kind is دَرْكُ الشَّقَاءِ (depth of misery) and the third kind سُوءُ الْقَضَاءِ (evil destiny). The hadith urges us to seek refuge from these two kinds too. The combination of the two types is very obvious. The man who receives the protection of Allah from every kind of misfortune and misery, and evil destiny, in fact, has every thing he could want.

The last kind from which we are asked to seek refuge is شَمَاتَة (mockery of enemies on our reverses). Often happiness and mockery of enemies is very painful spiritually and it is very unbearable. This has been mentioned specifically although the first three kinds encompass it.

The correct and appropriate words of the supplication are thus:

"O Allah I seek Your protection from severity of a trial, from being overtaken by misery and misfortune, from evil destiny and from rejoicing of enemies and their mockery."

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ جَهْدِ
الْبَلَاءِ وَدَرْكِ الشَّقَاءِ وَسُوءِ
الْقَضَاءِ وَشِمَاتَةِ الْأَعْدَاءِ.

(١٢٩٧/٢٥٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَضَلَعِ الدِّينِ وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ".
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1297/254) It is reported by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ supplicated Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَضَلَعِ الدِّينِ وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from anxiety and grief, inability and sloth, higgardliness and cowardice, burden of indebtedness and coercion of men."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In this supplication refuge is sought in Allah from eight things. Four of them — anxiety and grief, indebtedness and coercion of men — are such problems that if a sensitive man is overpowered by any of them, he misses the joy of life and he is spiritually uneasy so that he finds himself incapable of doing many things. He cannot then achieve success in the world and his ability to improve his next life is hampered.

As for the remaining four things — inability sloth, cowardice and miserliness — they are weaknesses that take away from him boldness and hard-working nature. Again, he cannot hope to achieve success in this life and the next and thus is unable to attain the position that could bring him the pleasure of Allah.

(١٢٩٨/٢٥٥) عَنْ غَائِثَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
 "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَالْمُعْرَمِ وَالْمَأْتَمِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي
 أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ
 الْغِنَى وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْفَقْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْمَسِيحِ الدَّجَالِ اللَّهُمَّ اغْسِلْ
 خَطَايَايَ بِمَاءِ الثَّلْجِ وَالْبَرْدِ وَنَقِّ قَلْبِي كَمَا يُنْقَى الثُّوبُ الْأَبْيَضُ مِنَ الدَّنَسِ
 وَبَاعِدْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا بَاعَدْتَ بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ."

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1298/255) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that the Prophet ﷺ used to say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ
 وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْغِنَى وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْفَقْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْمَسِيحِ الدَّجَالِ اللَّهُمَّ
 اغْسِلْ خَطَايَايَ بِمَاءِ الثَّلْجِ وَالْبَرْدِ وَنَقِّ قَلْبِي كَمَا يُنْقَى الثُّوبُ الْأَبْيَضُ مِنَ
 الدَّنَسِ وَبَاعِدْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا بَاعَدْتَ بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from sloth (and slackness) and decrepitude (old, infirm age when one is unable to do anything at all) and from the burden of debt and all kinds of sin.

O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the punishment in Hell and the trial that leads to Hell, from the trial in the grave and the torment in the grave, from the evil of the trial of wealth and riches and the evil of the trial of poverty and destitution, and from the evil of the trial of dajjal.

O Allah! Wash away the stains of my sins with snow and hail water and purify my heart (of the filth of bad deeds and evil conduct) as a white garment is purified from filth, and put my sins as far away from me as You have put the East away from the West.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Among other things, refuge in Allah is sought from extreme old age. Life is requested to such an extent that the senses are not disturbed and one is able to perceive and think correctly (so that he continues to earn for the Hereafter); this is a great blessing of Allah. But the old age that robs man from his abilities and capabilities is from what refuge in Allah is sought. The Qur'an refers to it as أرذل العمر (Meanest of age, most abject age) and هرم is that age.

In this supplication, Allah is requested to give protection from punishment in the Fire as well as from the trial of Fire, and from the punishment in the grave as well as from the trial in the grave. Punishment in the fire in the punishment that its denizens will be given for their serious crimes of disbelief and polytheism. Similarly, punishment in the grave is the punishment these people will receive in the grave.

However, there are other criminals who are not first rank criminals. Their crime is of a lesser degree than the ones punished in Hell and tormented in the grave. They will not be thrown in Hell like the denizens of Hell and they will not be punished in the grave with the first-degree punishment. However, they will have to face some of the torment of Hell-fire and the grave and that would be enough punishment for them. In the opinion of this humble writer this is what is meant by, فتنة النار and فتنة القبر (translated respectively as trial of the Fire and trial of the grave). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has asked for Allah's protection from the torment in the grave as well as from the trial of the Fire and the trial of the fire and the torment in the grave, and he has taught us too to do so by the example of his own action.

The trial of dajjal, too, is among the great trials from which the Prophet ﷺ sought refuge in Allah, and asked the Believers to do likewise. May Allah protect us from the trial of dajjal (about which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ informed us) and from every other trial of similar nature. And may He keep us on the believing and Islamic course till we die. Aameen!

This du'a also includes a request to be protected from the trial of riches and the trial of poverty. Wealth and riches are not bad things. Rather it is a blessing of Allah for a man to possess wealth if he is enabled to give his rights as a wealthy man and to spend his wealth in a proper way. Sayyidina Uthman ؓ used his wealth in such a pious way that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said about him,

مَا عَلَيَّ عُثْمَانُ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ هَذَا مَرَّتَيْنِ

"Uthman رضي الله عنه may do anything after this, it will not count against him. Anything he does will not count against Uthman رضي الله عنه after this". (Tirmizi)

In the same way, if poverty is accompanied by patience and contentment then it is a great blessing of Allah. The Prophet ﷺ chose for himself and his family the life of poverty and he extolled the life of poverty and the poor and described their merits.

However, if wealth makes a man arrogant and he spends it wrongly then he is following in the footsteps of Qaroon and will go to Hell. In the same way, if poverty and want are not faced with patience and contentment and forbidden deeds are committed to counter it then that is a punishment from Allah. It is about this attitude that the Prophet ﷺ said:

"Poverty may lead a man to disbelief." كَادَ الْفَقْرُ أَنْ يَكُونَ كُفْرًا

Hence, it is this evil and trial of riches and poverty from which refuge is sought and it is something from which one must seek protection thousands of times.

The supplication concludes with the request to wash away stains of sin, purify the heart and distance the supplicant from sins. Although it looks like a positive supplication with a request to receive something but in fact it is a supplication of the second type with a request to avert something. It seeks to avert sin.

(١٢٩٩/٢٥٦) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ نَفْسِي تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ وَلِيِّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دَعْوَةٍ لَا يُسْتَجَابُ لَهَا."

(رواه مسلم)

(1299/256) Sayyidina Zayd ibn Arqam رضي الله عنه has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ نَفْسِي تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا أَنْتَ وَلِيِّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دَعْوَةٍ لَا يُسْتَجَابُ لَهَا

"O Allah, I seek refuge in You from incapacity and slackness, from cowardice and niggardliness, from extreme, infirm old age and torment in the grave.

O Allah! Cause my soul to fear You and purify it. You are the Best of those who purify it. You are its Patron and Master.

O Allah! I seek refuge in You from a knowledge that does not profit, from a heart that is not submissive, from a (greedy) soul that is not ever satisfied, and from a supplication that is not granted an answer." (Muslim)

Commentary: Through this supplication, the supplicant requests Allah for protection from knowledge that does not benefit, a heart that does not humble itself, a greedy soul that is never satisfied and a supplication that is not answered. Accordingly, it means that he requests Allah for knowledge that benefits, a heart that is submissive, a soul that is purged of greed and shows contentment, and a du'a that receives an answer.

(١٣٠٠/٢٥٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ مِنْ دُعَاءِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ زَوَالِ نِعْمَتِكَ وَتَحَوُّلِ عَافِيَتِكَ وَفُجَاءَةِ نَقْمَتِكَ وَجَمِيعِ سَخَطِكَ". (رواه مسلم)

(1300/257) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said that one of the supplications of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ زَوَالِ نِعْمَتِكَ وَتَحَوُّلِ عَافِيَتِكَ وَفُجَاءَةِ نَقْمَتِكَ وَجَمِيعِ سَخَطِكَ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the decline of Your favours, withdrawal of Your protection (from me), sudden punishment from You, and all (kinds of) Your displeasure."

(Muslim)

Commentary: We can see from this supplication of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ indeed, from all supplications of this nature — that, although he was a Prophet ﷺ and Messenger and had attained a very close rank with Allah, yet he was very fearful of the decree of Allah and vicissitudes of fate. He always considered himself dependent on the protection of Allah. "The more one is close, the more answerable he is!"

قرباً زراً پیش بود حیرانی

(۱۳۰۱/۲۵۸) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ
 "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشِّقَاقِ وَالنِّفَاقِ وَسُوءِ الْأَخْلَاقِ."

(رواه ابوداؤد والنسائي)

(1301/258) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الشِّقَاقِ وَالنِّفَاقِ وَسُوءِ الْأَخْلَاقِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from schism (mutual discord and grave disagreement), hypocrisy and evil character."

(Abu Dawood, Nasa'i)

Commentary: The Arabic word شقاق (shiqaq) is a violent disagreement that leads the groups to separate from each other. They follow diverse courses.

Hypocrisy implies a contradiction between one's external and internal attitudes. Besides religious pretence, it is also found in man's practical life.

These three things — discord, hypocrisy and bad character — destroy a man's religion as well as his worldly life. Although the Prophet ﷺ was innocent and safe from these destructive things yet he asked for Allah's protection from them. May Allah cause us to endeavour to keep away from these things just as behaves a Believer to attempt to shun them. And may He cause us to seek protection of Allah from these weaknesses. Aameen!

(۱۳۰۲/۲۵۹) عَنْ شَكَلِ بْنِ حُمَيْدٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ عَلِّمْنِي تَعَوُّذًا أَعُوذُ بِهِ فَآخِذَ بِكَفِّي وَقَالَ قُلْ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ سَمْعِي وَمِنْ شَرِّ بَصَرِي

وَمِنْ شَرِّ لِسَانِي وَمِنْ شَرِّ قَلْبِي وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَنِيَّ." (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائي)

(1302/259) It is reported by Shakal ibn Humayd رضي الله عنه that he asked the Prophet of Allah ﷺ to teach him a ta'awwuz by which he might seek refuge in Allah. The Prophet ﷺ held his hand in his and said to him that he should say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ سَمْعِىْ وَمِنْ شَرِّ بَصَرِىْ وَمِنْ شَرِّ لِسَانِىْ وَمِنْ شَرِّ قَلْبِىْ وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَنِّىْ

"O Allah! I seek Your protection from the evil in what I hear, from the evil of what I see, from the evil of my tongue, from the evil of my heart and from the evil arising from my sexual passion."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi, Nasa'i)

Commentary: The evil of hearing, sight, speech or tongue, thinking or heart and sexual passion is that one is led to use them against the Commands of Allah. The result is the wrath of Allah and His punishment. Therefore, we must always ask for Allah's protection from the mischief of these things. We can save ourselves only if He saves us otherwise we will be involved in the mischief and suffer destruction.

(١٣٠٣/٢٦٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ
"اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْجُوعِ فَاِنَّهُ يَنْسُ الضَّجِيعُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْخِيَاَنَةِ فَاِنَّهَا يَنْسُ الْبَطَانَةُ."

(رواه ابو داود والنسائي وابن ماجه)

(1303/260) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْجُوعِ فَاِنَّهُ يَنْسُ الضَّجِيعُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْخِيَاَنَةِ
فَاِنَّهَا يَنْسُ الْبَطَانَةُ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from hunger, for it is an evil bedfellow, and I seek refuge in You from treachery, for it is an evil intimate friend."

(Abu Dawood, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: If a man is hungry, he cannot sleep and he keeps changing sides. This is why hunger is described in the hadith as an evil bedfellow (a companion of the bed). And, treachery or an act of betrayal is done always in secret. Only the perfidious person knows that he has behaved unfaithfully. That is why treachery is termed بَطَانَة (bitanah).

By seeking refuge in Allah from hunger and treachery, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has demonstrated extraordinary servitude which, indeed, is a mark of his distinction. There is for us a great lesson in it.

(١٣٠٤/٢٦١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ
 "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْبَرَصِ وَالْجَذَامِ وَالْجُنُونِ وَمِنْ سَيِّئِ الْأَسْقَامِ."

(رواه أبو داود والنسائي)

(1304/261) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْبَرَصِ وَالْجَذَامِ وَالْجُنُونِ وَمِنْ سَيِّئِ الْأَسْقَامِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from (white) leprosy, black leprosy (elephantiasis), madness, and from all evil diseases."

(Abu Dawood, Nasa'i)

Commentary: Leprosy, elephantiasis, madness and other foul diseases are such that people tend to keep away from those who are afflicted with any of them. The patient, therefore, becomes disheartened and prefers death to life rather than endure the stare of the people.

Without doubt, every one must seek protection of Allah from these maladies. However, minor and ordinary ailments are a form of mercy from Allah from certain points of view.

(١٣٠٥/٢٦٢) عَنْ أَبِي الْيُسْرِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَدْعُو
 "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَلْهِمِّ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ التَّرْدَى وَمِنَ الْغَرَقِ وَالْحَرَقِ
 وَالْهَرَمِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ يَتَخَبَّطَنِي الشَّيْطَانُ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ
 أَمُوتَ فِي سَبِيلِكَ مُدْبِرًا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ أَمُوتَ لِدَيْعًا."

(رواه أبو داود والنسائي)

(1305/262) Sayyidina Abu Al-Yasar رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَلْهِمِّ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ التَّرْدَى وَمِنَ الْغَرَقِ وَالْحَرَقِ
 وَالْهَرَمِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ يَتَخَبَّطَنِي الشَّيْطَانُ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ
 أَمُوتَ فِي سَبِيلِكَ مُدْبِرًا وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ أَنْ أَمُوتَ لِدَيْعًا

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the falling down (of a heavy object) over me. And I seek refuge in You from (my own) falling down (from a height), and from drowning (in a sea, or the like) and burning in fire, and decrepitude. And I seek refuge in You from the devil harming me in the hour of death. And I seek refuge in You from dying while retreating from the battle-field. And I seek refuge in You from dying of the sting of a poisonous creature." (Abu Dawood, Nasa'i)

Commentary: To die under the weight of a collapsing heavy object, or by falling down from a height, or from being drowned or burnt, or from the sting of a venomous creature like a snake are all examples of sudden and unexpected death. Besides, man has an instinctive fear of these things. Also, a sudden death — as any of these — does not allow the dying man to prepare himself by refreshing his faith, repenting to Allah or seeking His forgiveness (which he normally is allowed in other forms of death which are called natural). Therefore, a Believer must always seek protection of Allah from a death which is sudden and unexpected.

In the same way, every Believer must seek refuge in Allah lest he die while fleeing from the battle-field. On the same count, refuge must also be sought from being misled and prompted by the devil at the time of death. For, all depends on how life ends, on a pious note or otherwise.

In other ahadith, anyone who dies in one of these ways of sudden death from which refuge is sought in this supplication, is given the glad tidings of martyrdom and he is raised to the status of a shaheed (martyr). However, there is no contradiction in these two things — the supplication and the ahadith.

Given man's weakness, we must all seek Allah's protection from these forms of death. However, if anyone dies in one of these ways through Divine decree, we must remember that Allah is The Most Merciful of those who show mercy. We must expect that He will grant the dying man an honorary martyrdom because of his sudden death; if his belief and deeds allow for it then we must be certain that the Gracious, Compassionate Lord will definitely give him that status. إنه غفور رحيم (Surely, He is the Forgiving, the Merciful).

عَنْ قُتَيْبَةَ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ مُنْكَرَاتِ الْأَخْلَاقِ وَالْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَهْوَاءِ."

(رواه الترمذی)

(1306/263) Sayyidina Qutbah ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه has said that the Prophet ﷺ used to make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ مُنْكَرَاتِ الْأَخْلَاقِ وَالْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَهْوَاءِ

"O Allah! I seek refuge in You from despised morals, deeds and passions." (Tirmizi)

(١٣٠٧/٢٦٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ

"اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّمَا عَمِلْتُ وَمِنْ شَرِّمَا لَمْ أَعْمَلْ." (رواه مسلم)

(1307/264) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would say these words of du'a:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّمَا عَمِلْتُ وَمِنْ شَرِّمَا لَمْ أَعْمَلْ

"O Allah, I seek refuge in You from the evil of what I have done and from the evil of what I have not done." (Muslim)

Commentary: Common people like us seek refuge in Allah from the evil of their bad deeds (that they have done) and from the evil of the omission of the good deeds that they should have done. But the Aarifeen (the devout, the mystics) fear even after doing very good deeds and shunning evil deeds lest they begin to think of themselves as pious, righteous and holy (which is wrong for people of Allah). Hence they seek refuge from the evil of not doing bad deeds. It is very true that حسنات الابرار سيئات المقربين (The commendable of the pious are the evil of those who are close).

Refuge From Illness & Evil Influence

(١٣٠٨/٢٦٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُعَوِّذُ

الْحَسَنَ وَالْحُسَيْنَ وَيَقُولُ "أَعِيذُ كَمَا بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَةِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ وَهَامَّةٍ وَمِنْ كُلِّ غِيٍّ لَآمَةٍ." وَيَقُولُ هَكَذَا كَانَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ يُعَوِّذُ إِسْحَقَ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ. (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

(1308/265) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to blow on (both his grandsons) Hasan and Husayn رضي الله عنهما (after reciting these words):

أَعِيذُ كَمَا بِكَلِمَاتِ اللَّهِ التَّامَةِ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ وَهَامَّةٍ وَمِنْ كُلِّ غِيٍّ لَآمَةٍ.

وَيَقُولُ هَكَذَا كَانَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ يُعَوِّذُ إِسْحَقَ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ

"I place you both in the protection of the perfect words of Allah from the influence of every devil and every stinging, venomous insect, and from every evil eye."

And he said that Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام sought refuge for Sayyidina Ishaq عليه السلام Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام in this way.

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: To blow on children after reciting these words is the sunnah (practice) of the Prophet ﷺ and before him of the Prophet ﷺ Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Surely, these are very blessed expressions.

(١٣٠٩/٢٦٦) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ أَبِي الْعَاصِ الثَّقَفِيِّ أَنَّهُ شَكَى إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَجَعًا يَجِدُهُ فِي جَسَدِهِ مُنْذُ اسْلَمَ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَعْ يَدَكَ عَلَى الَّذِي يَأْلَمُ مِنْ جَسَدِكَ وَقُلْ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ ثَلَاثًا وَقُلْ سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ "أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ وَقُدْرَتِهِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا أَجِدُ وَأُحَازِرُ." (رواه مسلم)

(1309/266) Sayyidina Uthman ibn Abu Al-Aas Thaqafi رضي الله عنه has said that he complained to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that he felt pain in his body since the time he had embraced Islam. So, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, "Place you hand where it pains you on your body, and say: بِسْمِ اللَّهِ (In the Name of Allah) three times, and say again seven times:

أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ وَقُدْرَتِهِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا أَجِدُ وَأُحَازِرُ

(I seek refuge in Allah and in His Power from the evil that I find and (the evil) that I fear."

(Muslim)

Commentary: This is a precious gift of the Prophet ﷺ for every kind of bodily pain. It is action combined with ta'awwuz and it is very effective.

SEEKING FORGIVENESS & REPENTING

One of the kinds of supplication is istighfar which is to seek forgiveness of Allah for sins and wrongs. Tawabah, or repentance, is inseparable from it. In fact, they are intertwined with each other. We might define tawabah in this way. Suppose a man has committed a sin or an act of disobedience or done something undesirable and then he is fearful of the consequences of his wrong. Tawabah is this man's being sorry and repentant for his behaviour and his resolve to keep away from that mistake and to be obedient to Allah and seek His Pleasure.

It follows, therefore, that a man who has these feelings of repentance will ask Allah to forgive him his sins so that he will not have to face punishment and adverse consequences. In the same way, if he asks to be forgiven, he will be sorry for his mistake and will resolve not to approach the sin ever again. That is why, the two — istighfar and tawabah are said to be inseparable and complementary to each other.

We can try to understand tawabah and istighfar by an example. Suppose someone is desperate and decides to end his life and swallows a phial of poison. Soon the effects tell on him. His stomach, his intestines and his whole body protest with pain that is severe and unbearable. He is restless. Death stares him in the face and he realises his folly. In his regret, he longs to be saved. He hopes to get back his life and is willing to swallow any antidote his doctor might suggest. He is also willing to vomit out the poison and pursue all means to that end. Surely, he will resolve and commit himself not to repeat his folly ever again.

It is in the same way that a believing person sometimes falls into the trap of the devil or succumbs to his own base soul and negligently commits sin. But, when Allah enables him to wake up with his believing, faithful feelings, he realises his folly. He sees that he has been disobedient to his Master and Patron, and has destroyed himself. He laments that instead of receiving the mercy and favour of Allah, he has made himself worthy of His Wrath and punishment. He imagines the torment he would face in the grave and on the day of Gathering if he died in his sinful condition. He asks himself, "How will I face my Lord? How will I endure the chastisement of the next world?"

In short, when Allah helps him regain his believing attitude, he knows that his Master is very Merciful and Compassionate, and he has full faith in Him. He is sure that Allah forgives the most sinning man happily once he turns to Him and seeks His forgiveness. So, he implores Him and prays to Him to forgive him — considering it as an antidote for the poison he had swallowed by sinning. At the same time, he resolves never again to disobey his Master or approach sin. This attitude of a slave of Allah is called istighfar and tawabah (to seek Allah's forgiveness and to repent to Him).

Tawbah & Istighfar Are Means to Highest Station

We have stated earlier that the station of servitude and worship is the highest station the people who are approved by Allah and are near to Him can hope to attain. And du'a is the best form of expression of servitude and worship to Allah. In fact, according to saying of the Prophet ﷺ it is مخ العباداة (*pith of worship*¹). Therefore, of all deeds of man, the most noble is du'a or supplication. We have cited the saying of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ at its appropriate place:

لَيْسَ شَيْءٌ أَكْرَمَ عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنَ الدُّعَاءِ

"Nothing is more honourable in the sight of Allah than supplication²"

When a man seeks forgiveness for himself and repents to Allah, he feels himself very humble and intensely on the wrong and he is very regretful. The filth of the sin over him, he feels ashamed to

①. Narrated by Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه (Tirmizi)

②. Narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه (Tirmizi, Ibn Majah) face his Master and realising his evil-doing he begs to be forgiven and repents.

Hence, the feeling of servitude and humility and being at fault is highest and most marked at the time of seeking forgiveness and repentance and the like of it is not witnessed at the time of making any other supplication. In fact, one cannot expect to have the same feeling when making any other supplication except istighfar and tawbah. For this very reason istighfar and tawbah are the highest forms of worship and the highest station near Allah. The slave who seeks forgiveness of Allah and repents to Him not only earns that but is also given the glad tidings of Allah's special favour and love.

We will see the ahadith that tell us that the Prophet ﷺ himself sought forgiveness of Allah and repented to Him always. If we pay attention to what has been said about istighfar and tawbah in the foregoing lines, we will find it easy to understand why he asked for forgiveness and repented.

The truth is that the common belief is baseless and wrong that only the sinners and disobedient must ask to be forgiven and repent and only they need to do it. The men close to Allah, even His Prophets عليهم السلام, who are innocent of sin and safe from it continue to feel that they lag behind in worshipping Allah as they really should. Hence, they go on making istighfar and tawbah and regard all their deeds, including as-salah (prayer), as deficient and seeking forgiveness for that.

In volume three of this Book we have seen a hadith narrated by Sayyidina Thaiban رضي الله عنه telling us that after the Prophet ﷺ finished his prayer with the salutation, he repeated three times:

"I seek forgiveness of Allah." استغفر الله، استغفر الله، استغفر الله

The reason he sought forgiveness after prayer was that he felt that he had not done justice to prayer. But, Allah knows best.

Nevertheless, tawbah and istighfar are a means to gaining pardon and mercy for the sinners and the disobedient. For those who are men of Allah, close to Him and innocent, they are limitlessly instrumental in raising them in rank and nearness.

May Allah enable us to understand these facts and to benefit from them. Aameen

Let this introduction be followed by ahadith on istighfar and tawbah. Let us begin with the ahadith that tell us about Prophet's ﷺ own practice of istighfar and tawbah.

The Lovable Example of The Prophet ﷺ In This Regard

(١٣١٠/٢٦٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 "وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَأَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ فِي الْيَوْمِ أَكْثَرَ مِنْ سَبْعِينَ مَرَّةً." (رواه البخارى)
 (1310/267) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "By Allah, I seek forgiveness of Allah and turn to Him in repentance more than seventy times a day." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It is in keeping with the degree of his realisation of the Majesty and Greatness of Allah that a slave discharges his obligations of servitude to Him. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ had perfected this attitude in him so that he as perpetually under the impression that he had not done justice to worship of Allah, and he frequently asked Allah to pardon him and he frequently repented to Allah. He made this known to his Ummah in order that they may follow his example.

(١٣١١/٢٦٨) عَنِ الْأَعْرَابِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ تَوُوبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ فَإِنِّي أَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ فِي الْيَوْمِ مِائَةَ مَرَّةً." (رواه مسلم) (1311/268) It is reported by Sayyidina Al-Agharr Al-Muzani ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "O People! turn to Allah, in repentance, for I turn in repentance to Him a hundred times a day." (Muslim)

Commentary: The words more than seventy times in the preceding hadith and a hundred times in this hadith are used only to represent frequency. It was only a way of expression in ancient Arabic to use such words, the Prophet ﷺ sought forgiveness and repented many more times than the figures in two hadith. This will be obvious from the hadith of Abudllah ibn Umar ؓ which we will see.

(١٣١٢/٢٦٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ إِنَّا كُنَّا لَنَعُدُّ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَجْلِسِ يَقُولُ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَتُبْ عَلَيَّ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الْعَفُورُ
مِائَةً مَرَّةً. (رواه احمد والترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(1312/269) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said, "We counted that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would say a hundred times during every meeting:

رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَتُبْ عَلَيَّ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الْعَفُورُ

"O My Lord! Forgive me and relent towards me. Indeed, You are The Relenting, the Forgiving."

(Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abudllah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه does not mean to say that the Prophet ﷺ repeated this expression in a meeting by way of a devotional exercise. Rather, he means to say that the Prophet ﷺ would be sitting with them in an assembly and they would be discussing different subjects with him and conversing with one another, and the Prophet ﷺ interspersed the talk with remembrance of Allah in those words. The Companions رضي الله عنهم would on their own reckon that he said these words a hundred times. But, Allah knows best.

(١٣١٣/٢٧٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي مِنَ الَّذِينَ إِذَا أَحْسَنُوا اسْتَبَشَرُوا وَإِذَا أَسَاءُوا اسْتَغْفَرُوا.

(رواه ابن ماجه والبيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1313/270) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has reported that the Prophet ﷺ used to say:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي مِنَ الَّذِينَ إِذَا أَحْسَنُوا اسْتَبَشَرُوا وَإِذَا أَسَاءُوا اسْتَغْفَرُوا

"O Allah, place me among those who, when they do good, are glad, and when they do evil ask for forgiveness."

(Ibn Majah, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: If anyone is enabled to do good deeds which entitle him to enter Paradise and gain the pleasure of Allah then it is a sign that Allah has favoured him. Hence, it is his duty that he must be happy and thank Allah for enabling him to do the good deeds. The Qur'an says:

قُلْ بِفَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَبِرَحْمَتِهِ فَبِذَلِكَ فَلْيَفْرَحُوا. (يونس ٥٨:١٠)

Say, In the bounty of Allah, and His mercy — therein let them therefore rejoice. (Yunus,10:58)

In the same way, if any one makes a mistake or commits a sin, minor or major, he must feel sorry for that and immediately ask Allah to forgive him. He who has these two characteristics is indeed very fortunate. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ prayed for himself often:

"O Allah! Let me have these two characteristics!"

The Stain of Sins Washed Away

By Tawbah & Istighfar

(١٣١٤/٢٧١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ إِذَا أَذْنَبَ كَانَتْ نُكْثَةً سَوْدَاءَ فِي قَلْبِهِ فَإِنْ تَابَ وَاسْتَغْفَرَ ضُقِلَ قَلْبُهُ وَإِنْ زَادَ زَادَتْ حَتَّى تَعْلُوا قَلْبَهُ فَذَلِكَمُ الرَّأْيُ الَّذِي ذَكَرَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى "كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ". (رواه احمد والترمذى وابن ماجه)

(1314/271) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When a believer commits a sin, he gets a black spot in his heart. If he repents and seeks forgiveness for the sins, the black spot clears away and his heart is polished. But, if he fails to repent and ask for pardon and commits more sin, extending his footsteps in the valley of sin, the blackness increases till it gains ascendancy over his heart. That is the rust and blackness which Allah, the Exalted, has mentioned in the verse:

كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ (المطففين ١٤:٨٣)

"Certainly not! But what they have been committing has spread like rust over their hearts. (Al-Mutaffifeen,83:14)

Commentary: The Qur'an has said about the evil-doing people:

كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ (المطففين ١٤:٨٣)

Which means that their evil-doing has brought rust and darkness on their hearts. We learn from this saying of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that it is not only the infidels whose hearts become dark because of sin but the Muslims when they commit sin also get dark spots on their hearts because of the inauspiciousness.

However, if a Muslim sincerely repents and asks to be forgiven, the blackness and darkness vanish and his heart is cleansed to its original condition.

If he does not repent after committing sin, or persists in his sinful attitude, then the darkness spreads till it has covered the whole heart.

Indeed, it is very unfortunate for any Muslim that his heart is covered with darkness because of sins, there being no bright spot on his heart. We seek refuge in Allah from it.

(١٣١٥/٢٧٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ بَنِي

أَدَمَ خَطَاءٌ وَخَيْرُ الْخَطَائِينَ التَّوَّابُونَ. (رواه الترمذى وابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1315/272) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "All the sons of Adam are sinners. (There is none who has never sinned or done any wrong.) But, the best of sinners are those who are given to repentance and who turn to Allah."

(Tirmizi, Ibn Majah, Darami)

Commentary: It is in the nature of man that he sins and errors and none of the children of Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام is an exception. But, those slaves are really comendable who regret after having slipped into sin and ask Allah to forgive them. Through istighfar and tawbah they seek His pleasure and mercy.

(١٣١٦/٢٧٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ التَّائِبُ مِنَ الذَّنْبِ كَمَنْ لَا ذَنْبَ لَهُ. (رواه ابن ماجه والبيهقى فى شعب الایمان)

(1316/273) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying: He who repents of a sin is exactly like him who has not committed any sin."

(Ibn Majah, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The hadith means to confirm that after a sincere repentance there are no traces of sin, and no stains at all. According to some versions, "a man who repents and asks forgiveness for his sins becomes as sinless as he was at birth." (كَيَوْمَ وَلَدَتْهُ أُمُّهُ).

We will also see those ahadith shortly which tell us that the consequences of tawbah do not rest simply at sins being pardoned and their traces being wiped out but the repentant becomes the beloved of Allah Who is very pleased with his repentance.

اللهم اجعلنا من التوابين

(O Allah! Cause us to be among the repentants.)

Sins disclose Allah's Forgiving Attribute

(١٣١٧/٢٧٤) عَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ قَالَ حِينَ حَضَرَتْهُ الْوُفَاةُ كُنْتُ كَتَمْتُ عَنْكُمْ شَيْئًا سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ لَوْلَا أَنْتُمْ تَذْنِبُونَ لَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ خَلْقًا يَذْنِبُونَ يَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1317/274) It is stated about Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari رضي الله عنه that he revealed at the time of his death, "I have been concealing something from you which I had heard from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. I had heard him say: If all of you become sinless (like the angels) and you do not commit sin at all then Allah will surely create another creation who would sin and He would then forgive them (and in this way disclose His attribute of forgiving)." (Muslim)

Commentary: It would be very foolish and senseless to suppose that Allah needs sins (to be committed) and that He loves them, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has, by this aying, encouraged the sinners. May Allah forbid us from imagining such ignorant deeds. The purpose of sending the Prophets عليهم السلام is to save people from sin and to exhort them to do good deeds.

Actually, this hadith aims at disclosing the forgiving attribute of Allah. And it means to tell us that just as to know that He is Al-Khaliq (the Creator), a creation was brought about, His attribute Ar-Razzaq (the Sustainer, the Provider) is known by the creation whom He feeds and His attribute Al-Hadi (One Who gives guidance) is known through His creation whom He guides, so to know his attribute Al-Ghaffar (the Forgiving) a creation had to be there who committed sin and asked for His forgiveness and whom He forgave.

Hence, it has been decreed from the first day that there would be sinners in this world and those of them who would be enabled would seek His forgiveness and Allah would also pardon them their sins. In this way His attribute of Forgiving will be known.

Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari رضي الله عنه did not disclose this saying of the Prophet ﷺ in his life time because people with little understanding might have got a wrong impression from it. By disclosing it at the last moment of his life to those close to him, he delivered his trust which the Prophet ﷺ has reposed in him.

The same thing was narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه in a hadith transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim.

Those Who Persist in Sin And Then Make Istighfar

(١٣١٨/٢٧٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ عَبْدًا أَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا فَقَالَ رَبِّ أَذْنَبْتُ فَاعْفِرْهُ فَقَالَ رَبُّهُ أَعْلِمَ عَبْدِي أَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَأْخُذُ بِهِ عَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِي ثُمَّ مَكَتَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ أَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا قَالَ رَبِّ أَذْنَبْتُ ذَنْبًا فَاعْفِرْهُ فَقَالَ أَعْلِمَ عَبْدِي أَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَأْخُذُ بِهِ عَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِي ثُمَّ مَكَتَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ أَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا قَالَ رَبِّ أَذْنَبْتُ ذَنْبًا آخَرَ فَاعْفِرْهُ لِي فَقَالَ أَعْلِمَ عَبْدِي أَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَأْخُذُ بِهِ عَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِي فَلْيَفْعَلْ مَا شَاءَ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1318/275) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that a man committed a sin and (addressing Allah) said, "Lord, I have sinned. Forgive me my sin." So his Lord said, "Does My slave know that he has a Lord Who forgives sin and punishes for it? I have forgiven My slave."

After that he remained away from sin for such time as Allah willed but then committed a sin and said, "My Lord, I have sinned, so forgive me my sin." His Lord said, "Does My slave know that he has a Lord Who forgives sin and punishes for it? I have forgiven him."

Then after remaining away from sin till such time as Allah willed he committed a sin again and said, "My Lord, I have committed another sin, so forgive me." His Lord said, "Does my slave know that he has a Lord who forgives sin and punish for it? I have forgiven My slave, so let him do what he likes."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Some scholars of hadith have suggested that the man about whom the Prophet ﷺ has spoken in this hadith could have been one of his own ummah or he might have been one of the earlier people of a Prophet ﷺ before Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. However, in my humble opinion, this narration is not about any particular man but it is simply about a character which can match tens of thousands or millions of Allah's slaves. Although these people believe in Allah and the Hereafter, they do happen to commit sin for which they repent and ask Allah to forgive them. But, they fail again and again and fall into sin. Every time they repent with a sincere heart and ask Allah to forgive them. Allah deals with these slaves of His as mercifully as shown in this hadith.

When he asked for forgiveness and the last time, Allah forgive him and said غفرت لعبدي وليفعل ما شاء 'I have forgiven My slave, so let him do what he likes.' Certainly, this does not imply that he was allowed to commit sin. Rather, the Master of the slave lets him know of his mercy and compassion, saying that no matter how many times he committed sin and returned to Him with a request for forgiveness, He will forgive him and "you will not be destroyed by the poison of your sin because you make a sincere istighfar, rather the istighfat will always lead you to higher ranks."

Those slaves of Allah who are inclined to servitude with interest can see how such an announcement by Allah can give peace to a Believer's heart. He will grow sentiments of obedience and faithfulness for his Master.

The version of this hadith in Sahih Muslim is very clear that the Prophet ﷺ related the entire hadith as from Allah. Hence, this is a hadith qudsi.

(١٣١٩/٢٧٦) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

مَا أَصْرَ مَنْ اسْتَغْفَرَ وَإِنْ عَادَ فِي الْيَوْمِ سَبْعِينَ مَرَّةً (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

(1319/276) Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "He is not a confirmed sinner who seeks forgiveness (after committing sin) even if he returns (to his sin) seventy times a day."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Anyone who stubbornly persists on sin without fear or worry and continues with this behaviour without compunction is indeed a very unfortunate person. He faces a very serious consequence and culprit of his kind is not worthy of the mercy of Allah.

This hadith makes it clear that one who makes istighfar for his sins is not a confirmed sinner of the above type; even if he returns to his sin now and then he is not a stubborn sinner. However, istighfar is not what only the tongue utters. Rather, it is what comes from the heart which the tongue conveys. If istighfar is of this kind from the core of the heart then the sinner deserves the mercy of Allah even after committing sin again and again for seventy times a day and he is not a stubborn sinner.

Tawbah Is Accepted Upto a Certain Time

(١٣٢٠/٢٧٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

يُقْبِلُ تَوْبَةَ الْعَبْدِ مَا لَمْ يُعْرِغْهُ. (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)

(1320/277) Sayyidian Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "Allah accepts a slave's repentance till he is in the final stages of life and the ghirghir of death is heard from him. (Tirmizi, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: With the throes of death, a sound emits from the throat of the dying man as his soul leaves his body. It is described in the hadith ghirghir. That is the last thing and there is no hope for life after that. This condition is the definite sign of death.

The hadith tells us that if a person makes tawbah before this condition gets over him then his tawbah (repentance) will be accepted by Allah. With the beginning of the sound in his throat his link with this world severs and joins with the other world. So, if a disbeliever or an athiest expresses belief at that time or a sinner repents then Allah does not approve that. Only that faith and tawbah are reliable and acceptable which are owned before signs of death are apparent and as long as there is hope of life. The Qur'an has also made it very clear:

وَلَيْسَتِ التَّوْبَةُ لِلَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا حَضَرَ أَحَدَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ قَالَ

إِنِّي تُبْتُ الْآنَ. (النساء: ١٨)

And repentance is not (accepted) by Allah of those who do evil until, when death comes to one of them he says, "Now I repent".

(An-Nisa, 4:18)

Istighfar Is the Best Gift for The Dead

(١٣٢١/٢٧٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا الْمَيِّتُ فِي الْقَبْرِ إِلَّا كَالْعَرِيقِ الْمُتَعَوِّثِ يَنْتَظِرُ دَعْوَةَ تَلَحُّقَهُ مِنْ أَبِي أَوْ أُمِّ أَوْ أَخٍ أَوْ صَدِيقٍ فَإِذَا لَحِقَتْهُ كَانَ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَيَدْخُلُ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْقُبُورِ مِنْ دُعَاءِ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ أَمْثَالَ الْجِبَالِ وَإِنَّ هَذِيهِ الْأَحْيَاءِ إِلَى الْأَمْوَاتِ الْإِسْتِغْفَارُ لَهُمْ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1321/268) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "A dead man in his grave is just like a drowning man calling for help. For, he hopes that a supplication from a father, a mother, a brother, or a friend may reach him, and when it does it is dearer to him than the world and what it contains. The supplications of the living bring great reward to those in the grave from Allah and their example is like the greatness of mountains. The gift of the living for the dead is their seeking forgiveness for them. (Byhaqi)

(١٣٢٢/٢٧٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ لَيَرْفَعُ الدَّرَجَةَ لِلْعَبْدِ الصَّالِحِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَيَقُولُ يَا رَبِّ أَنَّى لِي هَذِهِ؟ فَيَقُولُ بِاسْتِغْفَارٍ وَلَدِكَ لَكَ.

(رواه احمد)

(1322/279) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that Allah will raise the rank of a righteous slave in Paradise. He will ask Allah how this was done for him and Allah will tell him that it was because his son had asked pardon for him. (Ahmad)

Commentary: This hadith speaks of degrees being raised on supplication by a son. This is only by way of an example, for a supplication from any believer may profit the dead man in a similar way. The parents have the greatest right over their children not in life but also when they are dead. When parents are alive, children obey them and attend to their needs and look after them. When parents are dead, the children must pray for them and seek Allah's forgiveness for them. This is the best way they can discharge their rights to their parents.

The objective of the two ahadith of Sayyidina abdullah ibn

Abbas عليه السلام is not merely to convey the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying but also to exhort children and relatives to invoke blessings and seek forgiveness for their dead relatives. Their parents in this form are received by the dead in their graves and in Paradise.

I wish to submit that sometimes Allah lets the living people know and see how their gifts are received by the dead in the next world, and how their degrees and ranks progressed.

May Allah cause us to believe in these facts and to benefit from them. Aameen!

Istighfar* For General Body of Believers

The Qur'an contains a command to the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should seek forgiveness of Allah for himself and the general body of believing men and women.

وَأَسْتَغْفِرُ لَذَنبِكَ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ (محمد ٤٧: ١٩)

And ask forgiveness for your fault and for the believing men and believing women.

(Muhammad, 47:19)

The same command applies to us. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave us great encouragement to do it and mentioned that it is very meritorious. We present two ahadith here on this subject.

(١٣٢٣/٢٨٠) عَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اسْتَغْفَرَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ كُتِبَ لَهُ بِكُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ وَمُؤْمِنَةٍ حَسَنَةٌ.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الكبير)

(1323/280) Sayyidina Ubadah ibn As-Samit رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who seeks forgiveness for the believing men and the believing women will be credited with a good deed against every Believer, man and woman."

(Tabarani)

Commentary: To ask Allah to forgive a believing man or woman is showing them a great favour and being helpful to them. Accordingly, if anyone prays to Allah to forgive all Believers, he is being helpful and favourable to all Believers — the first and the last, the living and the dead. Therefore, his record of deeds will be credited with a pious deed against each one of the Believers.

Glory be to Allah! What a way for us to earn limitless pious deeds. May Allah make it easy for us to take advantage of this facility. Aameen! The best words to pray for all believing men and believing women are found in the Qur'an in the supplication of Prophet ﷺ Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام:

رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيَّ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْحِسَابُ (ابراهيم ١٤: ٤١)

"Our Lord! Forgive me and my parents, and the believers, upon the day when the reckoning comes to pass."¹

(١٣٢٤/٢٨١) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اسْتَغْفَرَ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤِمِّنَاتِ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ سَبْعًا وَعِشْرِينَ مَرَّةً كَانَ مِنَ الَّذِينَ يُسْتَجَابُ لَهُمْ وَيَرْزَقُ بِهِمْ أَهْلُ الْأَرْضِ. (رواه الطبراني في الكبير)

(1324/281) Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone prays to Allah twenty-seven times every day to forgive all believing men and believing women, he will join the ranks of the close slaves of Allah whose supplication is answered and by virtue of whom Allah grants provision to the inhabitants of the world." (Tabarani)

Commentary: If anyone helps and serves fellowmen and looks after their welfare, his work is very dear to Allah. A hadith tells us:

الْخَلْقُ عِيَالُ اللَّهِ فَأَحَبُّ النَّاسِ إِلَى اللَّهِ أَنْفَعُهُمْ لِعِيَالِهِ. (كنز العمال)

"The creatures are Allah's family. The most loved of men in the estimation of Allah are they who are most beneficial to His family."

Just as to feed and clothe them and look after their daily necessities and comfort are ways of helping and benefiting them in this world, so too to pray to Allah to forgive them is a great service to them in terms of the next life. This thing will be very clear in the Hereafter when it is seen how a man's supplication for another benefitted him too.

The sincere slaves of Allah who supplicate Him day and night to forgive believing men and women are true well-wishers of the Believers and social workers in terms of the Hereafter. (The hadith has set the number of times the supplication they make as twenty-seven every day.) These social workers of the Hereafter gain nearness to Allah and His approval to such an extent that their supplications are answered, and because of their supplications people of the world are nourished.

Nevertheless it is worth heeding that in this life service to humanity may include all men and women — indeed every living creature — and it is a pious deed which fetches reward. The hadith tells us:

فِي كُلِّ ذَاتٍ كَبِيدٍ رَطْبٌ صَدَقَةٌ

But supplication for forgiveness and Paradise may be made only for the Believers. The unbelievers and polytheists are not worthy of being forgiven or entry to Paradise until they repent. So, supplication for their pardon and their admittance to Paradise should not be made. We can pray for their guidance and for their repenting from their ways after which doors are opened for their forgiveness and admittance to Paradise. To make this supplication for them is to wish well for them.

Gravest Sins Are Forgiven If One Repents

The Qur'an and the hadith tell us that the mercy of Allah is very large. Thus if anyone repents and requests to be forgiven, the gravest of his sin are forgiven to him. He pardons the most-hardened of sinners. Allah's attributes include Al-Qahhar and Zul-Jalal (Subduer, Dominant, and Lord of Majesty). These attributes too are perfect and in accordance with His Greatness but He uses them only against the wrong-doers who do not repent after doing wrong and do not ask to be forgiven but persist in wrong-doing until they die. The ahadith that follow convey this very message.

Murderer of Hundred Men Gains Pardon On Repentance

(١٣٢٥/٢٨٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ فِيمَنْ قَبْلَكُمْ رَجُلٌ قَتَلَ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ نَفْسًا فُسِّلَ عَنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَذُلَّ عَلَى رَأِيهِ فَاتَاهُ وَقَالَ إِنَّهُ قَتَلَ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِينَ نَفْسًا فَهَلْ لَهُ مِنْ تَوْبَةٍ؟ فَقَالَ لَا فَقَتَلَهُ فَكَمَّلَ بِهِ مِائَةً ، ثُمَّ سَأَلَ عَنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَذُلَّ عَلَى رَجُلٍ

عَالِمٍ فَقَالَ إِنَّهُ قَتَلَ مِائَةَ نَفْسٍ فَهَلْ لَهُ مِنْ تَوْبَةٍ؟ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ وَمَنْ يَحُولُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ التَّوْبَةِ؟ انْطَلِقْ إِلَى أَرْضٍ كَذَا وَكَذَا فَإِنَّ بِهَا أَنْاسًا يَعْبُدُونَ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى فَأَعْبُدِ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى مَعَهُمْ وَلَا تَرْجِعْ إِلَى أَرْضِكَ فَإِنَّهَا أَرْضُ سُوءٍ فَانْطَلِقْ حَتَّى إِذَا نَصَفَ الطَّرِيقَ أَتَاهُ الْمَوْتُ فَاحْتَضَمَتْ فِيهِ مَلَائِكَةُ الرَّحْمَةِ وَمَلَائِكَةُ الْعَذَابِ فَقَالَتْ مَلَائِكَةُ الرَّحْمَةِ جَاءَ تَائِبًا مُقْبِلًا بِقَلْبِهِ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَقَالَتْ مَلَائِكَةُ الْعَذَابِ إِنَّهُ لَمْ يَعْمَلْ خَيْرًا قَطُّ فَأَتَاهُمْ مَلَكٌ فِي صُورَةِ أَدَمِيٍّ فَجَعَلُوهُ بَيْنَهُمْ فَقَالَ قِيسُوا مَا بَيْنَ الْأَرْضَيْنِ فَإِلَى أَيَّتَهُمَا كَانَ أَذْنِي فَهُوَ لَهُ فَقَاسُوا فَوَجَدُوهُ أَذْنِي إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الَّتِي أَرَادَ فَقَبَضَتْهُ مَلَائِكَةُ الرَّحْمَةِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم واللفظ له)

(1325/282) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: Among the people before you there was a man who had killed ninety-nine men. (One day he felt sorry and thought of the Hereafter.) He asked people to point out to him the most-learned scholar (so that he might seek his advice about how to gain pardon). They told him of a monk. He went to him and said to him that he was the (unfortunate) one who had killed ninety-nine people and asked him if such a man could hope to be forgiven. The monk told him that there was no possibility of his being forgiven. This man then killed the monk too and completed the count of a hundred. (But, the urge to be forgiven was there.) He asked people again to tell him of a scholar and they told him of one. He went to him and related that he had killed a hundred people and could he hope to be forgiven? The scholar assured him that he could surely be forgiven and told him that there was no obstacle between him and tawbah (repentance) (He meant to say that no one had the power to stop Allah from approving his pardon. He then gave him an advice.) He asked him to go to a particular village where some slaves of Allah were occupied in worship. He must (stay with them and) join them in worship (for the Mercy of Allah descended on that village.) The monk advised him never again to return to his own village for it was an evil place.

Hence, he proceeded towards that village and when he had travelled half the distance, death suddenly overtook him. Now, the angels of mercy and the angels of punishment disputed over him. The angels of mercy asserted that he had repented and had sincerely turned towards Allah (so he was entitled to mercy). The angels of punishment argued that he had never done any pious deed (but had committed a hundred murders and was thus entitled to punishment). At that moment Allah sent an angel in human form and both groups of angels agreed to appoint him an arbitrator between them. He asked them to measure the distance between the two villages (the evil village that he had left behind and the village on which the mercy of Allah descended to which he was going). He told them that he should be placed in the village nearer which his body lay. So, the measurement was taken and he was found nearer the village he had intended to go and the angels of mercy took him as their own.

(Bukhari and Muslim, — words of Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith is not merely the story of a man but through it, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has pointed out the attribute of Allah as the Most Merciful and the largeness of His mercy. The spirit of this narration, and its message, is that the most hardened and confirmed of sinners can be forgiven if he repents to Allah with a true heart and resolves to lead an obedient life thereafter. The mercy of the Most Merciful of all who show mercy will embrace him even if he is caused to die immediately after his repentance leaving him no opportunity to do a good deed and his record of deeds lacks any pious work.

A scholarly objection has been raised on the subject of this hadith on the question of principle. To kill anyone unnecessarily is among the sins that relate not merely to Allah but also violate human rights. The criminal who kills anyone not only disobeys Allah but also shows cruelty to the slain man and his family. The agreed principle is that such crimes are not forgiven merely by repentance to Allah but the oppressed have to be compensated or convinced and pardon obtained from them. Scholars have explained this correctly saying that the procedure is exactly as suggested that a way out is that Allah may please the offended and oppressed on the day of Resurrection on behalf of the oppressor-turned-repentor by granting them from His treasures of mercy.

The Murderer of a hundred people mentioned in this hadith will be treated in the same way because of his repentance. Allah will grant the slain and the oppressed from His treasures of mercy on behalf of this murder and please them. As for the repentant murder of a hundred people, he will be sent to Paradise straightaway.

Mercy is Available To The Polytheists And Disbelievers Too

(١٣٢٦/٢٨٣) عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا أَحَبُّ أَنْ لِي الدُّنْيَا بِهَذِهِ الْآيَةِ "يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ أَسْرَفُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِنْ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ" فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ فَمَنْ أَشْرَكَ؟ فَسَكَتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَلَا وَمَنْ أَشْرَكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ.

(رواه احمد)

(1326/283) Sayyidina Thauban رضي الله عنه said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, "I would not give this verse for the whole world (and its blessings):

يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ أَسْرَفُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِنْ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ
(الزمر ٣٩:٥٣)

"O My slaves who have been prodigal against themselves, despair not of Allah's mercy, surely Allah forgives sins altogether. surely He is the Forgiving, the Merciful."

(Az-Zumar, 39:53)

Someone asked him if that included those who had associated with Allah, and after remaining silent for a time the Prophet ﷺ said three times, Yes, it includes even those who have associated partners with Allah." (Ahmad)

Commentary: The hadith refers to the verse of Surah Az-Zumar. Indeed, it contains glad tidings for all kinds of sinners. Allah addresses them directly and says to them to despair not of His mercy. The message in the Qur'an goes on:

وَأَنِيبُوا إِلَى رَبِّكُمْ وَأَسْلِمُوا لَهُ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ ۝
وَاتَّبِعُوا أَحْسَنَ مَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ بَغْةً وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ ۝
(الزمر ٥٤:٥٥)

"Turn penitently unto your Lord and submit to Him in Islam before there comes upon you the chastisement, then you will not be helped. And follow the best (the Qur'an) that has been revealed to you from Your Lord before the chastisement comes upon you suddenly, while you perceive not. (Az-Zumar,39:54-55)

These verses elucidate that the mercy of Allah is available to every kind of criminal and sinner. The door of His mercy is not shut to anyone provided he repents before punishment is released on him, or he dies, and (provided) he gives up a life of disobedience and follows guidance and obedience to Allah.

The hadith makes it clear too that the all-embracing mercy of Allah includes the disbelievers and the polytheists.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was himself رحمة للعالمين mercy for the Worlds and that is why he was much pleased with this declaration of mercy. He used to say that he was so happy with the revelation of this verse that he would not have been as happy with the receipt of all the world.

Expressions of Tawbah & Istighfar

What has been stated about tawbah and istighfar should be enough to emphasise that its real significance lies in the meaning, purpose and condition of heart. A man may express his repentance and ask for Allah's forgiveness in any language but if he has made it sincerely then Allah regards it as tawbah and istighfar and accepts his gesture. In spite of that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has taught us certain words of tawbah and istighfar, mentioning their excellence and virtue.

Let us read some ahadith about this.

عَنْ بِلَالِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ بْنِ زَيْدٍ مَوْلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ جَدِّي أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ قَالَ أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ وَاتَّوْبُ إِلَيْهِ غُفْرَتَهُ وَإِنْ كَانَ قَدْ فَرَّ مِنَ الرَّحْفِ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1327/284) Sayyidina Bilal ibn Yasar ibn Zayd, the *mawla*¹ of

①. A term used in muslim law for a slave but in the Qur'an for Protector, Patron. Here it refers to Zayd, the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ.

the Prophet ﷺ, reported on the authority of his father that his father Sayyidina Zayd ؓ had heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, "If anyone seeks forgiveness of Allah in the following words, he will be forgiven even if he has fled in time of battle."

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللَّهَ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

"I seek pardon of Allah than whom there is no God, the Living, the Eternal, and I turn to Him in repentance."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: To flee the battlefield to save one's skin is the worst and gravest of sins, yet this hadith tells us that if any one who perpetrates this sin seeks the forgiveness of Allah in the foregoing words then Allah will forgive him.

It is obvious that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ could not have said this thing without having received a revelation from Allah. Hence, these words of Istighfar ensuring pardon for the sinners must have been taught to him by Allah. There also follows with these words an assurance of forgiveness for the greatest of the sinners. How great is His mercy! However, it must be remembered that Istighfar is not repetition of mere words but it has its roots deep inside the heart where it begins.

Sayyid al-Istighfar

In the following hadith the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has termed one particular expression of istighfar as Sayyid al-istighfar (the chief words of seeking forgiveness of Allah.) He has said that it is extra-ordinary meritorious. Its words and style are very appealing.

(١٣٢٨/٢٨٥) عَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَيِّدُ الْإِسْتِغْفَارِ أَنْ تَقُولَ "اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ رَبِّي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ خَلَقْتَنِي وَأَنَا عَبْدُكَ وَأَنَا عَلَى عَهْدِكَ وَوَعْدِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا صَنَعْتُ أَبُوءُ لَكَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَأَبُوءُ بِذَنْبِي فَاغْفِرْ لِي فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ" قَالَ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا مِنَ النَّهَارِ مِائَةً مَرَّةً قِيلَ إِنَّ يَوْمَهُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُمَسَّى فَهُوَ مِنْ أَهْلِ

①. He is not Sayyidina Zayd ibn Haritha رضى الله عنه the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ. He is another companion by the same name and his father was Bawli (بولى). He too was a slave of the Prophet ﷺ, and freed by him.

الْجَنَّةِ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَهُوَ مُوقِنٌ بِهَا فَمَاتَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُصْبِحَ فَهُوَ مِنْ أَهْلِ
الْجَنَّةِ. (رواه البخارى)

(1328/285) Sayyidina Shaddad ibn Aws رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The Sayyid al-Istighfar (the most meritorious solicitation of forgiveness) is to say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ رَبِّىْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ خَلَقْتَنِىْ وَاَنَا عَبْدُكَ وَاَنَا عَلَىٰ عَهْدِكَ
وَعُودِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا صَنَعْتُ اَبُوْءُ لَكَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَاَبُوْءُ بِذُنُوبِيْ فَاغْفِرْ لِيْ فَاِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ.

"O Allah! You alone are my Lord. There is no god save You. You have created me, and I am Your slave. I will abide by Your covenant and promise as best I can (weak and helpless as I am). I seek refuge in You from the evil of what I have done. I acknowledge to You Your favour which You have bestowed on me and I confess my sins and disobedience to You. So, forgive me, My Lord, Pardon my sins. For, none forgives sins but You."

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone says it during the day-time with firm belief in it and dies that day before evening, he will be one of those who go to Paradise. And, if anyone says it during the night with firm belief in it and dies before morning, he will be one of those who go to Paradise." (Bukhari)

Commentary: The secret of the extraordinary merit of this istighfar is in the spirit of servitude that each of its words conveys. The first words are:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ رَبِّىْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ خَلَقْتَنِىْ وَاَنَا عَبْدُكَ.

"O Allah! You alone are my Lord. There is no master or deity besides You. You alone brought me to existence and I am Your slave and worshipper."

The next phrase is:

وَاَنَا عَهْدِكَ وَعُودِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ.

"And I will do my utmost to be faithful to the covenant and promise made with You when I professed belief to worship and obey You."

In these words the slave confesses his weakness while renewing his covenant and promise of Faith. He goes to say:

أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا صَنَعْتُ.

"I seek Your protection from the evil of the sins and mistakes committed by me or which I may commit in future."

Alongwith a confession, refuge is sought in Allah for the fault. He then continues:

أَبُوءُ لَكَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَأَبُوءُ بِذَنْبِي.

"I acknowledge to You Your favours which You have bestowed on me and I admit that I have sinned and erred."

And, he ends his solicitation:

فَاغْفِرْ لِي ذُنُوبِي إِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ.

"So, forgive me my sins for , indeed, there is no one who will forgive sins except You!"

A Believer, who possesses intimate knowledge and insight through which he realises the superficiality of his deeds and the Greatness and Majesty of Allah and who knows the rights of Allah, will consider himself deficient in pious deeds. Then, his heart will speak out in supplication to Allah as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has taught us in the words of this istighfar. It is called Sayyid al-istighfar because of its peculiarity which we have just mentioned.

After having of this hadith of the Prophet ﷺ it is incumbent on every Believer that he should seek forgiveness of Allah in these words at least once every day and night with a firm conviction.

May Allah have mercy on my honoured teacher, Mawlana Siraj Ahmad Rashidi رحمه الله who, forty-five years ago, while teaching us the Mishkaat in the Dar ul-Uloom , Deoband, came to this hadith and asked the students in the class to memorise the Sayyid al-istighfar which he would hear from them the next day. So, almost all the students recited it from memory on the appointed day and he instructed the class to solicit Allah's forgiveness in these words once, at least, every day and night.

(١٣٢٩/٢٨٦) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَدْعُو بِهِلَهُ الدُّعَاءَ "اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي خَطِيئَتِي وَجَهْلِي وَإِسْرَافِي فِي أَمْرِي وَمَا أَنْتَ

أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنِّي اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي هَزْلِي وَجِدِّي وَخَطَايَايَ وَعَمْدِي وَكُلَّ ذَاكَ عِنْدِي.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1329/286) It is narrated by Sayyidina Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ used to supplicate Allah in these words:

اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي خَطِيئَتِي وَجَهْلِي وَاسْرَافِي فِي أَمْرِي وَمَا أَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ بِهِ مِنِّي اللَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي هَزْلِي وَجِدِّي وَخَطَايَايَ وَعَمْدِي وَكُلَّ ذَاكَ عِنْدِي

"O Allah! Forgive me my mistakes and my ignorance, and my exceeding the limits (of Your commands and Your pleasure), and forgive whatever You know better than I. O Allah! Forgive the wrong I have done jokingly or seriously and forgive my accidental and intentional errors. (And, O Allah! You know that) all that is in me."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Indeed, Allah is Great! The chief of the Prophets, the beloved of the Lord of the worlds ﷺ was innocent, without doubt. But, he considered himself one who has committed wrong and, therefore, sought the mercy of Allah and His forgiveness. The truth is that the more one knows Allah intimately, the more he will consider himself falling short in discharging his duties to Him and in meeting his rights. Indeed, the nearer one is, the more he fears he might be mistaken.

Each word of this istighfar comes from the lips of the greatest of Allah's slaves and is a lesson for us to follow.

The Istighfar of Khidr عليه السلام

(١٣٣٠/٢٨٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عَمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَثِيرًا مَا يَقُولُ لَنَا مَعْشَرَ أَصْحَابِي مَا يَمْنَعُكُمْ أَنْ تُكْفِرُوا ذُنُوبَكُمْ بِكَلِمَاتٍ يَسِيرَةٍ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا هِيَ؟ قَالَ تَقُولُونَ مَقَالَ أَخِي الْخَضِرِ قُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا كَانَ يَقُولُ؟ قَالَ كَانَ يَقُولُ؟ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا تَبْتُ إِلَيْكَ مِنْهُ ثُمَّ غَدْتُ فِيهِ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا أَعْطَيْتَكَ مِنْ نَفْسِي ثُمَّ لَمْ أُؤْفِ لَكَ بِهِ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِلنِّعَمِ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ بِهَا عَلَيَّ فَتَقَوَّيْتُ بِهَا عَلَى مَعَاصِيكَ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِكُلِّ خَيْرٍ أَرَدْتُ بِهِ وَجْهَكَ فَخَالَطَنِي فِيهِ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ اللَّهُمَّ

لَا تُخْزِنِي فَإِنَّكَ بِي عَالِمٌ وَلَا تُعَذِّبْنِي فَإِنَّكَ عَلَيَّ قَادِرٌ. (رواه الديلمي)

(1330/287) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to tell them often, "O my Companions! What could stop you from cleansing your sins with a few easy expressions?" They asked, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! What are they?" He said, "Keep repeating the words of my brother, Khidr." They asked "Messenger of Allah! What did he say?" He said, "He used to say:

اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا تُبْتُ إِلَيْكَ مِنْهُ ثُمَّ عُدْتُ فِيهِ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِمَا
أَعْطَيْتَكَ مِنْ نَفْسِي ثُمَّ لَمْ أُؤْفِ لَكَ بِهِ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِلنِّعَمِ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ بِهَا
عَلَيَّ فَتَقَوَّيْتُ بِهَا عَلَى مَعَاصِيكَ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ لِكُلِّ خَيْرٍ أَرَدْتُ بِهِ وَجْهَكَ
فَخَالَطَنِي فِيهِ مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَا تُخْزِنِي فَإِنَّكَ بِي عَالِمٌ وَلَا تُعَذِّبْنِي فَإِنَّكَ
عَلَيَّ قَادِرٌ

"O Allah! I seek forgiveness from You (for the misdeeds) for which I make a repentance before You and then repeated them (falling prey to my base desires). And, I seek Your forgiveness for the promise that I make to You on my own behalf but did not fulfil them and was not faithful to You. And, I seek Your forgiveness for (misusing) Your bounties from which I derived strength and committed (thereby) disobedience for all the good which I intended to do to obtain Your pleasure alone but I joined therein other aims than You.

O Allah! disgrace me not (before other people), for, indeed, You know me. (None of my secrets is concealed from You). Do not punish me (for my sins) because You are Powerful over me (in all ways and I am absolutely helpless and I am in Your hands)."

(Daylami)

Commentary: It does happen, now and then, that although a slave makes a true and sincere repentance from sin yet he happens to commit the same sin once again. In the same way, he sometimes makes a commitment with Allah but goes against that or becomes derelict. Again, it happens that Allah bestows his bounties and favours on him whereby he draws strength or wealth — that is, physical or monetary strength — but instead of using it gratefully in obedience, he misuses it in disobeying Allah.

Sometimes, too, he initiates something pious sincerely to gain the pleasure of Allah but, later on, other sentiments and undesirable objectives get mixed up with it (and his sincerity is corrupted).

These things are everyday occurrences and also good and pious people fall prey to these accidents.

What should the heart and tongue of men of Allah solicit at such times? The forgoing words of istighfar guide us to the correct approach at such times. These expressions are truly amazing and a sincere regret for the error. We have presented this hadith here only because of this amazing istighfar, otherwise kanz al ummat has transmitted it only from Da'ylami which the scholars of hadith regard as a sign of weak hadith.

We suffice with only four ahadith here under the section on istighfar. We have seen in other sections innumerable expressions of istighfar under as-Salah (prayer), specified occasion and moments and comprehensive supplications. There are very many words of istighfar reported from the Prophet ﷺ and found in books of hadith. Indeed, they are all very auspicious.

Blessings of Istighfar

The basic aim of making istighfar is to request Allah for forgiveness of one's sins so that one is saved from torment and punishment for the sins. However, we learn from the Qur'an and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has told us very explicitly that istighfar also fetches us many worldly blessings and we get much in this world too because of it. May Allah grant us firm belief and ability to abide by the advice. Aameen!

(١٣٣١/٢٨٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَزِمَ الْإِسْتِغْفَارَ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لَهُ مِنْ كُلِّ ضِيقٍ مَخْرَجًا وَمِنْ كُلِّ هَمٍّ فَرَجًا وَرَزَقَهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ.

(رواه احمد و ابو داود و ابن ماجه)

(1332/289) It is reported by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone makes it regular (for himself) to seek (Allah's) forgiveness, Allah will appoint for him a way out of every distress and a relief from every anxiety, and will provide for him from where he did not expect."

(Ahmad, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: We must remember that this promise does not depend on mere oral repetition but it is commensurate with a sincere and intentional effort as explained earlier. May Allah enable us to get the spirit of it. Aameen!

(١٣٣٢/٢٨٩) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بُسْرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

طُوبَى لِمَنْ وَجَدَ فِي صَحِيفَتِهِ اسْتِغْفَارًا كَثِيرًا. (رواه ابن ماجه والنسائي)

(1332/289) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Busr رضي الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "Blessed is he who finds a great amount of istighfar in his record." (That is, he will find in the hereafter that he had asked Allah for forgiveness of sins frequently in the world). (Ibn Mjaha, Nasa'i)

Commentary: It must be understood that only that istighfar will be recorded with a man's deeds which will have been made truly. The oral istighfar, if recorded, would be marked as such and if it is not worth even that it would not find mention at all. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has not said that blessed is he who makes istighfar much but he has said, "Blessed is he who finds a great amount of istighfar in his record."

It is said by the well-known lady mystic of the ummah, Sayyidah Rabi'ah Adawiyah قدس سرها that our istighfar is itself of such a kind we should make many istighfar for that, meaning our efforts are so deficient that we should often seek forgiveness for the deficiency in our istighfar.

The word we have translated as blessed in this hadith is طوبى. It is very comprehensive in meaning and includes every happiness and blessing of this life and the next. So, there is no doubt that the slave of Allah who is enabled to practice sincere istighfar abundantly is very fortunate and he thus receives everything. May Allah include us among such people who seek forgiveness sincerely and abundantly. Aameen!

Istighfar Brings Peace For The Ummah

The two hadith narrated above speak of blessings available to the individual — to the person who makes the istighfar. The next, however, discloses that, apart from that advantage, there is also a great and general blessing of istighfar. This general blessing is available to the whole ummah in that it saves them from punishment and gives them complete security. The ummah is under its shade from the time of the Prophet's ﷺ death and will continue in that protection until the Last Hour.

(١٣٣٣/٢٩٠) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيَّ أَمَانَيْنِ لَا مَتَى "وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ مُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ" فَإِذَا مَضَتْ تَرَكْتُ فِيهِمْ الْإِسْتِغْفَارَ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1333/290) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that Allah has assured me of peace and protection for my ummah in two ways:

(He has revealed in surah al-Anfat).

وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ مُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ

(الأنفال: ٨: ٣٣)

But Allah was not going to chastise them (i) while you (O Prophet) were among them; (ii) nor would Allah chastise them while they seek forgiveness. (Al-Anfal, 8:33)

(He said further), "When I die, I will leave behind with you istighfar, (as a protection) until the Last Hour." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The verse 33 of surah Anfal (once again) is:

مَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ مُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ

(الأنفال: ٨: ٣٣)

But Allah was not going to chastise them while you (O Prophet) were among them; nor would Allah chastise them while they seek forgiveness.

The hadith refers to this verse and it assures us that:

- (i) The Prophet ﷺ himself and his presence is security for the ummah from punishment. As long as the Prophet ﷺ was among them they would not be subject to a general or common punishment.
- (ii) The second means of security from a general punishment on the whole ummah is their own indulgence in istighfar. As long as they seek forgiveness of Allah and repent to Him they will not be destroyed as a whole with a general punishment.

In other words one form of protection was the Prophet's ﷺ own existence of which the Ummah was deprived when he died. The second form of protection was their own soliciting forgiveness for their sins and shortcomings. This form, too, was given to them through the Prophet ﷺ and will be in their hands until the Qiyamah. The ummah is safe from punishment till this day even though they are guilty of many misdeeds because there are people among them who seek Allah's forgiveness through istighfar, and its blessings have saved them.

Allah Is Much Pleased With Anyone's Tawbah & Istighfar

We conclude the narration of ahadith on tawbah and istighfar with the following hadith which is transmitted by Bukhari and Muslim on the authority of many Companions. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has given glad tidings to the sinner who turns in repentance and seeks forgiveness, and no other deed can match these tidings, howsoever great it may be. Indeed, if we only had this hadith to comprehend the mercy of Allah that would have been sufficient. This hadith of a few lines embraces an ocean of intimate knowledge. May Allah grant us ability to understand and to believe. Aameen!

(١٣٣٤/٢٩١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ اللَّهُ أَفْرَحُ بِتَوْبَةِ عَبْدِهِ الْمُؤْمِنِ مِنْ رَجُلٍ نَزَلَ فِي أَرْضٍ دَوِيَّةٍ مُهْلِكَةٍ مَعَهُ رَاحِلَتُهُ عَلَيْهَا طَعَامُهُ وَشَرَابُهُ فَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ فَنَامَ نَوْمَةً فَاسْتَيْقَظَ وَقَدْ ذَهَبَتْ رَاحِلَتُهُ فَطَلَبَهَا حَتَّى إِذَا شَدَّ عَلَيْهِ الْحَرُّ وَالْعَطَشُ أَوْ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ قَالَ أَرْجِعْ إِلَى مَكَانِي الَّذِي كُنْتُ فِيهِ فَإِنَّمَا حَتَّى أَمُوتَ فَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ عَلَى سَاعِدِهِ لِيَمُوتَ فَاسْتَيْقَظَ فَإِذَا رَاحِلَتُهُ عِنْدَهُ عَلَيْهَا زَادُهُ وَ شَرَابُهُ فَأَلَّهُ أَشَدَّ فَرَحًا بِتَوْبَةِ الْعَبْدِ الْمُؤْمِنِ مِنْ هَذَا بِرَاحِلَتِهِ وَزَادِهِ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1334/291) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ؓ said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, "By Allah! Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His believing slave than the traveller who encamps at a place that is an uninhabited waterless desert where his life is jeopardised. He has with him only his riding she-camel with a provision of food and drink on its back. He then rests his head and sleeps overtakes him for a short while. He wakes up to find his camel missing. He looks for it (here and there) and suffers from severe heat and thirst and thinks (it was better for him) that he went back to his place (and stayed there) until he died. He returns and lies down (awaiting death). He wakes up again and raises his head to find his she-camel standing by him with food and water laden on her back (as it had been before). So, he is pleased but Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His believing slave than this traveller is with receiving back his camel. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Just imagine the plight of this nomad traveller who took his provision on his she-camel and went through an unfrequented, deserted land where no life-sustaining things could be had. During the journey, he found a shady place and rested himself there after a lighting from his riding beast, and lied down to rest his back. He must have been very tired, so he was soon lost in slumber. When his eyes opened after some time, he was shocked to see that his camel had gone away with the provision laden on its back. Unable to endure the loss or compromise with the situation, he began his search for the animal but could not find it. Severe heat and extreme thirst added to his misery and helpless as he was, he prepared himself to die and returned to the place where he had lost his camel and meagre possessions. He stretched himself again in the shade consigning himself to death by starvation but again his eyes winked away in sleep. When he got up again, his happiness knew no bounds to see his animal with all his provision untouched stand before him.

How happy he must have been having once given up all hope of life!

The most truthful of all ﷺ has said taking an oath on Allah, "When a slave who has wronged himself and sinned turns to Allah sincerely, the Merciful and Compassionate Lord is more pleased than this nomad traveller was on getting back his runaway beast.

The Sahikhayn (Bukhari and Muslim) contain an almost identical account by Sayyidina Anas ؓ from Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud ؓ, while Muslim has accounts also by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah, Nu'man ibn Basheer and Bara' ibn Aazib ؓ. In fact, the version of Sayyidina Anas ؓ has this much more that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ described the natural pleasure and happiness of the nomad on finding his missing camel and said that he was so happy over it that in his extreme gratefulness and confession of helplessness he wished to say,

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ رَبِّي وَأَنَا عَبْدُكَ

(O Allah! You are my Lord and I am Your Slave)

But, overjoyed as he was his tongue skipped the words and he said:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ عَبْدِي وَأَنَا رَبُّكَ

"O Allah, You are my slave and I Your Lord."

The Prophet ﷺ defended him for his mistake by explaining:

أَخْطَأَ مِنْ شِدَّةِ الْفَرَحِ

(His tongue slipped because of much happiness and joy!)

Without doubt, the glad tidings conveyed in this hadith to the sinners about Allah's pleasure are superior than Paradise and all the blessings it contains.

Shaykh Ibn Al-Qiyyim رحمه الله عليه has commented on this hadith in Madarij As-Saalikeen when writing on Tawbah and Istighfar. He has written an interesting essay on the pleasure of Allah on anyone's repentance. It should refresh the faith of its readers. We give below a synopsis of that.

"Allah has blessed man with more honour than all His creatures. He has created every thing in the world for him and created him for obeying and worshipping Him. All the creation is subjugated to man, even His angels are appointed to serve and protect him. Allah also revealed His Books for the guidance of mankind and sent his Prophets عليهم السلام and Messengers to him. Among the Prophets and Messengers عليهم السلام were those whom Allah chose as his Khaleel (friend), or honoured with direct conversation and many he blessed with nearness to Him and friendship.

For mankind. He created Paradise and Hell. Whatever, is in this world and the next — whatever is or will be in the creation is all centred round man. It is he who has carried the burden of this trust. The Shari'ah is drawn for him and the principle of reward and punishment is designed for him. In fact, man is the central point in the entire universe. Allah created him with His Own Hand and breathed into him of His Spirit. He made His angels bow down in prostration before him, and Iblis was cast out and expelled only because he refused to prostrate himself before man and Allah took him as His enemy.

- ①. The jurists have interpreted from this saying of the Prophet ﷺ that if anyone's tongue slips in this manner and he utters disbelieving words by mistake, he will not be regarded as a disbeliever.

This distinction is awarded to man only because the Creator has given him only the ability to gain intimate knowledge of Himself although he is an earthly creature (and Allah is behind all curtains, and Secret behind secret). He has also given man the ability to recognise His secrets and wisdoms, to love and obey Him, to give up for His sake all his longings and personal desires, and shoulder responsibilities of vicegerency in the world. Man may then be worthy of Allah's chosen bounties and limitless blessings and the receptive of His mercy, love and boundless compassion. Then, because Allah is Merciful and Compassionate (just as a mother's love is unique and matchless), it is His attribute that he rewards the pious and faithful with unlimited bounties. And He is Unique and Matchless in this regard. It gives Him great pleasure to reward His slaves just as it gives a mother pleasure to tend to her babies, to feed them, to wash them and to clothe them. If an unfortunate slave gives up the path of faithfulness to his Lord and becomes unfaithful, joining with the ranks of Allah's enemy, the devil, then he fails to attract Allah's mercy to himself and becomes entitled to His wrath and displeasure. It is seen in a disobedient child who gets his loving mother angry at him.

Then, the slave of Allah might realise some day that he was mistaken and has been unjust. He might feel that he has displeased his Lord and in this way destroyed himself. It might dawn upon him that there is no one else who might show him mercy and there is no refuge for him except in Allah. Then he would turn to Him in repentance and seek forgiveness, weeping and regretting his folly. If he is sincere in his repentance and honestly asks for forgiveness and resolves to reform himself then we may know that the Merciful

Lord will relent towards him because He is Merciful and Compassionate beyond description. His love is thousands of times more than mother's love and it gives him pleasure to shower favours on His slaves. His pleasure is more than the pleasure of the recipients of His favours. We can thus imagine how much a slave's repentance would please Him."

Shaykh Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله عليه has written on this subject very exhaustively (while we have presented a summary) and concluded his discussion by narrating an incident of a mystic who had fallen prey to the devil's promptings or to his own base self. The germs of rebellion and disobedience had grown in him. He has written:

"The mystic (who had strayed) once passed through a small lane. The door of a house before him opened and a weeping child emerged out of it. His mother was behind him driving him out of the house while he shrieked loudly. When he was out of the house, his mother bolted the door behind him. The child continued to weep and shriek as he walked some distance away from the house. He paused when he was a little away and realised that he had no other place to go to besides the house of his parents. Where else could he go? Who else would keep him with them? With his broken heart he came back to the door of his house but it was shut from the inside. The poor fellow knelt down at the door-step and rested his head on the threshold and went to sleep in this position. His mother came to the door, opened it (to look out for him) and found him asleep at the doorstep. She felt very sorry for him, picked him up and showered kisses over him and placed him on her bosom. She said to him, as tears rolled down her eyes, 'Son! Who do I have besides you? You chose the path of disobedience, foolishness and pained my heart. You caused me agony and anger although that is not in a mother's nature. The nature of a mother is to love her child and give him comfort. I choose all good for you. Whatever I have is for you and none else.'

The mystic observed all that passed between mother and son. He had a lesson in that for him, and he derived it. "

When you ponder over this story, keep the saying of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ before you. He has said, اللَّهُ أَرْحَمُ لِعِبَادِهِ مِنْ هَذِهِ بَوْلِدِهَا

"By Allah! Allah has more love and mercy for His slaves than this mother has for her son."¹

How very unfortunate and deprived are the slaves of Allah who follow the path of disobedience and miss the mercy of the Beneficent Lord. They invite His anger and wrath although the door of repentance is open to them. They only have to take a step towards Him and receive His Love before which the love of parents too is eclipsed. May Allah enable us to understand these facts. Aameen.

يَا غَفَّارُ غُفِّرْ لِي يَا تَوَّابُ تَبَّ عَلَيَّ يَا رَحْمَنُ ارْحَمْنِي يَا رَوْفُ ارْوُفْ بِي يَا غَفُورُ
غُفْ عَنِّي يَا رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِي أَنْ أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ وَطَوِّقْنِي حُسْنَ
عِبَادَتِكَ.

"O Great Forgiver, forgive me. O the One Who relents, accept my repentance. O the Most Merciful, have mercy on me. O the One Who pities, have pity on me. O the Great Pardoner, pardon me.

وَاللَّهُ أَرْحَمُ لِعِبَادِهِ مِنْ هَذِهِ بَوْلِدِهَا

O Lord! Enable me to express my gratitude for the favour You have bestowed on me, and grant me power to worship You well.

Aameen.

①. This is a piece of the hadith in Bukhari and Muslim. There was a woman who repeatedly picked up her child and embraced him to her bosom and suckled her. Observers saw how she loved the child and the Prophet ﷺ made the observation we have quoted in the text.

AS SALATU WA AS-SALAM

صلوة وسلام

Blessings & Peace On the Prophet ﷺ

اللهم صل على محمد وعلى آل محمد كما صليت على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم إنك حميد مجيد.

اللهم بارك على محمد وعلى آل محمد كما باركت على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم إنك حميد مجيد.

As-Salatu wa As-Salam is actually a very great and noble supplication to be made to Allah and it is an expression of one's deep affection, love and fidelity to the Prophet ﷺ. In fact, we are commanded by the Qur'an to make this supplication. The Qur'an says:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا (الاحزاب ٥٦:٣٣)

Surely Allah and His angels send blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. O you who believe! Send your blessings on him and salute him with a becoming salutation. (Al-Ahzab, 33:56)

The verse addresses the Believers and asks them to send blessings and peace on the Prophet ﷺ (and this is the purpose of the verse) but in order to create a balance and significance the first phrase announces a preface:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ (الاحزاب ٥٦:٣٣)

Surely Allah and His angels send blessings on the Prophet ﷺ

The Qur'an has adopted this style of command and address only in this case of command of As-Salah wa As-salam. For no other deed, no matter how grand, it is not announced that Allah and His angels do that. Indeed, this is the distinction of As-Salatu wa As-Salam and it speaks of the degree of love for the Prophet ﷺ.

Blessings On The Prophet A Doubt Answered

Many people wonder what the verse of surah Al-Ahzab means when it uses the same word as-salah of what Allah does and what the Believers are asked to do although they can not be doing the same thing as Allah. The act of the blessings on the Prophet ﷺ from Allah cannot be the same as from the angels and men (although the doing of the angels is grouped with Allah's using the word (يصلون). In the same way what the men do in this regard (as commanded by the word (صلا) cannot be what Allah does.

Often this difficulty is solved by ascribing different meanings for the word as-salah when used for Allah and when applied to men. When this word is used for Allah it means to send down mercy or blessings but when it is used for men and angels it means to solicit blessings or mercy from Allah. Whoever, the more correct explanation is that the word as-salah has a wide usage and means:

To honour and respect, to laud and praise, to elevate ranks, to love, to bless and show mercy, to hold as beloved, to show good intentions and to pray for goodness.

As-Salah embraces these meanings. Hence, it can be applied equally to Allah, His angels and mankind. However, the difference would be that Allah's blessings on the Prophet ﷺ would be according to as is worthy of Him, from the angels its use would be in accordance with their rank and from men it would be according to their standing.

On this basis, the meaning would be that Allah favours His Prophet ﷺ in a very special way, bestowing favours and holding him very dear to Him. He lauds him and elevates him to the highest ranks of greatness and nobility. The angels honour, respect and laud him and invoke for him blessings and favours and elevation of rank from Allah. O you who believe, you too do likewise. Supplicate Allah to give the Prophet ﷺ very special favours and high ranks, leadership of the universe and the praiseworthy station, and acceptance of his intercession. And, present salutation to him (peace).

The Greatness & Significance of As-Salatu Wa As-Salam

The excellent introductory phrase in the verse of surah Al-Ahzab and the command to the Believers to send blessings and salutation make it clear that Allah regards the deed very highly and holds it very dear to Himself. We will see in the ahadith to follow how much meritorious it is for the Believers, and how great mercy and blessings it will bring for them.

Opinions Of Jurists On Invoking Blessings & Peace

The Jurists of the ummah are nearly unanimous in their opinion that in the light of this verse of surah Al-Ahzab it is fard (an absolute obligation) to invoke blessings on and send salutations to the Prophet ﷺ. Of the Imams of the Ummah, Imam Shafa'ee رحمه الله عليه, and according to one opinion, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله عليه, hold that in prayers it is wajib (obligation, lesser than fard) to invoke blessings and peace in the final qa'dah (sitting posture) after the tashahhud. In the opinion of these Imam, if anyone does not do that, his prayers are invalid. However, Imam Malik رحمه الله عليه, Imam Abu Hanifa رحمه الله عليه and many other jurists hold that while the tashahhud is indeed wajib in the final qa'dah and it does include salutation to the Prophet ﷺ, it is neither fard nor wajib to blessings and peace on the Prophet ﷺ after tashahhud but is merely an auspicious and important sunnah omission of which render the prayers defective.

In spite of this difference of opinion, there is ner agreement that in the light of the verse of surah al-Ahzab it is fard to invoke blessings and peace on the Prophet ﷺ just as every Muslim has to bear testimony of his Prophethood and Messengership. No fixed hour or number is determined for that. The minimum one must do is recite As-Salatu wa As-Salam once (in his life-time) and stand by it always.

We will soon see the ahadith that tell us that every time the Prophet ﷺ is mentioned, it is incumbent (on the speaker and listener) to send durood to him, those who omit to do so are warned severely. On the basis of these ahadith, the jurists have concluded that if someone mentions the Prophet ﷺ or he hears someone else mention him then it is wajib for him to invoke blessings and peace on the Prophet ﷺ. There is an opinion attached to this conclusion that if the Prophet ﷺ is mentioned again and again in one sitting or in one piece of conversation then it is wajib to recite the *durood*¹ each time he is mentioned but a second opinion is that it is wajib only once and mustahabb every other time and the scholars have adopted the second opinion. But, Allah knows best.

The Distinctive Nature of As-Salatu Wa As-Salam

We see in the physical world that Allah has given fruit and flowers of different colours and smell. In the same way, there are varying blessings and peculiarities of different forms of worship and azkar and supplications. Thus, durood has a distinct characteristic that if one frequently invokes blessings on the Prophet ﷺ with a sincere devotion then Allah sees him with a special mercy, he gains spiritual nearness to the Prophet ﷺ and his kindness and loving attention. We will see in the ahadith to follow that the solicitation of blessings for the Prophet ﷺ by each of his people is presented to him with the name of the sender. This duty of conveying the durood from the sender to the Prophet ﷺ is assigned to a distinct force of angels.

Let us see it in this way. If we were to learn of a slave of Allah who prays much for us and our family members and all those concerned with us and he does not ask that much for himself then we will esteem him very highly and wish well for him. Naturally, we will be delighted to meet him.

This example should be enough to make us realise the standing of one who sends durood to the Prophet ﷺ. Surely, the Prophet ﷺ would favour him with a kind sight and treat him honourably on the Day of Resurrection when they meet. Then, keeping in view the closeness of the Prophet ﷺ with Allah, we can imagine how much

①. Durood is the Urdu word for the invocation of blessings and peace on the Prophet ﷺ or as-Salah (Arabic) which is used for regular prayers. The title of this chapter as-Salatu wa as-Salam means blessings and peace (on the Prophet ﷺ).

Allah would be happy with that slave and what favour He would grant him.

The Objective of As-Salatu Wa As-Salaam

We must clarify something here. While to invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ is a kind of supplication and to make a supplication for someone is to solicit benefit for him, the purpose of invoking blessings is not to give any benefit to him. He does not in the least require our supplications. What have kings to do with the gifts of the mendicants and beggars. Rather, it is like the duty of the slaves to worship, praise and glorify Allah and offer servitude to Him Who does not at all benefit from our conduct and the benefit truly accrues to us alone. So, too, we are under many obligations of the Prophet ﷺ who has shown us guidance and led us on the right path. It is his right that we should present gratitude to him and show our love for him. The best way to fulfil our obligation in this regard is to invoke peace and blessings for him. It is not intended to benefit him in any way but invoking the blessings but the benefit accrues to us alone. We recite the durood hoping to gain the pleasure of Allah, reward in the Hereafter and spiritual nearness to His Messenger ﷺ and his favour.

It is Allah's mercy on us that He conveys our invocation to the Prophet ﷺ through the angels who are deputed specially for this purpose, while the invocation of quite a number he is enabled to hear directly in his grave (as we will see in the ahadith to follow). Further, Allah enhances his favour, mercy and honour for His Messenger against anyone's durood.

Wisdom Behind The Blessings

Invoking blessings and peace on the Prophets عليهم السلام is a way to express our fealty and gratitude to them. The main wisdom behind that is to sever all ideas of polytheism and idolatry. The most sacred beings after Allah are the noble Prophets عليهم السلام and the most honourable and excellent of them is the seal of the Prophets, the last of them, is Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Once Believers are commanded to send durood to him (requesting Allah thereby to give him special favours and show him tremendous mercy and grant him peace) it follows clearly that he too is dependant on the mercy and favours of Allah. It is his right that we supplicate Allah with the best of invocations for him in keeping with his high station. That leaves no room for polytheism any one. Indeed, it is the favour and magnificent grant of Allah that this command affords slaves like us an opportunity to supplicate for the Prophets عليهم السلام particularly the chief of them ﷺ. The person who prays for these sacred men can never be a worshipper of any creature.

Ahadith That Exhort us To Invoke Blessings & That Relate Its Merits

Let us now read the ahadith that exhort us to send durood to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and describe its blessings and merits.

(١٣٣٥/٢٩٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَىَّ مَرَّةً وَاحِدَةً صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَشْرًا.
(رواه مسلم)

(1335/292) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone conveys blessings on me once, Allah will bless him ten-times." (Muslim)

Commentary: We have explained already that the Arabic word salah has a very wide meaning. Allah's honour and respect and favours on His Messenger are referred to as as-Salah and the treatment of common Believers with Mercy and favours is also as-salah. Therefore, the hadith uses the same word (as-salah) for mercy and favour of Allah on him who sends durood to the Prophet ﷺ as it does for the durood itself. The expression is:

صلى الله عليه عشرا

Allah will bless him ten times who sends blessings on the Messenger of Allah ﷺ once.

Obviously, the difference in Allah's salah on His Messenger ﷺ and His Salah on any other Believer will be similar to the difference in the station of the Prophet ﷺ and the rank of the Believer.

The ahadith that we are going to see later in this chapter.

explain that our invocation of blessings on the Prophet ﷺ is actually a request to Allah to shower His blessings on him.

Besides, the hadith that we have just seen does not simply mean to inform us the merit of the deed but it encourages us to frequently invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. In this way, we will receive Allah's blessings — mercy and favours — and gain spiritual nearness to His Prophet ﷺ. The ahadith that follow also have the same purpose behind them.

(١٣٣٦/٢٩٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيَّ صَلَوةً وَاحِدَةً صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَشْرَ صَلَوَاتٍ وَحُطَّتْ عَنْهُ عَشْرَ خَطِيئَاتٍ وَرُفِعَتْ لَهُ عَشْرَ دَرَجَاتٍ.
(رواه النسائي)

(1336/293) Sayyidina Anas ؓ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone invokes a blessing on me, Allah will grant him ten blessings, ten of his sins will be remitted and he will be raised ten degrees."
(Nasa'i)

(١٣٣٧/٢٩٤) عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ بْنِ نِيَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيَّ مِنْ أُمَّتِي صَلَوةً مُخْلِصًا مِنْ قَلْبِهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ بِهَا عَشْرَ صَلَوَاتٍ وَرُفِعَتْ بِهِ عَشْرَ دَرَجَاتٍ وَكُتِبَ لَهُ بِهَا عَشْرَ حَسَنَاتٍ وَمُحَى عَنْهُ عَشْرَ سَيِّئَاتٍ.
(سنن نسائي)

(1337/294) It is related by Sayyidina Abu Burdah ibn Niyar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If any of my people invokes a blessing on me with a sincere heart then Allah will grant him for that ten blessings, raise because of that ten ranks, and record for him ten good deeds in return and expunge ten bad deeds."
(Nasa'i)

Commentary: The first hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ told us that anyone who invokes blessing on the Prophet ﷺ once will receive ten blessings from Allah. The second hadith which was narrated by Sayyidina Anas ؓ disclosed that he would not only receive ten blessings but also he will be raised ten ranks and ten sins will be remitted for him. The third hadith by Abu Bardah ibn Niyar ؓ assures him of all these things and adds that ten good deeds would also be recorded for him.

My humble opinion is that the third hadith is an explanation of the first two ahadith. But Allah knows best.

The third hadith also makes it clear that to get these rewards it is necessary to invoke blessing with a sincere heart.

(١٣٣٨/٢٩٥) عَنْ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَاءَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ وَالْبِشْرُ فِي وَجْهِهِ فَقَالَ إِنَّهُ جَاءَ نَبِيَّ جِبْرِيلَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقُولُ أَمَا يُرْضِيكَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ أَنْ لَا يُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْكَ أَحَدٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِكَ إِلَّا صَلَّيْتُ عَلَيْهِ عَشْرًا وَلَا يُسَلِّمُ عَلَيْكَ أَحَدٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِكَ إِلَّا سَلَّمْتُ عَلَيْهِ عَشْرًا.

(رواه النسائي والدارمي)

(1338/295) Sayyidina Abu Talha رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم came one day with a cheerful look on his face, saying (in explanation of his happy condition), "Jibril عليه السلام came to me and told me that my Lord says, 'Does it not please you, Muhammad, that none of your people will invoke a blessing on you without my blessing him ten times and that none of your people will present his salutation (of peace) without my granting him the same (peace) ten times?'"

(Nasa'i, Darami)

Commentary: The Qur'an tells us:

وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَى (الضحى ٩٣:٥)

And soon shall your Lord give you and you shall be well-pleased. (Ad-duha, 93:5)

The final and complete fulfilment of this promise will take place in the Hereafter. But, this also is part of its fulfilment that the slave who conveys blessing to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sincerely out of love for him will receive ten blessings from Allah and ten salutations (of peace). This is indeed a display of Allah's deep love for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and His mercy on him. Allah conveyed these tidings to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم through Jibril عليه السلام in a very loving manner:

إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقُولُ أَمَا يُرْضِيكَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ

"Your Lord says, O Muhammad, Will you not be pleased with My decision?"

If Allah grants us the power to understand, we might fathom the station of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم through these ahadith.

(١٣٣٩/٢٩٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى دَخَلَ نَخْلًا فَسَجَدَ فَأَطَالَ السُّجُودَ حَتَّى خَشِيتُ أَنْ يَكُونَ اللَّهُ قَدْ تَوَفَّاهُ قَالَ فَجِئْتُ أَنْظُرُ فَرَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ فَقَالَ مَا لَكَ؟ قَدْ كَرِثَ لَكَ ذَلِكَ قَالَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ جِبْرِيلَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ قَالَ لِي أَلَا أُبَشِّرُكَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ يَقُولُ لَكَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيْكَ صَلَوةً صَلَّيْتُ عَلَيْهِ وَمَنْ سَلَّمَ عَلَيْكَ سَلَّمْتُ عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه احمد)

(1339/296) Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه has said that once the Messenger of Allah ﷺ went out and entered among some palm trees and prostrated himself so long that he was afraid Allah may have taken his soul. So, he went and looked, and he (the Prophet) raised his head and said, "What is the matter with you?" Sayyidina Abdur Rahman رضي الله عنه mentioned that to him (about his fear and the Prophet's ﷺ not raising his head from prostration). The Prophet ﷺ said, "Jibril عليه السلام had come and gave me the good news that Allah said, "If anyone invokes one blessing on you I will bless him and if anyone conveys salutation to you I will convey peace to him." (Ahmad)

Commentary: This hadith confirms that if anyone invokes blessing on the Prophet ﷺ, Allah will send blessings on him. However, it does not mention the number ten, but the hadith preceding it and narrated by Sayyidina Abu Talha رضي الله عنه has informed us that Jibril عليه السلام has conveyed the good news that Allah will send ten blessings in lieu of anyone's blessing on the Prophet ﷺ. Either the Prophet ﷺ did not find it necessary to mention the number ten when he gave the good news to Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه or later on one of the narrators forgot it.

In another version of this hadith in Musnad Ahmad there are these words:

فَسَجَدْتُ لِلَّهِ شُكْرًا

(So, I fell down in prostration in gratitude for the good news.)

While mentioning this hadith, Imam Bayhaqi has said "I have not found any hadith more authentic than this in proof of prostration for gratitude". But Allah knows best.

(١٣٤٠/٢٩٧) إِنَّ جِبْرِيلَ آتَانِي فَقَالَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيْكَ مِنْ أُمَّتِكَ وَاحِدَةً

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَشْرًا وَرَفَعَهُ بِهَا عَشْرَ دَرَجَاتٍ.

(معجم اوسط للطبرانی وسنن سعید بن منصور)

(1340/297) Tabarāni has transmitted a hadith of similar nature from Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ. It too mentions of an unusual prostration of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and it concludes with his following saying after arising from the prostration.

Jibril عليه السلام came to me and conveyed the message: If Jibril عليه السلام came to me and conveyed the message: If anyone from your ummah invokes a blessing on you, Allah will bless him ten times and raise his ranks ten times.

Commentary: The purpose of all these ahadith is one, and that is to inform us that an easy way to receive the blessings of Allah — His favours and mercy — is to invoke blessing and peace on the Prophet ﷺ with a sincere heart. In reward from invoking a blessing on the Prophet ﷺ, Allah sends ten blessings, raises rank ten times, wipes out ten sins from the record of deeds and credits it with ten good deeds. (These ahadith are not narrated by merely one or two Companions رضی اللہ عنہم but by a large number of them¹ and transmitted by almost all the Books of hadith, the Sahah, Sunan and Musnad, on reliable authority.) Thus, if anyone invokes blessings on the Prophet ﷺ only ten times every day then, according to these ahadith, Allah blesses him one thousand times and this includes His mercy and bounties, raises his rank one thousand times, remits one thousand of his sins and records one thousand good deeds in his name. What a good bargain! How very dispossessed are those who do not seize this opportunity!

May Allah grant us firm belief and ability to act accordingly.

Aameen!

①. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah, Anas, Abu Buradah ibn Niyar, Abdur Rahman ibn A'waf, Abu Talha Ansari and Umar رضی اللہ عنہم whose narrations we have seen here, and (these too have narrated similar ahadith transmitted, in different Books): Bara ibn Aazib, Sa'eed ibn Umar Ansari and Abdullah ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہم, we might say that this hadith topic is narrated in a continuous way by different Companions in terms of its common nature. Accordingly, it is proved from the Prophet ﷺ surely and definitely.

To Neglect Blessings On His Mention Spells Destruction

(١٣٤١/٢٩٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَغِمَ أَنْفُ رَجُلٍ ذُكِرْتُ عَنْدهُ فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيَّ وَرَغِمَ أَنْفُ رَجُلٍ دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ رَمَضَانُ ثُمَّ اتَّسَلَخَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُغْفَرَ لَهُ وَرَغِمَ أَنْفُ رَجُلٍ أَذْرَكَ عَنْدهُ أَبَوَاهُ الْكِبَرَ أَوْ أَحَدَهُمَا فَلَمْ يَدْخُلَا الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1341/298) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "May he be abased who does not invoke a blessing on me when I am mentioned in his presence. May he be abased who passes through the whole of Ramadan without his sin being forgiven him (and he fails to make repentance and seek forgiveness in the month). May he be abased one or both of whose parents have reached old age without causing him to enter Paradise (that is, he does not look after them and make them happy). (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The three kinds of people for whom the hadith reports the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم curse that they should be abased have one thing in common. Their grave folly is that they fail to seize the opportunity afforded them by Allah to gain His favour, Mercy and forgiveness. They simply do not wish to get that. They prefer to be dispossessed of Allah's grants and thus deserve the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayer against them. We will read in the next selection of hadith that Sayyidina Jibril علیہ السلام too has prayed against such people.

(١٣٤٢/٢٩٩) عَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ عُجْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحْضَرُوا فَحَضَرْنَا فَلَمَّا ارْتَقَى الدَّرَجَةُ قَالَ أَمِينٌ ثُمَّ ارْتَقَى الدَّرَجَةُ الثَّانِيَةَ فَقَالَ أَمِينٌ ثُمَّ ارْتَقَى الدَّرَجَةَ الثَّالِثَةَ فَقَالَ أَمِينٌ فَلَمَّا فَرَغَ نَزَلَ عَنِ الْمِنْبَرِ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ سَمِعْنَا مِنْكَ الْيَوْمَ شَيْئًا مَا كُنَّا نَسْمَعُهُ فَقَالَ إِنَّ جِبْرِيلَ عَرَضَ لِي فَقَالَ بَعْدَ مَنْ أَذْرَكَ رَمَضَانَ فَلَمْ يُغْفَرَ لَهُ فَقُلْتُ أَمِينٌ فَلَمَّا رَقِيتُ الثَّانِيَةَ قَالَ بَعْدَ مَنْ ذُكِرْتَ عَنْدهُ فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيْكَ فَقُلْتُ أَمِينٌ فَلَمَّا رَقِيتُ الثَّالِثَةَ قَالَ بَعْدَ مَنْ أَذْرَكَ أَبَوَيْهِ الْكِبَرَ أَوْ أَحَدَهُمَا فَلَمْ يَدْخُلَا الْجَنَّةَ فَقُلْتُ أَمِينٌ.

(رواه الحاكم في المستدرک وقال صحيح الاسناد)

(1342/299) It is reported by Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah, Ansari ؓ that one day the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked them to get close to him. The Companions ؓ drew nearer to him (for he wished to say something and he climbed up the pulpit.) As he put his foot down on the first step, he called out, Aameen! on the second step, he again said, Aameen! In the same way, on the third step, he called out, Aameen! Then he spoke to them and when he had concluded his address, he came down the pulpit. The Companions ؓ asked him, "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! We heard from you something today which we have not heard before (you said Aameen at every step of the pulpit.)" So, he disclosed that as he had climbed the first step, Jibril ؑ came and said, بَعْدَ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ رَمَضَانَ فَلَمْ يُغْفَرْ لَهُ.

"May he perish who finds the month of Ramadan but cannot gain pardon for himself." On that, he said Aameen!

When he climbed the second step, Jibril ؑ said,

بَعْدَ مَنْ ذَكَرْتَ عَنْدَهُ فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيْكَ.

"May he perish before whom you are mentioned but he does not invoke blessings on You! Again, the Prophet ﷺ said, Aameen!

Then, when he raised himself on the third step, Jibril ؑ said,

بَعْدَ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ أَبَوَيْهِ الْكِبَرَ أَوْ أَحَدَهُمَا فَلَمْ يَدْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ

"May he perish whose parents, or one of them, grow old and aged in his life but he cannot make himself worthy of Paradise (by making them happy and comfortable with his attention and care of them)." The Prophet ﷺ said, Aameen! (Haakim)

Commentary: This hadith conveys nearly the same message that the previous hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ conveyed with the difference that in this hadith Sayyidina Jibril ؑ is the one who cursed the negligent people and the Prophet ﷺ said Aameen!

The same incident in which Jibril ؑ has prayed against such people and the Prophet ﷺ has said, Aameen, is also reported with a slight variance by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas, Anas, Jabir ibn Samurah, Maalik ibn Al-Huwayrith and Abdullah ibn Al-Harith ؓ apart from Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah ؓ. And these find mention in different books of hadith. Some of these mention that Sayyidina Jibril عليه السلام cursed the negligent people and asked the Prophet ﷺ to say Aameen, which he did. In all of these ahadith, the curse is called upon the three kinds of unfortunate people in a very severe manner by Jibril عليه السلام and the Prophet ﷺ, and they have done it very angrily. Actually, this is a severe warning against these three shortcomings in anyone. The incident also reveals that the Prophet ﷺ is regarded very highly and loved by the angels because of Allah's love for him. The love and estimation of the angels is reflected in the strong curse of Sayyidina Jibril عليه السلام, the chief of the angels, for anyone who merely omits to bless the Prophet ﷺ when his name is mentioned in his presence. and the Prophet ﷺ said Aameen on that. The gravity of the shortcoming is clear from this conduct of Jibril عليه السلام and the Prophet ﷺ.

May Allah preserve us from making such mistakes and being neglectful and may He enable us to recognise the worth of the Prophet ﷺ. Aameen.

It is not the basis of these ahadith that the jurists have ruled that it is wajib (obligatory) for the speaker of the Prophet's ﷺ name and the listener to invoke blessings on him on mentioning him.

(١٣٤٣/٣٠٠) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ الْبَخِيلُ الَّذِي مَنْ ذُكِرْتُ عَنْدهُ فَلَمْ يُصَلِّ عَلَيَّ. (رواه الترمذی)

(300) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "The niggardly one is he in whose presence I am mentioned but who does not (so much as move his lips and) invoke a blessing on me." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Normally a man who is stingy in spending his wealth is considered niggardly and miser but here is one who is more niggardly and a greater miser. He is the man before whom the Prophet ﷺ is mentioned but who does not utter the brief expression of durood although the Prophet ﷺ has done for his ummah a great piece of work and they have received a great wealth from his hands so that if each of them gives away his life for his sake they will not have paid back for his favours.

مرحبا اے پیک مشاقتاں بدہ پیغامِ دوست
تا کہم جاں از سرِ رغبت فدائے نامِ دوست

None of The Muslim Gatherings Should Go Without Mention of Allah & Blessings On The On The Prophet ﷺ

(۱۳۴۴/۳۰۱) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا جَلَسَ قَوْمٌ مَجْلِسًا لَمْ يَذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ فِيهِ وَلَمْ يُصَلُّوا عَلَى نَبِيِّهِمْ إِلَّا كَانَ عَلَيْهِمْ بَرَةٌ فَإِنْ شَاءَ عَذَّبَهُمْ وَإِنْ شَاءَ غَفَرَهُمْ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1344/301) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ told them that if some people sit together and, in their meeting, fail to remember Allah and invoke blessings on their Prophet ﷺ (and their assembly remains void of mention of Allah and benediction on the Prophet ﷺ) then on the Day of Resurrection that would be for them a cause of regret and loss. Then, Allah may punish them, if He will, or forgive them, if He will. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: This could be enough to make us realise that none of our sittings should be bereft of zikr of Allah and durood on His Messenger ﷺ. If there is even one meeting in anyone's life in which these things are omitted then that would cause him to regret and he would have to answer for his conduct on the Day of Resurrection. Allah may punish or forgive such people.

The same message with a slight difference of words is narrated, besides Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah, by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri, Abu Umamah Bahili, Wathilah ibn Al- Asqa' رضی اللہ عنہ and transmitted in different Books of hadith.

Abundance Of Invocation Will Procure Nearness To The Prophet ﷺ On The Day of Resurrection

(۱۳۴۵/۳۰۲) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُولَى النَّاسِ بِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَكْثَرُهُمْ عَلَى صَلَاةٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1345/302) Sayyidina Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The one who will be nearest on the Day of Resurrection will be the one who invoked most blessings on me." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Any practicing believer who invokes blessings on the Prophet ﷺ frequently will gain nearness to him on the Day of Resurrection. May Allah cause us to be one of those who receive this honour.

(١٣٤٦/٣٠٣) عَنْ رُوَيْفِعِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ أَنْزِلْهُ الْمَقْعَدَ الْمُقَرَّبَ عِنْدَكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَجَبَتْ لَهُ شَفَاعَتِي. (رواه احمد)

(1346/303) Sayyidina Ruwayfi ibn Thabit Ansari رضي الله عنه as reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone invokes a blessing on Muhammad, saying:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنْزِلْهُ الْمَقْعَدَ الْمُقَرَّبَ عِنْدَكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.

(O Allah! Let him occupy the place near You on the Day of Resurrection) he will be assured of my intercession".

(Ahmad)

Commentary: This hadith is also transmitted by Tabarani in Mu'ajjam al-Kabeer in the following words:

مَنْ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَ أَنْزِلْهُ الْمَقْعَدَ الْمُقَرَّبَ عِنْدَكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَجَبَتْ لَهُ شَفَاعَتِي

The person is assured of my intercession who says:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَ أَنْزِلْهُ الْمَقْعَدَ الْمُقَرَّبَ عِنْدَكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.

(O Allah! Shower blessings on Muhammad ﷺ and cause him to occupy a place near You on the Day of Resurrection.)"

This contains all the words of the blessing and supplication and it is very brief.

The Prophet ﷺ will intercede he will consider it a special right (to his intercession) of those people who invoke blessings on him in these words. He will make a particular reference to these people in the court of Allah when interceding for his Ummah.

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَ أَنْزِلْهُ الْمَقْعَدَ الْمُقَرَّبَ عِنْدَكَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.

If Anyone Continues To Invoke Blessings Instead of Making Supplication That Would Get His Purpose Served

(١٣٤٧/٣٠٤) عَنْ أَبِي بِنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أَكْثِرُ الصَّلَاةَ عَلَيْكَ فَكَمْ أَجْعَلُ لَكَ مِنْ صَلَاتِي فَقَالَ مَا شِئْتَ قُلْتُ الرَّبْعَ قَالَ مَا شِئْتَ فَإِنْ زِدْتَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكَ قُلْتُ فَالثَّلَاثِينَ قَالَ مَا شِئْتَ فَإِنْ زِدْتَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكَ قُلْتُ أَجْعَلُ لَكَ صَلَاتِي كُلَّهَا قَالَ إِذَا تَكْفَى هَمَّكَ وَيُغْفِرُ لَكَ ذَنْبَكَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1347/304) Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said that he told the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "I frequently invoke blessings on you but how much of my supplication must I devote to You?" So he said, "You may set aside as such as you wish." Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ suggested that he would set aside a quarter of his supplication to Allah to invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ who said to him, "Whatever you wish, but if you increase it that will be better for you." Then Ubayy رضی اللہ عنہ suggested that it should be half of his supplications and the Prophet ﷺ said, "Whatever you wish, but if you increase it, that will be better for you." At that, he suggested two-thirds of his supplications (to invoke blessings) and the Prophet ﷺ said, "Whatever you wish, but if you increase it, that will be better for you." So, Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ said that he would devote all his supplication to invoke blessings on him and would be freed from care and need (and Allah would take care of all that, and his worldly and religious needs would be fulfilled from the unseen) and his sin will be expiated. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The translation is clear and the hadith is self-explanatory. The Arabic word salah in the text here refers to supplication as generally pointed out by exponents of the hadith.

Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضی اللہ عنہ was given to making many supplications to Allah and he thought that he should set aside some of that to invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. He sought the advice of the Prophet ﷺ on how much time he should devote to him. The Prophet ﷺ did not determine any time, limit for him but left it to his own discretion indicating to him, however, that whatever time he set aside to would be better for him. Finally, Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضي الله عنه decided to substitute all that he requested Allah in his supplication with invocation of blessings for Messenger of Allah ﷺ — that is asking Allah for His Messenger ﷺ alone. When he decided thus, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ conveyed to him the good news that in that case all his needs and problems would be solved without his having to make a supplication or effort and his sins will be forgiven without taking him to task for that.

We have seen in this very volume in the chapter on the Excellence or Merit of the Qur'an, the hadith qudsi in which the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has reported the saying of Allah:

مَنْ شَغَلَهُ الْقُرْآنُ عَنْ ذِكْرِي وَمَسْتَلْتِي أَعْطَيْتُهُ أَفْضَلَ مَا أُعْطِيَ السَّائِلِينَ.

"He whom the Qur'an keeps busy (and away) from remembering Me and making supplications, I will give him better than that what I give those who ask and make supplications."

This hadith qudsi promises the favours and bountines of Allah to those who devote all their time to recital of Qur'an and make it their sole devotional exercise and also assures them that they would get more than those who request Allah and make supplications to Him. Similarly, the hadith narrated by Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضي الله عنه which is under-discussion assures the lovers of the Prophet ﷺ and sincere Muslims who devote all their supplications to invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ skipping personal requests that Allah will favour them much and all their problems and difficulties will be solved without their realising how. Their sins will be forgiven too.

The secret lies in the fact that just as keeping oneself attached to the Qur'an is a sign of love and faith in Allah's Book which entitles the devoted person to Allah's choicest favours, so too it is a sign of love and true faith and attachment to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to keep oneself occupied in invoking blessings on him. Such sincere slaves of Allah are entitled to the mercy of Allah without making a request for it.

Besides, we have seen the ahadith that assure a man who invokes a blessing on the Prophet ﷺ that Allah will shower on him ten blessings, credit his record of deeds with ten pious acts, obliterate ten sins for his record of deeds and elevate him ten ranks. In the light of this assurance, how well blessed that person would be who devotes his entire supplication to invoking blessings for the beloved Prophet ﷺ making all his requests for the Prophet ﷺ and none whatsoever for himself. Surely, Allah's blessings, favours and mercy would pour down on him heavily. The obvious consequence would be that the mercy of Allah would get him his wants without his asking and cleanse him of the traces of sin. May Allah cause us to believe in these things and then to act accordingly.

Durood Gets Supplications Answered

(١٣٤٨/٣٠٥) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ الدُّعَاءَ مَوْقُوفٌ
بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا يَصْعَدُ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ حَتَّى تُصَلِّيَ عَلَى نَبِيِّكَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1348/305) Sayyidina Umar Ibn Al-Khattab ؓ said that the supplication is stopped between heaven and earth, none of it ascending till you invoke blessing on your Prophet ﷺ. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: We have seen a hadith (No.91) in the etiquettes of du'a that one who makes a supplication should first praise Allah and glorify Him and then invoke blessings on His Messenger ﷺ before presenting his request to Allah. This narrative of Sayyidina Umar ؓ tells us that we must invoke blessings even after making a supplication for that is a chief means of acceptance of the request.

It is reported from Shaykh Abu Sulayman in the Hishn Haseen that durood (which really is a supplication on behalf of the Prophet ﷺ) is surely accepted by Allah and if one of His slaves invokes a blessing on the Prophet ﷺ before making a supplication and again on concluding it then it is surely alien to His Mercy that He accept what is in the begining and what is at the end but overlook what is in-between of the needy man's request. Therefore, the supplicant must be fully confident that his supplication would be granted if he has invoked blessing on the Prophet ﷺ before and after it, Insha Allah.

The foregoing hadith does not say that Sayyidina Umar ؓ had heard the words(about acceptance of du'a) from the Prophet ﷺ. However, this is something that no one can suggest on his own through his personal idea of understanding but can only say such a thing after hearing it from the Prophet ﷺ, therefore, according to the scholars of hadith this narrative is a marfoo' hadith.

No Matter In Which Corner Of The World One Calls For Blessings On Him It Does Reach The Prophet ﷺ

(١٣٤٩/٣٠٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَا تَجْعَلُوا بُيُوتَكُمْ قُبُورًا وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا قَبْرِي عِيدًا وَصَلُّوا عَلَيَّ فَإِنْ صَلَّوْتُمْ بَلَغْنِي حَيْثُ كُنْتُمْ. (رواه النسائي)

(1349/306) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "Do not turn your houses into graves, and do not make my grave into a place of festival, but invoke blessings on me for wherever you are your blessing will reach me. (Nasa'i)

Commentary: This hadith teaches us three things:

(i) "Do not turn your houses into graves," scholars have pointed out that the dead do not practice zikr or worship in the grave. Graves are thus void of worship and zikr so do not let your houses be like that, lacking in zikr and worship of Allah." Houses should be enlivened with remembrance of Allah and worship. This tells us that houses where neither is Allah remembered nor worshipped are not places of the living but they are reposes of the dead.

(ii) "Do not make my grave into a place of festival. Just as people assemble and enjoy themselves at some place on an appointed date every year so do not make my grave a fair ground." The graves of saints and religious people are turned into fairs in the name of urs (celebration of death anniversary). If such a thing were held at the grave of the Prophet ﷺ that would be very painful and agonising to his soul.

(iii) "You may send blessings to me from the east or the west, from dry land or oceans, wherever you are. I will receive your blessings." The same message has been transmitted by Tabarani in almost the same words from Sayyidina Hasan ibn Ali ؓ.

حَيْثُمَا كُنْتُمْ فَصَلُّوا عَلَيَّ فَإِنْ صَلَّوْتُمْ بَلَغْنِي

"Wherever you are invoke blessing on me, for your blessings are conveyed to me."

Those people who have something of a relationship with the Prophet ﷺ from the heart will see in these words a very good news. They are comforted that though they might be thousands of miles away yet their as-salatu wa aslam will reach them.

قرب جانی چو بود بعد مکانی سهل است^۱

(۱۳۵۰/۳۰۷) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ

لِلَّهِ مَلَائِكَةٌ سَيَّاحِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ يُلْفُونَ مِنْ أُمَّتِي السَّلَامَ. (رواه النسائي والدارمي)

(1350/307) Sayyidina Ibn Mas'ud ؓ reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "Allah has some angels who travel about in the earth and convey to me the salutation (peace) of my people."

(Nasa'i, Darami)

Commentary: Another hadith transmitted by Tabarani and others and narrated by Sayyidina Ammar ibn Yasir ؓ adds to this the message that the angel who conveys the blessings discloses the name of the person who invokes the blessings. He says:

يَا مُحَمَّدُ صَلِّ عَلَيْكَ فَلَانٌ كَذَا وَكَذَا

"O Muhammad! So-and-so has invoked blessings on you."

In some versions of the hadith of Sayyidina Ammar ibn Yasir ؓ it is said that the angel discloses the name of the man's father also. He says: يَا مُحَمَّدُ عَلَيْكَ فَلَانُ بْنُ فَلَانٍ (O Mhammad! So-and-so son of so-and-so has invoked blessings on you." Indeed, it is very fortunate of the Believer who invokes blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. The angel recalls his name and his father's before the Prophet ﷺ. His name and his father's are announced in the presence of the Prophet ﷺ.

(۱۳۵۱/۳۰۸) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا

مِنْ أَحَدٍ يُسَلِّمُ عَلَيَّ إِلَّا رَدَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيَّ رُوحِي حَتَّى أَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد والبيهقي في الدعوات الكبير)

(1351/308) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Huraryrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Whenever anyone sends

①. If the heart is linked, distnces are easily surmounted.

salutation to me, Allah returns my soul to me so that I may reciprocate the salutation." (Abu Dawood, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The words of the hadith Allah returns my soul to me might cause someone to doubt that his should stay away from his body and when anyone greets saying salam (Peace) Allah return it to the body so that he may reciprocate the salam. But, this is not correct. If we go by it then the Prophet's ﷺ soul is put into his body hundreds of times every day and taken out, for millions of people convey blessings and peace to him every day. There is a retinue of people at the grave too presenting their salam. Besides, it is confirmed that the Prophets عليهم السلام are alive in their graves, though the ulma's concept of their living is different, but they are all agreed that all the Prophets عليهم السلام are alive in their graves. This is known from Shari'ah.

Therefore, the hadith cannot mean to say that his body is always without soul and when anyone sends salam, the soul is returned to it to enable him to respond. Most exponents of hadith have interpreted the words to mean that in the grave his soul is perpetually attentive towards Allah and the next world. When someone presents his salam and it reaches him through an angel attentive to him too with the permission of Allah, and he reciprocates the salam. This paying of attention is what the hadith means by الْأَرَادَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رُوحِي.

This humble writer submits that only those people can understand it who have some concept of the life of *barzakh*¹ and its conditions. May Allah enable us to gain insight into these facts.

The message of the hadith is that when anyone sends salutations (salam) to the Prophet ﷺ he does not make a mechanical and superficial response only with the tongue, but returns the greeting with soul and heart fully attentive.

The truth is that if anyone does not gain reward at all for his invoking blessings and peace but receives only the Prophet's response then he has indeed received every thing.

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

"Peace be on you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His favours".

①. barzakh is the intervening life between death and resurrection.

(١٣٥٢/٣٠٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيَّ عِنْدَ قَبْرِي سَمِعْتُهُ وَمَنْ صَلَّى عَلَيَّ نَائِيًا أُبْلِغْتُهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1352/309) Sayyidina Abu Huraryrah ؓ has reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying, "If anyone invokes blessings on me at my grave, I hear it, and if anyone invokes blessings from a distance then it is conveyed to me." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: This hadith explains to us that only that blessing and salam is conveyed to the Prophet ﷺ through the angels which is invoked at a distance. However, those whom Allah enables to stand at his grave and they invoke blessings and peace then he hears them directly. and, as we have read, he reciprocates to everyone's salutation (and greetings).

How very fortunate are the slaves of Allah who invoke blessings and peace on him hundred of times everyday and gets his response. The truth is that if anyone gets only one response from the Prophet ﷺ for their blessings of a lifetime and if they have in them speak of love for him then that single response is worth more than the wealth of this world and the next.

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلٰى سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ وَاٰلِهٖ وَبَارِكْ وَسَلِّمْ كَمَا تُحِبُّ
وَتَرْضٰى عَدَدَ مَا تُحِبُّ وَتَرْضٰى

(O Allah! Bless our cheif Muhammad, the unlettered Prophet ﷺ and his family, and favour and give peace — as You love and please to such an extent as You love and please.)

Expressions Of Durood

We have seen in the previous pages that Allah has Commanded us to invoke blessings on His Messenger ﷺ. He has given this Command in a very effective and lovable way.

The Prophet ﷺ has described to us the merits and vitrues of this exercise on behalf of Allah. We have read them in the ahadith narrated in earlier pages.

Then, when his Companions ؓ asked him, the Prophet ﷺ also taught them the expressions and phrases of the invocations. I have done as best I could to collect the authentic ahadith on the subject from the Books of Ahadith and present them here.

والله ولى التوفيق

(١٣٥٣/٣١٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي لَيْلَى قَالَ لَقِيتُنِي كَعْبُ بْنُ عُجْرَةَ فَقَالَ أَلَا أُهْدِي لَكَ هَذِيَّةَ سَمِيعَتَهَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ بَلَى فَأَهْدِهَا لِي فَقَالَ سَأَلْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ عَلَّمَنَا كَيْفَ نُسَلِّمُ عَلَيْكَ قَالَ قُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيدٌ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيدٌ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1353/310) Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Layla, a prominent Taba'ee has related that he met Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah ؓ (a Companion from among those of the Bayt Ar-Ridwan). The latter asked him if he would like him to present him with something he had heard from the Prophet ﷺ. He expressed his desire to hear it, so he said: We said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that Allah has taught us how to offer salutation to you (as we do in the tashahud while praying and say:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ.

"Peace be on you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His favours." Now, you teach us how we may invoke blessing on you.

The Prophet ﷺ told us to say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيدٌ
اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيدٌ

O Allah! Bless Muhammad ﷺ and the members of the household of Muhammad ﷺ as You did bless Ibrahim ﷺ and the members of the household of Ibrahim ﷺ. You are, indeed, Praiseworthy, Glorious.

O Allah! Confer favours on Muhammad ﷺ and the members of the household of Muhammad as you did confer favours on Ibrahim and the members رحمة الله بركاتهم of household of Ibrahim ﷺ. You are, indeed, Praiseworthy, Glorious. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The manner in which Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah ﷺ narrated this hadith to Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Layla رحمة الله عليه shows how highly he regarded this hadith and the durood it contains. The version of this hadith in Tabarani tells us that Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah ﷺ related this hadith to Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Layla رحمة الله عليه while performing tawaf in the Bayt Allah¹. This also reflects the esteem he had for the hadith and durood.

The version of this hadith in Bayhaqi tell us that the question about the Salah (benediction) was put to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ when the verse of surah Al-Ahzab was revealed².

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا
(الاحزاب ٥٦:٣٣)

Surely Allah and His angels send blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. O you who believe! Send your blessings on him and salute him with a becoming salutation. (Al-Ahzab, 33:56)

We have already discussed the command contained in this verse.

The question was put to the Prophet ﷺ, how could the Companions (and the rest of ummah) abide by the Command of Allah that they send blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. The words of the invocation taught to us in this hadith and many other ahadith besides it (اللهم صل على محمد) disclose that we must request and beg Allah to shower blessings and favours on the Prophet ﷺ. This is because we are ourselves dependant and needy and worthless so we cannot offer anything ourselves to The Holy Prophet ﷺ, the benefactor of the mankind ﷺ.

Thus, we implore and beseech Allah to bless and favour him by raising and increasing his nobility, honour, bounties, mercy, nearness and the approved position. And, He may deal with the Prophet's ﷺ household members in the same manner.

①. Fath Al-Bari, Kitab Ad-Da'wat.

②. Fath Al-Bari (Kitab Ad-Da'wat)

The Wisdom in Asking For Barakh After Asking for Salah

We have spoken about the word as-salah in the preceding pages. It has a very wide connotation and means to honour and respect, laud and praise, elevate ranks, love, bless and show mercy, hold (someone) as beloved, show good intention and pray for betterment.

For any slave of Allah to gain barakah from Him also means the same thing. He gets abundant favours, blessings with permanance and continued increase. In other words, barakah, does not include anything that as-salah does not embrace. If that is so then there is no need to ask Allah to favour (barakah for His Messenger ﷺ once we have begged Him to bless him (as-salah). However, the method of supplicating Allah is to use different words for the same request, again and again, to demonstrate the intensity of our need and sincere request. This is why in durood after requesting Allah for His salah (blessing), we request Him for His barakah (favours) for the Prophet ﷺ and members of his household. In fact, in some versions which we will see soon Allah is requested for tarahham ترحم after salah and barakah.

THE WORD AAL (آل)

The word aal occurs four times in this durood and we have translated it as members of his household. The all آل of anyone — in Arabic, particularly in the terminology of Qur'an and hadith — are those people who have a special link or attachment with him whether that link or attachment is:

- (i) of kinship, like with wife and children, or
- (ii) of friendship, belief and love, following and obedience as with companions, lovers and followers in his mission.¹

①. Imam Raghīb Isfahani has given the meaning of aal in Mufradat Al-Qur'an in these words:

ويستعمل فيمن يختص بالانسان اختصاصا ذاتيا اما بقرابة قريبة او بموالاتة قال عز وجل (وآل ابراهيم وآل عمران) وقال (ادخلوا آل فرعون اشد العذاب)

Hence, the word aal can have both these meanings from the point of view of lexicon. However, the very next hadith that we will now read — as narrated by Abu Humayd As-Sa'idee presents expressions of the durood which indicate that aal means members of the household alone. This covers the Prophet's ﷺ wife, descendants and children. These people are honoured by a close kinship and attachment with the Prophet ﷺ and a special association with his life (which is not available to other people although they may be more meritorious than them). Accordingly, it is their special honour that blessings and peace are sent on them too in the durood when they are sent on the Prophet ﷺ.

It does not follow at all that his wives, who are included in the word aal, are more excellent than everyone else in the ummah. In the sight of Allah, merit and excellence depend on faith and deeds prompted by faith and the condition of faith all of which are classed under the head, taqwah, (piety, God-fearing)

إن أكرمكم عند الله اتقاكم

The same definition applies to the worldly links. When a sincere devotee presents his beloved mentor a lovable gift and offering then that he includes the mentor and the members of his household because of their personal relationship with him. The sincere devotee wishes that the members of his household too use his gift. Indeed, this is the natural corollary of attachment and love with anyone.

Durood, too is a gift and offering submitted to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Hence, it is the demand of one's love for him to include his wives and children (family) with him. It is natural, again, that this should please his heart very much. On this basis, it is not wise to enter into a discussion of excellence and merit.

Nevertheless, it is my own humble submission that word aal in the durood means members of the Prophet's ﷺ household that is, his wives and descendants. In the same way the aal of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام means his household members. The Qur'an addresses the wife of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and says:

رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ إِنَّهُ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ (هود ٧٣:١١)

The mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you, O people of (Ibrahim's) household! Surely He is Praiseworthy, Glorious.

(Hud, 11:73)

Surely, the aal of Ibrahim رحمه الله بركاتهم are those whom this verse refers to as people of his household.

The Comparison in the Durood

The durood taught by the Prophet ﷺ requests Allah to bless and favour him and his aal just as He had blessed and favoured Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his aal رحمه الله بركاتهم. This comparison raises a mis giving. The one compared is inferior to the one to whom he is compared; the one to whom another is compared is superior. For example, if cold water is compared to ice then no matter how cold it is, its coldness will always be lesser than ice which is more cold. On this principle, the foregoing comparison in the durood clearly indicates that the blessings and favours on Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his aal رحمه الله بركاتهم are superior than the blessings and favours requested for Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and his aal رحمه الله بركاتهم.

Exponents of ahadith have answered this question in many ways. Their answers may be read in Fath al-Bari and other books. In my humble opinion the most convincing answer is that comparison is made sometimes only to determine the kind. For instance, someone takes cutting from an old garment and asks drapers for the same new cloth. The sample that he has with him is used as the one to which comparison is made but, as we have seen, it is an old and useless piece of cloth but the one that is compared to it is new and valuable and it is better than the sample. Thus, the comparison in the durood is of the same kind. The interpretation of the durood is clearly:

"The particular kind of blessings and favours which Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his aal were bestowed with, the same kind of blessings and favours may be bestowed upon Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ and his aal."

Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام has the distinction among all the Prophets عليهم السلام and in fact of all the creation that Allah chose him as His Khaleel (friend)

وَاتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلًا (النساء: ١٢٥)

"And Allah took Ibrahim for a friend". (An-Nisa, 4:125)

And, Allah honoured him with leadership over men,

إِنِّي جَاعِلُكَ لِلنَّاسِ إِمَامًا (البقره ١٢٤:٢)

Surely I am going to make you a leader for mankind.¹

Allah made him the one who built the Bayt Allah (House of Allah). Also, starting with him series of Prophets عليهم السلام and Messenger will remain with his progeny and descendants alone till the Last Hour.

No one except Sayidina Ibrahim عليه السلام before the Holy Prophet ﷺ had recieved such favours and blessings from Allah and no one had attained the high station of adoration and acceptance. Thus the request in the durood is of this very nature that Allah may grant the same kind of favours and blessings to His beloved Prophet ﷺ and the members of his household, and the same kind of love and acceptance.

In short, the comparison is merely to determine and explain the kind in which often the one compared is superior to the one with whom comparison is made as we have seen in the example of the sample of cloth taken to the drapers.

The Beginning & Conclusion of The Durood

The invocation of blessings begins with اللهم (O Allah) and concludes with two great names of Allah حميد مجيد (the Praiseworthy, the Gracious). some great Imams (leaders in the religious teachings) have told that the word اللهم Allahumma is a substitute for all the Beautiful Names of Allah (or, it stands for them). Hence, to make a supplication through it is like making a supplication with all His Names. Shaykh Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله عليه has discussed this issue in detail in Jila Al-Afham from a very scholarly angle. Knowledgeable people must study that. He has contended that this meaning comes from the mushaddad meem (the doubling of the letter meen) and has explained it from the nuance of grammer. He has supported his contention with the conculsions of his predecessor Scholars². As for the names Al-Hameed and Al-Majeed (Praiseworthy, Glorious), they reflected all His ①. Al-Baqarah, 2:124.

②. His discussion of the subject spread over about ten pages in Jila Al-Afham (p.94). Then he concludes:

(Continued on Next Page.....)

Attributes of Majesty and perfection. Al-Hameed (الحميد) is he Who encompasses in His Being all the good and perfect characteristics which entitle Him to praise. Al-Majeed is He Who is perfect in majesty and power, omnipotence and greatness. Thus, the meaning be:

O Allah! You are a power of all attributes of glory and perfection and majesty, so we request You alone to send blessings and peace on Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ and on the members of the household of Sayyidina Muhammad رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ بِرَكَاتِهِمْ."

In the Qur'an too when mention is made of the blessings and favours of Allah on Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his household members رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ بِرَكَاتِهِمْ, the very same two names are placed at the conclusion of the expression because of their distinction which we have just mentioned. This expression is uttered by the angels.

رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ إِنَّهُ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ (هود ١١: ٧٣)

The mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you, O people of (Ibrahim's) household! Surely He is Praiseworthy, Glorious.

(Hud, 11:73)

In short, there is a great, deeper meaning in the durood beginning with Allahumma and concluding with the attributes of Allah, Al-Hameed and Al-Majeed. The quality of the durood increases much by these two expressions.

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ

Comments On The Transmission of This Durood

The words of the durood narrated by Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضى الله عنه recorded above are as transmitted by Bukhari in the Book of Prophets. Bukhari has narrated this hadith in at least two other places, in the commentary on surah Al-Ahzab and in the Book of Supplications. In both these places the words after صَلَّيْتَ كَمَا

وهذا القول الذى اختارناه قد جاء عن غير واحد من السلف قال الحسن البصرى اللهم مجمع الدعاء وقال ابو رجاء العطاردى ان الميم فى قوله اللهم فيها تسعة وتسعون اسما من اسماء الله تعالى وقال النظر بن شميل من قال اللهم فقد دعا الله بجميع اسماءه هـ (جلاء الافهام ص ٩٤)

على آل (as You did bless and as You did favour and only على إبراهيم (on the members of Ibrahim's household) instead of على إبراهيم (On Ibrahim and on the members of the household of Ibrahim). The words in sahih Muslim too are in this manner. However, Hafiz Ibn Hajar has concluded after studying this hadith from Bukhari and Muslim and other Books that the complete words of the durood as narrated by Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضي الله عنه include all words as mentioned by us. He has made his conclusion known in Fath Al-Bari. He has stated that the versions that have only the words على إبراهيم or على آل إبراهيم (on Ibrahim, or on the members of the household of Ibrahim) have suffered from the (bad) memory of the narrators¹. (Fath Al-Bari)

Apart from Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضي الله عنه, many other companions رضي الله عنهم have narrated this hadith in nearly the same words of the durood. Their versions are found in Books of hadith and the narrations are being presented here.

(١٣٥٤/٣١١) عَنْ أَبِي حَمِيدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ نُصَلِّي عَلَيْكَ؟ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُولُوا اَللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ. (رواه البخاري)

①. We have referred to Ibn Qayyim's Jila Al-Afham in the text preceding. It is his best work on durood and reflects on his excellent knowledge. However, he has erred in saying, that the words على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم (as You did favour Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim) are not found in any authentic hadith. He goes on to say that the authentic versions have only the words على إبراهيم (on Ibrahim) or only على آل إبراهيم (on the aal of Ibrahim). (Jila Al-Afham). But the truth is that the complete words (including these) are found in Sahih Bukhari in the the Book of Prophets as narrated by Ka'b ibn Ujrah. (v.1, p.477) These words are also found in the narration of Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه as found in Bukhari. (V2. P. 940). In regard to these words, nearly the same mistake has been committed by the teacher of Ibn Al-Qayyim. Shaykh Ibn Taymiyyah. He has concluded that there was no transmission known to him for the words: كما باركت على إبراهيم وعلى آل إبراهيم (as you did favour Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim) Fatawa Ibn Taymiyyah, VI P 161).

Such an oversight does take place at the hands of the greatest of authorities but it does not reflect on their authority and knowledge only One Being is Free of blemish. He is: لا يضل ربي ولا ينس (My Lord errs not, nor forgets) (TaHa, 20:52)

(1354/311) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Humayd As-Sa'idee رضي الله عنه that some people asked the Prophet ﷺ, "Messenger of Allah! How may we invoke blessings on You?" So, he instructed them to say:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَأَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَأَزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ

"O Allah shower blessings on Muhammad, his wives and his offspring as You did bless the members of the household of Ibrahim. and grant favours to Muhammad, his wives and his offspring as You did grant favours to the members of the household of Ibrahim. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The words of durood are slightly different from those of the first hadith narrated by Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضي الله عنه. The words there begin:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ and اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ

But in this hadith the words علي آل محمد at both places are replaced with واذواجه وذريته (that is, and the members of the household of Muhammad are replaced with his wives and his offspring.)

It was on the basis of this replacement that I had suggested that the opinion of those people is correct who say that علي آل محمد refers to his wives and offspring.

There is another subtle difference. In that hadith these words were there كما صليت على ابراهيم وعلى آل ابراهيم (as You did bless Ibrahim and the members of the Household of Ibrahim) and كما باركت على ابراهيم وعلى آل ابراهيم (as You did favour Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim). But, in the hadith both these sets of words are substituted by كما صليت على آل ابراهيم and كما باركت على آل ابراهيم.

In the ahadith by other Companions too (as we will see) the words are علي آل ابراهيم which, as we said, is only a difference in the meaning. In the idiom of the Arabic language if someone's name is called and his progeny is mentioned while he is not mentioned (as such) then he will be deemed to be included in that. For instance, the Qur'an says:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ اصْطَفَىٰ آدَمَ وَنُوحًا وَآلَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ (آل عمران ٣:٣٣)

"Surely Allah chose Aadam and Nuh and the family of Ibrahim and the family of Imran above all the peoples of the world)

(Aal Imran, 3:33)

Obviously, the aal of Ibrahim عليه السلام too. In the same way, Fir'awn is also included in: واَدْخُلُوا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَشَدَّ الْعَذَابِ and واغرقنا آلَ فرعون (although only aal of Fir'awn is mentioned in the both cases.)

The two ahadith have only a slight difference of words. The ulama and the jurists have contended that either of them may be recited in prayers. In the same way the other durood that we will read shortly as narrated by other Companions may be recited in prayers although there is some variance in their words.

(١٣٥٥/٣١٢) عَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ أَتَانَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ فِي مَجْلِسٍ سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبَادَةَ فَقَالَ لَهُ بَشِيرُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ أَمَرَنَا اللَّهُ أَنْ نُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَكَيْفَ نُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْكَ؟ قَالَ فَسَكَتَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى تَمَنَيْنَا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يُسْأَلْهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ فِي الْعَالَمِينَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ. (رواه مسلم)

(1355/312) It is reported on the authority of Sayyidina Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضي الله عنه that some of them were sitting with Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Ubadah. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ came there. Bahsir ibn Sa'd submitted to him, "Allah has commanded us to bless you, Messenger of Allah! How should we bless you?" The narrator, Abu Sa'd Ansari, said, "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ kept quiet for sometime (which caused us to worry that he did not like us to put that question to him) and we wished we had not asked the question. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said that we must say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ

وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ فِي الْعَالَمِينَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ. وَالسَّلَامُ كَمَا قَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ.

"O Allah! Bless Mhuammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bless the members of the household of Ibrahim, and bestow favours on Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bestow favours on the members of the household of Ibrahim in the world. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy and Glorious, and salutation as you know." (Muslim)

Commentary: The version of this hadith in Tabari is slightly different. When Bahsir ibn Sa'd asked the Prophet ﷺ how they may bless him, (the narrator says)

فَسَكَتَ حَتَّى جَاءَهُ الْوَحْيُ

"So he remained silent until he received the revelation."

Then he gave the foregoing advice. Thus, we learnt that he had been waiting to receive the wahy and that the words of the durood are taught by Allah. We also learn that the question about the nature of durood was first put to him in the meeting of Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Ubadah ؓ, to answer which the Holy Prophet ﷺ had to wait for the revelation.

As for the versions of the other Companions where a similar question is mentioned (Ka'b ibn Ujah. Abu Humayd Sa'idee, for instance), either they refer to the same sitting as this hadith, or different people may have asked him at different times. The Prophet ﷺ may have advised them the expressions of durood that are found in their narratives. The style and words of most of the ahadith support our contentin. But Allah knows best.

The version of this very hadith in Ahmad, Ibn Khazimah and Hakim (and others) has this addition too:

Bashir ibn Sa'd put the question to the Prophet ﷺ in this way:

كَيْفَ نُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْكَ إِذَا نَحْنُ صَلَّيْنَا عَلَيْكَ فِي صَلَوَاتِنَا.

"How should we invoke blessings on you in our prayers?"

Thus, the question related to the durood that must be recited in regular prayers and the Prophet ﷺ taught the Companions this durood (which is known as durood Ibrahim).

We have seen that in this hadith narrated by Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضي الله عنه like the narrative of Abu Humayd Sa'idee رضي الله عنه the words after كما صليت and كما باركت are only على آل إبراهيم (on the members of Ibrahim's household) and the concluding words إنك حميد مجيد (Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious) are preceded by في (in the world).

(١٣٥٦/٣١٣) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ هَذَا السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ فَقَدْ عَلِمْنَا فَكَيْفَ نُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْكَ قَالَ قُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ عَبْدِكَ وَرَسُولِكَ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَآلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ. (رواه البخارى)

(1356/313) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه has said that they (the Companions) submitted to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "We know how to convey salutations to you (as we say in the tashahhud (السلام عليك ايها النبي ورحمة الله وبركاته) but do tell us how may we invoke blessings on you? So, the Prophet ﷺ said to them that they may say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ عَبْدِكَ وَرَسُولِكَ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَآلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ

"O Allah, bless Muhammad, Your slave and Your Messenger, as You did bless Ibrahim. And bestow favours on Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bestow favours on Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim." (Bukhari)

(١٣٥٧/٣١٤) عَنْ طَلْحَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ نُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْكَ يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ قُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ. (رواه النسائي)

(1357/314) Sayyidina Tahah رضي الله عنه said that someone asked (the Prophet ﷺ), "Messenger of Allah! How may we invoke blessings on You? So, he said that they may say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ
"O Allah! Bless Muhammad as You did bless Ibrahim. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious." (Nasa'i)

(١٣٥٨/٣١٥) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قُلْنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَدْ عَلِمْنَا السَّلَامَ عَلَيْكَ فَكَيْفَ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْكَ؟ قَالَ قُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ صَلَوَتَكَ وَرَحْمَتَكَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا جَعَلْتَهَا عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ.

(رواه احمد)

(1358/315) Sayyidina Buraydah رضي الله عنه has reported that they asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that while they knew how to present salutation to him, they wished to know how they might invoke blessings on him. He said to them that they must say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ صَلَوَتَكَ وَرَحْمَتَكَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا جَعَلْتَهَا عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ

"O Allah! Direct Your blessings and Your mercy on Muhammad and on the members of the household of Muhammad as You did direct them on Ibrahim. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious."

(Ahmad)

(١٣٥٩/٣١٦) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا صَلَّيْتُمْ عَلَى فَقُولُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى آلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى آلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ

(رواه احمد وابن حبان والدارقطني والبيهقي في السنن)

(1359/316) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that when they invoke blessings on him they should say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى آلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْاُمِّيِّ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى اِبْرَاهِيْمَ وَعَلَى آلِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ اِنَّكَ حَمِيْدٌ مَّجِيْدٌ

"O Allah! Bless Muhammad, the unlettered Prophet ﷺ and the members of the household of Muhammad, as You did bless Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim. And, grant favours to Muhammad, the unlettered Prophet and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did grant favours to Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious."

(Ahmad, Ibn Hibban, Dara Qutni, Bayhaqi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ is referred to in this durood as النبي الامي (the unlettered Prophet) which is his distinguishing title. The Qur'an too has mentioned it:

الَّذِينَ يَتَّبِعُونَ الرَّسُولَ النَّبِيَّ الْأُمِّيَّ الَّذِي يَجِدُونَهُ مَكْتُوبًا عِنْدَهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ
وَالْإِنْجِيلِ
(الاعراف ١٥٧:٧)

Those who follow this Messenger the Ummi Prophet whom they find written down with them in the Torah and the Injil

(Al-A'raf, 7:157)

This verse says that the Prophet ﷺ is mentioned in the Torah and Injil with this description. Ummi means unlettered. He did not learn anything from a teacher or a book but he learnt everything he knew directly from Allah. As far as reading and writing are concerned, he is exactly as he was when he was born. In this description, his love is reflected and the brief words are strong evidence of his Prophethood.

(١٣٦٠/٣١٧) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَارِجَةَ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْكَ؟ فَقَالَ صَلُّوا عَلَيَّ وَاجْتَهِدُوا فِي الدُّعَاءِ وَقُولُوا
اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ
مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ.

(رواه احمد والنسائي)

(1360/317) Sayyidina Zayd ibn Kharijah ؓ has said that he asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ how should the blessings on him be? So, he said, "Keep invoking blessings on me and be very attentive to the invocation and say:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ
مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ."

"O Allah! Shower blessings on Muhammad and on the members of the household of Muhammad and bestow favours on Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bestow favours on Ibrahim and on the members of the household of Ibrahim. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious.

(Ahmad, Nasa'i)

Commentary: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ not only taught Zayd ibn Kharijah ؓ how he may invoke blessings but also said to him that besides invoking blessings on him he must make the invocation devotedly with full attention. He must not merely utter the words with his tongue. Indeed, the invoking of blessings is a supplication for the Prophet ﷺ. But, Allah knows best.

(١٣٦١/٣١٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَفَعَهُ مَنْ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَتَرَحَّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، شَهِدْتُ لَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَشَفَعْتُ لَهُ. (رواه الطبري في تهذيب الآثار فتح الباري)

(1361/318) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said that if anyone invoked blessings on him in the following words then he would testify for him on the Day of Resurrection and would intercede for him. (The durood is:)

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَبَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَتَرَحَّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ

"O Allah, bless Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bless Ibrahim and the members of the Household of Ibrahim. And bestow favours on Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did favour Ibrahim and the members of the household of Ibrahim. And show mercy to Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did show mercy to Ibrahim and the household of Ibrahim."

(Tahzib Al-Aathar, Tabarani)

Commentary: This durood invokes blessings, favours and mercies on the Prophet ﷺ.

We must remember, here, that the religious schools and jurists have disallowed us to supplicate Allah to bestow mercy on the Prophet ﷺ because that supplication is made for the general body of Believers: However, if an invocation is made for the Prophet ﷺ for mercy together with blessings and favour (صلوة or رحمة with بركة) then there is no harm. In the tashahhud in every prayer, we do say:

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

(Peace be on you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His favours).

It is the same thing in the durood taught vide this hadith, after invoking blessings and favours a request for mercy (ترحم) is made. That completes the blessings.

(١٣٦٢/٣١٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يَكْتَالَ بِالْمِكْيَالِ الْأَوْفَى إِذَا صَلَّى عَلَيْنَا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ فَلْيَقُلْ اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْأُمِّيِّ وَأَزْوَاجِهِ أُمّهَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ وَأَهْلِ بَيْتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1362/319) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Hde who cherishes that he recieves the mercies and favours of Allah in full measure by invoking blessings on me and my household members should make this supplication to Allah:"

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ النَّبِيِّ الْأُمِّيِّ وَأَزْوَاجِهِ أُمّهَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ وَأَهْلِ بَيْتِهِ كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ

"O Allah, shower blessings on Muhammad, the ummi Prophet, and his wives, the mothers of the Believers, and his progeny, and the members of his house as You did shower blessings on Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Glorious." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Some people interpret this hadith to conclude that this durood is the most excellent of all. They base their conclusion on the remarks that anyone who desires a full measure of the mercy and favour of Allah should invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ in these words. Some other authoirties have concluded that the durood to be recited in regular prayers outside of prayers, it is meritorious to recite this durood as contained in the hadith narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه. Allah knows best.

(١٣٦٣/٣٢٠) عَنْ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَذُّهُمْ فِي يَدَيِ جِبْرِئِيلَ وَقَالَ جِبْرِئِيلُ هَكَذَا أَنْزَلْتُ مِنْ عِنْدِ رَبِّ الْعِزَّةِ. اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ وَتَرَحَّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ تَحَنَّنْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَحَنَّنْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ وَسَلِّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا سَلَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان والديلمی)

(1363/320) It is reported by Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Jibril علیہ السلام taught him the words of the (following) durood by enumerating the fingers of the Prophet's hand and had informed him that they were revealed by the Mighty Lord in that manner.

اَللّٰهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ وَتَرَحَّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَرَحَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اَللّٰهُمَّ تَحَنَّنْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا تَحَنَّنْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُّجِيدٌ.

اللَّهُمَّ وَسَلِّمْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا سَلَّمْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ

"O Allah! Bless Muhammad and the members of the house of Muhammad as You did bless the house of Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Gracious.

O Allah! Grant favours to Muhammad and the members of the house of Muhammad as You did grant favours to Ibrahim and the members of the house of Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Gracious.

O Allah! Bestow mercy on Muhammad and on the members of the house of Muhammad as You did bestow mercy on Ibrahim and on the members of the house of Ibrahim. You are Praiseworthy, Gracious.

O Allah! Show kindness to Muhammad and to the members of the house of Muhammad as You did show kindness to Ibrahim and the members of the house of Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Gracious.

O Allah! Shower peace on Muhammad and on the members of the house of Muhammad as You did shower peace on Ibrahim and the members of the house of Ibrahim. Surely, You are Praiseworthy, Gracious.

(Bayhaqi, Daylami)

Commentary: Apart from invoking blessings, favours and mercy on the Messenger of Allah and his family members, this durood also supplicates Allah to shower peace and kindness on him. متجنن translated as kindness or compassion. سلام (salam) is peace and security from all evil and undesirables.

We might say of this hadith that Kanz Al-Ummal (Vol 1) has described it as weak in regard to its line of transmission. However, in its vol. 2 another hadith has been narrated on the same subject and has the same durood but on the authority of Sayyidina Ali ؑ in reference to Ma'rifatu Ilm Al-Hadith by Abu Abdullah Hakim رحمه الله عليه Nayshapuri; again the line of transmission is severely censured. Suyuti has also been cited as having reported this hadith. Again, Kanz al-Ummal has also narrated a hadith of almost the same import from Sayyidina Anas ؑ with reference to Ibn Asakir.

The authorities on haidth hold that a weak hadith is worth approval if it is transmitted by different sources; particularly if it exhorts one to good deeds. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله عليه has severely censured the version of Sayyidina Ali ؑ as transmitted by Hakim and commented that the hadith is weak but the ulama are unanimously agreed that weak ahadith may be cited to promote virtuous deeds.

(Sharah Shifa, V3 p 473)

This why we have presented the hadith here although its line of transmission is weak.

The ahadith reproduced upto here and composed of durood are all marfoo' having been narrated by the Prophet ﷺ himself. The durood contained therein are all taught by Allah. We have seen in the hadith narrated by Sayyidina Abu Mas'ud Ansari ؓ that when he was asked to teach durood the Prophet ﷺ kept quiet and waited for sometime and when he received a revelation, he taught the words to his Companions. This shows that he recieved guidance on the expressions of durood from Allah and this applies only to those durood which he taught himself.

Apart from these there are durood which have their source in the Companions ؓ or our other worthy predecessors. They do not have the same distinction as the former kind of durood which are taught by the Prophet ﷺ himself, although some of them are very excellent in terms of their words and implication. But there is no doubt about their approval. We reproduce here two of such durood before concluding our work on this topic. They have their origin in Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ؓ and Sayyidina Ali ؑ.

(١٣٦٤/٣٢١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ إِذَا صَلَّيْتُمْ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَحْسِنُوا الصَّلَاةَ عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّكُمْ لَا تَدْرُونَ لَعَلَّ ذَالِكَ يُعْرَضُ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا لَهُ فَعَلِمْنَا فَقَالَ قُولُوا.

(1364/321) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ؓ has said, "When you invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ, do it in the best possible way. You do not know that your invocation is presented to the Prophet ﷺ, Insha Allah." The other people asked him to teach them how they should invoke blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. He said that they should say:

اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ صَلَوَاتِكَ وَرَحْمَتَكَ وَبَرَكَاتِكَ عَلَى سَيِّدِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ وَإِمَامِ الْمُتَّقِينَ وَخَاتَمِ النَّبِيِّينَ مُحَمَّدٍ عَبْدِكَ وَرَسُولِكَ إِمَامِ الْخَيْرِ وَقَائِدِ الْخَيْرِ وَرَسُولِ الرَّحْمَةِ اللَّهُمَّ ابْعَثْهُ مَقَامًا مُحْمُودًا يُغِيبُ بِهِ الْأَوَّلُونَ وَالْآخِرُونَ.

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ. اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَعَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مُجِيدٌ (رواه ابن ماجه)
"O Allah! Let Your blessings, Your mercy and Your favours be on the Chief of the Messengers, the Imam of the pious and God-fearing, and the Seal of Prophets, Muhammad, Your slave, and Your Messenger, Imam of the good, the leader of the good and the Messenger of mercy (whose coming is mercy for all the world). O Allah! let him attain the praiseworthy station which is cherished by the first and the last (people).

O Allah! Bless Muhammad and the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bless Ibrahim and the members of the house of Ibrahim. Indeed, You are Praiseworthy, Gracious. O Allah! Bestow favours on Muhammad and on the members of the household of Muhammad as You did bestow favours on Ibrahim and on the members of the household of Ibrahim.

(Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Sayidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ؓ had taught these words to his people. They are very auspicious and include exactly durood Ibrahimi which is the first durood in this chapter as narrated by Sayyidina Ka'b ibn Ujah ؓ.

(١٣٦٥/٣٢٢) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ كَرَّمَ اللَّهُ وَجْهَهُ فِي الصَّلَاةِ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ..... إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يَصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا (الاحزاب: ٥٦)

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ رَبِّي وَسَعْدَيْكَ صَلَوَاتُ اللَّهِ الْبَرِّ الرَّحِيمِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ وَالنَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ وَمَا سَبَّحَ لَكَ مِنْ شَيْءٍ يَارَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ خَاتَمِ النَّبِيِّينَ وَسَيِّدِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ وَإِمَامِ الْمُتَّقِينَ

وَرَسُولُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ الشَّاهِدُ الْبَشِيرُ الدَّاعِي إِلَيْكَ بِإِذْنِكَ السِّرَاجُ الْمُنِيرُ
وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ
(اورده القاضى عياض فى كتاب الشفا)

(1365/322) It is reported about Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام that he invoked blessings on the Prophet ﷺ in this way. (He first recited the verse of Surah Al-Ahzab)

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا
تَسْلِيمًا
(الاحزاب ٥٦:٣٣)

Surely Allah and His angels send blessings on the Prophet. O you who believe, send your blessings on him and salute him with a becoming salute. (al-Ahzab, 33:56)

After that, he said:

لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ رَبِّى وَسَعْدَيْكَ صَلَوَاتُ اللَّهِ الْبَرِّ الرَّحِيمِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ
وَالنَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ وَمَا سَبَّحَ لَكَ مِنْ شَيْءٍ يَارَبَّ
الْعَالَمِينَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ خَاتَمِ النَّبِيِّينَ وَسَيِّدِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ وَإِمَامِ الْمُتَّقِينَ
وَرَسُولِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ الشَّاهِدِ الْبَشِيرِ الدَّاعِي إِلَيْكَ بِإِذْنِكَ السِّرَاجُ الْمُنِيرُ
وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ

"Here am I at your service, O Allah, my Lord, ready to obey You.

May the blessings of Allah the Beneficent, the Merciful, and of the angels who are near, and of the Prophets, of the Truthful people, of the Witnesses, of the Righteous and whoever glorifies You — O Lord of the World!- (may those blessings) be on Muhammad ibn Abdullah, the Seal of Prophets, and the chief of the Messengers, and the Leader of those who fear You, and the Messenger of the Lord of the universe, the witness, the giver of glad tidings, the inviter to Your path with Your permission, the birghtest light. And may peace be on him! (Shifa, Qadi Ayyaz)

Commentary: This durood is soul-inspiring and very meaningful. However, it is not traced in any book of hadith but it is transmitted by Qadi Ayyaz in As-Shifa hi Huqooq Al-Mustafa on the authority of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام.¹

Allamah Qastalani has stated in Mawahib Ladunniyah in reference to Tahqeeq An Nasrah fi Dar Al-Hijrah (by Shaykh Zayn Al-Aabideen ibn Al-Husayn) that Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام had recited this durood in the funeral prayers of the Prophet ﷺ. He then taught it to the people when they requested him to do so¹. Anyway, it is a very inspiring durood.

The two examples of durood composed by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام show us that we are not prohibited from invoking blessings on the Prophet ﷺ in words other than those suggested by him. We can use other words composed by devotees provided the limits set by Shari'ah are observed.

Accordingly many scholars of the ummah, the Taba'een and latter day ulama have composed words of invocation of blessings on the Prophet ﷺ. However, they are out of the purview of this Book. Ma'arif Al-Hadith. If Allah enables me, I will compose a separate book for that.

By the Grace of Allah the fifth volume is completed.
May He accept it and make it a means of mercy and forgiveness for the writer and readers.

رَبَّنَا تَقَبَّلْ مِنَّا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ.

كتاب المعاملات والمعاملات

KITABUL-MU'AMLAT' WALMU'ASHRAT

(BOOK OF MONETARY AND MUTUAL DEALINGS)

IMPORTANCE

The first thing in the Guidance brought to mankind by the Holy Prophet ﷺ was the call to Faith and Divine Unity. After it, he used to give instruction and advice concerning the moral and practical spheres of life to those who had accepted the Call. -

Such of the teachings and exhortations of the Prophet ﷺ can, fundamentally, be divided into two parts. The first part is related to the Rights of Allah. It tells what the claim of Allah is upon the bondsmen and what are the duties of the bondsmen in that regard, and how is this claim to be discharged and obligations to be fulfilled. Some of the moral precepts of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, too, belong to this section.

The second part consists of the teachings appertaining to the rights of man on each other, and the duty they owe to all the created beings, in general. How is a man to fulfil his social responsibilities and act towards all individuals and groups or anyother creature with whom he may come into contact in the different walks of his life? Some of the moral teachings of the Prophet ﷺ, again, fall into this category.

The question of the rights of man is more important in the sense that if we disregard them, i.e., infringe on the rights of anyone or do some other injustice to him, the Lord who, of course, is Most Gracious and Merciful has not kept the forgiving of it in His own Hands, but decreed that amends are made for it, in this very existence, by rendering back to the person we have sinned against what is his due or seeking his pardon, otherwise we will have to repay in the Hereafter which, indeed, is going to cost us very dear or suffer the dreadful chastisement of Hereafter.

It is mentioned in Sahih Bukhari, on the authority of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:

"Whoever may have done an injustice to a brother or defamed him or transgressed against his rights in any other way should set right the affair with him on this very day, and in this very existence before the day of Final Reckoning, when he will have no dinars¹ and dirhams² to settle the claim. If he will possess a stock of good deeds, the aggrieved will be recompensed from it insuitable relation to the injustice done to him, and in case he is empty-handed in the matter of good deeds, the sins of the aggrieved will be thrust upon him. (and, thus, justice will be done on the Last Day).³"

من كانت له مظلمة لاخيه من
عرضه اوسينى فليتحلل له منه
اليوم قبل ان لا يكون دينار ولا
درهم ان كان له عمل صالح
اخذه بقدر مظلمته وان لم
يكن له حسنات اخذه من سيئات
صاحبه فحمل عليه. (صحيح
بخارى، ابواب المظالم والقصاص)

Besides, Bayhaqi has quoted, in Shah-ul-Iman, on the authority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Prophet ﷺ said:

"The Scrolls of Deeds (in which the sins of the bondsmen are recorded) will be of three kinds. One which will never be forgiven, (and) it is polytheism. The Lord has declared in the Qur'an, that, in no case, shall He forgive the sin of polytheism. Two, which the Almighty will not pass over without doing justice, (and) these are the mutual wrongs, injuries and violation of rights, and the

الدواوين ثلاثة ديوان لا يغفر الله
الاشراك بالله بقول الله عز وجل
"إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ"
وديوان لا يتركه الله ظلم العباد
فيما بينهم حتى يقص بعضهم من
بعض وديوان لا يعبأ الله به ظلم
العباد فيما بينهم وبين الله
فذلك الى الله ان شاء عذبه
وان شاء تجاوز عنه.
(رواه البيهقي في شعب اليمان
مشكوة المصابيح ص ٤٣٥)

①. & ②. Meaning wealth

③. Abwaab-ul-mazaalim wal Qasaas

Lord will, surely, have them repaid. Three, in which the sins will beset down which have little weight and importance in the sight of Allah, (and) these are the lapses that are, exclusively, between the bondsmen and the Creator; the decision concerning them is wholly in His Hands, and He will punish or forgive the sinners as He likes."¹

The teachings of the Prophet ﷺ regarding the rights of man, again, are of two kinds. Belonging to one group are the sayings that deal with the rules and proprieties of social behaviour. As for instance, what should the attitude be of parents towards their children and of children towards their parents, and of husbnads towards their wives and of wives towards their husbands? What are the rights of relatives, both near and distant, and of neighbours and those who are elder or younger to us? How are we to behave towards our servants and subordinates, specially towards the poorer and weaker members of the society, and mankind on the whole? Again what forms and manners ought to be observed in social intercourse, in speech and association, eating and drinking, and bearing and deportment, and on occasions of joy and grief, and, so on? This department of Faith is known, broadly, as M'uashirat.

The second part consists of injunctions and exhortations that have a bearing on monetary dealings and related matters, such as, business transactions, agriculture, debt, mortgage, gift, will, contract, labour and employment. Settlement of disputes, systems of government and courts of justice etc., also, are included in it. The comprehensive title of this branch of Faith is Muamilat, in the special terminology of Islam.

ELEMENTARY OBLIGATIONS OF PARENTS

Social commandments begin with the birth of the child, and, hence, we shall first present a discussion with the sayings that are related to birth and indicate the duties of parents to the new-born child.

Calling of Azan in The Ear of A New-Born Child

(١٣٦٦/١) عَنْ أَبِي رَافِعٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَدْنَى فِي

أُذُنِ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ حِينَ وَلَدَتْهُ فَاطِمَةُ بِالصَّلَاةِ. (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

(1366/1) Abu Rafi', the manumitted slave of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I saw the Messenger of Allah ﷺ calling *azan*¹ in the ear of (his daughter), Fatimah." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In it, only the chanting of azan in the ear of Sayyidina Hasan ؑ is mentioned, but in another Tradition quoted in Musnad Abu Ya'ali Musuli, on the authority of Sayyidina Husain ibn Ali ؑ, and reproduced in Kanzul Ummal, it is told that the Holy Prophet ﷺ prescribed the calling of azan in the right and *Iqamat*² in the left ear of (the new-born child), and, also, explained its propitiousness. He said that, on account of it, the child remains safe from infantile epilepsy.

As these Traditions go to show, the primary claim of a child on his family is that his ears, and through the ears, his head and heart are acquainted with the Name of Allah, and with His Oneness and the Call of Faith and prayer. The best way to it, evidently, is that azan and iqamat are called in its ears, as these impart the knowledge of the spirit and fundamental tenets of Islam in a most effective manner.

①. The Muslim call to prayer

②. The second call to prayer which is uttered immediately before the beginning of congregational prayer.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has enjoined the calling of azan and iqamat in the ears of a Muslim child, at the time of its birth, and the offering of funeral prayer when a Muslim dies and his body has been bathed and covered with a shroud and made ready for the burial. He has, thus, stressed that the life of a Muslim begins with Azan and ends with prayer, and ought to be spent in the way it is done while waiting and preparing for prayer after the Azan has been given. Besides, the foremost claim of a Muslim is that Azan is called in his ears at the time of his birth and the last is that funeral prayer (Salah) is offered over him when he passes away.

Tahnik

One of the manifestations of the deep devotion the Companions had for the Prophet ﷺ was that when a child was born in their family, they brought it to him so that he might bless it, and apply, on its palate, the pulp of a date etc., he had chewed himself and drop the saliva in its mouth which would have the effect of averting evil from the child and bringing it good fortune. It is called Tahnik in the Islamic parlance.

(١٣٦٧/٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُؤْتِي
بِالصَّبِيَّانِ فَيَبْرِكُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَيُحَنِّكُهُمْ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1367/2) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "People used to bring their (new-born) children to the Prophet ﷺ, and he would bless them and perform (the ceremony of) Thnik." (Muslim)

(١٣٦٨/٣) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ أَنَّهَا حَمَلَتْ بِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ بِمَكَّةَ
قَالَتْ فَوَلَدْتُ بِقَبَاءٍ ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُ بِهِ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَوَضَعْتُهُ فِي
حَجَرِهِ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِتَمْرَةٍ فَمَضَغَهَا ثُمَّ تَقَلَّ فِي فِيهِ ثُمَّ حَنَنَهُ ثُمَّ دَعَا لَهُ وَبَرَكَ عَلَيْهِ
وَكَانَ أَوَّلَ مَوْلُودٍ وَلِدَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1368/3) Asma ibnt Abu Bakr رضي الله عنهما related that she was an expecting mother at the time of Migration. When she migrated and came to Madinah, Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضي الله عنه was born to her. She related "I took the child to the Prophet ﷺ and placed it on his lap. The Prophet ﷺ asked for a date, (and when it was brought), he chewed it and dropped the saliva in its mouth, and, then, applied the chewed date on its palate, and blessed the child. It was the first child to be born in Islam (in the home of an Emigrant,¹ after the Migration)". (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In another version of the same incident, quoted in Bukhari, it is added that the Muslims felt very happy at the birth of Abdullah ibn Zubayr, particularly because it had gone round that the Jews had cast a spell on the Muslims, and, now no children would be born to them. The birth of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Zubayr gave a lie to it, and the enemies of Islam who had circulated the story were put to shame.

Several instances of Tahnik are found in the standard collections of the Traditions. From these, we learn that when a child is born in a Muslim home it should be taken to a virtuous bondsman of the Lord to receive his blessings and have the Tahnik done. It is one of the *Sunnat*² which have, now, sadly become extinct.

Aqiqah

In almost all the communities of the world, the birth of a child is considered a blessing and some ceremony is held to celebrate the event.

Besides being natural, it, also, serves a special purpose, and makes it known, in a most suitable and dignified manner, that the father has accepted the child as his own and there is no doubt or suspicion in his mind concerning it. It shuts the door to many a mischief that can arise in future. The custom of *Aqiqah*³ was observed among the Arabs, even during the Age of Perversion, for that very reason. The hair on the child's head, with which it was born, was cut a few days after the birth, and an animal was sacrificed as a mark of rejoicing which is a characteristic feature of Millat Ibrahimī (the community of the Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ).

- ①. Literally, a Muhajir. Here it signifies a Muslim of Makkah who had migrated to Madinah and taken up residence there.
- ②. Meaning a confirmed practice of the Holy Prophet.
- ③. The ceremony of shaving the head of a new-born on the seventh day of its birth, a sacrifice is made, and a feast is held on that day.

While preserving the practice, in principle, or, rather, exhorting his followers to observe it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ gave appropriate instructions, and himself set an example of how it was to be done.

(١٣٦٩/٤) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ إِذَا وَلَدَ لِأَحَدِنَا غُلَامٌ ذَبَحَ شَاةً
وَلَطَخَ رَأْسَهُ بِدَمِهَا فَلَمَّا جَاءَ الْإِسْلَامُ كُنَّا نَذْبَحُ شَاةً يَوْمَ السَّابِعِ وَنَحْلِقُ رَأْسَهُ
وَنُلَطِّخُهُ بِزَعْفَرَانٍ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1369/4) It is related, on the authority of Buraidah رضي الله عنه, "When, during the Age of Perversion, a child was born to the wife of anyone of us, we used to slaughter a goat and smear the head of the child with its blood. Later, after the dawn of Islam, our practice became, (on the advice of the Prophet ﷺ), that we sacrifice a goat of Aqiqah, on the seventh day of the birth of a child, and shave the head of the infant, and apply saffron on it."

(Abu Dawood)

Note: In Razeen's version of the same Tradition, it is mentioned, further, "we, also, (give name to the child on the seventh day, along with Aqiqah."

(١٣٧٠/٥) عَنْ غَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانُوا فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ إِذَا عَقَرُوا عَنِ الصَّبِيِّ خَصَبُوا
قُطْنَةً بِدَمِ الْعَقِيقَةِ فَإِذَا حَلَقُوا رَأْسَ الصَّبِيِّ وَضَعُوهَا عَلَى رَأْسِهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اجْعَلُوا مَكَانَ الدَّمِ خُلُوقًا. (رواه ابن حبان في صحيحه)

(1370/5) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها "During the Age of Perversion, the custom was that when people performed the Aqiqah of a new-born child, they dipped a piece of cotton-wool in the blood of the sacrificed animal, and when the head of the child was shaved, it was placed on its head. (Since it was an uncivilised custom), the Prophet ﷺ remarked: 'Do not apply blood on the child's head. Apply Khalooq in its place."

(Sahih Ibn Hibban)

Commentary: In older days a preparation was used for scenting which included saffron, and it was called Khalooq.

From the aforementioned narratives of Sayyidina Buraidah رضي الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها it appears that Aqiqah, also, was common among the Arabs during the Age of Ignorance. Since, as we have just mentioned, it served a useful purpose, in many ways, and, intrinsically, was also in keeping with the spirit of Islam, and perhaps like the rituals of the Hajj, it was among the remaining practices of Millat Ibrahimī, the Holy Prophet ﷺ preserved the reality of Aqiqah but corrected the perverse practices that had got associated with it.

We, moreover, learn from Bayhaqi that the Aqiqah ceremony was, also, observed among the Jews, but they sacrificed an animal only in case of a male child which, probably, was indicative of the lesser value that was, generally, placed on the girls in the pre-Islamic times. The Prophet ﷺ corrected it, too, and enjoined that the Aqiqah of the girls should, also, be performed like that of the boys. However, keeping in mind the natural difference between the two sexes which has been given a due regard in inheritance and law of evidence etc., as well, the Holy Prophet ﷺ laid down that while one goat was to be sacrificed in the Aqiqah of a female child, two should be sacrificed in the Aqiqah of a male child provided that one's financial condition allowed it.

(١٣٧١/٦) عَنْ أُمِّ كُرْزٍ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
عَنِ الْغُلَامِ شَاتَانِ وَعَنِ الْجَارِيَةِ شَاةٌ وَلَا يَضُرُّكُمْ ذُكْرَانَا كُنَّ أَوْ إِنَاثَا.

(رواه الترمذی والنسائی)

(1371/6) Umm Kurz رضي الله عنها narrated that she heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say about Aqiqah, "Two goats should be sacrificed on behalf of a male child, and one on behalf of a female child, and it did not matter whether the animal was male or female."

(Tirmizi and Nasai)

(١٣٧٢/٧) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ وَلَدَ لَهُ وَلَدًا فَاحْبَبَ أَنْ يَنْسَكَ عَنْهُ فَلْيَنْسَكْ عَنِ الْغُلَامِ شَاتَيْنِ
وَعَنِ الْجَارِيَةِ شَاةً.

(رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

(1372/7) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "To whom so ever a child is born, and he wants to perform the sacrifice of Aqiqah on behalf of it, he should sacrifice two goats for a boy and one goat for a girl."

(Abu Dawood and Nasai)

Commentary: As the above passage of this Tradition shows, Aqiqah is not obligatory, but it belongs to the category of Istihbab, i.e., acts that are commendable in Islam, but not binding or compulsory. In the same way, it is not necessary to sacrifice two goats for a male child. It, of course, is better to sacrifice two goats provided that one can afford it, otherwise one is enough.

In the next Tradition, it is explicitly stated that the Prophet ﷺ had sacrificed only one goat in the Aqiqah ceremonies of Sayyidina Hasan and Sayyidina Husain رضي الله عنهما.

(١٣٧٣/٨) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُلُّ غُلَامٍ رَهْنَةٌ بِعَقِيقَتِهِ تُدْبَحُ عَنْهُ يَوْمَ سَابِعِهِ وَيُحْلَقُ وَيُسَمَّى.

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذى والنسائى)

(1373/8) It is related by Hasan Busri, on the authority of Samurah ibn Jundub رضي الله عنه, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Every child is pledged in exchange for the animal of its Aqiqah. The animal should be sacrificed on the seventh day, the child's head should be shaved, and a name given to it."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi and Nasai)

Commentary: Commentators have explained the pledging of the child in exchange for the animal of Aqiqah in various ways. In our humble view, the most convincing explanation is that the birth of a child is a great boon and blessing of the Lord and the sacrifice of Aqiqah by the parents who can afford it is an act of gratefulness, or, as one would say, a ransom. Until the gratitude is expressed to Allah and the ransom is paid, the obligation will be left as yet to be fulfilled and the child will remain pledged in exchange for the animal.

The command to perform the Aqiqah on the day of birth has not been given, perhaps, for the reason that, at that time, the family is occupied with the needs and comforts of the mother and the shaving of the head so early can, also, be harmful to the child.

In a week's time, a lying-in woman, generally, gets well and does not need special care or attention, and the baby, too, becomes strong enough to go through the shaving of the head.

Apart from it, in this and a few other Traditions it is told that the child should, also, be christened on the seventh day of its birth along with Aqiqah, but from some Traditions it appears that the Prophet ﷺ had named children even on the day they were born. There is, as such, no harm in giving a name to the child before the seventh day of its birth, but if it had not been done, the child should be named on the seventh day, together with Aqiqah.

(١٣٧٤/٩) عَنْ سَلْمَانَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ الضَّبِّيِّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَعَ الْغُلَامِ عَقِيقَةٌ فَأَهْرِيقُوا عَنْهُ دَمًا وَامِيطُوا عَنْهُ الْأَذَى.

(رواه البخاري)

(1374/9) Salman ibn Aamir al-Zahbi رضي الله عنه related that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "With the child is Aqiqah (Whoever is blessed with a child should have its Aqiqah performed). So, sacrifice an animal on behalf of the child and have its head shaved."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The Aqiqah ceremony, as these narratives show, consists of two acts: the shaving of the head, and the sacrifice of the animal. There is a peculiar identity between the two acts, and these acts are among the religious practices of Millat Ibrahimī. In the Hajj, too, they go together and the pilgrims have their head shaved after the *Qurbani*¹. Thus, Aqiqah, also, is a practical demonstration of our association with Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام as well as of the fact that the child, too, is a member of the Ibrahimi community.

(١٣٧٥/١٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَقَّى عَنِ الْحَسَنِ وَالْحُسَيْنِ كَبْشًا كَبْشًا.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1375/10) Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه narrated "The Prophet ﷺ did the Aqiqah of (his maternal grandsons), Hasan رضي الله عنه and Husain رضي الله عنه, and slaughtered a ram for each of them."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The Holy Prophet ﷺ offered only one ram as a sacrifice in the Aqiqah ceremonies of Sayyidina Hasan رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Husain رضي الله عنه probably because, at that time, he could afford only that much, and, thus, a precedent, also, was set for those who were of limited means.

In some other accounts, two rams are mentioned instead of one, but according to the authorities, the above report, as quoted in Sunan Abi Dawood, is more reliable.

¹. Sacrificial offering of animals.

(١٣٧٦/١١) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ قَالَ عَقَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ الْحَسَنِ بِشَاةً وَقَالَ يَا فَاطِمَةُ اخْلُقِي رَأْسَهُ وَتَصَدَّقِي بِزَنَةِ شَعْرِهِ فَضَّةً فَوَزَنَاهُ فَكَانَ وَزْنُهُ دِرْهَمًا أَوْ بَعْضُ دِرْهَمٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1376/11) It is related, on the authority of Sayyidina Ali ibn Abi Talib عليه السلام, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sacrificed a goat in the Aqiqah of Hasan, and told (his daughter), Fatimah to shave his head and give away silver in charity of an equal weight to the hair, it was found to be of the heaviness of a dirham or even less." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The giving away in charity of silver equal in weight to the hair is, also, mentioned, in addition to the sacrifice of the animal. It, too, is a commendable observance, though not compulsory.

Some commentators think that the Prophet ﷺ had told Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها to give away the silver in charity because, at the time of Sayyidina Hasan's birth, the financial condition of his parents, Sayyidina Ali and Sayyidah Fatimah, did not permit the sacrifice of an animal, and, therefore, the sacred Prophet ﷺ carried out the Qurbani himself and told Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها to give away silver in charity equal to the weight of the child's hair so that an expression of gratitude to Allah was made from her side as well in that form.

Tasmiyah (the giving of name)

It, too, is a claim of the child that it is given a good name. Clear directions are found in this regard in the sayings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

(١٣٧٧/١٢) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ الْوَلَدِ عَلَى الْوَالِدِ أَنْ يُحْسِنَ اسْمَهُ وَيُحْسِنَ آدَبَهُ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1377/12) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It, also, is a claim of the child on his father that he gives him a good name and teach him good manners."

(Bayhaqi)

(١٣٧٨/١٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوَّلُ مَا يَنْحَلُ الرَّجُلُ وَلَدَهُ إِسْمُهُ فَلْيُحْسِنْ إِسْمَهُ. (رواه ابو الشيخ)

(1378/13) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The first gift a man gives to his child is a name, so he must give him a good name."

(Abu Ash-Shaykh.)

(١٣٧٩/١٤) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَدْعُونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ بِأَسْمَائِكُمْ وَأَسْمَاءِ آبَاءِكُمْ فَأَحْسِنُوا أَسْمَاءَكُمْ. (رواه احمد وابو داود)

(1379/14) It is related by Abu Darda رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "On the Day of Resurrection, you will be called out by your name and the name of your father. (The call will be: so-and-so, son of so-and-so.) So, give good names."

(Musnad Ahmad and Abu Dawood)

(١٣٨٠/١٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَحَبَّ أَسْمَاءٍ كُنتُمْ إِلَى اللَّهِ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1380/15) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Among your names, the most liked to Allah are Abdullah and Abdul Rahman." (Muslim)

Commentary: The reason is obvious. The names, Abdullah and Abdul Rahman, proclaim the servility and submission of the bondsman which is pleasing to the Almighty. In the same way, the names of the Prophets, too, are among the names that are regarded with special favour by the Lord. They signify a special association with the Divine Prophets.

The Prophet ﷺ himself had named his son Ibrahim. Besides, it is distinctly stated in a Tradition, quoted in Abu Dawood etc., that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Give a name after the names of the Prophets."

The Prophet ﷺ, also, gave names to some children which conveyed a good meaning, but were not among the known names of the Prophets. For instance, he named his grandsons Hasan and Husain, and gave the name of Munzir to the son of an Ansar Companion.

Be that as it may, we get guidance from the sayings and practices of the Holy Prophet ﷺ that it is the responsibility of the parents to give good names to their children or have them named by a Holy person.

Good Breeding And Religious Upbringing

All the Prophets, and, lastly, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ have stressed that the brief earthly sojourn of a man is a prelude to everlasting life of hereafter. It, therefore, follows that a greater attention is paid to the betterment of prospects in the life to come and attainment of felicity in the Hereafter than to the affair and interests of this life.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, thus, has enjoined upon the parents to take care of the religious instruction of their children from the very beginning, otherwise they will be called to account for negligence on the Day of Last Judgement.

(١٣٨١/١٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ افْتَحُوا

عَلَى صِبْيَانِكُمْ أَوَّلَ كَلِمَةٍ بِلا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، وَلَقِّنُوهُمْ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1381/16) It is related by Ibn Abbas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Have your children utter the Kalimah." Laa illaaha illallaah, first of all i.e., let these be the first words they speak, and exhort them to utter the same Kalimah Laailaaha illallaah at the time of death."

(Baihaqi)

Commentary: The child begins to precieve the impression of what it sees or hears from the time of its birth. The chanting of azan and iqamat in the ears of a newly born infant, also, gives a clear indication of it.

This Tradition shows that when a child begins to speak, it should be taught to utter the Kalimah, Laa illaaha illallaah as a frist step towards its education. It, further, tells that when the dying moment is near, a person should, again, be exhorted to pronounce the same Kalimah. Blessed, indeed, is the man who when he utters the first words, on coming into this world, it is the Kalimah of Laa ilaaha illallaah, and the same Kalimah is on his lips when he departs.

(١٣٨٢/١٧) عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

مَنْحَلٌ وَالِدٌ وَلَدًا مِنْ نَحْلٍ أَفْضَلُ مِنْ آدَبٍ حَسَنٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1382/17) It is related by Sa'eed ibn al-Aas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "No father gave a better gift to his children than good manners and good character." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: There cannot be a better gift for a child from his father than teaching him good manners and good character.

(١٣٨٣/١٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْرَمُوا

أَوْلَادَكُمْ وَأَحْسِنُوا آدَابَهُمْ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1383/18) It is related by Anas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Show respect to your children and adorn them with good manners." (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: What showing of respect to one's children denotes that they should be treated not as a burden, but a blessing and a trust of Allah, and brought up with care and affection.

(١٣٨٤/١٩) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرُّوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَهُمْ أَبْنَاءُ سَبْعٍ وَاصْرِبْهُمْ عَلَيْهَا وَهُمْ أَبْنَاءُ عَشْرِ سِنِينَ وَفَرِّقُوا بَيْنَهُمْ فِي الْمَضَاجِعِ.

(رواه ابوداؤد و رواه في شرح السنه عن سيرة ابن معيد)

(1384/19) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When your children attain the age of seven, insist upon them to offer up prayer (regularly), and when they are ten years old, punish them if they do not, and have separate beds for them (to sleep on)." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Children, generally, develop the faculty of understanding at the age of seven, and it is time their feet were set on the path of the worship of Allah. They should, therefore, be told to offer prayer (salah) regularly when they attain that age. At ten, their powers of discretion and intelligence are fairly advanced and they begin to approach maturity. At that time, the observance of prayers ought be enjoined strictly upon them. and they should be taken to task, in an appropriate manner, if they fail to do so. They should, further, be required to sleep on separate beds and not together (which is permitted upto the age of ten).

All these, in brief, are the rights of children, both boys and girls, on their parents and the parents will have to render a full account in respect of them on the Day of Reckoning.

Importance of Showing Kindness to Daughters

Even now daughters are considered an unwanted burden in some societies and instead of rejoicing, an atmosphere of grief and disappointment is produced in the family at their birth. This is the position, today, but, in the pre-Islamic times, the daughters were positively considered a shame and disgrace among the Arabs, so much so that even the right to live was denied to them. Many a hard-hearted parent used to strangle his daughter to death, with his own hands, when she was born, or bury her alive. Says the Qur'an:

"When if one of them receiveth tidings of the birth of female, his face remaineth darkened, and he is worth inwardly.

"He hideth himself from the folk because of the evil of that whereof he hath had tidings, (asking himself): Shall he keep it in contempt, or bury it beneath the dust."

وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُم بِالْأُنثَىٰ ظَلَّ
وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ
يَتَوَارَىٰ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِنْ سُوءِ مَا بُشِّرَ
بِهِ ۚ أَيُمْسِكُهُ عَلَىٰ هُونٍ أَمْ يَدُسُّهُ
فِي التُّرَابِ ۚ ط

(النحل . ١٦ : ٥٩، ٥٨)

(Al Nahl 16:58-59)

Such was the attitude of the Arabs towards daughters among whom the sacred Prophet ﷺ was raised up. Against this background, let us now examine the following Traditions.

(١٣٨٥/٢٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ
وُلِدَتْ لَهُ ابْنَةٌ فَلَمْ يُؤْذِهَا وَلَمْ يَهِنْهَا وَلَمْ يُؤْثِرْ وَلَدَهُ عَلَيْهَا..... يَعْنِي الذُّكُورَ.....
أَدْخَلَهُ اللَّهُ بِهَا الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه احمد والحاكم في المستدرک)

(1385/20) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever becomes the father of a girl, he should neither hurt her nor treat her with contempt nor show preference over her to his sons in kindness and affection. (Both boys and girls should be treated alike). Allah will grant him Paradise in return for kindly treatment towards the daughter." (Musnad Ahmad and Mustadarak Haakim)

(١٣٨٦/٢١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ ابْتُلِيَ مِنْ هَذِهِ الْبَنَاتِ بِشَيْءٍ فَأَحْسَنَ إِلَيْهِنَّ كُنَّ لَهُ سِتْرًا مِنَ النَّارِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1386/21) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها related that she heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "The bondsman or bondswoman upon whom the responsibility of daughters was placed by Allah, (and he or she fulfilled the responsibility in a good manner), and treated them properly, for him or her the daughters shall be a means of protection from Hell." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In another version of the same Tradition, the incident is, also, mentioned which had led the Prophet ﷺ to make the above observation. It is narrated that a very poor woman, with two daughters, came to Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها place to beg. By chance, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها had only one date with her, at that time, which she gave to the woman. The woman broke the date into two parts and gave one part each to the girls. She did not eat anything of it herself. When, after sometime, the Holy Prophet ﷺ came, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها related it to him, what had happened and, he remarked, "The bondsman or bondswoman upon whom there is the responsibility of daughters and he or she discharges it well and treat them with affection, the daughters will become for him or her a means of deliverance from the Hereafter."

In another of her narrative of the above Tradition, transmitted by Imam Muslim, it is stated that a poor woman came to her holding two little daughters in her arms, and asked for charity. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها gave her three dates of which she gave one each to the two girls and was about to put the third in her own mouth that the girls asked for it as well. The woman, thereupon, did not eat it herself, but gave half of it to one girl and half to the other. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was so strongly affected by it that she described the incident to the sacred Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ, said, "On account of this very act of the woman, Allah gave for her the decision of Paradise and freedom from Hell."

The two events may have taken place at different times, and it can, also, be that it was the same incident and the variation was due to the difference in the statements of the narrators.

(١٣٨٧/٢٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عَالَ

جَارَتَيْنِ حَتَّى تَبْلُغَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَنَا وَهُوَ هَكَذَا وَضَمَّ أَصَابِعَهُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1387/22) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The bondsman who bears the responsibility of two daughters and supports them till they attain puberty, he and I will be close to one another like this on the Day of Requital." The narrator, Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, added that the Prophet ﷺ showed by joining the fingers of his hand (that as the fingers were close to one another in the same way will the bondsman be close to him on the Day of Final Reckoning).

(Abu Dawood and Tirmizi)

(١٣٨٨/٢٣) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

عَالَ ثَلَاثَ بَنَاتٍ أَوْ ثَلَاثَ أَخَوَاتٍ أَوْ أُخْتَيْنِ أَوْ بَنَتَيْنِ فَأَدَّبَهُنَّ وَأَحْسَنَ إِلَيْهِنَّ وَزَوَّجَهُنَّ فَلَهُ الْجَنَّةُ

(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1388/23) Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever bears the responsibility of three daughters or sisters, or even of two daughters or sisters, and bears it well; and looks after their training and welfare properly, and, then, gets them married, Allah will reward him with Paradise."

(Abu Dawood and Tirmizi)

Commentary: In these Traditions, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has not only told that kindly treatment was the natural right or claim of the daughters, but, also, that the bondsmen who fulfilled the obligations towards them in a good and proper manner would be rewarded with Paradise in the Hereafter. He, further, gives the joyful tidings that such a person will be close to him, on the Day of Last Judgement, as the fingers of a hand are when joined together.

Equality of Children in Liberty And Beneficence

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, again, has emphasised that parents should be just and fair to the children, particularly in matters of liberality and beneficence, and it must not be that while one got more, the other got less or nothing. Besides being desirable in itself, it also, meets the demands of justice and equity which is pleasing to the Almighty.

Apart from it, if discrimination is made among children and one is favoured more than the other, it will lead to ill-will and jealousy, and nothing but evil can come out of it.

The child who is discriminated against will, again, bears a grudge against his father, the painful consequences of which are easy to imagine.

(١٣٨٩/٢٤) عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ أَنَّ أَبَاهُ أَتَى بِهِ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّي نَحَلْتُ ابْنِي هَذَا غُلَامًا فَقَالَ أَكُلْ وَلَدَكَ نَحَلْتُ مِثْلَهُ؟ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَارْجِعْهُ — وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ إِنَّهُ قَالَ أَيْسُرُكَ أَنْ يَكُونُوا إِلَيْكَ فِي الْبِرِّ سَوَاءً قَالَ بَلَى قَالَ فَلَا إِذَا وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ أَعْطَانِي أَبِي عَطِيَّةً فَقَالَتْ عُمَرَةُ بِنْتُ رَوَاحَةَ لَا أَرْضَى حَتَّى تُشْهَدَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّي أَعْطَيْتُ ابْنِي مِنْ عُمَرَةَ بِنْتُ رَوَاحَةَ عَطِيَّةً فَأَمَرْتَنِي أَنْ أَشْهَدَكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ أَعْطَيْتَ سَائِرَ وَلَدِكَ مِثْلَ هَذَا؟ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَاعْدُوا لَوَاقِبِنِ أَوْلَادِكُمْ قَالَ فَرَجَعَ فَرَدَّ عَطِيَّتَهُ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لَا أَشْهَدُ عَلَى جَوْرٍ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1389/24) Narrated Nu'man ibn Bashir رضي الله عنه "My father took me to the Prophet ﷺ", according to some reports, "in his arms", and said: "I have given a slave to this son of mine". (In other narratives, a garden is mentioned in place of the slave). "The Prophet ﷺ enquired: 'Have you given the same to all of your sons?' 'No,' my father replied. '(I have given it only to him)'. He said: 'It is not correct. Take it back.'"

In another version, it is stated that he asked : "Do you want all your children to be equilly devoted to you?" "Yes, Messenger of Allah ﷺ", replied Bashir. "Of course". The Prophet ﷺ observed: "Then do not act like that. (Let it not be that you gave some property to one child and excluded the others)."

In yet another account, it is added that the Prophet ﷺ remarked, "I cannot be a witness to an act of injustice."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In this Tradition, it is enjoined upon parents not to discriminate among their children when it comes to giving them something as a gift etc., [Such a course has been condemned by the Holy Prophet ﷺ as unjust and unfair. Some authorities have even gone to the extent of calling it *Haraam*¹, but a majority of them, including three of the founders of the four leading scholars of Islamic Jurisprudence Imam Abu Hanifah, Imam Maalik and Imam Shaf'ee hold, on various grounds, that though it is not Haraam, it is *Mukrooh*² nevertheless, and highly undesirable.

It needs, however, be emphasised that the command applies only to a situation where the preferential treatment is based on a consideration that is not legitimate or justifiable in the eye of the Shari'ah, otherwise no blame will attach to it. For example, if a child is physically handicapped and cannot earn his livelihood like his brothers, a special favour to him will only not be incorrect, but, to an extent, essential and worthy of Divine reward. Similarly, should anyone, among one's children, dedicate himself to the cause of Faith or public welfare and have no time to look after his economic needs, it would, also, be correct and deserving of recompense in the Hereafter to make a reasonable allowance for him over and above the other children.

These apart, there is no harm if preference is shown to one of the children with the concurrence of his brothers.

(١٣٩٠/٢٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَوُّوا بَيْنَ أَوْلَادِكُمْ فِي الْعَطِيَّةِ فَلَوْ كُنْتُ مُفَضِّلًا أَحَدًا فَضَّلْتُ النِّسَاءَ.

(رواه سعيد بن منصور في سننه والطبرانی في الكبير)

(1390/25) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Treat all your children equally in regard to free giving. Were I to show preference, in this matter, I would show it to women, i.e., daughters. (If equality was not necessary and ibnding, I would have decreed that more was given to daughters than to sons)."

①. Signifying an act or thing forbidden by the Shari'ah.

②. An act or thing not absolutely forbidden by the Shari'ah, but from which it is advisable to abstain.

(Sunan Saeed Ibn Mansur and Tabarani)

Commentary: Some legists have concluded from it that though, after the death of the parents, the share of daughters to ancestral property is half of the sons, in their lifetime, the share of both, the sons and the daughters, is equal. Therefore, whatever, the parents give to the sons, in their lifetime, should, also, be given to the daughters.

Responsibility of Marriage

It is the duty of the parents to arrange for the marriage of their children when they come of age. The Prophet ﷺ has stressed that it should be taken seriously and with a full sense of responsibility.

(١٣٩١/٢٦) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ وَ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ وَلَدَ لَهُ وَلَدٌ فَلْيُحْسِنْ إِسْمَهُ وَأَدِّبْهُ فَإِذَا بَلَغَ فَلْيُزَوِّجْهُ فَإِنْ بَلَغَ وَلَمْ يُزَوِّجْهُ فَأَصَابَ إِنْمًا فَإِنَّمَا إِنْمُهُ عَلَى أَبِيهِ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1391/26) Abu Saeed Khudri and Abdullah ibn Abbas رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا related to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever is blessed by the Lord with children should give them good names, and a good training, and teach them good manners, and arragne for their marriage when they arrive at puberty. (If he does not pay due heed to it), and fails to get them married, on reaching the marriageable age, (due to negligence), and they take to ways that are forbidden, the father will be held responsible for it."

(Baihaqi)

Commentary: The marriage of the children, too, on their attaining the marriageable age, has been made a responsibility of the father. But, alas, we are growing increasingly indifferent to it mainly because we have made marriage a most tedious and expensive affair by following the example of others and adopting their customs.

If we take pattern by the good example of the Prophet ﷺ and begin to perform marriages as he had performed his own marriage or the marriages of his daughters, the whole thing will be as easy and simple as it is, so to speak, for a Muslim to celebrate the Friday prayers. Blessings will, then, follow of which we have deprived ourselves through thoughtless imitation of un-Islamic societies.

RIGHTS OF PARENTS ON CHILDREN

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has laid stress on the rights of Parents and duties of children, in that regard, in the same way as he has stressed the rights of children and duties of parents. In fact, he has given it the place of an Article of Faith in his teachings.

In the Qur'an, the rendering of obedience to parents and showing kindness to them has been enjoined along with the Oneness and worship of Allah in such a way that it appears that among human deeds, to obey the parents and treat them with respect and kindness is next only to Divine worship. To quote from Surah Bani Israel:

The Lord has ordained that ye worship none but Him; and to show kindness to your parents.

(Bani Isra'il 17:23)

وَقَضَىٰ رَبُّكَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ
وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا ط

(بنی اسرائیل . ۱۷ : ۲۳)

While describing the rights of parents at another place in Qur'an, in Surah Luqman, it is even stated that:

Should the parents of anyone be polytheists and want him, also, to follow their faith he ought to decline to obey them, but still continue to behave towards them with justice and consideration. (Luqman 31:15)

وَإِنْ جَاهِدَاكَ عَلَىٰ أَنْ تُشْرِكَ
بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا
تُطِعْهُمَا وَصَاحِبُهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا
مَعْرُوفًا (سوره لقمان . ۳۱ : ۱۵)

What is told in the Traditions that follow is simply an elucidation of these Commandments.

Parents Are The Heaven And Hell of The Children

(۱۳۹۲/۲۷) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا حَقُّ الْوَالِدَيْنِ عَلَيَّ
وَلَدِهِمَا قَالَ هُمَا جَنَّتُكَ وَنَارُكَ . (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1392/27) It is related by Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه that (once) a person asked the Prophet ﷺ : "How much is the claim of parents on their children?" "They are your Heaven and Hell," the Prophet ﷺ replied. (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that if a person obeys his parents and attends to their needs and comforts and keeps them happy, he will attain Paradise. On the other hand, whoever is rude and disobedient to his parents and offend them by ignoring their feelings or causing them grief in any other way is destined to make his home in Hell.

The Good Pleasure of The Lord is Related To The Good Pleasure of The Parents

(١٣٩٣/٢٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَضِيَ الرَّبُّ فِي رِضَى الْوَالِدِ وَسَخَطُ الرَّبِّ فِي سَخَطِ الْوَالِدِ. (رواه الترمذی)
(1393/28) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "In the good pleasure of the father lies the good pleasure of Allah, an, in his displeasure, the displeasure of Allah." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The purport of it is that anyone who seeks to please Allah should earn the good pleasure of his father. To keep the parents well pleased is essential to the earning of the countenance of the Lord while the anger and displeasure of the father leads to His anger and displeasure.

The word Walid is used which means 'father', while the equivalent for 'mother' in Arabic is Walidah. Thus, mother is not specifically mentioned in this Tradition, but as it is distinctly stated in the Tradition we are now going to discuss, the position of mother is even higher than that of father, and, as such, her pleasure or displeasure will carry an equal significance.

Claim of Mother is Greater

(١٣٩٤/٢٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ مَنْ أَحَقُّ بِحُسْنِ صَحَابَتِي قَالَ أُمُّكَ ثُمَّ أُمُّكَ ثُمَّ أَبَاكَ ثُمَّ أَدْنَاكَ. (رواه البخاري و مسلم)

(1394/29) Narrated Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that (once) a person

enquired from the Prophet ﷺ: "Who has the greatest claim on me with regard to service and kindly treatment?" The Prophet ﷺ replied: "Your mother; and again, your mother; and once again, your mother. After her, there is the claim of your father, and, after it, of your near kinsmen, and, then, of the kinsmen who are next to them." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The name of the questioner is not given in Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah, but, in Tirmizi and Abu Dawood, it is related, on the authority of Bahez ibn Hakeem ibn Muawiya Qushairi, that his father, Muawiya ibn Haidah Qushairi, had asked the Prophet ﷺ: "Man Abarro? (Whom should I serve and take care of)?" The Prophet ﷺ replied, "Ummaka. (Of your mother)". He, then, asked, "Summa Man? (Who comes next?)" The Prophet ﷺ replied, "Ummaka". He, once again, asked, "Summa Man?" "Ummaka", the Holy Prophet ﷺ replied again. After it, he asked for the fourth time, "Summa Man?" "Abaka Summal Aqraba Fal Aqraba. (After your mother is the claim of you father, and, then, grade by grade, of your relatives to loving kindness and affection)", the Prophet ﷺ replied.

The subject-matter of both the narratives and even the phrasing of the question and answers is almost identical. It is, therefore, highly probable that the questioner referred to in Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah's narrative was Muawiya ibn Hardah Qushairi, on the authority of whose grandson, Bahez ibn Hakeem, the other report has been quoted in Tirmizi and Abu Dawood.

Anyhow, the purport of both the Traditions, evidently, is that where care and kindly treatment are concerned, the claim of mother is greater than that of father.

From the Qur'an, too, it appears to be the same for at many places, in it, the pain and suffering the mother has to bear during pregnancy and at childbirth and in fostering and bringing up the children has been mentioned, in particular, along with the exhortation of showing kindness to parents.

Unfortunate is He Who is Not Regardful of Needs And Comforts of His Aged Parents (١٣٩٥/٣٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَغِمَ أَنْفُهُ رَغِمَ أَنْفُهُ قِيلَ مَنْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ وَالِدَيْهِ عِنْدَ الْكِبَرِ أَوْ أَحَدَهُمَا ثُمَّ لَمْ يَدْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1395/30) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "May he be humiliated; may he be disgraced; may he be brought low." "Who?" the Companions رضي الله عنهم enquired. "The unfortunate person whose parents or any one of them attain old age in his lifetime and he does not earn Paradise (by being kind-hearted and dutiful to them)." (Muslim)

Commentary: We have, already, seen Sayyidina Abu Umama's رضي الله عنه narrative that "Parents are the Heaven and Hell of their children." It, too, is obvious that parents need most to be looked after carefully in old age and to serve them devotedly in that state is most pleasing to the Lord and an easy way to attain Paradise. Hence, anyone who gets an opportunity to serve his parents in the declining years of their lives and does not make the best use of it, as a means to the attainment of Paradise, undoubtedly, is a most wretched person.

Service of The Parents is Preferable Even To Jihad In Certain Circumstances

(١٣٩٦/٣١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أُجَاهِدُ قَالَ أَلَاكَ أَبَوَانِ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَيُفِيهِمَا فَجَاهِدُ.
(رواه ابو داود)

(1396/31) Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه narrated that a person (once) came to the Prophet ﷺ and said that he wanted to participate in Jihad. "Are your parents alive?" enquired the Prophet ﷺ. "Yes", he replied. "They are alive." The Prophet ﷺ observed: "Then strive in their service and bring aid and succour to them. (This is your Jihad)." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Perhaps, there was reason for the Holy Prophet ﷺ to believe that the parents of the person concerned were in need of his help and attention and he had left them and come out for Jihad without taking their leave. That is why, he told him to go home and take care of them, for, in those circumstances, the service of the parents was more important.

It must, however, not be supposed that anyone whose parents are alive should not take part in Jihad, and only those were to do so whose parents had died. In fact, the parents of a large number of the Companions who joined in Jihad along with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ were living.

(١٣٩٧/٣٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ رَجُلًا هَاجَرَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ فَقَالَ هَلْ لَكَ أَحَدٌ بِالْيَمَنِ؟ قَالَ أَبَوَايَ فَقَالَ أَذِنَا لَكَ؟ قَالَ لَا، قَالَ إِرْجِعْ إِلَيْهِمَا فَاسْتَأْذِنُهُمَا فَإِنْ أَذِنَا لَكَ فَجَاهِدْ وَإِلَّا فَبِرَّهُمَا. (رواه أبو داود و أحمد)

(1397/32) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed Al-Khudri ؓ has said that someone migrated from Yemen to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ who asked him, "Have you anyone in Yemen?" He said, "Yes, I have my parents there." The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Have they given you permission to migrate?" He said, "No!" So, he said, "Go back to them and seek their permission (to come here and work for religion). If they permit you then come here and join in Jihad but if they do not allow you then carry on serving them and dealing kindly with them." (Abu Dawood, Ahmad)

Commentary: We can say of these ahadith on hijrah and Jihad that it depends on whether parents are old and in need of help and care for which there is no other alternative.

Heaven Lies Under The Feet of The Mother

(١٣٩٨/٣٣) عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ جَاهِمَةَ أَنَّ جَاهِمَةَ جَاءَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَغْزُوَ وَقَدْ جِئْتُ أَسْتَشِيرُكَ فَقَالَ هَلْ لَكَ مِنْ أُمٍّ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَالْزَمِهَا فَإِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ عِنْدَ رِجْلِهَا. (رواه أحمد والنسائي)

(1398/33) Mu'awiya ibn Jahima related to us "My father, Jahima, went to the Prophet ﷺ, and said: 'I intended to go on Jihad and have come to seek your advice'. The prophet ﷺ asked him : "Is your mother alive? ' 'Yes', he replied. 'Then stay with her and look after her needs. Your Heavens lies under her feet the Prophet ﷺ said." (Musnad Ahmad and Nasai)

Commentary: Apparently, the mother of Jahima needed attention, and, hence, the Prophet ﷺ gave him the advice.

(١٣٩٩/٣٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِمْتُ فَرَأَيْتُنِي فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَسَمِعْتُ فِيهَا قِرَاءَةً فَقُلْتُ مَنْ هَذَا؟ قَالُوا حَارِثَةُ بْنُ النُّعْمَانِ كَذَلِكَ الْبِرُّ كَذَلِكَ الْبِرُّ وَكَانَ أَبَرَّ النَّاسِ بِأُمِّهِ.

(رواه البغوي في شرح السنة والبيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1399/34) It is reported by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I was sleeping and in a dream found myself in Paradise. I heard someone reciting the Qur'an there and asked who he was that recited the Qur'an? I was told that he was Harith ibn Nu'man. This is how piety is! This is how piety is! Serving and obedience to parents is such!" (After relating his dream, the Prophet ﷺ said,) Harith ibn Nu'man was very obedient and caring for his mother. (That is why he earned the reward.)

Service of The Mother Can Atone For Major Sins

(١٤٠٠/٣٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أَصَبْتُ ذَنْبًا عَظِيمًا فَهَلْ لِي مِنْ تَوْبَةٍ؟ قَالَ هَلْ لَكَ مِنْ أُمٍّ؟ قَالَ لَا قَالَ وَهَلْ لَكَ مِنْ خَالَةٍ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَبِرِّهَا.

(رواه الترمذي)

(1400/35) Narrated Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that a person came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: "Messenger of Allah ﷺ I have committed a deadly sin. Can my repentance be accepted, (and my sin forgiven)?" "Is your mother living?" asked the Prophet. "No, She is dead," he replied, The Prophet ﷺ enquired: "Is there a sister of your mother?" "Yes", replied the man. "A sister of hers is living." Then treat her kindly and well. (Allah will accept your repentance through its propitiousness and forgive you your sin)", the Prophet ﷺ observed. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Though all good deeds annul evil deeds, some are more efficacious. The above Tradition tells that the service of parents, maternal aunt and maternal grandmother are among the acts by whose propitiousness even the repentance of the worst of sinners and evil-doers is accepted and they are forgiven.

Even An Infidel or Polytheist Mother Has A Claim To Kindly Feelings And Sympathy

(١٤٠١/٣٦) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ قَالَتْ قَدِمْتُ عَلَى أُمِّي وَهِيَ مُشْرِكَةٌ فِي عَهْدِ قُرَيْشٍ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ أُمِّي قَدِمَتْ عَلَى وَهِيَ رَاغِبَةٌ أَفَأَصِلُهَا؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ صِلِهَا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1401/36) Sayyidina Asma ibnt Abu Bakr رضى الله عنها narrated to us that during the days of the Treaty (of Hudaibiyah) between the Prophet ﷺ and Quraysh of Makkah, my mother who still followed her paganish creed came to me (travelling all the way to Madinah). I then asked the Prophet ﷺ that my mother had come and she was in need; could I help her? He replied: 'Yes; help her, (and treat her as a daughter should treat her mother)'."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها was the daughter of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ and an elder sister of Sayyidina Ayshah رضى الله عنها from a different mother. Her mother's name is given in the narratives as Qutaila ibnt Abdul Uzza, and Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ had divorced her even during the Age of Perversion. Anyhow, she had ceased to be his wife before the dawn of Islam and had held fast to her polytheistic creed. When, after the Treaty of Hudaibiyah, it had become possible for the pagans of Makkah to go to Madinah and for the Muslims of Madinah to go to Makkah, she had come to Madinah to visit her daughter. It was, then, that Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها enquired from the Prophet ﷺ how she was going to treat her; whether she should have nothing to do with her, as she was a pagan, or treat her like a daughter and show kindness. The Holy Prophet ﷺ told her to be kind and considerate and behave towards her as was a mother's due.

Earlier, we have quoted the Qur'anic verse that if anyone's parents were polytheists, and they, also, wanted him to follow their faith, he should decline to do their bidding, but continue to be kind and respectful to them.

Special Rights of Parents After Their Death

The rights of parents do not come to an end with their death. Some of these rights, actually, take effect after the parents have died, and it is a religious obligation of good and dutiful children to fulfil them.

(١٤٠٢/٣٧) عَنْ أَبِي أُسَيْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا نَحْنُ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذْ جَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ مِنْ بَنِي سَلَمَةَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ هَلْ بَقِيَ مِنْ بَرِّ أَبِي شَيْئٍ أَبْرُهُمَا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَوْتِهِمَا؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ الصَّلَاةُ عَلَيْهِمَا وَالِاسْتِغْفَارُ لَهُمَا وَانْفَادُ عَهْدِهِمَا وَصِلَةُ الرَّحِمِ الَّتِي لَا تُوَصَّلُ إِلَّا بِهِمَا وَاتِّكْرَامُ صَدِيقِهِمَا.

(رواه ابو داود و ابن ماجه)

(1402/37) Abu Usaid Sa'idi رضي الله عنه said "Once we were sitting with the Prophet ﷺ when a person belonging to the tribe of Bani Salma came, and said to him: 'O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Are there some rights of my parents on me which I have to fulfil even after they have died?' 'Yes', replied the Prophet ﷺ. ' (These are) to pray for mercy and forgiveness on their behalf, to fulfil the promises they may have made to anyone, to pay due regard to the bonds of relationship that are from their side, and to be respectful to their friends." (Abu Dawood adn Ibn Majah) (١٤٠٣/٣٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يَصِلَ أَبَاهُ فِي قَبْرِهِ فَلْيَصِلْ إِخْوَانَ أَبِيهِ بَعْدَهُ.

(رواه ابن حبان)
(1403/38) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever wishes to give comfort to his father in the grave should treat his (i.e., his father's) brothers kindly and well after his death." (Sahih Ibn Hibban)

(١٤٠٤/٣٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَمْرِ الْبِرِّ صِلَةُ الرَّجُلِ أَهْلَهُ وَدِّابَّتِهِ بَعْدَ أَنْ يُوْتَى.

(رواه مسلم)
(1404/39) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "An excellent way to serve one's father and show kindness to him, after his death, is that one should behave towards his friends with respect and politeness and discharge the claim of one's father's affection and friendship."

(Muslim)

Commentary: In both of these Traditions only the friends or brothers of the father have been mentioned, but as already stated, the claim of the mother is even greater with regard to it. Besides, in Abu Usaid Sa'idi's narrative we have just quoted, it is clearly told that both father and mother have the claim on their children, after their death, that they treated their relatives and friends with attention and honour.

(١٤٠٥/٤٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْعَبْدَ لَيَمُوتُ وَالِدَاهُ أَوْ أَحَدَهُمَا وَإِنَّهُ لَهُمَا لَعَاقُ فَلَا يَزَالُ يَدْعُو لَهُمَا وَيَسْتَغْفِرُ لَهُمَا حَتَّى يَكْتُبَهُ اللَّهُ بَارًّا.
(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1405/40) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It, also, happens, (sometimes), that the parents of a person or one of them dies and he has been disobedient to them, in their lifetime, and incurred their displeasure. But, after their death, he prays to Allah, (with a sincere heart), to have mercy on them and forgive them their sins, (and, thus, tries to make amends for his impudence), and the Lord, thereupon, declares the disobedient child obedient, (and, thus, he is saved from punishment for being rude to his parents)."
(Baihaqi)

Commentary: Just as to obey one's parents and treat them with respect and affection is a virtue of the highest order and becomes an atonement even for major sins, to beseech the Lord earnestly, after their death, to show mercy to them, also, is an act which, on the one hand, brings comfort to them in their graves, and, on the other, serves as an expiation for the wrongs the children may have committed in that respect, and they become worthy of Divine mercy and beneficence in the Hereafter.

In the Qur'an, the Muslims have been exhorted, particularly, to pray for the salvation of their parents. It says:

And say: My Lord! Have mercy on them both as they did care for me when I was little.

(Bani Isra'il 17:24)

وَقُلْ رَبِّ ارْحَمْهُمَا كَمَا رَبَّيَانِي
صَغِيرًا. (بنی اسرائیل ۱۷: ۲۴)

Worldly Advantages of Showing Kindness And Obedience to Parents

The real reward of serving the parents with thoughtful attention is Paradise and in the good pleasure of the Lord, but the Almighty bestows some special favour in this world, too, on bondsmen who are devoted to their parents and care for their wishes and comfort.

(١٤٠٦/٤١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَزِيدُ

فِي عُمْرِ الرَّجُلِ بِرَّهُ وَالِدَيْهِ. (رواه ابن منيع وابن عدى)

(1406/41) Sayyidina Jaber رضي الله عنه related to us that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Allah prolongs the life of a person who obeys his parents and serves them devotedly."

(Musnad Ibn Man'ee and Kamil Ibn Adee)

Commentary: Traditions like it are not inconsistent with the doctrine of predestination. It was known to Allah from the beginning of time that such-and-such a man will be kind and obedient to his parents, and, therefore, the span of life allotted to him was greater than what it would have been were it otherwise.

All the Traditions in which tidings of abundance in sustenance are given should, also, be seen in the same light though prosperity or porverty, too, is determined beforehand.

(١٤٠٧/٤٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِرُّوْا آبَاءَكُمْ

كَمْ يَبْرِ أَبْنَاءُكُمْ وَعَفُّوا نِسَاءَكُمْ. (رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1407/42) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Obey your parents and treat them with kindness, your children will be kind and obedient to you; and live with purity, your wives will stay pure." (Tabarani)

Commentary: Those children who are obedient to their parents will find that, their children will be obedient to them. And those men who lead a chaste life will find that their wives are chaste.

Disobedience And Cruelty Towards Parents is A Most Grievous Sin

In the same manner as the Holy Prophet ﷺ has declared that to serve one's parents well and keep them happy and in comfort is an act of exceptional virtue, he has condemned showing of disobedience to them or causing them pain and distress in any way as a most serious and detestable sin.

(١٤٠٨/٤٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ سَأَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْكَبَائِرِ فَقَالَ الْإِشْرَاقُ بِاللَّهِ وَعُقُوقُ الْوَالِدَيْنِ وَقَتْلُ النَّفْسِ وَشَهَادَةُ الزُّورِ. (رواه البخارى)
(1408/43) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه related to us that (Once) the Prophet ﷺ was asked about the major sins. He replied: " To associate anyone with Allah; to disobey the parents and cause them pain or injury; to kill unlawfully; and to give a false evidence. (Bukhari)

Commentary: In another report, appearing, also, in Bukhari the aforementioned acts have been condemned as Akbarul Kaba'ir the most deadly among the deadly sins. The order in which the Holy Prophet ﷺ has set them forth shows that the disregard and violation of the rights of parents is next, in gravity, only polytheism, and even more serious than murder.

(١٤٠٩/٤٤) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْكَبَائِرِ شَتَمُ الرَّجُلِ وَالِدَيْهِ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَهَلْ يَشْتِمُ الرَّجُلُ وَالِدَيْهِ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ يَسُبُّ أَبَا الرَّجُلِ فَيَسُبُّ أَبَاهُ وَيَسُبُّ أُمَّهُ فَيَسُبُّ أُمَّهُ. (رواه البخارى)
(1409/44) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "To abuse one's parents, also, is a major sin." "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, it was asked. "Can anyone abuse his parents?" "Yes," the Prophet ﷺ replied. "It is like this that a person abused any one's parents, and he, in retaliation, abused his parents. (It would mean that he himself had abused his parents)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that to say or do anything to anyone as a result of which he may start abusing one's parents is, in effect, similar to abusing one's own parents and belongs to the category of major sins.

We can imagine from it what an important place respect for parents occupies in the moral and social teachings of Islam and how careful should one be about it.

Rights of Other Relatives

Besides parents, a great emphasis is, also, laid on the rights of other relatives, and the special terms used for it, in Islamic ethics, is Silah Rahmi which denotes "loving and treating one's relatives well."

In the Qur'an, where it is enjoined upon the Believers to show kindness to parents, they are required to treat other relatives with love and sympathy and pay a due regard to their rights as well by including Wa zil qurba (meaning "and unto near kindred") in the commandment.

A few pages ago, we had discussed the Tradition from Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim which read: "The foremost claim to loving kindness and thoughtful attention on you is of your mother, and, then, of your father, and then, grade by grade, of the other relatives."

We take up, now, some of the relevant Traditions.

(١٤١٠/٤٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الرَّحِمُ شُجْنَةٌ مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى مَنْ وَصَلَكَ وَصَلْتُهُ وَمَنْ قَطَعَكَ قَطَعْتُهُ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1410/45) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying that ties of relationship (rahima) is a word derived from the Compassionate One (Ar Rahman). And Allah said, "I shall keep connection with him who keeps you tied and sever connection with him who severs you." (Bukhari)

Commentary: The mutual close relationship and kinship between people has much in common with the Name of Allah, Rahman and His Attribute Mercy. In fact, that is its source, and that is why it is called rahima. It is thus that Allah will keep ties with him who maintains ties with other people. But, as for those who sever ties, Allah will also sever ties with them. This shows how much emphasis the Holy Prophet ﷺ has laid on joining ties.

(١٤١١/٤٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ قَالَ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى أَنَا اللَّهُ وَأَنَا الرَّحْمَنُ خَلَقْتُ الرَّحِمَ

وَشَفَقْتُ لَهَا مِنْ إِسْمِي فَمَنْ وَصَلَهَا وَصَلْتُهُ وَمَنْ قَطَعَ بَتْنَهُ. (رواه أبو داود)
 (1411/46) Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf رضي الله عنه related that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Allah, the Most High, says: 'I am Allah; I am Al-Rahman (the Merciful); I have created the bond of kinship and given it the name of Rahima which I have obtained from the root of My Name, Rahman. Thus, whoever will join it, I shall join him, whoever will break it, I shall break him.'"
 (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The Almghity, in His Infinite Wisdom, has designed the system of birth in such a way that whoever is born is tied to bonds of kinship, and these bonds carry certain rights and claims which the Lord has been pleased to classify under the title of Rahima. It is derived from His own Name of Rahman. Thus, whoever will fulfil these claims, i.e., show kindness to his relatives and treat them well the promise for him is that Allah will join him, i.e., make him His own and bestow His favour and relationship that one break, Allah will break him, i.e., have nothing to do with him.

The unhappy circumstances in which we find ourselves today and the spectacle of the denial of Divine Benevolence we present is, of course, due to our negligence and want of principle in the different spheres of life, but in the light of these Traditions, it can be confidently said that apathy and indifference as regards the rights of relatives is, to a large extent, responsible for our misfortune. There is, in fact, little to choose between our conduct and the conduct of non-Muslims where the rights of kinship are concerned.

Other Blessings

(١٤١٢/٤٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَحَبَّ أَنْ يُسَيِّطَ لَهُ فِي رِزْقِهِ وَيُنْسَأَ لَهُ فِي أَثَرِهِ فَلْيَصِلْ رَحِمَهُ. (رواه البخاري ومسلم)
 (1412/47) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever wants an increase in his sustenance and that the marks of his feet remain for a long time in the world, (i.e., he lives long) should be kind and helpful to his relatives."
 (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: As it has been stated repeatedly in the Qur'an and the Traditions, Allah bestows His favour on some good actions in this world as well. In the above report, it is told that to fulfil the rights of relatives and treat them with kindness is such a virtuous deed that, in return for it, Allah multiplies a person's wealth and prolongs his life.

There can, on the whole, be two ways of being good, kind and considerate to one's relatives. One is by giving them monetary help, and the other by devoting a part of one's time and energy to their service. An increase in one's life-span and sustenance, in recompense for it, is not only understandable, but, also, corresponds wholly with the Infinite Wisdom and Benevolence of the Lord.

From the point of view of the ordinary operation of cause and effect, too, there is nothing improbable in it. Family quarrels which generally, arise from the violation and disregard of the rights of relatives tell upon a man's health and make it difficult for him to concentrate on his work while those who treat their relatives well and are sympathetic and helpful to them are, comparatively, free from tensions of this kind, and their circumstances, on the whole, are happier and more peaceful.

Serving Ties is An Impediment to Salvation

(١٤١٣/٤٨) عَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

لَا يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ قَاطِعٌ.
(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1413/48) It is related by Jubayr ibn Mut'im رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever violates the rights of kinship shall not go to Heaven." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This one Tradition, should be enough to make us realise the importance of joining ties in the Islamic scheme of things. It shows that violation of the rights of relatives is so greatly abhorrent to Allah that, with its filthiness, no one will be able to enter Heaven. It is only when a person has been cleansed through punishment or forgiven owing to some reason that the Gate of Paradise will be opened for him.

Showing Kindness Even to Those Who Sever The Ties of Kinship

In the family we, often, have an experience of people who care little for the bonds of kinship and are rude and unjust to us. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has enjoined upon us to continue to treat them well and fulfil our obligations irrespective of what they do and how they behave.

(١٤١٤/٤٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ الْوَاصِلُ بِالْمُكَافِي وَلَكِنَّ الْوَاصِلَ الَّذِي إِذَا قُطِعَتْ رَحْمَتُهُ وَصَلَّهَا.

(رواه البخارى)

(1414/49) Abdullah ibn Uamr ؓ quoted the Prophet ﷺ as saying, "The one to join ties is not truly the one who reciprocates a kind act of relatives but the one to join ties is he who joins ties even when others sever them." (Bukhari)

Commentary: When violation of the rights of relatives is returned in the like manner, the evil will, naturally, spread in the society, while if those who are ill-disposed are treated with kindness and affection, it may lead to their correction and be conducive to the promotion of Silah Rahmi in the life of the community.

MUTUAL RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF HUSBAND AND WIFE

The special significance of matrimony in the economy of human relationships and the distinctive aims and advantages that are associated with it are self-evident. Peace of mind and a happy and contented life are, to a great extent, dependent on how satisfying one's married life is and on the state of mutual love and trust that obtains between husband and wife. Besides, the main ends and objects of marriage, obviously, are that both the parties enjoy the pleasures of life with purity, which is possible on through the wedlock, and the continuity of the human race is maintained with dignity which is the Will and Pleasure of the Almighty Creator. These objects, also, can be realised suitably when relations between man and wife are happy and there is love, sympathy and good understanding between them.

The chief purpose of the guidance furnished by the Holy Prophet ﷺ concerning the rights and duties of matrimony, simply, is that the wedlock proved a source of joy and satisfaction to both man and wife, their hearts remained united, and the aims for which the institution of marriage had been founded were attained in the best possible manner.

The substance of the Prophet's teachings is that the wife should regard her husband over and above everyone else, as far as she was concerned, and remained faithful to him. She should leave nothing to be desired by way of devotion and earnestness, and believe that for her the felicity and welfare of both the worlds lay in his good pleasure.

The husband, on his part, ought to consider his wife a blessing of Allah, and give her, ungrudgingly, of his love, and hold her in high esteem. If the wife makes a mistake, the husband should overlook it, and try to correct her with tact and patience, and look after her needs and comforts to the best of his ability.

In order to appreciate the true worth of these precepts, we should remember the social, cultural and moral climate of the world, and, particularly, of Arabia, 1400 years ago, in which women were treated like cattles and enjoyed no rights in society.

The Foremost Claim on Wife is of Her Husband

(١٤١٥/٥٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْبَرُ النَّاسِ حَقًّا عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ زَوْجُهَا وَأَكْبَرُ النَّاسِ حَقًّا عَلَى الرَّجُلِ أُمُّهُ.

(رواه الحاكم في المستدرک)

(1415/50) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The greatest claim on a woman is of her husband, and the greatest claim on a man is of his mother."

(Mustadrak Haakim)

If Prostration Was Allowed Before Anyone Besides Allah A Wife Would Have Prostrated Before Her Husband

(١٤١٦/٥١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كُنْتُ أَمْرًا أَحَدًا أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِأَحَدٍ لَأَمَرْتُ الْمَرْأَةَ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِزَوْجِهَا.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1416/51) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reported the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying: "If I were to order anyone to prostrate himself before another, I would order a woman to prostrate herself before her husband."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: There can be no other way to impress on anyone the rights of another than these words. The hadith says that a husband enjoys the most rights over his wife after Allah. She must obey him and leave no stone unturned in pleasing him.

(1417/52) Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه is cited by Imam Ahmad as reporting the same hadith in these words:

لَا يَصْلَحُ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِبَشَرٍ وَلَوْ صَلَحَ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِبَشَرٍ لَأَمَرْتُ الْمَرْأَةَ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِزَوْجِهَا مِنْ عَظَمِ حَقِّهِ عَلَيْهَا.

(الحديث)

"It is not allowed to anyone to prostrate before another. But, if it was proper then I would have ordered woman to prostrate herself before her husband because he has a very great right over her."

(1418/53) Again, Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضي الله عنه has quoted an incident of Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه. Ibn Majah has transmitted it:

"The well-known Companion, Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه had been to Syria. When he returned, he prostrated himself before the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, who asked in amazement, مَا هَذَا يَا مُعَاذُ؟
"What is this, Mu'az?"

He explained that he had been to Syria where he saw its people prostrate themselves before their religious leaders, priests and chiefs. So he was inclined to show the same reverence to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Do not do that", He added, فَإِنِّي لَوُكُنْتُ أَمِيرًا أَحَدًا أَنْ يُسْجَدَ لِغَيْرِ اللَّهِ لَا مَرُثَ الْمَرْأَةِ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لَزَوْجِهَا.

(الحديث)

"If I were to ask anyone to prostrate himself before another besides Allah, I would have asked women to prostrate themselves before their husbands."

(1419/54) We find a similar case of Qays ibn Sa'd رضي الله عنه transmitted by Abu Dawood. He has said, "I went to al-Hira and saw its people prostrating themselves before their rulers. So, I thought the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is more deserving of a prostration made before him. When I came to him I told that I had gone to al-Hira and seen its people prostrate themselves before their ruler, and I added that:

أَرَأَيْتَ لَوْ مَرَرْتُ بِقَبْرِى أَكُنْتُ تَسْجُدُ لَهُ؟ فَقُلْتُ لَا فَقَالَ لَا تَفْعَلُوا

He had more right to have people prostrate before him. He asked me if I would prostrate myself before his grave when I passed before it¹ and I said that I would not. He then said:

لَوْ كُنْتُ أَمْرًا أَحَدًا أَنْ يُسْجَدَ لِأَحَدٍ لَا مَرُثَ النِّسَاءِ أَنْ يُسْجَدْنَ لِأَزْوَاجِهِنَّ لِمَا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لَهُنَّ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ حَقٍّ.

'None of you must do it. If I were to command anyone to make ①. He wanted to show Qays رضي الله عنه that he was a mortal while it is the right of an immortal that others prostrate themselves before him.

prostration before another. I would command women to prostrate themselves before their husbands because of the special right over them given to the husbands by Allah.

(1420/55) Masnad Ahmad has another incident narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. A camel came and prostrated itself before the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Seeing this, his Companions رضي الله عنهم said to him, "Messenger of Allah! Beasts and trees prostrate themselves before you (that is, bow down before you and the camel did) but it is more rightful that for us to do so." He said,

أَعْبُدُوا رَبَّكُمْ وَاتَّقُوا أَسَاطِيرَ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ أَمْرًا أَحَدًا أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِأَحَدٍ لَأَمَرْتُ الْمَرْأَةَ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِزَوْجِهَا. (الحديث)

"Worship your Lord alone, and honour you brother (that is, myself). If I were to order any one of you to prostrate himself before another, I would order a woman to prostrate herself before her husband " (to the end).

The different ahadith tell us that the Prophet ﷺ had declared on different occasions the rights a husband enjoys over his wife and the question of prostrating herself before him.

Prostration is Only For Allah

It is very clear from these ahadith that prostration is made only before Allah. It is not allowed before anyone else, not even the best of Allah's creation, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ. It is also clear that Sayyidina Mu'az رضي الله عنه or Sayyidina Qays ibn Sa'd رضي الله عنه or any other Companion had referred only to a prostration of respect, we cannot even imagine that these people had in mind worship or devotion. Anyone who believes and accepts the Prophet's ﷺ call to the monotheism cannot have the temptation too to prostrate himself before one besides Allah. These people had in mind the prostration of respect or greeting and the scholars, therefore, declare that even the prostration of greetings or respect before any creature is forbidden. Hence, those people, who prostrate before their murshid (mentors) or their graves, violate the Islamic Shari'ah, and they are in rebellion with Islam and their behaviour is polytheistic.

(These lines on the question of prostration before any besides Allah were in explanation of the foregoing ahadith. We now resume the original topic.)

Obedience And Loyalty to Husband

In matrimonial arrangement, it was necessary that the husband enjoyed a position of leadership, and his duties and obligations, too, were determined accordingly. Man, consequently, has been declared the head of the family in the Islamic Shari'ah and great responsibilities have been assigned to him. Says the Qur'an:

الرِّجَالُ قَوَّامُونَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ (النساء ٣٤:٤)

Men are in charge of women. (Al Nisaa 4:34).

For the women the Commandment is that they obeyed the husbands as their lord and head of the household, and fulfilled the peculiar domestic responsibilities and devolved on them in that capacity. Hence, about them, it has been stated in the Qur'an that:

فَالصَّالِحَاتُ قَانِتَاتٌ حَافِظَاتٌ لِّلْغَيْبِ (النساء ٣٤:٤)

Good women are obedient, and guard the honour and every trust of the husband (even in their) absence. (Al Nisaa 4:34)

If the wife fails to submit to her husband, and instead of serving him devotedly and complying with his wishes, adopt an attitude of defiance and insubordination, it will, naturally, lead to discord in the family which will be ruinous for both and they will be loser in this world as well as the next. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has, therefore, stressed upon he wives to be loyal and faithful to thier husbands and seek their pleasure and gratification, and, also, promised a vast reward on it in the Hereafter.

(١٤٢١/٥٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَرْأَةُ

إِذَا صَلَّتْ خَمْسَهَا وَصَامَتْ شَهْرَهَا وَأَخَصَّتْ فَرْجَهَا وَأَطَاعَتْ بَعْلَهَا فَلْتَدْخُلْ

مِنْ أَيِّ أَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ شَاءَتْ. (رواه ابو نعيم فى الحلية)

(1421/56) It is related by Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If a woman offers the five daily prayers, and keeps the fasts of Ramadhan, and guards her honour, and obeys her husband then she can enter Heaven, (as of right), by whatever Gate she likes."

(Hilyah Abu Na'eem)

Commentary: In this Tradition, loyalty and obedience to husband has been mentioned along with prayer, fasting and guarding oneself against adultery. It denotes that, in the Shari'ah, submission to the husband and compliance with his wishes is as important as the principal tenets and duties of the Faith.

(١٤٢٢/٥٧) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا

إِمْرَأَةٍ مَاتَتْ وَزَوْجُهَا عَنْهَا رَاضٍ دَخَلَتْ الْجَنَّةَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1422/57) Sayyidah Umm Salmah رضى الله عنها related to us that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A woman who dies in the state that her husband is pleased with her shall go to Heaven." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: As we have stressed repeatedly, when the tidings of Paradise are given on a particular deed it shows that the deed is most pleasing to the Lord and the recompense on it, in the Hereafter, is Heaven.

If, however, the person concerned is guilty of a sin which necessarily is punishable with Hell, its consequences, also, will have to be borne by him, in accordance with the Divine Law. The meaning of the aforementioned narrative of Sayyidah Umm Salmah رضى الله عنها should be seen in this light.

Another thing worth mentioning, here, is that should a husband be displeased with his wife without any fault of hers, she will be innocent in the sight of Allah and the responsibility for annoyance shall rest with the husband.

These represented the ahadith concerning rights of husbands. We will now see the ahadith about the rights of wives.

Rights of Wives And Respecting Them

(١٤٢٣/٥٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ (فِي حَدِيثٍ طَوِيلٍ فِي قِصَّةِ حُجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ قَالَ رَسُولُ

اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي خُطْبَتِهِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ) اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ فِي النِّسَاءِ وَإِنَّكُمْ

أَخَذْتُمُوهُنَّ بِأَمَانٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَاسْتَحْلَلْتُمْ فُرُوجَهُنَّ بِكَلِمَةٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَلَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ إِلَّا يُؤْطِئَنَّ

فُرْشَكُمْ أَحَدًا تَكْرَهُونَهُ فَإِنْ فَعَلْنَ ذَلِكَ فَاضْرِبُوهُنَّ ضَرْبًا غَيْرَ مُبْرِحٍ وَلَهُنَّ

عَلَيْكُمْ رِزْقُهُنَّ وَكِسْوَتُهُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1423/58) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه has narrated (in a lengthy hadith about the Hajjatul Wada' that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said in his sermon:

"O People! Fear Allah concerning your wives. You have taken them on the security of Allah as your wives and they have become lawful to you on His very words and Commands. It is your right that you do not wish that someone come and sit on your beds. If they commit that mistake, you may punish them (in warning) but not severely. And, it is your responsibility to arrange for their food and clothing (and necessities) in a reasonable manner." (Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith emphasises that men must not misuse their authority bestowed on them by Allah over their wives. They must fear Allah in this regard. They have taken their wives on the basis of rules of marriage prescribed by Shair'ah. Their wives have the protection of Allah when they are under their authroity. If husbands are cruel to them they would be guilty of violating the protection of Allah. This indeed is a great honour for women.

The hadith also tells us that a woman must not let any man or woman enter her house whom her husband does not like to come and converse with her¹.

The hadith then tells us that if the women disobey, their husbands may punish them in a reasonable manner but never severely.

The hadith concludes with mentioning the rights of wives that husbands are bound to provide for their basic necessities.

Advice Concerning Kindly Treatment To Wives

(١٤٢٤/٥٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
اِسْتَوْصُوا بِالنِّسَاءِ خَيْرًا فَإِنَّهُنَّ خُلِقْنَ مِنْ صَلَاحٍ وَإِنَّ أَعْوَجَ شَيْءٍ فِي الصِّلَعِ
أَعْلَاهُ فَإِنْ ذَهَبَتْ تُقِيمُهُ كَسَرْتَهُ وَإِنْ تَرَكْتَهُ لَمْ يَزَلْ أَعْوَجَ فَاسْتَوْصُوا

①. The background is that it was a common practice among Arabs to visit their relatives and acquaintances and speak to women although many a husband did not like many of them to visit her in his absence.

بِالنِّسَاءِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1424/59) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "O people! Follow my advice concerning the kindly treatment to wives. (I charge you to treat your wives with kindness and love). Woman has been created from the rib (and the rib is curved by nature), and the greatest curve is in the upper part of it. If you try to straighten the curved rib by force, it will break, and if you leave it alone (and make no effort to correct it), it will remain curved forever. So, follow my advice, and treat your wives kindly and well." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: What has been said about women, in it, that they have been created from the rib — is, apparently, allegorical, and, according to Shah Waliulla's explanation, the purport of the Tradition is that there is some natural curvedness in the nature of a woman as there is in the rib. It, further tells, that the greatest curve is in the upper part of the rib which, perhaps, denotes that the curvedness in the nature of a woman, mostly, lies in the upper part of the body, that is, the head and the tongue.

It, again, is told that if an attempt is made to straighten the curved rib by force, it will break, while if it is left alone, it will remain curved permanently. Thus, whoever will try to remove the curvedness of a woman's nature by force will not only not succeed, but it may, also, end up in separation. At the same time, if nothing is done by way of correction and reform, the curvedness will stay as it is, and the happiness and tranquillity which is the chief purpose of matrimonial alliance will not be gained. Thus, men should better overlook the minor faults and weaknesses of their wives and behave towards them in a loving and kindly manner. It may, ultimately, lead to an improvement in their disposition as well.

(١٤٢٥/٦٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

لَا يَفْرَكُ مُؤْمِنٌ مُؤْمِنَةً إِنْ كَرِهَ مِنْهَا خُلُقًا رَضِيَ مِنْهَا آخَرَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1425/60) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه related that the Prophet ﷺ said: "No believing man hates his believing wife. If there is a bad quality in her, there will, also, be a good quality." (Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that if a man disliked his wife for some reason, he should not adopt an attitude of hatred or indifference towards her and start thinking in terms of divorce, but look for the good qualities in her and learn to admire her because of them. This is the claim of Faith on a believing husband and the privilege of a believing wife. As the Qur'an says:

'But consort with them in kindness, for if ye hate them it may happen that ye hath a thing wherein Allah hate placed much good. (Al Nisaa 4:19)

وَعَاشِرُوهُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ فَإِنْ
كَرِهْتُمُوهُنَّ فَعَسَى أَنْ تَكْرَهُوا
شَيْئًا وَيَجْعَلَ اللَّهُ فِيهِ خَيْرًا كَثِيرًا.
(النساء، ١٩:٤)

Good And Kindly Treatment To Wives is A Condition of Perfection in Faith

(١٤٢٦/٦١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَكْمَلِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِيْمَانًا أَحْسَنُهُمْ خُلُقًا وَالْأَطْفَهُمْ بِأَهْلِهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1426/61) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Among Muslims his Faith is more perfect whose behaviour toward (everyone) is good, and, (particularly), towards his wife is of love and kindness." (Tirmizi)

(١٤٢٧/٦٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْمَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِيْمَانًا أَحْسَنُهُمْ خُلُقًا وَخَيْرُكُمْ خَيْرُكُمْ لِنِسَائِهِمْ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1427/62) Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه related to us that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Among Muslims they are more perfect in Faith who are perfect in morals, and, (in fact), the best of you are those who are best to their wives." (Tirmizi)

Behaviour of Holy Prophet Towards His Wives

(١٤٢٨/٦٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُكُمْ خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِهِ وَأَنَا خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِي (رواه الترمذی والدارمی ورواه ابن ماجه عن ابن عباس)

(1428/63) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Good among you are those who are good to their wives; and I, (on my part), am very good to my wives." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that a special mark of goodness is that a man treated his wife lovingly and well. To make the advice more effective for the Muslims, the Prophet ﷺ added that, by the grace of Allah, he was most kind and considerate to his wives himself.

The attitude of the sacred Prophet ﷺ towards his wives was perfect, indeed, a few examples of which are contained in the narratives given below.

(١٤٢٩/٦٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ الْعَبُّ بِالْبَنَاتِ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَ لِي صَوَاحِبٌ يَلْعَبْنَ مَعِيَ فَكَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ يَنْقِمِعْنَ مِنْهُ فَيُسِرُّ بِهِنَّ إِلَيَّ فَيَلْعَبْنَ مَعِيَ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1429/64) It is narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that she used to play with dolls (even after her marriage to the Prophet ﷺ and arrival at his house). Some of her friends played with her. When the Prophet ﷺ came to the house, they would (quit playing out of respect for him) and hide in an inner portion of the house but he would send them back to her (and let them play). So they would resume play with her. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: She was nine years old when she came to the Prophet's house as his wife¹. She played with dolls and not only did the Prophet ﷺ not stop her from playing but he also encouraged her to play on.

The Question of Doll And Pictures

The question could arise in some minds that while Islam disallowed pictures of animate beings, how did the Prophet ﷺ allow her to play with dolls? Some authorities have suggested that the ban on pictures was imposed much later in Madinah while she had married the Prophet ﷺ and played with dolls in the initial days of his migration to Madinah. However, I personally feel that her dolls did not fall under the purview of the ban on pictures. Today when we have progressed much in the act of stitching, young girls continue to play with crude dolls with imperfect outline and appearance which cannot be called pictures in any way.

- ①. The wives of the Prophet ﷺ whom he married besides her were either old women or widows. She alone was a young girl. There are several reasons for that but the chief is that she could become a teacher and guide for the Muslims on the Prophet's life.

Competition in A Race

(١٤٣٠/٦٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ قَالَتْ فَسَابَقْتُهُ فَسَبَقْتُهُ عَلَى رِجْلِي فَلَمَّا حَمَلْتُ اللَّحْمَ سَابَقْتُهُ فَسَبَقَنِي قَالَ هَذِهِ بَيْتُكَ السَّبَقَةِ.

(رواه ابو داود)
(1430/65) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها related to us: "(Once) I was accompanying the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on a journey and we ran a race, and I won. Afterwards, when I had grown fat, we, (again), competed (with each-other) in a race, and, this time, he won. Upon it, the Prophet ﷺ remarked: 'Now, we quit.'"

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Indeed this is a pointer to those who have no place for such a thing in their lives.

Showing a Sport to Sayyidah Ayshah

(١٤٣١/٦٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ وَاللَّهِ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُومُ عَلَى بَابِ حُجْرَتِي وَالْحَبَشَةُ يُلْعَبُونَ بِالْحِرَابِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتُرُنِي بِرِدَائِهِ لَا نَظَرَ إِلَى لَعِبِهِمْ بَيْنَ أُذُنِهِ وَعَاتِقِهِ ثُمَّ يَقُومُ مِنْ أَجْلِي حَتَّى أَكُونُ أَنَا الَّتِي أَنْصَرِفَ فَأَقْدُرُوا قَدْرَ الْجَارِيَةِ الْحَدِيثَةِ السِّنِّ الْحَرِيصَةِ عَلَى اللَّهْوِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1341/66) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها related to us, "By Allah, I have been a witness to the spectacle that, (one day), the Abyssinians were having a sport of lancing in the Mosque. To show it to me, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ stood at the door of my apartment (which opened in the Mosque), using his mantle as a screen for me, and I watched the game through (the space) between his shoulder and ear. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ kept standing for my sake till (I felt I had seen enough of it, and) retired. (She added) "You can imagine, (from it), what was the place of a young and funloving girl." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The incident narrated above is enough to show how considerate the sacred Prophet ﷺ was to his wives, and what pains did he take to make them happy. There is a great lesson, in it, for the Ummah¹.

①. Meaning the Muslim community as a whole.

Allowance for Entertainment in 'Eid

It should be noted that the afore-mentioned incident had taken place on the day of Eid², as is distinctly stated in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim. Allowance has been made, within prescribed limits, for entertainment on the festival of Eid as popular fun and relaxation, too, fulfils an important human need.

It is, further, related, again on the authority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim and other standard compilations of the Traditions that once, on the day of Eid, the Prophet ﷺ was lying, covered with a sheet, that two little girls came and began to sing, on the tambourine, about the battle of Buas. In the meantime, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ came and told the girls to get out. The Prophet ﷺ uncovered his face and said: "Abu Bakr, leave the girls alone! (Let them do what they are doing. This is the day of Eid)." (meaning allowance had been made, to some extent, for recreation on that day).

The Sport Was in The Nature of A Drill, And That Was Why The Prophet Had Watched it Himself

Another thing is that the game of lancing the Abyssinians were playing was a kind of drill and a form of military training, and it was, probably, for that reason that the Holy Prophet ﷺ had taken an interest in it. In some versions of the same Tradition appearing, also, in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim, it is mentioned that the Prophet ﷺ used to encourage manly sports. In addition, it is stated that Sayyidina Umar ؓ wanted to drive away the Abyssinians, but the sacred Prophet ﷺ told him to let them play, and to the Africans he said: "Go on with your game."

The Question of Hijab

Now, for the question of Hijab². It is evident that the Abyssinians were Ghair Mahram³ and strangers for Sayyidah

①. A Muslim festival observed on the first of Shawwal.

②. Meaning privacy, modesty and concealment as prescribed in the Shari'ah for women.

③. Literally, a stranger. In Islamic usage, it denotes one who is not permitted to enter women's apartments, and is not (as regards marriage) within the forbidden degrees.

Ayshah رضى الله عنها, and such being the case, why did the Holy Prophet ﷺ let her watch them at play?

Some commentators have offered the explanation that it had taken place in the early days when the Commandment of Hijab had not been revealed. But it does not hold good in the light of the narratives. It is stated by Hafiz Ibn Hajar, in Fath-al-Bari, on the basis of Ibn Hibba's account of the above Tradition, that the incident occurred in 7 A.H., and the commandment of Hijab had, definitely, been revealed before it.

Besides, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها herself has said that while she was watching the game, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had provided the screen for her with his mantle which would have been unnecessary had the injunction concerning Hijab not been sent down till then.

Some authorities, moreover, have argued that since there was, definitely, no question of an evil thought arising in Sayyidah Aysha رضى الله عنها mind on watching the Abyssinians at play, it was lawful on her part to do so. It is not forbidden for a woman to see a stranger in circumstances in which she is safe from temptation and protected against being led into evil. Imam Bukhari has referred to the same explanation in Kitab-un-Nikah (The Book of Marriage) of Sahih Bukhari, and it doubtlessly, is more convincing.

RIGHTS OF NEIGHBOURS

Apart from a man's parents, children and near relatives, there, also, exists a permanent association between him and his neighbours. The state of this association, whether it is good or otherwise, exercises a deep influence on his life and morals. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has attached a great importance to it and exhorted his followers to pay a due regard to the rights of neighbours, to the extent that he has declared good neighbourliness to be a part of Faith, and essential requisite to salvation, and a measure of one's love for Allah and His Messenger.

Continuous Exhortation of Jibrail (Gabriel) With Regard to The Rights of Neighbours

(١٤٣٢/٦٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ وَابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا زَالَ

جِبْرِائِيلُ يُوصِينِي بِالْجَارِ حَتَّى ظَنَنْتُ أَنَّهُ سَيُورَثُهُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1432/67) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Jibrail counselled me so persistently about the rights of the neighbour that I felt he was going to declare him a heir." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that Jibrail brought commandments from Allah concerning the rights of the neighbour so frequently, and stressed the need to be kind and courteous to him with such force and regularity that the Holy Prophet ﷺ thought that the neighbour, also, will be made a heir, i.e., it will be enjoined that just as parents, children and other near relatives of a person inherit the property left by him on death, the neighbour, too, will be given a share in it. The purpose of this Tradition, obviously, is not merely to state a fact, but it, also, is a most effective way to bring home the importance of the neighbours to the Muslims.

Love of Allah and His Prophet Depends On (١٤٣٣/٦٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِي قُرَادٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَوَضَّأَ يَوْمًا فَجَعَلَ أَصْحَابُهُ يَتَمَسَّحُونَ بِوَضُوئِهِ فَقَالَ لَهُمُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا يَحْمِلُكُمْ عَلَى هَذَا؟ قَالُوا حُبُّ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يُحِبَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ أَوْ يُحِبَّهُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ فَلْيَصْدُقْ حَدِيثَهُ إِذَا حَدَّثَ وَلْيُؤَدِّ أَمَانَتَهُ إِذَا نُتِمْنَ وَلْيُحْسِنْ جَوَارَ مَنْ جَاوَرَهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1433/68) Abdul Rahman ibn Abu Qurad رضي الله عنه said that the Prophet ﷺ performed wudhu (ablution) one day and his Companions began to wipe themselves with the water he had used. The Prophet ﷺ asked them what induced them to do that and they said that the love of Allah and His Messenger had prompted them to do that. He said, "If anyone is pleased to love Allah and His Messenger, or rather to have Allah and His Messenger love him, he should speak the truth when he tells anything, fulfil his trust when he is put in a position of trust, and be a good neighbour." (Bayhaqi)

Good And Kindly Treatment Towards The Neighbours is An Essential Condition of Faith

(١٤٣٤/٦٩) عَنْ أَبِي شُرَيْحٍ الْعَدَوِيِّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أُذُنَايَ وَابْصَرْتُ عَيْنَايَ حِينَ تَكَلَّمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيُكْرِمْ جَارَهُ وَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيُكْرِمْ ضَيْفَهُ وَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيَقُلْ خَيْرًا أَوْ لِيَصْمُتْ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1434/69) Abu Shurayh Al-'Adawi رضي الله عنه related "I heard the Prophet ﷺ say with my own ears and my eyes were seeing him when he spoke these words 'Whoever believes in Allah and in the Day of Final Judgement, it is essential for him to be kind and gentle to his neighbours, and whoever believes in Allah and in the Day of Final Judgement, it is essential for him to entertain his guest with kindness and generosity, and whoever believes in Allah and in the Day of Final Judgement, it is essential for him to speak what is good or keep quiet.'" (Bukhari and Muslim)

(An almost similar narrative, has, also, been quoted in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim on the authority of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه)

He is Not A True Believer and Will Not Go to Heaven Whose Neighbours Do Not Feel Secure on His Account (١٤٣٥/٧٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاللَّهِ لَا يُؤْمِنُ وَاللَّهُ لَا يُؤْمِنُ قِيلَ مَنْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ الَّذِي لَا يَأْمَنُ جَارُهُ بَوَائِقِهِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1435/70) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that he Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "By Allah, he is not a true Believer; by Allah there is not Faith in him; by Allah, he is not a believing man" "Who?" he was asked. "From whose mischief his neighbours do not feel secure", the Prophet ﷺ replied. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: From its construction, it is evident how agitated the Holy Prophet ﷺ must have felt when he spoke these words. Anyhow, the substance of it is that a Muslim should be so kind and friendly to his neighbours that they had nothing to fear from him. If the neighbour of a Muslim does not feel safe on his account, he, according to this Tradition, will not deserve to be called a faithful Believer.

(١٤٣٦/٧١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ مَنْ لَا يَأْمَنُ جَارُهُ بَوَائِقَهُ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1436/71) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: He shall not go to Heaven from whose mischief his neighbours do not feel secure." (Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that a man whose character is such that his neighbours expect nothing but evil from him and live in the fear of being hurt or harmed by him will not be allowed to enter Heaven without undergoing the punishment for it.

From both of these Traditions we can obtain an idea of the value placed on the rights of neighbours by the sacred Prophet ﷺ.

It was the style of the Prophet's way of speaking that is laid on a deed, his customary way of putting it is to say that whoever neglects it is not a true Believer and shall not be admitted to Heaven. We have, already, discussed it at length in Volume 1.¹

He is Not a Muslim Who Eats His Fill While His Neighbour Goes Hungry

(١٤٣٧/٧٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَمَنَ بِي مَنْ

بَاتَ شَبَعَانَ وَجَارُهُ جَائِعٌ إِلَى جَنْبِهِ وَهُوَ يَعْلَمُ بِهِ. (رواه البزار والطبرانی في الكبير)

(1437/72) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "He has not affirmed faith in me, i.e., he is not my follower who eats to his satisfaction and sleeps comfortably in the night while his neighbour goes hungry, and he is aware of it."

(Tabarani)

(A report conveying the same subject-idea, and in almost the same words, has been quoted by Imam Bukhari in Al-Adab-al-Mufrad, and Baihaqi in Sha'ab-al-Iman, on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, and by Haakim, in Mustadrak, on the authority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, in addition to that of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه).

Note: Alas! Such a wide gap has occurred between the actual conduct of the Muslims, as a whole, and these sayings of the Divine Prophet ﷺ that it is hard for an unknowing person to believe that such, really, were the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

Through these Traditions the Prophet ﷺ, nevertheless, has made it clear that whoever remains indifferent to the needs and difficulties of his neighbours and cares nothing for them is not a follower of his, and he will have nothing to do with him.

It is significant that no distinction has been made, in these Traditions, between a Muslim and a non-Muslim neighbour.

Some Specific Rights of Neighbours

(١٤٣٨/٧٣) عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ حَبْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

حَقُّ الْجَارِ إِنْ مَرَضَ عُدَّتْهُ وَإِنْ مَاتَ شِيعَتُهُ وَإِنْ اسْتَفْرَضَكَ أَقْرَضَتْهُ وَإِنْ

أَعْوَرَ سَتْرَتَهُ وَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ هَنَأَتْهُ وَإِنْ أَصَابَتْهُ مُصِيبَةٌ عَزَّيْتَهُ وَلَا تَرْفَعْ بَنَائِكَ
فَوْقَ بَنَائِهِ فَتَسُدَّ عَلَيْهِ الرِّيحَ وَلَا تُؤْذِيهِ بِرِيحِ قَدْرِكَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَعْرِفَ لَهُ مِنْهَا.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الکبیر)

(1438/73) Mu'awiya ibn Haidah رضی اللہ عنہ related to us that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The rights of the neighbour upon you are that if he falls ill, you visit him, and if he dies, you attend his funeral (and take part in the arrangements of burial), and if he asks for a loan (in his need), you lend it to him (provided that you can afford it) and if he commits an evil deed, you prevent it from being known i.e., do not give publicity to it, and if he is favoured by luck, you felicitate him, and if a calamity befalls him, you grieve in sympathy with him, and, (further), that you desist from erecting your building higher than his in a way that fresh air cannot have a free passage to his house. and (when a delicious food is prepared in your house, you take care that) the aroma of your pot does not cause sorrow to him (and his children) except that you send some of it to him (as a gift)."

(Tabarani)

Commentary: Among the rights of neighbours indicated above, the last two deserve a special attention. These require us, firstly, to be careful while building a house etc., that its walls are not so high as to cause discomfort to the neighbours by obstructing the free passage of air into their house, and, secondly, to make sure that the flavour of the pot does not reach the neighbour's household when we cook a tasty meal because it will excite in them the desire to eat it and make them sad that they cannot afford. Hence, we should either make it a point to send some of the food to the neighbour or do not allow its appetising smell to travel to his house which, of course, is not easy.

These exhortations denote how sensitive the Holy Prophet ﷺ was concerning the rights of neighbours.

An identical report has been quoted by Ibn 'Adi in Kamil, and Khara'iti in Makkarimul-Ikhlaq, on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, with the addition

"If you buy fruit, send some of it to your neighbour (as a gift), and if it may not be possible,

وَأِنْ اشْتَرَيْتَ فَارْكَبْهَا فَاهْدِ لَهُ فَإِنْ
لَمْ تَفْعَلْ فَأَدْخِلْهَا سِرًّا وَلَا يَخْرُجْ

bring it in secretly (so that the neighbour does not know about it, and, also, be careful that) بِهَا وَلَدَكَ لِيَغِیْظَ بِهَا وَلَدُهُ.
(کنز العمال)

none of your children takes the fruit out of the house (and eats in there presence) lest the neighbour's children feel envious on seeing it."
(Kanzul'Ummal)

(١٤٣٩/٧٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا طَبَخَ أَحَدُكُمْ قَدْرًا فَلْيَكْثِرْ مَرَقَهَا ثُمَّ لِيْنَا وَلُ جَارَهُ مِنْهَا.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الاوسط)

(1439/74) Sayyidina Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ related that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said: "When curry is cooked in the house of anyone of you, he should increase the broth (by adding water to it), and, then, send some of it to his neighbour."

(Tabarani)

This guidance of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is transmitted by Tirmizi and others from Abu Zarr Ghifari رضی اللہ عنہ in similar words.

Three Categories of Neighbours: Non-Muslim Neighbours, Too, Have Their Rights

(١٤٤٠/٧٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْجِيرَانُ ثَلَاثَةٌ فَجَارٌ لَهُ حَقٌّ وَاحِدٌ وَهُوَ أَذْنَى الْجِيرَانِ حَقًّا وَجَارٌ لَهُ حَقَّانِ وَجَارٌ لَهُ ثَلَاثَةُ حُقُوقٍ فَأَمَّا الَّذِي لَهُ حَقٌّ وَاحِدٌ فَجَارٌ مُشْرِكٌ لَا رَحِمَ لَهُ؛ لَهُ حَقُّ الْجَوَارِ؛ وَأَمَّا الَّذِي لَهُ حَقَّانِ فَجَارٌ مُسْلِمٌ لَهُ حَقُّ الْإِسْلَامِ وَحَقُّ الْجَوَارِ؛ وَأَمَّا الَّذِي لَهُ ثَلَاثَةُ حُقُوقٍ فَجَارٌ مُسْلِمٌ دُورَحِمٍ لَهُ حَقُّ الْإِسْلَامِ وَحَقُّ الْجَوَارِ وَحَقُّ الرَّحِمِ.

(رواه البزار فی المسند و ابو نعیم فی الحلیہ)

(1440/75) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said: "Neighbours are of three kinds and three grades. One, the neighbour who enjoys only one right (and so far as the rights are concerned), he is the neighbour of the lowest grade; two, the neighbour who enjoys two rights; and three, the neighbour who enjoys three rights. The neighbour with only one right is the polytheist, i.e., non-Muslim neighbour with whom there are, also, no family ties, (and as such, he is entitled only to the right of a neighbour), and the neighbour with two rights is the neighbour who is, also, a Muslim (and, as such, he has a claim as a neighbour and another as a co-religionist), and the neighbour with three rights is the (neighbour who, in addition to being a neighbour), is, also, a Muslim and a relative, (and, as such), he will have one claim as a neighbour, another as a co-religionist, and yet another as a relative."

(Musnad Bazaar and Hilya Abu Na'eem)

Commentary: It, candidly, tells, that the obligation to live in peace and goodwill with the neighbours, as demanded by the Qur'an and the Traditions, also, includes the non-Muslim neighbours, and they, too, have a claim to our kindness and sympathy. The Holy Companions have drawn the same inference from the teachings of the sacred Prophet ﷺ and arrived at the same conclusion.

It is stated, in Tirmizi etc., about Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas ؓ that once a goat was slaughtered in his house, and when he came home, he said to his family;

"Did you send the meat to our Jewish neighbour? Did you send the meat to our Jewish neighbour? I have heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say that Jibrail used to bring commands (from the Lord) concerning the showing of kindness to the neighbours and treating him

أَهْدَيْتُمْ لِجَارِنَا الْيَهُودِي أَهْدَيْتُمْ
لِجَارِنَا الْيَهُودِي؟ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ
اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
مَا زَالَ جِبْرِيلُ يُوصِينِي بِالْجَارِ
حَتَّى ظَنَنْتُ أَنَّهُ سَيُورَثُهُ.

well with such positiveness and frequency that the Prophet ﷺ began to feel he, too, was going to be declared a heir."

Caring For The Instruction of The Neighbours

The foregoing Traditions dealt, mainly, with the material welfare of the neighbours and paying regard to their needs and feelings. We shall now take up a saying which tells that if such a people may be living in one's neighbourhood who are backward in religious knowledge and whose social and moral behaviour leaves much to be desired, it is the duty of those living around them to arrange for their moral and religious education and uplift.

(١٤٤١/٧٦) عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ أَبِزَى عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا بَالُ أَقْوَامٍ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ جِيرَانَهُمْ وَلَا يَعْلَمُونَهُمْ وَلَا يَعْظُونَهُمْ وَلَا يَأْمُرُونَهُمْ وَلَا يَنْهَوْنَهُمْ وَمَا بَالُ أَقْوَامٍ لَا يَتَعَلَّمُونَ مِنْ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَلَا يَتَفَقَّهُونَ وَلَا يَتَعْظُونَ وَاللَّهِ لَيَعْلَمَنَّ قَوْمٌ جِيرَانَهُمْ وَيَفْقَهُونَهُمْ وَيَعْظُونَهُمْ وَيَأْمُرُونَهُمْ وَيَنْهَوْنَهُمْ وَلَيَتَعَلَّمَنَّ قَوْمٌ مِنْ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَيَتَفَقَّهُونَ وَيَتَعْظُونَ لَوْ لَا عَاجِلْنَهُمْ بِالْعُقُوبَةِ فِي الدُّنْيَا.

(رواه ابن راهويه والبخارى فى الوجدان وابن السكن وابن مندة)

(1441/76) Alqamah ibn Abdul Rahman رضي الله عنه related to us, that his father, Abdul Rahman رضي الله عنه, had told him, on the authority of his father, Abza Khuza'ee, that, one day, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said (in a special sermon): "What has happened to those (whom Allah has favoured with an exceptional knowledge and understanding of Faith and the Shari'ah and, in their neighbourhood, there live people who are sadly wanting in it), and they do nothing by way of teaching Faith to their neighbours and promoting an awareness of it in them? They neither give good counsel to them nor discharge the duty of sanctioning what is lawful and forbidding what is prohibited. And what has happened to the (uniformed and backward people) that they make no effort to learn about the Faith from their neighbours? By Allah! It is the duty of those (possessing the knowledge and understanding of Faith) to try to teach the Faith to their (ignorant and backward neighbours) and produce an awareness of it in them and (to reform them), through preaching and good counsel, and exhort them to do what is good and legitimate and abstain from what is wrong and forbidden. In the same way, the ignorant and backward people should acquire the knowledge and understanding of Faith from their neighbours, like seekers of knowledge, and take advice from them. Otherwise, (if none of the two classes of men will do their duty), I will have severe punishment sent down upon them in this very existence." (Musnad Ishaq ibn Raahwaih, Kitab-ul-Wuhdaan-lil-Bukhari, Musannifi-ibn-us-Sakain, and Musnad-Ibn-Mandah).

Commentary: This narrative is mentioned, as it is here, in the Fifth Volume of Kanzul 'Ummal, under the title of the Rights of Neighbours, but at another place, in the same book, it has been reproduced with the addition that the Prophet ﷺ had addressed these words to the people of Abu Moosa Ash'ari ؓ and Abu Maalik Ash'ari ؓ, known popularly as Ash'arieen. They were, generally, well-versed in Faith and the Shari'ah, but close to them lived a community which was very backward. The members of this community had neither been given religious education nor were they interested in acquiring it. Both the groups were, to this extent, at fault, and the Holy Prophet ﷺ had reprimanded them for negligence without taking their names, as was his custom. It is, further, stated that when Ash'arieen came to know that it were they for whom the reproach was meant, they sent a delegation to the Prophet ﷺ assuring him that they would teach the necessary tenets and principles of the Faith and the Shari'ah to their neighbours within a year.

We, thus, learn from the above that the sacred Prophet ﷺ has enjoined upon the people of all localities and regions who possess the knowledge of Faith to impart it to those living near them and to work for their moral and spiritual instruction and improvement through preaching and gentle persuasion. Similarly, he has charged those who are ignorant to maintain a regular contact with men of Faith and learning of their neighbourhood so that they can profit from their company. If this guidance was followed by the Ummah, no section of it would be wanting in religious knowledge and earnest attachment to Allah and Prophet ﷺ, as the case, unfortunately, was with a vast majority of Muslims today.

RIGHTS OF WEAKER AND POORER SECTIONS

The rights we have discussed so far were with regard to the classes or categories of men with whom we have a special connection or relationship, whether of blood, marriage and neighbourhood, or of business transactions and social affairs. In addition to these, the importance of respect for the rights of the weaker and poorer sections of the society, and of every kind of a needy person, the orphan, the widow, the sick, the destitute and the downtrodden, has, also, been stressed in the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. To care for their needs and to look after their well-being has been described by him as a virtue of the highest order, and he has given the tidings of a vast reward on it.

Caring For The Indigent, The Widow And The Orphan

(١٤٤٢/٧٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
السَّاعِي عَلَى الْأَرْمَلَةِ وَالْمِسْكِينِ كَالْمُجَاهِدِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَأَخْسَبُهُ قَالَ
كَالْقَائِمِ لَا يَفْتَرُّوْكَ كَالصَّائِمِ لَا يَفْطُرُ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1442/77) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever strives to relieve the widow, the distressed and the needy is as one, in Divine reward, who does Jihad in the path of Allah." Abu Hurayrah ؓ added that as far as he remembered, the Prophet ﷺ, also, said "He is as one who fasts permanently during the day and spends the nights in prayers."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: As everyone knows, Jihad is a deed of utmost merit in Islam. In the same way, it is a most enviable state for a bondsman that his days are spent in fasting and nights in prayer.

But, as the Holy Prophet ﷺ has stated in this Tradition, the same is the worth and value of a person, in the judgement of the Almighty, who takes pains to help and assist a weak and needy fellow-man or a helpless widow and spends of his wealth on them or tries sincerely to draw the attention of others to their problems and difficulties.

(١٤٤٣/٧٨) عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا وَكَافِلُ الْيَتِيمِ لَهُ أَوْلَغِيهِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ هَكَذَا وَأَشَارَ بِالسَّبَّابَةِ وَالْوُسْطَى وَفَرَجَ بَيْنَهُمَا شَيْئًا.
(رواه البخارى)

(1443/78) It is related by Sahl ibn Sa'ad ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever supports an orphan belonging to his own or any other family will be as close to me in Heaven as these fingers are to each-other." Sahl relates that the Prophet ﷺ made a motion of his index and middle fingers (while he said it), and there was only a little space separating the two (at that time)." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It tells that the Holy Prophet ﷺ, raised his index and middle fingers in such a way that only a little space was left between them, and, showing the two fingers to the Companions, observed that there would be only that much of distance or difference between his station in Heaven, and that of the bondsman who accepts the responsibility of supporting an orphan whether coming from his own family, like nephew or a grandson, or any other family with which he has no particular ties of blood.

(١٤٤٤/٧٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَبَضَ يَتِيمًا مِنْ بَيْنِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى طَعَامِهِ وَشَرَابِهِ أَدْخَلَهُ اللَّهُ الْجَنَّةَ أَلْبَنَةً إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ قَدْ عَمِلَ ذَنْبًا لَا يُغْفَرُ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1444/79) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The bondsman who took an orphan from among the Muslims and shared his food and drink with him, Allah will allow him to enter Heaven provided that he is not guilty of an unpardonable sin." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The above Tradition makes it clear that the promise of salvation and entry into Paradise is subject to the condition that the bondsman has not been guilty of a misdeed, such as apostasy, polytheism or murder, which is not pardonable.

Though this provision may not be included, in so many words, in a Tradition of persuasion or exhortation, it should be understood to form a part of it, as a matter of course.

(١٤٤٥/٨٠) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَسَحَ رَأْسَ يَتِيمٍ لَمْ يَمْسَحْهُ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ كَانَ لَهُ بِكُلِّ شَعْرَةٍ يَمُرُّ عَلَيْهَا يَدُهُ حَسَنَاتٌ وَمَنْ أَحْسَنَ إِلَى يَتِيمَةٍ أَوْ يَتِيمٍ عِنْدَهُ كُنْتُ أَنَا وَهُوَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ كَهَاتَيْنِ وَفَرَنَ بَيْنَ إصْبَعَيْهِ. (رواه احمد والترمذی)

(1445/80) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone strokes an orphan's head, doing so only for the sake of Allah, he will have blessings for every hair over which his hand passes, and if anyone treats well an orphan girl or boy under his care, he and I shall be like these two in Paradise," he put two of his fingers together. (Ahmad, Tirmizi)

Commentary: This hadith very clearly defines the reward for metting out good treatment to the orphans. There is only one provision that it should be solely for the sake of Allah.

(١٤٤٦/٨١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ بَيْتٍ فِي الْمُسْلِمِينَ بَيْتٌ فِيهِ يَتِيمٌ يُحْسَنُ إِلَيْهِ وَشَرُّ بَيْتٍ فِي الْمُسْلِمِينَ بَيْتٌ فِيهِ يَتِيمٌ يُسَاءُ إِلَيْهِ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1446/81) Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ related to us, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The best of Muslim homes is the home in which an orphan lives and is treated in a loving and affectionate manner, and the worst of Muslim homes is the home in which an orphan lives and is treated badly or curelly." (Ibn Majah)

(١٤٤٧/٨٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا شَكَاَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَسْوَةَ قَلْبِهِ قَالَ امْسَحْ رَأْسَ الْيَتِيمِ وَأَطْعِمِ الْمَسْكِينَ. (رواه احمد)

(1447/82) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that a man complained to the Prophet ﷺ of his hard-hearted nature. The Prophet ﷺ asked him to stroke the head of the orphan and feed the poor. (Ahmad)

Commentary: These things are prompted by softness in a man's nature but if anyone is hard-hearted he may practice these things sincerely and he will become mild-hearted.

Attending To The Needs of The Poor, The Sick And The Distressed

(١٤٤٨/٨٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمُسْلِمُ أَخُو الْمُسْلِمِ لَا يَظْلِمُهُ وَلَا يُظْلَمُهُ وَمَنْ كَانَ فِي حَاجَةِ أَخِيهِ كَانَ اللَّهُ فِي حَاجَتِهِ وَمَنْ فَرَّجَ عَنْ مُسْلِمٍ كُرْبَةً فَرَّجَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرْبَاتٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَمَنْ سَتَرَ مُسْلِمًا سَتَرَهُ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1448/83) It is narrated by Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A Muslim is a Muslim's brother, he does not wrong him or abandon him. If anyone cares for his brother's need Allah will care for his need; if anyone removes his brother's anxiety Allah will remove from him one of the anxieties of the Day of Resurrection. And if anyone conceals a Muslim's secrets Allah will conceal his secrets on the Day of Resurrection." (Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٤٤٩/٨٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ نَفَسَ عَنْ مُسْلِمٍ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرْبِ الدُّنْيَا نَفَسَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرْبِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ وَمَنْ يَسَّرَ عَلَى مُعْسِرٍ يَسِّرَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَمَنْ سَتَرَ مُسْلِمًا سَتَرَهُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَاللَّهُ فِي عَوْنِ الْعَبْدِ مَا كَانَ الْعَبْدُ فِي عَوْنِ أَخِيهِ. (رواه ابو داؤد والترمذى)

(1449/84) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone removes a Muslim's anxiety of the anxieties of the world, Allah will remove his anxiety on the Day of Resurrection. If any creditor allows respite to a hard-pressed debtor, Allah will make it easy for him in this world and the hereafter. If anyone keeps a Muslim's secrets then Allah will conceal his secrets in this world and the Hereafter. And as long as anyone goes on helping his brother, Allah will go on helping him."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi)

(١٤٥٠/٨٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ كَسَا مُسْلِمًا ثَوْبًا عَلَى عُرَى كَسَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنْ خَضِرِ الْجَنَّةِ وَأَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ أَطْعَمَ مُسْلِمًا عَلَى جُوعٍ أَطْعَمَهُ اللَّهُ مِنْ ثَمَارِ الْجَنَّةِ وَأَيُّمَا مُسْلِمٍ سَقَا مُسْلِمًا عَلَى ظَمَأٍ سَقَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنَ الرَّحِيقِ الْمَخْتُومِ. (رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1450/85) Abu Sa'eed all-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ has quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying: "He who clothes a naked Muslim Allah will clothe him with green garments in Paradise. As for the Muslim who feeds a Muslim who is hungry, Allah will feed him the fruit of Paradise. Then, as for a Muslim who will give water (or any other drink) to a Muslim who is thirsty Allah will give him to drink the extremely pure drink (of Paradise) on which is an unseen seal."

(١٤٥١/٨٦) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَطْعَمُوا الْجَائِعَ وَغَوَّدُوا الْمَرِيضَ وَفُكُّوا الْعَانِي. (رواه البخاری)

(1451/86) It is related by Abu Moosa Ash'ari رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Feed the hungry, visit the sick and free the captives."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: Besides feeding the hungry, it, also, contains the exhortation to visit the sick and obtain the freedom of those who are held prisoner. As for visiting the sick, it needs to be remembered that, in common parlance, it simply denotes enquiring after the health of a sick person, but, in Arabic, it is used in a wider sense and includes looking after him as well. Thus, the command of visiting the sick, given in this Tradition, does not stop merely at paying a visit to a person who is ill or enquiring about his condition, but, also, requires us to care for him, and arrange for his treatment etc., as far as possible. Similarly, the commandment, of freeing the captives, obviously, denotes those who are held in captivity unlawfully, or, at least, it is hoped that good will follow as a consequence of their release, and there is no danger of a harm or evil ensuing from it. To secure the freedom of such prisoners is, of course, commendable.

(١٤٥٢/٨٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى يَقُولُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ مَرَضْتُ فَلَمْ تَعُدْنِي قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ أَغُودُكَ وَأَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ قَالَ أَمَا عَلِمْتَ أَنَّ عَبْدِي فَلَانًا مَرِضَ فَلَمْ تَعُدَّهُ أَمَا عَلِمْتَ أَنَّكَ لَوْ عُدْتَهُ لَوَجَدْتَنِي عِنْدَهُ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ اسْتَطَعْتُمَكَ فَلَمْ تُطْعِمْنِي قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ أَطْعِمُكَ وَأَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ قَالَ أَمَا عَلِمْتَ أَنَّكَ لَوْ أَطْعَمْتَهُ لَوَجَدْتَنِي عِنْدَكَ يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ اسْتَسْقَيْتَكَ فَلَمْ تَسْقِنِي قَالَ يَا رَبِّ كَيْفَ أَسْقِيكَ وَأَنْتَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ قَالَ اسْتَسْقَاكَ عَبْدِي فَلَانٌ فَلَمْ تَسْقِهِ أَمَا إِنَّكَ لَوْ سَقَيْتَهُ وَجَدْتَنِي عِنْدِي.

(رواه مسلم)

(1452/87) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "On the Day of Judgement, Allah will say to His bondsman: 'O Son of Adam! I fell ill, and you did not visit me.' The bondsman will reply: 'Thou art the Lord of the Worlds. How could I visit Thee?' Allah will, thereupon, say: 'Did you not know that such- and-such a bondsman of Mine was ill, but you cared not to visit him? Had you done it, you would have found Me with him.' Allah will, say again: 'O Son of Adam! I asked you for food, and you did not give it to Me.' The bondsman will reply : 'Thou art the Lord of the Worlds. How could I give Thee food?' Allah will, then, say: 'Are you not aware that such-and-such a bondsman of Mine begged you for food, but you did not give it to him? Had you done that, you would have found it with Me.' Allah, again will say: 'O Son of Adam! I asked you for water, and you did not give it to Me.' The bondsman will reply: 'Thou art the Lord of the Worlds. How could I give thee Water?' Allah will, then, say: 'Such-and-such a bondsman of Mine had asked you for water, but you did not give it to him. Listen! Had you given him the water, you would have found it with Me.' (Muslim)

Commentary: The extra-ordinary way of emphasising the importance of being kind and helpful to the weak and the indigent adopted in this Tradition is enough to show what place do compassion and kindheartedness occupy in the teachings of the sacred Prophet ﷺ and how enviable is the lot of those who feel for the less fortunate brethren and are ready to help them in whatever way they can. What it denotes, in sum, is that whoever will help and bring solace to a sick and needy person will find Allah with him, and attain the goal of Allah-realisation.

Slaves and Servants

The institution of slavery was common in Arabia and almost all over the world at the time of the raising up of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. The victorious nations considered the people they had captured in battle as a 'commodity' and not as human beings, and used them mercilessly for their own advantage.

The sacred Prophet ﷺ, on the one hand, declared the freeing of slaves an act of highest virtue and an atonement for sins, and exhorted the people to it in various ways while, on the other hand, he enjoined that the slaves should be treated fairly, instead of being driven like cattle, and their basic needs, like food and clothing, taken care of in a manner to which they were entitled as human beings. In fact, the Prophet ﷺ stressed that the slaves should be given the same food to eat and dress to wear as the master's family did. He warned his followers that they will be called to account in the Hereafter if they failed in their duty to be just and benevolent to the slaves.

History tells that the entire course of life of the slaves was transformed as a result of these teachings and commandments and their humanity was restored to them. Thousands of them rose to be religious and spiritual leaders of the Ummah and held the highest offices of the State. Some of them even founded kingdoms. Eventually, the whole world was influenced by this guidance, and slavery became a thing of the past.

Basic Rights of Slaves

(١٤٥٣/٨٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

لِلْمَمْلُوكِ طَعَامُهُ وَكَسَوْتُهُ وَلَا يُكَلَّفُ مِنَ الْعَمَلِ إِلَّا مَا يَطِيقُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1453/88) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Food and dress is the right of the slave, and, also, that he is not assigned a task which may be beyond his endurance."

(Muslim)

Commentary: In the above Tradition, only this much is told that it is the duty of the master to feed and clothe his slave properly, but in the other narratives we are now going to quote, it is stated, further, that the same food and clothes should be given to the slave which the master himself ate and wore.

It, again, tells that such a task must not be set for a slave which may be too much for him.

These, so to speak, constitute the fundamental rights of the slaves.

Brotherly treatment

(١٤٥٤/٨٩) عَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِخْوَانُكُمْ جَعَلَهُمُ اللَّهُ تَحْتَ أَيْدِيكُمْ فَمَنْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ أَخَاهُ تَحْتَ يَدَيْهِ فَلْيُطْعِمْهُ مِمَّا يَأْكُلُ وَلْيَلْبِسْهُ مِمَّا يَلْبَسُ وَلَا يُكَلِّفْهُ مِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَا يَغْلِبُهُ إِنْ كَلَّفَهُ مَا يَغْلِبُهُ فَلْيُعِنْهُ عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1454/89) It is related by Abu Zarr Ghifari رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "(Your slaves) are your brothers. Allah has placed them under your authority. So, he who has a brother under him should feed him and clothe him as he does himself and avoid taking from him work that is beyond his power, and if he does tell him to do such things then he should, also, join in it."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In it, the slave has been declared to be the brother of the master under whose control Allah has placed him, are both of them not the children of Adam, after all? There could, surely, not be a more powerful appeal for the good and fair treatment of the slaves. It is, further, told that when the slaves and the masters were borhters, they should, also, be treated like brothers and no discrimination made between them in the basic needs of life, like food and dress.

The Slave or Servant Must Be Given The Food To Eat Which He Cooks For The Master

(١٤٥٥/٩٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا

صَنَعَ لِأَحَدِكُمْ خَادِمُهُ طَعَامَهُ ثُمَّ جَاءَهُ بِهِ وَقَدْ وَلَّى حَرَّهُ وَدُخَانَهُ فَلْيَقْعِدْهُ مَعَهُ
فَلْيَأْكُلْ فَإِنْ كَانَ الطَّعَامُ مَشْفُوعًا قَلِيلًا فَلْيَضَعْ فِي يَدِهِ مِنْهُ أَكْلَةً أَوْ أَكْلَتَيْنِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1455/90) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When your slave or servant prepares food for you and lays it before you, and he has suffered the inconvenience of heat and smoke in cooking it, you should ask him to sit down and share the meal. If the food is in a small quantity, (and cannot suffice for two), the master should, at least, give a morsel or two of it to him." (Muslim)

Commentary: In the Prophet's ﷺ time, duties of a cook were taken, from the slaves. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, therefore, enjoined that the meal prepared by the slave should be shared with him by the master.

In our time, the same command will apply to the servants who are employed as cooks.

Slaves Should Be Forgiven If They Commit A Mistake

(١٤٥٦/٩١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَمْ نَعْفُو عَنِ الْخَادِمِ فَسَكَتَ ثُمَّ أَعَادَ عَلَيْهِ الْكَلَامَ
فَصَمَّتْ فَلَمَّا كَانَتِ الثَّلَاثَةَ قَالَ اغْفُوا عَنْهُ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ سَبْعِينَ مَرَّةً. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1456/91) Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه related to us that (once) a person came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! To what extent should we forgive the mistakes of our slave or servant?' The Prophet ﷺ remained silent. The man repeated the enquiry, and the Prophet ﷺ again, remained silent. When he asked for the third time, the Prophet ﷺ observed: 'Seventy times each day.'

Commentary: The Holy Prophet ﷺ kept quiet when he was asked for the first two times, perhaps, for the reason that he wanted the questioner to realise the redundancy of his enquiry. To forgive the mistakes of one's slave or servant is an act of virtue which makes a man deserving of Divine mercy, and, hence, one should be ready to excuse their faults as much as possible. When, however, the question was put to him for the third time, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ remarked that they should be forgiven even if they committed a mistake as many as seventy times each day. Evidently, the figure of seventy, here, does not denote the exact number, but that a slave or servant should not be chastised even if he made a mistake often.

In our view, 'forgiving', in this Tradition, means that punishment should not be inflicted on a slave or servant in a spirit of vengeance or vindictiveness. In case, however, it seemed advisable from the point of view of their correction that they were taken to task, there was no harm in it, and it would not be inimical to the spirit of the exhortation contained in the above saying. It would, in fact, be in their own good.

(١٤٥٧/٩٢) عَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ عُجْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

لَا تُضْرِبُوا إِمَاءَكُمْ عَلَى كَسْرِ إِنَاءٍ كُمْ فَإِنَّ لَهَا أَجَالَ كَأَجَالِكُمْ. (رواه الديلمي)

(1457/92) It is related by Ka'b ibn Ujrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not punish the slave-girls for breaking the vessels for the age of the vessels, too, is determined beforehand like your own age." (Dailami)

Commentary: Sometimes, procelain or glass ware get borken owing to the carelessness of the slaves or domestic servants upon which they are punished. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, in it, tells that just as men lived upto a certain age, and, then, died at the appointed hour, the vessels, too, broke when the span of life allotted to them came to an end. It would, therefore, be unfair to punish the poor slaves or servants for it. Nevertheless, as already stated, they could be castigated as a measure of correction.

Revenge Will Be Taken From The Oppressors of Slaves On The Day of Resurrection

(١٤٥٨/٩٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

ضَرَبَ مَمْلُوكَةً ظَالِمًا أُقِيدَ مِنْهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1458/93) Abu Hurayrah said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Whoever beats the slave unjustly revenge will be taken from him on the Day of Resurrection." (Baihaqi)

Atonement of Cruelty to Slaves

(١٤٥٩/٩٤) عَنْ أَبِي عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ ضَرَبَ غُلَامًا لَهُ حَدًّا لَمْ يَأْتِهِ أَوْ لَطَمَهُ فَإِنْ كَفَّارَتُهُ أَنْ يُعْتَقَهُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1459/94) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "If anyone punishes his slave for a crime he has not committed or slaps him then he can make an atonement by emancipating him. (If he does not do it then he will be punished by Allah). (Muslim)

(١٤٦٠/٩٥) عَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ كُنْتُ أَضْرِبُ غُلَامًا لِي فَسَمِعْتُ مِنْ خَلْفِي صَوْتًا إِعْلَمَ أَبَا مَسْعُودٍ لِلَّهِ أَقْدَرُ عَلَيْكَ مِنْكَ عَلَيْهِ فَالْتَفَتْتُ فَإِذَا هُوَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ هُوَ خُرُ لَوْجِهِ اللَّهُ فَقَالَ أَمَا لَوْ لَمْ تَفْعَلْ لَلْفَحْتِكَ النَّارُ أَوْ لَمَسْتِكَ النَّارُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1460/95) Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضي الله عنه said that (once) he was beating a slave when he heard a voice from behind. (Someone was saying): 'Oh Abu Mas'ud! Remember that Allah has a greater power and authority over you than you have over the poor slave.' He turned round and saw that it was the Prophet ﷺ upon which he said : "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! (I am setting him free). Now, he is free (from my side), for the sake of Allah." The Prophet ﷺ observed: "You should know that had you not done so, i.e., set him free, the Fire of Hell would have consumed you." (Muslim)

Last Testament of The Prophet ﷺ Concerning Slaves

(١٤٦١/٩٦) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ كَانَ آخِرُ كَلَامِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الصَّلَاةُ الصَّلَاةُ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ فِيمَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1461/96) It is related by Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that the last words (spoken by the Prophet ﷺ before his death), were: "Observe Prayer (Salah)! Observe Prayer (Salah)! And fear Allah as regards your slaves and servants." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows what importance did the Holy Prophet ﷺ attach to respect for the rights of the slaves. He bracketted it with the observance of prayer, and took pains to stress its significance upon his followers even at the time of his departure from the world.

According to Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها narrative quoted in Sahih Bukhari, the last words of the Prophet ﷺ were: "Allaahumma-er-Rafiqal A'ala, (To my friend, the Highest of High). Commentators have tried to produce conformity between the two reports by explaining that the last words of the Holy Prophet ﷺ that were addressed to the Ummah were those contained in Sayyidina Ali's report while the last words he had addressed to Allah were what are contained in Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها narrative.

Loyalty of Slaves to Their Masters

Together with enjoining upon the masters to be fair and generous in their treatment of the slaves and servants, the Holy Prophet ﷺ, also, has emphasised that it was the duty of the slaves and the servants to remain faithful to their masters.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said that fortunate and successful was the slave who was the devotee of Allah and faithful to his master.

(١٤٦٢/٩٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِعْمًا لِلْمَمْلُوكِ أَنْ يَتَوَقَّاهُ اللَّهُ بِحُسْنِ عِبَادَةِ رَبِّهِ وَطَاعَةِ سَيِّدِهِ نِعْمًا.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1462/97) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is a matter of great success and good fortune for a slave that Allah raises him from the world in the state that he is a worshipper of his Lord and loyal to his master."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٤٦٣/٩٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ الْعَبْدَ إِذَا نَصَحَ لِسَيِّدِهِ وَ أَحْسَنَ عِبَادَةَ رَبِّهِ فَلَهُ أَجْرُهُ مَرَّتَيْنِ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1463/98) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "When a slave is faithful to his master, and, also, worships Allah, he is deserving of a double reward (in the Hereafter)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: A principal feature of the teachings of the sacred Prophet ﷺ is that he exhorts every class or individual to fulfil the rights of others with a full sense of responsibility and consider it a source of good fortune in both the worlds. He thus, enjoins upon the masters to fear Allah in respect of their slaves and servants and be good and fair in their dealings with them, and treat as their brothers and family members, and upon the slaves to be loyal and sincere to their masters.

The root cause of all the trouble and mischief in the world is that everyone wants to secure his rights without fulfilling the duties. There can be no real peace and happiness in the society until we attach an equal importance to the claims of others upon us and our own claims on them.

Behaviour of The Old And The Young Towards Each Other

In every society there are some who are senior in age and others who are juniour to them. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has, also, taught how they should behave towards each other. We shall now take up a few Traditions appertaining to this aspect of social conduct which may appear insignificant to some people, but plays an important part in prompting a happy and peaceful life, both at the family and the community levels.

(١٤٦٤/٩٩) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ لَمْ يَرْحَمْ صَغِيرَنَا وَيَعْرِفْ شَرَفَ كَبِيرِنَا.

(رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

(1464/99) Amr ibn Shu'ayb رضی اللہ عنہ related to us, "My father, Shu'ayb told me, on the authority of his grandfather, Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: 'He is not of us who is not affectionate to those who are younger to him in age and respectful to those who are older.'"

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٤٦٥/١٠٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ جَاءَ شَيْخٌ يُرِيدُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

فَابْتَأَ الْقَوْمُ أَنْ يُوسِعُوا لَهُ فَقَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ لَمْ يَرْحَمْ
صَغِيرَنَا وَلَمْ يُوقِرْ كَبِيرَنَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1465/100) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ related, "(Once) an elderly person came who wanted to go up to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (and meet him), but the people (who were present) took some time to make way for him, i.e., they did not move quickly enough as deference for his age would have required. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ observed: 'Whoever does not show affection to the young and respect to the old is not of us.'

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that anyone who wants to be deeply attached to the Holy Prophet ﷺ and his Faith should treat those who are younger to him with affection, and those who are older, with respect.

(١٤٦٦/١٠١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَكْرَمَ
شَابٌ شَيْخًا مِنْ أَجْلِ سِنِهِ إِلَّا قَبِضَ اللَّهُ لَهُ عِنْدَ سِنِهِ مِنْ يَكْرَمُهُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1466/101) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "For the young man who will honour an old man because of his years, Allah will appoint men who will honour him in his old age."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: It tells that while the real reward on showing good manners to one's elders and behaving towards them with respect will be in the Hereafter, the Almighty bestows His favours in this world, too, upon those who do so.

RIGHTS OF ISLAMIC FRATERNITY

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, like all the earlier Prophets, was raised up in the world with Divine Faith and Heavenly Guidance. Those who responded to his Call and accepted the Faith he had brought, naturally, went to form a separate community which came to be known as *Ummah al-Muslima*¹ or Islamic Fraternity.

As long as the Prophet ﷺ remained in the world, the Islamic fraternity or Ummah served as his right hand in the preaching and propagation of Faith and taking the Guidance to mankind, and, after his passing away, it had to fulfil the sacred mission till the end of time as his 'deputy', or successor'. For discharging the grave responsibility, it was essential that, along with possessing the qualities of firmness of belief and unflinching devotion to Allah, piety and righteousness, and missionary zeal and enthusiasm, the hearts of its members, i.e., of the followers of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, as a whole, remained united, and they acted like a single body. If, on the other hand, the Muslims were divided among themselves, and instead of unity and solidarity, there was discord and dissension in their ranks, they could not be expected to prove themselves worthy of the task.

For that very reason, the Prophet ﷺ, also, declared adherence to Islam and a sacred and different classes of the Islamic brotherhood the need to behave towards each other as brothers, helping one another and fulfilling the claim stemming from the common bond of Islam.

The exhortation was all the more necessary because the Ummah included men drawn from various countries, races and social ranks, with their own ethnic, cultural, linguistic and temperamental peculiarities, and this diversity was to grow further with the passage of time.

1. Signifying the Community of the Faithful.

A Strong Building

(١٤٦٧/١٠٢) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمُؤْمِنُ

لِلْمُؤْمِنِ كَالْبُنْيَانِ يَشُدُّ بَعْضُهُ بَعْضًا تَمَّ شَبْكُ بَيْنَ أَصَابِعِهِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1467/102) It is related by Abu Moosa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The connection between one Muslim and another is like that of a strong building, one part of which strengthen the other." The Prophet ﷺ, then, showed, by interlocking the fingers of one hand with those of the other (that the Muslims should combine and coalesce with one another like it). (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that just as the bricks of a building become a strong fortress by uniting with one another, the Ummah, too, is a fortress of which every Muslim is a brick and there should be the same closeness and coherence among the Muslims as was found in the bricks of a building. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, further, demonstrated by interlocking the fingers of both hands that the Muslims ought to stick together and blend into a single body like that.

(١٤٦٨/١٠٣) عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ كَرَجُلٍ وَاحِدٍ إِنْ اشْتَكَى عَيْنُهُ اشْتَكَى كُلُّهُ وَإِنْ اشْتَكَى رَأْسُهُ اشْتَكَى كُلُّهُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1468/103) It is related by Nu'man ibn Bashir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "All Muslims are like (the limbs of) a man. If the eye hurts, the whole body feels the pain, and, in the same way, if anyone has a headache, the whole body joins in the suffering." (Muslim)

Commentary: What it seeks to emphasise is the organic unity of the Muslim Millat. All for one, and one for all" should be the motto of the Muslims. They should be ready to share the sorrow and suffering of each other.

(١٤٦٩/١٠٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ

الْمُسْلِمُ أَخُو الْمُسْلِمِ لَا يَظْلِمُهُ وَلَا يُسْلِمُهُ وَمَنْ كَانَ فِي حَاجَةِ أَخِيهِ كَانَ اللَّهُ

فِي حَاجَّتِهِ وَمَنْ فَرَّجَ عَنْ مُسْلِمٍ كُرْبَةً فَرَّجَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ كُرْبَةً مِنْ كُرْبَاتٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَمَنْ سَتَرَ مُسْلِمًا سَتَرَهُ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1469/104) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Every Muslim is a Muslim's brother. He should neither harm him himself nor leave him alone when others treat him unjustly, (but try to help him). Whoever will fulfil the need of a brother, Allah will fulfil his need, and whoever will remove the distress of a Muslim, he will find a distress of his removed on the Day of Requital. and whoever will hide the secrets of a Muslim, his sins will be hidden from others view by Allah on the Last Day." (Muslim)

(١٤٧٠/١٠٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُسْلِمُ أَخُو الْمُسْلِمِ لَا يَظْلِمُهُ وَلَا يَحْدِلُهُ وَلَا يُحْقِرُهُ التَّقْوَى هُنَا (وَيُشِيرُ إِلَى صَدْرِهِ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ) بِحَسْبِ امْرِئٍ مِنَ الشَّرِّ أَنْ يُحْقِرَ أَخَاهُ الْمُسْلِمَ كُلُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ حَرَامٌ دَمُهُ وَمَالُهُ وَعَرْضُهُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1470/105) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Every Muslim is a Muslim's brother. He should neither harm him himself nor leave him alone to be a victim of the cruelty and injustice of others." (Abu Hurayrah adds that, after it, the Prophet ﷺ pointed towards his bosom thrice, and said: 'This is the place of piety. For anyone this fault is enough (to make him unworthy) that he considers a brother Muslim worthless, and puts him to shame. Everything belonging to a Muslim is sacred to the other Muslim, his life, his property and his honour." (Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that after enjoining that no Muslim should consider a Muslim base or lowly and treat him with contempt, the Holy Prophet ﷺ pointed at his bosom thrice and remarked that it was the place of piety. It is worth recalling that, in the judgement of the Lord, piety is the sole criterion of superiority. Says the Qur'an:

إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ. (الحجرات ٤٩: ١٣)

Verily, the most honoured of you in the sight of Allah, is he who is the most righteous of you. (Al Hujrat 49:13)

Piety, in fact, is another name for the fear of Allah and earnest anxiety for the Hereafter. It, obviously, is an inner feeling and no one can know by looking at a person whether there is piety in him or not. Thus, no believing person has a right to consider a believing person base and worthless and behave towards him in a disdainful manner. Who knows that a man who appears to him to be inferior may be possessing the quality of righteousness and be honourable in the sight of Allah. It is, therefore, not permissible to a Believer to hold any other believing man in contempt and behave disrespectfully towards him.

The Prophet ﷺ, warns, further, that for a man to be a sinner it is enough that he thinks contemptuously of a believing bondsman of the Lord and puts him to disgrace.

(١٤٧١/١٠٦) عَنْ جَرِيرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ بَايَعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى إِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ وَإِتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ وَالنُّصْحِ لِكُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1471/106) Jarir ibn Abdullah رضى الله عنه related to us, saying that "I had taken the pledge at the hand of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to observe prayer (salah), and to pay zakah, and to be a sincere well-wisher of every Muslim." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that when Sayyidina Jarir رضى الله عنه took the pledge of Faith at the hand of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, the latter had made him promise that he will offer paryer (salah) regularly, pay Zakah and be sincere to all Muslims.

We can learn from it how careful the sacred Prophet ﷺ was about the mutual relations of Muslims. He took the pledge of brotherly-feeling and well-wishing towards all Muslims along with that of the observance of fundamental duties like prayer (salah) and Zakah.

(١٤٧٢/١٠٧) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

لَا يَهْتُمُّ بِأَمْرِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ فَلَيْسَ مِنْهُمْ وَمَنْ لَمْ يُصْبِحْ وَيُمْسِ نَاصِحًا لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ

وَلِكِتَابِهِ وَلِإِمَامِهِ وَلِعَامَةِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ فَلَيْسَ مِنْهُمْ. (رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(1472/107) It is related by Huzaifah رضى الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever does not take an interest in the affairs and problems of Muslims is not of them, and whoever's state is such that, each morning and evening, he is not loyal and earnest towards Allah, towards His Messenger, towards His Book, towards His Imam, i.e., the Caliph of the day, and towards the Muslims, as a whole, is not of them." (Tabarani)

Commentary: It tells that it, too, is an essential condition for being a faithful Believer that one is not indifferent to the difficulties and problems of the Muslims, in general, but takes a genuine interest in them. Similarly, it is, also, necessary that he is habitually loyal and devoted to Allah, the Prophet ﷺ, the Qur'an, the Islamic Government and the general body of Muslims.

(١٤٧٣/١٠٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَا يُؤْمِنُ عَبْدٌ حَتَّى يُحِبَّ لِأَخِيهِ مَا يُحِبُّ لِنَفْسِهِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1473/108) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "By the Holy Being in whose power is my life, none of you can be a true Believer unless he desires for his brother what he desires for himself."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that to feel earnestly for a brother Muslim to the extent of preferring for him what one prefers for oneself is a prerequisite of Faith, and anyone who claims to be a Muslim, but is lacking in it is, in fact, unblessed with the reality of Islam.

Some Special Claims

(١٤٧٤/١٠٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ خَمْسٌ رَدُّ السَّلَامِ وَعِيَادَةُ الْمَرِيضِ وَاتِّبَاعُ الْجَنَائِزِ وَاجَابَةُ الدَّعْوَةِ وَتَشْمِيتُ الْعَاطِسِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1474/109) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There are five claims of a Muslim upon a Muslim: to return his greetings; to visit him when he is ill; to attend his funeral; to accept his invitation to a feast; and to make the prayer of mercy for him by saying ya-rahmakullaah (May the mercy of Allah be on you) when he sneezes."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The five things mentioned in it are acts which, in everyday life, give expression to as well as are likely to promote brotherly feelings between Muslims, and, therefore, a special attention should be paid to them. In another report, to salute is mentioned in place of returning the salutation and some other acts, too, are specified. It shows that the claims described in the above Tradition are by way of an example and not conclusive.

Defence of The Honour of a Muslim

(١٤٧٥/١١٠) عَنْ جَابِرِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ أَمْرٍ مُسْلِمٍ يَخْذُلُ أَمْرًا مُسْلِمًا فِي مَوْضِعٍ يُنْتَهَكُ فِيهِ حُرْمَتُهُ وَيُنْتَقَضُ فِيهِ مِنْ عَرَضِهِ إِلَّا خَذَلَهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى فِي مَوْضِعٍ يُحِبُّ فِيهِ نَصْرَتَهُ وَمَا مِنْ أَمْرٍ مُسْلِمٍ يَنْصُرُ مُسْلِمًا فِي مَوْضِعٍ يُنْتَقَضُ مِنْ عَرَضِهِ وَيُنْتَهَكُ فِيهِ مِنْ حُرْمَتِهِ إِلَّا نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ فِي مَوْطِنٍ يُحِبُّ فِيهِ نَصْرَتَهُ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1475/110) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The (unfortunate) Muslim who forsakes a Muslim (and does not come to his aid) at a time when his honour is being outraged, Allah, too, will deny him His help when he is in the greatest need of it while the (blessed Muslim) who stands by a Muslim at a time when his honour is imperilled, Allah, too, will favour him with His help when he will be needing it most." (Abu Dawood)

(١٤٧٦/١١١) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ حَمَى مُؤْمِنًا مِنْ مَنَافِقِ بَعَثَ اللَّهُ مَلَكًا يَحْمِي لَحْمَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ مِنْ نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ وَمَنْ رَمَى مُسْلِمًا بِشَيْئٍ يُرِيدُ بِهِ شَيْنَهُ حَبَسَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَى جَسَرِ جَهَنَّمَ حَتَّى يَخْرُجَ مِمَّا قَالَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1476/111) Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Anas رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone guards believer from a hypocrite, Allah will send an angel who will guard his flesh on the Day of Resurrection from the fire of Hell. But if anyone attacks a Muslim saying something by which he wishes to disgrace him, he will be restrained by Allah on the bridge over Hell till he is acquitted of what he said." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is a very serious and grave sin to accuse and disgrace and speak against a Muslim. Even if the accuser is a Muslim, he will be detained over a part of Hell (its bridge) until he is purified of the filth his sin by burning to ashes just as gold is placed on fire until it is purified of its impurities. The words of the hadith imply that this sin is unpardonable in the sight of Allah, yet today it is a common pursuit with Muslim, even the front-rank ones.

اللَّهُمَّ احْفَظْنَا وَنَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شُرُورِ أَنْفُسِنَا وَمِنْ سَيِّئَاتِ أَعْمَالِنَا

O Allah! Preserve us. And we seek refuge with Allah from the mischief of our base self and from the evil of our deeds.

(١٤٧٧/١١٢) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَرُدُّ عَنْ عَرَضِ أَخِيهِ إِلَّا كَانَ حَقًّا عَلَى اللَّهِ أَنْ يَرُدَّ عَنْهُ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ ثُمَّ تَلَاهُذِهِ الْآيَةَ "وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ"

(رواه البغوى فى شرح السنه)

(1477/112) Abu Darda رضي الله عنه said that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, "No Muslim will defend his brother's honour without it being due from Allah to defend him from the fire of Hell on the Day of Resurrection." He then recited:

وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (الروم ٤٧:٣٠)

(To help believers is incumbent upon us) (Ar-Room, 30:47)

(Sharah as Sunnah)

(١٤٧٨/١١٣) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيدَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ذَبَّ عَنْ لَحْمِ أَخِيهِ بِالْمَغِيبَةِ كَانَ حَقًّا عَلَى اللَّهِ أَنْ يُعْتَقَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ.

(رواه البيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

(1478/113) Sayyidah Asma ibnt Yazid رضي الله عنها quoted the Messenger of Allah ﷺ as saying: "If anyone defends his brother who is slandered when absent, it will be due from Allah to set him free from Hell."

(Baihaqi)

(١٤٧٩/١١٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ اغْتَيْبَ عَنْدَهُ أَخُوهُ الْمُسْلِمُ وَهُوَ يَقْدِرُ عَلَى نَصْرِهِ فَنَصَرَهُ نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ فَإِنْ لَمْ يَنْصُرْهُ وَهُوَ يَقْدِرُ عَلَى نَصْرِهِ أَدْرَكَهُ اللَّهُ بِهِ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ.

(رواه البغوى فى شرح السنه)

(1479/114) It is related by Anas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Anyone before whom a Muslim brother is being defamed and his reputation is being injured, and he can speak for him and defend his good name, and, (also), does it, Allah will help him in this world as well as the next, and if he does not defend or support him although he is in a position to do so, Allah will take him to task (for it) both in this world and the next."

(Sharah-us-Sunna Iman al-Baghwi)

Commentary: The five previous reports go to show how precious the honour of a Muslim is in the sight of Allah and what a grave sin it is for us to be found wanting in our duty to defend and protect it.

A Muslim is Muslim's Mirror

(١٤٨٠/١١٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الْمُؤْمِنُ مِرَاةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ وَالْمُؤْمِنُ أَخُو الْمُؤْمِنِ يَكْفُ عَنْهُ ضِعَّتَهُ وَيَحْوَطُهُ مِنْ
وَرَائِهِ.
(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1480/115) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه relates that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A Believer is a Believer's mirror, and a Believer is Believers's brother: he removes his defect (or deficiency), and guards him from behind."
(Abu Dawood and Tirmizi)

Commentary: A mirror reflects every blemish on the face of a person, and shows it only to him and not to anyone else. That every Muslim is a Muslim's mirror would, thus, mean that a Muslim should inform his brother of any fault or weakness he may observe in him, with a sincere heart, and refrain from spreading it abroad. The report, further, tells that every Believer is a Believer's brother. It will, therefore, be his duty to protect him, to the best of his ability, from an evil or danger.

Attitude Towards Mankind, In General, And All Created Beings

In the forementioned Traditions, we have seen instructions governing the behaviour of Muslims to one another. We shall, now, examine the sayings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ relating to our conduct in respect of all mankind and the other creatures of the Lord.

(١٤٨١/١١٦) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ أَنَّهُ سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ أَفْضَلِ الْإِيمَانِ قَالَ أَنْ تُحِبَّ لِلَّهِ وَتُبْغِضَ لِلَّهِ وَتَعْمَلَ لِسَانَكَ فِي ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ قَالَ وَمَاذَا يَأْرَسُولُ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ وَأَنْ تُحِبَّ لِلنَّاسِ مَا تُحِبُّ لِنَفْسِكَ وَتَكْرَهُ لَهُمْ مَا تَكْرَهُ لِنَفْسِكَ.

(رواه احمد)

(1481/116) It is related by Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه, "I enquired from the Holy Prophet ﷺ about superior Faith, i.e., what was the highest grade of Faith and how could it be reached. The Prophet ﷺ replied: 'It is that you love whom you love solely for the sake of Allah, and hate whom you hate solely for the sake of Allah (Friendship and enmity should be wholly for His sake). And, secondly, that you keep your tongue engaged in the remembrance of Allah'. 'What else?' I asked further. 'That you desire for others what you desire for yourself, and do not desire for others what you do not desire for yourself', the Prophet ﷺ replied."

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: It shows that in the teachings of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, sincerity and well-wishing for men, in general, to the extent of desiring for them what one desires for oneself is among the highest attributes of Faith.

(١٤٨٢/١١٧) عَنْ جَرِيرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ مَنْ لَا يَرْحَمُ النَّاسَ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1482/117) Jarir ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه related that the Prophet ﷺ said: "He will not gain the mercy of Allah ﷻ in whose heart there is no mercy for men."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It imparts a stern warning to those who do not treat fellow-men with kindness and compassion and remain indifferent to their needs and difficulties. Such men, we are told, will have no share in the mercy of The All-merciful.

It must be understood, however that it does not mean that criminals must not be punished. The Qur'an tells us:

وَلَكُمْ فِي الْقِصَاصِ حَيَوةٌ يَا أُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ. (البقرة ١٧٩:٢)

And there is life for you in retaliation. (al-Baqarah 2:179)

(١٤٨٣/١١٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الرَّاحِمُونَ يَرْحَمُهُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ اِرْحَمُوا مَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَرْحَمَكُمُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ.
(رواه ابو داود والترمذی)

(1483/118) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Allah will have mercy on them who are merciful. Show compassion to the dwellers of the earth, He who dwells in the heavens will show compassion to you."
(Abu Dawood and Tirmizi)

Commentary: It contains a most forceful exhortation for showing kindness to all the creatures of Allah on earth with whom one comes into contact. It, first, tells that there will be the special mercy of Allah on those who are merciful, and, then gives the assurance that the Lord will show compassion to those who are compassionate to His creatures.

In this Tradition, the phrase Mann fi-e-s-Sama'i has been used for Allah which, literally, means, "He who is in the heavens". (Evidently, the connection between the Almighty and the heavens is not the same as obtains between an occupant and the place he occupies).

Like the earth and all the other living and non-living things, the sky, too, has been created by Allah. He is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, and both of these are equally related to His functions and attributes of Divinity, Creation and Preservation.

وَهُوَ الَّذِي فِي السَّمَاءِ إِلَهٌ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَهٌ (لزخرف ٨٤:٤٣)

And He it is Who in the heaven is Allah, and in the earth Allah.

(Al Zukhruf 43:84)

But since the heaven enjoys superiority over the earth, Allah has a special association with it, the true significance of which, however, is known only to him. It is owing to it that Mann fi-es-Sama'i من في السماء has been used in the above narrative for Allah as against Mann fi-el-Arz. من في الارض.

(١٤٨٤/١١٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ وَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

الْخَلْقُ عِيَالُ اللَّهِ فَاحْبِبْ الْخَلْقَ إِلَى اللَّهِ مَنْ أَحْسَنَ إِلَى عِيَالِهِ

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1484/119) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه and Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه related to us, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "All the creatures are the Ayaal (family) of Allah. The more beloved of Allah, among His creatures, therefore, is the man who is good to His family, i.e., creatures." (Baihaqi)

Commentary: Those who are dependent on a person of the necessities of life, like food and clothing, are called his Ayaal. In this way, all the created beings are the Ayaal of Allah. He is their Cherisher and Sustainer. The above Tradition, consequently, tells that whoever shows kindness to the creatures of Allah will be deserving of His love.

Kindness to Animals

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, like the earlier Prophets, has permitted that the animals that have been created for riding or carrying loads or any other purpose are used for it. Again, the flesh of the animals which have been declared clean can be used for food, considering it to be a blessing of the Lord, and in accordance with His Command. But, at the same time, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has enjoined that the animals must not be treated cruelly, and one should fear Allah in respect of the dumb creatures as well.

(١٤٨٥/١٢٠) عَنْ سُهَيْلِ بْنِ الْحَنْظَلِيِّ قَالَ مَرَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِبَعِيرٍ قَدْ لَحِقَ ظَهْرُهُ بِبَطْنِهِ فَقَالَ اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ فِي هَذِهِ الْبَهَائِمِ الْمُعْجَمَةِ فَإِنَّ كِبْرُهَا صَالِحَةٌ وَأَتْرُكُوهَا صَالِحَةٌ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1485/120) Suhail ibn Hanzaliyyah رضي الله عنه narrated that once the Prophet ﷺ came upon a camel whose belly was touching its back (owing to starvation). On seeing it, he said: "O people, fear Allah with regard to the dumb animals. (Do not starve them like that). Ride on them in the condition that they are well, i.e., properly fed, and when you leave them, leave in the condition that they are well", i.e., after you have fed them properly."

(Abu Dawood)

(١٤٨٦/١٢١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَأَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِمَارًا قَدْ رُسِمَ فِي وَجْهِهِ فَقَالَ لَعَنَ اللَّهُ مَنْ فَعَلَ هَذَا. (رواه احمد)

(1486/121) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه narrated that (once) the Prophet ﷺ saw a donkey whose face had been branded. Upon it, he remarked: He is removed from the mercy of Allah who has committed this (cruel) act." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: In the olden days, it was customary to brand animals, like horses and donkeys, with red-hot iron, as a mark of recognition, and it is done, even now, at some places. But to burn the mark on an animal's face, which is the most sensitive part of the body, is most cruel, indeed. The Holy Prophet ﷺ felt deeply hurt on seeing the donkey whose face had been branded and observed that cursed was the man who had done that. It, surely, was an expression of severe resentment against the person who had been cruel to the poor animal.

(١٤٨٧/١٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
غُفِرَ لِمَرْأَةٍ مُؤْمِسَةٍ مَرَّتْ بِكَلْبٍ عَلَى رَأْسِ رَكْبٍ يَلْهَثُ كَأَن يَذِيقْتُهُ الْعَطَشُ
فَنَزَعَتْ حُفَّهَا فَأَوْتَقَتْهُ بِخِمَارِهَا فَنَزَعَتْ لَهُ مِنَ الْمَاءِ فُغِفِرَ لَهَا بِذَلِكَ. قِيلَ إِنَّ
لَنَا فِي الْبَهَائِمِ أَجْرًا؟ قَالَ فِي كُلِّ ذَاتِ كَبِدٍ رَطْبَةٍ أَجْرٌ. (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1487/122) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A woman of bad character was granted remission (of her sins) on the act that she saw a dog that was (moving round) a well in such a state that its tongue was hanging out, and it was panting, and (it appeared that) it would die of thirst. (The woman took pity on the dog, but there was no rope or vessel to draw water from the well.) So, she took off her leather stocking, and, somehow tied it to her, and drew water (from the well) by means of it, (and gave it to the dog to drink). She was forgiven (by Allah) of her sins upon this act (of mercy)". A Companion, thereupon, enquired: "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Is there a reward even on giving food and drink to the animals?" "Of course", the Prophet ﷺ replied. "There is a reward on giving food and drink to every living creature."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The aim of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, obviously, was not merely to narrate the story, but to stress the importance of being kind and compassionate to all the creatures of Allah, even to a dog.

A similar report has been quoted in the preceding pages from the same source-books, Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim. In it, however, the giving of water to the dying dog is attributed to a male traveller and not a woman of easy virtue. We have discussed it, in detail, over there and explained how a simple act like it could lead to salvation, and what was the real significance of it.

(١٤٨٨/١٢٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَغْرِسُ غَرْسًا أَوْ يَزْرَعُ زَرْعًا فَيَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ إِنْسَانٌ أَوْ طَيْرٌ أَوْ بَهِيمَةٌ إِلَّا كَانَ لَهُ صَدَقَةٌ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1488/123) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A Muslim bondsman who plants a tree or grows a crop, and, then, a man, bird or animal eats of it, it will be charity on his part."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The moral of it, again, is that to give food and drink not only to human beings, but to all the creatures of the Lord, including a bird or an animal, is an act of virtue on which there is a reward in the Hereafter.

On the other hand, to treat an animal cruelly and inflict pain on it unnecessarily is a great sin, as the following Tradition will tell.

(١٤٨٩/١٢٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ غَذَبْتُ امْرَأَةً فِي هِرَّةٍ أَمْسَكْتَهَا حَتَّى مَاتَتْ مِنَ الْجُوعِ فَلَمْ تَكُنْ تُطْعَمُهَا وَلَا تُرْسَلُهَا فَتَأْكُلُ مِنْ خَشَاشِ الْأَرْضِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1489/124) Abdullah ibn Umar and Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A hard-hearted woman will make her way to Hell simply for killing a cat (in a most callous manner). She held it in captivity and neither gave it anything to eat herself nor set it free so that it could feed on the rodents (till it died of starvation)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: These few Traditions are enough to give an idea of the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ concerning the treatment of animals. It in no way, conflicts with the command of the Prophet ﷺ about the killing of poisonous animals, such as, snakes and scorpions, which is an act of service to men as well as to the other creatures of Allah.

RULES AND PROPRIETIES OF MEETING

In all civilised societies, there have always been some particular forms of greeting, as an expression of respect, affection or formal recognition, upon meeting a person. In our own country, the Hindus say Namaste on meeting or arrival, and, also, Ram, Ram. Among the Christians, it is customary to salute with the words like 'Good morning', or 'Good evening'.

Among the Arabs, too, before the advent of Islam, similar forms of salutation were in vogue. It is stated in Sunnah Abi Dawood, on the authority of the Companion, Imran ibn Husain, "Before the advent of Islam we used to say An'maallaahu bika a'in (May Allah grant coolness to your eyes). and An'im sabaah (May your morning be happy) while greeting one another. When from the darkness of perversion we emerged into the light of Islam, these formulas of salutation were forbidden, and in their place, we were taught to say, As'Salaam-u-Alaikum (Peace be with you)."

As a little reflection will show, no better form of salutation is possible as an expression of love and regard on goodwill. It makes an excellent and most comprehensive prayer for the occasion, denoting: May Allah bestow peace and security on you. For those who are younger to us in age, it is an expression of kindness and affection, and for the elders, of regard and attention. Moreover, Salaam is one of the Excellent Names of Allah. In the Qur'an, the phrase, As-salaam-u-Alaikum, has been used on behalf of Allah, as a mark of favour and esteem of Divine Prophets. Thus, we read:

سَلَامٌ عَلَى نُوحٍ فِي الْعَالَمِينَ، سَلَامٌ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ، سَلَامٌ عَلَى مُوسَى وَهَارُونَ،
سَلَامٌ عَلَى الْيَاسِينَ، سَلَامٌ عَلَى الْمُرْسَلِينَ

(الصفت ٣٧: ١٠٩، ١٢٠، ١٣٠، ١٨١)

Peace be unto Nuh among the people. (Al Saffat, 37:79); Peace be unto Ibrhaim, (Al Saffat, 37:109); Peace be unto Musa and Harun, (Al Saffat, 37:120); Peace be unto Ilyas, (Al Saffat, 37:130); Peace be unto those sent (to warn), (Al Saffat, 37:181); and, Peace be on His slaves whom He hath chosen, (Al Saffat, 37:59).

The Beleivers, too, are commanded to make salutation to the Holy Prophet ﷺ in these words:

اَلْسَّلَامُ عَلَیْكَ اَیُّهَا النَّبِیُّ

As-salaam-o-Alaiha Aiyyuhan-Nabi (Peace be with thee, O Prophet),

And, the Prophet is told that when those who believed in the Divine Revelations came to him, he should say to them:

سَلَامٌ عَلَیْكُمْ كَتَبَ رَبُّكُمْ عَلَیْ نَفْسِهِ الرَّحْمَةَ (الانعام ٥٤:٢)

Peace be unto you! Your Lord has prescribed for Himself mercy. (Al Anam 6:54)

Similarly in the Hereafter at the time of entry into Heaven, Believers will be recieved with these words:

اَدْخُلُوْهَا بِسَلَامٍ (الحجر ٤٦:١٥)

Enter them in Peace, (Al Hijr 15:46); and سَلَامٌ عَلَیْكُمْ بِمَا صَبَرْتُمْ فَنِعْمَ عُقْبَى الدَّارِ (الرعد ٢٤:١٣)

Peace be unto you because ye preserved. Ah, passing sweet will be the sequel of the (heavenly) home. (Al Ra'd, 13:24)

Anyway, there can be no better greeting than As-salaam-u-Alaikum. If the two Muslims who meet are already acquainted with each other and there exists a bond of friendship, relationship or affection between them, this form of salutation fully signifies the connection, and, on the basis of it, gives an eloquent expression to the sentiments of joy, regard, love and well-wishing. On the other hand, if they are strangers, it becomes a means of introduction and a declaration of trust and sincerity; or, in other words, one assures the other, through it, that he is a well-wisher and there obtains a spiritual tie between them.

Be that as it may, the teaching of As-Salam-u-Alaikum and Wa'alaiku-mus-salaam as the forms of greeting among the Muslims is a most propitious instruction of the sacred Prophet ﷺ and a distinctive practice of Islam.

Importance of Salaam

(١٤٩٠/١٢٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُعْبُدُوا الرَّحْمَنَ، وَأَطْعِمُوا الطَّعَامَ، وَأَقْسُوا السَّلَامَ، تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ

بِسَلَامٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1490/125) It is related by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "O people! Worship Allah, the Beneficent, feed His bondsmen, and spread Salaam much, and you will reach Heaven in safety." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: In it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has taught three things and given the tidings of Paradise to those who observe them. Firstly, paying of divine honours to Allah, the Beneficent, which is the exclusive claim of the Lord, and the high aim and purpose of creation; secondly, the giving of food to the poor and needy persons, as an act of charity, and to friends and relatives and virtuous slaves of Allah, as a token of love and sincerity, which is an excellent way of uniting the hearts and promoting mutual affection, and, also, a cure for the deadly ailment of stinginess; and, thirdly, to make common the salutation of As-salaam-u-Alaikum and Wa'alaikum-us-Salaam among the Muslims, on the widest scale, which is a distinguishing practice of Islam and a formula of prayer taught by the Almighty Himself. Upon these three things, the Prophet ﷺ has given the assurance that whoever will observe them will safely attain the goal of Paradise.

(١٤٩١/١٢٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَىَ الْإِسْلَامِ خَيْرٌ؟ قَالَ تُطْعِمُ الطَّعَامَ وَتُقْرِئُ السَّلَامَ عَلَى مَنْ عَرَفْتَ وَمَنْ لَمْ تَعْرِفْ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1491/126) Narrated Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that once it was asked of the Prophet ﷺ a better and more superior act in Islam (or a more superior practice among the practices of Islam). "One, you feed the bondsmen of Allah; and, two, you make salutation (salaam) to those you know as well as to those you do not," the Prophet ﷺ replied." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has described the giving of food and spreading of Salaam as more meritorious deeds in Islam. In some other Traditions, reproduced earlier, acts like Allah-remembrance and Jihad and kindly treatment of and obedience to parents, too, have been mentioned as the "best" and "most superior" of acts. But as we have repeatedly emphasised, there is no inconsistency in them. The variation is due, simply, to the divergence in the needs and circumstances of the questioners, and, in various ways, all these deeds command an exceptional significance in the Islamic design of life.

(١٤٩٢/١٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَدْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ حَتَّى تُؤْمِنُوا وَلَا تُؤْمِنُوا حَتَّى تَحَابُّوا، أَوْ لَا أَذِلُّكُمْ عَلَى شَيْءٍ إِذَا فَعَلْتُمُوهُ تَحَابَبْتُمْ، أَفْشُوا السَّلَامَ بَيْنَكُمْ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1492/127) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "You will not enter Paradise till you believe and you will not believe till you love one another. Let me guide you to something by doing which you will love one another. Salute all and sundry among you."
(Muslim)

Commentary: This hadith says that faith on which admittance to Paradise depends is not merely reciting the Kalimah. Rather, it encompasses the mutual love of believers which can be increased by greeting one another with salam.

The main result of a deed is felt only when the deed is done sincerely. It applies to prayer (salah), fasting, Hajj and zikr too. It is again the same with Salam and hand-shaking if a sincere spirit prompts it, the results would be obvious.

Divine Reward

(١٤٩٣/١٢٨) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا جَاءَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَقَرَّدَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ جَلَسَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَشْرُ ثُمَّ جَاءَ آخَرُ فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ فَقَرَّدَ عَلَيْهِ فَجَلَسَ فَقَالَ عَشْرُونَ ثُمَّ جَاءَ آخَرُ فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ فَقَرَّدَ عَلَيْهِ فَجَلَسَ فَقَالَ ثَلَاثُونَ.
(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

(1493/128) Imran ibn Husain relates that once a person came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: "As-salaam-u-Alaikum!" The Prophet ﷺ returned the greeting, and when the man sat down, he said: "Ten, i.e., ten good deeds have been written in his name owing to this Salaam." After it, another person came and said: "*As-salaam-u-Alaikum wa Rahmatullah*¹." The Prophet ﷺ returned the greeting, and when that man sat down, he said: "Twenty i.e. twenty good deeds have been written in his name." Then, another man came and said: "*As-salaam-u-Alaikum-wa-Ramhatullaah-wa-Barakatuh*²". The Prophet ﷺ returned his greeting, and when this man sat down, said: "Thirty i.e., thirty good deeds have been written in his name."

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In his Infinite Benevolence, the Almighty has prescribed for the Believers the reward of ten good deeds on every good deed performed by them. It is stated, also, in the Qur'an:

مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ أَثْمَالِهَا (الانعام ٦: ١٦٠)

Whoso bringeth a good deed will receive tenfold the like thereof.

(Al An'am 6:161)

It was for this reason that the Holy Prophet ﷺ remarked about the person who had said As-salaam-u-Alaikum, alone, that he was going to get the reward of ten good deeds, and about the person who had added the words, Wa Rahmatullah, to it that he was going to get the reward of twenty good deeds, and about the third person who had added Wa Barakatuh to the greeting that he was going to get the reward of thirty good deeds. He who replied to the greeting will be entitled to the reward in the same order.

Imam Maalik has quoted the report from Tufail, son of Ubayy ibn Ka'b ؓ, saying "I used to visit Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ (often). His habit was that he took me, with him, to the market and offered salaam to every shop-keeper, junk dealer, and poor person he met in the way (and, then, returned home without buying anything). One day, as I went to him, he as usual wanted me to accompany him to the market. I said, What will you do there? You neither stop at a shop nor buy anything nor even enquire about its price nor sit with anyone. (What is the use of going to the market)?

①. Peace be with you, and the mercy of Allah.

②. Peace be with you, and the mercy of Allah, and His blessings.

Let us sit here and talk. It will be more profitable to me'. Abdullah ibn Umar replied: 'I go to the market solely for the purpose of making salutation to whosoever I see'."

(١٤٩٤/١٢٩) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَوَّلَى النَّاسِ بِاللَّهِ مَنْ بَدَأَ بِالسَّلَامِ.
(رواه احمد والترمذى وابوداؤد)

(1494/129) It related by Abu Umama رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "He is more deserving of the mercy and propinquity of Allah among the people who is the first to offer salaam."
(Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٤٩٥/١٣٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْبَادِئُ بِالسَّلَامِ بَرِيءٌ مِنَ الْكِبْرِ.
(رواه البيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

(1495/130) Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه related that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "He who is the first greets is free from pride."
(Baihaqi)

Commentary: It shows that to take precedence in making the salutation is a sign of freedom from vanity. It can, also, mean that it is a cure for pride which is a great sin.

Salaam on Meeting Anyone

(١٤٩٦/١٣١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَقُّ الْمُسْلِمِ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِ سِتُّ قَبْلِ مَا هُنَّ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ إِذَا لَقِيْتَهُ فَسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ وَإِذَا دَعَاكَ فَاجِبْهُ وَإِذَا اسْتَنْصَحَكَ فَانْصَحْ لَهُ وَإِذَا عَطَسَ فَحَمْدُ اللَّهِ فَشِمْتُهُ وَإِذَا مَرَضَ فَعُدُّهُ وَإِذَا مَاتَ فَاتَّبِعْهُ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1496/131) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A Muslim has six rights over another Muslim". He was asked, "What are they, Messenger of Allah?" He said, "❶ When they meet, he should greet him with salaam, ❷ when he invites, he should accept the invitation, ❸ when he seeks guidance or advice, he must advise him, ❹ when he sneezes and says Alhamdulillah, he must say yarhamak Allah (May Allah have mercy on you), ❺ when he is ill, he must visit him and ❻ when he dies, he must go with the funeral."

Commentary: Of the six rights, one is to greet another Muslim with السلام عليكم on meeting. We have seen a similar hadith a few pages earlier and have commented on it. The same comments apply here.

(١٤٩٧/١٣٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا لَقِيَ أَحَدَكُمْ أَخَاهُ فَلْيُسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ فَإِنْ خَالَتَ بَيْنَهُمَا شَجَرَةٌ أَوْ حِذَارٌ أَوْ حَجَرٌ ثُمَّ لَقِيَهِ فَلْيُسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ.
(رواه ابو داود)

(1497/132) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you meets a Muslim brother, he should offer salaam, and if, after it, a tree, wall or rock comes between them, (and they cannot see each other for some time), and, then, they come face to face again, he should offer him salaam once more."
(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It tells that if two Muslims meet and are separated, after the salutation, even for a brief moment, and, then, they meet again, they should exchange the greeting a second time. One can learn from it how important it is to offer salaam in the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ and the Shari'ah.

Salaam On Coming Into or Going Out of One's Own House or Any other Place

(١٤٩٨/١٣٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَابُنَيَّ إِذَا دَخَلْتَ عَلَى أَهْلِكَ فَسَلِّمْ يَكُونُ بَرَكَهَةٌ عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَى أَهْلِ بَيْتِكَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1498/133) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Son, make salutation when you go to your family. It will be a source of blessing to you as well as to the members of the family."
(Tirmizi)

(١٤٩٩/١٣٤) عَنْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلْتُمْ بَيْتًا فَسَلِّمُوا عَلَى أَهْلِهِ وَإِذَا خَرَجْتُمْ فَأَوْدِعُوا أَهْلَهُ بِسَلَامٍ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الايمان)

(1499/134) It is related, on the authority of Qatadah

(Taba'ee¹, by way of a Mursal²), that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When you go to anyone's house, make the salutation to the inmates, and when you leave, leave by making the salutation of farewell." (Baihaqi)

(١٥٠٠/١٣٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا نَهَيْتُمْ أَحَدَكُمْ إِلَى مَجْلِسٍ فَلْيَسْلَمْ فَإِنْ بَدَأَهُ أَنْ يُجْلِسَ فَلْيُجْلِسْ ثُمَّ إِذَا قَامَ فَلْيَسْلَمْ فَلَيْسَتْ الْأُولَى بِأَحَقَّ مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1500/135) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: When anyone of you arrives at a gathering (or assembly), he should, (first of all), greet those who are present, and, then, sit down if he wants. Afterwards, he should salute, again, on leaving, and the first salutation is not superior to the second salutation i.e., the salutation of farewell is of the same value or grade as the salutation of arrival, and not inferior to it in any way." (Tirmizi)

Some Other Rules And Regulations

(١٥٠١/١٣٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسَلِّمُ الصَّغِيرُ عَلَى الْكَبِيرِ وَالْمَارُّ عَلَى الْقَاعِدِ وَالْقَلِيلُ عَلَى الْكَثِيرِ. (رواه البخاری)

(1501/136) Abu Hurayrah ؓ related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The younger person should salute the elder person; he who is passing on (the road) should salute those who are sitting; and (men of) smaller group should salute (men of) the larger group." (Bukhari)

(In another narrative of Abu Hurayrah ؓ, it is said "The traveller on horseback (or another carriage) should salute him who is going on foot."

Commentary: It tells that when two persons meet, the one who is

- ①. The term is applied pre-eminently to Muslim doctors who followed the immediate Ashab or Companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and whose reports and narratives regarding the Prophet ﷺ form a part of the Sunnah.
- ②. Sometimes a Taba'ee relates a Tradition, but does not mention the name of the Sahabi, i.e., the Holy Companion through whom it had reached him. Such a Tradition is called Mursal in the special usage of Islam.

younger in age should take the lead in making the salutation. In the same way, if a person who is going somewhere happens to pass by someone who is sitting, he should salute him first, and when two groups of men come across each other, men of the smaller group should be the first to greet men of the larger group, and in case a person is riding, he should, first, wish the person who is going on foot. The wisdom of the last instruction is self-evident. The man who is travelling on horseback or in a car etc., apparently, enjoys superiority over him who is walking on foot, and, therefore, he should show humility by wishing the pedestrian first.

(١٥٠٢/١٣٧) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ مَرْفُوعًا قَالَ يُجْزَى عَنِ الْجَمَاعَةِ إِذَا مَرُّوا أَنْ يُسَلِّمَ أَحَدُهُمْ وَيُجْزَى عَنِ الْجُلُوسِ أَنْ يَرُدَّ أَحَدُهُمْ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1502/137) Sayyidina Ali ibn Abi Talib عليه السلام related to us that the Prophet ﷺ said: "If anyone belonging to a group that is passing by salutes, it will suffice for the whole group, and if anyone belonging to the group that is sitting acknowledges, it will suffice for the whole group". (Baihaqi)

When Not To Salute?

(١٥٠٣/١٣٨) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَلَّمَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

وَهُوَ يَبُولُ فَلَمْ يَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ السَّلَامَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1503/138) Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه narrated (once) a person made the salutation to the Prophet ﷺ when he had sat down to urinate, and he did not reply. (Tirmizi)

Commnetary: It shows that salutation should not be made in a situation like the above, and if a person did so, out of ignorance, it should not be acknowledged.

(١٥٠٤/١٣٩) عَنْ مِقْدَادِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ فِي حَدِيثٍ طَوِيلٍ قَالَ فَبِجِئِي رَسُولَ

اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَيُسَلِّمُ تَسْلِيمًا لَا يُوقِظُ النَّائِمَ وَيُسْمِعُ الْبَقِظَانَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1504/139) Miqdad ibn al-Aswad رضي الله عنه related in the course of a long narrative, that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to

*Ahl-us-Suffa*¹ in the night, he used to wish them in such a low voice that those who were asleep did not wake up, and those who were awake heard the salutation. (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that a person who makes the salutation should take care not to disturb anyone in his sleep or cause discomfort to anybody in another way.

Shaking Hands

Besides salaam, to shake hands, also, is a form of giving expression to sentiments of joy, affection and esteem upon meeting a person. Generally, it is done simultaneously with salutation or immediately after it, and, so to speak, marks the fulfilment of the aim and object of salaam, as some Traditions clearly tell.

(١٥٠٥/١٤٠) عَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مِنْ تَمَامِ التَّحِيَّةِ الْإِخْذُ بِالْيَدِ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

(1505/140) It is related by Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Shaking hands denotes the completion of salutation."
(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Propitiousness And Reward

(١٥٠٦/١٤١) عَنْ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا لَتَقَى الْمُسْلِمَانِ فَتَصَافَحَا وَحَمِدَا اللَّهَ وَاسْتَغْفَرَاهُ غُفِرَ لَهُمَا.
(رواه ابوداؤد)

(1506/141) It is related by Bara' ibn 'Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "When two Muslims meet, and shake hands with each other, and, (along with it), glorify the Lord, and beg forgiveness for themselves, they will, after all, be forgiven." (Abu Dawood)

(١٥٠٧/١٤٢) عَنْ عَطَاءِ الْخُرَاسَانِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَصَافَحُوا يَذْهَبُ الْغُلُّ وَتَهَادُّوا تَحَابُّوا وَتَذْهَبُ الشُّحْنَاءُ.
(رواه مالک. مرسل)
(1507/142) Ata Khorasani (a Taba'ee) related to us, saying that

- ①. There was a raised flooring in a corner of the Prophet's mosque in Madinah on which a group of Muslims used to live for religious reasons. They led a life of austerity and devoted themselves wholly to the learning of Faith and worship, and were known as Ahl-us-Suffa or Ashaab-us-Suffa (People of the terrace or platform).

Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Shake hands with one another; it removes ill-will; and give presents to one another: it will promote love and affection among you and enmity will disappear from the hearts." (Muwatta)

Commentary: It should, however, be noted that the efficacy and propitiousness of an act is bound by the condition that it is performed with warmth and sincerity and not as a mere formality. A lifeless seed does not germinate.

Embracing, Kissing And Standing

Embracing and kissing are the ultimate forms of the manifestation of love and attachment, but these acts are permissible only when they are not opposed to the letter and spirit of the Shari'ah, and there is no danger of their leading to harmful consequences.

It is quoted in Tirmizi, on the authority of Sayyidina Anas ؓ, that once a person enquired from the Holy Prophet ﷺ: "Is it permitted that upon meeting a brother or dear friend we clasped him in the arms or kissed him?" "No", the Prophet ﷺ replied. The questioner, then, asked: "Is it allowed to shake hands with him?" "Yes! It is allowed," said the Prophet ﷺ.

The authorities have explained the forbidding of embracing and kissing in this Tradition by saying that it appertains to situations in which such an act can be the cause of an evil or mischief, otherwise several incidents of embracing and kissing by the sacred Prophet ﷺ himself are reported in the authentic collections of the Traditions, as the following narratives will show.

(١٥٠٨/١٤٣) عَنْ أَيُّوبَ بْنِ بُشَيْرٍ عَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْ عَنَزَةَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ قَالَ لَأَبِي ذَرَّهْلُ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَافِحُكُمْ إِذَا لَقِيتُمُوهُ قَالَ مَا لَقِيتُهُ قَطُّ إِلَّا صَافِحَنِي وَبَعَثَ إِلَيَّ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ وَلَمْ أَكُنْ فِي أَهْلِي فَلَمَّا جِئْتُ أَخْبَرْتُ فَاتَيْتُهُ وَهُوَ عَلَى سَرِيرٍ فَالْتَزَمَنِي فَكَانَتْ بِلَاكِ أَجُودَ وَأَجُودَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1508/143) Ayub ibn Bushair related on the authority of a member of the tribe of Banu Anzah, that he asked Abu Zarr Ghifari ؓ whether the Messenger of Allah ﷺ shook hands with people upon meeting them. Abu Zarr replied "Whenever I went to him or met him, he always shook hands with me. Once, (it so happened), that he sent for me, but I was not at home at that time. When, on returning, I was told that he wanted to see me, I went to him. At that time, he was sitting on his Sareer¹. He got up and embraced me, and threw his arms around my neck, and this embrace was very, very good, i.e., most blessed and pleasing." (Abu Dawood)

(١٥٠٩/١٤٤) عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَلَقَّى جَعْفَرَ بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ فَأَلْتَزَمَهُ وَقَبَّلَ مَا بَيْنَ عَيْنَيْهِ. (رواه ابو داؤد والبيهقى فى شعب الايمان مرسلًا) (1509/144) It is related by Imam Sha'abi, by way of a Mursal, that when the Prophet ﷺ received Jafar ibn Abi Talib, (on his return from Abyssinia), he embraced him and kissed him between the eyes i.e., on the forehead. (Abu Dawood and Baihaqi)

(١٥١٠/١٤٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا كَانَ أَشْبَهَ سَمْنًا وَهَذْيًا وَدَلًّا بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ فَاطِمَةَ كَانَتْ إِذَا دَخَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ قَامَ إِلَيْهَا فَأَخَذَ بِيَدِهَا فَقَبَّلَهَا وَاجْلَسَهَا فِي مَجْلِسِهِ وَكَانَ إِذَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا قَامَتْ إِلَيْهِ فَأَخَذَتْ بِيَدِهِ فَقَبَّلَتْهُ وَاجْلَسَتْهُ فِي مَجْلِسِهَا. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1510/145) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها related "I have not seen anyone more similar to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ in shape and appearance of face, and in habits disposition, and manner of walking then (his daughter) Fatimah Zuhra رضى الله عنها. (She resembled him most in all these things). When she came, the Prophet ﷺ would get up, (out of love and joy), and advance towards her, and take her hands in his hands, and make her sit at his place. In the same way, when he went to her house, she, too, used to stand up, take his hands in her hands, and kiss them, and make him sit at her place." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The above reports distinctly show that embracing and kissing the hand or forehead etc., are permitted in the Shari'ah and established by the practice of the Holy Prophet ﷺ himself. The narrative of Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه in which embracing and kissing are forbidden, will, thus, be deemed to be applicable to circumstances in which these are likely to lead to a sin or possess even a semblance of it.

①. Meaning a cot or low seat made of the branches of the date-palm.

Moreover, in Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها narrative, it is stated that the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to stand up at the coming of Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها, and she used to do the same at the coming of the sacred Prophet ﷺ which shows that to stand up, out of love, joy, esteem or good-mannerliness, for a relative, a friend, an elder or any other dearly loved or venerable person, too, is correct and in keeping with what is lawful in the Shari'ah. But from the other Traditions, some of which we shall take up later, it appears that the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not like the Companions to stand up at his coming and expressed his displeasure at it. It was, probably, due to his natural humility and freedom from pride.

Taking Permission Before Entering A House

The Holy Prophet ﷺ further, has taught that when a person wants to meet anyone or go into his house or join his company, he should, first, take the permission and never go in without it, for who can tell what he is doing at that time and whether he is in a position to have a visitor or not.

(١٥١١/١٤٦) عَنْ كَلْدَةَ بِنِ حَنْبَلٍ أَنَّ صَفْوَانَ بْنَ أُمَيَّةَ بَعَثَهُ بِلَبَنٍ وَجَدَايَةٍ وَضَعًا يَبِيسَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالنَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِأَعْلَى الْوَادِي قَالَ فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ وَلَمْ أَسْلَمْ وَلَمْ أَسْتَأْذِنْ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ارْجِعْ فَقُلِ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَدْخُلُ؟ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

(1511/146) It is related by Kaldah ibn Hanbal that once his step-brother¹, Sufwan ibn Umaiyya, sent him to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ with some milk, a young deer and a few cucumbers. It was at a time when the Prophet ﷺ lived in the upper part of the valley of Makkah. Kaldah narrates "I went, with these articles, where the Prophet ﷺ was, without making the salutation, or obtaining the permission. The Prophet ﷺ, thereupon, told me to go back, and ask for permission by saying: "As-salaam-u-alaikum! May I come in?"

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Sufwan ibn Umaiyya was the son of Umaiyya ibn ①. His mother's side.

Khalf, a well-known enemy of Islam and the Holy Prophet. He had embraced Islam after the Victory of Makkah, and the incident mentioned above, probably, had taken place during the journey to it. The Holy Prophet ﷺ was, then, staying at the elevated part of the Valley of Makkah, called Mu'alla.

Kaldah ibn Hanbal did not know that if he wanted to visit anyone he should make the salutation and obtain permission before entering the house. He, therefore, went straight to the sacred Prophet ﷺ without observing the proprieties. The Prophet ﷺ, thereupon, told him to go out and take the permission by saying: "As-salaam-u-alaikum! May I come in?" He, thus, not only told him what was the right thing to do on such an occasion, but, also, made him act on it. A lesson imparted in that way, obviously, is more effective.

(١٥١٢/١٤٧) عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا سَأَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اسْتَأْذِنْ عَلَى أُمِّي؟ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ إِنِّي مَعَهَا فِي الْبَيْتِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْتَأْذِنْ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ إِنِّي خَادِمُهَا فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْتَأْذِنْ عَلَيْهَا أَتَحِبُّ أَنْ تَرَاهَا عُرْيَانَةً؟ قَالَ لَا، قَالَ فَاسْتَأْذِنْ عَلَيْهَا.

(رواه مالك مرسلاً)

(1189/147) It is narrated, on the authority of Ata ibn Yasaar, that once a person asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "Should I, first, take the permission even when going to my mother?" "Yes; you should", the Prophet ﷺ replied. Ata ibn Yasaar, then asked: "I live in the same house with my mother. Is it necessary for me, even then, to take her permission before entering?" "Yes", the Prophet ﷺ said. "First take the permission". The man said again: "I am her sole attendant, (and do all the things for her. I have, therefore, to go to her frequently)." "(In any case, go in only after obtaining the permission", replied the Prophet ﷺ. [He added]: "Would you like to see her naked?" "Never", the man replied. "Then go in after taking the permission", the Prophet ﷺ observed."

(Muwatta Malik)

Commentary: It shows that even if a person went into his mother's apartment, he should, first, obtain the permission for it was quite possible that she had taken off her clothes, for some reason, at the time he went in.

(١٥١٣/١٤٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَأْذُنُوا لِمَنْ لَمْ

يَبْدَأُ بِالسَّلَامِ (رواه البيهقي في شعب الايمان)

(1513/148) It is related by Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Do not give permission to one who does not convey the salaam before asking permission." (Baihaqi)

Commentary: The Islamic method of seeking permission is to say "السلام عليكم", May I come in? (etc.). If anyone forgets it, he must be reminded of the Islamic fraternal greeting.

(١٥١٤/١٤٩) عَنْ رَبِيعِ بْنِ حِرَاشٍ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ فَاسْتَأْذَنَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَلَيْحَ؟ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِخَادِمِهِ أَخْرِجْ إِلَى هَذَا فَعَلِمَهُ الْإِسْتِذَانُ فَقُلْ لَهُ "قُلِ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَدْخُلْ؟ فَسَمِعَهُ الرَّجُلُ فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَدْخُلْ؟ فَأَذِنَ لَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَخَلَ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1514/149) Rabee' ibn Hiraash (Tabaee) relates that once a person asked the Prophet ﷺ for permission to come in. He said: "May I come in?" The Prophet, thereupon, told his attendant to go and tell him that the correct way to taking the permission was to say: "As-salaam-u-alaikum! May I come in?" The man heard the Prophet ﷺ (Before the attendant could reach him, and corrected himself), by saying: "As-salaam-u-alaikum! May I come in?" The Prophet ﷺ gave the permission, and he came in. (Abu Dawood)

(١٥١٥/١٥٠) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ زَارَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَنْزِلِنَا فَقَالَ السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ فَرَدَّا أَبِي رَدًّا خَفِيًّا، فَقُلْتُ إِلَّا تَأْذُنُ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؟ فَقَالَ ذَرُهُ حَتَّى يُكْثِرَ عَلَيْنَا السَّلَامُ فَقَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ" فَرَدَّ سَعْدٌ رَدًّا خَفِيًّا ثُمَّ قَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ" ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَأَتْبَعَهُ سَعْدٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي كُنْتُ أَسْمَعُ تَسْلِيمَكَ وَأَرُدُّ عَلَيْكَ رَدًّا خَفِيًّا لِتُكْثِرَ عَلَيْنَا مِنَ السَّلَامِ، فَانْصَرَفَ مَعَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَمَرَهُ سَعْدٌ بِغُسْلِ

فَاغْتَسَلَ ثُمَّ نَاوَلَهُ مِلْحَقَةً مَضْبُوعَةً بِرَغْفَرَانٍ أَوْ رُسٍ فَاشْتَمَلَ بِهَا¹ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ "اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْ صَلَوَاتِكَ وَرَحْمَتَكَ عَلَى آلِ سَعْدٍ" ثُمَّ أَصَابَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الطَّعَامِ فَلَمَّا أَرَادَ أَنْ يُصْرِفَ قَرَّبَ لَهُ سَعْدٌ حِمَارًا قَدْ وَطَأَ عَلَيْهِ بِقِطِيفَةٍ فَقَالَ لِي سَعْدُ اصْحَبْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصَحْبَتُهُ فَقَالَ لِي إِرْكَبْ مَعِيَ فَأَبَيْتُ فَقَالَ إِمَّا أَنْ تُرْكَبَ وَإِمَّا أَنْ تُنْصَرِفَ فَأَنْصَرَفْتُ.

(رواه ابوداؤد)

(1515/150) It is related by Qays ibn Sa'd رضي الله عنه (one day), the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to our house, and, (according to the recognised custom, said from the other side of the door: 'As-salaam-u-alaikum wa rahmatullaah!') (Instead of replying to the greeting with a loud voice and begging the Prophet ﷺ to come in), my father, (Sa'd ibn Ibadah), acknowledged the salutation in a very soft voice (which the Prophet could not hear). I enquired (from my father); 'Why do you not ask the Prophet ﷺ to come in?' 'Keep quiet', replied my father. 'Let it be like that so that he sends the Salaam to us again and again (and we get its blessedness)'. The Prophet ﷺ said again: 'As-salaam-u-alaikum wa rahmatullaah!' (When he, again did not hear a reply from my father, the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, 'As-salaam-u-alaikum wa rahmatullaah' for the third time, and on still receiving no reply from my father, turned back. My father, thereupon, came out and catching up with the Prophet ﷺ said to him: 'Messenger of Allah ﷺ! I was hearing your greeting, and, deliberately, replying to it with a low voice in order that you may send the Salaam to us over and over again, (and we get its blessings)'. The Prophet ﷺ, then, returned with my father, and my father told the inmates of the house to get things ready for the Prophet's bath. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, then, took the bath, and my father gave him a sheet dyed in saffron or vars¹, which he tied around his waist, and, then, raised his hands, made the supplication: "Alla hummaj'al salawatika wa rahmatika'ala a'al-i-Sa'd. (Oh Allah! Bestow Thy choicest favours and blessings upon the family of Sa'd)." The Holy Prophet ﷺ, after it, ate something, and when he decided to go, my father offered him his donkey for riding, on the waist of which was placed a cushion made by folding a broad piece of cloth, and told me to accompany him (as an escort). So, I went along with the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ told me to sit on the donkey with him, but I, respectfully, declined, upon which he said: 'Either sit with me or go back. (It is intolerable that you walk on foot while I ride)." The narrator, Qays ibn Sa'd, adds that, thereupon, he returned home. (Abu Dawood)

1. An odorous substance.

Commentary: It shows that when a person goes to see anyone, he should, first, seek his permission to come in by saying, As-salaam-u-alaikum, and in case he receives no reply, he should do so thrice, and if, still, there is no reply, he should return.

The way Sa'd ibn Ibadah behaved for the sake of being the recipient of the sacred Prophet's salaam and its blessings over and over again, and owing to which the Prophet ﷺ had to make the salutation thrice, and, then, decide to return, apparently, was improper, but since the intention behind it was good and noble, and Sa'd had been encouraged to act like that because he knew that the Prophet ﷺ would not be angry, there was no harm in it. It, also, turned out that way, and the Prophet ﷺ, instead of showing displeasure, appreciated the sentiment of Sa'd ibn Ibadah, as is evident from the supplication he made for him and his family.

It further tells that, after the bath, the Holy Prophet ﷺ wore a broad piece of cloth dyed in saffron or vars (which, too, like saffron, is a coloured and odorous substance obtained from a kind of corcus), though, in some Traditions it is strictly forbidden to men to wear such clothes. We can either conclude that the afore-mentioned event had taken place before the revelation of the commandment prohibiting the use of clothes dyed in saffron etc., by men or that the sheet had been dyed earlier and washed thoroughly later on in which case its use was permissible to men as well.

Offering of A Seat To Visitors Next to Oneself

(١٥١٦/١٥١) عَنْ وَائِلَةَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ دَخَلَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ قَاعِدٌ فَتَرَحُّزَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ فِي الْمَكَانِ سَعَةً فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِلْمُسْلِمِ لِحَقًّا إِذَا رَأَاهُ أَخُوهُ أَنْ يَتَزَحَّزَحَ لَهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1516/151) Wasila ibn al-Khattab رضي الله عنه narrated that (once) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was sitting in the mosque that a person came. The Prophet ﷺ moved from his place (to make room for him), upon which he said: "Be seated, Messenger of Allah ﷺ. There is enough space for me." The Prophet ﷺ replied: "It is the claim of a Muslim that when a brother saw him (coming), he should move a little from his place (and make him sit next to himself)." (Bayhaqi)

Commentary: It denotes that due honour should be shown to a visitor even if the host is a man of the highest position. It contains a lesson, particularly, for the Holy men who bear a relationship of propinquity or succession to the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

No One Should be Told To Vacate His Seat For Oneself

(١٥١٧/١٥٢) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَقِيمُ الرَّجُلُ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ مَجْلِسِهِ ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ فِيهِ وَلَكِنْ تَفْسَحُوا وَتَوَسَّعُوا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1517/152) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "No one should tell anyone to get up (for himself) and take his seat. On the contrary, people should make room for those who come (and offer them their seats)"

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: While it is forbidden to occupy anyone's seat by telling him to vacate it, if a person voluntarily gets up and offers his seat to anyone, he will be deserving of the Divine reward in accordance with the intention.

(١٥١٨/١٥٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَامَ

مِنْ مَجْلِسِهِ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ إِلَيْهِ فَهُوَ أَحَقُّ بِهِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1518/153) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever leaves his seat (for some reason), and, then, comes back has a greater claim to it." (Muslim)

No One Should sit Between Two Persons Without Their Permission

(١٥١٩/١٥٤) عَنْ عُمَرُو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى

اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَجْلِسُ بَيْنَ اثْنَيْنِ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِمَا. (رواه ابو داود)

(1519/154) Amr ibn Shu'ayb related to us, on the authority of his father, Shu'ayb, who had heard it from his grandfather, Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not sit between two persons without their permission." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The same Tradition has been quoted, again, in Sunan Abi Dawood, and in Jam'a Tirmizi, on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas, with a slight variation of words. It says: "It is not allowed for anyone to sit between two persons sitting side by side, without their permission, and (thus), to separate them from each other."

Whoever Likes People to Stand Up For Him, Out of Respect, is Doomed to Hell

(١٥٢٠/١٥٥) عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ

أَنْ يَتَمَثَّلَ لَهُ الرِّجَالُ قِيَامًا فَلْيَتَبَوَّأْ مَقْعَدَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داود)

(1520/155) Mu'awiya ibn Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه related that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever feels happy at people standing up, out of respect to him, should better make his abode in Hell."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The above warning, evidently, is with regard to the person who wishes people to stand up in his honour and feels happy on it. It is a sign of vanity and the ultimate destination of the vain, the proud, and the haughty is Hell. But it is a different matter if people stood up out of love and respect for anyone without his wanting it, though the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not even like it for himself.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ Did Not Like People To Stand Up In His Honour

(١٥٢١/١٥٦) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

مُتَّكِئًا عَلَى عَصَا فَقُمْنَا لَهُ فَقَالَ لَا تَقُومُوا كَمَا يَقُومُ الْآعَاجِمُ يُعْظَمُ بَعْضُهَا بَعْضًا.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1521/156) It is related by Abu Umama Bahli رضي الله عنه that (once) we stood up as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came using a staff as a support. "Do not stand up as the Persians do for each other", the Prophet ﷺ observed. (Abu Dawood)

(١٥٢٢/١٥٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ شَخْصٌ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانُوا إِذَا رَأَوْهُ لَمْ يَقُومُوا لِمَا يَعْلَمُونَ مِنْ كَرَاهِيَّتِهِ لِذَلِكَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1522/157) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that no one was more dearly loved by the Companions than the Prophet ﷺ, and, yet their practice was that they did not stand up on seeing him for they knew that he did not like it. (Tirmizi)

Everyone Ought To Rise When The Head of The Assembly Rises To Leave

(١٥٢٣/١٥٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَجْلِسُ مَعَنَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ يُحَدِّثُنَا فَإِذَا قَامَ قُمْنَا قِيَامًا حَتَّى نَرَاهُ قَدْ دَخَلَ بَعْضُ بُيُوتِ أَزْوَاجِهِ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1200/158) Narrated Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to sit with us in the Mosque, and he would talk to us. Then, we all used to stand up when he rose (to leave for him), and remain standing until we had seen him entering an apartment among the apartments of his wives." (Baihaqi)

Commentry: That the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not stop the Companions from standing up as he rose to leave for home shows that he did not consider it improper though, as stated earlier, he did not like anyone to stand up when he came. In our view, the difference between the two positions is that while to stand up on the Prophet's arrival was solely out of respect which was displeasing to him, to do so when the Prophet ﷺ rose to leave was for the reason that the assembly had ended, and those who were present, too, had to go home, and, hence he did not object to it.

TEACHINGS OF THE PROPHET CONCERNING LYING, SITTING, SLEEPING, AND HIS OWN PRACTICE

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has furnished guidance to his followers about lying, sitting and sleeping as well. Below we shall discuss some of the relevant Traditions which, also, give an idea of the amazing comprehensiveness of his teachings.

Forbidding Sleeping On A Flat Roof

(١٥٢٤/١٥٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَنَامَ الرَّجُلُ عَلَى سَطْحٍ لَيْسَ بِمَحْجُورٍ عَلَيْهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1524/159) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade sleeping on a roof which was not surrounded by a low wall or parapet." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The sacred Prophet ﷺ told people not to sleep on a roof that was without a capping or surrounding wall because there was the danger of falling from it in one's sleep or owing to darkness.

(١٥٢٥/١٦٠) عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ شَيْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ بَاتَ عَلَى ظَهْرِ بَيْتٍ لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ حِجَابٌ (وَفِي رَوَايَةٍ حِجَارٌ) فَقَدْ بَرَأَتْ مِنْهُ الدِّمَةُ. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1525/160) Sayyidina Ali ibn Shayban ؓ said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If anyone spends the night on the roof of a house with no protection or a stone palisade, the responsibility to guard him no longer applies. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This is an eloquent method to disallow something. There are unseen ways of Allah's protection for mankind. The

Qur'an says:

قُلْ مَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ.....الآيَةِ (الانباء ٢١: ٤٢)

If anyone disregards personal protection then he loses the opportunity of divine protection.

Forbidding Sleeping With The Thigh of One Leg In An Upright Position And The Other Leg Resing On It

(١٥٢٦/١٦١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَرْفَعَ

الرَّجُلُ إِحْدَى رِجْلَيْهِ عَلَى الْأُخْرَى وَهُوَ مُسْتَلْقٍ عَلَى ظَهْرِهِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1526/161) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade that a man should raise one of his legs over the other when he lies down on his back. (Muslim)

Commentary: In the Holy Prophet's time, it was common among the Arabs to wear a sheet round the waist, and when a person wearing it will lie on his back with the thigh of one leg held in a vertical position and the other leg resting on it, his private parts may, sometimes, be laid open. The Prophet ﷺ forbade it, probably, for the same reason, but if a man is putting on trousers or any other garment which carries no such risk, the commandment will not apply.

Forbidding Lying On Stomach

(١٥٢٧/١٦٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ رَأَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

رَجُلًا مُضْطَجِعًا عَلَى بَطْنِهِ فَقَالَ إِنَّ هَذِهِ ضِجْعَةٌ لَا يَجُوهَا اللَّهُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1527/162) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that on seeing a man lying on his stomach, the Prophet ﷺ remarked that such a manner of lying was displeasing to the Lord. (Tirmizi)

(١٥٢٨/١٦٣) عَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَبِّي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنَا

مُضْطَجِعٌ عَلَى بَطْنِي فَرَكَّضَنِي بِرِجْلِهِ وَقَالَ يَا جُنْدُبُ إِنَّمَا هِيَ ضِجْعَةٌ أَهْلُ

النَّارِ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1528/163) It is narrated by Abu Zarr رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ passed by while he was lying on his stomach. He jerked him with his foot and said, "Jundub, only those who go to Hell lie like this."

(Ibn Majah)

Commentary: This is an effective way to show how detestable something is. Jundub was the real name of Abu Zarr.

How Did The Prophet Lie?

(١٥٢٩/١٦٤) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا عَرَسَ بَلِيلٍ اضْطَجَعَ عَلَى شِقِّهِ الْأَيْمَنِ وَإِذَا عَرَسَ قُبِيلَ الصُّبْحِ نَصَبَ ذِرَاعَهُ وَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ عَلَى كَفِّهِ.
(رواه في شرح السنه)

(1529/164) It is related by Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه that he practice of the Prophet ﷺ was that when he made a night-halt during a journey, he used to lie on the right side, and when he made the halt a little before the morning, he would raise his arm on the elbow, and place the head on its palm, and, (thus), have some rest.
(Sharh-a-Sunna-Baghawi)

Commentary: The Arabs, generally, travelled in the night to avoid the scorching heat of the desert. So, if they started early in the evening, they used to make a halt when enough of the night was left so that they could snatch a few hours sleep, and when the start was delayed, they halted towards the morning.

The above Tradition tells that when the Holy Prophet ﷺ made a halt at a time that a sufficient part of the night remained, he would take rest in sleep by lying on the right side, as was his usual practice, while when he made the halt in the early hours of the morning, he would lie with his head resting on the palm of his hand raised on the elbow, and, thus, wait, as it were, for the Fajr service.¹

From Traditions like it, one can imagine what exceptional care the Companions took to preserve the account of the Prophet's ﷺ life, to the minutest detail, such as, his customary way of lying and sleeping.

(١٥٣٠/١٦٥) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَخَذَ

①. Early morning prayer.

مَضْجَعَةٍ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَضَعَ يَدَهُ تَحْتَ خَدِّهِ ثُمَّ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ أَمُوتُ
وَأُحْيَى وَإِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1530/165) It is related by Huzaifah رضي الله عنه that when the Prophet ﷺ went to bed in the night, he would place his hand under his cheek and make the (following) supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ أَمُوتُ وَأُحْيَى

Oh Allah! In Thy name do we live and die.

And, when he got up, he would say:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا أَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ

Praise be to Allah who restored us unto life, having caused to die, (in a way), and unto Him shall be the Resurrection. (Bukhari)

Commentary: In some other narratives, it is also stated that the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to lie on the right side, with the right hand placed under the cheek, and advised others to do the same.

Apart from the above supplication, many other supplications too, are found in the Traditions for the two occasions of retiring to bed in the night and rising up in the morning. We shall, Insha Allah, be taking them up in the next volume.

Miswak On Waking Up

(١٥٣١/١٦٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ لَا يَنَامُ إِلَّا

وَالسَّوَاكُ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ فَإِذَا اسْتَيْقَظَ بَدَأَ بِالسَّوَاكِ. (رواه احمد والحاكم)

(1531/166) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that it was the custom of the Prophet ﷺ to place a Miswak¹ at the head of his bed as he retired for the night, and the first thing he did on waking up was to use it. (Mustadrak Haakim)

(١٥٣٢/١٦٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ لَا يَرْقُدُ مِنْ

لَيْلٍ وَلَا نَهَارٍ فَيَسْتَيْقِظُ إِلَّا تَسَوَّكَ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1532/167) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the ① A twig or tender shoot of the branch of a tree which was, generally, used by the Arabs for brushing the teeth during the olden days. Many Muslims do so even today.

Prophet ﷺ always use to Miswak on waking up from sleep, whether during the night or the day. (Abu Dawood)

Manner of Sitting

(١٥٣٣/١٦٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
بِفَنَاءِ لُكْعَةٍ مُحْتَبِيًا بِيَدَيْهِ. (رواه البخارى)

(1533/168) Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ related to us, "I have seen the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sitting in the court-yard of the House of Allah (in Makkah) in the Ihtiba position." (Bukhari)

Commentary: To sit down upon the rump and the soles of both the feet, with the thighs standing upright and the arms thrown round them, is called Ihtiba. It denotes a mood of thoughtfulness and humility. It appears from the Traditions that the Holy Prophet ﷺ, generally, used to sit like that.

(١٥٣٤/١٦٩) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَلَّى الْفَجْرَ تَرَبَّعَ فِي مَجْلِسِهِ حَتَّى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ حَسَنًا. (رواه ابو داود)

(1534/169) It is related by Jaber ibn Samurah ؓ that the usual practice of the Prophet ﷺ was that he remained sitting at the same place, after the Fajr prayer, in the squatting position, until the sun had fully risen, i.e., Ishraq. (Abu Dawood)

This is another method in which the Prophet ﷺ sat from after Fajr to Ishraq in squatting position (turning one leg into another and sitting on the hips).

Those Who Come To a Meeting Or Assembly Should Sit At The Edge

(١٥٣٥/١٧٠) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا إِذَا آتَيْنَا النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَلَسَ أَحَدُنَا حَيْثُ يَنْتَهَى. (رواه ابو داود)

(1535/170) It is related by Jaber ibn Samurah ؓ "Our habit, (the habit of the Companions), was that when anyone of us came to the assembly of the Prophet ﷺ, he sat at the edge (instead of making his way through the men who were already sitting)." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is an accepted principle of the essentials of the Traditions that when a Companion relates that, at the time of the sacred Propeht, his Companions used to do such-and-such a thing, it shows that it was in accordance with the wish and desire of the Prophet ﷺ, and a direct result of his teachings. The above Tradition would, thus, denote that the Holy Prophet ﷺ had taught it to the Companions that if an assembly was in progress and someone came late, he should sit in the last row where the space was available. The head of the assembly could, of course, tell him to come nearer if he liked.

Wrong To Sit In The Middle of A Group Of Persons

(١٥٣٦/١٧١) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ مَلْعُونٍ عَلَى لِسَانِ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَنْ قَعَدَ وَسَطَ الْحَلْقَةِ.

(رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد)

(1534/171) Sayyidina Huzayfah ؓ has said that a person who comes and sits in the middle of the circle of some persons is cursed by the Prophet ﷺ.

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Scholars have forwarded many explanations of this hadith.

- (i) A proud person or an ill-mannered one interrupts the slaves of Allah who sit in a circle jumping over them to sit in the middle.
- (ii) The people in the circle sit facing each other but the intruder obstructs them when he sits in between.
- (iii) It refers to the comedians who sit in the centre to disturb the group by cracking jokes. Allah knows best.

Forbidding People From Sitting in Separate Groups

(١٥٣٧/١٧٢) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَصْحَابُهُ جُلُوسٌ فَقَالَ مَا لِي أَرَاكُمْ عِزِينَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1537/172) It is related by Jaber ibn Samurah ؓ that once as the Propeht ﷺ came, the Companions were sitting divided (in groups). Upon it, he exclaimed: "Why is it that I see you sitting separately (in groups)?"

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: One of the ways of expressing displeasure at anything is to say: "What am I seeing?" Meaning it should not be like that. The Holy Prophet ﷺ was surprised to see the Companions sitting in separate groups, and he admonished them and told them to sit together and not in twos or threes. In some other Traditions, it is told that apparent separation or disunity produced an identical effect on the hearts while sitting together promoted fellow-feeling and sense of solidarity.

One Should Not Sit In Such A Way That A Part of His Body Was in The Sun, And The Other in The Shade

(١٥٣٨/١٧٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا كَانَ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي الْفَيْئِ فَقَلَصَ عَنْهُ الظِّلُّ فَصَارَ بَعْضُهُ فِي الشَّمْسِ وَبَعْضُهُ فِي الظِّلِّ فَلْيَقُمْ.
(رواه ابو داود)

(1538/173) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you is sitting at a place sheltered from the light of the sun and the shadow recedes and a part of his body is exposed to the sun and the other remains in the shade, he should move away from there." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Medical experts are of the view that to sit or lie in the position that some part of the body is in the sun and the other in the shade is injurious to health. The Prophet ﷺ has forbidden it, perhaps, for the same reason.

GUIDANCE REGARDING TALKING, LAUGHING, SNEEZING AND YAWNING IN COMPANY

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, also, has given precise instructions concerning things one should be careful about in conversation and while cutting a joke or when sneezing or yawning. The substance of these teachings is that a person conducted himself at such a time and during these natural acts with grace and dignity, and, at the same time, made them an occasion for remembering Allah, and paying attention to His Comandments.

We have seen, already, in this very volume, a number of the Traditions regarding speech which included truthfulness and falsehood, gentleness of the tongue and rudeness, and tale-bearing, back-biting, fault-finding and slander and idle chatter and aimless conversation. We, now, proceed to take up reports dealing with the remaining subjects of the same division.

Speech Should Not be Prolonged Unnecessarily

(١٥٣٩/١٧٤) عَنْ عُمَرُو بْنِ الْعَاصِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ قَالَ يَوْمًا وَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَأَكْثَرَ الْقَوْلَ فَقَالَ عُمَرُو لَوْ قَصَدَ فِي قَوْلِهِ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ أَوْ قَالَ أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَتَجَوَّزَ فِي الْقَوْلِ فَإِنَّ الْحَوَازَ هُوَ خَيْرٌ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1539/174) Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه narrated that, one day, as a person stood up, and spoke (by way of a sermon) and prolonged it much, so he said: "It would have been better if he had made it short." Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه went on to say "I heard the Prophet ﷺ say: 'I think it fitting (or have been commanded by Allah) to be concise in speech for it is better to be brief and to the point.'"

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is common experience that listeners get bored if the speech is lengthy.

Speech Can Be A Cause of Felicity And Happiness As Well As of Misery

(١٥٤٠/١٧٥) عَنْ بِلَالِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَتَكَلَّمُ بِالْكَلِمَةِ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ مَا يَعْلَمُ مَبْلَغُهَا يَكْتُبُ اللَّهُ لَهُ بِهَا رِضْوَانَهُ إِلَى يَوْمٍ يَلْقَاهُ وَإِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَتَكَلَّمُ بِالْكَلِمَةِ مِنَ الشَّرِّ مَا يَعْلَمُ مَبْلَغُهَا يَكْتُبُ اللَّهُ بِهَا عَلَيْهِ سَخَطَهُ إِلَى يَوْمٍ يَلْقَاهُ.

(رواه في شرح السنه وروى مالك والترمذى وابن ماجه نحوه)

(1540/175) Bilal ibn Harith رضي الله عنه narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Sometimes, a person lets fall a good and virtuous thing from his lips whose true worth is not known even to him, but upon that very speech the Lord decides to favour the bondsman with presence before Himself. On the other hand, sometimes, a person lets fall a bad and vicious thing from his lips, the full range of the wickedness of which is not known even to him, but upon that very speech the Lord decides to send down His wrath upon him until the Day of Last Judgement."

(Baghawi)

(A similar narrative has been quoted by Imam Malik in Muwatta, Imam Tirmizi in Jama'i, and Ibn Majah in his Sunnan)

Commentary: The purport of the above Tradition is that a person should not forget Allah and sequel of the Hereafter while speaking. The words he utters can make him worthy of the good pleasure of the Lord, and, also, deprive him of His beneficence and take him to Hell!

Care Should be Taken Even While Praising Anyone

To praise anyone, in fact, is to testify and bear witness in his favour which, evidently, is a matter of great responsibility. Besides, it might make the person who is praised conceited and egotistical, and encourage him to think too highly of himself.

It, also, essential to bear in mind the difference between genuine praise and flattery.

(١٥٤١/١٧٦) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ أَتْنِي رَجُلٌ عَلَى رَجُلٍ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ وَيْلَكَ قَطَعْتَ عُنُقَ أَخِيكَ ثَلَاثًا..... مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ مَا دَحَالًا مَحَالَةً فَلْيَقُلْ أَحْسِبُ فَلَانَا وَاللَّهِ حَسْبِي إِنْ كَانَ يَرَى أَنَّهُ كَذَلِكَ وَلَا يُزَكِّي عَلَى اللَّهِ أَحَدًا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1541/176) Narrated Abu Bakrah رضي الله عنه that once a person praised someone in the presence of the Prophet ﷺ (and did not exercise enough care or restraint in it), upon which he remarked: "You have cut off the neck of your brother, i.e., done something that may be his ruin, by praising him like that". The Prophet ﷺ said it thrice, (and observed): "Should anyone of you find it necessary to praise (a brother), and regard him worthy of it, he ought to say: 'I think so of such-and-such a brother (and this is my opinion of him), and the reckoning is with Allah. (He is aware of all things)'. He should refrain from issuing a command to Allah concerning the piety and purity of anyone. (He must not, for instance, say about anyone that he is, definitely, Holy and virtuous in the sight of Allah for it would amount to issuing an order to Allah which is most unworthy of a bondsman)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٥٤٢/١٧٧) عَنِ الْقِدَادِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا رَأَيْتُمُ الْمَدَّاحِينَ فَاحْثُوا فِي وُجُوهِهِمُ التُّرَابَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1542/177) It is related by Miqdad ibn al-Aswad رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "When you see the 'praisers' i.e., those who are too lavish in praise, throw dust at their faces." (Muslim)

Commentary: In it, 'Praisers' has, probably been, used for flatterers, sycophants and adulators who shower praises for personal gain or any other unworthy purpose. It is for such people that the Holy Prophet ﷺ has said that when we see anyone being extravagant in praise and portraying a person too favorably we should throw dust at his face.

Commentators have offered various explanations of it. Some believe that dust should, actually, be thrown at the faces of 'praisers' as an expression of dislike while others hold that they should not be patronised or treated condescendingly, and to throw dust has been used here as an idiom denoting 'discouragement' or 'turning away'. Yet others like that such 'praisers' ought to be told that dust may be in their mouths which is the same as throwing dust at their faces.

The narrator, Miqdad ibn Aswad رضي الله عنه, tells that once, in his presence, a person praised Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه before him upon which he acting upon the above Tradition, picked up dust from the ground and threw it at his face. Similar incidents are related concerning latter-day religious and spiritual leaders as well.

It needs, however, be remembered that if with a good intention or out of a religious consideration, a genuine compliment is paid to anyone, at his face or behind his back, and there is, also, no likelihood of his beginning to overrate himself, it is not forbidden. On the contrary, the giver of such a praise will, Insha Allah, be deserving of Divine reward, in accordance with the soundness of his intention. There are instances of the Holy Prophet ﷺ commending the merits of the Companions and the Companions commending the merits of other' Companions. These instances fall within the same category of praise.

Poetry

Poetry was very popular among the Arabs during the days of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, but the Prophet ﷺ, himself, had no taste for it. It, in fact, appears from the Qur'an that Allah had purposely kept him away from it.

وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشِّعْرَ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُ (يس ٣٦:٦٩)

And We have not taught him (Muhammad) poetry. Nor is it meant for him. (Ya'sin 36:69)

Moreover, the kind of poetry that was in vogue, in Arabia, at that time, and the moral character of the poets have been condemned by the Qur'an in these words:

وَالشُّعْرَاءُ يَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْغَاوُونَ أَلَمْ تَرَأَهُمْ فِي كُلِّ وَادٍ يَدْعُونَ أَنُفَعْلُونَ مَالًا يُفَعْلُونَ (الشعراء ٢٦-٢٢٣:٢٢٦)

As for poets, the erring follow them. Hadst thou not seen how they stray in every valley, and how they say that which they do not know? (Al Shu'ara 26: 224-26)

Once some Companions enquired from the sacred Prophet ﷺ about poetry if it was totally bad and forbidden. "No", replied the Prophet. "If the subject-matter of a verse is good, it is good, and if the subject-matter of a verse is bad, it is bad." On some other occasions, he is, also, reported to have remarked that "Some verse are full of wisdom."

(١٥٤٣/١٧٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ ذُكِرَ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الشَّعْرُ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَ كَلَامٌ فَحَسَنُهُ حَسَنٌ وَقَبِيحُهُ قَبِيحٌ.
(رواه الدارقطني وروى الشافعي عن عودة مرسلاً)

(1543/178) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that once as poetry was mentioned in the presence of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, observed: "Poetry, too, is a form of speech. What is good, in it, is good, and what is bad, is bad." (Dar Qutni)

(The same Tradition has been quoted by Imam Sha'fee on the authority of Sayyidah Aysha's nephew her sister's son, Sayyidina Urwah, by way of a Mursal).

(١٥٤٤/١٧٩) عَنْ أَبِي بِنِ كَعْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنَ الشَّعْرِ حِكْمَةً.
(رواه البخارى)

(1544/179) It is related by Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Some verses are pure wisdom (from the point of view of theme)." (Bukhari)

(١٥٤٥/١٨٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَصْدَقُ كَلِمَةٍ قَالَهَا الشَّاعِرُ كَلِمَةُ لَبِيدٍ "أَلَا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ مَا خَلَا اللَّهَ بَاطِلٌ"
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1545/180) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The truest thing a poet said is what Labeed ibn Rabe'e'ah has said in this line: Ala kullu shiyin ma khalallaah baatil. (Know that everything is perishable save Allah)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Labeed was a distinguished poet of the Age of perversion yet, even in those days, his poems contained pious ideas and sentiments. The Holy Prophet ﷺ praised the verse mentioned above and said that it was the truest line of poetry because it conformed to the Qur'anic verse:

كُلُّ شَيْءٍ هَالِكٌ إِلَّا وَجْهَهُ (القصص ٢٨: ٨٨)

Everything will perish save His countenance. (Al Qasas 28:88)

The panegyric in which this line occurs was written by Labeed when he was a pagan, and, then, Allah blessed him with Faith. It is said that on embracing Islam, Labeed gave up writing poetry. He used to say, "Now the Qur'an is enough for me." According to Hafiz ibn Hajar. Labeed died at the age of 156.

(١٥٤٦/١٨١) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الشَّرِيرِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ رَدِفْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمًا فَقَالَ هَلْ مَعَكَ مِنْ شِعْرِ أُمَيَّةَ بْنِ الصَّلْتِ شَيْءٌ؟ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ، قَالَ هِيَ فَأَنْشَدْتُهُ بَيْتًا فَقَالَ هِيَ ثُمَّ أَنْشَدْتُهُ مِائَةَ بَيْتٍ.

(رواه مسلم وزاد في رواية لقد كاد يسلم في شعره)

(1546/181) 'Amr ibn Sharir narrated, on the authority of his father, Sharir ibn Suwaid Thaqfi, "In a journey, I was seated behind the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, on the same mount, that he asked me if I remembered the verses of Umayyah ibn As-Salt. 'Yes Messenger of Allah ﷺ, I replied. 'Recite some of them,' said the Prophet ﷺ. I thereupon, recited a couplet. he, then, told me to recite more, and I recited another couplet, and, then, he (again), told me to recite more, and I recited a hundred couplets." (In another version, it is told that the Prophet ﷺ observed: "Umaiyyah had come very close to Islam in his poems.") (Muslim)

Commentary: Umaiyya ibn As-Salt, too, was a poet of the age of perversion whose poems were of a devotional nature. It was for this reason that the Holy Prophet ﷺ liked his poetry and said that he had come very near to Islam in his verses.

In another report, it is stated that, once, on hearing the verses of Umayya ibn Salt, the Holy Prophet ﷺ remarked "his poetry had become Muslim, but his heart remained an infidel."

Umayya ibn Salt lived long enough to see the days of the Holy Prophet, and the Call of Faith, also, reached him, but he did not embrace Islam.

Wit and Humour

Wit and humour is a pleasing attribute of life, and just as its excess is bad, to be devoid of it, also, is not commendable. Besides, if an eminent and Holy Person behaves towards an ordinary man in a light-hearted manner and jokes with him, it makes him happy and he feels honoured. Hence, the sacred Prophet ﷺ, too, sometimes, made jokes with his Companions, but his jokes were, always, refined and in good taste.

(١٥٤٧/١٨٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّكَ تَدْعُنَا قَالَ إِنِّي لَا أَقُولُ إِلَّا حَقًّا.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1547/182) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that once some Companions said : "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Do you make jokes with us." "I tell what is just and correct (in a joke as well)," the Prophet ﷺ replied.
(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٥٤٨/١٨٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا اسْتَحْمَلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّي حَامِلُكَ عَلَى وَلَدِنَا فَيَقَالَ مَا أَضْنَعُ بِوَلَدِنَا فَيَقُولُ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهَلْ تَلِدُ الْإِبِلَ إِلَّا النُّوقَ.
(رواه الترمذی وابو داؤد)

(1548/183) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that once a person requested the Messenger of Allah ﷺ for a camel to ride. "Yes, I will give you the off-spring of she-camel for riding," said the Prophet ﷺ. "What will I do with the Young one of a she-camel?" the man asked. "A camel, after all, is the young one of a she-camel," the Prophet ﷺ replied. (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٥٤٩/١٨٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِامْرَأَةٍ عَجُوزٍ إِنَّهُ لَا تَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ عَجُوزٌ فَقَالَتْ وَمَا لِهِنَّ؟ وَكَانَتْ تَقْرَأُ الْقُرْآنَ فَقَالَ لَهَا أَمَا تَقْرَيْنِ الْقُرْآنَ إِنَّا أَنْشَأْنَا هُنَّ أَنْشَاءً فَجَعَلْنَا هُنَّ أَبْكَارًا.
(رواه رزین)

(1549/184) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet ﷺ said to an old woman: "No old woman will go to Heaven." "Why?", asked the woman. "What have they done?" She used to recite the Qur'an regularly. The Prophet ﷺ asked her if she had not read the verse in the Qur'an:

إِنَّا أَنْشَأْنَا مِنْ أَنْثَاءٍ فَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ أَبْكَارًا (الواقعه ٥٦: ٣٠-٣٦)

Lo! We have created them a (new) creation and made them virgin. (Meaning the Lord shall recreate the old women in Heaven and make them young maidens). (Al-Waqi'ah 56:35-36)

(Musnad Razeen)

Commentary: The two aforementioned narratives of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه offer an example of the refined sense of humour of the sacred Prophet ﷺ. In some other Traditions, however, jesting is forbidden. But as these Traditions show, and it is, also, supported by the practice of the sacred Prophet ﷺ we have just seen in the above reports, the commandment applies to jokes that have a malicious intent and are likely to be hurtful.

(١٥٥٠/١٨٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تُمَارِ أَحَاكَ وَلَا تُمَارِضْهُ وَلَا تَعِدْهُ مَوْعِدًا فَتُخْلِفْهُ (رواه الترمذی)

(1550/185) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Do not quarrel with your brother, nor joke with him, nor make a promise to him which you can not fulfil."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The context in which jesting has been forbidden in it clearly shows that it relates to jokes that may be a cause of pain or annoyance to others.

Laughter

To laugh or show pleasure or approval by smiling, also, is natural to man and there is no virtue in always being grave and solemn. It was customary with the Holy Prophet ﷺ to greet people with a smile, and it is easy to imagine how happy it would have made them.

(١٥٥١/١٨٦) عَنْ جَرِيرٍ قَالَ مَا حَجَبَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْذُ أَسْلَمْتُ وَلَا رَأَيْتُ إِلَّا تَبَسَّمَ. (رواه البخاری و مسلم)

(1551/186) It is related by Jarir ibn Abdullah Bahili رضي الله عنه "Ever since I embraced Islam, it never happened that the Prophet ﷺ refused me admission and he never saw me without smiling".

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٥٥٢/١٨٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ جَزْءٍ قَالَ مَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا أَكْثَرَ تَبَسُّمًا مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ .
(رواه الترمذی)

(1552/187) It is related by Abdullah ibn Harith رضی اللہ عنہ, "I never saw anyone who smiled more than the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."

(Tirmizi)

(١٥٥٣/١٨٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَا رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُسْتَجِمِعًا ضَاحِكًا حَتَّى أَرَى مِنْهُ لَهَوَاتِهِ إِنَّمَا كَانَ يَتَبَسَّمُ .
(رواه البخاری)

(1553/188) Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا related, "I never saw the Prophet ﷺ bursting into laughter, revealing the inner part of his mouth, i.e., he never laughed loud and long so that one could see the inner part of his mouth. He only smiled." (Bukhari)

Commentary: In some Traditions, the Holy Prophet's act of showing pleasure has been described as mirth of Dahak (laughter), but it, simply, denotes what was so typical of him, i.e., a smile. Sometimes, however, when the Prophet ﷺ felt very happy, he would smile broadly which revealed a part of his inner mouth. It is, thus, stated in some reports that "the Prophet ﷺ laughed so much that the molar teeth could be seen."

(١٥٥٤/١٨٩) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَقُومُ مِنْ مُصَلَّاهُ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي فِيهِ الصُّبْحُ حَتَّى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ فَإِذَا طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ نَامَ وَكَانُوا يَتَحَدَّثُونَ فَيَاخُذُونَ فِي أَمْرِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَيَضْحَكُونَ وَيَتَبَسَّمُ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
(رواه مسلم)

(1554/189) Narrated Jabir ibn Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ, "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would remain seated, till the rising of the sun, at the place where he had offered the Fajr prayers, and get up when the sun had risen. (During that time), the Companions, used to relate incidents of the age of perversion and laugh heartily, but he only smiled." (Muslim)

Commentary: It would be advisable, here, to refer to the two statements of celebrated Companions which have been reproduced in Mishkuat from Sharh Sunnah. They read:

(i) It is related by Qatadah (a Taba'ee) that once, someone enquired from Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه whether the Prophet ﷺ (ever) enjoyed a joke with the Companions and laughed with them, upon which he replied:

نَعَمْ وَالْإِيمَانُ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ أَعْظَمُ مِنَ الْجَبَلِ.

"Yes of course. The venerable men laughed (on occasions of laughter), but, even then, Faith used to be greater in their hearts than the mountains. (Their laughter was not like the laughter of the heedless which deadened the heart)."

(ii) Bilal ibn Sa'd narrated:

أَدْرَكْتُهُمْ يَسْتَدُونَ بَيْنَ الْأَعْرَاضِ وَيَضْحَكُ بَعْضُهُمْ إِلَى بَعْضٍ فَإِذَا كَانَ اللَّيْلُ كَانُوا رُهْبَانًا.

"I have seen the Holy Companions. They used to run between fixed marks, (as the young do for fun or exercise), and, also, laugh. Then, as the night fell, they became ascetics."

Sneezing And Yawning

(١٥٥٥/١٩٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَلْيَقُلْ أَخُوهُ أَوْ صَاحِبُهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ فَإِذَا قَالَ لَهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ فَلْيَقُلْ يَهْدِيكُمْ اللَّهُ وَيُصْلِحْ بَالَكُمْ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1555/190) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you sneezes, he should say: 'Al-hamd-u-lillaah. (Praise be to Allah). And, his brother (or did the Prophet ﷺ say, 'his friend?') who happens to be with him should say: 'Yar hamukallaah. (Mercy of the Lord be upon you). In reply to it, the one who sneezes should say to him: 'Yahdeekumullaah wa yusleh baalakum. (May Allah favour you with Guidance and set right your state)."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: When a person sneezes, some vapours and fluids are expelled through the nose or the mouth which can, otherwise, be harmful. A sneeze, thus, is a blessing of Allah, normally and in state of good health. That is why, it is told in this Tradition that a person who sneezes should say, "Al-hamd-u-Lillah", and he who is present there, at that time, should say, "Yar hamukallaah", and, then, the one who sneezes should say, "Yahdeekumullaah wa yusleh baalakum."

Now, imagine how an ordinary act like sneezing has been made, through this advice, an occasion for Allah remembrance and a means of earning His good pleasure.

(١٥٥٦/١٩١) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِذَا عَطَسَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ فَسَمِعْتُوهُ وَإِنْ لَمْ يَحْمِدِ اللَّهَ فَلَا تُسَمِّتُوهُ

(رواه مسلم)

(1556/191) It is related by Abu Moosa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "When anyone of you sneezes and says, 'Al-hamd-u-lillaah', you should bless him by saying 'Yar hamukallaah', and if he does not say Al-hamd-u-lillaah, you, too, should not say Yar Hamkullaah. (He loses the claim to your supplication by not saying Al-hamd-u-lillaah)." (Muslim) (١٥٥٧/١٩٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ عَطَسَ رَجُلَانِ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَمَّتْ أَحَدَهُمَا وَلَمْ يُسَمِّتِ الْآخَرَ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ شَمَّتْ هَذَا وَلَمْ تُسَمِّمْتَنِي قَالَ إِنَّ هَذَا حَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَلَمْ يَحْمِدِ اللَّهَ.

(رواه البخار و مسلم)

(1557/192) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه narrated that once two persons who were sitting with the Prophet ﷺ sneezed upon which he blessed one of them by saying Yar-hamukallaah, and did not do so for the other. The other person, thereupon, said to him: "Messenger of Allah ﷺ! You blessed him by saying Yar-hamukallaah, but did not say so for me." The Prophet ﷺ replied: "He said Al-hamd-u-lillaah, while you did not."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٥٥٨/١٩٣) عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَطَسَ رَجُلٌ عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ يَرْحَمُكَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ عَطَسَ أُخْرَى فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ مَذْكُومٌ.

(رواه مسلم)

وفي رواية للترمذی أَنَّهُ قَالَ فِي الثَّالِثَةِ أَنَّهُ مَذْكُومٌ.

(1558/193) Salmah ibnt al-Akuwa' رضي الله عنها related "(Once) as a person sitting with the Prophet ﷺ sneezed, he blessed him by saying, Yar-hamukallaah, but when he sneezed again, the Holy Prophet ﷺ remarked: 'He has cold'." (Muslim)

(In another report of the same incident, quoted in Tirmizi it is stated that the sacred Prophet ﷺ had made the remark when the person had sneezed for the third time).

Commentary: It shows that if a person sneezes repeatedly owing to cold it is not necessary to say Yar-hamukallaah every time. The following Tradition is more explicit.

(١٥٥٩/١٩٤) عَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ رِفَاعَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ شَمِيتَ الْعَاطِسَ ثَلَاثًا فَمَارَادَ فَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَشَمِيتُهُ وَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَلَا. (رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی)
(1559/194) It is related by Ubaid ibn Rifa'ah ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said "Say, Yar-hamukallaah thrice to the person who sneezes, and if he sneezes in excess of it, it is up to you to say it or not."
(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٥٦٠/١٩٥) عَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا عَطَسَ إِلَى جَنْبِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ فَقَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ قَالَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَأَنَا أَقُولُ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ وَلَيْسَ هَكَذَا عَلَّمَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ نَقُولَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ عَلَى كُلِّ حَالٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1560/195) Sayyidina Nafi' related that once a person who was sitting next to Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ sneezed, and, then, said: "Al-hamd-u-lillaah was-salaam-u-'ala Rasoolillah. (Praise be to Allah, and peace be with the Messenger of Allah)." Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ observed: "I, too, say, Al-hamd-u-Lillaah was-salaam- u-'ala Rasoolillaah, but it is not said like that at the time of sneezing. The Prophet ﷺ has taught us to say, Al-hamd-u -lillaah 'ala kull-i-haal (Praise be to Allah in all conditions), on such an occasion."
(Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that the sacred Prophet ﷺ has taught both the phrases of Al-hamd-u-lillaah and Al-hamd-u-lillah ala kull-i-haal for utterance when we sneeze. We, further, learn from Abdullah ibn Umar's ؓ remark that no addition should be made in the formula of supplication taught by Prophet ﷺ even though the addition may be correct from the point of view of meaning.

(١٥٦١/١٩٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا عَطَسَ

غَطَّى وَجْهَهُ بِيَدِهِ أَوْ ثَوْبِهِ وَ غَضَّ بِهَا صَوْتَهُ. (رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد)

(1561/196) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ "When the Prophet ﷺ sneezed, he used to cover his face with both hands or a cloth to suppress its sound." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It tells that to cover the face with the hands or some cloth when one sneezes and keep the sound low, as far as possible, too, is among the proprieties of sneezing.

(١٥٦٢/١٩٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا تَنَاءَبَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيُمْسِكْ بِيَدِهِ عَلَى فَمِهِ فَإِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَدْخُلُ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1562/197) It is related by Abu Sa'eed Khudri ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you yawns, he should cover the mouth with his hand as the Devil gets in (if the mouth remains open)". (Muslim)

Commentary: The mouth is stretched open while at the time of yawning, and an ugly sound is produced, and the face, too, gets contorted. In view of it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has advised us to cover the mouth with the hand when we yawn.

As for Satan's getting in, the authorities have held that it might denote his actual entry, whose significance is not known to us, as well as that it gave him an opportunity to cause harm or annoyance.

Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه, moreover, has offered the explanation that when the mouth of a person is opened wide, at the time of yawning, the Devil causes something like a mosquito to fly to get into it and even inside the stomach¹. But Allah knows best.

EATING AND DRINKING

The teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ concerning eating and drinking can be divided into two parts. One in which it is told about articles of food and drink as to which of them are allowed and which are forbidden, and the other that deals with the rules and proprieties of eating and drinking with reference to good manners, and which, are also beneficial to health or belong to the category of Allah-remembrance or expression of gratitude to Him, and by means of which even acts like these that are purely physical in nature and in response to a biological urge get elevated to acts of worship and become a source of gaining Divine good pleasure.

About the sanctioning or forbidding of the articles of food and drink, the fundamental principle is what has been set forth in the Qur'an in these words:

يُجِلُّ لَهُمُ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَيُحَرِّمُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْخَبِيثَاتِ (الاعراف ١٥٧:٧)

The Prophet (who can neither read nor write) will make lawful for them all good things and prohibit for them only the foul.

(Al A'raf, 7:157)

The Commandments regarding the lawful and prohibited articles of food and drink are, in fact, an elaboration of what has been stated briefly in this verse. The things the sacred Prophet ﷺ has forbidden, at the Command of Allah, certainly, are foul and harmful, one way or the other. In the same way, the things he has allowed are good and clean, agreeable to the taste and beneficial to health.

Among the articles of drink, wine has been explicitly forbidden in the Qur'an, and, as we shall see later, detailed instructions are given in the Traditions about it, while among the articles of food that are forbidden, these few things are specifically mentioned in it:

carriion, blood (that has poured out), swineflesh and the animal that has been immolated to the name of anyone apart from Allah.

All these were used as food among some sections or tribes of Arabs though the earlier canonic laws had declared them unlawful. Hence, it was thought necessary to reiterate it in the Qur'an.

The forbidding of carrion, evidently, is for the reason that the very idea of eating it is revolting to a right-minded person, and, besides, it is injurious to health for, according to experts, it becomes toxic owing to the diminution of the natural heat of the body and absorption of blood into the system.

The same is the case with blood. No sane or civilised person will consider it fit to eat it, and, in the Islamic Shari'ah, it has been declared to be positively loathsome and filthy.

The swine is the cursed creature so much so that when the wrath of Allah fell on certain communities due to excessive wickedness and evil-doing, and He decided to deface them and alter their forms, He turned them into apes and swine.

فَجَعَلَ مِنْهُمْ الْفِرْدَةَ وَالْخَنَازِيرَ (المائدة ٦٠:٥)

Allah hath turned some to apes and swine. (Al Ma'idah 5:60)

It shows that both these animals are extremely foul and detestable and a manifestation of the fury and indignation of the Lord, and, that is why, it is forbidden to partake of their flesh.

The Qur'an has not, specifically, mentioned the monkeys because their flesh, generally, is not eaten, but pork has been made an agreeable article of food by a number of communities, specially the Christians and, therefore, it has declared it forbidden to the Believers over and over again.

Moreover, as it is told in the Traditions, when Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will appear on the earth in the Last Days, just before the Resurrection, he will, along with the destruction of the crucifix, also, order the extermination of pigs from the world, and it will, then, become manifest how the Christians had flouted his teachings and the teachings of all the Divine Messengers by making pork a favourite dish.

The reason for the prohibition of the flesh of the animal that has been dedicated to anyone aside that of Allah, or, in the words of the Qur'an:

فَسَقَا أَهْلًا لِّغَيْرِ اللَّهِ بِهِ (الأنعام ٦: ١٤٥)

Which hath been immolated (to the name of) any other than Allah, (Al An'am 6: 145) is that the uncleanliness of the polytheistic belief and the intention of the person who does so pollutes the animal as well, and hence, its flesh becomes unfit for human consumption.

In fine, these four things have, specifically, been forbidden by the Qur'an, and the other articles of food that have been declared unlawful by the Holy Prophet ﷺ mark, so to speak, the culmination of the same commandment.

Now, the Traditions.

Lawful And Unlawful Food

(١٥٦٣/١٩٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ أَهْلُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ يَأْكُلُونَ أَشْيَاءَ وَيَتْرَكُونَ أَشْيَاءَ تَقْدِرُوا فَبَعَثَ اللَّهُ نَبِيَّهُ وَأَنْزَلَ كِتَابَهُ وَأَحَلَّ حَلَالَهُ وَحَرَّمَ حَرَامَهُ وَمَا سَكَتَ عَنْهُ فَهُوَ عَفْوٌ وَتَلَا "قُلْ لَا أَجِدُ فِيْمَا أُوحِيَ إِلَيَّ مُحَرَّمًا عَلَى طَاعِمٍ يَطْعَمُهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مَيْتَةً" الْآيَةَ. (رواه ابوداؤد)

(1563/198) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the people of the age of ignorance i.e., the Arabs before the advent of Islam used to eat certain things, (owing to natural liking or inclination), and avoid eating certain things (because they instinctively felt an aversion for them. It went on like that) till the Lord raised up the Prophet ﷺ as His Messenger and revealed His Book and declared lawful the things that were lawful in the judgement of the Lord, and unlawful the things that were unlawful in the judgement of the Lord. Thus, the article of food or drink Allah and His Messenger have allowed is allowed, and the article they have prohibited is prohibited, and the article concerning which they have remained silent, i.e., have not told whether it is allowed or forbidden, is forgiven. (There is no penalty on making use of it)." After it, Abdullah ibn Abbas related the following verse of the Qur'an in support of his statement.

قُلْ لَا أَجِدُ فِيْمَا أُوْحِيَ إِلَيَّ مُحَرَّمًا عَلَى طَاعِمٍ يَطْعَمُهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مَيْتَةً" الآية

(الانعام ٦: ١٤٥)

Say: I find not in that which is revealed unto me aught prohibited to an eater that he eat thereof, except it be carrion, or blood pored forth, or swineflesh for that verily is foul or the abomination which was immolated to the name of other than Allah. But whosoever is compelled (thereto), neither craving nor transgressing, (for him) lo: Your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful."

(Al An'am 6:145)

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that the raising up of the sacred Prophet ﷺ and the revelation of the Qur'an, the criterion of the legality or otherwise of anything is Divine revelation and the Command of Allah and the Messenger, and the liking and inclination or dislike and aversion of anyone has nothing to do with it.

(١٥٦٤/١٩٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ

كُلِّ ذِي نَابٍ مِنَ السَّبَاعِ وَكُلِّ ذِي مَخْلَبٍ مِنَ الطَّيْرِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1564/199) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, "The Prophet ﷺ has prohibited (the eating of the flesh of) every beast with a canine tooth and every bird which seizes with its claws."

(Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that the flesh of all the animals, like a lion, wolf, dog, or cat, which have a canine tooth, and all the birds, like a falcon, eagle, or kite, which hunt with their claws is forbidden to the Believers.

(١٥٦٥/٢٠٠) عَنْ أَبِي ثَعْلَبَةَ قَالَ حَرَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَحُومَ

الْحُمْرِ الْأَهْلِيَّةِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1565/200) It is related by Abu Tha'labah رضي الله عنه, "The Prophet ﷺ has prohibited the flesh of domesticated donkeys."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: In some Traditions, mules are, also mentioned alongwith the donkeys. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has forbidden the flesh of both the animals to the Believers.

(١٥٦٦/٢٠١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى يَوْمَ خَيْبَرَ

عَنْ لُحُومِ الْحُمُرِ الْأَهْلِيَّةِ وَإِذَنْ فِي لُحُومِ الْخَيْلِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1566/201) Jabir رضي الله عنه narrated that on the Day of the Victory of Khyber, the Prophet ﷺ prohibited the eating of the flesh of domesticated donkeys and allowed the flesh of the horses."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In view of it, many legist-doctors are in favour of the allowability of the flesh of the horses, but Imam Abu Hanifah is reported to have held it uneatable on the basis of the Tradition quoted in the Sunan Abi Dawood and Sunan Nasai, and on the authority of Khalid ibn Waleed which says:

إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ أَكْلِ لُحُومِ الْخَيْلِ وَالْبِغَالِ وَالْحَمِيرِ.

"The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the eating of the flesh of the donkeys, mules and horses."

Though the documentary evidence of its transmission is weak, the general practice of Imam Abu Hanifah is that when a doubt is created about the lawfulness or otherwise of a thing, on logical grounds, he prefers prohibition out of prudence.

Perhaps it is because of it that the Imam has held the horse flesh uneatable. He has advanced some other reasons as well. In some books of the Hanafi school, however, it is stated that Imam Abu Hanifah had, ultimately, accepted the view of the other legist-doctors and agreed that the flesh of a horse was lawful food for Muslims.

(١٥٦٧/٢٠٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ أَكْلِ الْهَرَّةِ

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی)

وَأَكْلِ ثَمَنِهَا

(1567/202) It is related by Jabir رضي الله عنه that "The Prophet ﷺ forbade the eating of cat, and, also, forbade the eating of its price."

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It tells that the cat, too, is among the animals whose flesh is forbidden as an article of food. It could, of course, not be different for a cat, also, has canines. It, further, lays down that eating out of the money obtained by selling a cat, too, is disallowed. According to the authorities, this act of forbidding denotes disgust and aversion.

(١٥٦٨/٢٠٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ أَكْلِ الْجَلَالَةِ وَالْبَانِيَا.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1568/203) Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ disallowed the eating (of the flesh) of the animals that ate filth as well as the drinking of their milk." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sometimes, animals like a camel, cow or goat begin to eat filth till the stench is felt in the irmeat or milk. It is the flesh and milk of such animals which is forbidden in this narrative. If a hen has the same habit, the above commandment will apply to it as well. But if the animal is prevented from eating the filth for such a time that the stench is removed from its meat or milk, it will be permissible to partake of its flesh and milk.

(١٥٦٩/٢٠٤) عَنْ أَبِي وَاقِدٍ اللَّيْثِيِّ قَالَ قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِينَةَ وَهُمْ يَجْبُونَ أَسْمَةَ الْإِبِلِ وَيَقْطَعُونَ الْيَاثَ الْغَنَمِ فَقَالَ مَا يَقْطَعُ مِنَ الْبَهِيمَةِ وَهِيَ حَيَّةٌ فَهِيَ مَيْتَةٌ لَا تُؤْكَلُ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1569/204) Narrated Abu Waqid Laithy رضی اللہ عنہ, "When the Prophet ﷺ came to Madinah (on migrating from Makkah, a most cruel custom) prevailing there was that some people used to cut the hump of their living camel for eating, and, in the same way, they used to cut the tail of the sheep (with fat tail). The Prophet ﷺ observed that the flesh that was served and removed from a living animal was carrion. It was not permitted to eat it."

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٥٧٠/٢٠٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَابْنِ هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ شَرْيْطَةِ الشَّيْطَانِ زَادَ ابْنُ عِيْسَى وَهِيَ الذَّبِيْحَةُ مِنْهُ الْجُلْدُ وَلَا تُفْرَى الْأَوْدَاجُ ثُمَّ تُتْرَكُ حَتَّى تَمُوتَ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1570/205) It is related on the authority of Abdullah ibn Abbas and Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the eating of Sharita-Shaitan. The narrator, Ibn 'Isa, added (by way of an explanation of Sharita Shaitan), "It denotes a slaughtered animal from whose body the skin is removed, and the arteries of the thorat (from which the blood pours forth) are not cut, and it is left in the state till it dies." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Meaning this cruel act, too, is unlawful for it causes great pain and suffering to the animal unnecessarily and for a long time, and to eat the flesh of an animal slaughtered that way will be as wrong and unlawful as the eating of carion.

An animal that is killed like that has been described as Sharita Shaitan which means "wounded by the Devil", or that this method of slaughter has been taught by the Devil.

(١٥٧١/٢٠٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ شَيْبَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ أَكْلِ لَحْمِ الضَّبِّ.
(رواه أبو داود)

(1571/206) It is related by Abdul Rahman ibn Shibl that the Prophet ﷺ has forbidden the eating of the flesh of the lizard¹.

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: From it, we learn that lizards is not among the permitted animals. Its flesh is unfit for use, and Imam Abu Hanifah is of the same view. But from the Tradition to follow, it appears that its flesh can be eaten, on the basis of which some authorities have held it is lawful food.

(١٥٧٢/٢٠٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ خَالِدَ بْنَ الْوَلِيدِ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّهُ دَخَلَ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى مَيْمُونَةَ وَهِيَ خَالَتُهُ وَخَالَتُهُ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فَوَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا ضَبًّا مَحْمُودًا فَقَلَمَتِ الضَّبَّ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَفَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدَهُ عَنِ الضَّبِّ فَقَالَ خَالِدٌ أَحْرَامَ الضَّبِّ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ لَا وَلَكِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ بَارِضٍ قَوْمِي فَأَجِدُنِي أَعَاقُهُ، قَالَ خَالِدٌ فَأَجْتَرَرْتُهُ فَأَكَلْتُهُ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْظُرُ إِلَيَّ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1572/207) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that Khalid ibn Walid had told him, "Once I went to Maimoona², in the company of the Prophet ﷺ." (The narrator tells that Maimoona

①. The word 'Lizard' is, also, used for chipkali which is, generally, found in homes, but here it denotes goh which though belonging to the same species, is of a much larger size and lives in trees.

②. Name of a wife of the Holy Prophet.

was the real maternal aunt of both, Khalid ibn Walid and Abdullah ibn Abbas. He goes on to relate "There I saw (that our aunt, Maimoona) has roasted a lizard for food. She placed it before the Prophet ﷺ, but he withdrew his hand (which showed that he did not want to eat it). Upon it, I (Khalid ibn Walid, who was, also, sharing in the meal), enquired: 'O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Is it prohibited?' 'No', replied the Prophet ﷺ. '(It is not prohibited), but since it is not found in our region (Makkah), I am not used to it. (I do not feel inclined to partake of it).'" "(On hearing it)", Khalid ibn Walid said, "I pulled (the dish) towards myself and began to eat, and the Prophet ﷺ looked on, and did not forbid." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This narrative is the main proof or basis the legist-doctors who favour the use of the flesh of the lizard as lawful food put forward in their support. There are, however, other reports, too, showing that it is permitted to partake of lizard's flesh. Imam Abu Hanifah, on the other hand, thinks that these Traditions, probably, belong to the time when the commandment prohibiting its use had not been revealed, and until the command forbidding a thing comes, it is supposed to be permitted.

Be that as it may, Imam Abu Hanifah holds that the Tradition preceding the one given above is now operative, (in point of time), and it abrogates all the previous Traditions on the subject.

It may, further, be noted as we have remarked earlier that where there is a doubt about the lawfulness or otherwise of a thing, Imam Abu Hanifah prefers to adopt the latter course.

(١٥٧٣/٢٠٨) عَنْ مَيْمُونَةَ أَنَّ فَارَةً وَقَعَتْ فِي سَمْنٍ فَمَاتَتْ فَسِيلَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ الْقَوْمُ وَمَا حَوْلُهَا وَكُلُّوهُ. (رواه البخارى)

(1573/208) The sacred wife of the Prophet ﷺ, Sayyidah Maimoona رضى الله عنها narrated that once a rat fell into (the container) of ghee¹, and died. It was, thereupon, enquired from the Prophet ﷺ what was to be done about it, and he said: "Throw out the rat and the ghee around it, and, then, eat of it that remains." (Bukhari)

Commentary: As the next Tradition tells, the command will apply only when the ghee is solidified, but if it is in a liquid form, the whole of it will not be fit for use.

①. Clarified butter.

(١٥٧٤/٢٠٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا وَقَعَتِ الْفَارَةُ فِي السَّمَنِ فَإِنْ كَانَ جَامِدًا لَقَوْهَا وَمَا حَوْلَهَا وَإِنْ كَانَ مَائِعًا فَلَا تَقْرُبُوهُ.

(رواه احمد و ابو داود و رواه الدارمي عن ابن عباس)

(1574/209) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When a rat falls down in ghee, (and dies), then if the ghee is solidified, throw away the rat and the ghee surrounding it, and if it is in a liquid form, do not go near it, i.e., do not eat it (at all)." (Musnad Ahmad and Abu Dawood)

(The same Tradition has been quoted by Daarami, on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه).

(١٥٧٥/٢١٠) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ إِنَّهُ رَأَى حِمَارًا وَحَشِيًّا فَعَقَرُوهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ مَعَكُمْ مِنْ لَحْمِهِ شَيْءٍ؟ قَالَ مَعَنَا جُلُهُ فَأَخَذَهَا فَأَكَلَهَا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1575/210) Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه narrated that once, in a journey, he saw a wild ass, and (being a good hunter), he killed it. (Afterwards, when he met the Prophet ﷺ, he enquired whether it was allowed to eat its flesh or not). The Prophet ﷺ asked him if some of its meat was left with him. Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه replied that the lower end part of one of its legs was still with him, and he presented it to the Prophet ﷺ who accepted it and ate it."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that the flesh of a wild ass is lawful food and an animal killed in hunting is decreed as good and permitted.

(١٥٧٦/٢١١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ أَنْفَجْنَا أَرْنَبًا بِمَرِّ الظُّهْرَانِ فَأَخَذْتُهَا فَاتَيْتُ بِهَا أَبَا تَلْحَةَ فَذَبَحَهَا وَبَعَثَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِوَرِكَيْهَا وَفَخَذْنَاهَا فَقَبِلَهُ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1576/211) It is related by Anas رضي الله عنه that once they chased and caught a hare in the forest of Mar-uz-Zahran, and he brought it to (his benefactor), Abu Talha رضي الله عنه who slaughtered it and sent both of its hind-legs, (between the knee and the trunk), to the Prophet ﷺ as a gift. The Prophet ﷺ accepted the gift.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٥٧٧/٢١٢) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
يَأْكُلُ لَحْمَ الدَّجَاجِ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1577/212) Abu Musa related "I have seen the Prophet ﷺ eating a chicken".

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٥٧٨/٢١٣) عَنْ سَفِينَةَ قَالَ أَكَلْتُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
لَحْمَ الْحَبَارَى.

(رواه ابوداؤد)

(1578/213) Narrated Safina, (a manumitted slave of the Holy Prophet ﷺ), "I have eaten the flesh of the bird Hubara in the company of the Prophet ﷺ."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Hubara is a species of bustard. As already stated, all the birds are legitimate food which do not swoop down on their prey and catch it with their claws, and which are not filthy and noxious by nature.

(١٥٧٩/٢١٤) عَنْ أَبِي عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحِلَّتْ
لَنَا مَيْتَانِ وَدَمَانِ، الْمَيْتَانِ الْحُوْتُ وَالْجَرَا دُو الدَّمَانِ الْكَبِدُ وَالطَّحَالُ.

(رواه أحمد وابن ماجه والدارقطنى)

(1579/214) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar that "Two dead things and two kinds of blood are sanctioned to us as lawful (food). The two dead things are fish and locusts, and the two kinds of blood are liver and spleen (which, in fact, are congealed blood)."

(Musnad Ahmad, Ibn Majah and Daar Qutni)

Commentary: It shows that the fundamental rule concerning the animals whose flesh is sanctioned as lawful is that they are slaughtered according to the method prescribed by the Shari'ah, otherwise it is carrion, and, therefore, forbidden. But two things are exempted, the fish and the locusts, both of which can be eaten, though dead. Similarly, in spite of the fact that the liver and spleen are congealed blood and the blood is forbidden to the Believers as food, Allah has declared them lawful.

(١٥٨٠/٢١٥) عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي أَوْفَى قَالَ غَزَوْنَا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ سَبْعَ غَزَوَاتٍ كُنَّا كُلُّ مَعَهُ الْجَرَادِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1580/215) Narrated Abdullah ibn Abi Awfa رضي الله عنه, "I have fought in seven wars, alongside of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and, in these wars, we have eaten locusts in his company."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It is quoted in Sunah Abi Dawood, on the authority of Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه, that, once, the Prophet ﷺ was asked about locusts, upon which he replied: "There are many animals which I do not eat myself, but do not say that these are forbidden. (These animals are allowed and people can eat them)". It shows that the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not eat locusts himself, and, in the light of it, commentators have concluded as regards the aforementioned narrative of Abdullah ibn Awfa رضي الله عنه, that during military expeditions, the Companions ate locusts in the presence of the sacred Prophet ﷺ and he did not check them.

(١٥٨١/٢١٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ غَزَوْتُ جَبْشَ الْخَبَطِ وَأَمَرَ أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ فَجِئْنَا

جَوْعًا شَدِيدًا فَالْقَى الْبَحْرُ حُوتًا مَيْتًا لَمْ نَرْمِلْهُ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْعَبْرُ فَأَكَلْنَا مِنْهَا

نِصْفَ شَهْرٍ فَأَخَذَ أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ عَظْمًا مِنْ عِظَامِهِ فَمَرَّ الرَّكِبُ تَحْتَهُ فَلَمَّا قَدِمْنَا

ذَكَرْنَا لِنَبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كُلُّوْا رِزْقًا أَخْرَجَهُ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكُمْ وَأَطْعِمُوْنَا

إِنْ كَانَ مَعَكُمْ قَالَ فَأَرْسَلْنَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْهُ فَأَكَلَهُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1581/216) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه "I was taking part in Jihad of Jaishul Khabat, and Abu Ubaidah was the Commander of the (Muslim) army. During the war, we were faced with starvation (due to want of provisions, and it was at that time that the) sea threw up a dead fish. We had not seen such a (big) fish in our lives. It was called 'Amber'. We all, i.e., the entire army ate it for half-a-month. Afterwards, as Abu Ubaidah set upright one of its bones, (perhaps, a rib, it was so high that) a camel-rider could pass under it. On our return to Madinah, we related the incident to the Prophet ﷺ, (and wanted to know whether it was proper for us to have eaten the fish). He observed : 'It was a gift of Allah which He had thrown up for you. If some of it is still left, give it to me to eat.' I, thereupon, sent a piece of it to him and he ate it."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The incident related above took place during a military expedition in the 6th century A.H. The Holy Prophet ﷺ had despatched an army of 300 under the command of Abu Ubaida and given him only a bag of dates as provision, which was all that could be arranged for at that time. It is reported in Sunan Abi Dawood etc., that Abu Ubaidah gave one date each from the bag to the crusaders every day and they subsisted merely on it. Some related that they used to put the date in their mouths and suck it slowly, like children, and, then, follow it up with water. It sufficed for the whole day. When the stock of the dates had been used up, they used to strike the trees for leaves and eat the leaves after wetting them with water, owing to which they developed ulcers in their mouths. In fact, it is because of it that the expedition is remembered as Jaishul Khabat, denoting striking of trees for leaves.

In another version of the same event, appearing in Abu Dawood etc., it is stated, again, on the authority of Abu Jabir ؓ, "(As) we were travelling, (in those circumstances), along the sea-shore, something like a ridge came into our view. On coming close to it, we found that it was an animal similar to a fish which the sea had thrown up, and it was dead already. Abu Ubaida ؓ had his doubts about its fitness for food, but on second thought, he felt that we had set out in the path of Allah, at the command of the Holy Prophet, and there was nothing with us to eat; so, the Lord had provided it for us as food. When Abu Ubaidah satisfied about it, he permitted the army to eat the fish."

According to the report quoted in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim, the whole army ate the fish for a fortnight while some other reports tell that it lasted for a month. The two statements, in our view, are not inconsistent with each other because the army had stayed in that area about half-a-month during which time the fish was eaten heartily, and, then, it had returned which nearly took another two weeks, and during the course of it, too, the fish was used, partly, for food. Thus, the versions in which it is mentioned that the fish was eaten for a fortnight refer to the period of the army's stay in the region, during which it was eaten liberally by the whole army, and the versions in which it is told that the fish was eaten for a month includes the period of the return journey as well during which, also, the fish was eaten to some extent.

Lastly, it tells that when, on return to Madinah, the incident was reported to the sacred Prophet ﷺ, and, perhaps, the hesitation of Abu Ubaidah ؓ, too, was brought into his notice, he assured them that the fish was a special gift of the Lord which He had caused to be thrown up by the sea for the use of the crusaders, and such a thing ought to be eaten with gratitude. In order to set at rest the misgivings of the crusaders and by way of expressing thankfulness to Allah, the Holy Prophet ﷺ, also, asked for a piece of the fish and ate it before them.

It, further, shows that even such an enormous fish of the sea which must have looked strange is lawful food.

The above Tradition, moreover, tells that the fish was called 'Amber'. According to some authorities, the waxy substance, ambergeris, which is found floating in tropical seas and used in making perfumes is produced by it.

(١٥٨٢/٢١٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ هَهُنَا أَقْوَامًا حَدِيثُ
عَهْدِهِمْ بِشُرْكِ يَاتُونَنَا بِلُحْمَانٍ لَا نَدْرِي أَيُّدُ كُرُونِ اسْمِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا أَمْ لَا؟ قَالَ
أَذْكُرُوا أَنْتُمْ اسْمَ اللَّهِ وَكُلُوا. (رواه البخاري)

(1582/217) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that some persons said to the Prophet ﷺ: "There are people back home whose period of polytheism has just passed, i.e., they have embraced Islam only recently and their knowledge of the Islamic rules and Commandments is incomplete. They, (sometimes), bring meat for us, and we do not know whether they have taken the Name of Allah on slaughtering the animals or not. (Should we, then, eat such a meat)?" "Take the Name of Allah and eat," the Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied. (Bukhari)

Commentary: The practical meaning of the above Tradition is that one should not be swayed by imaginary doubts and fears nor suspect others without sufficient proof. When people about whom the enquiry was made had embraced Islam, it should be taken for granted that they would be slaughtering the animals in accordance with the method prescribed by the Shari'ah, and the meat sent by them should be eaten after saying *Bismillaah*¹.

It does not, of course, mean that the meat of an animal butchered without taking the Name of Allah and according to the Paganish method would become lawful on saying Bismillaah.

As the Qur'an say:

And eat not of that whereon Allah's name has not been mentioned, for lo! it is abomination. (Al Anam 6:22)

وَلَا تَأْكُلُوا مِمَّا لَمْ يَذْكُرِ اسْمُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ وَإِنَّهُ لَفِسْقٌ. (الانعام ١٢١:٦)

(١٥٨٣/٢١٨) عَنْ قَبِيصَةَ بِنِ هُلُبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ طَعَامِ النَّصَارَى فَقَالَ لَا يَتَخَلَّجَنَّ فِي صَدْرِكَ طَعَامٌ صَارِعَتْ فِيهِ النَّصْرَانِيَّةُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1583/218) Qabeesah ibn Hulb related on the authority of his father, Hulb Ta'i, that, he enquired from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about eating the food of Christians. (Whether it was allowed or not)? He replied: 'There ought to be no fear or hesitation in your mind with regard to it. (In this sort of narrow-mindedness and unreasonable extremism), you come close to the way of Christianity.' (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Hulb Ta'i, originally, was a Christian. When he accepted Islam, he was not sure if he could dine with the Christians and eat of the animals slaughtered by them. Hence, he sought the advice of the Holy Prophet ﷺ who told him not to worry over it. In the Islamic Shari'ah, it was lawful to partake of the food of the Christians, including the meat of the animals slaughtered by them. It is laid down clearly in the Qur'an:

وَطَعَامُ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ حَلَلٌ لَكُمْ (المائدة ٥:٥)

The food of those who have recieved the Scripture is lawful for you. (Al Ma'idah 5:5)

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, further, remarked that such intolerance in matters of food and drink was the characteristic of the Christian monks while the Islamic Shari'ah was liberal and broadminded.

①. Meaning 'In the Name of Allah'. It is, generally, pronounced by Muslims at the beginning of any action or work.

LIQUIDS FOR DRINKING

As stated already, the fundamental principle regarding the sanctioning or forbidding of articles of food and drink is what has been enunciated in the Qur'an in these words:

يُحِلُّ لَهُمُ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَيُحَرِّمُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْخَبِيثَاتِ (الاعراف ١٥٧:٧)

(The Prophet) will make lawful for them all good things and prohibit for them only the foul. (Al A'raf 7:517)

Thus, all the beverages that are clean, refreshing and wholesome, such as the milk of animals whose flesh has been declared fit for food, fruit juices and soft-drinks are allowed in Islam while those that are foul and injurious are forbidden. Moreover, just as among the eatables, the prohibition of some of the things that were forbidden in the earlier canonic laws, but some sections of the people still ate them, as for instance, carrion and pork has, also, been made known, specifically, in the Qur'an, among the beverages, too, the prohibition of strong drinks has been stressed particularly in it, and the sacred Prophet ﷺ has taken special care to forbid it to the Muslims.

Prohibition of Strong Drink

For the prohibition of wine only this much is enough that, under its influence, a man, at least for some time, loses the faculties of reason and intellect which are most precious gift of the Almighty and comes down to the level of animals. Moreover, when a person is drunk, he, often, does most shameful and undesirable things and becomes a tool of the Devil. Intoxication, again, is sometimes, the cause of wide-ranging mischief and calamities. That is why, it has been forbidden in all the canonic laws, and reformers and religious-minded men, in all ages have kept strictly away from it and striven for its eradication.

Before we proceed with the relevant Traditions, it will be advisable to note that at the time of the raising up of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, and, perhaps, long before it, wine was very popular among the Arabs, particularly the Makkans. It was manufactured and imbibed almost in every home, and to drink it had, so to speak, become a mark of advancement in culture. The rich used to spend lavishly in the state of drunkenness from which the poor and needy people profited and it gave rise to the practice of looking down upon those who abstained from alcoholic liquors as mean and miserly.

The same was the case with games of chance, some peculiar forms of which were current in Arabia. Generally, only the rich and open-handed people indulged in them and the winnings, often, went to the poor. Thus, gambling, too, was a dignified pastime of the well-to-do which went to the advantages of the needy sections. A distinct proof of it is available in the poetry and customs of the Age of Perversion.

It is, perhaps, this particular aspect of 'utility' that has been alluded to, also, in the verse of Surah al-Baqara, (II:219), which was the first to be revealed concerning wine and gambling. However, since drinking was very common among the Arabs in those days and they were greatly addicted to it and regarded it a virtue and a sign of social and cultural eminence, a toerant approach was made, in the beginnig, towards prohibition and it was enforced by degrees, but when the ground had been prepared to the extent that it could be expected from the people to respond, unreservedly, to the command and give up the habit altogether, such a firm and uncompromising attitude was taken that even the use of vessels associated with it was forbidden. Other extremely stringent commandments followed that were aimed, basically, at creating a climate of aversion, among the Believers, against intoxicants, and when the object was gained, the more severe laws were withdrawn.

(١٥٨٤/٢١٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ حَرَّمَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ الْخَمْرَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ عَلَى الْمَدِينَةِ وَهُمْ يَشْرِبُونَ نَهَى وَيَأْكُلُونَ الْمَيْسِرَ فَسَأَلُوهُ عَنْهُمَا

فَنَزَلَ يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْخَمْرِ وَالْمَيْسِرِ الْآيَةَ“ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ مَا حَرَّمَ عَلَيْنَا وَكَانُوا يَشْرَبُونَ حَتَّى إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمٌ صَلَّى رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ بِأَصْحَابِهِ وَخَلَطَ فِي قِرَائِهِ فَنَزَلَتْ آيَةٌ أَغْلَظَ مِنْهَا ”يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقْرَبُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنْتُمْ سُكَارَى. الْآيَةُ“ وَكَانُوا يَشْرَبُونَ حَتَّى نَزَلَتْ أَغْلَظَ مِنْهَا. ”يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنَّمَا الْخَمْرُ وَالْمَيْسِرُ. الْآيَةُ.“ قَالُوا إِنْتَهَيْنَا رَبَّنَا فَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ نَاسٌ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَوْمَاتُوا عَلَى فُرُشِهِمْ كَانُوا يَشْرَبُونَ الْخَمْرَ وَيَاكُلُونَ الْمَيْسِرَ وَقَدْ جَعَلَهُ اللَّهُ رِجْسًا مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ فَنَزَلَ لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا طَعِمُوا. الْآيَةُ.“ (رواه احمد)

(1584/219) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, "The forbidding of strong drink was enforced (gradually), in three steps, (the details of which are that) when the Prophet ﷺ came to Madinah, the people of Madinah, at that time, used to drink wine and eat the money acquired by gambling. Men, consequently, enquired from him about both the things, i.e., whether these were allowed or not. (The enquiry, perhaps, was made as right-minded persons felt that the two things did not accord with the spirit and general precepts of Islam). The following of Surah Al-Baqarah was, then, revealed:

They question thee, (O Muhammad), about strong wine and games of chance. Say: In both is great sin, and (some) utility for men; but the sin of them is greater than their usefulness. (Al Baqarah 2:219)

يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْخَمْرِ
وَالْمَيْسِرِ قُلْ فِيهِمَا إِثْمٌ كَبِيرٌ
وَمَنَافِعُ لِلنَّاسِ وَإِثْمُهُمَا أَكْبَرُ مِنْ
نَفْعِهِمَا (البقرة ٢: ٢١٩)

"Some people, thereupon, said that, (in this verse), drinking and gambling had not been forbidden positively, and they went on drinking (wine, imagining that it was permitted), till, one day, it so happened that a person from among the Emigrants who was offering prayer (salah) with a few of his companions, (he was leading the service and was drunk), made some mistake in the recital of the Qur'an. Upon it, the second verse regarding the forbidding of alcoholic drinks was revealed which was more severe than the first:

O ye who believe! Draw not near unto prayer (salah) when ye are drunken, till ye are (in your senses) and know that which ye utter. (Al Nisaa 4:43)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقْرَبُوا
الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنْتُمْ سُكَرَى حَتَّى
تَعْلَمُوا مَا تَقُولُونَ. (النساء ٤: ٤٣)

"Some, however, (still felt that wine had not been wholly and strictly forbidden), and they continued to drink. (Of course, as some other Traditions tell, they took care not to drink when the time for prayer was near). The following verses of Surah Al-Maidah were, then, revealed which were more strict and explicit than the two earlier ones:

O ye who believe! Strong drink and games of chance and idols and divining arrows are only an infamy of Satan's handiwork. Leave it aside in order that ye may prosper. Satan seeketh only to cast among you enmity and hatred by means of strong drink and games of chance, and to turn you from remembrance of Allah and from (His worship). Will ye then have done with them, i.e., strong wine and games of chance etc.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنَّمَا الْخَمْرُ
وَالْمَيْسِرُ وَالْأَنْصَابُ وَالْأَزْلَامُ
رِجْسٌ مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ
فَاجْتَنِبُوهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ۝ إِنَّمَا
يُرِيدُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ يُوقِعَ بَيْنَكُمْ
الْعَدَاوَةَ وَالْبَغْضَاءَ فِي الْخَمْرِ
وَالْمَيْسِرِ وَيُضِلَّكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ
وَعَنِ الصَّلَاةِ ۖ فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُنْتَهُونَ ۝
(المائدة ٥: ٩٠، ٩١)

(Al Ma'idah 5:90-91)

"When these verses were revealed they said: 'Our Lord! We abstain, and now we have given them up altogether.' They, then, asked the Prophet ﷺ: 'What will be the sequel of those who have been martyred in the path of Allah or died in their beds (of illness) and they used to drink wine and eat of the earnings from gambling, and, now' the Lord has condemned both the things as foul and Satanic? (What is going to be the fate of our brethren in the Hereafter who were guilty of both drinking and gambling and had died in that state)?' It was in reply to them that the following verse was revealed:

There shall be no sin (imputed) unto those who believe and do good works for what they may

لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا طَعِمُوا have eaten (in the past)."

(Al Ma'idah 5:93)

إِذَا مَا اتَّقُوا وَأَمْنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ الْآيَةَ. (المائدة ٩٣:٥)

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: Comments have, already, been offered on it, from place to place, in the course of the translation. What it tells, briefly, is that, in the beginning, a graduated attitude was adopted about forbidding of wine, and, finally, total abstinence was decreed by characterising intoxication as only an infamy of Satan's hadiwork in the verse of Surah Al-Ma'idah.

According to some reports this verse was revealed in 8 A.H.

(١٥٨٥/٢٢٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ سَاقِي الْقَوْمِ فِي مَنْزِلِ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ فَنَزَلَ تَحْرِيمُ الْخَمْرِ فَأَمْرٌ مُنَادِيًا فَقَالَ أَبُو طَلْحَةَ أَخْرُجْ فَانْظُرْ مَا هَذَا الصَّوْتُ؟ قَالَ فَخَرَجْتُ فَقُلْتُ هَذَا مُنَادٍ يُنَادِي إِلَّا إِنْ الْخَمْرُ قَدْ حُرِّمَتْ، فَقَالَ لِي إِذْهَبْ فَأَمْرِقْهَا قَالَ فَجَرْتُ فِي سِكَكِ الْمَدِينَةِ قَالَ وَكَأَنْتَ خَمْرُهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْفَضِيخُ فَقَالَ بَعْضُ الْقَوْمِ قُتِلَ قَوْمٌ وَهِيَ فِي بَطُونِهِمْ قَالَ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا طَعِمُوا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1585/220) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه narrated: Some friends had collected at the house of (my benefactor), Abu Talha Ansari رضي الله عنه and wine was flowing and I was acting as the cup-bearer that the commandment of prohibition i.e., the verse of Surah Al-Ma'idah was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ forbidding completely the use of strong drink and calling it only an infamy of Satan's handiwork. The Prophet ﷺ, at once, ordered a crier to proclaim it publicly in Madinah. The crier, thus, (went around) calling out the announcement upon which Abu Talha رضي الله عنه told me to go out and see what it was about. I went out, and, (on return), informed that alcoholic drinks had been forbidden as beverages. Abu Talha رضي الله عنه, then, told me to go and throw out all the wine that was in the house. (I did so, and wine was thrown out from other houses as well as a result of which) the streets of Madinah were overflowing with it. The wine being used that day was what is known as Fazeekh. Soon after, some persons were heard to say that many bondsmen of the Lord had been martyred in such a condition that wine was in their bellies.

(What will be their fate then)? Upon it, the following verse was sent down by Allah:

There shall be no sin (imputed) unto those who believe and do good works for what they may have eaten (or drunk) (in the past). (Al Ma'idah 5:93)

لَيْسَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا طَعِمُوا
(المائدة ٩٣:٥)

(Meaning those who had departed from the world before the commandment of total prohibition was revealed and led a life of faith and good-doing shall not be called to account for what they might have eaten or drunk earlier)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The liquor Fazeekh was brewed from halfripe dates which were cut into small pieces. The pieces were, then, soaked into water and allowed to remain like that for some time till they had fermented. In those days, it was considered a wine of an average standard and it was, also, easy to manufacture it.

(١٥٨٦/٢٢١) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ عِنْدَنَا خَمْرٌ لِيَتِيمٍ فَلَمَّا نَزَلَتِ الْمَائِدَةُ سَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْهُ وَقُلْتُ إِنَّهُ لِيَتِيمٍ فَقَالَ أَهْرِيقُوهُ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1586/221) It is related by Abu Saeed Khudri ؓ "There was some wine in my house which was the property of an orphan. So, when the verse of Surah Al-Ma'idah (containing the commandment of total prohibition) was revealed, I asked the Prophet ﷺ what was to be done with it. I, also, explained to him that the wine was the property of an orphan. 'It should be thrown away and poured out,' the Prophet ﷺ replied." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not even allow the wine to be sold to a non-Muslim or put to a gain or advantage in any other way.

In another Tradition, related by Sayyidina Anas ؓ, it is stated that Abu Talha Ansari ؓ had bought wine for some orphans who were under his charge and in their own account before total prohibition. He, too, sought the Prophet's advice about it, and the Prophet ﷺ said: "Pour out the wine and throw it away, and, also, break the barrels in which it is contained."

Warning of Punishment

(١٥٨٧/٢٢٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ مُسْكِرٍ خَمْرٌ وَكُلُّ مُسْكِرٍ حَرَامٌ وَمَنْ شَرِبَ الْخَمْرَ فِي الدُّنْيَا قَمَاتَ وَهُوَ يُذَمُّ مِنْهَا لَمْ يَشْرِبْهَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1587/222) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Every intoxicating thing, i.e., every beverage that makes a person drunk is virtually identical to wine, and is forbidden, and whoever indulges in wine in this world and dies in the state of indulgence in it, and has not offered sincere repentance shall remain deprived of the pure wine of Paradise in the Hereafter." (Muslim)

(١٥٨٨/٢٢٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَدِمَ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ فَسَالَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ شَرَابٍ يُشْرَبُونَهُ بِأَرْضِهِمْ مِنَ الدَّرَّةِ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْمِرْزُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوْ مُسْكِرٌ هُوَ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ كُلُّ مُسْكِرٍ حَرَامٌ..... إِنَّ عَلَى اللَّهِ عَهْدٌ لِمَنْ يَشْرَبُ الْمُسْكِرَانَ يَسْقِيَهُ مِنْ طِينَةِ الْخَبَالِ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَمَا طِينَةُ الْخَبَالِ؟ قَالَ عَرَقُ أَهْلِ النَّارِ أَوْ غُصَّارَةُ أَهْلِ النَّارِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1588/223) Narrated Jaber رضي الله عنه "(Once), a person came from Yemen and asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about a particular kind of wine which was used in that region, and was called Mirz and brewed from Cheena¹. The Prophet ﷺ enquired if it was intoxicating, and, on being told that it was so, he said: 'Every intoxicating thing is forbidden. (And listen)! It is the promise of the Lord concerning everyone who indulges in alcoholic beverages — and He has made it binding upon Himself to fulfil the promise that He will make him drink Tinatul Khabaal in After-life. On being asked what Tinatul Khabaal was, he said it was the perspiration exuded through the skin of the dwellers of Hell (or the pus discharged through their bodies)." (The narrator was not sure which of the two things the sacred Prophet ﷺ had said). (Muslim)

(١٥٨٩/٢٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

١. A kind of corn.

تَعَالَى بَعَثَنِي رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ وَهَدَى لِّلْعَالَمِينَ وَأَمَرَنِي رَبِّي عَزَّوَجَلَّ بِمَحْقِ
 الْمَعَازِفِ وَالْمَزَامِيرِ وَالْأَوْتَانِ وَالصُّلَيْبِ وَأَمَرَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةَ وَحَلَفَ رَبِّي عَزَّوَجَلَّ
 بِعِزَّتِي لَا يَشْرَبُ عَبْدٌ مِنْ عِبِيدِي جُرْعَةً مِنْ خَمْرٍ إِلَّا سَقَيْتُهُ مِنَ الصَّدِيدِ مِثْلَهَا
 وَلَا يَتْرُكُهَا مِنْ مَخَافَتِي إِلَّا سَقَيْتُهُ مِنْ حِيَاضِ الْقُدْسِ. (رواه احمد)

(1589/224) It is related by Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Allah has sent me down as Mercy to the Worlds and a source of Guidance to all mankind, and the Lord; to Whom belong Might and Majesty, has commanded me to destroy the musical instruments, and to put an end to idolatry and worship of the Cross, and to do away with all the rites and practices of paganism. And my Lord, the Mighty and the Majestic, has vowed, by His Power and Glory, that whoever of His bondsmen will take even a draught of wine, He will make him swallow an equal amount of pus in the Hereafter, and whoever of His bondsmen will give up drinking and abstain from it, out of His fear, He will give him to drink the pure wine of the heavenly ponds in the Hereafter." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: It tells that to put an end to the worship of the idols and the Cross, and to all the rites and ceremonies of the age of perversion, as well as the musical instruments, were among the chief aims and objects of the raising up of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. The terms used for musical instruments, in the original, are M'uazif and Mazamir. The former are the instruments played with the hands like *dholak*¹, *tabla*², *sitar*³, and *Sarang*⁴ while Manzamir stands for instruments that are played with the mouth, such as, *Shahnai*⁵ and *Bansuri*⁶.

As we learn from the above Tradition, all musical instruments are the means to sensuality, dissipation and self-indulgence, and to free the world from them was one of the special duties assigned to the Holy Prophet ﷺ. But how painful it is and to what great extent has the Devil triumphed that these instruments are freely in

①. A small drum; tomtom.

②. A small tambourine, a small shallow drum, played by striking with one's hand.

③. A kind of guitar with three strings.

④. A musical instrument like a fiddle.

⑤. A kind of musical pipe.

⑥. A flute made of bamboo wood.

evidence now even during the Urs¹ of Holy men!

Even a Small Quantity of Wine is Forbidden

(١٥٩٠/٢٢٥) عَنْ جَابِرِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا أَسْكَرَ كَثِيرُهُ فَقَلِيلُهُ حَرَامٌ.
(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذى و ابن ماجه)

(1590/225) It is related by Jaber رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A small quantity of the liquor which produces intoxication when taken in a large quantity, too, is forbidden."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi and Ibn Majah)

(A Tradition conveying an almost identical meaning is quoted in Musnad Ahmad and Sunan Abi Dawood etc. on the authority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها as well).

Wine Should Not be Used Even As Medicine

(١٥٩١/٢٢٦) عَنْ وَائِلِ الْخَضْرَمِيِّ أَنَّ طَارِقَ بْنَ سُوَيْدٍ سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْخَمْرِ فَتَهَاها فَقَالَ إِنَّمَا أَصْنَعُهَا لِلدَّوَاءِ فَقَالَ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ بِدَوَاءٍ وَلَكِنَّهُ دَاءٌ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1591/226) Narrated Wa'il ibn Hujr Hadrami رضي الله عنه that once Tariq ibn Suwaid asked the Prophet ﷺ about wine and he told him to keep away from it. "But I take it as a medicine", said Tariq ibn Suwaid. "It is not medicine," the Prophet ﷺ replied. "It is a disease."
(Muslim)

Commentary: Some authorities are of the view that this narrative belonged to the time when the commandment completely forbidding intoxicating drinks was revealed, and, due to a special reason indicated in the Traditions given below, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had adopted a very rigid attitude in that regard and prohibited certain things to the Muslims which he was to allow later. On the basis of it, they have concluded that there is room for permitting a person who is critically ill and a competent and reliable physician is of the opinion that wine is essential for his treatment to take it in the perscribed quantity.

Waging War Against A Community Which Insists on Drinking

(١٥٩٢/٢٢٧) عَنْ ذَيْلَمِ الْحَمِيرِيِّ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّا بِأَرْضٍ بَارِدَةٍ وَنُعَالِجُ فِيهَا عَمَلًا شَدِيدًا وَإِنَّا نَتَّخِذُ شَرَابًا مِنْ هَذَا الْقَمْحِ نَتَّقَوِي بِهِ عَلَى أَعْمَالِنَا وَعَلَى بَرْدِ بِلَادِنَا، قَالَ هَلْ يُسْكِرُ؟ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَاجْتَنِبُوهُ قُلْتُ إِنَّ النَّاسَ غَيْرَ تَارِكِيهِ قَالَ إِنْ لَمْ يَتْرُكُوهُ فَاتْلَوْهُمْ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1592/227) It is related by Daylam Humayri رضي الله عنه that (once) he said to the Prophet ﷺ: Messenger of Allah ﷺ! We live in a cold region and have to work very hard and we manufacture a wine from wheat and use it and it gives us the strength for the hard work we have to do, and, also, to withstand the rigours of the climate." "Is it intoxicating?" he enquired. "Yes, Messenger of Allah ﷺ," Daylam Humayri رضي الله عنه replied. "It is intoxicating." The Holy Prophet ﷺ said: "Then abstain from it. Do not drink it, at all." "But the people are not going to give it up. (They are not likely to abstain on anyone's persuasion," submitted Daylam Humayri. "Wage war against them if they do not listen," the Prophet ﷺ observed. (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It tells that if because of local conditions, the Muslims of some place feel that they cannot live without drinking, even then it is not to be permitted to them.

Secondly, if the people of a region or locality insist, as a whole, on drinking and refuse to give up the habit, the Islamic State is free to use force against them.

We can imagine, from it, how sinful indulgence in alcoholic drinks is from the Islamic point of view.

Severe Denunciation

(١٥٩٣/٢٢٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُذْمِنُ الْخَمْرِ إِنْ مَاتَ لَقِيَ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى كَعَابِدُونٍ.

(رواه احمد)

(1593/228) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever drinks habitually and dies in that state will be produced before the Lord, on the Day of Resurrection, as a polytheist and an idolater." (Musnad Ahmad)

(١٥٩٤/٢٢٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْخَمْرِ عَشْرَةَ عَاصِرَهَا وَمُعْتَصِرَهَا وَشَارِبَهَا وَسَاقِيَهَا وَحَامِلَهَا وَالْمَحْمُولَةَ إِلَيْهِ وَبَايِعَهَا وَمُبْتَاعَهَا وَوَاهِبَهَا وَأَكَلَ ثَمَرَهَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1594/229) Narrated Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that (once) the Prophet ﷺ cursed ten persons in connection with wine: (1) he who distills wine even for someone else; (2) he who distills wine for himself; (3) he who drinks wine; (4) he who serves wine; (5) he who carries wine (from one place to another); (6) he who receives or accepts wine (as something sent); (7) he who sells wine; (8) he who buys wine; (9) he who gives wine to another as a gift; and (10) he who eats of the money which comes to him from selling wine." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: To 'curse' means to pray that a person be consigned to eternal damnation. The above Tradition, thus, tells that the Holy Prophet ﷺ prayed that anyone who was connected, in any way, with the use, sale, manufacture or transport of intoxicating liquors remained denied of Divine mercy and benevolence.

(An identical Tradition is mentioned in Musnad Ahmad and Sunan Abi Dawood, on the authority of Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ).

An idea of the extreme repugnance the sayings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ had produced among the Companions against wine can be obtained from the incident that once when the vineyards of Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ had yielded a bumper crop, the person who looked after them wrote to him that as there had been a very large crop of grapes that year and it was feared that it would rot, could he have the juice of the grapes extracted and preserve it. Upon it, Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ replied,

"When you receive this letter, relinquish the job and sever all connection with my lands and orchards. By Allah, I cannot trust you with anything after it."

إِذَا جَاءَكَ كِتَابِي فَأَعِزَّلْ
صِيعَتِي فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا أَتَمْنِكَ عَلَى
شَيْئِي بَعْدَهُ أَبَدًا

All Intoxicants Are Forbidden

(١٥٩٥/٢٣٠) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ بَعَثَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

وَمَعَاذَ إِلَى الْيَمَنِ فَقَالَ أَذْعُوا النَّاسَ وَبَشِّرَا وَلَا تَنْفِرَا وَيَسِّرَا وَلَا تَعْسِرَا قَالَ
 فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَفْتِنَا فِي شَرَابَيْنِ كُنَّا نَصْنَعُهُمَا بِالْيَمَنِ الْبِتْعَ وَهُوَ مِنَ الْعَسَلِ
 يُنْبَذُ حَتَّى يَشْتَدَّ وَالْمَزْرُ وَهُوَ مِنَ الذَّرَّةِ وَالشَّعِيرِ يُنْبَذُ حَتَّى يَشْتَدَّ قَالَ وَكَانَ
 رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ أُعْطِيَ جَوَامِعَ الْكَلِمِ بِخَوَاتِمِهِ فَقَالَ أَنَّهُ
 عَنْ كُلِّ مُسْكِرٍ أَسْكَرَ عَنْ الصَّلَاةِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم واللفظ له)

(1595/230) Narrated Abu Musa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that "The Prophet ﷺ had sent me and Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه to Yemen (on a religious mission) and instructed us to invite the people of Faith and give them the tidings (of a happy sequel) and refrain from saying things that may be repellent to them, and, further, to create facilities for them instead of hardships.' Abu Musa رضي الله عنه goes on to relate to us, saying that " I, then, requested the Prophet ﷺ to tell us what Shari'ah said about the two kinds of wine we used to manufacture in Yemen, (one was called Bit'a which was brewed from honey, — a fixed quantity of honey was mixed with water and left to ferment, and the other, Mizr which was brewed from cheena and barely, — the two corns were soaked in water and left in that state until fermentation was produced). The Prophet ﷺ whom the Lord had blessed with preciseness and comprehensiveness of speech i.e., he could express himself plainly and positively in a few words, (thereupon), observed: "I forbid everything which is intoxicating and makes a man heedless of prayer (salah)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It establishes, as a general rule, that all the articles of eating or drinking that are intoxicating and likely to make a person negligent of a fundamental duty like prayer are forbidden in Islam. It, also, includes cannabis and all the other herbs and plants that produce intoxication, and are, generally, used for that purpose.

A Prophecy Regarding Indulgence In Wine by Muslims

All this notwithstanding, it had been revealed to the Holy Prophet ﷺ that some sinful and unrighteous men among the Muslims will take to drink, but give it some other name, and, thus, try to deceive themselves as well as others. But the reality of a thing does not change with the change of its name, nor do the commandments of the Shari'ah. Such people, in any case, will be guilty of transgression against the Holy law and the artifice of changing the name will only add to the gravity of the offence.

(١٥٩٦/٢٣١) عَنْ أَبِي مَالِكٍ الْأَشْعَرِيِّ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لِكَيْشَرِ بَنٍ نَاسٍ مِنْ أُمَّتِي الْخَمْرُ يُسَمُّونَهَا بِغَيْرِ اسْمِهَا.

(رواه ابو داود و ابن ماجه)

(1596/231) Abu Maalik Ash'ari رضي الله عنه related to us that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: 'Some people among my followers will drink wine, and give it another name (by way of deception).'

(Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Some Exceptional Rules And Commandments

As already stated, when complete prohibition had been proclaimed, after the revelation of Surah Al-Ma'idah, the sacred Prophet ﷺ issued some exceptionally severe orders which were mainly aimed at creating a climate of repugnance against the 'mother of evils' among the Believers so that they did not return to the old habit of drinking with the passage of time.

(١٥٩٧/٢٣٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ

الدُّبَاءِ وَالْخَنْتَمِ وَالْمُرْقَتِ وَالْقَيْرِ وَأَمَرَ أَنْ يُبَدَّ فِي اسْقِيَةِ الْأَدَمِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1597/232) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ forbade the preparation of Nabeez¹ in an earthen pitcher or a vessel made of hollow guord or date-wood, and ordered that it should be prepared only in leather-bags." (Muslim)

Commentary: The beverage called Nabeez was popular among the Arabs, and, as we shall see later, the sacred Prophet ﷺ, too, drank it. The three kinds of vessels about which the Prophet has said that the beverage should not be prepared in them were, generally, used in making wine. When the verse absolutely forbidding the use of wine was revealed, the Prophet ﷺ forbade their employment for that purpose, probably, to guard against the possibility of the revival of the craving for alcoholic liquors at the sight of the vessels. Later, as aversion to drinking was firmly entrenched in the hearts and no such danger remained, the Holy Prophet ﷺ allowed the use of these vessels.

①. A beverage prepared by steeping grapes, dates or Munaaqqas (a species of raisins) in water for such time that their flavour is drawn into the water, but it does not ferment.

(١٥٩٨/٢٣٣) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنِ الظُّرُوفِ فَإِنَّ ظُرْفًا لَا يُحِلُّ شَيْنًا وَلَا يُحَرِّمُهُ وَكُلُّ مُسْكِرٍ حَرَامٌ. وَفِي رَوَايَةٍ قَالَ نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنِ الْأَشْرِبَةِ إِلَّا فِي ظُرُوفِ الْأَدَمِ فَاشْرَبُوا فِي كُلِّ وَغَاءٍ غَيْرَ أَنْ لَا تَشْرَبُوا مُسْكِرًا. (رواه مسلم)

(1598/233) It is related by Buraydah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I had forbidden to you the use of certain vessels. (Now, I allow it) as nothing becomes allowed or forbidden merely because of vessels. You should, (of course), remember that every intoxicating thing is forbidden, (and keep strictly away from it)." (Muslim)

Commentary: It makes it clear that for the reason we have just indicated, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had, initially, taken some extreme steps towards prohibition, but, later on, he had relaxed or withdrawn them.

(١٥٩٩/٢٣٤) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ خَلِيطِ التَّمْرِ وَالْبُسْرِ وَعَنْ خَلِيطِ الزَّيْبِ وَالتَّمْرِ وَعَنْ خَلِيطِ الزَّهْوِ وَالرُّطْبِ وَقَالَ إِنْتَبِذُوا كُلَّ وَاحِدَةٍ عِلْجَةً. (رواه مسلم)

(1599/234) Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه narrated that "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the mixing of dried ripe dates, with semi-ripe dates, and, in the same way, of dried grapes with dried ripe dates, and green dates with fresh, ripe dates (for the preparation of Nabeez), and said that Nabeez should be prepared from them separately." (Muslim)

Commentary: Commentators have explained that it was possible for fermentation to take place when the afore-mentioned fruits were soaked together in water, and, hence, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had forbidden it as a precautionary measure and ordered that Nabeez was to be prepared from them separately.

The Prophet ﷺ, perhaps, had given this order, too, during the early phase of total prohibition and it was withdrawn along with other extreme measures when the object of creating an instinctive dislike, in the Ummah, against strong drinks had been realised.

As we learn from the following narrative of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, Nabeez was prepared for the Holy Prophet ﷺ himself by steeping dried grapes with dates, and he used to drink it.

Nabeez is A Pure And Lawful Beverage, And The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Too, Used to Drink it

(١٦٠٠/٢٣٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُبَدِّلُ لَهُ

زَبِيبٌ فَيُلْقِي فِيهِ تَمْرًا أَوْ تَمْرٌ فَيُلْقِي فِيهِ زَبِيبٌ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1600/235) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها narrated to us that "Nabeez was prepared from dried grapes for the Prophet ﷺ, and dates were, also, put in it, or it was prepared from dried dates, and grapes, too, were put in it." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that Nabeez from mixed fruits like dates and grapes, too, is allowed, but care must be taken the fermentation is not produced and it does not become intoxicating.

In another Tradition related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها it is stated "for the making Nabeez for Prophet ﷺ, I used to soak dates, etc. in water, in the evening, which he drank in the morning, and, in the same way, for the evening, we used to soak them in the morning."

(١٦٠١/٢٣٦) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَقَدْ سَقَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

بِقَدْحِي هَذَا الشَّرَابَ كُلَّهُ الْعَسَلُ وَالنَّبِيذُ وَالْمَاءُ وَاللَبَنُ. (رواه مسلم)

(1601/236) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه related to us, (pointing at a cup), that in this cup of mine, I have given to the Prophet ﷺ all the things to drink that are to be drunk: honey, Nabeez, water and milk. (Muslim)

Commentary: From the narratives mentioned above, it is clear that the Prophet ﷺ used to take Nabeez which was specially prepared for him.

The Prophet ﷺ Liked A Cool And Sweet Drink

(١٦٠٢/٢٣٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ أَحَبَّ الشَّرَابِ إِلَيَّ

النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْحُلُوُّ الْبَارِدُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1602/237) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها related to us, that among the liquids for drinking, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ liked what was cool and sweet. (Tirmizi)

Sweet Water For The Messenger of Allah ﷺ

(١٦٠٣/٢٣٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسْتَعْدَبُ

لَهُ الْمَاءُ مِنْ بُيُوتِ السُّقْيَا. (قَالَ قَتِيبَةُ عَيْنٍ بَيْنَهَا وَبَيْنَ الْمَدِينَةِ يَوْمَانِ)

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1603/238) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that sweet water was brought for the Messenger of Allah ﷺ from Buyut as-Suqyah. (Abu Dawood)

(It is stated by Qutaibah, the teacher of Abu Dawood, who is one of the narrators of this report, that Buyut as-Suqayh from where sweet water was brought for the Prophet ﷺ was situated at a distance of two days' journey from Madinah).

Commentary: As these Traditions show, it is not incompatible with the spirit of Islamic asceticism to take cool and sweet drinks, and food that is agreeable to the taste. To arrange for such things for anyone, out of love and devotion which is wholly for the sake of Allah, is a commendable act, and pleasing to the Lord.

PROPRIETIES

Along with enjoining what is good and lawful, and prohibiting what is foul and forbidden in food and drink, at the command of Allah, the Holy Prophet ﷺ, also, has taught the proprieties of eating and drinking that are either the requirements of good manners and dignified behaviour or based upon sound medical considerations or appertain to thanksgiving and remembrance of the Lord, and lift an apparently worldly act, like it, to a means of gaining His countenance.

In the Traditions we are now going to take up, there is enough to show that the correct manners and proprieties of eating and drinking set forth in them are in the nature of what is termed in the Shari'ah as Istihbab or Istihsan, i.e., commendable, and not obligatory. Hence, no sin attaches if these are not followed.

Washing Hands Before And After A Meal

(١٦٠٤/٢٣٩) عَنْ سَلْمَانَ قَالَ قَرَأْتُ فِي التَّوْرَةِ أَنَّ بَرَكََةَ الطَّعَامِ الْوُضُوءُ
بَعْدَهُ فَذَكَرْتُ ذَلِكَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ بَرَكََةُ الطَّعَامِ الْوُضُوءُ
قَبْلَهُ وَالْوُضُوءُ بَعْدَهُ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1604/239) Salman Farsi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I had read in Torah that to wash the hands and mouth after a meal was a source of barkat¹. (When) I mentioned it to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, he remarked: 'To wash hands and mouth before and after a meal is a source of barkat. (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In the Qur'an it is stated that, through the last of His Messengers, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, Allah has brought to perfection the guidance that had been reaching mankind through the earlier Prophets:

①. In the dictionaries, barkat is defined as 'abundance'; 'prosperity'; 'auspiciousness'; 'good fortune'; 'blessing'.

الْيَوْمَ اكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِينَكُمْ (المائدة ٣:٥)

This day I have perfected your religion for you. (Al Ma'idah 5:4)

In the light of it, the above Tradition would denote that while in the Torah, only the washing of the hands and mouth after a meal had been taught and described as a source of barkat, through the sacred Prophet ﷺ it was advised to do so both before and after eating.

The word, barkat has a very wide range of meaning. As Shah Waliullah says in Hujjatillahil Baligha, what barkat in food and drink denotes, among other things, is that the purpose for which a meal is taken is gained fully, one eats with relish, a small quantity of food suffices and provides ample nourishment for the body, and instead of giving rise to sensuality or moral or spiritual lassitude, produces a feeling of gratitude and submission to the Almighty Creator and Sustainer. All these are manifestations of the state described in the above Tradition as barkat.

Again, in Kanzul 'Ummal and M'ojam Ausat Tabarani it is stated, on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Washing hands and mouth before and after a meal keeps poverty away, and is the way of Divine Prophets.

It is, further, an elementary principle of hygiene that hands and mouth should be washed properly before commencing to eat and after the meal is over.¹

In Sayyidina Salman Farsi's ﷺ narrative and most of the other Traditions on the subject, the word Wudhu has been used, but it does not denote the ablution performed for offering prayer (Salah). Only the washing of hands and mouth is meant which has, also, been made plain in some Traditions.

(١٦٠٥/٢٤٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ بَاتَ وَفِي يَدِهِ غِمْرٌ لَمْ يَغْسِلْهُ فَأَصَابَهُ شَيْءٌ فَلَا يُلَوِّمَنَّ إِلَّا نَفْسَهُ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد ابن ماجه)

(1605/240) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever retires for the night in the condition

1. The commandment, evidently, will apply when the meal is taken with the hands and not with a spoon etc., and the hand does not touch it.

that the effect of the oily substance of food or its smell is present on his hands and some harm comes to him as a result of it, (as for instance, an insect or rodent bites him), he has only himself to blame." (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: What it seeks to stress is that hands should be washed carefully after a meal, particularly, when it is greasy, so that its effects are not left behind. However, since this commandment belongs to the category of supererogation and the omission of it is not sinful, the Holy Prophet ﷺ himself did not always abide by it, as the following Tradition will show.

Wiping And Drying Hands

(١٦٠٦/٢٤١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ جَزْءٍ قَالَ أَتَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِخُبْزٍ وَلَحْمٍ وَهُوَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَأَكَلَ وَكَلْنَا مَعَهُ ثُمَّ قَامَ فَصَلَّى وَصَلَّيْنَا مَعَهُ وَلَمْ نَزِدْ عَلَى أَنْ مَسَحْنَا أَيْدِيَنَا بِالْحَصْبَاءِ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1606/241) Narrated Abdullah ibn Harith رضي الله عنه that (once) as the Prophet ﷺ was in the mosque, a person brought some meat and bread for him which he ate, and we, also, joined him in the meal. After it, he, and with him, we, too, stood up for prayer (salah), and, (at that time), we did nothing more than wiping our hands with the gravel (that was laid on the floor)." (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The object of the narrator, Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Harith رضي الله عنه, in relating it, seemingly, is to indicate that, occasionally, it, also, happened that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had a meal with his Companions, and, then, he only wiped and dried his hands instead of washing them. As commentators have remarked, the Holy Prophet ﷺ, probably, did so to show that it was not essential to wash the hands and the mouth after eating and even prayer could be offered without it. Sometimes, the Prophet ﷺ used to omit a better and preferable act so that people could see and learn, at first hand, how much allowance or latitude was granted to them in a particular matter. It was, in fact, necessary for him, as a teacher and preceptor, to set an example by his own conduct in all the spheres of life.

Apart from it, the circumstances in which the incident took place should, also, be borne in the mind. The time of prayer was near and the companions had gathered in the mosque for the service that a person brought some bread and meat for the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. It was quite possible that some of the men who were present in the mosque were hungry and wanted to eat, and the Holy Prophet ﷺ thought it would be better if the meal was taken before the service, and he invited his Companions, also, to join. In those circumstances, it was out of the question for anyone to have a full meal and only a few morsels would have been taken as a blessing, and the hands, too, would, thus, not have become much dirty.

It should, also, be noted that there was no arrangement for water in the mosque and they would have had to go out, perhaps, to their homes, if they wanted to wash their hands. In our humble opinion, all these factors would have contributed to the decision to wipe hands in place of washing them.

The way in which the wiping and drying of hands with the gravel is mentioned in this Tradition shows that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, too, had done the same at that time. From it, we can deduce that hands can be cleaned with a towel, paper or any other thing like it after eating, and it, too, will be within the orbit of the Sunnah.

Remembering Allah and taking His Name Before Commencing to Eat

(١٦٠٧/٢٤٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَكَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَذْكُرِ اسْمَ اللَّهِ فَإِنْ نَسِيَ أَنْ يَذْكُرَ اللَّهَ فِي أَوَّلِهِ فَلْيَقُلْ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ أَوَّلَهُ وَآخِرَهُ.

(رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

(1607/242) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you intends to eat, he should take the Name of Allah, i.e., Bismillah, and in case he forgets to say Bismillah at the beginning, he should say Bismillah Awwaluhu wa Aakhirahu at the end."

(Abu Dawood and Tirmizi)

Commentary: To take the name of Allah is a source of blessing and auspiciousness, and as it is candidly stated in some Traditions, a special effect of it, also, is that the Devils keep away when it is mentioned. Thus, the food over which Allah's name is taken will remain safe from their participation and mischief.

Another purpose of the teaching is that when food is laid before a bondsman, he should remember that it is the gift and favour of the Lord, and by His grace, is he able to eat and derive pleasure and nourishment from it. In this way, eating, which, to all appearance, is purely physical act and in response to an animal urge, becomes a lustrous and godly deed.

As it, sometimes, happens, a person forgets to say Bismillah before commencing to eat. For him the Prophet's advice is that he should say Bismillah Awwaluhu wa Aakhirahu (I seek blessing from the name of Allah, both at the beginning and at the end) when he remembers.

(١٦٠٨/٢٤٣) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَسْتَحِلُّ الطَّعَامَ أَنْ لَا يُذَكَّرَ اسْمُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1608/243) It is related by Huziafah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The Devil makes the meal legitimate for himself, i.e., the possibility and justification is created for the Devil to share the meal over which Allah's name has not been taken."
(Muslim)

Commentary: The name of Allah, as one would say, serves as a whip, or, rather, a battle-axe for the Devil. When Allah's name will be taken over a meal and Bismillah is said before one begins to eat, Satan will not be able to participate in it, while if it is not done and the name of Allah is not taken, there will be nothing to stop him though the diner may not see that the Devil is joining in the meal.

In another Tradition, quoted, again, in Sahih Muslim, it is stated that when a person enters the house where he lives and spends the nights by taking the name of Allah, and, also, takes Allah's name when he begins to eat, the Devil says to his companions, "Let us go away from here. There is no room for us in this house, nor a share in the food." On the contrary, when a man does not take Allah's name on entering his house, and, also, fails to remember Him at the time of eating, the Devil says to his companions, "Come, this is the place for us to spend the night, and here is, also, food for us to eat."

It may, however, be noted that the existence of the Angels and the Devils, and their functions and attributes are among the things of the invisible world which we cannot know on our own. The same, indeed, is the case with the Being and Attributes of Allah. For a faithful Believer, the path of duty lies in placing his trust in the knowledge furnished by the sacred Prophet ﷺ concerning all transcendental truths.

Eating With The Right Hand

(١٦٠٩/٢٤٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ قَالَ كُنْتُ غُلَامًا فِي حِجْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَتْ يَدِي تَطِيشُ فِي الصَّحْفَةِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِ اللَّهَ وَكُلْ بِيَمِينِكَ وَكُلْ مِمَّا يَلِيكَ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1609/244) Umar ibn Salmah رضي الله عنه narrated that "(When), (in my childhood), I was in the care of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, I used to eat from all parts of the dish. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ advised me to say Bismillah (before beginning to eat), and to eat with the right hand, and from (the part of the dish that was) in front of me."
(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abu Salmah رضي الله عنه was the son of the Holy Prophet's aunt, i.e., his father's sister, and among the notable Companions of the earliest phase. Umm Salmah رضي الله عنها was the name of his wife who was a devoted Muslim lady. The narrator of this Tradition, Umar ibn Abi Salmah رضي الله عنه, was their child. When Abu Salmah died in the 3rd or 4th year of the Hijri calendar, the Holy Prophet ﷺ married his widow, Umm Salmah رضي الله عنها, to bring her relief and comfort, and, thus, Umar ibn Abi Salmah رضي الله عنه who was, then, a child, came under his protection. He relates that, in those days, the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to have him eat with himself, and from the same dish and his hand wandered all over the plate during the meal. The Prophet ﷺ, upon it, told him to begin the meal with Bismillah and to eat with the right hand and from the part of the dish that was before him.

In some other Traditions, it is stated that if the meal consists of several dishes or several kinds of fruit, the hand may be stretched in different directions.

(١٦١٠/٢٤٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَكَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَأْكُلْ بِيَمِينِهِ وَإِذَا شَرِبَ فَلْيَشْرِبْ بِيَمِينِهِ. (رواه مسلم)
 (1610/245) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you eats, he should eat with the right hand, and when anyone of you drinks, he should drink with the right hand." (Muslim)

Commentary: A man uses his hands for all sorts of things, both clean and unclean. His natural inclination for cleanliness demands that while one hand is used for acts like removing an impurity, other acts are performed with the other hand. It has, thus, been specified for the left hand that it should be employed for acts like purification after defecation or urination, and for the right hand that all good and clean acts like eating and drinking are performed with it.

The superiority of the right hand over the left, being taken for granted everywhere, the afore-mentioned advice will appear to be in the natural order of things.

(١٦١١/٢٤٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَأْكُلَنَّ أَحَدُكُمْ بِشِمَالِهِ وَلَا يَشْرَبَنَّ بِهَا فَإِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَأْكُلُ بِشِمَالِهِ وَيَشْرَبُ بِهَا. (رواه مسلم)
 (1611/246) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "No one of you should eat or drink with the left hand for (it is the way of the Devil); he eats and drinks with the left hand." (Muslim)

Taking off Shoes While Sitting Down to A Meal

(١٦١٢/٢٤٧) عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا وَضِعَ الطَّعَامُ فَاخْلَعُوا نِعَالَكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ أَرْوَحُ لَا قَدَمِيكُمْ. (رواه الدارمي)
 (1612/247) It is related by Anas ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Take off your shoes when the meal is placed before you. It will be more comfortable for the feet." (Daarimi)

Commentary: The idea behind this advice, as indicated in the above report, that it will give greater comfort to the feet if the shoes are removed at the time of eating clearly suggests that it is based on kindness and affection, and not that it is sinful to eat with the shoes on.

Food Should Not Be Taken Too Hot

(١٦١٣/٢٤٨) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ إِذَا أُتِيَتْ بِشَرِيدٍ أَمَرَتْ بِهِ فَعُطِيَ حَتَّى تَذْهَبَ قُوْرَةُ دُخَانِهِ وَتَقُولُ إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ هُوَ أَعْظَمُ لِلْبَرَكَاتِ.

(رواه الدارمي)

(1613/248) It is narrated concerning Sayyidah Asma ibnt Abu Bakr رضى الله عنها that her practice was that when Sareed was prepared and brought to her, she had it kept covered until the intensity of its heat had subsided and it had ceased to give out vapours, and, in support of it, she used to say that she had heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say that there was barakat in eating like that, i.e., after allowing the food to cool down a little.

(Daarmi)

Commentary: A palatable dish made with meat and pieces of bread is called Sareed. It was more popular during the days of the Prophet ﷺ. Although Sareed is, specifically, mentioned in this Tradition, as it was eaten frequently, the advice applies to all cooked food that it should not be taken too hot.

As for barakat, we have seen, already, that, among other things, it signifies that the purpose for which a meal is taken is gained, in a greater degree, by eating that way.

Medically, too, it is advisable that a meal is not taken much above normal temperature.

Auspiciousness of Eating Together

(١٦١٤/٢٤٩) عَنْ وَحْشِيِّ بْنِ حَرْبٍ قَالَ إِنَّ أَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّا كُلُّ وَلَا نَشْبَعُ قَالَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَفْتَرِقُونَ؟ قَالُوا نَعَمْ قَالَ فَاجْتَمِعُوا عَلَى طَعَامِكُمْ وَادْكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ يَبَارِكْ لَكُمْ فِيهِ.

(رواه ابوداؤد)

(1614/249) Narrated Wahshi ibn Harb رضى الله عنه that once some

- ❶ It is the same Wahshi ibn Harb who had killed Sayyidina Amir Hamza رضى الله عنه, the uncle of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, in the Battle of Uhud. He embraced Islam later on in 8 A.H., at the time of the Victory (Continued on Next Page)

Companions said to the Prophet ﷺ "Our condition is that we eat, but do not feel satisfied (after a meal)." "Perhaps, you eat alone," said the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. "Yes," they replied. "We eat alone." The Prophet, thereupon, observed: "Sit down to the meal together, and take the name of Allah, i.e., say Bismillah before commencing to eat. There will, then, be greater barakat for you in the meal, (and it will be more satisfying)."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Anyone can have the experience of the barakat of eating jointly, spoken of in it, provided that those who dine are blessed with the virtue of unselfishness, which is expected of all faithful Believers, and everyone wants the others to have a better and larger share of the meal. Otherwise, they will have no claim to barakat, and it may, in fact, turn out to be the other way round.

(١٦١٥/٢٥٠) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
طَعَامُ الْوَاحِدِ يَكْفِي الْإِثْنَيْنِ — وَطَعَامُ الْإِثْنَيْنِ يَكْفِي الْأَرْبَعَةَ وَطَعَامُ الْأَرْبَعَةِ
يَكْفِي الثَّمَانِيَةَ

(رواه مسلم)

(1615/250) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "A meal for one suffices two, and a meal for two suffices four, and, in the same way, a meal for four suffices eight."

(Muslim)

Commentary: A similar report is found in Kanzul Ummal. It has been reproduced from M'ojim Kabir Tabarani, and its narrator is Abdullah ibn Umar. At the end of it, it is added "you should, therefore, dine, not separately but together."

Eating From The Sides of Vessel

(١٦١٦/٢٥١) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ أَتَى بِقِضْعَةٍ

Continued of Makkah. Since then it was his constant desire to do something which could make amends to any extent, for the grave wrong he had committed. When, after the death of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه despatched the army, under the command of Khalid ibn Walid, to put down the mischief of the claimant to Messengership, Mussailima the Liar, he, too, joined it in the hope of killing the imposter with his own hands. Wahshi's ambition was fulfilled, and he used to say that he had killed Mussailima with the same spear with which he had killed Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه.

مَنْ يُرِيدُ فَقَالَ كُلُوا مِنْ جَوَانِبِهَا وَلَا تَأْكُلُوا مِنْ وَسْطِهَا فَإِنَّ الْبَرَكَةَ تَنْزِلُ فِي وَسْطِهَا. (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه والدارمی)

(1616/251) Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ related to us, that once a lagan (meaning a long flat copper basin) full of saareed was brought to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ (had the others join him in the meal, and), said: "Eat from the sides of it, and do not put your hand in the middle for barakat descends on the middle." (Tirmizi)

(In the Tradition quoted in Sunan Abi Dawood, the following remark of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is mentioned without reference to the incident related above:

"When anyone of you eats, he should not do so from the upper, i.e., middle part of the dish, but from the lower parts, i.e., the sides of it because barakat comes down from the upper part (to the lower parts) of the dish).

إِذَا أَكَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ طَعَامًا فَلَا يَأْكُلُ مِنْ أَعْلَى الصَّحْفَةِ وَلَكِنْ يَأْكُلُ مِنْ أَسْفَلِهَا فَإِنَّ الْبَرَكَةَ تَنْزِلُ مِنْ أَعْلَاهَا.

Commentary: As already stated, barakat, in truth, is an order and Command of Allah, i.e., an invisible manifestation of His Will. The Prophet ﷺ used to perceive it, and he saw that barakat descended directly on the middle part of a dish, and, then, its effects spread to its sides and edges, and, therefore, advised the people to eat from the sides of a vessel, and not from the middle. The Divine rule concerning barakat in food is still unchanged, but is dependent on faith and worthiness.

Food Left Over In The Plate or On Fingers

(١٦١٧/٢٥٢) عَنْ جَابِرِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَرَ بِلُقْيِ الْأَصَابِعِ وَالصَّحْفَةِ وَقَالَ إِنَّكُمْ لَا تَدْرُونَ فِي آيَةِ الْبَرَكََةِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1617/252) Sayyidina Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ related, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ advised (us) to lick the fingers (after eating a meal), and, also, to clean the vessel. He said: "You do not know in which part or particle of food the special effect of barakat lies."

(Muslim)

Commentary: What it denotes is that food is a gift of the Lord and due regard should be paid to every particle of it. No one knows which part of it is specially endued with barakat or auspiciousness. What is left over in the plate or adheres to the fingers during eating should, also, be eaten, considering it to be a Divine blessing. It is symbolic of one's gratitude to the Almighty as well as neediness. As the Prophet Musa عليه السلام had said:

رَبِّ إِنِّي لَمَّا أَنْزَلْتَ إِلَيَّ مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَقِيرٌ (القصص ٢٨: ٢٤)

My Lord! I am needy for whatever good Thou sendest down for me. (Al Qasas 28:24)

(١٦١٨/٢٥٣) عَنْ نُبَيْشَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أَكَلَ

فِي قِصْعَةٍ فَلَجَسَهَا اسْتَغْفَرَتْ لَهُ الْقِصْعَةُ. (رواه احمد والترمذي والدارمي وابن ماجه)
(1618/253) It is related by Nubaishah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever eats from a vessel and makes it wholly clean (so that nothing is left sticking to it), the vessel supplicates for forgiveness on his behalf."

(Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, Ibn Majah, and Daarami)

The Morsel That Drops From The Hands Should Also, Be Eaten

(١٦١٩/٢٥٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَحْضُرُ أَحَدَكُمْ عِنْدَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مِنْ شَأْنِهِ حَتَّى يَحْضُرَهُ عِنْدَ طَعَامِهِ فَإِذَا سَقَطَتْ مِنْ أَحَدِكُمْ اللَّقْمَةُ فَلْيُمِطْ مَا كَانَ بِهَا مِنْ أَدَى ثُمَّ لِيَا كُلُّهَا وَلَا يَدْعُهَا لِلشَّيْطَانِ فَإِذَا فَرَغَ فَلْيَلْعَقْ أَصَابِعَهُ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَدْرِي فِي أَيِّ طَعَامِهِ يَكُونُ الْبَرَكَةُ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1619/254) Jabir رضي الله عنه related that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "The Devil is alongside of you whatever you may be doing, even while you are eating. So, if a morsel drops down from the hand of anyone (at the time of eating), he should make it clean and eat it, and not leave it for the Devil. Moreover, when he finishes, he should lick the fingers for he does not know what particle of the food is endued with barakat." (Muslim)

Commentary: In its concluding part, it is stated that the fingers should be cleaned after eating by passing the tongue over them which we have, already, explained. At the beginning, the above Tradition tells that if a morsel of food falls down from the hand of anyone, while eating, he should not leave it alone like a rich and conceited person, but as a needy and grateful bondsman, he should pick it up, clean it, and, then, eat it. We, further, learn from it that when a fallen morsel is discarded it goes to the share of the Devil.

Note: The Angels and the Devils are the Lord's creatures that are often with us though we do not see them. What the sacred Prophet ﷺ has told about them is based upon the knowledge vouchsafed to him by Allah, and there can, certainly, be no doubt about its veracity and correctness. As the afore-mentioned narrative tells, the Holy Prophet ﷺ, sometimes, actually saw them as we do the physical objects around us. It would, therefore, be a folly to imagine about the report in which it is stated, for example, that the Devils are present at the time of eating, or they join in the meal over which the name of Allah has not been taken, or the morsel of food that drops from the hand during a meal goes to his share that these are mererly of an allegorical character.

Commenting on the above Tradition, in Hujjat, Shah Waliullah has narrated the following incident from his own experience. He says that once a friend, pupil or disciple who had come to visit him was eating at his house that a morsel of food dropped from his hand and rolled on the ground. He tried to pick it up, but the morsel moved away, and, as he followed it, it went farther, to the utter surprise of everyone. The person, at last, managed to catch hold of the morsel and eat it.

A few days later, a satanic jinn set himself over a man and began to speak through him. Among other things, he, also, mentioned the name of Shah Waliullah's friend and said that he had gone to him while he was taking food and wanted to eat it, but he did not give it to him. Upon it, he snatched a morsel from his hand and made it fall on the ground, but he, also, took it away from him.

Another incident Shah Waliullah has cited in the same context is that once while his family members were eating carrots, a carrot fell down, and one of them quickly picked it up and ate it. Soon afterwards, he was seized with a severe pain in the chest and the abdomen, and, then, a devil or jinn possessed him and complained, through him, that the man had eaten his carrot.

After narrating these experiences, Shah Waliullah observed 'I have, also, heard numerous incidents of this kind and feel convinced that the Traditions (relating to the participation and other activities of the Devils in food and drink) do not belong to the realm of the figurative and the metaphysical, but what has been told in them is a fact and an actual event."

If a fly Drops In A Meal

(١٦٢٠/٢٥٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا

وَقَعَ الذُّبَابُ فِي إِنَاءٍ أَحَدِكُمْ فَاْمُقْلُوهُ فَإِنَّ فِي أَحَدِ جَنَاحَيْهِ دَاءٌ وَفِي الْآخَرِ شِفَاءٌ

فَأَنَّهُ يَتَّقِي بِجَنَاحِهِ الَّذِي فِيهِ الدَّاءُ فَلْيَغْمِسْهُ كُلَّهُ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1620/255) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When a fly drops into the vessel from which you are eating or drinking, you should take it out after giving it dipped because out of its two wings, there is disease, i.e., disease-producing matter in one, and cure, i.e., healing substance in the other, and it shields itself with the wing that contains the disease-producing mater. [When it falls, it falls on the side of that wing and tries to protect the other]. Whoever of you is eating should, thus, take out the fly after dipping it (in the food)." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is among the Traditions which, in the modern times, put the faith of many people to test though if one were to ponder a little over the laws and mysteries of nature, there would appear nothing in them that was not believable.

Like many insects, the fly, too, possesses some poisonous substance which is injurious to health, and all living beings, in addition, have a natural self-protecting tendency to throw out towards the external organs the toxins that are produced within them. It is, therefore, quite conceivable that the inward mechanism of a fly transfers the poisonous matter inside its body to the wing which is an external organ, and, out of the two wings, to the left which is weaker and less useful, as our left which is weaker and less useful, as our left arm is as compared to the right.

Again, in the event of danger, all animals, instinctively, try to protect the limb which is more vital to them. Hence, it is not strange if a fly, too, seeks to protect the wing which is comparatively free from poison and superior to the other one.

Those who have studied closely the operation of the Divine Will in the scheme of creation will, further, agree that where the essential elements of illness are found, the essential elements of cure, too, are generally, present. They, often, go together. It is, thus, quite natural that if there is a poisonous substance in one wing of a fly, its anti-dote is present in the other. The advice of the holy Prophet ﷺ, consequently, will appear to be in keeping with the Law of Nature.

Like many other Traditions, it, in fact, is related to hygiene, and, hence, one can say that it is not religiously binding to follow the guidance contained in it.

The above remarks have been adopted from Shah Waliullah's Hujjatillahil Baligha.

The Prophet's Attitude of Humbleness While Taking A Meal

(١٦٢١/٢٥٦) عَنْ أَبِي جُحَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا أَكُلُ مُتَكِنًا

(رواه البخارى)

(1621/256) it is related by Abu Juhayfah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I do not sit in a recumbent position or with my back resting on anything while taking my food." (Bukhari)

Commentary: To sit at a meal in a reclining position is a sign of vanity. The purpose of the above Tradition is that the holy Prophet ﷺ did not lean on a pillow etc., while having his meals. He was a bondsman of the Lord and ate like a bondsman.

A saying of the Prophet ﷺ related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and quoted in Kanzul 'Ummal from Musnad Abu Y'ala and Ibn Sa'd, reads:

"I eat like a slave and a bondsman, and sit like a slave and bondsman."

أَكُلُ كَمَا يَأْكُلُ الْعَبْدُ وَاجْلِسُ كَمَا يَجْلِسُ الْعَبْدُ.

Traditions of an identical nature have been related by some other companions as well, and the substance of all these is that the Prophet ﷺ ate his meals like an humble slave, and not a concieted person, and taught others, too, to behave in that manner. Anyone who is not neglectful of the fact that food is a blessing of the Lord, who is present every where at once and knows all things, will, naturally, not sit or eat like a vain and swollen-headed person.

(١٦٢٢/٢٥٧) عَنْ قَتَادَةَ عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَا أَكَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى خِوَانٍ وَلَا فِي سَكْرَجَةٍ وَلَا خَبْزَلَهُ مَرْفَقٍ..... قِيلَ لِقَتَادَةَ عَلَى مَا يَأْكُلُونَ قَالَ عَلَى السُّفْرِ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1622/257) Narrated Qatadah (a Taba'ee) on the authority of Sayyidina Anas ؓ, the attendant of the Prophet ﷺ, that "the Prophet ﷺ never took a meal at a *Khwan*¹, nor did he ever eat from a small cup or dish, nor was a *chappati*² cooked for him, at any time." "On what did he (and his Companion), then, take their food?" Qatadah was asked. "On a sheet of cloth," he replied.

(Bukhari)

Commentary: In ancient Arabia, it was cosidered a mark of distinction to have one's food seated at a khwan, and to eat on the floor with a mat or sheet of cloth laid out on it was the way of the common people. Similarly, small cups and dishes were used by the rich. These things, in fact, had become common in Muslim homes, too, towards the end of the era of the holy Companions ؓ.

What it aims to tell, briefly, is that the holy Prophet ﷺ ate very simply and his meals were wholly in keeping with the attributes of austerity and humbleness that were so characteristic of him. He never dined at a khwan or from small bowls and dishes, nor were chappatis ever prepared, specially, for him.

In the Traditions discussed ealier, we have seen how ruggedly simple and austere was the life led by the holy Prophet ﷺ, in all its aspects.

①. Meaning a low wooden frame with a flat top on which meals are laid out.

②. A thin cake of unleavened dough, regarded to be a delicacy among various kinds of bread.

Forbidding The Use of Gold or Silver Vessels

(١٦٢٣/٢٥٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنِ الْأَكْلِ وَالشُّرْبِ فِي إِنَاءِ الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ.
(رواه النسائي)

(1623/258) Anas رضي الله عنه related to us, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade taking food from vessels made of gold and silver.

(Nasai)

Commentary: To eat from gold or silver vessels is to make an unnecessary display of one's wealth or rank, and, this is why, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has forbidden it to his followers.

In another Tradition, quoted in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim, it is told that "whoever eats from vessels of gold or silver, so to say, takes the fire of Hell into his stomach."

The Prophet ﷺ Never Found Fault With Food

(١٦٢٤/٢٥٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ مَا غَابَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَعَامًا قَطُّ إِنْ اشْتَهَاهُ أَكَلَهُ وَإِنْ كَرِهَهُ تَرَكَهُ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1624/259) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ never found fault with food. If he liked anything, he ate it, and if he did not, he left it.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

The Prophet's Favourite Dishes

(١٦٢٥/٢٦٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ خِيَاطًا دَعَا النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِطَعَامٍ صَنَعَهُ فَذَهَبَتْ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَرَّبَ خُبْزَ شَعِيرٍ وَمَرَقًا فِيهِ دُبَّاءٌ وَقَدِيدٌ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتْبَعُ الدُّبَّاءَ مِنْ حَوَالِي الْقَصْعَةِ فَلَمْ أَرَلْ أَحَبُّ الدُّبَّاءَ بَعْدَ يَوْمِئِذٍ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1625/260) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه relates that (once) a tailor invited the Prophet ﷺ to dine with him, I, also, went with him. The tailor offered barely-bread and broth containing pieces of gourd and dried meat. I noticed that the Prophet ﷺ was picking pieces of gourd from the bowl and eating them. From that day, I, too, began to eat gourd with relish.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٦٢٦/٢٦١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ يَأْكُلُ الرُّطَبَ بِالْقِنَاءِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1626/261) Narrated Abdullah ibn Jabar رضي الله عنه, "I have seen the Messenger of Allah ﷺ eating ripe dates with cucumber."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٦٢٧/٢٦٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَأْكُلُ الْبَيْضَ

بِالرُّطَبِ وَيَقُولُ يَكْسِرُ حَرُّ هَذَا بَرْدَ هَذَا وَبَرْدُ هَذَا لِحَرِّ هَذَا. (رواه ابو داود)

(1627/262) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها relates that the Prophet ﷺ used to eat melons with ripe dates. he said that the coldness of the melons removed the effects of the heat of the dates, and the heat of the dates removed the effects of the coldness of the melons.

(Abu Dawood)

(١٦٢٨/٢٦٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ أَحَبَّ الطَّعَامِ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الثَّرِيدُ مِنَ الْخُبْزِ وَالثَّرِيدُ مِنَ الْحَمِيسِ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1628/263) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was found of eating Sareed (made with bread and broth of mutton), and Sareed of *Malidah*¹ (made with bread, dates and ghee)."

(Abu Dawood)

(١٦٢٩/٢٦٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُحِبُّ

الْحُلُوءَ وَالْعَسَلَ. (رواه البخارى)

(1629/264) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ liked (to eat) sweets, (specially), honey."

(Bukhari)

Praising The Lord And Expressing Gratitude To Him After A Meal

(١٦٣٠/٢٦٥) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

تَعَالَى لَيَرْضَى عَنِ الْعَبْدِ أَنْ يَأْكُلَ الْأَكْلَةَ فَيُحْمَدُهُ عَلَيْهَا أَوْ يَشْرَبَ الشَّرْبَةَ

فَيُحْمَدُهُ عَلَيْهَا. (رواه مسلم)

(1630/265) It is related by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Allah is greatly pleased with the act of the bondsman who, when he eats anything, praises and gives thanks to Him, and when he drinks anything, praises and give thanks to Him." (Muslim) (١٦٣١/٢٦٦) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَرَعَ مِنْ طَعَامِهِ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَجَعَلَنَا مُسْلِمِينَ.

①. Sweetmeat prepared with flour, ghee, sugar etc.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1631/266) It is related by Saeed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ that at the end of meal, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to make this supplication praise and thanks giving to the Lord:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَجَعَلَنَا مُسْلِمِينَ

Praise be to Allah who fed us, and gave us drink, and raised us up as Muslims." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Forbidding Drinking in One Breath

(١٦٣٢/٢٦٧) عَنْ إِبْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَشْرَبُوا وَاحِدًا كَشَرْبِ الْبَعِيرِ وَلَكِنْ اشْرَبُوا مَثْنَى وَتِلْكَ وَسْمُو إِذَا أَنْتُمْ شَرِبْتُمْ وَاحْمِدُوا إِذَا أَنْتُمْ رَفَعْتُمْ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1632/67) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not drink in one breath like a camel, but in two or three breaths, and say Bismillah when you begin to drink, and praise the Lord, and give thanks to Him when you finish and remove the vessel from the mouth." (Tirmizi)

(١٦٣٣/٢٦٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَنَفَّسُ فِي الشَّرَابِ ثَلَاثًا.
(رواه البخاری و مسلم)

وزاد مسلم يَقُولُ إِنَّهُ أَرَوَى وَأَبْرَأُ وَأَمْرًا.

(1633/268) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ related "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to take three breaths when he drank." (Bukhari)

(In another version of this Tradition, quoted in Sahih Muslim, It is added that the Prophet ﷺ said that "to drink in this way is more satisfying, healthful and pleasing to the stomach)."

Commentary: Apparently, to drink in two or three gulps is based on medical grounds, and it is not sinful to drink in one gulp.

Forbidding Breathing Into The Vessel From Which One is Drinking

(١٦٣٤/٢٦٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ

يُتَنَفَّسَ فِي الْإِنَاءِ أَوْ يُنْفَخَ فِيهِ. (رواه ابو داود و ابن ماجه)

(1634/269) Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه related "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade breathing or blowing air from the mouth into the drinking vessel." (Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Some people have the habit of breathing into the vessel from which they are drinking. It has been forbidden in this Tradition, as well as the blowing of air from the mouth. It is not only indecent, but, also, injurious to health.

Forbidding Drinking in The Standing Posture

(١٦٣٥/٢٧٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ نَهَى أَنْ يُشْرَبَ

الرَّجُلُ قَائِمًا. (رواه مسلم)

(1635/270) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه related to us, saying that Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade drinking in the standing position." (Muslim)

Commentary: In some other Traditions, too, it is forbidden to drink in the standing position, but Abdullah ibn Umar, Abdullah ibn 'Amr and few other Companions رضي الله عنهم have stated that they had seen the holy Prophet ﷺ drink while standing. Taking into account the various reports in this connection, it appears that to drink in the standing position was undesirable, and the general practice of the sacred Prophet ﷺ was that he sat down when he drank. But, sometimes, he had, also, taken a drink in the standing position which could be due to some special reason or that he wanted to show, by his own example, that it, too, was allowed.

As we have seen earlier, the holy Prophet ﷺ, occasionally, acted contrary to what was preferable in order to demonstrate that it, too, was permitted, and since it was done for the purpose of instruction, it was the better and more proper thing for him to do at that time.

DRESS

Foremost, the teachings of the Holy Prophet with regard to clothes are derived from the following verse of Surah Al-A'raf.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا اٰدَمُ قَدْ اَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ لِبَاسًا يُّوَارِي سَوْآتِكَمْ وَرِيشًا ط وَلِبَاسًا التَّقْوٰى
(الاعراف ٢٦:٤) ذٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ

O Children of Adam! We have bestowed raiment upon you to cover your shame, as well as to be an adornment to you, but the raiment of righteousness, that is best. (Al A'raf 7:26)

Two particular advantages of dress are mentioned in the above verse.

One, it conceals the "shame", i.e., the parts of the body that should not be seen by others; and,

Two, it is an adornment, i.e., gives a proper and seemly appearance to man and he does not have to move about naked like the animals.

At the end, it is told that the dress which, in truth, is good, in the judgement of the Lord, is the one that conforms to the principles of piety and restraint from evil and does not go beyond the limits set by Divine Commandments. All the clothes fulfilling this basic condition are befitting and suitable and their use with gratitude is a means to the attainment of Divine good pleasure.

As we consider the sayings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and his regular practice, we feel that the underlying principle of his advice and instruction regarding dress is that it should serve the purpose of hiding nakedness and make a person look good and respectable. It must neither be so short or indecent as to fail in the primary object of covering nakedness nor so dirty, odd and inelegant that instead of being an adornment, one appeared clumsy, uncouth and repulsive in it. At the same time, clothes should not be unnecessarily expensive or intended to impress others with one's wealth or importance which was inconsistent with the spirit of humility, and unworthy of a true bondsman of the Lord. Men, thus, are not permitted to wear silk. Like ornaments of gold and silver, silken clothes, too, are meant, exclusively for women. Again, men should not cultivate a resemblance with women by putting on their apparel, nor women do an injustice to their femininity by dressing themselves like men.

The sacred Prophet ﷺ, further, has advised that those on whom there is the favour of the Lord should live and clothe themselves in a way that may be reflective of it. It, too, is a form of thanksgiving. But they must not be vain and wasteful, and avoid extravagance and ostentation that can be hurtful to the less fortunate brethren. They should regard their clothes a blessing of Allah and wear them with a feeling of gratitude. The use of every dress will, then, become an act of worship.

Clothes Are A Blessing of The Lord

(١٦٣٦/٢٧١) عَنْ أَبِي مَطَرٍ أَنَّ عَلِيًّا اشْتَرَى ثَوْبًا بِثَلَاثَةِ دَرَاهِمٍ فَلَمَّا لَبَسَهُ قَالَ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي رَزَقَنِي مِنَ الرِّيَاشِ مَا اتَّجَمَلُ بِهِ فِي النَّاسِ أُوَارِي بِهِ عَوْرَتِي
ثُمَّ قَالَ هَكَذَا سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ. (رواه احمد)

(1636/271) It is related by Abu Matar (a Taba'ee), Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام purchased a dress for three dirhams, and when he wore it, he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي رَزَقَنِي مِنَ الرِّيَاشِ مَا اتَّجَمَلُ بِهِ فِي النَّاسِ أُوَارِي بِهِ عَوْرَتِي
'Praise be to Allah who bestowed this raiment upon me, and by which I adorn myself among the people, and conceal my nakedness.' He then remarked 'I have heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ praise the Lord and give thanks to Him in this way and in these words (when he put on a dress).' (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: An almost similar report has been quoted in Tirmizi, on the authority of Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام, and it is from these and many other narratives that we learn that clothes are a special blessing of the Lord for which we ought to be grateful to Him, and, also, that their main purpose is the hiding of nakedness, and adornment.

Forbidding A Dress That Does Not Cover The Body Properly or is Unfit In Any Other Way

(١٦٣٧/٢٧٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَأْكُلَ الرَّجُلُ بِشِمَالِهِ أَوْ أَنْ يَمْشِيَ فِي نَعْلٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَأَنْ يَشْتَمِلَ الصَّمَاءَ أَوْ يُحْتَبِيَ فِي ثَوْبٍ وَاحِدٍ كَاشِفًا عَنْ قُرْجِهِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1637/272) It is related by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade that a man eat with the left hand or walk with the shoe only on one foot; and he, also, forbade that a man wrap himself up in a mantle which enfolded him on all sides or sat on his haunches with the knees erect and covered with a sheet in a way that left the *satr*¹ bare." (Muslim)

Commentary: Various styles in dress were in vogue among the Arabs in olden days. One of them, for instance, was that a sheet was wrapped around the body in such a manner that the whole body was shut in, from all sides, so much so that even the hands could not be taken out. It was called Ishtimal Samma'a, and has been forbidden in this Tradition because it was a shapeless and ungainly method of clothing oneself and made a man a prisoner of his dress. Another way was that a man sat on his rump, with the knees upright, and covered his waist and calves with a sheet. It was called Ihtiba'a, and was forbidden as it did not cover the satr properly and the lower parts of the body remained exposed. Similarly, to wear the shoe on one foot and leave the other bare has been forbidden owing to its patent absurdity and awkwardness. It would, of course, be different if there was a valid reason for it, such as, a wound or injury in the other foot.

Forbidding An Excessively Thin Dress To Women

(١٦٣٨/٢٧٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ دَخَلَتْ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلَيْهَا ثِيَابٌ رِقَاقٍ فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا وَقَالَ يَا أَسْمَاءُ إِنَّ الْمَرْأَةَ إِذَا بَلَغَتِ الْمَحِيضَ لَنْ يَصْلَحَ أَنْ يَرَى مِنْهَا إِلَّا هَذَا وَهَذَا وَأَشَارَ إِلَى

①. Literally, 'nakedness'. In men, it signifies the parts of the body from the navel to the calves, and, in women, the whole of the body excluding face, hands and feet.

وَجْهَهُ وَكَفَّيْهِ. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1638/273) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated "Once my sister, (Asma), went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ wearing a thin dress upon which he turned his face away from her, and, said: "O Asma! When a woman attains puberty, it is not proper for any part of her body to be visible except the face and hands."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that ladies are not allowed to wear a dress through which the body can be seen. The face and the hands can, indeed, be left uncovered.

It needs be remembered that, in this Tradition, the commandment of satr for women has been set forth. The commandment regarding hijab is different which lays down that women should not go out unnecessarily, and when they may have to do so, they should wear a veil or cloak. The commands of satr and hijab are two separate commands and the spheres of their operation, too, are different though some persons are prone to confuse them with one another.

The incident in it had, perhaps, taken place before the commandment concerning hijab was revealed because, after it, Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها could not have appeared before the holy Prophet ﷺ in that manner.

Imam Maalik has quoted, in Muwatta, another incident related, also, by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. It is stated that once her niece, Hafsa, the daughter of Abdul Rahman ibn Abu Bakr, came to her wearing a very thin covering for her head. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها took it off, and tore it, and gave her another sheet of a thicker fibre to use. This act of Ayshah رضى الله عنها, evidently, was the result of the education she had recieved at the hands of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

A Thin Dress, Also, is Permitted To Women With Certain Conditions

(١٦٣٩/٢٧٤) عَنْ دُحْيَةَ بِنِ خَلِيفَةَ قَالَ أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بُقْبَاطِيَّ فَأَعْطَانِي مِنْهَا قُبْطِيَّةً فَقَالَ إِصْدِ عَنْهَا صَدْعَيْنِ فَأَقْطَعْ أَحَدَهُمَا قِمِصًا وَأَعْطِ الْآخَرَ إِمْرَأَتَكَ تَخْمَرُ بِهِ فَلَمَّا أَذْبَرُ قَالَ وَأَمْرُ امْرَأَتِكَ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ تَحْتَهُ

(رواه ابو داؤد)

ثَوْبًا لَا يَصِفُهَا.

(1639/274) Narrated Dihyah ibn Khalifah رضي الله عنه that (once) as some Qubti sheets came to the Prophet ﷺ (as a gift), he gave one to me, saying: "Divide it into two parts. Use one part for making a *kurta*¹ for yourself, and give the other to your wife to use as head covering." Then, as I was about to leave, he added: "Tell your wife to apply another piece of cloth under it (to serve as a lining) so that her hair and body are not visible (to others)."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In those days, white sheets made from a fine fibre used to be brought from Egypt. These were called *Qubaati*². A few of these sheets were, once, sent by someone to the holy Prophet ﷺ as a present. He gave one of them to Dihyah Kalbi, telling him to divide it into two parts, and use one part to make a shirt for himself and give the other to his wife to wear as a head covering. But since it was very thin, the sacred Prophet ﷺ advised Dihyah Kalbi to tell her to cover its inside surface with another cloth to make sure that her body or hair were not seen by others.

It shows that dresses made of a thin fabric were permitted to women provided that these were worn with a lining and did not remain transparent.

Ostentation in Dress

(١٦٤٠/٢٧٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

لَبَسَ ثَوْبَ شُهْرَةٍ فِي الدُّنْيَا أَلْبَسَهُ اللَّهُ ثَوْبَ مَذَلَّةٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.

(رواه احمد و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1640/275) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever will wear a dress of display or fame in the world, Allah will make him wear the dress of ignominy in the Hereafter.

(Abu Dawood, Musnad Ahmad and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It denotes an apparel that may be worn to make an impression on others by exhibiting one's wealth or superiority. It, naturally, applies, also, to people who wear headgears or robes are peculiar to theologians or spiritual mentors and try to show themselves off as men of piety and learning. It all, in the final

①. Meaning a shirt

②. Plural of Qubti

analysis, depends on the intention, and if a person attires himself with the object of making a display of his wealth or importance, it will be sinful and the above Tradition will be applicable to him, while if the same garment is used by him without such an aim or purpose, it will not only be unlawful, but, also, a means of earning the countenance of the Lord, in certain situations.

Besides, as we do not know what lies in the hearts, it will be wrong for us to criticise anyone on the assumption that his clothes are intended for ostentatious display.

What is more important, however, is that we keep an eye on our own intention and on the clothing we use, and, this, indeed, is the main object of warning contained in the above narrative.

Vanity

The proud and the arrogant among the Arabs, in the days of the holy Prophet ﷺ, had a way of being wasteful in dress, and it was considered a mark of distinction and nobility. If they put a Tahbund, they kept it so long that it rubbed against the ground as they walked, and a similar tendency was evident in other clothes too, like a shirt or tiara. It fed their vanity and made them look big and important. The sacred Prophet ﷺ has condemned it strongly and given a severe warning to those who do so.

(١٦٤١/٢٧٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ جَرَّ ثَوْبَهُ خِيَلَاءَ لَمْ يَنْظُرِ اللَّهُ إِلَيْهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1641/276) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever will keep his dress unduly long owing to pride or vainglory, Allah will not even look towards him on the Day of Last Judgement." (Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٦٤٢/٢٧٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِرْزَةُ الْمُؤْمِنِ إِلَى أَنْصَافِ سَاقَيْهِ لَا جَنَاحَ عَلَيْهِ فِيمَا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْكَعْبَيْنِ وَمَا أَسْفَلَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ فِي النَّارِ قَالَ ذَلِكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِلَى مَنْ جَرَّ إِزَارَهُ بَطْرًا.
(رواه ابو داود وابن ماجه)

(1642/277) Abu Saeed Khudri ؓ related that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "The (best) way for a faithful Believer to wear the lower dress is that it extends up to the middle of the calves, and it, also, is not sinful if it extends up to the ankles, but in case it is lower (than that) then he is in Hell i.e., he is going to end up there in the Hereafter." The narrator tells that the Prophet ﷺ said it thrice, and, then, remarked: "Allah will not even look at him, (on the Day of Resurrection) who will walk dragging his trousers along the ground on account of conceit." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In the two aforementioned Traditions a dreadful admonition has been administered to those who show undue pride through their clothes. On the Day of Final Requit, when everyone will be pathetically aspiring for a benevolent glance from the All-Merciful, and in dire need of it, the Lord will not even care to look at such men.

Abu Saeed Khudri's report, further, tells that the right thing for a truthful Believer is that his lower garment does not reach below the middle of the calves, and it is, also, permissible if it goes down up to the ankles. It must anyhow, not be lower which is a grave sin and the chastisement of Hell await the erring bondsman who behaves like that. The warning, nevertheless, will hold good only when it is done out of haughtiness and vainglory as the next Tradition candidly shows.

(١٦٤٣/٢٧٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ جَرَّ ثَوْبَهُ خِيَلًا لَمْ يَنْظُرِ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِذَا رَأَى يَسْتَرْجِي إِلَّا أَنْ اتَّعَاهَدَهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّكَ لَسْتَ بِمَنْ يَفْعَلُهُ خِيَلًا. (رواه البخارى)

(1643/278) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Whoever will lower his garment much because of vanity, Allah will not look at him on the Day of Reckoning." The narrator adds that, on hearing it, Abu Bakr ﷺ said: "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! My lower garment hangs down if I am not careful [about it]." "You are not of those who do so out of self-conceit," observed the Prophet ﷺ. (Bukhari)

Commentary: It, distinctly, shows that there is no sin if the tahbund or *paijama*¹ of anyone reaches below the ankles without his knowing it. The authorities have held that it is forbidden to keep one's lower garment or trousers lower than the ankles due to pride, while if it is done simply out of fashion or habit, it is undesirable, and if it is unintentional then no blame attaches to the wearer and he will not be called to account for it on the Last Day.

Forbidding Gold And Silk to Men

(١٦٤٤/٢٧٩) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ
أَحِلُّ الذَّهَبُ وَالْحَرِيرُ لِلنِّسَاءِ مِنْ أُمَّتِي وَحُرِّمَ عَلَى ذُكُورِهَا.

(رواه الترمذی والنسائی)

(1644/279) It is related by Abu Musa Ash'ari ؓ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Gold and clothes of silk are allowed to the women of the community of my followers, and forbidden to men." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: As we learn from other Traditions, it is the clothes that are made from silk, or in which this fibre is predominant that are forbidden to men, otherwise they are allowed to wear dresses made from all other fabrics including the garment which, without being silken is embroidered with silk or has a silken border.

Forbidding Bright Red Colour to Men

(١٦٤٥/٢٨٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ مَرَّ رَجُلٌ وَعَلَيْهِ ثَوْبَانِ أَحْمَرَانِ

فَسَلَّمَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ يَرُدَّ عَلَيْهِ. (رواه الترمذی وابو داؤد)

(1645/280) Narrated Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas ؓ that (once) the Prophet ﷺ was sitting that a man happened to pass by who was wearing both the clothes of a bright red colour. He made the salutation to the Prophet ﷺ but he did not return the greetings." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Commentators have explained that the clothes of the person concerned were of a bright red colour which were not proper for men to wear, and the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not acknowledge his greeting to express his displeasure. It is on this ground that some authorities have held that it is prohibited for men to wear clothes of a bright red colour while others are of the view that it is undesirable.

①. Trouser or long drawers.

Anyway, the disinclination of the sacred Prophet ﷺ to acknowledge the salutation is enough to show how greatly displeased he felt on seeing such a dress.

Men Should Not Dress Like Women, Nor Women Like Men

(١٦٤٦/٢٨١) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُتَشَبِّهِينَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ بِالنِّسَاءِ وَالْمُتَشَبِّهَاتِ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ بِالرِّجَالِ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1646/281) Narrated Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ cursed men who effect a likeness with women (in dress, manners, deportment etc.), and women who effect a likeness with men.

(Bukhari)

Commentary: In it, dress has not been mentioned specifically, and likeness, as a whole, has been condemned. The most obvious form of it, however, is that men dressed themselves up as women, and women as men, and, thus, made a mockery of their sex.

In the next Tradition, clothing has been specified by name.

(١٦٤٧/٢٨٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الرَّجُلَ يَلْبَسُ لِبْسَةَ الْمَرْأَةِ وَالْمَرْأَةَ تَلْبَسُ لِبْسَةَ الرَّجُلِ.

(رواه ابو داود)

(1647/282) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ cursed men who wore the clothes of women, and women who wore the clothes of men."

(Abu Dawood)

White Clothes Are Preferable For Men

(١٦٤٨/٢٨٣) عَنْ سَمُرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ البَسُوا الْبَيْضَ الْبَيْضَ فَإِنَّهَا أَطْهَرُ وَأَطْيَبُ وَكَفَيْنَا فِيهَا مَوْتَانَاكُمْ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى والنسائى وابن ماجه)

(1648/283) It is related by Samurah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Wear white clothes: these are neat, clean and good; and clothe your dead with a white sheet (for burial)."

(Tirmizi, Nasai, Musnad Ahmad Ibn Majah)

(١٦٤٩/٢٨٤) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ

أَحْسَنَ مَا زُرْتُمُ اللَّهَ فِي قُبُورِكُمْ وَمَسَاجِدِكُمُ الْيَاسُ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1649/284) Abu Darda رضي الله عنه related us, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The best colour for meeting the Lord in your graves and in your mosques is pure white." (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: What it denotes is that it was better that when a person appeared before the Almighty, in his grave, he was covered with a white shorud. And when he appeared before Him in the mosque, he was dressed in white clothes.

According to many other reports, however, the Prophet ﷺ, sometimes, wore clothes of different colours, such as, green, light blue and yellow. He, also, used to put on a sheet with red stripes, and a black tiara. The afore-mentioned observation, thus, is by way of an advice and not a command. It also, is, meant only for men while coloured garments have been preferred for women as is evident from the practice of the pious wives of the holy Prophet ﷺ as well.

It is Not Proper For The Well-To-Do To Live Miserably

(١٦٣٠/٢٨٥) عَنْ أَبِي الْأَخْوَصِ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ آتَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلَى ثَوْبٍ ذُوْنٌ فَقَالَ لِي الْكَ مَالٌ؟ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ مِنْ أَيِّ الْمَالِ؟

قُلْتُ مِنْ كُلِّ الْمَالِ قَدْ أَعْطَانِي اللَّهُ مِنَ الْإِبِلِ وَالْبَقَرِ وَالْغَنَمِ وَالْخَيْلِ وَالرَّقِيقِ

قَالَ فَإِذَا اتَّكَ اللَّهُ مَا لَا قَلْبِي أَرَى أَثَرَ نِعْمَةِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكَ وَكَرَامَتِهِ.

(رواه احمد والنسائي)

(1650/285) It is related by Abul Ahwas (a Taba'ee), on the authority of his father, (Maalik ibn Fazlah رضي الله عنه), who said: "(Once), as I went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, I was wearing clothes of very inferior quality. On seeing me, he enquired: 'Do you possess some wealth?' 'Yes', I replied. '(Allah has been kind to me)'. 'What sort of wealth do you have?' he asked. 'Allah has favoured me with every kind of wealth. I have camels, cows, bullocks, goats and sheep, and I have horses and slaves: 'When Allah has bestowed wealth upon you, the effects of His benevolence should, also, be seen on you, i.e., from the way you live."

(Musnad Ahmad and Nasai)

(١٦٥١/٢٨٦) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ أَنْ يُرَى أَثَرُ نِعْمَتِهِ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ. (رواه الترمذی) (1651/286) Amr ibn Shu'ayb related to us, saying his father, Shu'ayb, told him, on the authority of his grandfather, Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is pleasing to Allah that if there is His favour on anyone, its effects should be visible on him." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Just some people wear expensive clothes for fashion's sake or to make a display of their wealth or superiority, some miserly persons live wretchedly out of stinginess or bad taste, though they are well off. The Traditions we have just seen contain the exhortation for these niggardly people that if there was the favour of the Lord on anyone, it should be reflected in his way of living. It, too, is a form of giving thanks to Allah.

Live Well Without Being Vain And Wasteful

(١٦٥٢/٢٨٧) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّوا وَاشْرَبُوا وَتَصَدَّقُوا وَابْتَسُوا مَا لَمْ يُخَالِطْ إِسْرَافًا وَلَا مَخِيلَةً. (رواه احمد والنسائی وابن ماجه)

(1652/287) Amr ibn Shu'ayb related to us, saying his father, Shu'ayb, told him, on the authority of his grandfather, Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضی اللہ عنہ, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is allowed to eat well, spend on others in charity, have clothes made for yourselves and wear them provided there is no wastefulness and vanity in your heart."

(Musnad Ahmad, Nasai, and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: There need be no misunderstanding about what has been said in it regarding food, dress etc. It is perfectly legitimate for a person to eat and drink what he likes and wear clothes of his choice, of course with the stipulation that it does not touch the limits of extravagance and self-conceit.

Imam Bukhari, also, has quoted the following narrative of Abdullah ibn Abbas:

”كُلْ مَا شِئْتَ وَالْبَسْ مَا شِئْتَ مَا أَخْطَأَتْكَ إِثْنَانِ سَرْقٌ وَمَخِيلَةٌ.

"Eat what you like, and wear what you like provided that it is free from two things: extravagance and vainglory."

Do Not Look Clumsy Or Awkward

(١٦٥٣/٢٨٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ أَتَانَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زَائِرًا فَرَأَى رَجُلًا شَعْنًا قَدْ تَفَرَّقَ شَعْرُهُ فَقَالَ مَا كَانَ يَجِدُ هَذَا مَا يَسْكُنُ بِهِ رَأْسَهُ وَرَأَى رَجُلًا عَلَيْهِ ثِيَابٌ وَسِخَةٌ فَقَالَ مَا كَانَ يَجِدُ هَذَا مَا يَغْسِلُ بِهِ ثَوْبَهُ؟

(رواه احمد والنسائي)

(1653/288) Narrated Jابر رضي الله عنه, "(One day), as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ visited me, he saw an uncouth person whose hair were dishevelled. He remarked: 'Could he not find anything to dress his hair?' On the same occasion, he saw another person who was wearing very dirty clothes, and, upon it, he remarked: 'Could he not find anything to wash his clothes?'" (Musnad Ahmad and Nasai)

Keeping The Hair Neat And Tidy

(١٦٥٣/٢٨٩) عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَدَخَلَ رَجُلٌ ثَائِرُ الرَّأْسِ وَاللَّحْيَةِ فَأَشَارَ إِلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِيَدِهِ كَأَنَّهُ يَأْمُرُهُ بِاصْلَاحِ شَعْرِهِ وَلِحْيَتِهِ فَقَعَلَ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَيْسَ هَذَا خَيْرًا مِنْ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ أَحَدُكُمْ وَهُوَ ثَائِرُ الرَّأْسِ كَأَنَّهُ شَيْطَانٌ.

(رواه مالك)

(1653/289) 'Ata ibn Yassar رضي الله عنه related that one day the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was sitting in the Mosque, a person came whose hair (both) of the head and the beard were most untidy and disarranged. The Prophet ﷺ made a sign to him with his hand, indicating that he should go and have the hair of his head and beard trimmed. The man did as told, and when he returned, the Prophet ﷺ observed: "Was it not better for you (that you went out and had the hair made neat and orderly) than that anyone of you came with his hair dishevelled and looking (wild), as if he was the Devil?" (Malik)

Commentary: These Traditions candidly refute the notion that is quite popular among some of the ascetics that earnest bondsmen of the Lord should pay little attention to their appearance, and to be neat and properly dressed was a sign of worldliness. Such people, are sadly uninformed, and they know nothing of true spirit and reality of the teachings of the holy Prophet ﷺ and the Shari'ah he brought. Excessive care for one's dress or appearance, of course, is undesirable, as the Tradition to follow will show.

The substance of the Prophet's precepts and instructions in this, as in all the other fields, is that moderation should be the rule, and abnormal behaviour, both by way of excess or deficiency, should be avoided.

The above-mentioned Traditions, obviously, were for people who fell short of normal standards of tidiness and kept themselves dirty and dishevelled.

On the other hand, those who attach an undue importance to dress and outward appearance should take guidance from the narratives we are now going to discuss.

Simplicity And Destitution, Too, is An Aspect of Faith

(١٦٥٤/٢٩٠) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ أَيَّاسَ بْنِ ثَعْلَبَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ؟ أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ؟ إِنَّ الْبِدَادَةَ مِنَ الْإِيمَانِ إِنَّ الْبِدَادَةَ مِنَ الْإِيمَانِ.
(رواه أبو داود)

(1654/290) It is related by Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه that (once) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do you not listen (to me)? Do you not listen (to me)? (Listen carefully, and remember) : Simplicity and destitution, too, is an aspect of Faith." He said it repeatedly.
(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that simplicity and preference for poverty, also, is produced by an inner spiritual feeling, and it, too, is a branch or colouring of Faith.

Reward on Simplicity in Dress

(١٦٥٥/٢٩١) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَرَكَ اللَّبَاسَ تَوَاضَعًا لِلَّهِ وَهُوَ يَقْدِرُ عَلَيْهِ دَعَاهُ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَلَى رُؤْسِ

الْخَلَائِقِ حَتَّى يُخَيَّرَهُ مِنْ أَى حُلٍّ الْإِيمَانِ يَلْبَسُهَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1655/291) It is related by Mu'az ibn Anas رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever is in a position to wear expensive clothes, but refrains from it, and uses a simple dress out of meekness and humility, Allah will call him (to Himself), before all the creatures, on the Day of Resurrection, and tell him to put on whatever raiment of Faith he likes." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The glad tidings are for the bondsmen whom Allah has blessed with wealth and they can easily manage to wear good and costly clothes, but prefer not to do so out of regard for the feelings of the less fortunate brethren. It, indeed, is a most noble sentiment, and as this Tradition tells, the Almighty will appreciate it on the Day of Judgement and reward the bondsman by telling him to choose and wear the suit of clothes he liked for the dresses got ready for the dwellers of Heaven.

Note: Some persons may be inclined to feel that while in the narratives of Abul Ahwas and 'Amr ibn Shu'ayb, people are exhorted to live and dress well if it is easily within their means, in the above Tradition, the tidings of a magnificent reward in the Hereafter are given to those who wear simple clothes in spite of being well-off financially, and, again, in Abu Umamah's report. It is emphasised that to wear plain clothes and live simply is an aspect of Faith. But these Traditions appertain to different sets of circumstances and should not be supposed to contradict each other.

What has been said in the narratives of Abu Ahwas and 'Amr bin Shu'ayb is intended for men who live poorly or are ill-clad owing to stinginess or want of good taste though they are well-to-do and can maintain a much better standard of living. It is for such people that the exhortation is that if there is the favour of the Lord on anyone, his clothing and manner of living ought to be testimony to it. As for the narratives of Abu Umamah and Mu'az bin Anas, these are addressed to people who attach an undue importance to their clothes and appearance and are very particular about what they wear and how they look as if the worth and value of a man depended wholly on it.

Where training and instruction is concerned, it is essential that people are spoken to according to their states and circumstances. Whoever will not keep it in mind while studying the teachings of the reformers will, sometimes, find them confusing and self-contradictory.

Dress of The Prophet ﷺ

The holy Prophet ﷺ, himself, observed the rules and proprieties laid down in the preceding Traditions, and wore clothes that were common in his days and among his people. He wore the tahbund, mantle and Kurta, and used to cap or *Amama*¹, to cover his head. His clothes, generally, were of a very ordinary kind, but, sometimes, he would, also, put on a high priced *Jubba*², made in another country or region, and with a silken border or ornamented with needle-work. Occasionally, he, also, used the fine Yemeni mantles that were popular among the well-dressed people of his time. One can, thus, say that not only by word, but, also, by deed, it was indicated by the Prophet ﷺ that enough latitude had been given in dress, as in food and drink, and one could wear any kind of cheap or expensive clothes, provided that Allah-given laws were duly observed. Within the prescribed limits, people were allowed to use their national costumes as well. Hence, we find that even men of piety and high religiousness in the Ummah who took utmost care to follow the example of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, in all the spheres of life, did not deem it necessary to wear clothes exactly as he did.

Man has been clothing himself in different ways, in different regions, since the earliest days, and the style in dress has, also, been changing with the passage of time. Geographical and social conditions play a vital role in determining the dress of a people. It is, therefore, not possible that all men, everywhere, wore the same clothes. There can be no universal dress. The Shari'ah, accordingly has not prescribed a particular attire, suit or dress to Muslims. It has, simply, laid down certain broad principles which can be observed easily by everyone, and in every place.

①. A turban or tiara.

②. A cloak or gown.

(١٦٥٧/٢٩٢) عَنْ أَبِي بُرْدَةَ قَالَ أَخْرَجْتُ إِلَيْنَا عَائِشَةَ كِسَاءً مُلَبَّدًاوُ إِزَارًا غَلِيظًا فَقَالَتْ قُبِضَ رُوحَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي هَذَيْنِ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1657/292) Abu Burdah رضي الله عنه related to us, Sayyidah 'Ayshah رضي الله عنها showed to us a thick two folded mantle and a tahbund of a coarse fibre, and said that the Prophet ﷺ had died in those two clothes. (He was wearing them at the time of his death)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٦٥٨/٢٩٣) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ أَحَبَّ الثِّيَابِ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْقَمِيصُ.

(رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

(1658/293) It is related by Umm Salmah رضي الله عنها that among the clothes, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ liked kurta more."

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The holy Prophet's liking for kurta, probably, was because it was lighter than a cloak or mantle and served well as a dress.

In some other Traditions, it is stated that the sleeves of the Prophet's kurta extended up to the wrists, while downward, it remained above the ankles.

(١٦٥٩/٢٩٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ أَحَبَّ الثِّيَابِ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يُلَبَّسَهَا الْحَبْرَةُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1659/294) Narrates Anas رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ was fond of wearing the hibara mantles."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: Hibara mantles were made in Yemen. These were of cotton, with red or green stripes, and were considered of an average class among the loose, sleeveless cloaks. What Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه wants to tell, is that as for the mantles, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ liked to use the hibara ones.

(١٦٦٠/٢٩٥) عَنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَبَسَ جُبَّةً رُومِيَّةً ضَيِّقَةً الْكُمَيْنِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1660/295) Mughira ibn Shu'bah رضي الله عنه narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (once), wore a Roman cloak which had narrow sleeves."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In some other versions of it, the cloak has been described as Syrian, perhaps, because, in those days, Syria formed a part of the Romah Empire, and the articles manufactured in it were called both, Roman and Syrian.

Be that as it may, the real significance of the above Tradition is that, from it, we learn that it was permissible to use foreign goods, i.e., goods made by other people or communities, and sacred Prophet ﷺ, himself, did so.

(١٦٦١/٢٩٦) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ أَنَّهَا أَخْرَجَتْ جُبَّةَ طَيَالِسَةَ كِسْرَوَانِيَّةَ لَهَا لِبْنَةُ دِييَاجٍ وَفَرَجِيهَا مَكْفُوفَيْنِ بِالْدِّيِيَاكِ وَقَالَتْ هَذَا جُبَّةُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَتْ عِنْدَ عَائِشَةَ فَلَمَّا قَبِضَتْ قَبِضْتُهَا وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَلْبِسُهَا وَنَحْنُ نَغْسِلُهَا لِلْمَرْضَى نَسْتَشْفِي بِهَا.

(رواه مسلم)

(1661/286) Asma ibnt Abu Bakr رضى الله عنها related to us as she took out and showed (to us) a *Cyrian*¹ cloak made of *Tailasan*², the collar of which was made of silk brocade and the edges of both the openings, in the front and at the back, too, were adorned in the same way, saying: 'This is the cloak of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. It was with (my sister) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها (the Prophet's wife), and I took it when she died. (It came to my possession by way of inheritance, on her death). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to wear it, and, now we wash it for (the cure of) the sick and they are restored to health through it.' (Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that the Prophet ﷺ wore a Cyrian cloak (which was, somehow, connected with Cyrus), and whose collar and openings had a border of silk brocade, as the fashion was in those days.

In some other narratives, it is, further, told that a silken border of the width of two to four fingers is permitted in male dresses, but not more. The borders of the Cyrian cloak would, surely, have been with that limit.

①. Relating to Cyrus or Chosroes, the title of the ancient Kings of Persia.

②. A woolen cloth, generally, of a black colour.

Another notable thing we learn from it is that, in the era of the Companions itself, the washing of the clothes of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ were given to the sick to drink or were sprinkled over them in the hope that it would lead to recovery.

(١٦٦٢/٢٩٧) عَنْ عُمَرُو بْنِ حُرَيْثٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَعَلَيْهِ عِمَامَةٌ سَوْدَاءُ وَقَدْ أَرَخَى طَرَفَيْهَا بَيْنَ كَتِفَيْهِ. (رواه مسلم)
(1662/297) 'Amr ibn Hurayrah related, "I saw the Prophet ﷺ delivering a sermon from the pulpit. At that time, he was wearing a black turban, the end of which was hanging between the shoulders."
(Muslim)

(١٦٦٣/٢٩٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَلْبَسُ قَلَنْسُوَةً بَيْضَاءَ (رواه الطبراني في الكبير)
(1663/298) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, (also), used to wear a white cap."
(Tabarani)

(١٦٦٤/٢٩٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا خَرَجَتِ الْخَوَارِجُ أَتَيْتُ عَلِيًّا فَقَالَ: إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ الْقَوْمَ قَلْبِسْتُ أَحْسَنَ مَا يَكُونُ مِنْ حُلَلِ الْيَمَنِ..... قَالَ أَبُو زَيْدٍ: وَكَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ رَجُلًا جَمِيلًا جَهِيْرًا..... قَالَ فَاتَيْنَهُمْ قَالُوا مَرْحَبًا بِكَ يَا ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ! مَا هَذِهِ الْحُلَّةُ؟ قُلْتُ مَا تَعْبَهُونَ عَلَى لَقْدَرَأَيْتُ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَحْسَنَ مَا يَكُونُ مِنَ الْحُلَلِ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1664/299) It is related, on the authority of Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ, "When the *Khawarij*¹ rose up [in rebellion], I went to Sayyidina Ali ﷺ and he told me to go (and try to pacify them)." Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ tells that, "At that time, I was wearing a fine Yemeni dress." The narrator, Abu Zaim, adds that Abdullah ibn Abbas was a very handsome person, and, also, had a powerful voice. "When I approached the Khawarij," Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ went on to relate, "They greeted my saying Marhaba,² and, then, sarcastically remarked: 'How about the

①. Plural of Kharji and meaning a seceder, a schismatic, a rebel. In the Islamic usage, it denotes a sect of Muslims who do not reckon Hazrat Ali among the legal successors of the holy Prophet.

②. Meaning "Hail; Allah bless you" beautiful clothes? (Is it not contrary to the good example of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and repugnant to the spirit of piety to wear such a dress)?" (Abdullah ibn Abbas told us that) "Upon it, I said: 'Why do you object to my clothes? I have seen the Prophet ﷺ wearing very good clothes.'" (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that the Prophet ﷺ, occasionally, used to wear good and expensive clothes. The objection of the Khwarij that to use a good dress was inconsistent with the practice of the holy Prophet ﷺ and opposed to the ideal of righteousness was based only on ignorance. It, of course, is most deplorable if one does so out of pride or haughtiness, as we have already seen, but if the intention is to make manifest a boon conferred by the Lord or there is a religious aim or consideration behind it, to wear nice and costly clothes is not only lawful, but, also, a virtuous act, deserving of Divine reward. The occasional use of good clothes by the sacred Prophet ﷺ was in grateful acknowledgement of the favour of the Lord and for showing regard to the feelings of those who had offered the dress to him as a gift, and, further, to show, by his own example, that it was not forbidden to wear an expensive dress.

The Prophet ﷺ Began With The Right Side When Putting on A Dress

The inherent superiority of the limbs on the right side of the body over those on the left has been explained already, in connection with the rules and proprieties of eating and drinking. It was, thus, customary with the Holy Prophet ﷺ that when he wore a dress, he began with the right side.

(١٦٦٥/٣٠٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا

(رواه الترمذی)

لَبَسَ قَمِيصًا بَدَأَ بِمِائِمِهِ.

(1665/300) Narrated Abu Hurayrah ﷺ "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ put on a kurta, he began with the right side."

Commentary: The mentioning of kurta, in it, is purely incidental, otherwise it applies to all the dresses.

In another Tradition, related by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ﷺ, it is stated that the Prophet ﷺ said: "When a dress is worn, or *wudhu*¹

①. Sacred ablution performed before prayer.

is performed, the beginning should be made with the right side (of the body)."

The Prayer of The Prophet ﷺ At The Time of Wearing A New Garment

(١٦٦٦/٣٠١) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اسْتَجَدَّ ثَوْبًا سَمَاءَ بِاسْمِهِ عِمَامَةً أَوْ قَمِيصًا أَوْ رِدَاءً ثُمَّ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ كَمَا كَسَوْتَنِيهِ أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهُ وَخَيْرَ مَا صُنِعَ لَهُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهِ وَشَرِّ مَا صُنِعَ لَهُ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1666/301) Abu Saeed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ related to us that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ put on a new dress, a turban, shirt or cloak, he would make this supplication:

اللَّهُمَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدُ كَمَا كَسَوْتَنِيهِ أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهُ وَخَيْرَ مَا صُنِعَ لَهُ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهِ وَشَرِّ مَا صُنِعَ لَهُ

Praise and gratitude be to the Lord Who gave me this (turban, shirt or cloak) to wear. O Allah! I beg to Thee the good of it and the good of the purpose for which it is intended. (May this dress be a source of goodness to me, and I gain the good object for which it is worn, e.g., I worship Thee, and give thanks to Thee on wearing it). And I beg to Thee refuge from its mischief and from the mischief of the purpose for which it is intended.

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: Another short supplication the Prophet ﷺ used to make at the time of donning a new garment has been quoted earlier on the authority of Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. Moreover, in a Tradition reproduced in Sunan Abi Dawood, it is stated that all the sins of the past and the future of anyone will be forgiven who will recite this supplication while putting on a new dress:

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي كَسَانِي هَذَا وَرَزَقَنِيهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ حَوْلٍ مِنِّي وَلَا قُوَّةَ

Praise be to Allah who clad me with this garment, and gave it to me solely out of His kindness, and without an effort on my part.

Wearing Shoes

(١٦٦٧/٣٠٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي غَزْوَةٍ غَدَاهَا يَقُولُ اسْتَكْثِرُوا مِنَ النَّعَالِ فَإِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَا يَزَالُ رَاكِبًا مَا انْتَعَلَ

(رواه مسلم)

(1667/302) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه related to us that (once), as the Prophet ﷺ was starting on an expedition of Jihad, I heard him telling the people: Take more shoes (with you) for as long as man is wearing the shoes, he remains like a rider." (Muslim)

Commentary: It is common experience that a person who walks with the shoes on, walks faster and tires less than him who walks barefooted. This is what is meant by the remark that "he remains like a rider".

In our own days, the special boots of the soliders are, in fact, considered to be a part of their uniform.

(١٦٦٨/٣٠٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا انْتَعَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَبْدَأْ بِالْيَمْنَى وَإِذَا نَزَعَ فَلْيَبْدَأْ بِالشِّمَالِ لِتَكُنِ الْيَمْنَى أَوَّلَهُمَا تُنْعَلُ وَآخِرُهُمَا تُنْزَعُ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1668/303) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you is putting on his shoes, he should begin with the right foot, and when he is taking them off, he should begin with the left foot. (In brief), the right foot should come first when the shoes are put on, and last when they are taken off."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Shoes are good for the feet. The right limb is preferred over the left so the right shoe must be put on first.

Wearing A Ring or Seal

(١٦٦٩/٣٠٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرَادَ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ إِلَى كِسْرَى وَاقِصْرَو النَّجَاشِيِّ فَقِيلَ إِنَّهُمْ لَا يَقْبَلُونَ كِتَابًا إِلَّا بِخَاتَمٍ فَصَاغَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِخَاتَمٍ حَلَقَةً فِضَّةَ نُقِشَ فِيهِ مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(وفي رواية للبخارى كان نقش الخاتم ثلاثة أسطر مُحَمَّد سَطْرٌ وَرَسُول سَطْرٌ وَاللَّهُ سَطْرٌ)

(1669/304) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه related that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ resolved to despatch letters to Chosroes (of Persia), Caesar (of Rome), and Negus (of Abyssinia), (inviting them to accept Islam as their faith), it was brought to his notice that kings did not acknowledge letters that did not bear the seal. Upon it, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had a seal made which was a ring of silver, and, on it, was engraved: Muhammad Rasulullah, (Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah). (Muslim)

(In another version of the same event, appearing in Bukhari, it is stated that the seal carried three lines. In one line was engraved 'Muhammad', in the second, 'Rasul', and, in the third, 'Allah').

Commentary: In the 6th Century A.H., on return from Hudaibiyah, the holy Prophet ﷺ had sent letters to some of the foremost rulers of the day, conveying to them the Call of Islam. The incident referred to in the above Tradition had taken place at that time. When it was pointed out to the Prophet ﷺ that the kings attached little importance to letters which did not bear the seal, he had a silver ring made, on the raised part of which the words, 'Muhammad', 'Rasul', and 'Allah', were carved. This was the ring or seal which, according to some reports, the Prophet ﷺ used to wear on little finger of the left hand, and, according to others, in the little finger of the right hand. Or, in other words the holy Prophet ﷺ sometimes, wore the ring in the left, and, sometimes in the right hand.

(١٦٧٠/٣٠٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَى حَاتِمًا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ فِي يَدِ رَجُلٍ فَنَزَعَهُ فَطَرَحَهُ فَقَالَ يَعْمِدُ أَحَدُكُمْ إِلَى جَمْرَةٍ مِنْ نَارٍ فَيَجْعَلُهَا فِي يَدِهِ فَقِيلَ لِلرَّجُلِ بَعْدَ مَا ذَهَبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُذْ حَاتِمَكَ إِنِّي نَفَعْتُ بِهِ قَالَ لَا وَاللَّهِ لَا أَخُذُهُ أَبَدًا وَقَدْ طَرَحَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
(رواه مسلم)

(1670/305) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that (once), on seeing a person wearing a gold ring, the Prophet ﷺ took it of his finger, and threw it away, remarking: "The condition of some of you is that they wear the burning charcoal of Hell (a gold ring), of their own will and choice." After the holy Prophet

ﷺ had left, someone told the person (from whose finger the Prophet ﷺ had taken out the ring and thrown it away) to pick it up, and put it to some other use. (He could sell it or give it to some lady in the family). But he replied: "By the Lord, I shall not pick up the ring after the Prophet ﷺ has thrown it away.

(Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that like all the other gold ornaments, the wearing of a gold ring, too, is forbidden to men. Another thing we learn, from it, is that, in special cases, a more effective form of correction and reform can, also, be that if article forbidden in the Shari'ah is with anyone, it should be taken possession of and thrown away or destroyed.

Beard, Moustache And Other Personal Characteristics

(١٦٧١/٣٠٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الْفِطْرَةُ خَمْسٌ الْخِتَانُ وَالْإِسْتِحْدَادُ وَقَصُّ الشَّارِبِ وَتَقْلِيمُ الْأَظْفَارِ وَنَتْفُ
الْإِبْطِ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1671/306) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "These five things are the natural needs of a right-minded person and the dictates of the Religion of Nature (Islam): circumcision, removal of the hairs under navel, cutting (or trimming) of moustaches, paring of nails, and plucking the hairs of the armpits.
(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In some other Traditions these acts are described as 'personal characteristics' and 'way of the Prophets'. Since these were the requirements of human nature, the teachings and regular practice of all the Prophets could, evidently, be nothing but the same. The common factor is cleanliness and purification which is instinctive to all men of a sound and healthy disposition.

(١٦٧٢/٣٠٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ وَقَّتْ لَنَا فِي قَصِّ الشَّوَارِبِ وَتَقْلِيمِ الْأَظْفَارِ
وَنَتْفِ الْإِبْطِ وَحَلْقِ الْعَانَةِ أَنْ لَا نَتْرَكَ أَكْثَرِمِنْ أَرْبَعِينَ لَيْلَةً.
(رواه مسلم)

(1672/307) Sayyidina Anas ؓ narrated that for cutting (or trimming) of the moustaches, and paring of nails, and removal of the hairs of the armpits and below the navel, the limit has been laid down for us that we should not leave these acts undone for more than forty days. (Muslim)

Commentary: The following narrative of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah has, again, been quoted in Baiqhaqi's Sha'b-ul-Iman: from Kanzul 'Ummal: "The Prophet ﷺ used to clip his nails and trim the moustaches on every Friday, before coming for the congregational prayers."

The way confirmed by the Practice of the holy Prophet ﷺ therefore, is that these acts are carried out once a week, while the limit, as the above Tradition tells, is forty days. According to some authorities, even prayer (salah) will be endangered imperfect if it is offered by anyone who does not observe the limit.

(١٦٧٣/٣٠٨) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ كُتِبَ

الشَّوَابُ وَأَعْفُوا اللَّحْيَ. (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1673/308) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Cut the moustaches very short, and leave the beard." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: From some other reports it appears that the practice of the earlier Prophets, too, was that they grew the beards and clipped the moustaches.

The beard is a sign of manliness and dignity, and, even in the Western countries where people, generally, remain clean-shaven, it is looked upon with respect.

Would that be the Muslims realised that to grow the beard was the regular practice of their own and all the other Prophets, and a symbol of adherence to their path while to shave it was the way of non-believers.

In this Tradition, the commandment signifies only the leaving of the beard, without mentioning to what length it should be left to grow. One may, thus, be led to imagine that the beard should not be touched, at all, and the scissors were not to be applied to it in any case. But, as the Tradition related by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr al-'Aas ؓ shows (which we are going to reproduce below, from Tirmizi), the sacred Prophet ﷺ used to have his beard clipped a little, both lengthwise and beardthwise so that it looked neat and orderly.

About the narrator of this Tradition, Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضي الله عنه, himself, it is reported that his practice was to have the hair of his beard cut off which were of a greater length than a fist. The same was the case with some other Companions as well.

In the light of all these reports, we can conclude that what the Tradition under discussion means is that the beard should be grown. It should neither be shaved nor cut too short.

The legist-doctors have held that it is improper to trim the beard shorter than the fist, but no such limitation is found in any of the Traditions. In all probability, the legists have been guided by the fact that while it is confirmed by many reports that the holy Companions used to grow their beards up to the length of a fist, there is nothing to show that they, also, kept them shorter.

(١٦٧٤/٣٠٩) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَأْخُذُ مِنْ لِحْيَتِهِ مِنْ عَرْضِهَا وَطُولِهَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1674/309) It is related by 'Amr ibn Shu'ayb رضي الله عنه, on the authority of his father, Shu'ayb, and he, on the authority of his grandfather, Abdullah ibn 'Amr al-'Aas رضي الله عنه, that "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to have his beard trimmed a little, both in length and in breadth."

(Tirmizi)

(١٦٧٥/٣١٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ

كَانَ لَهُ شَعْرٌ فَلْيُكْرِمَهُ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1675/310) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever has hair should show respect to them."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: What showing "respect" to the hair means is that they should be washed and combed and oil should be applied to them as needed. The same was the practice of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, always allowed the hair to grow on his head which, sometimes, reached up to his ears, and, sometimes, even lower. The Prophet ﷺ washed his hair regularly, arranged them with a comb, and applied oil to them. He is never reported to have his head shaven except on the occasion of the Hajj and the Umrah.

(١٦٧٦/٣١١) عَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْهَى عَنِ الْقَزَعِ. قِيلَ لِنَافِعٍ مَا الْقَزَعُ؟ قَالَ يُحْلَقُ بَعْضُ رَأْسِ الصَّبِيِّ وَيُتْرَكُ الْبَعْضُ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1676/311) Nafe', the servant of Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه, related to us, on the authority of his master, that he heard the Prophet ﷺ forbidding Qaza'. On being asked what Qaza' meant, Nafe' said: "It means that a part of the head of a child was shaved and a part was left unshaved."
(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: In Abdullah ibn Umar's رضي الله عنه narrative, quoted in Sahih Muslim, it is stated that, once, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saw a child, some hair of whose head were shaved while the rest had been left alone. The Prophet ﷺ forbade it and remarked that either the whole head should be shaved or not at all. To shave a part of the head and leave the other unshaven was revolting to the eye and would make the child look hideous. Anyhow, the Prophet ﷺ has forbidden it. We can conclude about the other customs and practices of the same kind, also, on the basis of this commandment.

Using Henna by Women

(١٦٧٧/٣١٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ هِنْدًا بِنْتَ عُتْبَةَ قَالَتْ يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ بَايَعْنِي فَقَالَ لَا أَبَايَعُكَ حَتَّى تُغَيِّرِي كَفَيْكَ فَكَأَنَّمَا كَفَا سَبْعٌ.
(رواه ابو داود)

(1677/312) It is related by Sayyida Ayshah رضي الله عنها that (as) Hind ibnt Utba begged the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to take the *bai't*¹ from her, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I shall not take the bai't from you until you changed the appearance of your hands (by applying henna). (At present), your hands are looking like those of a beast."
(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Hind ibn Utba was the wife of Abu Sufiyan. She had embraced Islam and taken the first ba'it on the day of the Victory of Makkah, along with many other women of the Quraysh.

The request for ba'it mentioned in the above Tradition was,

- ①. A solemn pledge of allegiance given to a leader by his followers and binding them to absolute obedience.

perhaps, made at a later time, and it was, then, that the Prophet ﷺ had told her to go and apply henna to her hands.

The viewpoint of the Shari'ah that, within permissible limits, women ought to make use of adornments etc., intended to beautify the complexion and improve general appearance is made plain by the afore-mentioned saying. It will be conducive to the promotion and strengthening of the sentiments of love and liking between them and their husbands.

SATR AND HIJAB

The question of satr and hijab enjoys an importance of its own in the social design of life. It is one of the things that distinguish man from the quadrupeds. The sense of modesty and shame, essentially, is a human attribute. No other living being has been endued with it. The animals, thus, do not try to hide any part of their body or act of theirs as the human beings, instinctively, do.

In any case, satr and hijab are, basically, the requirements of human nature. That is why, all the nations and communities, however much they may differ from each other in creed, culture and ideology, are agreed that man should not go about unclothed.

It, again, is an accepted fact that the position of the woman is higher, as compared to man, in this regard. Or, as one would say, just as human beings are superior to all other living beings, in matters of satr and hijab, women take precedence over men for the reason that their physical structure possesses a much greater sexual appeal, and if their privities are not properly covered, it can give rise to numerous evils. Hence, the Lord Creator, also, has endowed women with a greater sense of modesty and shame.

Moreover, as Divine Guidance was perfected for mankind, through the teachings of the Last of the Messengers, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, in the other spheres of life, both collective and individual, in the field of satr and hijab, too, his advice and instructions are ultimate and conclusive.

The fundamental principles and commandments relating to it, have been set forth in the Qur'an.

In the opening verses of Surah Al-A'raf, which deals with the creation of Adam and the bringing of the world into existence, it is told that the command to conceal your shame had been given to mankind even at that stage, and it had been warned against the danger of being seduced by Satan who would try to pull it down from the lofty station of humanity to the level of the beasts by tearing off from its robe and manifesting its shame.

Likewise, in Surah An-Nur and Surah Al-Ahzab, guidelines have been provided, particularly, with regard to the screening and veiling of women. It is stated, for instance, that they should stay in their homes which are the right place for them, and in case they have to go out for some need, which is permitted, they should cover themselves properly with a veil etc., and, also, observe the prescribed limits about adornments and veils in the presence of relations and visitors other than the husbands. Men, on their part, are commanded not to enter the homes of relatives and friends without announcing their presence and obtaining the permission. Men and women should, further, not stare at each other, but lower their gaze if they came face to face.

People who are blessed with a sound, healthy outlook and good judgement will agree that these commandments not only fulfil the inherent conditions of modesty, but, also, provide an effective check against the Satanic and sensual ills and evils which debase life and lead to woeful consequences.

Necessary Satr

(١٦٧٨/٣١٣) عَنْ جَرْهَدٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ أَمَا عَلِمْتُمْ أَنَّ

الْفَخِذَ عَوْرَةٌ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1678/313) It is related by Jarhad ibn Khuwailid that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Do you know that the thigh, (too), is included in satr?" (It is not permitted to expose it, also?)

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: About the organs of the human body that are, generally, called the private parts, even those who do not believe in Allah or follow any religion feel that they should not remain uncovered. But, from the above Tradition, we learn that satr includes not only the private parts and the area surrounding them, but, also, the thigh which, too, must be kept covered with the garments. It, so to speak, marks the completion of the guidance concerning satr.

(١٦٧٩/٣١٤) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَه يَا عَلِيُّ

لَا تُبْرِزْ فَخِذَكَ وَلَا تَنْظُرْ إِلَى فَخِذِ حَيٍّ وَلَا مَيِّتٍ. (رواه ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1679/314) It is related by Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him: "Oh Ali! Do not reveal your thigh, nor look at anyone's thigh, living or dead." (Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

(١٦٨٠/٣١٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا

يَنْظُرُ الرَّجُلُ إِلَى عَوْرَةِ الرَّجُلِ وَلَا الْمَرْأَةُ إِلَى عَوْرَةِ الْمَرْأَةِ. (رواه مسلم)
 (1680/315) It is related by Abu Saeed Khudri ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: A man must not cast a glance at the satr of any other man, nor a woman at the satr of any other woman." (Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that, in the Islamic Shari'ah, it is not permitted to look at the parts of the body of the same sex that are to be concealed. This, of course, is what modesty means. Occasions on which it may be necessary to do so, evidently, are an exception.

Hiding Nakedness Even When Alone

The sacred Prophet ﷺ, also, stressed that even when a person is alone and no one is seeing him, he should not, unnecessarily, undress himself or stay naked.

(١٦٨١/٣١٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِيَّاكُمْ وَالتَّعَرَّى فَإِنَّ مَعَكُمْ مَنْ لَا يُفَارِقُكُمْ إِلَّا عِنْدَ الْغَائِطِ وَحِينَ يَقْضِي الرَّجُلُ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ فَاسْتَحْيُوهُمْ وَآكُرُوا مَوْتَهُمْ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1681/316) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: O people! Abstain from nakedness, (also in privacy. Do not bare the satr even when you are alone). The angels are always with you, and they never leave you except at the time of defecation or copulation between husband and wife. So, observe modesty and be respectful in their presence (too)." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that the angles, like the 'recording', ones, who are with man, at all times, part company with him when he becomes naked for the fulfilment of a natural urge.

(١٦٨٢/٣١٧) عَنْ بَهْزِ بْنِ حَكِيمٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ احْفَظْ عَوْرَتَكَ إِلَّا مِنْ زَوْجَتِكَ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَفَرَأَيْتَ إِذَا كَانَ الرَّجُلُ خَالِيًا..... قَالَ فَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ يُسْتَحْيَى مِنْهُ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1682/317) It is related by Bhaz ibn Hakeem, on the authority of his father, Hakeem, and he, on the authority of his father,

Muawiya ibn Haidah رضي الله عنه, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Guard private parts of your body (Do not bare them before anyone) except your wife and (lawful) slave-girl." (Muawiya ibn Haidah related) "I, thereupon, asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ: "What about the situation in which a man is alone and no one is seeing him?" 'Allah is more deserving of it and He has a greater claim to it that the bondsman observe modesty in His presence,' the Prophet ﷺ replied." (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Observing Hijab By Women

(١٦٨٣/٣١٨) عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمَرْأَةُ غَوْرَةٌ فَإِذَا خَرَجَتْ اسْتَشْرَفَهَا الشَّيْطَانُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1683/318) It is related by Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Woman is satr. (Just as satr should be concealed, in the same way, a woman should remain at home and in hijab). When she goes out, the devils cast coquettish glances at her." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: In Arabic, the word Aurah denotes a thing or a part of the body it is essential to keep covered and to expose which is undesirable. In the above Tradition, the phrase, Al-Mara'atu 'Aurah has been used which denotes that it is the peculiarity of a woman that she remained in hijab.

The observation that when a woman goes out, the devils cast coquettish glances at her signifies that, as far as possible, women should stay in their homes, and, thus, remain protected from the mischief of the devils and their followers and disciples. If and when they go out for a valid reason, they are to cover themselves with a cloak and take care not to display their adornment. This is the meaning and intention of the Qur'anic verse:

وَقَرْنَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَى (الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٣)

And stay in your homes Bedizen not yourselves with the bedizenment of the Time of Ignorance. (Al Ahzab, 33:33)

Casting Amorous Glances

(١٦٨٤/٣١٩) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ بَلَّغْنِي أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَعَنَ اللَّهُ النَّاطِرَ وَالْمَنْظُورَ إِلَيْهِ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الايمان)

(1684/319) Narrated Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه "It has been related to me that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The curse of Allah is on him who sees, and on him who is seen." (Baihaqi)

Commentary: It shows that whoever looks at a *Naa-mahram*¹ woman or at the satr of anyone to look at which is forbidden, is accursed of Allah, and so, also, is the woman who shows herself or deliberately gives an opportunity to be seen.

Seeing a Naa-Mahram Woman by Chance

(١٦٨٥/٣٢٠) عَنْ جَرِيرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ نَظَرِ الْفَحَاءَةِ فَأَمَرَنِي أَنْ أَصْرِفَ بَصَرِي. (رواه مسلم)

(1685/320) Jareer ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه related: "(Once), I enquired from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about seeing by chance. (What was I to do if my glance fell, unintentionally, on a Naa-Mahram woman or on the satr of anyone)?" "Turn your eyes away from her (or it)", the Prophet ﷺ replied. (Muslim)

(١٦٨٦/٣٢١) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعَلِيَّ يَا عَلِيُّ لَا تَتَّبِعِ النَّظْرَةَ النَّظْرَةَ فَإِنَّ لَكَ الْأُولَى وَلَيْسَتْ لَكَ الْآخِرَةُ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى و ابو داود)

(1686/321) Sayyidina Buraidah رضي الله عنه related to us that, once the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه. "O Ali (If you see a Naa-Mahram woman by chance), do not look at her twice. Your first glance (which is unintentional) is lawful, (and will not be called to account), but the second is not."

(Musnad Ahmand, Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

(١٦٨٧/٣٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ

مُسْلِمٍ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى مَحَاسِنِ امْرَأَةٍ أَوْ لَمَرَّةٍ ثُمَّ يَغْضُ بَصَرَهُ إِلَّا أَحَدَتْ اللَّهُ عِبَادَةً يَجِدُ حَلَاوتَهَا.

(رواه احمد)

(1687/322) Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه related, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The believing man whose glance falls on a beautiful woman, and, then, he lowers his gaze, (and does not look at her again), Allah will bless him with worship, the sweetness of which he will feel throughout his life." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: It tells that, in return for foregoing an illegitimate

①. One who is not, as regards marriage, within the forbidden degrees, i.e., with whom marriage is allowed by the Shari'ah.

pleasure, the Almighty will bestow upon the bondsmn the exquisite spiritual boon of the sweetness of worship in this very world, even before the Day of Resurrection and Final Judgement.

Getting Seized With An Evil Desire on Seeing A Woman

It is with human beings that he is tempted to eat good food, and attracted to a cool place in heat. In the same way, he may become excited on seeing a beautiful woman. The Prophet ﷺ has prescribed a treatment for this malady too.

(١٦٨٨/٣٢٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمَرْأَةَ تُقْبِلُ فِي صُورَةِ شَيْطَانٍ وَتُذْبِرُ فِي صُورَةِ شَيْطَانٍ إِذَا أَحَذَّكُمْ أَعْجَبَتِ الْمَرْأَةَ فَوْقَعَتْ فِي قَلْبِهِ فَلْيَعْمِدْ إِلَى امْرَأَتِهِ فَلْيُؤَاقِعْهَا فَإِنَّ ذَلِكَ يَرُدُّ مَا فِي نَفْسِهِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1688/323) It is related by Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "(Sometimes), it happens that a woman comes like the Devil. (Her carriage and departure are tempting and she can lead men into evil). So, if anyone of you has such an experience and feels attracted to a woman, he should go to his wife and satisfy his sexual urge with her. It will cure him of the impure desire."

(Muslim)

Forbidding Meeting A Non-Mahram Woman In Privacy

The Prophet ﷺ has also disallowed man to meet a stranger woman alone.

(١٣٦٦/٣٢٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَخْلُونَ رَجُلٌ بِامْرَأَةٍ إِلَّا كَانَ ثَالِثُهُمَا الشَّيْطَانُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1689/324) It is related by Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It can never be that a non-mahram man met a woman when they were alone, and a third, (the Devil), was not present (at that time or place)." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The purport of the above Tradition is that when a non-mahram man will be alone with a woman, the Devil will, surely, try to play his tricks and lead them astray. It will, therefore, be safer and wiser not to give him such an opportunity.

(١٦٩٠/٣٢٥) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ غَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

إِيَّاكُمْ وَالِدُخُولَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَرَأَيْتَ الْحَمْرَ؟ قَالَ
الْحَمْرُ الْمَوْتُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1690/325) 'Uqbah ibn 'Aamir رضي الله عنه related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "You should avoid going to a non-mahram woman, (and be very careful in that regard)." Someone, thereupon enquired: "What about the near relatives of the husband, such as, his brother? (Does the command apply to them as well)?" They are very deadly," the Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied. (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Among the relatives of the husband, his father and sons are mahram for the wife, but apart from them, at the other relatives, including his real brother, are non-mahram. For them, it is extremely unsafe to come freely into her house and mix with her.

(١٦٩١/٣٢٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَلْجُوا عَلَى
الْمُغَيَّبَاتِ فَإِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَجْرِي مِنْ أَحَدِكُمْ مَجْرَى الدَّمِ قُلْنَا وَمِنْكَ يَارَسُولَ
اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ وَمِنْى وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ أَعَانَنِي عَلَيْهِ فَاسَلَمْتُ. (رواه الترمذى)

(1691/326) It is related by Jaber رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Do not, (particularly), go into the houses of women whose husbands have gone (on a journey etc.), for (the effects and influences (of) the Devil are always present in everyone and running through him (imperceptibly) like the blood in the veins." "In you, too, Messenger of Allah ﷺ?" We asked. "Yes; in me, too," he replied. "But there is the special favour of the Almighty upon me, (in this matter), owing to which I remain safe and protected." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: There is, naturally, a greater danger of falling a prey to the inducements of the Devil when non-mahram men come into a close contact with women whose husbands have gone on a journey or are not living with them for some other reason. The holy Prophet ﷺ has, thus, warned against it, in particular, and said that no one should imagine himself protected against the temptations of Satan who takes hold of our minds suddenly and without our knowing it.

It is worthy of note here that the Holy Prophet ﷺ, has not described freedom from the evil designs of the Devil as his own virtue or attainment, but an exceptional favour of the Lord. It, indeed, is the highest state of self-surrender.

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى عَبْدِكَ وَنَبِيِّكَ سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ وَآلِهِ وَصَحْبِهِ وَاتَّبَاعِهِ.

MARRIAGE AND OTHER RELATED MATTERS

In the Age of Ignorance, before the advent of the holy Prophet ﷺ, many forms of matrimony and practices of having children were prevalent among the Arabs, some of which were, positively, hateful. Of these arrangements, one was correct, in principle, and dignified. The sacred Prophet ﷺ adopted it with suitable changes and rejected the others as sinful.

The form of Nikah (marriage) enjoined by the holy Prophet ﷺ, by his sayings as well as practice, was that the proposal was made, on behalf of the man, to the parents or guardians of the woman, and if they found it suitable, they accepted it, after obtaining her consent, if she had come of age, and, on the basis of their own good judgement if she happened to be a minor, and had her married. This method, obviously, is most appropriate.

Since the real responsibilities accruing from marriage devolve on woman and she has to fulfil them throughout her life, her voluntary acceptance has been made necessary. Yet, at the same time, in due consideration of the dignity of the fair sex, it has been provided that the betrothal and wedding of a woman should be settled through her elders and it is they who should give her in marriage. It would, indeed, not be consistent with feminine honour if the woman arranged directly whose wife she was going to be and came up to give herself in marriage to someone.

Besides, the effects and consequences of a woman's marriage are, generally, shared by her family, the elders, too, have, to an extent, been given a say in the matter. It was, also, quite possible that if the whole affair was left in the hands of the woman and the elders were kept aloof, she fell a prey to the deceitful overtures of the wooer and made a wrong choice. For these reasons, it has been thought better and wiser that, leaving aside the exceptional cases, the marriage of a woman was settled and performed through the agency of her elders.

Another instruction, in this regard, is that if the man has not yet seen the woman with whom his marriage is going to be arranged, he should see her, if possible, before the offer is made so that he may not be disappointed in the end. The object can, also, be gained, in some degree, by the girl being seen by a few reliable ladies of the man's family.

Yet another thing is that if a request has already been made, on behalf of any other man, for the hand of girl, a proposal should not be made for her until the earlier offer has been declined.

It, also, is essential that marriage was not be contracted in secrecy. It ought to be celebrated openly, and in the presence of some persons who may act as a witness to it. Preferably, marriage should be performed in a mosque. It is, further, confirmed by the practice of the holy Prophet ﷺ that a sermon was delivered on the occasion.

The offering of Mahr (dower or marriage-protection) from the side of the man to the bride, too, has been prescribed as an essential part of wedding.

Rule And Traditions Concerning Union Of Man And Woman, And Off-Spring During The Age of Ignorance

(١٦٧٢/١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النِّكَاحَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ كَانَ عَلَى أَرْبَعَةِ أَنْحَاءٍ فَنِكَاحٌ مِنْهَا نِكَاحُ النَّاسِ الْيَوْمَ يَخْطُبُ الرَّجُلُ إِلَى الرَّجُلِ وَلَيْتَهُ أَوْ ابْنَتَهُ فَيُصَدِّقُهَا ثُمَّ يَنْكِحُهَا وَنِكَاحٌ آخَرُ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ يَقُولُ لِأَمْرَأَتِهِ إِذَا طَهَرْتُ مِنْ طَمَثِهَا أَرْسَلِي إِلَى فُلَانٍ فَاسْتَبْضِعِي مِنْهُ وَيَعْتَزِّلُهَا زَوْجَهَا وَلَا يَمْسُهَا أَبَدًا حَتَّى يَتَبَيَّنَ حَمْلُهَا مِنْ ذَلِكَ الرَّجُلِ الَّذِي تَسْتَبْضِعُ مِنْهُ فَإِذَا تَبَيَّنَ حَمْلُهَا أَصَابَهَا زَوْجُهَا إِذَا أَحَبَّ وَإِنَّمَا يَفْعَلُ ذَلِكَ رَغْبَةً فِي نَجَابَةِ الْوَلَدِ فَكَانَ هَذَا النِّكَاحُ نِكَاحَ الْإِسْتِبْضَاعِ وَنِكَاحٌ آخَرُ يُجْتَمِعُ الرَّهْطُ مَا دُونَ الْعَشْرَةِ فَيَدْخُلُونَ عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ كُلُّهُمْ يُصَيِّئُهَا فَإِذَا حَمَلَتْ وَوَضَعَتْ وَمَرَّ عَلَيْهَا لَيَالٍ بَعْدَ أَنْ تَضَعَ حَمْلَهَا

أَرْسَلْتُ إِلَيْهِمْ فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ رَجُلٌ أَنْ يَمْتَنِعَ حَتَّى يَجْتَمِعُوا عِنْدَهَا تَقُولُ لَهُمْ قَدْ عَرَفْتُمُ الَّذِي كَانَ مِنْ أَمْرِكُمْ وَقَدْ وَلَدْتُ فَهُوَ ابْنُكَ يَا قُلَانُ تُسَمِّي مَنْ أَحَبَّتْ بِاسْمِهِ فَيَلْحَقُ بِهِ وَلَدُهَا وَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُ أَنْ يَمْتَنِعَ مِنْهُ الرَّجُلُ وَالنِّكَاحُ الرَّابِعُ يَجْتَمِعُ النَّاسُ الْكَثِيرُ فَيَدْخُلُونَ عَلَى الْمَرْأَةِ لَا تَمْتَنِعُ مِمَّنْ جَاءَهَا وَهُنَّ الْبَغَايَا كُنَّ يَنْصِبْنَ عَلَى أَبْوَابِهِنَّ رَايَاتٍ تَكُونُ عَلَمًا فَمَنْ أَرَادَهُنَّ دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِنَّ فَإِذَا حَمَلَتْ إِحْدَاهُنَّ وَوَضَعَتْ حَمْلَهَا جُمِعُوا إِلَيْهَا وَدَعَوْا لَهُمُ الْقَافَةَ ثُمَّ الْحَقُّوا وَلَدَهَا بِالَّذِي يَرُونَ فَالْتَأَطَ بِهِ وَدُعِيَ ابْنُهُ لَا يَمْتَنِعُ مِنْ ذَالِكَ فَلَمَّا بُعِثَ مُحَمَّدٌ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْحَقِّ هَدَمَ نِكَاحَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ كُلَّهُ إِلَّا نِكَاحَ النَّاسِ الْيَوْمَ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1672/1) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that "four forms of marriage, i.e., union of man and woman were in vogue in the Age of Perversoin. One was what is practiced today as well, i.e., a request of his daughter or ward and the latter married her to him on the settlement of an appropriate Mahr.

"Another way was that when the wife of anyone had finished her monthly course, (it is a time when the fertility of a woman is higher), he would tell her to invite such-and-such a man (of superior birth or status) to have sexual relations with her, (and, thus, try to concieve a child from him). The husband used to keep away from her until she had concieved and would have sex with her only when the signs of pregnancy had appeared. All this was done with the object of obtaining a son of noble birth and possessing good qualities. It was called *Nikah Al-Istibda*¹.

"The third method was that a group of men, (the word used in the text is Raht which denotes 'less than ten'), approached a woman, and each of them had sex with her, (and it took place with her consent), and if the woman became pregnant, and ave birth to a child, she called all those men, and, (according to the custom), none of them could refuse to come, and when they had collected, she would say to them: 'You know what happened (on that occasion), and, as a result of it, this child has been born to me.' She would, then, identify whosoever of them she liked as the father of the child, and it was acknowledged as his child, and he could not decline to accept it.

①. The abnoxious custom was prevalent among some tribes of the Arabs during those days, It was like this: Suppose a low-class man wanted his son to be brave, strong or handsome, he would tell his wife to have sexual relations with a man possessing a simillar quality so that she might concieve from him and the son that was born to her was like the man who had fathered him. It is called istibda in Arabic and was very much similar to the practice of Niyog existing in the ancient Hindu society. The details of it are given by the founder of Arya Samaj, Swami Saraswati, in his well-known book, Satyarth Prakash.

"The fourth was that a woman used to have sexual relations with several men, (and) there was no restriction on anyone. These were the prostitutes, on the doors of whose apartments there used to be a sign indicating that everyone was welcome. When such a woman became pregnant and a child was born to her, all the men who had sex with her would gather, and the specialists in the line were called in, and they, from the facial appearance of the child, would fix its paternity, and it would, then, become the child of the man, thus, named and he could not refuse to accept it." (After narrating all these forms of union, Hazrat Ayshah رضى الله عنها observed): "When the Holy Prophet ﷺ was raised up by God with truth, he abolished all the despicable and rotten customs that were prevalent during the days of Perversion, and (only the good and the clean) method remained which is, now, being followed." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It can be imagined from the above in what filth and debasement the Arabs were immersed at the time of the raising up of the sacred Prophet ﷺ.

اللهم صل على سيدنا محمد عبدك و نبيك رسول الرحمة مخرج الناس
من الظلمت الى النور يا ذنك وبارك وسلم.

It is Better To Have One Look At The Woman One is Intending To Marry

(١٦٧٣/٢) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ مَسْلَمَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
إِذَا أَلْقَى اللَّهُ فِي قَلْبِ امْرِئٍ خِطْبَةَ امْرَأَةٍ فَلَا بَأْسَ أَنْ يَنْظُرَ إِلَيْهَا.

(رواه احمد وابن ماجه)

(1673/2) It is related by Muhammad ibn Maslamah رضى الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When the Lord may put the intention of marrying a woman into anyone's heart, it is not sinful to have one look at her." (Musnad Ahmad and Ibn Majah)

(١٦٧٤/٣) عَنْ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ خَطَبْتُ امْرَأَةً فَقَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ نَظَرْتُ إِلَيْهَا؟ قُلْتُ لَا، قَالَ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا فَإِنَّهُ أَحْرَى أَنْ يُودِمَ بَيْنَكُمَا.

(1674/3) Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضي الله عنه narrated When I made the offer to marry a lady, (or thought of doing so), the Messenger of Allah ﷺ enquired if I had seen her, and, on my replying in the negative, he said: 'Have one look at her. It will be helpful in promoting love and pleasantness between you.'

(Tirmizi and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Marriage is a very serious matter and a life-long partnership. It should not be taken lightly and settled in the dark, but with open eyes. Correct information about the girl can, also, be obtained through trustworthy persons, specially ladies. Care should, however, be taken that it did not cause annoyance or inconvenience to the girl or her family, and, better still, that it was done without their knowledge.

It is stated in Abu Dawood, on the authority of Hazrat Jabir رضي الله عنه, that when he decided to make a request for marriage with a girl, he tried to see her, without her knowledge, and on the advice of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, until he succeeded.

An Offer Should Not Be Made Upon Another Offer

(١٦٧٥/٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَخْطُبُ الرَّجُلُ عَلَى خِطْبَةِ أَخِيهِ حَتَّى يَنْكِحَ أَوْ يَتْرُكَ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1675/4) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "No one should make a proposal (of marriage) against the proposal of his brother, i.e., any other person until he (the latter) weds (another woman) or withdraws the offer."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that if a man has made an offer of marriage with a girl, it is not proper for anyone else to propose for her until the earlier offer has been rejected or taken back.

The Consent of The Woman And The Position Of Her Guardians in Relation To It (١٦٧٦/٥) عَنْ إِبْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الثِّيبُ أَحَقُّ بِنَفْسِهَا مِنْ وَلِيِّهَا وَالْبِكْرُ يُسْتَأْذِنُهَا أَبُوْهَا فِي نَفْسِهَا وَإِذْنُهَا صُمَاتُهَا.

(رواه مسلم)

(1676/5) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A woman who has been through a husband has a greater authority over herself than a guardian, and the father of a virgin should obtain her consent regarding marriage, and silence, too, is (a form of) consent." (Muslim)

(١٦٧٧/٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُنْكَحُ الْأَيِّمُ حَتَّى تُسْتَأْمَرَ وَلَا تُنْكَحُ الْبِكْرُ حَتَّى تُسْتَأْذَنَ، قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ إِذْنُهَا؟ قَالَ إِنْ تَسَكَّتْ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1677/6) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A woman who has been through a husband should not be married (again) until she has been sounded about it, and an unmarried woman should, also, not be married without her consent." The Companions رضي الله عنهم, upon it, enquired what would be the way of knowing whether she was willing or not." Her silence, (on being asked)." replied he Prophet ﷺ, "will denote her willingness." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The literal meaning of the word Aiyyim', occurring in the original, are 'a woman without a husband', but, in this Tradition, it denotes a woman who has separated from her husband after the marriage, or after living with him for sometime, either on account of the death of the husband or divorce. The same kind of woman has been described as Saiyyib in Abdullah ibn Abbas's narrative. About such a woman it is stated in both the aforementioned Traditions that she should not be married without her approval which can be expressed variably or by a clear sign. This is what Hatta Tustamar, used in the text, denotes.

As against it, Bikr -a 'maiden', a 'virgin' denotes girl who has attained puberty, but is still unmarried. About her, the rule is that she should not be married without her consent, but as, it is, generally, difficult for a girl like her to convey her willingness through the speech or a clear sign, her keeping quiet when asked has declared to be the equivalent of consent.

The purport of both the Traditions, in any case, is that the marriage of a woman who has come of age should not be performed by her guardian without her consent, no matter whether she is a maiden or has been through a husband.

If, however, a girl is too young in years to decide for herself and a good match is available, and it is in her interest that she is married to him, her guardian can do so out of sincere goodwishing.

It may be recalled that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, had married his daughter, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, to the Holy Prophet ﷺ when she was only six or seven years old.

(١٦٧٨/٧) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا نِكَاحَ إِلَّا

بِوَلِيِّ. (رواه احمد والترمذى وابو داؤد وابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1678/7) It is related by Moosa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There can be no Nikah (marriage) without the guardian."

(Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah and Daarmi)

Commentary: What it, apparently denotes that the Nikah of a girl should be performed through her guardian. It is not proper for a woman to have her marriage solemnised on her own. It does not go well with her natural sense of modesty and self-respect, and can, also, lead to unpleasant consequences.

Nevertheless, as already stated, the woman has the final say in the matter, and the guardian cannot marry her to anyone against her wish.

Marriage Should Not Be Solemnised in Secrecy

(١٦٧٩/٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْلِنُوا

هَذَا النِّكَاحَ وَاجْعَلُوهُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ وَاضْرِبُوا عَلَيْهِ بِالْذُّفُوفِ. (رواه الترمذى)

(1679/8) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Perform the marriage openly, and in the mosque, and have the tambourine played." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Perhaps, the idea behind it is that if a marriage is solemnised secretly, it can give rise to irresponsible talk and lead to frustrating developments. It should, therefore, be performed publicly, and, preferably, in a mosque where, apart from the blessings of the place, no special invitation is needed for the occasion and the provision concerning the witness, too, is easily fulfilled.

As for the playing of the tambourine, it was a common feature, during the days of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, on occasions like marriage. A wedding ceremony should, in any case, not be altogether devoid of entertainment. Hence, the Prophet ﷺ has permitted, or rather encouraged the playing of the drum when a marriage is celebrated.

Witness

(١٦٨٠/٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْبَغَايَا الَّتِي

يَنْكِحْنَ أَنْفُسَهُنَّ بِغَيْرِ بَيِّنَةٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1680/9) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The women who marry without a witness, i.e., secrecy are adulteresses."

Commentary: Imam Tirmizi has quoted this Tradition as a *Murfoo*¹, on the authority of Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ, as well as *Mauqoof*², i.e., it is not actually a saying of the Prophet ﷺ, but Abdullah ibn Abbas's ؓ own utterance or fiat, and preferred the latter view on the basis of the evidence of transmission. But, even if it is an utterance of Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ, he would not, surely, have said such a thing on his own, and without hearing it from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

It, thus, belongs to the class of Murfoo' Traditions according to the criterion laid down by the authorities, and almost all the Jurists are agreed that witnesses are essential to the performance of a marriage. A marriage is null and void if it is solemnised without the presence of persons who testify that the event has duly taken place.

①. The report of saying of the Holy Prophet ﷺ which is attributed directly to him.

②. The report of a saying which is attributed to a Companion or Companions.

The Sermon of Marriage

(١٦٨١/١٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ عَلَّمَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُطْبَةَ الْحَاجَةِ أَنْ الْحَمْدَ لِلَّهِ نَسْتَعِينُهُ وَنَسْتَغْفِرُهُ وَنَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شُرُورِ أَنْفُسِنَا مَنْ يَهْدِيَ اللَّهُ فَلَا مَضِلَّ لَهُ وَمَنْ يَضِلَّ فَلَا هَادِيَ لَهُ وَ أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَشْهَدُ أَنْ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي تَسَاءَلُونَ بِهِ وَالْأَرْحَامَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيبًا (النساء ١:٤) يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ تَقَاتِهِ وَلَا تَمُوتُنَّ إِلَّا وَأَنْتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا (الاحزاب ٧٠:٣٣-٧١)

(في شرح السنة عن ابن مسعود في خطبة الحاجة من النكاح وغيره)

(1681/10) Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه related to us, saying that "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught us the following sermon for all important occasions like marriage:

'Praise be to Allah! Thee, alone, do we beg for help and forgiveness, and in Thee, alone, do we seek refuge from the mischief of the self, i.e., the inordinate appetites. No one can lead him astray upon whom God bestows Guidance, and no one can make him rightly-guided from whom God withholds Guidance. I affirm that no one is worthy of worship and obedience save Allah, and Muhammad is His Slave and Messenger ﷺ.

Be careful of your duty towards Allah in whom you claim (your rights) of one another, and toward th wombs (that beare you). Lo! Allah has a watch over you. (Al Nisaa 4:1)

O You who believe! Fear Allah and speak words straight to the point, He will set right your deeds for you and will forgive your sins. And whosoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, he indeed has gained a mighty triumph. (Al Ahzab 33:70-71)

(Abu Dawood, Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, and Nasai)

Commentary: Whatever a bondman may be wanting to declare, by way of an affirmation of his loyalty and humbleness, is contained in the opeinig lines of this sermon while the Qur'anic verses given at the end are, wholly, sufficient for the bondsman's guidance and information.

The sermon is delivered before Nikah, or, as would say, the proceedings of marriage begin with it. Alas, it, too, has got reduced to a mere formality, otherwise it includes a complete code of conduct for the couple.

Mahr

As we have learnt from Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها narrative, quoted in the last Chapter, the settlement of Mahr, i.e., dower or marriage-portion was in vogue, among the good families of the Arabs even in the Age of Ignorance, as a part of the matrimonial arrangement. It was, in other words, necessary for the bridegroom to agree upon the payment of a fixed amount of money to the bride before the performance of Nikah. The practice was, also, maintained by Islam.

The Mahr serves as a proof and indication of the fact that the man is desirous of marrying the woman he is going to wed, and is willing to offer Mahr as a gift to her, according to his means, or has bound himself to its payment at a future time.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has not, definitely, set forth the amount of Mahr, as circumstances can vary from man to man. He had, however, fixed the Mahr of 500 dirhams,¹ or a little short of it, for his daughters, and similar, also, was the Mahr of most of his wives.

During the lifetime of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, a greater or lesser amount than 500 Dirhams was, also, settled upon as dower-money, and it was deemed necessary for Muslims to conform to the Mahr of his wives or daughters.

From the directions given in the Qur'an and the Traditions, it is clear that the settlement of Mahr on the bride is not an empty ritual or formality, but its payment is binding on the husband excepting that the wife, on her own account, forgoes it. As it is set forth in the Qur'an:

وَأْتُوا النِّسَاءَ صَدُقَاتِهِنَّ نِحْلَةً (النساء ٤:٤)

And give that woman (you marry) their dower cheerfully as a free gift.

(Al Nisaa 4:4)

①. Dirham is said to be an unstamped piece of silver which was current in Arabia of those days as a coin. Later, it was altered into a round form and stamped. Its value is uncertain.

The Importance attached by the Holy Prophet ﷺ to Mahr can be imagined from the Traditions given below.

(١٦٨٢/١١) عَنْ مَيْمُونِ الْكُرْدِيِّ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَارِجُلٍ تَزَوَّجَ امْرَأَةً عَلَى مَا قَلَّ مِنَ الْمَهْرِ أَوْ كَثُرَ لَيْسَ فِي نَفْسِهِ أَنْ يُؤَدَّى إِلَيْهَا سَقْفَهَا لَقِيَ اللَّهَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَهُوَ زَانٍ. (رواه الطبراني في الاوسط والصغير)
(1682/11) Maimoon Kurdi relates, on the authority of his father, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "whoever weds a woman on a Mahr, whether big or small, and, in his heart, there is not the intention to pay it, will appear before the Lord, on the Day of Resurrection, as an adulterer (or fornicator)." (Tabarani)

Commentary: It tells that if a man is not sincere about the payment of Mahr from the very beginning and has agreed to it purely as a formality, his Nikha is faulty and incomplete, and he is such a sinner in the sight of God that he will be treated as an adulterer or fornicator on the Day of Requital.

Many other sayings of an identical nature have been quoted in Kanzul 'Ummal from authentic source-books. These contain a most severe warning for men who do not take Mahr seriously and agree to amounts the payment of which is beyond their means.

(١٦٨٣/١٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ كَمْ كَانَ صِدَاقُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؟ قَالَتْ كَانَ صِدَاقُهُ لَا زَوْاجَهُ ثِنْتَى عَشْرَةَ أَوْقِيَةً وَنَشْ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1683/12) It is related by Abu Salmah ؓ "I enquired from Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها about the Mahr of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. She replied that the Mahr of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ wives was 12½ Auqiya." (Abu Dawood and Nasai)

Commentary: An Auqiya is equal to 40 dirhams, and 12½ Auqiya will, thus, make 500 dirhams.

It needs be remembered that 500 dirhams were quite a substantial amount during those days, and about 50 goats could be purchased with them.

(١٦٨٤/١٣) عَنْ أُمِّ حَبِيبَةَ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تَحْتَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ جَحْشٍ فَمَاتَ

بَارِضِ الْحَبْشَةِ فَرَّوْجَهَا النَّجَاشِيُّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَمَّهَرَهَا عَنْهُ
أَرْبَعَةَ آلَافٍ دِرْهَمٍ وَبَعَثَ بِهَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَعَ شَرْحِبِيلَ
بْنِ حَسَنَةَ. (رواه أبو داود والنسائي)

(1684/13) It is related by Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها. She relates that she was married to Ubaidullah ibn Hajsh (and had migrated with him to Abyssinia). (It was there that) her husband, Ubaidullah ibn Hajsh died, and Negus, (the King of Abyssinia) married her to the Messenger of Allah, and settled 5,000 dirhams as her Mahr, on behalf of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and paid it to her from his own pocket. Negus, then sent her to the Prophet ﷺ in the company of Sharjeel ibn Hasana.

(Abu Dawood and Nissai)

Commentary: Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها was the daughter of Abu Sufyan who, till the Victory of Makkah, was the leader of its Pagans and an Arch enemy of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Eight years after the Migration, at the time of the Victory of Makkah, Abu Sufyan embraced Islam, but his daughter had become a Muslim much earlier, and so had her husband, Ubaidullah ibn Jahash.

When the Muslims were persecuted Mercilessly in Makkah, some of them had, on the Prophet's ﷺ advice, migrated to Abyssinia. they included Umm Habiba and her husband. It so happened that, in Abyssinia, Abdullah ibn Jahash forsook Islam and adopted Christianity. He, also, drank excessively and died in that state. But Umm Habiba رضى الله عنها remained steadfast in Faith. When the news of the death of Obaidullah ibn Jahash reached the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, he decided to marry Umm Habiba رضى الله عنها in order to bring her solace and comfort, and, also, to show his appreciation of her resoluteness in the path of Islam. There were some other reasons, too, of importance to the Faith that called for it. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, then, sent a special messenger to Negus, requesting him to make the proposal of marriage, on his behalf, to Umm Habiba, and the Abyssinia Emperor had it done through his slave-girl, Abraha. The proposal was gladly accepted by Umm Habiba رضى الله عنها who appointed a near relation from among the emigrant Muslims, named Khalid ibn Saeed El-Aasi, as her agent, and, as it is stated in Abu Dawood and Nasai, Negus married her to Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and himself paid the Mahr. In the report quoted in Abu Dawood, the amount of Mahr is given as 4,000 dinars¹ which is more authentic, according to the authorities. In any case, the Mahr of Umm Habiba was highest among the wives of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, but it was settled by the Abyssinian ruler, and not by him, and, as the Traditions have it, it was, also, paid by the former.

The incident, it appears, took place in the fifth year of migration to Abyssinia.

It may be noted that Negus was the title of the Emperor of Abyssinia while the real name of the particular ruler, referred to in the above Tradition, was Asmaha. He had learnt about the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ through the Muslim emigrants and embraced Islam. He died in the 8th or the 9th A.H.,. The Holy Prophet ﷺ was informed of his death in Divine Revelation who, then, told it to the Companions ﷺ and held his funeral service in absentia.

Felicitations And Supplication

Various forms of felicitations, on the occasion of marriage, are current in the world. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, however, has taught a formula which is more in the nature of a supplication for the happiness and well-being of the couple.

(١٦٨٥/١٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا رَفَا
الْإِنْسَانَ إِذَا تَزَوَّجَ قَالَ بَارَكَ اللَّهُ لَكَ وَبَارَكَ عَلَيْكُمَا وَجَمَعَ بَيْنَكُمَا فِي
خَيْرٍ.
(رواه احمد والترمذى و ابو داؤد وابن ماجه)

(1685/14) Abu Hurayrah ﷺ relates, saying that when the Prophet ﷺ congratulated anyone on his marriage, he would say: "May God bless you, and bestow His favour on you, and keep you united for ever in goodness and welfare."

(Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

(١٦٨٦/١٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا تَزَوَّجَ أَحَدُكُمْ امْرَأَةً أَوْ شَرَى خَادِمًا فَلْيَقُلْ اللَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْأَلُكَ

خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1686/15) Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه related to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever marries a woman or buys a slave or slave-girl should make the following supplication: Oh Allah! I beseech Thee for the goodness and virtue Thou hast blessed her (or him) with, and embedded in her (or his) nature. Favour me with it. And I beg Thee refuge from her (or his) wickedness, and the vice and viciousness in her (or his) nature. Protect me from it." (Abu Dawood)

The Simpler a Marriage, The More Blessed it is

(١٦٨٧/١٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اعْظُمُ النِّكَاحِ

بِرَّكَهٍ أَيْسَرُهُ مُؤْنَةً. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1687/16) It is related by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "That marriage is most blessed which is the least burdensome." (Baihaqi)

Commentary: It, obviously, is not a mere statement of fact, but, also, an exhortation to the Ummah to keep the marriages as simple as possible. In that case, the marriage will prove a blessing, and not a burden.

Dowry of Fatima رضي الله عنها

(١٦٨٨/١٧) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ جَهَّزَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاطِمَةَ فِي

خِمِيلٍ وَقِرْبَةٍ وَوِسَادَةٍ خَشُوهَا إِذْخَرُ. (رواه النسائي)

(1688/17) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه narrates "Messenger of Allah ﷺ had given the following articles as dowry to his daughter, Fatimah رضي الله عنها. A bordered head covering, a small water-bag of leather, and a pillow stuffed with the grass, Azkhar." (Nasai)

Commentary: This report is commonly believed, in our country, to men that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had given these articles to his daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها, as dowry on the occasion of her marriage, while, in fact, the practice of giving something to the bride, on her marriage, did not exist among the Arabs. They had no idea of it, so much so that a word like 'dowry' did not exist in their language, nor is it mentioned in any of the reports of the marriages of that time. The Holy Prophet ﷺ had arranged for these things as Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ guardian, and at his request, and with his money, as he did not possess the essential household goods at the time of his marriage with Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها. Full details of the event are contained in the Traditions.

Walima

To be married to a woman of one's liking a great favour of the Lord, and a matter of rejoicing. The marriage-feast, commonly known as Walima, is an outward expression of the feelings of gratitude and pleasure. Through it, it is further, made known from the side of the bridegroom and his family that they are happy over the alliance and regard it as a Divine blessings which will, of course, be a source of great satisfaction to the bride and her people and add to mutual attachment and goodwill.

(١٦٨٩/١٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأَى عَلَى عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَثَرَ صُفْرَةٍ فَقَالَ مَا هَذَا؟ قَالَ تَزَوَّجْتُ امْرَأَةً عَلَى وَرَنِ نَوَاقٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ قَالَ بَارَكَ اللَّهُ لَكَ أَوَّلِمَ وَلَوْ بِشَاةٍ.
(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1689/18) Sayyidina Anas ﷺ Narrates "(once), on noticing a trace of the yellow colour on Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf ﷺ, i.e., on his dress or body, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ enquired from him about it. Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf ﷺ replied 'I have married a woman for gold of the weight of a date-stone, i.e., as Mahr. 'God bless you,' observed the Prophet ﷺ. 'Give the feast of Walima even if you have to slaughter a whole goat (for it).'"

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: What the Messenger of Allah ﷺ meant, probably, was that Sayyidina Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf ﷺ should spend liberally on the feast to celebrate his marriage.

It, further, shows that the training and instruction the holy Companions ﷺ had received at the hands of the Holy Prophet ﷺ had cast them in such a mould that they did not give Prophet ﷺ the trouble of attending their marriages. They did not even inform him.

Thus, we find that even Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf ؓ who was among the chosen Companions ؓ and belonged to the group of the ten most pious Companions ؓ who were honoured with the title of Ashra Mobashshira, at the time of the Truce of Hudaibiyah, got married and the sacred Prophet ﷺ knew nothing of it.

The trace of yellowness on the clothes of Syyidina Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf ؓ, as mentioned in the above Tradition, can, perhaps, be explained by the fact that, in those days, the brides used to wear garments dyed in saffron etc., and its effects were, also, sometimes, felt on the dress or body of the bridegroom.

(١٦٩٠/١٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ مَا أَوْلَمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى أَحَدٍ

مِنْ نِسَائِهِ مَا أَوْلَمَ عَلَى زَيْنَبَ أَوْلَمَ بِشَاةٍ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1690/19) Sayyidina Anas ؓ related to us, saying "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not give a Walima on his marriage with any of his wives on the scale on which he gave the Walima on his marriage with Zainab bint Jahash رضى الله عنها. He gave the Walima of a whole goat. (The entire meat of a goat was used in the feast)"

Commentary: It shows that the feasts the Holy Prophet ﷺ gave on his other marriages were on a smaller scale. As it is stated, for instance, in Sahih Bukhari, on the authority of Safia bint Sheba, only two seers of barely were used in the Walima feasts of some of his marriages and, again, on the authoirty of Sayyidina Anas ؓ, that when the Prophet ﷺ married Sayyidah Safia رضى الله عنها there was neither meat nor bread in the feast, but only some dates, cheese and butter. From it, we learn that not even a regular meal is necessary for Walima. Whatever eatables one can afford should be served to the guests. How sad it is that, like dowry, we have made Walima, too, a heavy obligation.

Invitation of Walima Should be Accepted

(١٦٩١/٢٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا

دُعِيَ أَحَدُكُمْ إِلَى الْوَلِيمَةِ فَلْيَأْتِهَا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1691/20) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you is invited to the feast of the Walima, he should accept the invitation.

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The marriage feasts were held in the correct way when the holy Prophet ﷺ had made this observation, and it is with regard to such feasts that the commandments stand. It has nothing to do with the entertainments that are openly wasteful and the eye is on display. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, in fact, has advised us to stay away from them.

Whose Invitation Should be Declined?

(١٦٩٢/٢١) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْ طَعَامِ

الْمُتَبَارِكِينَ أَنْ يُؤْكَلَ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1692/21) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ that "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade from eating the food of the people who try to excel one another." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: What it tells is that the invitations of persons who throw lavish parties, dinners etc., to impress others with their wealth or superiority should not be accepted.

(١٦٩٣/٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَرُّ

الطَّعَامِ طَعَامُ الْوَلِيْمَةِ يُدْعَى لَهَا الْأَغْنِيَاءُ وَيُتْرَكُ الْفُقَرَاءُ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ الدَّعْوَةَ

فَقَدْ عَصَى اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1694/23) It is related by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The food of the Walima is allowed to which only the rich are invited and the poor are ignored; and whoever did not accept the invitation (without a cogent reason) acted against the Commandment of Allah and His Messenger."

(Bukahri and Muslim)

Commentary: The first part of the above Tradition stresses that whoever gives a marriage feast should, also, invite the poor. The food served at a Walima to which only the well-to-do or important persons are invited is not worth eating. It, naturally, applies to all the feasts, and not merely to Walima.

What the second part seeks to convey is that unless there is a valid excuse, the invitation of a Muslim brother to a feast ought to be accepted. It generates brotherly feelings while the declining of an invitation can stir up unfriendly sentiments.

Prayer at The Time of Couplation

(١٦٩٤/٢٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ أَنَّ أَحَدَكُمْ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ أَهْلَهُ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا فَإِنَّهُ إِنِ يُقَدَّرُ بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَدٌ فِي ذَلِكَ لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ شَيْطَانٌ أَبَدًا

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1694/23) It is related by Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When anyone of you makes this supplication to God while going to his wife (for making love), and a child is destined to him from that couplation, the Devil will not be able to harm the child and it will remain safe forever from his mischeif:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَا رَزَقْتَنَا

'In the Name of Allah! O God! Save me from the mischief of the Devil, and the progeny You may bestow upon me."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: As Sheikh Abdul Haq Mohaddith Dehlavi has observed in Ash'iatul Lam'aat, if a supplication like it is not made at the time of copulation and only the sexual urge is satisfied like the animals, the child that may born as a result of it will not be safe from the evil influence of the Devil. The Sheikh adds that "it is the main reason why the morals of the present generation are not good."

Copulation Must be Kept as A Secret From Others

(١٦٩٥/٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَشَرِّ النَّاسِ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ مَنْزِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ الرَّجُلُ يُفْضِي إِلَى امْرَأَتِهِ وَتُقْضَى إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَنْشُرُ سِرَّهَا.

(رواه مسلم)

(1695/24) It is related by Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "On the Day of Resurrection, he will be of the worst degree in the eyes of Allah in the greatest degree who divulges the secret after having sex with is wife."

(Muslim)

The Curse of God is on The Unnatural Act

(١٦٩٦/٢٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَلْعُونٌ

مَنْ أَتَى امْرَأَةً فِي دُبْرِهَا. (رواه احمد وابو داود)

(1696/25) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه relates that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The man who performs the unnatural act with his wife is accursed." (Musnad Ahmad and Abu Dawood)

(١٦٩٧/٢٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا

يَنْظُرُ اللَّهُ إِلَى رَجُلٍ أَتَى رَجُلًا أَوْ امْرَأَةً فِي الدُّبْرِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1697/26) It is related by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "God will not even look at him who commits sodomy with a man or woman." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Even the animals do not satisfy their sexual desire in the unnatural way. The human beings who are guilty of it, thus, are even worse than the quadrupeds, and offer a living proof of the Correctness of the Qur'anic verse:

ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَاهُ أَسْفَلَ سَافِلِينَ (التين ٩٥:٥)

"Then We reduced him to the lowest of the low. (Al Tin 95:5)

It will be known only on the Day of Final Judgement what a grievous misfortune is to remain deprived of even a glance from the Almighty.

Restrained Ejaculation

Sometimes, for a special reason, such as, the health of the wife or the earlier children, a man does not want his wife to become pregnant. For it, he practices 'Azl (restrain ejaculation), i.e., separates himself from the wife at the time of ejaculation. It was done during the days of the Holy Prophet ﷺ as well. The reply the Prophet ﷺ gave when enquired is not forbidden, it is also not good. Most of the Jurists have drawn the same conclusion from the Traditions pertaining to it, and the basic law, according to them, is that if a man wants to practice 'Azl owing to his peculiar circumstances, he can do so, and it will not amount to sin. But the way in which the campaigns of family planning or population control are being launched now a days, in certain countries, at the national level, and the chief aim of which is to put a check to limit the human race mainly on the ground that if the population goes on increasing as it is, it will not be possible to feed the people or improve the standard of living is wholly un-Islamic. In truth, it is not far different, in its spirit, from the custom of killing the children in their infancy that was prevalent among the Arabs in the Age of Ignorance. It is to such people that these verses are addressed in the Qur'an:

لَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ مِنْ إِمْلَاقٍ ط نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكُمْ وَإِيَّاهُمْ (الانعام: ١٥١)

Slay not your children because of penury. We provide you and for them. (Al-Anam 6:151)

After this brief introduction, the Traditions.

(١٦٩٨/٢٧) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كُنَّا نَعَزِلُ وَالْقُرْآنُ يَنْزِلُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

وَرَزَاذَ مُسْلِمٍ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ يَنْهَنَا.

(1698/27) It is narrated by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه "(during the life-time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ), when the revelation of the Qur'an was continuing, we, i.e., some of the Companions رضي الله عنهم used to practise 'Azl, (and no verse of the Qur'an had been revealed forbidding it)." In another version of it, quoted in Sahih Muslim, it is added that "it was in the knowledge of the Prophet ﷺ, but he did not prohibit." (Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٦٩٩/٢٨) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ

الْعَزْلِ فَقَالَ مَا مِنْ كُلِّ الْمَاءِ يَكُونُ الْوَلَدُ وَإِذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ خَلْقَ شَيْءٍ لَمْ يَمْنَعْهُ شَيْءٌ. (رواه مسلم)

(1699/28) Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه relates, saying "(once) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked about 'Azl upon which he said: 'It is not that one conceives with every seminal discharge. (It is only by Allah's will that a woman conceives and gives birth to a child). And when Allah decides upon the creation of anything, no one can stop it." (Bukhari)

Commnetary: It shows that it is not correct to suppose that the birth of a child can be prevented by 'Azl. The birth will take place, in any case, if it is willed by God. The next Tradition is more clear to it

(١٧٠٠/٢٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ لِي جَارِيَةً هِيَ خَادِمَتُنَا وَأَنَا أَطُوفُ عَلَيْهَا وَأَكْرَهُ أَنْ تَحْمِلَ فَقَالَ إِعْزِلْ عَنْهَا إِنْ شِئْتَ فَإِنَّهُ سَيَاتِيهَا مَا قَدَّرَ لَهَا فَلَبِثَ الرَّجُلُ ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْجَارِيَةَ قَدْ حَبَلَتْ فَقَالَ قَدْ أَخْبَرْتُكَ إِنَّهُ سَيَاتِيهَا مَا قَدَّرَ لَهَا. (رواه مسلم)

(1700/29) It is related by Jabir رضي الله عنه "(once) a man came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said: 'I have a slave-girl who looks after the domestic work at my house, and I, also, make love to her, but I do not want her to become pregnant.' (Perhaps, he wanted to know if he could practise 'Azl with her). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ observed: 'You can practise 'Azl if you like, but it is certain that what has been destined for the slave-girl will happen.' The man, again, came after some time and said that the slave-girl had conceived. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied: 'I had told you that what had been ordained for her shall come to pass'." (Muslim)

Commentary: In the two aforementioned Traditions, it is emphasised that if it is decided by God about anything that it will come into existance, it shall take place and nothing can stop it. As for example, a man practises 'Azl to kep his wife from conceiving, but if it is decreed by the Lord, at any time, that she gave birth to a child, either the husband will not be able to get away from her quickly enough or some discharge secretion will take place before the ejaculation, without his knowing it, and she will become pregnant.

Permission to Have Four Wives

Whether by temperament or circumstances, there are men who are likely to go astray and seek sexual gratification in a sinful manner if they are not allowed to have more than one wife at the same time. That is why, in the Canonic Laws in which adultery or fornication is strictly forbidden, it has, generally, been permitted to have more wives than one.

In the Shari'ah brought by the sacred Prophet ﷺ, fornication, specially by a married person is such a great sin that it is punishable with death by stoning. If in such a Shari'ah, polygamy was not allowed, in any event, it would, indeed, have been extremely cruel and unjust. In the Western countries in which polygamy is legally forbidden, no eyebrows are raised on illicit sexual intercourse and the question of its legitimacy or otherwise does not arise. In order to put an end to illicit sex, the Islamic Shari'ah, on the one hand, prescribed a most severe punishment, and, on the other, permitted a man to have up to four wives at the same time, subject, of course, to appropriate conditions.

Like many other communities, among the Arabs, too, there was no limit to the number of wives before the advent of Islam. Some men used to have ten, and even more wives at a time. Keeping in view the different circumstances of different people, the Islamic Shari'ah has fixed the limit at four.

(١٧٠١/٣٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ غَيْلَانَ بْنَ سَلَمَةَ الثَّقَفِيَّ اسْلَمَ وَلَهُ عَشْرُ نِسْوَةٍ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَأَسْلَمْنَ مَعَهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمْسِكْ أَرْبَعًا وَفَارِقْ سَائِرَهُنَّ
(رواه احمد)

(1701/30) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه Narrates "When Ghailan ibn Salmah Thaqafi embraced Islam, he had ten wives who had, also, accepted Islam with him. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, thereupon, told him to keep four and divorce the rest."
(Musnad Ahmad)

Justice And Equity in Treatment Towards Wives

A man who has more than one wife must deal fairly with them, and make no difference in the treatment of one wife over another. In Sura-i-Nissa, in which permission has been given to marry up to four women, it is candidly stated that:

If you fear that you cannot do justice (to so many wives), then one (only).

For husbands who do not treat their wives with justice there is the warning of a heavy penalty in the Hereafter. The inclination of the heart is, of course, different over which a man has little control, but where the moral and material rights of the wives are concerned, no discrimination should be shown.

(١٧٠٢/٣١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا كَانَتْ عِنْدَ الرَّجُلِ امْرَأَتَانِ فَلَمْ يَعْدِلْ بَيْنَهُمَا جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَشِقْقُهُ سَاقِطٌ.

(رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد والنسائى و ابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1702/31) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whosoever has two, (or more), wives, and does not treat them with justice and fairness, he will appear on the Last Day in such a condition that one side of his body would have missing. (Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasai, Ibn Majah and Daarmi)

Commnetary: It offers another example of similarity between the misdeeds of this world and the punishment, in the Hereafter. A man, it tells, who has more than one wife and discriminates among them in behaviour and treatment will be seen by everyone, on the Day of Resurrection, with one side of his body missing.

(١٧٠٣/٣٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُقْسِمُ بَيْنَ نِسَائِهِ فَيَعْدِلُ وَيَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ هَذَا قَسْمِي فِيمَا أَمْلِكُ فَلَا تَلْمَنِي فِيمَا تَمْلِكُ وَلَا أَمْلِكُ.

(رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد و النسائى و ابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1703/32) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها Narrated "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to live with his wives in turns, and treat them with full justice. In addition to it, he would supplicate:

اللَّهُمَّ هَذَا قَسْمِي فِيمَا أَمْلِكُ فَلَا تَلْمَنِي فِيمَا تَمْلِكُ وَلَا أَمْلِكُ

"O my God! This is my behaviour in things and doings over which I have control. Call me, therefore, not to account for the thing (of the heart) which is in Your power, not mine."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Nasai, Ibn Majah and Daarami)

Commentary: It shows that the Prophet ﷺ maintained a complete equality among his wives as far as practical behaviour and standard of living were concerned. He treated all of them alike. But the attachment of the heart is something which cannot be ordered. It could not be the same with each wife. Hence, the Prophet ﷺ used to beseech the Lord to forgive him if there was any difference in it for love and inclination did not lie in his power; it was in the Hands of Allah.

DIVORCE AND PERIOD OF WAITING

The main object of marriage is that, by entering into it, people led a clean and virtuous life, and just as they were someone's children, they, too, produced children, and the children were a source of joy to them and a means to the attainment of Paradise in Hereafter.

For the realisation of these ends, it is essential that relations between man and wife were pleasant and based on love and understanding. This, in a nutshell, is the substance of the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ relating to the conduct and behaviour between husband and wife. Yet, sometimes, circumstances arise in which it becomes extremely difficult to live together. The Prophet's ﷺ advice, even then, is that they should try their utmost to tolerate with each other, and resolve their differences, through mutual concession and compromise. Divorce or Talaq, too, has, however, been permitted as a last resort. It, evidently, would have been most unjust if the breaking up of a marriage was not allowed in any case, and however miserable the life of a couple became, it was legally compelled to remain joined in wedlock till death.

Detailed guidance has, hence, been furnished on the subject of divorce, the first thing to remember, as a matter of principle, being that such a development is highly displeasing to God, and, therefore, it should be avoided as far as possible. Neither the husband nor the wife should act in a hurry. The step is to be taken only when no choice is left, in the same way as, for example, the amputation of a limb is agreed to when no other course is open.

The method prescribed for divorce is that the husband should give only one *Raj'ee Talaq*¹ at a time when the wife is in a state of cleanliness, i.e., she is not having her menses so that it remained open to the husband to retrace his steps and take back the divorce within the period of 'Iddah¹. If, however, the husband cannot make up his mind about returning to his wife and restoring her to the former position, he should allow the period of Iddah to pass after which though the withdrawal of the divorce will not be possible, they can be joined, again, in wedlock by mutual consent.

①. Meaning a 'reversible' divorce ; a divorce that can be taken back within the period of 'Iddah.

The pronouncement of three *Talaqs*² simultaneously is extremely sinful, but to do so at three different times, too, has been viewed with strong disfavour, and the punishment laid down on it, here in this world, is that the husband will not be allowed to re-marry his divorced wife until she is married to another man and full conjugal relations have been established between them, and after it, she has either become a widow owing to the death of her second husband or has been divorced by her husband. It is only then that he can marry her again on the completion of 'Iddah. This severe restriction, in fact, is the penalty imposed on the husband for pronouncing three Talaqs.

Most Disagreeable Act

(١٧٠٤/٣٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَبْغَضَ الْحَلَالَ إِلَى

(رواه ابو داؤد)

اللَّهِ الطَّلَاقُ

(1704/33) It is related by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Among the lawful and legitimate things, most disagreeable to God is divorce." (Abu Dawood)

(١٧٠٥/٣٤) عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا

مُعَاذُ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ شَيْئًا عَلَى وَجْهِ الْأَرْضِ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنَ الْعِتَاقِ وَلَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ شَيْئًا

عَلَى وَجْهِ الْأَرْضِ أَبْغَضَ إِلَيْهِ مِنَ الطَّلَاقِ. (رواه الدارقطني)

(1705/34) It is related by Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "O Mu'az, God has not created anything on the face of the earth which may be more pleasing to Him than the

①. The period of waiting for a widowed or divorced woman before the expiry of which she cannot re-marry. for a divorced woman, Iddah extends up to the time that three cyclic periods of menstruation are completed, and if the woman be pregnant, until she is gives birth of the child.

②. Plural of Talaq, meaning 'divorce'.

setting free of slaves and slave-girls, and he has not created anything on the face of the earth which may be more displeasing to Him than divorce." (Daar Qutni)

(١٧٠٦/٣٥) عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا امْرَأَةٍ سَأَلَتْ زَوْجَهَا طَلَاقًا فِي غَيْرِ مَا بَأْسٍ فَحَرَامٌ عَلَيْهِ رَائِحَةُ الْجَنَّةِ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1706/35) It is related by Thauban رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The sweet smell of Paradise is forbidden to the woman who demands divorce from her husband except on account of severe hardship."

(Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah and Daarimi)

Commentary: The admonition, evidently, does not apply to the woman for whom it may have become really intolerable to live with her husband, but if she seeks divorce without the things having gone that far, it will be highly sinful on her part.

(١٧٠٧/٣٦) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُطَلِّقُوا النِّسَاءَ إِلَّا مِنْ رِيَّةٍ إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى لَا يُحِبُّ الذَّوَاقِينَ وَالذَّوَاقَاتِ.

(رواه البزار والطبرانى فى الكبير والوسط)

(1707/36) Abu Moosa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه related to us, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Women should not be divorced unless they are of a doubtful character. God does not like men who are addict to pleasure and enjoyment."

(Musnad Bazzar, and Tabarani)

Commentary: What the last part of the above Tradition denotes is that men who divorce their wives simply to marry again and derive satisfaction from a new wife are excluded from the love and good pleasure of the Lord. The same is the case with women who obtain divorce from their husbands so that they can have pleasure with a new man.

Time And Procedure

(١٧٠٨/٣٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَةً لَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَذَكَرَ عُمَرُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَغَيَّظَ فِيهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ لِيرَأَى

جَعَهَا ثُمَّ يُمْسِكُهَا حَتَّى تَطْهَرُ ثُمَّ تَحِيضُ فَتَطْهَرُ فَإِنْ بَدَأَ أَنْ يُطَلِّقَهَا فَلْيُطَلِّقَهَا طَاهِرًا قَبْلَ أَنْ يُمْسِكَهَا فَبَلَكَ الْعِدَّةَ الَّتِي أَمَرَ اللَّهُ أَنْ تُطَلَّقَ لَهَا النِّسَاءُ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1708/37) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه Narrates that he divorced his wife in the condition that she was having her menses, and his father mentioned it to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, upon which he was very angry and said: "Tell Abdullah to take back the divorce and keep the wife with him in marriage until the menstruation period ends and she comes into the period of cleanliness, and, then, the period of cleanliness ends, and she, again, has her menses, and returns, once more, to the period of cleanliness. Should he still want to divorce her, he might have a sexual intercourse with her." The Prophet of God ﷺ added: "This is the Iddah laid down in the Qur'an:

فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعَدَّتِهِنَّ (الطلاق ١:٦٥)

"Divorce them at their prescribed periods." (Al Talaq 65:1)

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that it is forbidden to divorce a woman while she is having her menses, and whoever does so by mistake should receive back his wife after the divorce. In case the husband remained of the same mind, the divorce ought to be given at the time of purification after menstruation provided that he had not made love to her during it.

The idea behind the arrangement is that during menstruation, a woman is not fit for sexual intercourse while, in the state of purification, it is quite possible that the husband felt inclined towards her and the intention to divorce disappeared from his heart which, in any case, is more pleasing to the Lord and Prophet ﷺ.

In the incident related above, Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه was told by the holy Prophet ﷺ to take back the divorce he had given and allow a period of purification to pass, and if, even then, he was adamant, he could divorce his wife during the second period of purification, the idea being that when the two would live together during the whole of the intervening period of purification, the relations might improve and the divorce avoided. But if it did not turn out that way and the divorce was invetiable, the Prophet ﷺ advised Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه to do so during the second period of purification, before cohibition. This last condition, too, was based on the logic that the sexual urge was stronger at the end of the menses, and it might, also, offer a hindrance to divorce.

It, further, shows that though divorce is forbidden during menses and is a grave sin, it does take place if given. Were it otherwise, there would have been no need for restitution, and instead of telling Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه to receive back his wife, the holy Prophet ﷺ would have said that the divorce was void.

To Give Three Divorces at The Same Time is A Great Sin

(١٧٠٩/٣٨) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ لَبَيْدٍ قَالَ أَخْبَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ ثَلَاثَ تَطْلِيقَاتٍ جَمِيعًا فَقَامَ غَضْبَانٌ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَيْلَعَبُ بَكْتَابِ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ وَأَنَا بَيْنَ أَظْهَرِكُمْ حَتَّى قَامَ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَلَا أَقْتُلُهُ.

(رواه النسائي)

(1709/38) Sayyidina Mahmood ibn Labeed رضي الله عنه narrated "(once), as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to know about a person that he had divorced his wife thrice, at the same time, he rose up in great anger and said: 'Will the book of God be mocked with even when I am present in Your midst? (To divorce thrice, at the same time, is to make a mockery of the Qur'an in which the law and method of divorce are distinctly laid down. Will the Book of God be reduced to a plaything in my lifetime)?' (As the Messenger of Allah ﷺ spoke these words in extreme anger), a Companion stood up and said: 'O Messenger of Allah ﷺ ! May I better not kill that man who has acted like that.'" (Nasai)

Commentary: It shows that the giving of three divorce simultaneously is a most serious transgression of the law of God. But as a divorce given during the monthly course takes effect in spite of being highly sinful and the woman gets divorced as a result of it, the divorce given thrice, at the same time, too, takes place in the opinion of an overwhelming majority of Jusists.

The giving of three divorces, at the same time, has been condemned as playing with the Book of God, probably, on the basis of the following verses:

الطَّلَاقُ مَرَّتَانِ O فَإِنْ طَلَّقَهَا فَلَا تَحِلُّ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدُ حَتَّى تَنْكِحَ زَوْجًا غَيْرَهُ
(البقره ٢: ٢٢٩، ٢٣٠)

Divorce is twice, then either a retention with honour or a rebase with kindness. So if he divorces her, then she shall not be lawful to him. Therefore, until she marries another husband

(Al Baqarah 2:229/230)

From these verses, it is evident that if a man wanted to divorce his wife more than once, he should not do so at the same time, but at different times, with suitable intervals.

The narrative does not tell what reply the Prophet ﷺ gave to the Companion who had offered to kill the transgressor. Perhaps, he kept quiet, and, thereby, indeed that man had committed a grievous sin, it did not amount to an offence punishable with death.

The Consequence of Three Divorces and The Injunction of The Shar'iah (١٧١٠/٣٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ جَاءَتْ إِمْرَأَةً رِفَاعَةَ الْقُرَظِيِّ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ كُنْتُ عِنْدَ رِفَاعَةَ فطَلَّقَنِي فَبَتَّ طَلَاقِي فَتَزَوَّجْتُ بَعْدَهُ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ الزُّبَيْرِ وَمَا مَعَهُ إِلَّا مِثْلَ هُدْبَةِ الْوَبِ، فَقَالَ أَتُرِيدِينَ أَنْ تَرْجِعِي إِلَى رِفَاعَةَ؟ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ لَا حَتَّى تَذُوقِي عُسَيْلَتَهُ وَيَذُوقَ عُسَيْلَتِكَ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1710/39) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها relates, saying that "Once the wife of Rifa'ah Qurazi came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said that she had been married to Rifa'ah who had divorced her and completed the whole procedure, i.e., given three divorces. She had, thereupon, married Abdul Rahman ibn Zubair, but is incapable of performing the sexual act. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked her if she wanted to go back to Rifa'ah to which she replied in the affirmative. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then, observed: "It cannot be done until sexual intercourse takes place between you two." (Meaning between the former wife of Rifa'ah and her new husband." (Bukhari & Muslim)

Commentary: The commandment is set forth, also, in the Qur'an which says:

فَإِنْ طَلَّقَهَا فَلَا تَحِلُّ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدُ حَتَّى تَنْكِحَ زَوْجًا غَيْرَهُ (البقره ٢:٢٣)

"And if a person divorces his wife the third time, he cannot, after that, re-marry her until after she has married another husband.
(Al Baqarah 2:23)

It is only in the event that the second husband dies or he, also, divorces her that the woman can re-marry her former husband, after completing the period of Iddah.

From this and many other similar Traditions, we learn by way of elucidation of the afore-mentioned verse of the Qur'an that the mere performance of marriage with some other man is not enough for this purpose. Its consummation is essential. This view is upheld by a vast majority of the Jurists. The condition of second marriage will, indeed, be rendered meaningless if it is not subject to the completion of the act that is fundamental to the relationship between man and wife.

Even a Divorce in Jest is A Divorce

(١٧١١/٤٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ثَلَاثٌ

جِدُّهِنَّ جِدٌّ وَهَزْلُهُنَّ جِدُّ النِّكَاحِ وَالطَّلَاقُ وَالرَّجْعَةُ. (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

(1711/40) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There are three things to speak seriously and with deliberation with relation to which is a reality, and to speak light-heartedly and in jest with relation to which, too, is a reality. The three things are: marriage, divorce and restitution, i.e., receiving by a husband of his wife after divorce.

(Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Its purport is that if a man marries a woman or divorces her or receives back the divorced wife in joke, it will be real in the eyes of the Shari'ah and deemed to have, actually, taken place. Marriage, divorce or restitution, by their nature, are such serious and solemn acts that no fun or frivolity can be permitted.

Divorce By a Man of A Deranged Mind

(١٧١٢/٤١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ

طَلَاقٍ جَائِزٌ إِلَّا طَلَاقَ الْمَعْتُورِ وَالْمَغْلُوبِ عَلَى عَقْلِهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1712/41) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Each divorce is valid except by a man who is not in his senses." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sometimes, a man goes out of his mind, owing to a shock or illness, and does things he would not do if he was in his senses. Should such a man divorce his wife, in that condition, the divorce will not have a legal force in the same way as the divorce a lunatic is held, legally, to be of no effect.

In another Tradition, it is stated that there are three persons who will not be held responsible for what they say or do, and no law of the Shari'ah shall be applicable to them: (i) he who is in a state of slumber; (ii) a minor child; and (iii) one who is out of his mind.

It denotes that if a man divorces his wife while talking in his sleep, it will not be effective, and similar is the case with the divorce given by a minor child or a man with a deranged mind.

A Divorce Under Duress is Null And Void

(١٧١٣/٤٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ

لَا طَلَاقَ وَلَا عِتَاقَ فِي إِغْلَاقٍ. (رواه ابو داؤد وابن ماجه)

(1713/42) Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا relates, saying that she heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "A divorce and setting free of a slave under duress are void and have no effect (in law)."

(Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that if a man is made to divorce his wife or sets free his slave under constraint or coercion, it will not be valid. This is the viewpoint of a majority of Jusists, but Imam Abu Hanifah holds that a divorce given under duress will be effective in the same way as a divorce given in jest, and the authorities of the Hanafī School of thought gives quite a different interpretation of the above Tradition.

It should, however, be noted that Imam Abu Hanifah is not alone in his judgement, but Saeed ibn Mussaiyyib, Ibrahim Nakha'ee and Sufyan Thauri, also, are reported to have drawn the same conclusion.

Iddah

The law of Iddah, too, has been laid down, in the Islamic Shari'ah, for a divorced woman. It maintains that a woman whose husband has divorced her should spend a period of time in waiting, the essential details of which are given in the Qur'an itself. For a menstruating woman, a period of waiting for three monthly courses has been prescribed, while if the menses have finally ceased or have not yet started and she is, also, not in the family way, it is three months. For a pregnant woman, Iddah extends up to the time she delivers the child, no matter how long or short it is.

The provision of Iddah is a prudent, well-advised and sensible arrangement. An important aspect of it is that it underlines the sanctity and solemnity of Nikah, i.e., the wedlock. Had there been no such stipulation and it was permitted to a woman to remarry at will and immediately after being divorced by her husband, it will, surely, have acted against the seriousness and dignity and reduce Talaq to a joke. Another aim, specially in the case of Raj'ee (reversible) Nikah, is to give an opportunity to the husband to think over the whole thing again and take back the divorce so that the couple may live, once more, as man and wife which is more pleasing to God and Prophet ﷺ. It is for this reason that during the Iddah of Talaq Raj'ee, the woman is advised to pay a little more attention to her adornment and behave towards her husband in such a way that he may, again, feel attached to her and decide to receive her back as his wife. As for Talaq Baina,¹ though it is not possible for the husband to return to his wife, there still remains a greater possibility of re-marriage by mutual consent as a result of the stipulation that the wife cannot marry again before the expiry of the period of waiting.

The third consideration is that there remained no possibility of doubt about the paternity of the child born to the woman after divorce.

Anyway, these are some of the manifest aims and advantages of the law of Iddah. It is, perhaps, for these reasons that a period of waiting after separation is prescribed, in one form or another, in a number of civilised societies of the world, but, in some cases, the period is so long as to become unbearable for the woman. The period of Iddah laid down in the Shariah, as everyone will agree, is moderate and reasonable.

From the Tradition that follows we will learn that the law of Iddah was revealed when a Companion رضي الله عنه of the Prophet ﷺ called Asma ibn Yazid ibn es-Sakan Ansariya, had been divorced by her husband.

(١٧١٤/٤٣) عَنْ أَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيدَ بْنِ السَّكَنِ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَتْ أَنَّهَا طَلِّقَتْ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لِلْمُطَلَّقَةِ عِدَّةٌ فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ الْعِدَّةَ لِلطَّلَاقِ فَكَانَتْ أَوَّلَ مَنْ نَزَلَ فِيهَا الْعِدَّةُ لِلطَّلَاقِ. (رواه أبو داود)

(1714/43) It is related by Asma bint Yazid ibn as-Sakan Ansariya, that she had been divorced during the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and until then no commandment had come down concerning Iddah. So, the Lord revealed the verses of the Qur'an in which Iddah for a divorced woman was decreed. Asma bint Yazid, thus, was the first divorced woman about whom the commandment of Iddah was revealed.

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The Qur'anic verse mentioned in it is, perhaps, the following verse of Surah Al-Baqara:

وَالْمُطَلَّقَاتُ يَتَرَبَّصْنَ بِأَنْفُسِهِنَّ ثَلَاثَةَ قُرُوءٍ (البقرة ٢: ٢٢٨)

And the divorced women shall wait, keeping themselves apart, for three monthly periods. (Al Baqarah 2:228)

Laws concerning women who are not menstruating owing to minority or old age or who are with child indicated in Surah At-Talaq.

①. Literally, 'a divorce that separates.' In the Shariah, it is distinguished from the three divorces in the sense that while the third time the divorce becomes irrevocable until the woman marries some other man, nad he, also, divorces her, in Talaq Baina no such condition is laid and re-union is permissible without it.

Iddah on Death And Mourning

There is the command of Iddah for the widow, in the Shariah, in the same way as for the divorced woman. As it is distinctly stated in the Qur'an:

وَالَّذِينَ يَتَوَفَّوْنَ مِنْكُمْ وَيَذَرُونَ أَزْوَاجًا يَتَرَبَّصْنَ بِأَنْفُسِهِنَّ أَرْبَعَةَ أَشْهُرٍ وَعَشْرًا
(البقره ٢: ٢٣٤)

And those of you who die, and leaves their wives, such women shall wait by themselves for four months and ten days.

(Al Baqarah 2:234)

This applies to the widows who are not pregnant. For the widows who are in the family way, the Iddah has been prescribed in another verse. It is until the child is born, however long or short the period may be. For the term of Iddah, the Command of mourning has, also, been given. A widowed woman is enjoined to show the conventional grief during the whole period of waiting. She is to abstain strictly from using things that are, commonly, associated with embellishment, and lead a life indicating her loss and sorrow so that those who saw her should know from her dress, appearance and behaviour that, like a good and virtuous lady, she was feeling sad and distressed at the death of her husband. but this commandment is only for the period of Iddah, and should cease at its expiry. It is not allowed, in the Shariat, that a woman observed life-long mourning on the death of her husband.

Aside of the husband, if a woman shows her heart-felt grief, in the form of mourning at the death of any other near relative like father or brother, she can do so only for three days.

(١٧١٥/٤٤) عَنْ أُمِّ حَبِيبَةَ وَرَبِيبَةَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَحِلُّ لِمَرْأَةٍ تُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ أَنْ تُحَدَّ عَلَى مَيِّتٍ فَوْقَ ثَلَاثِ لَيَالٍ إِلَّا عَلَى زَوْجٍ أَرْبَعَةَ أَشْهُرٍ وَعَشْرًا.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1715/44) It is related by Umm Habiba رضى الله عنها and Zainab bint Jahash رضى الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is not permitted to a believing woman that she observed mourning on the death of a near relative for more than three days, save that of her husband. On the death of the husband, the commandment is that the mourning be observed for four months and ten days." (Bukahri and Muslim) (١٧١٦/٤٥) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمُتَوَفَّى عَنْهَا زَوْجُهَا لَا تَلْبَسُ الْمُعْصَفَرَ مِنَ الثِّيَابِ وَلَا الْمُمَشَّقَةَ وَلَا الْحِلْيَ وَلَا تَخْتَضِبُ وَلَا تَكْتَجِلُ.

(رواه ابو داؤد والنسائي)

(1716/45) Umm Salmah رضى الله عنها relates, saying that the Prophet ﷺ said: "A woman whose husband has died should not wear clothes dyed in saffron or red chalk, nor use ornaments, hair-dye, henna or collyrium." (Abu Dawood and Nasai)

Commentary: In the days of the holy Prophet ﷺ, safflower and red chalk were, generally, used by women to dye their clothes for attraction. These two things have, thus, been, particularly, mentioned in the hadith, otherwise no special significance is attached to them and the real meaning and intention of the saying is that women who have been widowed should avoid wearing attractive clothes. In the same way, they should not use articles of adornment like ornaments, henna or collyrium.

The object of these rules and regulations is that the grief of a woman, at the loss of her husband, should not only be felt in the heart, but its effect must, also, be apparent from her dress etc.

كتاب المعاملات

KITAB UL-MA'MLAAT

(BOOK OF AFFAIRS)

IMPORTANCE OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

No man can do without acting jointly with others, and having various forms of relations, including monetary dealings. Men are dependent no one another for their needs. For instance, a labourer whose needs are very limited stands in need of the grocer from whom he can buy provisions for himself and his family, and the farmer needs the labourer to grow the crops. In the same way, both the labourer and the farmer are dependent for their dress upon the man who makes or sells the cloth, and the cloth manufacturer or dealer upon the person who buys it. If anyone has to build a house, he requires the services of the mason and other workers, and when he falls ill, he goes to the physician.

In brief, economic affairs, like buying and selling, labour and wages, agriculture and industry, and lending and borrowings are an essential part of life. In all these spheres, again, there is always the possibility of a dispute to settle with legal procedure and courts of justice is needed.

Though His Prophets عليهم السلام, specially the last of them, the Prophet Muhamamd ﷺ, Almighty Allah has enunciated the principles and methods of monetary dealings as well which , apparently, are related, purely, to worldly affairs. These laws are fully consistent with the nobility of the human race, and, also, hold out the assurance of felicity in both the worlds.

What is more, as a consequence, the management of these affairs and interests, in conformity with Divine guidance and the laws of the Shariah, has ceased merely to be a worldly matter and got elevated to Faith itself, and, in a sense, to worship the promise of Divine recompense and elevation in ranks in the Hereafter in the same way as on deeds of worship, such as, Salah, Fasting, Zikr, Recitation and Jihad and to inculcate moral virtues etc.

The guidance, rules and regulations which have reached us through the Holy Prophet ﷺ concerning this department of life, Muamlaat (Mutual Dealings) as it is called, are, as far as we know, based upon four fundamental principles: i) public good; ii) justice; iii) honesty and truthfulness; and iv) compassion

Clean Living And Lawful Earning

(١٧١٧/١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَبُ كَسْبِ

الْحَلَالِ فَرِيضَةٌ بَعْدَ الْفَرِيضَةِ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1717/1) It is related by Abdullah ibn Masud ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "To earn lawfully is, also, a duty next (only) to the principal duties of Faith." (Biahaiq)

Commentary: As most commentators agree, what this Tradition seeks to emphasise is that after testimony that there is no deity save God, and Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah and Salah Fasting etc, which are the fundamentals tenets of Islam, it is the earning of one's livelihood through honest means and by engaging oneself cleanly in a trade or profession that comes first. Whoever is heedless incurs the danger of succumbing to the temptation of earning money or acquiring wealth from illegitimate sources, and, then, his end, in the Hereafter, will be what has been indicated in the Qur'an and the Traditions with regard to those who live on unclean income.

Again, to perform a duty enjoined by God, obviously, in an act of worship, and the bondsman who does so is deserving of the Divine reward a person becomes entitled to on doing anything he is required to do by the Lord. Hence, to strive towards earning one's livelihood through honest means is virtually identical to worship and worthy of Divine recompense. What good tidings does it contain, indeed, for the conscientious traders, artisans, workers and peasants who make a clean living! It may, however, be remembered that the emphasis in this Tradition is on the seeking of a clean livelihood and not merely on making an income. The object of this saying is to warn against everything in connection with subsistence that is forbidden and unlawful.

Importance And Need of Money In Certain Circumstances

(١٧١٨/٢) عَنْ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدٍ يَكْرَبُ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يَنْفَعُ فِيهِ إِلَّا الدِّينَارُ وَالْدِّرْهَمُ.
(رواه احمد)

(1718/2) It is related, on the authority of Miqdaam ibn M'adi Karab رضي الله عنه, that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "A time will come when money, alone, will avail." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: The narrator of this Tradition is a Taba'ee called Abu Bakr ibn Abi Maryam. he has related it on the authority of Sayyidina Miqdaam ibn M'adi Karab رضي الله عنه. The incident he has mentioned in this context is that Sayyidina Miqdaam ibn M'adi Karab رضي الله عنه had some milch cattle, the milk of which was sold by his slave-girl while the price was collected by Miqdaam himself. Some people felt that it was unbecoming of Sayyidina Miqdaam رضي الله عنه to make money by selling milk, and they objected to it. Sayyidina Miqdaam رضي الله عنه admitted that he did so, and, in his support, referred to the aforementioned saying of the Prophet ﷺ. Had the holy Prophet ﷺ not said that a time was to come when money, alone, would be of use to men? What Sayyidina Miqdaam رضي الله عنه meant was that it might not be a highminded act to make money by selling milk, but, surely was permissible.

The Honest Trader Will Be With The Prophets, The Truthful and The Martyrs

(١٧١٩/٣) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ التَّاجِرُ الصَّدُوقُ الْأَمِينُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ.

(رواه الترمذی والدارمی والدارقطنی، ورواه ابن ماجه عن ابن عمر)

(1719/3) It is related by Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The trader who plies his trade cleanly and honestly will rise, in the Hereafter, in the company of the Prophets عليهم السلام, the Truthful, and the Martyrs."

(Tirmizi, Daarami and Daar-Qutni)

Note: The same Tradition has been quoted by Ibn Majah, on the authority of Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه.

Commentary: Says the Qur'an:

وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ فَأُولَئِكَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ
وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ وَحَسُنَ أُولَئِكَ رَفِيقًا (النساء ٦٩:٤)

And whoever obeys Allah and the Messengers عليهم السلام, they are with those whom Allah has blessed — of the Prophets عليهم السلام and the truthful, and the martyrs, and the righteous, and an excellent company are they. (Al Nisaa 4:69)

The life of a trader is beset with numerous trials and temptations. He is, often, confronted with a situation in which there, apparently, is the danger of loss if he remains steadfast and follows the path of honesty, as enjoined by the Almighty, and a good chance of profit if he disregards the Divine commandments and allows himself to be guided solely by material considerations. Thus, the trader who observes his duty to God in business dealings comes out successful in the trial prescribed by the Lord, and, for him, there is the promise that he will be in the company of the most favourite bondsmen of the Lord in After-life- the Prophets عليهم السلام, the Truthful and the Martyrs. This will be the reward of the upright traders in the world to come.

Warning: As we had occasion to point out repeatedly in the earlier volumes, all the tidings like it are subject to the condition that a person abstains from the other wicked and sinful deeds as well which are abomination in the sight of God and make one unworthy of His good Grace.

Dignity of Labour

(١٧٢٠/٤) عَنْ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِيكَرَبَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَكَلَ أَحَدٌ طَعَامًا قَطُّ خَيْرًا مِنْ أَنْ يَأْكُلَ مِنْ عَمَلٍ يَدَيْهِ وَإِنْ نَبَى اللَّهُ دَاوُدَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ كَانَ يَأْكُلُ مِنْ عَمَلٍ يَدَيْهِ. (رواه البخارى)

(1720/4) It is related by Miqdaam ibn M'adi Karab رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The cleanest food is that which has been earned by the labour of one's hand. In fact, the Prophet Dawood عليه السلام used to work with his hands for his living."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: It stresses the dignity of labour and cites the example of Prophet Dawood عليه السلام to bring home the food purchased from the earnings. It is told in the Qur'an that Prophet Dawood عليه السلام used to make Chain armour and, from the above Tradition, we, further, learn that he did it for a living.

(١٧٢١/٥) عَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيجٍ قَالَ قِيلَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَيُّ الْكَسْبِ أَطْيَبُ؟ قَالَ عَمَلُ الرَّجُلِ بِيَدِهِ وَكُلُّ بَيْعٍ مَبْرُورٍ.

(رواه احمد)

(1721/5) Sayyidina Raafi' ibn Khadeej رضي الله عنه narrates that a person (once) enquired from the Prophet ﷺ which income was better and more clean. (What was a better way of earning one's livelihood)? "The one who works with his hands, and every trade that was (done) with honesty," replied the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

(Musnad Ahmad)

Agriculture And Fruit-Growing

(١٧٢٢/٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُؤْمِنٍ يَغْرِسُ غَرْسًا أَوْ يَزْرَعُ زَرْعًا فَيَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ طَيْرٌ أَوْ إِنْسَانٌ أَوْ بَهِيمَةٌ إِلَّا كَانَ لَهُ صَدَقَةٌ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1722/6) It is related by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whatever believing bondsman grew a crop or planted a tree, and a bird, animal or man ate from it, it would be charity on his part."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The above Tradition indicates that the one who cultivates the land and grows fruit trees is blessed and entails reward from Allah as a Sadaqah. If any animal or a bird eats from that crop of his land or from a fruit tree. It is an incentive for Agriculturists and fruit growers.

Legitimate Wealth is A Blessing

(١٧٢٣/٧) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَهُ أُرِيدُ أَنْ أَبْعَثَكَ عَلَى جَيْشٍ فَيُسَلِّمَكَ اللَّهُ وَيَغْنِمَكَ وَأَرْعَبَ لَكَ مِنَ الْمَالِ رَغْبَةً صَالِحَةً فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا أَسْلَمْتُ مِنْ أَجْلِ الْمَالِ وَلَكِنْ أَسْلَمْتُ رَغْبَةً فِي الْإِسْلَامِ وَأَنْ أَكُونَ مَعَكَ فَقَالَ يَا عَمْرُو نِعَمَ الْمَالُ الصَّالِحُ لِلْمَرْءِ الصَّالِحِ.

(رواه احمد)

(1723/7) Amr ibn al-'Aas رضي الله عنه related to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him: "I intend to send you, (on a military expedition), as the commander of the army, and, then, by the Grace of Allah, you return safe and sound (and victorious) and take the spoils of war (from the enemy), and receive a good grant of wealth from God." Upon it, (amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه went on to relate that he said): "O Messenger of Allah! I have not embraced Islam for worldly goods, but for the liking and attachment I have for it and for the reason that I am blessed with your company. "O Amr!" the Prophet ﷺ replied, "clean and lawful wealth is a good thing and a blessing for a virtuous bondsman." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: It tells that wealth acquired through legitimate means is a special favour of Allah. On the other hand, in the earlier volumes, we saw Traditions, under the headings of 'Asceticism' and 'Soft-heartedness', to the effect that poverty was preferable to riches and the poor of the Ummah were more blessed than the well-to-do, Both the view-points, however, are correct in their context. If contentment and willing acceptance of what has been decreed by Allah falls to the lot of anyone, alongwith poverty, it doubtlessly, is an enviable state. It was preferred by the Holy Prophet ﷺ for himself, and he used to pray for it. At the same time, if Allah bestows riches on anyone, through lawful means, and he is, also, blessed with a grateful heart and the prudence to make a proper use of his wealth, it, too, is a special favour of God.

Among the Messengers, the Lord had favoured Sayyidina Dawood (David), Sulayman (Solomon), Ayub (Job), and Yusuf (Joseph) عليهم السلام, and many other with His grace in this matter, and among the leading Companions there were Uthman, Sayyidina Abdul Rahman ibn 'Awf, Zubair ibn 'Awam etc. ﷺ.

Importance And Politeness in Monetary Dealings

(١٧٢٤/٨) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَزُولُ قَدَمًا ابْنِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ حَتَّى يُسْأَلَ عَنْ خَمْسٍ عَنْ عُمْرِهِ فِيمَا أَفْنَاهُ وَعَنْ شَبَابِهِ فِيمَا أَبْلَاهُ وَعَنْ مَالِهِ مِنْ أَيْنَ اكْتَسَبَهُ وَفِيمَا أَنْفَقَهُ وَمَاذَا عَمِلَ فِيمَا عَلِمَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1724/8) It is related by Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "On the Last Day (when people will be brought together for the Final Requital), no one's feet will move until he has been questioned about five things: about his life, and how he lived; about his youth, and wherein he wasted it; about his wealth, and where from he acquired it, and on what he spent it; and about what he did in what he was given the knowledge of." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: stressing the implorance of monetary affairs, it tells that everyone will have to render a full account of his conduct in that behalf on the Day of Judgement, as to how he earned or acquired wealth in his life and in what manner did he spend it.

The Curse of Ill-Gotten Wealth

(١٧٥٢/٩) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَكْسِبُ عَبْدٌ مَالًا حَرَامًا فَيَتَصَدَّقُ مِنْهُ فَيُقْبَلَ مِنْهُ فَيَبَارِكُ لَهُ فِيهِ وَلَا يَتْرُكُهُ خَلْفَ ظَهْرِهِ إِلَّا كَانَ زَادَهُ إِلَى النَّارِ، إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَمْحُو السَّيِّئَ بِالسَّيِّئِ وَلَكِنْ يَمْحُو السَّيِّئَ بِالْحَسَنِ، إِنَّ الْخَبِيثَ لَا يَمْحُو الْخَبِيثَ.

(رواه احمد وكذا فى شرح السنة.)

(1725/9) It is related by Abdullah ibn Mas'ud ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If a person earns or acquires anything (through dishonest means) and, then, give away a part of it in charity, the act of charity will not be accepted, and if he will spend from it on his needs, there will be no auspiciousness in it, and if he will leave it behind to his descendants, it will serve for him as provision for Hell. Believe it, God does not remove evil with evil, but evil with good. One impurity does not annul another. (It can not make it clean)." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: It emphasises that charity given from illgotten wealth is not acceptable to God, and there is no real propitiousness in impure earnings. In the same way, should a person leave behind wealth obtained in an illegitimate way, it will be ruinous him on the Day of Final Recokoning. He will be guilty both of making money dishonestly and leaving it to his heirs and successors to eat of the impure while to leave behind wealth acquired cleanly and honestly is a kind of charity, and will fetch a reward in the Hereafter.

The concluding part of the narrative explains why charity from illegal wealth will not find acceptance with Allah and prove harmful for the giver on the Day of Judgement.

Charity serves as an atonement for sins and acts as a means to forgiveness provided that it is given out of goods acquired through lawful means, but if it is given from wealth earned by corrupt and fraudulent practices, there will be no such property in it in the same way as dirty water can not be expected to make dirty clothes clean.

(١٧٢٦/١٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ طَيِّبٌ لَا يَقْبَلُ إِلَّا طَيِّبًا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَمَرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ بِمَا أَمَرَ بِهِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ فَقَالَ يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا وَقَالَ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُوا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ الرَّجُلُ يُطِيلُ السَّفَرَ أَشْعَثَ أَغْبَرَ يَمُدُّ يَدَهُ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ يَارَبِّ يَارَبِّ وَمَطْعَمُهُ حَرَامٌ وَ مَشْرَبُهُ حَرَامٌ وَمَلْبَسُهُ حَرَامٌ وَغُذِيَ بِالْحَرَامِ فَأَنَّى يُسْتَجَابُ لِذَلِكَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1726/10) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "O people! God is pure Himself, and accepts only what is pure, and He has given the same Command, concerning it, to all Believers as He has to His Prophets عليهم السلام. For them, the Commandment is:

يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا (المؤمنون ٥١:٢٣)

O ye Messengers! eat of the good (and lawful) things, and do right.

(Al Mu'minoon 23:51)

And for the Believers:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُوا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ (البقرة ١٧٢:٢)

O mankind! Eat of what is lawful and wholesome is the earth,
(and avoid what is impure). (Al Baqarah 2:172)

"After it," Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said, "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ narrated the story of a man who undertook a long journey (to a holy place) and arrived (there) in such a condition that his hair were dislevelled and his body covered with dust. He raised his hands towards the heavens and cried: "O Lord! O my Preserver! 'But his food was of the impure, his dress was impure, and he had been brought up what was impure: how his prayer can, then, be granted?" (Muslim)

Commentary: The gist of the above Tradition is that God is pure and accepts only offerings that are pure, i.e., from goods acquired through legitimate means. It, further, denotes that the commandment to eat the good and lawful things was given to all the Prophets عليهم السلام, in the same way as to all the Believers. A true Believer should, therefore, realise the significance of the Divine commandment and observe it scrupulously. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has, also, emphasised that ill-gotten wealth is so hateful to God that even if a man went to a sacred place, like a miserable beggar, to supplicate to the Almighty, but his food and clothes were impure, his supplication would not be accepted.

(١٧٢٦/١١) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ مَنْ اشْتَرَى ثَوْبًا بِعَشْرَةِ دَرَاهِمَ وَ فِيهِ دِرْهَمٌ حَرَامٌ لَمْ يَقْبَلِ اللَّهُ لَهُ صَلَاةً مَا دَامَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ ادْخَلَ اِصْبَعِيهِ فِيْ اُذْنَيْهِ قَالَ صَمَتَا اِنْ لَمْ يَكُنِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُهُ.

(رواه احمد والبيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

(1727/11) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If a person buys a cloth for 10 dirhams, and, among them, one is tainted, i.e., it has been earned thorough dishonest means; none of his Salah will be accepted by God as long as he wears it." After relating it, Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه put his fingers in his ear and said: "May both the ears of mine become deaf if I have not heard the Prophet of Allah ﷺ say so." (Musnad Ahmad and Baihaqi)

(١٧٢٨/١٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلُ

الْجَنَّةِ لَحْمٌ نَبَتَ مِنَ السُّحْتِ وَكُلُّ لَحْمٍ نَبَتَ مِنَ السُّحْتِ كَانَتْ النَّارُ أَوْلَى

به. (رواه احمد والدارمي والبيهقي في شعب الايمان)

(1728/12) It is related by Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The flesh and body shall not go to Heaven which are raised on unlawful sustenance. Hell is more deserving of the flesh that has grown on one's body out of what is unlawful."

(Musnad Ahmad Daarami and Baihaqi)

Commentary: Apparently, it shows that a person whose sustenance is of the impure will go to Hell. But the commentators have expressed the view, in the light of other Traditions as well as verses of the Qur'an, that such a man will not be able to enter Heaven without undergoing punishment for living on unclean income. He may, however, be forgiven without punishment if he has repented sincerely before death or some virtuous bondsman has prayed for forgiveness, on his behalf, and the prayer has been granted, or the Gracious One, the All Merciful, Himself, decides to absolve him of the consequences of his sin.

(١٧٢٩/١٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْتِي

عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يُبَالِي الْمَرْءُ مَا أَخَذَ مِنْهُ مِنَ الْحَلَالِ أَمْ مِنَ الْحَرَامِ.

(رواه البخاري وزادزين عليه فاذا ذاك لا تجاب لهم دعوة)

(1729/13) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه relates, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A time will come when people will not care what they are acquiring is lawful or unlawful, legitimate or illegitimate."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The time, indicated, has come to be sure. How many are there, today, even among those supposed to be religious-minded, who cares to think or enquire about goods coming in their possession whether they are lawful or not. May be, even worse days are ahead.

In another version of the same report, quoted in Musnad Razeen, it is added that prayers will not be accepted at such a time. Inability to distinguish between the pure and the impure, and the lawful and the unlawful is, in fact, the spiritual death of a Muslim.

We will be giving below two incidents to illustrate what a profound effect the teachings of the holy Prophet ﷺ had produced in the lives of the Companions ﷺ.

It is related, in Sahih Bukhari, about Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ that, once, an attendant placed something to eat before him of which he partook a little. After it, the attendant told him that, before the advent of Islam, he had, once, posed as a sorcerer and forecast the future for someone as sorcerers did. That man had met him, by chance, on the day, and given him the food, on that account, which he had offered to Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ. As the latter heard of it, he made himself vomit by thrusting his fingers into the throat, and, thus, threw up the contents of his stomach.

Similarly, Imam Baihaqi has mentioned the following incident regarding Sayyidina Umar ﷺ. It is stated that, once, a person offered some milk to him which he drank. Afterwards, he asked the man how he had got it, and he replied that he was passing by such-and-such a ghat¹ where some animals, including goats and she-camels which had been given away in Zakah were grazing and people were drawing milk from them as could be used for that pupose. They had given some of the milk to him as well which he had offered to Sayyidina Umar ﷺ. On hearing, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ, too, vomited the milk, like Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ.

Piety Demands Shunning, Also, What is Doubtful

(١٧٣٠/١٤) عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الْحَلَالُ بَيِّنٌ وَالْحَرَامُ بَيِّنٌ وَبَيْنَهُمَا مُشْتَبِهَاتٌ لَا يَعْلَمُهُنَّ كَثِيرٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ فَمَنْ
اتَّقَى الشُّبُهَاتِ اسْتَبْرَأَ لِدِينِهِ وَعَرْضِهِ وَمَنْ وَقَعَ فِي الشُّبُهَاتِ وَقَعَ فِي الْحَرَامِ
كَالرَّاعِي يَرْعَى حَوْلَ الْحِمَى يُوشِكُ أَنْ يَرْتَعَ فِيهِ أَوْ لَا وَإِنْ لِكُلِّ مَلِكٍ حِمًى
أَوْ لَا إِنْ حِمَى اللَّهُ مَحَارِمَهُ أَوْ لَا إِنْ فِي الْجَسَدِ مُضْغَةٌ إِذَا صَلَحَتْ صَلَحَ
الْجَسَدُ كُلُّهُ وَإِذَا فَسَدَتْ فَسَدَ الْجَسَدُ كُلُّهُ أَوْ هِيَ الْقَلْبُ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1730/14) It has been narrated by Numan ibn Bashir ﷺ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "What is allowed is clear and what is forbidden, also is clear. But, between them, there are a few things that are doubtful, and many people do not know about them. (They are ignorant of their true position in the Shari'ah).

❶. A landing place; a bathing place on a river-side.

Thus, whoever keeps away from doubtful things as well will protect his faith and honour and (his record will) remain unblemished, and whoever will indulge in doubtful things will land himself within the borders of the forbidden like the herdsman who grazes his cattle very close to the reserved area and there is every danger of the cattle straying into it and starting to graze there (which is prohibited). Know that every king has a pasture, (entry into which is forbidden without permission). The reserved area of the Almighty are the forbidden acts. (One must not go near them, i.e., avoid even the doubtful things). And beware, there is a lump of flesh in the human body, (the characteristic of which is that) if it is right, i.e., the radiance of Faith and the awareness of God and His fear are present in it, the whole body stays right, (its deeds and states are correct), and if it is in a bad condition, the condition of the whole body, too, is bad. Remember, that lump of flesh is the heart."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It is one of the Traditions that are regarded by the authorities as most important and expressing a fundamental ethical principle of Islam.

First of all, it tells about the position of what is lawful or forbidden in the Shariah is clear and free from doubt, but there are many other things or acts whose legitimacy or otherwise is uncertain, that is, they can be held lawful on the basis of one principle of the Shariah and unlawful on the basis of another principle. What becomes a faithful Believer in respect of doubtful things is that he avoids them out of piety and prudence. In it, lies the safety of his faith and honour.

Proceeding from it, the above Tradition emphasises that anyone who is not careful enough to abstain from doubtful things runs the risk of being led into committing the forbidden acts as well like the shepherd who asks for trouble by grazing his cattle in the vicinity of a reserved ground. Hence, as it is advisable for the herdsman to keep his cattle well away from a reserved forest or grazing ground, so, also, should a true Believer avoid doubtful things, in the interests of his faith and good name.

Lastly, it shows that the goodness or badness of a person depends on the state of his heart. If the heart of a man is sound and the light of Faith and Divine fear are present in it, his whole existence will be of piety and good-doing, and, conversely, if it is governed by sinful and carnal desires, his entire conduct will bear the imprint.

Some commentators have concluded from the arragnements of this Tradition that for the purification of the heart, it is essential for a man to abstain from doubtful things, alongwith the forbidden ones, in food and drink.

(١٧٣١/١٥) عَنْ عَطِيَّةِ السَّعْدِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 "لَا يَبْلُغُ الْعَبْدُ أَنْ يَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِينَ حَتَّى يَدَعَ مَا لَا بَأْسَ بِهِ حَذْرًا لِمَا بِهِ بَأْسٌ."

(رواه الترمذى و ابن ماجه)

(1731/15) It is narrated by Atiya S'adi رضى الله عنها that the Prophet ﷺ said: "No one can attain the state of being included among the righteous until he forgoes the lawful pleasures¹ in order to avoid the sinful."

(Tirmizi and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: There are many things which though lawful in themselves, are capable of exposing a man to sin. Prudence, therefore, demands that one kept away from them as well.

Gentleness And Forbearance in Money Matters

After belief and worship, a great stress has been laid on the teachings of the holy Prophet ﷺ on showing kindness to fellowmen, particularly, the weak and the needy. We have been exhorted, in various ways, to be kind and considerate to each other in monetary transactions, such as, buying and selling, lending and borrowing. The debtors, for instance, are told to do their best to pay off the debts as quickly as possible while the creditors are required to be lenient those who owe them a debt they should be lenient in the realisation of their dues. The bondsmen who carry out their business transactions in this spirit will be deserving the mercy of Allah.

(١٧٣٢/١٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللَّهُ
 رَجُلًا سَمَحًا إِذَا بَاعَ وَإِذَا اشْتَرَى وَإِذَا اقْتَضَى.

(رواه البخارى)

①. The word Mubah occurring in the original denotes any indifferent action which incurs neither praise nor blame.

(1732/16) It is narrated by Jabir رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Blessings of the Lord be on him who is mild and gentle in buying and selling, and in the realisation of dues."

(Bukhari)

(١٧٣٣/١٧) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ فِيمَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ آتَاهُ الْمَلِكُ لِيَقْبِضَ رُوحَهُ فَقِيلَ لَهُ هَلْ عَمِلْتَ مِنْ خَيْرٍ؟ قَالَ مَا أَعْلَمُ قِيلَ لَهُ أَنْظِرْ قَالَ مَا أَعْلَمُ شَيْئًا غَيْرَ أَنِّي كُنْتُ أُبَايِعُ النَّاسَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَأُجَازِيهِمْ فَأَنْظِرَ الْمُوسِرَ وَأَنْجَاوَزَ عَنِ الْمُعْسِرِ فَأَدْخَلَهُ اللَّهُ الْجَنَّةَ.

(رواه البخاري ومسلم وفي رواية المسلم)

نحوه عن عقبه بن عامر وابي مسعود النصارى فقال الله انا احق بذا منك تجاوز واعن عبدى

(1733/17) It is narrated by Huzayfah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There was a man belonging to a community before you. When the Angel of Death came to take possession of his soul, he was asked if he had performed any good deed in his worldly life (which could lead to salvation). 'There is no such deed as far as I remember, he replied. 'Think again', he was told. 'I can think of nothing like it', he said, 'except that I used to have business dealings with people, and my attitude, (in these matters), was one of mildness and forbearance. I used to allow respite to the rich. (They could pay off when they liked). (As for the poor), I often wrote off debts.' The Lord, thereupon, decreed for him to be admitted to Paradise." (Bukhari and Muslim)

This Tradition has been quoted in the same form in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim. In Sahih Muslim, however, it has, also, been reproduced on the authority of Sayyidina 'Aqba ibn 'Aamir and Sayyidina Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضي الله عنه in which instead of "The Lord, thereupon, decreed for him to be admitted to Paradise," it is stated that the Lord, thereupon, observed that "the kindness and compassion you have been showing in your dealings with My bondsmen has a greater claim on Me (that I exercise clemency and compassion towards you)." The Lord told the Angels to let the bondsman go and treat him as if he had done no wrong. (He was forgiven). (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The holy Prophet ﷺ would, obviously, have come to know of the incident narrated above through a Divine Revelation. The man referred to, in it, had died in such a state that even he could not think of a deed that could serve as an atonement for his sins except that he was kindhearted and accomodating in business transactions. If he lent money to anyone or sold anything to him on credit and the man could not clear the dues, he used to write it off, and even if the debtor was a well-to-do person, he did not insist on prompt payment. God forgave him because of this state or state of his mind, and he was admitted to Heaven.

(١٧٣٤/١٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ رَجُلٌ يَدَّ
اِئِنَّ النَّاسَ فَكَانَ يَقُولُ لِفَتَاهُ إِذَا أَتَيْتَ مُعْسِرًا تَجَاوَزْ عَنْهُ لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ أَنْ يَتَجَاوَزَ
عَنَّا قَالَ فَلَقِيَ اللَّهَ فَتَجَاوَزَ عَنْهُ.
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1734/18) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "(Once) there was a man who used to lend money. (When he sent his slave to realise the dues), he instructed him to forbear if the creditor happened to be a poor person. (He would say), May be, Allah bore with me and absolved me of my sins because of it." On hearing it, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ observed: "When the bondsman died and appeared before the Almighty, (on the Day of Judgement), he was forgiven."
(Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٧٣٥/١٩) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
يَقُولُ مَنْ أَنْظَرَ مُعْسِرًا أَوْ وَضَعَ عَنْهُ أَنْجَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنْ كُرْبِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ (رواه مسلم)
(1735/19) Sayyidina Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه relates that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say; "God will protect him from the agonies of the Day of Requital who allows respite to a poor and indigents person in the payment of his debt or writes it off (wholly or partly)."
(Muslim)

(١٧٣٦/٢٠) عَنْ أَبِي الْيَسْرِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
مَنْ أَنْظَرَ مُعْسِرًا أَوْ وَضَعَ عَنْهُ أَظَلَّهُ اللَّهُ فِي ظِلِّهِ (رواه مسلم)
(1736/20) Abu Yassar رضي الله عنه relates, he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Whoever has a claim (like a debt) on a borther which is payable, and he allows respite to the debtor in its payment, he will be given the reward of charity, i.e., equal to the reward promised on charity in return for each day of the respite."

(Muslim)

(١٧٣٧/٢١) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ لَهُ عَلَى رَجُلٍ حَقٌّ فَمَنْ أَخْرَهُ كَانَ لَهُ بِكُلِّ يَوْمٍ صَدَقَةٌ (رواه احمد)
(1737/21) It is narrated by Imran ibn Husayn رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone who has a right (loan, etc) over another brother and he allowed him respite then for every day he allows he will get the reward of a Sadqah." (Ahmad)

Commentary: The Message of all these ahadith is very clear. May Allah cause us to abide by them.

Excellence of Giving a Loan, And Guidance

To give a loan to a needy person is to be helpful to him, and, in some Traditions, it is said that the recompense on it is even greater than that on charity. Sometime, severe warnings have, also, been given concerning the debt.

(١٧٣٨/٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ رَجُلٌ الْجَنَّةَ فَرَأَى عَلَى بَابِهَا مَكْتُوبًا الصَّدَقَةُ بِعَشْرِ أَمْثَالِهَا وَالْقَرْضُ بِثَمَانِيَةِ عَشْرٍ.
(رواه الطبراني في الكبير)

(1738/22) It is narrated, on the authority of Abu Umama رضي الله عنه, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "as a person entered Heaven, he saw that it was written on the Gate of Heaven that the recompense on charity was ten-fold, and on giving a loan, eighteen-fold."
(Tabarani)

Commentary: It is not clear who the person spoken of in this Tradition was. The Holy Prophet ﷺ may have narrated what had been seen by some virtuous man in a dream or described one of his own visions in this form. The latter view is, to some extent supported by the fact that Ibn Majah, too, has quoted this Tradition with the addition that:

فقلت لجبريل ما بال القرض افضل من الصدقة؟ قال لان السائل يستل وعنده والمستقرض لا يستقرض الا من حاجة
(جمع الفوائد)

"I, (the Messenger of Allah), enquired from Jibril عليه السلام what was the special merit in a loan that was superior to charity. He replied that 'a supplication (to whom charity is given) solicits alms and accepts charity even when he has something, (money etc.) on him, while a person who asks for a loan does so only when he is in need".
(Jam'a-ul-Fuwayid)

Sometimes, a person who, is also self-respecting and is in dire need of money, but he does not like to ask anyone for help or accept charity, and prefers to borrow. To give a loan to such a person will, evidently, be better than charity.

Our own experience is that there are many people who though willing to help a needy person through Zakat or charity, do not like to advance him loan. This Tradition, particularly, contains a moral for them.

Loan is A Most Serious Matter

On the one hand, the Holy Prophet ﷺ exhorted the well-to-do persons to lend money etc., to needy brethren and allow them respite in returning it or forgo it altogether or in part if the debtor happened to be really poor while, on the other, he urged upon the borrowers to pay back the debts as soon as possible for if they die in a state of indebtedness, with the claim of anyone lying unsettled the sequel of it would be most lamentable for them in the Hereafter. Sometimes, the Prophet ﷺ said that it was a most grievous and unforgivable sin to die without paying off one's debts, and, sometimes, if he learnt about anyone that he had died while being in debt, he declined to attend his funeral service which, perhaps, was intended to be a warning to others.

(١٧٣٩/٢٣) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ أَعْظَمَ الدُّنُوبِ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَنْ يُلْقَاهُ عَبْدٌ بَعْدَ الْكِبَائِرِ الَّتِي نَهَى اللَّهُ عَنْهَا أَنْ يَمُوتَ رَجُلٌ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ لَا يَدْعُ لَهُ قَضَاءً.
(رواه احمد وابو داود)

(1739/23) It is narrated by Abu Moosa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "After the major sins (such as, Polytheism and adultery) from which God has strictly enjoined upon us to abstain, the greatest sin is that a man died in a state that he owed a debt to anyone and left behind no assets to pay it off."

(Musnad Ahmad and Daarami)

(١٧٤٠/٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَفْسُ الْمُؤْمِنِ مُعَلَّقَةٌ بِدَيْنِهِ حَتَّى يُقْضَى عَنْهُ

(رواه الشافعى واحمد والترمذى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

(1740/24) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The soul of a faithful Believer remains suspended in the middle owing to indebtedness, until the debt is paid off." (Musnad Shaf'ae, Musnad Ahmad, Abu Dawood and Daarami)

Commentary: It shows that if a person dies as a Muslim, and has, also, done good deeds which are a source of deliverance, but he is in debt and has not been careful enough to pay it back, he will not be admitted to Paradise until the debt has been paid back on his behalf.

(١٧٤١/٢٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُغْفَرُ لِلشَّهِيدِ كُلُّ ذَنْبٍ إِلَّا الدَّيْنَ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1741/25) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn 'Amr رضي الله عنه narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If a person is killed in the path of God, all his sins are forgiven, (by virtue of martyrdom), except a loan."
(Muslim)

Commentary: Martyrdom is such a meritorious act that all the sins of a man are forgiven as a result of it. But if a person owes a debt to anyone and he falls a martyr in the way of God without having paid it off and has been negligent about it, he will remain caught in misfortune on account of it, since it is related to the Rights of Men, until the debt is paid on his behalf or the creditor himself decides to write it to off for the sake of God.

(١٧٤٢/٢٦) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ قُتِلْتُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ صَابِرًا مُحْتَسِبًا مُقْبِلًا غَيْرَ مُدْبِرٍ يُكَفِّرُ اللَّهُ عَنِّي خَطَايَايَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَعَمْ..... فَلَمَّا أَذْبَرَ نَا دَاهُ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ إِلَّا الدَّيْنَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ جَبْرِيلُ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1742/26) Sayyidina Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه narrates that once a person said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, "Tell me, Messenger of Allah ﷺ, if I take part in Jihad with fortitude and steadfastness, and, solely, for the sake of earning the good pleasure of Allah and the reward of the Hereafter, and I am killed in the condition that I am not retreating, but advancing, will all my sins be forgiven owing to my sacrifice and martyrdom?" "Yes", the Prophet ﷺ replied, "(God will forgive your sins)." As the man was returning, after it, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ called him back and said: "(All your sins will be forgiven) except a debt. This is what I have been told by Jibril عليه السلام."

(Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that all the sins of a man are forgiven who is martyred for the sake of God, but if he dies with a debt still unpaid, he will be called to account for it. The Holy Prophet ﷺ told, further, that he was saying it on the basis of the Revelation brought to him by the Archangel Jibril عليه السلام.

[illegible]

(1743/27) It is narrated, on the authority of Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Jahash رحمہ اللہ, "(once), we were sitting in the open space outside the mosque where the dead bodies are brought and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, also, was sitting with us suddenly, he looked towards the sky, and saw something, and then, he looked his gaze, and sat (in a typically concerned and meditative mood), with his hand placed on the forehead, and remarked: "Good God! God be praised! What a stern warning and Commandment has come!" The narrator, Muhammad ﷺ ibn Abdullah, goes on. "We kept quiet on that day and night, (and waited for what was to happen, but), when all went well, we asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ the next morning about the grave and depressing things that had been revealed yesterday. The Prophet ﷺ replied: 'A most stern warning and Commandment has been revealed about loan.' (Elaborating on it, he observed): 'By the Holy Being in whose control is my life! If a person is killed in Jihad, and he returns to life only to be killed again, in Jihad, and there is still a debt outstanding against him, he will not enter Paradise until the debt is settled.'"

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: These Traditions and warnings seemingly, appertain to cases in which the debts remain unpaid owing to negligence or ill-intention. If a person wants sincerely to pay back a loan but can not do so owing to the adversity of his circumstances and departs from the world being in debt, it is confidently expected from the Mercy and Benevolence of Allah that he will be deemed excusable. the Tradition we are going to take up later will show it more explicitly.

(١٧٤٤/٢٨) عَنْ سَلْمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ قَالَ كُنَّا جُلُوسًا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذْ أَتَى بِجَنَازَةٍ فَقَالُوا صَلِّ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ قَالُوا لَا فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ أَتَى بِجَنَازَةٍ أُخْرَى فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ قِيلَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَهَلْ تَرَكَ شَيْئًا؟ قَالُوا ثَلَاثَةَ دَنَانِيرٍ فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ أَتَى بِالثَّالِثَةِ فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ؟ قَالُوا ثَلَاثَةٌ وَنَانِيرٍ قَالَ هَلْ تَرَكَ شَيْئًا؟ قَالُوا لَا قَالَ صَلُّوا عَلَى صَاحِبِكُمْ قَالَ أَبُو قَتَادَةَ صَلِّ عَلَيْهِ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَعَلَى دَيْنِهِ فَصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1744/28) It is narrated by Salmah ibn Al-Akoo' ﷺ "we were sitting with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and was requested to lead the funeral Salah. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ enquired: 'Does he owe a debt to anyone?' On being told that the man had not died in debt, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ led the funeral salah. Later, another dead body was brought and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ enquired if the person owed a debt to anyone. 'Yes', he was told, 'the man had died in debts.' 'Has he left behind anything out of which the debt can be paid?' asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The people informed that he had left behind three dinars. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then, led the funeral Salah. After it, a third dead body was brought and the Prophet ﷺ, again, enquired if the person had died in the state of indebtedness. 'Yes', the people said. 'He owed three dinars'. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then, asked if he had left any assets (which could be used for paying the debt). The Prophet ﷺ was told that the man had left behind nothing. Upon it, the Prophet ﷺ told the Companions ﷺ present to offer the funeral salah of their brother. At that time Abu Qatadah Ansari ﷺ requested the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to lead the salah, saying that he had taken upon himself the loan of the dead person owed. (He will pay it). The Prophet ﷺ thereupon, led the funeral salah."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The action of the sacred Prophet ﷺ, apparently, was aimed at imparting to the people the lesson not to be neglectful in the payment of debts. The endeavour of everyone should, as such, be to depart from the world in the condition that he did not owe anything to anyone.

Another Tradition quoted in Bukhari and Muslim, on the authority of Abu Hurayrah ﷺ, tells that the attitude of the Holy Prophet ﷺ towards the funeral salah of persons who, as indicated above, died being in debt, related to the early phase of Islam. Later on, when the Lord had opened the door of victories and abundance, and the period of poverty was over, the Prophet ﷺ had declared that if a Muslim died in a state of indebtedness, and he did not leave behind assets that could be used to pay the debt, it would be his responsibility to clear it up. The aim, again, was that the claim of anyone on a Muslim did not remain unsatisfied.

If There Intention to Pay Back a Loan, God Will, Somehow, Have it Paid

(١٧٤٥/٢٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أَخَذَ
أَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ يُرِيدُ أَدَاءَهَا أَدَّى اللَّهُ عَنْهُ وَمَنْ أَخَذَ يُرِيدُ إِتْلَافَهَا أَتْلَفَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ.

(رواه البخاري)

(1745/29) Abu Hurayrah ﷺ narrated that the Messenger of

Allah ﷻ said: "whoever borrows (money etc.,) from anyone and has the intention to return it, God will make it possible for him to pay it back, i.e., help him to clear it up, and if he cannot do so in his life-time, God will settle it, on his behalf, in the Hereafter, and, thus, release him of the responsibility. And whoever borrows (money etc.,) from anyone and has no intention to pay it back, God will have it destroyed, i.e., the money will not only prove a curse in After-life, but, in this world, too, it will be of no help or comfort to him." (Bukhari)

(١٧٤٦/٣٠) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ عَنْ مَيْمُونَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ خَلِيلِي وَصَفَى صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ يُدَانُ دَيْنًا فَيَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ أَنَّهُ يُرِيدُ قَضَاءَهُ إِلَّا آذَاهُ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا. (رواه النسائي)

(1746/30) It is related by Imran ibn Hussayn رضي الله عنه, on the authority of Sayidah Maimoona رضي الله عنها (wife of the sacred Prophet), that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever takes a loan and it is in the knowledge of God that he has the intention of returning it, God will have it repaid in his life-time." (Nasai)

Commentary: It is, also, stated in the afore-mentioned narrative of Sayyidina Imran ibn Hussayn رضي الله عنه that Sayyidah Maimoona رضي الله عنها used to borrow much and often, probably with the object of giving it away in charity. Her near relatives, thereupon, spoke to her about it, and advised her not to be so reckless, but she did not give up the habit, and, to her support, related the saying of the Holy Prophet ﷺ we have just seen. What Sayyidah Maimoona رضي الله عنها meant was that owing to it, she was confident that the Lord would have all the loans she took cleared up in her life-time. She placed an absolute reliance on the security and assurance of the Almighty, and such a conduct, of course, was worthy of a person of belief and trust in God like her.

(١٧٤٧/٣١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الدَّائِنِ حَتَّى يَقْضَىٰ دَيْنُهُ مَا لَمْ يَكُنْ فِيْمَا يَكْرَهُ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1747/31) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Jafar ibn Abi Talib رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "God is with the debtor until the debt is paid provided that it has not been taken for a wrong purpose."

(Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that if a person takes a loan for a genuine need and a good and legitimate purpose, and he also sincerely desires to pay it back, there will be the special favour of the Lord on him until the debt is cleared up. It is, further, stated in Ibn Majah, in connection with the above report, that on its ground, the narrator, Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Jafar رضي الله عنه, always used to remain in debt. He would say that he wished that none of his days and nights were spent without the good graces of the Lord. From the record of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Jafar's رضي الله عنه life it appears that he was a very generous-hearted person, and that was why he was always running in debts.

Practice of The Holy Prophet ﷺ

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, too, had the need to borrow which he often did. As we have seen in an earlier volume, he used to take a loan, also, from non-Muslims like the Jews. While on it, we had further indicated what great wisdom lay behind it. Here, we will be taking up two Traditions appertaining to it.

(١٧٤٨/٣٢) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ لِي عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَيْنٌ
فَقَضَى لِي وَزَادَنِي.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1748/32) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه narrated to us, saying, "I had advanced a loan to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. When he returned it, he gave me more (than what I had lent)."

Commentary: For the debtor to give more than what was due at the time of the repayment of a loan is not only lawful, but also commendable, and in conformity with the practice of the Prophet ﷺ. It does not amount to interest because no such condition is agreed to at the time of borrowing. It is a favour and a gift.

It is among the practices of the sacred Prophet ﷺ that need be popularised.

(١٧٤٩/٣٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا تَقَاضَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
فَاغْلَظَ لَهُ فَهَمَّ أَصْحَابُهُ فَقَالَ دَعُوهُ فَإِنَّ لِصَاحِبِ الْحَقِّ مَقَالًا وَاشْتَرَوْا لَهُ بَعِيرًا

فَاعْطُوهُ إِيَّاهُ قَالُوا لَا نَجِدُ إِلَّا أَفْضَلَ مِنْ سِنِّهِ قَالَ اشْتَرُوهُ فَاعْطُوهُ إِيَّاهُ فَإِنْ خَيْرُكُمْ أَحْسَنُكُمْ قَضَاءً.

(رواه مسلم)

(1749/33) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates "(once) a person demanded from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ the payment of a loan he had made to him and used strong language upon which the Companions رضي الله عنهم (present) thought of scolding him, but the Messenger of Allah ﷺ checked them, saying: "Leave him alone. Do not say anything to him for a man who has a claim has the right to talk in that manner. Go and buy a camel to repay the loan and give it to him.' On returning, the Companions رضي الله عنهم said that (a camel of the class of the animal the man had lent was not available). The only camel that could be had was better bigger than his camel. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, thereupon, said: 'Buy it and give it to him for he is a better man who pays back better than what is due."

(Muslim)

Commentary: In the olden days, it was common in Arabia to borrow a camel. The deal was settled not in terms of cash, but that the borrower would return a camel of the same age within a specified period. The Holy Prophet ﷺ had taken a camel from someone on the same terms, and, perhaps, the man had come to demand payment at the end of the stipulated time and had been rude which the Companions رضي الله عنهم wanted to rebuke him, but the Prophet ﷺ told them to keep quiet as he owed him a debt and the creditor was within his rights to be angry. The Prophet ﷺ, further, said to them to buy a camel of the same breed and age, and give it to him. The Companions رضي الله عنهم looked for such an animal, but it was not available while a better one was. The Prophet ﷺ, then, told them to buy and give it and added that a better man was he who paid more and of a superior quality than what was owed.

(١٧٥٠/٣٤) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبِيعَةَ قَالَ اسْتَقْرَضَ مِنِّي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرْبَعِينَ أَلْفَ فَجَاءَهُ مَالٌ فَدَفَعَهُ إِلَيَّ وَقَالَ بَارَكَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى فِي أَهْلِكَ وَمَالِكَ إِنَّمَا جَزَاءُ السَّلَفِ الْحَمْدُ وَالْأَدَاءُ.

(رواه النسائي)

(1750/34) Abdullah ibn Abi Rabi'ah رضي الله عنه narrates "once the Prophet ﷺ had taken a loan of forty thousand from him. When (enough) money had come to the Prophet ﷺ, he returned it, and blessed him saying: 'May Allah bestow abundance on your wealth and family. The recompense of a loan is that it should be repaid and the giver thanked and praised.' (Nasai)

Commentary: As these Traditions show, the Holy Prophet ﷺ used to borrow money etc., and when it came to returning a loan, he gave better and more than what was due, and, also blessed the giver.

The above report, further, tells that the Prophet ﷺ, sometimes borrowed large sums of money. He would, obviously, have taken such loans for a religious need like Jihad, otherwise his own life-style, as well as of his family, was such that, in the word of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, they never ate even barely-bread to their satisfaction for two consecutive days, and often went without a meal, and the oven was not lighted in their homes for months during which they lived only on dates and water.

Usury

Usury was common among the Arabs, as it was in the other communities of the world. Its most prevalent form was that people, in their need, borrowed money, and it was settled, at the time of the transaction, that they would return it with such-and-such interest charge on its use, and within such-and-such time. If the borrower failed to repay it within the stipulated period, he begged for an extension, and the interest charge was increased in proportion to it. The load of the poor borrowers would, thus, go on multiplying, and the greedy money-lenders would be sucking their blood like a leech.

The practice, evidently, was opposed to the spirit of Islam. The teachings of Islam, on the contrary, require that help was given to the weak and the destitute, and care was taken of their needs, and that all this was done not for a worldly gain or advantage, but wholly for the sake of God and gaining the reward of the Hereafter.

Just as in the Quran and the saying of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, a gradual course was adopted towards the forbidding of alcholic drinks and other intoxicants, the abolition of usury, too, was enforced by degrees. For a long time, in the beginning, stress was laid, in a positive way, on spending one's wealth in the way of God and fulfilling the needs of the less fortunate brethren and bringing succour to them, and on cultivating the virtues of kindness, compassion, generosity and self-denial. Slowly and steadily, it was instilled into the minds and hearts of the people that death was inevitable; they were bound to die one day, and their worldly possessions, too, were not everlasting. They should, therefore, take lesson from the dreadful end of the worshippers of wealth like Pharaon, and try earnestly to make use of their riches as a means to earning the eternal joy and felicity of the Hereafter.

This guidance and corresponding action paved the way for the total abolition of the heartless practice of lending money on interest. The concluding verses of Surah Al-Baqarah, i.e., from:

الَّذِينَ يَأْكُلُونَ الرِّبَا لَا يَقُومُونَ إِلَّا كَمَا يَقُومُ الَّذِي يَتَخَبَّطُهُ الشَّيْطَانُ مِنَ الْمَسِّ
ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا الْبَيْعُ مِثْلُ الرِّبَا وَأَحَلَّ اللَّهُ الْبَيْعَ وَحَرَّمَ الرِّبَا
فَمَنْ جَاءَهُ مَوْعِظَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ فَانْتَهَى فَلَهُ مَا سَلَفَ وَأَمْرُهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَمَنْ عَادَ
فَأُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ٥ يَمْحَقُ اللَّهُ الرِّبَا وَيُزِيلُ
الصَّدَقَاتِ وَاللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ كَفَّارٍ أَثِيمٍ ٥ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتَوُا الزَّكَاةَ لَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ
يَحْزَنُونَ ٥ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَذَرُوا مَا بَقِيَ مِنَ الرِّبَا إِن كُنْتُمْ
مُؤْمِنِينَ ٥ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا فَأْذَنُوا بِحَرْبٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَإِنْ تُبْتُمْ فَلَكُمْ رُؤُوسُ
أَمْوَالِكُمْ لَا تَظْلِمُونَ وَلَا تُظْلَمُونَ ٥ وَإِنْ كَانَ ذُو عُسْرَةٍ فَنَظِرَةٌ إِلَى مَيْسَرَةٍ
وَأَنْ تَصَدَّقُوا خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ٥ (البقرة ٢٧٥:٢-٢٨٠)

Those who devour Usury cannot rise except as he rises whom Satan has maddened by his touch. That is because they say, "Trade is just like usury." But Allah has permitted trading, and forbidden Usury, To whom so ever then an exhortation comes from his Lord and he desists, he shall have (the gains) of that which is past, and his affair rests with Allah. But whosoever reverts (to it) those are the Companions of the Fire, therein they shall abide. Allah blots ant Usury and augments Charity. And Allah loves not any ungrateful sinner. Those who believe and do righteous deeds, and establish the Salah, and pay the Zakah, for them is their reward from their Lord, and no fear shall be on them, nor shall they grieve. O you who believe! Fear Allah and give up what remains from the Usury, if you are (true believers). And if you do it not, them be notified of war from Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, and if you repent, then you shall have your capital sums, not wronging (anyone) nor being wronged. But if the debtor is in difficulty, let there be respite till it is easy (for him). And if you remit it as a charity, that is better for you, if you but know.

(Al Baqarah 2:275-280)

Were, consequently, revealed, proclaiming, in clearest terms, the forbidding of the lending and borrowing of money etc., at interest.

In the above verses, also, it is made clear that if, as a result of a previous transaction, interest on a loan is due to anyone, it will be treated as defunct and will not be payable or recoverable after the commandment had been revealed:

The warning, further, is given, at the end, that if, after the revelation of these verses, people persisted in usury and transgressed against the law of God, they should consider themselves at war with Allah and His Messenger ﷺ:

فَاذْنُوا بِحَرْبٍ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ (البقره ٢: ٢٧٩)

"And if ye do not, then be warned of war (against you) from Allah and His Messenger. (Al Baqarah 2:279)

Such a severe admonition has not been administered in the Qur'an in respect of any other major sin, such as, adultery, gambling, and murder. It denotes that usury is more repugnant in the sight of God and His Prophet ﷺ than all the other sins. As the Traditions given below will show, the Prophet ﷺ has condemned usury as a sin of the highest order and spelt the curse of God not only on those who take or offer loan on usurious terms, but, also, on those who write the deed of it or act as witnesses to the transaction. In some narratives, usury, in fact, has been characterised as seventy times a greater sin than adultery and fornication.

(١٧٥١/٣٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اجْتَنِبُوا السَّبْعَ الْمُؤْبَقَاتِ قَالُوا يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَمَا هُنَّ؟ قَالَ: الشِّرْكُ بِاللَّهِ وَالسَّحَرُ وَقَتْلُ النَّفْسِ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَكْلُ الرِّبَا وَأَكْلُ مَالِ الْيَتِيمِ وَالتَّوَلَّى يَوْمَ الرَّحْفِ وَقَذْفُ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ الْغَافِلَاتِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1751/35) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Keep (strictly) away from the seven moral sins." "What are the seven sins?" the Companions ؓ asked. "To partner anyone with God (in worship, in His attributes. and in His Functions); to practise sorcery; to kill person unlawfully; to lend money on usurious terms; to eat of the property of an orphan; to desert the Muslim army and run away from Jihad (for fear of life); and to accuse falsely pious and innocent bondsmen of the Lord of adultery," the Prophet ﷺ replied."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The seven sins mentioned in it are the worst forms of evildoing. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has described them as Mubaqat, i.e., fatal to the spirit of his faith, and specified usury as next to Polytheism, witchcraft and murder. As the physicians tell about the properties of herbs, minerals and foods, on the basis of their knowledge and experience, so do the Prophets عليهم السلام inform concerning the effects and properties of beliefs, moral deeds of men on the basis of the knowledge vouchsafed to them by God, with the difference that while there is the possibility of an error in the knowledge or judgement of the physicians, what the Prophets عليهم السلام tell is beyond the shadow of a doubt or fallacy, at least for men of faith, for the simple reason that it stems from Divine Revelation. But, strenuously enough, although people follow the advice of the physicians and take the medicines prescribed by them without questions, no patient can justifiably insist upon knowing the pharmacology of the medicine before using it, when the Book of God, the Qur'an, and His Messenger ﷺ inform about a thing like usury that it is a grievous sin and ruinous to the soul and a fearful punishment awaits them in the Hereafter who lend money on interest, many a claimant to Faith and intellect are reluctant to believe and its philosophy must be explained to them before they are convinced.

(١٧٥٢/٣٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَيْتُ لَيْلَةَ أُسْرَى بَنِي عَلَى قَوْمٍ بَطُونُهُمْ كَالْأَبْيُوتِ فِيهَا الْحَيَّاتُ تُرَى مِنْ خَارِجٍ بَطُونُهُمْ فَقُلْتُ مَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ يَا جِبْرِئِيلُ؟ قَالَ هَؤُلَاءِ أَكَلَةُ الرِّبَا.

(رواه احمد و ابن ماجه)

(1752/36) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The night I was taken on the (Celestial) Journey, I passed by a group (of persons) whose bellies were like houses full of snakes, and the snakes could be seen from outside. I enquired about them from Jibreel عليه السلام and he said that they were the usurers."

(Musnad Ahmad and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: On the night of the Prophet's عليهم السلام ascension to Heaven, he was shown many things that belonged to the Invisible World, including some glimpses and objects of Heaven and Hell in order that from Haqqul Yaqeen (certainly relating to truth) he attained the stage of Ainul Yaqeen (certainly relating to seeing could), and, also instruct and inform the people with regard to Divine reward and punishment in the light of personal observation. Among these was the scene described in the Tradition that owing to the extraordinary pains they took, we, too, have come to know, through authentic compilations, of the supernal experiences of the Prophet ﷺ during the Journey by Night.

(١٧٥٣/٣٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الرَّبُّوَا سَبْعُونَ جُزْءًا أَيْسَرُهَا أَنْ يَنْكِحَ الرَّجُلُ أُمَّهُ.

(رواه ابن ماجه، والبيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1753/37) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There are seventy parts of usury. Of them a most ordinary part is like committin incest on one's own mother."

(Ibn Majah and Baihaqi)

Commentary: As alaready stated, in the Arabic idiom and the language of the Quran and the Traditions, the word 'seventy', often, denotes the abundance of a thing, and not the exact number. Anyway, what the above Tradition seeks to emphasise is that usury is a more detestable crime than committing incest to one's own mother.

(١٧٥٤/٣٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكِلَ الرَّبُّوَا وَ مُؤَكِّلَهُ وَ كَاتِبَهُ وَ شَاهِدِيهِ وَ قَالَ هُمْ سَوَاءٌ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1754/38) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه narrated to us, "the Prophet ﷺ cursed him who lends money on interest, and him who recieves it, and him who writes the deed thereof, and those who are witnesses to the transaction, and said that (they) all are equal partners to the sin."

(Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that usury is such a grave sin that all those who are associated with it in any way are doomed to the eternal punishment of the Hereafter, and the curse rest equally on the borrower, the writer of the deed and the witnesses thereof.

(١٧٥٥/٣٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَقْرَضَ أَحَدُكُمْ قَرْضًا فَأَهْدَى إِلَيْهِ أَوْ حَمَلَهُ عَلَى الدَّابَّةِ فَلَا يَرْكَبُهُ وَلَا يَقْبِلُهَا إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ جَرَى بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَهُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ. (رواه ابن ماجه والبيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1755/39) It is narrated by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: 'Whoever of you gives a loan to anyone and the borrower gives him something as a gift or offers him an animal to ride, he should not accept the gift or use the animal for riding except that there have been such relations between them from earlier days.' (Ibn Majah and Baihaqi)

Commentary: Meaning usury is so hinous in its cosequences that one should be careful to avoid a situation bearing even a trace of it. When a person gives a loan to anyone, he should refrain from recieving the least worldly gain or advantage from him and allow not even a suspicion of it to come near himself.

(١٧٥٦/٤٠) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ أَنَّ اخِرَ مَا نَزَلَتْ آيَةُ الرَّبْوِ وَإِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَبِضَ وَلَمْ يُفَسِّرْهَا لَنَا فَدَعَوْا الرَّبْوِ وَالرَّيَّةَ.

(رواه ابن ماجه والدارمي)

(1756/40) It is narrated on the authority of Umar ibn Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه who said: "The verse of usury, i.e., the verse of Surah Al-Baqarah forbidding usury is among the verses which were revealed during the last phase (of the Holy Prophet's ﷺ life). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ departed from the world without explaining fully its implications to us. So give up usury altogether and guard yourselves even against a trace or suspicion of it." (Ibn Majah and Daarami)

Commentary: The word Riba, which has been used in the text of the above Tradition for usury was current in the Arabic language before the revelation of the Qur'an, and carried the same meaning as we have stated in the introductory lines. Thus, when the verse relating to it was revealed, it was believed that the pracitce of lending money on interest had been forbidden There was no question of a doubt or confusion with regard to it. But in some of his sayings we shall be discussing later, the Holy Prophet ﷺ expressed the view about certain forms of trade which were not considered objectionable that too, amounted to usury. He, however, did not explain the various implications of it, but as the philosophy of the Shariah would demand, furnished on the doctrinal guidance and left it to the jurists to work out the details. The same is the case with all the heads and sections of the Shariah. But Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه who was among the leading Jurist of the Ummah, was so overawed by the warnings of punishment on usury that he felt it would have been better had the Prophet ﷺ enunciated the details of the commandment as well, and not left it to the jurists to decide on their own. It was on account of this extremely God-fearing and cautious attitude that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه remarked that the better and wiser course for Believers was that they kept strictly aloof from every thing which bore the least suggestion of usury. The irony of fate, however, is that some intellectuals of our times who claim for themselves the right to interpret the Shariah on the basis of *Ijtehad*¹, conclude, from the above utterance of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, that the position of usury is vogue and uncertain, and, from it, proceed to justify various forms of it that are in vogue today.

(١٧٥٧/٤١) عَنْ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ
الرِّبَاَ وَإِنْ كَثُرَ فَإِنَّ عَاقِبَتَهُ تَصِيرُ إِلَى قُلٍّ.

(رواه احمد، و ابن ماجه والبيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(1757/41) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: " However plentiful the interest may be, its end is want and scarcity."

(Musnad Ahmad, Ibn Majah and Baihaqi)

Commentary: If the word 'Aaqibatahu' (عَاقِبَتُهُ) occurring in the original is taken to mean the ultimate end of the Hereafter, no believing person can have a doubt concerning it for the Hereafter everyone will see with his own eyes that the people who had made immense gains through usury will rise as paupers on the Last Day and the wealth they had so acquired will prove curse for them, as set forth in the Qur'an and the Traditions. Should, however, the Tradition be supposed to signify that however much a person may add to his wealth through usury, it will, ultimately, avail him nothing and he will end up in poverty, the superficial observers may find it hard to believe but those who are capable of taking a deeper view of things will understand. Instances are not wanting of people accumulating a lot of wealth through usurious means, and, then, the whole wealth evaporating, as one would say, into thin air through a sudden turn of events, in their own lifetime or after death. It is also a common experience that people who live on usury seldom enjoy real peace and happiness which is the chief advantage of being wealthy. It will, as such, not be incorrect to say that a man who acquires wealth by money-lending is, virtually, a pauper, all his worldly possessions notwithstanding. Says the Qur'an:

1. The word literally means 'to exert.' In the Islamic theological usage it denotes to exert with a view to forming an independent judgement on a legal question.

يَمْحَقُ اللَّهُ الرِّبَا (البقرة ٢: ٢٧٦)

"Allah blots out usury (Al Baqarah 2:276)

(١٧٥٨/٤٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يَبْقَى أَحَدٌ إِلَّا أَكَلَ الرِّبَا فَإِنْ لَمْ يَأْكُلْهُ أَصَابَهُ مِنْ بُخَارِهِ (وَبُرِئَ)

(مِنْ غُبَارِهِ) (رواه احمد و ابو داود والنسائي وابن ماجة)

(1758/42) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A time will come when everyone will be a usurer. (No one will be safe from usury). If a person will not be taking or receiving it himself, its dirt will, surely, be reaching inside his body." (Musnad Ahmad, Abu dawood, Nasai and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Its purpose is not merely to make a prediction, but to warn the Ummah that there will come a time when the practice of usury will become so common that no one will remain safe from it. The Believers and men of piety should, therefore, be vigilant. Our own times are no different, and even persons who consider usury a sin and abstain from it buy their provisions from shop-keepers who, directly or indirectly, are connected with the business of money-lending. In fact, it is particularly impossible, now-a-days, to keep any business free from the effects of usury.

Miscellaneous

(١٧٥٩/٤٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الذَّهَبُ بِالذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةُ بِالْفِضَّةِ وَالْبُرُّ بِالْبُرِّ. بِالشَّعِيرِ بِالشَّعِيرِ وَالتَّمْرُ بِالتَّمْرِ
وَالْمِلْحُ بِالْمِلْحِ مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ سَوَاءٌ بِسَوَاءٍ يَدًا بِيَدٍ فَإِذَا اخْتَلَفَتْ هَذِهِ الْأَجْنَاسُ
نَبَّيْعُوا كَيْفَ شِئْتُمْ إِذَا كَانَ يَدًا بِيَدٍ. (رواه مسلم)

(1759/43) It is narrated by Ubadah ibn Saamit رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The sale of gold in exchange for gold, and of silver in exchange of silver, and of wheat in exchange for wheat, and of barley in exchange for barley, and of dates in exchange for dates, and of salt in exchange for salt should be equal and alike, and from hand to hand, but when the commodities are different, you can sell them as you like provided that the transaction is from hand to hand, i.e., straight and expeditious." (Muslim)

(١٧٦٠/٤٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الذَّهَبُ بِالذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةُ بِالْفِضَّةِ وَالْبُرُّ بِالْبُرِّ وَالشَّعِيرُ بِالشَّعِيرِ وَالتَّمْرُ
بِالتَّمْرِ وَالْمِلْحُ بِالْمِلْحِ مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ يَدًا بِيَدٍ فَمَنْ زَادَ أَوْ اسْتَزَادَ فَقَدْ أَرَبَى الْآخِذُ
وَالْمُعْطَى فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ. (رواه مسلم)

(1760/44) It is narrated by Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Gold in return for gold, silver in return for silver, wheat in return for wheat, barley in return for barley, dates in return for dates, and salt in return for salt should be bought and sold at par with each other. Whoever paid or demanded more carried out a usurious transaction. Both the buyer and the seller, the one who gives and the one who receives, are equal in this respect." (Muslim)

Commentary: Traditions having the same meaning have, also, been related by Sayyidina Umar, Sayyidina Ubaidullah ibn Saamit, Sayyidina Abu Bakr, Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah and many other Companions رضي الله عنهم.

In the above narrative, it is told that if any of the six commodities mentioned in it, gold, silver, wheat, barley, dates and salt, is sold in return for the same commodity, as for instance, wheat is exchanged for wheat, the transaction will be fair and lawful if it is equal in measure, value and quality, and conducted from hand to hand. If, however, what is exchanged is of a greater or lesser weight or value or the business deal is not carried out from hand to hand, but by way of borrowing and lending then it will be a usurious transaction and both the parties will be guilty of usury.

The sum and substance of the comments offered on Traditions by Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه, in Hujjatillah-il Baligha, is that the form of usury practised in Arabia during the time of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and even earlier, and for which the term, Riba was used was that people, in their need, borrowed money from those who did the business of lending on interest and it was settled at the time of the transaction that they would return it within a fixed period, alongwith the agreed interest charge and if it could not be paid back on time, they obtained a respite and agreed to pay an additional amount. This was the Riba that was directly forbidden by the Qur'an. Later, at the behest of Allah, the Prophet ﷺ included some other kinds of business deals too, in the sphere of application of the Commandment concerning usury, and enjoined upon the Ummah to abstain from them as well. The Traditions, we have just seen contain the same promulgation, and their purport is that if any commodity among the six mentioned therein is exchanged for the same commodity, it should be of an equal weight and quality, and the transaction carried out from hand to hand, otherwise it will be a usurious deal and both the parties will stand condemned before Allah.

Only six articles are mentioned in these Traditions, but the Jurists are almost unanimous on the point that other articles belonging to the same category, too, are covered by the Commandment although there is some difference in their views on matters of detail.

(١٧٦١/٤٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ جَاءَ بِلَالٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
بِتَمْرٍ بَرِّيٍّ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ أَيْنَ هَذَا؟ قَالَ كَانَ عِنْدَنَا
تَمْرٌ رَدِيٌّ فَبِعْتُ مِنْ صَاعَيْنِ بِصَاعٍ فَقَالَ أَوْهَ عَيْنُ الرَّبِّ لَا تَفْعَلْ وَلَكِنْ إِذَا أَرَدْتَ

أَنْ تَشْتَرِيَ فَبِعِ التَّمَرِ بَيْعَ آخَرَ ثُمَّ اشْتَرِهِ. (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1761/45) Sayyidina Abu Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه narrates that once Bilal رضي الله عنه brought some high quality dates for the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ enquired how he had come to possess them upon which Bilal رضي الله عنه said that he had exchanged Sa'as¹, of poor quality dates for 1 Sa'a of the finer ones. "Ah," the Prophet ﷺ exclaimed. "It is pure usury. When you want to buy dates (with dates), first sell your dates, and, then, buy the other dates with the money you, thus, obtain."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Bilal رضي الله عنه would, certainly, not have been unaware that Riba had been forbidden by God, but he did not know that the manner of his buying the dates, too, was a usurious practice. He thought that only the taking or giving of a loan on interest was usury. But the Prophet ﷺ explained to him that the exchange of the dates on unequal terms also was similar. According to Shah Waliullah رحمة الله عليه, Riba relating to a loan is real Riba while what has been described as such in the narratives of Sayyidina Saeed Khudri رضي الله عنه etc., is equivalent in significance to it.

(١٧٦٢/٤٦) عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ أَنَّ مُعَاوِيَةَ بَاعَ سِقَايَةَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ أَوْ وَرَقٍ بِأَكْثَرٍ مِنْ وَزْنِهَا فَقَالَ أَبُو الدَّرْدَاءِ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْهَى عَنْ مِثْلِ هَذَا إِلَّا مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ فَقَالَ لَهُ مُعَاوِيَةُ مَا أَرَى بِمِثْلٍ هَذَا بَأْسًا فَقَالَ أَبُو الدَّرْدَاءِ مَنْ يُعَذِّرُنِي مِنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ أَنَا أُخْبِرُهُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يُخْبِرُنِي عَنْ رَأْيِهِ لَا أَسَاكِنُكَ بِأَرْضٍ أَنْتَ بِهَا ثُمَّ قَدِمَ أَبُو الدَّرْدَاءِ عَلَى عُمَرَ فَذَكَرَ لَهُ ذَلِكَ فَكَتَبَ عُمَرُ إِلَى مُعَاوِيَةَ أَنْ لَا تَبِعَ ذَلِكَ إِلَّا مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ وَزْنًا يَوْزَنُ. (رواه مالك في الموطأ والنسائي في سننه)

(1762/46) Ata ibn Yasaar (Tabi'ee) narrates that once Mu'awiya رضي الله عنه, sold a cup (or jug) of gold (or silver) in return of the same metal of a greater weight. Upon it, Abu Darda رضي الله عنه told him that he had heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbidding a sale like that except that the articles exchanged were of an equal weight. But Mua'wiya رضي الله عنه said that he saw nothing wrong or sinful in what he had done. (With great sorrow), Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, observed that, "I should be considered helpless where Muawiya رضي الله عنه is concerned. I told him what the Prophet ﷺ has commanded, and he told me what he thinks." Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, afterwards, told Muawiya رضي الله عنه that "I will not live in the territory in which you live." He, (thus), came to Umar رضي الله عنه in Madinah and narrated the whole matter to him upon which Umar رضي الله عنه wrote to Muawiya رضي الله عنه to keep clear of such deals. the exchange of gold, silver etc., for the same goods or articles was permissible only when both the things were of an equal weight.

①. A measure of five pints and a third used for measuring corn etc.

(Malik and Nasai)

Commentary: Sayyidina Muawiya رضي الله عنه was the Governor of Sirya during the Caliphate of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, and Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, also lived there. It was in those days that Sayyidina Muawiya رضي الله عنه sold a drinking vessel of gold or silver in exchange for the metal it was made of, though the metal weighed a little more than the vessel, but he thought that there was no harm in it. Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, thereupon, told him that the Holy Prophet ﷺ had forbidden such a deal and commanded that if the same metal, the two should be of an equal weight, neither more nor less. Sayyidina Muawiya رضي الله عنه, perhaps, was under the impression that if an article — a vessel or an ornament — made of gold or silver was sold, it would not be unfair to charge at a higher price, taking into consideration the cost of manufacture. That was why, he remarked that he saw nothing wrong and unlawful in the transaction. Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, however, was extremely shocked at it as he believed that there was no question of one's own view or judgement in what he had heard from the Prophet ﷺ. Anyway, he left Sirya for good, and came to Madinah where he related the incident to Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, then, wrote to Sayyidina Muawiya رضي الله عنه that the correct position was what Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه had stated, and, therefore, no such deals could be permitted.

It shows how firm and uncompromising the holy Companions رضي الله عنهم were in their attitude even on the second category of Riba. They were not ready to tolerate even the least deviation or error of judgement in that regard.

BUYING AND SELLING

A Fruit-Crop Should Neither be Sold Nor Bought Until it is Ready

(١٧٦٣/٤٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الثَّمَارِ حَتَّى يَبْدَأَ صِلَاحُهَا نَهَى الْبَائِعَ وَالْمُشْتَرِيَ (رواه البخارى ومسلم) وَفِي رَوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ نَهَى عَنْ بَيْعِ النَّخْلِ حَتَّى تَزْهُو وَعَنِ السُّنْبُلِ حَتَّى يَبْيَضَ وَيَأْمَنَ الْعَاهَةُ

(1763/48) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the selling of a fruit-crop until the fruit had begun to ripen. He forbade both the seller and the buyer." (Bukahri and Muslim)

(In another version of it, appearing in Sahih Muslim, it is stated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the selling of the crop of dates until the dates had begun to turn red, and the selling of spikes of corn until the spikes had begun to turn white, and there remained on danger of their destruction).

Commentary: Just as in our country, the mango-crop is, often, sold much before it is ready, in Madinah and other cultivable parts of Arabia too, the corps of dates or grapes were sold before the fruit had begun to mature, and likewise, the standing crops of grain were sold before the grain had ripened. The Holy Prophet ﷺ forbade it because it was quite possible that, after the transaction, the crop was destroyed owing to a natural Alamity, like a squall or hailstorm, and the poor buyer was put to serious loss. A quarrel could moreover arise in such a situation between the buyer and the seller over the payment of dues. Hence, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has enjoined his followers not to be a party to such deals.

(١٧٦٤/٤٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ

الشَّمَارِ حَتَّى تَزْهِيَ، قِيلَ وَمَا تَزْهِي؟ قَالَ حَتَّى يَحْمَرَ، وَقَالَ أَرَأَيْتُ إِذَا مَنَعَ اللَّهُ
الثَّمَرَةَ بِمَا يَأْخُذُ أَحَدُكُمْ مَالَ أَخِيهِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1764/48) It is narrated by Anas رضي الله عنه "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the selling of fruits until lusture appears over the fruits, the Prophet ﷺ replied that it meant that the fruits had begun to turn red.¹ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, (then), observed: 'Tell me, in return for what will the seller realise the dues from his brother, (the buyer), if the Lord withheld the fruits, i.e., the crop was destroyed, by the Command of Allah, before it was ready for the market?' (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: According to authorities, the owner or seller of the grove should forego the price altogether if the whole of the crop was destroyed and return the money he might have recieved in advance. If however, the loss has been partial an appropriate allowance should be mde for it. The aim and object of these allowances should be made for it. The aim and object of these regulations is give due regard to eachother's interest and all business transatctions were carried out in a spirit of good will and compassion.

(١٧٦٥/٤٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ
السِّنِينِ وَأَمَرَ بِوَضْعِ الْجَوَائِحِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1765/49) It is narrated by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the sale of (the crop) of graps until the grapes had begun to turn black, and of a standing agricultural crop until the grains had become hard and were ready to be harvested." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Perhaps, during the days of the Holy Prophet ﷺ only the grapes that turned black on maturing were grown in Madinah. That was why, he forbade the sale of the crop, of dates until the fruit had started turning black. Now, both the white and black varities of grapes are produced over there in abundance.

Together with grapes, the command has also been given in it about the standing crops of agriculrural field that these should not be sold before the crop was ready for harvesting.

1. The colour of the dates becomes pinkish when they begin to ripen.

Crops of Fruit Orchards Should Not be Given on Contract for a Number of Years

(١٧٦٦/٥٠) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ

السِّنِّينَ وَأَمَرَ بِوَضْعِ الْجَوَائِحِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1766/50) It is narrated by Jabir رضي الله عنه "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade the sale of the crop of orchards for some years, and he told that allowance be made for loss suffered through a sudden calamity." (Muslim)

Commentary: To sell the crop of orchards for a number of years has been forbidden because no one could tell whether the crop would be good or bad during that period of time, or if it would endure or affected by a natural disaster. It would, infact, be more in the nature of a gamble which apart from being an evil in itself, could , also give rise to other difficulties and problems.

Another commandment contained in the above Tradition is that the owner of orchard ought to make suitable reduction in the price if the crop was adversely affected by an unforeseen happenings.

An Article Which is Not In One's Possession at The Time of The Deal Should Not be Sold

Sometimes, a trader has not an article in his possession or stock, but he settles the deal concerning it in the hope that he will buy it and supply. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has forbidden such a transaction for it is quite possible that the article was not available at that time, and even if it was, the buyer might not like it.

(١٧٦٧/٥١) عَنْ حَكِيمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ قَالَ نَهَانِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

أَنْ أَبِيعَ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدِي. (رواه الترمذی)

(1767/51) It is narrated by Hakeem ibn Hizam "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade me from entering into a deal with anyone for something that was not in my possession (at that time)."

(Tirmizi)

Commentary: The narrator, Hakeem ibn Hizam, was a wealthy merchant. It is reported in Sunan Nassai and Sunan Abu Dawood that, once, he asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about the legitimacy of the practice that, sometimes, as a person came to him to buy something which was not in his stock, he settled the deal with him and supplied the article by producing it from the market. The Prophet ﷺ, observed, "Do not sell a thing which is not in your possession."

If Grain etc., is Bought, it Should Not be Sold Until Delivery Has Been Taken of it

(١٧٦٨/٥٢) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَنْ ابْتَاعَ طَعَامًا فَلَا يَبِعُهُ حَتَّى يَسْتَوْفِيَهُ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1768/52) Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ narrated to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever buys grains should not sell it to anyone until it had come into his possession." (Bukhari)

Commentary: Though only grains is mentioned in it, it includes all moveable goods.

Forbidding Buying and Selling With A Man Who is in Extreme Need

Sometimes, a person is compelled to sell his property out of extreme need or anything in distressing circumstance. The buyer, in such a case, can exploit his need and make an unfair profit from the deal. Such a transaction has been called *Ba'i Muztar*¹ in this Tradition, and it has been forbidden.

(١٧٦٩/٥٣) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ
الْمُضْطَرِّ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الْغَرَرِ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الثَّمَرَةِ قَبْلَ أَنْ تُدْرِكَ (رواه ابو داود)

(1769/53) It is narrated by Sayyidina Ali ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ "forbade buying and selling with a person who was in dire need or difficulties, and he forbade the selling of an article the availability of which was not certain, and of fruit before it was ready for harvesting." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: What is emphasised is that the need of a person made desperate by poverty should not be put unfairly to advantage. On the contrary, he should be helped. The other thing which it tells ① . Selling by a person reduced to need or necessity.

is that an article like a bird or deer in the forest or fish in the pond ought not to be sold in the hope that one will catch and supply it for it is neither in the possession of the seller nor is its availability assured, and further, a difference can also arise over the quality of the thing. 'As for the selling of a fruit-crop before the fruit had ripened, we have already discussed it.

Warning Against Concealing The Defect of a Commodity Offered for Sale

(١٧٧٠/٥٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ عَلَى صُبْرَةِ طَعَامٍ فَأَدْخَلَ يَدَهُ فِيهَا فَتَأَلَّتْ أَصَابِعُهُ بَلَلًا فَقَالَ مَا هَذَا يَا صَاحِبَ الطَّعَامِ؟ فَقَالَ أَصَابَتْهُ السَّمَاءُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! قَالَ أَفَلَا جَعَلْتَهُ فَوْقَ الطَّعَامِ حَتَّى يَرَاهُ النَّاسُ، مَنْ غَشَّ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا. (رواه مسلم)

(1770/54) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه narrates "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, once happened to pass by a heap of corn (which belonged to a trader). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ thrust his hand into it and his finger felt wetness. On being asked, the trader replied that rain had fallen upon it. (So, he had placed the wet corn that was on the top under the dry corn), The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, thereupon, observed: 'Why did you not let the wet corn remain on the top so that the buyers could see it? (Listen), he who deceives is not from us.' (Muslim)

Commentary: Another version of the same incident quoted by Tabarani in Mo'jam Kabeer-wa-Sagheer, on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud رضي الله عنه has it that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, lastly, said: "The sequel of such deceit is Hell."

(١٧٧١/٥٥) عَنْ وَائِلَةَ بِنِ الْأَسَقَعِ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ بَاعَ عَيْبًا وَلَمْ يُبَيِّنْهُ لَمْ يَزَلْ فِي مَقْتِ اللَّهِ أَوْ لَمْ تَزَلِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ تَلْعَنُهُ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1771/55) Wasila ibn Asqa رضي الله عنه narrates "I myself heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Whoever sold a defective thing to anyone without disclosing the defect to the buyer would be caught, permanently, in the wrath of God.' (Or was it) (that) 'he would always be cursed by the Angels?" (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Sometimes, a narrator is not sure of the exact words spoken by the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and by way of caution, he indicates his lack of certainty while relating the event. In the above Tradition, too, Hazrat Wasila ibn al-Arqam ؓ was caught in two minds and could not decide whether the Prophet ﷺ had said about the deceitful seller that "he would be caught, permanently, in the wrath of God," or that "he would always be cursed by the Angels."

Undue Advantage Should Not be Taken of The Ignorance of The Buyer or Seller

(١٧٧٢/٥٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَلْقُوا

الْجَلَبَ فَمَنْ تَلَقَّاهُ فَاشْتَرَى مِنْهُ فَإِذَا أَتَى سَيِّدَهُ السُّوقَ فَهُوَ بِالْخِيَارِ (رواه مسلم)

(1772/56) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not go forward and meet the caravan carrying grain etc., (for trade), (before it had reached the market-place). The trader who went ahead and bought the goods in the way, the owner would, then, have the right to cancel the deal, (if he wished), on reaching the market." (Muslim)

Commentary: It was common, in those days, for people to bring the articles of trade from the outlying areas to the towns for selling them in the market. They used to travel in groups, both large and small, and were called Jalab. Clever trader would go on and settle the deal much before the caravan had arrived at the market-place. This practice, evidently, was not to the advantage of the sellers because they could, thereby, be cheated into selling the goods at a lower rate owing to the ignorance of the price current in the market. Another disadvantage was that all the grain and other articles of trade coming from outside went into the hands of skilful merchants and they sold them at a much higher rate to the ordinary consumers. Were the goods sold in the market, they would have fetched a better price and the consumers, too, would have got them at reasonable rates. It was for these reasons that the Holy Prophet ﷺ forbade the buying of goods on way, before they had reached the market, and, further, indicated that if anyone did that, the seller would be entitled to cancel the deal if, on reaching the market, he felt that he had been cheated.

(١٧٧٣/٥٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَلْقُوا الرُّكْبَانَ لِبَيْعٍ وَلَا يَبِيعُ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى بَيْعِ بَعْضٍ وَلَا تَنَاجَشُوا وَلَا يَبِيعُ حَاضِرٌ لِبَادٍ وَلَا تُصَرُّوا الْإِبِلَ وَالْغَنَمَ فَمَنْ ابْتَاغَهَا بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَهُوَ بِخَيْرِ النَّظَرَيْنِ بَعْدَ أَنْ يَحْلِبَهَا أَنْ رَضِيَهَا أَمْسَكَهَا وَإِنْ سَخَطَهَا رَدَّهَا وَصَاعًا مِنْ تَمْرٍ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1773/57) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Do not go forward and meet, (in the way), the caravans bringing grain etc., for sale; and none of you should interfere in the selling transaction of his brother by offering his own goods for sale; and do not try to raise the price of a commodity (by pretending to be a buyer); and the merchants of the towns must not store the goods of the bedouins with themselves for future sale; and do not keep the milk in the udder of a goat or she-camel intended for sale, and if a person buys such a goat or she-camel, he will be free to keep the animal or return it, as he likes, after milking it, and in case he returns it, he will give a Sa'a (— 4 Kilograms) of dates to the owner (along with it)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Among the instructions given in it, the first is what has, already, been stated in the preceding narrative, i.e., grain and other essential commodities should not be bought by traders from the caravans, bringing them from the countryside, before they had reached the market.

The next requires that if a person is buying an article from a shopkeeper, the other shopkeeper should not interfere in the transaction and try to persuade the customer to buy from him.

The third is concerning the practice of raising the price of a commodity by posing as a buyer and offering a higher price, while a person was engaged in settling the deal with the seller, in order that the real buyer agreed to pay more.

The fourth instruction is that city merchants should not collect grain etc., brought by the village peasants or traders for selling, and keep them, for future sale when the prices will rise. The goods, on the other hand, should be sold when villagers bring them to the market so that artificial scarcity is not created and the prices do not soar. Moreover, when peasants or trader bringing the goods from the countryside will get the price of their commodities promptly, they will be encouraged to bring in a fresh stock of goods, and, thus, the trade will flourish, and they will also earn more.

The fifth and the last instruction is that anyone who wanted to sell a milk cattle should not cease milking it for a time so that the buyer was deceived by the inflated size of the udders and agreed to buy it at a higher price.

The Tradition, further, tells that whoever bought such an animal will be within his rights to return it if he felt dissatisfied on milking it at his place. The buyer, in that case, will also give a Sa'a of dates to the owner.

In another version of the same narrative, quoted in Sahih Muslim, it is stated that animal ought to be returned within three days of the deal after which the buyer will forfeit the right, and also that a Sa'a of wheat or barely can be given in place of dates.

The object of the commandment requiring the buyer to give a Sa'a of dates, barely etc., alongwith the animal if he decides to return it, probably is that he kept the animal with him for a few days and made use of its milk, but he had also fed the animal during that time, and thus, the account was settled, but if anything was still left wanting, it should be made good in that way. Besides, it will be a consolation to the owner.

Selling By Auction

(١٧٧٤/٥٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَاعَ جِلْسًا وَقَدْحًا فَقَالَ مَنْ يَشْتَرِي هَذَا الْجِلْسَ وَالْقَدْحَ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ أَخَذَهُمَا بِدِرْهَمٍ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَزِيدُ عَلَى دِرْهَمٍ فَأَعْطَاهُ رَجُلٌ دِرْهَمَيْنِ فَبَاعَهُمَا مِنْهُ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1774/58) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrates "(once) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sold a piece of sacking, (used as a mat) and a cup in this way that (addressing those present), he said: 'Who wants to buy this mat and cup? (He should make the offer of price)'. Someone, then, said that he could take the two articles for a dirham. "Who is willing to pay more?" the Prophet ﷺ enquired. Another person, then, offered to pay two dirhams upon which the Prophet gave both the articles to him."

(Tirmizi, Abu dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that auction is permitted by the Shariat. The event referred to in the above Tradition has been described in detail, in Sunan Abi Dawood and Sunan Ibn Majah. It is stated that once an extremely poor Ansar Companion came to the Messenger of Allah, and after relating his misery, begged for something. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, on seeing that he was in a fit condition to work for a living, asked him if there was anything in his house. The Ansar said that he had only a piece of sacking, a part of which they used to cover themselves with and a part of which they spread on the ground to sleep on, and there was a cup from which they drank water. The Prophet ﷺ, thereupon, told him to bring the two things which he did. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, addressing the people who were present at that time, then, said, "These things are for sale. Who is going to buy them?" A Companion ﷺ offered to buy the mat and the cup for one dirham. Upon it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ enquired if anyone was willing to make a bid of more than one dirham. (It is stated in Abu Dawood that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said it twice or thrice). another Companion ﷺ, then took out two dirhams from his pocket and placed them before the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ gave him the two articles, and handing over the dirhams to the Ansar said, "Buy some foodstuff for your family with one dirham, and an axe with the other, and bring it to me." The Ansar Companion ﷺ did as he was told, and came back to the Prophet of Allah ﷺ with the axe. The Prophet ﷺ fixed a strong handle to it with his own hands, and said, "Take it, and go to the forest, and cut wood, and sell it, and do not let me see you for fifteen days." The Ansar, thus, went away, and fetched wood from the forest, and sold it as the Prophet ﷺ had told till he had earned ten dirhams with which he bought some cloth and foodgrains for his family, and then, went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, observed, "This earning by hard work is much better for you than stretching your hands before others, like a beggar, and rising on the Last Day with the mark of begging on your forehead."

The moral of the above Tradition is too obvious to need an explanation.

Hoarding and Excessive Profit Disallowed

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has strictly forbidden the hoarding of essential commodities with a view to creating conditions of scarcity in the market and selling the goods when the prices had risen. It is called *Ihtikar*¹ in the Arabic language.

(١٧٧٥/٥٩) عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ احْتَكَرَ

(رواه مسلم)

فَهُوَ خَاطِيٌّ

(1775/59) It is narrated by M'amar ibn Abdullah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The trader who resorts to Ihtikar, i.e., stores up foodgrains and other necessities of life, waiting for a time of dearth, is a sinner." (Muslim)

(١٧٧٦/٦٠) عَنْ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْجَالِبُ مَرْزُوقٌ

(رواه ابن ماجه والدارمي)

وَالْمُحْتَكِرُ مَلْعُونٌ.

(1776/60) It is narrated by Umar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The trader who brings grain etc., from the countryside and sells it in the market is Marzooq, i.e., God is responsible for his subsistence, while Mohtakir, i.e., one who buys grain etc., and withholds it in order that it may become scarce and dear is accursed of God." (Ibn Majah and Daarimi)

Commentary: The guiding principle of the Shariah in the economic field is that the common man should be able to live in reasonable comfort and security. The wealthier class, on their part, should, for the sake of God, pay greater attention to the welfare of the less fortunate brethren than to their own gain.

Price-Control

Circumstances occasionally demand that the prices of food and other essential commodities should be kept within proper limits through administrative action so that the consumers were not left at the mercy of unscrupulous traders. The Arabic word for it is Tas'eer.

(١٧٧٧/٦١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ غَلَا السَّعْرُ عَلَى عَهْدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

①. Meaning to collect and withhold grain etc., waiting for a time of dearth.

فَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ سَعَرَ لَنَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْمُسَعِّرُ
الْقَابِضُ الْبَاسِطُ الرَّازِقُ وَإِنِّي لَا رَجُوَ أَنْ أَلْقَى رَبِّي وَلَيْسَ أَحَدٌ مِنْكُمْ يَطْلُبُنِي
بِمَظْلَمَةٍ بَدِمَ وَلَا مَالٍ. (رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه والدارمی)

(1777/61) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrates "(once), during the days of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, dearness increased, people requested him to fix the prices (and enforce them on the merchants). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, thereupon, observed: 'To raise or lower the prices is in the hands of the Lord. It is He who grants increase or decrease. He is the Sustainer and the Provider of the daily bread to all His creatrues. And I wish to meet Him in the state that no one has a claim against me for doing a wrong to him or acting unjustly towards his life or porperty.'" (Tirmizi, Abu dAwood, Ibn Majah and Daarami)

Commentary: From the above, it appears that the Holy Prophet ﷺ declined to control the prices of the articles of daily need even though the Companions رضی اللہ عنہم had complained to him against dearness, and expressed the fear that it might be an act of injustice towards anyone.

It should, nevertheless, be noted that scarcity of the essential commodities is of two kinds. Sometimes, it is due to natural causes, like a drought, and sometimes, it is man-made. From the Holy Prophet's ﷺ reply, as it is mentioned in the narrative of Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ, it appears that the dearness, at that time, was the product of some natural calamity and not owing to the excessive greed of the traders. Hence, the Prophet ﷺ did not agree to price-control, fearing that it might not be fair to the merchants. We may, thus, conclude that Government be convinced that the traders are taking advantage of the situation to make an unreasonable profit and they cannot be persuaded by argument or entreaty to correct their ways, it can enforce price-control. In the words of Shah Waliullah رحمة الله عليه, to give a free rein to profiteers will tend to spread corruption on the earth and bring misery to mankind.¹

Be that as it may, the purport of the above Tradition is that price-control should be avoided as far as possible, and resort should be taken to it only when the merchants are not amenable to good counsel humanitarian appeals, and they are fleecing the common man without fear or shame.

①. Hujjat, Vol. II; p. 113.

It is narrated, in Muwatta, by Imam Maalik, on the authority of Sa'eed ibn Mussaiyib taba'ee, that once as Sayyidina Umar ؓ saw a Companion, Haatib ibn Abi Balta'ah, selling dried grapes (or bloom-raisins) in the market of Madinah at an unreasonably high rate, he said to him, "Either reduce the price or take away your goods from my market."

In the light of the general principle of the Shariah and the afore-mentioned remark of Sayyidina Umar ؓ, authorities have concluded that if the circumstances demand, the price of essential goods ought to be fixed within proper limits in order to save the people from exploitation by unprincipled merchants. Ibn-i-Taimiyah too has expressed the same view in some of his writings.¹

Cancelling A Deal

If any of the two parties to a business transaction, the buyer or the seller makes a condition at the time that he will have the right to undo the deal within two or three days, it will have the force of law, and be in accordance with the Shariat. In the special usage of Fiqh (Islamic Jurisprudence), it is called Khiyar-i-Shart and is specifically mentioned in the Tradition, and the Jurists, too, are agree on its legality.

According to Imam Shaf'ee and some other authorities, the parties are entitled to cancel a deal even without such a condition as long as they remain at the place where the transaction has taken place, but if anyone of them goes away the right will cease to hold good. It is called Khiyar Majlis in the Islamic system of law. But some Jurists including Imam Abu Hanifah, hold a different view. They believe that once a deal has been finally settled and transaction has taken place, it cannot be annulled unilaterally by a party provided that it had not been made a part of the agreement by the buyer or the seller. It can certainly be done by mutual consent for which the term used in Fiqh is Iqala.²

①. Jam'a-ul-Fuwayid, Vol.I, p.262. ②. Meaning cancelling a sale by mutual consent.

(١٧٧٨/٦٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الْمُتَبَايَعَانِ كُلُّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا بِالْخِيَارِ عَلَى صَاحِبِهِ مَا لَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا إِلَّا بِبَيْعِ الْخِيَارِ.
(رواه البخاري و مسلم)

(1778/62) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Both the parties in a business deal have the right to revoke or annul it until they cease to be together, excepting the deal of Khiyar Shart."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that if the condition of annulment has not been set by any of the parties to a business transaction, the right to revoke the transaction or cancel it will be exercised only to the time that the buyer and the seller are together.

According to Imam Shaf'ee and other like-minded Jurists, the word, Maalam Yatafarraqa (ما لم يتفرقا), occurring in the text, signify Khiyar Majlis, but Imam Abu Hanifah etc., hold that both the parties to a deal have the right to withdraw the offer until the transaction is finalised, after which neither of them can do so. They argue that Tafarraqa denotes separation not in terms of space, but transaction and agreement, as it is borne out according to them by the Qur'an which has used the same word to convey the same meaning with reference to divorce in the verse reading:

وَأِنْ يَتَفَرَّقَا يُغْنِ اللَّهُ كُلًّا مِنْ سَعَتِهِ (النساء ٤: ١٣٠)

And if they separate Allah will each of them out of His abundance
(Al Nisaa 4:130)

(١٧٧٩/٦٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْبَيْعَانِ بِالْخِيَارِ مَا لَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا إِلَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ صَفْقَةً خِيَارٍ وَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ أَنْ يُفَارِقَ صَاحِبَهُ خَشْيَةً أَنْ يَسْتَقِيلَهُ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد والنسائي)

(1779/63) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-'Aas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Both the buying and selling parties (to a transaction) have the right (to cancel the deal) upto the time that they do not part company, (after which the right will end), except that it had been agreed to, (at the time of the transaction), (through laying down a condition to that effect); and it is not lawful for either of the two to depart for the Iqala, and withdrawal of offer by the other party."

(Tirmizi Abu Dawood and Nasai)

Commentary: The purport of the above Tradition is similar to that of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar's ﷺ narrative we have seen before it. Both the sides in a business transaction are entitled to cancel it until they part company with each other. After it, it can be annulled only when it had been settled beforehand between them as a condition to the deal. It further tells that neither the buyer nor the seller should leave the place where the deal is made with the object of thwarting the possibility of cancellation by the other party.

Cancelling a Sale Owing To a Defecting Good

We have, already, discussed two forms of the annulment of a business deal, Khiyar Shart and Khiyar Majlis. The third form is that the buyer can lawfully cancel a deal if, on buying an article he discovers some defect in it. It is known as Khiyar 'Aib in Islamic jurisprudence.

(١٧٨٠/٦٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا ابْتَاعَ غُلَامًا فَأَقَامَ عِنْدَهُ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ وَجَدَ بِهِ عَيْبًا فَخَاصَمَهُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَدَّهٗ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَدْ اسْتَعْلَى غُلَامِي فَقَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْخِرَاجُ بِالضَّمَانِ.

(ابو داؤد والترمذى والنسائى وابن ماجه)

(1780/64) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that "once a person bought a slave from someone and the slave remained with him for (as many days) as Allah willed. Then he discovered that there was a defect in the slave, and took the matter to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ who decided that the slave be returned (to the original master), (on account of the defect). the defendent, thereupon, said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ: This brother of mine has profitted by the services of my slave. (I should, therefore, be compensated for it).' The Prophet ﷺ observed: 'Al-Khiraj-o-biz-zamaan. (He has the right to profit who is accountable for loss)."

(Abu Dawood, Tirmizi, Nasai and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The Holy Prophet's ﷺ observation that "he has the right to profit who is accountable for loss" is among the fundamental principles of the Shariah from which the jurists have derived the law for innumerable propositions.

To elaborate it, in the context of the above Tradition, suppose the slave had died or was crippled due to an injury or illness while he was with the buyer, the loss would have been his. The buyer, consequently, was entitled to the service he took from the slave during that time and the question of compensation did not arise.

An incident relating to Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه which has been quoted by Imam Maalik, in Muwatta, is worth recalling here. Once Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه had sold his slave for 800 dirhams to someone and assured the buyer that there was no defect in him. Afterwards, the buyer complained that the slave had such-and-such a defect which Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه had not disclosed to him. The latter, perhaps, said, in his defence, that the slave never suffered from the infirmity while he was with him. Anyway, the case came up for decision in the court of the Caliph of the day, Sayyidina Usman رضي الله عنه, who after hearing both the sides and noting that the buyer could not produce witnesses to prove that the slave was ill when he had bought him, asked Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه, as required by the Shariah, if he could swear that the slave was physically fit and healthy while he was with him, but the latter expressed his inability to do so, and took back the slave. It was, then, so willed by the Lord that the slave was restored to health and Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه sold him, again, for 1,500 dirhams.

The authorities are agreed that if a defect was discovered after it had been bought and it was proved that the defect was present even at the time of the transaction, the buyer could cancel the deal and take back his money. This is what Khiyar Aib denotes.

Cancelling a deal after it had been completed

Occasionally, after a deal has been completed between two persons, one of them, for his own reasons, wants to cancel it. The buyer, for instance, wishes to return the article or the seller wishes to have it back. In such a case, the other party is not compelled by the Shariah to agree to the annulment of the transaction, but the sacred Prophet ﷺ has pleaded for it on moral grounds and described much virtue in it. It is called Iqala.

(١٧٨١/٦٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ
أَقَالَ مُسْلِمًا أَقَالَهُ اللَّهُ عَثْرَتَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ.
(رواه ابو داود و ابن ماجه)

(1781/65) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever carries out a deal of Iqala with a Muslim brother, i.e., agrees to return or take back an article bought or sold by him, God will forgive his lapses, i.e., sins on the day of Resurrection" (Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: A person wishes to return an article after he had bought it, or to have it back after he had sold it, only when he feels that the transaction had gone against him and he had made a mistake in buying or selling it. It will naturally be an act of sacrifice on the part of the other party to agree to the spirit of magnanimity and self-denial that the Holy Prophet ﷺ has appealed in the above Tradition, and reinforced it with the tidings that, on the Day of Requit, the Lord will forgive the sins of the bondsman who will act like that.

Forbidding Swearing By The Traders

Some traders have the habit of swearing profusely in order to impress the customers. It is a most improper use of the sacred Name of Allah which the Holy Prophet ﷺ has forbidden.

(١٧٨٢/٦٦) عَنْ أَبِي قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِيَّاكُمْ
وَكَثْرَةَ الْحَلْفِ فِي الْبَيْعِ فَإِنَّهُ يُنْفِقُ ثُمَّ يَمْحَقُ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1782/66) It is narrated by Abu Qatadah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Abstain from swearing much while selling (your goods), for though it may help to push up the sales, ultimately it will destroy blessings." (Muslim)

Commentary: The traders are warned against the evil habit of swearing and often in the course of a business transaction. Even if the oath is true, it is a gross misuse of the exalted Name of the Lord, while if it is false, to take a false oath even once is a great sin. In a Tradition, quoted, again in Sahih Bukhari, it is stated that the trader who tries to promote his business by swearing falsely is one of the sinners about whom the decision of the Lord is:

لَا يُكَلِّمُهُمُ اللَّهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَا يُزَكِّيهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

(آل عمران ٧٧:٣)

And Allah shall not speak to them, nor shall He look at them on the Day of Resurrection, nor shall He purify them, and for them is a painful Chastisement. (Aal-e-Imran 3:77)

Expiation For Swearing and Other Improper Things in Business

(١٧٨٣/٦٧) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ عَرْزَةَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَامَعْشَرَ

التُّجَّارِ إِنَّ الْبَيْعَ يَحْضُرُهُ اللَّغْوُ وَالْحَلْفُ فَشَوْ بُؤُهُ بِالْصَّدَقَةِ.

(رواه ابو داؤد والترمذى والنسائى وابن ماجه)

(1783/67) Qais ibn Gharazah رضي الله عنه relates that the Prophet ﷺ said: "O traders! "Vain and improper things take place in business, and oaths are taken. So, include charity for expiation."

(Abu Dwood, Tirmizi, Nasai, and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Many traders swear and say or do other things in order to influence the customers which are undesirable in the sight of God. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has advised them in this Tradition, to include Sadaqah in their business by way of and expiation. It will also cure them of excessive greed which induces businessmen to indulge in dirty and deplorable practices.

The Trade Which is Not Carried On Cleanly is Extremely Bad

(١٧٨٤/٦٨) عَنْ رِفَاعَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ التُّجَّارُ

يُحْشَرُونَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فُجَّارًا إِلَّا مَنْ اتَّقَى وَبَرَّ وَصَدَقَ

(رواه الترمذى و ابن ماجه والدارمى)

(1784/68) It is narrated by Rifa'ah ibn Rafi' Ansari رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The traders except those who ply their trade with piety and truthfulness will rise in the Hereafter as the wicked, the sinful and the depraved."

(Tirmizi, Ibn Majah and Daarami)

Commentary: It warns that the trader who are heedless of the fear of God and injunctions of the Shariah and are interested only in increasing their wealth, by fair or foul means, will end up, on the Day of Judgement, as wretched evil-doers, and it is in that state that they will appear before the Almighty for the Final Reckoning.

A kindly Advice Regarding Sale of Immovable Property

A peculiarity of immovable property, like a house, orchard or agricultural land, is that it cannot be stolen. It also remains largely, unaffected by the disasters that often overtake movable goods. Prudence would, therefore, demand that such a property was not sold without a special reason, and if it became unavoidable, some other immovable property was purchased with its money. Out of the unbounded affection the Holy Prophet ﷺ had for the Ummah he has also given a similar advice to it.

(١٧٨٥/٦٩) عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ حُرَيْثٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ بَاعَ مِنْكُمْ دَارًا أَوْ عَقَارًا فَمِنْ أَنْ لَا يَبَارَكَ لَهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَجْعَلَهُ فِي مِثْلِهِ. (رواه ابن ماجه والدارمي)

(1785/69) Sa'eed ibn Hurayth رضى الله عنه relates that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Whoever of you sells his house or land, he deserves this act of his remained devoid of profit and propitiousness except, of course, that he invested the money thus made in a property of the same kind." (Ibn Majah and Daarimi)

Commentary: As stated earlier, it is an advice by the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and not an injunction of the Shariah.

Partnership in Business

(١٧٨٦/٧٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ رَفَعَهُ أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ يَقُولُ أَنَا ثَالِثُ الشَّرِيكَيْنِ مَا لَمْ يَخُنْ أَحَدُهُمَا صَاحِبَهُ فَإِذَا خَانَ خَرَجْتُ مِنْ بَيْنَهُمَا. (رواه ابو داود)

(1786/70) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The Lord to whom belong Might and Majesty says: 'When two persons run a business jointly, I am the third of them, i.e., My blessings are with them as long as any of them does not cheat his partner. When a partner defrauds and commits breach of faith, I part company with them (and withhold my blessings).'" (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is a 'Celestial' Tradition, in the theological usage of Islam, for, in it, the Holy Prophet ﷺ has, simply reproduced what the Lord had said. It also tells by the way, that partnership in business is permitted, or rather a source of auspiciousness.

Under the heading, 'Partnership in Business', Imam Bukhari has stated, on the authority of Zuhrah ibn Ma'bad Taba'ee, that his grandfather, Abdullah ibn Hisham, was taken by his mother, Zainab bint Humaid, to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ in his childhood for ba'it. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ remarked that Abdullah ibn Hisham was too young, and he caressed his head lovingly, and prayed for him. Afterwards, as Abdullah ibn Hisham set up his business, Zuhrah ibn Ma'bad used to accompany him to the market. He reports that, often, when his grandfather bought grain for trade, Abdullah ibn Umar and Abdullah ibn Zubair ؓ would request him to make them his partners because, so they said, the Holy Prophet ﷺ had made a prayer of abundance for him and he was sure to make much profit. His grandfather, thus, would let them have a share in the business, and the gain would, often, be so excessive that a full camel-load of grain was obtained as profit which they sent home.¹

Appointing An Agent

(١٧٨٧/٧١) عَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ أَبِي الْجَعْدِ الْبَارِقِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَعْطَاهُ دِينَارًا الْيَشْتَرِي شَاةً فَأَشْتَرَى لَهُ شَاتَيْنِ فَبَاعَ أَحَدَهُمَا بِدِينَارٍ وَأَتَاهُ بِشَاةٍ وَدِينَارٍ فَدَعَا لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي بَيْعِهِ بِالْبَرَكَةِ فَكَانَ لَوْ اشْتَرَى تُرَابًا لَرَبِحَ فِيهِ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1787/71) Urwah ibn Al-Ja'ad Baariqi ؓ relates, saying that, once, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave him a dinar to buy a goat for him. Urwah ؓ bought two goats with it, and then sold one of the goats for a dinar, and, on returning, gave both, the goat and the other dinar, to the Holy Prophet ﷺ (and told him what he had done). The Prophet ﷺ made a special prayer for him for prosperity in trade. The narrator adds that owing to the propitiousness of the prayer his condition was that even if he bought dirt, it fetched him profit."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: Urwah ibn Ali Ja'ad Baariqi ؓ had carried out the transaction, on behalf of the Holy Prophet ﷺ in his capacity as an agent. It shows that such a thing is permissible. Moreover, as Urwah ؓ had sold one of the two goats without the permission of the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ had praised and blessed him, instead of holding his conduct unlawful and taking him to task for it, we conclude that an agent can sell the property of his client without obtaining his permission, and if the client does not repudiate the transaction, it will be legally correct and binding.

(١٧٨٨/٧٢) عَنْ حَكِيمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَ مَعَهُ بَدِينًا لِيَشْتَرِيَ لَهُ بِهِ أَضْحِيَّةً فَأَشْتَرَى كَبْشًا بِدَيْنَارٍ وَبَاعَهُ بِدَيْنَارَيْنِ فَرَجَعَ فَأَشْتَرَى أَضْحِيَّةً بِدَيْنَارٍ فَجَاءَ بِهَا وَبِالدِّينَارِ الَّذِي اسْتَفْضَلَ مِنَ الْآخَرَى فَتَصَدَّقَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالدِّينَارِ فَدَعَا لَهُ أَنْ يُبَارَكَ لَهُ فِي تِجَارَتِهِ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1788/72) It is narrated by Hakeem ibn Hizam¹ that, (once), the Prophet ﷺ gave him a dinar to buy an animal of sacrifice for him, upon which he bought a ram for it, and then sold it (to a buyer) at that very place for two dinars. Hakeem ibn Hizam ؓ, later on, bought an animal of sacrifice for one of the two dinar, and came back and delivered the animal alongwith the (remaining) dinar to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ gave away the dinar in charity and prayed for Hakeem ibn Hizam's ؓ success and prosperity in business. (Tirmizi, and Abu Dawood)

Hire And Wages

To engage anyone on wages for one's work or allow the use of something on hire or rent is a regular feature of community life. It is called Ijara in the terminology of Shariah.

(١٧٨٩/٧٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ مَا بَعَثَ اللَّهُ نَبِيًّا إِلَّا رَعَى الْغَنَمَ فَقَالَ أَصْحَابُهُ

- ①. Hakeem ibn Hizam was nephew of Sayyidah Khadijah ؓ عنها رضي الله. He was among the prominent men of the Quraysh, and was rich as well as generous. He embraced Islam in 6 A.H., at the time of the Victory of Makkah, when he has about sixty, and lived for almost the same number of years after it. Hakeem died in Madinah at the age of about 125 years.

وَأَنْتَ؟ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ كُنْتُ أَرْعَى عَلَى قَرَارِيطٍ لِأَهْلِ مَكَّةَ. (رواه البخارى)

(1789/73) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "All the Prophets عليهم السلام raised up by God have grazed goats." "And you, too Messenger ﷺ?" asked the Companions رضي الله عنهم. "Yes, I, too, have grazed goats," the Prophet ﷺ replied. "I used to graze the goats of the Makkans for a few *Qirats*¹." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It was during his childhood, when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ lived with his uncle, Abu Talib, that he used to graze the goats of the Makkans in return for a few Qirats to meet his needs. It was a common occupation in Makkah at that time.

Goat-grazing is highly patience-testing work and depending on the aptitude of a person, it can also go a long way towards the diciplining of the self. Moral vices like vanity are removed or corrected through it, it promotes the habit of tolerance and self-restraint, and teaches a man to be kind and sympathetic.

From the above Tradition, we learn that all the Divine Mesengers ﷺ have completed this course of training and further that to work on wages was not only permissible, but also a confirmed practice of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

(١٧٩٠/٧٤) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

أَعْطُوا الْأَجِيرَ أَجْرَهُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَجْفَ عَرْقُهُ. (رواه ابن ماجه)

(1790/74) It is narrated by Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Pay the worker his wages before the sweat dries (on his body)." (Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It shows that wages should be paid to the labourer as soon as he finishes the work.

Letting Out of Land on Rent or Division of The Crop Between the Cultivator And Landlord

Another form of Ijara is to let out one's land to a person on the condition that he will cultivate it and pay a fixed amount as rent or the produce will be divided between the cultivator and the landlord, on a settled basis, in place of cash payment of the rent.

①. Almost a twelfth part of a dirham.

(١٧٩١/٧٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَعْطَى خَيْرَ الْيَهُودِ أَنْ يَعْمَلُوهَا وَيَزْرَعُوهَا وَلَهُمْ شَطْرُ مَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا. (رواه البخارى)
 (1791/75) Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه narrates "(after the Victory of Khyber), the Prophet ﷺ leased out the land of Khyber to Jews, (the erstwhile owners), on the condition that they will cultivate it and keep half of the produce with themselves." (Bukhari)

(١٧٩٢/٧٦) عَنْ عُمَرُو قَالَ قُلْتُ لِطَاوُسٍ لَوْ تَرَكْتَ الْمُخَابِرَةَ فَإِنَّهُمْ يَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهَى عَنْهُ قَالَ أَمِ عُمَرُو وَأَعْطَيْهِمْ وَأَعَيْنُهُمْ وَإِنْ أَعْلَمَهُمْ أَخْبَرْنِي يَعْنِي ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَنْهَ عَنْهُ وَلَكِنْ قَالَ أَنْ يَمْنَحَ أَحَدَكُمْ أَخَاهُ خَيْرٌ لَهُ مِنْ أَنْ يَأْخُذَ عَلَيْهِ خَرْجًا مَعْلُومًا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1792/76) Amr ibn Dinar Taba'ee narrated to us, saying that, once, he said to Tavoos Taba'ee that it would be better if he gave up leasing of land on division of the crop (or rent) as people thought that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had forbidden it. Tavoos Taba'ee replied that his practice was that he gave the land to the farmers to cultivate, and helped them in other ways as well, and the leading theologian of the Ummah, Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, had told him that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had not forbidden the letting out of land on rent or division of the crop. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, nevertheless, had said that it was better to give land for cultivation to a brother free of rent than to charge anything for its use." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It denotes that during the days of the Holy Companions رضي الله عنهم and the Taba'een (plural of Taba'ee), there were some people who considered it wrong to let one's land on lease, whether in cash or kind, but the well-known pupil of Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, Tavoos, explained, on the authority of his master, that the Prophet ﷺ had not declared it unlawful, but simply expressed the view that, morally, it was preferable to let out land to a brother for cultivation without rent, and with an eye on the recompense of the Hereafter, than to charge something from him, in whatever form, for its use.

In the light of Abdullah ibn Abbas's ﷺ elucidation or fiat, Tavoos used to let his land on rent or division of produce and also give financial support to the tenants.

Accepting Remuneration For Dam (Blowing), T'aweez (Charm) etc.

To accept payment for one's work or anyother service rendered is inclined in Ijara, and a form of it, also, is the doing of *Dam*¹ over a sick person or the wirtting or giving of a *T'aweez*² or incantation. Such incidents have taken place in the lifetime of the the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and the Companions ﷺ had accepted payment in return for those acts, and the Holy Prophet ﷺ had held it lawful.

(١٧٩٣/٧٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ نَفَرًا مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرُّوا بِمَاءٍ فِيهِمْ لَدِيْعٌ أَوْ سَلِيْمٌ فَعَرَضَ لَهُمْ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْمَاءِ فَقَالَ هَلْ فِيكُمْ مِنْ رَاقٍ إِنْ فِي الْمَاءِ رَجُلًا لَدِيْعًا أَوْ سَلِيْمًا فَانْطَلَقَ رَجُلٌ مِنْهُمْ فَقَرَأَ بِفَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ عَلَى شَاءٍ قَبْرَةٍ فَجَاءَ بِالشَّأِ إِلَى أَصْحَابِهِ فَكَرِهُوا ذَلِكَ وَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ اخَذَ عَلَى كِتَابِ اللَّهِ أَجْرًا فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَحَقَّ مَا أَخَذْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا كِتَابَ اللَّهِ.

(رواه البخارى)

وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ أُصِيبَتْ أَقْسَمُوا وَأَضْرَبُوا لِي مَعَكُمْ سَهْمًا.

(1793/77) Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ narrated to us that "as a party of Companions was passing through a settlement (or village), a man came and enquired if any of them did incantation. A snake had bitten someone in the village. (Or was it a scorpion that had stung)? (The narrator is not sure). A member of the party got up and went with him, and on reaching the place settled some goats as his remuneration, and (then) blew over the sick person after reciting the Qur'anic Surah Al Fatiha, and the man recovered. As he returned to the party with the goats, his companions did not approve of it and remarked that he had taken payment for reciting the Book of God until they all returned to Madinah

- ①. The act of reciting the Name of Allah or anyother prayer for the recovery of one who is sick, and, then, driving air over him through the mouth.
- ②. An amulet or charm worn as a protection against evil.

where the matter was placed before the Prophet ﷺ, and he was told that such-and-such a member of the party had accepted remuneration for reciting the Book of God, i.e., Surah Al-Fateha. The Prophet ﷺ said: "The Book of God was more worthy of remuneration being accepted on it." (Bukhari)

Note: In another version of the same incident quoted again in Sahih Bukhari, it is added that the Prophet ﷺ observed: "You acted rightly. Divide the goats among yourselves and let me also have a share."

Commentary: The above incident is related even in greater detail in Sahih Bukhari and a similar even has also been mentioned in Musnad Ahamad and Sunan Abu Dawood which tells that, during a journey, some Companions ﷺ were asked to blow over an insane person, one of whom did it for three days, morning and evening, after reciting Surah Al-Fatiha, and by the grace of God, the man was cured of his illness. The Companions ﷺ accepted remuneration for the act latter on, he was caught in two minds and could not decide if he had done the right thing. He consequently, sought the advice of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, on his return, who declared his action to be right and lawful.

On the basis of these Traditions, the authorities have concluded, almost unanimously, that to accept payment for doing dam or giving an amulet is legitimte and allowable in the same way as it is fair and lawful for physicians to charge a fee from their patients. It will of course, be more commendable if a service is rendered to mankind for nothing and wholly for the sake of God, which indeed, is the way of those who bear relation to the Holy Prophet ﷺ as his deupties.

BORROWING

It is not unusual for us to borrow something from others with the intention of returning it to them when the need was fulfilled. It is called 'Aariyat', which is also a form of service, and whoever lends anything to a needy person is positively worthy of Divine recompense. The Holy Prophet ﷺ, himself, has taken things on loan, temporarily for his use, and also provided guidance in this regard, as the Traditions given below will show.

Borrowing of A Horse By The Prophet

(١٧٩٤/٧٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ فَرَعٌ بِالْمَدِينَةِ فَاسْتَعَارَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ فَرَسًا مِنْ أَبِي طَلْحَةَ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْمُنْدُوبُ فَرَكِبَ فَلَمَّا رَجَعَ قَالَ مَا رَأَيْتُنَا مِنْ

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

شَيْءٍ وَإِنْ وَجَدْنَاهُ لَبَحْرًا

(1794/78) It is narrated by Anas رضي الله عنه "(once), panic spread in Madinah (as a result of a false report. Perhaps, it was remoured that the enemy was advancing toward the town and an attack was imminent). The Prophet ﷺ borrowed a horse from Abu Talha Ansari رضي الله عنه which was known as 'Mandoob' (meaning heavy-footed; slow in speed). He rode on it, (and went in the direction from which the attack was feared). When the Holy Prophet ﷺ returned, he said that he saw nothing. (There was no need for alarm). (With it, the Prophet ﷺ remarked about Abu Talha's رضي الله عنه horse that) 'I found him Bahr Rawan. (Literally, a flowing ocean)."' (In Arabic, a fast, light-footed horse of a good breed was called Bahr). (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had borrowed the horse from Abu Talha Ansari رضي الله عنه and rode on it at a time of need. We can also obtain from this incident, an idea of the high courage and sense of duty of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. He went out, alone, to enquire in the event of danger, and on return reassured the people that there was nothing to fear.

1. Lending or borrowing a thing which is itself to be returned. Aariyat differs from Qarz (loan) inasmuch as in the latter term it is not understood that the identical article borrowed is returned, but simply its equivalent.

(١٧٩٥/٧٩) عَنْ أُمَيَّةَ بْنِ صَفْوَانَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْتَعَارَ مِنْهُ أَدْرَاعَهُ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ فَقَالَ أَغَضَبَا يَا مُحَمَّدُ؟ قَالَ بَلْ عَارِيَةٌ مَضْمُونَةٌ.

(رواه ابو داؤد)

(1795/79) It is narrated by Umaiyyah ibn Sufwan, on the authority of his father, Sufwan ibn Umaiyyah, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him for his chain-armours, at the time of the Battle of Hunain, i.e., he wanted to borrow them from him. Sufwan, (who had not embraced Islam till then), thereupon, said: "Do you want to lay hold of my chain-armours? (As you have been victorious, and are now in power, do you want to take them by force)?" "No," said the Prophet ﷺ. "I want to borrow temporarily with the promise to return them."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Sufwan ibn Umaiyyah was a leader of the Quraish and an inveterate enemy of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. When Makkah was conquered in 8 A.H., and came under the sway of Islam, Sufwan fled from the town. Upon that, some Companions who were attached to him by blood or any other tie begged the Prophet ﷺ to pardon him to which he agreed. The relatives or friends of Sufwan, then, went out in search of him and brought him back to Makkah, but he remained an infidel. Later, when after the Victory of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ marched towards Hunain, many of the Makkans, including Sufwan, who had not yet embraced Islam joined him with his permission. It was, on that occasion, that the Holy Prophet ﷺ wanted to borrow his armour and Sufwan feared that the armour was going to be seized from him, and he would not get them back. The Prophet ﷺ assured him that he was not confiscating the armour, but only borrowing them temporarily. Sufwan, then, lent the armour.

During the journey of the Battle of Hunain, Sufwan had an opportunity to observe the Holy Prophet ﷺ closely, and he was so profoundly impressed by his moral virtues, particularly, his magnanimity towards an Arch enemy like himself that he felt convinced that the Prophet ﷺ was a true Messenger of Allah ﷻ, and embraced Islam.

Sufwan, in any case is a Companion ﷺ and so is his son, Umaiyyah.

(١٧٩٦/٨٠) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَقُولُ الْعَارِيَةُ مُوَدَّاةٌ وَالْمِنْحَةُ مَرْدُودَةٌ وَالذِّينُ مَقْضِيٌّ وَالزَّرْعِيمُ غَارِمٌ

(رواه الترمذى وابو داؤد)

(1796/80) Abu Umama Bahili ﷺ relates that he heard the Prophet ﷺ say: "An article of 'Aariyat, (which is borrowed temporarily), should be returned in any case; and an article of Minha, (given to a person to mke use of it), should be returned to the owner, (according to custom), after it had served the purpose; and Qard (loan) should be repaid, (according to the terms of the agreement); and the person who stands surety for the borrower shall be responsible for the payment."

(Tirmizi And Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In it, four commandments of the Shari'ah have been indicated:

(i) When an article is borrowed for a time it must be returned without unnecessary delay.

(ii) The giving back of Minha is a legal and religious obligation. In olden days, a custom in Arabia was that philanthropic and generous-hearted men freely allowed the use of a thing owned by them to a brother. As for instance, they gave him, free of cost, their camel to ride, or she-camel or goat to avail himself of its milk, or land or orchard to profit by its produce. It is called Minha. It was enjoined that the person who recieved such an article will not claim a proprietary right over it, but give it back to the owner, in conformity with the established usage, after it had served his need.

(iii) Whoever takes a loan should earnestly try to pay it back. We have already seen the stern admonitory pronouncements of the Holy Prophet ﷺ in this regard.

(iv) Whoever becomes a surety for a person who borrows anything from anyone shall be responsible for its payment. If the debtor does not repay the loan, the surety will be called upon to repay or reimburse it.

Misappropriation

If an article is bought from someone on a price, it is called Ba'i and Shira (Buying and Selling), in the special usage of the Shiriah; if it is made use on payment of hire or rent, it is called Ijara; and if it is borrowed for a time, without consideration, and on the understanding that it will be returned after use, it is called 'Aariyat.

Another way of acquiring anyone's property is that occupation is taken by force or fraud. It is called Ghasab (Misappropriation; Usurpation; Embezzlement; Plunder) which is strictly forbidden.

(١٧٩٧/٨١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَنْ أَخَذَ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ شَيْئًا بِغَيْرِ حَقِّهِ خُسِفَ بِهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِلَى سَبْعِ أَرْضِينَ.
(رواه البخاري)

(1797/81) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever wrongfully occupies land belonging to someone else will be sunk into the ground along with the land on the Last Day until he reaches the bottom of the earth."
(Bukhari)

Commentary: The above Tradition has been related to minor variations, by a number of other Companions as well. The substance of all of them, however, is that anyone who unlawfully occupies the smallest plot of land, even if it be only a *baalisht*¹ as a report tells shall be sunk, in punishment, to the lowest part of the earth on the Day of Final Reckoning.

An awe-inspiring incident has been quoted, in Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim, in connection with the usurpation of land, which has a bearing on the narrative under discussion. It is related that during the Caliphate of Amir Muawiya رضي الله عنه, a woman filed a complaint in the court of Marwaan, the Governor of Madinah, against Sa'eed ibn Zaid رضي الله عنه, who is included among the ten Companions of the Holy Prophet ﷺ about whom the tidings of Paradise were given, name by name, in their own lifetime, that he had wrongfully occupied her land. Sa'eed رضي الله عنه feeling extremely hurt, exclaimed, "I will encoach upon the land of this woman and occupy it unjustly! Have I not heard the dreadful admonition pronounced, in this regard, by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ?" Sa'eed spoke with such feeling that even Marwaan was moved by it, and he said to him, "Now, I do not call for any proof or argument from you." Sa'eed, then, made the following supplication from the depth of his heart: "Oh God: If You know that this woman has charged me with a false offence, deprive her of the vision of her eyes, and turn the land into her grave." The narrator, Sayyidina Orwah, goes on to say that "it happened exactly like that. I myself saw the woman; she became blind in old age and used to say that she had come to that state owing to the imprecation of Sa'eed ibn Zaid, and then one day, she fell into a ditch as she was going over her land, and the ditch became her grave."

①. A span measured by the extended thumb and little finger.

(١٧٩٨/٨٢) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ
مَنْ انْتَهَبَ نَهْبَةً فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1798/82) It is narrated by Imran ibn Husain that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever acquires anyone's property by force is not us." (Tirmizi)

(١٧٩٩/٨٣) عَنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيدَ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
قَالَ لَا يَأْخُذُ أَحَدُكُمْ عَصَا أَخِيهِ لَا عِبَاجًا وَلَا فَمَنْ أَخَذَ عَصَا أَخِيهِ فَلْيَرْدِّهَا إِلَيْهِ.
(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد)

(1799/83) It is narrated by Sa'ib ibn Yazid, on the authority of his father, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "None of you should take even the stick of his brother, in jest or with the intention of laking. Anyone who does so should, therefore, return it." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that even an ordinary thing like a stick should not be taken without the owner's permission, even by way of a joke. In case it is done, the article ought to be returned, and no one should imagine that the giving back of an article of little value, like a stick was not necessary.

(١٨٠٠/٨٤) عَنْ أَبِي حُرَّةَ الرَّقَاشِيِّ عَنْ عَمِّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا لَا تَظْلِمُوا أَلَا يَحِلُّ مَالُ امْرِءٍ إِلَّا بِطَيْبِ نَفْسٍ مِنْهُ.

(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان والدارقطني في المجتبى)

(1800/84) Abu Hurrah Az-Zaqqashi relates, on the authority of his uncle, that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Beware! Do not be unjust to anyone. Beware! To acquire anything belonging to anyone else, without his consent, is unlawful." (Bayhaqi and Dar Qutni) (١٨٠١/٨٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ وَأَصْحَابُهُ بِامْرَأَةٍ فَذَبَحَتْ لَهُمْ شَاةً وَاتَّخَذَتْ لَهُمْ طَعَامًا فَأَخَذَ لُقْمَةً فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ أَنْ يُسَيِّغَهَا فَقَالَ هَذِهِ شَاةٌ ذُبِحَتْ بِغَيْرِ إِذْنِ أَهْلِهَا فَقَالَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّا لَا نَخْتَشِمُ مِنْ آلٍ مُعَاذٍ نَأْخُذُ مِنْهُمْ وَيَأْخُذُونَ مِنَّا.

(رواه احمد)

(1801/85) Sayyidina Jabir ﷺ narrated to us, saying that "the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (once), happened to pass by (the house of) a woman, with some Companions ﷺ, whereupon she invited him to dinner. (The Messenger of Allah ﷺ accepted the invitation). The woman, then slaughtered a goat, prepared the meal, and placed it before the Holy Prophet ﷺ and the Companions ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ took a morsel of food, but he could not swallow it. (The food did not pass down his throat). Upon it, he remarked: (It appears that) the goat was slaughtered without owner's permission.' 'We do not observe such formalities with Mu'ad's ﷺ family (who are our neighbours)', the woman replied. 'We make use of their things and they make use of our things.' (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: As it appears from the woman's reply, the goat belonged to the family of Mu'ad, and on account of the good neighbourly relations prevailing between them, and the customary behaviour, it was not thought necessary to obtain the owner's permission before slaughtering the animal. When the meal was ready and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sat down to eat, the very first morsel got stuck in his throat, and it became apparent to him, instinctively, that the goat had been slaughtered without the permission of its owner.

Just as the Almighty Creator has endowed men with a peculiar power or means by which they respond to things through taste or smell and it becomes impossible for them to swallow anything which is abhorrent to the palate, so des He grant to the chosen bondsmen whom He Wishes to protect from unlawful food and drink special sensitiveness which keeps them from partaking of anything that is forbidden. The inability of the Holy Prophet ﷺ to swallow the morsel of food was a distinct indication of the very favour of the Lord upon him.

Incidents of a like nature have also been reported about Holy men, known, in comon parlance, as Auliya Allah (Friends of God).

It is worth remembering here, that the goat had neither been stolen nor taken by force, only slaughtered without the permission of the owner owing to the close and friendly relations and order of things obtaining between the two families.

From it we can deduce how careful should one be in making use of things belonging to others without permission or willingness.

GIFT

Gift too is a form of transaction in a civilized society. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has laid a great stress on it in his Traditions and indicated that it is helpful in the promotion of mutual love and affection and conducive to growth of friendly relations which doubtlessly, are a great blessings.

A gift is an offering made as a token of goodwill, and with the object of making the other man happy and winning the good graces of the Lord. If the present is made to anyone younger in age, it is a gesture of affection; if to a friend, it is a means of strengthening the bond of love; if to a needy person, it is a source of solace and comfort; and if to a superior, it is a mark of regard and respect.

In case something is given to anyone for the sake of God and with the intention of earning the reward of the Hereafter, considering him to be poor and indigent, it will be charity (Sadqa), not a gift (Hadiya). It is only when an offering is meant to be an expression of love and fellow feeling, and through it the good pleasure of the Lord is to be sought, then it becomes a gift. If, however, a gift is made with sincerity, the reward, is less than charity, and sometimes even greater.

It was owing to this difference between Hadiya and Sadqa that the Holy Prophet ﷺ accepted a Hadiya (gift) with prayer and thankfulness and made use of it, while in case of a Sadqa (charity), his practice was though he accepted it too, with gratitude and blessed the giver, he did not use it himself but gave to others.

Unfortunately, the habit of giving presents to one another, in sincerity is rapidly disappearing among the Muslims as a whole, and though it is still done, to some extent, in relation to Holy men, it is seldom that one offers a gift to a friend, relative or neighbour despite the fact that it is an unfailing recipe handed down to us by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ of happiness and good social relations and a sure means to earning the countenance of the Lord.

A Present Generates Love and Removes Malice From The Heart

(١٨٠٢/٨٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَهَادَوْا فَإِنَّ

الْهَدِيَّةُ تَذْهَبُ الصُّغَائِنَ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1802/86) It is narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the Prophet ﷺ said: "Exchange presents with one another. Presents remove ill-will from the hearts." (Trimizi)

(١٨٠٣/٨٧) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَهَادَوْا فَإِنَّ

الْهَدِيَّةُ تَذْهَبُ وَحَرَّ الصَّدْرِ وَلَا تُحَقِّرَنَّ جَارَةً لِجَارَتِهَا وَلَوْ شِقَّ فَرْسَنٍ شَاةٍ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1803/87) Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه relates, that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Give presents to one another. Presents remove malice from the hearts, and a female neighbour should not regard the gift of a part of the trotter of a goat to another female neighbour as of no value." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The intention of Sayyidah Ayshah's رضي الله عنها narrative is self-evident. It requires no further elucidation after what we have said in the introductory lines of this chapter.

As for the remark in Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah's رضي الله عنه a housewife should not feel ashamed to send the gift of a hoof part of goat to her neighbour, what it apparently denotes is that it is not necessary for a present to be expensive or of a standard for, then, the opportunity to offer a gift will come only rarely. Thus, suppose the trotter of a goat have been cooked in the house, there should be no hesitation in sending some of them to the neighbour as a gift.

It needs however, be noted that the advice applies to cases in which one is confident that the neighbour will accept the gift gladly and not regard it an insult. The social and moral environment during the time of the Holy Prophet ﷺ was like that.

The Guidance And Practice of The Prophet ﷺ Concerning the Return for A Gift

(١٨٠٤/٨٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْبَلُ الْهَدِيَّةَ

وَيُثِيبُ عَلَيْهَا. (رواه البخارى)

(1804/88) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates "The practice of the Messenger of Allah was that he accepted a gift and offered (one) him self in return for it." (Bukhari)

Commentary: It shows that when anyone offered a present to the Holy Prophet ﷺ, he accepted it with pleasure, and himself gave something to the giver as a gift, either at that very time or sometime later, in conformity with the Divine pronouncement:

هَلْ جَزَاءُ الْإِحْسَانِ إِلَّا الْإِحْسَانُ (الرحمن ٦٠:٥٥)

"Is the recompense of goodness anything but goodness?

(Al Rahman 55:60)

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ has given the same advice to his followers, as we shall see in some of the Traditions we are going to discuss. But, alas, even among the people of quality and distinction, there are few in the Ummah who are to observe it.

(١٨٠٥/٩٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أُعْطِيَ عَطَاءً

فَوَجَدَ فَلْيَجْزِ بِهِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَلْيُثْنِ فَإِنْ مِنْ أَتْنَى فَقَدْ شَكَرَ وَمَنْ كَتَمَ فَقَدْ كَفَرَ

وَمَنْ تَحَلَّى بِمَا لَمْ يُعْطَ كَانَ كَلَابِسِ ثَوْبِي زُورٍ (رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد)

(1805/98) It is narrated by Jabir ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If a present is made to anyone, and he has something to give in return, he should offer it, and if he has nothing to give (in return), he should praise him (by way of gratitude), and say a good word in his behalf. Whoever did it, fulfilled the claim of gratitude, and whoever did not, and concealed a favour (done to him), was guilty of ingratitude, and whoever flaunts a virtue that has not been granted to him is like a man who wears a double cloak of deception." (Tirmizi and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It tells that if a person were to receive a present from a friend, he should also offer him something in return, and should he not be in a position to do so, he should utter a word of goodness for him and speak of his kindness to others. It too, will be reckoned with the Lord as an expression of grtitude.

As we are going to see in the next Tradition, the saying of Jazaak Allah (May God reward thee! God bless thee!) will suffice. On the contrary, person who recieves a gift and hides it from others and does not even say Jazaak Allah will be guilty of ingratitude.

The last part of saying, it would seem, denotes that anyone who shows himself off, through his dress etc., as possessing a virtue, such as, learning or spirituality, which he does not really have is a cheat and an imposter.

By adding it to the advice about a gift or offering, what the Holy Prophet ﷺ, probably, meant was to emphasise that if a person who is lacking in qualities owing to which people generally consider it an act of virtue to offer a gift to anyone, gives an impression through his clothes, conversation or way of life that he is endowed with those attributes in order to obtain gifts and presents from others, he is no better than a swindler.

Grtefulness to Benefactors

(١٨٠٦/٩٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَمْ يَشْكُرِ النَّاسَ لَمْ يَشْكُرِ اللَّهَ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(1806/99) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "whoever failed to give thanks to anyone who did a favour to him failed to give thanks to God."

(Musnad Ahmad and Tirmizi)

Commentary: It shows that anyone who offers a gift or does a favour in any other way should be thanked sincerely for it and prayer made for his well-being. A person who fails to do so proves himself to be ungrateful to God as well.

According to some commentators, what it seeks to stress is that anyone who does not feel indebted to his benefactors is sadly wanting in th sense of obligation, and will not be grateful even to God.

(١٨٠٧/١٠٠) عَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

مَنْ صُنِعَ إِلَيْهِ مَعْرُوفٌ فَقَالَ لِفَاعِلِهِ جَزَاكَ اللَّهُ خَيْرٌ فَقَدْ أَبْلَغَ فِي الشَّأْنِ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1807/100) It is narrated by Usama ibn Zaid رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever did a favour to anyone and the recited for his benefactor, Jazaak Allah Khaira (May Allah give a good reward for it), he also, praised him fully (thorough it)." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: Apparently, Jazaak Allah Khaira is a prayer formula, but when anyone prays for his benefactor in these words, he, as it were, acknowledges his inability to repay the debts of gratitude he owes to him and declares that only the Supreme Being, the Gracious One, can requite him, and together with it beseeches the Lord to reward him bountifully for his goodness. It is, thus a prayer as well as an acknowledgement of the benefactor's kindness and humanity.

(١٨٠٨/١٠١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِينَةَ أَتَاهُ الْمُهَاجِرُونَ فَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَا رَأَيْنَا قَوْمًا أَبْدَلَ مِنْ كَثِيرٍ وَلَا أَحْسَنَ مُوَاسَاةً مِنْ قَلِيلٍ مِنْ قَوْمٍ نَزَلْنَا بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِهِمْ لَقَدْ كَفَوْنَا الْمَوْتَةَ وَأَشْرَكُونَا فِي الْمَهْنَا حَتَّى لَقَدْ خِفْنَا أَنْ يَذْهَبُوا بِالْأَجْرِ كُلِّهِ فَقَالَ لَا مَا دَعَوْتُمْ اللَّهَ لَهُمْ وَأَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1808/101) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated to us that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ migrated to Madinah, (and the Muhajirs had an experience of the hospitality and unselfishness of the Ansars), they one day said to the Prophet ﷺ: "We have not seen people like them, i.e., the Ansar of Madinah anywhere. (They spend generously on us) if they are well-provided, and even those who are not in good condition help us and take care of our needs. They have taken all the responsibilities for toil and labour upon themselves, and, (yet), made us a sharer in the profits. (As a result of the unique self-denial and liberality on their part), we fear that they took all the reward and recompense, (and we remained empty-handed in the Hereafter)." "No," the Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied, "It will not be so as long as you pray for them and express a sincere appreciation (of their goodness)." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: When the Holy Prophet ﷺ had migrated from Makkah to Madinah, a large number of Muhajirs, too, had come with him. In the early days as is well known, the Ansars of Madinah had made all of them their guests, solely for the sake of God. They cultivated the fields and did all the work themselves, and ye, shared the income with the Emigrants. There were rich as well as poor among the Ansars, but they all joined ungrudgingly in the service of the Mahajirs. The well-to-do spent their wealth with open hands on the Mahajirs, while even those who were poor preferred to go hungry in order to help them. It was in those circumstances that the Eimgrants thought if it was going to be that because of their unparalleled generosity and selflessness, the Ansars took all the reward on their, (the Emigrants'), good deeds like Migration and worship, and they themselves gained nothing. As they expressed the fear to the Holy Prophet ﷺ, he assured them that it would not be so provided they prayed to God for their helpers, the Ansars, in return for their large-heartedness and hospitality, and acknowledged what they owed to them with an open heart and felt grateful. The Lord will accept it as recompense from their side for the benevolence of the Ansars and requite them from His own treasures for the bortherly love displayed by them.

Articles Which Should Not be Refused As A Gift

(١٨٠٩/١٠٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

عَرِضَ عَلَيْهِ رِيحَانٌ فَلَا يَرُدُّهُ فَإِنَّهُ خَفِيفُ الْمَحْمَلِ طِيبُ الرِّيحِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1809/102) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said; "Whoever is offered a sweet-smelling flower should accept it, and not reject it because it is a very ordinary thing. Its fragrance is a thing of joy."

(Muslim)

Commentary: If an ordinary thing like a flower was refused, the giver might feel that his gift had been refused because it was an ordinary, and it hurt his feelings.

In another Tradition, quoted in Tirmizi, it is stated that "whoever is offered a sweet-smelling flower should not decline to accept it for a sweet-smelling flower is a gift of Paradise."

In Sahih Muslim, it is further mentioned on the authority of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, that "The practice of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was that he never refused a perfume."

(١٨١٠/١٠٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ لَا تُرَدُّ
الْوَسَائِدُ وَالذَّهْنُ وَاللَّبَنُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1810/103) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "There are three things which, particularly should not be refused; a pillow, oil (used for applying to hair etc) and milk." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The peculiarity with the three things mentioned above, again costs little and the person who offers them is made happy.

We can conclude about other articles of the same class and category, as well, on the basis of this saying.

To Claim Back a Gift is Highly Disgraceful

(١٨١١/١٠٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ
لَا يَحِلُّ لِلرَّجُلِ أَنْ يُعْطِيَ عَطِيَّةً ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ فِيهَا إِلَّا الْوَالِدُ فِيمَا يُعْطِي وَلَدَهُ، وَمَثَلُ
الَّذِي يُعْطِي الْعَطِيَّةَ ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ فِيهَا كَمَثَلِ الْكَلْبِ أَكَلَ حَتَّى إِذَا شَبِعَ قَاءَ ثُمَّ عَادَ
فِي قَيْئِهِ. (رواه ابو داؤد والترمذی والنسائي وابن ماجه)

(1811/104) (Both) Abdullah ibn Umar and Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنهما related to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is not proper for anyone of you to offer something to a person as a gift and then take it back. Of course, if a father gives anything to his children he is exempted from it. (He can take it back) for a father has every kind of claim on his children." (Explaining the wretchedness of the act), the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, further observed that "whoever claims back a gift after giving it is like the dog who ate something and when its stomach was filled to capacity, vomited it, and ate up the vomit." (Abu Dawood, Tirmizi, Nasai and Ibn Mjajah)

To Whom It is Forbidden to Accept A Gift

(١٨١٢/١٠٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَذَآ

الإِمَامَ غُلُولٌ. (رواه الطبرانی فی الاوسط)

(1812/105) It is narrated by Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said: "gifts (accepted by) the ruler are Ghuloo, i.e., an excess and a transgression. (It is similar in a way to bribery, embezzlement and oppression)." (Tabarani)

(۱۸۱۳/۱۰۶) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ شَفَعَ لِأَحَدٍ شَفَاعَةً فَأَهْدَىٰ لَهُ هَدِيَّةً عَلَيْهَا فَقَلْبُهَا فَقَدْ أَتَىٰ أَبَا عَظِيمًا مِنْ أَبْوَابِ الرَّبِّ. (رواه ابو داؤد)

(1813/106) It is narrated by Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said: "Whoever interceded for anyone, and the person on behalf of whom he interceded made him a present in consideration of the intercession and he accepted the present was guilty of a worst form of usury." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In the two afore-mentioned narratives, it is told that a gift is worthy of acceptance only when it is offered sincerely and no other motive or reason is attached to it.

WAQF (Charitable Fund)

Like charity, alms-giving and gift, Waqf i.e., dedication or making of a grant for a charitable or religious purpose too is among the monetary affairs and arrangements that are a means to the propitiation of the Lord.

As Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه says, the Arabs were ignorant of the institution of Waqf before the advent of Islam. It was the Holy Prophet ﷺ who acquainted them with it, and advised them to make such endowments. What it denotes, in brief, is that a grant is made of something like land or money which is of lasting value and yields a continuing income, for religious or charitable use, and its income or produce is spent on pious purposes, as desired by the Waqif, i.e., the person who makes the endowment, and the Waqif, on his part, permanently, gives up all proprietary rights over the property.

Basic Principles

(١٨١٤/١٠٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ عُمَرَ أَصَابَ أَرْضًا بِخَيْرٍ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي أَصَبْتُ أَرْضًا بِخَيْرٍ لَمْ أَصُبْ مَالًا قَطُّ أَنَفْسَ عِنْدِي مِنْهُ فَمَا تَأْمُرُنِي بِهِ فَقَالَ إِنْ شِئْتَ حَبَسْتَ أَصْلَهَا وَتَصَدَّقْتَ بِهَا فَتَصَدَّقَ بِهَا عُمَرُ أَنَّهُ لَا يَبَاعُ أَصْلُهَا وَلَا يُوهَبُ وَلَا يُورَثُ وَتَصَدَّقَ بِهَا فِي الْفُقَرَاءِ وَفِي الْقُرْبَى وَفِي الرِّقَابِ وَفِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ وَالضَّيْفِ لَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيَّ مَنْ وَلِيَهَا أَنْ يَأْكُلَ مِنْهَا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ أَوْ يُطْعِمَ غَيْرَ مُتَمَوِّلٍ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1814/107) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه narrated that his father, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, had recieved a plot of land in Khyber. He went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and said: "I have been given some land in Khyber (which is very good). It is the most valuable property I have. What is your command concerning it?" The Prophet ﷺ replied: "If you like, you can set apart the land as a Waqf and declare (its produce or income) to be sadaqah (charity)." Sayyidina Umar ؓ, thereupon, dedicated it as a Waqf (and) charity in the path of Allah, (as the Prophet ﷺ had advised), and laid down that the land was never to be sold, nor given away as a gift, nor would inheritance ever open from it, and that its income should be spent in the way of God, on the poor, the destitute and the kinsmen, and on buying freedom for the captives, and in connection with Jihad, and in the service of the guests and the wayfarers. And whoever was appointed its trustee or administrator, it would be lawful for him to eat of it himself and feed others, within proper limits, provided that he did not hoard wealth and get rich by means of it."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This saying of the Holy Prophet ﷺ contains a fundamental definition of Waqf and indicates its basic principles. The conquest of Khyber took place in 7 A.H.. Its land, on the whole, was most fertile, After victory, the captured land was distributed among the Muslim warriors taking part in the campaign, as provided by the Shariah. The plot of the land was allotted to Sayyidina Umar ؓ was in his view the most valuable property he possessed, and since it was set forth in the Qur'an:

لَنْ تَنَالُوا الْبِرَّ حَتَّى تُنْفِقُوا مِمَّا تُحِبُّونَ (آل عمران ٩٢:٣)

You cannot attain virtue unless you expend of that which you love

(Aal-e-Imran 3:92)

He thought that as it was his most precious possession, his endeavour ought to be to gain the countenance of the Lord by spending it in His path, but could not decide what was the best way of doing so. He, therefore, approached the Messenger of Allah ﷺ for advice who suggested it to him to dedicate the land as a Waqf so that it continued unchanged as charity. Sayyidina Umar ؓ, thus, made a Waqf of it, and also determined the items on which its produce or income was to be spent. These items were virtually identical to what had been laid down in the Qur'an.¹

The Tradition, in the end tells that the person who held the property in trust and administered it should not take anything from it to add to his wealth. He could, however, utilise it within due limits for his own sustenance and the sustenance of his family, and for entertaining the guests. It would be lawful.

(١٨١٥/١٠٨) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ عُبادَةَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ أُمِّي مَاتَتْ فَأَيُّ

الصَّدَقَةِ أَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ الْمَاءُ فَحَفَرَ بَيْراً وَقَالَ هَذِهِ لَأُمِّ سَعْدٍ (رواه أبو داود والنسائي)

(1815/108) It is narrated by Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضي الله عنه "I went to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said to him that my mother had died. (I wanted to give something as charity on her behalf). So, what charity would be the best and most rewarding for her? The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied: "Water. (Dig a well and dedicate it for public use so that everyone can profit by its water).' I, consequently, built a well and declared that it was for my mother, Umm Sa'd. (The divine reward on it may keep on reaching her)."

(Abu Dawood and Nasai)

Commentary: In some other versions of the same Tradition it is stated that Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضي الله عنه was in a journey when his mother died. On his return, he reported himself to the Holy Prophet ﷺ and said that his mother had died during his absence. He felt that if he was present at that time, she would have made a will regarding charity etc., which could be of advantage to her in After-life. Thus Prophet ﷺ advised him to dig a well. Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضي الله عنه, thus, had a well dug at a suitable place and dedicated it to his mother's name for perpetual Divine reward.

The dedication of an orchard, too, is mentioned in some narratives. It is possible that the well was dug in the orchard.

It was the the second instance of a Waqf being created during the life-time of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, on his advice.

It further shows the soundness and validity of performing a virtuous deed on behalf of a deceased person and gifting the Divine reward on it to him. The technical term for it is Isaal-i-Sawaab, upon which there is an agreement in principle, among the Jurists of Ahl-i-Sunnah.¹

Two Waqfs Created by Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه

(١٨١٦/١٠٩) عَنْ ثُمَامَةَ بْنِ حَزَنٍ الْقُشَيْرِيِّ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ الدَّارَ حِينَ أَشْرَفَ عَلَيْهِمْ عُثْمَانُ قَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ وَلَيْسَ بِهَا مَاءٌ يُسْتَعْدَبُ غَيْرُ بَيْرِ رُومَةَ فَقَالَ مَنْ يَشْتَرِي بَيْرَ رُومَةَ يَجْعَلُ دَلْوَهُ مَعَ دِلَاءِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ بِخَيْرٍ لَهُ مِنْهَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَاشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنْ صُلْبٍ مَالِي وَأَنْتُمْ الْيَوْمَ تَمْنَعُونَنِي أَنْ أَشْرَبَ مِنْهَا حَتَّى أَشْرَبَ مِنْ مَاءِ الْبَحْرِ فَقَالُوا اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ..... فَقَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ ضَاقَ بِأَهْلِهِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَشْتَرِي بُقْعَةَ أَلِ قَلَافٍ فَيَزِيدُهَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ بِخَيْرٍ لَهُ مِنْهَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَاشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنْ صُلْبٍ مَالِي فَأَنْتُمْ الْيَوْمَ تَمْنَعُونَنِي أَنْ أَصَلِّيَ فِيهِ رَكَعَتَيْنِ فَقَالُوا اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ قَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ إِنِّي جَهَّزْتُ جَيْشَ الْعُسْرَةِ مِنْ مَالِي قَالُوا اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ قَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ عَلَى ثُبَيْرِ مَكَّةَ وَمَعَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَأَنَا فَتَحَرَّكَ الْجَبَلُ حَتَّى تَسَاقَطَتْ حِجَابَةٌ بِالْحَضِيضِ فَرَكَّضَهُ بِرِجْلِهِ قَالَ أَسْكُنْ ثُبَيْرًا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ نَبِيٌّ وَصِدِّيقٌ وَشَهِيدَانِ قَالُوا اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ قَالَ اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ شَهِدُوا وَرَبُّ الْكَعْبَةِ إِنِّي شَهِيدٌ ثَلَاثًا.

(رواه الترمذی والنسائی)

(1816/109) Thumamah ibn Hasan Qusairi narrated (Taba'ee) "I was present near the house of Uthman رضي الله عنه (when the army of the rebels had laid siege to it). Uthman رضي الله عنه looked at the crowd from the top of his house, and said: 'I ask you in the name of Allah and Islam, whether you know it (or not) that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to Madinah there was no well of sweet water here except Bir Roma (which was owned by someone). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, thereupon, said: 'Is there anyone who could buy Bir Roma and dedicate it as a Waqf, for the common Muslims so that all the Muslims could freely draw the water from it?' I then bought the well with my money and made a Waqf of it in favour of the Muslims, as a whole, and today you are not allowing me to drink its water and forcing me to drink brackish water like that of the sea. The people replied:

'Yes, O God, we are aware of it.' Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, after it said: 'I ask you in the name of Allah and Islam, do you know (or not) that when Masjid-i-Nabawi¹ had become too small for the devotees the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم had said: 'Is there anyone who could buy the land of such-and-such family (that lay adjacent to the mosque) and attach it to the Mosuqe, and the Lord gave him a better reward, in return for it in Paradise?' I had bought the land with my own money (and attached it to the Mosque), and today you are preventing me from offering two Rak'ats of salah in it?' 'Yes, O God, we are aware of it, the people replied. After it Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه said: "Do you know that, (at the exhortation of the Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم), I had provided (all) the equipment for the army raised for the Battle of Tabouk with my money?" Yes, O God, we are aware of it,' the people replied. After it, Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه said: "I ask you, in the name of Allah and Islam, do you know that once when the Messenger of Allah was on Mount Thabayr in Makkah, Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, and Umar رضي الله عنه and myself, were with him, the mountain had begun to shake till some of the rocks had fallen down. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had, then, struck the mountain with his blessed foot, and said: "O Thubayr! Be still. there is a Divine Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on you, and a true and sincere friend and two martyrs?' The people, again, replied, 'Yes, O God, we are aware of it.' Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, thereupon, said: 'Allah-u-Akbar! By the Lord of Kaba! These people, also testify that I am a martyr,' Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه said it thrice." (Tirmizi and Nasai)

Commentary: In the Tradition two Waqfs are mentioned which Sayyidina Uthman had created on the advice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (i) The Waqf of Bir Roma which, perhaps was the first Waqf in Islam as it had been created on the Migration of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Madinah. It is not possible to think of any Waqf in Makkah before it. (ii) The Waqf of the land Sayyidina Uthman had bought and given for the extension of the Prophet's Mosque.

The above Tradition, ostensibly, appertains to the moral excellence of Sayyidina Uthman and in most of the compilations But since it tells of the two Waqfs Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه had created at the wish and on the advice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it seemed advisable to include it in this chapter.

①. The mosque of the Holy Prophet in Madinah.

It contains a great lesson for the Ummah. The people, in those days, were generally aware of the deeds and virtues of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, and the tidings the Holy Prophet ﷺ had given about him, and these things were so widely known that no one could deny them. Yet, in spite of all that, the henchmen of the Devil killed him in a most brutal manner, and, since then, the Ummah has been paying the penalty in the form of unending discord and conflict.

WILL

Will (Wasiyat), also forms part of monetary affairs. Through it a man who owns some property declares that such a part of it shall be spent on such a religious charitable purpose or go to such a person after his death. A Will of this kind commands a legal position in the Shariah, and precise rules and regulations have been laid down for it some of which are indicated in the Traditions we are going to discuss below. For details the reader is referred to the books of Islamic Jurisprudence.

If a Will is made in the way of God and with the intention of gaining the reward of the Hereafter, it is a kind of Sadaqah (charity), and the Shari'ah has commended it. Moreover, in case anything is placed in trust with a person or he is in debt or there is anyone's claim on him of any sort, it is necessary for him to make a Will regarding its return, restoration or settlement.

A Will should, further, be written down and kept safe.

Now, to take up a few Traditions.

A Religious Obligation

(١٨١٧/١١٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا حَقُّ أَمْرِي مُسْلِمٍ لَهُ شَيْءٌ يُوصِي فِيهِ بَيْتٌ لَيْلَتَيْنِ إِلَّا وَصِيَّتُهُ مَكْتُوبَةٌ عِنْدَهُ. (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1817/110) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is not proper for a Muslim who has anything (like land, goods, money, trust or debt) about which a Will ought to be made that he allows two nights to pass in the condition that its deed has not been prepared and is not with him."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: What it stresses is that one should not put off the preparation of a regular Will thinking what was there to hurry about and he would have it done before dying. A Muslim should always imagine that death was near and have his Will ready. Even two days should not be allowed to pass without it.

The purport of the above Tradition is that no one should delay or procrastinate in this matter. Who can be sure when death will strike?

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar's رضي الله عنه servant, Nafey, who is the narrator of this Tradition, on the authority of his master, says that after relating it, Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه added that from the time he had heard it from the Prophet ﷺ, he did not let a day pass without the Will being with him.

(١٨١٨/١١١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ عَلَى وَصِيَّةٍ مَاتَ عَلَى سَبِيلٍ وَسُنَّةٍ وَمَاتَ عَلَى تَقَى وَشَهَادَةٍ وَمَاتَ مَغْفُورًا لَهُ.

(رواه ابن ماجه)

(1818/111) It is narrated by Jaber رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever died in the state of Wasiyat, i.e., in the state that he had made the Will concerning his property and other affairs as he ought to have, and in accordance with the Shariah, he died on the right path, in the observance of the commandments of the Shariah, and his death will be the death of piety and martyrdom, and he will be forgiven (his sins)."

(Ibn Majah)

Claim of The Heirs Should Not Be Disregarded

(١٨١٩/١١٢) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ جَاءَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُودُ نَبِيٍّ وَأَنَا بِمَكَّةَ وَهُوَ يَكْرَهُ أَنْ يَمُوتَ بِالْأَرْضِ الَّتِي هَاجَرَ مِنْهَا فَقَالَ يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ ابْنَ عَفْرَاءَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَوْصَى بِمَا لِي كُلِّهِ؟ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَالْشُّطْرُ؟ قَالَ لَا، قُلْتُ فَالثُّلُثُ؟ قَالَ الثُّلُثُ وَالثُّلُثُ كَثِيرٌ إِنَّكَ أَنْ تَدَعَ وَرَثَتَكَ أَغْنِيَاءَ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَنْ تَدْعَهُمْ عَالَةً يَتَكَفَّفُونَ النَّاسَ فِي أَيْدِيهِمْ وَإِنَّكَ مَهْمَا أَنْفَقْتَ مِنْ نَفَقَةٍ فَإِنَّهَا صَدَقَةٌ حَتَّى اللَّقْمَةُ الَّتِي تَرْفَعُهَا إِلَى فِي إِمْرَأَةٍ تَكِ وَعَسَى اللَّهُ أَنْ يَرْفَعَكَ فَيَنْتَفِعَ بِكَ نَاسٌ وَيَضْرِبَ بِكَ الْآخَرُونَ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ يَوْمَئِذٍ إِلَّا ابْنَتُهُ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1819/112) Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ narrated that "(once) I (fell seriously ill) in Makkah and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to visit me. I thought it was very bad for me to die on the soil of Makkah from which I had migrated (and which I had left for good for the sake of God). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then said (by way of prayer and consolation): 'May Allah have mercy upon Arfa'a's son'. (Afra'a was the name or title of Sa'd ibn Waqqas' ؓ mother). I asked him: 'Sir, what do you say: May I bequeath all my property (for the sake of God (and) (to religious and charitable uses?)' 'No,' the Prophet ﷺ replied. '(Don't do it).' 'Then, the half of it?' I asked. 'No,' the Prophet ﷺ replied. '(Not even that)'. 'Then, one third?' I asked. 'Yes', the Prophet ﷺ replied. 'You may leave one-third of it, by Will, for such purposes, and even one-third is much.' (After it), the Prophet ﷺ observed: 'It is better for you to leave behind your heirs in good (financial) condition than in poverty so that they have to stretch their hands before others. (Moreover), whatever you spend (for the sake of God and with the intention of earning the Divine reward) it will be Sadaqa (charity) on your part (even if it is spent on relatives and heirs), so much so that the morsel of food you put with your hand in your wife's mouth (will be charity in the judgement of God.' (In the end), the Prophet ﷺ observed: 'It is hoped that the Lord will grant you recovery, and raise you to a high position in future, and then many people will be benefitted by you and many will be harmed.'" The narrator (Aamir ibn Sa'd) who narrated it, on the authority of his father, Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ, added that "at the time of this incident, Sayyidina Sa'd ؓ had only one daughter, (and no other child)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ had accompanied the Holy Prophet ﷺ on the Farewell Hajj, and he fell ill in Makkah and his condition became so grave that, according to some reports, he felt he had reached the edge of the grave. Since he was a Mahajir, he did not like the idea of dying and being buried on the soil of Makkah which he had abandoned forever in the way of Allah. As the Holy Prophet ﷺ came to visit him and learnt of his anxiety, he comforted him and prayed for him, saying, "May Allah have Mercy on Arfa'a's son." Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ who was among the well-to-do Companions ؓ, thereupon, enquired from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ about making his Will. (In some other accounts of the above Tradition it is stated that Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ: "The Lord has bestowed much wealth upon me and I have only one daughter. I think tht for the betterment of my prospects in After-life I bequeath all of my property to sacred and charitable uses." But the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not allow it. He did not allow him even to leave half of his possessions to such purposes. It was only one-third that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said he could declare for them, and added that even that was much.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ further explained to him that to spend on one's relatives and leave behind one's wealth to one's heirs too, was charity in the sight of God provided that it was with the intention of earning High countenance and the reward of the Hereafter is distinctly stated in some versions of the above narrative. To bring home the point, the Prophet ﷺ remarked that even to put a morsel of food in the mouth of one's wife with one's hand, with that intention, was a virtuous act, meriting reward in life to come, although there was also an element of sensual pleasure in it.

The Prophet's ﷺ observation that "it is hoped God will raise you to a high position in future, and then many people will be benefitted by you, and many will be harmed" contained a prediction about Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ which no one could visualise at that time. What the Prophet ﷺ meant was that the Lord had yet to take much work from Sayyidina Sa'd ؓ. He would, Insha Allah, get well and come to such power and eminence that the destinies of innumerable men would be made and unmade through him. The Holy Prophet ﷺ had said it at a time when Sayyidina Sa'd ؓ was hovering on the brink of death, and so marvellously was the prophecy fulfilled that the latter lived for about half a century after it, and attained to such heights that most of the territories of Persia were conquered and brought under the sway of Islam under his generalship, and millions of men came to be blessed with the wealth of Faith. He, then also served as the Governor of Iraq, and died in 55 A.H., and according to a report, in 58 A.H.

From this Tradition we again learn that it is not proper and lawful for anyone leaving behind heirs and successors to bequeath more than one-third of his property in the way of God and for pious uses. A consensus is found among the Jurists of the Ummah on this point. But in one's own lifetime one can spend as much on such acts and purposes as one likes. The condition of one-third applies only to the Will a person makes about the division of his assets after his death.

A Will Cannot Be Made In Respect of An Heir

(١٨٢٠/١١٣) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ فِي خُطْبَتِهِ عَامَ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ أَعْطَى كُلَّ ذِي حَقٍّ حَقَّهُ فَلَا وَصِيَّةَ لَوَارِثٍ.

(رواه ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1820/113) Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه narrated that "I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ delivering a sermon during the year of the Farewell Haj. In the course of it, he said: "The Lord has, (in His Holy Book), determined the share of everyone having a lawful claim (among the heirs). So, it is not allowable now to make a Will in respect of an heir." (Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: When, after the Migration, commandments relating to social and collective spheres of life began to be revealed, it was prescribed in the first place through the following verse of Surah Al-Baqarah that whoever owned some property should bequeath it, before his death, to his parents and other relatives:

كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذَا حَضَرَ أَحَدُكُمْ الْمَوْتُ الْإِيَّاهِ (البقرة ٢: ١٨٠)

It is prescribed for you when death approaches any one of you and if he leaves behind some wealth, to make a bequest to parents and near kindreds in an equitable way; (Al Baqarah 2:180)

Sometimes later, a complete law of inheritance was revealed in Surah-an-Nissa, which repealed the earlier command of Wasiyat (Will), at least in respect of legal heirs. Moreover, while the Messenger of Allah ﷺ announced many other essential rules and principles in the sermon of the Farewell Haj he also declared that since by sending down the law of inheritance, the Lord had determined the share of all those who were legally entitled to inherit, no Will should, after it, be made in respect of an heir. It is this commandment that Sayyidina Umamah رضي الله عنه has spoken of and in Mishkaatul Masabih, after quoting the above Tradition from Sunan-i-Abu Dawood and Ibn-i-Majah, it is added that "in Dar Qutni it is related that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Now, a Will is not (valid) and lawful in respect of an heir except that the other heirs wish it and are agreeable to it." Or, in oehr words, if the heirs of a person were agreed that he left his possessions by Will to an heir, in excess of his lawful share, and they had no objection to it, the Will would have the force of law provided that the other heirs were major and of a sound mind.

Punishment of Hell For Those Who Are Unjust to Rightful Heirs in Their Will (١٨٢١/١١٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَعْمَلُ وَالْمَرْأَةُ بِطَاعَةِ اللَّهِ سِتِينَ سَنَةً ثُمَّ يَحْضُرُ هُمَا الْمَوْتُ فَيُضَارَّ إِنْ فِي الْوَصِيَّةِ فَتَجِبُ لَهُمَا النَّارُ.

(رواه احمد والترمذى و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1821/114) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Sometimes, it is so that a person leads a life of obedience to God for sixty years, and then as the time of his death approaches, he acts unjustly towards his rightful heirs in his Will, (and), in consequence of it, Hell becomes inevitable for him."

(Musnad Ahamd, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Occasionally a person has legal heirs who are entitled by the Shariah, to inherit the property left by him after his death, but owing to one reason or another he makes his Will in favour of an outsider or for a particular use, with the object of depriving the heirs of their justful calim or takes some other steps of a like nature. According to this Tradition, it is such a grave sin that life-long devotion and obedience comes to nothing as a result of it, and he Divine Chastisement.

As we have seen earlier, in Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqa's رضي الله عنه narrative, a person is permitted to bequeath his possessions to the extent of one-third to pious and charitable uses, provided, of course, that his inention is pure and free from vindictiveness.

LEGAL ADMINISTRATION

Judiciary is an important branch of government, and serves an essential need of a civilized society. The holy Prophet ﷺ has furnished a complete guidance in respect of it as well.

There was no judicail system as long as the Prophet ﷺ remained in Makkah, but after he alongwith his Companions ﷺ, had migrated to Madinah, and the Muslims had begun to live as a community, an order was set up for dispensing and administration of justice, in an elementary form. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ himself was the judge and arbiter, in addition to being the Divine Mesenger ﷺ. Disputes were brought to him and he decided them, and awarded punishment to the guilty in accordance with the Holy law. The following verses are addressed to him directly in the Qur'an:

وَأَنِ احْكُم بَيْنَهُم بِمَا أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ (المائدة ٤٩:٥)

And judge (O Prophet) between them according to what Allah has revealed. (Al Ma'idah 5:49)

إِنَّا أَنزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ لِتَحْكُمَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِمَا أَرَاكَ اللَّهُ

(النساء ٤:١٠٥)

Surely, We have revealed the Book to you (O Prophet) with truth so that you may judge between people by means of what Allah has shown you. (Al Nisaa 4:105)

The Holy Prophet ﷺ, thus, himself decided the cases between Muslims. From some reports it appears that Sayyidina Umar ﷺ, too, used to hear and decide cases, in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime in Madinah at his command. Later also sent Sayyidina Ali and Sayyidina Mu'ad رضي الله عنهما there to act as judges. The Holy Prophet ﷺ strictly enjoined on those who were charged with the duty of dispensing justice to perform it to the best of their ability, and acquit themselves with honesty and fairness, and fearing of God. He gave the tidings of Divine help and guidance and an immense reward in the Hereafter to the bondmen who strove earnestly to observe these instruction, and also make a mistake in the interpretation or application of law, they would not be called to account for it, but rewarded for good faith and eagerness.

As against it, the Prophet ﷺ administered a severe warning of Divine wrath and punishment to bad and unfair rulers and judges and also laid down that only such men were to be appointed to such a position who were not solicitous of it.

Just And Unjust Rulers And Judges

عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَلَى مَنَابِرٍ مِنْ نُورٍ عَنْ يَمِينِ الرَّحْمَنِ وَكِلْتَا يَدَيْهِ يَمِينُ الَّذِينَ يَعْدِلُونَ فِي حُكْمِهِمْ وَأَهْلِيهِمْ وَمَا ذُلُّوا. (رواه مسلم)

(1822/115) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Amr ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The bondsmen (among the rulers, judges and other officers of the Government) who exercise their authority with fairness and justice will in the Hereafter be on the pulpits of light, (and) on the right-hand side of God — and both of His hands are rith hands — and these will be the men who are just and honest in thier decisons, and in the exercise of their powers with regard to afairs and concerns of the mernbers of thier families and other persons associated with them."

Commentary: In this, the great good tiding is given to rulers, judges ect., who take due care to be honest and impartial in their acts and judgments that in the Hereafter they will be treated with unique honour and ceremoney, and seated on puplits of light, on the right-hand side of the Almighty.

One can be misled into believing from the above Tradition that just as we have a right hand and a left hand, and the left hand is inferior to the right, the other hand of the Lord, too, will be the left one. The Prophet ﷺ, therefore, has made it clear that both the hands of God are right hands. He has no left hand.

It further goes to show that the words, Yameen (right) abd Yadd

(hand), used in this and some other Traditions, and Qur'anic verses, with relation to God, do not denote hands like ours. As it has been set forth candidly in the Qur'an:

لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ (الشورى ١١:٤٢)

"There is nothing whatsoever like unto Him." (Al Shurah 43:11)

As for what do words like Yadd, then, signify in that context, prudence lies in the acceptance and affirmation of the way and rule of conduct of the earlier Jurists seeing that we by our very nature are incapable of comprehending the essential meaning and reality of the Being and Attributes of the Lord.

The tidings contained at the end of the above Tradition are for the just and upright bondsmen who are honest and impartial in their judicail decisions as well as attitude towards the members of their families and other persons connected to them in realtionship, social affairs, business etc., and conduct themselves in a like manner if they happen to be the guardians of anyone or trustees of some property or institution.

It shows that the commandment of justice and uprightness and the reward promised on it does not relate merely to rulers and judges, but to everyone in his own sphere of activity.

(١٨٢٣/١١٦) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَحَبَّ النَّاسِ إِلَى اللَّهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَأَقْرَبَهُمْ مِنْهُ مَجْلِسًا إِمَامًا عَادِلٌ وَإِنْ أَبْغَضَ النَّاسَ إِلَى اللَّهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَأَشَدَّهُمْ عَذَابًا إِمَامٌ جَائِرٌ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1823/116) It is narrated by Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The most beloved of men in thde sight of God, on the Day of Resurrection, and the nearest to Him will be the just rulers, and the most hateful of men in the sight of God, on the Day of Resurrection, and farthest removed from Him will be the unjust and tyrannical rulers." (Tirmizi)

(١٨٢٤/١١٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي أَوْفَى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الْقَاضِي مَالَمْ يَجْرَ فَإِذَا جَارَ تَخَلَّى عَنْهُ وَلَزِمَهُ الشَّيْطَانُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1824/117) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Abi Awfa رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "God is with the judge, i.e., His help and guidance is reaching him as long as he is just and fair, and when he (departs from the path of justice and fairness) and becomes unjust and tyrannical, he Lord leaves man alone and the Devil attaches himself to him." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: It tells that as long as a judge or ruler honestly desires to act justly and imparatially, the help and guidance of the Lord is available to him, but when his intention is changed and he adopts the course of injustice and tyranny, the Lord withholds His help, and he becomes a of the Devil.

Honest Error of Judgement

(١٨٢٥/١١٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو وَ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا حَكَمَ الْحَاكِمُ فَاجْتَهَدَ فَأَصَابَ فَلَهُ أَجْرَانِ وَإِذَا حَكَمَ فَاجْتَهَدَوْ أَخْطَأَ فَلَهُ أَجْرٌ وَاحِدٌ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1825/118) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه and Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, they both relate, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When a ruler has to decide a case, and, (in order to decide justly and correctly), he exerts himself and applies his mind, and decides correctly, he will get a double reward: (one of the intention and effort to decide justly, and the other for giving a fair and correct decision), and when he tries sincerely to get to the truth of the matter and decides correctly, and yet gives a wrong decision, he will get one reward (for endeavouring to arrive at a just and correct decision)."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Of primary importance in this Tradition, in the principle that if a judge, Jurist or ruler tries his level best to find out where the turth of the matter lies and what is the corrrcet legal position with regard to it, and even then fails to decide properly, he will still be deserving of reward in the judgement of God, for his intention was pure and he really wanted to decide with justice anyone can after all do. But, clearly it appertains only to people who are worthy of it, and the permission of Ijtthead can evidently not be given to everyone irrespective of the qualifications.

As it is distinctly stated in the next Tradition, anyone who proceeds to judge between people and give decisions without necessary knowledge and ability will go to Hell.

Rulers And Judges Who Deserve Heaven And Hell

(١٨٢٦/١١٩) عَنْ بَرِيدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْقَضَاءُ ثَلَاثَةٌ وَاحِدٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَاثْنَانِ فِي النَّارِ فَأَمَّا الَّذِي فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَرَجُلٌ عَرَفَ الْحَقَّ فَقَضَى بِهِ وَرَجُلٌ عَرَفَ الْحَقَّ فَجَارَ فِي الْحُكْمِ فَهُوَ فِي النَّارِ وَرَجُلٌ قَضَى لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى جَهْلٍ فَهُوَ فِي النَّارِ.

(رواه ابو داؤد وابن ماجه)
(1826/119) It is narrated by Baridah رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, There are three classes of Judges. One of them is for Heaven and two for Hell. The Judge who understood the truth and pronounced his Judgement accordingly deserves Heaven. The one who did understand the truth but gave adverse Judgement, he deserves Hell. Likewise the Judge who is not capable but enforces his judgement also deserves Hell.

(Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

To Bribe and To Accept Bribe Is a Curse

There are people who hire the Judges in Their Judgements through bribes. The Holy Prophet ﷺ has denounced both the giver and the recipient of bribe.

(١٨٢٧/١٢٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْكَرَّاشِيَّ وَالْمُرْتَشِيَّ (رواه ابو داؤد وابن ماجه ورواه الترمذى عنه وعن ابى هريرة)

(1827/120) It is narrated by Adullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ cursed (both) the giver and the taker of bribes."

(Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

(Tirmizi has quoted it, also, on the authority of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, in addition of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr رضي الله عنه).

Commentary: The imprecation of anyone by God or His Messenger ﷺ is an expression of extreme displeasure, and a most severe punishment. Condemnation by God shows that He has decided to deprive the wrong-doer of His benevolence while by the Prophet ﷺ or Angel is in the nature of a prayer against him that he may be excluded from Divine mercy. The Tradition would, thus mean that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has indicated an excessive dislike for those who give or receive bribes and invoke the wrath of God against them.

In some accounts of the same narrative, it is stated that apart from the giving and taking of bribe, the holy Prophet ﷺ also, condemned the tout who acted as a middle-man between the two.

To Be A Ruler or Judge is A Severe Test

(١٨٢٨/١٢١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

جُعِلَ قَاضِيًا بَيْنَ النَّاسِ فَقَدْ ذُبَحَ بِغَيْرِ سِكِّينٍ (رواه احمد الترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(1828/121) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever was appointed a judge to decide the disputes between men was stabbed without a knife." (Musnad Ahmad, Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: A person who is stabbed with a knife will die in a few minutes while if an attempt is made to stab anyone without a knife, it will naturally prolong the agony. The substance of this Tradition is that to function as judge is to put oneself to a severe trial, and whoever accepts the offer should know that he wears a crown of thorns.

(١٨٢٩/١٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ

سَتَحْرُصُونَ عَلَى الْإِمَارَةِ وَسَكُونُ نَدَامَةٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَنِعِمَّتِ الْمُرْضِعَةُ وَبَنَسَتِ الْفَاطِمَةُ. (رواه البخارى)

(1829/122) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "A time will come when you will covet public offices, and it will be the cause of regret and repentance in the Hereafter. Very pleasing looks power and rule which takes one in the arms and suckles, and very displeasing does it look when it ceases to nurse from the breast."

Commentary: It had been revealed to the Prophet ﷺ that in time to come his followers will become greedy of the loaves and fishes of office and in this Tradition, he has warned that they will be grieved on the Day of Judgement.

It, further tells that when a person comes in power and authority it looks very nice and agreeable to him, as the nurse looks to the child who suckles it, and when he is divested of it owing to one reason or another it looks awfully bad, as the nurse looks to the child who stops feeding it from the breast and accustoms it to take nourishment otherwise than by nursing.

The moral is that seekers of power should not be unmindful of the sequel of the Hereafter. On the Day of Reckoning they will have to render a full account regarding the rights of countless of men over whom they ruled or exercised authority in one form or the other.

An effect of saying like these of the holy Prophet ﷺ was that the Companions preferred to keep away from public offices. As Tirmizi tells, during his Caliphate, Sayyidina Usman رضي الله عنه wanted to appoint Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه a judge, but the latter declined.

Divine Help And Guidance is Withheld From The Seekers of Power

(١٨٣٠/١٢٣) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَسْأَلِ الْإِمَارَةَ فَإِنَّكَ إِنْ أُعْطِيتَهَا عَنْ مَسْئَلَةٍ وَكَلْتَ إِلَيْهَا وَإِنْ أُعْطِيتَهَا عَنْ غَيْرِ مَسْئَلَةٍ أُعِنْتَ عَلَيْهَا. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1830/123) Abdul Rahman ibn Samurah رضي الله عنه narrated to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him: "Do not ask for a public position for if it is given to you at your request (or solicitation), you will be turned over to it, i.e., left to discharge the responsibility without help and guidance from the Lord, while if it is given to you without asking, you will be helped by God." (Bukhari and Muslim)

(١٨٣١/١٢٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ابْتَغَى الْقَضَاءَ وَسَأَلَ وَكَلَّ إِلَى نَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ أُكْرِهَ عَلَيْهِ أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ مَلَكًا يُسَدِّدُهُ.

(رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1831/124) It is narrated by Anas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever, will be desirous of the office of a judge and obtain it through solicitation will be handed over to himself. (He will be left to discharge his responsibilities on his own which is most difficult and dangerous). And whoever will be persuaded to accept the office, (against his desire), God will appoint a special Angel for his guidance."

(Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The sum and substance of both the Traditions is that one should not covet public offices and positions. Anyone who will do so, will not be favoured with Divine help and guidance in the discharge of his duties. On the contrary, a person who is entrusted with power or responsibility without a request or effort on his part, and accepts it, putting his trust in God, it is the promise of the Lord that His support and guidance will be made available to him.

Some Guidelines For The Judges

عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا بَعَثَهُ إِلَى الْيَمَنِ قَالَ كَيْفَ تَقْضِي إِذَا عَرَضَ لَكَ قَضَاءٌ قَالَ أَقْضِي بِكِتَابِ اللَّهِ قَالَ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدْ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ فَيُسْنَةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدْ فِي سُنَّةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ قَالَ اجْتَهِدْ بِرَأْيٍ وَلَا أَلَوْ قَالَ فَضَرَبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى صَدْرِهِ وَقَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي وَفَّقَ رَسُولَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ لِمَا يَرْضَى بِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داؤد والدارمی)

(1832/125) It is narrated by Mu'az ibn Jabal رضي الله عنه that when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent him out as the Governor of Yemen, he asked him how he would decide matters coming up before him. "I will decide matters according to the Book of God, (the Qur'an)," replied Mu'az رضي الله عنه. "What will you do if the Book of God contains nothing to guide you?" the Prophet ﷺ asked. 'Then,' said Mu'az, "I will act on the precedents of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (the Sunnah)." And if the precedents also fail, what will you do?" asked the Prophet ﷺ. "I will, then, do Ijthead, i.e., exert to form my own judgement, and spare no effort to arrive at a correct decision." Mu'az رضي الله عنه replied. On hearing the reply, the Prophet ﷺ patted Mu'az رضي الله عنه and said: "Praised be the Lord who granted wisdom to the envoy (or agent) of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that is pleasing to the Messenger ﷺ."

(Tirmizi Abu Dawood and Daarami)

Commentary: Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal ؓ was one of the Companions who were distinguished for their knowledge of the Quran and the Sunnah and possessed a deep understanding of Faith. He was appointed the Governor of Yemen by the holy Prophet ﷺ. Owing to the education Sayyidina Mu'az ؓ had recieved at the hands of the Prophet ﷺ and as a result of the close observation of his ways and practices, he had learnt and sought from the Qur'an, and, if it was not found in it, recourse should be taken to the practice of the Prophet ﷺ, and if it, too, did not help, one should try to form one's own judgement in the light of the Qur'an and Sunnah. Thus, when Sayyidina Mu'az ؓ was going to Yemen to take charge as the Governor, the holy Prophet ﷺ asked him, by way of a test, on what basis would he govern and decide matters that would come up before him. The reply Sayyidina Mu'az ؓ gave has been seen in the above Tradition.

The main significance of this Tradition lies in the fact that it provides the clearest and most explicit foundation of the principle of Ijthead, and the Jurists of all ages, have sought guidance from it, and decided thousands of legal questions on the basis of it, regarding which no precise directions were available in the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

It may be noted that the documentary evidence of the transmission of this Tradition is not firm, but weak, according to the canons laid down by the authorities, yet the Muslim jurists have unanimously accepted it as reliable, and the institution of Ijthead in Islam is founded upon it. As scholars like Ibn Qaiyyim have remarked, it would be futile to look for a further proof of its authenticity after the Jurists had accepted it as true and reliabe.

It also denotes that Ijthead on a legal matter is called for only when no clear guidance is available in the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

(١٨٣٣/١٢٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَضَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ الْخُصْمَيْنِ يَقْعُدَانِ بَيْنَ يَدَيِ الْحَاكِمِ. (رواه احمد و ابو داود)

(1833/126) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Zubair ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said that "both the parties in a case should sit in front of the judge." (Musnad Ahmad and Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It shows that both the parties in a law-suit, the plaintiff and the defendant, ought to be treated equally by the Court, and no preferential treatment shown to anyone, whatever the consideration. The seating arrangement for them should, also, be the same.

(١٨٣٤/١٢٧) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا تَقَاضَى إِلَيْكَ رَجُلَانِ فَلَا تَقْضِ لِلأَوَّلِ حَتَّى تَسْمَعَ كَلَامَ الْآخَرِ فَسَوْفَ تَدْرِي كَيْفَ تَقْضِي، قَالَ عَلِيٌّ فَمَا زِلْتُ قَاضِيًا بَعْدَ هَذَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(1834/127) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام narrated to us, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him: "When two persons come to you (with a dispute) for decision, do not pronounce the judgement on hearing the first party alone, until you have also heard the statement of the other party. If you act accordingly, you will know and understand how and what you are going to decide." Ali عليه السلام added that "since then I have always been acting as a judge." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The above narrative of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام has, also, been reproduced in Sunan Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah, and, in these versions of it, it is stated that when the holy Prophet ﷺ decided to send Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام to Yemen as the judge, the latter submitted that he was young in years and had no experience of hearing and deciding cases. The Prophet ﷺ thereupon, assured him that the Lord would help him in the discharge of his responsibilities and cause him to decide justly. He, further, advised him not to form an opinion until he had heard both the sides in a dispute.

What the holy Prophet ﷺ had said about Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام in this Tradition manifested in itself the manner that the latter was prominent among the Companions رضي الله عنهم in the decision of disputes and his judgements were believed to be the last word.

(١٨٣٥/١٢٨) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لَا يَقْضِينَ حَكْمَ بَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَهُوَ غَضَبَانِ. (رواه البخاری ومسلم)

(1835/128) It is narrated by Abu Bakrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "No judge should give his decision (in a matter) when he is in a state of anger." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: A man is not in a proper frame of mind when he is angry, and that is why, the holy Prophet ﷺ has told the judges to avoid deciding cases when they are enraged. It requires a cool and balanced mind to hear and decide as a judge.

Evidence is Essential For A Claim

If a person files a suit against anyone, however trustworthy, virtuous or distinguished he may be, the case cannot be decided in his favour simply on the basis of his claim. In the Islamic law, a plaint or charge must be supported by proof of required standard. If the plaintiff fails to produce adequate evidence, and the defendant denies the charge, the latter must declare on oath that the complaint is false and, in case he declines to take such an oath, the complaint will be regarded to be founded on truth, and the case will be decreed against him, and if he declares on oath that the complaint is untrue, the suit will be decided in his favour.

(١٨٣٦/١٢٩) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَوْ يُعْطَى النَّاسُ بِدَعْوَاهُمْ لَا دَعَى نَاسٌ دِمَاءَ رِجَالٍ وَأَمْوَالَهُمْ وَلَكِنَّ الْيَمِينَ عَلَى الْمُدْعَى عَلَيْهِ.
(رواه مسلم)

(1836/129) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "If judgement is given in favour of persons simply on the basis of complaint, they will begin to sue others (freely), and make all sorts of charges (against them), in respect of life and property. But no case can be decided in anyone's favour (simply on his complaint). (Evidence will have to be produced, and, in case it is not forthcoming), the defendant will be called upon to deny the charge on oath."

(Muslim)

Commentary: That the plaintiff will be required to produce evidence is not mentioned in Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas's رضي الله عنه narrative appearing in Sahih Muslim, but Imam Nawawi, in his Tradition, with authentic evidence of transmission, and it includes the provision. Imam Nawawi's remark has also been reproduced in Mishkaat, alongwith Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas's رضي الله عنه narrative. It is for this reason that we have added the passage under review with in brackets in the translation of this Tradition.

Traditions bearing the same import have been related by a number of other Companions رضي الله عنهم as well.

(١٨٣٧/١٣٠) عَنِ الْأَشْعَثِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ قَالَ كَانَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْيَهُودِ أَرْضٌ فَجَحَدَنِي فَقَدَّمْتُهُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَلَيْكَ بَيْنَةٌ قُلْتُ لَا قَالَ لِلْيَهُودِيِّ اإِخْلِفْ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِذَا يَحْلِفُ يَذْهَبُ بِمَالِي فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَشْتَرُونَ بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ وَأَيْمَانِهِمْ ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا أُولَئِكَ لَا خَلَاقَ لَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَلَا يَكَلِّمُهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَلَا يُزَكِّيهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ (آل عمران ٧٧:٣)

(1837/130) Ash'ath ibn Qays narrated to us, saying that "a (plot of) land was jointly owned by me and a Jew. The Jew repudiated my claim (and became the sole owner). I took the Jew to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (and presented my case before him). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked me if I had any evidence, (a witness etc.,) to support my claim to which I replied in the negative. He, thereupon, told the Jew that (if he did not admit my claim), he should declare on oath that the land belonged solely to him and I had no share in its ownership. I, (then), said to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that the Jew will take a (false) oath and arrogate my property. Upon it, the following verse (of the Qur'an) was revealed:

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَشْتَرُونَ بِعَهْدِ اللَّهِ وَأَيْمَانِهِمْ ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا أُولَئِكَ لَا خَلَاقَ لَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَلَا يَكَلِّمُهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَلَا يُزَكِّيهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ (آل عمران ٧٧:٣)

Surely those who barter Allah's Government and their oaths, for a small price — there shall be no share for them in the Hereafter; and Allah shall not speak to them, nor shall He look on them on the Day of Resurrection, nor shall He purify them and for them is a painful Chastisement. (Aal-e-Imran 3:77)

(Abu Dawood and Ibn Majah)

Commentary: It tells that even if in a law-suit the plaintiff is a Muslim and the defendant a non-Muslim, the same law will apply, and in case of plaintiff's failing to produce evidence in support of his claim, the denial, on oath of the defendant will hold good. If the defendant has, really, been dishonest and taken a false oath, his affair rests with God, and a dreadful penalty awaits him in the Hereafter.

(١٨٣٨/١٣١) عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ وَائِلٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ حَضْرَمَوْتَ وَرَجُلٌ مِنْ كِنْدَةَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ الْحَضْرَمِيُّ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ هَذَا غَلَبَنِي عَلَى أَرْضٍ لِي فَقَالَ الْكِنْدِيُّ هِيَ أَرْضِي وَفِي يَدِي لَيْسَ لَهَا فِيهَا حَقٌّ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلْحَضْرَمِيِّ أَلَاكَ بَيْنَهُ؟ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَلَاكَ يَمِينُهُ؟ قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ فَاجِرٌ لَا يُبَالِي عَلَى مَا حَلَفَ عَلَيْهِ وَلَيْسَ يَتَوَرَّعُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ قَالَ لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنْهُ إِلَّا ذَلِكَ فَانْطَلِقْ لِيَحْلِفَ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا أَذْبَرَ لَنْتِنَ حَلَفَ عَلَى مَالِهِ لِيَأْكُلَهُ ظُلْمًا لِبَلْقَيْنِ اللَّهُ وَهُوَ عَنْهُ مُعْرِضٌ. (رواه مسلم)

(1838/131) Alqama ibn Wa'il رضي الله عنه narrated, on the authority of his father, that a citizen of Hadrmaut and another person belonging to the tribe of Kinda, brought up their dispute before the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (for decision). The Hazrami, who was the plaintiff, submitted that the Kindi (meaning the person belonging to the tribe of Kinda) had unlawfully occupied his land while the Kindi (who was the defendant), pleaded that the land, actually, belonged to him and was in his possession. The Prophet ﷺ enquired from the Hazrami if he could produce any evidence in support of his claim to which he replied that he could not. The Prophet ﷺ, then, told him that in that case, all that he could do was to take an oath from the defendant. The Hazrami said the defendant was a wicked person; he did not care for what he was swearing and would not stop at anything. The Prophet ﷺ observed that (whatever it might be), (when the plaintiff could not produce any proof or evidence), the only course open to him was to take the oath from the defendant. As the Kindi Proceeded to take the oath, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ (warned him), saying that if he swear a false oath in order to usurp the appellant's property, he will appear before God, on the Day of Reckoning (in such a condition that the Lord will turn His face away from him in anger." (Muslim)

Commentary: It is not mentioned in the above report, as quoted in Sahih Muslim, whether the Kindi took the oath or not, but in Ash'as ibn Qais's account of the same incident, appearing in Sunan-i-Abu Dawood, it is added that the defendant, at last, admitted that the land belonged to the plaintiff, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ decided the case in Hazrami's favour.

The Ultimate Abode of Those Who Lay A False Claim or Swear a False Oath is Hell

(١٨٣٩/١٣٢) عَنْ أَبِي ذَرَّانَةَ سَمِعَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَنْ

أَرَعَى مَا لَيْسَ لَهُ فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا وَلَيْتَبَوَّءَ مَقْعَدَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ. (رواه مسلم)

(1839/132) Abu Zarr Ghiffari رضي الله عنه narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever laid a claim to a thing that was not his is not from us. He will do well to make his home in Hell."

(Muslim)

Commentary: Can there be a more woeful punishment for anyone claiming to be a Muslim than that the holy Prophet ﷺ may say about him "he is not from us", and his ultimate resting-place is Hell?

(١٨٤٠/١٣٣) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

أَقْتَطَعَ حَقَّ امْرِءٍ مُسْلِمٍ بِبَيْمِينِهِ فَقَدْ أَوْجَبَ اللَّهُ لَهُ النَّارَ وَحَرَّمَ عَلَيْهِ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَالَ

لَهُ رَجُلٌ وَإِنْ كَانَ شَيْئًا يَسِيرًا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ وَإِنْ كَانَ قَضِيًّا مِنْ أَرَكَ.

(رواه مسلم)

(1840/133) It is narrated by Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever appropriated the right of a Muslim by swearing a false oath (and acquired his property without right). (from a court). God made the Fire of Hell inevitable for him and debarred him from entering Paradise." On hearing it, a Companion enquired: "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Even if It was a minor thing?" "Yes," the Prophet ﷺ replied. "Even if it was a twig of piloo."¹

①. A plant that grows wild and the twigs of which are used for cleansing the teeth.

Commentary: It shows that even if a person acquired a most ordinary and low-priced thing belonging to someone else by taking a false oath in the court, he committed such a grave sin that he will undergo the punishment of Hell for it.

The words "appropriated the right of a Muslim" have been used in this Tradition for the simple reason that the society of Madinah was a Muslim society, and it were the disputes between the Muslims that were, generally brought before the Prophet ﷺ for decision. Otherwise, to obtaining the property of a non-Muslim by swearing a false oath is as much a sin as obtaining the property of a Muslim, a clear proof of which is available in the Qur'anic verse, quoted in an earlier narrative, (No. 1590), about punishment on swearing a false oath.

Even The Prophet's Decision Cannot Make Anyone Else's Property Lawful

Sometimes, a clever litigator lays his claim on someone else's property and manipulates the evidence in the truth and gets his case decided in his favour. But the property in dispute does not become lawful for such a plaintiff or defendant by the decision of the judge. It remains unlawful and the deceitful litigator makes his way to Hell.

As the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said, he too was a mortal and could after all be misled by a skilful and glib-tongued person and give a wrong judgement, but even his judgement could not make an unlawful thing lawful.

(١٨٤١/١٣٤) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ وَإِنَّكُمْ تَخْتَصِمُونَ إِلَيَّ وَلَعَلَّ بَعْضَكُمْ أَنْ يَكُونَ الْحَنُّ بِحُجَّتِهِ مِنْ بَعْضٍ فَأُقْضَى لَهُ عَلَيَّ نَحْوَمَا أَسْمَعُ مِنْهُ فَمَنْ قَضَيْتُ لَهُ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ حَقِّ أَخِيهِ فَلَا يَأْخُذْهُ فَإِنَّمَا أَقْطَعُ لَهُ قِطْعَةً مِنَ النَّارِ.
(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1841/134) It is narrated by Umm Salmah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "I am a mortal and you bring your disputes to me (for decision). It can be that one of you is a more eloquent and convincing pleader (of his case) than the other, and, then, I am influenced by (his skill), and decide the case in his favour. So in that case the person in whose favour I decide that his brother's property belongs to him must not take possession of it. What I give to him (by my decision), (as a result of a false oath or claim), is for him a portion of Hell (from the point of view of the sequel)." (Bukhari and Muslim)

False Swearing is The Worst Form of Sin

(١٨٤٢/١٣٥) عن عبد الله بن أنيس قال قال رسول الله صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مِنْ أَكْبَرِ الْكِبَائِرِ الشِّرْكَ بِاللَّهِ وَعُقُوقُ الْوَالِدَيْنِ وَالْيَمِينُ الْغُمُوسُ وَمَا حَلَفَ بِاللَّهِ حَالِفٌ يَمِينٍ صَبْرٍ فَادْخُلَ فِيهَا مِثْلَ جَنَاحِ بَعُوضَةٍ إِلَّا جُعِلَتْ نَكْتَةٌ فِي قَلْبِهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1842/135) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Unais رضی اللہ عنہ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The greatest (and most loathsome) of the major sins are: to associate anyone with God; to disobey parents; (and) to swear a false oath consciously (before a judge or officer). Whoever takes an oath in a court and violates it even to the extent of the weight of a gnat, i.e., mixes falsehood with it in the smallest degree, a scar is made on his heart in the preparation for the Day of Judgement. (The punishment of it will be made manifest on the Day of Resurrection)." (Tirmizi)

(١٨٤٣/١٣٦) عَنْ خُرَيْمِ بْنِ فَاتِكٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةُ الصُّبْحِ فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ قَامَ قَائِمًا فَقَالَ غَدَلْتُ شَهَادَةَ الزُّورِ بِالْإِشْرَاقِ بِاللَّهِ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ فَاجْتَنِبُوا الرَّجْسَ مِنَ الْأَوْثَانِ وَاجْتَنِبُوا قَوْلَ الزُّورِ حُنَفَاءَ اللَّهِ غَيْرَ مُشْرِكِينَ بِهِ (الحج ٢٢: ٣٠-٣١) (رواه أبو داود)

(1843/136) Khuzaym ibn Fatik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (one day) the Messenger of Allah ﷺ offered up the morning (Fajr) prayer, and when he had finished it, he got up and said: 'False swearing has been made the equivalent (in significance) of Polytheism.' Messenger of Allah ﷺ said it thrice, and, then recited the following verse of the Qur'an:

فَاجْتَنِبُوا الرَّجْسَ مِنَ الْأَوْثَانِ وَاجْتَنِبُوا قَوْلَ الزُّورِ حُنَفَاءَ اللَّهِ غَيْرَ مُشْرِكِينَ بِهِ (الحج ٢٢: ٣٠-٣١)

So shun the abomination of the idols, and shun the speaking of falsehood, being upright man of pure faith, not associating anything with Him. (Al Hajj 22:30,31)

(Abu Dawood)

People Whose Depositions Are Not Worthy of Trust

(١٨٤٤/١٣٧) عن عمرو بن شعيب عن أبيه عن جده عن النبي صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَجُوزُ شَهَادَةُ خَائِنٍ وَلَا خَائِنَةٍ وَلَا زَانٍ وَلَا زَانِيَةٍ وَلَا ذِي غِمْرٍ عَلَى أَخِيهِ وَرَدَّ شَهَادَةُ الْقَانِعِ لِأَهْلِ الْبَيْتِ. (رواه أبو داود)

(1844/137) Amr ibn Shu'ayb narrated to us, on the authority of his father, Shu'ayb, and he on the authority of his grandfather, Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه, saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The deposition of a man who is guilty of breach of faith, and in the same way, of a woman who is guilty of breach of faith is not dependable, and the deposition of an adulterer or adulteress is not dependable, and the deposition of a person who bears enmity will not be reliable against the brother against whom he bears enmity, and the deposition of a person who is dependent on a family (for his livelihood and other necessities of life) can not be relied upon in support of its members." (Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In the first place, it speaks of men and women who are guilty of breach of trust and adultery that their evidence cannot be relied upon. The two sins have been mentioned here by way of an example, otherwise the basic law and principle is that the evidence of anyone who has committed grave and hateful sins like these is not reliable. The commission of such misdeeds shows that there is no fear of God in his heart, and hence he cannot be depended upon for veracity and truthfulness. The reason for the unreliability of the evidence of anyone against a person with whom he is on unfriendly terms is self-evident. Similarly, the evidence of anyone who is attached to a family and relies on it for support will not be acceptable if he deposes in its favour. Thus we can conclude that the evidence of persons belonging to the same family, in support of one another, is even more unworthy of reliance.

SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT

Islam, as we know, is comprehensive of all the departments of life, both individually and collectively. Like fundamental articles of faith, worship, morality, social behaviour and monetary transactions, it deals with government and administration as well and furnishes necessary guidance with regard to them. In fact, government forms a most important branch of it for it exercises a profound influence on many other spheres of human existence also.

When, after the Migration, a Muslim society was formed in Madinah, an informal type of Government, too, had come to be established, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, together with being the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, also, acted as its head. The Prophet ﷺ lived for about ten years after the Migration and during it, the frontiers of the Islamic State expanded so steadily and quickly that the whole of Arabia, and even Yemen and Bahrain, were under its control and authority in his own lifetime. During those ten years, he had all the functions as the head of a State, as were then understood, were carried out by him as the Almighty wanted him to perform. He did Jihad for the Victory of the Word of God and fought wars against the forces that were opposed to the establishment of the sovereignty of the Lord over His bondsmen and put impediments in its path, as well as made peace, set up a system for the realisation of *Jizyah*¹, *Khiraj*², and Zakat, and appointed governors, judges and other officers for territories accepting the Muslim rule, and gave instruction regarding all these affairs.

The ten-year rule of the holy Prophet ﷺ and his sayings on the subject contain a full provision for the basic guidance of Muslim

- ①. A supplementary tax levied on non-Muslim subjects of an Islamic State in exemption of military service.
- ②. Meaning a tax, tribute or revenue.

States and their rulers. The four Companions, Sayyidina Abu Bakr, Sayyidina Umar, Uthman, and Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام, who one after the other, succeeded the Prophet ﷺ as his deputies and heads of the Islamic State did their best, paying due attention to the peculiar needs and conditions of their time, to follow, in all respects, his ways, manners of conduct and instructions while discharging their duties, and it is for this reason that they are known as Khulfa-i-Rashideen, (the Rightly-guided Caliphs). Only a government which wholly abides by the teachings and example of the Prophet ﷺ, to the best of its ability, deserves to be called Khilaft-i-Rashida.

Exhorting The People To Obey The Ruler, And The Ruler to Observe Piety And be Just

(١٨٤٥/١٣٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَطَاعَنِي فَقَدْ أَطَاعَ اللَّهَ وَمَنْ عَصَانِي فَقَدْ عَصَى اللَّهَ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ الْأَمِيرَ فَقَدْ أَطَاعَنِي وَمَنْ يَعْصِ الْأَمِيرَ فَقَدْ عَصَانِي وَإِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَّةٌ يُقَاتَلُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِ وَيُتَّقَى بِهِ فَإِنْ أَمَرَ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَعَدْلٍ فَإِنَّ لَهُ بِذَلِكَ أَجْرًا وَإِنْ قَالَ بِغَيْرِهِ فَإِنَّ عَلَيْهِ مِنْهُ
(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1845/138) It is narrated by Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever obeyed me obeyed God, and whoever disobeyed me disobeyed God, and whoever obeyed the Amir¹ obeyed me, and whoever disobeyed the Amir disobeyed me; and the Amir is the shield; fighting is done behind him, and guarding (against an opponent's attack) is done with him. Thus, if he (the Amir) gives the command of piety and be God fearing and follows the path of justice, there is an immense reward for him, and if he acts otherwise, he will have to pay the penalty for it." (Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: Says the Qur'an:

مَنْ يُطِيعِ الرَّسُولَ فَقَدْ أَطَاعَ اللَّهَ (النساء ٨٠:٤)

Whosoever obeys the Messenger ﷺ, he indeed obeys Allah.

(Al Nisaa 4:80)

①. Literally, 'one who holds authority'. In Arabic and in the special phraseology of the Quran and the Traditions, it denotes the 'ruler'.

The reason is plain. Whatever commands the Prophet ﷺ gives are from Allah, and it is His Will and Command that these should be obeyed. Hence, compliance with the commands of the prophet denotes compliance with the commands of God, and violation of the commands of the Prophet ﷺ denotes violation of the commands of God. Again, as it is by Allah's command that the Prophet ﷺ has declared that the Amir should be obeyed and his order and instructions carried out faithfully, provided, of course, that these are not opposed to Shariah, obedience to the Amir will mean obedience to the Prophet ﷺ, and, conversely, disobedience to the Amir will mean disobedience to the Prophet ﷺ.

The aim of the above Tradition, apparently, is to emphasise the importance of rendering obedience to the ruler in what is lawful and legitimate, by indication that to obey or disobey the Amir is to obey or disobey Prophet ﷺ, and, indirectly, God Himself.

It, further, tells that the ruler is like the shield which is used for protection and defence. The Amir, thus, is the defender and custodian of Faith and protector of Muslims. It is a special function and responsibility for which he may, sometimes, even have to take up arms. Consequently, it is essential for Muslims to obey the Amir and carry out his order for, without it, he cannot fulfil the duty of defence and protection.

Lastly, those who are in power and authority are told to observe piety and justice, and keep it always in the mind that Allah is watching over them and they will have to appear before Him on the Day of Judgement and render a full account of the things done by them as rulers. For them, there is a vast reward in the Hereafter if they act and behave like that, or else a grievous penalty awaits them.

(١٨٤٦/١٣٩) عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا مُعَاوِيَةُ
 إِنْ وَلَّيْتَ أَمْرًا فَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَاعْدِلْ، قَالَ فَمَا زِلْتُ أَظُنُّ أَنَّي مُبْتَلَى بِعَمَلِ لِقَوْلِ النَّبِيِّ
 صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. حَتَّى ابْتُلَيْتُ.
 (رواه احمد)

(1846/139) It is narrated by Mua'wiya رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had once told him that if he was appointed as Amir, he should make the fear of God, and justice and fairness his practice. Mua'wiya رضي الله عنه says that "owing to this edict of the Prophet ﷺ, I had a constant feeling that I was going to be entrusted with the responsibility of government until I was, from the side of God." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: The moral of this Tradition for the rulers is the same as of the earlier one. They should govern with justice and make the fear of God the rule with themselves. It, also, shows that, perhaps, it had been revealed to the Holy Prophet ﷺ that Mua'wiya رضي الله عنه will come into power one day. Thus, he served as the Governor of Syria during the reigns of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, and later, rose to be the Head of the Islamic State after the Treaty with Sayyidina Hasan رضي الله عنه.

(١٨٤٧/١٤٠) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَفْضَلَ عِبَادِ اللَّهِ مَنْزِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِمَامٌ عَادِلٌ وَإِنَّ شَرَّ النَّاسِ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ مَنْزِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِمَامٌ جَائِرٌ خَرَقٌ.
(رواه البيهقي في شعب الإيمان)

(1847/140) Umar ibn Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه relates saying that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The best of men, in the sight of God, on the Day of Resurrection, will be just and benevolent rulers, and the worst of men, in the sight of God, on the Day of Resurrection, will be unjust and tyrannical rulers." (Bahiahqi)

Commentary: It shows that, in addition to being just and God-fearing, a ruler should also, be kind and considerate in the exercise of his powers.

Enjoining Upon The Rulers to Be Well-Wishers of The People

(١٨٤٨/١٤١) عَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ يَسْتَرْعِيهِ اللَّهُ رَعِيَّةً فَلَمْ يُحِطْهَا بِنَصِيحَةٍ إِلَّا لَمْ يَجِدْ رَائِحَةَ الْجَنَّةِ.
(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1848/141) M'aqil ibn Yassar رضي الله عنه narrated to us: "I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "Whoever is made the ruler of a people by God, and does not, sincerely, look after their welfare, he shall not smell the fragrance of Paradise." (Bukhari & Muslim)

Commentary: It tells that the ruler should take keen and sincere interest in the welfare of his people. If he failed to do so and was neglectful of their needs and comforts, Paradise, and even its sweet smell would be denied to him.

In it, and some other Traditions, the ruler is described as Ra'ee and the subjects as Raiyyah. In Arabic, Ra'ee denotes the shepherd, and Raiyyah, the herd he guards. The two terms are enough to show what the concept of leadership and government is in Islam, and what are the duties of a leader or ruler.

The Doors of The Rulers Should Always Remain Open for The Petitioners

(١٨٤٩/١٤٢) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مُرَّةَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِمُعَاوِيَةَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى

اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ إِمَامٍ يُغْلِقُ بَابَهُ دُونَ دَوَى الْحَاجَةِ وَالْخَلَّةِ وَالْمُسْكِنَةِ إِلَّا

أَغْلَقَ اللَّهُ أَبْوَابَ السَّمَاءِ دُونَ خَلَّتِهِ وَحَاجَتِهِ وَمُسْكِنَتِهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1849/142) It is narrated on the authority of Amr ibn Murrah رضی اللہ عنہ that he told Mu'awiya رضی اللہ عنہ that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say: "The ruler who will shut his door to the weak and needy bondsmen, God will shut the doors of the heavens at the time of his distress and privation. Help will not reach him from God in the hour of his need." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The doors of the holy Prophet ﷺ, and, after him, of Khulfa Rashideen, always remained open for the suppliants and petitioners. They had a free access to them and could meet and place their difficulties before them without any trouble. But when the Kharijis took the terrorism and Sayyidina Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ was martyred by them and an attempt also was made on the life of Sayyidina Mu'awiya رضی اللہ عنہ, the latter placed restrictions on visitors. It was, then, that Sayyidina Amr ibn Murrah رضی اللہ عنہ related the above saying of the holy Prophet ﷺ to him. It is further mentioned in the same report that after it Sayyidina Mu'awiya رضی اللہ عنہ appointed an officer who used to listen to the needs and grievances of the people and pass them on to him.

The Order of The Ruler Should be Carried Out Provided That it is Not Against The Shari'ah

(١٨٥٠/١٤٣) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ السَّمْعُ وَالطَّاعَةُ عَلَى الْمَرْءِ الْمُسْلِمِ فِيمَا أَحَبَّ وَكَرِهَ مَا لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِمَعْصِيَةٍ فَإِذَا أَمَرَ بِمَعْصِيَةٍ فَلَا سَمْعَ وَلَا طَاعَةَ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1850/143) It is narrated by Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "It is the duty of a Believer to listen and obey (the commands of) men in authority, in matters he likes as well as in matters he does not like as long as he is not told to do a thing that is sinful. When, however, the person in authority, gives an order for something that is against the Shariah, the command to listen and obey will not apply."

(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: It emphasises that if the ruler tells anyone to do a thing that may not be to his liking, but is not against the Shariah, it is his duty to carry it out, irrespective of his own inclination or judgement. There will, ostensibly, crop up difficulties and confusion at each step if it is not done. But if the ruler gives an order that is inimical to the letter or spirit of Shariah, the should not be obeyed. The commandment of God and his Shariah must prevail.

(١٨٥١/١٤٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَفْضَلُ الْجِهَادِ مَنْ قَالَ كَلِمَةً حَقٍّ عِنْدَ سُلْطَانٍ جَائِرٍ.

(رواه الترمذى و ابو داؤد و ابن ماجه)

(1851/144) It is narrated by Sa'eed Khudri ؓ that Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "To say a just word before a tyrannical ruler is the best of Jihad."

Tirmizi, Abu Dawood and

Ibn Majah

Commentary: Though in a war there is the danger of defeat and death, there is, also, the hope of victory. But one, positively, risks his life or at least invites punishment if one dares speak out boldly before a cruel and unjust ruler. For this reason, perhaps, it has been called "the best of Jihad."

It is Not Wise to Have A Woman as Ruler

(١٨٥٢/١٤٥) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ لَمَّا بَلَغَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ

أَهْلَ فَارِسَ قَدْ مَلَكَوْا عَلَيْهِمْ بِنْتُ كِسْرَى قَالَ لَنْ يُفْلِحَ قَوْمٌ وَلَوْ أَمَرَهُمْ امْرَأَةٌ

(رواه البخاري)

(1852/145) Narrates Abu Bakrah رضي الله عنه that when the news reached the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that the people of Persia had made the daughter of Kisra (Cyrus¹), their ruler, he remarked:

"That country will not prosper which makes a woman its ruler."

(Bukhari)

Commentary: The difference between the physical, biological and mental characteristics of the two sexes shows that the woman has not been created to perform the functions of a sovereign or Head of the Government. If a woman is in power anywhere, it is contrary to the aim and design of Nature, and should be regarded as one of the many unnatural things that have been and are taking place in the world around us.

A Ruler Appoint His Successor or Leave it to Men of Influence And Discernment

Under the influence of the Western democratic system, some people have begun to imagine that there is no place of the nomination of his successor by the ruler under the Islamic scheme of things. This however, is the result of pure moral and intellectual servility and imitativeness. The correctness or otherwise of nomination depends, primarily on men and circumstances. If the ruler, honestly feels about a person that he is more suited to the high office, and the people, too, will accept him willingly, his appointment as the successor will not only be just, but also, expedient. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه had appointed Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه to succeed him as the Caliph in a similar situation, and the holy Prophet ﷺ, too, had resolved to appoint Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as his successor, during his last illness, but then, it was revealed to him and he attained certitude that the latter was going to be the Caliph after him, it was the Will of God, and the choice of the people, too, would fall upon him, and, hence, he refrained from making a formal announcement, yet by asking Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه to lead the prayers, in his place, during the last days of his life, he had given an ample indication of it.

①. The surname of several Kings of Persia. It is, commonly, applied to Nausherwan who lived in the time of Justinian.

Be that as it may, should the ruler be sure in his mind that the designation of anyone as his successor will be better and wiser from the viewpoint of Faith and the Ummah, he is entitled to do so, and the person so named will be the rightful Caliph. Nevertheless, if he feels that instead of making the nomination himself, it will be more expedient to entrust it to a council of leading men of the Ummah, as Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had done it too will be correct. The range of choice can also be enlarged if needed. From the practice of the holy Prophet ﷺ and the illustrious Caliphs who followed him immediately, it appears that it is the aim and purpose that matters. There is no fixed rule or method for the nomination or selection of the ruler. It can be decided upon as the circumstances require, and in accordance with the objectives of the Faith and the commandments of the Shariah.

(١٨٥٣/١٤٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي

مَرَضِهِ ادْعِي لِي أَبَا بَكْرٍ أَبَاكَ وَأَخَاكَ حَتَّى أَكْتُبَ كِتَابًا فَإِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ

يَتَمَنَّى مُتَمَنٍّ وَيَقُولُ قَائِلٌ أَنَا وَلَا وَيَأْبَى اللَّهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَّا أَبَا بَكْرٍ. (رواه مسلم)
(1853/146) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها narrated to us, saying that during his illness, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to her: "(O Ayshah)! Send word to your father, Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, and brother, (Abdul Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه), to come and see me so that I may have the deed (concerning the Caliphate) written. I fear that someone, (desirous) of the Caliphate, will express the desire for it, and someone will claim that he deserves while he will not be deserving; and no one will be acceptable to God and the Believers except Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه."

(Muslim)

Commentary: It shows that when the holy Prophet ﷺ was mortally ill, he had decided to nominate Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as the Caliph after himself and have the instrument of Caliphate written, and he had also wanted to send for Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, and his son Sayyidina Abdul Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضي الله عنهما, for that purpose but then it was revealed to him that it had already been settled by God and the Believers were not going to choose anyone as the Caliph except Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. He, consequently changed his mind thinking that it would be better if Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه became the Caliph by the choice of the Muslim and without being named by him.

Anyway, this much is clear from the above Tradition that nomination of the successor by the ruler was one of the ways the Holy Prophet ﷺ had thought and he had also spoken of it. When Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه designated Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه as his successor, he, perhaps was guided by it. Later, when Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه entrusted the task to a council of advisers instead of making the nomination himself he too had taken the inspiration from the conduct of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

To sum up this Tradition tells both the methods of nomination and selection are correct for the appointment of the Caliph or ruler.

Caliphate on The Lines of Messengership Only for 30 Years

(١٨٥٤/١٤٧) عَنْ سَفِينَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خِلَافَةُ

النَّبِيِّ ثَلَاثُونَ سَنَةً ثُمَّ يُؤْتِي اللَّهُ الْمُلْكَ مَنْ يَشَاءُ. (رواه ابو داود)

(1854/148) It is narrated by Safinah رضي الله عنها that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "The Caliphate i.e., Leadership of the government in accordance with the rules, standards and practices of Messenger ﷺ will only last for thirty years. After it, the Lord will bestow Kingship upon whosoever He likes."

(Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It had been revealed to the holy Prophet ﷺ that, among his followers, the system of government based, as far as possible, upon his ideals principles and course of conduct was going to endure only for 30 years after him and then monarchy would be established. The prediction proved to be true to the letter. Within thirtieth year of the Prophet's ﷺ death, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه was assassinated. After him his eldest son, Sayyidina Hasan رضي الله عنه, became the Caliph, and in a few months, he made peace with Sayyidina Muawiya رضي الله عنه for the sake of ringing to an end the civil war among the Muslims, and relinquished Caliphate in his favour. If the few months of Sayyidina Hasan's ﷺ rule, too were included, it would make full thirty years. The Caliphate on the lines of Messengership, or Khilafat Rahsida, which has been described as Caliphate of Messengership in this Tradition, thus lasted only for 30 years, after which things began to change and gradually Caliphate took the form of Kingship.

Like the other prophecies of the holy Prophet ﷺ, this Tradition too is regarded a miracle of his, and a clear sign of his Messengership.

Proper Way of Counselling Kings And Rulers

(١٨٥٥/١٤٩) عَنْ عِيَّاضِ بْنِ غُنْمٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يُنْصَحَ لِدَيِّ سُلْطَانٍ بِأَمْرٍ فَلَا يَنْذِلْهُ عَلَانِيَةً وَلَكِنْ لِيَأْخُذَ بِيَدِهِ فَيُخْلُو بِهِ فَإِنْ قَبِلَ مِنْهُ فَذَاكَ وَإِلَّا كَانَ قَدْ آدَى الدِّيَّ عَلَيْهِ. (رواه احمد)

(1855/149) It is narrated by Ayaad ibn Ghunm ؓ that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Whoever wants to give advice to a ruler should not do so publicly, i.e., in the presence of others, but taking his hands, he should tell him what he wants in privacy. Now, if he accepts the advice, well and good and if he does not, the adviser will have done his duty." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary Prudence will demand that advice tendered, particularly to those who occupy a high position and have the power to affect others in privacy. it will evoke trust in them and make them feel that the person giving the advice is a sincere well-wisher and has no axe to grind. On the contrary, if the advice is given in the presence of others, the person spoken to may feel hurt and humiliated and his reaction may be the worse of what is described.

The Tyranny of Rulers is The Result of Our Own Evildoing, And A Punishment From Allah

(١٨٥٦/١٥٠) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَعَالَى يَقُولُ أَنَا إِلَهٌ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا مَالِكُ الْمُلُوكِ وَمَلِكُ الْمُلُوكِ قُلُوبُ

الْمُلُوكِ فِي يَدَيَّ وَإِنَّ الْعِبَادَ إِذَا أَطَاعُونِي حَوَّلْتُ قُلُوبَ مُلُوكِهِمْ عَلَيْهِمْ
بِالرَّحْمَةِ وَالرَّأْفَةِ وَإِنَّ الْعِبَادَ إِذَا عَصَوْنِي حَوَّلْتُ قُلُوبَهُمْ بِالسُّخْطَةِ وَالنَّقْمَةِ
فَسَامُوهُمْ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ فَلَا تُشْغِلُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ بِالذُّعَاءِ عَلَى الْمُلُوكِ وَلَكِنْ
اشْغِلُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ بِالذِّكْرِ وَالتَّضَرُّعِ كَرِهَ أَكْفِيَكُمْ مُلُوكَكُمْ.

(رواه ابو نعيم في الحلية)

(1856/150) It is narrated by Abu Darda رضي الله عنه that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "God says: "I, alone, am God, and there is no Deity save Me. I am the King of Kings, the Lord of the Lords. The hearts of the sovereigns of the world are in my Plan, (and), (My practice is) that when My bondsmen obey Me, I incline the hearts of their rulers with love and compassion towards them and when they take to the path of transgression and disobedience, I turn the hearts of their rulers with anger and punishment against them, and then, they oppress them severely. Thus, do not engage yourselves in cursing the ruler, but turn to Me in remembrance and earnest repentance so that I may suffice for you in deliverance from the tyranny and despotism of the rulers."

(Abu Na'eem)

Commentary: For everything that takes place in the world, good or evil, there are some apparent and some hidden reasons. In this Tradition, the holy Prophet ﷺ had declared, in the words of the Lord Himself, that the type of rulers people get, and the way they govern is, in fact, the outcome of their own deeds and actions. The standing command and proclamation of the Supreme Being, the Author of all things, is that "I am the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords. The hearts of the rulers are in My control, and My practice is that when people, on the whole lead a life of submission and obedience, I produce affection and benevolence for them in the hearts of their rulers, while if they, in general, take to the path of intersigence and wrong doing, I give rise to feelings of anger and cruelty in their rulers hearts. In fact, it is My Wrath and Displeasure, and the rulers are, only, the instruments. So, when the rulers are unjust and cruel, do not curse them as it will avail nothing, but remember Me, feel genuinely sorry for your misdeeds, seek My forgiveness, and reform your ways. It is the only way to obtain relief from oppression and injustice of the rulers."

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

PREFACE (TO THE URDU)

(By: Mawlana Muhammad Zakariya Sanbhali, Teacher of Hadith at Dar ul-Uloom Nadwat ul-Ulama, Lucknow)

الحمد لله رب العلمين والصلوة والسلام على سيدنا محمد
وعلى اله وصحبه اجمعين

The first volume of Ma'ariful Hadith was published in 1373 AH while this last (8th) is being published in 1421 AH, four years after the death of its compiler Mawlana Muhammad Manzoor Nu'mani. The delay in compiling it was caused by the illness of the Mawlana and his religious occupations. The 7th volume was published in 1402 AH, which means that there is a gap of nineteen years between the 7th and 8th.

In the first volume of Ma'ariful Hadith (which was the Kitab ul-Eeman) those Ahadith were presented which the scholars of Hadith include in the chapters of Faith in their books. These Ahadith are about faith and matters related to it and are presented here in a particular angle and order and are then explained. Ahadith concerning qiyamat (the Day of Resurrection) and Hereafter, Paradise and Hell, etc. are also included in this volume because they also concern faith and belief.

In the second volume, Ahadith are presented from the Kitab al-Riqaq and Kitab al-Akhlaq. The word riqaq means softening of hearts and this section includes the sayings, sermons, actions, conditions and events in the life of Allah's Messenger ﷺ which soften the heart. The Ahadith on Zuhd (piety) are included in the same section. These promote a disinclination for the world and a fear of the Hereafter. Riqaq and Zuhd have a very close relationship with Eeman and Ihsan, so they are presented just after the Kitab ul-Eeman.

In the Kitab ul-Akhlaq (Book of Manners) those Ahadith are presented first which disclose the importance of good manners in Islam and how bad a crime bad manners are. Then follow Ahadith on the different branches of good manners. They are generosity, kindness, self-sacrifice, mutual affinity, religious fraternity, mildness and polite speech, truthfulness, humility, modesty, patience and gratitude, sincerity and devotion. Then the Ahadith are mentioned that condemn bad manners and its different branches.

The third volume includes Kitab Ut-Taharah and Kitab as-Salah. The former comprises of Ahadith that place importance on purification and condemn impurity, and Ahadith on the different sections of purity like istinja (obstersion), wudu (ablution), bath, tayammum (dry ablution), etc.

Kitab as-Salah includes a section on significance of Salah (prayers), times of Salah, again congregational Salah, importance of mosque, correct observance of salah, prayers apart from the five prescribed times Friday, ed, on eclipse and drought, janazah (funeral), etc. In addition to the rules, there are Ahadith on the manner of the Prophet ﷺ observance of salah.

The fourth volume comprises Kitab az-Zakah, Kitab us-Sawm, and Kitab ul-Hajj. The Kitab uz-Zakah begins with an article by the Mawlana on the importance of Zakah. It also points out that the companions ؓ had agreed that jihad and fighting should be made against the rejectors of Zakah and this was the first unanimous ijtihad (interpretation of law) of the ummah. Thereafter, Ahadith are presented on importance of Zakah on, injunctions concerning it and on optional charity.

Kitab us-Sawm begins with an article on the special position of fasting among the four duties in Islam. This is flowed by Ahadith on merits of Ramadan and fasting therein, injunctions, i'tikaf (seclusion), taraweeh salah and optional fasts.

A brief introduction of Hajj begins the Kitab ul-Hajj telling us about the pilgrimage which is an imitation of the rites performed by Sayyidina Ibrahim ؑ. Then Ahdith follow. They are on the obligation and merits of Hajj and on precautions which the pilgrims must observe. Then the Ahadith are mentioned on injunctions which if read carefully give a full picture of Hajj, on the Hajj performed by Allah's Messenger ﷺ which is called Hajjat ul-Wada (Farewell Pilgrimage) and finally on the merits of the Harmayn (the two sacred mosques) the Rawdah (the grave of the Prophet ﷺ) and visit to it.

The fifth volume is entitled Kitab al-Azkar wa ad Da'wat. It is made up of supplications, words of remembrance, repentance and seeking Allah's forgiveness and recital of the Qur'an, and it shows their position in religion, their merit and etiquette.

The truth is that no other book (apart from those in Arabic language) presents such a heart warming introduction to these subjects as this does.

The subject-matter is preceded by a brief Foreword by Mawlana Nu'mani highlighting a particular aspect of the supplication of Allah's Messenger ﷺ. It is that his supplications are evidence of his prophethood and we can invite non-Muslims to Islam by pointing this out to them. This is also instrumental in satisfying the Muslim heart. The Ahadith in this volume reflect upon the merits and blessings of Zikr (remembrance) of Allah, virtues of certain particular words of remembrance, reality of supplication and its etiquette. This is followed by prayers of the Prophet ﷺ on different occasions, and the book concludes with Ahadith on invocations on the Prophet ﷺ and the different forms and words of invocation on him.

The sixth volume has within its two covers Ahadith on social manners, family life and rights of different people. The Mawlana has stressed in the Foreword the importance of rules of social life and giving right of fellow-men. He has warned of punishment that awaits those who lag behind in this regard. In fact, apart from rights of society, there are Ahadith on rights of animals too. The discussion then centres round etiquette of meeting people and of assemblies encompassing salam (greetings), handshake, embracing, entering the house, mutual conversation, laughing, humour, sneezing and yawning, eating, drinking and clothing. The last includes hijab (veil) and how much of a person's body need be covered. The seventh volume continues the subject of social living like marriage and divorce, economic factors, culture and everyday issues. These are explained in detail. The sphere of Kitab ul-Mu'amlat (mutual dealings) is very wide. There are Ahadith on benefits of lawful earnings, on inauspiciousness of unlawful livelihood and interests or usury and on buying and selling.

The subject extends to gifts and merits thereof, waqf (endowment) in the cause of Allah, discharge of justice, management of government, etc.

Now, the eighth volume is in your hands. Its first content is Kitab ul-Ilm made up of the Prophet's Ahadith on the worth and merit of religious knowledge, and on the ultimate fate of those who seek religious knowledge with worldly ends in mind or who do not put their religious knowledge into practice.

Next after Kitab ul-Ilm is *Kitab ul-I'tisam bil Kitab wa as-Sunnah*¹ (firm attachment with the Book of Allah and the Prophet's sunnah and it includes staying away from bid'ah or innovative practices). The Prophet's ﷺ Ahadith in this regard are explained in detail and difference between sunnah and bid'ah is pointed out. The position of Sunnah and the need to observe it as rigidly as the Book of Allah are also mentioned.

There are, therefore, Ahadith on 'commanding good and forbidding the disapproved,' showing the reward that awaits those who walk this path, and the account-taking from those who shun it although they have the ability to discharge this duty. There are also Ahadith on the merits of jihad as an effective tool to command the good. The honourable author has penned down an effective essay on jihad in the light of the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Kitab ul-Fitan follows. It includes Ahadith on the future plight of the ummah through depletion of religious knowledge and trials. This is, as it were, an admonition to the ummah to be ready to protect themselves from the trials before they face them. The ummah may try to create conditions that are not conducive to depletion of knowledge etc. But, if they happen to face such a situation then they are shown how they may tackle it. This kitab also includes signs of the last day. Thus Ahadith in this section also tell us about the mischief of dajjal, coming of Imam Mahdi ﷺ and descent of Sayidina Isa ﷺ. These Ahadith are explained very well so that they view of the ahl ul-Sunnah is vouchsafed and the false notions are rejected. There is an excellent exposition of the belief of ahl us-sunnah correct in relation to the shi'a beliefs about Imam Mahdi عليه السلام. There is also a clear rejection of the Qadyani's baseless ideas about Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. It is very essential to study this in order to counter the Qadyani mischief throughout the world. Indeed, it would benefit the scholars, too.

①. Book of Holding Fast to The Qur'an & The Sunnah

Kitab ul-Manaqib and fada'il follows. It includes the Prophet's sayings on the excellentes of some people and their virtues which Allah revealed to the Prophet ﷺ and his high station which Ahadith he has related in order to proclaim Allah's favours on him or to let the ummah know the truth.

There are Ahadith, and explanation thereof, on the subject of his birth, commissioning and age. The scholarly angle of the discussion should help the students of higher classes and, in fact, the ulama too.

There also are Ahadith on the Prophet's ﷺ excellent manners, his illness and death. His valuable instructions on death bed illness are also mentioned.

Ahadith on the virtues of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه are also reproduced and explained. They also mention him as the Khalifah of Allah's Messenger ﷺ. Then, Sayyidina Umar's رضي الله عنه virtues are mentioned and these Ahadith are explained. They are followed by Ahadith on the virtues of both these Sahabah (companions) together.

Next are Ahadith on the virtues of the Prophet's ﷺ two sons-in-law. Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه respectively Ahadith on the virtues of the rightly guided caliphs are in the order of their succession to that office and also the rank and station they are held in by the ahl us-sunnah. The wrong notions held by the Shia about Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه are also rejected in easy and clear to understand language.

They are followed by the Ahadith on the virtues of the remaining six companions of the ashrah mubashshirat (the ten who were given glad tidings). They are: Sayyidina Talhah, Zubayr, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas, Sa'eed ibn Zayd and Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضي الله عنه. The Ahadith are then explained.

The virtues of the ahl-bayt nabavi (Prophet's household) come after that. Here are included the noble wives and the noble daughters of the Prophet ﷺ. The Mawlana has discussed the word ahl bayt from a high scholarly angle. Here, the Mawlana could compile Ahadith on only these Mothers رضى الله عنهن of the Faithful: Sayidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها, Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها. This much, too, he could execute after long delays because of numerous reasons and illnesses. Only Allah knows how he did it and He will reward him in accordance with His Exalted station.

After that, the Mawlana instructed me to complete this work. Although this is a great honour for me yet if he had finished the task himself then reader would not have detected the difference they now observe.

The Mawlana's knowledge and understanding enabled him to present the most difficult of subjects in very simple, easy to understand manner. Allah had blessed him with that. It seemed as though it was a representation of النَّالَةُ الْحَدِيدَ

{And We softened for him iron} (Saba, 34:10)

As for me, I cannot hope to match that.

In the begining, I wrote down my work and showed it to him but even that soon became difficult because of his illness. So, the merits of the remaining wives of the Prophet ﷺ, all his daughters and other people of his house are penned down by me. After that I have mentioned the companions ﷺ.

I have selected the companions and the sequence of listing them according to how they are known and according to the frame of my mind. It is very possible that some of those whom I have not mentioned may happen to be of a higher status than those I have selected.

It has been the Mawlana's practice that he concluded his Preface to the Ma'riful Hadith with these instructions.

"The Prophet's Ahadith should not be studied merely to gain the knowledge. Rather, it should be done to refresh one's faith and to seek guidance for one's deeds. At the same time, one must arouse love for Allah's Messenger ﷺ and his greatness. One must read the Ahadith as though one is seated in the Prophet's assembly and he speaks while the rest listen to him. If we do that, the heart and soul will certainly get some share of the light and blessing and the faithful conditions that were the lot of those fortunate people of the Prophet's ﷺ time whom Allah had favoured with opportunity to listen to him directly and gain spiritual wealth therefrom.

I have seen my teachers and religious elders perform ablution out of respect before undertaking lessons in Ahadith, or pursuing them. May Allah enable me and readers of this book to observe this part of the etiquette."

I believe that if the Maulana had written this Preface then he would have repeated the foregoing two paragraphs in this volume too. So, I request readers to observe the Maulana's instructions.

وآخر دعوانا ان الحمد لله رب العلمين

FOREWORD

PERFECTION OF 'MA'ARIF'

ربنا لك الحمد

(O Our Lord, praise belongs to You)

The 'Ma'arif ul-Hadith has been completed. Allah Ta'ala has favoured us by enabling us to publish the last volume. The writing down of this book commenced in 1361 AH (1942 CE). Allah put down in the heart of one of His slaves that just as someone was of service to the Qur'an in the Urdu language according to the needs of this time so too the Hadith should be served keeping needs of these times in mind. The thought proved to be auspicious and Divine enablement helped along. In spite of long intervals, the series was carried on and in 1373 AH (1954 CE), the first volume was brought out. Thus, with long and short intervals — for, the compiler Maulana عليه الرحمة found little time to sit still and compile the work the subsequent volumes did turn out until in 1402 AH (1982 CE) the seventh was published. But, this eighth took a lot of time, a delay of twenty years, so that even the traveller lost his life, meanwhile. But, finally, it did arrive!

In short, this last volume is being published after the death of the compiler (1417 AH, 1997CE). If he were alive to see this volume out, only Allah knows in what words he would have shown gratefulness to Him. What would have been his sentiments in writing down this Foreword? There could hardly be any of his readers who would not have realised that Allah had bestowed the Mawlana with a high sense of gratefulness. Just as he wrote of himself as 'worthless and humble', in practical life too, he regarded himself just that! Hence, whenever he accomplished a task, he considered that as Allah's favour and offered deep gratitude. To be thankful was the cherished food of his soul and if he had lived to see this work completed, he would have seized the opportunity of being thankful. He wrote in the Preface to the Fourth volume that in every era and according to the needs of time and people, Allah has enabled lovers of Hadith to be of service to it. Then, in acknowledgement of his being able to put in some effort he praised and thanked Allah in these words:

"The tongue is unable to thank Allah who caused His unworthy and sinful slave to join those people who have done some service to Hadith. Glory be to Allah, even a poor old woman had the opportunity to stand in the queue with her life savings yarn spun by herself as one of the contenders! Praise belongs to You, O Lord!"

..... Anyway, thanks are offered to Allah thousands of times that we did not let His slave's task to go unaccomplished but caused the Mawlana's successors to finish it and be thankful:

اعْمَلُوا آلَ دَاوُدَ شُكْرًا (سورة سبأ ۱۳:۳۴)

{O Household of Dawood! Work you with thanks!} (Saba, 34:13)

Praise belongs to You, O our Lord!

Some of the reasons for the delay in completing the book are worth mention. Apart from unsound health in the four years 1982 to 1986 CE, he had to face extraordinary emergent tasks. There were some problems in the Dar ul-Uloom, Deoband, of whose council he was a member. When that was solved to some extent, the Islamic world faced a revolution at the hands of Ayatullah Khumayni and the Mawlana had to do what his age and health did not allow: He engaged in constant research for a complete year to prepare a book that every literate Muslim might have seen.¹

In 1986, however, he resumed work on Ma'arif ul-Hadith. But the speed of work was much slow. There were too many breaks and a complete year's break in 1990. Something was done in 1991-92 but since 1993 onwards there was a complete suspension of work. No more was there strength. The traveller struggled to cover the ground, the last few steps, and die at the destination. The last chapter of the book was almost complete but two years were lost in hope. The will of the Creator has its own secrets. It was destined that the final touches be put by Mawlana Muhammad

①. Irani Inqilab Imam Khumayni aur Shi'at.

Zakariya and the Mawlana gave up hopes of finishing the book himself so entrusted to him in 1995. He was the most suitable of our family members to take over this task. He did complete the work.

A glance at the contents of this last volume told me how terrible the Mawlana may have felt at being unable to complete it. The last chapter begins with the virtues of the Prophet ﷺ the four Khalifas, the Mothers of the faithful and the Prophet's offspring ending, with the cream of the companions رضي الله عنهم. This last volume is made up of four books but the last of these is twice the length of the remaining three. One who reads it seems to travel through Paradise. For, he reads about the beginnings of prophethood, about his rank in the sight of Allah and about meeting him on the day of Gathering, about his intercession, his sermons, his leadership in Salah and in governance, about his lofty manners and praiseworthy qualities which are a practical example of the Qur'an, and, finally, about his departure from this world to companion of High. The readers also read about the caliphs, their ranks in the sight of the Prophet ﷺ, their nearness to him and their characteristics. Then, the lives of the remaining six companions are traced to make up the ten who were given the glad tidings of Paradise. They are the respected men: Talha رضي الله عنه, Sa'eed ibn Zubayr رضي الله عنه, Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضي الله عنه. Then, the reader is told about the pure life of the People of his house — his wives and children; that is his family life. In the end, some memorable events are narrated of these great people which are reproduced from the chapters of Manaqib in the Books of Sahah.

In short, the author must surely have gone through much mental agony on being unable to pen down these final but faith reviving parts of his book. He could not write beyond the virtues of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها but that was Divine Will.

Let not these lines leave an impression that this chapter contains life events alone. There are important issues too which are treated herein. In the portion describing the Prophet's final illness and death there is also a scholarly discussion on Hadith Qirtas, also the issue of the Khalifat of the Prophet ﷺ which distinguishes the limits of shiasm and sunnism.

There are other discussions. The pattern of this volume is not different from the previous and the reader will throughout come across scholarly diversions which provide the answer without going into cumbersome debates. A disputed point is not presented as such and a reader who is not aware of differences of opinion on an issue will not even realise that he has read a solution to it. It is like a doctor treating a patient without letting him realise that his illness was mortal. In fact, the author had himself touched on this point in the third volume in its foreword he had said:

"The aim before me in translating and explaining Ahadith in this volume is the same that had motivated me in the first two volumes. It is that the minds of the age should comprehend the greatness of the Prophet's ﷺ teachings and be moved to abide by them and they should receive their portion of light as the companions رضي الله عنهم had from his teachings. Hence, I have by-passed purely technical and scholarly debates intentionally and have sufficed to mention the spirit and aim of the Hadith as best as I could and to observe the method of Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه in describing the main point and wisdom where necessary."

The third volume had Ahadith about Salah. Under this subject, there are many juristic and disputed issues but the author — the honourable Mawlana — has tried to keep away from a discussion even here. His words are:

"In order to save readers from mental confusion and exertion, I have done my best to refrain from debate-style arguments even where something had to be said."

Some More Peculiarities:

As already stated, this series of Ma'arif ul-Hadith is a selection of Ahadith on the basis of present-day needs. The other peculiarity is the sequence and arrangement of the Ahadith selected. In every chapter, the Ahadith are placed in such a sequence that if one Hadith contains something that should be elaborated upon and there is another that elaborates it then they are placed together, the explanatory following the one that is explained. Thus, the need to explain the Hadith separately is done away with but if that is necessary then a short note is found to be enough. The Mawlana did this very adeptly. He has written in the foreword to the third volume:

"The Ahadith were selected and put in arrangement after much contemplation. Those who have an insight on Ahadith and who are aware of present day demands on learning and religion will observe that, besides translation and explanation, the selection of Ahadith and their arrangement by themselves became a task."

Even the translation and explanation of Ahadith is a peculiar kind of service to Hadith. The peculiarity lies in the selection of words of translation and style of writing to suit the demands of time. The same foreword spoke about it thus:

"The most significant peculiarity of our times is that man's way of thinking and scholastic temperament are influenced very much by the advancement in western learning and ideology. Therefore, there lies a responsibility on the trustees of the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ to present those teachings to the masses keeping in mind the changes and demands of the twentieth century.

Apart from that, the provision of appropriate headings has made it very easy for the present mind to understand Ahadith. The headings by themselves convey the message of the Ahadith. Another feature which is helpful to all readers but more so to the scholars are the initial introductory notes to every chapter. These are helpful in understanding the Ahadith in the chapter and prepare the mind to comprehend what follows. These notes are more helpful when the subject concerns a field beyond our experiences and observation in this world. These subjects are among those things that have been ridiculed by the western mind. The notes do not question the western thought. They merely arouse the simple nature in man whereby he should not find difficulty in understanding and believing in the sayings of the Prophets عليهم السلام. If man's nature has lost ability to accept Truth then no argument can be helpful. These notes are also a complete example of ما قل وما دل (what is said and what is pointed out). They are a mirror of the honourable Mawlana's ability and insight.

However, the Mawlana does not take credit for the distinguishing features of the book. He leaves that for Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه. The Mawlana was exceptionally influenced by the two great pious men of India: Shaykh Muhammad Sarhandi, Mujaddid Alf Thani رحمه الله عليه (1034 AH) and Shah Waliullah رحمه الله عليه Dehlavi (1176 AH). In the very beginning of his magazine al-Furqan which was launched in 1934 corresponding to 1353 AH, he published two special numbers (editions) on each of these two righteous men. The Mawlana has been influenced by these two pious men in all fields of his life but we may say about the Ma'ariful Hadith that it bears a stamp of Shah Waliullah's influence. The same may be said of his work Irani Inqilab, Imam Khumaini aur Shi'at that it bears the stamp of the Mujaddid. We have seen a hint to the influence of Shah Waliullah on Ma'ariful Hadith in the foregoing selection from the third volume. In the same volume at the same place, he refers to Shah Waliullah's Hujjat ullah al Baligah and says,

"(In my view,) the material that is found in this book to convince the minds of our times is not found in any other book of the libraries of Islamic world."

And he goes on to say:

"Since I have kept before me the twentieth century in mind and the peculiarities of this era in writing the exposition of Hadith in this series so relative to other commentaries, I have borrowed more from Hujjatullah al-Baligah."

The singular position of Shah Waliullah and his book is recognised by scholars but, generally, this book is regarded as a work on Islamic philosophy. It was for the first time that the book's value above all other expositions of Ahadith was known through the pages of Ma'ariful Hadith. This means that the respected Mawlana is not only attached naturally and deeply to the philosophy of Shah Waliullah but he was careful also to go deep into the labyrinth of the sciences.

I do not possess the ability to pass judgement on the Ma'ariful Hadith and confirm that the Mawlana had the insight into those sciences. This is for someone well-versed in the philosophy of Shah Waliullah to examine the Ma'arif and pass judgement. However, I can cite as evidence an endeavour by the Mawlana to master these sciences. When Mawlana Ubaydullah Sindhi رحمه الله عليه was allowed to return to India after being exiled, he visited us very soon thereafter in 1939 or 1940 when we resided in Bareli and I was about 12 years old. He resided with us many days. The background was that Mawlana Muhammad Manzoor Nu'mani رحمه الله عليه (my father) had met Mawlana Ubaydullah Sindhi رحمه الله عليه at a function in a Madrassah and had learnt that he was well-versed in Shah Waliullah's philosophy. So, my father requested him for an appointment to get explanation from him of some portions of the Hujjatullah al-Balighah which he could not fathom well. Mawlana Sindhi had promised to visit him in Bareli and discuss the book. This incident is evidence of the Mawlana's (my father's) deep interest in Shah Waliullah's philosophy. Anyway, this was also an example of the well going up to the thirsty! ¹

Therefore, apart from other things, it is a distinction of this book that all the Ahadith have been explained in the light of the philosophy of Shah Waliullah. We can thus say that it is a new kind of experience in teaching Ahadith which has the means of curing the mind of our times. In fact, there is an aspect of the light and guidance of the Hujjatullah about which the respected compiler رحمه الله عليه has lamented that our religious institutions neglect it. Further, though he had learnt at these very institutions yet he could reconcile himself to abide by this above guidance when he wrote down this book. He lamented in these words in the third volume:

"The method employed by Shah Waliullah in this book to explain the Ahadith and disclose the wisdom thereof is enough to convince the modern mind. The second peculiarity is that it brings to lime light the juristic and interpretive differences of the juristis and scholars of this ummah so that it becomes

-
- ①. Talking of Bareli makes me think that my father had much consideration for the modern mind and he was also careful to accommodate it as far as possible. This was perhaps the result of his fourteen year residence in Bareli. Our stay in Bareli was at a place where only two or three families of relatives resided close by. All of them were connected in some way to the elite of Deoband but had been educated in English-medium schools and colleges. There were among them professors, teachers and government officers. In contrast, my father was a preacher who had first hand opportunity to study the mind of this strata of society. And he found the remedy of this illness in the thought of Shah Waliullah.

obvious that the different approaches of the scholars are but branches of the same tree, or tributaries of a single large river. The source is one and there is no contradiction or real dispute. It is sad that our institutions of learning have not yet adopted the Waliullah approach although that is the most appropriate blessing of Allah for these modern times."

In other words, search for common ground in the varying opinions of our scholars is that to which Shah Waliullah has guided us. The Mawlana then used this opinion in this book when he came across those differences in explaining the Ahadith herein. He has thus shown practically how we can benefit from Shah Waliullah's guidance.

Turning now to the peculiarities of this book, it is its simple approach which allows people to benefit from it in large numbers. However, there is also a strong fear that this same simple approach may have become a barrier for our scholars who do not seek from it the advantage that is possible to gain although the brain-taxing book the Hujjatullah is its basic source, and the author himself is, without doubt, a widely learned and farsighted scholar of his times. In truth, this book is useful and worthwhile for the common scholar, and it is deserving of study. It is an essence of the knowledge of the last individual of his kind, and is preserved in the shape of this book. Surely, praise belongs to Allah!

The book does not only provide authentic explanation of more than two thousand Ahadith thereby removing the obstacles between the soul-natured modern-educated section and the Prophet's Ahadith, but the arrangement of the selection is tantamount to an exposition of the entire religion so that it is seen as one natural religion. We can hand it over to anyone so that he may learn Islam as a religion from Allah. Having said that, we will not be exaggerating in the least that a man who is thus introduced to the true religion will acknowledge in his heart that success lies under the feet of the unlettered Prophet, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ.

The Petitinoer before Allah the son of the compiler
Ateeq
London, 5 Muharram 1422 AH
(31 March, 2001)

كتاب العلم

KITABUL ILM

BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

According to religious terminology and usage in Qur'an and Hadith, knowledge is only that which Allah has sent down through His Prophets عليهم السلام for the guidance of mankind.

The first obligation on man, after he has believed in Allah's Prophet and Messenger and his mission, is to try to learn and find out the teachings and guidance of the Prophet, and the do's and don'ts. The entire edifice of religion depends on this knowledge. Hence, the first obligation after Eeman (or belief) is to learn it and teach it.

The learning and teaching may be accomplished by oral conversation and observation as the Companions رضي الله عنهم did in the times of the Prophet ﷺ and the immediate years after his death. They acquired all their knowledge in this manner. They heard the Prophet's ﷺ sayings, observed his deeds and actions, or acquired it in the same manner from those of his companions رضي الله عنهم who had benefitted from him.

The same may be said of the knowledge of most of the Tabi'een رحمة الله عليهم (the successors of the Companions رضي الله عنهم). They received it through companionship and hearing.

Knowledge may also be acquired through reading and writing, and books. This had become the method of imparting knowledge in times thereafter. Books were read and prescribed, as they are today.

Allah's Messenger ﷺ has said, "It is fard (an absolute obligation) for every man who believes in me as Allah's Messenger and accepts Allah's religion, Islam, to acquire necessary knowledge of religion." The Prophet ﷺ also said that the effort of a man in acquiring this knowledge is a kind of jihad in the path of Allah and a means to attaining nearness to Him. He also said that neglect in this regard and carelessness was a punishable crime. This knowledge is a legacy of the Prophets عليهم السلام, particularly Allah's Messenger and it is the dearest and most precious asset of the universe. Thus, the fortunate ones who acquire it and give its rights are indeed heirs of the Prophets عليهم السلام. All creatures, including the angels in the heavens, the ants on earth and fish in the oceans, love them and pray for them. Allah, the Exalted, has created them with that nature. As for those people who use this sacred legacy of the Prophets عليهم السلام for wrong ends, they are the worst criminals who deserve Divine displeasure and wrath.

نَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ شَرِّهِ وَنَعُوذُ بِأَعْمَالِنَا

(We seek refuge in Allah from the mischief of our souls and from our evil deeds.)

After this brief introduction, let us now read the following Ahadith of Allah's Messenger ﷺ on the subject of knowledge and learning and teaching.

It is Fard For Every Muslim To Seek & Acquire Knowledge

(١٨٥٧/١) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَبُ الْعِلْمِ
فَرِيضَةٌ عَلَى كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ

رواه البيهقي في شعب الايمان وابن عدى في الكامل ورواه الطبراني في الاوسط عن
ابن عباس وفي الكبير والاولى عن ابى مسعود وابى سعيد وفي الصغير عن الحسين
(1/1857) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "To seek knowledge and acquire it is fard (an obligation) on every Muslim."

(Bayhaqi in Sha'b ul-Eeman, Ibn Adi in Kamil. Tabarani has reported it in Mu'jam Awsat on the authority of Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, and in Mu'jam Kabir and Mu'jam Awsat on the authority of Abu Mas'ood رضي الله عنه and Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه, and in Mu'jam Saghir on the authority of Sayyidina Husayn رضي الله عنه.)¹

①. Kanz ul-Ummal, v5 p200. Jama'al-Fawa'id, v1 p40. Though this Hadith is very famous and even the layman can be heard (continued on next page.)

Commentary: A Muslim is one who has accepted the religion of Islam, and he resolves to live according to Islamic teachings and guidance. This can only be possible if he acquires the necessary information about Islam. Hence, it is fard — in fact, the first obligation — for every Believer and Muslim that he should acquire that much knowledge as is necessary. This is the only message of the Hadith, and, as we have stated earlier, this knowledge may also be acquired only through conversation, listening and companionship, and through other means of education too. Anyway, the Hadith does not mean to say that it is fard for every Muslim to become a scholar, but, all it means is that a man should derive that much knowledge as is necessary for him to spend his life according to Islam.

In some books, this Hadith has the additional word مسلمة after the words كل مسلم. However, it has been confirmed that the addition of مسلمة is neither proved nor correct. The word Muslim embraces both male and female Muslims.

Those Who Do Not Know Religion Must Learn From Those Who Know & They Must Teach Them

عَنْ أَبِى الزُّرَّاعِىِّ وَالِدِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ قَالَ خَطَبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ فَأَتْنِى عَلَى طَوَائِفٍ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ خَيْرًا، ثُمَّ قَالَ مَا بَالُ أَقْوَامٍ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ جِيرانَهُمْ وَلَا يَعْلَمُونَهُمْ وَلَا يَعْظُونَهُمْ وَلَا يَأْمُرُونَهُمْ

(Continued from previous page...) quoting it and it is reported in many books of Hadith from different Companions رضى الله عنهم (and its message allows for no doubt about its authenticity) yet it is surprising that none of its lines of transmission is sound on the standard of the muhadditheen (scholars of Hadith). Each sanad (line of transmission) is weak and all the earlier muhadditheen classified it as da'eef (weak).

Nevertheless, Hafiz Suyuti has said, "I have found about fifty different lines of transmission of this Hadith in the books of Hadith and have collected them. So, because of the plenty of sources, I classify it as Saheeh (authentic) although my predecessor muhadditheen have classified it as weak."

Hafiz Sakhawi has said that Ibn Shaheen has reported this Hadith on the authority of Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه on a sanad all whose narrators are reliable (so that the Hadith is Saheeh even on the Standard of the muhadditheen)

(a'zab al-mawarid fi takhreej jama' al-fawa'id, reference: Fayad al-Qadeer v4 p268)

وَلَا يَنْهَوْنَهُمْ وَمَا بَالُ أَقْوَامٍ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ مِنْ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَلَا يَتَفَقَّهُونَ وَلَا يَعْظُونَ،
وَاللَّهُ لَيَعْلَمَنَّ قَوْمَ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَيَفْقَهُونَهُمْ وَيَعْظُونَهُمْ وَيَأْمُرُونَهُمْ وَيَنْهَوْنَهُمْ
وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ قَوْمٌ مِنْ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَيَتَفَقَّهُونَ وَيَعْظُونَ أَوْ لَا عَاجِلَ لَهُمْ بِالْعُقُوبَةِ فِي
دَارِ الدُّنْيَا..... ثُمَّ نَزَلَ فَدَخَلَ بَيْتَهُ فَقَالَ قَوْمٌ مَنْ تَرَوْنَهُمْ عَنِي بِهِؤُلَاءِ؟
فَقَالُوا نَرَاهُ عَنِي بِهِ الْأَشْعَرِيِّينَ، هُمْ قَوْمٌ فَقَهَاءٌ وَلَهُمْ جِيرَانٌ جُفَاءَةٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْمِيَاهِ
وَالْأَغْرَابِ..... فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ الْأَشْعَرِيِّينَ، فَاتُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
فَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ذَكَرْتَ قَوْمًا بِخَيْرٍ وَذَكَرْتَنَا بِشَرٍّ فَمَا بَالُنَا؟ فَقَالَ لَيَعْلَمَنَّ
قَوْمُ جِيرَانِهِمْ وَلَيَفْقَهُنَّ وَلَيَعْظُنَّهُمْ وَلَيَأْمُرُنَّهُمْ وَلَيَنْهَيْنَهُمْ وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ قَوْمٌ مِنْ
جِيرَانِهِمْ وَيَتَفَقَّهُونَ وَيَتَفَقَّهُونَ أَوْ لَا عَاجِلَ لَهُمْ بِالْعُقُوبَةِ فِي دَارِ الدُّنْيَا فَقَالُوا
يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَبْطِرْ غَيْرَنَا؟ فَأَعَادَ قَوْلَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَاعَادُوا قَوْلَهُمْ أَبْطِرْ غَيْرَنَا؟
فَقَالَ ذَلِكَ أَيْضًا، فَقَالُوا أَمَهِلْنَا سَنَةً فَأَمَهِلَهُمْ سَنَةً لِيَفْقَهُوهُمْ وَيَعْلَمُوهُمْ
وَيَعْظُوهُمْ ثُمَّ قرأ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، لَعْنِ الدِّينِ كَفَرُوا مِنْ بَنِي
إِسْرَائِيلَ عَلَى لِسَانِ دَاوُدَ وَعِيسَى بْنِ مَرْيَمَ ذَلِكَ بِمَا عَصَوْا وَكَانُوا يَعْتَدُونَ
○ كَانُوا لَا يَتَنَاهَوْنَ عَنْ مُنْكَرٍ فَعَلُوهُ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ○ (المائدة ٧٨: ٧٩)

رواه ابن راهويه والبخارى في الواحidan وابن السكن وابن مندة والطبراني في الكبير
(2/1858) Sayyidina Abza al-Khuza'ee رحمته الله, father of the well-known companion, Abdur Rahman رحمته الله, has reported that one day Allah's Messenger رحمته الله spoke (from the minbar of the mosque). He praised a party of Muslims (for they discharged their responsibilities well.) He then said (while warning and rebukng other groups of Muslims), "What is wrong with those people (and what excuse do they have) who do not explain and teach religion to their neighbours (the Muslims who are not familiar with religion), and they do not admonish them, and they do not command the approved and forbid that which is wrong?" (He also said,) "And what is wrong with those people (and what excuse do they have who are not familiar with religiojn and its injunctions) who do not try to learn religion, to gain an understanding and to benefit from the admonition of their neighbours (the Muslims who have acquired an understanding and knowledge of religion)?" (He then emphasised on oath saying,) "The people (who have knowledge of religion) must surely try to teach religion to their neighbours (who have no knowledge) and to grow an understanding of religion in them, and admonish them, and enjoin the reputable and forbid the disreputable. And, I stress upon them (who are not familiar with religion and its injunctions) that they should learn religion from their neighbours (who know religion and have an understanding thereof), and gain from them its understanding, and benefit from their admonition otherwise (if both of these parties do not abide by my guidance) I will get them punished in this very world."

Then (after this admonishing sermon) he got down from the minbar (pulpit) and went into his house. The people then asked each other, "What do you say? who are those people (whom the Prophet admonished)?" Some people thought that he referred to the Ash'aries (the people of Abu Musa al-Ash'ary's tribe), for, they are learned (in religion) while, in their neighbour-hood near the springs of water, the dwellers are Beduvin who are absolutely ignorant (and fully unaware of religion).

The Ash'aries came to know of the whole story. So, they presented themselves before the Prophet ﷺ and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah! (we have learnt that) you mentioned some people with praise, but blamed us. What have we done (and what is our fault)?" He said, "(All I say is that) those people (who know religion) are responsible to teach their neighbours (who do not know religion), and create in them an understanding of religion, admonish them and enjoin that which is pious and forbid that which is evil. And those who do not know religion, it is their duty that they should learn from their neighbours (who know) and benefit from their admonition and gain and understanding of religion from them, or else I will get them punished in this very world." The Ash'aries said, "Will we have to endure punishment for the crime and negligence of other people?" In reply to that, the Prophet ﷺ merely repeated what he had said. The Ash'aries again submitted that which they had said earlier, "Will we be punished for the negligence of other people." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Yes, they too! (That is, if those who know religion are sloth in teaching it to their ignorant neighbours then they will receive punishment for that)." The Ash'aries then submitted, "Then give us respite for one year." So, he gave them one year's respite to do that work and teach religion to their neighbours, and create an awareness of religion, and try to reform them through admonition. He then recited to them these verses of surah al-Ma'idah:¹

{Cursed were those who disbelieved from among the children of Isra'il by the tongue of Dawood, and of Isa son of Maryam. That was because they disobeyed and used to transgress the limits. They used not to forbid one another any wickedness they did. Evil indeed was what they used to do}

(5:78-79)

(Musnad Ibn Raayah. Kitab al-Wijdan by Bukhari. Saheeh Ibn us-Saken. Musnad Ibn Mandah. Mu'jam Kabir by Tabarani)

لُعِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ بَنِي
إِسْرَائِيلَ عَلَى لِسَانِ دَاوُدَ
وَعِيسَى بْنِ مَرْيَمَ ذَلِكَ بِمَا
عَصَوْا وَكَانُوا يَعْتَدُونَ ۝
كَانُوا لَا يَتَنَاهَوْنَ عَنْ مُنْكَرٍ
فَعَلُوهُ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ۝

(مسند ابن راهويه. كتاب الوجدان)

للبخارى صحيح ابن السكّن. مسند

ابن منده. معجم كبير للطبراني)

Commentary: The explanation that was necessary to understand the Hadith has been put into parenthesis with the translation.

We learn from this Hadith that the Prophet ﷺ had devised a way to teach and train people their religion whereby those people who were learned should impart knowledge as a responsibility on them to those of their neighbouring people who were not familiar with religion. They should do that for the sake of Allah alone, and they should try to reform and train them in religion. And, they should make the teaching of religion a regular part of their life.

On their part, those Muslims who are unaware of religion must make it an essential duty to establish a link with those people who are learned in religion and they must learn from them and benefit from their sermons and admonition. The Prophet ﷺ declared that negligence in this regard is a punishable crime.

This was an arrangement of religious education that allowed everyone to gain a working knowledge of religion without going to a school or madrasah, without possessing a book, paper or pen and without having to write down anything. In fact, he could also toil and perfect his knowledge depending on his own ability. The Companions رضي الله عنهم and most of the tabi'een رحمة الله عليهم (successors after them) obtained knowledge in this way. Indeed, their learning was deeper and more reliable than our knowledge from text books. Whatever knowledge the ummah possessed after them, and subsists among us, is their legacy. It is said that the ummah did not maintain that arrangement after them. If that arrangement had remained with us then no section of the ummah, no member — in fact, no individual — would have been deprived of religious knowledge today. It was a blessing of that system of education that life continued to be moulded in an atmosphere of learning.

①. Translation from: A study of al-Quran al-Karim, Lal Muhammad Chawla.

The concluding portion of the Hadith tells us of the request of the Ash'ary tribe to the Prophet ﷺ to allow them a year's time to impart religious knowledge to the neighbours. The Prophet ﷺ acceded to their request so that they launched what was 'a year's teaching project' for the entire population.

There is no doubt that if Muslims in every country and every locality, the elite and the commoners, adopt this method and strive with dedication towards this end then faith would be enlivened and necessary awareness would be common in every section of Muslim society.

The Prophet ﷺ concluded his speech with recital of two verses of surah al-Ma'idah. These verses tell us that those people of the Banu Isra'il who were cursed by the Prophets Dawood عليه السلام and Isa عليه السلام were guilty of a particular crime: they did not care to stop each other from sin and evil, and did not try to push a religious and moral reform. This shows that this crime is so serious that the perpetrator is liable to be cursed by Allah and His Messengers.

These verses are the Qur'an's confirmation of the warning and reproof of the Prophet ﷺ to the negligent people. In other words, he recited these verses to let the people know that whatever he had said in his sermon and insisted upon was exactly the guidance Allah gave in these verses of the Qur'an.

The Rank of Religious Knowledge & of Its Students & Teachers

(١٨٥٩/٣) عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَقُولُ مَنْ سَلَكَ طَرِيقًا يَطْلُبُ بِهِ عِلْمًا سَلَكَ اللَّهُ بِهِ طَرِيقًا مِنْ طُرُقِ الْجَنَّةِ
وَأَنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ لَتَضَعُ أجنحتها رِضًا لِطَالِبِ الْعِلْمِ وَإِنَّ الْعَالَمَ يَسْتَغْفِرُ لَهُ مَنْ فِي
السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَتَانِ فِي جَوْفِ الْمَاءِ وَإِنَّ فَضْلَ الْعَالَمِ عَلَى
الْعَابِدِ كَفَضْلِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ عَلَى سَائِرِ الْكَوَاكِبِ وَإِنَّ الْعُلَمَاءَ وَرَثَةُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ
وَإِنَّ الْأَنْبِيَاءَ لَمْ يُوَرِّثُوا دِينَارًا وَلَا دِرْهَمًا وَإِنَّمَا وَرَثَتُوا الْعِلْمَ فَمَنْ أَخَذَهُ أَخَذَ

بِحِطِّ وَافِرٍ (رواه احمد والترمذى وابى داؤد وابن ماجه والدارمى)

(3/1859) Sayyidina Abu ad-Darda رضي الله عنه reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "If anyone will walk on a path to learn (religion) then Allah will let him walk on one of the roads of Paradise in return for that." (And he also said,) "The angels of Allah lower their wings in expression of pleasure (respect and honour) for the seekers of knowledge. And for the scholar of religion, all the creatures of the heaven and earth and even the fish in the depth of water seek forgiveness of Allah. And, the excellence of the scholar over the worshippers is like the excellence of the full moon over all the stars in the heaven. The scholars are the heirs of the Prophets and the Prophets did not leave behind dinars and dirhams, but they left behind only knowledge. So, he who acquired it has indeed acquired a great success, a great good fortune."

(Musnad Ahmad, Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Abu Dawood, Sunan Ibn Majah, Musnad Darami)

Commentary: In fact, the Prophet ﷺ have brought only that knowledge which serves as a guidance to Allah's creatures, and that alone is their legacy. They have brought that from Allah and that, as we have stated earlier is the most valuable asset of this universe. Tabarani has related in Mu'jam Awsat that Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه once passed through a market where people were occupied in their business. He asked them, "What is wrong with you? You are occupied here while the Prophet's legacy is being distributed in the mosque. They rushed towards the mosque, but came back to say, "Nothing is being given out there. Some people are occupied in salah, some other in reciting the Qur'an and yet others describe the lawful and unlawful — that is, injunctions of Shari'ah." Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said, "Exactly this is the Prophet's legacy and what he has left behind." (Jama'al Fawa'id v1 p37)

(١٨٦٠/٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ خَرَجَ فِي

طَلَبِ الْعِلْمِ فَهُوَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ (رواه الترمذى والضياء المقدسى)
(4/1860) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "He who goes out (of his house or country) to seek knowledge is on the path of Allah till he returns."

(Jami' Tirmizi, Mukhtarah by Diya al-Maqdici)

(١٨٦١/٥) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

وَمَلَائِكَتُهُ وَأَهْلُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ حَتَّى النَّمْلَةُ فِي جُحْرِهَا وَحَتَّى الْخَوْتُ
لَيُصَلُّونَ عَلَى مُعَلِّمِ النَّاسِ الْخَيْرِ (رواه الترمذى)

(5/1861) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Allah showers His Mercy on, and the angels and the dwellers of the heavens and the earth including ants in their nests and fish (in water) pray for, the creature who teaches men that which is good and religion." (Jami' Tirmizi)

(١٨٦٢/٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ

بِمَجْلِسَيْنِ فِي مَسْجِدِهِ فَقَالَ كِلَاهُمَا عَلَى خَيْرٍ وَأَحَدُهُمَا أَفْضَلُ مِنْ صَاحِبِهِ،
أَمَّا هَؤُلَاءِ فَيَدْعُونَ اللَّهَ وَيَرْغَبُونَ إِلَيْهِ فَإِنْ شَاءَ أَعْطَاهُمْ وَإِنْ شَاءَ مَنَعَهُمْ، وَأَمَّا
هَؤُلَاءِ فَيَتَعَلَّمُونَ الْفَقْهَ أَوِ الْعِلْمَ وَيُعَلِّمُونَ الْجَاهِلَ فَهُمْ أَفْضَلُ وَإِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ
مُعَلِّمًا ثُمَّ جَلَسَ فِيهِمْ (رواه الدارمى)

(6/1862) Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Amr al-Aas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ came across two groups in his mosque. He said, "Both the groups are engaged in that which is good", (pointing towards one, he added,) "these people are engaged in supplication and prayers to Allah Who will answer them if He Wills, but may refuse them, if He Wills (for, He is The Independent Master). And, "(pointing to the other group,) "these people are engaged in learning religious knowledge and teaching the ignorant. hence, their rank is higher. And, I have been sent only as a teacher." He then sat down among them.

(Musnad Darami)

(١٨٦٣/٧) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ جَاءَهُ الْمَوْتُ وَهُوَ يَطْلُبُ الْعِلْمَ لِيُحْيِيَ بِهِ الْإِسْلَامَ فَبَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ النَّبِيِّنَ دَرَجَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ
(رواه الدارمی)

(7/1863) Sayyidina Hasan Basari رضی اللہ عنہ reported in arsaal¹ from that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "As for him who dies while he was seeking religious knowledge so that he may revive Islam there will be only one degree-between him and the Prophets in Paradise."
(Musnad Darami)

(١٨٦٤/٨) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ سئلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ رَجُلَيْنِ كَانَا فِي بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ أَحَدُهُمَا كَانَ عَالِمًا يُصَلِّي الْمَكْتُوبَةَ ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ فَيُعَلِّمُ النَّاسَ الْخَيْرَ وَالْآخَرُ يَصُومُ النَّهَارَ وَيَقُومُ اللَّيْلَ أَيُّهُمَا أَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَضْلُ هَذَا الْعَالِمِ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي الْمَكْتُوبَةَ ثُمَّ يَجْلِسُ فَيُعَلِّمُ النَّاسَ الْخَيْرَ عَلَى الْعَابِدِ الَّذِي يَصُومُ النَّهَارَ وَيَقُومُ اللَّيْلَ كَفَضْلِي عَلَى أَذْنَاكُمْ
(رواه الدارمی)

(8/1864) Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمة الله عليه reported in arsaal from that Allah's Messenger ﷺ was asked about two men of the Banu Isra'il. One of them would remain seated after offering the Fard Salah and teach pious things to the people. The other observed fasting during the day and stood up in the night in supererogatory salah. (He was asked,) "Which of the two was superior?" He said, "The scholar who offers the fard salah and then sits down to teach religion and piety to the people. He has excellence over the one who fasts in the day and stands up in the night in the same way as I have excellence over an ordinary man among you."
(Musnad Darami)

Commentary: The foregoing Ahadith describe the extraordinary greatness and excellences of knowledge, students or seekers of knowledge, the ulama (scholars) and the teachers. The 'Why' of that and the secret behind that is that this knowledge is sent down by

1. Sayyidina Hasan al-Basari was a Tabi'ee who did not see the Prophet ﷺ. He learnt Ahadith from different Companions رضی اللہ عنہم. He has reported this Hadith and a following one directly from the Prophet ﷺ without referring to the Companion رضی اللہ عنہ through whom he learnt it. Such method of reporting by the tabi'een is called arsaal while such Hadith is called mursal.

Allah and it is the light of guidance which has come to us through His Messenger ﷺ. Ever since his death, the sacred knowledge that he had brought (and is found in the Quran and Hadith) officiates for him over the ummah; and the ulama and teachers who have acquired it represent the Prophet ﷺ as living men. They are not Prophets but, as heirs of Prophets, look after the office of prophethood and they fulfil the task of the Messenger ﷺ. They are, as it were, his supporters and tools. It is this peculiarity that has raised them to the high degree and made them worthy of extraordinary Divine blessings which the foregoing Ahadith describe. However, there is a condition attached to it as we will see in the Ahadith to follow. It is that learning and teaching knowledge should be purely for Allah's sake, and with the reward of the Hereafter in mind. If wordly gains are in mind then that is the worse of sins and, according to an authentic Hadith, the place of such people is Hell. اللهم احفظنا (O Allah, protect us!)

A Clarification

It is necessary at this stage to clarify certain things. Today, religious knowledge is imparted through religious institutions (madrasah) and Dar ul-Uloom. The result is that certain words have come to have a restricted implication in the religious circles.

Taalib Ilm (student, seeker of knowledge) seems to imply only those students who study here Aalim (scholar) or mu'allim (teacher) brings to mind the ulama and teachers in religious institutions. When these meanings are absorbed by the mind, they are also applied to the same words in the foregoing Ahadith and those that will follow so that the excellences and merits reserved for these people in the Ahadith are attributed by the mind to those for whom the meanings are absorbed. The exceptional rewards from Allah are also so attributed. The truth is, as we have mentioned earlier, there was no such method of imparting education in the Prophet's ﷺ time and, after him during the lives of the companions and even the tabi'een ؓ. There were no madrasahs or Dar ul-Uloom and there were no teachers and students to teach and read books. In fact, there existed no books at all. Knowledge was imparted only through Companionship and listening. The Companions ﷺ acquired their knowledge only in this way. (These included the front rank ulama and fuqaha among them, for example, the four rightly guided Khalifah and Mu'az ﷺ ibn Jabal, Abdullah ﷺ ibn Mas'ood, Ubayy ﷺ ibn Ka'b, Zayd ﷺ ibn Thabit, etc.) Their successors, the tabi'een, acquired knowledge from them in the same manner. Then the great ulama and fuqaha gained knowledge from them in the same way through companionship and hearing. Without doubt those people are the first and foremost deserving of the tidings in the Ahadiths. I submit that even today if any creature of Allah takes up sincerely the unconventional way of learning and teaching religion, like companionship and hearing, then indeed he brings himself within the ambit of the Ahadith and the glad tidings. In fact, he enjoys a degree of excellence over the conventional students and teachers, for, the latter may have some worldly gains in mind but he who joins a group with reformation or learning in mind surely does not hope to procure worldly benefits from that. Therefore, the unconventional approach of such people is without deceit only for Allah's sake with only the Hereafter in mind.

Such deed as is done only to gain His pleasure enjoys esteem in the sight of Allah. I have seen such men of Allah even in our times. Many among them are such from whom people like us (whom others consider ulama) can learn a lesson.

I found this clarification necessary here because we entertain the foregoing misconception of the nomenclatures aalim, muallim and talib ilm (scholar, teacher, student) and put only these people within the ambit of the Ahadith, though it is done unintentionally.

Those Who Seek Religious Knowledge For Worldly Gains Will Go To Hell & Will Be Deprived of The Fragrance of Paradise Too

(١٨٦٥/٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ
عِلْمًا مِمَّا يُبْتَغَى بِهِ وَجْهُ اللَّهِ لَا يَتَعَلَّمُهُ إِلَّا لِيُصِيبَ بِهِ عَرَضًا مِنَ الدُّنْيَا لَمْ يَجِدْ
عَرَفَ الْجَنَّةَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَعْنِي رِيحَهَا (رواه احمد و ابو داود وابن ماجه)
(9/1865) It is reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ﷺ that

Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "As for him who acquires that knowledge through which Allah's pleasure is sought (knowledge of religion, the Book and Sunnah) but he does not acquire it except to derive worldly benefit, he will be deprived of the odour of Paradise on the Day of Resurrection."

(Musnad Ahmad, Sunan Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

(١٨٦٦/١٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ

الْعِلْمَ لِغَيْرِ اللَّهِ وَارْتَدَّ بِهِ غَيْرَ اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَبَوَّءْ مَقْعَدَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ (رواه الترمذی)

(10/1866) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رerported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone acquires religious knowledge not for Allah's pleasure but for other than Allah (like for worldly or personal objectives) then he should find his adobe in Hell." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Allah Ta'ala sent religious knowledge through His Prophets عليهم السلام and, finally, through Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ, the seal of Prophets, and His last sacred Book, the Qur'an. He did this that His slaves may use its Light and guidance to walk on the path of Allah's pleasure into His House of Mercy, Paradise. However if a wretched man makes this sacred knowledge a means of deriving worldly advantage and gaining his personal desires, not the pleasure of Allah, then he is unjust to this sacred knowledge sent by Allah through His Messenger. This is the worst kind of disobedience. The Prophet ﷺ has declared in these Ahadith that this man's punishment is deprivation of even the odour of Paradise and consignment to Hell. اللهم احفظنا (O Allah, protect us!)

The Example of An Unpracticing Aalim

(١٨٦٧/١١) عَنْ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ

الْعَالِمِ الَّذِي يُعَلِّمُ النَّاسَ الْخَيْرَ وَيَنْسَى نَفْسَهُ، كَمَثَلِ السِّرَاجِ يُضِيئُ

النَّاسَ وَيُحَرِّقُ نَفْسَهُ (رواه الطبرانی والضياء)

(11/1867) Sayyidina Jundub رerported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The example of the scholar who preaches piety to other people but forgets himself is like the lantern that gives light to the people but simply burns itself out."

(Mu'jam Kabir of Tabarani. Mukhtarah by Diya al-Muqadisi)

(١٨٦٨/١٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَشَدُّ
النَّاسِ عَذَابًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَالِمٌ لَمْ يَنْفَعُهُ عِلْمُهُ.....

(رواه الطيالسى فى مسنده وسعيد بن منصور فى سننه وابن عدى فى الكامل والبيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

(12/1868) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The worst of punishment to anyone on the Day of Resurrection will be the lot of the scholar whose knowledge did not benefit him (because he did not model his practical life according to his learning).

(Musnad Abu Dawood. Tiyalsi. Sunan Sa'eed ibn Mansoor. Kamil ibn Adi Sha'b al-Eeman by Bayhaqi)

Commentary: There are certain sins which are regarded as serious crime and deserving of severe punishment by both Believers and infidels. Examples of these are: plundering, robbery, murder, rape, bribery, cruelty to orphans, widows, etc. There are also sins which people generally do not consider as serious but they are grave in the sight of Allah and equal to, or more serious than the former. Polytheism and disbelief are among them. It is the same with misuse of religious knowledge (which is the legacy of the Prophet) using it for worldly advantage or not conducting oneself according to it. The first kind involves a creature wronging other creatures, so even disbelievers recognise it as a sin. The second kind, however is violation of rights of knowledge, guidance and Shari'ah of Allah and His Messenger which is a kind of wrong committed with them. Only those slaves of Allah recognise their seriousness and severity who are aware in their hearts of the greatness of Allah, His Messenger and religion, Shari'ah and the knowledge taught by them.

The fact is that it is as great a sin to use religious knowledge not for Allah's pleasure and reward in the Hereafter but to further worldly ends as polytheism, disbelief and hypocrisy are. That is why the punishment is what the foregoing Ahadith prescribe. May Allah cause the holders of religious knowledge to respect the sayings of His Messenger in this regard Aameen.

كتاب الاعتصام بالكتاب والسنة

KITABUL A'TISAAM
BIL KITAB WAS SUNNAH

BOOK OF HOLDING FAST TO THE QUR'AN AND THE SUNNAH

Sticking to Book of Allah & Prophet's Teachings And Shunning Bid'ah

After the Prophet's ﷺ death, the Qur'an and the Sunnah are the source of guidance for mankind. They are as though representatives of his sacred being. The betterment of the ummah and their success lies in abiding by them. Allah's Messenger ﷺ guided the ummah from different angles and stressed upon them to refrain from innovation and bid'ah. Here are some of his sayings in this regard.

(١٨٦٩/١) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
أَمَّا بَعْدُ فَإِنَّ خَيْرَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابُ اللَّهِ وَخَيْرُ الْهَدْيِ هَدْيُ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ، وَشَرُّ الْأُمُورِ مُحْدَثَاتُهَا وَكُلَّ بِدْعَةٍ ضَلَالَةٌ
(رواه مسلم)

(1/1869) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه ibn Abdullah reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (during his sermon), "To proceed! The best of all words is the Book of Allah, and the best of guidance is the guidance of Muhammad (Allah's Messenger). And, the worst of affairs are innovations in religion, and every bid'ah (innovation) is the wrong path."
(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This Hadith of Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه is found in Saheeh Muslim in the chapter on the Friday sermon transmitted by different lines of transmission. The words of the Hadith indicate that the narrator, Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه had heard them often from the Prophet ﷺ during the Friday sermons.

This saying of the Prophet ﷺ is among his brief comprehensive sayings. The ummah have been given guidance in very few words which are enough to keep them on the right path till the last Day. Surely, the Book of Allah, the sunnah and the path of Muhammad ﷺ are enough to guide the ummah on matters of belief, deeds, manners and feelings etc. This duty is described in the words: enjoin that which is virtuous and forbid that which is wrong. That leaves one passage for the wrong path and it is to describe as religion what Allah and His messenger have not included in religion, and to wrongly assume it as a means to nearness of Allah and success in the Hereafter. This is the most dangerous net used by the enemy of religion, the devil. He destroyed the earlier people mostly through this ploy, examples being idol-worship doctrine of trinity, calling Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام as Allah's son, the concept of expiation of sins and terming the monks as lords besides Allah. Allah's Messenger ﷺ was informed that his ummah too would face similar misleading temptations, in the same way as had been presented to the earlier ummah. Therefore, he repeatedly said in his sermons that only Allah's Book and his sunnah should be followed, for, only that is guidance and a means of success. He also said that innovations should be shunned, for, no matter how appealing bid'ah may seem, it is nothing but misleading and destructive. This is the essence of the saying of the Prophet ﷺ reported by Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه.

What is Bid'ah

The Concluding sentence of this saying of the Prophet ﷺ is كل بدعة ضلالة (every bid'ah is error). Some of the recognised ulama and exponents of Hadith have gone by the exact dictionary meaning of the word bid'ah and defined it as anything that was not found in the times of the Prophet ﷺ and finds no mention in the Qur'an and Hadith. But, they observed later that there were many things that were not found in the times of the Prophet ﷺ and are not mentioned in the Qur'an or Hadith but they are strongly essential from the religious point of view and none of the ulama had classified them as bid'ah or declared as unlawful. The examples of such things are: application of diatrical marks on the Qur'an, putting down punctuation marks in it so that the common man may recite it correctly; compilation of Hadith and Fiqh and books, composing books in different languages on different religious subjects; establishing religious schools and madrasah; etc. These things were not found in the Prophet's time and are not mentioned anywhere in the Qur'an or Hadith. Hence, if we go by the foregoing explanation of bid'ah then all these things will be classified as bid'ah and use of all inventions like the train, car, aeroplane, etc. will become bid'ah and, therefore, unlawful. But this is not so.

The scholars then explained that bid'ah were of two kinds. First is against the Book, sunnah and principles of Shari'ah. This is bid'ah sayiah (evil innovation) which is what the Prophet ﷺ described in the phrase كل بدعة ضلالة. Thus every evil innovation is misleading.

The second kind of bid'ah is not contrary to the Book, sunnah or principles of Shari'ah but in line with it. So, it is bid'ah hasanah (good innovation). Sometimes, depending on its kind, it is wajib (obligatory) to abide by it, but at other times it is mustahabb, mustahsin or mubah (various degrees of approved nature). Thus, bid'ah hasanah include the placing of diatrical marks on the Qur'an, marking sections and punctuations, compiling Ahadith, and writing religious books in various languages and publishing them, establishing religious schools, etc. They are not disallowed but are mubah and permitted.

However, the ulama are not all agreed on this definition. The accomplished and the examining among them asserts that bid'ah is a purely religious terminology like the words Eeman, kufr, salah, zakah, etc., and it encompasses everything that is given a religious colour and made part of religion. Thus if such a deed is regarded as a religious practice and worship which entitles one to reward and Allah's pleasure but there is no evidence for it in Shari'ah, in the Book or Sunnah, in qiyaas, or ijtihaad (analogy and independant reasoning) then it is bid'ah.

Obviously, therefore, the new things that were not found in the Prophet's ﷺ times including the inventions, and which are not religious in nature do not fall in the definition of bid'ah. Thus, train automobile, aeroplane, etc. may be used to travel as also other new things. In the same way, the new instruments, tools or means that help promote religious matters are not part of bid'ah and this includes placing diatrical marks, etc. on the Qur'an, writing and composing religious books on Hadith, expositon thereof, etc. in different languages. The opening of madrasah and religious schools, libraries, etc. also do not come in the ambit of bid'ah. Although they did not exist in the times of the Prophet ﷺ, they are valid in the eyes of Shari'ah because important religious functions and religious duties are easily discharged through them. For instance, ablution is prescribed by Shari'ah and water is needed for that. So, it is wajib to look out for water or drawn it out from a well. It is a firm principle of religion and Shari'ah that if anything has to be done to perform a fard or wajib then that too becomes wajib. Hence, all those similar things which are mentioned above are outside the scope of bid'ah and are, in fact, essential and wajib.

This explanation and definition of bid'ah is the only correct one. And thus every bid'ah is error as stated in the Hadith under discussion.

The renowned scholar of the ninth century, Imam Abu Ishaq Ibrahim Shatbi has discussed this subject very exhaustively in his book al-Itisam. He has firmly rejected the first kind of definition and classification of bid'ah into hasanah and sayiah. The voluminous book deals only on this subject. Imam Rabbani Mujaddid Alf Thani رحمه الله عليه has also rejected strongly the classification of bid'ah into two kinds — hasanah and sayi'ah, calling it a serious mistake by the ulama who have classified it in this manner. He has said that there is no such thing as bid'ah hasanah. Bid'ah is always sayi'ah. If anyone imagines brilliancy through a bid'ah then that is a wrong impression he gets, for, bid'ah always spells darkness. Mawlana Shabbir Ahmed Uthmani رحمه الله عليه has also discussed this subject in his exposition of Saheeh Muslim by the title Fath al-Muslim, and it is worth studying.

(١٨٧٠/١٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَحْدَثَ فِي أَمْرِنَا هَذَا مَا لَيْسَ مِنْهُ فَهُوَ رَدٌّ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2/1870) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone introduces into this religion of ours anything that is not found in it then what he introduces is rejected."

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This saying of the Prophet ﷺ is a fundamental statement about bid'ah. It rejects all novelties and introductions (whatever of deeds or belief) in religion as means to gain Allah's pleasure and reward, there being no basis for them or a clear command or hint for them and not even an independent reasoning of authority. This is what the words ما ليس منا and في امرنا هذا mean. Thus every invention and introduction that is not concerned with religion and is not regarded as a means to gaining Allah's pleasure and reward does not fall under the purview of this Hadith. They will not be bid'ah in the terminology of Hadith. These things include new kinds of food, dress, houses, means of transport etc. Similarly, the novelties in wedding ceremonies, wrong amusements and extravagant expenditure which no one regards as religious practices do not attract the ruling of this Hadith. Only those customs that are regarded as religious and hope is placed in them for reward fall in the ambit of this Hadith. They are rejected and bid'ah. Most of the rites during death and sorrow are of this kind and they include the observance of the third day, tenth day after death and soon to the annual anniversary. The fatihah on Thursday, the days of the 11th, 12th for spiritual leaders, the placing of wreath on graves, the urs, etc all fall in this category because they are regarded as part of religion and reward is expected thereagainst.

More destructive than these practical bid'ah are the bid'ah in belief. These include the belief that the Prophet ﷺ and the spiritual men know the unseen and are omnipresent, that they respond to one calling them from a long distance and come to their help. Apart from bid'ah this is also shirk or polytheism about which Allah has declared in His Book that polytheists will never be forgiven:

”إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُونَ ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ“ (النساء ٤: ٤٨)

{Surely, Allah shall not forgive that anything be associated with Him, and He shall forgive all besides that to whom He will.}

(an-Nisa, 4:48)

(١٨٧١/٣) عَنْ عَرَبَاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ قَالَ صَلَّى بِنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ ثُمَّ أَقْبَلَ عَلَيْنَا بِوَجْهِهِ فَوَعظَنَا مَوْعِظَةً بَلِيغَةً فَرَفَتْ مِنْهَا الْعُيُونُ وَدَجَلَتْ مِنْهَا الْقُلُوبُ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُولَ اللَّهِ كَانَ هَذِهِ مَوْعِظَةُ مُوَدِّعٍ فَأَوْصِنَا فَقَالَ أَوْصِيكُمْ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَالسَّمْعِ وَالطَّاعَةِ وَلَوْ كَانَ عَبْدًا حَبِشِيًّا

فَإِنَّهُ مَنْ يَعْشُ مِنْكُمْ بَعْدِي فَسِيرْ بِإِخْتِلَافٍ كَثِيرًا فَعَلَيْكُمْ بِسُنَّتِي وَسُنَّةِ
الْخُلَفَاءِ الرَّاشِدِينَ الْمَهْدِيِّينَ تَمَسَّكُوا بِهَا وَعَظُّوا عَلَيْهَا بِالنَّوَاجِدِ وَإِيَّاكُمْ
وَمُحَدَّثَاتِ الْأُمُورِ فَإِنَّ كُلَّ مُحَدَّثَةٍ بِدْعَةٌ وَكُلُّ بِدْعَةٍ ضَلَالَةٌ

(رواه احمد وابوداؤد والترمذى وابن ماجة الا انهما لم يذكر الصلوة)

(3/1871) Sayyidina Irbad ibn Sariyah رضي الله عنه reported that after leading them in salah one day, Allah's Messenger ﷺ turned his face towards them and delivered a very effective sermon which caused their eyes to drop tears and their hearts to tremble in fear. One of them said, "O Messenger of Allah, this is like a sermon delivered by one who bids farewell and departs. (So, if that is so then) do instruct us (on important matters)." He said, "I instruct you to always fear Allah and keep away from disobedience to Him, to listen and obey to one in authority (the Khalifah or Ameer) even if he is a black slave. For, he who survives me will come across serious disputes. (So, in that case,) make it incumbent on yourself to abide by my guidance and the guidance of my rightly-guided Khalifahs (caliphs) and hold fast to that and grip that with your teeth. And, keep yourself away from new things introduced (into religion), for, every new thing in religion is bid'ah, and every bid'ah is error."

(Musnad Ahmad, Sunan Abu Dawood, Jami, Tirmizi, Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: This Hadith does not need any explanation. The words indicate that the Prophet ﷺ spoke them during his last days. The Companions رضي الله عنهم surmised from the subject-matter of his sermon and the out-of-ordinary style of delivery that he had a premonition that he would depart from this world not long thereafter. Therefore, one of them requested him to leave them some instructions to follow after him. So, he gave them the instructions. The first thing he said was that they should observe taqwa (a God-fearing attitude) and not disobey Allah. Next, they should obey the Khalifah and Ameer even if they belonged to a lower strata of society. The importance of Taqwa in religion is obvious and Allah's pleasure and success in the Hereafter depend on it. And in the world, the ummah can live in an organised manner only if they obey the Khalifah or Ameer, otherwise there would be disorder and anarchy. Which might lead to civil war. (However, the Prophet ﷺ had said often that if the Ameer or Khalifah or anyone in authority ordered something against Allah's or the Messenger's instructions then he should not be obeyed (لا طاعة لمخلوق في معصية الخالق))

The Prophet ﷺ then said that those who will live long, would witness many disputes among the ummah. The only course of salvation at such times would be to follow his guidance and the guidance of his rightly-guided caliphs and adhere to that firmly and refrain from innovation and bid'ah, for, every bid'ah is error, and nothing else.

This Hadith is one of the miracles of the Prophet ﷺ. He disclosed to his Companions رضي الله عنهم, when no one could even think of it, that serious differences would crop up among his people. Indeed, those of his Companions رضي الله عنهم who were alive between 25 and 39 years after him experienced the turmoil. Thereafter, the differences and in-fighting kept increasing. Today, in the 15th century Hijrah, we find intense division and disputes within the Muslim community. May Allah enable us to stick to the Truth, to guidance and the Prophet's sunnah.

Adherence to Allah's Book & Teachings of The Prophet ﷺ

(١٨٧٢/٤) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُؤْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّى يَكُونَ هَوَاهُ تَبَعًا لِمَا جُنْتُ بِهِ.....

(رواه في شرح السنة وقال النووي في اربعينه هذا حديث صحيح روياه في كتاب الحجة باسناد صحيح مشكوة المصابيح)

(4/1872) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "None of you can be (true) Believer unless his desire becomes subservient to what I have brought (of guidance and teachings)."

(Imam Muhiyusunnah رحمه الله عليه reported this Hadith in Sharah as-sunnah and Imam Nawawi رحمه الله عليه has stated in Arba'een that it has an authentic line of transmission. It is also reported in Kitab al-Hujjah on authentic line of transmission)

Commentary: The message of the Hadith is that a true Believer is one whose heart and mind, and desires and inclinations obey the guidance and teachings (Which is the Book and the sunnah) that the Prophet ﷺ has brought. This is natural corollary of believing in him and accepting him as Allah's Messenger. If anyone does not experience this condition then he lacks true faith, and he should work to bring himself to that standard.

❶. However, in Misbah, the name is Abdullah ibn Amr رضي الله عنه.

(١٨٧٣/٥) عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَنَسٍ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَرَكْتُ فِيكُمْ أَمْرَيْنِ لَنْ تَضِلُّوا مَا تَمَسَّكْتُم بِهِمَا كِتَابُ اللَّهِ وَسُنَّةُ رَسُولِهِ
(رواه في الموطأ)

(5/1873) Sayyidina Imam Maalik ibn Anas reported in arsaal from that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I have left two things among you. As long as you adhere to them strongly, you will never go astray. (they are:) the Book of Allah and His Messenger's sunnah." (Muwatta Imam Maalik)

Commentary: The gist of the Hadith is the Prophet's ﷺ saying, "After me, the Book of Allah and my sunnah that I have brought will officiate for me." As long as the ummah keeps to them firmly they will be safe from falling into error and will be steady on the guided path.

We have stated repeatedly in this series of Ma'ariful Hadith that sometimes a tabi'ee or a taba' tabi'ee (successor to the companions, or his own successor — the epigones) reported a Hadith without naming the interlinking narrators. Such reporting is called arsaal and such Hadith is called mursal. Imam Maalik رحمه الله عليه has reported this Hadith in his Muwatta in this manner while he himself was a taba' tabi'ee which means that he never had opportunity to meet any sahabi (companion) but met the tabi'een and heard the Hadith from one of them. These people reported a Hadith in this manner only when they knew that the Hadith was authentic and acceptable. However, the same Hadith has been reported in some other books in about the same words with all the names of those in the line of transmission. Kanz ul-Ummal has reproduced the report of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه on the authority of Bayhaqi that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said:

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنِّي تَارِكٌ فِيكُمْ مَا نِ اغْتَصَمْتُمْ بِهِ لَنْ تَضِلُّوا أَبَدًا كِتَابُ اللَّهِ

وَسُنَّةُ نَبِيِّهِ -

"O people! I will go away leaving behind (the means of guidance) which if you adhere to then you will never go astray — Allah's Book and His Prophet's sunnah."

(Kanz ul-Ummal, v1 p187)

In the same book, another Hadith has been reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه with similar words on the authority of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه. (Kanz ul-Ummal v1 p173)

Like Allah's Book, The Sunnah Too is Wajib to Observe

It was disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ that sometime in future some mischievous people will try to mislead his ummah and tell them that only Allah's Book is a religious evidence necessary to follow. They will say that nothing besides that, even the Prophet's teachings and guidance are not wajib to follow. So, he forewarned the ummah about this mischief and gave them guidance.

(١٨٧٤/٦) عَنْ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِيكَرِبَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا إِنِّي أُوتِيتُ الْقُرْآنَ وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ، أَلَا يُوشِكُ رَجُلٌ شَبَعَانٌ عَلَى أَرِيكَتِهِ يَقُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِهَذَا الْقُرْآنِ فَمَا وَجَدْتُمْ فِيهِ مِنْ حَلَالٍ فَاحِلُّوهُ وَمَا وَجَدْتُمْ فِيهِ مِنْ حَرَامٍ فَحَرِّمُوهُ وَإِنَّ مَا حَرَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ كَمَا حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ

(رواه ابو داود والدارمي وابن ماجه)

(6/1874) Sayyidina Miqdam رضي الله عنه ibn Ma'dikarib reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Beware! I have been given by Allah the Qur'an (for guidance) and with it something like it also. Beware! Soon some satiated people (will arise) who sitting (comfortably) on their glorious couch will say to the people, "Keep to the Qur'an alone. What it has made lawful, treat it as lawful, and what it has declared as unlawful treat it as unlawful (for only that is lawful and unlawful what the Qur'an has described. Nothing else." Reciting this misleading concept, the Prophet ﷺ added,) "The turn is that whatever Allah's Messenger has declared as unlawful is just like that which Allah has declared unlawful in the Qur'an."

(Sunan Abu Dawood, Musnad Darami, Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: Let us explain here that the wahy (revelation) that Allah sent to His Messenger ﷺ was of two kinds ❶ In the form of determined words and text, known as wahy matluw (revelation that is recited), and this is the Qur'an ❷ In the form of inspiration of the subject-matter which the Prophet ﷺ then described in his own words or displayed through his actions known as wahy ghayr matluw (revelation that is not recited), and this was represented in the Prophet's general religious guidance and sayings. In short, these are also based on wahy and are wajib ul-ittiba' (obligatory to be followed).

Thus Allah had inspired the Prophet ﷺ with knowledge that such people would arise in his ummah as would mislead the people and challenge the Shari'ah by saying that religious commands are only found in the Qur'an and everything else is not a religious command. In the Hadith under discussion, Allah's Messenger ﷺ has forewarned his ummah of this mischief and asserted, "In order to guide, I have been given by Allah the Qur'an and with it the commands besides it through wahy ghayr matluw and that is as wajib to obey as the Qur'an.

The truth is that those people who reject the Prophet's ﷺ Ahadith as religious evidence wish to get rid of the entire edifice of Islamic Shari'ah. The Qur'an contains only the fundamental teachings and commands, but the necessary explanation without which they cannot be followed are found in the Prophet's deeds and words which are Ahadith. For example, the command to observe salah is found in the Qur'an, but, how may one offer it? when? how many units at the different times? The answers to these questions are not found in the Qur'an but are provided in the Ahadith alone. Again, the Qur'an commands us to pay Zakah but does not say how much and how many times. It is the same with most of the commands in the Qur'an.

In short, denial of Hadith as a religious necessity is a denial of the entire religious setup. That is why the Prophet ﷺ was careful to forewarn the ummah. This Hadith is thus the Prophet's ﷺ miracle too in that he foretold about the fitn (mischief) of rejection of Hadith by some of his ummah while there was not even a hint of such a thing in his own times and even the times of the taba' tabi'een (successors of the successors of Prophet's ﷺ Companions ﷺ.)

(١٨٧٥/٧) عَنْ أَبِي رَافِعٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا أَلْفَيْنِ أَحَدَكُمْ مُتَكِنًا عَلَى أَرِيكَتِهِ يَأْتِيهِ الْأَمْرُ مِنْ أَمْرِي مِمَّا أَمَرْتُ بِهِ أَوْ نَهَيْتُ عَنْهُ فَيَقُولُ لَا أَدْرِي مَا وَجَدْنَاهُ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ اتَّبَعْنَاهُ

(رواه احمد و ابو داؤد و الترمذى وابن ماجه و البيهقى فى دلائل النبوة)

(7/1875) Sayyidina Abu Rafi' ﷺ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Let me not see anyone reclining on his couch (arrogantly) when something from me comes to him of what I have commanded to do or disallowed to do, and he says: I know not; what we find in the Qur'an is only what we will follow." (Musnad Ahmad, Sunan Abu Dawood, Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Ibn Majah, Dala'il un Nabuwah of Bayhaqi.)

Commentary: This Hadith conveys the same message as conveyed by the Hadith of Sayyidina Miqdam ﷺ ibn Ma'dikarib. The text of both the Ahadith suggest that the main persons behind the mischief (of rejection of Ahadith) will be people who are well-off by worldly standards and their life-style will be arrogant — a sign that the luxuries of life have caused them to neglect Allah and the Hereafter. May Allah protect us from every kind of mischief and error.

The Prophet's ﷺ Conduct Alone Is the Best Example

(١٨٧٦/٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ جَاءَ ثَلَاثَةُ رَهْطٍ إِلَى أَزْوَاجِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْأَلُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا أُخْبِرُوا بِهَا كَانَهُمْ تَقَالُوهَا فَقَالُوا آيْنَ نَحْنُ مِنَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَدْ غَفَرَ اللَّهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ فَقَالَ أَحَدُ أَمَا أَنَا فَاصْلَى اللَّيْلِ أَبَدًا وَقَالَ الْآخَرُ أَنَا أَصُومُ النَّهَارَ أَبَدًا وَلَا أَفْطِرُ وَقَالَ الْآخَرُ أَنَا أَعْتَزِلُ النِّسَاءَ فَلَا أَتَزَوَّجُ أَبَدًا فَجَاءَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ أَنْتُمْ الَّذِينَ قُلْتُمْ كَذًا وَكَذَا؟ أَمَا وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَا أَخْشَاكُمْ لِلَّهِ وَاتَّقَاكُمْ لَهُ، لَكِنِّي أَصُومُ وَأَفْطِرُ وَأُصَلِّي وَأَرْقُدُ وَاتَزَوَّجُ النِّسَاءَ فَمَنْ رَغِبَ عَنْ سُنَّتِي فَلَيْسَ مِنِّي

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(8/1876) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that three men (of his Companions رضي الله عنهم) came to the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked them to describe his worships (like how long he observed salah, fasting, etc.) When they were told of that, (it seemed that) they considered it very little and said to each other, "How do we compare with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. All his sins have been forgiven (as stated in the Qur'an, so he does not need to worship more than he does. But, we are sinners and need to engage in worship as much as we can)." Thus, one of them resolved to occupy in salah all night always. The second committed himself to fast every day without fail and the third vowed to keep away from women all his life and never to marry any woman. (When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt of it,) he went to his three Companions and asked them if they were the ones who had spoken in that way. "Listen! By Allah, I fear Him more than you do and abstain from displeasing Him more than you do, but (in spite of that) my condition is that (I do not always keep fast, but) I observe fasting as I also go without fasting, (I do not engage in salah all night but) I offer salah and also go to sleep and (I have not adopted a life of celibacy,) I marry women and live a married life with them. (This is my way and) if anyone follows a path other than mine then he is not mine."

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Obviously, these three Companions had a wrong notion that total abstinence from the world and its pleasures was the only way to obtain Allah's pleasure and forgiveness in the Hereafter and entry into Paradise. They had imagined that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lived such a life, so, when they learnt the true facts from the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives رضي الله عنهن, they considered that too paltry but, out of respect and faith, they attributed that to his high rank with Allah. They regarded their own case as common-place and resolved to live a strict ascetic life. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم removed their mis-understanding and informed them that he was more fearful of Allah and more worried about the Hereafter than they but he did not spend the whole night in prayer and all his days in fasting and he had wives with whom he spent married life. He said, "This is the pattern of life that I have brought as a Prophet and Messenger from Allah. So anyone who veers from this path and turns his face away is not mine."

To occupy solely in worship, remembrance and glorification of Allah is the condition of the angels, for, Allah has created them in this way. They have no demands of their souls to satisfy and zikr and worship is to them as breath is to us. We are children of Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام and we have varied demands on us of our own souls, of eating and drinking. Allah has taught us through His Prophets عليهم السلام that we may worship Him and observe His limits and injunctions as part of our religious obligations, and within those limits, we may also meet our worldly obligations and personal desires and mutual rights. This is a very difficult proposition but it is also the pattern of the Prophets عليهم السلام and that is the beauty of it! This is why they are more excellent than the angels, and the best of their examples is the exemplary character of the last of Prophets, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ.

The Hadith does not mean to suggest that excess of worship is something wrong. It only asserts that the thinking of the three Companions رضي الله عنهم was wrong. Their conception was the product of a mistaken mind and against the example of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. They had not realised that his life was an example for the ummah to emulate, as part of the mission of prophethood. Certainly, this conduct of the Prophet ﷺ was superior for him than optional worship. In spite of that, he sometimes stood in worship so long that he had swelling on his feet and if he was reminded that he need not stand that long in worship, he would say:

“أَفَلَا أَكُونُ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا” (Shall I not be a grateful slave?).

In the same way, he sometimes fasted for days together without having meals for iftar (breaking fast) and sahri (beginning fast) in what was called sawm wisal (continuous fasting). In short, it would be wrong to interpret this Hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه and other similar Ahadith to mean that over working oneself in worship was disapproved. Only celibacy and monasticism are not approved and are contrary to the method and teachings of Muhammad ﷺ.

Obeying The Prophet ﷺ Is The Only Way to Salvation

(١٨٧٧/٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ أَتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِنُسْخَةٍ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ هَذِهِ نُسْخَةٌ مِنَ
التَّوْرَةِ، فَسَكَتَ، فَجَعَلَ يَقْرَأُ وَوَجْهُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَغَيَّرُ،
فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ ثَكَلَتْكَ التَّوَاكِيلُ مَا بَوَّجَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ، فَنَظَرَ عُمَرُ إِلَى وَجْهِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ
مِنْ غَضَبِ اللَّهِ وَغَضَبِ رَسُولِهِ رَضِينَا بِاللَّهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا
فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ لَوَبَدَّا لَكُمْ
مُوسَى فَاتَّبَعْتُمُوهُ وَتَرَكْتُمُونِي لَضَلَلْتُمْ عَنْ سَوَاءِ السَّبِيلِ وَلَوْ كَانَ حَيًّا
وَأَذْرَكَ بُيُوتِي لَا تَبْعَنِي (رواه الدارمي)

(9/1877) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه ibn Abdullah reported that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه ibn al-Khattab (one day) brought a copy of Torah to the Messenger ﷺ of Allah and said, "O Messenger of Allah! This is a copy of Torah." Allah's Messenger ﷺ said nothing. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه began to read it (to the Prophet ﷺ). The face of Allah's Messenger ﷺ gradually changed colour (but he continued to read without being aware that the Prophet's face was turning red). Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه (who was also present there checked Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and) said, ثَكَلَتْكَ التَّوَاكِيلُ "Do you not observe the Messenger's face?" So, he looked up at his face and said, "I seek refuge in Allah from His wrath and His Messenger's wrath! We are pleased with Allah (with our heart and soul) as our Lord, with Islam as our religion, and with Muhammad as our Prophet and Messenger." Allah's Messenger ﷺ then said, "By Him Who holds Muhammad's life in His Hand, if (Allah's Messenger) Musa were to come before you (in this world) and you were to desert me and follow him then you would go astray from the Right Path into error. And (listen!), if (Allah's Prophet) Musa were alive in the times of my prophethood then he too would have followed me (and abided by my Shari'ah)."

(Musnad Darami)

Commentary: The words نسخة من التوراة mean a portion or few pages of the Arabic translation of Torah. The words of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه when calling Sayyidina Umar's رضي الله عنه attention to the Prophet's ﷺ anger ثَكَلَتْكَ التَّوَاكِيلُ mean literally "May those who weep, weep over you!" When these words are spoken at the time of anger, they only express anger and do not convey the literal meaning.

There are such idioms in every language. In urdu, for instance, mothers call their children mu'aa when they are angry. Although it means the dead, it only is an expression of anger.

The Prophet's ﷺ anger stemmed from the possibility of doubt that even though the Qur'an was there and the last of Prophets ﷺ was the guide, Torah or any other ancient Scripture was sought for guidance. The fact, however, was that the Qur'an and the teachings of Muhammad ﷺ had done away with the need of anything else to gain Divine awareness and guidance. Those portions of the earlier scriptures that were of a perpetual nature for mankind were preserved in the Qur'an too:

مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ وَمُهَيْمِنًا عَلَيْهِ (المائدة ٥: ٤٨)

{Confirming that which was before it of the Book, and a guardian there of}

(al-Ma'idah, 5:48)

This is the attribute of the Qur'an. Besides, the era of Torah and other earlier Scriptures was over. With the revelation of the Qur'an and commissioning of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ salvation and pleasure of Allah can be had only through them. It was to this fact that the Prophet ﷺ referred when he said on oath that even if Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام to whom the Torah was revealed were alive and people followed him instead of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ then they would not be on right-guidance but on error, and, in fact, Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام, too, would have followed the Prophet ﷺ if he were alive in the Prophet's ﷺ times as one of his ummah.

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was one the closest of the Prophet's ﷺ Companions رضي الله عنه. Hence, even this minor slip from him displeased the Prophet ﷺ.

(١٨٧٨/١٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ أَهْلُ الْكِتَابِ يَقْرُونَ التَّوْرَةَ بِالْعِبْرَانِيَّةِ

وَيُفَسِّرُونَهَا بِالْعَرَبِيَّةِ لِأَهْلِ الْأَسْلَامِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

لَا تُصَدِّقُوا أَهْلَ الْكِتَابِ وَلَا تَكْذِبُوهُمْ وَقُولُوا آمَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَمَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْنَا الْآيَةَ

(رواه البخاري)

(10/1878) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that the people of the Book used to recite the Torah in Hebrew but explained it to the Muslims in Arabic. So, the Prophet ﷺ instructed (the Muslims) that they should neither confirm nor reject the People of the Book (when they related anything from the Torah), but they may say only (as per Allah's guidance, what the Qur'an says):

{We believe in Allah, and that which has been revealed to us and that which was revealed to Ibrahim, and Ismail, and Ishaq, and Yaqub, and the tribes (their descendants), and that which Musa and Isa were given, and that which (all the other) Prophets were given from their Lord; we differentiate not between any of them, and to Him we submit in Islam}

(al-Baqara, 2:136)

أَمَّا بِاللَّهِ وَمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْنَا وَمَا أُنزِلَ
إِلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ وَإِسْحَاقَ
وَيَعْقُوبَ وَالْأَسْبَاطِ وَمَا أُوتِيَ
مُوسَىٰ وَعِيسَىٰ وَمَا أُوتِيَ النَّبِيُّونَ
مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ لَا نُفَرِّقُ بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ
وَنَحْنُ لَهُ مُسْلِمُونَ ○

(سورة البقرة آية ١٢٦)

Commentary: The truth is that there had been some interpolation in Torah and Injeel. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ said that neither should they be believed nor rejected. Rather, the Muslims should believe and declare before other people that they believed in all the Prophets of Allah and the revelations that those Prophets had received and that they did not differentiate between any of the Prophets. They should assert that they were slaves of Allah who followed His Commands and it was one of His Commands that they should abide by the Qur'an and the Last Prophet ﷺ to whom it was revealed. Just as it is a Command of Allah, so too it is commonsense that they should believe in all His Prophets and Books, but they should obey the Prophet and Messenger who has come to them and abide by his Shari'ah.

(١٨٧٩/١١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
لَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَىٰ أُمَّتِي كَمَا أَتَىٰ عَلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ حَذْوُ النَّعْلِ بِالنَّعْلِ، حَتَّىٰ إِنْ كَانَ
مِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَتَىٰ أُمَّهُ غَلَانِيَّةً لَكَانَ فِي أُمَّتِي مَنْ يَصْنَعُ ذَالِكَ، وَإِنْ بَنَىٰ إِسْرَائِيلَ
تَفَرَّقَتْ عَلَىٰ ثِنْتَيْنِ وَسَبْعِينَ مِلَّةً وَتَفْتَرِقُ أُمَّتِي عَلَىٰ ثَلَاثٍ وَسَبْعِينَ مِلَّةً، كُلُّهُمْ
فِي النَّارِ إِلَّا مِلَّةً وَاحِدَةً، قَالُوا مَنْ هِيَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ مَا أَنَا عَلَيْهِ وَأَصْحَابِي
(رواه الترمذی)

(11/1879) Sayyidina Abdullah رضي الله عنه ibn Amr ibn al-Aas reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The same evils that had infected the Banu Isra'il will infect my ummah — evil for evil — to such an extent that if anyone among the Bnu Isra'il had intercourse with his mother openly then there would be someone in my ummah who would perpetrate the same sin. And, the Banu Isra'il were divided into seventy-two sects which my ummah will divide into seventy-three sects. And all of them will belong to Hell except one sect (which will belong to Paradise)." The Companions رضي الله عنهم asked him to identify the sect and he said, "The one that will follow the path on which I walk and my Companions walk." (Jami' Tirmizi)

(There is a Hadith of similar context in Musnad Ahmad and Sunan Abu Dawood reported by Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه.)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has not merely foretold something in this Hadith, rather, he has struck a cautionary note for the ummah. Everyone of his ummah must ensure that he observes the same beliefs and ideology and path which the Prophet ﷺ taught and his Companions رضي الله عنهم observed. Only they will get salvation and an assurance to enter Paradise.

This group has distinguished itself with the identification Ahl us-sunnah wa al-Jama'ah (those who are attached to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and the company of his Companions رضي الله عنهم). As for the other seventy-two sects about whom the Hadith says كلهم في النار (all of them will be in the Fire), we cannot pinpoint them exactly but they are those whose religious thought and belief differs from ما انا عليه واصحابي (That on which I am and my Companions are). We can, however, give the example of the zaydiyyah, Mu'tazaliyah, Juhayniyah and the rejectors of Hadith and the mubtadiyeen whose mischief has not gone to the limits of disbelief.

It is also worth considering here that those people who are absolutely outside the folds of Islam are, therefore, also not included in the seventy-two sects of the ummah. These are the ancient ones who believed in Musaylmah Kazzab, the false Prophet and, in our times, the Qadyanis. The seventy-two sects though they are within the ummah yet they have diverted from the Prophet's and his Companion's path (ما انا عليه واصحابي) and have adopted an adulterated form of belief. Nevertheless they have not rejected anything of the basic necessities of religion and have not believed in anything that could throw them out of the sphere of Islam (so they continue to be within Islam)

The saying كلهم فى النار (all of them will be in the Fire) describes their fate because they corrupted their belief and went into error. They become liable to go to Hell because of that. As for the seventy-third sect following the Prophet's and his Companion's path they are described as people of Paradise. They will deserve to go there because of their belief and steadfastness.

Nevertheless, the division into sects to which the Hadith refers does not concern performance of pious deeds and evil actions. Division into sects is based on beliefs and thought. The righteous deeds deserve reward and evil calls for punishment, but this Hadith does not deal with that subject.

Attachment to Sunnah During Turmoil

(١٨٨٠/١٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

الْمُتَمَسِّكُ بِسُنَّتِي عِنْدَ فُسَادِ أُمَّتِي لَهُ أَجْرُ شَهِيدٍ (رواه الطبرانى فى الاوسط)

(12/1880) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "One who holds fast to my sunnah in times of corruption among my ummah, will get the reward of a martyr."

(Mu'jam Awsat by Tabarani)

Commentary: We learnt from the forgoing Hadith of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr رضي الله عنه and other numerable Ahadith that it was disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ that his ummah too will come in the grip of corruption like the earlier peoples and there will be times when depravity and indecency will become common. Most of the people will follow the devil and foresake the Prophet's guidance. Obviously, it will call for a strong will to stick to the Prophet's sunnah in such an atmosphere of corruption. Thus who adhere to the sunnah will face a very difficult time and have to make a lot of sacrifice. These resolute, pious people are given glad tidings in the Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه. They will be raised to the rank of martyrs and get reward commensurate with that rank.

It must be borne in mind here that we use the word sunnah in a very special and limited sense. But, in the Hadith, the word sunnah means the Prophet's practice and his guidance. And it includes belief, the fard obligations and the wajib obligations.

Observation: The Hadith in Mishkat al-Masabeeh quotes Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah in these words:

مَنْ تَمَسَّكَ بِسُنَّتِي عِنْدَ فَسَادِ أُمَّتِي فَلَهُ أَجْرُ مِائَةِ شَهِيدٍ

(the words 'reward of a martyr' are replaced by 'reward of a hundred martyrs'). However, no authority has been quoted. So, the Hadith of Mu'ajam Awsat Tabarani seems more reliable. But Allah knows best.

Effort to Revive Sunnah & Reform The Ummah:

(١٨٨١/١٣) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَحْيَى

سُنَّةً مِنْ سُنَّتِي أُمِيتَتْ بَعْدِي فَقَدْ أَحْبَبَنِي وَمَنْ أَحْبَبَنِي كَانَ مَعِيَ (رواه الترمذی)

(13/1881) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "He who revives one of my sunnah after it had been forgotten after my death has, indeed, loved me. And, he who loves me will be with me." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: As long as a sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ is observed and it is common, it is said to be alive. But, if it is not observed and unknown commonly then it is said to have been put out of existence. Then, if a faithful person of the ummah struggles to revive it and make it common again then the Prophet ﷺ has said about such a man that he loves him and has fulfilled the right of love, and, in the Hereafter, he will be with the Prophet ﷺ as a friend.

(١٨٨٢/١٤) عَنْ بِلَالِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ الْمُزَنِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَحْيَى سُنَّةً مِنْ سُنَّتِي قَدْ أُمِيتَتْ بَعْدِي كَانَ لَهُ مِنَ الْأَجْرِ مِثْلُ

أَجْرِ مَنْ عَمِلَ بِهَا مِنْ غَيْرِ أَنْ يُنْقِصَ مِنْ أَجُورِهِمْ شَيْئًا (رواه الترمذی)

(14/1882) Sayyidina Bilal عليه السلام ibn al-Harith Muzaniyyi reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone revives one of my sunnah which had been made extinct after my death then he will get a reward equal to the reward of all those people who will put it into practice without anything being deducted from their reward."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Let us try to understand this Hadith through an example. Suppose, Muslims of some place had stopped paying zakah, or made it a practice to deny daughters share from their father's legacy. Then, a man of Allah reformed them and revived the practice and zakah began to be paid and daughters were given their inheritance according to Shari'ah. Then, the reward that will accrue to each man who observes these practices will be added up and a reward equal to the sum will be given to the person who revived the practice. This reward will be a special blessing from Allah and nothing whatsoever will be deducted from the reward of the performers of the deeds. Let us see a practical example of our own times. The Prophet ﷺ had drawn a programme whereby every Muslim should acquire necessary know-how of religion — whether he is young or old, rich or poor, literate or illiterate. He should then follow religion and, according to his own condition and ability, encourage other people to do the same. However, with the vicissitudes of time and some historical factors this programme faded into oblivion. The result was that a very limited number of sincere ulama and men of religion were the only ones who cared for religion. Then a sincere slave of Allah of our times and faithful member of the Prophet's ﷺ ummah revived the programme of working for religion among the masses. He struggles hard for that and devoted his entire life for that. The result is before our eyes. (The 14th century of Hijri has ended and 15th begun.) In different countries of the world, different levels of Muslims — hundreds of thousands in numbers — who had no close relationship with Islam neither on the theoretical side nor the practical side and had no moment of thought for the Hereafter, suddenly have only the Hereafter before them. They try to make their own lives according to the Commands of Allah and His Messenger and to bring other people to the same fold. They make sacrifice in this path and endure hardship. Without doubt this is a great example of revival of sunnah. May Allah approve of it and may effuse guidance among the ummah through this, and then among all mankind ”وَمَا ذَاكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ“.

(١٨٨٣/١٥) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَوْفٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

إِنَّ الدِّينَ بَدَأَ غَرِيبًا وَسَيَعُودُ كَمَا بَدَأَ فَطُوبَى لِلْغُرَبَاءِ وَهُمْ الَّذِينَ يُصْلِحُونَ مَا

أَفْسَدَ النَّاسُ مِنْ بَعْدِي مِنْ سُنتِي (رواه الترمذی)

(15/1883) Sayyidina Amr ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Religion (Islam) began as a stranger. And (a time will come when), it will return to that condition as it had begun. So, may the ghuraba be happy. They are those who will rectify the corruption and diorder that the people will create after me in my sunnah." (Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: The word gharib (pl. ghuraba) means allien, a stranger who has no one to look after him.

The meaning of the Prophet's ﷺ saying is that when Islam was first introduced to the people and, on the Command of Allah, the Prophet ﷺ presented it to the people of Makkah, its tenets, its deeds and its way of life were strange and allien for the people. It was like a stranger in a new country who had no one knowing him. Then the tables were turned gradually until the people of Madinah embraced it together and soon it spread all over the Arabian peninsulla. Other countries of the world also welcomed it. However, as we have stated earlier Allah had disclosed to His Messenger that just as other people were overtaken by a decline, his ummah too will face a decline. Most of them will adopt evil, misleading ways and wrong customs. The original form which the Prophet had preached will remain among very few people and it will again revert to its initial condition a stranger in foreign land. The Prophet ﷺ has forewarned to ummah of the difficult times to come and has said that the faithful men of his ummah who retain the original Islam and try to rectify the wrong deserve praise. He has called them ghuraba (غُرَبَاءَ).

Doubtless, this Hadith aptly described the condition of those who call themselves Muslims in our times. A large majority of the ummah is unaware of the basic teachings of religion. They are involved in clear polytheism, like grave worship. They neglect the basic duties like salah and zakah and do not distinguish between lawful and unlawful in their diurnal dealings. There are very few people who refrain for Allah's sake from false cases and false witnessing. A large number of ulama and righteous men have succumbed to selfishness and love of wealth. We can count all the evils that were found among the Jew and Christian priests and monks which brought the curse of Allah on them. At such a time of mischief and corruption those sincere people who adhere to the original Islam and keep to the Prophet's guidance and sunnah and constantly worry about correcting the wrong in the ummah deserve praise and glad tidings. May Allah enable me and the readers to join that group of commendable people.

“اللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَاحْشُرْنَا فِي زُمْرَتِهِمْ”

(O Allah, cause us to be among them and raise us in their group)

Prophet's Personal Opinion In Worldly Matters

The Commands that Allah's Prophets give in their capacity as Prophet or Messenger are wajib ul-Ita'at (obligatory to obey) whether they concern rights of Allah or rights of the creatures, worship or mutual dealings, manners or social conduct — any department of life. Sometimes, however, they did give their personal opinion on matters concerning the world only. The Prophet ﷺ has himself made it clear that such suggestions are not obligatory to obey. In fact, it is not necessary that such opinions should be correct always. There may be a mistake. The Next Hadith says the same thing.

(١٨٨٤/١٦) عَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيجٍ قَالَ قَدِمَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِينَةَ وَهُمْ يَأْبُرُونَ النَّخْلَ فَقَالَ مَا تَصْنَعُونَ؟ قَالُوا كُنَّا نَصْنَعُهُ، قَالَ لَعَلَّكُمْ لَوْ لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا لَكَانَ خَيْرًا فَتَرَكُوهُ فَتَنَقَّصْتُ فَذَكَّرُوا ذَلِكَ لَهُ، فَقَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ إِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ دِينِكُمْ فَخُذُوهُ وَإِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ رَأْيٍ فَإِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ (رواه مسلم)

(16/1884) Sayyidina Rafi' رضي الله عنه ibn Khadeej reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ (when he migrated to Madinah) found out that the people grafted the date-palm trees. He enquired, "What is it that you do? (why do you do?)" They submitted, "We have been doing it all along." He said, "It may be good for you perhaps, if you do not do it." So they stopped the practice, but the yield declined. Then they reported that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, "I am but a human being. So, when I command you concerning something about religion, make it a point to obey (and act on it) but if I tell you anything as a personal opinion then I am a human being." (Muslim)

Commentary: Madinah was a centre of date production (as it is today too). When he performed the hijrah and came to Madinah, the Prophet ﷺ found that the Madinans combined the male tree of dates with the female in a particular way. This was called Taabeer. Date was not grown in Makkah or anywhere around it. So, this practice was a new thing for the Prophet ﷺ. He asked them why they did that but they could not give the wisdom behind their practice other than that they had been doing it all along, and their fore fathers had been doing it. The Prophet ﷺ took it as a wasteful practice of jahiliyah and suggested that if they gave it up they might find it better. They obeyed the Prophet ﷺ and abandoned the Taabeer but the result was a low produce. They mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said:

أَنَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ إِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ دِينِكُمْ فَخُذُوهُ وَإِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْ رَأْيٍ فَأَنَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ

"(I am but a human being.....) Everything I say is not a religious guidance or based on wahy (revelation) but it is from a mortal. When I command you on a religious matter that becomes obligatory for you to obey but when I give you an opinion on worldly matters that is an opinion from a human being and may be mistaken. What I had said about Taabeer was my personal opinion and personal suggestion."

The fact is that Allah has placed certain peculiarities in different things and only He knows about that. Although, He had put the power to increase production in Taabeer yet He had not taught His Messenger ﷺ about that because that was not necessary, for, he had not come to teach gardening but to give guidance leading to Allah's pleasure and Paradise. He was given that knowledge.

This Hadith tells us also that it is wrong to hold and believe that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had knowledge of everything of the world. Those who imagine that he had such knowledge are unaware of the high station of the Prophet ﷺ.

With this Hadith the Kitab ul-I'tisam bil Kitab wa as sunnah is complete.

INVITATION TO PIETY

Enjoining What is Good and Forbidding What is Evil

The Prophets عليهم السلام are sent by Allah only that they may invite His slaves to piety and, virtue and to guide them to approved deeds and manners and to prevent and save them from every kind of evil. Thus, those slaves will be worthy of Allah's mercy and pleasure in the Hereafter and be safe from His wrath. This mission is entitled in the words of the above caption.

With the termination of the office of prophethood on the death of Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ, the responsibility of carrying on the mission rests on the shoulders of his ummah till the Last Day. The Qur'an says:

{And let there be of you a community who invite to goodness, and enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong. And those — they are the prosperers.} (Aal Imran, 3:104)

{You (O Believers) are the best community raised up for mankind; you enjoin what is right, and forbid what is wrong, and you believe in Allah}

(Aal-Imran, 3:110)

وَلْتَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ أُمَّةٌ يَدْعُونَ إِلَى
الْخَيْرِ وَيَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ
وَيَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ
الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١٠٤﴾ (آل عمران ٣: ١٠٤)

كُنْتُمْ خَيْرَ أُمَّةٍ أُخْرِجَتْ لِلنَّاسِ
تَأْمُرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَتَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ
الْمُنْكَرِ وَتُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ.

(آل عمران ٣: ١١٠)

The entire responsibility for the mission of the Prophet ﷺ rests with the ummah for ever now. He has disclosed to us that those people who discharge this responsibility faithfully are entitled to great blessing. Those that are lethargic in this regard wrong themselves and will suffer terrible consequences. Let us read the following Ahadith in the light of this preamble.

Reward For Invitation to Good

(١٨٨٥/١٧) عَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُودٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ دَلَّ عَلَى خَيْرٍ فَلَهُ مِثْلُ أَجْرِ فَاعِلِهِ..... (رواه مسلم)

(17/1885) Sayyidina Abu Mas'ood رضي الله عنه al-Ansari reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "He who leads (anyone) to a pious task will get a reward equal to the reward of the person who does that pious work.." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Let us explain this Hadith through the example of a man who does not observe salah. Your efforts induced him to resume this obligation as also recital of Qur'an and remembrance of Allah (Zikr) which too he had been neglecting. He also began to pay zakah which he had hitherto avoided. Now, whatever reward he will get in the Hereafter for his observance of these things during this life, Allah will bestow as much reward as a prize to you (in terms of the tidings of this Hadith) because of your tableegh (propagation) which prompted him to piety. The fact is that whatever reward one can earn through Tableegh cannot be matched through any other effort. In the terminology of religious elders this is the tareeq nabuwat (emulation of prophethood) provided it is done purely for Allah's sake and only for His pleasure.

(١٨٨٦/١٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ

دَعَى إِلَى هُدًى كَانَ لَهُ مِثْلُ أَجُورِ مَنْ تَبِعَهُ لَا يَنْقُصُ ذَلِكَ مِنْ أَجُورِهِمْ شَيْئًا

وَمَنْ دَعَى إِلَى ضَلَالَةٍ كَانَ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْإِثْمِ مِثْلُ إِثْمِ مَنْ تَبِعَهُ لَا يَنْقُصُ ذَلِكَ

مِنْ إِثْمِهِمْ شَيْئًا (رواه مسلم)

(18/1886) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone invites (people) to the path of piety then he will get a reward equal to the reward earned by all those people who listened to him and walked on the pious path and performed the pious deed, and, because of that, nothing will be deducted from their reward. (And in the same way,) if anyone leads (people) to the wrong path (and bad deeds) then he will have the sin equal to the accumulated sin of all those people who perpetrate the bad deed and follow the wrong path on his lead, and, because of that, nothing will be reduced from the sin

(and punishment) of those people."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This Hadith not only conveys glad tidings to the inviters to Truth but also warns those who invite others to wickedness. The truth is that the fortunate people who are enabled to invite others to the right guidance are the servants of the mission of the Prophet ﷺ and, in fact, all the Prophets عليهم السلام and they are soldiers of their armies. As for the unfortunate who invite to the wrong path and evil deeds, they are agents of the devil and men of his army. Their fate is spelled out in the Hadith.

(١٨٨٧/١٩) عَنْ أَبِي رَافِعٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَأَنْ يَهْدِيَ اللَّهُ عَلَى يَدَيْكَ رَجُلًا، خَيْرٌ لَكَ مِمَّا طَلَعَتْ عَلَيْهِ الشَّمْسُ وَغَرُبَتْ.

(رواه الطبراني في الكبير)

(19/1887) Sayyidina Abu Rafi رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "That Allah should guide anyone at your hands is better for you than everything on which the sun rises and sets."

(Tabarani in Mu'jam al-Kabeer)

Commentary: Obviously, there is no portion of the world on which the sun does not rise or set. Thus, the Hadith implies that if Allah guides even one man through your effort then it is better and more beneficial for you than that you get all the world from east to west. May Allah cause us to have faith in these sayings and conduct ourselves accordingly.

Encouragement To Command Virtue & Forbid Evil & Warning Against Lethargy

(١٨٨٨/٢٠) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَتَأْمُرُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَتَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ أَوْ لَيُوشِكَنَّ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَبْعَثَ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابًا مِنْ عِنْدِهِ ثُمَّ لَتَنْدَ عَنْهُ، وَلَا يُسْتَجَابُ لَكُمْ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(20/1888) Sayyidina Huzayfah رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, (O Believers!) By Him Who has my life in His Hands, it is incumbent upon you that you should enjoin what is virtuous and that you should forbid what is evil (that is, urge other people to do pious things and guide them to piety, and prevent them from doing evil and bad deeds) otherwise (because of your slackness in this regard) Allah will send His punishment on you. Then you will pray to him but your prayer will not be accepted."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has said in very clear words that if his people neglect their duty to enjoin the pious and forbid the evil then Allah will cause them to suffer trials and punishment. Then if they supplicate Him to ward off the punishment, their supplication will not be accepted.

In my humble view, there is no doubt that the plight of the ummah for many past centuries during which they have experienced trials and punishment and the prayers of their righteous men are unanswered is mostly due to the near suspension of the responsibility imposed upon them by the Prophet ﷺ on Allah's Command. The responsibility concerns the carrying of the programme he had initiated and entrusted his ummah with — to command the right and forbid the evil. The proportion of those who carry out this mission is not even one to every one thousand Muslims.

(١٨٨٩/٢١) عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقِ إِنَّكُمْ تَقْرُونَ هَذِهِ الْآيَةَ "يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَنْ ضَلَّ إِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ" فَإِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ النَّاسَ إِذَا رَأَوْا مُنْكَرًا فَلَمْ يَغَيِّرُوا يُوشِكُ أَنْ يَعُمَّهُمُ اللَّهُ بِعِقَابِهِ.

(رواه ابن ماجه والترمذی)

(21/1889) Sayyidina Abu Bakr Siddiq ﷺ said: You recite the verse

"يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَنْ ضَلَّ إِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ"

(المائدة ١٠٥:٥)

{O you who believe! Guard your own souls. He who has gone astray cannot harm you if you are rightly guided} (5:105)

(He referred to this verse and went on to say that no one should misinterpret this verse, for,) I had heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "When people (become so wicked that when they) see the Shari'ah being violated they do nothing to correct it then there is the risk that Allah would soon take them to task for that."

(Sunan Ibn Majah, Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: This is the 105th verse of al-Ma'idah that Sayyidina

Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه has quoted. The apparent meaning of this verse may perhaps be misinterpreted by some people to believe that their responsibility ceased after putting themselves on the correct path and that they have no responsibility to guide other people.

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه dispelled this misconception when he asserted that he had heard the Prophet ﷺ say that when people become so indifferent as to look the other way when Allah's and His Messenger's commands are violated then they might soon face Allah's punishment.

In the light of this Hadith and other Ahadith and text of the Qur'an, the above verse of al-Ma'idah would be interpreted to mean: O believers! when you are on guidance, obeying Allah and His Messenger (Which includes enjoining the right and forbidding the wrong and working within your capacity to reform and guide Allah's slaves) then you are not responsible for those ungodly people who do not pay heed to you and continue in their wrong ways.

(The Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه "مَنْ رَأَى مِنْكُمْ" "He among you who sees a wrong done must correct it with his hand..... to the end," has been recorded in Kitab ul-Eeman of Ma'riful Hadith. Its message is that if anyone sees the Sha'riah being violated then if he can he must stop it by force. But, if he cannot then he must give an oral advice and a piece of mind. If he does not have even that much strength then he must consider it evil in his heart and have a disliking for it in his heart.

(١٨٩٠/٢٢) عَنْ جَرِيرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ يَكُونُ فِي قَوْمٍ يُعْمَلُ فِيهِمْ بِالْمَعَاصِي يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَى أَنْ يُغَيِّرُوا عَلَيْهِ وَلَا يُغَيِّرُونَ إِلَّا أَصَابَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِعِقَابٍ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَمُوتُوا

(رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(22/1890) Sayyidina Jarir رضي الله عنه ibn Abdullah reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "If a man among a people commits deeds that are sinful and contrary to Shari'ah and those people possess power to correct him but do not correct him (and let him alone as he is) then Allah will involve them in some punishment before they die." (Sunan Abu Dawood, Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: If anyone has the ability to reform and guide the erring one but he does not try that and remains listless then he is committing a sin for which Allah may punish him before the Hereafter in this very life. "اللهم اغفر لنا وارحمنا ولا تعذبنا!" (O Allah, forgive us, and have mercy on us, and do not punish us.)

(١٨٩١/٢٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوْحَى اللَّهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ إِلَى جِبْرِئِيلَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ أَنْ أَقْلِبْ مَدِينَةَ كَذَا وَكَذَا بِأَهْلِهَا، فَقَالَ يَارَبِّ إِنَّ فِيهِمْ عَبْدَكَ فَلَانًا لَمْ يَعْصِكَ طَرْفَةَ عَيْنٍ، قَالَ تَعَالَى أَقْلِبْهَا عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَيْهِمْ فَإِنَّ وَجْهَهُ لَمْ يَتَمَعَّرْ لِي سَاعَةً قَطُّ. (رواه البيهقي في شعب الایمان)

(23/1891) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said that Allah Commanded Jibreel عليه السلام to uproot a certain settlement with all its inhabitants. He submitted, "O Allah! There lives in that place Your so-and-so slave who has never disobeyed You even for the time it takes an eye to flicker." Allah Commanded him to turn over that settlement on that slave and the other inhabitants, for, "Never for a moment, too, did this slave's face change colour for My sake." (Sha'b al-Eeman, by Bayhaqi)

Commentary: There was a place whose dwellers were sinful, on the whole and they did such disobedient deeds as invited Allah's wrath on them. There was, however, a slave who was very obedient to Allah and never committed a sin but at the same time he never felt bad about the evil deeds of other people in the locality and his forehead never showed wrinkles over their wicked conduct. In the sight of Allah, this too was a crime of equal intensity to warrant for him the same punishment.

(١٨٩٢/٢٤) عَنِ الْعُرْسِ بْنِ عَمِيرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا غُمِلَتِ الْخَطِيئَةُ فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَهَدَهَا فَكْرَهَهَا كَانَ كَمَنْ غَابَ عَنْهَا وَمَنْ غَابَ عَنْهَا فَرْضِيهَا كَانَ كَمَنْ شَهَدَهَا (رواه ابو داؤد)

(24/1892) Sayyidina Urs رضي الله عنه ibn Amirah has reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "If sin is committed on a land and the people who live there disapprove of it then (in the sight of Allah) they are like those who are not present there (which means that they will not be taken to task for the sin). And, as for those people who do not live there but they approve of the sin, they are like those who were present there (and partners in sin)."

Commentary: When read with the other Ahadith of this chapter, the Prophet's ﷺ saying would mean that no blame would attach on those who disapprove disobedience to Allah's and His Messenger's commands and try their best to prevent the disobedience and correct it, or, atleast, entertain a deep revulsion to it in their heart: it does not matter if their disapproval and attempts do not bear fruit. They will not be questioned even if the evil persists. (Insha Allah, they will be rewarded!) And, as for those who do not feel repelled at the violation of Shari'ah then, even if they are not at the place of disobedience, they are wrong-doers and partners in sin. May Allah cause us to examine ourselves in the light of these sayings of the Prophet ﷺ.

(١٨٩٣/٢٥) عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَثَلُ الْمُدْهِنِ فِي حُدُودِ اللَّهِ وَالْوَاقِعِ فِيهَا مَثَلُ قَوْمٍ اسْتَهْمُوا سَفِينَةً فَصَارَ
بَعْضُهُمْ فِي أَسْفَلِهَا وَصَارَ بَعْضُهُمْ فِي أَعْلَاهَا فَكَانَ الَّذِي فِي أَسْفَلِهَا يَمُرُّ بِالْمَاءِ
عَلَى الَّذِينَ فِي أَعْلَاهَا، فَتَأَذُّوْا بِهِ فَآخِذًا فَاسًا فَجَعَلَ يَنْقُرُ أَسْفَلَ السَّفِينَةِ فَاتَوَّه
فَقَالُوا مَا لَكَ؟ قَالَ تَأَذُّيْتُمْ بِي وَلَا بُدَّ لِي مِنَ الْمَاءِ، فَإِنْ أَخَذُوا عَلَى يَدَيْهِ نَجَّوْهُ
وَنَجَّوْا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَإِنْ تَرَكَوْهُ أَهْلَكَوْهُ وَأَهْلَكُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ.
(رواه البخارى)

(25/1893) Sayyidina Nu'man رضي الله عنه ibn Bashir reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The example of those people who show flexibility in regard to Allah's limits and commands concerning them (and do not enforce checks on violation) and of those people who violate the limits of Allah and disobey His Commands is like the example of a group of people who draw mutual lots and board a ship. Some of them got to occupy the lower deck while others got the upper deck. So, one of the lower deck passed through those on the upper deck while he carried water whereby they experienced inconvenience (and expressed their displeasure). So, the man of the lower deck took a hammer and began of bore a hole in the bottom of the ship (so that he could fetch water directly from the sea without going up). Those in the upper deck came to him and asked what is wrong with you? He said: You find (my coming and going for water) inconvenient to you (and you showed anger) but water is indispensable (for life. I bore the hole to fetch water." Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "If the shipmates hold his hand (and prevent him from boring the hole) then they will save him from destruction and themselves too. But, if they leave him to do what he does then they will consign him to death and themselves too. (All of them will drown)."

Commentary: Necessary explanation has been provided within brackets in the translation. It is very easy to understand Hadith. It discloses that the piety of the pious will not help them when Allah's punishment descends on a wrong-doing people if the pious do not preach to them. In this regard, the Qur'an also says:

”وَاتَّقُوا فِتْنَةً لَا تُصِيبُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْكُمْ خَاصَّةً وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ

(الأنفال ٨: ٢٥)

العِقَابِ“

{And fear the trial which shall not afflict in particular the evil doers alone among you. And know that Allah is severe in retribution}

(al-Anfal, 8:25)

Conditions In Which Responsibility To Preach is Waived

عَنْ أَبِي ثَعْلَبَةَ الْخُسَيْنِيِّ فِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى ”يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَنْ ضَلَّ إِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ“ قَالَ أَمَّا وَاللَّهِ سَأَلْتُ عَنْهَا خَبِيرًا، سَأَلْتُ عَنْهَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ بَلِ اتَّخِرُوا بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَتَنَاهَوْا عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ حَتَّى إِذَا رَأَيْتَ شُحًّا مُطَاعًا وَهَوًى مُتَّبَعًا وَدُنْيَا مُؤَثَّرَةً وَاعْجَابَ كُلِّ ذِي رَأْيٍ بِرَأْيِهِ فَعَلَيْكَ بِخَاصَّةِ نَفْسِكَ وَدَعِ الْعَوَامَ فَإِنَّ مِنْ وَرَثَتِكُمْ أَيَّامًا الصَّبْرُ فِيهِنَّ مِثْلُ الْقَبْضِ عَلَى الْجَمْرِ، لِلْعَامِلِ فِيهِنَّ مِثْلُ أَجْرِ خَمْسِينَ رَجُلًا يَعْمَلُونَ مِثْلَ عَمَلِكُمْ

(رواه الترمذی)

(26/1894) Sayyidina Abu Tha'labah (رضی اللہ عنہ) al-Khushani reported about Allah's words:

”يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْفُسُكُمْ لَا يَضُرُّكُمْ مَنْ ضَلَّ إِذَا اهْتَدَيْتُمْ“ (المائدة ١٠٥: ١)

that (in response to a man's question) he said that he had asked about this verse to that being who was best aware (of its meaning, message and Allah's Command), the Messenger ﷺ of Allah. So he said, "(Do not misinterpret this verse) Rather, stick to enjoining that which is right and forbidding that which is wrong till you see that the temptation to stinginess and amassing wealth is predominant and (instead of Allah's and His Messenger's commands) personal desires are obeyed, and (the Hereafter is forgotten and) only this life is made the ambition, and, everyone is slave to this own opinion and self projection. At such a time, worry about yourself and leave aside the masses (to Allah) because, after that, such a time will also come that (Keeping to religion and following Shari'ah) with patience and stead-fastness will be (as difficult) as to pick up burning charcoal. In those days, those who abide by Shari'ah will earn a reward equal to the reward of fifty men who perform deeds as you do."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Abu Umayyah Sha'bani رحمه الله عليه, a Tabi'ee, had asked Sayyidina Abu Tha'labah Khushani رضى الله عنه about the same 105th verse of al-Ma'idah about which we have seen Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه words above. He replied that he himself had asked Allah's Messenger ﷺ about this verse (because the words could be misconstrued to imply that it was enough for one to correct his own life to righteousness and no responsibility lay on him to preach to other people). The Prophet ﷺ corrected the impression by his words narrated in the Hadith. The gist of that is that apart from worrying about oneself, one must worry about setting other people too on the right course. He must command that which is virtuous and forbid the disapproved, for, that is a religious duty and Allah's Command. So, that must be constantly done until the ummah's condition worsens to the extent that stinginess becomes its nature, and wealth is like a god to it, and instead of the Commands of Allah and His Messenger personal desires are preferred, and the Hereafter is neglected while the present life is made the sole aim, and self-conceit and vanity is the only guide-line. At such a time, preaching would be meaningless and there would be no hope of getting results. Therefore, one must stop worrying about other people and sit down to reform oneself and keep away from sin.

The Prophet ﷺ concluded by saying that a time would come later when it would be as difficult to keep to righteousness and practice religion as it is difficult to hold burning charcoal in the hand. Thus, to keep oneself on religion would itself be like a jihad. The responsibility to preach to others would cease. About those who conduct themselves on true religion in such adverse, uncompromising times, the Prophet ﷺ said, "They would get as much reward as fifty of you get now."

Jihad & Martyrdom

As we know, Allah sent all the Prophets and Messenger so that they may teach the True Religion His Slaves. It is the invitation to worship Allah and lead a noble, righteous life, and to try to abide by it. It would spell reformation and success for them in this world and the next and it would be an assurance of Allah's pleasure and mercy and Paradise.

It is stated in the Qur'an and it is our belief that all Prophets عليهم السلام gave this invitation in their respective times and worked hard towards this end. But each one of them faced stiff opposition from their people who not only did not believe in them but also prevented others from believing. Those among the unbelievers who were powerful persecuted the Prophets عليهم السلام and the believers. They were more harmful than snakes and scorpions with the result that on such people Allah's punishment descended and they were exterminated out of existence.

”وَمَا ظَلَمَهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ“ (النحل ١٦: ٢٣)

{And Allah wronged them not, but they used to wrong themselves}

(an-Nehl, 16:33)

The Qur'an has spoken of such people in detail.

The Prophet ﷺ — Khatam an Nabiyeen — Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ was the last of Prophets عليهم السلام. He also invited people to the True Religion. Some pious-natured creatures of Allah accepted his call and gave up the life of disbelief and idolatry, of sin and immodesty. But most of the chiefs and notables gave a stiff opposition and persecuted the Prophet ﷺ himself and those who had believed with him particularly, the poor and weak. The wicked people of Makkah like Abu Jahl and Abu Lahb etc. deserved to receive punishment like the ancient people and to be put out of existence, but Allah has made the Prophet ﷺ not only as Sayyid al-Mursaleen (chief of the Messengers) and Khatam an Nabiyeen (seal of the Prophets) but also as Rahamat ul lilaalameen (Mercy to the worlds). Therefore, He had assured him that even his worst enemies would not receive punishment from the heavens but their strength would be weakened by the force of the Believers themselves, who would be regarded as armies of Allah. When that moment drew near, the command was issued to make hijrah to Madinah. This was the beginning of the second stage of the call to True Religion. Allah Commanded the faithful to be prepared to lay down their lives and sacrifice all they had to annihilate the enemies of Islam. This is called jihad wa-qital fi sabeel Allah and to lay down one's life on this path is martyrdom.

Readers would have understood from this introduction that the armed struggle of the Believers against disbelief and disbelievers (whether offensive or defensive) would be regarded as jihad in the cause of Allah, by Allah and His Messenger and Shari'ah only if the aim is protection and help of the True Religion, or clearing the way of it and entitling Allah's slaves to His mercy and Paradise. However, if war is fought to annex land and receive wealth, or to raise aloft the banner of one's people or country then that is not jihad in the cause of Allah.

Readers would have learnt also that in the Shari'ah jihad is a great mercy. While the rejectors and persecutors of previous Prophets عليهم السلام suffered heavenly punishment in the past, now that will never descend till the Last Day. So, jihad is like a replacement for that. But Allah knows best.

Here now are the Ahadith that enumerate the excellences of jihad and martyrdom.

(١٨٩٥/٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ رَضِيَ بِاللَّهِ رُبًّا وَبِالْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ رَسُولًا وَجَبَتْ لَهُ الْجَنَّةُ فَعَجَبَ لَهَا أَبُو سَعِيدٍ فَقَالَ أَعِدَهَا عَلَيَّ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ فَأَعَادَهَا عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ وَآخِرَى يَرْفَعُ اللَّهُ

بِهَا الْعَبْدَ مِائَةَ دَرَجَةٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ بَيْنَ كُلِّ دَرَجَتَيْنِ كَمَا بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ،
 قَالَ وَمَا هِيَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ الْجِهَادُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ الْجِهَادُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
 (رواه مسلم)

(27/1895) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه al-Khudri reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (one day), "He who being pleased and happy believes from his heart sincerely in Allah as his Owner and Lord, in Islam as his religion and in Muhammad as Allah's Messenger and the guide (of mankind) is assured of Paradise." (On hearing this good tiding from the Prophet ﷺ, the narrator) Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه Khudri was much happy and he requested (the Prophet ﷺ), "O Messenger of Allah! Do repeat the same thing." So, he said that all over again (and with that) he (also) said, "There is one more religious deed (which is so great in Allah's sight that) Allah will elevate the doer of that deed a hundred degrees in Paradise, each two degrees will be as far away as heaven and earth are." (Hearing that) Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه al-Khudri asked, "Messenger of Allah! What is that deed?" He said, "It is jihad fi sabeel lillah, jihad in the cause of Allah, jihad in the cause of Allah!" (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Thus if anyone believes from the core of his heart that Allah is his Lord, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger and Islam is his religion then his life will be an Islamic life, he will be obedient to his Lord, and follower of the Prophet ﷺ. He gave the glad tidings to these slaves of Allah that they will be admitted to Paradise which is assured to them. Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه al-Khudri was deeply happy on receiving this good news (perhaps Allah had blessed already with the features described by the Prophet ﷺ), so, he requested (happy that he was) to be retold of this tiding. When he repeated the words, the Prophet ﷺ added that Allah would elevate the performer of another deed to a rank a hundred degrees higher in Paradise. When he asked what that deed was, the Prophet ﷺ said, "الْجِهَادُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ" "Jihad fi sabeel illah, jihad in the way of Allah, jihad in the way of Allah."

The Prophet ﷺ repeated that three times and it shows how high he held jihad in his heart. How much he encouraged us to it!

The facts of the Hereafter, Paradise, and Hell which the Qur'an speakes of will be known to us truly when we make it there, for, we have no example for that here in this world. We must believe what we are told by Allah and His Messenger about these things.

(١٨٩٦/٢٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَوْ لَا أَنَّ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ لَا تَطِيبُ أَنْفُسُهُمْ أَنْ يَتَخَلَّفُوا
عَنِّي وَلَا أَجِدُ مَا أَحْمِلُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ مَا تَخَلَّفْتُ عَنْ سَرِيَّةٍ تَغْزُو فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِي
نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَوَدِدْتُ أَنْ أُقْتَلَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ أُحْيَى ثُمَّ أُقْتَلَ ثُمَّ أُحْيَى ثُمَّ أُقْتَلَ
ثُمَّ أُحْيَى ثُمَّ أُقْتَلَ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(28/1896) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "By Him in whose Hand my soul is, were it not that most & men among the Believers dislike to be left behind me when I go for jihad and I do not have enough means of conveyance for them, I would certainly not remain behind any sariya (expedition going for jihad, and would have taken part in every jihad). By Him in whose Hand my soul is, it is my longing that I should be martyred in the path of Allah, brought back life; martyred again, brought back to life, again; martyred once again, again brought to life; and martyred once again."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Hadith brings out the greatness of jihad and martyrdom in the path of Allah. The Prophet ﷺ said that it was a desire in his heart that he should accompany every party that goes forward to wage jihad but, he could not because there were many devoted Muslims who would not be pleased to stay behind while he advanced. Besides, he did not have enough means of conveyance for all of them. Therefore, not accompany the expedition on jihad. He said in expression of his longing to take part in jihad. "By Him Who holds my life, it is my desire that I should be killed by the enemy on the battle-field. Then Allah should give me life again, only to be killed again in His path and He may revive me again. And, I may be martyred in that way again, and give life once more, and I may give that up again and get martyred.

(١٨٩٧/٢٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ يُحِبُّ أَنْ يَرْجَعَ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا وَلَهُ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا الشَّهِيدُ يَتَمَنَّى أَنْ يَرْجَعَ إِلَى الدُّنْيَا فَيَقْتَلَ عَشْرَ مَرَّاتٍ لِمَا يَرَى مِنَ الْكِرَامَةِ

(رواه البخاري و مسلم)

(29/1897) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "After being admitted to Paradise, no one would like to be returned to earth even if he is given everything in it (and he is made owner thereof). However, one who was martyred in the path of Allah and admitted to Paradise would cherish that he should be sent back to earth and he should be martyred (not once but) ten times in the cause of Allah. He will make that wish because he will see how the martyrs are honoured and welcomed in Paradise (and what rank they are given)."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

(١٨٩٨/٣٠) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْعَاصِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْقَتْلُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ يُكَفِّرُ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ إِلَّا الدَّيْنَ

(رواه مسلم)

(30/1898) Sayyidina Abdullah رضي الله عنه ibn Amr al-Aas reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "To be martyred in Allah's cause is an expiation for all sins except debt."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The shortcomings of a man in obeying Allah's Commands and in giving rights and his faults and sins will all be atoned by giving up his life in the path of Allah and being martyred. Of course, if he has a debt or any right payable to a fellow-man then such things will not be forgiven even through martyrdom. This Hadith tells us of the greatness of martyrdom but also the seriousness of rights of fellow-men. May Allah enable us to learn from it.

(١٨٩٩/٣١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الشَّهِيدُ لَا يَجِدُ أَلَمَ الْقَتْلِ إِلَّا كَمَا يَجِدُ أَحَدُكُمْ أَلَمَ الْقُرْصَةِ.

(رواه الترمذی والنسائی والدارمی)

(31/1899) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, The one who is martyred in the cause of Allah feels only that much pain as much one of you feels on being stung by an ant." (Jama'i Tirmizi, Sunan Nasa'i, Sunan Da'rami)

Commentary: When anyone is operated upon, he is injected with pain-killing medicine or he is anaesthetize so that he loses sensation and feels no pain. Thus, the slave of Allah who is martyred undergoes such a condition that the only sensation he gets is like the stinging of an ant.

In Jami' Tirmizi itself there is a Hadith which says that when a man is martyred in the path of Allah, he is shown, at the very time, his place in Paradise (يرى مقعده من الجنة). The sight of Paradise itself is so very pleasing that the pain of being killed cannot be felt often that.¹

(١٩٠٠/٣٢) عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَنْ سَأَلَ الشَّهَادَةَ بِصِدْقٍ بَلَغَهُ اللَّهُ مَنَازِلَ الشُّهَدَاءِ وَإِنْ مَاتَ عَلَى فِرَاشِهِ.
(رواه مسلم)

(32/1900) Sayyidina Sahl عليه السلام ibn Hunayf reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone supplicates Allah with a true heart to grant him martyrdom then Allah will raise him to the station and rank of the martyrs even though he may die on his bed."
(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: In our times, the door to Fighting for Allah and

①. There is an incident of current period. Mawlana Thanavi's رحمة الله عليه Khalifah Mawlana Mufti Muhammad رحمة الله عليه Hasan Amritsari had migrated to Lahore from Amritsar on the portion of the Sub-continent. Here he established Jami'Ashrafiyah. He had a wound on his feet which soon spread upto his knees and his thighs. The doctors decided that his leg must be amputated from his thigh down. The Mawlana consented to that and was brought to the operation tables. According to procedure, the doctors prepared to anaesthetize him, but he told them that it was not necessary and they might carry on without making him un-conscious. The Doctors explained to him that it was a long operation and his bone would also be severed and it was necessary to put him under anaesthesia. The Mawlana was unrelenting and insisted that they should carry on without anaesthetizing him. He took a rosary in hand and turned his face on the other side. The Doctors submitted to his demand and commenced the operation without applying anaesthesia. It took then about two and a half hours during which the Mawlana lied down with the rosary in hand. The doctors were very surprised and amazed, for, this thing was beyond their imagination. Later on, one of them, who had become devoted, asked the Mawlana, "What is the secret?" He said, "At that time, Allah had shwon me the reward against the pain and He had engrossed me in its sight." Some of the witnesses of this operation would still be alive in Lahore. Allah's affairs are far beyond our imaginations.

martyrdom is shut. However, this Hadith tells us that to those people who keep the merits of martyrdom in mind and pray to attain it, Allah will grant them the position of martyrs in view of their request and intention.

(١٩٠١/٣٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَجَعَ مِنْ غَزْوَةِ تَبُوكَ فَدَنَا مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ فَقَالَ إِنَّ بِالْمَدِينَةِ أَقْوَامًا مَاسِرْتُمْ مَسِيرًا وَلَا قَطَعْتُمْ وَادِيًا إِلَّا كَانُوا مَعَكُمْ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَهُمْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ؟ قَالَ وَهُمْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ حَبَسَهُمُ الْعُدْرُ.
(رواه البخارى ورواه مسلم عن جابر)

(33/1901) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that when they returned from the Battle of Tabook and had approached Madinah Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There are some people in Madinah who were with you in this whole journey. When you crossed some valley, even then they were with you. "Some of the colleagues of the journey pointed out, "O Messenger of Allah! They were in Madinah (how then were they with us in the journey?)" He said, "Yes, they resided at Madinah itself and could not accompany us for some reason and helplessness."

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: There were some of the Companions رضي الله عنهم in Madinah who wished to accompany the Prophet ﷺ in the expedition of Tabook. They were determined but they could not join because of some reason. As their intention to accompany was sincere, they were recorded by Allah among the participants. In a version of this hadith the words are إِلَّا شَرَكُوكُمْ فِي الْأَجْرِ (because of their sincere intention those Believers were your partners in the reward). According to this Hadith, anyone who intends to join in a pious work but cannot do that under some compulsion, Allah will reward him because of his intention.

(١٩٠٢/٣٤) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَبْوَابَ الْجَنَّةِ تَحْتَ ظِلَالِ السُّيُوفِ.
(رواه مسلم)

(34/1902) Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ari رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The gates of Paradise are under the shade of swords."
(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: In the field of jihad where swords are swung overhead and the warriors who place their lives in the way of Allah are martyred, there alone are the gates of Paradise, wide open. He who is martyred in Allah's path enters Paradise through these gates at the same moment. From this report of Saheeh Muslim it seems that Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضي الله عنه had narrated this saying of the Prophet ﷺ during a jihad when fighting was in full swing. It is narrated further down that on hearing him a slave of Allah got up. He seemed to be in bad condition and he asked, "O Abu Musa did you hear the Prophet ﷺ say this with your own ears?" He confirmed that he had himself heard him say that. The man then went to his friends and said, "I have come to convey to you my last greeting. Accept my fare-well salaam." He threw away the sheath of his sword and with the naked sword pierced into enemy ranks. He fought till he was martyred and attained his ambition. According to this saying of the Prophet ﷺ, he entered into Paradise through one of its doors.

(١٩٠٣/٣٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلُ الْمُجَاهِدِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ الصَّائِمِ الْقَائِمِ الْقَائِمِ بِلَايَاتِ اللَّهِ لَا يَفْتُرُ مِنْ صِيَامٍ وَلَا صَلَاةٍ حَتَّى يَرْجِعَ الْمُجَاهِدُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ . (رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(35/1903) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The mujahid (warrior) in the path of Allah is equal (in the sight of Allah) to the man who observes fasting regularly, stands before Allah in worship and recites the verses of Allah, not resting from tiredness through fasting and worship. (He is thus equal in Allah's sight) till he returns home."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The man who leaves home to participate in jihad is constantly in worship like one who fasts continuously and stands in worship and recites Allah's verses.

(١٩٠٤/٣٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَيْنَانِ لَا تَمْسُهُمَا النَّارُ عَيْنٌ بَكَتْ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ اللَّهِ وَعَيْنٌ تَحْرُسُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
(رواه الترمذی)

(36/1904) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There are two eyes that the fire of Hell cannot even touch, the eye that weeps in fear of Allah and the eye that kept guard (and vigil during the night) in jihad and served as such." (Jami' Tirmizi)

(١٩٠٥/٣٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَعَذْوَةٌ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَوْ رَوْحَةٌ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا. (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(37/1905) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "To get out in the way of Allah on a morning, or on an evening is better than the world and whatever it contains."

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This means that to go out in Allah's way even for a little while is better than the world and everything in it. We must believe that compared to the reward that we shall get for it in the Hereafter the world and whatever is in it is nothing. The world and its contents are ephemeral but that reward is ever-lasting.

(١٩٠٦/٣٨) عَنْ أَبِي عَبَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَغْبَرْتُ قَدَمًا عَبْدٍ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَتَمَسَّهُ النَّارُ. (رواه البخارى)

(38/1906) Sayyidina Abu Abs رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "It cannot be that once a man's feet become dusty on walking in the path of Allah, the fire of hell would touch them."

(Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: Imam Tirmizi has also transmitted this Hadith of Abu Abs رضي الله عنه with the addition that one of its narrators, Yazeed ibn Abu Maryam, reported that he was going (towards the Tami' Masjid) to offer the Friday salah and he met Abayah ibn Rifa'ah tabi'ee who said to him:

"Glad tidings to you that your feet (with which you walk up to the Jami' Masjid) are walking on the path of Allah. And I have heard Abu Abs say that Allah's Messenger said: If anyone's feet walk in the path of Allah and become dusty then

”أُبَشِّرُ فَإِنَّ خُطَاكَ هَذِهِ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا عَبَسٍ يَقُولُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَغْبَرَتْ قَدَمَاهُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَهُمَا حَرَامٌ عَلَى النَّارِ“ they are forbidden to the fire (and it cannot even touch them)"

Abayah ibn Rifa'ah, tabi'ee, discloses through this statement that the words in the path of Allah' do not restrict their application to jihad and fighting alone but encompass a greater field; to go to offer salah and to run about in service of religion and of what places Allah are also jihad. Similarly, the Hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه before that (لَعْدُوَّةٌ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَوْ رُوْحَةً.....الخ) encompasses everyone who strives sincerely for Allah and His religion.

(١٩٠٧/٣٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَغْزُ وَلَمْ يُحَدِّثْ بِهِ نَفْسَهُ مَاتَ عَلَى شُعْبَةٍ مِنْ نِفَاقٍ. (رواه مسلم)
(39/1907) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "He who dies without ever having participated in jihad, or thought of it (or formed an intention to participate) has died on a mode of hypocrisy." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Qur'an says in surah al-Hujrat:

{The believers are only those who believe in Allah and His Messenger, then they doubt not, and struggle hard with their riches and their lives in the way of Allah. Those — they are the truthful ones.}

(al-Hujarat, 49:15)

إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ
وَرَسُولِهِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَرْتَابُوا وَجَاهَدُوا
بِمَاوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ ○

(الحجرات ٤٩: ١٥)

This verse declares that jihad in the path of Allah is a necessary part of true faith. The true Believers are only they whose lives and Records of Deeds contain jihad (if not a practical participation then, at least, a wish and an intention). Therefore, one who departs from this world without these things has departed not as a True Believer but as a kind of hypocrite.

(١٩٠٨/٤٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَقِيَ اللَّهَ بِغَيْرِ أَثَرٍ مِنْ جِهَادٍ لَقِيَ اللَّهَ وَفِيهِ ثُلْمَةٌ. (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)
(40/1908) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone is presented before Allah without any trace of jihad on him then he has met Him with defect and a blot (on his religion)." (Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: This Hadith too may be explained in the same way as the one before it. In studying this Hadith and others like it, we must remember that in the terminology of Qur'an and Hadith jihad is not merely fighting and war with weapons. Rather, it is to undertake any kind of effort to help and support religion at any time necessary; such a struggle is jihad for that occasion. The slaves of Allah who struggle according to the needs of time and sacrifice their life and property are mujahids (warriors) on the path of Allah. We will speak on this in detail later on.

(١٩٠٩/٤١) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ جَهَّزَ غَازِيًا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَقَدْ غَزَا وَمَنْ خَلَّفَ غَازِيًا فِي أَهْلِهِ فَقَدْ غَزَا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(41/1909) Sayyidina Zayd رضي الله عنه ibn Khalid reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone provides a participant of jihad in the way of Allah with equipment of jihad then (in the sight of Allah) he too has participated in jihad and battle. And, if anyone deputises for a warrior and looks after his family then he too has participated in jihad. (Both these kinds will receive a reward for jihad and they will be recorded with Allah as mujahids)

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This saying of the Prophet ﷺ outlines the principle that one who equips a person who is engaged in helping out religion in a large way, or looks after his family in his absence is, indeed, entitled to a full reward and is regarded as being in service of religion. Those of us who cannot directly take part in a large-scale religious mission can, at least, help out those who participate and their dependants. We will then be in the same category as those who are in the fore-front and in active participation and get a full reward. May Allah enable us!

(١٩١٠/٤٢) عَنْ أَنَسِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ جَاهِدُوا

الْمُشْرِكِينَ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ وَالسِّنْتِكُمْ. (رواه ابوداؤد، والنسائي، والدارمي)

(42/1910) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Wage jihad against the polytheists and idolaters with your life, property and tongue." (Sunan Abu Dawood, Sunan Nasa'i Sunan Darimi)

Commentary: Wage jihad according to the opportunity and demands of time against the disbelievers and polytheists to bring them to believe in unity of Allah and to the True Religion and to weaken them so that the call of Truth may be made unhindered. Use your life and wealth to this end and speak with the tongue too. The wide context of jihad includes spending money for the call to Truth and speaking with the tongue (and using the pen).

A Clarification:

The word jihad is used in Urdu only to describe the armed war fought for Allah and His Messenger and for the religion against the enemies of Allah. However, In Arabic and the terminology of the Qur'an and Hadith, jihad is to struggle firmly and use possible strength against the rivals to achieve a goal. This struggle may turn out into a war, or into any other form. (The word is used in the Qur'an often in this sense.)

The Prophet ﷺ stayed at Makkah for about thirteen years after being made Prophet. During this entire period, not only was it not permitted to him to wage jihad through the sword and engage in war but also these things were disallowed. The command applied was “كُفُّوا أَيْدِيَكُمْ.....” (withhold your hands from fighting and war). The surah al-Furqan was revealed during the Makkan period. The Prophet is told:

”فَلَا تَطِعِ الْكَافِرِينَ وَجَاهِدْهُمْ بِهِ جِهَادًا كَبِيرًا“ (الفرقان ٥٢:٢٥)

{So (O Prophet), obey not the disbelievers but strive against them with a great striving, with this (Qur'an)} (25:52)

The Prophet ﷺ is told not to submit to them but continue to wage a powerful jihad (struggle) against them with the Qur'an. This verse, obviously, does not speak of jihad with the sword or warfare, but through the Qur'an the struggle of calling them and preaching of them. And, the verse calls it jihad; in fact, jihad kabeer and jihad azeem.

Surah al-Ankaboot too was revealed at Makkah before hijrah. It has a verse:

“وَمَنْ جَاهَدَ فَإِنَّمَا يُجَاهِدُ لِنَفْسِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَنِيٌّ عَنِ الْعَالَمِينَ” (العنكبوت ٦:٢٩)

{And whosoever strives, strives only for himself. Surely Allah is Independent of (His) creatures.} (29:6)

The person who engages in jihad (in the cause of Allah) truly wages it for his own benefit. (Allah does not benefit from it in the least.) Allah is Independent.

In the same surah, its last verse says:

“وَالَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا فِينَا لَنَهْدِيَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ”

{And those who strive hard for Our cause, We shall certainly guide them in Our ways. And surely Allah is with the good-doers} (29:69)

Obviously, both these verses of Surah al-Ankaboot do not use the word jihad in the sense of fighting with the sword. Rather, it is striving and toiling in Allah's way and for His pleasure in whichever from it be. Every sincere struggle for Allah and giving up life and property, luxury and comfort and full utilisation of the capabilities given by Allah are different stages of jihad in the path of Allah. The opportunity to engage in that is available always and in every corner of the world.

Of course jihad with the sword and fighting in the path of Allah is a superior kind of jihad from certain angles. The giving up of life and martyrdom in this path is a greatest honour for a Believer, for which the Prophet ﷺ himself expressed his earnest longing as we have seen earlier. The next Hadith throws more light on it.

(١٩١١/٤٣) عَنْ فَضَالَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ الْمُجَاهِدُ مَنْ جَاهَدَ نَفْسَهُ

(رواه الترمذی)

(43/1911) Sayyidina Fudalah رضی اللہ عنہ ibn Ubayd reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "The mujahid (warrior) is he who wages jihad against his own self." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Qur'an says: “إِنَّ النَّفْسَ لَأَمَّارَةٌ بِالسُّوءِ” {Surely human soul incites to evil} (Yusuf, 12:53) Thus, the slave of Allah who fights against his base desires — instead of obeying them, he obeys the Commands of Allah — it is about him that the Prophet ﷺ has said in this Hadith that he is the true mujahid (warrior). In the same way, in this series of Ma'arif ul-Hadith in Kitab al-Mu'ashirah when speaking of treatment of parents, the Hadith has been narrated in which the Prophet ﷺ has described service to parents as jihad

(ففيهما فجا هد)

The Sphere of Martyrdom

Just as the word jihad has a vast connotation, so too Allah's Messenger ﷺ said that the word martyrdom had a wide meaning. Thus many who are not killed in the battle-field by the disbelievers but die suddenly in accidents, etc. are also included among martyrs.

(١٩١٢/٤٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
مَاتَعُدُّونَ الشَّهِيدَ فَيَكُمُ قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ مَنْ قُتِلَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ،
قَالَ إِنْ شُهِدَ أُمَّتِي إِذَا لَقِيَ مَنْ قُتِلَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ وَمَنْ مَاتَ فِي
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ، وَمَنْ مَاتَ فِي الطَّاعُونَ فَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ، وَمَنْ مَاتَ فِي الْبَطْنِ
فَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ (رواه مسلم)

(44/1912) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked (his Companions رضى الله عنهم), "Whom do you regard as *shaheed*¹ (martyrs) among yourselves?" They said, "O Messenger of Allah! The shaheed is he who gets killed in the cause of Allah. He said, "In that case the martyrs of my ummah will be very few. (Listen!) He is a martyr who is killed in Allah's way, and he who dies on the way of Allah (like the journey for jihad), he too is a martyr. And he who dies in plague is a martyr too. And, he who suffers from a stomach disease is also a martyr (the stomach disease could be: chlorea, gastro-enteritis, diarrhoea, dropsy, etc.) (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The fact is that the shaheed (martyrs) are really those who are killed in the battlefield by the disbelievers and polytheists. (There are special commands about them in Shari'ah. For example, they are not given bath and are buried in the garments they wear). However, Allah, the merciful that He has included in this definition some of those who die from unusual disease or accidents. He has promised to give them the rank of shaheed in the Hereafter. Some are mentioned in the above Hadith and others will be mentioned in the Ahadith to follow. To make a distinction, the first kind are called shaheed Haqiqee and the other kinds Shaheed Hukmee, the commands of bath and shroud do not apply to the second kind. Their bodies are treated like ordinary deaths.

①. The word is shaheed (singular) and shuhada (plural) but we have shaheed in English for singular and plural.

(١٩١٣/٤٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الشُّهَدَاءُ خَمْسَةٌ الْمَطْعُونُ وَالْمَبْطُونُ وَالْغَرِيقُ وَصَاحِبُ الْهَدْمِ وَالشَّهِيدُ فِي
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(45/1913) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The shaheed are of five kinds ❶ Those who die of plague, ❷ Those who die from stomach ailment. ❸ Those who die from drowning. ❹ And, those who die under crumbling buildings, etc. ❺ And, the shaheed in the way of Allah (on the field of ji-had). (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

(١٩١٤/٤٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَوْتُ
غُرْبَةٍ شَهَادَةٌ

(رواه ابن ماجه)
(46/1914) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Death during journey is martyrdom." (Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: If we ponder over these Ahadith, we will learn that Allah through His Mercy has given the rank of martyrdom in some form to those who die a sudden death or a painful or pitiful death. He will give them reward of some kind of martyrdom. This is a great glad tiding for those who die in this way and a great consolation for their heirs. May Allah cause us to believe.

In these present times many accidents take place whether of automobiles or railways or aeroplanes. There are also sudden deaths through heart-related ailments.

We have full faith in Allah's Mercy that He will treat all of them with kindness. Surely, Allah's Mercy is very vast.

كتاب الفتن

KITABUL FITAN

(BOOK OF TRIALS AND AFFLICTIONS)

RELIGIOUS DECLINE & TRIALS FACED BY THE UMMAH

At the same time as the Prophet ﷺ gave guidance to the ummah on different religious matters that we have seen so far, he also warned them of decline in religion, changes and trials; and he also gave guidance for such occasions. Allah had revealed to him that just as earlier people had suffered religious decline and they had gone into error, so too his ummah will go through a similar period and deprive themselves of Allah's blessings. Thus, the Prophet ﷺ had opportunity to guide his people in this regard.

Sayings of the Prophet ﷺ on this subject are found in Books of Hadith in their section. Book or Chapter of Fitn. They are not merely foretellings but their aim is to forewarn the ummah of the trials they would face and to guide them on how to save themselves from the effects of the trials.

The Ahadith that follow may be read in the light of this preamble and we must examine ourselves and seek guidance from them.

(١٩١٥/١) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَتَتَّبِعُنَّ سُنَنَ مَنْ قَبْلَكُمْ شِبْرًا بِشِبْرٍ وَذِرَاعًا بِذِرَاعٍ، حَتَّىٰ لَوْ دَخَلُوا جُحْرَ ضَبٍّ تَبِعْتُمُوهُمْ قِيلَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ الْيَهُودَ وَالنَّصَارَىٰ؟ قَالَ فَمَنْ؟ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)
(1/1915) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed رضي الله عنه al-Khurdi reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Certainly you (my ummah) will follow in the footsteps of the earlier people — span for span, and cubit for cubit — and if they had entered the bear's den, you too would do the same thing." Some one asked, "O Messenger of Allah, do you mean the Jews and Christians?" He said, "Who else?"
(Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: The word cubit is the length from finger tips to the elbow which is equal to two spans, and the full expression means step by step. So, the Prophet's ﷺ saying means: Some people of my ummah will follow the earlier communities step by step so that they will do the same things the earlier ones had done and commit the same wrongs they had committed. If the earlier people had done some foolish things like going into a bear's den, someone from my ummah too will try the same foolish thing. (They will thus ape them in everything.) When someone asked if by earlier communities he meant the Jews and Christians, the Prophet ﷺ confirmed that.

This, as we have said earlier, is more a warning to protect themselves than a prediction.

(١٩١٦/٢) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ سَبَّكَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَصَابِعَهُ، وَقَالَ كَيْفَ أَنْتَ يَا عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَمْرٍو إِذَا بَقِيَتْ حُنَالَةٌ قَدْ مَزَجَتْ غُهُوْذَهُمْ وَأَمَانَاتَهُمْ وَاخْتَلَفُوا فَصَارُوا هَكَذَا، قَالَ فَكَيْفَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ تَأْخُذُ مَا تَعْرِفُ وَتَدَعُ مَا تَنْكُرُ وَتَقْبِلُ عَلَى خَاصَّتِكَ، وَتَدْعُهُمْ وَعَوَامَهُمْ.

(رواه البخارى)

(2/1916) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ؓ reported that one day the Prophet ﷺ interlaced his fingers of one hand into those of another and asked, "O Abdullah! What will be your state and reaction when only the dregs or the worst kind of people remain. They will cheat in their covenants and dealings and they would have (serious) disagreements (and bickerings). They will intermingle mutually (just like my fingers are now interlaced)." Abdullah ibn Amr ؓ submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, how should I conduct myself then (at that time.))" The Prophet ﷺ said, "The course or deed that you find correct and approved, choose that and shun that which you consider wrong. Keep all your attention on yourself (and think of yourself). And abstain from the dregs and incapable people who fight among themselves and their masses." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: The word in the Hadith حنار means dregs. It is used here for the worst of men who have no human quality, and are absolutely incapable. They would deceive people.

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr al-Aas ؓ was a young Companion and very pious. It was the Prophet's ﷺ method of teaching that he put a question to his Companions ؓ who then enquired from him the correct answer. Accordingly, Abdullah asked the Prophet ﷺ for the correct answer and he informed him. The gist of his guidance was: when you find such people then think about yourself and turn away from them.

At this point, we must remember that whatever guidance the Prophet ﷺ wished to give to the Muslims till the Last Day, he addressed the Sahaba ؓ (Companions) and left the message with them. May Allah reward them and those that succeeded them that they conveyed these messages of guidance of the Prophet ﷺ to the people who followed them. The scholars of Hadith then preserved them in books of Ahadith.

(١٩١٧/٣) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوشِكُ أَنْ يَكُونَ خَيْرَ مَالِ الْمُسْلِمِ غَنَمٌ يَتَّبِعُ بِهَا شَعَفَ الْجِبَالِ وَمَوَاقِعَ الْقَطْرِ يَقْرُ بِدِينِهِ مِنَ الْفِتَنِ (رواه البخارى)

(3/1917) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ؓ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There will soon come a time when a Muslim's best property will be sheep which he will take away to the mountain-tops and valleys of rainfall to flee from Fitan (trials and afflictions) and save his religion." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: The Last Hour is stated in the Qur'an as close-by (اِقْتَرَبَتِ السَّاعَةُ) (al-Qamar, 54:1). The Prophet ﷺ, too, used to mention it as though it was about to take place, and he gave its signs in the same manner. Firstly, that which is to come and is sure to come must be regarded as drawing near. Secondly, the wisdom behind that was that no one may sit with complacency because it was far off in time, and be lethargic in preparing himself for it. Thus, on this principle, the Prophet ﷺ has described the Fitan (trials and afflictions) to be near the time when it will be difficult for pious men to keep to their religion and abide by Allah's and His Messenger's commands. He said that at a such time that Believing slave will be at peace who has some goats and he takes his herd to the tops of mountains or in valleys where there is rainfall. The goats would subsist on foliage grown by Allah and he would live on them, keeping safe from fitn.

(١٩١٨/٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْتِي عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ الصَّابِرُ فِيهِمْ عَلَى دِينِهِ كَالْقَابِضِ عَلَى الْجَمْرِ. (رواه الترمذی)
(4/1918) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "A time will come on people when one who patiently observes religion will be like one who holds burning charcoal in his hand."
(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sin, indecency and neglect of godly life will be so common and rampant that it will be difficult and require tremendous patience to live according to commands of religion and abstain from the unlawful. It will be like trying to hold burning charcoal in the hands. It is the same time as is mentioned in Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed's رضي الله عنه foregoing Hadith. But Allah knows best.

(١٩١٩/٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّكَ فِي زَمَانٍ مَنْ تَرَكَ فِيهِ عَشْرًا أَمَرَ هَلَكٌ، ثُمَّ يَأْتِي زَمَانٌ مَنْ عَمِلَ فِيهِ بِعَشْرٍ مَا أُمِرَ نَجَا
(رواه الترمذی)
(5/1919) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "You are now in times when if anyone conducts himself on Divine injunctions (to a large extent) and neglects only a tenth part of them then he will perish (and will suffer.) But, later a time will come when if anyone acts on only one-tenth of the Divine commands then he will be saved."
(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: In the times of the Prophet ﷺ when people were in his company and under his training and observed him closely, the atmosphere was such that Divine injunctions were followed zealously and that was very easy for them. It came as second nature to them to obey Allah and His Messenger. Thus, if anyone neglected even a little of his duties then he was liable to be taken to task and account for his conduct. But, the Prophet ﷺ also spoke of times when the situation would be very non-conducive for a religious life. (It would like trying to hold burning charcoal in the hand.) He said about this times that the slave of Allah who acts on even a few of Divine commands will find them enough to earn salvation. I believe that the word one-tenth is not to be taken literally but it means a little against too much. The message of the Prophet ﷺ is explained in the foregoing passage.

Trial Through Wealth

(١٩٢٠/٦) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ كَعْبٍ الْقُرَظِيِّ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي مَنْ سَمِعَ عَلِيَّ بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ قَالَ إِنَّا لَجُلُوسٌ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَأُطْلِعَ عَلَيْنَا مُصْعَبُ بْنُ عُمَيْرٍ مَا عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا بُرْدَةٌ لَهُ، مَرْقُوعَةٌ بِفَرْوٍ فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَكَى لِلَّذِي كَانَ فِيهِ مِنَ النِّعْمَةِ وَالَّذِي هُوَ فِيهِ الْيَوْمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ بِكُمْ إِذَا عَدَا أَحَدُكُمْ فِي حُلَّةٍ وَرَاحَ فِي حُلَّةٍ وَوُضِعَتْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ صَحْفَةٌ وَرُفِعَتْ أُخْرَى وَسَتَرْتُمْ بُيُوتَكُمْ كَمَا تُسْتَرُ الْكَعْبَةُ فَقَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ نَحْنُ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَيْرٌ مِنَّا الْيَوْمَ نَتَفَرَّغُ لِلْعِبَادَةِ وَنُكْفَى الْمَوْنَةَ قَالَ لَا أَنْتُمْ الْيَوْمَ خَيْرٌ مِنْكُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(6/1920) Muhammad ibn Ka'b al Qurazi said that he heard from one who heard (this story) directly from Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام ibn Abu Talib. (he said:) We were sitting in the mosque with Allah's Messenger ﷺ when Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضي الله عنه came to us wearing only a (worn out) cloak that was patched with hide. When Allah's Messenger ﷺ saw him (in this condition), he wept remembering his affluent state (before he embraced Islam) and seeing his present (pitiable, poor) condition. Then Allah's Messenger said (to us), "(Tell me) how will it be with you when (in affluence and luxury) one of you goes out in the morning wearing a mantle and in the evening wearing another, and (a meal in a)dish is placed before him while another is carried away. And you will clothe your homes in the same way as the Ka'bah is covered?" (In answer to his question among the attendants,) some people submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, we will then be in a better condition than today. We will get ample time to worship and not have to toil (for livelihood). "Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "No, you are much better off today (in this poverty) than that day (of affluence)."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Muhammad ibn al-Qurazi was a tabi'ee who was distinguished in his times for his knowledge of the Qur'an and his piety. He has not mentioned the name of the narrator who reported to him the Hadith on the authority of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام, but it is clear from his report that the narrator was a reliable and trustworthy man.

Sayyidina Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضي الله عنه had a distinct position among the Companions رضي الله عنهم, and an interesting history. He was from a very rich family and was brought up with much doting and care, and he lived in great luxury. But, when he became a Muslim, his life changed altogether and his state became what we have read in this Hadith. He had only a single tattered cloak on his body and his condition brought tears in the eyes of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed his Companions رضي الله عنهم of a time when his ummah would live in luxury. They would have enough garments to be able to change them twice a day, variety of dishes on the dining mat. He asked them what they thought of those coming times and when they thought that there would be abundant opportunity to devote themselves to worship, he told them that they were wrong to imagine that. They were much better off than those who would see affluent times.

The fact is that when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke of these times, the Companions رضي الله عنهم could only believe in the unseen. Later, however, in the times of the Banu Umayyah and Banu Abbas and later on in Many Muslim governments and even today in those Muslim countries who are blessed with luxury, this fact was clearly observed. Indeed, these predictions are among the miracles of Allah's Messenger and evidences of his Prophethood.

(٩١٢١/٧) عَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُوْشِكُ الْأُمَمُ أَنْ تَدَاعَى عَلَيْكُمْ كَمَا تَدَاعَى الْأَكِلَةُ إِلَى قُصْعَتِهَا فَقَالَ قَائِلٌ وَمِنْ قِلَّةِ نَحْنُ يَوْمَئِذٍ قَالَ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ كَثِيرٌ وَلَكِنَّكُمْ غِنَاءٌ كَغِنَاءِ السَّيْلِ وَلَيَنْزِعَنَّ اللَّهُ مِنْ صُدُورِ عَذْوِكُمُ الْمُهَابَةَ مِنْكُمْ وَيَقْدِرَنَّ فِي قُلُوبِكُمُ الْوَهْنُ قَالَ قَائِلٌ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَمَا الْوَهْنُ؟ قَالَ حُبُّ الدُّنْيَا وَكَرَاهِيَةُ الْمَوْتِ

(رواه ابو داود والبيهقي في دلائل النبوة)

(7/1921) Sayyidina Thawban رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's

Messenger ﷺ said, "The time is near when (your enemy) nations invite each other against you (to wage war and annihilate you) like diners invite each other to the platters (dishes of food)." Someone submitted, "Will it be because of our few numbers on that day?" He said, "(No!) Rather you will be in large numbers then but like the sediments of flood you will be (lifeless and weightless) and Allah will remove from your enemies your fear, and (instead) put into your hearts وهن (wahn).". Someone asked what wahn وهن was and he said, "Love for the world and dislike of death."

(Sunan Abu Dawood, Dala'il an-Naboo'wah)

Commentary: When the Prophet ﷺ spoke as he did in this Hadith — and even many centuries after that — the condition of the Muslims seemed to believe his prediction. But, whatever he said did happen. Even today we see that happening. The reason for the Muslim decline is also the same as he had suggested. We love this world and the life here and find death (in Allah's path) a bitter proposition and our condition has made us an easy morsel for our enemies. As we have said already, this saying of the Prophet ﷺ is not merely a prediction but an instruction to his ummah to protect their hearts from وهن wahn (love for the world and dislike of death.)

(١٩٢٢/٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ أُمَرَاءُكُمْ خَيْرًا مِنْكُمْ وَأَغْنِيَاءُكُمْ سَمَحَاءُكُمْ وَأُمُورُكُمْ شُورَى بَيْنِكُمْ فَظَهَرَ الْأَرْضُ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ مِنْ بَطْنِهَا وَإِذَا كَانَ أُمَرَاءُكُمْ شَرَارًا مِنْكُمْ وَأَغْنِيَاءُكُمْ بَخِلَاءُكُمْ وَأُمُورُكُمْ إِلَى نِسَاءٍ كُمْ قَبْطُنُ الْأَرْضِ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ مِنْ ظَهْرِهَا.

(رواه الترمذی)

(8/1922) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "When your rulers are the pious people among you and your wealthy men are generous and your affairs are settled with mutual consultation then the surface of the earth is better for you than its belly. But if (in contrast,) your rulers are the worst men among you and your wealthy men possess a miserly character (instead of generosity) and your affairs are subservient to your women's opinion (instead of mutual consultation) then the belly of the earth is better for you than its surface."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: It was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ that for a length of time his ummah will have pious men in government, their rich men will be endowed with liberality and will spend from Allah's provisions sincerely on virtuous accounts, and their mutual dealings will conclude with consultation. (These are three signs that the ummah will observe the Commands of Allah and His Messenger.) The Prophet ﷺ said that these would be a blessing for the ummah and they would be worthy of walking on the face of the earth and, being the best community, they would be responsible to guide and lead people. It was also revealed to him that a time would come when things would be reversed.

Evil people would rule, the rich men would be stingy and greedy and their affairs would be concluded with the pleasure of women in mind. The Prophet ﷺ said that the people would not then be deserving of walking on the face of the earth but would deserve to be eliminated and buried into it.

This Hadith, too, besides predicting the future events, warns the ummah to mend their ways.

The Trials That Will Grow

(١٩٢٣/٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَادِرُوا بِالْأَعْمَالِ فِتْنًا كَقَطْعِ اللَّيْلِ الْمُظْلِمِ يُصْبِحُ الرَّجُلُ مُؤْمِنًا وَيُمْسِي كَافِرًا وَيُمْسِي مُؤْمِنًا وَيُصْبِحُ كَافِرًا يَبِيعُ دِينَهُ بِعَرَضٍ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا. (رواه مسلم)

(9/1923) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Make haste in doing good deeds before the coming of the trial that will descend in quick succession like portions of the dark night. (It will be that) a man will rise up in the morning as a faithful but will begin the evening as one deprived of faith. Or he will be a believer in the evening but will not remain a believer the next morning and become an infidel. He will sell away his religion and faith for, the meagre provisions of this world."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ was informed that his ummah will encounter trials one upon another like the darkness of the night. As a result, a man would wake up a Believer and Muslim but by evening time he will go astray or do a wicked deed and waste away and foil religion.

This trial will emerge through misleading movements and women and through greed for wealth and leadership and other kinds of indecent desires. The last sentence in the Hadith is “يَبِيعُ” (He will sell away his religion against paltry provisions of the world.) The Hadith does not only imply that a man would turn to disbelief for worldly ends but it also encompasses all possibilities whereby he will overlook the religious commands to further his worldly ambitions (like amassing wealth or strengthening his leadership, etc.) Thus, coveting the world and neglecting the Hereafter and every kind of sin and indecency is included here and this is practical disbelief. We may repeat here that though the Prophet ﷺ addressed the Companions رضي الله عنهم, the addressees really include his ummah of every period. He means to warn every Believer to beware of Trials liable to hamper faith and to tell him that he must hasten to do righteous deeds lest he succumb to trial and fail to do good deeds thereafter. If he will persist in doing pious deeds, he will be entitled to Allah's protection from Trial.

(١٩٢٤/١٠) عَنْ الْمُقَدَّادِ بْنِ الْأَسْوَدِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ السَّعِيدَ لَمَنْ جُنِبَ الْفِتْنِ إِنَّ السَّعِيدَ لَمَنْ جُنِبَ الْفِتْنِ، إِنَّ السَّعِيدَ لَمَنْ جُنِبَ الْفِتْنِ، وَلَمَنْ ابْتُلِيَ فَصَبَرَ فَوَاهًا. (رواه ابو داود)

(10/1924) Sayyidina Miqdad ibn Aswad رضي الله عنه reported having heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "Surely he is fortunate who is kept safe from trials. He is fortunate who is kept far away from trials. He is fortunate who is separated from trials. But, as for him who is involved into it and he shows patience and steadfastness, (What do we say of him but that) he is praised and lauded." (Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Whenever he wished that his listeners should comprehend well what he said to them, he repeated that three times. For instance, here he said thrice “إِنَّ السَّعِيدَ لَمَنْ جُنِبَ الْفِتْنِ” (He is surely fortunate who is kept away from trials.) He said that again and again because it is a great blessing for anyone to be protected from trials but because it is not seen, many people do not realise it. Therefore, they neither value it nor express gratitude for it which is a serious deprivation. In the end, he said that if anyone does face trial and endures it by sticking to religion then he is to be lauded and congratulated. This is the more appropriate interpretation of the last words "وَلَمَّا ابْتُلِيَ فَصَّرَ قَوَامًا" although exponents have suggested other meanings too. And, knowledge is with Allah!

(١٩٢٥/١١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
يَتَقَارَبُ الزَّمَانُ وَيَقْبُضُ الْعِلْمُ وَتَظْهَرُ الْفِتَنُ وَيُلْقَى الشُّحُّ وَيَكْثُرُ الْهَرْجُ، قَالُوا
وَمَا الْهَرْجُ؟ قَالَ الْقَتْلُ

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(11/1925) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The times will draw nearer, knowledge will be taken away, trials will afflict and stinginess will be put (in human nature and hearts), and there will be much harj." The Companions رضي الله عنهم asked what harj was and he said, "Bloodshed and killing."
(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has spoken of some trials that will afflict the ummah. His first words were يَتَقَارَبُ الزَّمَانُ. The commentators have suggested different meanings for it, but I am inclined to understand it as; times will pass rapidly, there will be no auspiciousness in it, something done in a day will take several days to accomplish. This is my experience, but Allah knows best.

The Prophet ﷺ also said that knowledge will be taken away. It is the knowledge that is the legacy of the Prophet ﷺ will be taken away. This is explained in another Hadith that religious scholars (the heirs of this knowledge) will be taken away (through libraries may survive and professional scholars thrive in our cities). The fact is that knowledge which is the legacy of prophethood and is guidance and light is only that which the religious scholars possess as trustees thereof. If they do not exist, the knowledge and light will disappear with them.

The third thing the Prophet ﷺ said, "Trials will afflict (In different ways)." This is self-explanatory. The fourth thing he said "وَيُلْقَى الشُّحُّ". The praiseworthy qualities of generosity and sacrifice will be lacking. The last thing he said is that there will be much bloodshed and killing. This is destructive by worldly standards and a grave sin in terms of the Hereafter. May Allah protect us from these trials.

(١٩٢٦/١٢) عَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
الْعِبَادَةُ فِي الْهَرْجِ كَهَجْرَةِ إِلَيَّ.

(رواه مسلم)

(12/1926) Sayyidina Ma'qal رضي الله عنه ibn Yasar reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "To occupy oneself during the harj (killing) is like making the hijrah (migration) towards me." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: When there is unnecessary killing, a Believer must save himself from that and devote himself with single-minded worship of Allah. In Allah's sight, this deed will be like his migration from the land of the infidels towards the Prophet ﷺ to preserve his faith.

(١٩٢٧/١٣) عَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ عَدِيٍّ قَالَ أَتَيْنَا أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ فَشَكُّوْنَا إِلَيْهِ
مَا نَلْقَى مِنَ الْحَجَّاجِ فَقَالَ اصْبِرُوا فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَأْتِي عَلَيْكُمْ زَمَانٌ إِلَّا الَّذِي بَعْدَهُ أَشْرُ
مِنْهُ حَتَّى تَلْقُوا رَبَّكُمْ، سَمِعْتُهُ مِنْ نَبِيِّكُمْ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

(رواه البخارى)

(13/1927) Sayyidina Zubayr ibn Adi رضي الله عنه reported that they went to Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه ibn Maalik and complained to him of the oppression let loose by Hajjaj. He said, "Be patient (on these trials) and know that no time will come upon you but will be followed by a time worse than it till you meet your Lord. I have heard this from your Prophet ﷺ."

Commentary: We have stated earlier in this series of Ma'arif ul-Hadith that Allah had granted the Prophet's ﷺ personal servant, Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه ibn Maalik a long life. He lived in Basra for about 80 years after the Prophet's ﷺ death. After Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه, the rule of Hajjal Thaqafi of the Banu Umayyah was proverbial for its cruelty. Zubayr ibn Adi was a tabi'ee. Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه comforted them when he and his colleagues complained to him of the cruelty of Hajjaj by saying that they should endure the oppression with patience, for, more difficult times would come. He had heard the Prophet ﷺ say that the times to follow would always be worse than the time preceding it.

This might lead one to doubt that Sayyidina Umar ibn Abdul Aziz رحمة الله عليه followed Hajjaj and after him too there were other just and pious rulers. Then how would we reconcile the Prophet's ﷺ saying about more difficult times following one after another?

The Prophet's saying does not concern government and officers of government alone. Rather, he had said that in general terms about the overall condition of the ummah. There is no doubt in what he said and it is confirmed by observation. Hajjaj was as he is projected, but there were other people in the government and they were evil and corrupt. However there were many Companions alive at that time. There were many tabi'een who rank most excellent after the Companions ﷺ and many of the believing masses were righteous people too. Every succeeding generation was definitely worse than the previous. This is also borne out by history. May Allah preserve our faith from mischief.

عَنْ سَفِينَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ
الْخِلَافَةُ ثَلَاثُونَ سَنَةً ثُمَّ يَكُونُ مُلْكًا ثُمَّ يَقُولُ سَفِينَةُ أَمْسِكْ خِلَافَةَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ
سِتِينَ وَخِلَافَةَ عُمَرَ عَشْرَةَ وَعُثْمَانَ اثْنَتَى عَشْرَةَ وَعَلَيَّ سِتَّةً.

(رواه أحمد والترمذي وأبو داود)

(14/1928) Sayyidina Safinah ﷺ reported having heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "The Khalifah (caliphate) will last only thirty years. Then monarchy will take over." Then Safinah said, "Count the (years of) Khalifah — Abu Bakr 2 years, Umar (10 years, Uthman 12 years and Ali 6 years."

(Musnad Ahmad, Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Sayyidina Safinah ﷺ was the Prophet's ﷺ freed slave. He has quoted the Prophet ﷺ as saying that the Khalifat would last thirty years, that is what was exactly on his pattern and the way which pleasure Allah (and which is called Khilafat Raashidah). Then the system would switch over to monarchy. Allah had revealed this to His Prophet ﷺ who mentioned it to his Companions ﷺ often, and cautioned them. This is reported by different Companions ﷺ. Sayyidina Safinah also gave a count of the duration of Khilafat, but that is an estimate, for, the exact periods are:

Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ: 2 years four months,

Sayyidina Umar ﷺ: 10 years six months,

Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ: few days short 12 years,

Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام: 4 years 9 months.

This adds up to 29 years 7 months. Sayyidina Hassan was Khalifah for about five months and that makes the total 30 years. These are the thirty years of Khilafat Raashidah. Then, as the Prophet ﷺ had forewarned, there was Kingdom instead of Khilafat. These foretellings are evidence of his prophethood as well as warning to the ummah.

(١٩٢٩/١٥) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَامَ فِينَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَقَامًا مَاتَرَكَ شَيْئًا يَكُونُ فِي مَقَامِهِ ذَلِكَ إِلَى قِيَامِ السَّاعَةِ الْأَحَدَفِ بِهِ حَفِظَهُ مَنْ حَفِظَهُ، وَنَسِيَهُ مَنْ نَسِيَهُ، قَدْ عَلِمَهُ أَصْحَابِي هَؤُلَاءِ وَأَنَّهُ لَيَكُونُ مِنْهُ الشَّيْءُ قَدْ نَسِيْتُهُ، فَأَرَاهُ فَأَذْكُرُهُ، كَمَا يَذْكُرُ الرَّجُلُ وَجْهَ الرَّجُلِ إِذَا غَابَ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ إِذَا رَأَاهُ عَرَفَهُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(15/1929) Sayyidina Huzayfah رضي الله عنه reported that (one day) Allah's Messenger ﷺ stood up (to deliver a sermon). He did not omit to mention anything that would occur till the Last Day. he mentioned all of them. He who remembered did remember it but he who forgot, did forget. My friends too know it. And, the fact is that I forget something of his sermon but when I see it (happen), I remember it. (It is) like a man who forgets the face of another man when he is absent from him but then as he sees him, he recognises him (And remembers the forgotten face).

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This report has been narrated by other Companions too. One day the Prophet ﷺ delivered a very lengthy sermon in which he mentioned the events and calamities that would occur till the Last Day. Obviously, he had thought it necessary to caution the ummah about these occurrences, for, that was his mission, and that did behove him too. However, there are people who hold that he had knowledge of everything from the begining of creation to the Last Hour of the universe, and of all creatures and of every little thing. They cite this Hadith and other Ahadith of this purport in support of their cuntention. They assert that the Prophet ﷺ said in these Ahadith everything about ما كان وما يكون (what was and what will be). This would encompass all countries of the world including India, Japan, America, Russia etc. and everything happening there till the Last Day was known to him whereher it concerned man animals, birds and creatures in the oceans too. In the same way, he told the Companions ﷺ — according to these people — everything broadcast on the radio the world over and printed in newspapers worldwide till the Last Day.

Even one with a little intelligence can see that this is not the purport of the Hadith.

Besides, if what they say is true then he would have named the Khalifah who succeeded him, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ, and the next and so on so forth. If that were so then there would have been no argument, consultation or selection of the first Khalifah at Saaqefah Banu Sa'dah, and again on the martyrdom of the second Khalifah, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ, the third would have been appointed directly.

If we say that these people forgot what the Prophet ﷺ said about these things then that reflects on every thing about religion. It is the Companions ﷺ who taught religion to the ummah and among them were the sabi'qeen awaleen and ashrah mubash sharah. If we were to believe that they forgot something that concerned themselves then their Ahadith would be unreliable too. If it is known about any narrator of Hadith that he was forgetful then the muhadditheen do not rely on any of his Ahadith, and he is classified as unreliable reporter.

Anyway the claim of these people that the Prophet ﷺ had described in his sermon in the Masjid Nabawi — what they call — جميع ما كان وما يكون — is very foolish and ignorant in view of the foregoing arguments. All that the Ahadith say is that he described the extra-ordinary incidents and calamities to occur till the Last Day and of the main Trials and turmoil all of which Allah had revealed to him, and which he found necessary to inform the ummah. This is the call of his mission and this is worthy of him.

SIGNS OF THE QIYAMAH

Just as the Prophet ﷺ mentioned some of the fitan (trials) to afflict the ummah, he also spoke of some things that would happen before the Last Hour. Some of them are unusual, seemingly contrary to the natural laws on which the solar system operates, for example rising of the sun from the east instead of the west, the emergence of daabatul ard (a beast from the earth), the coming of dajjal, the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. These unusual signs would take place very near the Last Hour, as if they were an introduction to it. They are also known as the major signs. At the same time, the Prophet ﷺ has also mentioned certain things, happenings, changes which will occur before the Last Hour and which may not be unusual, but they were unusual and surprising in his times and the times of the best of generations. Their occurrence is a sign of mischief and corruption. They are the general signs of the Last Hour. We present, therefore, the sayings of the Prophet ﷺ on these signs, the general or the second Kind. The Ahadith on the first kind will be presented thereafter.

(١٩٣٠/١٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُحَدِّثُ إِذْ جَاءَ أَعْرَابِيٌّ فَقَالَ مَتَى السَّاعَةُ؟ قَالَ إِذَا ضُيِّعَتِ الْأَمَانَةُ فَانْتَظِرِ السَّاعَةَ، قَالَ كَيْفَ إِضَاعَتُهَا؟ قَالَ إِذَا وُسِّدَ الْأَمْرُ إِلَى غَيْرِ أَهْلِهِ فَانْتَظِرِ السَّاعَةَ.
(رواه البخارى)

(16/1930) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that while the Prophet ﷺ was speaking a Bedouin came and asked the Prophet ﷺ, "When will the Last Hour come?" He said, "(The time) when trust will be wasted then wait for the Last Hour." The Bedouin submitted "How will a trust be wasted?" He said, "When affairs are handed over to the unworthy then wait for the Last Hour."
(Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: The word amanat in Arabic has a wide connotation. Every important and great responsibility is an amanah translated here as trust. The true meaning may be surmised from this verse of Surah al-Ahzab:

”إِنَّا عَرَضْنَا الْأَمَانَةَ عَلَى السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَالِ.....الْآيَةَ“

(الاحزاب ٧٢:٣٣)

{We offered the trust (freedom of choice to do good or to do evil) to the heavens and the earth and the mountains}

(al-Ahzab, 33:72)

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah's ﷺ Hadith has the Prophet's ﷺ own explanation of this world: responsibility will be placed with the unworthy; this includes responsibility of every kind, step by step — governance, offices of government, religious leadership, trusts, judgement and ruling, etc., any large or small responsibility misplaced with the unworthy. These are examples of wasting or misusing trust and it is a sign of the Last Hour.

Though the Prophet ﷺ gave this information to a Bedouin in answer to his query, it is a message to his ummah that they must realise the importance of amanah and give its right. They must give responsibility in every matter to one who is worthy of it otherwise they will be guilty of wasting it and they will be answerable to Allah for that.

(١٩٣١/١٧) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ

بَيْنَ يَدَيِ السَّاعَةِ كَذَّابِينَ فَاحْذَرُوهُمْ . (رواه مسلم)

(17/1931) Sayyidina Jabir ﷺ ibn Samurah reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Before the Last Hour, there would be some Kazzab (great liars). You must be careful of them."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The word Kazzabeen (pl. of Kazzab) are the people whose lies are out of the ordinary and concern the religion, like claim of prophethood, inventing Ahadith or false stories to promote their bid'ah and evil. The Prophet ﷺ said that such people will come after him but before the Last Hour and will try to mislead the people. He, therefore, advised his ummah to be aware of them. As we know, since the Prophet's ﷺ times till now, hundreds of claimants to prophethood have risen, the first of them being Musaylimah Kazzab, and, according to our knowledge, the last was Ghulam Ahmad Qadyani. Similarly, claimants to being Mahdi have been appearing as also proponents of various movements. They are all included among the Kazzab mentioned by the Prophet from whom he has asked us to keep away.

(١٩٣٢/١٨) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اتَّخَذَ الْقَبِيلُ دُولًا وَأَمَانَةً مَغْنَمًا وَالزَّكَاةَ مَغْرَمًا وَنَعَلِمَ لِغَيْرِ الدِّينِ وَأَطَاعَ الرَّجُلُ امْرَأَتَهُ وَعَقَّ أُمَّهُ، وَأَذْنَا صَدِيقَهُ، وَأَقْصَا أَبَاهُ وَظَهَرَتِ الْأَصْوَاتُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ وَسَادَ الْقَبِيلَةَ فَاسَقَهُمْ وَكَانَ رَعِيمَ الْقَوْمِ أَرْزُلُهُمْ وَأَكْرَمَ الرَّجُلُ مَخَافَةَ شَرِّهِ وَظَهَرَتِ الْقَيْنَاتُ وَالْمَعَارِفُ وَشَرِبَتِ الْخُمُورُ وَلَعَنَ آخِرُ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ أَوَّلَهَا فَارْتَقَبُوا عِنْدَ ذَلِكَ رِيحًا خَمْرَاءَ وَزَلْزَلَةً وَخَسْفًا وَمَسْحًا وَقَذْفًا وَإِيَّاتٍ تَتَابَعُ كِنَظَامٍ قُطِعَ سَلْكُهُ، فَتَتَابَعُ

(رواه الترمذی)

(18/1932) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When the spoils are considered as personal wealth, and trusts as spoils, and zakat as tax (or penalty), and knowledge is acquired for objectives other than religious, and men obey their wives and disobey their mothers, and draw friends near to them but drive fathers away, and voices are raised in mosques, and the chief of a tribe is their most immoral man, and such a man is appointed a nation's leader as is the most worthless and wicked among them, and a man is respected for fear of his mischief, and (professional) female singers, and musicians are common, and wine is consumed, and the latter-day people of the ummah curse their predecessors — then wait for the violent storms, earth quakes, and being swallowed up by the earth, metamorphosis, raining stones and (other) signs (like this) following each other in quick succession like a necklace whose string is cut off so that its bits fall one after another." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has enumerated fifteen bad deeds that will be found in his ummah before the Last Day.

(1) The persons in authority will use spoils of war as their personal wealth although they belong to the warriors, and the poor too have a share in it.

- (2) They will not pay zakah to the government willingly but regard it as a kind of penalty.¹
- (3) Religious knowledge will be acquired to further wordly ends and gains although it should be acquired for religion and improvement of one's Hereafter.
- (4) & (5) Men will obey their wives and attend to their whims while they will disobey their mothers and hurt them.
- (6) & (7) They will keep close to friends and colleagues but keep the father away and treat him shabily.
- (8) Etiquette will not be observed in mosques where it is not allowed to speak loudly unnecessarily. People will make a noise and shout there.
- (9) The sinful people will be chiefs and leaders of tribes.
- (10) Those people will be made responsible for their community who are the most mean among them.
- (11) The wicked will be respected because people fear their wickedness.
- (12) & (13) There will be an abundance of professional singing-girls and musical instruments (and those who enjoy them).
- (14) Wine will be drunk much.
- (15) Succeeding generations of the ummah will curse and speak ill of their predecessors in the ummah.

The Prophet ﷺ said at the end of his message, "When these evils are seen, wait for the wrath of Allah in the shape of (red) violent winds, strong earth-quakes, men being swallowed into the earth, their faces bring changes strikingly, raining of stones from heaven, and other signs of the Dominant and Glorious Allah which will appear in quick succession as though beads falling off a broken necklace.

The apparent meaning of the Hadith is that when these evils will come over among the ummah, the Divine wrath will fall on them in the forms mentioned.

①. It must be remembered that the Islamic government is authorised to collect from the rich and disburse zakah to the deserving. Those who are not fearful of Allah and have weak faith consider it as one of governmental taxes a penalty or fine.

(١٩٣٣/١٩) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ حَتَّى يَكْثُرَ الْمَالُ وَيَفِيضَ حَتَّى يُخْرِجَ الرَّجُلُ زَكَاةَ مَالِهِ فَلَا يَجِدُ أَحَدًا يَقْبَلُهَا مِنْهُ وَتَعُودُ أَرْضُ الْعَرَبِ مَرْوَجًا وَأَنْهَارًا. (رواه مسلم)

(19/1933) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The Last Hour will not come until (the time) when wealth is abundant and overflowing and until when a man takes out zakah on his property but does not find one (poor, needy or deserving) who would accept it from him, and the Arabian land (most of which is barren today) turns green and flourishing with rivers." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: There has been an abundant flow of wealth in Arab countries since the discovery of petrol about a half century ago. They are also trying to turn the barren, dead land into fertile, cultivable gardens and to have flowing, gushing rivers. When the Prophet ﷺ had disclosed this, no one could have imagined such a thing but Allah had revealed it to him and he let the ummah know about it. The Companions رضي الله عنهم had only heard him but today we can see his words being given practical shape. Surely, such sayings of the Prophet ﷺ are his miracles and evidence of his prophethood ﷺ.

(١٩٣٤/٢٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ حَتَّى تَخْرُجَ نَارٌ مِنْ أَرْضِ الْحِجَازِ تُضِيءُ أَغْنَاقَ الْإِبِلِ بِبَصْرَى. (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(20/1934) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The Last Hour will not come before a fire (of unusual kind) rises from the Hijaz which will illuminate the necks of camels in Basra." (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Allah had revealed to His Messenger ﷺ the extraordinary happenings and calamities that would occur in the world. One of them is the extremely unusual kind of fire that would issue from the Hijaz and would be one of the unimaginable signs of the Power of Allah. Its light will illuminate the necks of camels hundreds of miles away in Busra.

Hijaz is the wide area of land that has cities like Makkah, Madinah, Jaddah, Ta'if, Rabigh, etc. Busra is a city in Syria near Damascus. Most of the exponents of Hadith including those of Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim, Hafiz Ibn hajr, Allama Ayni and Imam Nawawi cites the fire that had crupted near Madinah in mid-seventh century Hijri as the one spoken of by the Prophet ﷺ. For three days there were the after-effects of a strong earthquake then the fire spread over a vast area and resounded with a roar and rumble like clouds do. It seemed like a city of fire and whichever mountain fell into its stride crumbled to pieces or dissolved. Though it was at some distance from Madinah yet its nights were illuminated as though they were days and people could do the same things they did during daytime. Its light was seen hundreds of miles away, including Yamamah and Busra. What was surprising about it was that it burned down rocks to ashes but did not burn trees, and it had erupted in the begining of Jumadi ul-Ukhra and lasted till the end of Rajab, about two and three-quarters of a month. All the while not only was Madinah safe but a pleasant, cool air blew over it. Undoubtedly, the fire was a sign of Allah's Power, Glory and Majesty. The Prophet ﷺ had mentionned it six hundred and fifty years earlier.

MAJOR SIGNS OF THE LAST HOUR

Sun Rise From West, Beast of The Earth, Mischief of Dajjal, Coming of Imam Mahdi & Descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام

(١٩٣٥/٢١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ إِنَّ أَوَّلَ الْآيَاتِ خُرُوجًا طُلُوعُ الشَّمْسِ مِنْ مَغْرِبِهَا وَخُرُوجُ الدَّابَّةِ عَلَى النَّاسِ ضُحَىٰ وَآيُهُمَا كَانَتْ قَبْلَ صَاحِبِهَا فَالْآخِرَىٰ عَلَىٰ إِثْرِهَا قَرِيبًا.

(رواه مسلم)

(21/1935) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "The first to be seen of the signs of the Last Hour will be the rising of the sun from the west, and the appearance of daabat ul-ard (the Beast of earth) before the people. Whichever of the two precedes, the next is close on its heels."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: When these words were spoken by the Prophet ﷺ, Allah had revealed to him only that the two singular, unusual signs would be shown. The sun that rises in the east would change its habit and rise in the west. Secondly, an unusual animal (دَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ) will appear also against normal happenings. Till that time, the Prophet ﷺ was not told which of the two would be the first to occur and so he said explicitly that one would follow the other quickly. In other words, both will occur concurrently.

The appearance of daabat ul-ard is also mentioned in the Qur'an (an-Naml, 27:82). Many unfounded stories circulate about it among the masses and, bleses and spurious reports have found their way in some exegesis. The words of the Qur'an and reliable Ahadith tell us only that it will be an animal that walks and runs on earth whom Allah will raise from the earth in an unusual maner (just as He had Salih عليه السلام from a rock of a mountain.) By the Command of Allah, it will speak like human beings and will reason out with them for Allah. Some Ahadith suggest that it will appear from Mount Safa in Makkah.

The rising of the sun from the west and the appearance of the beast in a manner not normally known — both seem to be contrary to natural laws. Hence those who are low of understanding and are not aware of the unlimited powers of Allah may entertain doubts about it. They must realise that these things will happen when the laws on which this world works come to an end, and the time of the Last Hour or the Qiyamah would begin. Earth and heaven will be no more and there would be another world with a different system.

We may make it clear here that the major signs too are of two kinds. Some will be manifest very near to the Last Day and they may be said to be conjunctive to it in the same way as dawn spells the commencement of the day. Both these signs mentioned in this Hadith are of this type, and they are the first of the signs of this type to be manifest. They would herald the end of the world at Allah's Command and the beginning of the era of Qiyamah and another system.

Some other major signs of the Last Hour would be manifest some time before that and they would be signs of nearness of the Last Hour. Among these signs are the emergence of dajjal and descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. (We will read about them in the Ahadith to follow).

(١٩٣٦/٢٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثُ

إِذَا خَرَجْنَا لَا يَنْفَعُ نَفْسًا إِيْمَانُهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ أَمِنَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ أَوْ كَسَبَتْ فِي

إِيْمَانِهَا خَيْرًا طُلُوعُ الشَّمْسِ مِنْ مَغْرِبِهَا وَالْجَلُّ وَدَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ. (رواه مسلم)

(22/1936) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "(Of the signs of the Last Hour), there are three which when they are manifest will not benefit a man his profession of faith (and performance of good deeds) who was not a Believer before hand, or had not supplemented his belief with righteous deeds. (they are:) rising of the sun from the west, emergence of dajjal (anti-Christ), and appearance of daabat ul-ard (beast of earth)."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: With the manifestation of these three signs, it will be clear to everyone that the whole system of the world has gone hay wire and the Qiyamah has approached. Hence, to believe then or to repent from sins or give charity — things which one was not used to do before that — would be like doing them at the doorsteps of death when unseen facts are visible. Such conduct is never reliable and, therefore, of no benefit.

(١٩٣٧/٢٣) عَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ مَا بَيْنَ خَلْقِ آدَمَ إِلَى قِيَامِ السَّاعَةِ أَمْرٌ أَكْبَرُ مِنَ الدَّجَالِ (رواه مسلم)
(23/1937) Sayyidina Imran رضي الله عنه ibn Husayn reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "Between the creation of Adam and the establishment of the Hour there is no matter (incident or calamity) greater or more grave than the mischief of dajjal."
(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This means that of all the trials and mischiefs that Allah's slaves have faced since the creation of Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام till today and will face from today till the coming of the Last Hour, the mischief of dajjal is the most severe. There is much hard trial for Allah's slaves in it, May Allah help us preserve our faith, and cause us to die as Believers.

(١٩٣٨/٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا أُحَدِّثُكُمْ حَدِيثًا عَنِ الدَّجَالِ مَا حَدَّثَ بِهِ نَبِيٌّ قَوْمَهُ، إِنَّهُ، أَعْوَرُ وَإِنَّهُ، يَجْبِي مَعَهُ، مِثْلَ الْجَنَّةِ وَالنَّارِ فَالْتَبَى يَقُولُ إِنَّهَا الْجَنَّةُ هِيَ النَّارُ وَإِنِّي أَنْذِرُكُمْ كَمَا أَنْذَرَ نُوحٌ قَوْمَهُ.
(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(24/1938) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Shall I not tell you something about dajjal that no Prophet has related to his people? He is one-eyed (with a grape-sized inflammation in his eye). He will have with him something like Paradise and something like Hell. What he will show as Paradise will be, in fact, Hell. And I warn you of dajjal as Allah's Messenger, Nooh had warned his people."
(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The treasury of Hadith contains innumerable Ahadith about dajjal narrated by different Companions رضي الله عنهم and this leaves no room for doubt that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had disclosed dajjal's appearance before the Last Hour. He had also disclosed that dajjal's mischief will be the greatest and severest of mischiefs for Allah's slaves. he will claim divinity and advance evidence in support of his claim through astounding spectacles and oddities. One of these would show fake Paradise and fake Hell with him while what he calls Paradise would be Hell and his Hell would be Paradise. It is also possible that the so-called Paradise and Hell with him would be a deception through magic or hypnotism. It is also possible that Allah who created the devil to put as to trial may create dajjal and the Paradise and Hell with him. One of his signs would be that he will be one-eyed. It is reported in sound Ahadith that he will have a grape-sized inflammation in his eye which will be visible to all. Many disbelievers and the weak believers will be impressed by his magic and confirm his divinity while true Believers will strengthen their belief on witnessing his approach and his super-natural feats. They will exclaim, "This is the dajjal of whom the Prophet ﷺ warned us." Thus, his coming will mean improvement in their ranks.

Dajjal Supernatural Feats

We have stated above that there are innumerable Ahadith on the appearance of dajjal. These Ahadith leave no doubt also that he will claim to be God and he will perform great super-natural feats which would stupefy sense and which would be beyond human power. For instance, he will have Paradise and Hell with him and he will command the clouds to shower rain and they would obey. He will command earth to grow vegetation and it will do that spontaneously. He will cause the worldly state of those who believe in him to improve while those True Believers who reject him will face severe decline in their worldly life and comforts and they will face poverty and hunger and other difficulties. He will kill a young, strong man, cut him down in two and then revive him to life before everyone to see. In short, the innumerable Ahadith leave no doubt that he will perform such super-natural deeds and that will be a trial for mankind.

If unnatural things happen at the hands of the Prophets عليهم

السلام then we call that mujizat (miracles). Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام performed miracles as borne out in the Qur'an. The Prophet ﷺ also performed a mujizah of the splitting of the moon, and others which are reported in books of Hadith.

If an unnatural phenomena is observed at the hands of the righteous Believers, followers of a Prophet, then it is called karamat an example of which is the case of the cave-dwellers (as'hab ul-kahf). There are thousands of such observances by the men of Allah or awliya of this community of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

If a disbeliever or a polytheist or a sinful, immoral person performs such a feat then these feats are called istidraj. This definition also applies to dajjal's performances.

Allah has made this world an examination hall. Man is equipped with ability to do good as well as evil and He sent His Prophets عليهم السلام to guide men to the Right Path, and their deputies (heirs) will carry on this service till the Last Day. At the same time, Allah also created the devil and his henchmen from mankind and jinn to mislead and incite to evil ways. They will do their job till the Last Day. Among the children of Sayyidina Aadam guidance was perfected on Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ, the seal of Prophets. After him, the mission to guide and invite to virtue has become the responsibility of his successors while the inciting to evil and misguidance will be complete with dajjal and that is why Allah will empower him with istidraj. He will, therefore, perform such super-natural feats as belie intelligence, and which no other inciter to evil was provided.

This would also be the final trial of the creatures. In this way Allah will prove that the strong-willed, patient slaves who were guided by the Prophets عليهم السلام especially the Last Prophet ﷺ and his deputies, came through the trial of dajjal successfully. His supernatural oddities too did not deceive them, rather they increased in faith and they attained the high station of Siddiq (the truthful) which could never have been reached without going through the trial.

Coming of Mahdi

The gist of the Ahadith on this subject which are to any extent authentic is reproduced in these lines. In the last period before the end of the world, the rulers will unleash all type of cruelty on Muslims who will find the vast earth of Allah closing is on them. They will face cruelty and oppression everywhere. Allah will then raise from this ummah (according to one version from the Prophet's ﷺ descendants) a strong reformer. he will strive hard and succeed in wiping out oppression and injustice from the world. Justice will be dispensed everywhere and Allah's blessing would be showered in abundance. There would be good rainfall from the heaven, and there would be above normal, unimaginable production from the earth. (According to some Ahadith his name will be Muhammad, his father's name Abdullah and his epithet Mahdi) Allah will cause him to guide His slaves.

(١٩٣٩/٢٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْزِلُ بِأُمَّتِي بَلَاءٌ شَدِيدٌ مِنْ سُلْطَانِهِمْ حَتَّى يَضِيقَ الْأَرْضُ عَنْهُمْ فَيَبْعَثُ اللَّهُ رَجُلًا مِنْ عِترَتِي فَيَمْلَأُ الْأَرْضَ قِسْطًا وَعَدْلًا كَمَا مِلْتُ ظُلْمًا وَجَوْرًا، يَرْضَى عَنْهُ سَاكِنُ السَّمَاءِ وَسَاكِنُ الْأَرْضِ لَا تَدْخُرُ الْأَرْضُ شَيْئًا مِنْ بَدْرِهَا إِلَّا أَخْرَجَتْهُ وَلَا السَّمَاءُ مِنْ قَطْرِهَا إِلَّا صَبَتْهُ وَيَعِيشُ سَبْعَ سِنِينَ أَوْ ثَمَانٍ سِنِينَ أَوْ تِسْعًا. (رواه الحاكم في المستدرک)

(25/1939) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ﷺ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "(In the final times,) my ummah will face severe hardship at the hands of their rulers so that Allah's vast earth will close down upon them. Then, Allah will raise a man from my descendants. His untiring efforts will bring about such a revolution that Allah's earth, just as it was replete will cruelty and oppression, will be full of justice and fairplay. Those in the heavens will be happy with it and those on earth too. In fact, it will grow whatever crop it should grow (not a seed will be wasted). Similarly, the heaven will not retain rain drops as treasures, but will shower them down (and it will rain abundantly according to the need). And the brave man will live among the men for seven years, or eight years, or nine years."

(Mustadrak Haakim)¹

Commentary: A Hadith of almost the same purport is reported by Sayyidina Qurrah al-Muzani عليه السلام with this addition:

”إِسْمُهُ، إِسْمِي وَإِسْمُ أَبِيهِ إِسْمُ أَبِي“

(His name will be the same as mine and his father's name will be the same as my father's. That is, Muhammad and Abdullah.)

This Hadith is found in Kanz ul-Ummat on the authority of Tabarani's Mu'jam Kabeer and of Musnad Bazzar. Both the Ahadith do not have the word "Mahdi." However, we can deduce from other reports that it refers to Sayyidina Mahdi. For, they say that his name will be Muhammad and epithet will be Mahdi.

This Hadith places the duration of Mahdi's rule as between seven and nine years. However, in another Hadith also reported by Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri عليه السلام which we will see shortly, the duration is stated to be seven years, it is based on sunan Abu Dawood. It is possible that the words seven years or eight or nine years in the foregoing Hadith may be the narrator's doubt. Allah knows best.

(١٩٤٠/٢٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُودٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَذْهَبُ الدُّنْيَا حَتَّى يَمْلِكَ الْعَرَبُ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ بَيْتِي يُوْطِئُ إِسْمُهُ،
إِسْمِي (رواه الترمذی)

(26/1940) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood عليه السلام reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The world will not end before one of my ahl bayt (people of my house) becomes master and ruler of the Arabs. His name will be (the same as) my name." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: The name Mahdi does not appear in this Hadith too but it nevertheless refers to him. In a Hadith in Sunan Abu Dawood narrated by Ibn Mas'ood again there are these words too ”يَمْلَأُ الْأَرْضَ“

”قِسْطًا وَعَدْلًا كَمَا مُلِئَتْ ظُلْمًا وَجَوْرًا“ (He will fill Allah's earth with equity and justice just as it was filled with creulty and injustice.) From this Hadith of Abu Dawood and from other Ahadith about Sayyidina Mahdi عليه السلام, we learn that his rule will extend all over the world. Thus, reference to his rule over Arabs in the Hadith

①. Kanz ul-Ummal (Kitab al-Qiyamat)

under discussion is perhaps because he will have his seat of government there. Or, because he may rule over Arab lands in the beginning but later on extend the sphere of his rule everywhere in the world. Allah knows best.

(١٩٤١/٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَهْدِيُّ مِنِّي أَجَلَى الْجَبْهَةِ أَقْنَى الْأَنْفِ يَمْلَأُ الْأَرْضَ قِسْطًا وَعَدْلًا كَمَا مُلِئَتْ ظُلْمًا وَجَوْرًا يَمْلِكُ سَبْعَ سَنَ (رواه ابوداؤد)

(27/1941) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Mahdi will be of my posterity. He will have a broad, bright forehead and large nose. He will fill the earth with equity and justice as it was filled with cruelty and injustice, and he will rule for seven years." (Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: This hadith describes two visible physical features of Mahdi — a broad forehead and a large nose. Both these things have a say in man's beauty and handsomeness. That is why they are mentioned in particular. The physical features of the Prophet ﷺ as mentioned in the Ahadith also refer to these two things on the face. We may surmise from a reference to these two things that he would be a handsome man. However, his distinctive mark will be his achievement in eradicating from the world injustice and tyranny and introducing justice and fairplay in the world.

(١٩٤٢/٢٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَكُونُ فِيْ آخِرِ الزَّمَانِ خَلِيفَةٌ يَقْسِمُ الْمَالَ وَلَا يَعُدُّهُ (رواه مسلم)

(28/1942) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "there will be a Khalifah (a true king) in the last era who will disburse wealth (to the deserving) and he will not count it out (to them)." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The meaning of the Prophet's ﷺ saying is that a man of his ummah will be a ruler in the final era when Allah will bless with abundant wealth and he will be very generous with it. He will not withhold wealth but will give it away to the deserving without counting it. In another Hadith in Muslim itself the words are "يَحْشِي الْمَالَ حَشْيًا وَلَا يَعُدُّهُ عَدًّا" (he will give it out to the deserving with his both hands full and will not count it). Some of the exponents of the Hadith opine that the Khalifah is Mahdi because other Ahadith tell us that Allah will bless his times with exceptionally large wealth. But Allah knows best.

(١٩٤٣/٢٩) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَقُولُ الْمَهْدِيُّ مِنْ عِترَتِي مِنْ أَوْلَادِ فَاطِمَةَ (رواه ابوداؤد)

(29/1943) The Mother of the Faithful, Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها reported that she heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "Mahdi will be from my progeny, a descendant of Fatimah."

(Sunan Abu Dawood)

(١٩٤٤/٣٠) عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ قَالَ قَالَ عَلِيٌّ وَنَظَرَ إِلَى ابْنِهِ الْحَسَنِ ابْنِي هَذَا

سَيِّدٌ كَمَا سَمَاهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَسَيَخْرُجُ مِنْ صُلْبِهِ رَجُلٌ يُسَمَّى بِاسْمِ نَبِيِّكُمْ يُشَبِّهُهُ فِي الْخُلُقِ وَلَا يُشَبِّهُهُ فِي الْخَلْقِ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ قِصَّةَ يَمْلَأُ الْأَرْضَ عَدْلًا (رواه ابوداؤد)

(30/1944) Abu Ishaq as-Sabi'ee reported that Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه looked towards his son Sayyidina Hasan رضي الله عنه and said, "This son of mine is a Sayyid (chief) as Allah's Messenger ﷺ has called him by this name. Surely, from his offspring a brave man will arise whose name will be the same as your Prophet's (Muhammad). In manners and character he will resemble Allah's Messenger ﷺ much and in his physical appearance he will not be like him." He then related that he would fill the earth with justice."

(Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: Abu Ishaq SABI'EE a TABI'EE, has reported about a brave man to be born among the descendants of Sayyidina Hassan رضي الله عنه on the authority of Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه. Obviously, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه did not relate this news of the future hundreds — nay, thousands — of years into the future except after having heard it from the Prophet ﷺ, the recipient of revelation. Such reports of the Companions رضي الله عنهم are classified by the muhadditheen as marfoo and it is understood about them that they had heard them from the Prophet ﷺ.

It seems that Sayyidina Ali Referred to the Prophet's ﷺ saying:

”إِنِّي هَذَا سَيِّدٌ وَلَعَلَّ اللَّهَ أَنْ يُصْلِحَ بِهِ بَيْنَ فِئَتَيْنِ عَظِيمَتَيْنِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ“

"(This, my son is a sayyid (chief). I hope that Allah will bring about through him peace between two warring Muslim groups."

The Prophet ﷺ used the word sayyid for Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ.

While this Hadith discloses that Mahdi will be a descendant of Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ, another name Sayyidina Husayn ﷺ as the forefather of Mahdi. Some exponents have reconciled the two by suggesting that Mahdi would be of Hasni stock from father's side and of Husayni from mother's side.

There are some narratives that the Prophet gave glad tidings to Sayyidina Abbas ﷺ that Mahdi would be among his descendants but these reports are very weak.¹ Those narratives that are reliable in any way tell us that Mahdi would be a descendant of the Prophet ﷺ, an offspring of Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها.

A Cautionary Note

We find it necessary here to mention that difference in these beliefs of Ahl us-Sunnat and the Shia because the latter projects to the unwary among the former that the two sides hold identical views on the subject of Mahdi.

On the basis of Ahadith about Sayyidina Mahdi — some of which we have related — the ahl us-Sunnah hold that before the Last Day a time would come when disbelief, mischief, tyranny and sin would be so overpowering that Allah's vast earth would close down upon the believers. Allah would then raise a brave man from among the Muslim ummah (some of whose characteristics are described in Ahadith). He will have Allah's help on his side and his all-out efforts would succeed in throwing out disbelief, mischief, tyranny and sin from the world all over which the atmosphere would be blessed with faith, justice and Islam. There would be an exceptional showering of Allah's blessing from the heaven and earth. The Ahadith tell us also that dajjal would appear in these times and he will be the severest trial for this world, and the last one too. That would be the most difficult trial for the believers, that being the extreme stage of confrontation between good and evil. Sayyidina Mahdi would lead and fight for good and guidance while dajjal would fight for evil. Then sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would descend and Allah would cause him to wipe out dajjal and his mischief. (We will present Ahadith on that shortly and explain them together with a discussion on Hayat Maseeh and *Nuzool Maseeh*¹, Insha Allah).

1. These narratives may be seen in Kanz ul-Ummal (Kitab al-Qiyamah, section al-Aqwal and al-Afal) V7 pp188 and 260, first edition, Dariah al-Ma'arif al-Uthmania, Hyderabad.

However, the belief of the Shia is quite different from this. It is one of the wonders of the world. By itself this belief is enough to form an opinion about their religion. We will present here only an outline for the information of the ahl us-sunnah but details may be seen in my book Irani Inqilab, Imam Khumaini awr Shiat.

The Shia Belief About Mahdi

The belief of the Shia is part of faith for them. It is that Allah has named twelve Imams after His Messenger ﷺ and up to the Last Day. Their standing is equal to (on the same footing as) Allah's Messenger ﷺ and higher than all other Prophets and Messengers عليهم السلام, and, like the Prophet ﷺ, they are all innocent. It is fard to obey them just as it is obligatory to obey Allah's Messenger ﷺ and all of them possess the same characteristics and perfections that Allah had bestowed on His Messenger and Prophet ﷺ. The only difference is that they will not be called Prophet or Messenger, but will be called Imam, and an Imam's office has a higher rank than prophethood. Salvation is conditional on belief in their office just as it is conditional on belief in prophethood. Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام was the first Imam. His elder son Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام succeeded him and was followed by his younger brother Sayyidina Husayn عليه السلام whose son Ali ibn al-Husayn (Zayn ul-Aabideen) followed him. Then each was succeeded by his son until Imam Hasan Askari was the eleventh Imam. He died in 260 AH. The Shia Ithna Ashariya believe that four or five years before his death (in 255 AH or 256 AH allowing for difference of opinion), he had a son by a Christian female slave

①. Life and descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام

(Nargis) who was kept concealed from the sight of people and no one could see him. (Thus his family members, too, did not know of his birth and existence.) Just ten days before the death of Hasan Askari, this son vanished miraculously (when he was four or five years old) with everything pertaining to Imamat (Imam's office). (These things were kept with every Imam beginning with Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام till the eleventh, Hasan Askari.) He hid himself in a cave in his native city by the name, Sura man ra-aa and he still is hiding there though more than eleven hundred and fifty years have elapsed. The Shia believe that he is the twelfth Imam and he is Imam Mahdi. He will come out of the cave some day and apart from other miraculous and unbelievable feats, he will also revive the dead. And — we seek refuge in Allah — he will also revive (Sayyidina) Abu Bakr عليه السلام, (Sayyidina) Umar عليه السلام and (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضي الله عنها (who in the eyes of the Shia, are more disbelieving and greater criminals than all the disbelievers and criminals including Fir'awn, Namrood, etc.) He will punish them and hang them to death. He will revive them thousands of times and every time put them on the hanger's scaffold. In the same way, he will revive every Companion عليه السلام who supported them and every sunni who loved and respected them. Besides, Allah's Messenger ﷺ, Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام and all the innocent Imams as also the particular lovers of Shia will be revived and all of them will watch their enemies (may Allah forgive us) being punished. In other words the Shia version of Imam Mahdi will enact the Qiyamah (Day of Resurrection) before the real Qiyamah. In their religious terminology, they call it رجعت (ruj'at) and it is fard for them to believe in it. It is also stated in their narration on ruj'at that Allah's Messenger ﷺ will be the first to offer bay'ah (allegiance) to Mahdi. Then Sayyidina Ali, followed by other people according to their ranks. This is Shia version of Imam Mahdi whom they also call al-Qa'im, al-Hujjah and al-Muntazir and they await his emergence from the cave. When they mention him orally or in writing, they add the prayer: عجل الله فرجه (May Allah hasten his coming out!)

According to the ahl us-sunnah this is a fabricated story coined out of necessity because Hasan Askari, the eleventh Imam of the Shia had no children when he died in 250 AH. That would have nullified their doctrine of the twelve Imams because only an Imam's son could become an Imam, and the twelfth would have been the last after whom the world would come to an end. In short, this story was fabricated to accomodate the Shia belief and it has now become a headache for the intelligent among them.

Although I had intended to be brief, I had to write this much to explain the difference in belief of the Shias and ahl us-sunnah.

We might mention here in explanation of the Ahadith on Sayyidina Mahdi that the 12th century authority and a far-sighted scholar, Ibn Khuldoom has clasified almost all the Ahadith on Mahdi in Hadith books of ahl us-sunnah as weak.¹ He has discussed exhaustively on the subject in his muqaddimah. However, later day ulama have disagreed with him. Nevertheless, Ibn Khuldoom has initiated a discussion on the subject والمستول من الله تعالى هداية الحق والصواب. (And we request Allah for guidance to the truth and correct.)

Descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام

The major signs of Qiyamah will be manifest near the Last Hour before the Qiyamah. One of them, and the exceptional one at that, is the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. Although we will present a few Ahadith on this subject there are innumerable Ahadith in Books of Ahadith narrated by numerous Companions رضي الله عنهم. So, even without considering their standing as Companions رضي الله عنهم we cannot doubt that all of them would combine together and fabricate Ahadith and blame the Prophet ﷺ of saying that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will descend from the heavens before the Last Hour. We cannot also allude that all of them erred in understanding the actual message of the Prophet ﷺ. So, the fact is that on reading these Ahadith we may conclude that the Prophet ﷺ had really informed his ummah that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would come down to earth from the heaven before Qiyamah. To that end, it is enough to read the work of Allamah Muhammad Anwar Shah Kashmiri entitled التصريح بما تواتر في نزول المسيح. He has collected more than seventy Ahadith on this subject from the books of Ahadith.

Apart from Ahadith, the coming down of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام is also known from the Qur'an. It says that he has been raised to the heaven and will return to earth before the Last Hour. We can get authoritative knowledge and satisfaction from Mawlana Anwar Shah Kashmiri's work "عقيدة الاسلام فى حياة عيسى عليه السلام" (Both these works are in Arabic)

I have composed a book entitled Qadyani Kyoo Musalman Nahi Aur Masala Nuzool Maseeh wa Hayat Maseeh. I have devoted about 70 pages in this book to this subject. Those whose mother tongue is Urdu may benefit from the book and observe that while the Qur'an has informed us that sayyidina Isa (عليه السلام) will descend before the Last Day, the Ahadith have elaborated on the subject very exhaustively.

However, many people entertain intellectual doubts about it and the Qadyani writers have exploited the situation and published much literature on this subject (and tried to pave way for Mirza Ghulam Qadyani's claim to be the Maseeh, Sayyidina Isa (عليه السلام)). Therefore, I find it necessary to delve somewhat on this subject before explaining the Ahadith in this chapter. I hope readers will get answers to their doubts and be able to understand the subject satisfactorily. والله ولى التوفيق.

Some Basic Facts

The First and most important thing that we must remember before pondering over this question is that the subject concerns that being whose very existence itself is different from the general practice of Allah and the laws of nature. It is that he was not born in the same way as anyone else in this world is born including all the Prophets عليهم السلام and Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) himself — that is by the marriage of man and women. Rather, he was born by Allah's ability and command sent through Sayyidina Jibraeel (عليه السلام). He was born to his mother, Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام without the medium of a male having touched her but in a miraculous manner. So, the Qur'an has called him the word of Allah and has described his birth in surah aal Imran (verses 45, etc.) and surah Maryam (verses 19 etc.) The Injeel also says the same thing so that all Muslims and Christians hold the same belief.

The Qur'an has disclosed another great thing about him. When he was born by Allah's power and command and word in a miraculous way to Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام (who was a virgin and no man had touched her) and she carried him in her lap to the city whose people accused her of immorality, the infant (Isa ibn Maryam) spoke at the command of Allah about himself and about the chastity of his mother (surah Maryam, verse 27 to 33).

The Qur'an also tells us that, at the command of Allah, he performed unimaginable miracles. he moulded a bird out of clay and breathed into it and that became a live bird flying into air. He would stroke a born-blind and a lepor and they would recover the sight and health. He also could revive the dead. These miracles are confirmed in the Qur'an (surah Aal Imran and al-Ma'idah) and in the Injeel.

The Qur'an also says that when Allah made him Prophet and Messenger and he invited his people, the Banu Isra'il, to believe, they called him a fake and decided to crucify him¹. They imagined that they had carried out their decision and crucified him to death. But, that was not so (They had crucified someone else believing him to be Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام.) The Jews could not even find him. Allah had taken him away to the heavens and he will now return to earth at Allah's command before the Last Hour and die here. Allah will get him to carry on the mission of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and his coming down will be a great sign of the Qiyamah. (This is mentioned in surah an-Nisa and Surah az-Zukhruf)²

The believers, therefore have no doubt that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام is raised up to the heaven and will be sent back on the appointed time just as they do not doubt his miracles.

Thus the first and significant thing that we have to keep in mind when we consider the question of descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام is his unique case and the foregoing peculiarities.

2. The next thing that we should keep before us is that he will

-
- ①. In the Torah and Israil law a false Prophet was punished with death. In Islamic law such a one is killed.
 - ②. The verses of surah an-Nisa and az-Zukhruf in which this is mentioned are explained by me in my book Qadyani Kiyoo Musalman nahee awr masala nuzul Maseeh wa Hayat Maseeh pp 94 to 120. Every sound minded believer will be convinced on reading that the verses state that Isa عليه السلام was raised to the heavens and will be sent back to earth and that is a sign of Qiyamah.

descend to earth when the Last Hour is very near and the series of the closest signs has begun. These are, for example, sun rise from the west instead of east, creation of the beast of earth in an unusual manner and behaving as mentioned in authentic Ahadith. These things would, as it were, augur the dawn of the Qiyamah. The working of the solar system would have begun to change and the unusual happenings would follow one after another in quick succession which we cannot even picture today. (The emergence of dajjal and descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام are among them).

Thus to deny the coming down of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام or the emergence of dajjal because our intellect cannot Comprehend the way they are mentioned in Hadith is the same as to deny the Qiyamah, Paradise or Hell because we cannot fathom them. Those who speak in this manner are really deprived of Divine awareness and the power and grasp of Allah.

3. While considering the subject of the life of sayyidina Isa عليه السلام and his descent, we must keep a third thing before us. According to the Qur'an and our belief as Muslims, Sayidina Isa عليه السلام does not presently reside in this world where a man cannot do without food and drink and other necessities as natural demands. Rather, he is in the higher heavens where such demands are not made on him as we know of the angels. Though Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام is of human kind from his mother's side yet he was born by the word of Allah carried by His angel, Rooh al-Quddos. Therefore, as long as he lived in this, our world, he was subject to human demands and necessities, but when he was taken away to the heavens and the world of angels, he became independent of these needs and demands. In answer to a question how is Sayyidina Isa's need for food and drink satisfied in the heavens, Imam Ibn Taymiyah wrote in his book "الجواب الصحيح لمن بدل دين المسيح" (in rejection of Christianity):

فليست حاله كحالة اهل الارض في الاكل والشرب واللباس والنوم
والغائط والبول ونحو ذلك .

"(At the heavens) his condition for eating, drinking, dress and sleeping and such demands is not like that of the earthlings. (There he is independent of these things like the angels.)¹

If these basic background is kept in mind then doubts will not arise concerning the life and descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. They bog down the mind only because of poor intellect, weakness of faith and unawareness of Allah's powers. Let us now see some Ahadith.

(١٩٤٥/٣١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَيُوشِكَنَّ أَنْ يَنْزَلَ فِيكُمْ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ حَكَمًا عَدْلًا فَيَكْسِرُ
الصَّلِيبَ وَيَقْتُلَ الْخِنْزِيرَ وَيَضَعُ الْجِزْيَةَ وَيَقْفِضَ الْمَالَ حَتَّى لَا يَقْبَلَهُ أَحَدٌ حَتَّى
تَكُونَ السَّجْدَةُ الْوَاحِدَةُ خَيْرًا مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا ثُمَّ يَقُولُ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ فَاقرءُوا
إِنْ شِئْتُمْ وَإِنَّ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ إِلَّا لَيُؤْمِنَنَّ بِهِ قَبْلَ مَوْتِهِ“ الآية

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(31/1945) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "By Him Who holds my life in His Hand, surely it is soon that Isa ibn Maryam will descend among you (Muslims) as a just ruler. He will break the cross, kill swine and abolish the jizyah. And, there will be abundance of wealth to the extent that no one will take it. And one prostration would be better than the world and what it contains." Then Abu Hurayrah said: (If you wish for an evidence from the Qur'an then) read if you like:

”وَإِنَّ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ“ الآية (النساء ١٥٩:٤)

{And there will be none among the People of the Book, but will surely believe in him before his death, and on the Day of Resurrection he (Isa) will be witness against them}

(an-Nisa, 4:159)

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ mentioned the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام and some of his important doings. He began his words with an oath to satisfy the doubting minds of his truth because of the extraordinary nature of events. He then said that it was certainly very near and thus again emphasised that there was no doubt in his coming and it was confirmed. It was just like the Qayamah:

”اِفْتَرَبَتِ السَّاعَةُ“ (القمر ١:٥٤)

{The Hour has drawn night} (al-Qamar, 54:1)

The meaning is clear. There is no scope for doubt but it will come, surely.

What the Prophet ﷺ said after the oath and emphasis may be described in simple words thus:

Surely before the Last Hour, Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام ibn Maryam will come by Allah's Command among you Muslims as a just ruler (which means he will then be regarded as a just ruler and ameer of the Muslims). The steps that he will take as a ruler will include the breaking of the cross which is like an idol of the Christians who rely on it in terrible error and disbelief for expiation of their sins. When we say that he will break it, we mean that he will put an end to the importance the Christians attach to it and the kind of worship they offer it. It is just like idol-smashing. Another of his steps will be the killing of swine. One of the great errors into which the Christians have gone and a major change they have made into their religion is that they have made the swine lawful (though it is unlawful in all heavenly religions). They not only made it lawful but also found it to be the most cherished meal. Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will not only declare it unlawful but will also give instructions to wipe out this species so that it is extinct. yet another of the steps that he will take will be that he will abolish jizyah. (Since the Prophet ﷺ has declared it in his Hadith, the announcement of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will be on this basis and not on his own and neither will he amend the Islamic Shari'ah.) The Prophet ﷺ concluded by saying, "There will so much abundance that no one will accept wealth from another." Allah will grow in His slaves a complete dis-interest for the world and a longing for the reward of the Hereafter with the result that they will hold a prostration before Allah more dear than the world and whatever it contains. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah said after reporting the Prophet's ﷺ sayings: "فاقرءوا ان شئتم الخ" that is, if you wish find confirmation for it in the Qur'an then recite the verse 159 of an-Nisa

"وَأَنَّ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ إِلَّا لَيُؤْمِنَنَّ بِهِ قَبْلَ مَوْتِهِ الْآيَةُ (سورة النساء: ١٥٩:٤)"

The explanation of the verse may be seen in my book Qadyani kiyoo Musalman nahi aur masala nuzool Maseeh wa hayat Maseeh (pp 100-113)

(١٩٤٦/٣٢) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ

أَنْتُمْ إِذَا نَزَلَ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ فِيكُمْ وَإِمَامُكُمْ مِنْكُمْ (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(32/1946) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "How will you be when Ibn Maryam comes down to you and your Imam is one of you."

(Saheeh Bukhari & Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The apparent meaning of the saying of Allah's Messenger is that your condition at that time will be out of the ordinary as we have learnt from the foregoing Hadith and other Ahadith on this subject. The words "وَإِمَامُكُمْ مِنْكُمْ" (and your Imam is one of you) mean that the position of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will be that (in spite of being Prophet and Messenger of the earlier people) he will be a member of the Muslim people and in that capacity your Imam and Ameer. In another version of the same Hadith in Muslim instead of these words "وَإِمَامُكُمْ مِنْكُمْ" the words are "فَأَمَّكُمْ مِنْكُمْ", and one of its narrators Ibn Abu Zi'b has explained it thus:

"فَأَمَّكُمْ بِكِتَابِ رَبِّكُمْ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ وَسُنَّةِ نَبِيِّكُمْ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ"

"After coming down, Isa ibn Maryam will be the Imam and ruler will be the Imam and ruler of the Muslims. He will conduct the office of Imam and government on the basis of the Qur'an and the Shari'ah of the Prophet ﷺ." In the light of this explanation, the office of Imam of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام referred to in this Hadith is not restricted to salah but it means a general Imamat encompassing religious as well as worldly leadership over the ummah. In other words, he will be the deputy and Khalifah of Allah's Messenger ﷺ.

(١٩٤٧/٣٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَزَالُ

طَائِفَةٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي يَقَاتِلُونَ عَلَى الْحَقِّ ظَاهِرِينَ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ قَالَ فَيَنْزِلُ عِيسَى بْنُ مَرْيَمَ فَيَقُولُ أَمِيرُهُمْ تَعَالَى صَلِّ لَنَا فَيَقُولُ لَأَنِّ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ أُمَرَاءُ

تَكْرِمَةَ اللَّهِ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةُ (رواه مسلم)

(33/1947) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There will always be in my ummah a section of people who will fight for the truth and they will turn out successful." He continued to say, "Then Isa ibn Maryam will come down and the ameer and Imam of the Muslims of that time will invite him to lead the salah but he will say: No (I will not lead the congregation). Your ameer and Imam is one of you. Allah has honoured this ummah in this way." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The first words in the Hadith confirmed that Allah has decided that a section of this ummah will always observe the Truth and depending on the need will fight the enemy and prevail over them. The exponents of Hadith hold that the fight may be an armed war to protect religion and propagate it or it can be an oral debate or a written argument. Those engaged in protecting religion in this way and striving to propagate it are all soldiers of the True religion and warriors in the cause of Truth. Without doubt, never is there a time without such slaves of Allah, and this will go on till the Last Day. This is decreed by Allah.

In the following portion of the Hadith, the Prophet ﷺ has foretold, by way of a warning, that close to the Last Day, in the final period, Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will come down. It will be the time of Salah when he arrives, so the Imam and ameer of the Muslims will invite him to take over and lead the people in Salah but he will decline to do so. He will request the Imam to carry on, saying that Allah has bestowed honour on the ummah of (Prophet) Muhammad ﷺ so their Imam must be one of them.

There is a lengthy Hadith in Sunan Ibn Majah as reported by Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه. It is about the emergence of dajjal and descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. It says that the Muslims will be assembled in Bayt al-Maqdis (to protect themselves from the mischief of dajjal and to counter him). The time of the fajr Salah will be on and the worshippers would stand up for salah. Their Imam would be a righteous man (and it is possible that he would be Imam Mahdi). He would stand at the place of lead and the iqamah would have been called when Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would arrive suddenly. So, the Imam of the Muslims would move to take a step back saying to him. "Lead us in prayer," (for it is better that the best person in the congregation should lead in salah and Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام who is a Prophet and messenger in earlier times was undoubtedly, the best)." Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will decline to lead then, saying, "The congregation is ready to offer salah in your lead and the iqamah is called out already."

Anyway, that would be the first salah after the coming of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام and he will offer it as the muqtadi (follower in Salah) of a member of the Prophet's ﷺ ummah but not agree to act as Imam. The wisdom being that he should demonstrate that a great Prophet and Messenger of earlier times is like one of the ummah of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ abiding by his Shari'ah. The Shari'ah of Muhammad will now carry on till the end of the world.

(١٩٤٨/٣٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَيْسَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُ (يعني عيسى عليه السلام) نَبِيٌّ وَآنَهُ نَازِلٌ فَإِذَا رَأَيْتُمُوهُ فَاعْرِفُوهُ رَجُلٌ مَرْبُوعٌ إِلَى الْحُمْرَةِ وَالْبَيَاضِ بَيْنَ مُمَصَّرَتَيْنِ كَأَنَّ رَأْسَهُ يَقْطُرُ وَإِنْ لَمْ يُصْبِهِ بَلَلٌ فَيَقَاتِلُ النَّاسَ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ فَيَدُقُّ الصَّلِيبَ وَيَقْتُلُ الْخَنَزِيرَ وَيَضَعُ الْجِزْيَةَ وَيُهْلِكُ اللَّهُ فِي زَمَانِهِ الْمَلَلَ كُلَّهَا إِلَّا الْإِسْلَامَ وَيُهْلِكُ الْمَسِيحَ الدَّجَالَ فَيَمُوتُ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً ثُمَّ يُتَوَفَّى فَيُصَلَّى عَلَيْهِ الْمُسْلِمُونَ

(رواه ابو داود)

(34/1948) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said (while mentioning Isa عليه السلام and referring to his close relationship with him), "There is no Prophet between me and him (and Allah sent me after him as His Messenger). And, indeed he will descend (during my era of prophethood before the Last Day). When you see him, you must recognise him. He will be of medium stature, of red complexion with a fair tinge, wearing two yellow garments. It would seem as though drops of water were falling down from his head even though it will not be wet. he will wage jihad and war for Islam and he will break the cross, kill swine and exterminate it, and abolish jizyah. In his time, Allah will remove all ummah and religions except Islam. He will destroy the Maseeh Dajjal and kill him. He will live on this earth and in this world for forty years and die here. The Muslims will then offer his funeral Salah." (Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: In addition to informing us of the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, the Prophet ﷺ also described some of his features. He will be of average height. His complexion will be reddish white. He will be wearing two garments light yellow in colour. It will look as though water was dripping from his head but there would be no water on it. He would have come directly from the heaven and would be so clean and tidy and the condition of the hair on his body would give an impression that he has had a bath .

The Prophet ﷺ then mentioned his doings. He would first invite people to the True religion of Allah, Islam (which invitation every Prophet of Allah has given in his times.) That itself would be a clear indication of it being a true religion and only he would not accept it who is averse to Truth. To get such people also to believe in Islam, Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would finally use force and wage jihad. Besides, he will take two steps against those people who call themselves after him. he will break the cross which has become the symbol — rather god — of the Christians and on which they base their most erroneous belief on expiation of sins. This will also confirm that he was never put on the cross, and the belief on Jews and Christians about this is wrong, the belief of the Muslims as declared in the Qur'an is the only correct belief. Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would next kill and eliminate the swine which the Christians have made lawful for themselves although it is unlawful in all heavenly scriptures. After that, the Hadith mentions that he will abolish jizyah. By saying that, Allah's Messenger ﷺ has made it clear that the law of jizyah in our Shari'ah will be applicable till the coming of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. It will be rescinded when he comes down and begins his mission as Khalifah of the Prophet ﷺ and ruler of the Muslim ummah. (One of the reasons could be that the government may not need to collect jizyah because of the huge blessings of Allah after the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, Jizyah is a kind of tax.)

Also, Allah will put an end to all other religions and ummah through Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. Everyone will believe and accept Islam. Another of his feat accomplished by Allah's help will be that he will kill dajjal, and the world will be safe from his mischief which would be the worst trial in this world. The Prophet ﷺ concluded the Hadith by saying that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would live on earth for forty years and then die. The Muslims would offer his funeral salah.

This Hadith narrated by Abu Hurayrah and reproduced and explained here from Abu Dawood is also found in Musnad Ahmad with some additions. The gist of additions is: during the Khilafah of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, there will be unlimited blessings from Allah. Some of these will be reflected in a change of the nature of wild animals like the lion, wolf, etc. They would become peaceful. The lions, camels and cows and the wolves and sheep will move together and none of them will attack another. Young children will play with snakes who will not sting anyone. These changes would confirm that the system of the world's working was changing and the Last Day was very near after which the new system of the Hereafter will operate. As I have suggested in my introductory remarks, that would be like the dawn of the Qiyamah. If we believe in the power and ability of Allah then nothing is unfathomable.

(١٩٤٩/٣٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
يَنْزِلُ عِيسَى بْنُ مَرْيَمَ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ فَيَتَزَوَّجُ وَيُولَدُ لَهُ، وَيَمْكُتُ خَمْسًا وَأَرْبَعِينَ
سَنَةً ثُمَّ يَمُوتُ فَيُدفَنُ مَعِيَ فِي قَبْرِى فَأَقُومُ أَنَا وَعِيسَى بْنُ مَرْيَمَ فِي قَبْرِ وَاحِدٍ
بَيْنَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ
(رواه ابن الجوزى فى كتاب الوفا)

(35/1949) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Isa ibn Maryam will descend on earth. He will marry and have children. he will live for forty-five years before dying and he will be buried with me (the place where I will be buried). Then, on the Day of Resurrection, I and Isa ibn Maryam will rise up from the same place of the grave between Abu Bakr and Umar."
(Kitab al-Wafa by Ibn al-Jawzi)

Commentary: It is a fact that when he was in this world, Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام had spent a life of celibacy. He did not marry although marriage is a man's natural necessity and there is much wisdom in it. As far as we know, all the Prophets and Messengers before him had married, and after him the final Prophet ﷺ also married. The Prophet ﷺ said about Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام that when he comes down to earth in the last days, he will marry and have children. In this Hadith the duration of his life is mentioned as forty-five years while the Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه mentioned his life span as forty years after his descent. Some other Ahadith also put it at forty years. Some scholars have suggested that the reports of forty years have followed the Arabic idioms whereby the figure above (a rounded one) is omitted and the same thing is done here. (Allah knows best.) The Hadith also says, "Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will die on earth and be buried at the same place where I will be buried. On the day of Resurrection, I and he will arise together and Abu Bakr and Umar too will be on our right and left." We know from this Hadith that where many things were disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ, which he let his ummah know, it was also disclosed to him that his two companions, Abu Bakr and Umar رضي الله عنهما would be buried next to him, and Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would also be buried with him when he dies after coming down to earth in the final era. On the Day of Resurrection the two would arise together while Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه would be next to them.

The Prophet ﷺ, as we know, died in the room of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and is buried there in compliance with one of his sayings. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was also buried there when he died later. When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was martyred he was also buried next to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, after seeking permission of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. There still was space for one grave in the room. When Sayyidina Hasan ibn Ali رضي الله عنه died everyone agreed that he should be buried there and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها consented to the idea but the Umayyad rulers of the time did not agree with the idea and prevented his burial there. (perhaps because Sayyidina Uthman was not buried there). Later, when Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه died (and he was one of the ten given glad tidings of Paradise), Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها gave her permission to bury him there, but he too could not be buried there. When Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها was on the point of death and was asked where she would like to be buried, she said that she should be buried in baqee' next to the other wives of the Prophet ﷺ. So, she was buried there. Nevertheless, there remains a place for a grave in the Rawdah (or Prophet's shrine) and according to the above Hadith, Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will be buried there when he dies.

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Salaam رضي الله عنه was a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ. He was a Jew before he embraced Islam and was a great scholar of Torah and other heavenly Books of old. Tirmizi carries his Hadith which is also found in Mishkat.

(١٩٥٠/٣٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ سَلَامٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ مَكْتُوبٌ فِي التَّوْرَةِ
صِفَةُ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعِيسَى بْنِ مَرْيَمَ يُدْفَنُ مَعَهُ

(جامع ترمذی. مشکوة المصابيح)

(36/1950) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is described in Torah and (it is also stated) that Isa ibn Maryam will be buried with him (meaning near him).

(Tirmizi, Mishkat)

Commentary: In the line of transmission in Tirmizi there is a narrator Abu Masood. Imam Tirmizi has also transmitted his statement: وقد بقى فى البيت موضع قبر "In the hujrah (room, which is now the Rawdah) there is space for a grave."

It would not be surprising that this place may have been left unused by Allah's will because it has been decreed already that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would be buried there. But Allah knows best.

(١٩٥٠/٣٧) عَنْ أَنَسٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَذْرَكَ مِنْكُمْ عِيسَى بْنُ مَرْيَمَ فَلْيَقْرَأْهُ مِنِّي السَّلَامَ

(رواه الحاكم فى المستدرک)

(37/1951) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Who so among you meets Isa ibn Maryam, may convey to him my salaam (greetings)." (Mustadrak Haakim)

Commentary: There is a Hadith in Musnad Ahmad on the same subject reported by Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ. And, in yet another Hadith in Musnad Ahmad it is reported that Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ used to say to people "اقْرؤْهُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ السَّلَامَ" "Convey to him the Salaam of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (when you meet Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام). In a Hadith in Mustadrak Haakim, it is reported that after narrating the Prophet's saying in an assembly, Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said to the people: "أَيُّ بَنِي أَخِي إِنْ رَأَيْتُمُوهُ فَقُولُوا أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ يَقْرَأُكَ السَّلَامَ" "O my nephews! If you meet Isa عليه السلام convey to him from me: Abu Hurayrah has presented his Salaam."¹

We have recorded here only seven Ahadith about the descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, and they have been explained as much as it was thought necessary. (This has been my practice throughout this series of Ma'arif ul-Hadith)

1. The Arabs called their elders, in respect, يَا عَمَّ (O Uncle!). When they spoke to their youngsters they called in love, يَا ابْنَ عَمِّ (O son of my brother!)

In the introductory words, I have mentioned the book of our respected teacher Mawlana Muhammad Anwar Shah Kashmiri رحمه الله عليه. "التصريح بما تواتر في نزول المسيح"، الله عليه. The respected Mawlana has put together here in seventy-five Ahadith reported by different Companions رضي الله عنهم on this subject and found in published books only. These are sayings of the Prophet ﷺ at different times and at different places. He spoke about the coming of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام in the last days when dajjal would already have made his appearance as the worst kind of trial for the Muslim ummah. The Prophet ﷺ also mentioned what steps Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام would take. In this Book, the Mawlana has also recorded from Books of Ahadith, 26 sayings of the Companions and Tabi'een concerning descent of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. A perusal of this Book makes clear that it is proved by continuous reporting that the Prophet ﷺ did in fact inform his ummah of the coming of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام in the final days of the world, there remaining no doubt about it. The Companions رضي الله عنهم and the Tabi'een also believed accordingly and they had known that from the Qur'an and the Prophet's ﷺ sayings. Indeed, this Book of the Mawlana is the final word on the subject.

وَلِلَّهِ الْحُجَّةُ الْبَالِغَةُ .

كتاب المناقب والفضائل

KITABUL MANAQIB WAL FADA'IL

THE BOOK OF VIRTUES AND EXCELLENCES

The knowledge and awareness that Allah blessed His Messenger with, he passed that on to his ummah. These concern the different departments of man's life and are divided into different chapters, one of which is Manaqib wa Fada'il (virtues and excellences). In almost all books of Ahadith there is a Kitab al-manaqib or Abwab al-manaqib (chapter) in which those sayings of Allah's Messenger ﷺ are collected wherein he has mentioned the merits of certain people or individuals or sections which Allah had revealed to him. In certain aspects this is an important chapter of Hadith. There is much guidance in it for the ummah. Today, I begin to explain the Ahadith of this chapter, those Ahadith preceding in which Allah's Messenger ﷺ has described his Lord's blessing on him in compliance with His Command

واما بنعمة ربك فحدث (الضحى' ٩٤:١١)

(And as for the blessing of your Lord, proclaim it —

(ad-Duha, 93:11)

At the same time, Ahadith on his Shama'il (peculiarities and features) will also be presented together with an explanation.

Merits of Allah's Messenger ﷺ And His High Station

(١٩٥٢/١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا سَيِّدُ
وُلْدِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَأَوَّلُ مَنْ يُنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْقَبْرُ وَأَوَّلُ شَافِعٍ وَأَوَّلُ مَشْفَعٍ

(رواه مسلم)

(1952/1) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ﷺ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "On the Day of Resurrection, I will be the Sayyid (chief) of all children of Aadam and I will be the first person whose grave will be opened up (and I will be the first to be resurrected). And I will be the first one to intercede (having received Allah's permission for that), and I will be one whose intercession shall get approval first of all." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has said that Allah has granted him a station higher than all children of Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام (including the Prophets عليهم السلام) appointing him their sayyid or master. Everyone will see it in its full application on the Day of Resurrection. On this very day, Allah's special blessing will also be demonstrated when his grave will be split open before all other graves and he will be the first one to come out of it. Then, with Allah's permission, he will be the first person to make recommendation to Allah for other people and he will again be the first whose intercession will be approved.

The Prophet ﷺ proclaimed such blessings of Allah on His command so that his ummah may recognise his high status and they should regard him with respect and love, and follow it up with obedience to him. They may also be prompted to show gratitude to Allah for having made them members of the ummah of such a great Prophet. His sayings of this kind are proclamation of Allah's blessings and gratitude for blessings and a means of guidance to the ummah.

We must also bear in mind that there are a number of Ahadith in which he has said that he should not be given merit over only other Prophet or Messenger. The meaning (as elaborated by exgetes and apparent from the style of the Hadith) is that no comparison must be made with another Prophet to show the other as inferior, for, that is bad manners and insulting. Allah has said in His Book:

”تِلْكَ الرُّسُلُ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ“ (البقرة ٢: ٢٥٣)

{Of these Messengers, some of whom We have caused to excel other.} (al-Baqarah, 2:253)

There are also numerous verses in the Qur'an which clearly say that Allah's Messenger excelled other Prophets and Messengers, for example,

”وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً لِّلْعَالَمِينَ“ (الانبياء ٢١: ١٠٧)

{And We have not sent you (O Prophet) but as a mercy to the worlds (21:107)} and

”وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا كَافَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ الْآيَةَ“ (سباء ٣٤: ٢٨)

{And We have not sent you (O Prophet) save as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner to all mankind (34:28)}

(١٩٥٣/٢) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا سَيِّدُ وَلَدِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَبِيَدِي لَوَاءُ الْحَمْدِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَمَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ يَوْمَئِذٍ آدَمَ فَمَنْ سِوَاهُ إِلَّا تَحْتَ لَوَائِي وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ يَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ وَلَا فَخْرَ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1953/2) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I will be the Sayyid (chief) of all children of Aadam on the Day of Resurrection and this is no boast. The banner of praise will be in my hand and this too is no boast. And, all the Prophets, Aadam and the others besides him (all Prophets and Messengers) will be under my banner on that Day and I will be the first person on earth whose grave will be split open and I do not boast about it (but only proclaim Allah's blessings on His command). (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The two blessings, first and last, are also mentioned in the foregoing Hadith of Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ — "أَنَا سَيِّدُ" "I am the chief of the children of Aadam "الْقِيَامَةِ" "وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ" "I am the first whose grave will be left open "تَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ" and we have explained them. In this Hadith, the Prophet ﷺ also recounted the blessings: that he will hold the banner of praise on the Day of Resurrection and all Prophets and Messengers will be under his banner. It is known generally that the commander of a force himself holds the banner and all others are under him. Thus, Allah will give him the banner on the Day of Resurrection and all Prophets عليهم السلام from Sayyidina Aadam عليه السلام to Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام will be under his banner which is a demonstration of Allah's causing him to excell all Prophets عليهم السلام and all creatures which everyone will witness on the Day of Resurrection. The Prophet said after enumerating every blessing of Allah that he did not boast about it but was complying with Allah's command to proclaim His blessings and show gratitude that the others may know about it.

The banner of praise will be a sign that its holder had surpassed all others in praising Allah (which is the particular deed that makes one dear to Allah). In his life-time, the Prophet ﷺ was continuously occupied in praise of Allah. He remembered that in everything he did — so much that even after sneezing and getting over personal purity. (The supplications that he has taught for different occasions all include praise of Allah.) He also taught his ummah to emulate him with the result that Allah was praised so much and will be praised until the Last Day that there can be no count of that and only He knows how much. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ alone deserved the banner of praise ﷺ.

(١٩٥٤/٣) عَنْ أَبِي بَنِي كَعْبٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ الْقِيَامَةِ كُنْتُ إِمَامَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَخَطِيئَهُمْ وَصَاحِبَ شَفَاعَتِهِمْ غَيْرَ فَخْرٍ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1954/3) Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "On the Day of Resurrection, I will be the Imam and leader of all the Prophets and spokesman on their behalf. And I alone would be their intercessor. And, I do not say that out of boast (but I abide by Allah's command to proclaim His blessings). (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: In this Haidth the Prophet ﷺ has called himself also spokesman of and the one who will intercede for, the Prophets عليهم السلام on the Day of Resurrection. On that Day, Divine Glory and Anger will be demonstrated in an unusual intensity so that no Prophet would venture to submit their petition to Him. So, the Prophet ﷺ petition to Him. So, the Prophet will speak for them and make recommendation for them. In this saying, too, he concluded his words with the declaration that he was not being proud but merely proclaimed Allah's blessings on him.

(١٩٥٥/٤) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ جَلَسَ نَاسٌ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ فَخَرَجَ حَتَّى إِذَا دَنَا مِنْهُمْ سَمِعَهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ، قَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ اتَّخَذَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلًا وَقَالَ آخَرُ مُوسَى كَلَّمَهُ اللَّهُ تَكْلِيمًا وَقَالَ آخَرُ عِيسَى كَلَّمَهُ اللَّهُ وَرُوحَهُ، وَقَالَ آخَرُ آدَمَ اصْطَفَاهُ اللَّهُ فَخَرَجَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ قَدْ سَمِعْتُ كَلَامَكُمْ. وَعَجَبْتُكُمْ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيمَ خَلِيلُ اللَّهِ وَهُوَ كَذَلِكَ، وَمُوسَى نَجَّى اللَّهُ وَهُوَ كَذَلِكَ، وَعِيسَى

رُوحُهُ وَكَلِمَتُهُ، وَهُوَ كَذَالِكَ، وَأَدَمُ إِصْطَفَاهُ اللَّهُ وَهُوَ كَذَالِكَ، أَلَا
وَأَنَا حَبِيبُ اللَّهِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَأَنَا حَامِلُ لَوَاءِ الْحَمْدِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ تَحْتَهُ، أَدَمُ
فَمَنْ دُونَهُ، وَلَا فَخْرَ، وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ شَافِعٍ وَأَوَّلُ مُشَفِّعٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَلَا فَخْرَ،
وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ يُحَرِّكُ حَلَقَ الْجَنَّةِ فَيَفْتَحُ اللَّهُ لِي فَيْدَ حُلِيِّهَا وَمَعِيَ فَقَرَاءُ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَا فَخْرَ، وَأَنَا أَكْرَمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَالْآخِرِينَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَلَا فَخْرَ.

(رواه الترمذی والداری)

(1955/4) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that some Companions رضی اللہ عنہم of Allah's Messenger ﷺ were seated together conversing with each other when Allah's Messenger ﷺ came out. As he came nearer, he heard one of them say (in extolling Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام), "Allah chose Ibrahim عليه السلام as His friend." Another said, "He honoured Musa عليه السلام with direct conversation." Another said, "Isa عليه السلام is Kalimatullah (word of Allah) and RoohAllah (Spirit of Allah)." Yet another said, "Allah chose Adam عليه السلام (for, He created him with His Hands and ordered the angels to prostrate before him)." The Prophet ﷺ came upon them and said, "I have heard you. You wonder that Ibrahim عليه السلام was Allah's friend which, indeed, he was. (Allah chose him as His Khaleel.) (You wonder) that Musa عليه السلام was Naji Allah (His confidant) which indeed, was. (You wonder that Isa عليه السلام was RoohAllah and Kalimatullah (His spirit and word) which, Indeed he was. And (you wonder) that Aadam عليه السلام was Safiullah (Chosen by Allah) which, indeed, he was. But you must know that I am HabibAllah (One whom Allah loves and I do not boast about it. I shall hold the Banner of Praise on the Day of Resurrection under which will be Aadam عليه السلام and others besides him, and I do not boast. I shall be the first one to intercede on the Day of Resurrection and the first whose intercession shall be accepted. And I shall be first person to rattle the knocker (of the gate of Paradise to get it opened) and Allah will get it opened for me and admit me to Paradise and the poor people of the Believers will accompany me, and I do not boast. And, among the earliest and the latest, I shall be the most honoured in Allah's sight and I do not boast about it.

(Jami Tirmizi, Musnad Darami)

Commentary: The Prophet's ﷺ temperament was one of humility and humbleness, but, whenever necessary, he did proclaim Allah's favours on him in compliance with His Command:

“وَأَمَّا بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ فَحَدِّثْ” (الضحى ١١:٥٣)

{And as for the blessing of your Lord, proclaim it. 53:11}

This Hadith and the two before it are part of the Prophet's ﷺ proclamation of Allah's favours. The Hadith recalls the conversation of the companions about Allah's favours on the Prophets عليهم السلام. They had known these things from the Prophet's teachings and from the Qur'an but their knowledge of his own merits was incomplete. So, they wished to know and, indeed, needed to know and the Prophet ﷺ informed them about it. He confirmed their knowledge of the favours of Allah on the other Prophets عليهم السلام and then recounted Allah's favours on him. He said that he was the Habib (dear one) of Allah. (The Companions had known that this station was the most elevated and excellent, so he did not elaborate.) He then recounted some of those blessings which will be demonstrated after the end of this world on the Day of Resurrection. In the earlier Ahadith, we have already learnt about the Banner of Praise being in his hand and his being the first intercessor and the first whose recommendation is accepted. He then mentioned two other blessings. He would knock at the gate of Paradise and Allah will get it opened and admit him to Paradise and the poor people of his ummah will accompany him inside. (This reflects his position as dear to Allah.) The last thing he said was “وانا اكرم الاولين والاخرين على الله” "I am the most honourable in Allah's sight among the earliest and the latest people."

While recalling every favour, Allah's Messenger ﷺ also said ولا فخر. As we have mentioned earlier, it means: "I do proclaim these special favours of Allah out of pride or to impress anyone with my excellence but only to obey Allah's command and let others know of His favours and to express gratitude to Him, and that you should know about these blessings so that you too may thank your Lord. In fact, these blessings are a means of good to you too."

(١٩٥٦/٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ أَنَا قَائِدُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

وَلَا فُخْرَ وَأَنَا خَاتَمُ النَّبِيِّينَ وَلَا فُخْرَ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ شَافِعٍ وَمُشَفِّعٍ وَلَا فُخْرَ

(رواه الدارمي)

(1956/5) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "(On the Day of Resurrection,) I will be the leader of the Messengers and there is no boast. And, I am the seal of Prophets, again there is no boast. And, I am the first to intercede and my intercession will be the first to be accepted. I do not say that in boast."
(Musnad Darami)

Commentary: We know from this Hadith that the Prophet ﷺ who is the Last and the Seal of Prophets will be their leader on the Day of Resurrection. He will be the first intercessor and the first whose intercession is accepted as we have read in a number of earlier Ahadith too. He again emphasise ولا فخر (there is no boast).

(١٩٥٧/٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَثَلِي وَمَثَلُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ كَمَثَلِ قَصْرِ أَحْسَنَ بُنْيَانِهِ، تَرَكَ مِنْهُ مَوْضِعُ لَبْنَةٍ فَطَافَ بِهِ النَّظَارُ يَتَعَجَّبُونَ مِنْ حُسْنِ بِنَائِهِ إِلَّا مَوْضِعَ تِلْكَ اللَّبْنَةِ فَكُنْتُ أَنَا سَدَدْتُ مَوْضِعَ اللَّبْنَةِ خَتَمْتُ لِي الْبُنْيَانَ وَخَتَمَ بِي الرَّسُولُ..... وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ فَإِنَّا اللَّبْنَةُ وَأَنَا خَاتَمُ النَّبِيِّينَ
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1957/6) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "My example and that of the other Prophets is like a castle beautifully built. However, the place of one brick is left unbuilt. Onlookers look round it and admire the beauty of its construction and are surprised but for the space for the brick (for that is a defect." The Prophet ﷺ added,) "Now, I have come and filled in the empty space and, through me, the castle is completed and the construction is over. And the series of Messengers is over. And the series of Messengers is also complete."

(The author of Mishkat-al-masabeeh, Muhammad ibn Abdullah Khateeb Tabrayzi remarked that) in a version of this Hadith in Bukhari and Muslim the words انا فكتت to الرسول (Now, I have also completed) in the last sentence are replaced by فَإِنَّا اللَّبْنَةُ وَأَنَا خَاتَمُ النَّبِيِّينَ "I am that brick (completing the castle) and I am the seal of Prophets."
(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has been called Khatam an-Nabieen in the Qur'an and in many Ahadith, too. Surely, this is the greatest of Allah's blessings on him leaving him Allah's Prophet and Messenger till the Last Day. He has explained his position as the Last of Prophets through an example which is so easy to understand that no further explanation is necessary. The thousands of Prophets before him all contributed to the building of the castle of Prophethood and it was near complete save for one brick. Even that was placed with the coming of the Prophet ﷺ. Now the castle was perfected. No new Prophet or Messenger was required nor was there scope for one. Thus Allah closed the door to the series of Prophets, and he was called the خاتم النبيين (the seal of Prophets) صلى الله عليه وآله وصحبه وبارك وسلم.

Birth, Commissioning, Wahy & Age

(١٩٥٨/٧) عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
سَأَخْبِرُكُمْ بِأَوَّلِ أَمْرِي دَعْوَةُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَبِشَارَةُ عِيسَى، وَرُؤْيَا أُمِّي الَّتِي رَأَتْ
حِينَ وَصَنَعْتَنِي، وَقَدْ خَرَجَ نُورٌ أَضَاءَ لَهَا مِنْهُ قُصُورُ الشَّامِ. (رواه احمد)

(1958/7) Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Let me tell you about my initial affairs. I am the prayer of Ibrahim, and the good tidings of Isa (the Prophet of whose coming he gave glad tidings), and the (fulfilment of the) dream of my mother which she saw on my birth (in the form of) a light which illuminated the castles of Syria for her." (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: In the verses 127-129 of surah al-Baqarah in the Qur'an, the prayer of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام is mentioned when he and his son Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام were building the Ka'bah: Our Lord, raise up in our progeny a community submissive to You and raise up in their midst a Messenger who shall recite to them Your verses and teach them the Book and the wisdom and purify them. And, it is stated in verse 6 of as-Saff that when Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام was sent to the Banu Isra'il as Messenger, he said to them: Of the tasks Allah has charged me with is also that I should inform you of a great Messenger who shall come after me whose name shall be Ahmad. The Prophet said while referring to these very verses of the Qur'an, "I am the fulfilment of Ibrahim's prayer and the realisation of Isa's glad tidings." He then said that he was the coming true of his mother's dream which his mother had seen when he was born. She saw an extraordinary light that illuminated for her the splendid buildings and castles of Syria which She saw in the light. She probably saw it in the night before he was born. It is the distinction of Syria (sham)¹ that it is the birth place of Prophets and within its precincts is the Bayt al-Maqdis, the qiblah of all the Prophets عليهم السلام.

I have given the word of the Hadith رؤيا the meaning of dream and explained it accordingly. However, it could also mean that his mother saw the Light and in its illumination the castles of Sham at the exact time of his birth while she was awake. This is the impression we get from another Hadith. It could also be that she saw the dream while sleeping before his birth and, again at the time of birth, her eyes may have witnessed that in a state of awakening. Anyway, that was a sign that the blessed birth would be instrumental in carrying the light of guidance to Sham (Syria) which had been a centre of guidance for thousands of years. It was also a sign that the people who held Bayt al-Maqdis as qiblah would also receive guidance (from him) as was demonstrated and will be demonstrated till the Last Day.

(١٩٥٩/٨) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ قَالَ وَلِدْتُ أَنَا وَالنَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ عَامَ الْفِيلِ (رواه الترمذی)

(1959/8) Sayyidina Qays ibn Makhramah رضى الله عنه reported that he and the Prophet ﷺ were born in the year of Elephant.

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Year of Elephant is the year when Abraha came from Yaman with a large army which also had elephants with it, to demolish the Ka'bah. He had brought his army up to Makkah but before he could enter it Allah sent His army in the shape of very small birds which threw pebbles on them. (These worked like bullets.) The entire army was annihilated. This event is related in Surah al-feel of the Qur'an. This year is, therefore, known as the Year of Elephant. The Prophet ﷺ was 'born this year and according to a report fifty days after the event.

①. It is the ancient Shaam

Allama Ibn al-Jawzi has said that there is a consensus about the year of the Prophet's birth and a near consensus about the month, Rabee' ul Awwal, and day Monday, but there are different reports about the date. The dates suggested are the 2nd, 8th, 10th and 12th (which is most gone by), and the 18th. Allamah Qastalani has said that the muhadditheen generally regarded the 8th Rabee'al-Awwal as the correct date. In the recent past an Egyptian astronomer had proved through astronomical calculations that the Prophet's ﷺ birth date was 9th Rabee'ul-Awwal in the Year of Elephant.

Exactly at the time when the Prophet was about to be born (at Makkah), the army of Abraha which the Qur'an has called Ashab ul-Feel and which was bent on demolishing the Ka'bah, were routed by tiny little birds that shot pebbles at them. Indeed, this was a demonstration of Allah's Powers. The ulama have regarded this as one of the miracles that had occurred before the Prophet's ﷺ birth.

(١٩٦٠/٩) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ بُعِثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِأَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً فَمَكَتْ بِمَكَّةَ ثَلَاثَ عَشْرَةَ سَنَةً يُوحَى إِلَيْهِ، ثُمَّ أُمِرَ بِالْهَجْرَةِ، فَهَاجَرَ عَشْرَ سِنِينَ وَمَاتَ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلَاثٍ وَسِتِّينَ سَنَةً. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1960/9) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ was commissioned as Prophet at the age of forty years (that is, Allah made him Prophet and Messenger at this age). He then stayed in Makkah for thirteen years after that, and he continued to receive revelation from Allah. Then he was commanded to make the hijrah (migration from Makkah), so he migrated and lived for ten years as a Muhajir (migrant). He then died (at Madinah) when his age was sixty-three years.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

(١٩٦١/١٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قُبِضَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلَاثٍ وَسِتِّينَ، وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلَاثٍ وَسِتِّينَ، وَعُمَرُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ ثَلَاثٍ وَسِتِّينَ. (رواه مسلم)

(1961/10) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ died when he was sixty-three years old. And, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه also died when he was sixty-three years old and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه also died at the age of sixty-three years. (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The two Companions, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه were greatly attached to the Prophet ﷺ. This attachment was reflected in their death at the same age, sixty-three, as the Prophet ﷺ and their burial in the Rawdah next to the Prophet ﷺ. We have also seen the Hadith under the chapter on the signs of the Qiyamah that when the Prophet ﷺ would rise up from his grave and proceed to the place of Gathering, they would walk by him to his right and left. Further down when we read about their virtues, we will see the Hadith of Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه that when Umar رضي الله عنه died, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه described their deep attachment to the Prophet in the light of the Prophet's ﷺ own words in a very comprehensive manner.

(١٩٦٢/١١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ أَوَّلُ مَا بُدِئَ بِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْوَحْيِ الرُّؤْيَا الصَّادِقَةُ فِي النَّوْمِ فَكَانَ لَا يَرَى رُؤْيَا إِلَّا جَاءَتْهُ مِثْلَ فَلَقِ الصُّبْحِ ثُمَّ حُبِبَ إِلَيْهِ الْخَلَاءُ وَكَانَ يَخْلُو بِغَارِ حِرَاءَ فَيَتَحَنَّنُ فِيهِ..... وَهُوَ التَّعَبُّدُ..... اللَّيَالِي ذَوَاتِ الْعَدَدِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَنْزِعَ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ وَيَتَزَوَّدَ لِدَالِكَ، ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ إِلَى خَدِيجَةَ فَيَتَزَوَّدُ لِمِثْلِهَا حَتَّى جَاءَهُ الْحَقُّ وَهُوَ فِي غَارِ حِرَاءَ فَجَاءَهُ الْمَلَكُ فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ فَقَالَ مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ قَالَ فَآخِذْنِي فَعَطَّنِي حَتَّى بَلَغَ مِنِّي الْجُهِدُ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلَنِي فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ قُلْتُ مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ فَآخِذْنِي فَعَطَّنِي الثَّانِيَةَ حَتَّى بَلَغَ مِنِّي الْجُهِدُ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلَنِي فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ قُلْتُ مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ فَآخِذْنِي فَعَطَّنِي الثَّالِثَ، حَتَّى بَلَغَ مِنِّي الْجُهِدُ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلَنِي فَقَالَ اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ ○ خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ ○ اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ ○ عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ ○ فَرَجَعَ بِهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْجِفُ فَوَادُهُ، فَدَخَلَ عَلَى خَدِيجَةَ فَقَالَ زَمِّلُونِي زَمِّلُونِي فَزَمِّلُوهُ حَتَّى ذَهَبَ عَنْهُ الرَّوْعُ فَقَالَ لِحَدِيجَةَ وَاخْبِرِيهَا الْخَبَرَ لَقَدْ خَشِيتُ عَلَى نَفْسِي، فَقَالَتْ خَدِيجَةُ كَلَّا وَاللَّهِ لَا يُخْزِيكَ اللَّهُ أَبَدًا، إِنَّكَ لَتَصِلُ الرَّحْمَ وَتَصْدُقُ الْحَدِيثَ وَتَحْمِلُ الْكُلَّ وَتَكْسِبُ الْمَعْدُومَ وَتُعِينُ عَلَى نَوَائِبِ الْحَقِّ، ثُمَّ انْطَلَقَتْ بِهِ

خَدِيجَةُ إِلَى وَرَقَةَ بْنِ نَوْفَلٍ ابْنِ عَمِّ خَدِيجَةَ فَقَالَتْ لَهُ يَا ابْنَ عَمِّ اسْمَعْ مِنْ
ابْنِ أَخِيكَ فَقَالَ لَهُ وَرَقَةُ يَا ابْنَ أَخِي مَاذَا تَرَى؟ فَأَخْبَرَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرَ مَا رَأَى فَقَالَ لَهُ وَرَقَةُ هَذَا النَّامُوسُ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ
اللَّهُ عَلَى مُوسَى، يَلْتَبِتُنِي كُنْتُ فِيهَا جَذَعًا يَلْتَبِتُنِي أَكُونُ حَبًّا، إِذْ يُخْرِجُكَ
قَوْمُكَ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَوْ مُخْرِجِي هُمْ؟ قَالَ نَعَمْ
لَمْ يَأْتِ رَجُلٌ قَطُّ بِمِثْلِ مَا جِئْتُ بِهِ، إِلَّا عُودِي وَإِنْ يُدْرِكُنِي يَوْمُكَ
أَنْصُرُكَ نَصْرًا مُؤَزَّرًا ثُمَّ لَمْ يَنْشَبْ وَرَقَةُ أَنْ تُوفِّيَ وَفَتَرَ الْوَحْيُ.

(رواه البخاري و مسلم)

رضى الله (1962/11) The Mother of the Faithful, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said: The first manner in which Allah's Messenger ﷺ received the revelation was the true dreams which he saw in sleep. So, every dream he saw came like the bright glow of dawn. Then love of solitude was put in his heart and he went to the cave on Hira and Stayed alone. There (before turning to his family) he stayed in worship for many nights together and took along ample provision for that. He would return to Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها (his wife) and fetch provision for as many nights and in this state while he was in the cave Hira, the Truth came to him (that is, the revelation). Allah's angel (Jibreel) came to him and said اقراء ("Read!"). He said, "I am not read." The Prophet said: Then the angel squeezed me till my strength gave in and he let me go and said, اقراء ("Read!") and I said again that I was not read. So, he held me again and squeezed me till I reached the end of my strength and he let me go and said اقراء ("Read!") and I said, "I am not read." The angel then held me and squeezed a third time till I found my strength giving in. He then released me and said:

”اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ ۝ خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ ۝ اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ ۝ الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ ۝ عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ“ (العلق ١-٥)

{Read in the Name of your Lord Who created — created man from a blood-clot. Read and your Lord is Most Bountiful, Who taught by the pen — taught man that he knew not.}

(al-Alaq, 96:1-5)

Then, Allah's Messenger returned with these verses while his heart trembled. He came to (his wife) Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها and said, "Wrap me up, wrap me up." So, they wrapped him up till the trembling had stopped. He then spoke to Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها and related to her all that had happened, saying, "I fear for my life." She said, "Certainly not! By Allah! Allah will never let you down. You join ties. You speak the truth, bear burdens of others, earn for the bereft, entertain guests, help people against tragedies affecting their rights." She then took him to her paternal cousin, waraqah ibn Nawfal. She said to him, "Listen, cousin, to what your nephew says (and his distress)." Waraqah ibn Nawfal then said to Allah's Messenger, "O nephew! Tell me what do you see?" So, Allah's Messenger ﷺ narrated to him all that he had seen. Waraqah said, "This is the particular confidant angel (Jibreel عليه السلام) whom Allah had sent to Musa عليه السلام." (Then, Waraqah said,) "Would that I were a young, strong man then! Would that I were alive then when your people drive you away." Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked (in surprise), "Will my people drive me away?" Waraqah said, "Yes! (Your people will exile you from your native land). None has ever brought an invitation as you have brought but his people were hostile to him. If I were alive till that day, I would help you strongly." Then Waraqah died not long afterwards. And Wahy was suspended. (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This Hadith traces the beginnings of the Prophet ﷺ mission and revelation. It is narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها who was not even born at that time but that should not bar us from considering the Hadith to be reliable because she may have heard it in detail directly from the Prophet ﷺ (which is a great possibility) or from her father, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه or from any other elder Companion رضي الله عنه who may have heard it from the Prophet ﷺ. It is agreed upon by the ahl us-sunnah that the Companions رضي الله عنهم are all just and reliable الصَّحَابَةُ كُلُّهُمْ عَدُولٌ (and this is part of their belief). Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها did not consider it necessary to disclose from whom she had heard the Hadith. If she had any doubts, she would not have narrated the Hadith, for, she knew that such reporting was a very responsible thing.

The first thing that the Hadith tells us is that the Prophet ﷺ began to see true dreams in sleep. These would turn out in the morning exactly as he had seen them as bright day light. This was, as it were, his spiritual training for Prophethood and it was the first step.

Then his heart inclined to love solitude and deep devotion and worship. (It was like i'tikaaf — seclusion for worship.) He chose the cave on Hira for that. Hira is one of the several mountains of varying altitude around Makkah and (it seems that) it was the heighest of all mountains. It is now called Jabl an-Noor. It is about 2 1/2 miles from Makkah. Several rocks are joined together on its peak and in the centre a small triangular room-like space is formed. This is the cave of Hira. There is space enough for a man to enter it and somehow manage to exist inside. The mountain is very high and the cave is at its apex and climbing there is an arduous effort. So, even young, healthy people make it to the top with difficulty. Of course, today every Muslim loves to visit the cave having read about it in the Ahadith, but at the time the Prophet ﷺ had chosen, it no one found any attraction to visit it or try to make it there and endure the hardship in climbing to it. (We do not see mention of anyone visiting the Prophet ﷺ during his days of seclusion there.) So, he could not have chosen a better place to live in seclusion and it seems it had been determined from eternity.

The Hadith tells us further that he used to take along provision to last him some days and stay in the cave on Hira in seclusion, cut off from habitation. He occupied himself in worship with concentration. When he had a yearning for the people of his house, he went home to Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها. Then, armed with provision for some number of days, he came back to the cave to resume his worship.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها uses the word يتحنث to imply his occupation in worship. A narrator of this Hadith, Imam Zuhri has interpreted that word as تعبد, but we do not know from any report what was the nature of the Prophet's worship in the cave on Mount Hira. Scholars have presented different opinions but they are all surmise. I feel that he was being trained by Allah for Prophethood and Messengership, the first step being vision of true dreams. That was a kind of inspiration. Then his heart was prompted to worship in seclusion which was the result of divine inspiration. Then, his worship in the cave which described by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها as فيتحنث must have been guided by divine inspiration. He may have been making supplication for light of guidance for himself and may have been expressing disgust for the idolatory, cruelty and sin which his people practiced and which caused him tremendous heart-burning. He may have been beseeching Allah to guide his people. (He has declared that supplication is the pitch of worship.) Anyway, I feel that he had guidance from Divine inspiration in his worship and he was being spiritually trained for the stages ahead. But Allah knows best.

The Hadith goes on to say that suddenly (one night¹) an angel came to him with wahy (revelation) and said اقرأ, but he said مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ (I am not a reciter). The angel squeezed him so hard that he could not tolerate that any more. (Some versions suggest that he held the Prophet's ﷺ throat² and squeezed it very hard). He did that three times asking the Prophet to read اقرأ and each time he said مَا أَنَا بِقَارِئٍ (I do not know how to read. I have not learnt to read). Each time he squeezed him and the third time he recited the first five verses of al-Alaq

The Hadith does not tell us whether the Prophet ﷺ repeated these verses after the angel or not. But, we can deduce from the subsequent words that the verses were retained in his memory and he returned home reciting these verses. We have seen what his condition was when he went home.

It is particularly worth mentioning here that while the entire Qur'an is a miracle, some of its small surah and small verses are so prominently miraculous that one who is familiar with Arabic will have no option but to concede that it is not the work of a human being but of the Creator. I submit humbly that I am not a scholar of Arabic but I am able to read the Qur'an and the Hadith and understand them to some extent. Even in this condition I recognize that surah al-Alaq's initial five verse are not the words of a human

①. The first verse of surah al-Qadr is إنا أنزلناه في ليلة القدر (القدر ١:٩٧) (Surely We have revealed it on the Night of Power) and this implies that the angel came at night.

②. Hafiz Ibn Hajr Asqalani has cited in Fath al-Bari the report of Abu Dawood and Tiyasi فاخذ بحلقى (and he held me by my throat) and he has classified its sanad as Hasan) (Fath al-Bari first part P 13 Ausai pr. Delhi) being or an angel and this I can see as well as I see the light of the sun. Without doubt they are words of the Lord, full of Majesty. These five small verses encompass a whole treasure of Divine awareness and an ocean of knowledge on the majesty of His attributes of substenance, power, wisdom, compassion and kindness and other attributes and powers. We can compose a book on that. Not only was the Prophet's ﷺ mother-tongue Arabic but also he was the most eloquent of Arabs. So, we cannot doubt in the least that the moment he heard the angel recite these verses, he may have concluded that his Lord, the Creator had blessed him with His favours and His Words.

The Hadith tells us then that he went home with the five verses terrified. His heart was trembling and his body showed that. On coming home, he asked his family members to wrap him up. (one does get the desire to put a garment over oneself in a condition of distress and that does provide some relief.) They wrapped him up and then the terror subsided, he related the happenings to his wife Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها. He also said: (لَقَدْ خَشِيتُ عَلَى نَفْسِي) (I fear for my life). He meant, the angel squeezed my throat so hard that I feared that my soul would fly away!

She heard him and comforted him. She gave him the glad tidings very confidently and said on oath that there was nothing to fear. She said, "Allah has given you an excellent character. You care for others and are kind and truthful." She indicated thereby that he was the righteous creature of Allah, dear to Him and He has bestowed His favours on him, so whatever has happened was also a demonstration of His Kindness. She then took him to her paternal cousin Waraqah ibn Nawfal¹. In another Hadith also narrated by "Waraqah ibn Nawfal was one who had become a Christian during the jahiliyah (period before the coming of the Prophet ﷺ) and he wrote in Hebrew. So, he also wrote the Injeel in Hebrew. He was very aged and was blind."

وَكَانَ امْرَأً تَنَصَّرَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ
وَكَانَ يَكْتُبُ الْكِتَابَ الْعِبْرَانِي
فَيَكْتُبُ مِنَ الْإِنْجِيلِ بِالْعِبْرَانِيَّةِ
وَكَانَ شَيْخًا كَبِيرًا قَدْ عَمِيَ.

①. The father of Waraqah, Nawfal, and Sayyidah Khadijah's father, Khuwaylid, were sons of Asad ibn Abdul Uzza. Thus Waraqah was her paternal cousin.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها Waraqah ibn Nawfal is described thus:

In the version of Saheeh Muslim, the language is Arabic, not Hebrew and this is more close to reasoning.

It is stated about Waraqah that he was fed up with polytheism. He travelled to different lands in his search for the True Religion. Finally, in Sham he happened to meet a Christian monk who followed the true Christian faith (and not the corrupted version which gave divine status to Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, to trinity and which advocated explanation of sins, etc.) Waraqah became a Christian at his hands and learnt it from him. He also learnt Hebrew in which the Torah was revealed. (Some scholars hold that Injeel too was revealed in Hebrew). So, Waraqah, a true Christian, was a scholar of ancient books.

Ibn Hajar Asqalani has reproduced in al-Isabah a report about Waraqah.

"Waraqah regarded idol-worship as evil and wrong. He travelled to different regions and countries in search of True Religion. He studied the Books (which were regarded as heavenly). Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها used to ask him about Allah's Messenger ﷺ and he would say that he believed he was the same Prophet of this ummah about whom Musa عليه السلام and Isa عليه السلام gave good news."

وَكَانَ وَرَقَةُ قَدْ كَرِهَ عِبَادَةَ الْأَوْثَانِ
وَطَلَبَ الدِّينَ فِي الْأَفَاقِ وَقَرَأَ
الْكِتَابَ وَكَانَتْ خَدِيجَةُ تَسْتَلُّهُ
عَنْ أَمْرِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ فَيَقُولُ مَا رَأَاهُ إِلَّا نَبِيَّ هَذِهِ
الْأُمَّةِ الَّذِي بَشَّرَ بِهِ مُوسَى
وَعِيسَى. (الاصابه ج 6 ص 318)

(al-Isabah, v 6 p 318)

It is for these reasons that Waraqah was fed up with idol-worship and adopted Christianity (and believed in the prophethood and messengership in full.) He was a scholar of Torah and other heavenly books. Obviously then, he led a life different from that of the common Makkans. He was a worshipper, an ascetic and a man of God. This is why, his cousin Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها regarded him as a spiritual leader and respected him. Apart from the event of the cave on Hira, She mentioned to him the other extra-ordinary happenings with the Prophet ﷺ and sought his opinion.¹ He would say in answer ما رآه الا نبي هذه الامة الذى بشره موسى وعيسى "I think that he would be that Prophet of this ummah about whom Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام and Syayidina Isa عليه السلام gave glad tidings.

Then, when this happening took place at the cave of Hira which is mentioned in the Hadith, she felt that she should let the Prophet ﷺ relate the entire report to Waraqah in his own words, for he had already expressed his belief that her husband might be a Prophet. We must remember that we do not find in any Hadith even an indirect indication that the Prophet ﷺ had suggested a meeting with Waraqah. Rather, as we see in the Hadith, Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها was the one who took him there.

When they met him, Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها herself requested him to listen to the Prophet's ﷺ account directly calling him his nephew². Waraqah also addressed the Prophet as nephew and asked him to narrate his experience, and he narrated whatever he had gone through. Waraqah exclaimed without hesitation that the angel was the same naamus (the angel that brings revelation) whom Allah had sent to Prophet Musa عليه السلام with His message.

A question may arise here: Why did Waraqah think of Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام and not Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام although he was a Christian and Jibreel was sent to Sayyidina Isa just as he was sent to Prophet Musa عليه السلام. The exponents of Hadith explain this by confirming these facts and pointing out that Prophet Isa عليه السلام did not bring his own Shari'ah. He had the same shari'ah as the Shari'ah of Prophet Musa عليه السلام. Allah had made certain partial changes in it through Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. The Prophet ﷺ was a prophet and

①. These include: splitting of the heart in childhood, much before prophethood many rocks and stones saluted him, some trees bowed down towards him — events mentioned in some Ahadith which are acceptable. There is also the incident of the monk Buhayra found in Books of Hadith. These are events which he would have definitely mentioned to his wife, Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها and she must have mentioned them to her cousin Waraqah ibn Nawfal and sought his opinion. It is in answer to this that Waraqah may have said what is mentioned in the Hadith, "I feel that he is that Prophet of this ummah about whom Prophet Musa عليه السلام and Prophet Isa عليه السلام gave glad tidings."

②. This reference was not on account of any relationship but it followed the Arab custom who called their elders 'uncle' out of respect and their youngsters 'nephew' out of love and compassion.

Messenger who brought a separate and complete Shari'ah and, therefore, he had more resemblance to Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام in this regard. Thus, we also read in the Qur'an:

“إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ رَسُولًا شَاهِدًا عَلَيْكُمْ كَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ رَسُولًا”

(المزمل ١٥:٧٣)

{Surely we have sent to you a Messenger, as a witness over you, as We sent to Fir'awn a Messenger.} (al-Muzzammil, 73:15)

This is why Waraqah ibn Nawfal mentioned Prophet Musa عليه السلام in referring to Jibreel عليه السلام.

Waraqah ibn Nawfal said, therefore, that he was confident that the angel who came to the cave on Mount Hira was Jibreel عليه السلام who had conveyed Allah's revelation to Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام (and other Messengers). He confirmed the prophethood of Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ and wished that he had been a strong young man alive when the Prophet's people would expel him from his city, Makkah he would then have helped the Prophet ﷺ). The Prophet ﷺ expressed surprise and asked if his people would really expel him (because till then he was dear to everyone on account of his noble character and kindness for everyone. He was called as-Sadiq al-Ameen. Therefore, it could not be seen why they would turn against him.) Waraqah said, "Every Messenger who has come with the Message from Allah which you have brought faced the hostility of his people. The same thing will happen to you and your people will become your sworn enemies." Waraqah actually said what was foretold in ancient heavenly books and what the history of Allah's Prophets عليهم السلام disclosed. The Qur'an too reveals that Allah's Prophets عليهم السلام were treated in this way.

The final words of Waraqah were that if he would be alive when the Prophet commenced his mission, he would help him to the best of his ability in spite of his old age. But, after a very short time Waraqah died. The revelation had also been suspended after the first one at the cave Hira. (The explanation of the text is over.)

Some Aspects of The Hadith

(1) We know from this Hadith that the first people to confirm and belief in the prophethood of Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ were Waraqah ibn Nawfal and Sayyidah Khadijah but till then the Prophet ﷺ had not been commanded to give the call of the True religion. Waraqah died in those times but as one practicing true Christianity though he had confirmed the Prophet and professed belief in him. From this point of view, we can call him the first believer of this ummah. When the Prophet ﷺ was commanded to give the call, we learn from Ahadith, the first Believers were Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ, Sayyidina Ali ؓ, Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harithah ؓ and Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها who had expressed belief earlier too.

(2) The Hadith tells us that Jibreel ؑ squeezed the Prophet's throat very hard three times (like one who strangulates another). The scholars have explained it in different ways. I am inclined to concur with the opinion that the aim of squeezing the throat in this way was to remove his attention from everything for some time, even from his own self, and it should be only towards his Lord. If the throat of a man of Allah or one who has Divine awareness is squeezed in this manner, his entire attention will be directed to his Lord and his thought about this world would be cut off to a large extent and turn to the higher world. This bent of mind was essential at that time because the revelation was being sent to him the first time. In other words, a strength had to be created in the Prophet's soul and heart to enable to bear the burden of revelation. The Qur'an says قولا ثقيلا (a weighty word). Then whenever wahy was sent later the Prophet went through an experience which is described in Ahadith. Even in extreme cold, he perspired when revelation came to him. It is also stated in Ahadith that if he was riding a camel and he received a wahy, the camel would sit down.

(3) When he came out of the cave to return home, his heart trembled and his whole body reacted from that and, at home, he said to Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها, "I fear for my life." This condition too, was the result of the squeezing of his throat and the burden of the Divine words. It is Allah's mercy that we do not feel the weight of the recital of the Qur'an otherwise, Allah has described its glory in these words:

{Had we sent down this Qur'an on a mountain, you (O Prophet) would have seen it humbled,

لَوْ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ عَلَى جَبَلٍ
لَرَأَيْتَهُ خَاشِعًا مُتَصَدِّعًا مِّنْ خَشْيَةِ split asunder out of fear of Allah} (al-Hashr, 59:21) (سورة الحشر ٥٩: ٢١) اللَّهُ

His Manners

Allah, the Creator of the Prophet ﷺ and of everyone else, has Himself said about the Prophet's manners:

{And surely you have a tremendously sublime character} (al-Qalam, 68:4) (الْقَلَمُ ٤: ٦٨) "إِنَّكَ لَعَلَىٰ خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ"

The Ahadith and seerah really elaborate on this brief verse of the Qur'an. In the Kitab al-Ikhlāq of this Book, Ma'ariful Hadith, which is a comprehensive section spread over many pages, there are teachings of the Prophet ﷺ on manners and important events. The initial Ahadith disclose the position of manners in religion and in the sight of Allah. To refresh memory we reproduce some of those sayings of the Prophet ﷺ.

{Those people are the best among you whose manners are the best.}

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

{I am sent only that I may perfect noble manners.}

(Muwatta Imam Maalik.)

إِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ لِأَتَمِّمَ مَكَارِمَ الْأَخْلَاقِ

{The weightiest thing in a Believer's scale on the Day of Resurrection will be good manners.} (Sunan Abu Dawood, Jami' Tirmizi.)

إِنَّ أَثْقَلَ شَيْءٍ يُوَضَّعُ فِي مِيزَانِ الْمُؤْمِنِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ خُلُقٌ حَسَنٌ.

When in his last days, the Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal as preacher and ruler to Yaman, his last advice was:

{Treat everyone with good manners.} (Muwatta Imam Maalik)

أَحْسِنْ خُلُقَكَ لِلنَّاسِ

Here now are some Ahadith in which the Companions describe the Prophet's ﷺ manners according to their experience. May Allah cause us to emulate him.

(١٩٦٣/١٢) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ خَدَمْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَشْرَ سِنِينَ

فَمَا قَالَ لِيْ أُفٍّ وَلَا لِمَا صَنَعْتُ، وَلَا لِأَمْثَلِ مَا صَنَعْتُ. (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1963/12) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that he served the Prophet ﷺ for ten years. He never even said "Oof" to him, and never said to him, "Why did you do it? Why did you not do it?"

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The word oof is uttered in Arabic for something unpleasant, displeasure and anger. When the Prophet ﷺ came to Madinah, Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه was eight years old (ten, according to another report). His mother, Umm Salaym رضي الله عنها who was a very sincere and righteous Believer left him with the Prophet to serve him. He was then with the Prophet ﷺ to serve him. He was then with the Prophet ﷺ all through the remaining ten years till his death. In this Hadith he has narrated his personal experience that the Prophet ﷺ was well-mannered and soft-hearted. During the ten years, he never displayed anger or displeasure. His nature was to forgive and overlook. In another Hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported in Bayhaqi he says:

خَدَمْتُهُ عَشْرَ سِنِينَ فَمَا لَمْ يَنْبَغْ عَلَيَّ شَيْءٌ أَتَى فِيهِ عَلَى يَدَيَّ فَإِنْ لَمْ يَنْبَغْ مِنْهُ لِيْ قَالَ دَعُوهُ فَإِنَّهُ لَوْ قُضِيَ شَيْءٌ كَانَ. (مشكاة المصابيح)

"I served him ten years. He did not blame me even if something was destroyed or spoiled by me. If any of his family members blamed me then he would say: What had been decreed had to happen."

However, we must remember that this was his attitude in personal matters. Where Allah's limits or commands were concerned, he showed no concession.

(١٣/١٩٦٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كُنْتُ أَمْشِيْ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلَيْهِ بُرْدٌ نَجْرَانِيٌّ غَلِيْظُ الْحَاشِيَةِ فَأَذْرَكَهُ أَغْرَابِيٌّ فَجَبَدَهُ، بِرِدَائِهِ جَبْدَةً شَدِيْدَةً وَرَجَعَ نَبِيُّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ نَحْرِ الْأَغْرَابِيِّ حَتَّى نَظَرْتُ إِلَى صَفْحَةِ عَاتِقِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ أَثَرَتْ بِهَا حَاشِيَةُ الْبُرْدِ مِنْ شِدَّةِ جَدْبَتِهِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ مُرِّبِيْ مِنْ مَّالِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي عِنْدَكَ، فَالْتَفَتَ إِلَيْهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ ضَحِكَ، ثُمَّ أَمَرَهُ بِعَطَاءٍ. (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1964/13) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that he was going with Allah's Messenger ﷺ (somewhere). He had on him a cloak of Najran whose hems were thick. They came across a Bedouin who pulled at his cloak so hard that the Prophet stumbled on the man's chest and Anas رضي الله عنه saw that the pull caused marks on his neck. The Bedouin then said, "O Muhammad! Of the wealth of Allah that you have, give orders (to your men) that they should give me some." (Anas رضي الله عنه said that) Allah's Messenger ﷺ then looked at him (and instead of showing anger) laughed at his conduct and gave instructions that he should be given something. (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Najran was a city in Yaman which was famous for its cloaks. The 'wealth of Allah' from which the Bedouin wanted something was zakah or sadaqat collected in the State Treasure and disbursed among the deserving. The Bedouin was extremely ignorant and not even receptive to anything reformatory. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ did neither reprimand him nor counselled him but laughed at his rude conduct and gave him what he needed. This is a lesson for the ummah to forgive and overlook all rude conduct and thus win over people's hearts and get them close to them. Allah will then guide them. Indeed, those with insight find such conduct in the Prophet ﷺ as his miracles.

(١٩٦٥/١٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ مَاسَيْلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئاً

قَطُّ فَقَالَ لَا (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(1965/14) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that never did it happen that Allah's Messenger ﷺ was asked for something and he said لا (No!). (Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Whenever anyone asked the Prophet ﷺ for anything, he never said, "No" to the man because that hurts the supplicant.

It might not seem very significant but actually it is very extraordinary to never refuse any request. It is the extreme degree of kindness and nobility. They are fortunate whom Allah has blessed with such generous nature as also those who keep the company of Allah's men to develop these attributes.

(١٩٦٦/١٥) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا صَلَّى الْغَدَاةَ جَاءَ خَدْمُ الْمَدِينَةِ بِإِيْتِهِمْ فِيهَا الْمَاءُ فَمَا يَأْتُونَ بِإِنَاءٍ إِلَّا غَمَسَ يَدَهُ فِيهَا فَرِيْمًا جَاءَهُ بِالْغَدَاةِ الْبَارِدَةِ فَغَمَسَ يَدَهُ فِيهَا. (رواه مسلم)

(1966/15) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said that after the Prophet ﷺ had offered the Fajr Salah the servants (male or female) of Madinah came to him with their vessels in which was water (so that he may put his hand in the water to bless it or to cure the sick by dipping his hand into it). So, he dipped his hand into the vessel, and it happened often that on a cold morning they brought (cold water in the vessel) but he dipped his hand in that too.

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The witnesses of Madinah are very cold and water in vessels turns ice cold. The Prophet ﷺ, however, obliged those who brought water and helped Allah's creatures by carrying on the practice although he had to endure the cold water. It is also clear that this was not an occasional affair but people brought their water every day to get the Prophet's ﷺ blessings. This Hadith supports a similar regard for a righteous man of Allah provided there is no exaggeration and adulteration in one's belief.

(١٩٦٧/١٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قِيلَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَدْعُ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِينَ قَالَ إِنِّي لَمْ أُبْعَثْ لَعْنًا وَإِنَّمَا بُعِثْتُ رَحْمَةً. (رواه مسلم)

(1967/16) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that it was said to Allah's Messenger ﷺ, "O Messenger of Allah! Pray against the idolaters and disbelievers." He said, "I have not been sent as one to curse and pray against anyone. Rather, I am sent as mercy."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The disbelievers and the idolaters were staunch enemies of the Prophet ﷺ and his religion. They persecuted the Prophet ﷺ and his followers and even expelled him from his native city but their mischief continued unabated even after that. Some of his Companions رضي الله عنهم requested the Prophet ﷺ to curse the oppressing disbelievers that Allah may show His wrath to them and destroy them like He had punished earlier people. The Prophet ﷺ pacified them that he was not sent to curse anyone but he was Mercy for the worlds, as Allah has said:

وما ارسلناك الا رحمة للعالمين (الانبياء ١٠٧:٢٢)
 {And We have not sent you but as a mercy to the worlds.}
 (al-Anbiya, 21:107)

(١٩٦٨/١٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ مَا ضَرَبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا قَطُّ بِيَدِهِ وَلَا امْرَأَةً وَلَا خَادِمًا إِلَّا أَنْ يُجَاهِدَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ، وَمَانِلَ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ قَطُّ فَيَنْتَقِمَ مِنْ صَاحِبِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ يُنْتَهَكَ شَيْءٌ مِنْ مَحَارِمِ اللَّهِ فَيَنْتَقِمَ لِلَّهِ. (رواه مسلم)
 (1968/17) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ never beat anyone with his hands — never a woman and never a servant. However, he did that in jihad in the cause of Allah. And, never did he seek revenge from one who persecuted him (for, in fact, he always forgave and overlooked in personal affronts). Nevertheless, if anyone committed an unlawful act then he punished the criminal for the sake of Allah (in fulfilment of His Commands, or he gave command to punish him.) (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has mentioned two things in this Hadith.

(1) Never was he known to have beaten anyone on his mistake — not even a servant, slave, maid-slave, or a wife, except his actions in jihad. For instance, Ubayy ibn Khalaf, a Makkan idolater chief was killed by him in the Battle of Badr.

(2) He never took revange for a personal affront even if an unfortunate person hurt him. However, if anyone perpetrated a wrong or unlawful act in religion then he punished him only for the sake of Allah and to abide by His Command.

(١٩٦٩/١٨) عَنْ الْأَسْوَدِ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ مَا كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصْنَعُ فِي بَيْتِهِ قَالَتْ كَانَ يَكُونُ فِي (تَعْنِي) أَهْلِهِ (مِهْنَةً خِدْمَةِ أَهْلِهِ) فَإِذَا حَضَرَتِ الصَّلَاةُ خَرَجَ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ. (رواه البخاري)

(1969/18) A tabi'ee, Sayyidina Aswad said: I asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها what the Prophet ﷺ did (when he was) at home. She said that he helped his household members in their chores and when it was time for salah, he gave up everything and went to offer salah. (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: It was the Prophet's ﷺ practice to lend a hand in household chores. It is his sunnah. May Allah inspire us to conduct ourselves on these sunnah so that we will get reward against helping and serving others, and we will also cure ourselves of the spiritual disease, arrogance.

(١٩٧٠/١٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يُخَصِّفُ نَعْلَهُ وَيَخِيْطُ ثَوْبَهُ وَيَعْمَلُ فِي بَيْتِهِ كَمَا يَعْمَلُ أَحَدُكُمْ فِي بَيْتِهِ وَقَالَتْ

كَانَ بَشَرًا مِنَ الْبَشَرِ يَقْلِيْ ثَوْبَهُ وَيَحْلُبُ شَاتَهُ وَيُخْدِمُ نَفْسَهُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1970/19) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that it was normal with Allah's Messenger ﷺ that (when necessary) he patched his sandal, sewed his garments, and he worked in his house as one of you does in his house. (she also said that) he was (not a super human or any other than human creature but) one of the children of Aadam (who did even every ordinary chores) who searched his garments for lice, milked his sheep and attended to his own tasks. (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: There is a good lesson to learn in this Hadith and the Prophet's ﷺ exemplary life for those who are his heirs in religion. May Allah cause all of us to emulate the Prophet's ﷺ example.

(١٩٧١/٢٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا صَا

فَحَ الرَّجُلَ لَمْ يَنْزِعْ يَدَهُ مِنْ يَدِهِ حَتَّى يَكُونَ هُوَ الَّذِي يَنْزِعُ يَدَهُ،

وَلَا يَصْرِفُ وَجْهَهُ عَنْ وَجْهِهِ حَتَّى يَكُونَ هُوَ الَّذِي يَصْرِفُ وَجْهَهُ، عَنْ

وَجْهِهِ وَلَمْ يُرْمَقْدِمًا رُكْبَتَيْهِ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ جَلِيسَ لَهُ. (رواه الترمذی)

(1971/20) Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه said that it was the practice of Allah's Messenger ﷺ that when he shook hands with anyone he did not withdraw his hands till the other man withdrew his. Similarly, he did not turn away his face from anyone till that man turned his face to the other side. And, he was never seen to put forward his knees in front of one with whom he was sitting.

(Jami, Tirmizi)

Commentary: Obviously, those who came to him, shook hands with him, believed in him were his servants and his devoted Companions رضى الله عنهم. He met them as the Hadith says but men of his ummah like us are very unfortunate in depriving ourselves of these attributes.

(١٩٧٢/٢١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَكُنْ يَسْرُدُ الْحَدِيثَ كَسَرْدِكُمْ كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ حَدِيثًا لَوْ عَدَّهُ الْعَادُّ لَأَحْصَاهُ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1972/21) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ did not speak rapidly as you people do, but would talk slowly in such a way that if anyone wished to count his words then he would be able to do so.

(Saheeh Bukhari and Muslim)

Commentary: This is the best way to speak when one teaches others. Listeners can understand and hold the teaching in their mind. A Hadith in Jami' Tirmizi narrated by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها Concludes thus:

كَانَ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِكَلَامٍ بَيْنَهُ، فَصْلٌ يَحْفَظُهُ، مَنْ جَلَسَ إِلَيْهِ.

"He spoke in such a way that the words were spaced out so that those who sat with him remembered them."

(١٩٧٣/٢٢) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

(رواه فى شرح السنه)

طَوِيلَ الصَّمْتِ

(1973/22) Sayyidina Jabir ibn Samurah رضي الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ observed long silence (Sharah as-Sunnah)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ spoke only to teach and train. If there was no need to say anything then he remained silent. The following Hadith is found in volume one of Ma'riful-Hadith in Kitab al-Eeman under reference to Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim:

مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيَقُلْ خَيْرًا أَوْ لِيَصْمُتْ.

"He who believes in Allah and the Last Day should speak what is good (which is liable to fetch him reward), or keep quiet."

Commentary: This was the Prophet's ﷺ teaching on which he conducted himself. May Allah cause us also to abide by that.

We have presented only ten Ahadith from Kitab al-Munaqib wa al-Fadail on the Prophet's ﷺ manners. Let that be enough example.

Illness & Death

We follow the pattern of the compiler of Mishkat al-Masabeeh and conclude this chapter with a few Ahadith on the Prophet's ﷺ illness and death.

We may mention here that the Muhadditheen and biographers agree that the death of the Prophet ﷺ occurred in 11 AH in the month of Rabee' al-Awwal on a Monday. However, there are different reports on the date he died just as the reports differ concerning his birth. As far as my own study is concerned, there is no book of Hadith that mentions the date on which he died. The books of history and biography mention three different dates: the 1st of Rabee' ul-Awwal, the second and the twelfth which is more commonly accepted like the date of birth. However, some scholars have asserted that 12th Rabee' ul-Awwal can never be correct because it is confirmed that he had performed Hajj two and three quarters of a month before his death and the day of Hajj, 9th Zul-Hajjah, was Friday. (This is known also as the Farewell Hajj). It is confirmed too that the day on which he died was Monday. Given this date (1) 9th Zul Hajj was Friday and (2) Prophet's death was on Monday in Rabee' al-Awwal — then 12th Rabee' al-Awwal can never fall on a Monday. If we consider each of the three (lunar) months to be of 29 days (which is most far-fetched and the least likely) then the first Monday in Rabee' al-Awwal will be the 2nd of the month. And, if one month is made up of 29 days and two of 30 days each (which is a frequent occurrence) then the first Monday in Rabee' al-Awwal will be the first of the month. Keeping these facts in mind, the most conceiving date is 1st Rabee'ul-Awwal. But Allah knows best.

We will now read some of those Ahadith in which the Prophet ﷺ gave a vague hint to his Companions ﷺ of his impending death, or spoke of it in clear terms. There are some of those Ahadith in which a few of the important events that took place in the final illness are mentioned. In conclusion, we have reproduced the Ahadith that speak of the Prophet's death. May Allah make these Ahadith a means of guidance and blessing for me and all readers and decree for us a peaceful death on the faith of Islam.

”اللَّهُمَّ تَوَفَّنَا مُسْلِمِينَ وَالْحَقُّنَا بِالصَّالِحِينَ”

(١٩٧٤/٢٣) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ صَلَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى قَتْلَى أُحَدٍ بَعْدَ ثَمَانِ سِنِينَ كَالْمُودِّعِ لِلْأَحْيَاءِ وَالْأَمْوَاتِ، ثُمَّ طَلَعَ الْمُنِيرُ فَقَالَ إِنِّي بَيْنَ أَيْدِيكُمْ فَرَطٌ وَأَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيدٌ، وَإِنْ مَوَّعِدْكُمْ الْحَوْضُ، وَإِنِّي لَأَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ وَأَنَا فِي مَقَامِي هَذَا، وَإِنِّي قَدْ أُعْطِيتُ مَفَاتِيحَ خَزَائِنِ الْأَرْضِ، وَإِنِّي لَسْتُ أَخْشَى عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ تُشْرِكُوا بَعْدِي، وَلَكِنْ أَخْشَى عَلَيْكُمْ الدُّنْيَا أَنْ تُنَافِسُوا فِيهَا

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1974/23) Sayyidina Uqabah ibn Aamir Juhani ؓ said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered salah over the martyrs of Uhud eight years after (the battle) like one who bids farewell to the living and the dead. He then (came to the mosque) and mounted the pulpit and said (to the Companions ؓ), "I am with you like a farat (one preceding) and I shall be a witness to testify for you. Your place of meeting is the Kawthar (Pond) and I am looking at that while I am here. And, I have been granted by Allah the keys of the treasures of the earth. And, I do not fear for you that you might become polytheists after me, but I fear that (after me) you would long for worldly things."

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The fact is that the salah of funeral had not been offered over the martyrs of Uhud (who included the Prophet's ﷺ beloved paternal uncle, Sayyidina Hamzah ؓ). (They were buried without the salah of janazah being offered). This Hadith tells us that when it was disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ that he would die shortly, he visited Uhud one day and offered the funeral salah over them. In the Book of Funeral of Saheeh Bukhari it is stated in the same Hadith. صَلَّى عَلَى أَهْلِ أُحُدٍ صَلَوَتَهُ عَلَى الْمَيِّتِ which explains that he offered salah over the martyrs who had been buried eight years ago just as one offers over a (fresh) dead body. Then we are told that the Prophet's condition in this salah was "كَالْمُودِّعِ لِلْأَحْيَاءِ وَالْأَمْوَاتِ" like of one who bids farewell to the living and dead. The Prophet ﷺ then went to the mosque (perhaps it was time for salah and the people had gathered there for the congregation), climbed the minbar (pulpit) and spoke the few words effectively. "I am going before you like a farat to the next world." Among the Arabs, a lead man preceded a carvan to its destination where he made necessary arrangement for the carvan. He is known as farat. The Prophet ﷺ gave a hint that he was going to the next world when he said in words of comfort to the Companions ﷺ, "My preceding you to the next world is good for you, for, on reaching there I will do for you what a farat does. And like the caravan that joins the farat at the destination, you will meet me there." He went on to assure them that he would testify for them that they had believed and obeyed him and supported him. He also said that they would meet at the Kawthar and disclosed that he could see it (the Kawther) while he was there talking to them (for, Allah had removed every obstacle and placed it before him). He also said, "Allah has given me the keys to the treasures of this earth and the world." This was the tidings that his ummah would be given those keys (and was demonstrated in the times of the Companions).

In the end, he said that he did not fear that they would revert to polytheism but he did fear that they might crave for the world's luxuries. For a Believer, only Paradise is what he should crave for alongwith the blessings of the next world. Allah has said about them:

”وَفِي ذَٰلِكَ فَلْيَتَنَافَسِ الْمُتَنَافِسُونَ ۝“ (المطففين ٢٦:٨٣)

{And to this end, let the strivers strive.} (al-Mutaffifeen, 83:26)

(١٩٧٥/٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَلَسَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَقَالَ إِنَّ عَبْدًا خَيْرُهُ اللَّهُ بَيْنَ أَنْ يُوتِيَهُ، مِنْ زَهْرَةِ الدُّنْيَا مَا شَاءَ وَبَيْنَ مَا عِنْدَهُ، فَاخْتَارَ مَا عِنْدَهُ، قَالَ فَبَكَى أَبُو بَكْرٍ قَالَ فَذَيْنَاكَ يَا أَبَانَا وَأُمَّهَاتِنَا فَعَجَبْنَا لَهُ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ انْظُرُوا إِلَى هَذَا الشَّيْخِ يُخْبِرُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ عَبْدٍ خَيْرُهُ اللَّهُ بَيْنَ أَنْ يُوتِيَهُ، مِنْ زَهْرَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَبَيْنَ مَا عِنْدَهُ، وَهُوَ يَقُولُ فَذَيْنَاكَ يَا أَبَانَا وَأُمَّهَاتِنَا، فَكَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَ الْمُخَيَّرَ وَكَانَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ أَعْلَمُنَا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1975/24) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ﷺ said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ sat down on the minbar (one day) and said (addressing the Companions ﷺ), "Allah gave choice to have whatever he wants from worldly blessings or take the blessings (of the Hereafter) that are with Allah. So the slave chose (the blessings of the Hereafter) that are with Allah." On hearing that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه wept and submitted to the Prophet ﷺ. "May we and our parents be ransomed to you!" (Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه said;) We were surprised at Abu Bakr's reaction and some people said to each other, "Look at the Shaykh! Allah's Messenger informs us that Allah asked a slave to choose between the bounties of this world and the next but the Shaykh, Abu Bakr, exclaims we and our parents be ransomed to you!" (Abu Sa'eed went on to say that when the Prophet ﷺ died soon after they realised that) the Prophet ﷺ was the slave whom Allah had given the choice (and also that) Abu Bakr excelled them in intelligence and wisdom (for, he understood which none of the others could surmise).

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: We are not told when the Prophet ﷺ delivered this sermon. The compiler of Mishkat has cited Darami which has transmitted this Hadith of Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه with the clear addition that the Prophet ﷺ spoke thus during his last illness, and this was his last address. He never spoke again in the mosque before his death. In another Hadith of Saheeh Muslim (narrated by Sayyidina Jundub رضي الله عنه) we are told that he spoke thus five days before death (on Thursday).

The compiler of Mishkat has cited only as much of Abu Sa'eed's رضي الله عنه Hadith in Mishkat's chapter on Prophet's ﷺ death as we have quoted here. But, Bukhari and Muslim have placed this Hadith in the chapter on the merits of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and both have the following addition in the Prophet's sermon:

"It is a fact that of all men, one who was most kind in treatment to me with his wealth and his company is Abu Bakr and if I were to take a Khaleel (friend) besides Allah, I would take Abu Bakr for a friend but the special brotherhood and fraternity of Islam is with Abu Bakr. (He then instructed that) "all doors opening into the

إِنَّ أَمَّنَ النَّاسِ عَلَىٰ فِي مَالِهِ
وَصُحْبَتِهِ أَبُو بَكْرٍ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّخِذًا
خَلِيلًا غَيْرَ رَبِّي لَاتَّخَذْتُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ
خَلِيلًا وَلَكِنْ أَخُوهُ الْإِسْلَامِ
وَمَوَدَّتُهُ لَا يَتَّقِينَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ
بَابَ الْأَسَدِ إِلَّا بَابَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ.

mosque should be shut except for Abu Bakr's door (which should be retained).¹

We learn from this sermon (which was the Prophet's ﷺ last sermon in the mosque and which he delivered just five days prior to death) that he gave a broad hint that his death was near and he also indicated that the position Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ held in the ummah was not held by anyone else. He asked that doors of houses opening into the mosque must be sealed save the door of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ. He indicated that after him only Abu Bakr would have a relationship with the mosque which he himself had. (We must remember that the Prophet's mosque of those times was not like our mosques where only Salah is offered but it was a centre for every function of prophethood.)

Some versions suggest that the Prophet ﷺ gave some other important instructions too.

عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَرَضِهِ
الَّذِي لَمْ يَقُمْ مِنْهُ "لَعَنَ اللَّهُ الْيَهُودَ وَالنَّصَارَى اتَّخَذُوا قُبُورَ أَنْبِيَائِهِمْ مَسَاجِدَ"
قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ لَوْلَا ذَاكَ لَأَبْرَزُ قَبْرُهُ خَشِيَ أَنْ يَتَّخَذَ مَسْجِدًا.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1976/25) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported that in the illness from which he did not recover, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "May Allah's curse be on the Jews and Christians. They made the graves of their Prophets places of prostration." She then said, "If he had not said that then I would have opened his grave (to the people). He had feared that his grave too would be used as a place of prostration in the same way as the Jews and Christians had turned their Prophet's graves into places of prostration."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Some versions suggest that the Prophet ﷺ had spoken these words in the same sermon that he had delivered five days before his death from the minber in the mosque (which is

- ①. In those times, the doors of some houses of the Companions رضى الله عنهم opened into the mosque. They came into the mosque directly from those doors. Though this sermon, the Prophet ﷺ had all the doors, except Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه shut. In another version, the word باب (door) is replaced by خوفة which means a window or a ventilator.

mentioned in Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri's ﷺ Hadith.) Some when the illness was intense. It is much possible that he said this at both times, in the sermon from the mosque and from his sick bed because he was much concerned about it lest his ummah do as the Jews and Christians had done and turn his grave into a place to prostrate and become liable to Allah's curse. While he was confident that they would not resort to idol-worship (and he disclosed that much), yet he was fearful that the devil would incite them to indulge in polytheism on the pretext of love for the Prophet ﷺ and get them to prostrate before his grave. Therefore, he cautioned his ummah frequently against this thing.

(١٩٧٧/٢٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي مَرَضِهِ أَدْعِي لِي أَبَا بَكْرٍ وَأَخَاكَ حَتَّى أَكْتُبَ كِتَابًا، فَإِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يَتَمَنَّيَ مُتَمَنٍّ وَيَقُولَ قَائِلٌ أَنَا أَوْلَى وَيَأْبَى اللَّهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَّا أَبَا بَكْرٍ. (رواه مسلم)
(1977/26) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (to her) in his illness, "Call your father, Abu Bakr, and your brother (Abdur Rahman) to me so that I may get them to write down a message (by way of a will). I fear a seeking one may desire and a tumour-monger might say that he is more deserving. And Allah and the Believers will not accept anyone save Abu Bakr." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The message of this Hadith is that in his illness the Prophet ﷺ was eager that Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ may shoulder responsibilities after death (known as Khilafah). He wished to write down a will. So, he instructed Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها to summon her father and her brother. He said that he feared someone else might covet the post or another might claim to be more deserving. That would create dissension. "So, to protect the ummah I wish to write down a will for Abu Bakr." Then, he was assured that the Believers would decide in the same manner as he had thought and he said to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها "يأبى الله والمؤمنون إلا أبا بكر" (Allah and the Believers will not accept any other but Abu Bakr). It appears from a report in Saheeh Bukhari that this occurred on the first day of his illness. What is the reality of Khilafat Nabuwah caliphate of the prophethood? We will mention that while explaining a Hadith that will follow.

(١٩٧٨/٢٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ دَعَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاطِمَةَ ابْنَتَهُ، فِي شَكْوَاهِ الَّذِي قُبِضَ فِيهِ فَسَارَهَا بِسِرِّ فَبَكَتْ ثُمَّ دَعَاهَا فَسَارَهَا فَضَحِكَتْ، قَالَتْ فَسَأَلْتُهَا عَنْ ذَلِكَ فَقَالَتْ سَارَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَّهُ يُقْبِضُ فِي وَجْعِهِ الَّذِي تُوفِّيَ فِيهِ فَبَكَيتُ ثُمَّ سَارَنِي فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنِّي أَوَّلُ أَهْلِ بَيْتِهِ أَتْبَعُهُ، فَضَحِكْتُ. (رواه البخاري)

(1978/27) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that while he was bed-ridden with illness that caused his death, the Prophet ﷺ called Sayyidah Fatimah (to him) and whispered something to her. She began to cry on that. But then he beckoned her again to him and whispered something else to her and she laughed. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that) she asked her about that and she said, "The first time he whispered to me that he would die of that illness so I wept because of sadness. When he whispered to me again, he confided to me that among his family members, I would be the first to follow him (and meet him). That pleased me and I laughed." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: The text is very explicit. However, Saheeh Bukhari carries another version of this Hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها with the details that when she asked Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها why she wept the first time and laughed when the Prophet ﷺ whispered the second time, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها did not disclose the secret that day, saying that she would not disclose the Prophet's ﷺ secret. After the Prophet ﷺ died, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها asked her again to reveal to her what the Prophet ﷺ had confided to her. This time Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها disclosed to her what the Prophet ﷺ had said to her each time.

Both the things happened as the Prophet ﷺ had foretold. He died of that very illness and Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها was the first member of his family to follow him. Indeed, this is evidence of his prophethood.

(١٩٧٩/٢٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ أَبِي طَالِبٍ خَرَجَ مِنْ عِنْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي وَجْعِهِ الَّذِي تُوفِّيَ فِيهِ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ يَا أَبَا

حَسَنٍ كَيْفَ أَصْبَحَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَصْبَحَ بِحَمْدِ اللَّهِ بَارِئًا، فَأَخَذَهُ، بِيَدِهِ عَبَّاسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ فَقَالَ لَهُ، أَنْتَ وَاللَّهُ بَعْدَ ثَلَاثِ عَبْدِ الْعَصَا، وَإِنِّي وَاللَّهُ لَأَرَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَوْفَ يَتَوَفَّى فِي وَجْعِهِ هَذَا إِنِّي لَا أَعْرِفُ وَجُوهَ بَنِي عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ، اذْهَبْ بِنَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلْنَسْأَلْهُ فِي مَنْ هَذَا لِأَمْرٍ؟ إِنْ كَانَ فِينَا عِلْمُنَا ذَلِكَ، وَإِنْ كَانَ فِي غَيْرِنَا عِلْمُنَاهُ فَأَوْصِنَا بِمَا فَقَالَ عَلِيٌّ إِنَّا وَاللَّهُ لَنَسْأَلُنَاهَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَنْعَنَا هَالَا يُعْطِينَاهَا النَّاسُ وَإِنِّي وَاللَّهُ لَا أَسْأَلُهَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ .
(رواه البخاري)

(1979/28) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said that during the illness of Allah's Messenger ﷺ in which he died. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه came out of him (one day). The people asked him how Allah's Messenger ﷺ fared and he said, "Praise be to Allah, he is better today." (His paternal uncle Sayyidina Abbas رضي الله عنه held him by the hand and said to him, "By Allah, after three days you will be under the command of other people. I feel that Allah's Messenger will die soon, for, I recognise the signs of death on the faces of the children of Abdul Muttalib (and I feel through that that the time is near). Come with me to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and we will ask him who will have (the Khilafat after him). If it will survive with us (the family members), we will know that. But, if it will be handed over to others then we will come to know of that. And, he will make a will for us." Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said, "If we ask him about the Khilafat and he disallows it to us (and decides not to give us the Khilafat) then by Allah (after that) the people will not give it to us. So, by Allah, I will not ask him about Khilafat." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: This relates to the last days of the Prophet's ﷺ illness. Hafiz ibn Hajar Asqalani has written in Fath al-Bari on the authority of Ibn Isha that Imam Zuhri, a narrator of this Hadith said that it relates to very morning of the day on which the Prophet ﷺ died in the evening.

It is also known from this Hadith that the condition of the Prophet ﷺ was better that morning because Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reported accordingly to the people outside the house and thus comforted them. However, his uncle (also the Prophet's ﷺ uncle) Sayyidina Abbas ؓ had recognised from experience signs of death in the Prophet's ﷺ paternal cousin and son-in-law too) what is clearly stated in the Hadith which also records his answer to his uncle. The people of our times who place Khilafat at par with monarchy might doubt that Sayyidina Ali ؓ craved for the high position in government (and some have made this allegation too). But, the fact is that Khilafat of the Prophet ﷺ is different from worldly sovereignty and government (in the same way as religion and worldly matters are different). The work that the Prophet ﷺ did for religion by way of preaching and teaching the ummah, raising the word of truth, jihad, self-sacrifice and justice in the guidance of wahy should be carried on by his Khalifah on the principles and programme he followed. They should act as his representatives. This is Khilafat Nabuwah or Khilafat Raashidah. Obviously, this is not a bed of roses like the worldly monarchy but it is a thorny passage. The slave of Allah who hopes for Allah's help to give it its rights is not at all blameworthy, rather he is honoured; Sayyidina Ali ؓ hoped that if he got the chance then he would be able to discharge its responsibilities with the help of Allah. Therefore, desire for it was a desire of a high standard. Thus, when he was the fourth Khalifah after the three, who were decreed by divinity beforehand, he discharged his responsibilities on the basis of the Prophet's ﷺ principles. However, his entire period of rule was an era of mischief and trial (after the innocent martyrdom of Sayyidina Uthman ؓ), so his time was spent fully in suppressing mischief. (وكان ذلك قدراً مقدوراً. and that was already decided).

(١٩٨٠/٢٩) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا حَضَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَفِي الْبَيْتِ رَجَالٌ فِيهِمْ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلُمُّوا أَكْتُبْ لَكُمْ كِتَابًا لَنْ تَضِلُّوا بَعْدَهُ، فَقَالَ عُمَرُ عَلَيْهِ الْوَجُعُ وَعِنْدَكُمْ الْقُرْآنُ حَسْبُكُمْ كِتَابَ اللَّهِ فَاخْتَلَفَ أَهْلُ الْبَيْتِ وَاخْتَصَمُوا فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَقُولُ قَرَّبُوا يَكْتُبْ لَكُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَقُولُ مَا قَالَ عُمَرُ فَلَمَّا اكْتُرُوا وَاللُّغَطُ وَالْإِخْتِلَافُ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

قَوْمُوا عَنِّي..... قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ فَكَانَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ إِنَّ الرِّزْيَةَ كُلَّ الرِّزْيَةِ
مَاحَالٌ بَيْنَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَبَيْنَ أَنْ يُكْتَبَ لَهُمْ ذَلِكَ

الْكِتَابَ لَا خِطْلًا فِيهِمْ وَلَعَطَهُمْ (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1980/29) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه narrated (on the days) when Allah's Messenger ﷺ was near death and many people were present in the house, one of whom was Sayyidina Umar ibn al-Khattab رضي الله عنه, the Prophet ﷺ said, "Come I will write down (get written down) a will for you and you will never go astray after that." So, Umar رضي الله عنه said (to the people), "The Prophet ﷺ is in great pain now and you have the Qur'an with you, and this Book of Allah is enough for you (and your guidance and keeping away from error)." Thus, those people in the house differed in their views and they began to argue, some of them saying, "Bring to the Prophet (the writing material) that he may dictate (what he wishes to dictate)." Some others said what Umar رضي الله عنه had said. So, when there was a difference and commotion (because of the argument) and it increased, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Go away from me, you people!"

Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah (a narrator from Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه) said that Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه used to say about this happening that the trouble all of it- is what came between Allah's Messenger ﷺ and the writing of the will (which he wished to pen down) because of the mutual disagreement and commotion.

(Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim)

As we have mentioned, this report is transmitted by Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah from Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه. His other student, Sa'eed ibn Jubayr has also found in Sahih Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim. It is reproduced here to have the full picture before us:

(١٩٨١/٣٠) قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ يَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ وَمَا يَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ ثُمَّ بَكَى حَتَّى
بَلَ دَمْعُهُ الْحَصَى قُلْتُ يَا ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ وَمَا يَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ؟ قَالَ اشْتَدَّ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَجَعُهُ فَقَالَ ائْتُونِي بِكِتَابٍ لَكُمْ كِتَابًا لَا تَضِلُّوهُ
بَعْدَهُ أَبَدًا فَتَنَازَعُوا وَلَا يَبْغِي عِنْدَ نَبِيِّ تَنَازَعَ فَقَالُوا مَا شَأْنُهُ أَهْجَرَ اسْتَفْهَمُوهُ
فَدَهَبُوا يَرُدُّونَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ دَعُونِي دَرُونِي قَالَ الَّذِي أَنَا فِيهِ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا تَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ

فَأَمَرَهُمْ بِثَلَاثٍ فَقَالَ أَخْرِجُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ مِنْ جَزِيرَةِ الْعَرَبِ وَاجْزُوا الْوَفْدَ
 بِنَحْوِ مَا كُنْتُ أُجِيزُهُمْ وَسَكَتَ عَنِ الثَّالِثَةِ أَوْ قَالَهَا فَتَنَسَّيْتُهَا..... قَالَ سُفْيَانُ هَذَا
 مِنْ قَوْلِ سُلَيْمَانَ (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(1981/30) (Saeed ibn Jubayr said that one day:) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said, "Oh! The Thursday! How was that day, Thursday," and he wept so profusely that the floor became wet with his tears. So, I said, "O Ibn Abbas, how was that Thursday (which you recall in this way)?" He then said: (It was Thursday and) Allah's Mesenger's illness increased and he said (in that condition) "Bring كشف (bring the shoulder blade). I will dictate a writing for you after which you will never go into error." So, (those people who were there with him) differed about it. And there should not be altercation and differences in the presence of the Prophet. Some people said, "Do we leave him (separate from him)? Ask him (what he says)?" Then they kept saying about that again and again to him, and he said, "Leave me. The condition in which I am is better than what you call me to." Then he gave three commands. "First, the polytheists should be turned out of the Arabian peninsula. And (second) the same treatment as I metted out must be given to delegations and envoys (from governments and tribes)." The narrator from Sa'eed ibn Jubayr, Sulayman, said that either Sa'eed ibn Jubayr did not narrate the third thing or he (Sulayman) forgot it.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: These are two satements of Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه on the same incident and there is no contradiction in them save that there are some additions or omissions here and there. When he narrated it to Ubaydullah, he only mentioned the presence of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and what he said, but when he narrated it to Sa'eed ibn Jubayr, Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه did not mention Umar's رضي الله عنه presence but mentioned some other matters. These things do happen often.

If we read the two narrations together then we will get this picture: It was Thursday (five days before death, for, the Prophet ﷺ died on Monday). The illness became severe, he had a high fever and was in much agony. Some people, including Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, were around. The Prophet ﷺ said while he was in that condition, "Bring writing material that I may write down something for you after which you will never go astray (the version of Saheeh Muslim says: "اِتُّوْنِي بِالْكَتِفِ وَالْدَّوَاةِ" Bring me scapula and ink¹). Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه said to the other people present there that the Prophet ﷺ was in much agony and they already had the Qur'an that was revealed to him. That Book of Allah is enough for our guidance and keeping away from error (as, indeed, it is often repeated in the Qur'an). Those present there began to differ on the matter, some of them insisted that writing material should be brought and whatever he dictated must be recorded. Some others said the same things that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had said namely the Prophet ﷺ was in pain and should not be given more trouble, Allah's Book is enough for guidance. Some other people said at the same time, "مَا شَأْنَهُ أَهْجَرَ اسْتَفْهَمُوهُ" (This is the Prophet's ﷺ condition. Is he going away? Leaving us? Ask him). Then they repeated this to him again and again. This distracted him from concentration towards Allah and the peculiar condition of the heart. So, he said, "You people should leave me alone and not try to distract me. I am in a better thing than what you call me to (for, I am turned to my Lord and prepare to go to His presence while you call me to yourselves. Leave me alone.) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said that the Prophet ﷺ then gave a command for three things, the polytheists should be driven out of Arabia and deputations and envoys of governments or tribes must be well-treated (and gifts be given to them) as he was wont to do. Sulayman the student of Sa'eed ibn Jubayr mentioned only two of the three commands, saying that either Sa'eed ibn Jubayr had not mentioned the third or he (Sulayman) had forgotten it.

This is the full event well-known as Hadith Qirtas. Some of its points need to be explained.

This happened on Thursday, five days after which the Prophet ﷺ died on Monday. He did not dictate that message during these days and did not even mention it. It is clear, therefore, that he had not been commanded by Allah to dictate that to be written down.

1. In the times of the Prophet ﷺ particularly in the Hijaz was scarce. So they wrote on different things, one of which was animal scapula on which people wrote in the same manner as on wood or stone.

He got a thought about it and then changed his mind. If that was a command of Allah or he had not changed his mind then he would surely have had it written down to preserve his ummah from going into error. And omission to get it written down would have been a dereliction in the duties of his office. (May Allah protect us from such thought.) It was exactly like his intention in the initial days of illness¹ to get a will written down for Sayyidina Abu Bakr's ﷺ Khilafah for which he asked for Abu Bakr ﷺ and his son to be summoned, but he changed his mind soon, saying "يَا بِيَّ اللَّهِ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ" "إِلَّا أَبَا بَكْرٍ" So, we must deduce that the same thing happened on Thursday and the Prophet ﷺ himself found it unnecessary to get his message written down.

Another point worth considering is that while he was running high fever and had much pain, he asked for writing material to be brought to him. sayyidina Umar ﷺ who was present there did not say anything to the Prophet ﷺ but addressed the others present there and called their attention to the Prophet's difficult condition and agony, saying, "He is in much pain now." He meant that they should not then give the Prophet ﷺ trouble by asking him to dictate anything. He had believed firmly through the Qur'an and the Prophet's teachings and training that the Qur'an which the Prophet ﷺ had brought was enough to guide them away from error. In fact, Allah has said about it "مَا فَرَطْنَا فِي الْكِتَابِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ" and "تَبَيَّنَا لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ". And the verse was revealed during *Hijjat-ul-Wada*²: "الْيَوْمَ أَكْمَلْتُ لَكُمْ دِينَكُمْ وَأَتِمَمْتُ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعْمَتِي" (عِنْدَكُمْ الْقُرْآنُ حُسْبُكُمْ كِتَابُ اللَّهِ) Allah has made clear in these verses that whatever had to be told by way of guidance to man has been told in the Qur'an. So, he said, "We need not trouble the Prophet in his illness to write down anything for us. We have the Qur'an with us. It is enough for our guidance and to keep us away from error."

As stated before, the Prophet ﷺ lived five days more after this

- ①. The Hadith in Bukhari Kitab al Marda, chapter qaull al-hareed has words from which it is determined that the event took place in the beginning of the Prophet's ﷺ illness. (Saheeh Bukhari p846 or Rashidiya Delhi)
- ②. respectively: Al-An'am 6:38, An-Nahl, 16:89, 6:154, and al-Ma'idah, 5:8. Meaning: {We have not neglected anything in the book (of Decrees)}, {Making clear everything}, {Detailing everything} and {This day have I perfected your religion for you and completed May Blessing on you.}

happening, but he did not get that message written down. In fact, he did not even mention it again which was a tacit approval of Sayyidina Umar's ﷺ opinion. Undoubtedly, therefore, this speaks of the excellence and merit of Sayyidina Umar ﷺ.

The third point worth considering is that the Hadith (reproduced here on the authority of Bukhari and Muslim) does not say who was instructed by the Prophet ﷺ to bring material for writing. However, while explaining this Hadith in Fath al-Bari, Hafiz Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه has cited a report of Sayyidina Ali ﷺ on the authority of Musnad Ahmad. It says clearly that the Prophet ﷺ had Sayyidina Ali ﷺ to fetch the writing material. Sayyidina Ali ﷺ has said:

"The Prophet ﷺ commanded me to bring a shoulder-blade so that he might get written something after which his ummah may never go astray."

أَمَرَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
أَنْ آتِيَهُ بِطَبَقٍ (أَنْ يَكْتُبَ)
مَا لَا تَضِلُّ أُمَّتُهُ بَعْدَهُ (فتح الباري جزاويل ص ١٠٦ طبع
انصارى دهلي ١٣٠٢ هـ)

We know that Sayyidina Ali ﷺ knew how to write and he was asked to fetch the material that he may write what the Prophet ﷺ might dictate. But, it is clear and well-known that he too did not write anything which is evidence that, like Sayyidina Umar ﷺ, he also did not wish to put the Prophet ﷺ to inconvenience in his illness. Perhaps, he too agreed that Allah's Book was enough for guidance.

Another point to be considered is that Sa'eed ibn Jubayr's version states that when the Prophet ﷺ demanded the writing material, some people said "مَا شَانَهُ أَهْجَرَ اسْتَفْهُمُوهُ". To understand this we must picture in our mind the agony the Prophet ﷺ was going through during which he declared that he wished to pen down something after which his people would never fall on the wrong path. so, some of the men felt that the time of his final departure to the Hereafter was near. so, they exclaimed "مَا شَانَهُ أَهْجَرَ اسْتَفْهُمُوهُ" (What his condition. Will he choose separation? Is going away from us? We must ask him.) The word هجر means to choose separation, and go away leaving someone behind. Instead of وصل (wasala) the word هَجَرَ (hajara) is used. Some people have thought that it is هُجَرَ (hujara) which means irrational talk of the sick in an state and is called hazayn. In that case this sentence would mean: what the Prophet ﷺ says about writing something, is it delirium? Ask him? This meaning can never be correct, for the patient who talks irrationally cannot be in a condition that we may ask him for something. In short the word "اِسْتَفْهِمُوْهُ" (istafhimuhu) is evidence that هَجَرَ (hajara) is not derived from هُجَرَ (hujara) meaning hazayn.

Besides, the Prophet ﷺ had said, "Bring me material to write that I may have something written down whereafter you would never go astray. This certainly was not something about which one may suspect hazayn or delirium. Although if أَهَجَرَ (a hajara) is made a (negative) tag question we get this meaning yet it is a fact that it does not mean hazayan (delirium) here.

It is also worth great consideration that the words "أَهَجَرَ اِسْتَفْهِمُوْهُ" were not spoken by Sayyidina Umar ؓ. Some other people had said that and their names are not mentioned in the Hadith except that the words فَقَالُوا (so they said) introduce their exclamation. The Shia writers however, insist on attributing these words to Sayyidina Umar ؓ to target him for their accusations and they allege that he regarded the Prophet's ﷺ words as hazayan (may Allah forgive us!) but we do not find any reliable book of Hadith of the ahl us-sunnah attributing these words to Sayyidina Umar ؓ. All he had said then was what is mentioned in the first version of the Hadith of Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim عِنْدَكُمْ الْقُرْآنُ حَسْبُكُمْ (you have the Quran; the Book of Allah is enough for you). Of course, the words "أَهَجَرَ اِسْتَفْهِمُوْهُ" were, after all, spoken by some of the Companions ؓ, but they mean what we have stated above and they point out to their love for Allah's Messenger ﷺ.

The exponents of Hadith have also explored possibilities to find out what the Prophet ﷺ intended to dictate when he said, "Bring me writing material, I wish to get something written down after which you will never go off the path." Obviously, whatever they suggest is surmise. The Shia claim that he wished to leave instructions for Sayyidina Ali ؓ as Khalifah, but that could not be penned down because of Sayyidina Umar's interference. But, they have no reason to say that. It is their claim on which their belief of Imamat is based-rather, their entire religion is based- that on the return journey from Hajjatul-wada', just seventy or seventy-two days before his death, the Prophet ﷺ had assembled all his companions of the Hajj, the Muhajirs and the Ansars at Ghadir Khum. He stood on the minbar (pulpit) which was specially built for this address and proclaimed Sayyidina Ali ؑ as Khalifah and Imam after him. He did not stop at that but also had everyone swear allegiance to Sayyidina Ali ؑ. (Although this is an invented tale, the Shias no doubt believe in it and this belief is elaborated in their most reliable books al-Jami'al-Kafi, Ihtijaaj Tabarasi, etc.) So, when that thing had been decided and it was finalised in the presence of thousand of men in a very grand way then what was the need to leave a written will for that. Of course, the explanation of those people is plausible who say that the Prophet ﷺ had intended to write down Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ as his Khalifah but changed his mind when he realised that his succession was decreed already by divine command. Allamah Badruddin Ayni has written while explaining this Hadith in Umdah al-Qari Sharah al-Bukhari:

"Imam Bayhaqi has stated that Sufyan ibn Uyainah (who is one of the narrators of this Hadith Qirtas) has quoted Knowledgeable men (as saying) that the Prophet ﷺ had intended to appoint Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ as Khalifah (and get it written down).

Then, on learning that it was predetermined by divine fate, he abandoned the idea of having it written down. In the beginning of this illness too, he had expressed desire to write down that Abu Bakr ؓ would be Khalifah and then decided against writing it down saying يايى الله والمؤمنون الا ابا بكر and

(instead of writing anything) he commanded him to lead men in

قَالَ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ وَقَدْ حَكَى سُفْيَانُ بْنُ
غُيَيْنَةَ عَنْ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ قِيلَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ
عَلَيْهِ الصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ أَرَادَ أَنْ
يَكْتُبَ اسْتِخْلَافَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ رَضِيَ
اللَّهُ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ تَرَكَ ذَلِكَ اعْتِمَادًا
عَلَى مَا عَلِمَ مِنْ تَقْدِيرِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى
ذَلِكَ كَمَا هُمْ فِي أَوَّلِ مَرَضِهِ
حِينَ قَالَ وَارَاسَاهُ ثُمَّ تَرَكَ
الْكِتَابَ وَقَالَ، يَا بَنِي اللَّهِ
وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَّا أَبَا بَكْرٍ ثُمَّ قَدَّمَهُ
فِي الصَّلَاةِ. (عمدة القارى ج ٢ ص ١٧١ طبع مصر)

salah (which was a practical successorship)."

We must remember that Sufyan ibn Uyainah was a taba' tabi'een (an epigone successor of the successors of the Companions ﷺ). The Knowledgeable men that he refers to could be the tabi'een too. This shows that even the tabi'een believed that the Prophet ﷺ had desired to write down Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ as Khalifah and this is the purport of the Hadith Qirtas.

Whatever we have written thus far in explaining the Hadith Qirtas is based on the presumption that the Prophet ﷺ had asked for writing material to get some instructions written down (which intention he abandoned and did not write anything). Hafiz Ibn Hajar while explaining this Hadith Qirtas in Fath al-Bari has mentioned a possibility. He has suggested that, in fact, the Prophet ﷺ had no intention ever to write down anything, but, he wished to examine his Companions ؓ. "Have they got it firmly in their hearts that the last Book of Allah, the Qur'an is enough for the guidance of the ummah?" Indeed, Sayyidina Umar ؓ confirmed "عندكم القرآن حسبكم كتاب الله" (You have the Qur'an with you and Allah's Book is sufficient for you), and other people who were there also supported his contention. That satisfied the Prophet ﷺ.

(Fath al-Bari v18 p 101, Ansari press, Dehli 1307 AH)

We must bear in mind that we have in the Qur'an, again and again, اطيعوا الرسول (obey the Messenger) with اطيعوا الله (obey Allah). Obedience to the Prophet's ﷺ commands and sayings and observance of his practice have been ordained to us even otherwise, so they are included in obedience to the Qur'an and the Quran encompasses that. Hence, we should not suppose that the words حسبكم كتاب الله (Allah's book is enough for you) exclude the sunnah and guidance of the Prophet ﷺ.

The concluding portion of this Hadith is that Allah's Messenger ﷺ gave three commands in this very sitting. (The words of a version in Saheeh Bukhari itself are "واوصاهم بثلاث" he gave three instructions orally at that time.") One of them was that the polytheists must be driven out from the Arabian peninsula. (The word is mushrikoon and it includes all disbelievers, be they polytheists or People of the Book. Another version says "اخرجو اليهود والنصارى" (expell the Jews and Christians). This means that the Arabian Peninsula is a centre of Islam and its fort and only people of Islam may live here, the disbelievers should not be allowed to reside here and those that are there must be expelled outside the land. (The honour to abide by this command was with Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, for, he put that into action in his times.) The ulama have different definitions on the area of the Arabian peninsula. The most accepted one is that this Hadith defines it as Makkah, Madinah, Yamamah and the areas bordering them.

The next instruction was that when governments or tribes send deputations or envoys (even non-Muslims) then they should be treated with kindness in the same way as was the Prophet's practice. He used to give them gifts and his kind treatment had a good effect on them.

About the third instruction, one of the narrators of the Hadith said that his Shaykh Sulayman mentioned only these two things, saying that either it was not mentioned by Sa'eed ibn Jubayr رضي الله عنه, or he himself forgot it. Exponents of Hadith have tried to determine that. The suggestion being: hold fast to the Qur'an or, not make any grave an idol to be worshipped "لا تتخذوا قبري وثناً يعبد". In Muwatta Imam Maalik this instruction is also reported with اخرجوا اليهود (Drive out the Jews). They are all conjectures here but certainly sayings of the Prophet ﷺ.

(١٩٨٢/٣١) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا ثَقُلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاشْتَدَّ وَجَعُهُ، اسْتَأْذَنَ أَزْوَاجَهُ أَنْ يُمَرَّضَ فِي بَيْتِي فَأَذِنَ لَهُ، فَخَرَجَ وَهُوَ بَيْنَ الرَّجُلَيْنِ تَحْطُرُ رَجُلًا فِي الْأَرْضِ بَيْنَ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ وَبَيْنَ رَجُلٍ آخَرَ فَكَانَتْ عَائِشَةُ تَحَدِّثُ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا دَخَلَ بَيْتِي وَاشْتَدَّ بِهِ وَجَعُهُ، قَالَ هَرَيْقُو عَلَيَّ مِنْ سَبْعِ قَرَبٍ لَمْ تُحَلِّلْ أَوْكِتُهُنَّ لَعَلِّي أَعْهَدُ إِلَى النَّاسِ فَاجْلَسْنَاهُ فِي الْمِخْضَبِ لِحَفْصَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ طَفِقْنَا نَضُبُّ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ تِلْكَ الْقَرَبِ حَتَّى طَفِقَ يُشِيرُ إِلَيْنَا بِيَدِهِ أَنْ قَدْ فَعَلْتَن قَالَتْ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَى النَّاسِ فَصَلَّى لَهُمْ وَخَطَبَهُمْ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1982/31) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها reported that when the illness of Allah's Messenger ﷺ worsened and his condition became more painful, he sought permission of his (other) wives that his treatment and nursing should be carried on at her house (and he should stay with her permanently). All of them gave that permission (willingly). So, two men carried him to her house in such a way that impressions of his (dragging) feet were visible on the earth, one of them was Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib and another Companion. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said further: When Allah's Messenger came to my house, his agony became severe (one day), he said to us (his wives) "Pour seven skins of water on me whose knots have not been opened so that (my condition may improve and) I may (go to the mosaque and) speak to the people with some important instructions." (She said further:) We made him sit in a tub which belonged to his wife Hafsah رضى الله عنها. Then (abiding by his advice) we poured water from the skins on him till he gestured with his hand that we had done our work. (She said that he was thus comforted.) He went to the mosque, led the salah and also delivered a sermon (which he had longed to deliver). (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: To understand this Hadith well, we must remember that the Prophet ﷺ had nine wives whose houses (small rooms) were separate. It was his practice to dispense justice and go to each house one night by turns. He was so particular about it that some scholars thought that it was fard or wajib on him to do so. Anyway, in Safar 11 AH (on a date which is not agreed upon) he became ill and did not recover from it. We know from Ahadith that day he was to have stayed at the house of Sayyidah Maymoonah رضى الله عنها. Next day, he shifted to the house of the wife whose turn it was, and this pattern continued during his illness for many days. He would transfer himself to the house of his wife whose turn it was for him to spend the night. This was very cumbersome for him and he wished to stay at any one place and he had the house of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in mind for many reasons. The obvious meaning of the Hadith under discussion is that he expressed this desire to his wives and sought their permission. However, Ibn Hajar has written in Fath al-Bari while explaining this very Hadith that Ibn Sa'd has reported from Imam Zuhri through a proper line of transmission that Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها requested his wives for permission.¹ They were all willing and he moved over to

1. Fath al-Bari v18 p 105, Ansari Press, Dehli.

Sayyidah Aysha's رضى الله عنها house. that was a Monday, exactly a week before his death, as reported by Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها herself. He was so weak and lean that he could not walk by himself. Two men supported him while he dragged his feet. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها named one of them as Sayyidina Abbas ؓ and she did not name the other. The exponents of Hadith explain it this way that while Sayyidina Abbas ؓ supported him on one side continuously, the people at the other side kept changing. Sayyidina Ali ؓ helped once then he was replaced by Fadl ibn Abbas ؓ and he by Usamah. Any way, he was conveyed to Sayyidah Aysah's house which was destined to be his permanent resting place. That was a Monday.

Further down in the Hadith, we read that his condition worsened and he was bathed with water from seven water skins on his own guidance. Then he was better and he went to the mosque where he led the congregation and spoke to the worshippers from the minbar. This did not happen the same day but three days later on Thursday as is explained in another Hadith, and that was the salah of zuhr and the last salah that he led in the mosque. The sermon that he delivered after that was the last of his life. This was the same salah and last sermon which is mentioned in the report of Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ؓ which we have already read. The version of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in Saheeh Bukhari (chapter: "بَابُ إِنَّمَا يُجْعَلُ الْإِمَامُ لِيُؤْتَمَّ بِهِ الْخَلْقُ") clearly mentions that it was the time of zuhr and the salah had begun, in conformity with the Prophet's ﷺ guidance, under the leadership of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ. The Prophet ﷺ felt comfortable and came to the mosque supported by two Companions ؓ. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ who was leading the prayer prepared to move back on seeing him but he instructed him through gestures to stay where he was and asked the two men to place him next to Abu Bakr ؓ. Now, he became the imam and Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ was one of the followers. After the salah he delivered the sermon which we have read in the Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ؓ and we have also mentioned there on the authority of Saheeh Muslim that the day was a Thursday, and the same Thursday when the incident mentioned in the Hadith Qirtas took place.

Now, if we keep before us all the Ahadith, we get this sequence of events. Five days before his death on a Thursday his condition deteriorated before zuhr. He wished to put some instructions into writing and asked for the writing material to be brought but he gave up the idea of writing it down (as we have explained under the Hadith Qirtas). However, he did wish to pass on oral instructions to his Companions ﷺ. Accordingly, when it was time for zuhr, he asked his wives رضى الله عنهن to pour water over him from seven skins which had not been unsealed.¹ They made him sit in a large trough and gave him a bath as he had instructed. His condition improved and he took support of two men and went to the mosque where he led the salah and then delivered a sermon. What he said has been mentioned in detail in the Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri ﷺ and its explanation. He was particular to confirm Abu Bakr's ﷺ distinction in the ummah and that no one else in the ummah had the same station as he did. Of course, he had already appointed him Imam in his absence. If we keep all these factors in mind we are convinced that his intention to put something in black and white that afternoon concerned Abu Bakr's ﷺ succession although he no longer thought it necessary to write that down. However, by making him the Imam and speaking highly of him in his last sermon in the mosque, he did give guidance towards his khilafah and imamat and that was sufficient guidance for the Companions.

(١٩٨٣/٣٢) عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ أَنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ بَيْنَهُمْ فِي صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْاِثْنَيْنِ وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ يَصَلِّي لَهُمْ لَمْ يَفْجَأْهُمْ إِلَّا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ كَشَفَ سِتْرَ حُجْرَةِ عَائِشَةَ فَنَظَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَهُمْ فِي صُفُوفِ الصَّلَاةِ ثُمَّ تَبَسَّمَ يَضْحَكُ فَكَسَّ أَبُو بَكْرٍ عَلَى عَقْبِيهِ لِيَصِلَ الصَّفَّ وَظَنَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُخْرَجَ إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ فَقَالَ أَنَسٌ وَهُمْ الْمُسْلِمُونَ أَنْ يَفْتَتِنُوا فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ فَرَحًا بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَشَارَ إِلَيْهِمْ بِيَدِهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ آتِمُوا صَلَاتَكُمْ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ الْحُجْرَةَ

①. This was a kind of treatment in the Hijaz of those days for a particular type of fever.

(رواه البخارى)

وَأَرَحَى السِّتْرَ

(1983/32) Sayyidina Anas ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه reported that on Monday (the day the Prophet ﷺ died), the Muslims were offering the salah of fajr and Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه led them as their imam. Suddenly, Allah's Messenger ﷺ raised the curtain (over the door) of Sayyidah Aysha's house (where he resided) while they (the Muslims) were standing in the rows offering salah. (on seeing that) he smiled and signs of laughter were detected on his face. When Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضي الله عنه eyes fell on him, he prepared to move back into the rows, supposing that the Prophet ﷺ wished to come for salah. (Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, the narrator, said:) On seeing Allah's Messenger's ﷺ face, the muslims were pleased and happy and that they even thought of coming out of salah, but Allah's Messenger ﷺ beckoned to them with his hands that they should complete their salah and he went into the house dropping the curtain behind him. (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: We have seen the report of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas and an explanation of Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه statement that the Prophet's ﷺ condition had improved in the morning of the day he died. This Hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه confirms that he got up by himself and stood at the door and was happy to see his Companions رضي الله عنهم engaged in the salah. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was about to step back and even the Companions رضي الله عنهم thought of ending their salah at that point but he gestured to them that they should carry on behind Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and complete the salah. That morning the Prophet ﷺ was so better that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه went to his own house which was far away from the mosque.

(١٩٨٤/٣٣) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا اشْتَكَى نَفَثَ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ بِالْمُعَوِّذَاتِ وَمَسَحَ عَنْهُ بِيَدِهِ فَلَمَّا اشْتَكَى وَجَعَهُ الَّذِي تُوفِّي فِيهِ طَفِقْتُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ بِالْمُعَوِّذَاتِ الَّتِي كَانَ يَنْفُثُ وَأَمْسَحَ بِيَدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْهُ.

(رواه البخارى)

(1984/33) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "It was the practice of Allah's Messenger ﷺ when he fell ill to recite the mu'awwizat and blow over himself and rub his body with his hand. So, when he had the illness which resulted in his death

(and it became difficult for him to carry on this practice because of weakness) I read the mu'awwizat and blew over him took his hand and rubbed it over his body." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: Mu'awwizat refer to the last two surah of the Qur'an (al Falaq and an-Naas). The Prophet ﷺ often recited these two surah and blew over himself. But these could also include the supplication which seek protection from every kind of mischief and trial.¹

In another version of this Hadith, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that she took the hand of the Prophet ﷺ and stroked it over his body because the blessing that was found in it could not be found in her own hand or anybody else's hand.

(١٩٨٥/٣٤) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى قَالَ مَرِضَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاشْتَدَّ مَرَضُهُ فَقَالَ مُرُوا أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَلْيُصَلِّ بِالنَّاسِ، قَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ إِنَّهُ رَجُلٌ رَقِيقٌ إِذَا قَامَ مَقَامَكَ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ أَنْ يُصَلِّيَ بِالنَّاسِ، قَالَ مُرِّي أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَلْيُصَلِّ بِالنَّاسِ، فَعَادَتْ فَقَالَ مُرِّي أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَلْيُصَلِّ بِالنَّاسِ فَإِنْ كُنَّ صَوَاحِبُ يُوسُفَ، فَاتَاهُ الرَّسُولُ فَصَلَّى بِالنَّاسِ فِي حَيَاتِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1985/34) Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ari رضى الله عنه said that the Prophet ﷺ fell ill and his illness became severe (and he was unable to come to the mosque and lead in salah) so he said, "Instruct Abu Bakr (from me) to lead the people (who have gathered in the mosque) in salah". Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها pleaded, "He was soft-hearted and when he would stand in your place to lead the congregation, he would (be overcome with feelings and weep profusely and) not be able to lead in salah." (In spite of that, the Prophet ﷺ) said, "Convey my order to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to lead men in salah." Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها repeated her words but the Prophet ﷺ said again that his order should be conveyed to Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to lead the salah. (At the same time,) he said to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in anger فان كن صواحب يوسف.² Then his messenger went to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه (and conveyed his order to him). And he led the people in

①. These supplications are found in Ma'arif au-Hadith Book of Supplication under isti'azah or supplication for refuge.

②. You are like the companions of Yusuf.

prayer (in the Prophet's lifetime till his death).

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abu Bakr's ﷺ leading men in salah is reported in a number of chapters of Saheeh Bukhari on the authority of different Companions both briefly and in detail. This Hadith is found in the Chapter “بَابُ أَهْلِ الْعِلْمِ وَالْفَضْلِ أَحَقُّ بِالْإِمَامَةِ” Ahl ul-Ilm wal Fadl ahaqqu bil Imamah. Ahadith on the same matter of Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar ﷺ and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها are found respectively in the same chapter and the one ahead of it. Imam Bukhari has also recorded a Hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها on the same subject in the chapter “بَابُ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ الْإِمَامُ، لِئَوْفَ بِهِ” Innama ju'ila al-imamam liyu'tamma bihi; full details are known from this Hadith, the gist of which we present here.

When the Prophet ﷺ moved over to the house of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها eight days before his death and his illness went on worsening, he did not give up going to the mosque and leading the congregation although he had become very weak. Then one day, the azan of Isha salah was called out and people had assembled for salah but the Prophet ﷺ became unconscious. When he recovered, he asked if the people had offered salah but was told that they waited for him. He asked for a trough to be filled with water, for, he thought he might feel better after the bath. But, after he had had the bath and was getting up, he again fell unconscious. Again, on recovering, he asked if the people had offered salah but was told that they waited for him. He again had the trough filled and had a bath and decided to get up to go to the mosque, but became unconscious again. As before, when he recovered, he asked if they had offered salah, was told that they waited for him, so he asked for water in the trough and had a bath. But, as he prepared to go to the mosque he became unconscious. (So this happened thrice). Then he regained consciousness and was told, when he asked, that the congregation was not held in the mosque till then. So, he said, "Now tell Abu Bakr from me that he should lead the salah." We have seen in Abu Musa's ﷺ Hadith as it is in other Ahadith- that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها submitted that her father was sensitive and if he stood on the Prophet's ﷺ place to lead men in salah, he would be overcome with tenderness. She suggested that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه be asked to lead prayers instead of her father, but the Prophet ﷺ did not accept her plea and when she said the same thing again, he scolded her. He said, "Convey my message to Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه that he should lead the congregation." So, Sayyidina Bilal conveyed the Prophet's ﷺ order to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. (He had not known what Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها had received for an answer to her pleas on his behalf.) He thought of his own tenderness and requested Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه to lead the salah but he said, "The Prophet ﷺ has instructed you to lead and you should do as he has said." So, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه led the congregation in salah. As we have already said this was the salah of isha and the first one led by Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه during the Prophet's ﷺ illness on his command and he continued to lead the congregation on his command till his death.

In the same Hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, it is also stated that the salah of zuhr had commenced in the mosque under the lead of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه one day on the Prophet's command. The Prophet ﷺ was feeling better, so he went to the mosque supported by two men. On sensing the Prophet's ﷺ arrival. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه made to step back and join the muqtadis (followers) but the Prophet ﷺ indicated to him stay where he was and instructed the two men who supported him to take him next to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. From that point, the Prophet ﷺ took over as imam and Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه became a muqtadi but because his voice did not carry over to all worshippers, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه relayed the takbeer, etc. of the Prophet ﷺ. It is stated by some narrators that Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه followed the Prophet ﷺ while the rest of the worshippers followed Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. This was the same salah of zuhr which we have seen in different Ahadith and after which the Prophet ﷺ sat on the minbar and delivered a sermon in the mosque. It is also agreed upon that after appointing Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as Imam, the Prophet ﷺ came to the mosque for this salah of zuhr, but there is no consensus on whether he offered any other salah in the mosque during these days.

We might also mention here that Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها requested the Prophet ﷺ that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was weak-hearted and would not be able to take his place as Imam. Her real motive (as she disclosed in this Hadith) was that other people will not look at one who stands at the Prophet's ﷺ place with approval. The Prophet ﷺ noticed this difference in her heart and tongue, so scolded her, saying: انكن صواحب يوسف. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها could not understand that the Prophet's ﷺ intention in appointing Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه as imam in his lifetime was to pave the way for the greater imamat of the ummah (khilafah) after his death.

(١٩٨٦/٣٥) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ

فِي مَرَضِهِ الَّذِي مَاتَ فِيهِ يَا عَائِشَةُ! مَا أَزَالَ أَجِدُ لَمْ الطَّعَامِ الَّذِي أَكَلْتُ بِخَيْبَرَ،

وَهَذَا أَوَانٌ وَجَدْتُ انْقِطَاعَ أَبْهَرِي مِنْ ذَلِكَ السَّمِّ. (رواه البخاري)

(1986/35) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to tell her in his illness that brought his death, "O Ayshah! I still feel the pain from the (poisoned) food I had eaten at Khaybar and now, at this time, I feel my aorta being cut because of that poison." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: In 7 AH when Khaybar was conquered and a covenant was also agreed upon, the Jews sent a roasted sheep for the Prophet ﷺ. There is a Hadith in Mishkat transmitted from Abu Dawood and Darami that a Jewess had mixed a deadly poison in the roasted sheep so severe that anyone who ate it would die instantly. She had learnt that the Prophet ﷺ loved to eat the foreleg portion and she had put more poison into it. When the sheep was presented to him and he took a morsel from it, he withheld his hand and asked his Companions رضي الله عنهم to hold back their hands, "Do not eat. It is poisoned." He immediately summoned the Jewes and asked her if she had poisoned it. She asked, "Who told you that?" He said, "The portion of the sheep (the foreleg) in my hand has disclosed to me at the command of Allah that it has poison in it." She confessed that she had poisoned it and she did that to find out that if he was a true Prophet, the poison would not affect him but if he was liar, he would perish and they would have peace. She said, "Now I am convinced that you are a true Prophet." The Prophet ﷺ forgave her. There are other details of this incident in different Ahadith but they are incongruent here.

We have mentioned Khaybar here that readers may know that the Prophet ﷺ had eaten a poisonous morsel there to which the Hadith refers. The poison was so strong that one morsel was sufficient to kill but Allah saved His Prophet though some effect persisted and he felt its pain now and then. The Divine wisdom behind it was to let the Prophet ﷺ complete his mission before the poison would take its effect, and thus also afford him the opportunity to die a martyr in Allah's way.

The saying of the Prophet ﷺ and his condition related in this Hadith pertains to the day of his death. Some of the following Ahadith will mention the increase in agony and worsening condition on that day.

(١٩٨٧/٣٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ : سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ "مِمَّنْ نَبِيٌّ يَمْرُضُ الْأَخِيرَ بَيْنَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ" وَكَانَ فِي شَكْوَاهُ الَّذِي قَبِضَ أَخَذَتْهُ بُجَّةٌ شَدِيدَةٌ، فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ : مَعَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ، فَعَلِمْتُ أَنَّهُ خَيْرٌ

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1987/36) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that she had heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say (when he was healthy), "It is with every Prophet that when he falls ill (with the illness leading to death), he is given a choice between the world and the Hereafter (so he may tarry in the world some more time or choose to go to the next world." She says further that) she also heard him say when breathing was difficult in his final illness that led to death.

"مَعَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ"

(النساء:٤:٦٩)

{With those whom Allah has blessed of the Prophets and the truthful and the martyrs and the righteous}. (An-Nisa,4:69)

(She said,) "So I understood that he has been given the choice (and he chose the next world)." (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has described the last moments of the Prophet's ﷺ life when breathing became heavy. He turned to Allah and recited part of verse 69 of an-Nisa.

(١٩٨٨/٣٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ إِنَّ مِنْ نِعَمِ اللَّهِ عَلَيَّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، تُوْفِيَ فِي بَيْتِي وَفِي يَوْمِي وَبَيْنَ سَحْرِي وَنَحْرِي، وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ جَمَعَ بَيْنَ رِيقِي وَرِيقِهِ عِنْدَ مَوْتِهِ، دَخَلَ عَلَيَّ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَيَدُهُ سِوَاكَ وَأَنَا مُسْتَنَدَةٌ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَرَأَيْتُهُ يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ، وَعَرَفْتُ أَنَّهُ يُحِبُّ السِّوَاكَ، فَقُلْتُ اخْذْهُ لَكَ؟ فَأَشَارَ بِرَأْسِهِ أَنْ نَعَمْ، فَتَنَا وَلْتَهُ، فَأَشْتَدَّ عَلَيْهِ قُلْتُ : أَلَيْتَهُ، لَكَ؟ فَأَشَارَ بِرَأْسِهِ أَنْ نَعَمْ فَلَيْتُهُ، فَأَمَرَهُ، وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ رَكُوعًا، فِيهَا مَاءٌ فَجَعَلَ يُدْخِلُ يَدَيْهِ فِي الْمَاءِ فَيَمْسَحُ بِهِمَا وَجْهَهُ، وَيَقُولُ "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِنَّ لِلْمَوْتِ سَكْرَاتٍ" ثُمَّ نَصَبَ يَدَهُ فَجَعَلَ يَقُولُ فِي الرَّفِيقِ الْأَعْلَى، حَتَّى قُبِضَ وَمَالَتْ يَدُهُ.

(رواه البخارى)
 (1988/37) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "Of the blessings Allah has bestowed on me is that His Messenger died in my house, during my turn and between my chest and my clavicle (while he was resting on me) and, in his last moments, Allah joined his saliva with mine (his saliva coming into my throat and mine going into his). My brother Abdur Rahman came into the house. He had a miswak in his hand while I had rested the Prophet ﷺ on my chest) and I observed that he was watching the miswak of Abdur Rahman, so I understood that he wanted to use it. I asked him if I may take the miswak from Abdur Rahman for him and he nodded in affirmation. I took the miswak and gave it to him but he found it hard and I asked him if I might soften it for him. He nodded approval, so I (chewed it and) made it soft and he brushed his teeth with it. (Thus his saliva came into my throat and mine into his). Water was placed before him in a vessel. He dipped his hands into it repeatedly and stroked his face with those hands, saying the while, "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ" (There is no god but Allah. There is great agony in death). Then he raised his hand and said, "فِي الرَّفِيقِ الْأَعْلَى" (with the elevated Companion). His soul was taken away in this condition and his raised hand came down." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها has recalled here only the very special blessings of Allah which were bestowed on her in the last moments of the Prophet's ﷺ life. The Prophet ﷺ died in her house. Also, that day was her own turn not with standing her house eight days earlier. Another blessing was that at the time of his death, his head was resting on her body between the chest and clavicle - his back being on her chest and head on the clavicle. The third blessing of Allah was through the visit of her brother, Abdur Rahman, who carried a miswak in his hand which she softened by chewing it and gave it to the Prophet ﷺ who had found it hard before that so that their saliva entered one another's mouth. The truth is that she has every right to be happy and proud of these very special blessings of Allah. She then spoke of the very last moments of his life when he dipped his hands in water and rubbed them on his face, saying "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ إِنَّ لِمَوْتِ سَكْرَاتٍ". Those who are near Allah face such agony that their ranks may be raised. The Prophet ﷺ then raised his hand and said to Allah "فِي الرَّفِيقِ الْأَعْلَى". We must picture that the اعلى (the highest of high) was brought before him which is the place of the Prophets الأنبياء, the siddiq (truthful), the shuhada (martyrs) and the saliheen (righteous), and he indicated with his hand to Allah. "Consign me to that place!" So, his soul was taken away and the raised hand slid down. The Qur'an says after mentioning the Prophets, the truthful, the martyrs and the righteous. (سورة النساء ٦٩:٤) {And an excellent company are they!} (4,69)

On the face of it, this is what the words في الرفيق الاعلى of the Hadith imply and we get the same implication from the Hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in Bukhari and Muslim reproduced here before this. But Allah knows best!

While explaining this Hadith in Fath al-Bari, Ibn Hajar has cited the reports of Mustadrak Haakim etc. Which say that at the time of his death, the Prophet ﷺ was in the lap of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام, but he has remarked "وكل طريق منها لا يخلو من شيعي فلا يلتفت اليها" (In the reports there is one or other Shia narrator, so they are not worth turning to). He has then examined the line of transmission of all of them. (Fath al-Bari v18pp 103, 104. Ansari Press, Dehli)

(١٩٨٩/٣٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ أَقْبَلَ عَلَيَّ فَرَسٍ مِنْ مَسْكِنِهِ بِالسُّنَحِ حَتَّى نَزَلَ، فَدَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ فَلَمْ يُكَلِّمِ النَّاسَ حَتَّى دَخَلَ عَلَيَّ عَائِشَةُ فَتَيَمَّمُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُغْتَبِئٌ بِثَوْبٍ حَبْرَةٍ فَكَشَفَ عَنْ وَجْهِهِ ثُمَّ

اَكْبَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَبَّلَهُ، وَبَكَى ثُمَّ قَالَ بَابِي أَنْتَ وَأُمِّي وَاللَّهِ لَا يَجْمَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكَ مَوْتَيْنِ أَمَّا الْمَوْتَةُ الَّتِي كُتِبَتْ عَلَيْكَ فَقَدْ مَتَّهَا. قَالَ الزُّهْرِيُّ وَحَدَّثَنِي أَبُو سَلَمَةَ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ خَرَجَ وَعُمَرُ يُكَلِّمُ النَّاسَ فَقَالَ أَجْلِسْ يَا عُمَرُ فَابْيَا عُمَرَ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ فَأَقْبَلَ النَّاسُ إِلَيْهِ وَتَرَكُوا عُمَرَ فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ.

أَمَّا بَعْدُ! مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ يَعْبُدُ مُحَمَّدًا فَإِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا قَدَمَاتٍ وَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ يَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ حَتَّى لَا يَمُوتَ قَالَ اللَّهُ: وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ إِلَى الشَّاكِرِينَ وَقَالَ وَاللَّهِ لَكَأَنَّ النَّاسَ لَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ هَذِهِ الْآيَةَ حَتَّى تَلَاهَا أَبُو بَكْرٍ فَتَلَقَّاهَا مِنْهُ النَّاسُ كُلُّهُمْ، فَمَا أَسْمَعُ بَشَرًا مِنَ النَّاسِ إِلَّا يَتْلُوهَا (رواه البخارى)

(1989/38) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ came from his house in Sunh riding a horse. He alighted from the horse and came into the mosque but did not speak to the people who had assembled there and went straight into Sayyidah Aysha's رضى الله عنها who had been covered with a stripped Yamani cloak. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ removed the cloak to uncover the Prophet's ﷺ face, bent down on him and kissed him. He said, "May my parents be ransomed to you! By Allah. He will not cause you to die twice. The death that was predetermined has overtaken you." (This far is the narration of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها which Imam Zuhri reported on the authority of Abu Salamah.) Imam Zuhri reported hereon also from Abu Salamah but as narrated by Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ; Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ came out of Sayyidah Aysha's رضى الله عنها house. Sayyidina Umar ؓ was talking to the people (in his usual manner). Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ said to him, "Umar, sit down! (Do not speak like that) but he did not pay heed to him so (Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ sat on the minbar and) the people came over to him leaving Umar ؓ to listen to him. He said (after praise of Allah, invoking blessings on the Prophet ﷺ and testifying to unity of Allah and to the prophethood):

To Proceed! If anyone of you worshipped Muhammad then he has died, but if anyone of أَمَّا بَعْدُ مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ يَعْبُدُ مُحَمَّدًا فَإِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا قَدَمَاتٍ، وَمَنْ

you worshipped Allah then He is Ever-living, One Who never dies. He has no end. He has said in the Quran:

كَانَ مِنْكُمْ يَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ حَيٌّ
لَا يَمُوتُ قَالَ اللَّهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ.

{And Muhammad is but a Messenger; Messengers have surely passed away before him. So if he should die or be slain, will you then turn back on your heels? If anyone turns back on his heels, he will not harm Allah in any way; and soon Allah will recompense the grateful.} (Aal Imran, 3:144)

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ
قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ أَفَإِنْ مَاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ
انْقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَى أَعْقَابِكُمْ وَمَنْ يَنْقَلِبْ
عَلَى عَقْبَيْهِ فَلَنْ يَضُرَّ اللَّهَ شَيْئًا
وَسَيَجْزِي اللَّهُ الشَّاكِرِينَ
(آل عمران ١٤٤:٣)

(The narrator,) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said, By Allah! It seemed that before Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه recited this verse, the people had not known that Allah has revealed the verse (they had been unaware of its message). Then everyone took it up and everyone had it on his tongue and I heard everyone recite it." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: We have seen from the foregoing Ahadith that the Prophet's ﷺ condition had improved noticeably on the morning of the day he died. Therefore, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه went away to his house in Sunh but while he was there, the Prophet ﷺ died. People assembled together as they learnt of his death, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه being one of them and he was not prepared to believe — nay, even to hear — that the Prophet ﷺ had died. Ibn Hajar while explaining this Hadith has cited a report by Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها on the authority of Musnad Ahmad. "When the Prophet ﷺ died and I had covered him with a cloak, Umar and Mughirah ibn Shu'ban came and sought permission to come in and see the Prophet ﷺ. I screened myself and gave them the permission. They came in and Umar said on seeing him, واغشيته (what a fainting!). Then, as they were going out, Mughirah said to Umar that (it was not fainting but) the Prophet ﷺ had died, but Umar scolded him harshly and said that the Prophet ﷺ would not be taken away till such-and-such work had been accomplished. Anyway, Umar continued in the same manner and vociferously insisted before the people in the same way as he had been insisting. "Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ meanwhile, came on horseback. He first entered the mosque where the people had gathered but without speaking to them went into Sayyidah Ayshah's house, removed the covering from the Holy Prophet's ﷺ face and, tears in his eyes, kissed him. He said, "May my parents be sacrificed to you, the death that Allah had ordained for you has come." (It is reported in another Hadith of Saheeh Bukhari that he also said: إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ to all belong and to Him shall we return.) Then Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ went out and found Sayyidina Umar ﷺ expressing his thoughts. He asked him to sit down but he did not pay heed to him and, in fact, refused to listen because he was overcome with emotion. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ sat on the minbar and the people came over to him from Sayyidina Umar ﷺ and he delivered the sermon we read in the Hadith under discussion. He also recited the verse 144 of surah Aal Imran.

This sermon and the verse of the Qur'an convinced everybody that the Prophet ﷺ had to die one day, and he did die. And, they had to live and die on the path shown by him. Also, this verse came to be recited by every tongue and each of them thereby taught himself and the others to observe steadfastness on Islam and the Prophet's guidance.

Imam Zuhri رحمه الله عليه has cited Sa'eed ibn al-Musayyib ﷺ as saying that Sayyidina Umar ﷺ said, "When Abu Bakr recited the verse وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ", I realised my mistake and it seemed as though I was lifeless and my feet were numb disenabling me to stand. And, my heart knew that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had died."

(١٩٩٠/٣٩) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا قُبِضَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِخْتَلَفُوا فِي دَفْنِهِ، فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا قَالَ، "مَا قُبِضَ اللَّهُ نَبِيًّا إِلَّا فِي الْمَوْضِعِ الَّذِي يُحِبُّ أَنْ يُدْفَنَ فِيهِ" إِذْ فُتُوهُ فِي مَوْضِعٍ فَرَأَاهُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(1990/39) Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that when Allah's Messenger ﷺ died, the people disagreed about his burial. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ, however, said, to them, "I have heard one thing from Allah's Messenger ﷺ about this. He said: Allah causes all His Prophets to die where He likes him to be buried.

So, he must be buried at the place of his bedding." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Companions ﷺ could not agree on where the Prophet should be buried. Some of them suggested that he should be taken to Makkah and buried there. Some others opined that he should be buried in the Baqee' in Madinah itself. But, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ reminded them that he had heard from the Prophet ﷺ that the Prophets ﷺ died on the spot where they or Allah liked them to be buried. Hence the Prophet ﷺ must be buried at the spot of his bed. Accordingly, that was done and the Prophet ﷺ was buried in Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها house where his bed was on which he had rested and died. What a fortunate place that piece of land is that houses the chief of the Messengers, the Seal of the Prophets, the beloved of the Lord of the worlds till the Day of Resurrection.

صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَبَارَكَ وَسَلَّم دَائِمًا أَبَدًا.

(May blessings of Allah be on him and may He favour him and shower peace, for ever, always!)

SAYYIDINA ABU BAKR ﷺ

Allah's Messenger ﷺ mentioned at different times and from different aspects the merits of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ -in fact, his excellence over and distinct standing among the ummah. We have seen a number of Ahadith while discussing the Prophet's ﷺ death in which it is clear that in the sight of the Prophet ﷺ he was the most excellent individual in his ummah, and he had him in his eyes as his Khalifah after him. Apart from the oral declarations, in his final illness, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ should deputise him as an imam (leader of congregational prayers), and thus made his intention very clear.

Apart from those Ahadith which we read on the Prophet's ﷺ death in which his merit is brought out, there are certain on Abu Bakr's ﷺ merit being sayings of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and testimonies of some noted Companions ﷺ. We present here.

(١٩٩١/٤٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا أَحَدٌ عِنْدَنَا يَدُّ إِلَّا وَقَدْ كَافَيْنَاهُ، مَا خَلَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ، فَإِنْ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا يَدٌ يَكَا فِيهِ اللَّهُ بِهَا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَمَنْفَعَتِي مَا لَ أَحَدٍ قَطُّ مَانَفَعَتِي مَا لَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، وَلَوْ كُنْتُ مُتَّحِدًا خَلِيلًا لَاتَّخَذْتُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ خَلِيلًا إِلَّا وَإِنَّ صَاحِبَكُمْ خَلِيلُ اللَّهِ . (رواه الترمذی)

(1991/40) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "There is not anyone who may have been kind to us, or helped us without my returning to him (his favour) except Abu Bakr. The kindness that he has shown us, only Allah will reward him for that on the Day of Resurrection. No one's property has been of benefit to me as much as Abu Bakr's. And if I were to take a Khaleel (close friend from my Companions) then I would take Abu Bakr as one. But, you must know that I am Allah's Khaleel (who is my real friend and dear)." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: It was the Prophet's ﷺ habit that when anyone presented to him a gift, he reciprocated with a like one or better than that, at the same time or later. In this Hadith, he said about Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, "While I have made up the favours of everyone else in this very world, Allah will compensate Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ in the next." His grandson Urwah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had forty thousand dirham when he had accepted Islam all of which he spent for the cause of Islam according to the Prophet's instructions. He bought seven slaves who had become Muslims and gave them liberty while their disbelieving masters had been torturing them for accepting Islam. Sayyidina Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ was among them. As it were, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ had said to the Prophet ﷺ, "I and all my wealth are yours and you may use as you please," and the Prophet ﷺ did in fact do exactly that. In his last sermon, the Prophet ﷺ mentioned this characteristic of Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and gave explicit guidance about him as his Khalifah as, indeed, we have seen previously in Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri's رضی اللہ عنہ Hadith.

(١٩٩٢/٤١) عَنْ حُبَيْرِ بْنِ مُطْعِمٍ قَالَ آتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ امْرَأَةٌ فَكَلَّمَتْهُ فِي شَيْءٍ فَأَمَرَهَا أَنْ تُرْجَعَ إِلَيْهِ قَالَتْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ جِئْتُ وَلَمْ

أَجِدْكَ؟ كَأَنَّهُا تُرِيدُ الْمَوْتَ . قَالَ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدْنِي فَاتِي أَبَا بَكْرٍ .

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(1992/41) Sayyidina Jubayr ibn Mut'im رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ reported that a woman came and spoke to the Prophet ﷺ about a matter. He asked her to come back later some time. She said, "Tell me if I come later and do not find you?" Jubayr ibn Mut'im رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ said that it seemed that she meant he may not be alive when she came back. He said, "If you do not find me then go to Abu Bakr."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Perhaps the woman had come from a distant place and requested the Prophet ﷺ for something which he promised to do later on. When she asked what she would do if he were not alive the next time, he referred her to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ. Thus, this is a clear indication of Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ is his Khailfah because of direct reference to him on the Prophet's ﷺ death.

(١٩٩٣/٤٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

”لَا يَنْبَغِي لِقَوْمٍ فِيهِمْ أَبُو بَكْرٍ أَنْ يُؤَمَّهُمْ غَيْرُهُ .“ (رواه الترمذی)

(1993/42) Sayyidah Ayshah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهَا reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "It does not behove a people (or a group of them) who have Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ Among them to have any body other than him as their imam."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: These words say very explicitly that if Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ is among the people then as long as he is there they must choose him as their imam. This is among those sayings of the Prophet ﷺ which point out to Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ as his Khalifah.

(١٩٩٤/٤٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِأَبِي

بَكْرٍ: ”أَنْتَ صَاحِبِي فِي الْغَارِ وَصَاحِبِي عَلَى الْحَوْضِ“ . (رواه الترمذی)

(1994/43) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ, "You were my Companion in the cave and in the Hereafter you will be my Companion at the Kawthar (pond)."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: When the Prophet ﷺ began his hijrah from Makkah, he stayed for three days in a cave in the mountain Thaur near Makkah. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ was with him in the cave.

This was an unmatched example of faithfulness (there being tremendous risks) throughout the journey to Madinah but especially in the cave. The Prophet ﷺ, therefore, remembered it particularly. The Qur'an also mentions it

ثَانِي اثْنَيْنِ إِذْهُمَا فِي الْغَارِ إِذْ يَقُولُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَنَا (التوبة، ٤٠:٩)
 {he being the second of the two; when they were both in the cave, when he said to his companions, "Grieve not, surely Allah is with us."}
 (at-Tawbah, 9:40)

We shall see further down in the words of Umar ؓ evidence of Abu Bakr's ؓ fidelity in the cave.

(١٩٩٥/٤٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اتَانِي جِبْرِيلُ فَأَخَذَ بِيَدِي، فَأَرَانِي بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ الَّذِي يَدْخُلُ مِنْهُ أُمَّتِي، فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! وَدِدْتُ أَنِّي كُنْتُ مَعَكَ حَتَّى أَنْظُرَ إِلَيْهِ: فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "أَمَا إِنَّكَ يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ! أَوَّلُ مَنْ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ مِنْ أُمَّتِي."

(رواه ابو داود)

(1995/44) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Jibreel came to me, held my hand and pointed out to me the gate of Paradise through which my ummah will enter it." Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ (heard that and) said, "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! I wish that I had been with you and seen the gate!" So, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Know, O Abu Bakr, you will be the first of my ummah to enter Paradise."

(Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is possible that the Prophet ﷺ spoke of the moments during mi'raj (ascension to heavens) when Sayyidina Jibreel ؑ showed him the gate of Paradise. It is also possible he may have taken the Prophet ﷺ to Paradise on some other occasion with Allah's permission. This can be a journey to the higher world just like mi'raj or it could be an inspiration. Any way, the Prophet ﷺ did give glad tidings to Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ that he would be the first person of his ummah to enter Paradise and this is a greater blessing than seeing the gate. Surely, this is proof that Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ is the most excellent of the ummah.

رضى الله عنه وارضاه.

(١٩٩٦/٤٥) عَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ : أَبُو بَكْرٍ سَيِّدُنَا وَخَيْرُنَا وَاحِبُنَا إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ .
(رواه الترمذی)

(1996/45) Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ is our Sayyid (chief), the best of us and the most dear among us to Allah's Messenger ﷺ (no one else being as dear to the Prophet ﷺ as he)." (Tirmizi)

Commentary: This is Sayyidina Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ view of Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ merit in the light of the Prophet's ﷺ sayings and conduct of dealing.

(١٩٩٧/٤٦) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْحَنْفِيَّةِ، قَالَ : قُلْتُ لِأَبِي : أَيُّ النَّاسِ خَيْرٌ بَعْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؟ قَالَ : أَبُو بَكْرٍ : قُلْتُ ثُمَّ مَنْ؟ قَالَ عُمَرُ : وَخَشِيتُ أَنْ يَقُولَ : عُثْمَانُ قُلْتُ ثُمَّ أَنْتَ؟ قَالَ مَا أَنَا إِلَّا رَجُلٌ مِّنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ .
(رواه البخاری)

(1997/46) Sayyidina Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah said that he asked his father (Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ), "Who is the most excellent in the ummah after the Prophet ﷺ?" He said, "Abu Bakr." He asked, "Who next?" Abu Bakr." He asked, "Who next?" And, his father said "Umar." (Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah said that) he feared that (if he asked again then) he would say "Uthman" (so I asked in this way "Then after Umar, you?" But, he said, "I am nothing more than a man among Muslims." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah was Sayyidina Ali's رضی اللہ عنہ son, not from Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا but another of his wives, Hanafiyyah whose real name was Khawlah. She was famous as Hanafiyyah after the name of her tribe. She was one of the captives taken from the jihad against the fake Prophet, Musaylimah Kazzab during Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضی اللہ عنہ times and was given to Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ. Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah was a distinguished tabi'ee in knowledge, piety and righteousness. When he asked him if he was the most excellent man after Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said humbly that he was an ordinary Muslim. Actually, at that time, he alone was the most excellent in the ummah. Sayyidina Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ had been martyred. While this is reported by Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyyah, there are a number of Ahadith from Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام in which he has declared that Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام and Sayyidina Umar are the most excellent of the ummah, "And if anyone places me above these two then I will apply the hadd (punishment according to Shari'ah) on him."

(١٩٩٨/٤٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ : كُنَّا فِي زَمَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نَعْدِلُ بِأَبِي بَكْرٍ أَحَدًا، ثُمَّ عُمَرَ، ثُمَّ عُثْمَانَ، ثُمَّ نَتْرُكُ أَصْحَابَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نُفَاضِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ.
(رواه البخارى)

(1998/47) It is reported by Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar عليه السلام that in the times of the Prophet ﷺ they did not regard anyone equal to Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام. Then, (they placed) Umar عليه السلام and after him Uthman عليه السلام. Then, they left all the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ (by themselves), not giving excellence to one over another.
(Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: Sayyidina Ibn Umar عليه السلام means to say, "We observed the Prophet's ﷺ manner of treatment and regarded Abu Bakr عليه السلام as the best of his ummah followed by Umar عليه السلام, followed by Uthman عليه السلام. They were our elders and the Prophet ﷺ often consulted them in important matters. Ali عليه السلام was a young man during the Prophet's ﷺ times and had not yet attained that rank though he undoubtedly followed the three in excellence, and in some characteristics he was very prominent."

Besides, Ibn Umar عليه السلام has spoken about personalities. He has not touched upon the ranks and position on the basis of attributes like the ashrah mubashirah (ten given glad tidings), the Companions of Badr, the Companions of Bay't Ridwan (the allegiance under the tree), the first among the Muhajirs and Ansars (رضى الله عنهم اجمعين). He does not reject excellence on this basis but he only concerned himself with the merit of these three men in the Prophet's times. والله اعلم

(١٩٩٩/٤٨) عَنْ عُمَرَ، قَالَ : أَمَرَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ نَتَّصِدَّقَ، وَوَأَفَّقَ ذَلِكَ عِنْدِي مَالًا، فَقُلْتُ : الْيَوْمَ أَسْبِقُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ إِنْ سَبَقْتُهُ يَوْمًا، قَالَ فَجِئْتُ بِنِصْفِ مَالِي، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : «مَا بَقِيَتْ لَاهِلِكَ؟ فَقُلْتُ : مِثْلُهُ، وَأَتَى أَبُو بَكْرٍ بِكُلِّ مَاعِنْدَهُ : فَقَالَ يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ

مَا أَبْقَيْتَ لِأَهْلِكَ؟“ فَقَالَ أَبْقَيْتُ لَهُمُ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ، قُلْتُ لَا أَسْبِقُهُ، إِلَى شَيْءٍ أَبَدًا.

(رواه الترمذی و ابو داود)

(1999/48) Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ reported: Allah's Messenger ordered us to give sadaqah (contribute in Allah's cause) and he gave the order when (by a coincidence) I had much wealth. So I thought to myself that if ever I can surpass Abu Bakr, this is the time. I went home and from whatever I had there, I took exactly half of it and presented it to Allah's Messenger who asked me what I had left behind for my family. I told him that I had left home exactly what I had brought here. But, Abu Bakr brought all that he had and the Prophet ﷺ asked him what he had left home. He said that he had left for them Allah and His Messenger. So, I realised that I could never surpass Abu Bakr in anything."

(Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: It is possible that the fifty per cent brought by Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ might have been more in value than the hundred per cent brought by Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ. However, the motivation of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was stronger and he left nothing for his family.

(۲۰۰۰/۴۹) عَنْ عُمَرَ، ذَكَرَ عِنْدَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ فَبَكَى وَقَالَ: وَدِدْتُ أَنَّ عَمَلِي كُلَّهُ مِثْلَ عَمَلِهِ يَوْمًا وَاحِدًا مِنْ أَيَّامِهِ، وَلَيْلَةً وَاحِدَةً مِنْ لَيَالِيهِ، أَمَا لَيْلَتُهُ، فَلَيْلَةُ سَارَمَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى الْغَارِ، فَلَمَّا انْتَهَيَا إِلَيْهِ قَالَ: وَاللَّهِ لَا تَدْخُلُهُ حَتَّى أَدْخُلَ قَبْلَكَ، فَإِنْ كَانَ فِيهِ شَيْءٌ أَصَابَ بَنِي دُونَكَ، فَدَخَلَ فَكَسَحَهُ، وَوَجَدَ فِي جَانِبِهِ ثِقْبًا، فَشَقَّ إِزَارَهُ، وَسَدَّهَا بِهِ، وَبَقِيَ مِنْهَا اثْنَانِ فَالْقَمَهُمَا رِجْلَيْهِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: أَدْخُلْ، فَدَخَلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهُ فِي حِجْرِهِ وَنَامَ فَلَدَغَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ فِي رِجْلِهِ مِنَ الْحَجَرِ، وَلَمْ يَتَحَرَّكَ مَخَافَةَ أَنْ يَنْتَبِهَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَقَطَتْ ذُمُوعُهُ، عَلَى وَجْهِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ: مَا لَكَ يَا أَبَا بَكْرٍ؟ قَالَ لِدُعْتِ، فَدَاكَ أَبِي وَأُمِّي، فَتَفَلَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَهَبَ مَا يَجِدُهُ، ثُمَّ انْتَقَضَ عَلَيْهِ، وَكَانَ سَبَبَ مَوْتِهِ، وَأَمَّا يَوْمُهُ،

فَلَمَّا قُبِضَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ارْتَدَّتِ الْعَرَبُ وَقَالُوا: لَا نُرَدِّي زَكَاةَ فَقَالَ: لَوْ مَنَعُونِي عَقَالًا لَجَاهَدْتُهُمْ عَلَيْهِ فَقُلْتُ : يَا خَلِيفَةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ فَالَيْ النَّاسِ وَارْفُقْ بِهِمْ فَقَالَ لِي : أَجَبَّارٌ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ وَخَوَارٌ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ؟ إِنَّهُ قَدْ انْقَطَعَ الْوَحْيُ وَتَمَّ الدِّينُ أَيْقُضْ وَأَنَا حَيٌّ.

(رواه رزين)

(2000/49) When Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was mentioned before him, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه began to weep. He said, "I wish with my heart that the deeds of all my life should be equal to the deeds of one day of his days of life and of one night of his nights of life (meaning that Allah may reward me for life long deeds as much as Abu Bakr would get for his deeds of one day and one night set out. I refer to that night when he set out with the Prophet for hijrah and (with intent to conceal themselves) went towards the cave (Thawr). When they came upon it (and the Prophet ﷺ wished to enter it), he said to Allah's Messenger, "By Allah, do not yet enter it. I will go in first and if there is something harmful inside (like a wild animal, snake, etc) then I will face that which happens and you will be safe." So Abu Bakr went in the cave, swept it clean. He found some holes when he plugged with pieces torn from his lower garment but two remained, so he placed both feet across them and then said to the Prophet ﷺ. "Now you may come in." So he went in. (Much of the night had passed and the Prophet ﷺ felt sleepy.) The Prophet ﷺ placed his head on Abu Bakr's lap and went to sleep, but, meanwhile, a snake stung Abu Bakr on his foot (and he felt much pain) but he did not even budge lest the Prophet ﷺ be disturbed and wake up. Finally, from the severity of the pain, tears dropped from his eyes and fell on the Prophet's ﷺ face. (He woke up and saw tears in Abu Bakr's eyes, so) he asked, "Abu Bakr, what's wrong?" He said, "May my parents be ransomed to you! A snake has bitten me." The Prophet ﷺ applied his saliva (where the snake had stung Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه) and the pain subsided immediately. Then (some time before Abu Bakr's death) the effect of the poison reappeared and he died of that. (In this way he became a martyr in the cause of Allah just like the Prophet ﷺ had got the effects of poison from Khaybar later on in life.) As for the day - thus far was Abu Bakr's deed of one night - (about which he had said he would like to get reward for one day against his life long deeds)! It was that day of Abu Bakr's life when Allah's Messenger ﷺ died and Arabs (of some regions) turned apostae, refusing to pay zakah. So, Abu Bakr said, "If they refuse to give me even a tether¹ then I will wage jihad against them." I (Umar ؓ) said to him, "O Khalifah of the Messenger! (At this time,) treat these people gently and in a friendly manner." But, he said to me (angrily), "During pre-Islamic days, you were tough and powerful, have you turned weak and coward in Islam? (What a change!) The wahy (revelation) has stopped (coming with the departure of the Prophet), religion is perfected. Will it be made faulty? Will it be damaged? While I am alive? (That will not happen)." (Razeen)

Commentary: The concluding part about Sayyidina Umar's ؓ recommendation to treat the rejectors of zakat lightly and Sayyidina Abu Bakr's ؓ determined descision against them need to be explained.

With the death of the Prophet ﷺ a dangerous situation had arisen for Islam. The Companions ؓ were depressed. Besides, the Prophet ﷺ had instructed that an expedition be sent under the leadership of Sayyidina Usamah ؓ and Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ abided by this decision of the Prophet ﷺ and sent the large army under Sayyidina Usamah ؓ. Thus, much of armed strength was not at the disposal of the Khalifah. Further, during the last days of the Prophet ﷺ, Musaylimah, the liar, had claimed to be a Prophet ؓ and he had raised his head in Yamamah close to the Hijaz, and some tribes had taken his side. They had formed something like a government. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ also addressed himself to this mischief and sent Sayyidina Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ with an army to tackle this man. It was under these circumstances that people of some regions of Hijaz (who were fresh Muslims) refused to pay zakah. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ called that apostasy and declared ①. the word used in the Hadith is Iqal. The generally used sense of this word is the rope with which a camel's feet is tied so that it may not wander away. The other meaning of iqal is the young of a camel or goat. In that case the words of Hadith would mean: if they who refuse to pay zakah do not give the young of a camel or goat which is due on them then I will wage jihad against them. Zakat is a pillar of religion and rejecting it is to disbelieve. If people of a nation or region refuse to pay zakah then they are murtid (apostates) and liable to be killed.

jihad against them. that would leave no army at the centre and, if anyone were to attack Madinah or the hypocrites were to make mischief, there would be no army to defend. Therefore Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه suggested that the exigencies of time demanded that jihad should not be waged against rejectors of zakah. However, Allah had put into the heart of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه that it was necessary to nip in the bud the mischief of apostasy and it could not be allowed time under any exigency whatsoever. Zakah is an essential part of religion, like salah. It was part of faith. To overlook refusal to pay zakah was like overlooking amendments in religion. So, he said "and because religion was completed and receipt of wahy had stopped it is our duty to protect religion in the form the Prophet ﷺ had left it for us." He concluded his speech with the words: "أَبْنَقُصُ الدِّينُ وَأَنَا حَيٌّ" "Is religion to shorten while I am alive?"

In this event we have to observe particularly that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had a view different from the steps of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه was contemplating. But, later that very decision was regarded by him as extremely great and he felt that the deeds of his lifetime were inferior to that one deed of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه. And, he conceded that! رضى الله تعالى عنهما وارضاهما.

SAYYIDINA UMAR IBN AL-KHATTAB رضي الله عنه

Having read the Ahadith about the first Khalifa which included sayings of the Prophet ﷺ and comments of other companions, we now read similar accounts about the second Khalifah, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه.

(٢٠٠١/٥٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ
كَانَ فِيمَا قَبْلَكُمْ مِنَ الْأُمَمِ مُحَدِّثُونَ، فَإِنْ يَكُ فِي أُمَّتِي أَحَدٌ فَإِنَّهُ عُمَرُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2001/50) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Among the earlier ummah there have been muhaddath (who are blessed by Allah with inspiration). So, if there is one in my ummah (who is so blessed) then he is Umar."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Muhaddath is that fortunate slave of Allah who receives abundant inspirations from Allah. He has a special treatment from Allah and though he is not a Prophet, he is one of the ummah. The Prophet means to say that there were such people in previous ummah and if anyone has been given this blessing then he is Umar. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ is clear. There are people in his ummah too as they were among the previous ummah and Sayyidina Umar ﷺ is one of them.

(٢٠٠٢/٥١) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ

جَعَلَ الْحَقَّ عَلَى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ وَقَبْلَهُ . (رواه الترمذی)

(2002/51) Sayyidina Ibn Umar ﷺ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Allah has placed Truth on Umar's tongue and in his heart." (Jami' Tirmizi)

(٢٠٠٣/٥٢) عَنْ أَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ

”إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَضَعَ الْحَقَّ عَلَى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ يَقُولُ بِهِ“ . (رواه ابو داؤد)

(2003/52) Sayyidina Abu Zarr ﷺ reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "Allah has placed Truth on Umar's tongue and he speaks only the truth." (Sunan Abu Dawood)

Commentary: The message of both Ahadiith is the same: whatever Sayyidina Umar ﷺ says with his tongue and gets in his heart is Truth. He thinks that which is True and speaks accordingly. But, that does not rule out possibility of mistake in deduction which even the Prophets ﷺ and liable to make, but they are informed by Allah and they make corrections. So, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ did commit error in deduction sometimes but when he learnt the truth, he made amends. Thus, among his mistakes in deduction or judgement were the one at the time of the Prophet's ﷺ death and his views on tackling the rejectors of zakah. He corrected himself when facts came to light.

(٢٠٠٤/٥٣) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
 "لَوْ كَانَ بَعْدِي نَبِيٌّ لَكَانَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ"
 (رواه الترمذی)

(2004/53) Sayyidina Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If we suppose that there were Prophet after me then he would be Umar."
 (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: He said, "Allah has terminated prophethood with me and no Prophet will now come until the Last Day. (This is declared by the Qur'an too.) Suppose Allah had not decided that and there was to be a Prophet after me then he would be Umar ibn al-Khattab." Thus, his merits are highlighted in this Hadith too, as they have been in the previous.

(٢٠٠٥/٥٤) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ : مَا كُنَّا تَبْعُدُ أَنَّ السَّكِينَةَ تَنْطِقُ عَلَى لِسَانِ عُمَرَ .
 (رواه البيهقي في دلائل النبوة)

(2005/54) Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We did not think it impossible that peace and comfort should speak with Umar's tongue."
 (Dafa'il Nabuwah, by Bayhaqi)

Commentary: Sayyidina Ali رضی اللہ عنہ referred to the peace and tranquility that grew in hearts of listeners when Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ spoke, and they did not think it impossible that Allah had placed this condition on his tongue and speech. Exponents of Hadith also say that the Arabic word as-sakinah which we have translated 'peace and tranquility' is a particular angel. Then it would mean that when he spoke, the particular angel of Allah spoke with his tongue.

(٢٠٠٦/٥٥) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ، قَالَ عُمَرُ وَافَقْتُ رَبِّي فِي ثَلَاثٍ: فِي مَقَامِ
 إِبْرَاهِيمَ، وَفِي الْحِجَابِ وَفِي أُسَارَى بَدْرٍ .
 (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2006/55) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "My thinking abided with my Lord on three matters (on which His Command was about to be revealed): the station of Ibrahim, the hijab (or veil) and the captives of the Battle of Badr."
 (Saheeh Bukhari Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The fact is that in the Ahadeeth there are at least fifteen matters on which Sayyidina Umar's رضی اللہ عنہ thought or opinion coincided with the message of revelation. He wished, "Would that a revelation be received in such a way!" and, indeed, the revelation did uphold his view. This Hadith names only three occasions:

- (1) Command about the station of Ibrahim,
- (2) Question of hibaj or veil and
- (3) Command on the captives of the Battle of Badr.

The station of Ibrahim (Maqam Ibrahim) is a white stone on which Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام stood to build the Ka'bah (and the stone has the imprints of his feet till today. These imprints were made there miraculously). The stone is preserved from that day till today. It used to lie in the open near the Ka'bah till the times of Allah's Messenger ﷺ (but now it is encased¹).

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had expressed the wish to the Prophet ﷺ that it would have been wonderful if the station Ibrahim were made into a place of salah. Soon, the verse 125 of surah al-Baqarah was revealed:

“وَاتَّخِذُوا مِنْ مَّقَامِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ مُصَلًّى” (البقره ١٢٥:٢)

{Take to yourselves Ibrahim's station as a place for prayer.}

Simply, the verse tells us that the two raka'at after observing the tawaf should be offered near the station of Ibrahim. The jurist concur on the view that if the salah cannot be offered here then they may be offered anywhere else in the mosque (Masjid al-Haram).

The next matter concerned Hijab. Women were not required to observe it and the Prophet's ﷺ Companions رضي الله عنهم used to visit him at his home as any Muslim visited other houses. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه wished that the Prophet's ﷺ wives رضي الله عنهن should be required to observe hijab. So the verse 52 of al-Ahzab was revealed:

“وَإِذَا سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَاسْأَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ” (سوره احزاب ٥٣:٣٣)

{And when you ask them (the Prophet's wives) of any goods, ask them from behind a curtain.}

The third matter concerned the captives of the Battle of Badr. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه suggested that all of them should be killed because they were sworn enemies of the Prophet ﷺ and of Islam and to let them go scott free would be like letting poisonous snakes survive. However, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Allah's Messenger

①. This was done in the times of Shah Faisal رحمه الله عليه.

ﷺ showed mercy and they set them free against payment of ransom. Then the verse of an-Anfal was revealed upholding Sayyidina Umar's ﷺ view.

In each of the three cases wahy upheld Sayyidina Umar's ﷺ opinion. But, he displayed manners and said, "My thinking abided three commands of Allah." Surely, this demonstrated his good manners and it was the teachings of the Prophet ﷺ put into practice.

(٢٠٠٧/٥٦) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللَّهُمَّ
اعِزَّ الْإِسْلَامَ بِأَبِي جَهْلٍ بَنِي هِشَامٍ أَوْ بِعُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ فَاصْبَحَ عُمَرُ فَعَدَا عَلَى
النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَسْلَمَ ثُمَّ صَلَّى فِي الْمَسْجِدِ ظَاهِرًا.

(رواه احمد والترمذی)

(2007/56) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ﷺ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ made supplication (in the night): O Allah! Strengthen Islam through Abu Jahl ibn Hisham or Umar ibn al-Khattab. Then, Umar got up in the morning, came to the Prophet ﷺ and embraced Islam, and offered salah in the Masjid al-Haram openly. (Musnad Ahmad, Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Allah has made this earth as the world of causes and effects. Planning and practical effort is necessary to achieve every aim, as also suitable men to help. Both Abu Jahl and Umar ibn al-Khattab were his greatest enemies and also of Islam but they both had tremendous capabilities. (Perhaps it was disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ that one of the two could be given guidance.) So, he made supplication at night.

This honour was the lot of Umar and he became a Muslim. He served Islam we and, especially in his ten years as Khalifah, he came out brightly in the ummah.

The story of his Islam is related in detail in Mishkat from Dalail an-Nabuwah of Abu Abdullah Haakim as narrated by Ibn Abbas ﷺ. The gist of it is: Abu Jahl a chief of Makkah and a wealthy man took responsibility to give away a hundred camels, and a thousand oqiyah silver as prize money to anyone who killed the Prophet ﷺ. Umar got Abu Jahl to confirm his offer and he agreed to pay that on spot. So, Umar took a sword in hand and went to give his evil intention a practical shape. A man met him on the way and asked where he was going. He disclosed his intention. The man reminded him that the Bani Hashim should be feared (for, they would come out in the Prophet's ﷺ support and that would lead o blood-shed). Umar said, "It seems that you too have accepted Muhammad's ﷺ religion." the man said, "Let me tell you that your sister (Fatimah) and brother-in-law (Sa'eed ibn Zubayr) have also become Muslims." So, Umar marched straight to his sister's house. They were reciting the surah Ta Ha. Umar overheard them at the door and then had it opened and asked, "What were you reciting?" His sister told him that they had embraced Islam and she was reciting the verses of the Qur'an. He asked her to recite to him something of it. So, she began to recite surah Ta Ha. When she came to the verse: اِنَّهٗ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْاَسْمَاءُ الْاَحْسَنٰى "Umar's condition changed abruptly. He exclaimed, "Surely. Only He, Allah, is worthy of worship!" He recited the Kalimah Shahadah.

He spent the night at his sister's house and was very eager to meet the Prophet ﷺ, saying, again and again, "وَأَشُوْقَاهُ إِلَى مُحَمَّدٍ". Then Khabbab ibn al-Arat came to him and informed him that the Prophet ﷺ had made supplication to Allah to strengthen Islam with Umar or Abu Jahl, and he thought that the Prophet's ﷺ supplication was accepted for him. In the morning, Umar ﷺ met the Prophet ﷺ and embraced Islam. He said straight way, "We worshipped Laat and Uzza in the valleys and plains and on mountains peaks, but shall we worship Allah hidden from others? No. By Allah, we will worship Him openly in the courtyard of the Ka'bah. (till then Muslims did not offer salah in Majsid al-Haram).

Ibn Hajar has reproduced in Fath al Bari the report of Ibn Abbas ﷺ on the authority of Abu Ja'far ibn Abu Shaybah's Tareekh. It reads: On accepting Islam, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ resolved on the spot that they would offer salah in Masjid al-Haram, and they did that immediately. Fath al-Bari also carried Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood's report on the authority of Ibn Abu Shaybah

①. Allah! There is no God but He. To Him belong the most Beautiful Names. (20:8) and Tabarani:

وَاللّٰهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْنَا اَنْ نُصَلِّيَ حَوْلَ الْبَيْتِ ظَاهِرِيْنَ حَتّٰى اَسْلَمَ عُمَرُ.

"By Allah! Before Umar became Muslim, we did not dare to offer salah in public near Bayt Allah. (Only after Umar entered the folds of Islam was it possible to do that.)

Ibn Hajar رحمته الله has cited many Ahadith from different books about the Islam of Sayyidina Umar رحمته الله. They include: Sayyidina Mas'ood رحمته الله, Ibn Abbas رحمته الله, Anas رحمته الله, Sayyidah Ayshah رحمته الله, Ibn Umar رحمته الله and Sayyidina Ali رحمته الله. (Fath al-Bari, Manaqib Umar) (٢٠٠٨/٥٧) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ بَيْنَ اَنَاوَانِيْمْ، اَتَيْتُ بِقَدَحٍ لَبَنٍ فَشَرِبْتُ حَتّٰى اِنْنِىْ لَا رِىَ الرَّىْ يَخْرُجُ فِىْ اَظْفَارِىْ ثُمَّ اَعْطَيْتُ فَضْلِىْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالُوْا فَمَا اَوَّلَتْهُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللَّهِ قَالَ الْعِلْمُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2008/57) Sayyidina Umar رحمته الله reported that he heard Allah's Messenger رحمته الله say, "While I was asleep a bowl-full of milk was brought to me. So I drank it to my fill to the extent that I could see it in my nails. Then I gave the milk that remained to Umar ibn al-Khattab that he might drink it." Some Companions رحمته الله asked him how he interpreted it and he said, "knowledge."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The sufi scholars have said that the example of knowledge of Truth within overall knowledge is the example of milk. He who dreams that he is given milk to drink is, indeed, given knowledge of truth. Milk is the best diet for the human body so too knowlwdge of Truth as given by Allah is the best food for the soul.

We know from this Hadith that Sayyidina Umar رحمته الله had an abundant share in the knowledge of Truth that Allah had granted to the Prophet رحمته الله. This is borne out by the way he conducted the affairs of the Muslims ummah for ten years as a Khalifah of the Prophet رحمته الله after the death of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رحمته الله.

Scholars need pursue the work on the scholarly achievements of Sayyidina Umar رحمته الله, Izalat ul-Khafa ازالة الخفا by Shah Waliullah رحمته الله.
رحمة الله عليه.

(٢٠٠٩/٥٨) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، قَالَ : سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ "بَيْنَا أَنَا نَائِمٌ، رَأَيْتُ النَّاسَ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيَّ، وَعَلَيْهِمْ قُمُصٌ، مِنْهَا مَا يَبْلُغُ الثَّدْيَ، وَمِنْهَا مَا دُونَ ذَلِكَ، وَعُرِضَ عَلَيَّ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ وَعَلَيْهِ قَمِيصٌ يُجْرُهُ،" قَالُوا : فَمَا أَوَّلُ ذَلِكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ "الْدِّينُ"

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2009/58) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "While I was asleep, I dreamt that people are brought to me, all of them wearing shirts. Some of the shirts reached only up to the chest and some a little below the chest. Umar ibn al-Khattab was also brought to me. His shirt was so long that it trailed on the ground and he dragged it along as he walked." Some of the Companions رضي الله عنهم asked him its interpretation and he said, "Religion."

(Saheeh Bukhari Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Dress and religion are compared in this way that the former protects a man from the vicissitude of weather and is an adornment too while religion is an adornment in the next world and a protection from punishment. Different people of his ummah were presented to the Prophet ﷺ in his dream. They were at different levels of piety and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had a perfect religion.

رضى الله عنه وارضاه

(٢٠١٠/٥٩) عَنِ الْمُسَوِّرِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ، قَالَ : لَمَّا طَعِنَ عُمَرُ جَعَلَ يَأْتِمُ فَقَالَ لَهُ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ وَكَانَهُ يُحْزِرُهُ، يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ! وَلَا تَكُلْ ذَلِكَ لَقَدْ صَحِبْتَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَحْسَنْتَ صُحْبَتَهُ، ثُمَّ فَارَقَكَ وَهُوَ عَنْكَ رَاضٍ، ثُمَّ صَحِبْتَ أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَأَحْسَنْتَ صُحْبَتَهُ، ثُمَّ فَارَقَكَ وَهُوَ عَنْكَ رَاضٍ، ثُمَّ صَحِبْتَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ فَأَحْسَنْتَ صُحْبَتَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ فَارَقْتَهُمْ لَتَفَارِقَنَّهُمْ وَهُمْ عَنْكَ رَاضُونَ، قَالَ : أَمَّا مَا ذَكَرْتُ مِنْ صُحْبَةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَرِضَاهُ فَإِنَّمَا ذَلِكَ مِنْ اللَّهِ مَنْ بِهِ عَلَى وَأَمَّا مَا ذَكَرْتُ مِنْ صُحْبَةِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَرِضَاهُ فَإِنَّمَا ذَلِكَ مِنْ اللَّهِ مَنْ بِهِ عَلَى، وَأَمَّا مَا تَرَى مِنْ جَزَعِي، فَهُوَ مِنْ أَجْلِكَ وَمِنْ أَجْلِ أَصْحَابِكَ وَاللَّهِ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي طَلَاعُ الْأَرْضِ ذَهَبًا لَأَفْتَدَيْتُ بِهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ اللَّهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ أَرَاهُ.

(رواه البخارى)

(2010/59) Sayyidina Miswar ibn Makhramah ؓ narrated: when Umar ؓ was stabbed (by Abu Lulu Majoosi) he showed signs of agony. Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ supposed that he cried in agony from lack of patience, so to comfort him, he said, "O Chief of the Faithful! Do not express agony. (Remember the blessings of Allah, how great bounties He bestowed on you!) You have been the friend and companion of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and you discharged the rights of the company well so that the Prophet ﷺ parted from you while he was pleased with you. Then, you were the companion of his Khaifah, Abu Bakr ؓ and discharged rights of his company well, and he too separated from you while he was pleased with you (and made you Khalifah after him). Then (in your reign as Khalifah) you kept good relations with all Muslims (giving their rights to them) and if you leave them now, you will part from them while all of them are pleased with you." (He meant to say that if the Prophet ﷺ then Abu Bakr ؓ and then all the Muslims were pleased with him, that is a sign that Allah is pleased with him. So, he must not show signs of unrest and agony. Remember Allah's blessings and be calm.) Sayyidina Umar ؓ said in reply to Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ, "What you have said about the company of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and his being pleased with me, it is Allah's choicest blessing on me. And what you have said similarly of the company of Abu Bakr ؓ and his being pleased with me, that too was Allah's favour on me. (That was not my personal achievement.) And as for the expression of pain and restlessness (it is not because of the wound but) it is because of you people (lest you involve yourselves in trial and mischief. And as for how I will fare in the Hereafter) by Allah! My conduct is that if I had gold as much as would fill up the earth then I would give all that up to ransom myself from the punishment of Allah before I see it." (Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: The concluding portion of Sayyidina Umar's ؓ reply to Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ was based on a saying of the Prophet ﷺ, "Umar is a closed door to mischief and trials" As long as he lived, the ummah would be safe from fitan but when he dies the door will open for mischief and trials. And it happened exactly like that. A series of mischievous acts were perpetrated by devils of jinn and men and it come to such a pass in the final days of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه that he was martyred by those who called themselves Muslims. This was followed by a civil war that left thousands of companions and tabi'eens dead (martyrs). This is what had worried Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه in his dying moments, making him forget his wounds. After that he exclaimed that if he had as much gold as would fill up the earth, he would give all that up to seek release from Allah's punishment even before seeing it. This was to let Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه known that truly he feared the punishment. I understand that this fear in him is evidence of his perfect faith and perfect awareness of Divinity. The greater one's faith and awareness the greater his fear of Allah. The Prophet said: انا اعلمكم بالله واخشاكم (I have more knowledge and awareness of Allah than you, and also have more fear to Him than you). The Qur'an says frequently that those of His slaves are more deserving of Allah's mercy and Paradise who fear Him constantly. The fate of the believing righteous men is described in surah al-Bayyinah and then they are said to be خير البرية (the best of creatures). They will reside in eternal Paradise in the next world. They will be pleased with Allah. And, the final words are:

”ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ خَشِيَ رَبَّهُ“ (البينه ٩٨:٨)

{That is for him (who is a righteous believer) who fears his Lord (that is, His grasp and punishment)}

Martyrdom

The wound that is mentioned in this Hadith was the one that caused his death.

Iran was conquered in his times. The Majoosis, that were taken captives in the war, were distributed among the Muslims to serve them as slaves and servants in accordance with laws of Shari'ah. Their masters were required to look after them, feed and clothe them and treat them well. There was among these captives an unfortunate wretched, Abu Lulu, who was given to the well-known Companion, Mughira ibn Sha'bah رضي الله عنه. He conspired to murder Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه Farooq. He took a dagger and treated it well in poison. In the night, he concealed himself in the mihrab (arch) of the mosque. It was Sayyidina Umar's رضي الله عنه habit that he offered the fajr salah very early after dawn and recited long surah therein. It was the 27th of Zul Hajj and he began the fajr salah and had just called out the takbeer tahreemah when the wretched Irani Majoosi stabbed Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه three times in the belly. He fell down unconscious. Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه quickly took his place and led the worshipper through a brief salah. Abu Lu Lu tried to run away from the mosque but the rows of worshippers obstructed his passage like a thick wall. He wounded thirteen other Companions رضي الله عنهم in his attempt to flee away — seven of them were martyred. Meanwhile the salah was over and the wretched man was apprehended and he committed suicide with the same dagger. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was carried home and he regained consciousness in a little while and he completed his salah in this condition. His first question was, "Who was my murderer?" He was told that he was Abu Lu Lu Majoosi. He thanked Allah that He had given him martyrdom at the hands of a disbeliever, and was convinced that his prayer was accepted. He used to pray: "O Allah, grant me martyrdom. And let me die in the city, Madinah, of your Messenger." Once his daughter, Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها heard this prayer on his tongue and asked him, "How is it possible that you will be martyred and die in this city of Madinah." (She had thought that martyrdom in the cause of Allah can only take place during jihad against disbelievers). He said, "Allah is All-Powerful. If He chooses He will bestow both blessings on me." Anyway, he was convinced that he would be martyred. He appointed Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه as imam in his place. He also appointed six top Companions (all of whom were from the ten who were given glad tidings of Paradise) to select a Khalifah from among themselves within three days of his death.

He then instructed his son, Abdullah رضي الله عنه to go to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and convey to her his salaam. He requested her to allow him to be buried next to Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه, but if she was not willing to give her the permission then the jannat ul Baqee' was better for him. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه met her and she said, "I had thought of that place for myself but now I prefer him to me."

When Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه conveyed to his father her permission, he thanked Allah and said, "This was my cherished ambition."

He was murdered on 27th Zul Hajjah on Wednesday and died on Sunday, 1st Muharram.

When his funeral Salah was about to be offered, Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said about him that which we will read in the next pages¹. Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه led the funeral salah and he was buried next to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه in the Rawdah. رضى الله تعالى عنه وارضاه

❶. Hadith # 155 by Ibn Abu Mulaykh.

MERITS OF THE SHAYKHAYN¹

We have read already the merits of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. Now, we will read some Ahadith in which the Prophet's ﷺ sayings about the excellences of both these Companions are found together. He has often spoken of them with himself to show that they were his close friends. We begin with Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه statement as narrated by Sayyidina Abbas رضي الله عنه.

(٢٠١١/٦٠) عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي مُلَيْكَةَ سَمِعَ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ يَقُولُ وَضِعَ عُمَرُ عَلَى سَرِيرِهِ فَتَكَنَّفَهُ النَّاسُ يَدْعُونَ وَيُصَلُّونَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُرْفَعَ وَأَنَا فِيهِمْ فَلَمْ يَرْعِنِي إِلَّا رَجُلٌ أَخَذَ مِنْكَبِي فَإِذَا عَلَيَّ فَرَحَمَ عَلَيَّ عُمَرُ وَقَالَ مَا خَلَقْتَ أَحَدًا أَحَبَّ إِلَيَّ أَنْ أَلْقَى اللَّهَ بِمِثْلِ عَمَلِهِ مِنْكَ وَأَيُّمُ اللَّهُ إِنْ كُنْتُ لَا ظُنُّنَّ أَنْ يَجْعَلَكَ اللَّهُ مَعَ صَاحِبَيْكَ وَحَسِبْتُ أَنِّي كُنْتُ كَثِيرًا أَسْمَعُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ ذَهَبْتُ أَنَا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَدَخَلْتُ أَنَا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَخَرَجْتُ أَنَا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ.

(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2011/60) Ibn Abu Mulaykah (a tabi'ee) reported having heard Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه say: When (the dead body of) Umar was placed on the wooden plank (to give him a bath), the people gathered around him. They prayed for him and beseeched Allah for His mercy before he should be carried away, and I was one of them. Suddenly, I felt someone holding my shoulder (and I saw that) he was Ali ibn Abu Talib. He was praying for (Allah's) mercy on Umar and he said, "You have not left behind you a person whose deeds I may imitate and take them to Allah. And by Allah, I always thought that Allah would join you with your two companions (Allah's Messenger ﷺ and Abu Bakr), for, often did I hear the Prophet ﷺ say, "I, Abu Bakr and Umar

❶. Shaykhayn: two Shaykhs, Abu Bakr and Umar.

went (on that work)." Or, "I entered (the mosque or that place) and, with me, Abu Bakr and Umar also entered. And, I came out and Abu Bakr and Umar also came out."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام could mean by 'Allah will join you with your two Companions' that "you will be buried with them" or "you will go to Paradise with them," or he could have meant both the things. He has made it amply clear that the Prophet ﷺ had a very close relationship with his two companions.

It is also clear from his initial words (lamenting that Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام had not left behind one whose deeds he could perform and take with him to Allah) that he wished to perform deeds like those Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام had done.

Hafiz Ibn Hajr has explained this Hadith thus:

"And Ibn Abu Shaybah and Musadad has reported from Ja'far Sadiq who from his father Muhammad (Baqir) who from Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام words of similar import. The transmission is authentic. And this report is a good evidence for the report of Ibn Abbas because these narrators are the progeny of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام." (Fath al-Bari v14 p 374 Ansari Press Delhi)

وقد اخرج ابن ابى شيبه ومسدد
من طريق جعفر بن محمد عن
ابيه عن علي نحو هذا الكلام
وسنده صحيح وهو شاهد جيد
لحديث ابن عباس لكون
مخرجه من ال على رضى الله
عنهم. (فتح الباري جز ١٤ صفحه
٣٧٤ طبع انصارى دهلى)

(٢٠١٢/٦١) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَجُلٌ يَسُوقُ بَقْرَةً إِذْ أَعْيَى فَرَكَبَهَا فَقَالَتْ إِنَّا لَمْ نُخْلَقْ لِهَذَا، إِنَّمَا خُلِقْنَا لِحَرَاثَةِ الْأَرْضِ، فَقَالَ النَّاسُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ بَقْرَةٌ تَتَكَلَّمُ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِنِّي أَوْمِنُ بِهِ أَنَا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَمَا هُمَا ثُمَّ وَقَالَ بَيْنَمَا رَجُلٌ فِي غَنَمٍ لَهُ إِذْ عَدَّ الذَّنْبُ عَلَى شَاةٍ مِنْهَا فَأَخَذَهَا، فَأَذْرَكَهَا صَاحِبُهَا فَاسْتَقْدَمَهَا، فَقَالَ لَهُ الذَّنْبُ فَمَنْ لَهَا يَوْمَ السَّبْعِ يَوْمَ لَا رَاعِيَ لَهَا غَيْرِي؟ فَقَالَ النَّاسُ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ ذَنْبٌ يَتَكَلَّمُ فَقَالَ أَوْمِنُ بِهِ أَنَا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَمَا هُمَا ثُمَّ. (رواه البخارى)

(2012/61) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: A man was driving a cow but (soon) he got tired and mounted on its back. The cow muttered, "We were not created for this, but we were created to till the ground." So, (some of the people (there said, "Glory be to God! Can a cow speak?" Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I believe (that it did happen) and Abu Bakr and Umar too (believe)," although as the narrator said) they (both) were not present in that assembly. The Prophet ﷺ also said, "While a man was shepherding his sheep, a wolf attacked and seized one of them. The shepherd chased it and rescued the sheep, and the wolf said to him, "Who will (protect and care for) them on yawm us-sab' the day when there will be no shepherd for the sheep but I?" So, the people said, "Glory be to Allah! Does a wolf speak?" Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I believe that it is true and Abu Bakr and Umar too believe," though both of them were not there."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The reality of faith is that one should believe in whatever Allah's Messenger ﷺ says on being informed through revelation. One should not doubt it in the least even if it cannot be understood on the basis of normal working of world's affairs. Whatever the Prophet ﷺ said about the cow and wolf speaking was a fact and that is why some of those present expressed surprise and he assured them of its veracity by saying that he believed in it. And he also named Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه among the believers although both of them were not present in that assembly. Thus it was not that he had taken their names to please them and it is evidence, and his testimony, that both of them were nearest to him in perfect faith and that he singled them out for that. It is also an example of Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه statement in the previous Hadith that the Prophet ﷺ mentioned them with him. رضي الله عنهما وارضاهما

The words "yawm us-sab'" in the Hadith have not been translated. Commentators have forwarded various suggestions but I feel that they refer to the days near the Last Day when its signs are seen and men will cease to care for their animals who will wander about in the wild. Therefore, yawm us-sab' is the Day of the beasts. But Allah knows best.

(٢٠١٣/٦٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ
وَدَخَلَ الْمَسْجِدَ وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ أَحَدُهُمَا عَنْ يَمِينِهِ وَالْآخَرُ عَنْ شِمَالِهِ وَهُوَ
أَخَذَ بِأَيْدِيهِمَا فَقَالَ، "هَكَذَا نُبْعَثُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ". (رواه الترمذی)

(2013/62) Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہما said that one day the Prophet ﷺ came out and entered the mosque, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Umar رضی اللہ عنہ with him, to his right and left. The Prophet ﷺ had held their hands and he said, "The three of us will be raised on the Day of Resurrection in this way." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ displayed to the people that just as the three of them walked together that day, they would be with each other on the Day of Resurrection. Undoubtedly, this is their distinction shared by no one else and the Prophet ﷺ let other Companions رضی اللہ عنہم know of that.

(٢٠١٤/٦٣) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي لَا
أَدْرِي مَا بَقَائِي فَيَكُمُ فَاقْتَدُوا بِالَّذِينَ مِنْ بَعْدِي أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ. (رواه الترمذی)
(2014/63) Sayyidina Huzayfah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I do not know how long I will remain among you, so follow these two, Abu Bakr and Umar, after me." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: It was disclosed to the Prophet that he will be survived by Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ who will be his caliphs one after the other. So, he advised his Companions to obey them.

(٢٠١٥/٦٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ
وَعُمَرُ سَيِّدَا كَهُولِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مِنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَالْآخِرِينَ إِلَّا النَّبِيِّينَ وَالْمُرْسَلِينَ
(رواه الترمذی)

(2015/64) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Abu Bakr and Umar will be the chiefs of the middle-aged inhabitants of Paradise, the earliest and the latest except the Prophets and the Messengers." (Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ will be the chiefs of those people who reach middle age and died and are entitled to enter Paradise because of their righteous deeds irrespective of when they had lived in this world — the earliest times or the latest. Also, these two will be placed in a rank higher than the rest but lower than the Prophets and Messengers who will be superior most in Paradise. The same saying of the Prophet ﷺ is transmitted by Ibn Majah as narrated by Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه.

(٢٠١٦/٦٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا وَلَهُ وَزِيرَانِ مِنْ أَهْلِ السَّمَاءِ وَوَزِيرَانِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَأَمَّا وَزِيرَايَ مِنْ أَهْلِ السَّمَاءِ فَجِبْرِيلُ وَمِيكَائِيلُ وَأَمَّا وَزِيرَايَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَأَبُوبَكْرٌ وَعُمَرُ.

(رواه الترمذی)

(2016/65) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Every Prophet has two wazeer (ministers) from the dwellers of the heaven (angels) and two wazeer from the inhabitants of the earth. So, my wazeer from the dwellers of the heaven are Jibreel and Mika'eel and my wazeer from the earthlings are Abu Bakr and Umar."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet's ﷺ relationship with these two men was like the one of the head of the government with his ministers. He always consulted them..رضى الله عنهما وارضاهما

SAYYIDINA UTHMAN رضي الله عنه

(٢٠١٧/٦٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ اسْتَأْذَنَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُضْطَجِعٌ عَلَى فِرَاشِهِ عَلَيْهِ مِرْطٌ لِي، فَأَذِنَ لَهُ، وَهُوَ عَلَى حَالِهِ، فَقَضَى إِلَيْهِ حَاجَتَهُ، ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ، ثُمَّ اسْتَأْذَنَ عُمَرُ فَأَذِنَ لَهُ، وَهُوَ عَلَى تِلْكَ الْحَالَةِ فَقَضَى إِلَيْهِ حَاجَتَهُ، ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ، ثُمَّ اسْتَأْذَنَ عُثْمَانُ فَجَلَسَ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَصْلَحَ عَلَيْهِ ثِيَابَهُ، وَقَالَ اجْمَعِي عَلَيْكَ ثِيَابِي، فَأَذِنَ لَهُ، فَقَضَى إِلَيْهِ حَاجَتَهُ، ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ، فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ : لَمْ أَرَكَ فَرَعْتَ لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ كَمَا فَرَعْتَ لِعُثْمَانَ؟ فَقَالَ يَا عَائِشَةُ إِنَّ عُثْمَانَ رَجُلٌ حَيٌّ، وَإِنِّي خَشِيتُ أَنْ أَذِنْتُ لَهُ، عَلَى تِلْكَ الْحَالَةِ أَنْ لَا يَبْلُغَ إِلَيَّ حَاجَتَهُ..... وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ لَهَا أَلَا

أَسْتَحْي مِنْ رَجُلٍ تَسْتَحْي مِنْهُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ. (رواه مسلم)
 (2017/66) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said: (My father) Abu Bakr sought the Prophet's permission to come in. He was lying down on my bed and had covered himself with my cloak, and he gave him permission to enter and continued to lie down as he had been. (Abu Bakr came in) after discussing what he had to, he went away. Then Umar came and asked for permission to enter and was given that while the Prophet ﷺ continued to lie down as he had been. Then he too went away after attending to what had brought him. Then Uthman sought permission to come in, so the Prophet ﷺ sat up and arranged his garments and instructed me to cover myself up properly. He then gave him permission to enter (He came in and) after saying what he had come to say, he went away. (When he had gone) I submitted, "Messenger of Allah! I did not see you arranging yourself for Abu Bakr and Umar as you did for Uthman." He said, "Uthman is one who is (naturally inclined to be) modest. I feared that if I had called him while I lay as I had been then he (would have gone away soon and) would not have said what he had come to say."
 (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: How much was Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه overcome with modesty! And how much the Prophet ﷺ respected him for that!

In another version of this same Hadith also in Saheeh Muslim, the Prophet's ﷺ answer to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها was: "أَلَا" "Shall I not be modest to one to whom the angels are modest?"

It is worth remembering that this happened before the hijab was imposed. For, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was also a ghayr mahram for Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and the Prophet ﷺ did not ask her to observe hijab.

(٢٠١٨/٦٧) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ خَبَّابٍ قَالَ شَهِدْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَحُكُّ عَلَى تَجْهِيزِ جَيْشِ الْعُسْرَةِ فَقَامَ عُثْمَانُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَلَى مِائَةِ بَعِيرٍ بِأَخْلَاسِهَا وَأَقْتَابِهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ حَضَّ عَلَى الْجَيْشِ، فَقَامَ عُثْمَانُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَلَى مِائَةِ بَعِيرٍ بِأَخْلَاسِهَا وَأَقْتَابِهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ

حَضَّ عَلَى الْجَيْشِ، فَقَامَ عُثْمَانُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ عَلَى ثَلَاثِمِائَةِ بَعِيرٍ
بِأَحْلَاسِهَا وَأَقْتَابِهَا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ، فَأَنَا رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْزِلُ
مِنَ الْمِنْبَرِ وَهُوَ يَقُولُ، مَا عَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ هَذِهِ مَا عَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ
بَعْدَ هَذِهِ. (رواه الترمذی)

(2018/67) Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Khabbab رضی اللہ عنہ said that he presented himself before the Prophet ﷺ when (sitting on the minbar) he was urging people to help the jaysha al-ushrah (army of distress, for Battle of Tabook). Sayyidina Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ got up and said, "O Messenger of Allah! I am responsible for a hundred camels with their cloths and saddles (that is, with full equipment) in Allah's path. Afterwards, the Prophet ﷺ urged the people to help the army and Uthman got up again and said, "O Messenger of Allah! I am responsible for (another) two hundred camels with their cloths and saddles in Allah's path." Again the Prophet ﷺ appealed for help to the army and (for the third time) Uthman got up and said, "O Messenger of Allah! I am responsible for (another) three hundred camels with cloths and saddles in Allah's path." (Abdur Rahman ibn Khabbab رضی اللہ عنہ said that) he saw Allah's Messenger ﷺ coming down the minbar and saying: "مَا عَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ هَذِهِ" "Nothing will go against Uthman after what he has done today and his monetary sacrifice no matter what he does." He said that twice.

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ had decided in 9 AH to lead an army towards Shaam (Syria). They advanced till Tabook which was within the borders of Shaam during those days. The army encamped there for about twenty days and through Allah's Mercy, the objective was achieved without combat. So they returned from there and that is why the battle is known as the Battle of Tabook. The Hadith refers to the army as Jaysh al-Ushrah. The word ushrah means hardship, difficult times, distress. When they had advanced, Madinah was in the grip of famine and because of that, hard times. It was very hot. In terms of those days, the army was very large — a formidable thirty thousand, but they had a low number of riding beasts and very little provision. That is why it was called "جيش العسرة" jaysh al-usrah.

In view of that the Prophet ﷺ took extraordinary measures to urge people to contribute physically and monetarily to war efforts. It was not his practice to make such appeals for help in battles. Sayyidina Uthman contributed most in this battle. He gave six hundred camels with cloths and saddles. The exponents of Hadith have said on the basis of other Ahadith that he contributed another three hundred and fifty camels too, fifty horses and one thousand Ashrafis. The Prophet ﷺ accepted these gifts of Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ and in the presence of all people said: “مَاعَلَى عُثْمَانَ مَاعَمِلٌ بَعْدَ هَذِهِ” which means that this deed and this sacrifice by themselves are enough for Uthman to gain Paradise and Allah's pleasure. If we picture the difficult conditions for which this army was known as the army of distress then we will estimate his contribution more highly.

(Details of this battle may be seen in books of seerah and history.)

(٢٠١٩/٦٨) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ عُثْمَانُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِأَلْفِ دِينَارٍ فِي كُمِهِ حِينَ جَهَّزَ جَيْشَ الْعُسْرَةِ فَنَشَرَهَا فِي حِجْرِهِ، فَرَأَيْتُهُ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْلِبُهَا فِي حِجْرِهِ وَيَقُولُ مَا ضَرَّ عُثْمَانَ مَاعَمِلٌ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ مَرَّتَيْنِ. (رواه احمد)

(2019/68) Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Samurah ﷺ reported that when the Prophet ﷺ was making arrangements for necessary things for the jaysh al-usrah (army of distress for the Battle of Tabook). Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ brought one thousand dinars (ashrafis) in his sleeve and put them in the Prophet's ﷺ lap. (Abdur Rahman ibn Samurah ﷺ said:) I saw the Prophet turning them over in his lap and saying: “مَا ضَرَّ عُثْمَانَ مَاعَمِلٌ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ” (Nothing will harm Uthman after today whatever he does.) He said that twice.

Commentary: The turning of the Ashrafis over in his lap was to display his inner pleasure.

We had read in the previous Hadith that the Prophet ﷺ had given Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ similar glad tidings when he had donated camels. True Believers do not become neglectful on receiving such tidings. Rather, they are inspired to seek Allah's pleasure and to love Him with a greater religious zeal.

(٢٠٢٠/٦٩) عَنْ أَنَسٍ، قَالَ : قَالَ لَمَّا أَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَبَيْعَةِ الرِّضْوَانِ كَانَ عُثْمَانُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى مَكَّةَ، فَبَايَعَ النَّاسُ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "إِنَّ عُثْمَانَ فِي حَاجَةِ اللَّهِ وَحَاجَةِ رَسُولِهِ" فَضَرَبَ بِأُحْدَى يَدَيْهِ عَلَى الْأُخْرَى فَكَانَتْ يَدُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعُثْمَانَ خَيْرًا مِنْ أَيْدِيهِمْ لِأَنفُسِهِمْ. (رواه الترمذی)

(2020/69) Sayyidina Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said: When Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked people (at Hudaybiyah) to take the Bayat Ridwan (oath of allegiance of Allah's pleasure), Uthman had gone to Makkah as an envoy of Allah's Messenger. When all those (who were present) took the oath of allegiance, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Uthman (is not here and) has gone to Makkah on work for Allah and His Messenger. (If he were here, he would have sworn allegiance with all of you, so I will take the oath on his behalf)." Then he struck one of his hand on his other hand (as is done in swearing allegiance). (Sayyidina Anas, the narrator, who was one of those who took the oath, said:) The hand of Allah's Messenger with which he took the oath on their own behalf. (Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Bayat Ridwan is a well-known case. It is also mentioned in the Qur'an.

In 6 AH, the Prophet ﷺ decided to go to Makkah to perform Umrah. He had seen a dream and his Companions رضی اللہ عنہم had insisted on the journey. Everyone who learnt of his intention, joined in with him to perform Umrah. Their number rose to one thousand four hundred. They did not inform the Makkans aforehand because they had formed an intention to perform Umrah, the month was Zu Qu'dah which is one of the sacred months and even the idolaters respected these months during which they refrained from fighting. However, the idolaters of Makkah were the worst enemies of the Prophet ﷺ and Islam and when they learnt of his intention, they resolved not to let the Muslims enter Makkah. At Hudaybiyah (more than twenty miles from Makkah), the Prophet ﷺ learnt of their resolve, so he broke journey there with his Companions رضی اللہ عنہم and sent Sayyidina Uthman to Makkah as his envoy. He was chosen because some of the Quraysh leaders were related to him and his mission was to convince their chiefs that the Muslims had come only to perform Umrah whereafter they would return to Madinah.

Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه did not return when he was expected back and the Muslims were conveyed the news somehow that the disbelievers had killed him. The Prophet ﷺ and his Companions رضي الله عنهم were saddened at this news and he took an oath from them to fight jihad in Allah's cause and be prepared for martyrdom. This oath of allegiance was taken under a tree. The Qur'an proclaims that Allah was specially pleased with those who swore allegiance and it is known as Bay'at Ridwan.

While all the Companions رضي الله عنهم who were present at Hudaibiyah placed their hands on the Prophet's ﷺ as a token of their allegiance, the Prophet ﷺ placed one of his hands on the other on behalf of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه who was at Makkah. Indeed, this is among the greatest merits of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه.

It was learnt later that he was alive. He came back from Makkah with the news that the idolaters were not prepared to let the Muslims perform Umrah. Their envoys came to the Prophet ﷺ one after the other and finally the Peace Treaty of Hudaibiyah was concluded which the Qur'an has characterised as "فتح مبین" fath mubeen (a clear victory). Readers may see books of history and seerah for details on the event.

(٢٠٢١/٧٠) عَنْ مُرَّةَ بْنِ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ : سَمِعْتُ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَذَكَرَ الْفِتْنَةَ فَقَرَّ بِهَا فَمَرَّ رَجُلٌ مُقَنَّعٌ فِي ثَوْبٍ فَقَالَ "هَذَا يَوْمِيذٌ عَلَى الْهُدَى" فَقُمْتُ إِلَيْهِ فَإِذَا هُوَ عُثْمَانُ ابْنُ عَفَّانَ، قَالَ : فَأَقْبَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ بِوَجْهِهِ فَقُلْتُ : هَذَا؟ قَالَ "نعم"

(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجه)

(2021/70) Sayyidina Murrah ibn Ka'ab رضي الله عنه reported that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying about some of the mischief that will arise in the ummah after his death. He referred to them as happening in near future. A man passed by (while he was speaking) and the Prophet ﷺ said pointing out to him. "This man will follow guidance during the coming days of trial." (The narrantor, Murrah, on hearing that from the Prophet ﷺ) went towards the man (to see who he was) and saw that he was Uthman ibn Affan. Murrah made him face the Prophet ﷺ and asked, "Is he the one (about whom you said that he would follow guidance in times of trial)?" He said, "Yes (he is the one)!"

(Tirmizi Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The Prophet said that Sayyidina Uthman ؓ would emerge as the rightly-guided one in the fitan that would take place after the Prophet's ﷺ death. The very first fitan was a civil war against Sayyidina Uthman ؓ himself and he was killed very mercilessly in that. In view of the Prophet's ﷺ sayings, the ahl us-Sunnah believe that Sayyidina Uthman ؓ was on the right path and those who obstructed him were on the wrong path نَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ تَعَالَى مِنَ الشُّرُورِ وَالْفِتَنِ مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ.

(we seek refuge in Allah from mischiefs and trials — the apparent among them and the unseen.)

(٢٠٢٢/٧١) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى الْأَشْعَرِيِّ، قَالَ: كُنْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حَائِطٍ مِنْ حِيطَانِ الْمَدِينَةِ، فَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ فَاسْتَفْتَحَ، فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "اِفْتَحْ لَهُ، وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ" فَفَتَحْتُ لَهُ، فَإِذَا أَبُو بَكْرٍ، فَبَشَّرْتُهُ، بِمَا قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ فَاسْتَفْتَحَ، فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "اِفْتَحْ لَهُ، وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ" فَفَتَحْتُ لَهُ، فَإِذَا عُمَرُ، فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ، بِمَا قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللَّهُ، ثُمَّ اسْتَفْتَحَ رَجُلٌ، فَقَالَ لِي "اِفْتَحْ لَهُ، وَبَشِّرْهُ بِالْجَنَّةِ، عَلَى بَلْوَى تُصِيبُهُ"، فَإِذَا عُثْمَانُ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُ، بِمَا قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَحَمِدَ اللَّهُ، ثُمَّ قَالَ اللَّهُ الْمُسْتَعَانُ

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(2022/71) Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ari ؓ said: I was with the Prophet ﷺ in a garden of Madinah when someone came and requested for the gate to be opened. So the Prophet ﷺ said, "Open the gate for him and give him the glad tidings of Paradise." I opened the gate and found that he was Abu Bakr. I gave him the tidings of Paradise and he praised Allah. Then, another person came and requested that the gate should be opened, and the Prophet ﷺ said, "Open the gate for him and convey to him the good news of Paradise." So, I opened the gate to find Umar at it and I told him what the Prophet ﷺ had said and he praised Allah. Then someone else asked that the gate should be opened. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Open the gate for him and give him glad tidings of Paradise against a great calamity that he will face." I (opened the gate and) found Uthman there. I told him what the Prophet ﷺ had said and he praised Allah and said الله المستعان (Allah is the Helper against the calamity which I will face).

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Hadith uses the word حائط (Ha'it) for 'garden'. It is an enclosed garden and has four walls around it and a gate leads into it. (In another version of this Hadith it is stated that the Prophet ﷺ had deputed Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ashary رضي الله عنه to guard the gate and allow no one in without his permission.) In each of the cases, Abu Musa رضي الله عنه had not known who was on the other side of the gate until he had opened it and in the first two cases the Prophet's ﷺ instructions were indential. The third time the Prophet ﷺ said that the person should be allowed in, giving the glad tidings but also told of a calamity he would face. Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, the man on the other side of the gate, thanked Allah and sought His help against the calamity. We shall know more about the hardship he was to face from the following Ahadith.

(٢٠٢٣/٧٢) وَعَنْ ثُمَامَةَ بْنِ حَزَمٍ الْقَشِيرِيِّ، قَالَ شَهِدْتُ الدَّارَ حِينَ أَشْرَفَ عَلَيْهِمْ عُثْمَانُ فَقَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ وَلَيْسَ بِهَا مَاءٌ يُسْتَعَذَّبُ غَيْرَ بئرِ رُوْمَةَ فَقَالَ : "مَنْ يَشْتَرِي بِئرَ رُوْمَةَ يَجْعَلْ دَلْوَهُ مَعَ دِلَاءِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ بِخَيْرِ لَهُ مِنْهَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ" فَاشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنْ صُلْبِ مَالِي وَأَنْتُمْ الْيَوْمَ تَمْنَعُونَنِي أَنْ أَشْرَبَ مِنْهَا حَتَّى أَشْرَبَ مِنْ مَاءِ الْبَحْرِ؟ فَقَالُوا : اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ : فَقَالَ : أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ، هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ ضَاقَ بِأَهْلِهِ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : "مَنْ يَشْتَرِي بُقْعَةً أَلٍ فَلَانٍ فَيَرِيذُهَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ بِخَيْرِ لَهُ مِنْهَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ؟ فَاشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنْ صُلْبِ مَالِي فَأَنْتُمْ الْيَوْمَ تَمْنَعُونَنِي أَنْ أَصَلِّيَ فِيهَا رَكْعَتَيْنِ؟ فَقَالُوا : اللَّهُمَّ نَعَمْ : قَالَ أُنْشِدُكُمْ اللَّهَ وَالْإِسْلَامَ، هَلْ تَعْلَمُونَ إِنِّي جَهَّزْتُ

جَيْشِ الْعُسْرَةِ مِنْ مَالِي؟ قَالُوا : اَللّٰهُمَّ نَعَمْ، قَالَ اُنْشِدْكُمْ اللّٰهَ وَالْاِسْلَامَ، هَلْ تَعْلَمُوْنَ اَنْ رَّسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ عَلٰى نَبِيْرِ مَكَّةَ وَمَعَهُ اَبُو بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُؓ وَاَنَا فَتَحَرَّكَ الْجَبَلُ حَتّٰى تَسَاقَطَتْ حِجَارَتُهُ بِالْحَضِيضِ، فَرَكَضَهُ بِرِجْلِهِ قَالَ : اُسْكُنْ نَبِيْرًا ! فَاِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ نَبِيٌّ وَصِدِّيْقٌ وَشَهِيدَانِ قَالُوا اَللّٰهُمَّ نَعَمْ قَالَ اللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ ! شَهِدُوْا وَرَبِّ الْكَعْبَةِ اِنِّىْ شَهِيدٌ ثَلَاثًا .

(رواه الترمذى ، والنسائى والدارقطنى)

(2023/72) Thumarah ibn Hazm al-Qushayri رحمه الله said: I was present at Uthman's رحمه الله house when he addressed (the rebels who had surrounded his house) from the upper room: I adjure you by Allah and Islam, (and ask you) Are you aware that when Allah's Messenger ﷺ came to Madinah (having observed the hijrah), there was no well of fresh water apart from Bi'r Ruma (and that belonged to a Jew who sold its water at a high price). Allah's Messenger asked, "Who among Allah's slaves will buy it and allow all Muslims to take its water that Allah might give him better than that in Paradise?" So, I bought it from my capital (and placed it in waqf). And today you forbid me its water so that I am compelled to drink salty water." They answered نعم اللهم (By Allah, Yes!).

Then Uthman again said: I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you know the mosque built by Allah's Messenger ﷺ became too small for the worshippers, so he said, "Which slave of Allah will buy the piece of land of so-and-so family (which is adjacent to the mosque) and add it to our mosque so Allah might grant him a better piece in Paradise?" So, I bought it from my capital (and added it to the mosque). And today you prevent me from offering two raka'at salah in it." So they said, اللهم نعم (By Allah, yes!)

Uthman then said: I adjure you by Allah and Islam, do you know I had equipped the army of the Battle of Tabook from my capital? They confirmed نعم اللهم (By Allah, yes!).

Then he said to them: I adjure you by Allah and Islam and ask you, do you know that Allah's Messenger ﷺ was on the mountain Thabir in Makkah and Abu Bakr, Umar and I were with him when the mountain shook and its stones fell down on the ground below, so he kicked his foot hard on the mountain and said اسكن ثبير (Stop Thabir!) because, at this time, a Prophet, a Truthful one and two martyrs are on you?" The people confirmed that اللهم نعم.

Then Uthman said: Allahu Akbar! They too have testified. (And he also said:) By the Lord of the Ka'bah. I am (going to be) a martyr. He said that thrice. (Jami Tirmizi, Sunan Nasai, Daraqutni)

Commentary: After Sayyidina Umar ؓ was martyred, the committee he had formed selected Sayyidina Uthman ؓ as Khalifah. He was as unanimously accepted Khalifah as Umar ؓ before him and Abu Bakr ؓ before Umar ؓ. He remained Khalifah for about twelve years. Towards the last years of his office, the civil strike showed signs of emergence which the Prophet ﷺ had spoken of frequently. The siege to which this Hadith refers was the last step by the rebels. The siege was laid by the rebels of Egypt and Iraq who were incited by a hypocrite Abdullah ibn Saba who was really a Jew. (Facts about this mischief may be seen in books on seerah and history).

The siege was so severe that Sayyidina Uthman ؓ could not even go to the mosque and water could not be provided to him and his family. The rebels demanded that he should resign from office, but Sayyidina Uthman ؓ cited a guidance of Allah's Messenger ﷺ whereby he considered it better to give up his life at the hands of the rebels.

Sayyidina Uthman ؓ was Khalifah of the world's biggest and strongest government and the rebellion could have been crushed easily. But, he did neither command nor permit anyone to use force against the rebels. He was very compassionate. Besides, he could not allow killing of a fellow Muslim to save his own life, so, till the last moment, he tried to pacify the rebels through negotiations, his address which is referred to in the Hadith was part of these negotiations. The narrator of the Hadith, Thumamah ؓ, heard this address with his own ears. His final words suggest that he had known that the culmination would be martyrdom as foretold by the Prophet ﷺ frequently. Thus, he resigned himself to innocent martyrdom and his was a unique example of innocent martyrdom and sacrifice. We will see shortly the account of how he prepared himself for martyrdom.

The Hadith tells us of the Mount Thabir which rocked when the Prophet ﷺ and his three Companions ﷺ were on top of it. The Prophet gave it a kick and asked it to stop, for, it had those people on it. A similar case took place at Uhud in Madinah as we will read in the following Hadith.

(٢٠٢٤/٧٣) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَعِدَ أَحَدًا وَأَبُوبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَعُثْمَانُ، فَرَجَفَ بِهِمْ، فَضْرَبَهُ بِرِجْلِهِ، فَقَالَ أَتُبْتُ أَحَدًا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْكَ نَبِيٌّ وَصِدِّيقٌ وَشَهِيدَانِ.

(رواه البخارى)
(2024/73) Sayyidina Anas ﷺ said that (one day) the Prophet ﷺ ascended the Mount Uhud and Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman (accompanied him). The Mount Uhud began to shiver because of them (and it shook), so the Prophet kicked it with his foot and said, "O Uhud! Stop! at this moment, a Prophet of Allah, a Siddiq (Truthful one) and two martyrs are on you."

(Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: Undoubtedly the movement in the mountain was a miracle of the Prophet, and naming two martyrs Sayyidina Umar ﷺ and Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ, was another miracle. The former was martyred about twelve years after and the latter twenty four years after the Prophet's ﷺ death. Surely, he was informed by Allah's wahy.

(٢٠٢٥/٧٤) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَا عُثْمَانُ! إِنَّهُ لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ يَقْمِصُكَ فَمِصًّا فَإِنْ أَرَادُوكَ عَلَى خَلْعِهِ فَلَا تَخْلَعْهُ لَهُمْ.

(رواه الترمذى وابن ماجه)

(2025/74) Sayyidina Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that the Prophet ﷺ said to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ (one day), "O Uthman! Perhaps Allah will clothe you with a shirt, and if people ask you to take it off then do not take it off on their saying."

(Jami Tirmizi, Sunan Ibn Majah)

Commentary: The exponents of Hadith interpret it as Allah would grant him caliphate and then he must not listen to them and must not resign. This instruction of the Prophet ﷺ is acknowledged by Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ himself in the following Hadith.

(٢٠٢٦/٧٥) عَنْ أَبِي سَهْلَةَ قَالَ لِي عُثْمَانُ يَوْمَ الدَّارِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ عَاهَدَ إِلَيَّ عَهْدًا فَأَنَا صَابِرٌ عَلَيْهِ .
(رواه الترمذی)

(2026/75) Abu Sahlah said, "Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام said to me on the day his house was besieged and he was martyred that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had given him an instruction to which he would adhere with patience."
(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: Abu Sahlah was the freed slave of Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام. He was present in the house at the time of the siege. He joined other sympathisers in asking him to use force to which Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام replied in the words we have read in the Hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها above.

He was finally killed — an innocent martyr — while he adhered to the Prophet's ﷺ instructions.

(٢٠٢٧/٧٦) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذَكَرَ فِتْنَةً وَقَالَ يُقْتَلُ هَذَا فِيهَا مَظْلُومًا يَعْنِي عُثْمَانَ .
(رواه الترمذی)

(2027/76) Sayyidina Ibn Umar عليه السلام reported that the Prophet ﷺ mentioned a great civil strife and, referring to Sayyidina Uthman, said, "This man will be martyred wrongfully."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: Indeed, this saying is another of the Prophet's miracles for he let his Companions عليهم السلام know of a fitan that would take place some twenty four years after his death. Obviously, this was disclosed to him by Allah through a wahy.

(٢٠٢٨/٧٧) عَنْ مُسْلِمِ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ مَوْلَى عُثْمَانَ إِنَّ عُثْمَانَ أَعْتَقَ عِشْرِينَ عَبْدًاوَدَعَا بِسَرَاوِيلَ فَشَدَّهَا عَلَيْهِ وَلَمْ يَلْبَسْهَا فِي جَاهِلِيَّةٍ وَلَاإِسْلَامٍ وَقَالَ إِنِّي رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْبَارِحَةَ فِي الْمَنَامِ وَأَبَا بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ، فَقَالُوا لِي: إِصْبِرْ فَإِنَّكَ تُفْطِرُ عِنْدَنَا الْقَابِلَةَ فَدَعَا بِمُصْحَفٍ فَنَشَرَهُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ فَقَتَلَ وَهُوَ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ
(رواه ابن احمد والموصلي)

(2028/77) The freed slave of Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام, Muslim ibn Sa'eed, reported that (on the day he was martyred) Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام set twenty slaves free and asked for seraweel (trousers) to be brought to him (and wore that), and he bound them up on him strongly. He had never worn them before, neither in pre-Islamic days nor during Islam. He said, "Last night I saw the Prophet ﷺ in my dream and Abu Bakr and Umar with him. They said to me: Uthman, be patient. You will break fast tomorrow with us." He then asked for (a copy of) the Qur'an to be brought to him and, placing it before him, he opened it (and began reciting from it). He was then martyred while the Qur'an was before him.

(Musnad Ahmad, Musnad Abu Ya'la Moosli)

Commentary: Sayyidina Uthman ؓ had realised through his firm faith that the rebels would martyr him and his dream was the last unseen message. He then made all preparations for his martyrdom. The morning after the dream was Friday and he kept a fast and did many righteous deeds. He released twenty slaves and wore trousers which he had never worn. The Arabs generally wore the tahband (a lower garment wrapped round the waist) which he too wore always. However, because he was too modest, he wore trousers instead of tahband on that day and he bound them to his waist strongly so that even after martyrdom this portion of his body should not be exposed. He then sat down to recite the Qur'an and the rebels killed him in this state. We learn from reports that he was reciting the end of part 1 of the Qur'an and was at the verse 137 of al-Baqarah:

فَسَيَكْفِيكَهُمُ اللَّهُ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ. (البقرة ١٣٧)

{So Allah will suffice you against them; and He is the Hearer, the Knower}

This is Allah's proclamation that He would seize revenge from the cruel people.

(We have sufficed to translate and explain the Ahadith briefly. Details may be seen in Shah Waliullah's "ازالة الخفا" Izalat ul-Khafa and seerah and history books.)

The Ahadith of Sayyidina Uthman mentioned so far have not recalled his two important merits which distinguish him from all Companions and rightly-guided Caliphs. He was married to two of the daughters of the Prophet ﷺ one after the other, and was thus known as zun nurayn (he of two lights). The second distinction was that he migrated with the Prophet's ﷺ daughter, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها twice first from Makkah to Ethopia, and the second to Madinah. Let us see a few Ahadith on these things.

(٢٠٢٩/٧٨) عَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ أَوَّلَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى الْحَبَشَةِ بِأَهْلِهِ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عَفَّانٍ فَخَرَجَ وَخَرَجَ مَعَهُ بِابْنَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاحْتَبَسَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُهُمَا فَجَعَلَ يَخْرُجُ يَتَوَكَّفُ الْأَخْبَارَ فَقَدِمَتْ امْرَأَةٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ مِنْ أَرْضِ الْحَبَشَةِ فَسَأَلَهَا فَقَالَتْ: يَا أَبَا الْقَاسِمِ! رَأَيْتُهُمَا قَالَ: عَلَى أَيِّ حَالٍ رَأَيْتَهُمَا؟ قَالَتْ: رَأَيْتُهُ، وَقَدْ حَمَلَهَا عَلَى حِمَارٍ مِنْ هَذِهِ لِدَبَابَةٍ وَهُوَ يَسُوقُ بِهَا يَمْشِي خَلْفَهَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَحِبَهُمَا اللَّهُ إِنَّ كَانَ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ عَفَّانٍ لَأَوَّلَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ إِلَى اللَّهِ بِأَهْلِهِ بَعْدَ لُوطٍ.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الکبیر والبیہقی وابن عساکر)

(2029/78) Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه Said that the first of the Muslims to set on hijrah was Sayyidina Uthman ibn Affan رضى الله عنه. He took his wife (Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها, the daughter of the Prophet رضى الله عنه) along with him to Ethiopia. (Then for a long time) Allah's Messenger رضى الله عنه did not receive any news from them and he used to go out and wait for information and try to get news from someone. So a woman of the Quraysh came (to Makkah) from Ethiopia and he asked her (about them). She said, "Abul Qasim! I have seen them both." He asked, "How did you find them?" She said, "I saw Uthman had made Ruqayyah sit on a slow-moving *himar*¹ and he followed her on foot." Allah's Messenger رضى الله عنه said, "May Allah be with them! (And may He protect them!)" He then remarked, "After (Allah's Messenger رضى الله عنه) Lut, Uthman is the first person who has taken his wife along on hijrah in Allah's path." (Mu'jam Kabeer, Tabarani, Bayhaqi, Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: Four daughters were born on Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها, the first wife of the Prophet رضى الله عنه. They were Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها, Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها, Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها and Fatimah رضى الله عنها. (They were apart from two or three sons who died in childhood). The eldest, Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was married to Abu al-Aas ibn al-Rabee' and she continued to reside with him. Sayyidah Ruqayyah and Umm Khuthum were betrothed to the two sons of the Prophet's ﷺ uncle, Abu Lahab, Utbah and Utaybah. Before they could be married, the Prophet ﷺ gave the call of Islam and Abu Lahab and his wife opposed him tooth and nail and even harassed him. The surah Lahab was revealed condemning Abu Lahab and his wife, Umm Jamil. So, they compelled their sons to renounce their engagement with the Prophet's daughters. This was, indeed the working of Allah's ways to prevent the righteous daughters going into an impure atmosphere.

①. It is a donkey, but the Mawlana has suggested in the Urdu text to leave it untranslated because it is bigger than the donkey in our country.

إِنَّ رَبِّي لَطِيفٌ لِّمَا يَشَاءُ (يوسف ١٠٠:١٢)

{Surely my Lord is Subtile unto whom He will} (Yusuf, 12:100)

Then the Prophet ﷺ married the elder of the two, Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها, to Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه. This was at Allah's command (as is known from another Hadith). The Makkans persecuted the initial Muslims and were very hard-hearted. The Prophet ﷺ had known that the Christian king of Ethiopia was a kind man and a just ruler. So, he advised his Companions that those who could may migrate to Ethiopia. Accordingly, some people decided to go and the first one to undertake the journey was Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه who took his wife Sayyidah Ruqayya رضي الله عنها, the Prophet's ﷺ daughter along. Then for quite some time there was no news from them till a woman came from there and informed the Prophet ﷺ that she had seen his daughter side ride a slow moving *himar*¹ and Uthman walked behind it. (Perhaps it was made to walk slowly that Sayyidah Ruqayyah might not feel uncomfortable.) The Prophet ﷺ prayed for them and commented that Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه was the first person after Prophet Lut عليه السلام to set on hijrah with his wife only for the sake of Allah — leaving behind home and everything. How difficult it must have been in those days to travel as far away as Ethiopia leaving behind everything.

This was the first hijrah (migration) in Islam and it was a small group of people who undertook it but it was soon followed by a larger group. They stayed there for many years, and Sayyidina Uthman too resided a few years whereafter he returned to Makkah, only to learn that the Prophet ﷺ had migrated to Madinah. So, he took his wife and son (Abdullah, born at Ethiopia) and migrated to Madinah. Thus he is the one who set on two hijrah (migrations) and has this distinction among the Khalifas too. رضى الله عنه وارضاه

❶. As stated in previous footnote though himar is a donkey, the Arabian donkey is larger so that word is retained.

In the second year, the Battle of Badr was fought. Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها fell ill during these days and the Prophet ﷺ instructed Sayyidina Uthman to stay behind and look after her. He assured him that Allah would reward him as a fighter at Badr, and he would also get a share in the spoils, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها could not recover and died before the Prophet's ﷺ return to Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ was much grieved at her death.

(٢٠٣٠/٧٩) عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقِيَ عُثْمَانَ بْنَ عَفَّانَ وَهُوَ مَغْمُومٌ لَهْفَانٌ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا شَأْنُكَ يَا عُثْمَانُ؟ قَالَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَأُمِّي وَهَلْ دَخَلَ عَلَى أَحَدٍ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَا دَخَلَ عَلَى تَوْفِيتِ بِنْتِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدِي رَحِمَهَا اللَّهُ وَأَنْقَطَعَ الظُّهْرُ وَذَهَبَ الصُّهْرُ فِيمَا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ إِلَى الْخِرَالِ أَبَدٍ، فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اتَّقُوا ذَلِكَ يَا عُثْمَانُ قَالَ إِي وَاللَّهِ أَقُولُهُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! فَبَيْنَمَا هُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ إِذْ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعُثْمَانَ، هَذَا جَبْرِيلُ يَا عُثْمَانُ! يَأْمُرُنِي عَنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ أَنْ أَرْوِّجَكَ أُنْخَتَهَا أَمْ كُلُّثُومٌ عَلَى مِثْلِ صِدَاقِهَا وَعَلَى مِثْلِ عَشْرَتِهَا فَرَوَّجَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيَّاهَا.

(رواه ابن عساکر)

(2030/79) Sayyidina Sa'eed ibn Musayyib reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ met Sayyidina Uthman ibn Affan رضى الله عنه who was very greived. Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to him (on seeing his condition), "Uthman what is wrong with you?" He said, "O Mesenger of Allah! May my parents be ransomed to you. Has anyone faced a tragedy as I have? Your daughter, my wife, has died. May Allah be merciful to her. My back is broken (from grief) and my relationship with you as your son-in-law has ceased with that (and I am thus deprived of the blessing)." Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to him, "Uthman, is it as you say (are you grieved at the loss)?" He said, "O Messenger of Allah! I say on oath that it is as I have said." Just as he was conversing with him, the Prophet ﷺ (interrupted himself and) said, "O Uthman! This is Jibreel! He has come with Allah's command that I should marry my daughter Ruqayyah's sister, Umm Kulthum, to you at the same dower and same conditions as were agreed for Ruqayyah." Then Allah's Messenger ﷺ married Umm Kulthum to Uthman. (Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: Sa'eed ibn Musayyib was a tabi'ee and he must have heard it from a Companion whose name he has not disclosed. Such Ahadith are called mursal. However, he is one of those great tabi'ee whose reports of this nature are accepted. Besides, this is supported by many other Ahadith.

(٢٠٣١/٨٠) عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ : إِنَّ اللَّهَ أَوْحَى إِلَيَّ أَنْ أَزَوِّجَ كَرِيمَتَيَّ مِنْ عُثْمَانَ. (رواه ابن عدى والدارقطنى وابن عساكر)
(2031/80) Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Allah Commanded me through wahy (revelation) that I should marry both my dear daughters to Uthman."

(Ibn Adi, Daraqutni, Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: We know from this Hadith too that the Prophet ﷺ had married his first daughter, Ruqayyah, to Sayyidina Uthman ؓ at Allah's Command and she died in the second year after hijrah. Then, he married his second daughter, Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها, too to Uthman ؓ at Allah's Command.

(٢٠٣٢/٨١) عَنْ عِصْمَةَ بِنِ مَالِكٍ الْخِطَمِيِّ قَالَ: لَمَّا مَاتَتْ بِنْتُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَحْتَ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : زَوِّجُوا عُثْمَانَ، لَوْ كَانَ لِي ثَلَاثَةٌ لَزَوَّجْتُه، وَمَا زَوَّجْتُه، إِلَّا بِأَوْحَى مِنَ اللَّهِ. (رواه ابن عساكر)

(2032/81) Sayyidina Ismah ibn Maalik al-Khitimmi ؓ reported that when the daughter of Allah's Messenger ﷺ died who had been married to Sayyidina Uthman ؓ (Sayyidah Umm Kulthum), he said to the people, "Get Uthman married. If I had a third daughter, I would have married her to Uthman. And, I had married my daughters to Uthman on the Command of Allah through wahy." (Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: Sayyidah Umm Kulthum was married to Sayyidina

Uthman after her elder sister had died in 2 AH but she herself died in 9 AH. So, the Prophet ﷺ advised his Companions ﷺ to marry their unmarried daughter or sister to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ. If he had a third unmarried daughter, he would have given her in marriage to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ, in which case, he would not have requested them. He also said that he did not marry his two daughters to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ on his own but was commanded by Allah to do that.

This shows how highly Uthman ﷺ was held in the sight of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ.

(٢٠٣٣/٨٢) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ: قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِ ابْنَتِهِ الْأَخِيرَةِ يَا عُثْمَانُ! لَوْ أَنَّ عِنْدِي عَشْرًا لَزَوَّجْتُكَهُنَّ وَاحِدَةً بَعْدَ وَاحِدَةٍ فَإِنِّي عَنْكَ رَاضٍ.

(رواه الطبرانی فی الاوسط والدارقطنی فی الافراد ابن عساکر)

(2033/82) Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ said that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to him when his second daughter (Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها) died, "O Uthman! If I had ten daughters then I would have married (all of) them to you one after the other because I am very pleased and happy with you."

(Ma'jam Awsat, Tabarani, Afrad, Daraqutni, Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: We had read in the Hadith prior to the above that on the death of Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها the Prophet ﷺ had urged his Companions ﷺ to marry their unmarried daughter or sister to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ, saying that if he had a third daughter, he would have given her in marriage to him. In this Hadith, he is quoted as assuring Sayyidina Uthman that if he had ten daughters, he would give them in marriage to him one after the other. There is no contradiction in the two sayings, for, he was assuring Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ that he was pleased and happy with him. This was the best way to console Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ in his bereavement which spoke of the Prophet's nobility and extreme good manners صلى الله عليه وبارك وسلم. Some versions give a greater number, but the Prophet's objective is not contradicted by that.¹

①. The Shia scholars and writers of our times have begun to write such things as belie even their own earlier authorities whose statements are very clear. One of these is that the Prophet ﷺ had only one ... (Continued on Next Page...)

We close this chapter on merits of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه Zun Nurayn with the Hadith of Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه.

(٢٠٣٤/٨٣) عَنْ ثَابِتِ بْنِ عُبَيْدٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لِعَلِيِّ: يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِنِّي أَرْجِعُ إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ وَأَنْتُمْ سَائِلِي عَنْ عُثْمَانَ فَمَاذَا أَقُولُ لَهُمْ؟ قَالَ أَخْبِرْهُمْ أَنَّ عُثْمَانَ كَانَ مِنَ الَّذِينَ "أَمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَآمَنُوا ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَأَحْسَنُوا وَاللَّهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِينَ". (رواه ابن مردويه وابن عساكر)

(2034/83) Thabit ibn Ubayd رضي الله عنه reported that a man said to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, "I am going to Madinah. Those people will ask me about Uthman رضي الله عنه, so (tell me) what answer should I give them?" Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said, "Let them know that Uthman was among those worshippers of Allah (about whom Allah has said in the Qur'an):

أَمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَآمَنُوا ثُمَّ اتَّقَوْا وَأَحْسَنُوا وَاللَّهُ يُحِبُّ الْمُحْسِنِينَ (المائدة: ٩٣)

{Believe (firmly) and do righteous deeds, and again abstain (from the forbidden things) and believe (in Allah's commandments) then fear (Allah) and do good. And Allah loves the good-doers.}" (al-Ma'idah, 5:93) (Ibn Mardawiyah, Ibn Asakir)

(...Continued from Previous page...) daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها while the others were not his daughters but daughters of Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها from her former husband. This is a lie and an invention which only Shia scholars can dare to present. This is not the place to write on that in detail. Readers may refer to verse 59 of surah al-Ahzab on the veil ... يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لَأَزْوَاجَكُمْ (O Prophet, say to your wives and daughters... Both words 'wives' and 'daughters' are plural forms showing that he had many of each.

A far-sighted, researcher, scholar and writer of these times, Mawlana Muhammad Nafi' has written a very authoritative book on this subject Banat Arba'ah (Four Daughters). Spread over about four hundred and fifty pages the contents encompass the Ahadith of the books of ahl us sunnah on history and genealogy, also books of the Shias, the reports of their ma'soomineen scholars, and on history, genealogy. He has proved beyond doubt from these their own earlier authorities, that Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها, Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها were four daughters of the Prophet ﷺ. This book also gives a comprehensive life account of these daughters رضي الله عنهن and their respected mother, Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها. May Allah reward the writer Mawlana Nafi' with the best of rewards and may He accord his book approval among the scholars.

Commentary: Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام had made Kufa as the capital city. The man who was going to Madinah and had asked Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام the question was perhaps a close associate. He wondered how he should handle questions about Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام on the basis of Sayyidina Ali's عليه السلام views. We must remember that in those days Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام had become a disputed personality. He had been martyred and his killers claimed love for Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام. The answer Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام gave him is actually an extract of the text of verse 93 of surah al-Ma'idah. Man should pass a life of faith, righteous, deeds, God-fearing attitude (piety) and kindness. Such people will not be asked about anything in the Hereafter and they are loved by Allah. Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام was among these slaves of Allah.

We must bear in mind that the Prophet ﷺ had explained the word احسان (Ihsaan) used in this Hadith. He said a man may worship Allah and obey His Commands in such a way as though he sees Allah. Obviously, this is the highest degree of faith and belief. May Allah enable this writer and the readers to achieve something of the condition of ihsan.

SAYYIDINA ALI عليه السلام

(٢٠٣٥/٨٤) عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَوْمَ خَيْبَرَ: "لَأُعْطِينَ هَذِهِ الرَّأْيَةَ غَدًا رَجُلًا يَفْتَحُ اللَّهُ عَلَى يَدَيْهِ يُحِبُّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَيُحِبُّهُ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ،" فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحَ النَّاسُ غَدَوْا عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّهُمْ يَرْجُونَ أَنْ يُعْطَاهَا فَقَالَ "أَيْنَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ؟" فَقَالُوا: هُوَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ يَشْتَكِي عَيْنَيْهِ قَالَ: فَارْسِلُوا إِلَيْهِ" فَاتَى بِهِ فَبَصَقَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي عَيْنَيْهِ فَبَرَأَ حَتَّى كَانَ لَمْ يَكُنْ بِهِ وَجَعٌ فَأَعْطَاهُ الرَّأْيَةَ فَقَالَ عَلِيُّ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! أَقَاتِلْهُمْ حَتَّى يَكُونُوا مِثْلَنَا؟ قَالَ: "انْفُذْ عَلَى رِسَالِكَ حَتَّى تَنْزِلَ بِسَاحَتِهِمْ، ثُمَّ ادْعُهُمْ إِلَى الْإِسْلَامِ، وَاخْبِرْهُمْ بِمَا يَجِبُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ حَقِّ اللَّهِ فِيهِ فَوَاللَّهِ لَأَنْ يَهْدِيَ اللَّهُ بِكَ رَجُلًا وَاحِدًا خَيْرٌ لَكَ مِنْ أَنْ يَكُونَ

لَكَ حُمْرُ النَّعَمِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2035/84) Sayyidina Sahl ibn Sa'd رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said on the day of Khaybar, "Tomorrow, I will give this banner to one at whose hands Allah will give us victory over Khaybar. He loves Allah and His Messenger and Allah and His Messenger love him.." In the morning, the people came to Allah's Messenger ﷺ, all of them hoping to be given the banner. But he said, "Where is Ali ibn Abu Talib?" They said, "He has pain in his eyes (so he has not come here)." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Send someone to bring him here." So, he was called. Then Allah's Messenger ﷺ put his saliva in both his eyes and he recovered as though he never had pain in his eyes. He then gave him the banner (a sign that he would be commander of the army that day). Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, shall I fight them till they become like us (and become Muslims)?" He said, "Go forward gently until you are in their region. Invite them to Islam. Tell them what rights of Allah they have to give. By Allah! If one of their men is guided to Allah through you then that is better for you than your receiving red camels in spoils of war."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Khaybar is about 184 km (125 miles) from Madinah to its south. The Jews lived there. They were the ones who had been driven out of Shaam (Syria) in the past and had settled here. They were all wealthy people. At Khaybar they had built strong forts and they possessed a large inventory of weapons and ammunition for war. Their lands were green and fertile.

Those Jews who were expelled from the surrounding areas of Madinah for their rebellion and mischief had also settled here. They bore tremendous malice for the Muslims, and always conspired against them. Therefore, they were a constant threat to the Muslims.

In 6 AH, the Prophet ﷺ returned to Madinah from Hudaibiyah after concluding a 10 year peace treaty with the Quraysh. He spent almost the whole month of Zul Hajjah at Madinah. In Muharrum 7 AH, he advanced to Khaybar to tackle the dangerous enemy there. He had only 1500 Companions رضي الله عنهم in his army. They encamped near Khaybar at a suitable place. He invited them to join Islam but if they were reluctant then they should pay the jizyah. If they rejected both proposals then the Muslims would fight them as they were commanded by Allah to fight them till they became Muslims or paid the jizyah.

The Jews of Khaybar rejected all proposals arrogantly and were ready to fight.

They had plenty of war weapons and abundant provision in their strong forts and were confident that the Muslims could never gain victory over them. The war began. The Muslims captured their forts one after another but one of their forts defied them. Every Muslim effort was repulsed. It was then that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Tomorrow I will give the standard to one who loves Allah and His Messenger and is dear to them, and Allah will give us perfect victory at his hands." Either the Jews will accept Islam or become subservient to us and pay the jizyah." The Prophet ﷺ did not name the man to whom he hoped to give the banner but only said what we have read in the Hadith and, indeed, that was a great honour and merit and many people cherished it, Sayyidina Ali ؑ was not present. The next day when the Prophet ﷺ asked for him, he was told that he suffered from eye trouble. The Prophet ﷺ instructed the people to send someone to fetch him and when he came he applied his salvia to both his eyes and he was relieved of pain right on the moment. Then the Prophet ﷺ gave him the standard, a sign that he would lead the army that day. Sayyidina Ali ؑ then sought instruction on what he had to do and the Prophet ﷺ said to him, "If Allah guides even a single person at your hands and he believes then that is better for you than your collecting spoils of war that comprise many red camels." (Red camels were then regarded precious treasure by the Arabs). The Prophet ﷺ was very clear, "Our aim is not to collect the war booty. Our main aim is that Allah's creatures may be guided." This should be the objective of jihad and warriors must conduct themselves accordingly. The narrator has narrated the Hadith only to the extent Sayyidina Ali's merits are disclosed, no further. He has not touched upon the battle itself or the result which was as the Prophet ﷺ had said — victory at the hands of Sayyidina Ali ؑ. We can read about the battle in books of seerah and history.

We learnt of two miracles of the Prophet ﷺ in this Hadith. (1) He applied his salvia in the eyes of Sayyidina Ali ؓ and they were restored to normality. (2) He foretold outright victory for the Muslims.

The lesson we learn from the Hadith is that Sayyidina Ali ؓ loved Allah and His Messenger and he was dear to them too. Paradise belongs to Allah! This indeed is the belief of the alhus-sunnah wal Jama'at. However, it does not follow that no one else has this honour. In fact, every believer has this honour according to the degree of his belief. The Qur'an says:

”قُلْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّونَ اللَّهَ فَاتَّبِعُونِي يُحْبِبْكُمُ اللَّهُ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ“ (آل عمران ٣:٣١)

{Say: "If you love Allah then follow me. Allah will love you, and forgive you your sins. And Allah is forgiving, Merciful.}

(Aal-Imran, 3:31)

(٢٠٣٦/٨٥) عَنْ زُرَّيْنِ حُبَيْشٍ قَالَ، قَالَ عَلِيٌّ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ : وَالَّذِي فَلَقَ

الْحَبَّةَ وَبَرَأَ النَّسَمَةَ أَنَّهُ لَعَهْدَ النَّبِيِّ الْأُمِّيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى أَنْ

لَا يُحِبُّنِي إِلَّا مُؤْمِنٌ وَلَا يُبْغِضُنِي إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ.

(رواه مسلم)

(2036/85) Zirr bin Hubaysh reported that Sayyidina Ali ؓ said, "By Him Who split the Grain and created the soul, the unlettered Prophet ﷺ told me particularly that only a truthful believer shall love me and a hypocrite would hate me.

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Indeed, Allah bestowed his choicest blessings on Sayyidina Ali ؓ. He was among the first people to accept the Prophet's ﷺ call. He was the Prophet's ﷺ paternal cousin and the Prophet ﷺ loved him. He was married to the Prophet's ﷺ daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها and thus had the honour of being his son-in-law. He accompanied the Prophet ﷺ in most of the battles and always fought courageously putting his life at risk he achieved great feats. Indeed, he loved Allah and His Messenger and was loved by them. In short, these merits and many others entitle him to be loved by every true believer. If anyone dislikes him then it must be understood that he is a hypocrite.

Nevertheless, love for him is only that love which is approved by Allah and His Messenger ﷺ and is within the limits of Shari'ah otherwise those people are also claimants who regard him divine, or those who hold that Allah had sent Jibreel عليه السلام to him but he went to Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ ibn Abdullah by mistake. Similarly, there are the Shias of the Isma'ili and Nasriyah sects who hold the polytheistic beliefs that their Imams are images of God and own Divine attributes and capabilities. Also, the Ithna ashriyah hold that eleven people of Sayyidina Ali's descendants are named by Allah as innocent Imams in the same way as Prophets are named and they are worthy of worship, superior to all previous Prophets, recipients of wahy and the Book, performers of miracle and having authority over the universe. Obviously, this love is like the love of the Christians for Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام who were led by that love to polytheism and Hell. Those who love Sayyidina Ali in the above ways are polytheists — associators with Allah or with the Prophet ﷺ. He is absolved of them and fed up with them. The love for Sayyidina Ali ﷺ that is approved by Allah and His Messenger is the one that the righteous men of the ahl us-sunnah wal Jama'at have for him.

Those who hate Sayyidina Ali ﷺ are hypocrites. They are particularly the Khawarij and Nawasib who accused him of veering off Qur'anic guidance and said that he had erred from the religious path. It was a wretched one among them Abdur Rahman ibn Maljim who martyred Sayyidina Ali ﷺ.

After the martyrdom of Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ, differences did crop up among the Companions ﷺ leading to the battles of jamal and siffin. There was misunderstanding among them. None of the Companions ﷺ despised Sayyidina Ali ﷺ as one religiously astray. Their differences were on the plain of deduction and each side declared that the others were Believers and Muslims, and after the battle they regretted having fought each other. Finally, the compromise struck by Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ proved that they did not hate each other but their differences were differences of reasoning. The Prophet ﷺ had said about Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ:

“إِنِّي هَذَا سَيِّدٌ وَلَعَلَّ اللَّهَ أَنْ يَصْلَحَ بِهِ بَيْنَ فِتْنَتَيْنِ عَظِيمَتَيْنِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ”

(This, my son is a great leader. Allah will get two large groups of Muslims to compromise through his efforts.)

This Hadith makes it clear that people on both sides were Muslims, none of them was a hypocrite.

Finally, it is worth nothing that this Hadith of Zirr ibn Hubaysh is preceded in Saheeh Muslim by Ahadith narrated by Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, Bara ibn Azib رضي الله عنه, Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, and Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه through different lines of transmission. The message is "to love the Ansar is a sign of faith, and to despise them is a sign of hypocrisy."

The words of the Hadith of Sayyidina Bara ibn Aazib رضي الله عنه in Saheeh Muslim are: The Prophet ﷺ said:

"Only he will love the Ansar who is a true Believer and only he will despise them who is a hypocrite. He who loves the Ansar, Allah loves him and he who hates them, Allah hates him."

لَا يُحِبُّهُمْ إِلَّا مُؤْمِنٌ وَلَا يُبْغِضُهُمْ
إِلَّا مُنَافِقٌ مَنْ أَحَبَّهُمْ أَحَبَّهُ اللَّهُ وَمَنْ
أَبْغَضَهُمْ أَبْغَضَهُ اللَّهُ.

The Prophet ﷺ had said at different times about different Companions رضي الله عنهم that to show love of them was a sign of faith while to show hatred smacked of hypocrisy. But, certainly Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه did possess a distinction in this regard, and may Allah cause us to love Him, His Messenger and all those whom they love and who love them.

(٢٠٣٧/٨٦) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ إِلَى تَبُوكَ فَاسْتَخْلَفَ عَلِيًّا قَالَ أَتَخْلِفُنِي عَلَى الصِّيَّانِ وَالنِّسَاءِ قَالَ أَلَا تَرْضَى أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنِّي بِمَنْزِلَةِ هَارُونَ مِنْ مُوسَى إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَا نَبِيَّ بَعْدِي.

(رواه البخاري و مسلم)

(2037/86) Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه reported that when Allah's Messenger ﷺ went for the Battle of Tabook, he appointed Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه as his Khalifah at Madinah and left him behind. But he said, "Do you leave me as Khalifah over children and women?" The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Are you not pleased that your rank with me is what Haroon's was with Musa except that there is no Prophet after me."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: We have mentioned the Battle of Tabook and its extraordinary significance when discussing the merits of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه. This was the last battle in which the Prophet ﷺ participated and, perhaps the most important. Thirty thousand Companions رضي الله عنهم participated in it. They included all the Believers of Madinah who could join the Prophet ﷺ, only the hypocrites remained behind on various excuses. (There were also three or four truthful Believers who could not join the warriors though they had every intention to go.) The Prophet's wives رضي الله عنهن, his daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها and her children, and the families of all other warriors were left behind in Madinah. The journey was to a distant land most likely a lengthy one of long duration, so the Prophet ﷺ decided to leave behind a deputy who could handle any external or internal threat. He found Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه most appropriate for the occasion.

Some evil hypocrites spread the rumour that he was not taken along because he was unworthy and was, therefore, left in Madinah to look after women and children. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه asked the Prophet ﷺ if that was so but he said to him, "Are you not happy that you should be to me as Haron was to Musa except that there will be no Prophet after me?"

It is stated in verse 142 of surah al-A'raf that when Allah called Prophet Musa عليه السلام to Toor Sina to give him the Torah, he asked his elder brother Sayyidina Haroon عليه السلام to deputise for him over the Banu Isra'il. It was to this that the Prophet ﷺ pointed out. Without doubt, this was a great honour and merit of Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه. It is also a fact that he was chosen because of his close relationship with the Prophet ﷺ and some other reasons. (Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه and other Companions رضي الله عنهم were participants in the battle and the Prophet ﷺ, nevertheless, wanted to keep them with him for consultation.)

The Shia scholars point out that the appointment of Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه as Khalifah by the Prophet is evidence that he was most worthy of the post after the Prophet's ﷺ death. However, it does not need much commonsense to reject this idea. There is a difference in selecting someone as a deputy during one's temporary absence and as a Khalifah on a permanent basis after death.

If Prophet Haroon عليه السلام had taken over the place of Prophet Musa عليه السلام after the latter's death then perhaps there could have been some logic in this argument. But, as it is, Prophet Haroon عليه السلام died in the lifetime of Prophet Musa عليه السلام, forty years before Prophet Musa's عليه السلام death. Yusha' became Khalifah thereafter.

It is also worth remembering that while he went to the battle and appointed Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام as his Khalifah, he asked Abdullah ibn Umm Maktoom عليه السلام to act as Imam in his absence though Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام was more meritorious than him. I suppose that the Prophet ﷺ had done it because the appointment of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام may not be taken as evidence of his permanent selection later on. والله اعلم

(٢٠٣٨/٨٧) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ عَلِيًّا مِنِّي وَأَنَا مِنْهُ وَهُوَ وَلِيُّ كُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ. (رواه الترمذی)

(2038/87) Sayyidina Imran ibn Husayn عليه السلام reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Ali is mine and I am his. And, he is the friend of all Believers." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Only this concluding portion of the full Hadith in Tirmizi is reproduced in Mishkat. The gist of the fuller Hadith is: The Prophet ﷺ had sent Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام as the commander of an army. They were victorious but some of the participants did not regard one of his action as correct, so they complained to the Prophet ﷺ about it. The Prophet ﷺ did not like what they said because their complaint was incorrect. So, he said, as a measure of trust and confidence, and demonstration of special relationship. "ان علياً مني وأنا منه (Surely Ali is mine and I am his). He had, in fact, expressed his close relationship with Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام in these words often as well will know in the next Hadith.

The Prophet ﷺ had expressed closeness to other Companions رضي الله عنهم too in similar words. Thus, there is a Hadith in Saheeh Muslim about a Companion رضي الله عنه who was martyred in a battle, Sayyidina Julaybeeb عليه السلام. He stood next to his corpse and said "هَذَا مِنِّي وَأَنَا مِنْهُ" (This Julaybeeb is mine and I am his) (Saheeh Muslim v2 p 295). In the same way, he said about the tribesmen Asha'reen of Abu Musa al-Ash'ary that "هُم مِئِي وَأَنَا مِنْهُمْ" (They are mine and I am theirs). The background was their behaviour in collecting provision of everyone at one place, when some of them lacked it, and sharing it equally. This Hadith is also found in Saheeh Muslim v 2 p 302.

The last sentence of the Hadith refers to Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام as "وهو ولي كل مومن" wali of all Believers. This word wali means friend, helper or guardian. It is used in the Qur'an too in one of these meanings.

In this Hadith, it is used to imply a friend. Every Believer must have a relationship of a friend and love with Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام. This is his right because of his close relationship with the Prophet ﷺ.

May Allah grant me and all Believers love for Him, His Messenger ﷺ and all who love them and are dear to them (among whom Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام surely has a distinct rank).

(٢٠٣٩/٨٨) عَنْ حُبْشِيِّ بْنِ جُنَادَةَ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيَّ مِئِي وَأَنَا مِنْ عَلِيٍّ، وَلَا يُؤَدِّي عَنِّي إِلَّا أَنَا أَوْ عَلِيٌّ. (رواه الترمذی)

(2039/88) Sayyidina Hubshi ibn Junadah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Ali is from me and I from him. And (This important message) from me may be conveyed by me or by Ali." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: To be able to understand the Hadith, we must keep the background in mind. Makkah was liberated in 8 AH and the Islamic government was set up there. Next year the surah al-Bara'at (or at-Tawbah) was revealed. It contains important Commands concerning the idolaters and disbelievers. For example, the covenant concluded with them must be annulled because of their violation and mischiefs, idolaters or unbelievers should not be allowed into the Masjid al-Haram, etc. The Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as Ameer of Hajj with instructions to convey to the disbelievers and idolaters coming from different areas the commands of Allah which are revealed in this surah and all those verses of this surah. The Prophet realised after Abu Bakr had gone away that among the Arabs a covenant can be revoked only by a chief himself or his closest relative acting on his behalf, otherwise the revocation is invalid. So, he sent Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام on his behalf, being his paternal cousin and son-in-law. It is at this time and in this context that he said:

“عَلَيَّ مِنْي وَأَنَا مِنْ عَلِيٍّ وَلَا يُؤَدِّي عَنِّي إِلَّا أَنَا أَوْ عَلِيٌّ.....”

"Ali is from me and I from Ali and (this important message) from me may be conveyed by me or by Ali."

In short, he explained why he had to send Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام on the heels of Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام.

When they met, Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام asked him if he had been sent as ameer or follower and Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام replied that he had been sent as a follower while "You continue to be the ameer. My task is limited to this act."

Whatever happened was dictated by Allah. If Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام had been sent as ameer straightaway then that could have been construed as evidence of Sayyidina Ali's عليه السلام Khalifah after the Prophet ﷺ. Thus by sending Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام as ameer of Hajj the ummah has thus been protected from that misunderstanding. Allah then put the realisation into the Prophet's ﷺ heart about the Arab tradition and he sent Sayyidina Ali to convey the message. In this way Allah guided the Muslims that their ameer and the Prophet's ﷺ Khalifah should be Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام. This is exactly like the suggestion in his heart from Allah when he was ill that he should appoint Sayyidina Abu Bakr عليه السلام as Imam to lead the congregation in his place. ان ربنا لطيف لما يشاء.

(٢٠٤٠/٨٩) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ أَخِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ أَصْحَابِهِ، فَجَاءَ عَلِيٌّ تَدْمَعُ عَيْنَاهُ، فَقَالَ : أَخِيَّتَ بَيْنَ أَصْحَابِكَ وَلَمْ تَوَاحِ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَ أَحَدٍ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْتَ أَخِي فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2040/89) Sayyidina Ibn Umar عليه السلام reported that (after hijrah, on coming to Madinah) Allah's Messenger ﷺ created a muakhah among his Companions رضي الله عنهم (ties of fraternity among them). Sayyidina Ali came to him (sad and grief-stricken), tears rolling down his eyes. He said, "You have created muakhah between every two of the Companions but you have not created such a one between me and another." The Prophet ﷺ said, "You are my brother in this world and the next." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: When the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions came to Madinah, these Muhajirs belonged to different tribes and different places. The Prophet ﷺ created a muakhah between every one Ansar and one Muhajir whereby an Ansar became a brother of a Muhajir. Thus, they shared one another's grief and heppiness, looked after their needs like real brothers and no one felt lonely and helpless. Thus, Abu al-Darda Ansar became brother of Salman Farsi. They were not related in anyway before that neither did they belong to the same nation. Sayyidina Ali had not been paired with anyone and feeling lonely he complained to the Prophet ﷺ who said, "انت اخي في الدنيا والاخرة" "You are my brother both in this world and in the next." Naturally, he must have been elated on hearing this. Surely, the closeness that he enjoyed with the Prophet ﷺ was reserved only for him — he was the Prophet's paternal cousin, among the first to respond positively to his call to Islam and his son-in-law. رضى الله عنه وارضاہ.

(٢٠٤١/٩٠) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ : كَانَ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَيْرٌ فَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ آتِنِي بِأَحَبِّ خَلْقِكَ إِلَيْكَ يَأْكُلُ مَعِيَ هَذَا الطَّيْرَ فَجَاءَهُ عَلَى فَأَكَلَ مَعَهُ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2041/90) Sayyidina Anas said that the Prophet ﷺ had a (roasted or cooked) bird to eat. So, he prayed, "O Allah! Send to me one who is dearest to You among Your creatures and who would join me in eating this bird." Suddenly, Sayyidina Ali came there and he joined the Prophet in eating that bird.

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Shia deduce from this Hadith that Sayyidina Ali was dearer to Allah than every other creature including Sayyidina Abu Bakr and Sayyidina Umar. But, if we go by that reasoning then the Prophet is also including among them. Therefore, the exponents of Hadith have explained that the Prophet's prayer means: "O Allah! Send to me one who is among those dearest to You..." And surely Sayyidina Ali is one of the dearest creatures of Allah.

Allama Ibn al-Jawzi has classified this Hadith as mawdoo (fabricated). However Ibn Hajar disagrees with him, but confirms that it is da'eef (weak).¹

(٢٠٤٢/٩١) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَا دَارُ

الْحِكْمَةِ وَعَلِيٌّ بَابُهَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(2042/91) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I am the house of wisdom and Ali is its door."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام became a Believer in his childhood and since then remained in the Prophet's ﷺ company and training. So he enjoys a higher rank of the Prophet's ﷺ teachings. That is why the Prophet ﷺ said "أَنَا دَارُ الْحِكْمَةِ وَعَلِيٌّ بَابُهَا" (I am the city of knowledge and Ali is its gate.)

However, it is wrong to suppose that only he possesses the knowledge and wisdom taught by the Prophet ﷺ and it cannot be learnt from anyone else but him. The Qur'an says often that Allah sent the Prophet as His Messenger among the ummis (unlettered) and he read out to them Allah's verses and taught them the Book of Allah and wisdom. This confirms that all the Companions رضي الله عنهم learnt the Book and wisdom according to their individual capacities. Hence, all of them are doors and means of the knowledge and wisdom received through the Prophet ﷺ.

When Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام responded to the Prophet's ﷺ call and believed, he was only eight or ten years old, or a little more. He was only that much receptive to the Prophet's ﷺ teachings as a child of this age is. But, when Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه accepted Islam on the same day, his age was over forty years and he was naturally as receptive as one should be at this age. Therefore, he had a share of Prophet's ﷺ knowledge and wisdom greater than the other Companion's رضي الله عنهم collective share.

When the Prophet ﷺ appointed him Imam in his place during his illness that was actually the Prophet's certificate for his superior knowledge of the Book and wisdom. Then the Companions رضي الله عنهم confirmed that when they appointed him their Khalifah and Imam.

①. See 787 اجوبة الحافظ ابن حجر العسقلاني عن احاديث المصاييح صفحة (Beirut)

We must also remember that the Prophet ﷺ mentioned the distinction of different Companions ﷺ in different departments of knowledge as we will see while reading the virtues of different Companions ﷺ.

The tabi'een learnt the Prophet's ﷺ knowledge from different Companions ﷺ. Allah got the muhaddith to preserve them in Books of Hadith. That will guide the ummah till the Last Day.

We must also bear in mind that Ibn al-Jawzi and Ibn Taymiyah and others have declared that the Hadith “انا دار الحكمة الخ” as mawdoo'. Even Imam Tirmizi has declared it “هذا حديث غريب منكر” (This Hadith is gharib munkar — a degree of weak Hadith)

The Hadith is unapproved and unworthy of transmission in the eyes of the scholars of Hadith.

(٢٠٤٣/٩٢) عَنْ أُمِّ عَطِيَّةَ قَالَتْ : بَعَثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَيْشًا، فِيهِمْ عَلِيٌّ قَالَتْ، فَسَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ رَافِعٌ يَدَيْهِ يَقُولُ اللَّهُمَّ لَا تُمِتَّنِي حَتَّى تُرِيَنِي عَلِيًّا.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2043/92) Sayyidah Umm Atiyah رضى الله عنها reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent an army (on an expedition) and Sayyidina Ali ﷺ was a participant of it. She heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ make supplication with his hands raised (in prayer), "O Allah! Do not take me away from this world till You let me see Ali."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: This is a demonstration of the extreme love the Prophet ﷺ had for Sayyidina Ali ﷺ, the reasons for which we have mentioned previously.

(٢٠٤٤/٩٣) عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ : أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَخَذَ بِيَدِ حَسَنِ وَحُسَيْنٍ. فَقَالَ : مَنْ أَحَبَّنِي وَأَحَبَّ هَذَيْنِ وَأَبَاهُمَا وَأُمَّهُمَا كَانَ مَعِيَ فِي دَرَجَتِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2044/93) Sayyidina Ali ibn Abu Talib ﷺ said that the Prophet ﷺ held the hand of (both his grandsons) Hasan ﷺ and Husayn ﷺ and said, "He who loves me, both of them, their father and their mother (Sayyidina Ali ﷺ and Sayyidah Fatima رضى الله عنها) will, on the Day of Resurrection, be in Paradise at the (same) degree as mine and with me."

(Jami Tirmizi)

Commentary: We have read in volume two a Hadith of Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reproduced from Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim about a man who asked the Prophet ﷺ (When is the Last Hour?) and he said, "You ask about it but what preparations have you made for it?" He said, "I have not done much for it except that I love Allah and His Messenger ﷺ." The Prophet ﷺ said, "انت مع من احبت" "You are with whom you love." The meaning is, "You may rest assured, in the Hereafter you will be with those you love." On hearing this, all the Companions رضي الله عنهم were so happy that they never had been as happy since becoming Muslims. Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه said:

فَإِنَّا أُحِبُّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَبَا بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ وَأَرْجُوا أَنِ أَكُونَ مَعَهُمْ
بِحُبِّي إِيَّاهُمْ .

(As for me, I love the Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه and hope that only because of that I will be with them in the Hereafter).

This is Allah's mercy that He will place those who love His Messenger ﷺ and the loved ones with these very sacred people. (Without doubt Sayyidina Hasan رضي الله عنه, Sayyidina Husayn رضي الله عنه, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه are those whom the Prophet ﷺ loved dearly). Thus for the fortunate ones who love the beloved of Allah's Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ and those whom he loves, the mercy of Allah will place them with the Prophet ﷺ. May Allah caues me and the readers to love His beloved, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ.

(٢٠٤٥/٩٤) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ: كُنْتُ شَاكِيًا فَمَرَّ بِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَنَا أَقُولُ: اللَّهُمَّ إِنْ كَانَ أَجَلِي قَدْ حَضَرَ فَأَرْحِنِي وَإِنْ كَانَ مُتَأَخِّرًا فَأَرْقِنِي وَإِنْ كَانَ بَلَاءٌ فَصَبِّرْنِي، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، كَيْفَ قُلْتَ، فَأَعَادَ عَلَيْهِ مَا قَالِ فَضَرَبَهُ بِرِجْلِهِ وَقَالَ: اللَّهُمَّ عَافِهِ (شَكَّ الرَّاَوِي) أَوْ أَشْفِهِ، قَالَ فَمَا اشْتَكَيْتُ رَجَعَنِي بَعْدُ

(رواه الترمذی)
(2045/94) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said: I had fallen ill (and was in much pain). Allah's Messenger ﷺ came across me while I was praying, "O Allah, if my appointed time has come then grant me peace (give me death and relief from the pain). And if my death is delayed then grant me a life of ease and comfort. And if this (illness and pain) is a trial (from you) then grant me patience (that I may not complain)." Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked me, "What did you say?" So (What I had said in prayer) I repeated to him. He hit me with his foot and prayed 'اللَّهُمَّ عَافِهِ' (O Allah grant him health). (The narrator doubts that he might have said:) 'اللَّهُمَّ أَشْفِهِ' (O Allah cure him). After that I never had that complaint.

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Indeed this was a miracle of the Prophet ﷺ.

(٢٠٤٦/٩٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ أَنَّهُ قِيلَ لَهُ، نَرَاكَ فِي الْحَرِّ الشَّدِيدِ وَعَلَيْكَ ثِيَابُ الشِّتَاءِ، وَنَرَاكَ فِي الشِّتَاءِ وَعَلَيْكَ ثِيَابُ الصَّيْفِ وَتَمْسَحُ الْعَرَقَ، فَقَالَ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَزَقَ فِي عَيْنَيَّ وَأَنَا أَرْمُدُ فَمَا اشْتَكَيْتُهُمَا حَتَّى السَّاعَةِ وَدَعَا لِي فَقَالَ اللَّهُمَّ اذْهَبْ عَنْهُ الْحَرَّ وَالْبَرْدَ فَمَا وَجَدْتُ حَرًّا وَلَا بَرْدًا حَتَّى يَوْمِي هَذَا.

(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط)

(2046/95) Sayyidina Ali ﷺ reported that some people said to him, "We observe that in severe heat you wear garments of winter and we observe that in winter you wear garments of summer and wipe perspiration." So, he said, "Once, my eyes ached and Allah's Messenger ﷺ applied his saliva into them. Since then I have never had eye trouble and he prayed for me: 'اللَّهُمَّ اذْهَبْ عَنْهُ الْحَرَّ وَالْبَرْدَ' (O Allah! keep summer and winter away from him). Since then I have not felt heat or cold."

(Mu'ajam Awsat, Tabarani)

Commentary: The supplication of the Prophet ﷺ had miraculous effects, no doubt.

(٢٠٤٧/٩٦) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُنِي مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَإِنِّي لَأَرِبُطُ الْحَجَرَ عَلَى بَطْنِي مِنَ الْجُوعِ وَإِنَّ لَصَدَقَةَ مَالِي لَتَبْلُغُ أَرْبَعِينَ أَلْفَ دِينَارٍ.

(رواه احمد)

(2047/96) Sayyidina Ali ﷺ Said, "I have seen myself with Allah's Messenger ﷺ in such a way that I tied a stone on my belly to fight off hunger. (But now, by the Grace of Allah) the zakah on my wealth works out at forty thousand Ashrafis."

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: In the Book of ar-Riqaq (Softening of Hearts), we have seen those Ahadith which tell us that the Prophet ﷺ chose for himself and his family a life of poverty and had prayed to Allah for that. They went without meals for days together and he sometimes did tie stone on his bally to ward off pangs of hunger. Sayyidina Ali ؑ was among his closest relatives and he too had to do it sometimes. He discloses in this Hadith how his condition changed.

It is indeed an honour and very meritorious to opt for a life on the pattern of the Prophet ﷺ but if Allah grants wealth to anyone from lawful sources and he fulfils his obligations in this regard then that is also a blessing of Allah. In that chapter of this Book, we have also transmitted Prophet's ﷺ sayings on this subject. Allah did grant Sayyidina Ali ؑ the honour to live on the Prophet's ﷺ pattern and also granted him wealth:

ما احسن الدين والدنيا لو اجتمعا.

(٢٠٤٨/٩٧) عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ وَزَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا نَزَلَ بِغَدِيرِ خُمٍّ أَخَذَ بِيَدِ عَلِيٍّ فَقَالَ : أَلَسْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَالَ ، أَلَسْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي أَوْلَىٰ لِكُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ؟“ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَالَ : اللَّهُمَّ مَنْ كُنْتُ مَوْلَاهُ فَعَلَيْ مَوْلَاهُ. اللَّهُمَّ وَالِ مَنْ وَاَلَاهُ. وَعَادِ مَنْ عَادَاهُ فَلَقِيهِ، عُمَرُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَقَالَ لَهُ : هَيْنَا يَا بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ! أَصَبَحْتَ وَأَمْسَيْتَ مَوْلَىٰ كُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ وَمُؤْمِنَةٍ.

(رواه احمد)
(2048/97) Sayyidina Bara ibn Azib ؓ and Sayyidina Zayd ibn Arqam ؓ reported that when Allah's Messenger ﷺ alighted at Ghadeer Khumm and stayed there, he held the hand of Sayyidina Ali ؑ and said (to those Companions who were there): "أَلَسْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ" (Do you not know that I am more friendly to the Muslims than they are themselves?) They all said, "Certainly it is so!" The Prophet ﷺ (then) said: "أَلَسْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي أَوْلَىٰ لِكُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ مِنْ نَفْسِهِ؟" (Do you not know that I am more a friend of a Muslim than he is himself?), and they all said, "اللَّهُمَّ مَنْ كُنْتُ مَوْلَاهُ فَعَلَيْ مَوْلَاهُ. اللَّهُمَّ وَالِ مَنْ وَاَلَاهُ. وَعَادِ مَنْ عَادَاهُ" (O Allah, he to whom I am a friend then this Ali is also his friend. O Allah, he who is friendly to Ali, You keep friendship with him; and he who is unfriendly with him,

You too be hostile to him). Then Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه met Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه and said, "Congratulations to you, O Ibn Abu Talib. Every morning and every evening, you are friend and beloved of every believing man and believing woman!"

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: This happened on the return journey after performing Hajjat ul-Wada' at Ghadeer Khumm (or, the Pond of Khumm) which is about three miles from al-Juhfah on the route from Makkah to Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ reached this place on 18th Zul Hajjah with all his Companions رضي الله عنهم who had joined him for the Hajj from Madinah and its surroundings. He broke his journey there and assembled his Companions رضي الله عنهم and delivered a sermon. If we collect all the reports in different books of Hadith, we will learn that he spoke of some important matters, one of which pertained to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that we have read in the Hadith. He spoke about it with emphasis.

The verse 6 of al-Ahzab reads:

”النَّبِيُّ أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنفُسِهِمْ“ (الاحزاب ٦:٣٣)

(The Prophet is ever closer to the Believers than their own selves.)

It is natural for man to be concerned deeply about himself but it is the right of our Prophet, Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ that as Believers we should love him more than our own selves. It is in reference to this verse that the Prophet ﷺ had asked the Believers if they did not know that he had a greater right to their friendship and love than their own selves. All those present confirmed his words unanimously. He then asked if it was not correct that every Believer must love him and be concerned of him more than he is of himself, and they all again agreed to it. He then said, "O Allah! (Be witness that) Ali is also a friend and beloved of him whose friend and beloved I am. O Allah! I pray to You that You be friend to him who be friends Ali and antagonise him who antagonises Ali." Then Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه congratulated Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that Believers — men and women — love him always.

Having explained the Hadith, I now wish to enlighten readers that the Shia scholars present this Hadith as their most strong support for their faith. They hold that in this sermon at Ghadeer Khummm the Prophet ﷺ had appointed Sayyidina Ali ﷺ as his successor and Khalifah, and the Imam of the ummah. According to them, this, indeed, was the aim of his sermon. They argue that the word مولیٰ (mawla) in the Hadith means master, owner and ruler, and the Hadith means: those whose master and ruler I am, Ali ﷺ is also their master and ruler. This was, therefore, a proclamation of Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ Khilafat and rulership over the ummah. Readers will see in the following lines how worthless is this argument.

The fact is that many Arabic words have more than twenty meanings. The word mawla is one of them. The Arabic dictionary "القاموس المحيط" al-Qamus al-Muheet gives twenty one meanings of مولیٰ mawla (v4 p404).

المولیٰ:۔	(۱) المالك	(۲) والعبد	(۳) والعق
(۴) والمعق	(۵) والصاحب	(۶) والقريب	كابن العم ونحوه
(۷) والجار	(۸) والحليف	(۹) والابن	(۱۰) والعم
(۱۱) والنزيل	(۱۲) والشريك	(۱۳) وابن الاخت	(۱۴) والولى
(۱۵) والرب	(۱۶) والناصر	(۱۷) والمنعم	(۱۸) والمنعم عليه
(۱۹) والمحب	(۲۰) والتابع	(۲۱) والصهر-

The same meanings are also found in "اقرب الموارد" Aqrab al-Mawrid (v2 p1488) and also in the most reliable dictionary on Hadith "النهاية لابن الاثير الجزرى فى غريب الحديث والاثر" (an-Nihayat li Ibn al-Atheer al-Juzi fi Gharib al-Hadith). Allamah Tahir Patni has reproduced the text of an-Nihayat in Majma' Bihar al-Anwar (v5 p112, Da'irat ul-Ma'arif, Hyderabad, India).

The Misbah al-Lughat the Arabic-Urdu dictionary has given the meanings of almost all those words that are given (as meanings of mawla) in al-Qamoos al-Muheet and Aqrabal-Mawarid (p968).

المولیٰ:۔ مالک و سردار، غلام آزاد کرنے والا، آزاد شدہ، انعام دینے والا، جس کو انعام دیا جائے، محبت کرنے والا، ساتھی، حلیف، پڑوسی، مہمان، شریک، بیٹا، چچا کا بیٹا، بھانجا، چچا، داماد، رشتہ دار، ولی، تابع

Some of the meanings given in Arabic-English Lexicon¹ by Edward William Lane are:

①. Part 8, p 3061.

مولیٰ : A lord, chief, son of a paternal uncle or a relation, son of a sister, a freedman, one whom the emancipator is bound to aid and whose property he inherits if he dies having no heir, a slave. (The other meaning in the Urdu text are: an emancipator, one who rewards, one who is rewarded, one who loves, a companion, a sworn friend, a neighbour, a guest, a partner, a son, an uncle, a son-in-law, a relative, a patron, a subordinate.)

If such a word with multi-meanings is used in the Qur'an or Hadith or any eloquent literature then its sense and implication is brought out in the text itself, or the context points out to it. Similarly, in the Hadith under discussion, the context brings out the meaning of the word mawlan. The concluding supplication is:

”اللهم وال من والاه وعاد من عاداه“

(O Allah! Be friend him who be friends Ali and antagonise him who antagonises Ali.)

It is very clear, therefore, that the word mawla is used in the Hadith for friend, beloved, and the words ”من كنت مولاه فعلى مولاه“ would mean what we have stated above in the explanation.

Then after the Prophet's ﷺ death whatever happened is undeniable proof of what we have said. Not one of the thousands of Companions ﷺ and not even Sayyidina Ali ﷺ or those who were very close to him — none of them had taken the Prophet's ﷺ saying at Ghadeer Khumm to imply Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ succession, Khalifat or Imamat. If they had understood the Prophet ﷺ to mean that then Sayyidina Ali ﷺ or anyone else would surely have protested that hardly seventy-two days in the past, the Prophet ﷺ had spoken in such a way at Ghadeer Khumm and had proclaimed Sayyidina Ali ﷺ as Khalifah. In fact, no one including Sayyidina Ali ﷺ suggested this meaning and everyone accepted Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ as Khalifah and swore allegiance to him. Rather, if we accept the contention of the Shia then the question arises why Sayyidina Ali ﷺ did not press for adherence to the Prophet's ﷺ instructions. It was a fard (an absolute obligation) on him to get the Prophet's ﷺ will discharged, and if there was a confrontation, he should have taken a stand and used force. This is what the grandson of Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ, Hasan the Third had said to a man who subscribed to the extreme belief about Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام and cited this saying of the Prophet ﷺ من كنت مولاه فعلى مولاه in support of his Khilafat. Hasan the Third said to this man:

"If what you people say is true — that Allah and His Messenger ﷺ had appointed Ali عليه السلام as Khalifah after the Prophet ﷺ — then Ali عليه السلام is the worst criminal because he did not obey the Prophet's ﷺ command.¹ (We seek refuge in Allah from being rude.)

ولو كان الا مر كما تقولون ان
الله جل وعلى ورسوله صلى الله
عليه وسلم اختارا علياً لهذا
الامر والقيام على الناس بعده
فان علياً اعظم الناس خطيئة
وجرماً اذ ترك امر رسول الله
صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Then, as the man cited the Prophet's saying من كنت مولاه فعلى مولاه, Hasan the Third said:

"Listen! I swear by Allah, if Allah's Messenger ﷺ had to appoint Ali عليه السلام as Khalifah then he would have spoken clearly and unambiguously as he had spoken about salah, fasting, zakah and Hajj. He would have said explicitly: O People! This Ali عليه السلام would be ruler after me. Hence, listen and obey him.²

اما والله لو يعنى رسول الله صلى
الله عليه وسلم بذلك الامر
والسلطان والقيام على الناس لا
فصح به كما أفصح بالصلوة
والزكاة والصيام والحج ولقال
: ايها الناس ان هذا الولي بعدى
فاسمعوا واطيعوا.

However, the question remains: what was the Prophet's ﷺ purpose by these words. Why he spoke in the way he did about Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام.

The fact is that the Prophet ﷺ had sent Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام to Yaman with three hundred men sometime before Hajjat ul-Wada. He had met the Prophet ﷺ at Makkah during the Hajjat ul-Wada. While they were in Yaman, some of his friends did not agree with him over some issues and these people had also come to perform the Hajj and some of them seized the opportunity to complain to the Prophet ﷺ about it, and they also mentioned it to other people¹ which, indeed, was a grave mistake on their part. The Prophet ﷺ convinced those people who had complained to him of the correctness of Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ actions, and they were satisfied. However, they had already spoken to others and the devil took advantage of the situation and showed seeds of discord. The Prophet ﷺ — when he learnt of it — found it necessary to let the people know that Sayyidina Ali ﷺ held a high rank of appreciation and love. Hence, he assembled his Companions ﷺ at Ghadeer Khumm and delivered the sermon, held Sayyidina Ali ﷺ by the hand and said: "من كنت مولاه فعلي مولاه، اللهم وال من والاه وعاد من عاداه" The meaning of these words is repeated here: "O Allah! He to whom I am a friend, this Ali is also his friend. O Allah! He who is friendly with Ali, You keep friendship with him; and he who is hostile to him, You too be hostile to him." In fact, as we have said earlier, the words of prayer by themselves highlight the meaning of the word mawla as 'beloved', 'friend' in this Hadith.

①. Izalah al-Khifa v1 p223, (1329 AH) Umdah al-Mutabah Press, Lucknow

②. Izalah al-Khifa v1 p223, Lucknow

In short, the saying of the Prophet ﷺ من كنت مولاه فعلي مولاه الخ does not refer to the issue of Khilafah or Imamah. I hope that whatever I have written would suffice for every true Believer.

(إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَذِكْرٌ لِمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ قَلْبٌ أَوْ أَلْقَى السَّمْعَ وَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ)

(ق ٥٠: ٣٧)

{Surely in that is an admonition to him who has a heart, or gives ear while he is mindful.}

(Qaf, 50:37)

(٢٠٤٩/٩٨) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ : بَعَثَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى الْيَمَنِ قَاضِيًا فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! تُرْسِلْنِي وَأَنَا حَدِيثُ السِّنِّ وَلَا عِلْمَ لِي بِالْقَضَاءِ فَقَالَ : إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيَهْدِي قَلْبُكَ وَيَثْبُتَ لِسَانُكَ إِذَا تَقَاضَى إِلَيْكَ رَجُلَانِ فَلَا تَقْضِ لِلأَوَّلِ حَتَّى تَسْمَعَ كَلَامَ الْآخِرِ فَإِنَّهُ أَحْرَى أَنْ يَتَبَيَّنَ لَكَ الْقَضَاءُ قَالَ : فَمَا شَكَّكَ فِي قَضَاءٍ بَعْدَ . (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجه)

(2049/98) Sayyidina Ali ﷺ said: Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent me to Yaman (meaning, decided to send me there) as Qadi (judge). I said to him, "O Messenger of Allah! You send me as a judge while I am young and I have no knowledge of judgement (disputes, decision of cases)." He said, "Allah will guide your heart and keep your tongue firm (that is, He will put in your heart and make your tongue speak that which is correct and true). When two people bring a case to you, do not decide in favour of him who brings (the case) first till you have heard the second party. This method will be more useful to you in giving judgement." (Sayyidina Ali said:) Thereafter I never had doubt in passing judgement (because of the Prophet's teachings and prayer).

①. See Saheeh Bukhari (Kitab al-Maghazi, Chapter: Ali Ibn Abu Talib and Khalid ibn al-Waleed to Yaman... and al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v5 p106 (Beirut).

(Jami' Tirmizi, Sunan Abu Dawood, Ibn Majah)

Commentary: This event is found in different books of Hadith narrated by different narrators. Some of them give some additional detail. We get a full picture when we keep all these reports before us. The report in Kanz ul-Ummal on the authority of Ibn Jarir is:

{Some of the Yamanites met the Prophet ﷺ and said, "Do send to us someone who teaches us religion and Shari'ah and decides our disputes and cases in the light of Allah's Book" So, the Prophet ﷺ instructed Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه to go to Yaman. He said, "Those people might bring to me cases about which I have no knowledge." The Prophet ﷺ placed his hand on Sayyidina Ali's chest and said "إِذْهَبْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيَهْدِي قَلْبَكَ وَيُثَبِّتُ لِسَانَكَ" (Go! Surely Allah will guide your heart and keep your tongue Firm). He said that after that he never felt doubt in deciding any case}

(Kanz ul-Ummal, v13 p113)

There is yet another version, also on the authority of Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه in Kanz ul-Ummal as transmitted by Mustadrak Haakim, Ibn Sa'd, Musnad Ahmad, Ibn Jarir, etc.

{When I said to the Prophet ﷺ that I was young and had no insight in deciding cases, he placed his hand on my chest and said "اَللّٰهُمَّ ثَبِّتْ لِسَانَهُ وَاهْدِ قَلْبَهُ" (O Allah make his tongue firm and guide his heart)}

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه then said "فَمَا أَشْكَلَ عَلَيَّ قَضَاءٌ بَعْدُ" "Thereafter, no dispute was difficult for me to decide." (Kanz ul-Ummal, v13 p125)

I believe that when the Prophet ﷺ placed his hand on Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه chest and prayed, he was confident that his prayer was accepted, so he said, "إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيَهْدِي قَلْبَكَ وَيُثَبِّتُ لِسَانَكَ" (Surely Allah will guide your heart and make your tongue firm.) The letter س in this word "سيهدي" expresses the belief. This is as the Qur'an says about Sayyidina Musa عليه السلام who said to his people

”كلا انى معى ربه سيهدين.“ (الشعراء ٢٦:٦٢)

{Surely with me is my Lord — He will guide me.}

(ash Shu'ara, 26:62)

It is a fact and one of the confirmed realities of the ummah that as a result of the Prophet's ﷺ prayer, Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام was blessed with a perfect ability to decide cases and disputes. He enjoyed a distinction in this regard. Surely this is his great merit and a miracle of the Prophet ﷺ.

(٢٠٥٠/٩٩) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : فِيكَ

مَثَلٌ مِنْ عِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ أَبْغَضَتْهُ الْيَهُودُ حَتَّى بَهَتُوا أُمَّهُ، وَأَحَبَّتْهُ النَّصَارَى حَتَّى
أَنْزَلُوهُ، مَنْزِلَتَهُ الَّتِي لَيْسَتْ لَهُ، “ ثُمَّ قَالَ : يَهْلِكُ فِي رَجُلَانِ مُحِبٌّ مُفْرِطٌ
يُفْرِطُنِي بِمَا لَيْسَ فِيَّ وَمُبْغِضٌ يَحْمِلُهُ شَنَايَ عَلَى أَنْ يَبْهَتَنِي . (رواه احمد)

(2050/99) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, "O Ali, you have a great resemblance to Isa ibn Maryam. The Jews hated him so much that they slandered his mother, Maryam, and the Christians loved him so much that they raised him to a position that was not his." Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام then said: (Surely it will be so.) Two kinds of people will perish on my account — they who love me to the point of exaggeration and will praise me for what I do not deserve, and they who hate me beyond limit so that their hatred drives them to slander me.

(Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: Whatever Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said on the basis of the Prophet's saying was demonstrated during the Khilafah. The Khwarij despised him so much that they called him an apostate, a disbeliever and one liable to be killed and a hard-hearted among them, Abdur Rehman ibn Muljam martyred him. On top of that this wretched man termed his evil deed jihad of the highest order and a mean to Paradise. There were also those who went to the point of exaggeration in loving him who raised him to Divine status or those who said that he was the one entitled to Prophethood and Messengership but Sayyidina Jibreel عليه السلام had committed a mistake in delivering Allah's revelation to Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ. There were also those who said that he was the Prophet's ﷺ successor and Khalifah, and Imam of the ummah, that he was as innocent as the Prophet ﷺ and worthy of obedience, and had Divine attributes enabling him to direct affairs of the universe.

There are about fifty sects of these people who exceed the limits concerning Sayyidina Ali ﷺ.

Many of them are now found only in books and we do not think that they exist any more in the world. Of those that survive, the ithna ashriyah are in a large number. They are also known as Imamiyah. These days they are generally called Shia. They believe that besides Sayyidina Ali ﷺ, Allah and His Messenger ﷺ had nominated eleven other Imams of the ummah and their rulers. Like him, they are all innocent and worthy of obedience and superior to all Prophets عليهم السلام. We can learn more about them from the book of Shah Abdul Aziz Dehlavi رحمه الله عليه, Tuhfah Ithna Ashriyah. The Urdu books of Mawlana Muhammad Abdul Shakoor Farooqi and my book Irani Inqilab, Imam Khumaini aur Shi'ayat also throw light on this sect.

(٢٠٥١/١٠٠) عَنْ صُهَيْبٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِعَلِيِّ : مَنْ أَشَقَى الْأَوَّلِينَ؟ قَالَ، الَّذِي عَقَرَ النَّاقَةَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ صَدَقْتَ فَمَنْ أَشَقَى الْآخِرِينَ؟ قَالَ، لَا عِلْمَ لِي يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ قَالَ : الَّذِي يَضْرِبُكَ عَلَى هَذِهِ وَأَشَارَ إِلَى يَافُوخِهِ فَكَانَ عَلَى يَقُولٍ لِأَهْلِ الْعِرَاقِ : وَدِدْتُ أَنَّهُ، قَدْ أَنْبَعَتْ أَشْقَاكُمْ فَيُخَضَّبُ هَذِهِ يَغْنَى لِحَيْتِهِ، مِنْ هَذِهِ، وَوَضَعَ يَدَهُ عَلَى مَقْدِمِ رَأْسِهِ .
(رواه الطبراني في المعجم الكبير)

(2051/100) Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ asked Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه (one day), "(Tell me) who was the most hard-hearted person among the earlier ummah?" He said, "O Messenger of Allah, (He was) the man (of Thamud) who hamstrung the she-camel (which Allah had created from the rock of a mountain as a miracle for Prophet Salih عليه السلام)." The Prophet ﷺ said, "You have spoken the truth. (Now, tell me) who will be the most hard-hearted among the people of later times?" He said, "I have no knowledge of that." The Prophet ﷺ said, pointing towards Sayyidina Ali's forehead, "(The most hard-hearted will be) he who will smite you here (with his sword and your beard will be dyed (with blood). Then (because of this saying of the Prophet ﷺ) Sayyidina Ali ﷺ used to (hold his beard and) say, "O People of Iraq! I wish that a hard-hearted man among you must rise and dye my beard with blood from my forehead here!" (Mu'ajam Kabeer)

Commentary: In the last part of the Qur'an in surah ash-Shams (verse 11-12) this man is mentioned:

”كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ بِطَغْوَاهَا إِذِ انْبَعَثَ أَشْقَاهَا“ (الشمس ٩١: ١٢-١١)

{The Thamid belied (the truth) in their insolence when the beast of them uprose}

The man is referred to as the basest or extremely hard-hearted and wretched. Sayyidina Ali ﷺ had given his answer on the basis of these verses.

I think that the Prophet's first question to Sayyidina Ali ﷺ was by way of an introduction to the second one and he foretold him that he would be martyred. He gave him all details of how he would be killed. Sayyidina Ali ﷺ regarded the Prophet's ﷺ fore warning as a glad tiding for himself and he let the people know that he was waiting for the wicked man to strike. Indeed, about thirty years after the Prophet's ﷺ death, Sayyidina Ali ﷺ was martyred رضى الله عنه وارضاه. Indeed, it was a miracle of the Prophet ﷺ that he foretold the event and how it would happen.

Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ Martyrdom

The compiler of Majma' al-Fawa'id has written details of Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ martyrdom on the authority of Isma'il ibn Rashid immediately following the foregoing account of Suhayb. We will present its synopsis but, before we do that, let us look into the background of the Khuwarij. They were a part of Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ army and because of their foolishness and adamancy they regarded a decision of Sayyidina Ali ﷺ as incorrect and (may Allah forgive us!) contrary to Qur'anic teachings. This is why they opposed him and took to rebellion. Their numbers ran into many thousands but when Sayyidina Ali ﷺ clarified the facts, a large number of them reformed and rejoined him. However, a majority of them stuck to the erring path and were ready to fight and kill.

Finally, Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام had to use force (and the war is known as the Battle of Naharwan) as a result of which many of them were eliminated. Of the few who survived, three — Bark ibn Abdullah, Amr ibn Bakr Tamimi and Abdur Rahman ibn Muljam went to Makkah and conspired to eliminate the ruling class, particularly three men: Sayyidina Hu'awiyah عليه السلام, Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas عليه السلام and Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام. Bark, Amr and Abdur Rahman Muljam each took upon himself the responsibility to kill each of the three men in that order. They covenanted on that and agreed to execute their strategy on 17th Ramadan when these people would emerge to offer Fajr salah. In those days, the salah was led by the Khalifah or an ameer appointed by him.

Bark went to Damascus the capital city of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام. Amr Tamimi went to Egypt where Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas عليه السلام was the ameer and Abdur Rahman ibn Muljam went to Kufa the capital city of Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام.

On the 17th of Ramadan as Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام came out for the Fajr salah, Bark attacked him with his sword but he sensed his presense and tried to run away. Nevertheless, Bark was able to inflict a deep wound on one of his buttocks. Bark was arrested (and later on killed). A doctor was summoned and he suggested branding of the wound with red, hot iron because the sword that struck him was poisoned. He suggested as an alternative a dose of medicine that would render him unable to sire children anymore. Mu'awiyah عليه السلام chose the second alternative because he could not hope to endure the hot iron. He said that he had two sons, Yazeed and Abdullah, and that was enough. Mu'awiyah عليه السلام recovered after treatment.

Amr Tamimi was already to eliminate Amr ibn al-Aas عليه السلام, but Divine decree favoured him. He became severely ill in the night and could not attend the fajr salah on 17th Ramadan. He asked Kharijah ibn Habib to substitute for him. As he stood up to lead the congregation Amr took him to be Amr ibn Al-Aas عليه السلام and attack him with his sword and he fell down a martyr. Amr was arrested and taken to Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas عليه السلام. he thus learnt that he had committed a mistake and, the wretched man that he was, he said to Amr ibn al-Aas عليه السلام, "O sinner! I had intended to kill you."

Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه said, "You had formed that intention but Allah's intention was otherwise." Then, he was killed in qisas (retaliation) for Kharijah ibn Habib.

The third wretched and most hard-hearted man Abdur Rahman ibn Muljam hid himself on 17th Ramadan well before the Fajr salah on the route to the mosque. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه used to call out as-salah as-salah the moment he stepped out of his house till he reached the mosque, urging men to hurry for the salah. That morning as he followed his practice the wretched murderer rushed head-on and struck the sword on his forehead and fled from there but was nabbed by men around and brought to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه. He said to his elder son Hasan رضي الله عنه, "If I survive, I will decide about him as I like. I may forgive him or kill him in qisas. And if I die, he must be killed according to the law of qisas of Shari'ah, but his body should not be mutilated because I have heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say that even if a biting dog is killed he should not be mutilated."

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه died of the wound. Sayyidina Hasan then commanded that the murderer should be killed. The people who were very angry burned down his corpse.

MERITS OF THE FOUR KHALIFAS

In some of his sayings, the Prophet ﷺ mentioned the virtues of all four Khalifas together just as he has mentioned the two and also the three Companions at one time. We narrate some of his sayings in this regard here.

(٢٠٥٢/١٠١) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: رَحِمَ اللَّهُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ فَإِنَّهُ زَوْجُنِي ابْنَتَهُ وَحَمَلَنِي إِلَى دَارِ الْهَجْرَةِ وَأَعْتَقَ بِلَا لَأٍ مِنْ مَالِهِ، رَحِمَ اللَّهُ عُمَرَ يَقُولُ الْحَقُّ وَإِنْ كَانَ مُرًّا تَرَكَهُ الْحَقُّ وَمَا لَهُ صَدِيقٌ، رَحِمَ اللَّهُ عُثْمَانَ تَسْتَحْيِيهِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ، رَحِمَ اللَّهُ عَلِيًّا اللَّهُمَّ أَدْرِ الْحَقَّ مَعَهُ، حَيْثُ دَارَ .

(رواه الترمذی)

(2052/101) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger

ﷺ said, "May Allah's mercy be on Abu Bakr. He gave me his daughter (Ayshah) in marriage, and made arrangements for me (of conveyance, etc.) to reach the Dar ul-Hijrah, Madinah, and bought Bilal with his capital and set him free. May Allah's mercy be on Umar. He speaks what is True though it may be bitter. His true-speaking has left him without a true friend. May Allah's mercy be on Uthman before whom even the angels display bashfulness. And may Allah's mercy be on Ali. O Allah, let truth accompany. May he remain with Truth and may Truth remain with him."

(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has called for Allah's mercy on all four caliphs in this saying. He has recalled three deeds of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ. He gave his daughter in marriage to the Prophet ﷺ. He had at least eight other wives besides her but the marriage with Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها is of significance. The Prophet's ﷺ first wife Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها was a woman of perfect faith and wisdom and she had relieved him of worries on account of domestic needs and so he was at peace. Naturally, her death caused him immense grief. He received a suggestion from the unseen world that he should marry Ayshah رضى الله عنها, the daughter of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ. She was a child but the Prophet ﷺ believed that the suggestion was from Allah. A pious woman Khawlah bint Hakim brought to him the proposal from Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ. Not only was Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها a child but she had already been engaged to the son of Jubayr ibn Mut'im who was very well-off like Abu Bakr ؓ. The Prophet's financial condition was not unknown to anyone. In spite of that Abu Bakr ؓ decided to give his daughter to him in marriage to be able to give solace to the Prophet's heart and earn auspiciousness for himself and his daughter.

The Prophet ﷺ also recalled Sayyidina Abu Bakr's ؓ help during the hijrah. He was with the Prophet throughout the journey besides looking after other arrangements. His third deed was that he purchased Sayyidina Bilal ؓ and set him free. He had been the slave of a cruel disbeliever of Makkah who tortured him mercilessly only because he had believed in Allah. Abu Bakr ؓ paid the price he demanded and relieved Sayyidina Bilal ؓ of his predicament. The Prophet ﷺ named only Bilal ؓ although he had set many other slaves free in this manner.

The Prophet ﷺ then recalled the characteristics of Sayyidina Umar ؓ. He did not care whether the creatures were pleased or angered if he followed Truth in all his affairs. Such a person is dear to Allah and His Messenger ﷺ and is worthy of Divine mercy.

The Prophet ﷺ next remembered Sayyidina Uthman ؓ as one to whom even the angels showed modesty. (we have read about this aspect in the chapter on his merits).

Next he recalled Sayyidina Ali ؓ for whom he prayed for Allah's mercy and beseeched Allah. "Let him be on Truth always and let Truth be with him."

The sequence in which the Prophet ﷺ took these four names discloses their merit in the ummah and their ranks in this order. It was also an indication of the order of their Khalifah. Indeed, there are many other sayings of the Prophet ﷺ in which this sequence is maintained. They all indicate to their order of succession.

(٢٠٥٣/١٠٢) عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ :

أَرْحَمُ أُمَّتِي بِأُمَّتِي أَبُو بَكْرٍ وَأَشَدُّهُمْ فِي أَمْرِ اللَّهِ عُمَرُ وَأَكْرَمُهُمْ حَيَاءُ عُثْمَانُ بْنُ

عَفَّانٍ وَأَقْضَاهُمْ عَلَى بَنِي أَبِي طَالِبٍ . (رواه ابن عساکر)

(2053/102) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ؓ reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Of the people of my ummah, the most merciful to them is Abu Bakr ؓ, and the severest of them regarding Allah's commands is Umar ؓ, and the noblest of them is Uthman ibn Affan ؓ in modesty, and the most just of them (in deciding cases) is Ali ibn Abu Talib ؓ." (Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ has mentioned the characteristic of each of his Khalifahs in which he excelled over the rest of the ummah. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ, Umar ؓ, Uthman ؓ and Ali ؓ ibn Abu Talib each was outstanding as the most merciful, the most severe in matters of Allah's injunctions and rights, in modesty which a Hadith describes as a department of faith, and in passing fair judgements in cases of disputes etc. which, indeed, was Allah's choicest blessing and a peculiarity of Khalifah.

(٢٠٥٤/١٠٣) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ، قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ فَضَّلَ عَلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ وَعُثْمَانَ وَعَلِيٍّ فَقَدَرَدَ مَا قُلْتُهُ، وَكَذَّبَ مَا هُمْ أَهْلُهُ.

(رواه الرافعي)

(2054/103) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone gives excellence (to some other person) over Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman and Ali then he rejects what I have said and belies their rank on which they are (in the sight of Allah). (al-Raf'ee)

Commentary: The Muslims are agreed on the excellence of these four Companions over the ummah and the Prophet's ﷺ sayings in this regard are very clear. If anyone believes otherwise then he is guilty of rejecting the Prophet's ﷺ sayings.

(٢٠٥٥/١٠٤) عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : لَا يَجْتَمِعُ حُبُّ هَؤُلَاءِ الْأَرْبَعَةِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرَ وَعُثْمَانَ وَعَلِيٍّ فِي قَلْبٍ مُنَافِقٍ.

(رواه الطبراني في الاوسط وابن عساكر)

(2055/104) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reports that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The love of these four (my companions and friends) Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman and Ali cannot come together in the heart of an hypocrite." (Mu'jam Awsat, Tabarani, Ibn Asakir.)

Commentary: Indeed, the ahl us-Sunnah wal Jama'at hold it as part of faith to love all the four Companions رضي الله عنهم. If an unfortunate one despises any of these four then his faith is invalid and he is deprived of belief.

As we have already pointed out these four people are mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ in this sequence and it is also the order of their rank.

A Fact About Their Excellence

There are fewer Ahadith about the merits of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه than there are about Uthman رضي الله عنه whose number is relatively larger. Those about Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه merits are the most — very many, indeed. The reason is that the Companions رضي الله عنهم were acquainted with the merits of Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه and they did not need to look out for the Ahadith on their merits and then convey to other members of the ummah.

Sayyidina Uthman  faced rebellion and opposition towards the end of his Khilafah and there was much character assassination — these moves were led by the hypocrite Abdullah ibn Saba. Therefore, it became necessary to acquaint the masses with his merits which were, therefore, searched and made known. Similarly, Sayyidina Ali  also faced stiff opposition and his personality became disputable especially because of the Khawarij who regarded him as liable to be killed because of mischief in religion and trial of ummah. So, Ahadith on his merits too had to be searched. Also, there were many who regarded it rewarding to invent Ahadith about his merits, many of those lived a seemingly righteous life. The muhadditheen could not always sift the fabricated Ahadith from the authentic and so some of them found their way in our books. That is why Ahadith of Sayyidina Ali's  merits are found in exceptionally large number and it is necessary to examine them from a critical point of view on the principles laid down in this field. I have reached an age and become so weak and unhealthy that I cannot undertake this task but I pray that Allah may raise someone among those worthy to do this task and complete it.

THE REMAINING OF THE TEN GIVEN GLAD TIDINGS

The Prophet ﷺ had named ten of his Companions ﷺ as dwellers of Paradise. They are called the ashrah mubashsharah (ten who were given the glad tidings). We will read the Hadith about it as transmitted by Tirmizi.

The four Caliphs, whose merits we have already read, are among the ten. The Prophet ﷺ named them before everyone else. Now, we read about the rest.

(٢٠٥٦/١٠٥) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: أَبُو بَكْرٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَعُمَرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَعُثْمَانُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَعَلِيٌّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَطَلْحَةُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَالزُّبَيْرُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَوْفٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَسَعْدُ ابْنُ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَسَعِيدُ ابْنِ زَيْدٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَأَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2056/105) Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ﷺ said that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Abu Bakr will go to Paradise, Umar will go to Paradise, Uthman will go to Paradise, Ali will go to Paradise, Talhah will go to Paradise, Zubayr will go to Paradise, Abdur Rahman ibn Awf will go to Paradise, Sa'ad ibn Abu Waqqas will go to Paradise, Sa'eed ibn Zayd will go to Paradise, and Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah will go to Paradise." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Obviously, the Prophet ﷺ announced this after being informed accordingly through revelation from Allah. The scholars of the ahl us-Sunnah have concluded from this Hadith that these ten people are more excellent than the other Companions and all the ummah. Of course, the Prophet ﷺ has also given glad tidings to other people at different times that they would go to Paradise.

We reproduce the Ahadith of the merits of these people in the same order in which they are named in the above Hadith.

Talhah Ibn Ubaydullah رضي الله عنه

(٢٠٥٧/١٠٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ : نَظَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُيَيْدٍ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: مَنْ سَرَّهُ أَنْ يَنْظُرَ إِلَى شَهِيدٍ يَمْشِي عَلَى وَجْهِ الْأَرْضِ فَلْيَنْظُرْ إِلَى طَلْحَةَ
(رواه الترمذی)

(2057/106) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that when he saw Sayyidina Talhah ibn Ubaydullah رضي الله عنه, Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone finds pleasure in looking at a martyr walking on the face of the earth then he must look at Talhah ibn Ubaydullah."
(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ had been informed that Sayyidina Talhah would be martyred. The style of this saying highlights the merit of Sayyidina Talhah رضي الله عنه and the extraordinary approval of martyrdom. He was martyred about twenty-five years after the Prophet's ﷺ death in the Battle of Jamal. Indeed, that was a miracle of the Prophet ﷺ.

(٢٠٥٨/١٠٧) عَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ : كَانَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ دِرْعَانِ، فَتَهَضَّ إِلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِيعْ فَقَعَدَ طَلْحَةُ تَحْتَهُ، حَتَّى اسْتَوَى عَلَى الصَّخْرَةِ، فَسَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ أَوْجَبَ طَلْحَةُ
(رواه الترمذی)

(2058/107) Sayyidina Zubayr رضي الله عنه said: The Prophet ﷺ was wearing two coats of mail in the Battle of Uhud. He decided to climb up to a rock but was unable to do that (because of the weight of the extra material he had on him). So, Talhah رضي الله عنه sat down (that he may step on him and climb up). The Prophet ﷺ placed his foot on his back and ascended the rock. I (Zubayr رضي الله عنه) heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say "أَوْجَبَ طَلْحَةُ" "Talhah has made (Paradise) certain for him."
(Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: The Hadith tells us that it is proper to employ means to achieve one's ends like victory over the enemy and wearing coat of mail. It is also a sunnah.

(٢٠٥٩/١٠٨) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ قَالَ : رَأَيْتُ يَدَ طَلْحَةَ شَلَاءَ وَقِيَ بِهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ.
(رواه البخارى)

(2059/108) Sayyidina Qays ibn Hazim reported that he had seen Talha's عليه السلام hand had wilted. This was the hand with which he had protected the Prophet ﷺ in the Battle of Uhud (from the enemy swords).
(Saheeh Bukhari)

Commentary: During the Battle of Uhud the archers of the enemy targeted the Prophet ﷺ with their arrows. Sayyidina Talhah عليه السلام tried to protect him with his shield but he had his hand wounded and the shield dropped down from it. So, he used every limb of his body to protect the Prophet ﷺ from the onslaught of the arrows and did not allow even a single arrow to strike the Prophet ﷺ. As a result, one of his hands became useless and his whole body had wounds over it. More than eighty wounds were counted over his body but Allah willed him to live and he also participated in almost all battles thereafter with the Prophet ﷺ. He continued to serve religion till the times of Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام and martyrdom was his fate in the Battle of Jamal.

It is worth observing about the narrator of this Hadith, Qays ibn Abu Hazim that, according to the strict terminology, he was not a Companion. He had embraced Islam in the Prophet's lifetime and undertook the journey to Madinah to swear allegiance at the hands of the Prophet ﷺ but he reached there when the Prophet ﷺ had departed from this world. Hence, though he is a tabi'ee yet his name is found with the Companions رضي الله عنهم because he had journeyed to Madinah with the intention of meeting the Prophet ﷺ and swearing allegiance to him. It is as though the Prophet's ﷺ saying "انما الا اعمال بالنيات وانما لامرء مانوى" (Surely deeds are judged by the intention that prompt them and surely rewards will depend on intentions) applied to him.

Sayyidina Zubayr عليه السلام

(٢٠٦٠/١٠٩) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ، قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَاتِنِي بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ يَوْمَ الْأَحْزَابِ، قَالَ الزُّبَيْرُ : أَنَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

إِنَّ لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ حَوَارِيًّا وَحَوَارِيَّ الرَّبُّوبِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2060/109) Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه reported that on the day of the Battle of Ahzab, the Prophet ﷺ said, "Who will bring me news from the enemy (army)?" Sayyidina Zubayr said, "I will!" So, the Prophet said, "Every Prophet has a hawari (sincere disciple) and mine is Zubayr." (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Battle of Ahzab (also called Khandaq) was fought in 5 AH. It is distinguished on certain accounts. The Qur'an describes it in two ruku' (sections), and the surah is also named after it. We write here in brief about it.

The Quraysh, as we know, were staunch enemies of the Prophet ﷺ and Islam. They had resolved not to wage war against the Muslims any more after Uhud. However, the Banu Nadeer (Jews) whom the Prophet ﷺ had expelled and who had settled at Khayber continued to conspire against Islam. They schemed to instigate all Arab prominent tribes to join hands with them and attack the Muslims with full force to eliminate them. They sent their envoys to the Quraysh too and assured them that they would convince other tribes to join forces and that the Jews around Madinah (including Banu Qurayzah) would also fight the Muslims who would then not be able to resist and would be wiped out of existence. Having convinced the Quraysh, they persuaded the Ghatafan, Banu Asad, and other tribes to join the confederation, assuring them that the fertile lands would then be theirs. In this way, they prepared an army of ten thousand or twelve thousand men to attack Madinah.

The Prophet ﷺ consulted his Companions رضي الله عنهم. The Madinan Muslims who could be expected to fight did not exceed three thousand. That was the Islamic force. They did not possess even one-tenth of necessities of life and materials of war that the enemies possessed. So, they decided to defend themselves from within Madinah.

Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه suggested that trenches should be dug around Madinah's plains as was done in Iran where he belonged. Not men and not horses should be able to cross them. The Prophet ﷺ and his Companions رضي الله عنهم approved this proposal. Madinah was surrounded by mountains on three sides which were impassable so that no enemy could infiltrate from there but the southern side was plain land and the enemy could invade from there. It was decided to dig trenches on this side, ten cubits deep and ten cubits wide. Teams of ten Muslims each began the work and, in spite of severe cold, they worked day and night very strenuously. The length of the trench was about one and a half miles.

The enemy advanced under the command of Abu Sufyan and encamped opposite the trenches. They had tents and provision in plenty. They stayed there for about a month but it was not possible for them to cross over the trenches. All the two sides did was shoot some arrows and, as a result, seven Companions ﷺ were martyred and four idolaters were consigned to Hell. The Qur'an has mentioned the severest test of the Muslims in this battle and their sacrifice but it has not treated any other Battle in the same way and as exhaustively. It says further down that Allah sent them His help and a violent storm uprooted the tents of the enemy, their cooking pots were upturned and some of their horses and camels broke loose and escaped. (Many of them might have considered it as a punishment and) their commander decided to call it a day and the mammoth army returned dejected.

وكفى الله المؤمنين القتال. (الاحزاب ٢٥:٣٣)

{And Allah Sufficeth for the Believers in fighting} (al-Ahzab 33:25)

During the time the armies were poised against one another, the Prophet ﷺ asked for a volunteer to investigate the enemy's thinking. This was a very risky undertaking but Sayyidina Zubayr ؓ was the first person to offer himself for the task for which the Prophet ﷺ called him his hawari (disciple) as every Prophet ﷺ had one. Indeed, that is a great merit of Zubayr ؓ.

Among the ashrah mubash sharah, like Sayyidina Ali ؓ, he too was closely related to the Prophet ﷺ, while Sayyidina Ali ؓ was his paternal uncle Abu Talib's son and, therefore, his cousin. Zubayr ؓ was also the Prophet's ﷺ cousin being the son of his paternal aunt, Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها daughter of Abdul Muttalib.

(٢٠٦١/١١٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ عَلَى

حِرَاءَ هُوَ وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ وَعَلِيٌّ وَعُثْمَانُ وَطَلْحَةُ وَزُبَيْرٌ فَتَحَرَّكَتِ الصَّخْرَةُ
فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : إِهْدَأْ فَمَا عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا نَبِيٌّ أَوْ صِدِّيقٌ
أَوْ شَهِيدٌ. (رواه مسلم)

(2061/110) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ was on Mount Hira with Abu Bakr, Umar, Ali, Uthman, Talhah and Zubayr. The rock (on which they were) shook and Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (to it), "Be still, for only a Prophet, a siddiq and a martyr are on you." (Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: This kind of miraculous events took place often as we have seen in some Ahadith previously. This time apart from the four Khalifahs, Sayyidina Talhah رضي الله عنه and Zubayr رضي الله عنه were also with him — all of them being among the ten of glad tidings. The Prophet ﷺ also referred to both of them as martyrs, and both were martyred in the Battle of Jamal.

(٢٠٦٢/١١١) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ : سَمِعْتُ أُذُنَيَّ مِنْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ: طَلْحَةُ وَالزُّبَيْرُ جَارَايَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ. (رواه الترمذی)
(2062/111) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said, "My ears heard from the mouth of Allah's Messenger ﷺ: Talhah and Zubayr will be my neighbours in Paradise." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه used to mention the virtues of these two men very emphatically especially about their martyrdom and admittance to Paradise. He adopted a unique style in this Hadith "سَمِعْتُ أُذُنَيَّ مِنْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ" my ears heard the Prophet's ﷺ mouth say. Obviously that was to emphasise the message the main reason for being that both of them were martyred although they had detached themselves from the Battle of Jamal by some men of Sayyidina Ali's army.

This was a unique, unprecedented war both sides of which were unwilling to fight it. Both were aware of the merits of the other side and accepted that but some human devils, Abdullah ibn saba and his henchmen were successful in inciting both sides to war in the darkness of the night. This war was fought unintentionally and both sides were grieved thereafter and they regularly sought forgiveness of Allah after that and tried their best to make amends.¹

Abdur Rahman Ibn Awf رضي الله عنه

(٢٠٦٣/١١٢) عَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ الصِّمَّةِ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ : سَأَلَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ وَهُوَ فِي الشَّعْبِ هَلْ رَأَيْتَ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ عَوْفٍ؟ قُلْتُ: نَعَمْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ رَأَيْتُهُ إِلَى حَرِّ الْجَبَلِ وَعَلَيْهِ عِكَرٌ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ فَهَوَيْتُ إِلَيْهِ لِأَمْنَعَهُ، فَرَأَيْتَكَ فَعَدَلْتُ إِلَيْكَ، فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمَا إِنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ تُقَاتِلُ مَعَهُ، فَرَجَعْتُ إِلَى عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ فَأَجَدَهُ بَيْنَ نَفَرٍ سَبْعَةٍ صَرَخُوا فَقُلْتُ لَهُ، ظَفَرْتُ يَمِينِكَ أَكُلَ هَؤُلَاءِ قَتَلْتُ؟ قَالَ : أَمَا هَذَا لَأَرْطَاهُ بْنُ عَبْدِ شُرَحْبِيلَ وَهَذَانِ فَأَنَا قَتَلْتُهُمَا، وَأَمَا هَؤُلَاءِ فَقَتَلَهُمْ مَنْ لَمْ أَرَهُ، قُلْتُ : صَدَقَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

(رواه ابن منده في مسنده والطبراني في المعجم الكبير، وابو نعيم في الحلية)

(2063/112) Sayyidina Harith ibn Simmah رضي الله عنه said that on the day of Uhud when the Messenger ﷺ of Allah was in the valley he asked him whether he had seen Abdur Rahman ibn Awf. He said, "Yes, O Messenger of Allah. I have seen him on the side of the dark rocks of the mountains. A party of the idolaters were fighting him and I intended to go to him and help him when I saw you and came to you." The Prophet ﷺ said, "It should be known that Allah's angels are fighting for him." Harith said that he then went back towards Abdur Rahman ibn Awf and saw that seven idolaters were lying dead near him and he said to him, "May your hands be successful. Did you kill all of them?" He said, "I did kill this Artah ibn Abd Shurahbil and these two. As for the four, I did not see who killed them." So, he said, "Allah and His Messenger are True." (Ibn Mundah in Musnad, Tabarani in Mu'jam Kabeer, Abu Nu'aym in Hilyah.)

Commentary: Knowledge of a little background of the Battle of Uhud is necessary to be able to understand this Hadith.

The Battle of Badr was fought in Ramadan 2 AH. The Muslims fighters numbered only 313 and they had almost nothing in war equipment because they had not advanced from Madinah with intent to fight. So, whatever little they had at their disposal, they could not carry even that. The Makkan army was more than three times the Muslims number and had advanced with intention to fight fully equipped. In spite of that Allah gave the Muslims an overwhelming victory through unseen help. Seventy of the idolaters were killed and they included Abu Jahl and many other chiefs of Quraysh and seventy were arrested while the others fled from the battlefield. This result infuriated the common man in Makkah and they burned to seek vengeance. So, they armed themselves for a full year and in Shawwal 3 AH exactly a year after the Battle of Badr, three thousand men marched towards Madinah under Abu Sufyan to wipe out the Muslims. The Prophet ﷺ advanced from Madinah with seven hundred men and came upto Uhud about 2½ miles away. They put the mountain behind them and stopped on the plain. There was a pass in the mountain where the Prophet ﷺ stationed fifty archers to prevent enemy infiltration from it. Abdullah ibn Jubayr ؓ (the ace archer) was appointed their ameer with firm instructions to stay out at this spot.

①. See Sirat Khulafa'e Rashideen of Mawlana Abdul Shakoor Farooqi Lucknowi, (Chapter on Sayyidina Ali)

The Muslims attacked so severely with the word go that the enemy four times their number was compelled to flee. The warriors began to collect war booty and the archer also deserted their post to gather the booty. Their ameer, Abdullah ibn Jubayr ؓ tried to stop them but they excused themselves saying that the Prophet's ﷺ command was upto the battle and that was over. Abdullah ibn Jubayr ؓ and some others stood their ground. Khalid ibn Waleed who was not a Muslim till then brought some of his men from that pass and Abdullah ibn Jubayr ؓ and the few archers he had could not stop their onslaught and they were all martyred. Khalid ibn Walid attacked the unwary Muslims from the rear and they were taken unawares. Many Muslims panicked and could not fight and many top-ranked Companions were martyred. The Prophet ﷺ was also injured badly. Then, suddenly, with the unseen help of Allah, the tables turned. The Companions ؓ reassembled on learning that the Prophet ﷺ was alive and routed the enemy. The Hadith under discussion concerns this stage of the battle. It seems that it was disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ by Allah that Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ؓ was fighting the idolaters and Allah's angels were helping him.

That is why he asked Harith ibn Simmah رضي الله عنه about him and told him that أَمَّا إِنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ تُقَاتِلُ مَعَهُ angels were fighting for him. So Harith رضي الله عنه went to him and asked him if he had killed all the seven dead idolaters around him. He confirmed having killed three with Allah's help but did not know about the other four how they were there. Sayyidina Harith ibn Simmah رضي الله عنه exclaimed, “صَدَقَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ” (Allah and His Messenger have spoken the Truth) meaning, "I have seen with my eyes that the angels fought on Abdur Rahman's side as the Prophet ﷺ said and my faith is now strengthened."

The Hadith brings out the merit of Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf who fought the idolaters with determination even in difficult times and Allah's angels helped him. And, what the Prophet ﷺ disclosed about him was the Prophet's ﷺ miracle.

(٢٠٦٤/١١٣) عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ : بَلَّغْنِي أَنَّ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنَ عَوْفٍ جُرِحَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ أَحَدًا وَعِشْرِينَ جِرَاحَةً وَجُرِحَ فِي رِجْلِهِ فَكَانَ يَعْرِجُ مِنْهَا.

(رواه ابو نعيم وابن عساكر)

(2064/113) Ibrahim ibn Sa'd (a Tabi'ee) said: I have learnt that in the Battle of Uhud Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه received twenty-one wounds (from swords and arrows). He was injured in the foot too and walked with a limp. (Abu Nu'aym, Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ was badly injured in the Battle of Uhud. Indeed, those people have attained a high rank who were wounded in this battle or martyred. Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه was one of them.

(٢٠٦٥/١١٤) عَنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ أَنَّهُ كَانَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ فَأَتَاهُ بِوَضُوءٍ فَتَوَضَّأَ وَمَسَحَ عَلَى الْخُفَّيْنِ ثُمَّ لَحِقَ بِالنَّاسِ فَإِذَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَوْفٍ يُصَلِّي بِهِمْ، فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ هَمَّ أَنْ يَرْجِعَ فَأَوْمَأَ إِلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ مَكَانَكَ فَصَلِّينَا خَلْفَهُ مَا أَدْرَكْنَا وَقَضَيْنَا مَا فَاتَنَا.

(رواه الضياء المقدسي في المختاره)

(2065/114) Sayyidina Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضي الله عنه said that he accompanied the Prophet ﷺ in a journey. He brought water that the Prophet ﷺ may make ablution during which he wiped the socks (he was wearing — that is, made masah). Then he joined the congregational salah. Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه was leading the salah and on seeing the Prophet ﷺ thought of moving back into the congregation (that the Prophet ﷺ may lead the congregation) but he indicated to him that he should carry on. (Mughirah ؓ said:) "We prayed behind Abdur Rahman ibn Awf whatever portion we could get and the remaining salah we offered ourselves." (Mukhtarah, Diya Maqdisi)

Commentary: This Hadith has narrated the event very briefly. Another Hadith — also related by Mughirah — is transmitted by Kanz ul-ummal on the authority of sunan Sa'eed ibn Mansoor. The gist of it is:

Someone asked Mughirah ibn Shu'bah ؓ if the Prophet ﷺ had followed anyone in salah besides Abu Bakr ؓ. So, he related: We were together with the Prophet ﷺ in a journey. When the time of dawn approached, he got up and I followed him and we parted from the others till they were very far. Then he left me and went till I could not see him. He came back after having relieved himself and asked me if I had water and I said, "Yes, I have it." I took water from my water-skin that was hanging from the saddle of my riding beast and brought it to him. He washed both hands thoroughly, while I poured water over them. Then he washed his face and arms (up to the elbows), wiped his head and wiped the socks too. Then we mounted our beasts and returned. The congregational salah had begun with Abdur Rahman ibn Awf as the imam. He was in the second rak'ah and I was about to tell him (that the Prophet ﷺ was here) but he forbade me and we offered the second raka'ah behind Abdur Rahman ibn Awf, and the first, which had been offered before we had come, we both offered thereafter.

It is clarified in another version that when it was getting very late (and they did not know where the Prophet ﷺ had gone) they decided by consultation to offer the salah and appointed Abdur Rahman ibn Awf as their imam. Then, the Prophet ﷺ came when the second raka'ah was in progress and Mughirah joined the congregation behind Abdur Rahman ibn Awf whereafter they completed their salah.

Thus, Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ؓ had the honour of leading a congregation in which the Prophet ﷺ followed him. He wished to move back but the Prophet ﷺ backoned him to carry on.

(٢٠٦٦/١١٥) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ، قَالَتْ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ لِأَزْوَاجِهِ: إِنَّ الَّذِي يَخْتُو عَلَيَّكَنَّ بَعْدِي هُوَ الصَّادِقُ الْبَادِ، اللَّهُمَّ اسْقِ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ مِنْ سَلْسَبِيلِ الْجَنَّةِ. (رواه احمد)

(2066/115) Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها said that she heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say to his wives: He who helps you generously after my death is a sincere believer and a kind man. O Allah! Let Abdur Rahman drink from the salsabeel of Paradise. (Musnad Ahmad)

Commentary: Salsabeel is a pure and clean spring in Paradise. The Qur'an says in verse 18 of surah ad-Dahr:

عَيْنًا فِيهَا تُسَمَّى سَلْسَبِيلًا..... (الدھر ١٨:٧٦)

{A fountain therein named Salsabeel}.

The Prophet ﷺ had already said that the Prophet's do not leave behind a legacy for their and whatever they left behind was given away in charity for the sake of Allah, so his wives could have a concern for themselves on how they would subsist after he had gone. Therefore, he comforted them that Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ؓ would help them generously. This was again his miracle. There is a Hadith in Tirmizi that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said to Abu Salamah the son of Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ؓ, "May Allah give your father drink from Salsabeel (a spring) in Paradise." Abdur Rahman ibn Awf had donated to the Prophet's ﷺ wives a garden which was later sold for forty thousand, but another version puts the figure at four hundred thousand. The commentators have reconciled the two versions by suggesting that the sale proceeds were forty thousand dinars or four hundred thousand dirham. (This was the ratio of these currencies in the Prophet's ﷺ times.

(٢٠٦٧/١١٦) عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُجَمِّعٍ بْنِ حَارِثَةَ، أَنَّ عُمَرَ قَالَ لَأَمْ كُلُّنَا بَنَاتِ عَقَبَةِ امْرَأَةِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ: أَقَالَ لَكَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّكَ حَيٌّ سَيِّدَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ عَبْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ؟ قَالَتْ: نَعَمْ. (رواه ابن منده وابن عساكر)

(2067/116) Abdur Rahman ibn Abdullah ibn Majma' ibn Harithah رضي الله عنه reported that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه asked Umm Kulthum bint (daughter of) Aqabah and wife of Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه, "Is it true that the Prophet ﷺ had said to you that you should marry Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه who is Sayyid ul-Muslimeen (Chief of the Muslims)?" She said, "Yes!"

(Musnad Ibn Mundah, Tareekh Ibn Asakir)

Commentary: The Prophet ﷺ called Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه Sayyid ul-Muslimeen. Indeed, that is his excellence of a very high degree.

Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه

(٢٠٦٨/١١٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ، قَالَ، مَا سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَمَعَ أَبَوَيْهِ لِأَحَدٍ إِلَّا لِسَعْدِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ فَإِنِّي سَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ "يَا سَعْدُ! اِرْمِ فِدَاكَ أَبِي وَأُمِّي"

(رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(2068/117) Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said that he never heard the Prophet ﷺ name his parents together except for Sa'd ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه (which refers to Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas). At the Battle of Uhud he said to Sa'd. "يَا سَعْدُ! اِرْمِ فِدَاكَ أَبِي وَأُمِّي" "O Sa'd! my father and my mother be your ransom, shoot the arrows!"

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: By saying Sa'd ibn Maalik, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه refers to Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas. Sa'd's father was Maalik whose kunyah was Abu Waqqas.

We have read about the Battle of Uhud in the account of Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه. Among those who were steadfast, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه was an adept archer and he was near the Prophet ﷺ and he said to him what we have read in the Hadith. Besides showing him encouragement, the Prophet ﷺ also expressed thereby his extreme pleasure. Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه is quoted in Sharah as-Sunnah as saying that the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him "اللَّهُمَّ اشْدُدْ رَمِيَّتَهُ وَاجِبْ دَعْوَتَهُ" (O Allah, let his archery be strong and approve his supplication).

Jami' Tirmizi has a tradition by Sa'd ascribing this prayer to the Prophet "اللَّهُمَّ اسْتَجِبْ لِسَعْدٍ إِذَا دَعَاكَ!" (O Allah! Answer his prayer whenever Sa'd makes one to You). Thus, generally his prayer were answered and people requested him to pray for them and feared his curse.

(٢٠٦٩/١١٨) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: سَهَرَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَقْدِمَهُ الْمَدِينَةَ لَيْلَةً فَقَالَ: "لَيْتَ رَجُلًا صَالِحًا يَحْرُسُنِي" إِذْ سَمِعْنَا صَوْتَ سَلَاحٍ فَقَالَ: "مَنْ هَذَا؟" قَالَ: أَنَا سَعْدٌ قَالَ: "مَا جَاءَ بِكَ؟" قَالَ: وَقَعَ فِي نَفْسِي خَوْفٌ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجِئْتُ أَخْرُسُهُ، فَدَعَا لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ نَامَ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)
(2069/118) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported that when Allah's Messenger ﷺ came to Madinah (after a battle), he could not sleep one night (perhaps fearing something). He said, "Would that a brave man came in to guard!" They heard at the same time sound of weapons and the Prophet ﷺ asked, "Who is that?" and Sa'd replied that he was there. The Prophet ﷺ asked, "Why are you here at this time?" He said, "I sensed fear for you (lest an enemy may hurt you) so I came to guard you." The Prophet ﷺ then prayed for him and slept peacefully.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim).

Commentary: When anyone develops a love for another for the sake of Allah then it happens that the condition of his love's heart reflects on him. The case of Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Waqqas ؓ is an example. The Prophet ﷺ had become restless and hoped for a guard to stand for him and Sa'd's ؓ heart received that reflection. Indeed, his love of the Prophet ﷺ for Allah's sake was a great blessing of Allah on him and a great excellence.

(٢٠٧٠/١١٩) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ أَبِي حَازِمٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ سَعْدَ بْنَ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ يَقُولُ: إِنِّي لَأَوَّلُ رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ رَمَى بِسَهْمٍ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَرَأَيْتُنَا نَغْزُو مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَا لَنَا طَعَامٌ إِلَّا الْحَبْلَةُ وَوَرَقُ السَّمَرِ، وَإِنْ كَانَ أَحَدُنَا لَيَضَعُ كَمَا تَضَعُ الشَّاةُ مَالَهُ، خِلَطٌ، ثُمَّ أَصْبَحَتْ بَنُو أَسَدٍ تُعَزِّرُونِي عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ، لَقَدْ خَبْتُ إِذَا وَضَلَ عَمَلِي، وَكَانُوا وَشَوَاهِبِهِ إِلَى عَمْرٍ، وَقَالُوا: لَا يُحْسِنُ يُصَلِّي

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)
(2070/119) Qays ibn Abu Hazim said that he heard Sa'd ibn Abu

Waqqaṣ عليه السلام say. "I was the first man among the Arabs to shoot an arrow in Allah's path (against Islam's enemies). I saw myself and my friends the other Companions that we took part in jihad with Allah's Messenger عليه السلام (against enemies of Islam) while we had nothing to eat except the fruit and leaves of mimosa and (because of this diet) we passed stool like sheep's in small pieces (very dry). And, now, the Banu Asad reprove me about Islam and I feel a loser and hopeless and all my deeds seem fruitless." (The fact was that) the members of Banu Isra'il had complained to Sayyidina Umar that Sa'd did not perform salah properly.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام as Khalifah had appointed Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqaṣ عليه السلام as governor of Kufah which made him responsible to lead the men in salah, too. Sayyidina Zubayr ibn Awwam's grandfather was Asad. Hence, all his clan was known as Banu Asad. Some of them complained to Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام that Sa'd عليه السلام did not offer prayers properly. He wrote to him that he had received a complaint about him and he naturally felt bad about it. The words he spoke are found in the Hadith. He recollected that he was the first archer for Islam in the first year of hijrah when the Prophet عليه السلام had sent him with a party to fight jihad. He also recollected how he and other Companions عليهم السلام lacked provision fit for human beings yet were steadfast in jihad. He then lamented that if the complaint against him was genuine then he was absolutely a failure losing his past deeds.

Salah is the first and basic essential of faith. So, Sa'd عليه السلام regarded the complaint that he did not perform prayers properly as improper observance of Islam. Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqaṣ عليه السلام sent a reply to the Khalifah that he observed salah exactly as he had seen the Prophet عليه السلام observe it and Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام confirmed to him that he had a similar impression about him but had informed him of the complaint as a matter of protocol, and he rejected the complaint of Banu Asad.

We learn from this Hadith that it is proper for a man, if he finds it necessary, to recall his efforts for Islam. This is not arrogance and egoism which are disallowed.

We mention some things about Sayyidina Sa'd عليه السلام which are found in authentic Ahadith in different ways.

He disclosed it on his own that he was the third person to accept the Prophet's call to Islam. He was a young man of only seventeen summers. His mother applied extreme pressure on him that he should not relinquish the religion of his forefathers. When he did not obey her, she vowed not to eat or drink anything unless he submitted to her. She did not take anything for many days and fainted three times, meanwhile. But, while Sayyidina Sa'd رضي الله عنه tried to reconcile her, he was not prepared to forsake Islam. According to a report in Saheeh Muslim, this verse was revealed on the occasion:

”وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ عَلَىٰ أَنْ تُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا وَصَاحِبُهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا مَعْرُوفًا“
(لقمّن ٣١: ١٥)

{but if they strive (to compel) you to associate with Me that of which you have no knowledge, then obey them not, yet keep honourable company with them in this world.} (Luqman, 31:15)
(part of it is also in al-Ankaboot verse 8)

It is also known about him that he had sworn allegiance to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه after the martyrdom of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه but when a civil strife took place because of the innocent martyrdom of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, he resolved to keep himself away from that. When Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, or his men, tried to win him over to their side, he said, "Get me a sword that will kill a disbeliever but be ineffective on a Believer." Further, not only did he keep himself aloof from the in-fighting but he also went away from Madinah to Wadi Aqeeq where he built his home on his land and took his family there so that he would also not receive news of the fighting.

Iraq and all of Faris (Iran) was conquered under his command.

He died in 55 AH in the times of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah at his house in Wadi Aqeeq and his body was brought to Jannat ul-Baqee' in Madinah for burial. He was the last of the 'ten with glad tidings' to die. رضى الله عنه وارضاه

Sa'eed Ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه

(٢٠٧١/١٢٠) عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ زَيْدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ نَفِيلٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ : أَشْهَدُ عَلَى
التَّسْعَةِ أَنَّهُمْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَلَوْ شَهِدْتُ عَلَى الْعَاشِرِ لَمْ أَتِمَّ : قِيلَ : وَكَيْفَ ذَاكَ،

قَالَ: كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِحِرَاءَ، فَقَالَ: أُثْبِتْ حِرَاءَ فَإِنَّهُ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا نَبِيٌّ أَوْ صِدِّيقٌ أَوْ شَهِيدٌ، قِيلَ: وَمَنْ هُمْ؟ قَالَ، رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ، وَعُمَرُ، وَعُثْمَانُ وَعَلِيٌّ وَطَلْحَةُ وَالزُّبَيْرُ وَسَعْدُ وَعَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ عَوْفٍ، قِيلَ: فَمَنِ الْعَاشِرُ؟ قَالَ أَنَا. (رواه الترمذی)

(2071/120) Sayyidina Sa'eed ibn Zayd ibn Amr ibn Nufayl رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I give testimony for nine people that they will go to Paradise and if I give the same testimony about a tenth man that he will be admitted to Paradise then I will not be a sinner." He was asked how was that and on what basis he said that. So, Sa'eed said, "We were on the mountain Hira with the Prophet ﷺ (and it shook). The Prophet ﷺ said to it that it should still down for there was on it either a Prophet or a Siddiq (truthful one) or a martyr." He was then asked who were there with him and he said, "(Besides) the Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali, Talhah, Zubayr and Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) and Abdur Rahman ibn Awf." He was asked who the tenth man was, and he said, "I myself." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: We have read the Hadith that names the ten who were given the glad tidings (ashrah mubash sharah). While the nine names are common to that Hadith and this one, the tenth in the former is Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ. I suppose that Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ was not present at the Mount Hira.

The other difference is that in the earlier Hadith narrated by Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ the Prophet ﷺ named the ten men and said that they would go to Paradise but in this Hadith he did not call any name and said nothing apart from, "O Hira, be still! At the moment a Prophet, a Siddiq and a martyr are over you." The rest is the statement of Sayyidina Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ that there were nine Companions with the Prophet ﷺ at that time and he named them. He was confident on the basis of the Prophet's sayings that, indeed, all of them would go to Paradise and so bore testimony for that because there is no doubt that a Prophet, a siddiq and a martyr would be admitted to Paradise. Of course, the Prophet ﷺ was there, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was a siddiq — in fact a great siddiq, Sayyidina Umar رضی اللہ عنہ, Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ, Ali رضی اللہ عنہ, Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ, Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ — five of them — were martyrs, while the remaining Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه and Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه were also siddiq (the truthful ones).

As for Sayyidina Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه, we know his position from a Hadith in this very series in the Kitab al-Mu'amlaat concerning usurption. One of its narrators was Sayyidina Sa'eed رضي الله عنه ibn Zayd himself. It would not be incongruous if we reproduce it here:

{A woman (named Arwa) filed a petition in the times of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه before Sayyidina Marwan, the governor of Madinah, against this very Sa'eed ibn Zayd that he had usurped some of her land. Sayyidina Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه was much grieved at the false accusation. He said to Marwan:

” قَالَ: اَنَا اَنْتَقِصُ مِنْ حَقِّهَا شَيْئًا اَشْهَدُ لَسَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ: مَنْ اَخَذَ شِبْرًا مِّنَ الْاَرْضِ ظُلْمًا فَانَّهُ يُطَوَّقُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِنْ سَبْعِ اَرْضِيْنَ

"Will I take away the land of this woman? I bear witness that I have heard the Messenger of Allah say: If anyone takes a span of land wrongfully it will be tied round him like a necklace to a depth of seven earths."

Sayyidina Sa'eed رضي الله عنه related this Hadith with such a sincere heart and in such a way that Marwan was deeply impressed and said, "I no more ask you for an evidence or proof." Then Sayyidina Sa'eed رضي الله عنه made a supplication (with a pained heart) against the woman, "O Allah, if this woman has accused me falsely then deprive her of the sight of her eyes and let her land be the site of her grave." (Sayyidina Urwah the narrator said:) Then this prayer did materialise and I saw the woman with my own eyes she turned blind in her old age and used to say that Sa'eed's curse fell on her. One day as she was walking on her land she fell into a ditch and died, that became her grave."}

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

May Allah cause us to learn from this incident.

Abu Ubaydah Ibn Jarrah رضي الله عنه

(٢٠٧٢/١٢١) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ”لِكُلِّ اُمَّةٍ اَمِيْنٌ وَاَمِيْنُ هَذِهِ الْاُمَّةِ اَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ، بَنُ الْجَرَّاحِ. (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2072/121) Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Every ummah has an ameen (a true worthy man) and the ameen of my ummah is Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضي الله عنه."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: We have explained earlier in this book that the word amanat is used in the Qur'an and Ahadith in a wide sense. It is to discharge faithfully the responsibilities on oneself regarding right of Allah and fellow-creatures.

This Hadith tells us that Allah had distinguished Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah رضي الله عنه in this character.

(٢٠٧٣/١٢٢) عَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ أَهْلُ نَجْرَانَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ابْعَثْ إِلَيْنَا رَجُلًا أَمِينًا، فَقَالَ لَا بَعَثَنَّ إِلَيْكُمْ رَجُلًا أَمِينًا حَقَّ أَمِينٍ، فَاسْتَشْرَفَ لَهَا النَّاسُ، قَالَ فَبَعَثَ أَبَا عُبَيْدَةَ بْنِ الْجَرَّاحِ. (رواه البخاري ومسلم)

(2073/122) Sayyidina Huzayfah ibn al-Yamaan رضي الله عنه said that the people of Najran came to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and requested him to appoint an ameen over them and send him to them. He said, "I will appoint an ameen who is genuinely trustworthy." The people looked expectantly to be appointed but he (appointed and) sent Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah, to Najran.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Najran was a place between Yaman and Shaam and the Hijaz. The central city was called Najran. It was overtaken in 10 AH. Majority of its people were Christians and it was a centre of Christianity. At their request for a trustworthy person, the Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضي الله عنه as their ruler and governor. This Hadith is also found in Kanz ul-Ummal on the authority of Musnad Ahmad and a number of other books. According to these books, the Prophet ﷺ replied to their request "لَا بَعَثَنَّ إِلَيْكُمْ أَمِينًا حَقَّ أَمِينٍ أَمِينًا حَقَّ أَمِينٍ، أَمِينًا حَقَّ أَمِينٍ" that he would send to them a trustworthy man and repeated the words "أَمِينًا حَقَّ أَمِينٍ" three times (trustworthy man, genuinely trustworthy). This obviously amplified his character as ameen.

(٢٠٧٤/١٢٣) عَنِ ابْنِ أَبِي مُلَيْكَةَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَائِشَةَ وَسُئِلَتْ: مَنْ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُسْتَخْلِفًا لَوْ اسْتَخْلَفَهُ؟ قَالَتْ أَبُو بَكْرٍ، فَقِيلَ:

ثُمَّ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ؟ قَالَتْ: عُمَرُ، قِيلَ: مَنْ بَعْدَ عُمَرَ؟ قَالَتْ: أَبُو عُيَيْدَةَ بْنُ
الْجَرَّاحِ.

(رواه مسلم)

(2074/123) Ibn Abu Mulaykah said that he heard that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was asked, "If Allah's Messenger had appointed a Khalifah after him then whom would he have named?" She said, "Abu Bakr." She was asked, "Who next?" She said, "Umar". She was then asked whom would he have appointed after him, and she said, "Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah."

(Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Certainly, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها knew the Prophet's ﷺ mind more than anyone else. She came to this conclusion on seeing the Prophet's ﷺ dealing with her father, with Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and with Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah ibn Jarrah رضى الله عنه. In fact, he had declared his choice of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and we have seen a Hadith in the section on his illness and death that he asked for Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and his son Abdur Rahman رضى الله عنه to be invited so that he may dictate his instructions on the Khalifah (his successor). But soon he did not think that necessary, saying, "Allah and the Believers will not accept anyone but Abu Bakr." Then her opinion about Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه as the second caliph also was proved correct.

The following event is recorded in Kanz ul-Ummal on the authority of Musnad Ahmad and Ibn Jarir and others. After Shaam was overrun by the Muslims, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه set on a visit to it. On the way, at Sargh, he was told that the place was overtaken by pestilence and people were dying in large numbers. They tried to dissuade him from going to Shaam but he did not listen to them and said:

"If my time has come and Abu Ubaydah survives me then I will appoint him Khalifah after me. And if Allah asks me why did you appoint Abu Ubaydah Khalifah of the ummah of Muhammad, I will submit that I had heard Allah's Messenger say: every Prophet has an

إِنْ أَدْرَكْنِي أَجَلِي وَأَبُو عُيَيْدَةَ بْنُ
الْجَرَّاحِ حَيٌّ اسْتَخْلَفْتُهُ، فَإِنْ
سَأَلَنِي اللَّهُ لِمَ اسْتَخْلَفْتُهُ، عَلَى أُمَّةِ
مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ
قُلْتُ: إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ: إِنَّ ameen and my ameen is Abu Ubaydah."

(Kanz ul-Ummal, v13 p215)

لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ أَمِينًا وَأَمِينِي أَبُو عُبَيْدَةَ
ابْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ

However, Allah had decreed that Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه should return from the journey sound and healthy but Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah رضي الله عنه should fall victim to plague and die:

”وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ قَدَرًا مَقْدُورًا.“ (الاحزاب ٣٨:٣٣)

{And the commandment of Allah is a decree, decreed absolutely.}

(al-Ahzab, 33:38)

In a version in Kanz ul-Ummal, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه is reported to have said:

"If I had Abu Ubaydah, I would have nominated him Khalifah after me, and I would not have consulted anyone. If I was asked about it then I would have said that I had nominated one who was ameen in the sight of Allah and His Messenger."

لَوْ أَذْرَكْتُ أَبَا عُبَيْدَةَ ابْنَ الْجَرَّاحِ
لَأَسْتَخْلَفْتُهُ، وَمَا شَاوَرْتُ، فَإِنْ
سُئِلْتُ عَنْهُ قُلْتُ: اسْتَخْلَفْتُ
أَمِينَ اللَّهِ وَأَمِينَ رَسُولِهِ

It seems that he spoke in this way after he was wounded by Abu Lu Lu Majoosi and had no hope to survive. But Allah knows best.

In short, these sayings of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه confirm the opinion of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها about the Khilafat (caliphate). Indeed, Abu Ubaydah enjoyed a high station.

رضي الله عنه وارضاه

EXCELLENCE OF THE PEOPLE OF THE PROPHET'S HOUSE (His Wives & Children)

It is a fact, and there is no doubt in it, that the word اهل البيت (ahl ul-bayt, people of the house) is used in the Qur'an for the Prophet's ﷺ wives. In the fourth ruku' (section) of surah al-Ahzab the words, after the Prophet's wives are given instructions, are:

”إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا“

(الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٣)

{Allah only desires to take away from you all abomination, O people of the Household (of Muhammad), and to purify you with a thorough purifying.} (33:33)

Even one with an elementary knowledge of Arabic will conclude on reading this ruku' of surah al-Ahzab that the word ahl ul-bayt is used only for the wives of the Prophet ﷺ, and he will have no doubt about it. However, it is very surprising that we Muslims who believe in the Qur'an do not think of his wives in the least on hearing this word but we picture his daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها, her husband, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه and the offspring of both of them.

This word (ahl ul-bayt) is found, besides surah al-Ahzab, in the sixth ruku' of surah Hud. The background is that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام was past the age when he could father children and he had no child, but a group of angels sent by Allah gave him and his wife Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام, glad tidings of a son. Sayyidah Sarah said in surprise:

”أَأَلِدُ وَأَنَا عَجُوزٌ وَهَذَا بَعْلِي شَيْخًا“ (هود ١١:٧٢)

{Shall I said I bear a child when I am an old woman, and this my husband is an old man?} (11:72)

The angels replied:

أَتَعْجَبِينَ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ إِنَّهُ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ
(هود ٧٣:١١)

{What, do you wonder at Allah's command? The mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you, O (people of the household) ahl-ul-bayt! Surely, He is Praiseworthy, Glorious} (11:73)

Obviously, Sayyidah Sarah, the wife of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, is addressed here.

One who is aware of the Arabic idiom knows that the first person in the scope of anyone's ahl ul-bayt (people of the house) is a man's wife. We do not use ahl ul-bayt (people of the house-hold) for a mother, sister, daughters and their children — not even in Persian (ahle Khanah) or Urdu (gharwalon). In short, there is no possibility of doubt that the word ahl ul-bayt (people of the household) is used in the Qur'an for the Prophet's ﷺ wives رضى الله عنهن and they are the first people covered by its implication. However, it is proved in the Ahadith that when the foregoing verse of al-Ahzab was revealed:

”إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا“
(الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٣)

the Prophet ﷺ took his daughter, Sayyidah Fatimah عليها السلام, both her sons Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام and Sayyidina Husayn عليه السلام, and her husband — his own paternal cousin — into a blanket and made this supplication: ”اللَّهُمَّ هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْلُ بَيْتِي فَادْهِبْ عَنْهُمْ الرِّجْسَ وَطَهِّرْهُمْ تَطْهِيرًا“ (O Allah, these too are my ahl ul-bayt, purify them a thorough purifying). Without doubt, his prayer was granted. These people were then included in the choicest blessings of Allah mentioned in the verse of Al-Ahzab on the Prophet's wives as ahl-ul-bayt, and they were also included in the application of the word ahl ul-bayt, itself. On this basis, these people too are included in the word ahl ul-bayt. However, this word is used in the Qur'an only for the Prophet's wives, and they alone are the first in its scope.

Nevertheless, it is neither linguistically correct nor known from the Qur'an to exclude the Prophet's ﷺ wives رضى الله عنهن from the application of ahl ul-bayt (people of the household) or to include only his one daughter, one son-in-law and two grandsons. Rahter, the conspiracy of the artists of a sect has let this wrong meaning to be commonly accepted by the ummah (as correct). Like many other wrong beliefs this wrong meaning has gained general acceptance. The position is that even the educated among us do not include the Prophet's ﷺ wives in the word ahl ul-bayt although according to the Qur'an they are the first within its scope of meaning.

With the intention to give currency to the correct meaning of ahl ul-bayt, I have decided to write down the virtues of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ and his offspring under the caption ahl bayt an nabawi (the people of the Prophet's household).. وَاللَّهُ الْمَوْفِقُ وَهُوَ الْمُسْتَعَانُ

The Pure Wives

We learn from authentic reports of Hadith and seerah that the wives of the Prophet ﷺ — that is, those who had marriage ties with him for a little or long period — were eleven in number. Their names are:

- | | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Sayyidah Khadijah | رضى الله عنها bint Khuwaylid. |
| 2. Sayyidah Sawdah | رضى الله عنها bint Zam'ah. |
| 3. Sayyidah Ayshah | رضى الله عنها bint Abu Bakr. |
| 4. Sayyidah Hafsa | رضى الله عنها bint Umar. |
| 5. Sayyidah Zaynab | رضى الله عنها bint Khuzaymah. |
| 6. Sayyidah Umm Salamah | رضى الله عنها |
| 7. Sayyidah Zaynab | رضى الله عنها bint Jahsh. |
| 8. Sayyidah Umm Habibah | رضى الله عنها |
| 9. Sayyidah Juwayriyah | رضى الله عنها bint al-Harith. |
| 10. Sayyidah Safiyah | رضى الله عنها bint Huyayy. |
| 11. Sayyidah Maymunah | رضى الله عنها |

Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها and Sayidah Zynab رضي الله عنها bint Khuzaymah died during the Prophet's lifetime. Apart from these eleven, some reports suggest that he also married Rayhanah bint Sham'oon of the Banu Qurayzah. She was among the captives when the Prophet ﷺ crushed the rebellion of the Jews of Banu Qurayzah and she had accepted Islam. She was set free and the Prophet ﷺ married her. Some other reports, however, maintain that she was the Prophet's ﷺ maid-slave, and she died a few days before the Prophet's ﷺ death, or — according to another report — after the Hajjat ul-Wada'.

The Honour of Being Prophet's Wife

Indeed, by itself it is an excellence for them who were the Prophet's ﷺ wives and the greatest of Allah's blessings. This was available to all his wives equally in spite of differences in their social status, just as the commands of Allah for them were equally applicable to them. The Qur'an has said about them "وَأَزْوَاجُهُ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ" (and his wives are their mothers) and thus distinguished them as mothers of all Believers. Thus it is unlawful for every member of the Prophet's ﷺ ummah to marry anyone of them after his death in the same way as it is unlawful for one to marry one's real mother. I will now write down, Insha Allah, necessary introduction and details and merits of each one of them, how they came into marriage with the Prophet ﷺ, and a short biography till death. The doubts that devilish minds create in this regard about the many wives will also be set at rest, Insha Allah, on reading these accounts.

Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها

She was the first fortunate woman to be taken as a wife by the Prophet ﷺ. Her father was a rich and respectable trader of Makkah. He was Khuwaylid ibn Asad. She had been married to Abu Halah Tamimi and she had two sons (halah and Hind) from him. When Abu Halah died, she married Ateeq ibn Aabid Makhzumi and had a daughter from him. Ateeq also died soon. Her father, Khuwaylid, died when she was about 36 years old and she was thus burdened with commercial responsibilities. In Makkah, the trading community also appointed their managers on profit-sharing basis (which is known as mudaribat). So, she also resorted to this method.

The Prophet's ﷺ integrity and honesty was well-known in Makkah and he was called al-ameen, the trustworthy. Hence, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها proposed to place him in the care of her merchandise being sent to Shaam at double the share given to others. He consulted his paternal uncle, Abu Talib, and accepted the offer. She also sent with him her slave, Maysarah. Allah blessed the earnings from the trade journey and the Prophet ﷺ brought back profit equal to twice the normal earnings. Besides, Maysarah commended his good manners and related to her the extraordinary charismas he had witnessed at the Prophet's ﷺ hands, or for him.

Marriage

Sayyidah Khadijah was a wealthy woman, beautiful, well-mannered, generous and chaste. That is why she was known as Tahirah. Many nobles of Quraysh proposed marriage, but she had decided to live the rest of her life by herself. However, she was impressed by Maysarah's report about the Prophet ﷺ and wished to marry him. She confided with one Nafisah bint Umayyah whose account of the proposal is: I asked the Prophet ﷺ why he did not marry anyone and he said that he was not well-off to be able to begin a married life. I asked him what he would say if a rich beautiful woman willing to support him proposed marriage with him. When he asked who that could be, I told him about Khadijah. He got his uncle Abu Talib's permission and accepted the proposal. Then I brought them together to discuss the proposal. After that the elders of the two sides met and the marriage was finalised at Khadijah's house. The Prophet ﷺ had come with Abu Talib and Hamzah and other elders while her uncle Amr ibn Asad acted as attorney for her. He was twenty-five years old and Khadijah was forty years old. This was the Prophet's ﷺ first marriage, performed about fifteen years before Prophethood.

Children

A son was born to them (five years later, according to a source) and he was named Qasim. This also gave the Prophet the Kunyah Abul Qasim. But, Qasim died in infancy. Then Zaynab was born. Both these children were born before Prophethood. Abdullah was their next son born after Prophethood was bestowed on him and, therefore, he is also known as Tayyib and Tahir but he too died in infancy. Three daughters were born after him, Ruqayyah Umm Kulthoom and Fatimah. We will read more about the four daughters under the caption of the Prophet's children.

Characteristics of Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها

The Quraysh and, in fact, all Makkans generally were idol-worshipper. They were not prepared to hear anything against idol-worship but, in that period of Ignorance, there were a handful of people who detested idol-worship. Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها was one of them. She was the only woman who stayed away from idol-worship.

Allah had blessed her with abundant wealth which she placed at the Prophet's ﷺ disposal setting him at rest on this account. This is what the verse 8 of surah ad-Duha of the Quran refers to وَوَجَدَكَ عَائِلًا فَأَغْنَى (الضحىٰ ٨:٩٣)

{And He found you destitute, so He enriched (you)}

Also, she had a slave Zayd ibn Harithah who was attached to the Prophet ﷺ who, in turn, showed him much compassion. So, she handed over Zayd to her husband. He set him at liberty and, according to Arab custom of the times adopted him as a son so that he came to be called Zayd ibn Muhammad.

When fifteen years after the marriage Prophethood was bestowed on him, and he underwent extraordinary feelings, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها lent him full support. She comforted him and she also took him to her cousin Waraqah ibn Nawfal who was a true monotheist Christian and a scholar of Torah and Injeel and who confirmed to the Prophet ﷺ that he indeed was a Prophet of Allah. Sayyidah Khadijah accepted what he said and her experience of fifteen years with the Prophet ﷺ left her in no doubt about him.

Then, when at the command of Allah he invited people to Islam and they showed hostility to him, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها not only sympathised with and comforted him but also shared with him his difficulties. When the cruel Makkans restricted the Prophet ﷺ and the Banu Hashim, whether they were believers or not, within Sha'b Abu Talib and denied them provision, she stayed with him although she could have lived in the comfort of her home.

Sayyidah Khadijah lived with the Prophet ﷺ for twenty five years as his wife. During this time, the Prophet ﷺ did not take a second wife. She died in the tenth year of Prophethood, about three years before hijrah, in Ramadan at the age of 65.

Salah was not prescribed till then and the salah of funeral too was not observed. The Prophet ﷺ lowered her in the grave.

Her Excellences

(٢٠٧٥/١٢٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ : أَتَى جِبْرِيلُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ "يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ هَذِهِ خَدِيجَةُ قَدْ أَتَتْ مَعَهَا إِنَاءٌ فِيهِ إِدَامٌ وَطَعَامٌ، فَإِذَا أَتَيْتَكَ فَأَقْرَأْ عَلَيْهَا السَّلَامَ مِنْ رَبِّهَا وَمِنْنِي وَبَشِّرْهَا بِبَيْتٍ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ قَصَبٍ لَا صَخَبَ فِيهِ وَلَا نَصَبَ" (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(2075/124) Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Jibreel عليه السلام came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, "O Messenger of Allah! This is Khadijah (coming here). She has brought a vessel containing condiments and food. When she is here, give her salaam from her Lord and from me, and convey to her glad tidings that in Paradise she will have a house of brilliant pearls and there will be no clamour and noise and no toil and labour."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Hadith does not tell us where it was that Sayyidina Jibreel عليه السلام came and when.

Ibn Hajar has suggested on the basis of a version of Tabarani that the arrival of Jibreel عليه السلام referred to here followed his first arrival at the cave in Hira mentioned by us in Kitab al-Manaqib, under beginning of revelation. We also learn from this that the Prophet's seclusion in the cave in Hira had not come to an end after that first meeting and after the Prophethood. Also, it is beyond comprehension that the Prophet ﷺ should suddenly give up the practice of seclusion to which he was accustomed for a long period and during which he worshipped Allah, the place where the carrier of wahy, Jibreel عليه السلام, had brought Allah's words. It was during one of these visits of Prophet ﷺ to the cave that Jibreel عليه السلام came and informed him that Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها was bringing him his provision and asked him to convey to her greeting from her Lord and from himself. He also told him about her house in Paradise.

So, we learn of three merits of Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها from this Hadith.

1. She was a respectable, rich old woman yet she did not mind preparing food for the Prophet ﷺ and carrying it to him at the cave Hira which was about three miles from Makkah and it was a toilsome climb up to it that would tax even a strong man. (I have had a personal experience too of climbing over it.)

2. She was given salaam from her Lord and from Jibreel عليه السلام.

3. She was told of a house in Paradise which is made of pearls and there is no commotion or toil in it. This is unlike houses in the world where there is much noise and one has to toil much.

(٢٠٧٦/١٢٥) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ (رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ) قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ: خَيْرُ نِسَائِهَا مَرْيَمُ بِنْتُ عِمْرَانَ وَخَيْرُ نِسَائِهَا خَدِيجَةُ بِنْتُ خُوَيْلِدٍ
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2076/125) Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said that he heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ say, "The best woman among the women of this (world) is Maryam bint Imran and the best woman among the women of this (world) is Khadijah bint Khuwaylid."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The impression we get from the Hadith that the best of all the women in this world, are Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام bint Imran, mother of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام, and Sayyidah Khadijah عليها السلام bint Khuwaylid. In that case, both are placed at the same rank. Some exponents hold that Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام was the best among women of the earlier ummah while Sayyidah Khadijah is the best among women of the Prophet's ﷺ ummah, and because his ummah is the best of all ummah, Sayyidah Khadijah is the best of all women of all times. But Allah knows best.

(٢٠٧٧/١٢٦) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: مَا غُرْتُ عَلَى أَحَدٍ مِنْ نِسَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا غُرْتُ عَلَى خَدِيجَةَ وَمَا رَأَيْتُهَا، وَلَكِنْ كَانَ يُكْثِرُ ذِكْرَهَا، وَرَبَّمَا دَبِحَ الشَّاةَ ثُمَّ يَقْطَعُهَا أَغْصَاءً، ثُمَّ يَبْعَثُهَا فِي صَدَائِقِ خَدِيجَةَ فَرَبَّمَا قُلْتُ لَهُ: كَأَنَّهُ لَمْ تَكُنْ فِي الدُّنْيَا امْرَأَةً إِلَّا خَدِيجَةَ، فَيَقُولُ: إِنَّهَا كَانَتْ، وَكَانَتْ، وَكَانَ لِي مِنْهَا وَلَدٌ
(رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2077/126) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "I was not jealous of any of the Prophet's wives as I was of Khadijah رضى الله عنها although I had never seen her. The Prophet ﷺ remembered her much and mentioned her frequently. Sometimes he would slaughter sheep, cut into pieces and send them to Khadijah's friends. I would say sometimes, 'There is only the woman Khadijah in this world', and he would say, 'She was like this and like this, and my children were born to her.'"

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Of the excellent manners of the Prophet ﷺ was one that he recognised and acknowledged favours. Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها had been of great service to the Prophet ﷺ and had given him much encouragement in the initial stages of his mission. She had also shared his problems and had faced suffering too. Thus it was her right that the Prophet ﷺ should remember her and mention her to his other wives and other people. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has confessed her own weakness in envying Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها though she had not even seen her, but the Prophet ﷺ assured her that his first wife was a fine woman who had given him children too. The Prophet ﷺ had no children by any other wife.

We must mention here that the Prophet ﷺ had a son by Sayyidah Mariah رضى الله عنها Qubtiyah named Ibrahim. However, he died in infancy at the age of a year and a half, and Sayyidah Mariah رضى الله عنها was not one of his wives. She was his maid-slave sent to him by Muquqis the ruler of Iskandaryah as part of his gifts to the Prophet ﷺ. After the birth of Ibrahim, she became umm walad according to the Shari'ah of Islam. She died five years after the death of the Prophet ﷺ in the times of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidah Sawdah Bint Zam'ah رضى الله عنها

When the Prophet ﷺ invited the people to shun idol-worship and join Islam, he faced stiff opposition from the Makkans except from a few sound-natured people who accepted his invitation in the initial stage. Sawdah bit Zam'ah Aamiriyah was one of them. She had been married to her paternal cousin, Sakhran, who was hostile to the Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها thought it wise not to disclose her faith and acceptance of Islam. However, she did seize opportunities to put in a word here and there about Islam so that gradually her husband also submitted and became a Muslim. Then both of them publicly proclaimed their belief in Islam whereafter they too became targets of Quraysh persecution so that the Prophet ﷺ advised them to migrate to Ethiopia. Sakram died there after a few years and she came back to Makkah to live with her father.

In the tenth year of Prophethood when Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها died, the Prophet ﷺ was much grieved. Also, he had no one to look after four young daughters. Khawlah bint Hakim the wife of Uthman ibn Maz'oom suggested to him that he should marry Sawdah bint Zam'ah, a widow and an old woman. The Prophet ﷺ decided to marry her, keeping in view her strong faith and practice of Islam. He asked Khawlah to make the proposal for him. Sawdah willingly accepted the proposal but suggested that she should talk to her father, Zam'ah. When Khawlah met him, he too accepted the proposal and invited the Prophet ﷺ and gave away his daughter in marriage. She was about 50 years old. For three years till the hijrah she was the lone wife of the Prophet ﷺ. She was wise, content, unconcerned with worldly matters and very generous.

After the Prophet's ﷺ death Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه treated her with much respect. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once sent her a bag full of dinars. She asked the man who had brought the bag if it contained dates and when he said that it was full of dinars, she said, "We could have eaten dates." She took the bag and disbursed the money among the needy.

She died towards the end of Sayyidina Umar's رضى الله عنه Khalifah in 22 AH at the age of 75 years. رضى الله عنها وارضاهما

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها

She was born in the fourth year of Prophethood. She was the daughter of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, the first of the Believers. Her mother was Umm Rooman was also among the first believing women. She is the only of the Prophet's ﷺ wives whose parents had believed in Islam before their daughter was born. The Prophet ﷺ was shown her face many times in dream as his wife in both the worlds. In the account of Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها we have mentioned that Sayyidah Khawlah رضى الله عنها bint Hakim had suggested to the Prophet ﷺ after the death of Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها that he should marry Sawdah رضى الله عنها. At the same time, she had also suggested the name of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها who was then only about six years old while the Prophet ﷺ was over fifty years old. Hence, we have no explanation for the suggestion of Sayyidah Khawlah رضى الله عنها except that she was a means to the fulfilment of divine decree. The narrations suggest that she had not knowledge of the Prophet's dreams, and it was a dream that one does not narrate anyone else. Anyway, she had suggested both names to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave an identical reply that she should convey his proposal to her parents. Sayyidah Khawlah رضى الله عنها went to their home but Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was not there and when she conveyed the proposal to Umm Rooman رضى الله عنها she was extremely happy. Soon, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه came home and when he was given the good news, he asked, "Can he marry her when she is his brother's daughter?" (The Arabs did not regard it proper to marry a daughter of an adopted brother.)

When Khawlah رضى الله عنها asked the Prophet ﷺ the question of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, he said, "He is my brother in Islam and his daughter is lawful to me." If he was my real brother then it was not lawful for me to marry his daughter. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was very happy with the reply but there still was a hitch. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was engaged to Jubayr ibn Mut'im. So Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه went to their home because he did not wish to become a defaulter in this regard. The hostility to Islam during this period was at its peak and when he asked Mut'im what their plans were regarding his daughter. Mut'im's wife was there and she said that she would not like that girl to come to her home anymore because she would bring Islam with her and Mut'im also concurred with her. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه returned from there and asked Khawlah رضى الله عنها to invite the Prophet ﷺ. When he came the marriage was contracted at the very moment. This was the month of Shawwal. The Prophet ﷺ stayed three years more in Makkah and during this time only Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها lived with him as his wife looking after domestic affairs by herself. Thirteen years after Prophethood, he migrated from Makkah at the command of Allah. This journey was undertaken in secret and only Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه travelled with him while his wife and children stayed behind in Makkah. When they reached Madinah and had made necessary arrangements of lodging, Sayidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه sent Abdullah ibn Urayqit to bring his wife and two daughters to Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ sent Zayd ibn Harithah to Makkah to bring his family — wife and Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها — to Madinah. He was having the mosque built and was also having small homes built with it and Sayyidah Sawdah رضي الله عنها stayed in one of these (when she came). Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها had turned about 9 or 10 years old and Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه requested the Prophet ﷺ that if he thought it proper he may take her to his home.¹ The Prophet agreed and she was lodged in one of the homes they had buuilt adjacent to the mosque. It was in Shawwal 1 AH. The Arabs had attached a bad omen to the month of Shawwal, but the Prophet ﷺ married Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها in this month at Makkah and she was brought to the Prophet's house also in the same month in Madinah. In this way the stigma attached to this month was removed.

Characteristics

She has the distinction among all wives of the Prophet ﷺ of being in the Prophet's ﷺ company since the age of 9 or 10 years. She benefitted from his teachings and training. She had some other distinctions. The Prophet ﷺ saw her in his dream before the marriage as his wife in this world and the next. She was the only one of his wives never to have married anyone else before she married the Prophet ﷺ. She also had the honour that the Prophet ﷺ received revelation even when he lay on her bed and they had one blanket between them, one of the other wives had this honour. She was the dearest of his wives to him, and her father was the dearest of all persons to him. She was the only one of his wives whose parents (both) were Muhajir. Verses of the Qur'an was also revealed for her absolving her of slanderous charges against her, so that the said verses would be recited till the Last Day. She was described in these verses as the pure wife of the pure Prophet ﷺ. The last of these verses was:

❶. Fath al Bari v15 p 466.

”أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ“ (سباء ٤:٣٤)

{Those — for them is forgiveness and a generous provision} promising for them forgiveness and abundant provision. She recalled that the Prophet ﷺ spent the whole of the last week of his life at her home with her. The last day of his life was the day reserved for her. In the last moments of his life, her saliva was taken in his mouth and mixed with his saliva.¹ He rested on her chest in the dying moments and she or the angel of death was with him when his soul was taken away. And, finally, her house has become his resting place till the Day of Resurrection, for he is buried there.²

(Saba, 34:4)

Merits

(٢٠٧٨/١٢٧) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ : ”كَمُلَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ كَثِيرٌ، وَلَمْ يَكْمُلْ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ إِلَّا مَرْيَمُ بِنْتُ عِمْرَانَ وَأَسِيَةُ امْرَأَةِ فِرْعَوْنَ، وَفَضْلُ عَائِشَةَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ كَفَضْلِ الثَّرِيدِ عَلَى سَائِرِ الطَّعَامِ.

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(2078/127) Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضي الله عنه reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Many men have attained a degree of perfection but among women only Maryam bint Imran and Fir'awn's wife Aasiyah became perfect and Ayshah's excellence over all women is like tharid's over all food."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Obviously all the Prophet's عليهم السلام — whose number is over a hundred thousand according to some reports — all did attain perfection. In the same way, all their disciples and ①. We have seen Sayyidah Ayshah's رضي الله عنها Hadith in the account of the Prophet's ﷺ death. Her brother Abdur Rahman رضي الله عنه had come to see him and had a miswak in his hand. She understood by the Prophet's ﷺ looks that he wanted to use the miswak, so she took it chewed it til it was soft and gave it to the Prophet ﷺ. He used it as he did when he was healthy. Thus her saliva was mixed with the Prophet's.

②. Zurqani v3 p233.

caliphs, whose number is known only to Allah, were perfect. But this Hadith names only two women to have attained perfection. This is why they are named at the end of surah at-Tahreem as examples to be imitated. Some commentators hold that this saying of the Prophet ﷺ refers to the earlier people and so we cannot deduce that no women of this ummah attained perfection. In fact, we have seen a Hadith a few pages earlier عُمَرَانُ بْنُ مَرْيَمَ بْنِ عِمْرَانَ "خَيْرُ نِسَائِهَا مَرْيَمُ بِنْتُ عِمْرَانَ وَخَيْرُ نِسَائِهَا خَدِيجَةُ بِنْتُ حَوْلِدٍ" (The best of women in the world is Maryam bint Imran and (also) Khadijah bint Khuwaylid.) In the Hadith under discussion, too, the concluding saying is: وَفُضِّلَ عَائِشَةُ "عَلَى النِّسَاءِ كَفَضْلِ الثَّرِيدِ عَلَى سَائِرِ الطَّعَامِ" which means that Allah has given Sayyidah Ayshah such superiority over other women as tharid is superior to all other kind of food. In those times tharid was regarded as the most delicious kind of food. Whatever is written about tharid in dictionaries or commentaries on Hadith does not help me to explain this reality. I have often had the opportunity of eating it with Mawlana Husayn Ahmed Madani and I feel that is superior to every other food that we regard excellent in taste, ease in consuming, quick to digest and benefit.

Some scholars contend on the basis of this Hadith that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها is more superior and excellent than all other women of past ummah and present ummah. But if we look at all the Ahadith that describe someone's excellence then the most correct conclusion seems that such excellence is not final but only from one or other angle. For instance, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها enjoys superiority over other women in knowledge of commands of Shari'ah, jurisprudence and the like. Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها was superior to other women in characteristics that we have mentioned in the account of her merits. Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها was not only very dear to the Prophet ﷺ but also possessed the characteristics that we will read in the account of her merits and which put her above other women in those fields.

Apart from this Hadith of Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضى الله عنه, Saheeh Bukhari has transmitted Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه Hadith which only has the concluding portion of this Hadith فُضِّلَ عَائِشَةُ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ كَفَضْلِ الثَّرِيدِ عَلَى سَائِرِ الطَّعَامِ {Superiority of Ayshah kinds of food.}

(٢٠٧٩/١٢٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ : قَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُرَيْتَكَ فِي الْمَنَامِ ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ، يُجِئُنِي بِكِ الْمَلَكُ فِي سَرَقَةٍ مِنْ حَرِيرٍ، فَقَالَ لِي، هَذِهِ امْرَأَتُكَ، فَكَشَفْتُ عَنْ وَجْهِكِ الثُّوبَ فَإِذَا أَنْتَ هِيَ، فَقُلْتُ : إِنْ يَكُنْ هَذَا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ يُمِضْهِ . (رواه البخارى ومسلم)

(2079/128) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, "You were shown to me in a dream three nights. An angel brought you in a silk cloth and said to me, 'This is your wife.' So I removed the cloth from your face and saw that it was you yourself, and I thought that if it was from Allah then He will make it true." (Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: The Hadith does not tell us when the Prophet ﷺ saw this dream. It seems that he saw it after the death of Sayyidah Khadijah when he was deeply grieved at her parting, and he worried about the future. Allah showed him the dream to comfort him. She was only a six year old but the Prophet ﷺ had read in her the intelligence and capabilities that she possessed. In this way, the Prophet ﷺ was informed that she would substitute Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها in the future. But Allah knows best. In the initial days of Prophethood, the Prophet ﷺ was in need of certain characteristics in his wife which Allah placed in Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها. Then after hijrah in the early Madinan era, certain other qualities were required in his wife. Allah placed in Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها those very qualities.

After seeing the dream, he said to himself إِنَّ يَكُنْ هَذَا مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ (If the dream is from Allah then He will make it a reality.) Some one may say that the dreams of Prophets عليهم السلام, particularly of the Final Prophet ﷺ are a kind of wahy. Why then express doubt about it? The fact is that the words “إِنْ يَكُنْ” do not denote a doubt. It is like the example of a king who declares in happiness, "If I am a king then your desire will be fulfilled. The Prophet ﷺ felt convinced that it is from Allah and it will be realised.

The version in Jame' Tirmizi says that the angel who disclosed the face of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was Sayyidina Jibreel عليه السلام. He said to the Prophet: “هَذِهِ زَوْجَتُكَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ” (This is your wife in this world and the next.)

(٢٠٨٠/١٢٩) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَائِشَةُ! "هَذَا جِبْرِيلُ يُقْرِئُكَ السَّلَامَ" قَالَتْ : وَعَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ، قَالَتْ : وَهُوَ يَرَى مَا لَا أَرَى." (رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(2080/129) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "O Ayshah, this is Jibreel! He conveys his salaam to you." She said, "and on him be salaam." She said that the Prophet could see what we cannot see.

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: We have seen under the merits of Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها that Sayyidina Jibreel عليه السلام came to the cave in Hira and informed the Prophet ﷺ that Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها was bringing provision and asked him to give to her salaam from her Lord and from himself. In this Hadith, he is said to convey salaam to Sayyidina Ayshah رضى الله عنها, and she said that the Prophet could see what she could not.

(٢٠٨١/١٣٠) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ أَنَّ النَّاسَ كَانُوا يَتَحَرَّوْنَ بِهَذَا يَاهُمْ يَوْمَ عَائِشَةَ يَتَغَوْنَ بِذَلِكَ مَرْضَاةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، وَقَالَتْ : إِنَّ نِسَاءَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُنَّ حَزْبَيْنِ : فَحِزْبٌ فِيهِ عَائِشَةُ وَحَفْصَةُ وَصَفِيَّةُ وَسُودَةُ، وَالْحِزْبُ الْآخَرُ أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ وَسَائِرُ نِسَاءِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَكَلَّمَهُ حِزْبٌ أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ فَقُلْنَ لَهَا : كَلِّمِي رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُكَلِّمُ النَّاسَ فَيَقُولُ : مَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يُهْدِيَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلْيُهْدِهِ إِلَيْهِ حَيْثُ كَانَ، فَكَلَّمَتْهُ، فَقَالَ لَهَا : لَا تُؤْذِينِي فِي عَائِشَةَ، فَإِنَّ الْوَحْيَ لَمْ يَأْتِنِي وَأَنَا فِي ثَوْبِ امْرَأَةٍ إِلَّا عَائِشَةُ، قَالَتْ : أَتُوبُ إِلَى اللَّهِ مِنْ أَذَاكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ دَعَوْنَ فَاطِمَةَ فَأَرْسَلْنَ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَكَلَّمَتْهُ فَقَالَ : "يَا بِنْتُيَ لَا تُحْبِسِينَ مَا أَحْبُّ، قَالَتْ : بلى، قَالَ : فَاجِبِي هَذِهِ"

(رواه البخارى و مسلم)

(2081/130) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said: The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ chose to send gifts on my day, hoping to please Allah's Messenger ﷺ by that. (And the fact was that) his wives were on two sides. One side was made up of herself (Ayshah), Hafsa, Safiyah and Sawdah while the other comprised Umm Salamah and the others. Those on Umm Salamah's side said to her that she should say to Allah's Messenger ﷺ to ask the people who wish to send a gift to send it to whichever house he is (on that day). She conveyed the message and he said, "Do not hurt me concerning Ayshah. It is her own peculiarity that revelation came to me in her blanket." Umm Salamah said, "O Messenger of Allah! I repent before Allah for hurting you." Then the women of Umm Salamah's side sent (his daughter) Sayyidah Fatimah to him for this matter, and she said the same thing to him. He said, "My child! Will you not love one whom I love?" She said, "Of course (I will)." So he said, فَأُحِبِّي هَذِهِ "So love this woman (Ayshah)."

(Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim)

Commentary: Some message of this Hadith need to be clarified. It is stated that the Prophet's ﷺ wives were divided into two parties. The two sides had not formed because of differences, but some of the Prophet's ﷺ wives were more like Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in temperament and others like Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها. (Both of them were distinct from the others in intelligence and wisdom and the Prophet ﷺ also had a greater inclination towards these two than the others.)

The other thing is that as far as possible the Prophet ﷺ treated his wives equally in all matters in which he had a choice. But love from the heart is not something on which one has control and that is why he used to pray to Allah:

اَللّٰهُمَّ هٰذَا قَسْمِيْ فَيَمَّا اَمْلِكُ فَلَا تَلْمُنِيْ فَيَمَّا تَمْلِكُ وَلَا اَمْلِكُ

(O Allah, I divide fairly in what is in my power, but forgive me in what is not in my power but only in Your power).

(Mishkat al-Masabeeh)

So, it is true that the Prophet ﷺ had more love for some of his wives رضى الله عنهم and he loved Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها the most. The Companions رضى الله عنهم who were close to him were aware of this fact, so they made it a point to send gifts to him on the day he was at Sayyidah Ayshah's house, but he himself had never even given a hint to anyone to do that. The wives of the Prophet ﷺ of the side of Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها did not like it and they complained to him about it first through her and then through Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها. We do not know if Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها was aware that they had already made a presentation to the Prophet ﷺ, for, if she was then she would not have spoken on their behalf. But Allah knows best.

Scholarly Excellence

(٢٠٨٢/١٣١) عَنْ أَبِي مُوسَى، قَالَ : مَا أَشْكَلْ عَلَيْنَا أَصْحَابَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ..... حَدِيثٌ قَطُّ فَسَأَ لَنَا عَائِشَةُ إِلَّا وَجَدْنَا عِنْدَهَا مِنْهُ عِلْمًا.
(رواه الترمذی)

(2082/131) Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reported, "Whenever we the Companions of Allah's Messenger ﷺ had any doubt in (understanding) a tradition we asked Ayshah رضى الله عنها and found that she had knowledge of that." (Jami' Tirmizi)

Commentary: Sayyidina Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari رضى الله عنه was an earlier Muslim and was distinguished in knowledge and jurisprudence. He was from Yaman and had come to Makkah when he learnt of the call to Islam in its very initial stages. He met the Prophet ﷺ who preached to him as was his practice and his sound heart accepted the Prophet's ﷺ call without any hesitancy. He decided to take up residency in Makkah. When the idolaters intensified their persecution of Muslims and made life difficult for them, they decided to migrate to Ethiopia on the advice of the Prophet ﷺ. The group of the Companions رضى الله عنهم that went there under the leadership of Sayyidina Ja'far ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه included Abu Musa al-Ash'ari رضى الله عنه. They stayed there for a few years and when the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah, they too went there.

Allah had bestowed Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ary with exceptional capabilities. Even in the times of the Prophet ﷺ he was counted among those Companions رضى الله عنهم to whom the common Muslims turned for knowledge. He was thus one of the jurists among the Companions رضى الله عنهم. Therefore, his saying in the Hadith bears much weight. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها either remembered a saying of the Prophet ﷺ on the subject or gave a verdict through her knowledge. There are some other testimonies from leading tabi'ee too.

Sayyidina Urwah ibn Zubayr رضي الله عنه, the nephew of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and a narrator of many of her reports, said about her (as carried by Tabarani and Haakim):

"I have not seen anyone knowing more than (my aunt) Ayshah on the Qur'an, the obligations (or laws of inheritance) the unlawful, the lawful, the laws of fiqh, poetry and medicine, and events and history of Arabs and genealogy." (Zurqani v3 p234)

مَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَدًا أَعْلَمَ بِالْقُرْآنِ
وَلَا بِفَرِيضَةٍ وَلَا بِحَرَامٍ وَلَا بِحَلَالٍ
وَلَا بِفَقْهِ وَلَا بِشِعْرِ وَلَا بِطَبِّ
وَلَا بِحَدِيثِ الْعَرَبِ وَلَا نَسَبٍ مِنْ
عَائِشَةَ.

Tabarani and Haakim also carry the report of Masrooq, another Tabi'ee.

"Indeed, I saw that the elder Companions sought the views of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها on laws of inheritance."

وَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ الْأَكَابِرَ مِنَ
الصَّحَابَةِ وَفِي لَفْظٍ مَشِيخَةٍ
أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْأَكَابِرَ يَسْأَلُونَ
عَائِشَةَ عَنِ الْفَرَائِضِ.

Haakim has also carried the words of Ata ibn Abu Ribah, a third tabi'ee.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها was a great jurist, a great scholar, and the common people had a good opinion about her." (Zurqani v3 p234)

كَانَتْ عَائِشَةُ أَفْقَهُ النَّاسِ وَأَعْلَمَ
النَّاسِ وَأَحْسَنَ النَّاسِ رَأْيًا فِي
الْعَامَّةِ

Oratory

Allah had also given her excellence in oratory. Tabarani has quoted Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه.

"By Allah, I have not seen an orator more eloquent than Ayshah."

قَالَ مَعَاوِيَةُ وَاللَّهِ مَا رَأَيْتُ خَطِيبًا
قَطُّ أَبْلَغَ وَلَا أَفْصَحَ وَلَا أَفْظَنَ مِنْ
عَائِشَةَ.
(رواه الطبراني)

These were her merits that endeared her to the Prophet ﷺ.

Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها

She was Sayyidina Umar's ﷺ daughter. She was the only real sister of Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ. Her mother was Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها bint Haz'oon, the sister of the well-known Companion Uthman ibn Maz'oom ﷺ. Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها was born five years before prophethood. Thus, she was about 35 years younger than the Prophet ﷺ.

Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها was married to the Companion ﷺ Khunays ibn Huzayfah Sahmi and she migrated to Madinah with him. Sayyidina Khunays ﷺ participated in the Battle of Badr and, according to an accepted report, was wounded in the battle and could not recover and died a martyr.

Sayyidina Umar ﷺ worried about her. Sayyidina Uthman's wife Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها, the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ, also died during these days, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ proposed to Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ that he should marry his daughter, Hafsa رضي الله عنها but he excused himself. Sayyidina Umar ﷺ then made the same proposal to Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ but he did not give any reply and he was more hurt at that than on Uthman's ﷺ rejection. Some days thereafter, the Prophet ﷺ sent a proposal for Hafsa رضي الله عنها and when they were married, Abu Bakr ﷺ met Umar ﷺ and clarified to him that his silence was prompted by his knowledge of the Prophet's ﷺ intentions. These details are found in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim on the authority of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ, brother of Sayyidah Hafsa. In the book of Hadith, Musnad Abul Ya'la it is also stated that when Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ rejected Sayyidina Umar's ﷺ offer, he complained about him to the Prophet ﷺ who said, "Allah will give her a better husband than Uthman, and give him a better wife than your daughter." Accordingly, after a few days, Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ was married to the second daughter of the Prophet ﷺ, Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها, and Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها was married to the Prophet .

Among her merits is that after the death of Sayyidina Umar ﷺ she possessed the copy of the Qur'an which was brought together within one folder in the times of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه on the suggestion of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. This copy was then used as the base when more copies were prepared in the times of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه and sent throughout the Islamic world. We have already written about it in the account of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, but all we wish to stress here is that it was her merit that, indeed, Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها was entrusted with the copy of the Qur'an.

She died in the times of Sayyidina mu'awiyah in 45 AH at the age of sixty-three.

Let us now read the Hadith citing Jibreel's عليه السلام testimony for Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها. Indeed, because of that, this single Hadith is enough to speak about her merits.

(٢٠٨٣/١٣٢) عَنْ قَيْسِ ابْنِ زَيْدٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَّقَهَا
تَطْلِيقَةً ثُمَّ ارْتَجَعَهَا. وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ جِبْرَائِيلَ قَالَ لَهُ، ارْجِعْ حَفْصَةَ فَإِنَّهَا صَوَّامَةٌ
قَوَّامَةٌ، وَأَنَّهَا زَوْجُكَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ.

(2083/132) Qays ibn Zayd reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had divorced Sayyidah Hafsah once and then took her back. That was because Jibreel عليه السلام said to him, "Revoke your divorce of her because she keeps fasts often and offers salah frequently. She will be your wife in Paradise."

Commentary: This Hadith should suffice to give us an idea of the recognition accorded to Sayyidah Hafsah by Allah. When the Prophet ﷺ gave her one divorce for some reason, Allah commanded him through Jibreel عليه السلام to revoke the divorce and lauded her righteousness.

We are unable to find out for sure what was the reason for giving her one divorce. However, it is clear that the ummah learnt the correct procedure of tallaq (divorce) and raj'at (revoking) from this incident at the Prophet's house. Perhaps this was the wisdom behind the incident. We also learnt through this incident that Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها holds a high rank and that she will go to Paradise. رضي الله عنها وارضاهها

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها

Her name was Hind. Some historians have given her name as Ramlah. There is also disagreement on what her father's name was. It is said that his name was Huzayfah, Suhayl or Suhayl ibn al-Mughirah, and his Kunyah was Abu Umayyah and he was known through his kunyah. He was among the nobles of Makkah. He was very generous and during journeys he entertained all the co-travellers which earned him the title zad al-Rakab (responsible for the provision of travellers.)

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها was first married to Sayidina Abdullah ibn Abdul Asad al-Makhzoomi her paternal cousin and the Prophet's foster brother. She had earned the kunyah because of her son salamah; and also because of him, her husband became Abu Salamah. Sayyidina Abu Salamah was also among the nobles of Makkah.

Both husband and wife were among the first to embrace Islam. they were among the pioneers. They migrated to Ethiopia but came back after some time. Not finding peace, they set out with their son salamah on a camel for Madinah. They had hardly stepped out of Makkah when the Banu Mughirah got wind of one of their clan Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها going away. They got to them and said to Abu Salamah ﷺ that while he was competent to decide about himself, they would not allow their daughter to go with him. They brought Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها and her son Salamah back to Makkah and Abu Salamah ﷺ proceeded all alone to Madinah.

When the Banu al-Makhzoom the clan of Abu Salamah ﷺ learnt of the maltreatment of one of their men at the hands of Banu al-Mughirah, they snatched Salamah ﷺ, the child, from them on the argument that if Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها belonged to their clan, Salamah ﷺ was of their family.

Thus, Abu Salamah ﷺ was at Madinah, Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها with the Banu al-Mughirah and the child Salamah ﷺ with the Banu al-Makhzoom. The oppressed woman sat all day long at al-'Abtah weeping over the separation from her husband and child.

After a week or so, one member of their clan appealed to the other members to have pity on her and let her go to her husband. They also relented and allowed her to go to Madinah to her husband. At the same time, the clan of Abu Salamah handed over the child to her.

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها took the child and rode a camel towards Madinah all alone. She had yet gone a few miles from Makkah when at Tan'eem she came across a man of Makkah, Uthman ibn Talhah. He asked, "O daughter of Abu Umayyah, where do you intend to go?" She told him that she was going to her husband, Abu Salamah, at Madinah. He asked if she had anyone else with her and she said that she had her child and Allah with her and no one else. Uthman said, "I will come with you. The daughter of Abu Umayyah will not travel alone." Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها remarked that she had not seen anyone as noble as him. Throughout the journey, when it was time to stop, he made the camel sit down and walked away from there so that she could get down from the camel comfortably. As the time to move ahead approached, he again made the camel sit down and she mounted it. He held the bridle and made the move. When they reached Quba (a small settlement at the outskirts of Madina at that time, but now part of it), he told Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها that her husband was in Quba. There he entrusted her to him and himself returned to Makkah.

Most of the historians and seerah writers believe that Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها was the first woman to make hirjah to Madinah. The next Hadith from Muslim seems to support this view.

Abu Salamah رضي الله عنه fought very bravely in the Battle of Uhud. He suffered deep wounds which healed in a few days and he regained perfect health. The Prophet ﷺ made him ameer of the party sent against the Banu Asad but the old wound opened again and he was in much pain. He died of it on 8th Jumadi al-Ukhra 4 AH. The Prophet ﷺ, who was there, shut his eyes and prayed for him and said also, "O Allah, protect and look after his heirs."

This was a great setback for Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها who had respected him much and considered him matchless. She said that she could not hope for an alternative in spite of the saying of the Prophet ﷺ:

ما من مسلم تصيبه مصيبة فيقول ما امره الله به ان الله وانا اليه راجعون. اللهم اجرنى فى مصيبتى واخلف لى خيراً منها الا احلف الله له خيراً منها . فلما مات ابو سلمه قلت اى المسلمين خير من ابى سلمه اول بيت ها جر الى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ثم انى قلتها فاخلف الله لى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم.

{If a Believer faces a difficulty (and loses something) and he says to Allah what we are commanded to say in such cases ان الله وانا اليه راجعون. اللهم اجرنى فى مصيبتى واخلف لى خيراً منها الا احلف الله له خيراً منها (We belong to Allah and to Him is our return. O Allah reward me in my predicament and grant me in place of that which is taken away from me something better than that) then Allah grants him better than that thing. (She said:) When my first husband died, I thought who could be better than him who was the first Muslim who migrated towards the Prophet ﷺ with his family. However, I observed the Prophet's teachings and said on his death: اللهم اجرنى فى مصيبتى واخلف لى خيراً منها الا احلف الله له خيراً منها, then Allah gave me His Messenger instead.}

This narration is from Saheeh Bukhari Muslim and it is also found in other books. Ibn Sa'd has transmitted in Tabaqat with this addition: (Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها said:)

{One day I said to my husband, "If a woman's husband dies and she does not enter into a second marriage and they both go to Paradise then Allah keep their relationship intact in Paradise. If a wife dies and her husband does not marry again then too this worldly relationship is kept alive. Come let us make a promise that one who survives the other should not re-marry." Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه said, "Are you prepared to make this promise?" When I said that I was prepared, he said, "If I die, you should re-marry." and he made this supplication, "O Allah, grant Umm Salamah a better husband than me after I die who should not be one to grieve her or cause her hardship." I could not understand after his death who could be better than him."

When her waiting period was over, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه sent to her their proposals to marry but she declined. However, when Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه brought to her the proposal of the Prophet ﷺ, she said to him, "I have three handicaps: I have a great sense of honour, I have many children and I am much advanced in age." She meant to impress upon him that she might be lacking in discharge of her duties. In some versions she also lamented that she had no guardian in Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ said — when told of her excuses —, "As far as her excessive sense of honour is concerned, I will pray that Allah may correct it, and, the children, Allah and His Messenger ﷺ are responsible for them, and, as for age, I am older than she. None of her guardians will object to this relationship." She then expressed willingness and they were married in Shawwal 4 AH.

Children

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها had two sons and two daughters by her first husband. Their names were: Salamah and Umar, Durrah and Barah which last named the Prophet ﷺ changed to Zaynab.

Merits

There is a Hadith in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim that one day Jibreel عليه السلام came to the Prophet ﷺ. Umm salamah رضى الله عنها was sitting beside him. When he went away, the Prophet ﷺ asked her, "Who was he?" She said, "Dihiyah Kalbi" (because he had come in his appearance). Then not until did the Prophet ﷺ mention in the mosque that Jibreel عليه السلام had come did she realise that Jibreel عليه السلام was the one who had come to their home.

It was in her house that the verse of al-Ahzab of the Qur'an concerning the wives was revealed:

“إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا”

(الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٣)

{Allah only desires to take away from you all abomination, O people of the household (of Muhammad), and to purify you with a thorough purifying.}

(33:33)

After that the Prophet ﷺ called Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها, Sayyidina Husayn عليه السلام and Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام and put the cloak over them and himself and sat down behind Sayyidina Ali's عليه السلام back and made this supplication: "O اللهم هوء لاء اهل بيتى فطهرهم تطهيراً"

Allah, they too are the people of my house. Make them too pure." Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها said, "I too am with them." He said: انت على مكانك وانت على خير (You are, of course, among the people of the house and you are also on the right).

(Jami' Tirmizi, Tafseer surah al-Ahzab)

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها said once, "O messenger of Allah! Why is it that women are not mentioned in the Qur'an?" At that, this verse was revealed: "إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ" "إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ" "الخ" and the Prophet ﷺ recited it to his Companions from the pulpit.¹

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها was very intelligent and Allah had granted her a great understanding of religion. As a result of the Peace Treaty at Hudaibiyah, the Muslims could not perform the umrah and had to return, so, in order that they may return home, the Prophet ﷺ asked them to come out of the ihram make their sacrifices and shave their head. The Companions رضي الله عنهم could not bring themselves to agree to that. He came into his tent and confided with Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها the reaction of the Companions رضي الله عنهم. She said, "O Messenger of Allah! Go out of the tent, sacrifice your animal, shave your head and come out of your ihram." He did that. The Companions رضي الله عنهم then followed suit.

She had memorised many Ahadith. Sayyidah Ayshah, Sayyidina Ibn Abbas and many Companions رضي الله عنهم and their successors رحمة الله عليهم transmitted Ahadith from her. The Muhadditheen have disclosed the number of her Ahadith as 378.

She used to encourage the people to recite the Qur'an on the style of the Prophet ﷺ. She reminded them that he recited the Qur'an slowly with proper pauses. She would say by way of example that he recited الحمد لله رب العالمين have a pause, then say الرحمن الرحيم and pause, and so on. She also said that instead of مالک he recited ملك يوم الدين (Maliki for maaliki). (Tirmizi)

Apart from her reports on commandments, there are many Ahadith from her on nature of recital and exegesis of the Qur'an.

Her death is placed in 59 AH but there is disagreement on it. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه led her funeral salah.

Sayyidah Zaynab Bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها

Her name was Barrah but the Prophet ﷺ changed it to Zaynab. The word Barrah means piety. He changed the names of other women too who were known as Barrah. He said:

لَا تَزْكُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِأَهْلِ الْبَرِّ مِنْكُمْ

(Do not call yourselves pious and generous. Allah knows well which of you is pious and generous).

Her father Jahsh ibn Rikab belonged to Banu Asad and her mother Umaymah bint Abdul Muttalib was the Prophet's ﷺ real paternal aunt. Thus she was his paternal cousin.

Sayyidah Zaynab was one of those who believed in the earliest time.

كَانَتْ قَدِيمَةً إِلَّا سَلَامَ وَقَالَ الزَّهْرِيُّ زَيْنَبُ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرَاتِ الْأُولَى

(She was an early believer in Islam and Imam Zuhri said that Zaynab was among the earliest to make hijrah).

First Marriage

She had been under the Prophet's training because she was his cousin and also a Believer while she had been very young. So, he married her to his emancipated slave Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harith ﷺ. He had been under the Prophet's ﷺ care since childhood and was thus distinguished in knowledge and religion and the Prophet ﷺ had also made him his adopted son so that he treated him as a son. In spite of that he was a freed slave while she was the granddaughter of a chief of the Quraysh, Abdul Muttalib. Even on her father's side she was the daughter of a noble family. So, she and her brother, Abdullah ibn Jahsh, had originally rejected this relationship.

Tabarani has transmitted that the Prophet ﷺ had himself conveyed Zayd's proposal to Zaynab رضى الله عنها and she rejected it on the plea that she was better than him in descent. Then this verse was revealed:

مَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ وَلَا مُؤْمِنَةٍ إِذَا قَضَى اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَمْرًا أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِمْ وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلَالًا مُبِينًا (الاحزاب ٣٦:٣٣)

{And it is not for a believing man or a believing woman, when Allah and His Messenger have decreed a matter, to have the choice in their matter. And whoso disobeys Allah and His Messenger has surely gone astray into manifest astraying.}

(Al-Ahzab, 33:36)

When this verse was revealed Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها and her brother Abdullah ibn Jahsh رضى الله عنه submitted to the Command of Allah and His Messenger رضى الله عنه. He then married Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها to Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه and paid her dower to her on his behalf — this being, ten dinars (about 4 tola gold), sixty dirhams (about 18 tola silver), a load bearing animal, a pair of woman's garment, fifty mudd wheat and ten mudd dates. (Ibn Katheer)

Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها had accepted this relationship for the sake of Allah and had reconciled herself to it. The hypocrites of Madinah who never let go an opportunity to hurt the Prophet رضى الله عنه created much noise and criticised the Prophet رضى الله عنه for imposing his decision Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. The women among them tried to incite Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها who was upset by their propaganda and became short-tempered with a superiority complex. The mischief of the hypocrites caused a disorder in the relationship of husband and wife.

Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه found the superiority complex and cool attitude of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها intolerable and he decided to end the relationship. He asked the Prophet رضى الله عنه to allow him to terminate the relationship, but he refused to permit him to do so. Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه again requested for permission after a few days, but he again asked him to show patience. In fact, the Qur'an also revealed these words:

أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ زَوْجَكَ وَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ (الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٧)

{Keep your wife to yourself and fear Allah} (33:37)

However, Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه was finding it very difficult and the situation had taken a turn whereby it was not even correct in the eyes of Shari'ah to let their relationship continue. So, the Prophet رضى الله عنه permitted Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه reluctantly to finish off his marriage with Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. This marriage lasted just one year.

The Prophet ﷺ had joined them in an expression of Islamic equality but Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها had to bear the taunts of the hypocrites who referred to her cynically as the wife of a freed slave. There was also the fear that they would taunt her that she was divorced by a freed slave. The Prophet ﷺ felt very grieved at this tragedy and Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was also very sorrowful about it. The only way amends could be made was for him to marry her but the hypocrite could again raise a hue and cry and accuse him of marrying the divorced woman of his adopted son. The customs of pre-Islamic days did not allow for that. The Prophet ﷺ was much worried and could not even bring himself to say anything like that. However, Allah revealed:

وَتُخْفَىٰ فِي نَفْسِكَ مَا اللَّهُ مُبْدِيهِ وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَاهُ

(الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٧)

{...and while you were concealing in your mind that which Allah was going to disclose, and you were fearing mankind, whereas Allah has a better right for you to fear Him} (33:37)

This verse not only conveyed Allah's permission but also gave His Command that the Prophet ﷺ should marry Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. Her waiting period was over before this verse was revealed. The Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه himself to Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها with his proposal for marriage. When he conveyed the Prophet's ﷺ proposal to her, she said:

ما انا بصا نعة شيئاً حتى او امر ربي فقامت الى مسجد ها

"Before I decide on anything, I will observe istikharah (consultation) with my Allah surely," and she stood up on her prayer rug.

(Saheeh Muslim)

Sayyidina Zayd رضى الله عنه conveyed to the Prophet ﷺ her response and at the same moment, these words were revealed:

فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِّنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْنَاهَا لَكَ لَا يَكُونُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ فِي

(الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٧)

أَزْوَاجٍ أَذْعَبَانَهُمْ إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا

{So when Zayd had had his want fulfilled of her (and he waiting period was over), We joined her in marriage to you, in order that there should be no blame for the believers in marrying the wives of their adopted sons who have had their want fulfilled of them.}

(al-Ahzab, 33:37)

Most of the exegetes contend that Sayyidah Zaynab's رضى الله عنها marriage took place in the heaven not on earth. The verse is very clear about it:

فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِّنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْنَاهَا (الاحزاب ٣٧:٣٣)

{So when Zayd had had his want fulfilled of her, we joined her in marriage to you}.

Besides, we also know from authentic Traditions that the Prophet ﷺ did not contract marriage with her on earth. The rest of the words of Saheeh Muslim's (v1 p461) Hadith to which we have just referred are: (after فقامت الى مسجدها)

فنزل القرآن وجاء رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فدخل عليها بغير إذن

{After revelation of these words the Prophet went to Sayyidah Zaynab without seeking permission}.

Also, she herself took pride in the fact, "My marriage was concluded by my Allah whereas the marriages of the rest of the wives were concluded by their guardians or family members."

The words of a tradition in Saheeh Bukhari are:

وكانت تفخر علىٰ ازواج النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم تقول زوجكن اهلكن

وزوجني الله من فوق سبع سموات

{And she used to take pride over other wives of the Prophet and say, "Your marriage was conducted by your family members but mine was conducted by Allah above the seven heavens."}

(Saheeh al-Bukhari v2 p1104)

In Saheeh Bukhari, again, the words of another Tradition of the same meaning are:

وكانت تفخر علىٰ نساء النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم وكانت تقول ان الله

انكحني في السماء.

{She used to take pride over the women of the Prophet and used to say, "Allah married me off in the heaven."}

There are similar Ahadith in other books too. We know from them that the marriage of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها did not take place on earth but Allah conducted it in the heaven and Allah's Messenger ﷺ considered that enough. (Fath al-Bari v13 p 412)

However, it is stated in seerat Ibn Hisham that after the revelation of these verses, the Prophet ﷺ married Sayyidina Zaynab رضى الله عنها and fixed the dower at four hundred dirhams. This event is mentioned in Tahzeeb Seerat ibn Hisham in these words:

وتزوج رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم زينب بنت جحش بن رثاب الاسديه
 وزوجه اياها اخوها ابو احمد بن جحش واصدقها رسول الله صلى الله عليه
 وسلم اربع مائة درهم. (p332)

However, the exegetes and scholar of Hadith generally lean towards the former saying.

Ibn Katheer رحمه الله عليه has explained the verse:

فلما قضى زيد منها وطراً زوجنا بها (الاحزاب ٣٣:٣٧)

thus:

وكان الذى ولى تزويجها منه هو الله عز وجل بمعنى انه اوحى اليه ان يدخل
 عليها بلا ولى ولا عقد ولا مهر ولا شهود من البشر.
 (Tafseer Ibn Katheer)

The gist of it is that the wedding was not held on earth, neither were there witnesses nor was the dower determined.

Allama Shawkani رحمه الله عليه has also explained the verse thus:

فلما اعلمه الله بذلك دخل عليها بغير اذن ولا عقد وتقدير صداق ولا
 شى مما هو معتبر فى النكاح فى حق امته، وقيل المراد به الا مرله بان
 يتزوجها والاول اولى وبه جاءت الاخبار الصحيحة.

(Tafseer Fath al-Qadeer v4 p285)

It says the same thing that Allah married her off in the heaven because of which there was no need to conduct any rites of marriage on earth.

He also points out that the other opinion is that Allah commanded the Prophet ﷺ to marry Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. But, he says, the first opinion is stronger and known from authentic Ahadith.

There are many diverse views on the year in which the marriage took place but the most plausible is that it happened in Zuqa'dah 4 AH.

In this entire case of her marriage, there are many religious exigencies. It demonstrates Islamic equality. It shows that a wealthy daughter may be married to a freed slave. We also learn from Qur'anic verses concerning this case that Believers, men or women, have no rights about themselves after Allah and His Messenger ﷺ have given a command on their conduct. These verses also tell us that religious issues should not be overlooked because of objection and commotion against the doer. They must be ignored and ignorant customs must be obliterated.

Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was rewarded amply for her sacrifice earlier. Allah was guardian for her marriage in the heaven and the worldly requisities of consent in marriage were dispensed with for her.

Walimah (Wedding Feast)

The Prophet ﷺ held a splendid feast after his marriage with Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها, the like of which he had not held after any of his other marriages. The Hadith of Sayyidina Anas is transmitted in Saheeh Bukhari:

ما رأيت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم اولم على احد من نساءه ما اولم عليها
اولم عليها بشاة

"I never did see him holding a wedding-feast for any of his wives as he held for Zaynab. He slaughtered a sheep in her wedding-feast." (Saheeh Bukhari v2 p777. Saheeh Muslim v1 p461)

Then, Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها, mother of Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه, also sent hays (or some other food) for the wedding-feast.

The Prophet ﷺ named certain Companions رضى الله عنهم to Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه and asked him to invite them and "invite also whoever you meet." His student, Ja'd, asked him how many guests were there and he gave their number as about three hundred. Food was placed in a large dish and the Prophet ﷺ served ten men at a time who took leave after they had eaten until all of them had eaten in this way. When there was no one left, the Prophet ﷺ instructed that the dish should be removed and Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه said, "I could not say whether the food in the dish before serving guests was more or after they had been served." (Saheeh Muslim v1 p461)

It was during this walimah that the verse of hijab (veil) was revealed. (Saheeh Muslim v1 p461)

{O you who believe! Enter not the houses of the Prophet, except when leave is given you for a meal, without waiting for its cooking being finished — but when you are invited, enter, and when you have taken your meal, then disperse, not lingering for a familiar talk. Surely that annoys the Prophet, but he is shy of (asking) you (to leave), but Allah is not shy of the truth. And when you ask them (the Prophet's) of any good, ask them from behind a curtain.}

(al-Ahzab, 33:53)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتَ
النَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ
غَيْرِ نَظِيرٍ إِنَّهُ وَلَكِنْ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ
فَادْخُلُوا فَإِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ فَانْتَشِرُوا
وَلَا مُسْتَأْنِسِينَ لِحَدِيثٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكُمْ
كَانَ يُؤْذَى النَّبِيَّ فَيَسْتَحْيِي مِنْكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يَسْتَحْيِي مِنَ الْحَقِّ وَإِذَا
سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَاسْأَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ
وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ. (الاحزاب ٥٣:٣٣)

The account of the walimah given in Saheeh Muslim throws light on the background of this verse. Even after the feast was over, some people were engrossed in conversation in the house of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها who sat facing a wall. they did not realise that they should disperse. The Prophet ﷺ did not say anything out of modesty but went out of the house himself. When he returned after a while, they were as occupied as before, so he again went out and this when he came again, they realise and departed the Prophet ﷺ put a curtain over the door. It was then that the verse of hijab was revealed.

The verse gives some commands.

- ①. No one must enter the Prophet's ﷺ house uninvited.
- ②. No one, even if invited, should come before time or stay behind after having had the meal.
- ③. If the Prophet's ﷺ wives are requested for anything, the request must be made from behind a curtain.

The verses that follow this one in the Qur'an give commands pertaining to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and his wives رضى الله عنهن.

Merits

Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها had many excellences. Her marriage was conducted by Allah and she took pride in that. She was closest of all wives to the Prophet ﷺ in family ties. The revelation of many verses of surah al-Ahzab pertains to her.

She was a very God-fearing, righteous and generous woman. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها said that Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was very righteous, one who fasted often, and kept vigil in the night. (Zurqani — Sharah Mawahib.)

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها also praised Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها much. Saheeh Muslim carries her report.

{Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "Of all the wives of the Prophet ﷺ only Zaynab was of the same level as I. And I did not see any woman more pious, God-fearing, righteous, truthful, given to join ties of relationship, giver of charity and devoted to Allah than Zaynab. Of course, she was a little short-tempered but she controlled herself quickly."}

(Saheeh Muslim, merits of Ayshah رضى الله عنها)

قالت عائشة وهي التي كانت
تساميني منهن في المنزل عند
رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم
ولم ارامرأة قط خيراً في الدين
من زينب واتقى الله واصدق
حديثاً واوصل للرحم واعظم
صدقة واشد ابتدا لا لنفسها في
العمل الذي تصدق به وتقرب به
الى الله ما عدا سورة من حدة
كانت فيها تسرع منها فيئته.

The value of these words grows when we see that these words formed part of a lengthy Hadith in which Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها discloses that Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها complained to the Prophet ﷺ against her on behalf of the Prophet's ﷺ wives.

Hafiz Shamsuddin Zahabi has also quoted her in Siyar A'lam an-Nubala. She said:

{May Allah have mercy on Zaynab. She attained honour in this world itself which no honourable person can match. Allah conducted her marriage

يرحم الله زينب لقد نالت في
الدنيا الشرف الذي لا يبلغه
الشرف. ان الله زوجها ونطق به with the Prophet ﷺ Himself and mentioned that in the Qur'an. Also, the Prophet ﷺ gave good news about her, of my wives the first to come to me after my death will be she who has long arms (that is, one who spends much in charity)."

And she will be his wife in Paradise too.}

القران وان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لنا اسرعكن لحوقاً اطول لكن باعاً فبشرها بسرعة لحوقها به وهي زوجته في الجنة.

(Siyar a'lam an Nubula v2 p215)

The fact is that Sayyidah Zaynab was short-statured and so her arms were shorter than the arms of the other wives of the Prophet ﷺ. However, she was very liberal and generous and the Arabic expression اطولكن يدأ or اطولكن باعاً (longest of you in arm) refers to generosity.

Therefore the Prophet ﷺ used those words for her. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that after the Prophet's ﷺ death his wives used to compare their arms and took his words literally but when Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها was the first to die, they realised that the words stood for the most generous. "And, indeed, Zaynab was the most generous of us."

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها also said:

كانت زينب صناع اليدين فكانت تدبغ وتحرز وتتصدق به في سبيل الله
"Zaynab earned with her own hands. She made leather items and gave away her income in charity."

(Siyar A'lam an-Nubala v6 p217)

Ibn Sa'd has recounted an account of her generosity.

{ Sayyidah Zaynab's maid servant Barzah bint Rafi' said that during his caliphate, Sayyidina Umar sent to her a liberal cash gift. On seeing that, Sayyidah Zaynab said, "May Allah forgive Umar, for, others could have disbursed this wealth better than I." Those who had brought it said,

عن برزة بنت رافع قالت ارسل عمرا لى زينب بعطائها فقالت غفر الله لعمر غيرى كان اقوى على قسم هذا قالوا كله لك قالت سبحان الله واستترت منه بثوب وقالت صبوه واطرحوا عليه ثوبا واخذت تفرقه في رحمها

"This is not sent to be disbursed, but all of it is for you." She said, "Glory be to Allah! Leave it here and cover it up with cloth." She then began giving away from it to her relatives and orphans. Whatever remained after that she gave away to Barzah bint

وايتا مها واعطتني ما بقي
فوجدنا خمسة وثمانين درهما
ثم رفعت يدها الى السماء
فقال اللهم لا يدركني عطاء
عمر بعد عامي هذا.

Rafi' who counted the money and found them to be eighty-five dirham. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها then raised her hands to heaven and made the supplication, "Let not Umar's gift come to me after this year."}

(Siyar A'lam-al-Nuwala v2 p212 on the authority of Ibn Sa'd)

Her prayer was granted. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها died before the next year. When Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه learnt that she had given away all the money, he went to her house and said to her, "I will send more!" He then sent another one thousand dirham, but she distributed all that money too.

We have seen above that Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها had spoken to the Prophet ﷺ as representative of his wives against Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. In the same Tradition of Saheeh Muslim, it is also stated that she spoke out against Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها to the Prophet ﷺ. In spite of that, her righteousness and frankness were witnessed when the Prophet ﷺ sought her opinion during the affair of ifk (scandal). She spoke truthfully والله ما علمت الا خيرا (By Allah, I know her to be nothing but virtuous!) although her own sister Hamnah was involved in the scandal.

The Prophet ﷺ himself gave testimony of her piety and righteousness. Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها said that once the Prophet ﷺ was distributing the fa'i (war booty gained without Fighting) among his Companions رضى الله عنهم. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها gave him some advice which Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه did not like and he expressed himself against the interference. The Prophet ﷺ advised Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه not to say anything to her because she was awwahah. Someone asked him what that was and he said,

"Awwahah is a women who is softhearted and humble," and he recited the verse of the Qur'an:

ان ابراهيم لحليم اواه منيب (هود ٧٥:١١)

{Surely Ibrahim was forbearing, tenderhearted, penitent}

(Hud, 11:75)

Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها did not narrate many Ahadith but whatever she reported have found place in the Sahah Sitta and other books of Hadith. Among those who transmitted her narrations are her nephew Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Jahash, Umm Habibah bint Abu Sufyan, Zaynab bint Abu Salamah, and other Companions and tabi'een.

Death

She died in 20 AH or 21 AH. She was the first of the Prophet's ﷺ wives to die after him. She had prepared her shroud herself and had given instructions that if Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه also sent a shroud then one of them should be used while the other should be given away in charity. He did send a shroud for her. So, her sister Hamnah رضى الله عنها bint Jahsh used the one sent by Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and gave away the one left by Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها in charity. When she died, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said:

ذهبت حميده سعيدة مفزع اليتامى والا رامل.

"A praiseworthy, pious and a supporter of orphans and widows has departed."

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه led the funeral salah and Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Jahsh, Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abu Ahmad ibn Jahsh and Sayyidina Usman ibn Zayd رضى الله عنه lowered her into the grave which is in Jannatul Baqee'.

Al-Hilaliyah رضى الله عنها

She was the second wife of the Prophet ﷺ with the name Zaynab. Her full name was Zaynab bint Khuzaymah al-Hilaliyah. Her father was Khuzaymah and there was a man, Hilal, in her family three giving her the title al-Hilaliyah. Her mother was Hind bint Awf or Khawlah bint Awf of the tribe Himyar. Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها was the daughter of this very Hind. The Prophet ﷺ married Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها many years after the death of Sayyidah Zaynab bint Khuzaymah. Both of them had the same mother but not the same father.

Syyidah Zynab رضى الله عنها bint Khuzaymah was first married to Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Jahsh رضى الله عنه who was martyred in the Battle of Uhud in Shawwal 3 AH and after just a few days she delivered a premature child so that her iddah (Waiting period) ended with the delivery. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ married her in Zul Hajjah 3 AH but she died within three months of the marriage.

It is also said that the Prophet ﷺ married her in Ramadan 3 AH and she died in Rabee' al-Aakhar 3 AH about 8 months after her marriage, but the first report is more sound.

She was only the second wife of the Prophet ﷺ after Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها to have died in his lifetime. All the rest survived him.

The Prophet ﷺ led the funeral salah for her and she was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee' in Madinah. She was thirty years old when she died (Zurqani, v3 p249)

Merits

She was very generous. She was kind to the poor and she fed the needy. In fact, she was known as umm ul-masakeen (Mother of the poor) even before the Prophet ﷺ married her. She had the honour of being the Prophet's wife. She died in his lifetime and he led her funeral prayer and supervised her burial in Jannat ul-Baqee'. These were her great merits.

Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضى الله عنها

In 5 AH, the Prophet ﷺ learnt that Harith ibn Abu Dirar the chief of Banu Mustaliq was making preparations to attack Madinah and on his person, too. He was gathering together the idolater tribes of surrounding areas. (al-Bidayah wa al-Nihayah v4 p156)

The Banu Mustaliq were a branch of the tribe Khuza'ah. They

- ①. This is the most sound tradition, but some scholars have named Tufayl ibn al-Harith and some others Ubaydah ibn al-Harith as her first husband (Zurqani Sharah Mawahib v3 p249, Siyar A'lam an Nubla v2 p218, Tahzeeb al-Kamal p204) inhabited the lands near the spring named Muraysee'. (It is because of that that the Battle of Mustaliq are also known as the Battle of Muraysee'.) Many neighbouring tribes joined them and all of them had the support of the idolaters.

The Prophet ﷺ decided, therefore, to advance and attack the Banu Mustaliq and in Sha'ban 5 AH he took them unawares with one thousand Companions ﷺ. They were occupied in the diurnal chores when the Muslims invaded them. The Prophet ﷺ instructed Sayyidina Umar ﷺ to call upon them to say لا اله الا الله (there is no god but Allah) so that their life and property will be protected. He conveyed to them this message but they refused to accept that and shot arrows on the Muslim army. At the command of the Prophet ﷺ the Muslims launched their attack on them and while they could not resist, their allies had already deserted them having fled from there. All the seven hundred members of the tribe were taken captives, ten of their members had died in the fighting while one Muslim was martyred.

Among the captives was Juwayriyah daughter of their chief Harith ibn Abu Dirar. Harith had somehow escaped while Juwayriyah's husband Musafa' ibn Safwan was killed in the battle. The captives were distributed among the Companions ﷺ together with war booty. Juwayriyah fell to the lot of Sayyidina Thabit ibn Qays ﷺ. She asked him if he was prepared to free her against monetary payment, she would try to arrange the sum of money. Thabit ﷺ agreed so that. In the terminology of Shari'ah this arrangement is called Kitabat, and the amount paid to gain liberty is called badal kitabat. They had agreed at nine ooqiyah gold, each ooqiyah is equal to forty dirham.

Juwayriyah and all people of her tribe were taken captive so it was not possible for her to arrange payment of the badal Kitabat. But, she was a daughter of a chief, and she was bold and intelligent. She went straight to the Prophet ﷺ and pleaded with him, "I am Juwayriyah, the daughter of Harith ibn Abu Dirar who is chief of Banu Mustaliq. I have become a Muslim and I bear witness that no one is worthy of worship besides Allah and that you are His Messenger. You are not unaware of the hardship I am facing. In the distribution of the slaves I have been given to Thabit ibn Qays who has concluded kitabab with me, but I do not have badal kitabab. I seek your help." He said, "Shall I not tell you of something better? If you consent I shall buy you from Thabit ibn Qays and set you free whereafter you may marry me." She accepted the proposal willingly. In this way, they married and the Prophet ﷺ fixed the dower at four thousand dirham. (Zurqani v3 p255)

Three days before the battle, Juwayriyah had seen a dream that the moon came into her lap from Madinah. She did not mention it to the people of her house but when she was taken captive and brought to Madinah she could see the interpretation of her dream.

(Zurqani on the authority of Bayhaqi and Siyar A'lam an Nubala v2 p265)

When Companions ﷺ learnt of that, they realised that the slaves with them had become in-laws of the Prophet ﷺ. It was not proper to retain them as slaves, so they released all of them.

(Isabah v7 p565, Siyar A'lam an-Nubala v2 p265)

They were about seven hundred in number. All of them then embraced Islam. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said at this juncture:

ما اعلم امرأة اعظم بركة منها على قومها

"I do not know of a woman who has been as instrumental as Juwayriyah in bringing good to her people."

When all that was over, her father came with a lot of wealth and property to ransom his daughter, Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضى الله عنها, his two sons were with him. The things he had brought included a lot of camels but during the journey he found two camels much to his liking, so he hid them in a valley before coming to the Prophet ﷺ. He disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ why he had come and he told him, "Juwayriyah is here. If she likes, you may take her." He said to his daughter that the Prophet ﷺ given his permission, so she must go with him. She said, اخترت الله ورسوله (I have chosen Allah and His Messenger). The father coaxed her, pleaded with her but she was unwilling to part with the Prophet ﷺ. Afterwards, the Prophet ﷺ reminded Harith ibn Abu Dirar of the two camels which he had concealed in a valley. Harith exclaimed that only Allah and he knew about the camels so "I bear witness that you are Allah's Messenger," and he became a Muslim

(Zurqani v3 p255)

His two sons also embraced Islam. In this way, the entire tribe embraced Islam and that was a blessing of Sayyidah Juwayriyah's marriage. Apart from the religious point of view, the faith of Banu Mustaliq was significant from the political and defence points of view because they were nearer Makkah than Madinah and the Makkans had not believed till then.

Merits

Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضى الله عنها has reported many Ahadith from the Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه, Jabir رضى الله عنه, Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه have transmitted her narrations.

She was given to remember Allah often and was a great doer of good deeds. She would sit on the prayer rug for hours together after offering salah and occupy herself in remembering Allah. Her Hadith about that is transmitted by Imam Muslim رحمه الله عليه and Imam Tirmizi رحمه الله عليه. The words of Saheeh Muslim are:

{ Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضى الله عنها said that one day the Prophet ﷺ went from her after offering the fajr salah while she was sitting on her prayer rug observing some recital. He came back very late after the time of the duha salah and found her sitting in the same place. He asked, "Is it that since I went from here you are sitting at the same place in the same manner? She confirmed that she had been sitting there in the same way. }

عن جويرة ان النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم خرج من عندها بكرة حين صلى الصبح وهى فى مسجدها ثم رجع بعد ان اضحى وهى جالسة قال ما زلت على الحال الذى فارقتك عليها قالت نعم

The Hadith is not complete here but we only had to show that she was much devoted and given to much worship and zikr. The same Hadith is found in Tirmizi with a slight difference of words.

We also learn from Ahadith that she observed optional fasts. Once the Prophet ﷺ came to her house on a Friday. She was fasting. He asked her, "Did you fast yesterday?" She said, "No!" Will you fast tomorrow," he asked, and she again said, "No!" So the Prophet ﷺ forbade her to ever again fast only on a Friday. The question of fasting only on a Friday is one on which there are divergent views and relevant books may be studied for that.

It is also to her credit that she alone was instrumental in getting freedom to all her people, the Banu Mustaliq, and in bringing them to the folds of Islam.

Death

She died in Rabee'al-Awwal 50 AH Marwan ibn al-Hakam, the governor of Madinah in those days and a tabi'ee led her funeral salah. She was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee' in Madinah.

Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها

Her name was Ramlah. She was the daughter of Sayyidina Abu Sufyan ibn Harb رضى الله عنه and sister of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضى الله عنه. She got the Kunyah Umm Habibah from her daughter Habibah. Her mother Safiyah bint Abu al-Aas was paternal aunt of Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه. Her first husband Ubaydullah ibn Jahsh had embraced Islam in the early days of Islam. However, he was unable to endure persecution at Makkah by the idolaters, so he migrated to Habshah (Ethiopia). There, he converted to Christianity and died an apostate. He had been inciting Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها to revoke Islam and become a Christian but she was steadfast even in the difficult times. She was fortunate that after Ubaydullah ibn Jahsh died and she completed her waiting period, the Prophet رضى الله عنه sent Sayyidina Amr ibn Umayyah Damiri رضى الله عنه to the King Najashi with his marriage proposal for Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها. The Najashi had, of course, become a Muslim and the Prophet رضى الله عنه suggested that he should officiate as his attorney in conducting his marriage. The Najashi sent his slave-girl to Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها the message: "The king says that Allah's Messenger رضى الله عنه has sent a letter to him directing him to convey his marriage proposal to Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها. If she accepted it then he is directed to conduct the marriage." Sayyidah Umm Habibah heard this good news and was happy because of it. She gave the slave-girl two golden bracelets, many rings and two other pieces of jewellery, and she appointed her close relative Khalid ibn Sa'eed ibn al-Aas رضى الله عنه as her attorney.

(Zurqani Sharah al-Mawahib v3 p244. Al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v4 p143)

The next day the Najashi invited all the Companions ﷺ residing in Ethiopia and they included the Prophet's ﷺ cousin Sayyidina Ja'far ibn Abu Talib ﷺ. They went to his palace where he delivered the sermon and proposed on behalf of the Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidina Khalid ibn Sa'eed ﷺ accepted the proposal on behalf of Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها. Najashi fixed the dower at four hundred dinars and sent the amount of money to Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها who gave fifty dinars from that to the slave-girl. However, she returned the fifty dinars as also the jewellery that was given to her on previousday, saying that it was the King's command. The king then sent her many gifts and perfumes.

When the Companions ﷺ stood up to depart after the wedding, the Najashi asked them to remain seated and go only after the meal was served. He also said that it was the sunnah of the Prophets عليهم السلام to give a feast after the marriage was solemnised.

(al-Bidayah wa an Nihayah v4 p143)

The most accepted view is that the marriage took place in 6 AH. When Abu Sufyan learnt of it in Makkah, he conceded that the Prophet ﷺ was a great man and he spoke highly of the Prophet.

(Zurqani v3 p244.)

In a lengthy Hadith in Saheeh Muslim it is stated that after he had believed, Abu Sufyan ﷺ requested the Prophet ﷺ in Madinah that he should marry Abu Sufyan's daughter ﷺ, Umm Habibah and the Prophet ﷺ accepted his request.

(Saheeh Muslim v2 p304 — Merits of Abu Sufyan)

The scholars of Hadith have explained this portion of the Hadith in different ways, the gist of which is that this portion of the Hadith is wrong as much as suggests Umm Habibah's marriage after Abu Sufyan's conversion to Islam and migration to Madinah.

Anyway, the marriage was concluded in Ethiopia and before Abu Sufyan's acceptance of Islam. This statement is supported from the following report. After the Peace Treaty of Hudaibiyah, Abu Sufyan came to Madinah as a representative of the people of Makkah to clarify certain issues concerning this treaty. He went to the house of his daughter, Umm Habibah to meet her. As he went in, she wrapped up the bedding of the Prophet ﷺ that had been spread out. He exclaimed, "Why? Is the bed not worthy of me or am I not worthy of it?" She said, "Father! You are an idolater while this is the bedding of Allah's Messenger. Hence, you are not worthy to sit on it." (al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v4 p143)

Worthy

Allah had blessed Sayyidah Umm Habibah with apparent beauty and inner perfection. She was among the earliest people who believed though her father, Abu Sufyan, a chief of the Quraysh, did not believe till near the liberation of Makkah. Similarly, other people of her family also took too long to believe in Islam. Under the circumstances, it took great determination and power of will on her part to embrace Islam at a very early stage not allowing her family's opposition to deter her. The same determination caused her to migrate to Ethiopia and reject all enticement by her husband to revoke Islam and become a Christian particularly when she was in an alien land where her husband was her only outward support. Again, her refusal to allow her polytheist father to sit on the Prophet's ﷺ bed showed her exceptional love for the Prophet ﷺ and respect for him as also her superior strength of faith.

She was very careful to put into practice the sayings of her Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها, Sayyidah Umm Salamah's رضي الله عنها daughter said:

دخلت على ام حبيب زوج النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم حين توفي ابوها ابو
سفيان بن حرب فدعت بطيب فيه صفرة خلوق او غيره فدهنت به جارية ثم
مست بعار ضيها ثم قالت والله مالي بالطيب من حاجة غيراني سمعت
رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم يقول لا يحل لا امرأة تؤمن بالله واليوم
الآخر ان يحد على ميت فوق ثلاثة ايام الا على زوج اربعة اشهر وعشراً.

The gist of the narration is that Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها daughter of Sayyidina Abu Salamah رضي الله عنه visited Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضي الله عنها on the death of her father, Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه (and it seems that three days had passed since he had died.) Umm Habibah رضي الله عنها asked for a perfume made of Safron and red and yellow colour. She applied it to a child and then on her own cheeks. She then said, "I had no need to use the perfume now but I had heard the Prophet ﷺ say that it is not proper for a believing woman that she mourns a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she may mourn for four months and ten days. So, I applied perfume to conduct myself on the Prophet's ﷺ saying (and show that I do not mourn my father for more than three days)"¹

The Prophet's ﷺ following saying is also reported by her:

من صلى في يوم وليلة اثنتي عشرة ركعة بنى له بيت في الجنة أربعاً قبل الظهر وركعتين بعدها وركعتين بعد المغرب وركعتين بعد العشاء وركعتين قبل الفجر صلوة الغداة

{Allah's Messenger said: If anyone offers these twelve raka'at during a day and night, Allah will build a palace for him in Paradise. They are: four before the zuhar, two after Zuhar, two after maghrib two after isha and two before fajr}²

In Musnad Ahmad, there is this much more in this Hadith:

فما برحت اصليهن بعد

"Ever since I have heard him say that, I have never neglected these raka'at."

She was much fearful of the questioning in the Hereafter and very careful to keep all her dealings clear. Ibn Sa'd has transmitted this report of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها about her:

قالت دعتنى ام حبيبہ عند موتہا فقالت قد كان يكون بيننا ما يكون بين الضرائر فحلليني من ذالك فحللتها واستغفرت لى واستغفرت لها فقالت لى سررتنى سرک الله وارسلت الى ام سلمه مثل ذلک.

{She said: Before her death Umm Habibah called me and said, "We might have hurt one another as co-wives are likely to do so, I ask for forgiveness for that." I forgave her (any such thing), and she prayed for my forgiveness and I for her.} (zurqani v3 p245)

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that she also asked Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها to forgive her.

She has reported many Ahadith from the Prophet ﷺ directly

①. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: ما جاء في عدة المتوفى عنها زوجها)

②. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: ما جاء في من صلى في يوم وليلة اثنتي عشرة ركعة من السنة ماله من الفضل) and through other people. Among those who have transmitted her Ahadith are her brother Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه, daughter Habibah رضي الله عنها, and some other Companions رضي الله عنهم and tabi'een رحمه الله عليهم.

Death

She died in the times of Khalifah Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه. The soundest report places her death in 44 AH. She is buried in Madinah. رضي الله عنها وارضاه.

Sayyidah Safiyah رضي الله عنها

Her father was Huayy ibn Akhtab, the chief of Banu Nadeer. He traced his line of descent to Sayyidina Haroon عليه السلام. Her mother was Durrah. She was daughter of the chief of Banu Qurayzah.

(Zurqani v3 p256, Siyar A'lam an Nabula v2 p231)

Banu Nadeer and Banu Qurayzah were to prominent Jewish tribes of Madinah. They had covenanted with the Prophet ﷺ that they would not fight with him and will also not aid his enemies. (fath al-bari, Hadith on Banu Nadeer). However, both of them violated their assurances. The former were incited by the idolaters of Makkah to kill the Prophet ﷺ but Allah disclosed to him their conspiracy. (Abu Dawood) So, he laid a siege round their fort six months after the Battle of Badr. (Bukhari) They requested that peace be concluded, so, it was agreed that they may load their camels with whatever they could but not any weapons and they may go away from there. (Fath al-Bari). They went away to Khaybar where there were many Jewish settlements. The parents of Sayyidah Safiyah who were very young then also went away with their tribesmen. At Khaybar, she was married to Sallam ibn Mishkan, but he divorced her and she was married to Kinanah ibn Abu Huqayq. He was killed in the Battle of Khaybar and she was taken captive alongwith others by the Muslims. The Companions, Dihyah Kalbi رضي الله عنه requested the Prophet ﷺ for a slave girl from the captives of Khaybar and he said, "You may choose one." He picked up Safiyah. But another Companion رضي الله عنه pointed out to the Prophet ﷺ that she was a daughter of the chiefs of Banu Nadeer and Banu Qurayzah and worthy only of him. So, the Prophet ﷺ gave Dihyah another female slave and freed Safiyah and married her.

(al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v4 p194, Saheeh Bukhari v2 p604)

When he had given her option to go back to her land or marry him. She said:

اختار الله ورسوله لقد كنت اتمنى ذلك في الشرك

"I choose Allah and His Messenger. Indeed, I craved for that even before Islam."

(Zurqani)

After her marriage, she narrated to the Prophet ﷺ a dream she had seen. She said, "O Messenger of Allah, while you had surrounded Khaybar, I dreamt one night that the moon is in my lap. I related it to my husband who slapped me so hard that the impression of his fingers were left on my face- and he said you long to marry the king of the Arabs." (al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v4 p194)

The Prophet ﷺ had married her while returning from Khaybar at Sadd as-Sabba. The next he gave a wedding feast at the same place. At his saying, the Companions ﷺ brought dates, cheese, butter-oil, etc. These things were placed on a dining mat and eaten and this was the wedding feast.

(Siyar A'lam al-Nabula v2 p232, Saheeh Bukhari chapter Battle of Khaybar.)

Throughout the journey, Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها rode the same camel as the Prophet ﷺ sitting behind him.

Merits

Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها was very wise and intelligent. She did not go home although she was given choice but preferred to stay with the Prophet ﷺ. She was very kind. Once her maid-slave complained to Sayyidina Umar ﷺ that she continued to observe the Sabth (sabat) and maintained ties with Jews. He deputed someone to find out the truth and she asserted, "When Allah has given me a better day, Friday, then why should I observe the Sabat. As for joining ties of relationship with Jews, they are my relatives, so I join those ties with them (and Islam does not forbid that)." She then asked her slave why she had made the complaint and she said that the devil had provoked her. Instead of punishing her, she set her free. (Isabah)

One day the Prophet ﷺ found her weeping. He learnt that Sayyidah Ayshah and Sayyidah Hafsa had told her that besides being the Prophet's ﷺ wives, they also belonged to his clan while she was from Jewish stock, so they were superior to her. He comforted her and said, "Why did you not say to them that they could not be superior to you because you are an off-spring of Haroon, the Prophet, and your uncle was Prophet Musa and your husband is Prophet Muhammad.

(Tirmizi v2 p229 — Chapter: Merits of Prophet's wives.)

The Prophet ﷺ expressed great displeasure once when Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها had spoken unreasonable words about her. Once, Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها bint Jahsh called her a Jew and he said: انها اسلمت وحسن اسلامها "She is a perfect believer," and he did not visit Sayyidah Zaynab for many weeks. (Isabah)

Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها loved the Prophet ﷺ exceedingly and when he was ill and in much pain, she said, "O Allah's Messenger! I wish I would get your pain instead of you." Some of the Prophet's ﷺ wives doubted her sincerity and this showed on their faces. The Prophet ﷺ told them that she spoke the truth.

(Isabah v7 p741. Zurqani v3 p258)

She was very generous. When she came to Madinah for the first time, she gave away her jewellery to Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها and some of the Prophet's ﷺ wives رضى الله عنهن.

When the rebels had surrounded Sayyidina Uthman's house and prevented all kind of provision and water from being sent to his house to help him but they did not allow her to enter it. So, she arranged supply of these necessities through Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه.

(Isabah v7 p742)

She has narrated many Ahadith. Among her students were Sayyidina Zayn ul-Abideen, Ishaq ibn Abdullah, Muslim ibn Safwan, Kinanah, Yazeed ibn Mu'attib and other tabi'een.

Death

Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها died in Ramadan 50 AH and she was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee', but some authorities have said that she died in 52 AH.

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها was the daughter of Harith ibn Hazn who was a Quraysh. Her mother was Hind bint Awf or Khawlah bin Awf of the Himyar¹, and she was also the mother of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها bint Khuzaymah. We have seen in her account that Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها had the same mother but not the same father.

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها was the maternal aunt of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ, Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ and Yazeed ibn al-Asamm ؓ. Her sister Sayyidah umm al-Fadl رضى الله عنها was the wife of Sayyidina Abbas ؓ; another sister Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها was the wife of Sayyidina Ja'far ibn Abu Talib ؓ but she married Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ after he was martyred, and after he died, she married Sayyidina Ali ؓ.

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها was first married to Abu Ruhm ibn Abd al-Uzza. When he died, Sayyidina Abbas ؓ suggested to the Prophet ﷺ that he should marry her. So, he sent Sayyidina Ja'far ibn Abu Talib ؓ with the proposal. She gave her consent and appointed her brother-in-law, Sayyidina Abbas ؓ, as her attorney. This was a year after the Peace of Hdaybiyah. Before they could marry, the Prophet ﷺ proceeded to perform the redeeming (gada) umrah in 7 AH. His wives and even Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها were with him. So, he married her during the journey. The reports differ on whether the marriage took place before assuming the ihram or after that. She was the last of the Prophet's ﷺ wives. Her dower was fixed at 400 dirhams. The Prophet's ﷺ intention was to hold the wedding feast at Makkah after the umrah but the Makkans did not allow them to stay beyond three days, so he held it at Sarif, ten miles away from Makkah on the route to Madinah.

Merits

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها lived with the Prophet ﷺ for three years. They married in ZuQa'dah 7 AH and the Prophet ﷺ died in Rabee' ul-Awwal 10 AH. In this short time she learnt a lot from the Prophet ﷺ. She knew many religious rulings which the front-rank Companions ﷺ also could not know, particularly those about women and ghusl (ritual bath) etc. Ahadith on these are narrated by her. She has narrated forty-six Ahadith in all, six of them are found in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim, five in Saheeh Muslim while the rest are in other books.

①. Zurqani names her as Hind, Isabah as Khawlah.

Her students included her nephew, Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ, Abdullah ibn Shaddad ﷺ, Abdur Rahman ibn Sa'ib ﷺ, Yazeed ibn al-Asamm and her freed slave Sulayman ibn Yasar and his brother Ata ibn Yasar, and others.

The Prophet ﷺ had borne witness that she had perfect faith.

الاخوات مومنات ميمونه وام الفضل واسماء.

(Maymunah and her sisters Umm al-Fadl and Asma' were believers of great rank.)

(Isabah v8 p128 on the authority of Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd)

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها also praised very much her piety and habit of keeping ties of relationship intact.

(Isabah Zurqani on the authority of Tabaqat)

Her nephew Yazeed ibn al-Asamm said that she was given to offer salah abundantly. She attended to household chores and was very particular to use the miswak. She released many slaves and the Prophet ﷺ once gave her his prayers on that account, "May Allah reward you for that."

Death

Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها died in 51 AH at Sarif. She had gone to Makkah to perform Hajj or Umrah but fell ill. She said to Yazeed ibn al-Asamm, "Take me away from Makkah because I will not die in Makkah, for Allah's Messenger had said to me 'You will not die in Makkah.'" Yazeed ibn al-Asamm said that they had reached Sarif where she died.

(Dala'il an-Nabuwah. Bayhaqi and Majama' az-Zawa'id)

Sarif is about 10 miles from Makkah towards Madinah. Some authorities have stated that she was married at Sarif and her wedding feast was held there and she also died there.

(Tahzeeb al-kamal)

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas ﷺ led the funeral salah. He said, "This is the funeral of a wife of the Prophet ﷺ so carry it respectfully and walk gently." She was lowered into the grave by Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, Yazeed ibn al-Asamm and Ubaydullah ibn Shaddad. They were all her nephews. Her grave was dug at the same spot where Allah's Messenger ﷺ had pitched her tent on the return journey after performing umrah.

While Sayyidah Khadijah رضي الله عنها was the Prophet's ﷺ first wife, Sayyidah Maymunah رضي الله عنها was the last.

We have recounted the merits of all the Prophet's eleven wives who are mentioned in Books of Hadith. Praise belongs to Allah.

رضي الله عنهن وارضاهن

THE PROPHET'S ﷺ CHILDREN

We now write an account of the Prophet's ﷺ children and their excellences. There is much difference of opinion on the number of his children.¹ The most acceptable report seems to be that he had seven children, of whom only a son, Ibrahim, was born to Mariyah, his slave girl and the rest were children of Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها.

We have seen in the account of Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها that sometime after their marriage (five years according to a report) their first child — a son — Qasim was born. The Prophet ﷺ got his kunyah from him. He died in infancy. Then Zaynab, their eldest daughter, was born and both these children were born before the Prophet ﷺ was entrusted with the mission of Prophethood. Thereafter, a son, Abdullah, was born. He was called Tayyib or Tahir because he was born during Prophethood but he too died in childhood. Then three daughters were born in succession². They were Ruqayyah, Umm Kulthum and Fatimah. All the Prophet's daughters lived to the age of understanding, saw the Islamic period and embraced Islam and also observed the hijrah (migration) from Makkah to Madinah, and the Prophet ﷺ himself conducted their marriage. Therefore, we shall only mention his daughters.

Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها

She was the Prophet's eldest daughter, born ten years before Prophethood. Some seerah writers say that she was the Prophet's eldest child while some others say that her brother, Qasim, was the eldest. Nevertheless, she was the eldest among his daughters.

①. Zurqani has stated that he had eleven children

②. This implies that all three were born during Prophethood but it is not so in reality. Muhammad Zakariya.

Marriage

She was married to Abu al-Aas ibn Rabee' who was the son of her maternal aunt Halah bint Khuwaylid. He was a very good, noble and well-natured man and the two of them loved one another deeply. Their close-knit relationship survived all their life. When the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah, he could not take along his family. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was with her husband who had not believed in Islam till then. In fact, he was among the warriors of Makkah against the Muslims in the Battle of Badr in 2 AH and was one of the captives taken to Madinah. In the same way as relatives of other captives sent ransom to release them, Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها also sent her possession to pay for the release of Abu al-Aas.¹ The Prophet ﷺ let him go on condition that he would sent Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها to Madinah on reaching Makkah. Accordingly, he sent her to Madinah on camel-back with his brother, Kinanah. While they had just crossed the Makkan border and had reached Zu Tuwa, some of the idolaters surrounded them and declared that they would not let Muhammad's daughter go to Madinah. One of them hit her with a spear causing her to fall down and suffer injuries. Kinanah took out his bow and warned that if anyone approached them, he would not survive. They all stopped at their places. Meanwhile, the Makkans had learnt of this episode and their chief Abu Sufyan came there with some influential men and persuaded Kinanah to postpone his departure for some time after which he may take Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها in the darkness and quiet of the night because the Makkans had suffered defeat and shame in the Battle of Badr and would consider her announced departure as a further insult. Kinanah agreed with that and Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها returned to Abu al-Aas. A few days later, she went to Madinah, again with Kinanah. The Prophet ﷺ had sent Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه and an Ansar Companion رضى الله عنه to Batan Ya'jaj to receive her. Kinanah handed her over to these two men at this place and returned to Makkah.

In 6 AH Abu al-Aas, was again taken captive in a battle and brought to Madinah. Again, Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها came to his aid. She gave him protection and the Prophet ﷺ acceded to her request and let Abu al-Aas go. He went to Makkah, returned whatever the Makkans had entrusted him with, embraced Islam and came to Madinah. He and Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها had been separated for many years but neither did the Prophet ﷺ marry Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها to any other man. The Prophet ﷺ remarried Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها to him when he came to Madinah as a Muslim.

The Prophet ﷺ regarded him highly because of his good conduct, truthfulness to his promise and kind treatment to Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. And the Prophet ﷺ expressed that His words of praise for Sayyidina Abu al-Aas رضى الله عنه are found in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim (respectively chapters: ashar un-Nabi and Fada'il Fatimah).

Merits

It is not enough to say in her praise that she was the very dear child of the Prophet ﷺ? Also, she was among the very first to believe, having recited the Kalimah shahadah with her mother, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها. Her faith was so strong that her deep love for her husband did not deter her from keeping her faith alive, loving the Prophet ﷺ and migrating to Madinah. She left her husband at Makkah and went to Madinah soon after the Battle of Badr.

The Prophet ﷺ also loved her deeply. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that the Prophet ﷺ learnt of her injury during her attempt to migrate. He remarked:

افضل بناتي اصيبت في

"The best of my daughters suffered on my account."

(Zurqani v3 p195 on the authority of Tahtawi and Haakim)

Death

She died in 8 AH, two years after Sayyidina Abu al-Aas رضى الله عنه came to Madinah and the Prophet ﷺ remarried them. The Prophet ﷺ was gravely disturbed on her death. He gave meticulous instructions to the women who were giving her the bath and shrouding her. He gave his own tahmat (lower waist-down wrapper) for her shroud. Sayyidah Umm Atiyah رضى الله عنها was one of the women who gave her a bath. Her Hadith is transmitted in Saheeh Muslim:

عن ام عطيةؓ قالت لما ماتت زينب بنت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لنا رسول الله اغسلنها وترّاً ثلاثاً او خمساً واجعلن في الخامسة كافوراً او شيئاً من كافور فاذا غسلتها فاعلمننى قالت اعلمنا ها عطانا حقوه وقال اشعرنها اياه.

{Sayyidah Umm Atiyah رضى الله عنها said: when the Prophet's ﷺ daughter Zaynab died, he said to us who were giving her a bath, "Give her the bath an odd number of times — three or five. Pour camphor into the water the fifth time. (Or, he said, mix a little camphor). And, when you have finished giving her a bath, inform me." So, when we were over with it we informed him. He gave us his blessed tahmat for the shroud, saying, "Use it as the innermost part of the shroud directly on Zaynab's body."

(Saheeh Muslim v1 p305)

He led the funeral salah and he and Sayyidina Abu al-Aas رضى الله عنه lowered her in the grave. She felt the pain from the would she had suffered during hijrah all her life till death. Some ulama contend, therefore, that she died a martyr.

(Zurqani v3 p196)

Children

She had a son, Ali, and a daughter, Umamah. The Prophet ﷺ loved both of them dearly. According to Traditions in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim, his grand daughter, Umamah, climbed on his shoulders while he offered salah but he did not object to that. His grandson, Ali, travelled on the same camel as he at the time of the liberation of Makkah. He was martyred in the Battle Yarmook. (Zurqani v3 p197) رضى الله عنهم وارضاهم.

Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها

She was the second daughter of the Prophet who was thirty-three years old at the time of her birth. (Zurqani v3 p197). The Prophet ﷺ had married her in her childhood to Utbah the son of Abu Lahab as he had his other daughter Umm Kulthum to Abu Lahab's second son Utabah (though the marriage was not consumated then). He was not commissioned as Prophet at that time. Both the girls had not been sent to their husbands home till the time he was entrusted with Prophethood. He then began to invite people to Islam so Abu Lahab, hostile as he was to Islam, told his sons that they may choose between him and Muhammad's daughters. His sons obeyed their father and revoked their marriage with the Prophet's ﷺ two daughters.

The Prophet ﷺ then married Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها to Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه before hijrah (Zurqani v3 p198). Both of them were among the first migrants to Ethiopia when the Makkan idolaters made life difficult for them in Makkah. The Prophet ﷺ had said at the time of their migration:

ان عثمان اول من هاجر باهله بعد لوط.

"Surely Uthman is the first after Lut to migrate with his family."

Allah had bestowed beauty on both husband and wife and there was not any other couple in Makkah as beautiful as them. Some women of the family of Uthman رضى الله عنه also composed poetry in their praise. zurqani has quoted some of their poetry whose central theme is that no one had seen such a beautiful couple.

Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها returned to Makkah after some days and, when Allah's Messenger ﷺ migrated to Madinah, they too headed there. At Ethiopia, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها gave birth to a son who was named Abdullah, but he died at the age of six. After that, perhaps they had no children. When the Prophet ﷺ was going to Badr for the battle, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها was very ill. So, he instructed Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه to stay behind to look after her. The news of victory at Badr was received in Madinah, but before the Prophet ﷺ could arrive, Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها died. When he came, he was much grieved. He went to her grave and there tears rolled down his eyes. He wept so much that his tears fell on the grave (Zurqani). رضى الله عنها وارضاهها

Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها

She was the Prophet's ﷺ third daughter. She was born before the Prophet ﷺ began his mission but she grew up in the Islamic atmosphere. We have seen that like Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها she too was married in childhood to a son of Abu Lahab. When the Prophet ﷺ began to preach Islam, Abu Lahab's both sons revoked their marriages with Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها. Their relationship thus ended before the marriage was consummated.

(al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v5 p346, Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p252)

The Prophet ﷺ had then married Sayyidah Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها to Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه but when she died in 2 AH, he married Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها, a few days later, also to Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه. It thus became Sayyidina Uthman's رضى الله عنه privilege that he married the Prophet's ﷺ two daughters one after the other, and was, thus, bestowed the title of Zu an-Noorayn (Possessor of two lights). When she too died in the lifetime of Sayyidina Uthman رضى الله عنه, the Prophet ﷺ said:

لو كان عندى ثالثة لزوجتها

(If I had a third daughter, I would have married her to Uthman, surely).¹

When Utaybah had revoked his marriage to Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها, he had also displayed extreme rudeness to the Prophet ﷺ. Both these things had hurt the Prophet ﷺ very much. He had happened to pray to Allah اللهم سلط عليه كلباً من كلابك (O Allah let one of your dogs overpower him!) (Zurqani, v3 p238) When Abu Lahab learnt of this curse, he was very worried and feared for the life of his son. Some days later they set out on a journey to Syria. the caravan pitched tent on the way and the residents of that place cautioned them that lions frequented that area. This reminded Abu Lahab of the Prophet's prayer against his son, so he employed every protective measure he could to save his son, but the words that had escaped from the tongue of the Prophet ﷺ were not meaningless. The lion somehow took utaybah away.

Before Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضى الله عنها was married to Sayidina Uthman, Sayyidina Umar's رضى الله عنه daughter Sayyidah Hafsa

①. al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v5 p347. A version has لو كان عندهن عثمانيات (If I had ten daughters, I would have married them to Uthman, surely). In fact, Zurqani has a version (If I had a hundred.....) v3 p238. This displays Uthman's رضى الله عنه extraordinary excellence.

رضى الله عنها was widowed. So, he asked Sayyidina Uthman ؓ to marry her but he gave a vague reply, neither denying flatly nt accepting the offer. Sayyidina Umar ؓ complained to the Prophet ﷺ who said, "Shall I not read you to a better husband for your daughter then Uthman and a better wife for Uthman than your daughter." He than asked Umar ؓ to marry his daughter to him and he would give his own daughter, Umm Kulthum, to Uthman in Marriage.(Zurqani)

Merits

We have seen that the Prophet ﷺ called Sayyidah Umm Kulthum more excellent than Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها. Besides, she was the Prophet's ﷺ daughter, among the first people who believed. He also loved her as we can see from Utaybah's story. Also, the Prophet ﷺ led her funeral salah and took part in the burial.

Death

Six years after her marriage with Sayyidina Uthman (in 3AH), she died in 9 AH. (Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p253, Zurqani v3 p239) The Prophet ﷺ was present in Madinah. Sayyidah Umm Atiyah رضي الله عنها and some other women bathed her. Some of the exponents of Hadith have held that the Prophet's ﷺ instructions to Sayyidah Atiyah رضي الله عنها on the death of Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها were really given on the death of Sayyidah Umm Kulthum رضي الله عنها, not Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها, but some others suggest that the same instructions may have been given both times, for, no name is mentioned in the Tradition. The Prophet ﷺ led the funeral salah and she was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee' رضي الله عنها وارضاهها.

Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها

She was the youngest of the Prophet's ﷺ daughters and she was also the most dear to him. The historians differ on her date of birth which they place five years or one year before Prophethood. (al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah) She was with the Prophet ﷺ till hijrah when he had left her at Makkah. He got her to join him at Madinah later and, in 2 AH, a little after the Battle of Badr she was married to Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام (Saheeh Bukhari) Because he too was under the Prophet's ﷺ care and had no house of his own, he gave them some things that were necessary in a home like a sheet of cloth, a waterskin, a leather mattress which was filled with izkhar (a kind of hay) and so on. These things did not constitute the customary dowry because we do not have evidence of dowry from any of his wives or for his other daughters and it was unknown to the Arabs of the time. Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام gave a coat of mail or its value as dower because he had nothing else to give in dower.

Children

She had three sons Hasan, Husayn and Muhsin. Muhsin died in childhood. She had two daughters, Zaynab and Umm Kulthum. Of the Prophet's children, his descendants are known only from Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها. Either no child was born to his other daughters or they died early in life.

Merits

Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها was very dear to the Prophet ﷺ. He loved her very much, extraordinarily. He said: احب اهلي الى فاطمه "The dearest of my family to me is Fatimah." (Tirmizi). If she was in difficulty, he could not tolerate it. Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام wished to marry the daughter of Abu Jahl but Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها complained to the Prophet ﷺ about it and he was much pained at that. He expressed his pain and displeasure in a sermon in the mosque and he also said: فاطمه بضعة مني فمن اغضبها اغضبني "Fatimah is part of me. He who angers her, angers me." This Hadith is found in almost all Books of Hadith with slight difference in words.¹ Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "In her style of speech, Fatimah was most akin to the Prophet ﷺ. Her style of walking was also exactly the same as the Prophet's. It was his practice that when she came to him, he would get up to welcome her and say welcome! Her practice too was the same with the Prophet ﷺ." (Tirmizi)

When the Prophet ﷺ went out on a journey, he would meet Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها at the last hour before departure but when he arrived from a journey, he met her before he met anyone else. (Zurqani)

①. Bukhari (Kitab un Nikah). Muslim, Tirmizi (Merits of Fatimah, Abu Dawood (Kitab un Nikah).

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "In his last illness, the Prophet ﷺ called Fatimah to him and whispered something in her ear at which she wept. He said something more in her ear and she smiled. Later, I asked her the reason for that but she said that she would not divulge the Prophet's ﷺ secret. But, when I brought up the subject after his death, she said that the first time he said that he thought his time had come to die, and she wept. The second time he said that she would be the first of his family to go to him. This caused her to smile." In some versions it is stated that the second time, he asked, "Are you not happy that you are the chief of all women in Paradise." Apparently, he said both things (Saheeh Muslim). Besides these, the Books of Hadith abound with Ahadith on the fine qualities of Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها.

Death

The death of the Prophet ﷺ was unbearable for all Companions رضى الله عنهم, Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها was his only remaining child and both of them loved one another deeply. Therefore, her grief was beyond expression and one that made living impossible for her. In fact, the Prophet ﷺ had himself let her know of that in his lifetime. Just six months after his death, she too undertook the journey to the Hereafter. She was 29 or 24 years old when she died. The difference is because of uncertainty of her date of birth. If she was born five years before Prophethood then she was twenty-nine years old when she died, But if that was one year before Prophethood then she was twenty-four years old at death. Ibn Katheer has given her age as twenty-nine years (al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah) while Hafiz Zahabi as twenty-four years (Tareekh al-Islam). But Allah knows best.

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه led the funeral salah and she was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee'. رضى الله عنها وارضاهما

Sayyidina Hasan Ibn Ali رضى الله عنه

His name was Hasan رضى الله عنه and kunyah was Abu Muhammad. The name was suggested by the Prophet ﷺ (Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p246).

His father was Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام and Sayyidah Fatimah رضي الله عنها was his mother. He was their eldest son and Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام got his kunyah, Abu al-Hasan, from him.

Birth

He was born in Ramadan 3 AH. On learning of his birth the Prophet ﷺ went to Sayyidina Ali's عليه السلام house, took his grandson in his lap, called the azan in his ear and got the aqeeqah done, giving silver equal in weight to his hair in sadaqah.¹ Thus the first sound to go into his ears was the Prophet's ﷺ, and that was the azan which invites to religion. Much of his childhood was spent in the Prophet's ﷺ company and he was eight years old when the Prophet ﷺ died.

Khilafah

When Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام was martyred, the Muslims of Kufah and around it swore allegiance (bay'h) to Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام in the Jami' Masjid of Kufah. Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام had already developed great differences. So, hardly seven months had passed since becoming Khalifah. Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام concluded peace with Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام to prevent fighting and killing and after resigning as Khalifah in favour of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام, he moved to Madinah. In this way, the Prophet's ﷺ words were proved true when he had said about him: ابنى هذا اسيد و لعل الله ان يصلح به بين الفئتين من المسلمين "This son of mine is a sayyid (leader) and, if Allah wills, Allah will bring peace between two groups of Muslims through him."² During the negotiations, Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام accepted all the conditions that Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام placed before him.³ The conditions included an abundant allocation of wealth enough for him to live comfortably, but he spent from it in the cause of Allah so much so that he sometimes gave away his socks too. On reaching Madinah, Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام spent his life peacefully occupying himself in ①. Jami' Tirmizi v1 p183 ما جاء في العقيقة . Abu Dawood: chapter on Aqeeqay. Nasai Kitab al-Aqeeqah.

②. Saheeh Bukhari (manaqib al-Hasan wal Husayn) Tirmizi v2 p218 (manaqib).

③. Siyar A'lam an Nabula v2 p23, v3 p264.

worship, devotion and preaching.

He married many times and had ten or more children.

Death

In 50 AH or 51 AH, someone poisoned him and that resulted in his martyrdom. The ameer of Madinah, Sa'eed ibn al-Aas led the funeral salah. رضى الله عنه، وارضاه

Features

He resembled the Prophet ﷺ very much in features. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ once had him in his lap and said to Sayyidina Ali ؓ, "He does not look like you, but he is like the Prophet ﷺ." Sayyidina Ali ؓ heard him and laughed.¹ The same is reported by Sayyidina Anas.²

Merits

We will follow the muhadditheen in recounting his fine qualities with those of Sayyidina Husayn ؓ because they are mostly common to both.

Sayyidina Husayn Ibn Ali ؓ

He was the second grandson of the Prophet ﷺ and the second son of Sayyidina Ali ؓ and Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها. He was born in Sha'ban 4 AH. The Prophet ﷺ gave him the name Husayn, let him lick honey, put his tongue in his mouth and thus put his saliva therein. He also instructed that the aqeeqah be performed and sadaqah be given of silver of the same weight as his hair. (Muwatta Imam Maalik). He too resembled the Prophet ﷺ who loved him very much. He was only six years old when the Prophet ﷺ died, but he spent all those years in his company. Then, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ and Umar ؓ treated him with immense love and in the initial days of Sayyidina Umar ؓ he began to participate in jihad and took part in many battles. When the rebels had laid siege on Sayyidina Uthman's house, Sayyidina Ali ؓ, instructed both sons, Sayyidina Hasan ؓ and Husayn ؓ to protect him. When

①. Saheeh Bukhari (Manaqib al-Hasan and al-Husayn)

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula (refce: Jami' Tirmizi etc.)

Sayyidina Hasan عليه السلام concluded peace with Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام, his brother, Sayyidina Husayn عليه السلام disagreed with him but accepted his decision because he was his elder brother. However, when, after Sayyidina Hasan's عليه السلام death, Sayyidina Mu'awiyah عليه السلام asked for allegiance to Yazeed as Khalifah, he (Sayyidina Husayn عليه السلام) could not accept that in any way. And, when Yazeed became Khalifah, he did not listen to his well-wishers but travelled to Kufah from Madinah with intent to wage jihad and he had just reached Karballa when he was persecuted and martyred. رضى الله عنه He was martyred on 10th Muharram 21 AH at the age of 55 years.

Merits of Both Brothers

As it is being the Prophet's grandson and Companion are not without merit. The Prophet ﷺ loved them much. Both the brothers climbed on the Prophet's back when he was in salah and they walked through his legs. He was careful of them even in salah and did not raise himself from sajadah as long as they were perched on his back. (Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p294). He used to take them in his lap, place them on his shoulders, kiss them, smell them and would say انكم لمن ريحان الله "You are the sweet smell of Allah." (Jami' Tirmizi) On one such occasion, Sayyidina Aqra' Ibn Habis submitted to him, "O Messenger of Allah! I have ten sons but I have never kissed anyone." He said, "He who does not have mercy is also not shown mercy." (Jami Tirmizi)

We have read in the account of Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها that when the ayat tatheer was revealed, the Prophet ﷺ gathered Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام, Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها and the brothers Hasan عليه السلام and Husayn عليه السلام under his mantle and submitted to Allah:

اللهم هؤلاء اهل بيتي فاذهب عنهم الرجس وطهرهم تطهيرا.

(O Allah, they too are among the people of my house, remove impurity from them and purify them!) (Tirmizi)

Sayyidina Adi ibn Thabit عليه السلام has reported that Allah's Messenger had placed Hasan عليه السلام on his shoulders and made this supplication اللهم ابني احيه فاحيه "O Allah, he is dear to me, You too make him dear to You." (Saheeh Bukhari, v1 p530: Saheeh Muslim v7 p283 — merits of al-hasan wa al-Husayn)

Sayyidina Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said that a man of Iraq asked him, "Would an expiation be necessary if a pilgrim who has assumed the ihram kills a fly!" He said in extreme displeasure, "The people of Iraq come to ask about the killing of fly although they killed the grandson (Husayn) of the Prophet ﷺ who had said about both his grandsons that they were for him sweet smell of the world."¹

Sayyidina Usamah ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه said that he went to the Prophet ﷺ. He came out holding something which he had covered with his cloak. When he finished speaking what he had come to say, he asked the Prophet ﷺ what he was holding. He removed his cloak and disclosed Hasan رضي الله عنه and Husayn رضي الله عنه and said:

هذان ابناي وابنا ابنتي اللهم اني احبهما فاحبهما واحب من من يحبهما.

"O Allah, I love them both. You too love them and love him who loves them."

(Tirmizi)

These words are found in Books of Hadith on sound transmissions: "اللهم اني احبهما فاحبهما" (O Allah I love them both. You too love them). There is no doubt whatsoever that both of them were very dear to Allah and to His Messenger and those who love them are also dear to Allah and His Messenger. Once the Prophet ﷺ was delivering the sermon when both of them came running to him. He paused, picked them, placed them on his sides and resumed the sermon.

Sayyidina Ya'lah ibn Murrah reported that the Prophet ﷺ said:

حسين مني وانا من حسين احب الله من احب حسينا حسين سبط من الاسباط.

"Husayn is mine and I am his. He who loves Husayn, Allah loves him. Husayn is a grandson of mine."

These words حسين مني وانا من حسين (Husayn is mine and I am his) express deep love, oneness and a heartfelt relationship. They are followed by words of supplication which occur in many Ahadith particularly in Tirmizi in the chapter on merits of Hasan and Husayn. The Prophet ﷺ called their mother chief of the women of Paradise and the two brothers سيدا شباب اهل الجنة chief of the young men of Paradise. (Jami Tirmizi Chapter on: merits of Ahl ul-Bauy v1 p216). After the Prophet's ﷺ death, the Companions, particularly the first two Khalifahs, also treated them with tremendous love and compassion.

①. Saheeh Bukhari (chapter on merits of Hasan and Husayn). Tirmizi (Chapter on merits of Hasan and Husayn).

Sayyidina Umar ﷺ fixed an allowance for the two brothers at five thousand dirham equal to that of the participants of Badr and said that it was because of close relations with the Prophet ﷺ (Siyar A'lam an Nabula, v3 p266) though even towards the end of his Khalifah both brothers were just young men. Once Sayyidina Umar ﷺ was delivering a sermon from the Prophet's ﷺ pulpit in Masjid Nabawi when Sayyidina Husayn ﷺ asked him, "Vacate the pulpit of my father (grand father) and deliver it from your father's pulpit." He said, "My father had no pulpit," and he made him sit next to him on the pulpit and showed him much love. (Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p285). Sayyidina Umar ﷺ had received some cloaks known as hullah from Yaman. He distributed them among the sons of the Companions ﷺ and ordered for better ones to be sent for Sayyidina Hasan and Sayyidina Husayn. He gave them the cloaks and said, "Now, I am pleased."

Both the brothers have not reported many Ahadith, but they do have some direct reports from the Prophet ﷺ or their parents رضى الله عنهم against their names.

They were devoted worshippers. Both, had performed Hajj many times after having travelled from Madinah to Makkah on foot. (Siyar A'lam an-Nabula)

They Spent generously in the cause of Allah. They had inherited the quality of piety and generosity from their grand father and parents. رضى الله عنهما وارضاهما

EXCELLENCES OF THE COMPANIONS ﷺ

Let us now narrate the merits or virtues of some of the well-known Companions ﷺ. All the Companions ﷺ are privileged because of the Prophet's ﷺ company the like of which no one who is not a Companion can get. However, there is a distinction among them in ranks as is mentioned in the Qur'an:

لَا يَسْتَوِي مِنْكُمْ مَنْ أَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ الْفَتْحِ وَقَاتَلَ أُولَٰئِكَ أَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً مِّنَ الَّذِينَ
 أَنْفَقُوا مِنْ بَعْدُ وَقَاتَلُوا وَكَلَّا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْحُسْنَىٰ
 (الحديد ١٠:٥٧)

{Not equal is he with the rest of you who spent and fought before the victory. Such are high in rank than those who spent and fought afterwards. And to each Allah has promised a goodly (reward).}

(al-Hadeed, 57:10)

There is a consensus among the ummah that one who is not a Sahabi (companion) — no matter how high he may be in rank — cannot be better than a Companion even if he is not of a high rank among the Companions.¹

In the terminology of Shari'ah a Companion — صحابي Sahabi — is one who as a believer, had seen Allah's Messenger, or had the privilege of his company even if that was for a moment.² The Quran and the Ahadith have mentioned innumerable virtues of the Companions ﷺ. We begin with some verses of the Qur'an and will then relate some Ahadith on the fine qualities and merits of the Companions ﷺ in general. We will follow this with an account of peculiar merits of the front rank Companions ﷺ.

1. Fath al-Bari v_ p7.

2. Nawawi; Sharah Muslim v2 p309. Tadreeb al-Rawi v2 p209. Nakhbat ul-Fikr p82. Imam Bukhari has given this definition in the Chapter on Virtues of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ.

(1) And thus We have made you a mid-most (justly balanced) community so that you may be witnesses to mankind, and the Messenger may be a witness to you.

(al-Baqarah, 2:143)

(١) وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ أُمَّةً
وَسَطًا لِتَكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى
النَّاسِ وَيَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ
شَهِيدًا. (سورة البقرة ٢: ١٤٣)

The change of the qiblah is mentioned before this verse. The meaning is that just as your qiblah is very correct and well-balanced so too you (the Companions and their followers) are also very well-balanced. And, you will bear witness in the Hereafter to the other communities in the same way as the Prophet ﷺ will be a witness to you. The word (wasat) is mid-most path, the most straight and well-balanced. This word is used in the verse mentions the honour of the Companions ﷺ and those who follow them.

(2) So those who believe in him, and strengthen him, and help him, and follow the light (Qur'an) which has been sent down with him those — they are the prosperers. (al-A'raf 7:157)

(٢) فَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِهِ وَ عَزَّوْهُ
وَنَصَرُوهُ وَاتَّبَعُوا النُّورَ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ
مَعَهُ، أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ.
(الاعراف ٧: ١٥٧)

Again the Companions ﷺ are mentioned. They are ones who believe in the Prophet ﷺ and follow the Qur'an and are thus successful in this world and the next.

(3) But the Messenger, and those who believe with him, have struggled hard with their riches and their lives. And those — for them are all the good things, and those — they are the prosperers.

(at-Tawbah, 9:88)

(٣) لَكِنِ الرَّسُولُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
مَعَهُ، جَاهَدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ
وَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمُ الْخَيْرَاتُ
وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ○
أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ

تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَذَٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ. (سورة التوبة ٩: ٨٨-٨٩)

This verse follows the mention of the hypocrites who made excuses to keep away from jihad. It is also mentioned that they behaved in that way because Allah had sealed their hearts and they could not see what profitted them and what was damaging to them. Then too read the above praise of the Companions ﷺ.

(4) And the foremost, the first of the Muhajirin and the Ansar, and those who followed them in good-doing — Allah is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him; and He has prepared for them Gardens underneath which rivers flow, therein they shall abide for ever. That is a mighty triumph.

(at-Tawbah, 9:100)

(٤) وَالسَّابِقُونَ الْأَوَّلُونَ مِنَ
الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِينَ
اتَّبَعُوهُمْ بِإِحْسَانٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ
وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ
تَجْرِي تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
أَبَدًا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ.

(سورة التوبة ٩: ١٠٠)

This verse mentions the Companions whether of Madinah or of Makkah who were the first to believe. It is also said that the later Companions are also included in the privilege.

(5) Among the Believers are men who are true to the covenant they made with Allah; so of them is he who fulfilled his vow by (martyrdom) and of them is he who awaits, and they have not altered in the least

(al-Ahzab, 33:23)

(٥) مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوا
مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ
قَضَىٰ نَحْبَهُ، وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَنْتَظِرُ وَمَا
بَدَّلُوا تَبْدِيلًا.

(سورة الاحزاب ٣٣: ٢٣)

Imam Tirmizi has cited this Hadith for the background of this verse.

Sayyidina Anas ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه said: My uncle Anas ibn Nadr رضي الله عنه could not participate in the Battle of Badr for some reason which he regretted very much. He said that if Allah gives him an opportunity to fight in jihad again then He will see what he does. The following year when the Battle of Uhud took place, Anas ibn Nadr took part and fought bravely and was martyred. He had more than eight wounds on his body, and he could not be identified till his sister recognised her brother from his fingers.¹

Some other Companions had also made a similar resolution but the time had not arrived for fulfilment of the resolutions so they waited for martyrdom. The verse mentions both this class.

(6) Allah was certainly well pleased with the Believers when they swore fealty to you under the tree. (al-Fath, 48:18)

(٦) لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنِ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْ يُبَايِعُونَكَ تَحْتَ
الشَّجَرَةِ. (سورة الفتح ٤٨: ١٨)

This verse refers to Bayt Ridwan which has got its name from this very verse. The Prophet ﷺ had travelled in Zuqa'dah with a number of Companions to perform umrah. On the way, however, he learnt that the Makkans were prepared to obstruct him. He stopped over at Hudaibiyah and sent Sayyidina Uthman ﷺ to Makkah to reason with them and tell them that they had come to perform umrah. They arrested him. When he was late in returning the Companions ﷺ believed that he had been martyred. So, the Prophet ﷺ took a bay'ah (or allegiance) whereby they gave an assurance that in the event of a battle, they would give their support to the end. They took the bay'ah willingly and very enthusiastically. Allah lets them know that He is pleased with them. Several verses following this one refer to this case and praise the Companions ﷺ and mention Allah's blessings on them.

Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, and those who are with him are hard against the disbelievers, merciful among themselves. You see them bowing, prostrating, seeking bounty from Allah and (His) good pleasure. Their mark is on their foreheads from the traces of prostration. That is their similitude in the Torah — and their similitude in the Injeel.

(al-Fath, 48:29)

(٧) مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ
مَعَهُ أَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَاءُ
بَيْنَهُمْ تَرَاهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا
يَبْتَغُونَ فَضْلًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانًا
سِيمَاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِنْ أَثَرِ
السُّجُودِ ذَٰلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي
التَّوْرَاتِ وَمِثْلَهُمْ فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ.

(سورة الفتح ٤٨: ٢٩)

The verses continue to refer to the Bay'ah Ridwan. It recounts the fine qualities of the Companions.

(8) Therein do glorify Him, in the mornings and the evenings, Men whom neither merchandise nor sale diverts from the remembrance of

(٨) يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ فِيهَا بِالْغُدُوِّ
وَالْآصَالِ رِجَالٌ لَا تُلْهِيهِمْ تِجَارَةٌ
وَلَا بَيْعٌ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَإِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ

Allah, and establishing the salah and paying the zakah, they fear a day in which the hearts and the sights will be overturned. (an-Nur, 24:36-37)

وَإِتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ يَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا
تَتَقَلَّبُ فِيهِ الْقُلُوبُ وَالْأَبْصَارُ
(سورة النور ٢٤: ٣٧)

The preceding verse mentions mosques while this one mentions those who go to the mosques and even after they emerge from the mosques they do not neglect remembrance of Allah and their duties concerning salah and zakah. This is because they dread the Day of Resurrection.

There are many other verses of Qur'an which mention the Companions ﷺ. Lest we lengthen our discussion, let us suffice with these verses. We now mention some of the Ahadith reflecting on the merits of the Companions ﷺ.

(1) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that someone asked the Prophet ﷺ, "Which people are the best?" He said, "The people of my time are the best. Then those after them and then those following them."

(Saheeh Muslim v2 p310)

(١) عن عائشة رضى الله عنها
قالت سأ ل رجل النبي صلى
الله عليه وسلم اى الناس خير
قال القرن الذى انا فيهم ثم
الثانى ثم الثالث.

(صحيح مسلم ج ٢ ص ٣١٠)

The words of the Hadith in Bukhari are:

خير امتى قرنى ثم الذين يلو نهم ثم الذين يلو نهم

{The best of my followers are those who live in my time, then those who will come after them and then those who will come after the latter.}

In yet another Hadith of Bukhari, the words are:

خير الناس قرنى ثم الذين يلو نهم ثم الذين يلو نهم¹

The gist of all these narrations are that the Companions ﷺ were the best of all people and the ummah is agreed on that.

Abu Nu'aym has quoted Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضى الله عنه in his Hilyat ul-Awliya as saying:

ان الله نظر فى قلوب العباد فا ختار محمد أ صلى الله عليه وسلم

فبعثه برسالته وانتخبه بعلمه ثم نظر في قلوب الناس بعده فاختار له اصحابا فجعلهم انصار دينه وو زراء نبيه صلى الله عليه وسلم.

{Allah looked at the hearts of His slaves and chose Muhammad ﷺ according to His knowledge and sent him with His Messengership. Then he looked at the hearts of the people after that and selected some as his Companions, and made them his ansars (helpers) and his ministers or deputies.}1

This means that the Companions ﷺ are his selected slaves, and, after the Prophet ﷺ, no one is better than the Companions ﷺ. They are helpers of Allah's religion and ministers of the Prophet ﷺ.

Abu Nu'aym has also reported Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ as saying:

اولئك اصحاب محمد كا نواخير هذه الامة ابرها قلوبا واعمقها علما و اقلها تكلفا قوم اختارهم الله لصحبة نبيه صلى الله عليه وسلم ونقل دينه .

{These Companions of the Prophet ﷺ are the best people of this ummah. Their hearts are the most pious and righteous of all people and their knowledge most deep and they are least given to affectation. Allah selected them for companionship of His Prophet ﷺ and to preach His religion}2

(2) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri reported that Allah's Messenger said: A time will come when an army of the Muslims will advance forward (to wage jihad) and (at the time of jihad) the people will look out and search for a Companion among them. They will find a Companion among them and it is through his blessings that Allah will grant this army victory}3

(٢) عن ابي سعيد الخدري رضى الله عنه قال قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ياتى على الناس زمان يبعث منهم البعث فيقولون انظروا هل تجدون فيكم احدا من اصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فيوجد الرجل فيفتح لهم به .

①. Hayat us-Sahabah, v1 p46 on the authority of Hilyat ul-Awliya and al-Istiyab by Ibn Abdul Barr. ②. Hayat us-Sahabah p46 (refce: Hilyat ul-Awliya)

③. Saheeh Muslim, Chapter: Virtues of Companions Saheeh Bukhari, Chapter: Virtues of Companions.

These are words of Saheeh Muslims. The same Hadith in Saheeh Bukhari has slightly different words.

The Hadith expresses the virtues and blessings of the Companions.

(3) Sayyidina Abu Musa رضي الله عنه al-Ash'ari reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: My existence is a means of safety and protection for the Companions. And the existence of my Companions is a means of safety and protection of my ummah. And, after I have gone from the world, the Companions will be faced with calamities about which I have fore-warned. And, after the disappearance of my Companions the entire ummah will face the dangers of which I have fore-warned.¹

(٣) عن ابي موسى الا شعري
رضي الله عنه قال قال رسول الله
صلى الله عليه وسلم انا امانة لا
صحابي فاذا ذهبت انا اتى
اصحابي ما يوعدون واصحابي
امنة لا متى فاذا ذهب اصحابي
اتى امتي ما يوعدون.

This is a Hadith from Saheeh Muslim. Imam Nawawi has said in the explanation of this Hadith that the calamities mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ did, in fact, occur. The Companions did differ and dispute which resulted in mischief and trials and fighting and killing. After the Companions were gone, the ummah was faced with bid'ah and other religious disagreements, etc.

(4) Sayyidina Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri reported that Allah's Messenger said: Do not revile any of my Companions because (they are so elevated in rank and dear to Allah that) if you spend gold equal to the Mount Uhud, you would not be entitled to reward of their spending a mudd or even half a

(٤) عن ابي سعيد الخدري قال
قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه
وسلم لا تسبوا احداً من اصحابي
فان احداكم لو انفق مثل احد
ذهباً ما ادرك مداحدهم ولا
نصفه.

mudd.}¹

It has been mentioned in the beginning of the Hadith that Sayyidina Khalid ibn Waleed رضي الله عنه spoke rudely with Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه which prompted the Prophet ﷺ to say as above. Sayyidina Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضي الله عنه was a glorious Companion and one of the ten who were promised Paradise. In spite of his magnificent glory, Khalid ibn Waleed رضي الله عنه could not attain the rank of Abdur Rahman ibn al-Awf رضي الله عنه. If there is such a difference between these two Companions then there would be much greater difference between the common people and the Companions. (Mudd was a unit of measure about 1 kg weight).

(5) Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mughaffal رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: Fear Allah concerning my Companions. Do not make them target (of criticism and speaking ill). He who loves them, does so from love of me, and he who hates them does so from hatred of me. He who hurts them, hurts me, he who hurts me, hurts Allah. And he who hurts Allah, will be punished by Allah (in this world and the next)²

(٥) عن عبدالله بن مغفل قال
قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه
وسلم الله الله في اصحابي لا
تخذوهم غرضاً من بعدى فمن
احبهم فبحبي احبهم ومن
ابغضهم فببغضي ابغضهم ومن
اذاهم فقد اذاني ومن اذاني فقد
اذى الله ومن اذى الله يوشك
ان ياخذه.

The Hadith gives a clear message to next generations to be careful to give rights of the Companions رضي الله عنهم. If they are disrespectful in any way then they will suffer punishment in both the worlds.

We must also remember that all Companions رضي الله عنهم are included in the privilege even if as disbelievers they may have been very hostile to Islam and the Prophet ﷺ and they may have harassed their Muslim brothers cruelly. There is a relative saying of the Prophet ﷺ.

①. Saheeh Muslim v2 p310

②. Jami Tirmizi

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: You will find such a one best in affairs of Islam who had been extremely hostile to it before he embraced Islam.¹

عن ابي هريرة رضى الله عنه قال
قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه
وسلم تجدون من خير الناس في
هذا الا مرا كرههم له قبل ان
يقع فيه.

We have innumerable examples among the Companions in evidence of this Hadith. We have Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه, Thumarah ibn Uthal and many others. Both their conditions — before and after Islam — were extremes. Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه said, "As a disbeliever no one was as hateful of Islam as I. It was my desire to kill the Prophet if I had a chance. But as a Muslim, no one is as dear to me as the Prophet ﷺ. I had so much respect for him in my heart that I could not look at him to my contentment."²

Sayyidina Thumamah ibn Uthal رضي الله عنه said almost the same thing to the Prophet ﷺ, "O Messenger of Allah! Before I believed, no face on the face of earth was more hateful to me than yours but your face has become the dearest of all to me, and no religion was more hateful to me than yours, but your religion is now the dearest of all to me. Your town, Madinah, was very hateful to me, but it is dearest to me now."³

There are many Ahadith in the Books of Ahadith on merits of the Companions. We could have quoted many more were it not that we would have taken too much space.

Sayyidina Hamzah Bin Abdul Muttalib رضي الله عنه

The Prophet's ﷺ paternal uncle, Hamzah, believed in the very second year of Prophethood. He was attached to the Prophet ﷺ since childhood and they were very close to one another. He was also the Prophet's ﷺ foster brother, for Thawbiyah, the maid slave of Abu Lahab, had suckled both of them.⁴ Also, their mothers were

①. Saheeh Muslim

②. Saheeh Muslim Chapter كون الاسلام يهدم قبله

③. Saheeh Muslim v2 p94 Chapter ربط الاسير

④. Isabah v8 p36 (account of Thawbiyah) paternal cousins,¹ and Sayyidina Hamzah ؓ was between two and four years older than the Prophet ﷺ. These factors, perhaps, helped in his (early) acceptance of Islam. He was a hunter. One day as he returned from his hunting trip, his slave-girl told him that Abu Jahl had been very rude to his nephew that day. He went straight to the man and at the same time as expressing his intense displeasure at his rudeness, he expressed his acceptance of Islam. That day on, he stayed together with the Prophet ﷺ. When the Prophet ﷺ made the hijrah to Madinah, he too migrated and was finally martyred in the Battle of Uhud.

Sayyidina Hamzah ؓ was a respected man of Makkah. He was dignified, brave and his courage was cited as an example. Therefore, the idolaters were very grieved when he embraced Islam, and they became cautious in their harassment of the Prophet ﷺ.² Sayyidina Hamzah ؓ was with the Prophet ﷺ when the Makkan idolaters had restricted him and the Banu Hashim within Sha'b Abu Talib and he had also participated in the Battle of Badr.³ The Following year he again showed his bravery and killed thirty, or more, disbelievers before being martyred.⁴

Wahshi (who later became a Muslim) related how he martyred Sayyidina Hamzah ؓ. "I was the slave of Jubayr ibn Mu'tim⁵ whose paternal uncle, Ta'eemah ibn Adi was killed in the Battle of Badr by Hamzah. My master, Jubayr, told me that he would free me if I killed Hamzah and I was adept at killing with a small spear. In the Battle of Uhud, I concealed myself behind a rock waiting for an opportunity. I saw that he eliminated Saba' ibn Abdul Uzza with one stroke of his sword but as he came within my range I shot my spear at him and it hit him below the navel coming out of the other side."⁶

①. Isabah v2 p37 (account of Hamzah)

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p172 refec: Mustadrak Haakim.

③. Saheeh Bukhari v2 p574 تسمه من سمي من اهل بدر الخ

④. Isabah v1 p122.

⑤. He also believed later on.

⑥. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter: Killing of Hamzah.)

Merits

Sayyidina Hamzah was the Prophet's ﷺ paternal uncle, foster brother and maternal cousin and Companion. His martyrdom in the Battle of Uhud earned him the title from the Prophet ﷺ sayyid ush-Shuhada (chief of the martyrs)¹, as, indeed, he had also called him Asadullah (lion of Allah)². The idolaters mutilated his body after he was martyred.³

When the bodies were being buried, Sayyidina Hamzah's ﷺ sister, Safiyah رضى الله عنها bint Abdul Muttalib brought two pieces of cloth to shroud her brother. Lest she be unable to see her brother's mutilated body, the Prophet ﷺ instructed her son, Zubayr رضي الله عنه, to prevent her from looking at Sayyidina Hamzah ﷺ. She only agreed to that when told that it was the Prophet's command. Of the two sheets of cloth that she had sent for her brother's shroud, he could get only one because the other piece was used for an Ansar martyr who was next to him. Thus, he could not be fully covered with the sheet of cloth, either his head or his feet were left bare. So, the head was covered with it and izkhar (a kind of hay) was spread over his feet. The Prophet ﷺ was much grieved at his martyrdom and he said, "If it was not for Safiyah's grief, I would have left Hamzah without shroud and burial so that on the Day of Resurrection, he would be brought out from the bellies of birds and beasts, and would come to Allah."⁴

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said that after the Battle of Uhud, the Prophet ﷺ said about the martyrs, "Allah has placed their souls in birds of green colour who drink water from the rivers of Paradise and eat its fruit. Golden lanterns hang below the Throne of the Merciful that they may rest there (in their nest). They express their desire to convey to their brothers in the world news of their happy condition but Allah said in the Qur'an:

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p173. Isabah v2 p37.

②. Isabah v2 p37.

③. Some reports say that Hind, the wife of Abu Sufyan (both of whom later became Muslims) had mutilated his body, but the reports are weak in transmission. See Seerat un-Nabawiyah fi Daw al-Masadir al-Asliyah by Dr. Mahdi Rizqullah Ahmad.

④. Abu Dawood. Tirmizi.

{Think not of those who were slain in Allah's way as dead. Nay, they are alive and are provided with sustenance from their Lord, rejoicing in the bounty (of martyrdom) which Allah has granted them, and they feel happy for the sake of those who, being left behind have not joined them, that no fear shall be on them, nor shall they grieve. They rejoice in Allah's blessing and (His) bounty, and that Allah wastes not the reward of the believers.}(Aal-Imran 3: 169-171)

وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ أَمْوَاتًا بَلْ أَحْيَاءٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
يُرْزَقُونَ ۝ فَرِحِينَ بِمَا آتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ
مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَيَسْتَبْشِرُونَ بِالَّذِينَ لَمْ
يَلْحَقُوا بِهِمْ مِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَنْ
لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ ۝
يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ بِنِعْمَةٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَفَضْلٍ
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَظْهِقُ أَجْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝
(آل عمران ٣: ١٦٩، ١٧٠، ١٧١)

Sayyidina Abbas Ibn Abdul Muttalib ﷺ

The Prophet's paternal uncle, Sayyidina Abbas ﷺ, was two years older than him. However, he never said, "I am older than him." Rather when, he said, "He is greater but I was born before him."¹ He was much attached to the Prophet ﷺ and even before becoming a Muslim, he supported him.

In the twelfth year of Prophethood, a group of Madinans had pledged allegiance to Islam at the hands of the Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidina Abbas ﷺ — not a Muslim then — was there and he said to those people, "Muhammad wishes to come to you. If you promise to support him all your life, it is better otherwise let us know now."²

Immediately after the Battle of Khaybar, Hajjaj ibn Ilat ﷺ, a Companion about whom the Makkans were unaware that he was a Muslim, came to Makkah with the Prophet's permission to attend to his personal affair. He let it be known to the Makkans that the Prophet ﷺ had suffered a humiliating defeat at Khaybar. When Abbas ﷺ learnt of that, he was much worried and became restless.

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p80 on the authority of Majma az-Zawa'id. and Tabarani

②. Isabah v3 p631. Seerat un-Nabi v1 p167

He met Hajjaj ibn Ilat ؓ who quietly disclosed to him that the Prophet ﷺ gained victory but he had spread the wrong news to overcome his own difficulty. That comforted Sayyidina Abbas ؓ.¹

Sayyidina Abbas was a tall man, awe-inspiring, extremely kind and considerate. He had a loud voice. He had every quality that made a leader. In pre-Islamic days, he was responsible to provide water to the pilgrims and to oversee upkeep of, and arrangements in the Masjid al-Haram (which were considered highly honourable)². In the Battle of Badr, he came to fight on the side of the idolaters unwillingly but the Prophet ﷺ had ordered his Companions not to hurt him, however, they did arrest him. He had with him gold weighing twenty ooqiyah. When the question of ransom was raised, he said that he had embraced Islam. The Prophet ﷺ said:

"Allah knows the truth. If you are sincere in your claim to Islam then He will reward you. As for us, we will conduct ourselves according to the obvious. So, pay the ransom."³

الله اعلم بشانك ان يك
ماتدعى حقاً فالله يجزيك اما
ظاهر امرك فقد كان علينا فافد
نفسك.

So, Sayyidina Abbas offered the twenty ooqiyah gold he had with him but the Prophet ﷺ said, "This is the booty Allah has granted us. Ask for ransom to be sent to you from Makkah." He said, "I have nothing with me in Makkah," But the Prophet ﷺ asked him to call for the wealth he had entrusted his wife with in Makkah. Abbas ؓ said, "I know about that."⁴ We have seen in this narration that he said twice that he was a believer. So, some seerah writers suggest that he was a Muslim before the Battle of Badr while other say that he embraced Islam immediately after the Battle of Badr. He did not disclose it to the Makkans and supplied the Prophet ﷺ with reports about them.⁵

Nevertheless, he did embrace Islam before the liberation of Makkah. That is why he could give protection to Abu Sufyan ibn

①. Seerah Ibn Hisham — Hadith of al-hajjaj ibn I lat.

②. Isabah v3 p631

③. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p82

④. ibid.

⑤. Tirmizi, Virtues of Abbas. v2 p217

Harb and was not regarded one of Tulaqa of Makkah who believed at the time of victory of Makkah and the Prophet ﷺ forgave them.

Merits

He was the Prophet's uncle about whom he said:

O People! Whoever hurts my uncle, hurts me because anyone's uncle is like his father.¹

ايها الناس من اذى عمى فقد
اذانى فانما عم الرجل صنو ابيه .

The Prophet ﷺ showed him great respect and the Companions also held him with respect. Imam Baghawi wrote about him:

Sayyidina Abbas ؓ was counted among the very great people in the sight of the Prophet ﷺ. And, the Companions ؓ also recognised his esteem. They consulted him and abided by his advice.²

كان العباس اعظم الناس عند
رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم
والصحابه يعترفون للعباس
بفضله ويشاورونه وياخذون
رايه .

He too loved the Prophet ﷺ dearly. In the Battle of Hunayn, there was a time when the Companions ؓ retreated and the Prophet ﷺ was almost alone. At that time he was at the side of the Prophet ﷺ.³

In the times of Sayyidina Umar ؓ when there was a famine, he requested Sayyidina Abbas ؓ to pray for rain and Allah blessed them with rain.⁴

The Prophet ﷺ prayed for Sayyidina Abbas ؓ and his children regularly. One of his supplications is:

O Allah, forgive Abbas and his son — a forgiveness that is external and internal, leaving (them with) no sin. O Allah, protect him concerning his children.⁵

اللهم اغفر للعباس وولده مغفرة
ظاهرة وباطنة لا تغادر ذنبه اللهم
احفظه في ولده .

①. Tirmizi Virtues of Abbas, p217

②. Isabah v2 p232: refec Imam Baghawi.

③. Jami' Tirmizi.

④. Saheeh Bukhari, Fath al-Bari.

⑤. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter on virtues of Abbas)

The meaning of the last sentence is: "O Allah, protect Abbas that he may not do anything wrong for his children." Allah had said about the captives of Badr:

If Allah determines any good in your hearts, He will give you better than that which has been taken away from you; and will forgive you.¹ (al-Anfal, 8:70)

إِنْ يَعْلَمَ اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ خَيْرًا
يُؤْتِكُمْ خَيْرًا مِّمَّا أُخِذَ مِنْكُمْ
وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ. (سورة الانفال ٨:٧٠)

Sayyidina Abbas عليه السلام said, "Allah gave me much more wealth than that was taken from me as ransom, and I hope that He will forgive me in the Hereafter."

Children

He had six sons: Fadl, Abdullah, Ubaydullah, Qutham, Abdur Rahman and Ma'bad عليه السلام; and one daughter Umm Habibah رضي الله عنها. While Fadl was the eldest, Abdullah عليه السلام was the most known and very knowledgeable.

Death

He died during the Khilafah of Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام in 32 AH at the age of over eighty. Sayyidina Uthman عليه السلام, Ali عليه السلام and Abdullah ibn Abbas عليه السلام gave him the bath.

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Abbas عليه السلام

He was the son of the Prophet's ﷺ uncle, Sayyidina Abbas عليه السلام, a scholar of the ummah and an exegete of the Qur'an of the highest order. He was born three years before hijrah. He migrated to Madinah with his parents a little before the liberation of Makkah. He was thirteen years old at the time of the Prophet's ﷺ death. He did not get much opportunity to learn from the Prophet's ﷺ company but his deep interest and search for knowledge compensated for that.

Merit

We have seen in the account of Sayyidina Abbas عليه السلام that the Prophet ﷺ had prayed for him and his children. However, he also he also prayed especially for knowledge, wisdom, understanding of religion and exegesis of the Qur'an for Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, and these Prophetic supplications have not been made for anyone else in the same way. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه said: Once the Prophet ﷺ went to the toilet. Before he could come out, I had placed water for him to perform ablution. He asked, "Who has filled the water?" When I said that I had, he prayed for me.

O Allah! Grant him insight regarding religion.¹

اللهم فقهه في الدين.

In other versions, the words are: اللهم فقهه في الدين علمه التاويل (O Allah, give him insight regarding religion and knowledge to interpret the Qur'an)² In the version in Tirmizi, he said, "The Prophet embraced me to his breast and said: اللهم علمه الحكمة (O Allah, teach him wisdom)".³

It was because of these prayers that even the elder Companions regarded him as scholar of the ummah, exponent of the Qur'an, ocean of knowledge, leader of exegesis. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه said:

"Ibn Abbas was the best exegete of the Qur'an. If he had attained our age, none of us could have equalled him."⁴

نعم ترجمان القرآن ابن عباس لو
ادرك استانا ما عاشره منا
احد.

Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضي الله عنه said:

I have not seen anyone more present-minded, wise, knowledgeable, clement, forbearing than Abdullah ibn Abbas. Umar used to invite him to solve difficult issues, saying, 'A difficult situation has arisen', and then abided by his advice although companions of Badr were with him.⁵

ما رأيت احداً احضرفهما ولا
الب لباً ولا اكثر علماً ولا اوسع
حلماً من ابن عباس لقد رأيت
عمر يدعو للمعضلات فيقول
قد جاءت معضلة ثم لا يجاوز
قوله وان حوله لاهل بدر.

①. Muslim v2 p298. (Fada'il Abdullah ibn Abbas)

②. Isabah v4 p143

③. Jami' Tirmizi v2 p223. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter on Ibn Abbas)

④. Tazkarah al-Huffaz v1 p40. Fath al-Bari v7 p100

⑤. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p347

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه said about him:

He is a young man who has knowledge and insight of mature men. His tongue is the seeker while his heart is treasury of knowledge.¹

ذلك فتى الكهول له لسان
سئول وقلب عقول.

Whenever anyone asked Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه any question, he directed him to Ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, saying:

هو اعلم الناس بما انزل على محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم
"He is the greatest scholar of the Qur'an." ²

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه used to make him sit with the elder Companions رضي الله عنهم. Together with the Prophet's ﷺ prayers, he was much dedicated to learning which itself was the result of the Prophet's ﷺ prayers. He said, "After the death of the Prophet ﷺ, I said to an Ansar Companion, 'Come let us learn from the Companions, for, they are in large numbers now.' He said to me, 'Ibn Abbas! I am surprised at you. Do you suppose people will depend on you for their learning?' So, I left him and met the elder Companions myself to learn the Prophet's ﷺ Ahadith and religion. Sometimes, I learnt that a certain Companion had a Hadith, so I went to his house only to find out that he was having the afternoon nap. I spread my mantle on the floor and lied down resting my head on the doorsill. I was covered with dust. The Companion came out and said to me, 'You are the Prophet's brother. You could have called me out.' I said to him that I had been told that he knew a Hadith and had come to him to learn it, and for that it was proper that I visited him." He said further I continued to seek knowledge while the Ansar Companion kept an eye on me. A time came when the elder Companions died and people came to me to learn. Now, the Ansari Companion remarked. 'He turned out to be wiser than me.'³ I was never content with the knowledge I had sought so I met many Companions to learn a Hadith." He said:

I used to learn one Hadith or one ruling from thirty

ان كنت لا سأل عن الامرا لواحد

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p345. Isabah v4 p145.

②. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p277. Tazkirah al-Huffaz.

③. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p277. Tazkirah al-Huffaz v1 p43.

Companions.¹

ثلاثين من اصحاب النبي صلى
الله عليه وسلم.

He learnt the explanation of the Qur'an and the Ahadith from the Prophet ﷺ and innumerable Companions. Similarly, a very large number of the tabi'ee learnt from him. He is among the six or seven Companions who are known for having reported the most number of Ahadith, and he has narrated more than 1660 Ahadith.² Agewise he did not stand with the elder Companions but knowledge-wise he was with them. Mujahid said that Ibn Abbas was known as the ocean of knowledge. Ta'oos said that he was the most learned. He was the one whose verdict was final.³ He was handsome and dignified.

He died at Ta'if in 68 AH. Muhammad ibn al-Hanafiyah led the funeral salah and remarked:

A man of Allah is lost to this ummah today.⁴

اليوم مات ربانى هذه الامة.

Sayyidina Ja'far Ibn Abu Talib ﷺ

He was the son of Abu Talib and elder brother of Sayyidina Ali ﷺ. He embraced Islam at the onset and became a Companion.⁵ He was ten years older than Sayyidina Ali ﷺ and twenty years younger than the Prophet ﷺ. His wife, Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها bint Umayy also embraced Islam at the same time as him. All the brothers and sisters of Sayyidina Ali ﷺ and his mother Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها bint Asad were among the most early Muslims.

In the early period of Islam, the Companions ﷺ found it very difficult to endure persecution at the hands of Makkan idolaters. Some of them got the Prophet's ﷺ permission and migrated to Ethiopia. the Christian king of Ethiopia was inclined to peace and was a broad-minded man. Therefore, the Muslims found the place secure. This was the first hijrah and it was followed by a second

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p344

②. ibid v3 p359

③. ibid v3 p350

④. Tazkirah al-Huffaz v1 p41

⑤. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p215

⑥. ibid v1 p215

and larger one (comprising about 900 people). Sayyidina Ja'far ibn Abu Talib عليه السلام and his wife Asma رضي الله عنها bint Umayy were among the migrants. They were pursued by a delegation of the idolaters of Makkah who brought many precious gifts for the king.

They presented gifts to the courtiers and won them over also gaining approach to the king through them. They presented their petition to the king in these words:

"Some young men of our town Makkah have invented a new religion thereby raising unrest. Some of them have fled to your country. We have come with the request of our responsible men that these fugitives should be handed over to us." The priests and courtiers who had been bribed with gifts commended their request. However, the Negus summoned the fugitives. They selected Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام as their spokesman. The king asked them about the religion they had invented. Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام stood up and delivered an eloquent speech. He said:

{O King, we were ignorant who worshipped idols and ate carrion, lived immodestly, severed ties of relationship, harassed our neighbours, the strong among us oppressed the weak. In such a situation, Allah sent His Messenger about whose nobility, truthfulness and chastity all of us were witnesses all along. He only asked us to worship Allah alone. He instructed us to stop worshipping idols which we had carved with our own hands, to speak the truth, to be faithful to trusts, to join ties of relationship and to be kind to neighbours. He also taught us to shun immodesty and evil and bloodshed. He asked us not to lie, not to misappropriate property of orphans, not to slander chaste women. He invited us to monotheism and commanded us to observe salah, fasting and zakah.

O King! we bore testimony to the Prophet and his religion, and we believed in him. That is our only crime. Our people have become hostile to us for this reason and they persecuted us severely that we might revert to idol-worship. To escape their hostility, we have come to your country and we hope that here we shall be able to observe our religion peacefully.}

The Negus asked if he had anything of the revealed scripture. Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام recited the initial verses of surah Maryam. He had not recited more than a few verses that the Negus began to weep till his beard was wet with tears. He said, "These words and that which was revealed to Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام are from the same source." He then asked the Makkan delegation to go away, for, the Muslims would not be handed over to them.

However, the Makkan idolaters met the King again, on the next day and suggested to him that the Muslims did not hold a favourable opinion about Sayyidina Isa ibn Maryam عليه السلام. The King again summoned the Muslims and asked them what they thought of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام. Sayyidina Ja'far said very clearly: "انه" {He is Allah's slave, a spirit from Him and His word that He bestowed on Maryam.} The Negus picked up a straw from the ground and said, "By Allah, Isa ibn Maryam does not exceed your description of him by the length of this straw." He dismissed the idolaters from his court and assured the Muslims that they may reside peacefully¹.

Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام and his friends had migrated to Ethiopia in the fifth year of prophethood. They went to Madinah in 7 AH when Khaybar was conquered. The Prophet ﷺ embraced Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام, kissed him on the forehead and said: "ما ادرى انا بقدوم جعفر" "اسرام بفتح خبير" "I cannot say what has pleased me more, the coming of Ja'far or the victory of Khaybar."² He gave him a piece of land for his house near the mosque and kept him nearest to him. He had been there only a few months when the Prophet ﷺ sent an army to Mu'tah in 8 AH. Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام was included in the army. Mu'tah is a place in Shaam (Syria). Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harithah عليه السلام was the commander of the army who was to be succeeded by Ja'far عليه السلام who by Abdullah ibn Rawahah عليه السلام. If he too was martyred then the Muslims were to choose their next commander.³ It turned out exactly that way. All these commanders died one after another, martyrs, and one ameer succeeded another. Sayyidina Ja'far عليه السلام had more than ninety wounds on his body⁴. The Prophet ﷺ was informed of their martyrdom through revelation and he informed his Companions about that. He was very grieved at that⁵.

①. Siyar Al'lam an-Nabula v1 p215

②. Majma' az-Zawa'id (Chapter Virtues of Ja'far)

③. Saheeh Bukhari Chapter Battle of Muthah

④. ibid

⑤. ibid

Merits

Sayyidina Ja'far was the cousin of the Prophet ﷺ and among the first people who believed, only thirty-one persons having believed before him.¹ In the fifth year of prophethood, he migrated with his wife, Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها bint Umays to an alien land for the sake of religion where he spent about fourteen years till he went to Madinah. After only a few months there, he was martyred in the Battle of Muthah. Before he was martyred, he lost both his hands in the battle. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Allah has granted him two wings in place of his two hands so that he flies about in Paradise wherever he likes."² This is why he was also called Ja'far Tayyar and Ja'far Zul Janahayn (Ja'far, the flier, and Ja'far of two wings). When Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه met his son, Abdullah, he would greet him thus السلام عليك يا ابن ذى الجناحين (Peace be on you O son of the Possessor of two wings!).³

Sayyidina Ja'far رضي الله عنه took great care of the poor and needy. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that whenever he enquired anything from Ja'far رضي الله عنه, he took him to his home first and served a meal before giving an answer. He was the best person (with the exception of the Prophet ﷺ) for the needy.⁴ Hence he was known as Abul Masakeen. He resembled the Prophet ﷺ in features and habits. The Prophet ﷺ himself said about that:

"You resemble me in features and manners."⁵ اشبهت خلقى وخلقى.

When the migrants to Ethiopia returned to Madinah, Sayyidina Ja'far's wife Sayyidah Asma bint Umays visited Sayyidah Hafsa. Sayyidina Umar also visited her and asked who was there. On being told that Sayyidah Asma bint Umays was there, he said (in humour), "We who have migrated directly from Makkah are nearer the Prophet than you who have come from Ethiopia!" She was displeased at that and gave vent to her anger, saying, "Umar, you are wrong. You were with the Prophet ﷺ who took care of the

①. Isabah v2 p85

②. Saheeh Bukhari, Chapter: Battle of Muthah, at Isabah v1 p242.

③. Saheeh Bukhari

④. Saheeh Bukhari (virtues of Ja'far)

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari (virtues, and Umarah al-Qada) hungry among you and the unaware of religion while we were far away in an unknown land and in difficulty all for the sake of Allah and His Messenger."

Then she complained to the Prophet ﷺ who comforted her, saying "Umar is not more rightful than you. He and the Companions have migrated only once while you people have migrated twice."¹

Sayyidina Ja'far was 41 years old when martyred. He had three sons — all born in Ethiopia. They were Abdullah, Awn and Muhammad. رضى الله عنهم ورضوا عنه

Sayyidina Zayd Ibn Harithah ﷺ

He belonged to the tribe, Banu Kilab who lived far away from Makkah. He was being taken somewhere in his childhood with his mother or uncle when the bandits looted the caravan and took away the children as slaves. They sold these slaves near Makkah and Zayd was bought by Hakim ibn Hizam of Makkah who gave him to his paternal aunt, Khadijah. This was before she was married to the Prophet ﷺ. Zayd was about eight years old then. When they were married, Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها presented the slave to the Prophet ﷺ who treated him with tremendous love and extreme care so that the child forgot his parents. A man of Banu Kilab, who had come to Makkah to perform Hajj and had seen Zayd, informed his parents who were worried about him beyond words. His father and uncle visited Makkah to fetch him and had brought much wealth to ransom him. They contacted the Prophet ﷺ and offered a lot of money to ransom Zayd. He asked Zayd if he recognised those men and he recognised both his father and uncle to whom the Prophet ﷺ then said, "Keep your wealth with you. This is Zayd and, if he agrees, you may take him along." But, Zayd refused to go with them. The Prophet ﷺ was so impressed with his conduct that he took him to the Haram and with the Quraysh as witnesses he proclaimed, "From today Zayd is my son! I am his father and he is my heir." Since then he was called Zayd ibn Muhammad. Much later when Islam disallowed this ignorant custom of regarding an adopted son as one's own, Zayd was again called Zayb ibn

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Ja'far)

Harithah.¹ Some reports say that his brother Jablah ibn Harithah had also come to take him away and applied much pressure on him but he did not go. Later he confessed that Zayd was right.²

Then, when Allah favoured mankind with Muhammad ﷺ as their Prophet, Zayd was among the first persons to believe.³ (At that time he was called Zayd ibn Muhammad). He, therefore, shared every difficulty the Prophet ﷺ encountered as a Believer. He was with him during the journey to Ta'if and played with his life in many battles after hijrah till he was martyred in the Battle of Muthah.

When he was of marriageable age, the Prophet ﷺ married him to Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها bint Jahsh, the Prophet's ﷺ cousin. But they could not maintain their marriage for long and were divorced as we have read in the account of Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها. The Prophet ﷺ then married him to Sayyidah Umm Ayman رضى الله عنها who was the slave of the Prophet's father, Abdullah. She was inherited by him and he had set her free. Sayyidina Usamah رضى الله عنه was born to them.⁴

Merits

It is very difficult to recount the fine qualities and merits of Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harithah رضى الله عنه. He loved the Prophet ﷺ more than he loved his parents and therefore he preferred to stay with the Prophet ﷺ rather than go with his parents and live a free life. Similarly, the Prophet ﷺ also loved him dearly and adopted him as a son. He was, therefore, called Zayd ibn Muhammad for a good part of his life till — the verse of the Qur'an was revealed:

أَدْعُوهُمْ لِأَبَائِهِمْ (الاحزاب ٣٣:٥)

{Call them by (the names of) their fathers} (al-Ahzab 33:5)

The Companions then began to call him as Zayd ibn Harithah.⁵ However, the Prophet ﷺ continued to love him as a son, and he

-
- ❶. Seerat ibn Hishab v1 pp266 - 267. Fath al-Bari (Virtues of Zayd, Saheeh Muslim v2 p283
 - ❷. Jami' Tirmizi.
 - ❸. al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v3 p24
 - ❹. al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v2 p272
 - ❺. Saheeh Muslim (virtues of Zayd) often spoke of that.¹ He waited eagerly for him whenever Sayyidina Zayd رضي الله عنه went out of Madinah. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها related an incident. {Sayyidina Zayd came to Madinah after some absence. The Prophet was present in my house when Zayd knocked at the door (and the Prophet had also learnt somehow that it was Zayd who had come) He went so rapidly to receive him that his cloak fell down from his body and he dragged it along as he went out. I had never seen him go out in this way before. He embraced him and kissed him}² The Prophet ﷺ had great confidence in his valour and leadership qualities. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said that whenever the Prophet ﷺ sent him on an expedition, he made him its commander.³ And when he went with an army he appointed Zayd as his Khalifah at Madinah.

Martyrdom

The Prophet ﷺ had appointed Sayyidina Zayd ibn Harithah as commander of the army that he had sent to Muthah in 8 AH. It is a place in Shaam and Muslims were pitted against the Romans. They fought bravely with their commander but he was martyred. The Prophet ﷺ was much grieved over his martyrdom. In the same battle, Sayyidina Ja'far and Abdullah ibn Rawahah were also martyred. The Prophet ﷺ said:

Seek forgiveness for your brother Zayd. He has ran into Paradise.⁴

استغفروا لايخيكم قد دخل الجنة
وهو يسعى.

Sayyidina Usamah Ibn Zayd رضي الله عنه

Sayyidina Usamah the son of Sayyidina Zayd ibn Haithah was born in the third year of prophethood. The Prophet ﷺ was very much pleased on his birth because the child's parents were very dear to him.

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p220 on the authority of Musnad Ahmad

②. Jami' Tirmizi Chapter المعانقة والقبلة ما جاء في

③. Fath al-bari v7 p87 (refec: Sunan Nasa'i)

④. Jami' Tirmizi

Merits

He spent his childhood days with the Prophet ﷺ who treated him as a grandfather would. He took him in his lap and even cleaned his nose. Once Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها offered to clean the child's nose; and he said, عائشه احبيه فانى احبه, "O Ayshah, I love him. You too should love him." Sometimes, he held his grandson Hasan ؓ and Usamah ؓ and made this supplication for them. "اللَّهُمَّ أَحِبَّهُمَا فَإِنِّي أَحِبُّهُمَا. "O Allah, love them both, for I love them!"¹

Sayyidina Zayd, Usamah and Umm Ayman were to the Prophet ﷺ like his own family not only at Makkah but also at Madinah after hijrah. All three of them were very close to him. A woman of a respectable family once stole something and was caught. The Prophet ﷺ gave his verdict that her hand should be amputated. This was very embarrassing for her family but no one could put in a word with the Prophet ﷺ except Usamah ؓ. The Hadith in Bukhari is:

Only Usamah can make a recommendation.²

فقالو من يجترى عليه الا اسامة

بن زيد حب رسول الله صلى الله

عليه وسلم .

Then, Usamah did make a recommendation but the Prophet ﷺ did not accept it. He could not violate the limits prescribed by Allah.

Sayyidina Usamah ؓ was a child during the Battle of Uhud but he did make a direct request to the Prophet ﷺ to let him participate. He was not allowed. During the Battle of Trenches he was 15 years old and was allowed to participate and thereafter he fought in many battles. In many of them he was appointed a commander. He witnessed his father's martyrdom in the battle of Muthah. In the last days of his life, the Prophet ﷺ sent him to the same place as commander of force which included Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ, Umar ؓ, Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas ؓ and Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah ؓ. Sayyidina Usamah ؓ was twenty years old at that time. Some people were surprised at that so, the Prophet ﷺ said:

①. Saheeh Bukhari (account of Usamah)

②. ibid

③. Fatah al-Bari v7 p87

If you question Usamah's leadership you had also questioned his father's leadership though he was worthy of it and dear to me. In the same way, Usamah is worthy of it and dear to me.¹

ان تطعنوا فى اما رته فقد طعنتم
فى اماره ابيه من قبله وايم الله
لقد كان خليفاً للامارة وايم الله
ان كان من احب الناس الى وايم
الله ان هذا لخليق لها وان هذا
لمن احب الناس الى.

The version in Saheeh Muslim has the additional words:

I bequeath you to be good in treating Usamah because he is one of your righteous men.

فاوصيكم به فان من صالحكم

The army had not gone much away from Madinah when the Prophet's ﷺ illness, and its seriousness, was reported to them. Hence, they returned to Madinah. Usamah ﷺ met the Prophet ﷺ but he was unable to speak and he placed his hands on Usamah and raised them in the manner of prayer. Usamah said that he thought the Prophet prayed for him.²

After the Prophet's ﷺ death, conditions had become very serious and difficult for the Muslims and many Companions were of the opinion that the army should not be sent for some time, and if it had to be sent, an experienced grown up man must lead it. However, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ did not agree to any changes in the set up and he sent it under Usamah ﷺ. Later, came back from its mission sound and successful.

The Companions also loved Usamah ﷺ. For instance, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ had apportioned allowances for the Companions from the state Treasury according to their ranks. His son Abdullah's ﷺ allowance was three thousand dirham but Usamah's ﷺ was three thousand five hundred dirham. When asked why Usamah ﷺ was given superiority over Abdullah ﷺ though he had never excelled over him in any battle, Sayyidina Umar ﷺ

①. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter: Virtues of Zayd ibn Harithah and his son Usamah). Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter: Battle Zayd ibn Harithah and Chapter: the Prophet ﷺ sending of Usamah ibn Zayd during his illness). Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Zayd ibn Harithah).

②. Tirmizi (Virtues of Usamah) said, "The reason is that his father Zayd عليه السلام was dearer to the Prophet ﷺ than your (Abdullah's) father and Usamah عليه السلام was dearer than you. So, I have preferred the Prophet's ﷺ love over my love."

Death

Sayyidina Usamah عليه السلام died in 54 AH or a little earlier at Madinah or at Wadi al-Qura near it. Before his death, he spent much time at a settlement Mizzah near Damascus. رضي الله عنه وارضاه

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ood عليه السلام

He was a resident of Makkah and a very early adherent of Islam, only five people had preceded him and he was the sixth Muslim.¹ His father had died in pre-Islamic era but his mother did embrace Islam and was a high-ranking Sahabiyah (a female who has met or seen the Prophet ﷺ) Like every other Muslim, Abdullah ibn Mas'ood عليه السلام also suffered persecution at the hands of the idolaters. The Companions رضي الله عنهم were discussing on ways to get the Quraysh to listen to the Qur'an and he volunteered to recite it to them. The other Companions رضي الله عنهم said to him that they should find one who has sufficient backing in Makkah so that the Quraysh may not dare to beat him. But, Abdullah ibn Mas'ood عليه السلام went to one of the gatherings of the Quraysh and recited to them the initial verses of surah al-Rahman. The result was as expected — he returned with blood all over his body! the Companions رضي الله عنهم tried to sympathise with him, but he said, "These idolaters are now more worthless in my sight than they were before I had gone there. And, I am again prepared to go to them for this work."

He was also one of them who had migrated to Ethiopia in the fifth year of Prophethood. They were told there that all the Quraysh had embraced Islam, so he came back to Makkah only to find that his report was unfounded. He returned to Ethiopia and stayed there till the Prophet's migration to Madinah where he went directly from Ethiopia.² There preparations were on for Battle of Badr, so he too joined the army. He finished off Abu Jahl who had some breath in him after two young Ansar boys had killed him.¹ Thereafter, he took part in every battle with the Prophet ﷺ.

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p431. Asad al-Ghabah v3 p256

②. Mu'arif as-Sunan v3 p510 on the authority of Fatah al-Bari and Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd and Mughari ibn Musa.

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ was lean-bodied, wheat coloured man. When the Prophet ﷺ once made him climb a tree for some purpose, the other Companions ؓ saw his skinny legs and laughed. The Prophet ﷺ said, لرجل عبد الله اثلل في الميزان يوم القيامة من احد "In the sight of Allah, the thin legs of Abdullah ibn Mas'ood are heavier than the Mount Uhud." He wore clean and neat garments and used perfume profusely.

Merits

He is counted among Companions of excellence and perfection. He was among the first and earliest about whom Allah has said that He is pleased with them and they with him. Much of his life he spent in service to the Prophet ﷺ and he was one of those who were ahead in personal assistance to the Prophet ﷺ in travel and at home and such Companions were called Sahib un-Na'layn wa as-Siwak wa al-Wasadah (those who looked after his requisites)² — shoes, tooth brush and water-container for ablution). He was one of the only few Companions who had a closeness with the Prophet ﷺ. He visited the Prophet ﷺ frequently and served him in different ways. He had the Prophet's ﷺ special permission for that. He said that the Prophet ﷺ said to him: اذنك على ان يرفع الحجاب وان "When you see that the curtain over my door is raised up then you may come in without permission and listen to my secrets unless I forbid you to come."³ He was, therefore, called the Prophet's ﷺ confidant. Sayyidina Abu Musa al-Ash'ari ؓ said, "I and my brother visited the Prophet ﷺ from Yaman. We observed Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ and his mother at the Prophet's house frequently so that we were under the impression that they too were members of his household."⁴

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ was very learned too. He

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p461 and Nawawi, Sharah Muslim (Chapter: Killing of Abu Jahl)

②. Saheeh Bukhari (virtues of Abdullah ibn Mas'ood)

③. Saheeh Muslim (raised curtain is sign of permission)

④. Saheeh Bukhari (virtues of Ibn Mas'ood) was one of those who could issue an edict and pass a judgement. He had acquired tremendous knowledge of the Qur'an and sunnah from the Prophet ﷺ and, by Allah's grace, he also had students of an extraordinary type who spread his exegesis of the Qur'an, his reports of Ahadith and other knowledge. He had a particular attachment with the Qur'an and a deep interest in it, and he had committed it to memory very well. He read it very correctly and in a good style. Sayyidina Umar ؓ said, "Once, the Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr, and I sat down discussing some thing late into the night after isha at the Prophet's ﷺ house. When the discussion was over he came to see us off (till the mosque which was attached to his house). We found someone engaged in salah in the mosque. The Prophet ﷺ recognised him as Abdullah ibn Mas'ood and he stood for long listening to his recital and said afterwards:

من سره ان يقرأ القرآن رطباً كما انزل فليقرأ على قراءة ابن ام عبد

"If anyone likes to recite the Qur'an as fresh as it had descended then he must recite it on the reading of Abdullah ibn Mas'ood."¹

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ said that the Prophet ﷺ once asked him to recite the Qur'an to him. He said, "I began to recite the surah an-nisa and when I came to the verse (41):

فَكَيْفَ إِذَا جِئْنَا مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ بِشَهِيدٍ وَجِئْنَاكَ عَلَىٰ هَؤُلَاءِ شَهِيدًا

(النساء: ٤١)

{How then shall it be, when We bring from each people a witness, and We bring you (O Prophet) as a witness against these?}

he stopped me and I saw tears rolling down his eyes."²

Of the Companions whom he had named as those from whom the others should learn the Qur'an, the name of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ came first. It is stated in Saheeh Bukhari:

استقرؤا القرآن من اربعة من عبدالله بن مسعود و سالم مولى ابى حذيفه

وابى بن كعب ومعاذ بن جبل.

(The other three names were Saalim the freed slave of Abu Huzayfah, Ubayy ibn Ka'b and Mu'az ibn Jabal).³

①. Tuhfah al-Ahwazi (refec: Musnad Ahmad)

②. Saheeh Bukhari, Tirmizi, Saheeh Muslim.

③. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim (virtues of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ood)

Sayyidina Abu Mas'ood Ansari رضي الله عنه confirmed the excellence of Sayyidina Ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه in these words:

ما اعلم رسول الله ترك بعدہ اعلم بما انزل الله من هذا القائم.

"To my knowledge, after the Prophet, no one has a greater knowledge of the Qur'an than Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه." ¹

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه said about himself, "I read more than seventy surah of the Qur'an directly from the Prophet ﷺ and I know about every surah of the Qur'an where it was revealed and I know the background of revelation of every verse." ²

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه as Khalifah sent Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه as teacher of the Qur'an to Kufah. He wrote to the people of Kufah: "I sent Abdullah ibn Mas'ood as my deputy and your teacher. He is one of the front rank elder Companions of the Prophet ﷺ and was a participant in the Battle of Badr. I am in need of him here but I prefer you over me. Do obey and follow him." So, he remained in Kufah in the times of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه, and Kufah was the centre of his religious and scholarly activities and of the spread of his teachings. He has reported 848 Ahadith. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had also made him head of the state Treasury and as long as he was in Kufah he retained this post. Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه had called him to Madinah towards the end of his Khilafat. ³

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه resembled the Prophet ﷺ in appearance and straight forward conduct. Sayyidina Huzayfah رضي الله عنه said:

ما اعرف احداً اقرب سمتاً وهدياً ودلاً بالنبي صلى الله عليه وسلم من ابن ام عبد

"I do not know anybody resembling the Prophet's appearance, good manners and acceptable conduct more than Ibn Umm Abd (Abdullah ibn Mas'ood)." ⁴

If we were to reproduce all the reports of Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Mas'ood's رضي الله عنه excellences as found in Books of Hadith and

①. Saheeh Muslim

②. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Abdullah ibn Mas'ood)

③. A'lam an-Nabula v1 p486.

④. Saheeh Bukhari, Jami Tirmizi

seerah, we would compose a whole volume on that which we cannot in the limited space available to us. So, we shall just narrate one more Hadith from Saheeh Muslim.

Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas ؓ said: Six of us were seated with the Prophet, one of them was Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ. The idolaters of Makkah said, "If you drive away these people from, you then we are prepared to listen to you." The Prophet was inclined to do that when the verse 52 of surah al-An'am was revealed:

وَلَا تَطْرُدِ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ بِالْعَدَاوَةِ وَالْعِشْيِ يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهًا (الانعام ٥٢:٦)

{And drive not away those who call upon their Lord morning and evening desiring His countenance.}¹

The verse, therefore, declares great merit of the Companions who were there.

Death

Sayyidina Uthman ؓ had called Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ from Kufa to Madinah in the last days of his Khilafat. He died in 32 AH in Madinah and perhaps Sayyidina Uthman ؓ led his funeral salah. He was 60 years old at the time of his death.²

Sayyidina Ubayy Ibn Ka'b ؓ

Light of Islam had begun to shine in Madinah in the eleventh year of Prophethood while the Prophet was still at Makkah. Some pilgrims from Madinah had met him and were impressed into believing in Islam. They swore allegiance to him at Mina near Jamrah Aqabah. This is known as the first Bay'at Aqabah (the First Pledge at Aqabah). Six people had believed and given this pledge. Next year, 12th of prophethood, twelve people swore allegiance at the same place. This was the Second Pledge at Aqabah. Ubayy ؓ ibn Ka'b ؓ was one of those twelve men.

Merits

Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b ؓ belonged to the Khazraj tribe. He is among the first of Madinans who embraced Islam. He was a member of those who swore allegiance in the Second Pledge at Aqabah before hijrah, and of those who participated in the Battle of Badr after hijrah.¹ He also had the privilege to write down the revelation after hijrah, and he recited Qur'an very well. The Prophet had called him the greatest reciter of the ummah,² and said to him once, "Ubayy, Allah has commanded me to recite the Qur'an to you." He asked, "Did He take my name?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "Yes! He took your name and said that I must recite the Qur'an to you." Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b ؓ wept on hearing that and the Prophet ﷺ recited to him the surah al-Bayyinah. He had memorised the whole Qur'an during the Prophet's ﷺ life-time,³ and was appointed an imam by Sayyidina Umar ؓ, in his times, when he initiated congregational taraweeh in Ramadan.⁴

❶. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas)

The Prophet ﷺ once asked him, "Ubayy, tell me which verse of the Qur'an is the greatest in your sight?" He said: الله لا اله الا هو الحي القيوم (meaning the ayat ul-Kursi, 2:255). The Prophet ﷺ remarked, "ليهنك العلم يا ابا منذر" O Abu Munzir! Congratulations on your knowledge."⁵ This verse proclaims Allah's unity, greatness and attributes, and its many virtues are mentioned in Ahadith. He had a distinct relationship with the Qur'an both practically and scholastically, and he invited other people to it. Someone asked him for advice and he said:

اتخذ كتاب الله اما ماً واراض به حكماً وقاضياً فانه الذي استخلف فيكم
رسولكم ، شفيع مطاع ، شاهد لا يتهم ، فيه ذكر كم وذكر من كان قبلكم
وحكم ما بينكم وخبركم وخبر ما بعدكم .

{Take the Qur'an as your leader. Abide by it in everything and accept willingly all its verdicts because the Prophet has left it behind as his successor for you. It is an intercessor whose intercession will be accepted surely. It is a witness that none can doubt. It mentions you and those before you and has an answer for your mutual wranglings. It has news about you and those who will come after you.} 6

①. Isabah v1 p31. Fath al-Bari v7 p127

②. Jami' Tirmizi (virtues of Mu'az ibn Jabal)

③. Saheeh Muslim. Jami' Tirmizi

④. Sunan Abu Dawood (Chapter al-Qunoob fi witr)

⑤. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Surah al-Kahf and verse ayat ul-Kursi)

⑥. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula p393

He was much concerned about preparations for the Hereafter and he regarded this world as a means of gaining in the next world. He came across a man who spoke ill of the world. So he said to him:

هل تدري ما الدنيا فيها زادنا الى الآخرة وفيها اعمالنا التي تجزى بها

"Do you know what the world is? It is the provision for the Hereafter. It is here that we have to do deeds that will fetch us Paradise in the Hereafter."

The Companions رضي الله عنه respected him. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه called him Sayyid ul-Muslimeen and consulted him on ruling and verdicts.¹

He was of average height and lean. He wore very clean dress.

His death is placed in 19 AH, 22 AH or 30 AH, opinions being divided. Allah knows best.² رضى الله عنه، وارضاه

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه

The difference of opinion on Abu Hurayrah's real name is of such a nature that such a like difference is not found about any other Companion. About thirty names are suggested of which Imam Tirmizi has selected Abd Shams or Abdullah and Imam Bukhari has preferred *Abdullah*³. Imam Nawawi has chosen Abdur Rahman ibn Sakhr in his Sharah Muslim. The same thing is found in Tazkirat ul-Huffaz.⁴

He is known by his Kunyah only and very few people know that Abu Hurayrah is not his name. How he got this kunyah? He said, "I used to herd sheep and had a cat which I placed on a tree in the night but took along with me during the day when I tended the sheep. So, my people at home called me Abu Hurayrah.⁵ (Hurayrah is Arabic for a small cat.) But, he also said, I had a cat in my hand, so, the Prophet addressed me as Abu Hurayrah.⁶

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p399, 400

②. Isabah v1 p22

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: Virtues of Ablution) Asad al-Ghabah.

④. Sharah Muslim (بيان الايمان) Tazkirat ul-Huffaz.

⑤. Jami Tirmizi (Virtues: of Abu Hurayrah)

⑥. Mirqah (refec Ibn Abdul Barr) Tazkarah Huffaz v1 p32, Asad ul-Ghabah v5 p316.

Merits

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ belonged to the Daws tribe for whom the Prophet ﷺ had prayed "O Allah! Guide the Daws and send them to me."¹ He came to the Prophet ﷺ at the age of thirty when he was at Khaybar in 7 AH. Since then he was in constant company of the Prophet ﷺ at home or in travel. The Prophet ﷺ had erected a shed near the mosque for the students who came from outside to seek knowledge and had no home. This shed was their lodging home, the mosque their school and the Prophet ﷺ their teacher. The people of Madinah cared for these students who were forbidden to beg no matter how dire the circumstances. In fact, they faced very difficult times. Often, they fell down in salah from hunger and the Prophet ﷺ would say after finishing the salah, "If you were to know what reward you have with Allah against this hunger, to be intensified."² Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ had an outstanding station among these people. He said, "I would fall down between the Prophet's ﷺ pulpit and the house of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها due to hunger. People thought I had fainted or had epilepsy, so they pressed my neck with their feet though I suffered from hunger."³ Sometimes, when he could not endure, he would ask a Companion the meaning of a verse perchance that man observed his condition and offered a meal. Not all the Companions always observed his plight. If they did, they would take him home and serve a meal otherwise he explained the verse and went their way.⁴ He sacrificed much to secure knowledge and Allah blessed him with many bounties. He related the most number of Ahadith, 5374 in all.⁵ When some Companions and tabi'een pointed out that though he had believed in 7 AH yet he had related the highest number of Ahadith, he said:

ان الناس كانوا يقولون اكثر ابو هريرة واني كنت الزم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بشبع بطني حتى لا اكل الخمير ولا البس الحبير ولا يخدمني فلان وفلانة وكنت الصق بطني بالحصباء من الجوع.

①. Saheeh Muslim

②. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: ما جاء في معيشة اصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم)

③. Jami' Tirmizi (chapter ما جاء في معيشة اصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم وتذكرة الحفاظ). Tazkarat ul-Huffaz v1 p35.

"The people ask why I report so many Ahadith. I always stay with the Prophet — neither eat good food nor wear decent garments I do not seek any assistance but sometimes I have to lie down on my stomach because of hunger."

He also said:

”كنت رجلاً مسكيناً اخدم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم على مل بطني وكان المهاجرون يشغلهم السفق بالا سواق وكانت الانصار يشغلهم القيام على اموالهم.“

"I was a poor man. I served the Prophet ﷺ and could get something to eat with difficulty. The Muhajirs were engaged in trading and the Ansars in farming. (So I had a greater opportunity to preserve the Prophet's Ahadith and sayings).¹

He also said:

”ما من اصحاب النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم احد اكثر حديثاً عنه مني الا ما كان من عبد الله بن عمرو فانه كان يكتب ولا اكتب.“

None of the Companions report as many Ahadith as I do. However, Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas narrates more Ahadith because he writes and I do not write."²

However, in Books of Ahadith, the reports of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه surpass those of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه and it is agreed that no other Companion رضي الله عنه has reported more Ahadith than Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه.³ ”وقد اجمع اهل الحديث“³ Sayyidina Ubayy ibn Ka'b رضي الله عنه said about him that he could narrate the highest number of Ahadith because he often put questions to the Prophet ﷺ which the others did not dare to ask.⁴

He was so much hungry of knowledge that all the bounties of the world were meaningless to him compared to learning. The Prophet ﷺ once offered him anything he liked from the booty, he said, "O Messenger of Allah! Let me have from what Allah has given you of knowledge."⁵ The Prophet ﷺ himself testified to this

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Abu Hurayrah)

②. Saheeh Bukhari (Kitab at-Ilm)

③. Isabah v7 p201 Tazkarat ul-huffaz v1 p32

④. Isabah v7 p202. Tazkarat ul-Huffaz v1 p34

⑤. Isabah v7 p204

quality of Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه when he asked him: من اسعد الناس بشفاعتك يوم القيامة who would be the fortunate one to benefit from his intercession. The Prophet ﷺ said, لقد ظننت يا ابا هريرة ان لا يستلني من هذا الحديث احد اول منك لما رأيت من حرصك على الحديث اسعد الناس بشفاعتي يوم القيامة من قال لا اله الا الله خالصاً من قلبه.

"O Abu Hurayrah! I had thought that you will be the first one to put this question to me because I find you longing for Hadith. Those who say with a sincere heart لا اله الا الله (There is no God but Allah) will be most deserving of my intercession."¹

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه also received a great share of the Prophet's ﷺ supplication and the Prophet made it a point to pray for his good memory,² which prayers were granted. He never forgot what he listened from the Prophet. The muhadditheen have, therefore, called him the Companion with the highest retaining power.³ He explained his strong memory to his petition to the Prophet that he heard much from him but did not remember them. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Spread out your garment." Then he recited something on that and, on his instructions, Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه collected the garment on his chest. From that day, he did not forget anything that the Prophet ﷺ said.⁴

The Companions confirmed that he had a great retentive power and was constantly in the Prophet's ﷺ company. On someone's asking, Sayyidina Talhah ibn Ubaydullah رضي الله عنه confirmed that Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه had truly heard those Ahadith from the Prophet ﷺ that they had not heard. The reason was that he was a poor man who had no wealth and was the Prophet's ﷺ guest. He was always with the Prophet ﷺ with whom he even had his meals while the other Companions had their families and occupations to attend to and they met the Prophet only in the morning and evening so they were deprived of many Ahadith. Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه also said something to this effect.⁵

①. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter Hirs ala al-Hadith)

②. Saheeh Muslim. Jami' Tirmizi. Asad al-Ghabah v5 p316

③. Isabah v7 p202

④. Saheeh Muslim, Jami' Tirmizi

⑤. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Abu Hurayrah)

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said that he took some dates to the Prophet ﷺ and requested him to bless them. The Prophet ﷺ made a prayer and asked him to place them in his bag and to take out some from the bag when he felt a need for that. He said, "I had the bag with me for years and I ate from that and also gave away much in Allah's path but lost it at the time of Sayyidina Uthman's رضي الله عنه martyrdom."¹

However, Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه was much grieved that his mother continued to disbelieve though he was a Believer. He tried his best to bring her to the fold of Islam but she resisted and, often, spoke to him harshly. One day, she even said something derogatory to the Prophet ﷺ which, of course, he could never be expected to tolerate. He went to the Prophet ﷺ weeping and related the story to him with a plea to pray for her guidance. The Prophet ﷺ made supplication forthwith, "اللهم اهد ام ابى هريرة." "O Allah! Guide Abu Hurayrah's mother." He went home in an elated mood. The door was shut and he could hear water being poured. His mother had heard his footsteps and instructed him to wait outside. Then when she came out, she said:

اشهد ان لا اله الا الله واشهد ان محمداً عبده ورسوله.

(I bear witness that there is no God but Allah and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger)

He wept in happiness and conveyed the tidings to the Prophet ﷺ who praised Allah and recited some good expressions. He then requested the Prophet ﷺ to pray to Allah to put in the hearts of His pious slaves love for him and his mother and also cause them to be dear to him and his mother, so the Prophet ﷺ made the prayer. That is why everyone loves him.² His mother's name was Umaymah رضي الله عنها.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه also heard Ahadith from the Companions رضي الله عنهم after the Prophet's ﷺ death. And, those Companions and tabi'een who have reported from him are very many and Imam Bukhari has said that they numbered eight hundred.³ He gave lessons in Hadith from the Masjid Nabawi itself.⁴

①. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Abu Hurayrah)

②. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter: Merits of Abu Hurayrah)

③. Isabah v7 p202

④. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Abu Hurayrah)

Apart from scholastic pursuits, he was given to much worship and devotional exercises. Abu Uthman al-Hindi Tabi'ee said that he stayed with Abu Hurayrah for seven days. He says, "I found out that he, his wife and their servant had divided the night into three parts and each one of them took turns to keep awake, and that was their constant practice."¹

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had appointed him governor of Bahrain but he resigned from the post and did not accept the responsibility when pressed again. When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه told him that though he rejected the offer someone better than him had asked to be nominated to a high office, he asked who that was. he said, "Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام," Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه remarked. "He was a Prophet son of a Prophet but I am Abu Hurayrah ibn Umaymah."² Later, Marwan did instal him sometimes as his deputy.

When in illness it seemed that death was near, he began to weep. He was asked why he wept and he said:

من قلة الزاد و شدة المفازة،

"The journey is arduous while the provision is meagre."

This was his fear for the Hereafter, otherwise if he lacked provision for the Hereafter then who had it? The Khalifah, Sayyidina Marwan, payed him a sick visit and prayed for him, شفاك الله "May Allah cure you!" Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه was quick to pray:

اللهم احب لقاءك فاحب لقائي

"O Allah, I love to meet You, so love to meet me."³

In a little while after that this man who had forsaken his home and hearth for the sake of Allah and His Messenger and became the Messenger's guest departed from this world. رضي الله عنه، وارضاه

There is a difference of opinion on the year of his death. It is placed in 57, 58 or 59 AH, but 57 AH is the generally accepted year.⁴ He was 78 years old at the time of his death. Waleed ibn Uqbah led his funeral salah and he was buried in Jannat ul-Baqee'.

①. Isabah v7 p202

②. Isabah v8 p21

③. Isabah v7 p206

④. Shazarat az-Zahab v1 p63 Isabat v7 p207

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه

The son of Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, Abdullah رضي الله عنه, was born in the third year of Prophethood. His mother was Zaynab رضي الله عنها bint Maz'oom, the sister of Sayyidina Uthman ibn Maz'oom رضي الله عنه. Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها was also her daughter.¹ Abdullah had believed in Islam when a child with his parents, and made the hijrah with his father though some historians say that he had migrated earlier.² He was only ten years old then. He sought the Prophet's ﷺ permission to take part in the Battle of Badr but he withheld his permission because of his tender age. The same thing happened in the Battle of Uhud but, when he was fifteen years old in the Battle of Trenches, the Prophet ﷺ allowed him to participate. Thereafter, he was a regular participant in the battles. He was also one of those who swore allegiance at Hdaybiyah.⁴

Merits

He was the son of a prominent Companion of the Prophet ﷺ, Sayyidina Umar. The Prophet ﷺ confirmed his righteousness and piety. He is quoted in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim as saying that he dreamt one night that two angels took him near a well of fire. He was scared and chanted, اعوذ بالله من النار (I seek refuge in Allah from the fire.) A third angel asked him not to fear. He related this dream to his sister Sayyidah Hafsah رضي الله عنها who mentioned it to the Prophet ﷺ who said: نعم الرجل عبد الله "Abdullah is the best of men. How fine it would be if he also offered tahajjud!" His son Saalim رضي الله عنه reported this Hadith from Abdullah and said: فكان عبد الله بعد ذلك لا ينام من الليل الا قليلاً. "My father slept but a little after that."⁵ Apart from Saalim رضي الله عنه, his freed slave, Sayyidina Na'fi رضي الله عنه also reported the same thing, "He was engaged in salah all night. With the approach of dawn, he made istighfar (sought forgiveness of Allah) and he made it till morning. He was God-fearing that he wept as he recited the Qur'an.

①. Isabah v4 p107. Nujoom az-Zahirah p192

②. Asad al-Ghabah v3 p227

③. Saheeh Bukhari

④. Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p37 Isabah v4 p107

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim (Virtues)

One day he recited the following verse and tears rolled down his eyes profusely:"

أَلَمْ يَأْنِ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْ تَخْشَعَ قُلُوبُهُمْ لِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ (الحديد ١٦:٥٧)

{Has not the time yet come for those who believe that their hearts should be humble for the remembrance of Allah}¹

(al-Hadeed, 57:16)

A report in Jami' Tirmizi mentions another dream he saw. He was in Paradise holding a piece of silken cloth which took him by flight to whichever part of Paradise towards which he pointed it. He narrated the dream to his sister who got for him the Prophet's ﷺ interpretation ان عبدالله رجل صالح (Surely, Abdullah is a pious man).² Once the Prophet held his shoulder and said كن في الدنيا كأنك غريب أو عابر سبيل وعد نفسك من اهل القبور.

"Live in this world as though you are a traveller or one passing by and count yourself among the occupiers of grave."³

He spent the rest of his life in accordance with this saying of the Prophet ﷺ. He never had anything to do with this world. Though he had many opportunities to gain worldly benefits yet he did not even look there. Some Companions tried to persuade him to accept their allegiance after the martyrdom of Sayyidina Uthman ؓ but he rejected their offers. They again suggested to him that he would get a unanimous support when Sayyidina Ali ؓ and Sayyidina Mu'awiyah ؓ were at loggerheads but he was not prepared. He also had before him his father's advice. When death was near, Sayyidina Umar ؓ had constituted a Majlis shoora (council of advice) comprising of Sayyidina Uthman ؓ, Ali ؓ, Talhah ibn Ubaydullah ؓ, Zubayr ibn Awam ؓ, Sa'd ibn Abu waqqas ؓ and Abdur Rahman ibn Awf ؓ. They were advised to select a Khalifah from among the six of them. They were also authorised to consult his son, Abdullah ؓ, but not to elect him a Khalifah.⁴

His simplicity can be gauged from Sayyidina Sa'eed ibn Jubayr's ؓ report that he found him lying in his house on a thick coarse cloth which is place under a camel's saddle.⁵

①. Isabah v4 p109

②. Jami' Tirmizi (virtues of Abdullah Ibn Umar)

③. Jami' Tirmizi (ما جاء في قصر الامل)

④. al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v7 p145

⑤. Jami' Tirmizi (Commentary on surah an-Noor)

Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه wished to appoint him a judge but he did not agree even though the Khalifah was persistent.¹

He was very particular in observing the sunnah and did not make allowances for anyone. Someone asked him whether it was proper to perform Hajj tamattu. He said that it was correct to do it, but the man pointed out, "Your father disallowed us to do Hajj tamattu." Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said, "Tell me if he disallowed but did the Prophet ﷺ allow it? Then, will you follow the Prophet ﷺ or my father?" The man agreed that the Prophet ﷺ should be followed. So, he said, "Listen. the Prophet ﷺ performed Hajj tamattu."²

Once he quoted the Prophet's ﷺ saying: ايدنوا للنساء بالليل الى المساجد (Let women go to attend the congregational salah to the mosque at night). His son (Bilal or Waqid) said, "We will not permit women to go to the mosque. They will turn it into a means of mischief." He became angry at his son and said, "I quote to you the saying of Allah's Messenger but you say that you will not permit them."³

He was careful to observe the sunnah during travel too. He tried his best to go by the route on which the Prophet ﷺ had passed, to stop over wherever he had stopped, to offer salah where he had observed it, and to even select the tree for its shade which the Prophet had used. He performed Hajj every year and stopped at the same place the Prophet ﷺ had stopped at Arafah.⁴ He spent abundantly in Allah's path and was careful to spend for His sake that which was dear to him. He never hesitated in setting at liberty the slave (male or female) who excelled in any respect. Rather, he

①. Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd v4 p146. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: on Judge)

②. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: about tamattu'). There are three kinds of Hajj: Tamattu', qiran and ifrad. In the first kind, the pilgrim assumes the ihram for Umrah alone in the months of Hajj at the miqat (a stipulated place beyond which a pilgrim can proceed only after assuming the ihram). At Makkah, he performs the Umrah and discards the ihram. Then at the time of Hajj, he assumes the ihram for Hajj. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه disallowed that so that people may visit Makkah again and again and not satisfy themselves with one visit for both Hajj and Umrah, otherwise he did not regard performance of tamattu' improper. There is a difference of opinion on the Kind of Hajj the Prophet ﷺ performed -- tamattu', qiran or ifrad. (Zakariya)

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter: Women Going to the Mosque)

④. Isabah v4 p109

chose him for his liberty purposely. The very well-known tabi'ee Sayyidina Nafi' رحمه الله عليه was his slave. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Ja'far offered one thousand dinar to buy him but Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه did not accept the offer. Rather, he set him free for the sake of Allah. This same Nafi' was his student and transmitter of a number of his Ahadith. Imam Maalik said about his transmission that it was a golden chain. Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه released many other male and female slaves, some of whom attained great scholarly heights.

Once Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar was going out of Madinah to some place with his friends. On the way, they stopped somewhere to eat and spread out the dining mat. A shepherd passed by and greeted them. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه invited him to the meal. He excused himself because he was fasting. He said, "You have kept an optional fast on a very hot, sultry day." The man said, "I regard these days on opportunity. Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه was impressed with his ideas and to verify his righteousness said to him, "Sell us a goat from these. We will pay for it and also give you some of its flesh for your iftar (breaking of fast at sunset)." He said that the goats belonged to his master, not him. Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه said, "The owner cannot know." The man asked, "فاين الله فاين الله" "Then where is Allah?" When he returned to Madinah, Ibn Umar رضي الله عنه bought the slave and the goats from the man's master, released him from slavery and presented him all the goats.¹

Many incidents of his generosity and spending in Allah's path are narrated in Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd.²

The Companions رضي الله عنهم and the tabi'een رحمه الله acknowledged his merits and excellences. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه, who was older than him and elder in rank, said ان املك شباب قريش لنفسه عن الدنيا عبد الله بن عمر.

Among the young men of Quraysh, Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه had the greatest control over his self³

Sayyidina Jabir ibn Abdullah رضي الله عنه said that Abdullah ibn Umar رضي الله عنه had no inclination whatsoever towards the world. The tabi'ee,

①. Asad al-Ghabah v3 p228

②. Tabaqat v4 pp160-164.

③. Isabah v4 p107. Asad al-Ghabah v3 p227. Refec: Musnad Ahmad.

Sayyidina Suddi رحمه الله عليه, said, "I have known many Companions all of whom agree that even after the Prophet's ﷺ death, Abdullah ibn Umar carried on in the same manner and condition as the Prophet ﷺ had left him."¹ Abu Salamah ibn Abdur Rahman said, "When he died, Ibn Umar was like his father in merit, but the father lived in a time when there were others like him while in his days, Ibn Umar was the only one of his kind."² The biographers have quoted such sayings of his contemporaries in abundance. He was one of those who reported the highest number of Ahadith, being second to Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ with 1630 transmissions to his name. This, in spite of the fact that he was very cautious in reporting the Prophet's ﷺ sayings and if he did not know anything, he did not hesitate to confess his lack of knowledge.³

He survived the Prophet ﷺ by about sixty years. Apart from participation in battles, he spent most of his life in Madinah or Makkah. People visited him in large numbers to learn the Prophet's Ahadith from him. Even in extremely difficult times after Sayyidina Mu'awiyah's death, he kept himself on a steady path.

Death

He died at Makkah in 73 or 74 AH at the age of 87 years and was buried there:

Sayyidina Bilal ؓ

Sayyidina Bilal ؓ was the Prophet's ﷺ mu'azzin (one who calls the azan). He was of Ethiopian descent. His father's name was Rabaah while his mother's was Hamamah. He was a slave of the idolaters but became a Believer in the early days of Islam. This was difficult for his master to digest: his own slave rejecting his gods and calling upon the One Allah. So he and the other idolaters of Makkah loosened on him all kind of cruelty. Sometimes they made him wear an iron coat of mails and lie down on the hot, burning sand in severe heat. Sometimes they put him naked on the rocks

①. Isabah v4 p107

②. Isabah v4 p108, on the authority of Sha'b ul-Eiman: Bayhaqi

③. Isabah v4 p409. Ibn Hazm az-Zahiri 'asma ashab ar-riwayah.

and placed a rock on his chest. Sometimes he was asked to lie down on his stomach while his master stood on his back and the vagabonds of Makkah were encouraged to beat him with stick and whips. Their sole aim was to get him to renounce Islam.

However, he only said ربى الله، احد احد (My Lord is Allah, the One, the One!) The Prophet ﷺ was informed of his predicament. One day he exclaimed, لو كان عندناشئى ابتعنا بلالا. "If we had resources, we would have purchased Bilal." Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه learnt of that and immediately bought Bilal رضي الله عنه and set him free. He now attached himself to the Prophet ﷺ and served him all the rest of his life.¹

Merits

Very few Companions might have undergone the same kind of ordeal as Sayyidina Bilal رضي الله عنه went through for the sake of religion. Therefore, he got a higher rank. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه said once, "Our chief is Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and he got our chief Bilal رضي الله عنه his freedom."²

He is one of those Companions about whom the Prophet ﷺ said that they will go to Paradise.

عن ابى هريرة ان النبى صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لبلال عند صلوة الفجر يا بلال حدثنى بارجى عمل عملته فى الا سلام فانى سمعت دف نعليك بين يدى فى الجنة قال ما عملت عملاً ارجى عندى انى لم اتطهر طهوراً فى ساعة ليل او نهار الا صليت بذلك الطهور ما كتب لى ان اصلى.

{Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah³ said that once at the time of the Fajr salah, the Prophet ﷺ asked Sayyidina Bilal رضي الله عنه, "Tell me Bilal, what religious deed of yours do you regard most worthy and heopful because I heard your footsteps ahead of me in Paradise?" He said, "O Messenger of Allah! The deed I regard as worthy is that every time during day or night I perform ablution I follow it up with some optional salah whatever

①. Isabah v1 p171. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p349

②. Saheeh Bukhari (Virtues of Bilal) Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p349. Isabah v1 p171

③. Saheeh Bukhari Saheeh Muslim number I am enabled to offer."}

The words in Jami' Tirmizi are:

يا بلال لم سبقتني الى الجنة مادخلت الجنة قط الا سمعت خشخشتك امامي دخلت البارحة الجنة فسمعت خشخشتك امامي .

{O Bilal! What deed do you perform that takes you ahead of me in Paradise! Whenever I went to Paradise, I heard your footsteps ahead of me. Last night too I heard your footsteps."}

He said,

يا رسول الله ما اذنت قط الا صليت ركعتين وما اصابني حدث قط الا توضأت عندها ورأيت ان الله على ركعتين فقال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بهما .

"O Messenger of Allah! Whenever I call the azan, I offer two raka'at optional salah (which is perhaps tahiyat ul-Masjid). Whenever, my ablution is nullified, I perform it immediately and offer two raka'at for Allah's sake sincerely." The Prophet ﷺ said, "These are the two deeds responsible for the excellence."}

This shows that the Prophet ﷺ heard Sayyidina Bilal ؓ many times ahead of him in Paradise. Imam Tirmizi said that these reports pertain to dreams and some Ahadith explain that dreams of Prophets عليهم السلام are wahy (revelation), as Ibn Abbas ؓ had reported.

Imam Tirmizi has cited the Prophet's ﷺ saying that Paradise longs for and awaits Bilal.¹ In the making of hijrah too, Sayyidina Bilal ؓ was foremost and earliest. Only Sayyidina Mus'ab ibn Umayr ؓ and Ibn Umm Maktoom ؓ preceded him.² Further, when congregational salah began to be offered and azan was called out for it, Sayyidina Bilal ؓ had the privilege to be the very first one to call it at the Masjid Nabawi.³ He called the azan all through the Prophet's ﷺ life but he could not stay on in Madinah after his death. When Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ seemed to insist that he should stay on, he asked: "اعتقتني الله او لنفسك" "Did you set me free for Allah's sake, or your own?" He said, "For the sake of Allah."

①. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Bilal)

②. Tirmizi (Muqaddam an Nabi ﷺ and his Companions to Madinah)

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Begining of azan)

So, he said, "Then let me go to the battle-field," and he went to Shaam for that. Then he could not return to Madinah. He died in Shaam.

According to some reports, he did stay on when Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه asked him to continue living in Madinah but, after his death, he did not listen to Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and went away from Madinah. When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه went to Shaam, he requested Sayyidina Bilal رضي الله عنه to call the azan. When he did, there was a hue and cry and lamentation. The Companions رضي الله عنهم were reminded of the days of the Prophet ﷺ.¹

He was one of those few Companions رضي الله عنهم whom the Prophet ﷺ had chosen as his close friends and counted them with the people of his household.²

The Companions رضي الله عنهم respected him. We have read Umar's رضي الله عنه words about him. His son, Abdullah رضي الله عنه once heard a poet praise his son, Bilal ibn Abdullah as the best Bilal, so, he spoke spontaneously, "You lie. Rather the Bilal رضي الله عنه of the Prophet ﷺ is the best of all Bilals." He thus not only called him the best Bilal رضي الله عنه, he also said that he was the Prophet's Bilal رضي الله عنه.

Sa'eed ibn al-Musayyib رحمة الله عليه, the tabi'ee, said that to Sayyidina Bilal his religion was the dearest of all things. He could bear hardship but could not surrender his religion.

He had gone away to Shaam after the Prophet's ﷺ death. He died in 20 AH or 21 AH in Damascus.³ When he was dying, his wife lamented loudly but he said "What a happy moment!" He added, غداً نلقى الأحبة . محمداً وحزبه . "Tomorrow, we meet Muhammad and his party."⁴

Sayyidina Anas Ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه

Sayyidina Anas ibn Maalik رضي الله عنه belonged to the Madinah tribe Khuzraj. The maternal parents of the Prophet's grandfather Abdul Muttalib belonged to the Banu Najjar a branch of this tribe.⁵ His father died while he was a child and his mother, Umm Sulaym,

①. Saheeh Bukhari, Fath al-Bari. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula p357

②. Jami Tirmizi (Virtues of people of the Household of the Prophet ﷺ)

③. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p351

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula p357. Fath ul-Bari (Virtues of Bilal)

⑤. Saheeh Muslim v2 p419. Asad ul-Ghabah v1 p127 who was a meritorious Sahabiyah (A woman who has met the Prophet), received a proposal for marriage from Abu Talhah. She said that she would marry him only if he embraced Islam. Abu Talhah became a Muslim and they married.

Merits

When the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah, Sayyidina Anas ؓ was just ten years old. His parents brought him to the Prophet ﷺ and said, "O Messenger of Allah! ان انساً غلام كيس فليخدمك "O Messenger of Allah! Anas is an intelligent child. We wish to leave him with you to serve you." He took him and from that day on, he was with Prophet ﷺ in his journeys and at home,¹ even in the battles. He was about eleven years old during Islam's first battle at Badr and some other children were sent away by the Prophet ﷺ though they longed to participate but Anas ؓ went along as the Prophet's ﷺ servant.² The muhadditheen do not count him as a participant of Badr because he was there as a servant.

He added to his name servant of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and took pride in that. The Prophet ﷺ also loved him much and sometimes called him يَا بُنَيَّ (O Son!) in love,³ and he also played with him — sometimes pulling his ears and saying 'O the one with two ears!' Anas did everything a child would do at home. Once he refused to go on an errand when the Prophet ﷺ asked him to go but the Prophet ﷺ did not express displeasure. Later as he agreed to do it, he stopped outside with other children who were playing on the streets. The Prophet ﷺ also came out to do himself what Anas had refused to do. He found him playing on the street and asked him if he would go. He said that he would go shortly. Once his mother asked him where he had been and he said, "To attend to the Prophet's task." When she asked about its nature, he said that was the Prophet's secret. She instructed him to always keep his secrets. Sayyidina Anas ؓ related this Hadith to his student Thabit Bunai رحمه الله عليه and told him that if he had to reveal the secret. "I would disclose it to you, O Thabit."⁴

①. Saheeh Muslim v2 p253.

②. Asad al-Ghabah v1 p127. Isabah v1 p71

③. Jami' Tirmizi — (ما جاء يا بني)

④. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Anas ibn Maalik)

The Kunyah of Anas رضي الله عنه was Abu Hamzah. He got it because he, as a child, was eating a plant, hamzah, having plucked it from a tree. The Prophet ﷺ saw him and called him Abu Hamzah!¹

When Umm Sulaym رضي الله عنها requested the Prophet ﷺ to pray for Anas رضي الله عنه, he prayed:

"O Allah! bestow on him abundant wealth and children, and bless him in that."

اللهم اكثر ماله وولده وبارك
له فيما اعطيته.

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه attributed his plentiful wealth and innumerable offspring — more than a hundred children and grand children — to that prayer.² In a plant in this garden, the leaves emitted the odour of musk and the garden bore fruit twice in a year!³ Some versions also have the words (and admit him to Paradise) in the prayer. This is why a Tradition in Saheeh Muslim quotes Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه as saying, "The Prophet ﷺ supplicated Allah for three things for me. I have seen two materialise and Insha Allah the third supplication will also be materialised."⁴ Besides, he himself was one whose supplication were answered. Once, the farmer on his lands told him that the fields were parched. He offered two raka'at salah and prayed. There was plenty of rain soon and the fields were well-watered.⁵ He offered salah very well and attentively. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه said:

ما رأيت أحداً أشبه صلوة برسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم من ابن ام سليم

"I have not seen anyone pray salah as near the Prophet's salah as Anas prays."

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه was among those Companions رضي الله عنهم who have reported many Ahadith. After the hijrah, he spent all his time with the Prophet and had an opportunity to closely watch the Prophet's actions and hear his words. He has reported 2276 Ahadith,⁶ and he also transmitted from the elder Companions رضي الله عنهم after the Prophet's ﷺ death. Some Companions رضي الله عنهم reported from him and he had a vast number of students among the tabi'een.

①. Asad al-Ghabah v1 p127. Isabah v1 p71

②. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Anas ibn Maalik)

③. Asad al-Ghabah v1 p127

④. Saheeh Muslim, Jami' Tirmizi, etc.

⑤. Isabah v1 p72

⑥. Ibid

His mother, Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها, was a very intelligent and wise woman. Imam Nawawi رحمه الله عليه has said that she was closely related to the Prophet ﷺ or to his father. A brother of hers was martyred in a battle he fought with the Prophet ﷺ. That is why the Prophet ﷺ had great regard for her and visited her often. A Hadith in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim tells us that he dreamt that she was in Paradise.¹

She was very generous. She spent liberally on the Prophet ﷺ and in the way of Allah. When he came to Madinah, she had loaned him a garden of dates to meet his needs.²

She was brave and courageous and took part in battles. Her task was to nurse the sick and wounded and cook food for the men of her family but she also kept weapons with her for protection. She had a dagger in her hand in the Battle of Hunayn which she told the Prophet she would use on an idolater if he dared to come near her.³

Her husband Abu Talhah ؓ, too, was an extraordinarily brave man. He was outstanding on the battlefield. In the Battle of Uhud when the idolaters had concentrated their attack on the Prophet ﷺ and great Muslim fighters were shaken, he shielded the Prophet ﷺ and continuously shot arrows at the enemy, being an expert in this field. He had the Prophet ﷺ behind him and never let him raise his head to look at the enemy, "O Prophet of Allah! May my parents be ransomed to you! Do not raise your head lest an arrow hurt you. Let my chest protect yours."⁴

The Prophet ﷺ always lived in hunger. Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها and Abu Talhah ؓ were mindful of that and presented to him something, or he himself visited them and had a meal with them.

Sayyidina Anas ؓ said: Abu Talhah ؓ came home to Umm Sulaym and asked her if she had anything to eat, for, he had found in the Prophet's ﷺ voice weakness. She said that she had something and wrapped some barley bread in her mantle and asked me to carry them to the Prophet ﷺ. He was in the mosque with a few Companions and when I stood aside, he asked me if Abu

①. Saheeh Bukhari (Virtues of Umar). Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Umm Sulaym)

②. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter رد المهاجرين الى الانصار مناهجهم) Saheeh Muslim (Chapter (مرجع النبي ﷺ من الاحزاب النج)

③. Saheeh Muslim Saheeh Bukhari

④. Saheeh Muslim Chapter: (Women in Battle with men)

Talhah had sent me with food and I said, "Yes!" He said to the Companions with him, "Come, let's go to Abu Talhah." I raced home ahead of them and informed Abu Talhah of their coming. He said to my mother that the Prophet ﷺ was coming to them with his Companions for a meal. She said that since he was bringing them, Allah and he know what to do. Sayyidina Abu Talhah ﷺ welcomed him. The Prophet ﷺ said to Umm Sulaym, "Bring here whatever you have." She brought the same bread. He asked them to make small pieces of the bread and she put butter oil on them. He then recited something on the bread and instructed them to call the guests in ten's. The Companions came, ten at a time, and went away after eating. In all seventy or eighty had the meal.¹

After the Prophet's ﷺ death, Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ sent Sayyidina Anas ﷺ to Bahrain to oversee government work. After that, he took up residence at Busrah where he died in 93 AH. He was the last of the Companions to die.

Sayyidina Anas also reported from the elder Companions. Among his students were Hasan Busri, Thabit Bunani, Qatadah, etc. رضى الله عنه، وارضاه.

Sayyidina Salman Farsi ﷺ

He was from Isabah in Iran. Allah caused him to go to Madinah and become a Muslim and be privileged with His Prophet's company.

He related his story to Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas رضى الله عنهما. He said: I am an Iranina from Isbahan where my father was the chief. He loved me dearly and kept me beside him always. He trained and educated me as if I was girl protecting me from outside influence. We were fire-worshippers and I was responsible to watch the fire in our worship place where it was not allowed to extinguish. My father was very rich and had many animals and vast agricultural fields which he looked after on his own. One day, he could not help sending me to attend to some work and made it plain that I must return immediately after attending to the work. On the way, I found a church where the Christians were praying. I entered it and, because I had not known any religion other than the ①. Saheeh Bukhari.

Majoosi, I was interested in their religion and I stayed all day with them. I could not, therefore, attend to my father's work. I learnt from them that their religion originated from Shaam. People at my home were worried and when I reached there at night, my father asked me where I had been. I told them everything and also that I was inclined to Christianity. Though my father tried to persuade me that our religion was the best, I told him that their religion was better than ours. My father put me under fetters. However I managed to request those people to inform me when a carvan come to them from Shaam. Soon, one arrived and when it was to return, I cut off my fetters and fled to Shaam with them. I located a great Christian scholar in a church and related to him my story and told him that I wanted to learn religion from him. He allowed me to stay there, but I found out that though he invited other people to do good, he did not put that into practice. He was greedy for wealth and appropriated charity, having five vessels full of gold and silver, so I hated him. He died soon and another scholar was appointed. He was truly religious and an ascetic. I loved him and when much longer he was on the verge of death and I asked him for advice, he told me that the scholars were no longer religious but that after his death I should go to Mosil where there was a scholar. So, I went to him and related the whole tale to him. He allowed me to stay with him and, indeed, he was a pious, righteous, ascetic worshipper, but he died soon. Before death, he had instructed me to go to a scholar in Nasaybeen (or Naseeben). I went to him after his death. He too was a practising scholar but I realised that he would not live long so sought his advice on what I should do after his death. He gave me the name of a scholar in the Roman city Ammuriyah.

So, after his death, I went to him. Here, I acquired knowledge and, side by side, engaged in business so that I soon had some livestock with me. This scholar too was dying and on my request said to me, "I do not see any scholar to whom I might send you, but the time of arrival of the last Prophet draws near. He will follow the creed of Ibrahim and he will migrate to a land of date-palm trees which is between two rocky regions. Signs of prophethood will be obvious. He will accept gifts, but not sadaqah. He will have the seal of Prophethood on his back between both shoulders. If you can, you should go to him." I continued to live there until a carvan of the Banu Kilab came from Arabia. I offered them all my goats and cows if they took me to Arabia. They agreed but when we were at the Wadi al-Qura (near Khaybar), they betrayed me and sold me to a Jew as a slave. Then a relative of my master bought me from him and brought me to Madinah. Where I found all the signs of its being the place of hijrah of the Last Prophet which I was told of at Ammuriyah by the scholar and I was confident that he would arrive.

I lived as a slave serving my master. Meanwhile, news was received in Madinah of a Prophet at Makkah but I did not learn of that. One day, I had climbed a date tree and my master was seated below when one of his relatives came and informed him that many people of Madinah had gone to Quba to receive someone who had come from Makkah and who called himself a Prophet of Allah. This news brought about a sudden change in me and I trembled. I was fearful that I might fall down, so I got down from the tree with much difficulty. I asked the man to repeat what he had said but my conduct angered my master. He slapped me on the face and asked me how it concerned me. "Go to your work." When the Prophet ﷺ arrived in Madinah, I took some food to him one night to try him. I said, "I have brought sadaqah for you and your Companions." He said to his poor Companions that they may eat it but he did not touch it. So, one of the signs the scholar at Ammuriyah had told me of did apply. Some days later, I again took to him some food and said that it was a gift for him. He accepted that and he and his Companions ate the food. That was the second sign that applied to him. Then, one day I seized an opportunity and saw the seal of Prophethood on his back, but I could not hold myself and hugged myself to his back and wept. He called me to the front and I sat down before him and narrated to him my story. He also asked the Companions to listen to me.

What more did I wait for? The light of guidance that I sought was before me. That was the end of my life long restlessness and I recited the Kalimah Shahadah.¹

①. al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v2 p311-312 Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 pp506-511. Majma' az Zawa'id on the authority of Musnad Ahmad.

Merits

Sayyidina Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه in his quest for true religion gave up the comfort of his home and moved from country to country and scholar to scholar till Allah caused him to come to the protection of the Prophet ﷺ. Now, the Prophet ﷺ thought of how to get him freedom. He suggested to him that he should contract Kitabat with his Jew master. It is an agreement between master and slave whereby the latter pays to the former a specified sum of money or equivalent commodity within a stipulated time and the former then sets him free. So, Sayyidina Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه contracted Kitabat with his master. Who forwarded very stiff conditions:

- ❶. Salman should plant three hundred date-palm trees and take care of them till they are fruit-bearing.
- ❷. He should pay fort ooqiyah silver (which came to about 1600 dirhams).

The Prophet instructed the Companions to get three hundred date seeds and planted them with his hands. One was planted by Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. All, save one, bore fruit that very year. When he learnt that Umar had planted that seed, the Prophet dug it up and re-planted it and it also bore fruit that year.¹ The Prophet arranged for the silver and thus got Salman Farsi released from slavery of the Jew.²

Though he had become a Muslim immediately on the Prophet's arrival at Madinah, he could not participate in the Battles of Badr and Uhud because of his slavery. After he was emancipated, he did take part in the Battle of Trenches and thereafter in every battle. It was on his suggestion that trenches were dug at the borders in the Battle of Trenches. The Prophet ﷺ also joined the Companions in digging the trenches and the battle got its name from the trenches.³ The Prophet said, "Paradise is eager to receive Salman."⁴

-
- ❶. The palmtree takes several years to bear fruit. The seeds planted by the Prophet ﷺ grew up into fruit-bearing trees that same year as a miracle of the Prophet. ﷺ The other seed did not bear fruit that same year because he had not planted it. Even if anyone other than Umar رضي الله عنه had planted it, the result would have been the same.
 - ❷. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p511. Majma' Zawa'id.
 - ❸. Fatah al-Bari Sharah Bukhari (Chapter: Battle of Trenches)
 - ❹. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Salman)

He was very knowledgeable and the Companions also recognised his scholarly and religious capabilities. When the students and relatives of Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal asked him for advice and death-bed instructions, of the several instructions he gave he also said to them that they should seek knowledge from Salman Farsi ؓ.¹

Allah revealed the following verse to caution to the Companions against a mistake:

“ان تتولوا يستبدل قوماً غيركم ثم لا يكونوا امثالكم” (محمد ٤٧: ٣٨)

"If you turn away, He will substitute for you another people, then they will not be your likes." (Muhammad 47:38)

Immediately on hearing this verse, the Companions ؓ corrected themselves, but they also asked the Prophet ﷺ who the people were who Allah said, would replace them. The Prophet ﷺ pointed out to Salman Farsi ؓ and said, "He and his people."²

We have read the account of his travel from his country till he met the Prophet ﷺ. Then, a day came when he led an army of Muslims and besieged a fort in Iran. He asked his men to let him first invite the enemy to Islam the way the Prophet ﷺ did before they attack the enemy. He addressed the Iranians in Persian, "O people of Iran! I am a Persian like you and you see that the Arabs obey me. If you become Muslims, you will be at par with us. You will get all the rights that we get and you will have the same responsibilities. But, if you do not embrace Islam then that is your lookout, for, you will have to pay the jizyah which is dishonourable. And, if you are not ready to pay the jizyah too then be prepared to fight." The Iranians were not willing to do any of the first two things. When his men sought permission to launch the attack, Salman Farsi told them that they would preach for three days in this manner before launching the attack. Finally, when they had been invited for three days, the attack was launched, and the Muslims emerged victorious.²

When the Prophet ﷺ had established the muwakhhat (ties of fraternity) on coming to Madinah, Salman Farsi ؓ who was a Muhajir was made brother of Abu Darda ؓ, the Ansar.

①. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Abdullah ibn Salaam)

②. Jami' Tirmizi (Chapter Iran before attack)

Sayyidina Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه on a visit to Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه found that his wife Umm Darda رضي الله عنها lived in utter simplicity. He asked her why and she said that his brother Abu Darda رضي الله عنه had shunned worldly life. Shortly, Abu Darda رضي الله عنه came and soon food was placed before Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه to whom Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه said that he should eat because he himself was fasting, but Sayyidina Salman رضي الله عنه said that he would not eat unless Abu Darda رضي الله عنه joined him. So, Abu Darda رضي الله عنه ate with him. At night Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه stood to offer optional salah but Salman رضي الله عنه asked him to sleep. Everytime he got up, Salman رضي الله عنه made him sleep. When it was the last part of the night, Sayyidina Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه said to Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, "You may get up now and offer salah" Both of them offered the optional salah. Then Salman Farsi رضي الله عنه said to Abu Darda رضي الله عنه, "Your Lord has a right over you. Your body has right over you and your family have a right over you. And you must give every right-holder his right." Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه related all that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said that Salman was right.¹ In another version, the Prophet ﷺ is reported to have said also, "سلمان افقه منك." "Salman has more understanding of religion than you." Once he said about him سلمان "سلمان من اهل البيت." "Salman is of the people of my house."

Apart from perfect knowledge, he was also God-fearing and ascetic. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه had made him governor of Mada'in with an allowance of 5000 dirham, all of which he gave away in Allah's path while he earned his own livelihood.²

Many Companions including Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه, Abdullah ibn Abbas رضي الله عنه, Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضي الله عنه, and tabi'een have transmitted Ahadith from him. He has narrated sixty Ahadith.³

Death

He lived a very long life, anything like 350 years or 250 years. He died in 36 AH or 37 AH at Mada'in in the times of Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه. He was buried there⁴. رضي الله عنه، وارضاه

①. Saheeh Bukhari

②. Kitab Zkr Ahl Isbahan.

③. Isabah v3 p113. Asma ashab ar-rawah, Ibn Hazm.

④. Kitab Zikr Isbahar, Hafiz Abu Nu'aym al-Isbaham, Isabah v3 p113.

Sayyidina Abu Musa Al-Ash'ary ﷺ

He is known by his Kunyah though his name was Abdullah ibn Qays.¹ Ash'ar is the name of a mountain in the Hijaz on the Madinah — Shaam route. The tribe Ash'ar resided here. Some of them had migrated to Yaman and Abu Musa and his family were among them. They became Muslims in Yaman.² There is a Hadith in Saheeh Bukhari that when they learnt of the Prophet's ﷺ arrival at Madinah, more than fifty of them travelled by ship but unfavourable winds took their ship to Ethiopia where they met Sayyidina Ja'far ﷺ and others. All of them — those that were already in Ethiopia and the newcomers from Yaman — sailed together to Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ was at Khaybar engaged in the battle, so they all went to Khaybar where the battle was already won. The Prophet ﷺ also gave a share to these people in the booty.²

Since Abu Musa al-Ash'ary ﷺ and his company had come from Ethiopia, some authorities have termed them as emigrants to Ethiopia. This is supported by the above-mentioned Hadith of Saheeh Bukhari. We have seen earlier that Sayyidina Umar ﷺ had said to Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها bint Umays that they were superior and close to the Prophet ﷺ in their hijrah than they who had come from Ethiopia. But, on her complaint, the Prophet ﷺ had assured her that Umar ﷺ and the others had one hijrah to their credit while they (of Ethiopia) had two. So, Abu Musa ﷺ and his company requested Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها to repeat to them the Prophet's ﷺ saying again and again which implies that they counted themselves among those people who had two hijrah (migrations) to their credit. Two of his brothers, Abu Burdah and Abu Ruhm, were with him in this journey. It is also mentioned in Tazkirat ul-Huffaz that their mother, Tayyibah رضى الله عنها bint Wahb was also a Sahabiyah (who had met the Prophet ﷺ).³ Perhaps she may have accompanied them in this journey.

①. Tazkarat al-Huffaz v1 p22

②. Saheeh Bukhari, Asad ul-Ghabah v.5 p308

③. Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p22

Merits

The Prophet ﷺ lauded highly the mutual love and co-operation of the Banu Ash'ary. He said, "When they are short of food at home or in journey, they pool up their individual provision and distribute it equally among themselves." He also said "فهم منى وأنا منهم" "They are part of me and I am of them."¹ The whole family had a very good, sweet voice and they recited the Qur'an very well. The Hadith in Saheeh Bukhari and Saheeh Muslim quotes the Prophet ﷺ as saying:

”انى لاعرف اصوات رفقة الاشعريين بالقرآن حين يدخلون بالليل واعرف منازلهم من اصواتهم بالقرآن بالليل و ان كنت لم ارمنا زلهم حين نزلوا بالنها.“

"When the Ash'aries recite the Qur'an at night, I recognise their voices and known their residences from these voices though I do not see them moving to and from their houses in the day time."²

He also praised their recital of Qur'an thus:

اشعرون فى الناس كصورة فيها مسك

"The example of the Ash'aries is like a bagful of musk whose fragrance spreads in all directions."³

He said about Abu Musa' al-Ash'ary's recital:

لقد اوتى زممارا من مزامير آل داود

"Allah has granted him like the family members of Sayyidina Dawood a handsome face and a sweet voice."⁴

The Prophet prayed for them:

اللهم اغفر لعبد الله بن قيس ذنبه وادخله يوم القيامة مد خلا كريماً

"O Allah! Forgive Abdullah ibn Qays his sins, and admit him on the Day of Resurrection (to Paradise) with honour."⁵

Sayyidina Umar also praised Abu Musa's ﷺ recital very much, saying, "He reminds us of Allah, and makes us aspire towards him."

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of the Ash'aries).

②. Saheeh Bukhari (Battle of Khaybar) Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Ash'aries)

③. Tabaqaat Ibn Sa'd.

④. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Abu Musa) Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p32

⑤. Saheeh Muslim.

Sayyidina Abu Musa رضي الله عنه was among the Companions who were authorised to issue edicts. Sayyidina Aamir Sha'bi رحمة الله عليه said, "Six Companions were perfect in knowledge, Abu Musa رضي الله عنه was one of them." Imam Bukhari and Ali ibn Madini also regarded him among the jurists, capable of passing judgement and issuing rulings or edicts.

The Prophet ﷺ had sent him as governor of Yaman, and he retained that post in Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضي الله عنه times.

Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه made him governor of Busra which post he held for four years. Umar رضي الله عنه used to say, "None of my governors has held the same post for more than a year, but Abu Musa رضي الله عنه was governor of Busra for four years." The people of Busra were very happy with him. Sayyidina Hasan Busri رحمة الله عليه said, "Busra has not received a better governor."¹ Many battles were won at his hands. Isfahan and Ahwaz, for instance, were captured under his command. Sayyidina Uthman رضي الله عنه then made him governor of Kufah. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه had chosen him an arbitrator in his dispute with Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه.

Death

He died in Zul Hajjah 44 AH.²

Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari رضي الله عنه

He was the Prophet's ﷺ host at Madinah. His name was Khalid ibn Zayd and he belonged to the Khazraj tribe. He was among the earliest Believers. He went to Makkah much before the hijrah and met the Prophet ﷺ. He was one of those who offered the bay'ah at Aqabah the Second and believed with him agreed to shoulder every kind of responsibility and invited the Prophet ﷺ to move over to Madinah. And he participated in every battle after the Prophet's hijrah and gave full co-operation.³

When the Prophet ﷺ came to Madinah, there were a good number of Muslims there. The prominent people of Madinah went to Quba to welcome him and when he came to Madinah, everyone

①. Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p32

②. Shazrat az Zahab v1 p53

③. Isabah v2 p89. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p405 wished to host him and requested him to accept his invitation. They held his she-camel by its bridle and stood before it, but he said to them “دعواها فانها مأمورة” "Do not stop it, for, it is under orders from Allah. It will stop where it is ordered to stop." The she-camel sat down opposite Abu Ayyub's ﷺ house who was thus privileged to play host to the Prophet ﷺ. His house had an upper storey, so he vacated the ground floor for the Prophet ﷺ and he went up to the first storey. Later, he thought that it was disrespectful for him to reside on an upper floor while the Prophet ﷺ was on the lower. He passed the night in a corner and in the morning he disclosed to the Prophet ﷺ what troubled him. He said, "It is easy for me and my visitors to have access to a lower floor. So, let it continue as it is." But one night they broke a water container on the first floor and they feared that water might pour down on the ground floor, so they absorbed the water in their blanket. They spent a sleepless night because of severe cold. When the Prophet ﷺ learnt of that he shifted himself to the upper storey. He resided with them till a proper accomodation was built for his family.¹

Merits

Sayyidina Abu Ayyub ؓ was a prominent Companion and a very earlier Believer. He was the one who invited the Prophet ﷺ to Madinah and looked after him as best as he could when he came. As long as the Prophet ﷺ was his guest, the food that was cooked was all sent to the Prophet ﷺ and whatever remained after he had eaten was shared by Abu Ayyub ؓ and his wife, the husband trying to eat from where the Prophet ﷺ had eaten and where there were signs of his fingers.² Abu Ayyub Ansari ؓ participated in all battles. In 52 AH, he joined the forces going to Qastantuniyah (Constantinople) but fell ill during the journey. The commander of the forces, Yazeed ibn Mu'awiyah, visited him and asked him if he had any wish. He said, "If I die, take my body as far as you can carry into enemy territory and bury me there." So, when he died, he was taken upto the wall of the fort of Qastantuniyah and buried there¹.

① Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p405. Isabah v2 pp89-90, Seerat Ibn Hisham v2 p140

②. Saheeh Muslim Jami' Tirmizi Seerat Ibn Hisham.

He loved the Prophet ﷺ very much and was very careful to obey him. It is stated in a Hadith transmitted by Saheeh Muslim that once when the Utensils were returned from the Prophet ﷺ they found that he had not eaten the food. Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari was worried and he rushed to the Prophet ﷺ to ask why he had not eaten anything. The Prophet ﷺ said, "There is garlic in it." He asked if garlic was forbidden. The Prophet ﷺ said, "No, But I do not like it because of its smell." Sayyidina Abu Ayub said, "What you do not like, I also do not like,"² and he gave up garlic for the rest of his life.

Here is another example of his adherence to sunnah. Sayyidina Saalim said that his father Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ had invited Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari ﷺ to the walimah (wedding feast) of his marriage. "When he came, he observed curtains on the walls of my house. He found that very repulsive and asked reproachfully, "Do you clothe walls?" My father was humiliated by that and pleaded that women had had their say. But Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari ﷺ said, من خشيت ان تغلبه النساء فلم اخش ان يغلبنك لادخل لكم "من خشيت ان تغلبه النساء فلم اخش ان يغلبنك لادخل لكم" بيتا ولا اكل لكم طعاما." "I could see everyone else being dictated by women but not you. I will not enter your house and not eat your food." He went away without having the meal."³

The Companions honoured and respected him even after the Prophet's death. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ resided in Busrah. When Sayyidina Abu Ayyub Ansari ﷺ visited him, he placed his whole house with everything in it at his disposal and gave him many gifts Sayyidina Ali ﷺ did the same thing with him.⁴

His Ahadith were transmitted by Sayyidina Bara ibn Azib ﷺ, Zayd ibn Khalid ﷺ, Miqdam ibn Ma'dikarib ﷺ, Abdullah ibn Abbas ﷺ, Jabir ibn Samurah ﷺ and Anas ibn Maalik ﷺ, and a large number of tabi'een.

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula. Isabah v2 p90

②. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter اباحه اكل الثوم)

③. Saheeh Bukhari, Siyar A'lam an-Nabula.

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula.

Death

As we have stated earlier, he died in 52 AH during the Battle of Qastantuniyah and was buried there¹.

Sayyidina Ammar Ibn Yaasir ؓ

The father of Sayyidina Ammar ؓ, Yasir belonged to Yaman but had settled in Makkah. Here he concluded an alliance with Abu Huzayfah of Banu Makhzoom (to help one another). The latter married him to his slave girl Sumayyah. Ammar was born to them. The three of them embraced Islam at a very early period. They remained steadfast in spite of persistent ill-treatment by the idolaters². Every kind of torture was inflicted on them and they were put to severe test. The Prophet ﷺ told them, "صبرا يا آل ياسر" "مودعكم الجنة" "Patience, O family of Yasir! Your appointed place is Paradise.

Abu Jahl hit Sumayyah with a spear and, weak and old that she was, she suffered martyrdom. That was the first martyrdom in Islam³. Yasir ؓ too could not bear the torture and died in Makkah⁴. Only Ammar survived in the family. That is why the Prophet ﷺ sent him and Sayyidina Bilal to Madinah before he himself set on the *hijrah*⁵.

Merits

As we have said Ammar ؓ and his parents were early Believers. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood ؓ has counted Sayyidina Ammar ؓ and his father Sayyidina Yasir ؓ among the first seven Believers⁶. Allah has said to them رضى الله عنهم ورضوعنه (He is pleased with them and they with Him.)

Sayyidina Ammar participated in the Battle of Badr and every battle thereafter⁷. He was a Companion of a high calibre. The Prophet had said about him: "ماخير عمار بين امرين الاختار ارشدهما"

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p410

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p347. Isabah

③. Isabah (on authority of Musannaf Abu Bakr Abi Shaybah)

④. Isabah, Fath al-Bari

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari

⑥. Isabah v4 p274 on authority of Ibn Majah.

"Ammar will never pick out between two choices but the one that is True."¹ That is, Allah had protected him from the devil and his promptings. Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه said that Allah had let it be known through the Prophet that Ammar was protected from the devil,² which means that Sayyidina Abu Darda رضي الله عنه knew of a Hadith in which the Prophet ﷺ said that Ammar رضي الله عنه was protected from the devil and his promptings.

The Prophet ﷺ loved him dearly and was happy to see him. Once when Ammar visited the Prophet ﷺ and asked for permission to enter, he said: اِذْنُوا لَهُ مَرْحَبًا بِالطَّيِّبِ الْمَطِيبِ "Let him come Welcome to him and who is pure and chaste in every way!"³

Imam Tirmizi has transmitted a Hadith narrated by Sayyidina Huzayfah رضي الله عنه. The Prophet had instructed that after his death they must adopt the character and manners of Ammar رضي الله عنه calling that an 'example.' He said: We were sitting with the Prophet ﷺ, he said,

”كنا جلوساً عند النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال اني لا ادرى ماقدر بقاء
فيكم فاقتدوا بالذين من بعدي واشار الى ابي بكر وعمر واهتدوا بهدى
عمار وما حدثكم ابن مسعود فصدقوه.“

"I do not know how many days I will live among you. So, after me, follow these two, Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه, and adopt Ammar's رضي الله عنه character, and abide by what Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضي الله عنه says."⁴

There is a testimony of Ammar's character in this saying of the Prophet ﷺ واهتدوا بهدى عمار. He had called Sayyidina Ammar a believer of a high calibre: ان عماراً ملئى ايماناً الى مشاشه "Ammar is full of faith to the ends of his bones and joints."⁵ That is, faith runs in his veins and every joint — he was a Believer of the highest rank.

In a battle, he participated with the Prophet ﷺ, he lost an ear. Sayyidina Ammar ibn Yasir رضي الله عنه was very happy at that. He said, "The one that was cut off was better than the one that is safe because that is lost in the path of Allah."

①. Jami' Tirmizi (On virtues)

②. Saheeh Bukhari (On Virtues)

③. Jami' tirmizi (On Virtues)

④. Jami' tirmizi (Virtues)

⑤. Jami' tirmizi (Virtues)

Sayyidina Ali has reported the Prophet ﷺ saying about Ammar: دم عمار ولحمه حرام على النار انتظمة "It is forbidden to the fire of Hell to devour Ammar's blood and flesh."¹

Martyrdom

Sayyidina Umar ؓ had appointed him as governor of Kufa. He remained there long. Then he joined Sayyidina Ali ؓ in the Battle of Siffin and was martyred in 87 AH at the age of 93.²

Sayyidina Suhayb Roomi ؓ

He was an Arab originally. The Romans had Kidnapped him in his childhood and took him to Rome as a slave. He grew up there and is, therefore, known as Roomi. Either he fled from there when he grew up and came to Makkah and contracted co-operation with Abdullah ibn Jud'an, or someone bought him in Rome and re-sold him at Makkah where Abdullah set him free.³

He had contract with the Prophet ﷺ even before his Prophethood.⁴ And, he was among those who overtook others in embracing Islam. He met the Prophet ﷺ with Sayyidina Ammar ibn Yasir at Dar Arqam and became a Muslim. He migrated to Madinah hard on the heels of the hijrah of the Prophet ﷺ. He had just set out of Makkah when the idolaters learnt of his intentions and they stopped him on the way. Sayyidina Suhayb said, "Do you know I am the best archer. As long as I have an arrow in my quiver, you cannot come to me. And I also have my sword to sever your heads from your bodies." They said, "We are not much concerned on your going but you are taking with you property that belongs to Makkah. When you had come to Makkah, you were very poor and are now very rich." He asked them whether they would not obstruct him if he gave away to them his possessions, they would not obstruct him if he gave away to them his possessions. they said, "Yes. We will then let you go." So, he disclosed to them where he had left his property and where he had dug gold, and they let him go to Madinah.

①. Fath al-Bari v7 p91. Isabah

②. Ibid

③. Isabah v3 p254. Siyar A'lam an -Nabula v2 p18. Khulasah at-Tadheeb p175

④. Majma' az-Zawa'id.

The Prophet ﷺ was at Quba till the time Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه reached there, but before his arrival a verse of Qur'an was revealed about him.

”ومن الناس من يشرى نفسه ابتغاء الله والله رؤف بالعباد.“ (البقرة ٢: ٢٠٧)

{And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the pleasure of Allah, and Allah is ever Gracious to His servants.}

(al-Baqarah, 2:207)

The Prophet ﷺ said on seeing him: ربح البيع، ربح البيع، ربح البيع
"Profitable was your deal!" He said that thrice.¹

Merits

Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه was one who believed in Islam at very beginning. He had no relative or supporter in Makkah and this made it easy for the idolaters to maltreat him and perpetrate every kind of cruelty on him. Apart from the verse we have read above, his condition is also referred to in this verse:

وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا النَّبِيُّنَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَلَا جَزَاءَ
الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝ الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ

(الحل ١٦: ٤١-٤٢)

{And those who emigrated in Allah's cause after they were wronged — We shall certainly give them a goodly lodging in this world, and the reward of the Hereafter is greater, if they but knew! (They are) those who persevere, and put their trust in their Lord.}²

(an-Nahl, 16:41-12)

The Prophet ﷺ said, "Of the people of Rome, Suhayb will be the first to go to Paradise."³

He made hijrah immediately after the Prophet's hijrah to Madinah. He participated in every battle even those in which the Prophet ﷺ did not join for some reason, and he was also included whenever the Prophet ﷺ took a commitment or allegiance from his Companions. He was brave and was always in the forefront against the enemy and he never retreated.⁴

Once, the Prophet ﷺ thought that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه had ①. Isabah, v3 p295. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula. Tafseer Ma'rif ul-Qur'an. Tafseer Uthmani.

②. Isabah v2 p255

③. Majma' az-Zawa'id (virtues of Suhayb)

④. Ibid.

hurt Sayyidina Suhayb in some way, so he asked him,

“لعلك آذيتہ فقال لا والله”

"Have you hurt Suhayb?" He said, "By Allah no!"

He said,

فقال لو آذيتہ لا ذیت الله ورسوله

"If you had then it was like hurting Allah and His Messenger." ¹

The Prophet ﷺ said about him:

“من كان يؤمن بالله واليوم الآخر فليحب صهيماً حب الوالدة لولدها.”

"The Believers should love Suhayb in the same way as a mother loves her child."²

The Companions regarded him highly. When Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was wounded, he appointed Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه as Imam at Masjid Nabawi till the next Khalifah was selected, and willed that he should lead his funeral salah³, which he did.

Death

He was very old when he died in 38 AH or 39 AH.⁴

رضي الله عنه وارضاه

Sayyidina Abu Zarr Ghifari رضي الله عنه

His name was Jundub ibn Janadah but he was known by his kunyah. His tribe Ghifar lived on the route to Shaam from Makkah. Even before he embraced Islam, he was peaceful, he believed in monotheism and worshipped Allah alone. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Samit رضي الله عنه reported that he said that he had begun to offer salah three years before he met the Prophet ﷺ. In answer to Abdullah ibn Samit's رضي الله عنه questions he said that he offered salah for Allah's sake, in whichever direction his Lord turned his face, in the first part of the night and when it was the last part of the night he went down into prostration before Allah till the sun rose.⁵

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Bilal Salman, Suhayb). Majma az-Zawa'id (Reference: Tabarani)

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula.

③. Isabah v3 p255 al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v7 p145, Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p18.

④. Isabah v3 p255.

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari (Islam of Abu Zarr), Saheeh Muslim (Virtues)

An account of how he came to believe is given in Bukhari and Muslim. When he learnt of the Prophet ﷺ coming he sent his brother, Unays ﷺ, to make enquiries. He returned to report that he preached noble manners and recited verse that was not poetry. But, Abu Zarr ﷺ was not convinced with the report, so he took a minimum of baggage and set out for Makkah. There, he waited in the Haram looking ut for the Prophet ﷺ whom he had not seen before and also he did not ask anyone about him. It was soon night. Sayyidina Ali ﷺ, seeing a traveller, took him home. The two of them did not exchange any conversation except about lodging and food. He spent the night at Sayyidina Ali's ﷺ house and in the morning returned to the Haram and at nightfall, Sayyidina Ali ﷺ again took him home. Again, they talked only what was very essential and in the morning he went away to the Haram. On the third evening, while going home, Sayyidina Ali ﷺ did ask him the purpose of his visit to Makkah. He said, "If you promise that you will speak the truth then I will disclose to you why I am here." Sayyidina Ali ﷺ gave him his word that he will speak only what is true and he enquired about the Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidina Ali ﷺ convinced him that he was truly Allah's Messenger and assured him that he would take him to him in the morning. He also said, "If I see any danger on the way, I will stop on the excuse of passing uring (and you move ahead)." They went to the Prophet ﷺ in the morning. Abu Zarr did not waste any time and became a Muslim forthwith. The Prophet ﷺ advised him, "Go home now and preach religion to your people. When you hear that we have an upperhand, come to us." But, he said that he would first announce before the idolaters that he had embraced Islam. He went to the Haram and proclaimed اشهد ان لا اله الا الله واشهد ان محمدا رسول الله (I bear witness that there is no God but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Messenger) Everyone of the idolaters descended on him and beat him severely, blood pouring out all over him. Sayyidina Abbas ﷺ intervened and saved him. The next day, Sayyidina Abu Zarr ﷺ repeated the Kalimah loudly and suffered the same fate.¹ In a Hadith in Tabarani, the Prophet ﷺ is reported to have repeatedly forbidden him to do that, for, he might be slain. But, everytime he said "انه لا بد منه وان قتلت" "It is unavoidable for me even if I am slain." A Hadith in Saheeh Muslim discloses that when he went home, his mother and brother also became Believers.¹ Only three or four people had believed till then.²

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Abu Zarr). Majma'az Zawahid (Refec: Tabarani)

Finally, he took leave of the Prophet ﷺ and, at home, preached to his people. Very soon people of Banu Ghifar and the neighbouring tribe Aslam professed faith. The Prophet ﷺ praised both these tribes, saying "غفار غفر الله لها واسلم سالمها الله" "May Allah forgive the Banu Ghifar and keep the Banu Aslam safe." Or he said, "They are friends and helpers of Allah and they have no helper other than Allah and His Messenger." There are many other Traditions on praise of these two tribes.³

Sayyidina Abu Zarr رضي الله عنه could not go to Madinah immediately when the Prophet ﷺ migrated there. He went there after the Battle of Uhud and stayed with him constantly thereafter.⁴

Merits

He is among the first Companions رضي الله عنهم and the frontrank ones. Though he was not a participant in the Battle of Badr yet Sayyidina Umar placed him in the same bracket as a Badri. He thought that his knowledge and excellence was of the same degree as of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood. Sayyidina Ali also regarded him as a treasury of knowledge.⁵ In the Battle of Tabook, he was left behind because his camel was ill or too weak. So, he alighted from it and, placing the pack on his back, walked to the rest of the army. The Prophet ﷺ saw him and exclaimed "يرحم الله ابا ذر" "May Allah have mercy on Abu Zarr!" He then said, "He spends his life all alone. Death will single him out and on the Day of Resurrection, he will stand up all alone!"⁶

Once, the Prophet ﷺ said:

"ما اظلمت الخضراء ولا اقلت الخبراء من ذى لهجة اصدق ولا اوفى من"

- ①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Abu Zarr). Majma'az Zawahid (Refec: Tabarani)
- ②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula, Isabah v7 p62. Majma Zawa'id
- ③. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter: Virtues of Ghiffar and Aslam). Jami Tirmizi (Ghiffar and Aslam)
- ④. Isabah v7 p62
- ⑤. Isabah v7 p26
- ⑥. ibid.

ابی ذر شبه عیسیٰ بن مریم.

"Neither has the sky shaded one more truthful and honest than Abu Zarr nor has the earth had anyone walk over it like him. (In these matters) he is like Isa ibn Maryam."¹

He also said:

ابو ذر یمشی فی الارض بذهب عیسیٰ بن مریم

"Abu Zarr walks on earth with the piety of Isa ibn Maryam."²

Sayyidina Abu Zarr رضی اللہ عنہ did not change his life a little bit even after the Prophet's death. The Prophet ﷺ had said:

"أقربکم من مجلسا يوم القيامة من خرج من الدنيا كهیئة يوم ترکها فیها."

"Nearest to me on the Day of Resurrection will be he who departs from the world in the same condition as I had left him."³

The Prophet ﷺ regarded him as one of his very close Companions رضی اللہ عنہ. He said once that Allah had granted him fourteen exclusive and excellent friends. He then named them and Abu Zarr رضی اللہ عنہ was one of them.⁴

Death

In the times of Sayyidina Uthman, he chose to stay at Rabzah because of his ascetic style of living. Perhaps he had no one with him besides his wife. The appointed time struck suddenly. A group of Muslims which included Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضی اللہ عنہ passed by there. They saw to his final rites and burial. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Mas'ood رضی اللہ عنہ led the funeral salah.⁵ رضی اللہ عنہ وارضاه

Sayyidina Mu'az Ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ

He was an extremely handsome, man twenty years old, when he came from Madinah and offered allegiance to the Prophet ﷺ at the Second of Third Pledge of Aqabah. He was encouraged to that by Sayyidina Mus'ab ibn Umayr رضی اللہ عنہ whom the Prophet ﷺ had sent to Madinah before his own hijrah that he may preach to the Madinans

①. Jami' Tirmizi

②. Jami' Tirmizi, Majma' Zawa'id (Refec. Tabarani and Musnad Ahmad)

③. Majma' Zawa'id (Refec. Tabarani) Isabah v7 p26.

④. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of People of the House of the Prophet)

⑤. Isabah v7 p26. Siyar A'lam an Nabula v2 p57.

and teach them the Qur'an and Sunnah.

After the Prophet's hijrah, Muaz kept his constant company. He was twenty-one years old when he began his participation in Battles with the Battle of Badr. At 23, when the Yamanis requested for one, the Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal as governor of Yaman and teacher of its people.¹

Merits

He was privileged to become a Believer at the Young age. He learnt the Qur'an and religious issues directly from the Prophet ﷺ who had certified him, at the young age, to be a scholar of Qur'an and sunnah and jurisprudence and also appointed him one of the teachers of the Qur'an. Saheeh Bukhar and other Books transmit the Prophet's ﷺ saying:

”استقرؤ القرآن من اربعة من ابن مسعود وسالم مولى ابى حذيفه وابى ومعاذ بن جبل.“

"Learn the Qur'an from these four people, Ibn Mas'ood, Salim free slave of Abu Huzayfah, Ubayy and Mu'az ibn Jabal."²

He also said:

”اعلم امتى بالحرام والحلال معاذ بن جبل.“

"The most learned of my ummah about the lawful and the unlawful is Mu'az ibn Jabal."³

Sayyidina Mu'az ﷺ had memorised the whole Qur'an in the life-time of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ deputed him at Makkah for a short time after its liberation to teach the people the Qur'an. The Prophet ﷺ was very happy with him and he said once. "The best of men is Mu'az ibn Jabal."⁴ The Prophet ﷺ loved him much and sometimes gave vent to his feelings, as when he held his hand and said, "يا معاذ والله انى لاحبك" "O Mu'az, by Allah, I do love you!" He then taught him this supplication: "اللهم اعنى على ذكرك وشكر وحسن عبادتك" "O Allah! Help me to remember You, to thank You and to worship You in the best

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 pp 444-450

②. Saheeh Bukhari (Virtues)

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Mu'az ibn Jabal) Isabah v6 p107

④. Jami' Tirmizi al-Bidayah wa an-Nihayah v4 p368 way)¹.

In 10 AH the Prophet ﷺ sent Sayyidina Mu'az ؓ as governor of Yaman. He saw him off in a very grand way. He made him ride a horse and himself walked along though Mu'az repeatedly requested him to let him dismount. While walking along, he gave him many instructions on preaching and on the Islamic government, details of which are found in Ahadith in Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim etc.² He also asked him, "Mu'az if you have to pass judgemeng, how will you do that?" He said, "I will decide according to the Book of Allah. But, if I do not get an answer from it, I will look for it in your sunnah, otherwise I will ponder over it before I decide." The Prophet ﷺ was pleased with his answer and remarked: الحمد لله الذى وفق رسول الله "All praise belongs to Allah³ Who led my messenger to that which is good and to the right path. The Prophet ﷺ had perhaps also told him that it was their last meeting which statement brought tears to eyes of both of them. He prayed for him: حفصك الله من بين يديك ومن خلفك ودرأ عنك شر الانس والجن (May Allah protect you from all sides and from the mischief of men and jinn).⁴

The Prophet ﷺ had given him glad tidings that on the Day of Resurrection he would be Imam of a group of ulama (Scholars).

He is counted among one of those Companions who were teachers of the Qur'an and authorities for edict during the Prophet's ﷺ life-time. Once Sayyidina Umar ؓ announced from the pulpit.

”من كان يريد ان يسأل عن الفقه فليات معاذ بن جبل“

"He who seeks an awareness of religious rulings should go to Mu'az ibn Jabal."⁵

Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal ؓ returned from Yaman as its governor during the Khalifah of Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ and went to Shaam to take part in jihad. At that time, Sayyidina Umar ؓ had suggested to Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ, "The people of Madinah are

①. Sunan Abu Dawood (Chapter: Istighfaar)

②. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter). Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p448. Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p20.

③. Jami Tirmizi (Chapter on judgement). Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd v2 p347. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p448

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p448

⑤. Tabaqat ibn Sa'd v2 p347 in need of Mu'az's ﷺ knowledge. If he goes away there will be a lacuna. You should persuade him not to go to Shaam." Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ said, "A slave of Allah goes to the Battlefield (of jihad) with a longing for martyrdom. I cannot stop him." There, he succumbed to plague and died of it a martyr in 18 or 18 AH.¹

At the time of martyrdom, he was between 33 and 35 years old.²

Sayyidina Uaydah Ibn Samit ﷺ

He belonged to the tribe of Khazraj of Madinah. He had professed faith at the First Pledge of Aqabah in the twelfth year of Prophethood. The Prophet ﷺ had preached Islam a year earlier to the people of Madinah who had come to perform Hajj and whom he had met at Jamarah Aqabah. Six of them had embraced Islam. Next year, some more Madinans gathered at the same place during Hajj and embraced Islam at the Prophet's ﷺ hands. (There are detailed accounts of this bay'ah in Saheeh Bukhari)³ The Prophet ﷺ appointed some of them as responsible for propagation of religion to different tribes. They were called naqeeb (head, chief — plural: nuqaba). Among them was Sayyidina Ubaydah ibn Samit who was responsible for the Banu Awf.⁴ It is also borne out in the Hadith of Saheeh Bukhari to which we have alluded.

Merits

Sayyidina Ubaydah ﷺ was among the earliest Madinan Believers, one who had participated in the First Pledge of Aqabah and a warrior in every battle from badr onwards. He was a higher rank among the Companions ﷺ of Badr. He was also one of those Companions ﷺ who had memorised the Qur'an during the Prophet's lifetime.⁵ Sayyidina Yazeed ibn Abu Sufyan ﷺ had requested Sayyidina Umar ﷺ in a letter from Shaam that some teachers should be sent to that country to teach Qur'an and religion

①. Tabaqat Ibn Sa'd. Siyar A'lam an Nabula v1 p452

②. Fath ul-Bari, v7 p126

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Kitab al-Eiman) p7

④. Sharah Tarajim al-Bukhari by Shah Waliullah and Shgaykh Muhammad Zakariya Kandhalvi.

⑤. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p655, Isabah v4 p28.

to its people. So, he sent Sayyidina Mu'az رضي الله عنه, Ubadah رضي الله عنه and Abu Darda رضي الله عنه. Sayyidina Ubadah رضي الله عنه stayed at Palestine and taught its people the Qur'an and sunnah.¹ He did not hesitate to discharge his duties of commanding that which is virtuous and forbidding what is wrong, even if the other person belonged to the ruling class.

He criticised many actions of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه when he was at Shaam and Mu'awiyah was its governor, some of which the latter agreed with. Once a Khateeb (one who delivers a sermon) began to praise Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه in the sermon in his presence. Sayyidina Ubadah رضي الله عنه picked up soil from the earth and threw it at the Khateeb's mouth² and when Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه tried to call him to task for that, he said, "This is what the Prophet ﷺ has instructed us to do. Anyone who praises another in his presence should be treated in this way."² When the Jews of Madinah found the Muslims in anxiety after reverses at the Uhud, they declared war in different ways against the Muslims. The Banu Qaynuqa' were the first to annul their treaty. The chief of the hypocrites, Abdullah ibn Ubayy had an ancient understanding with them and he took their side, but Sayyidina Ubadah ibn Samit رضي الله عنه who also had an ancient understanding with them, did not care for that and declared that he had nothing to do with them. At this time the verse 51 of surah al-Ma'idah was revealed:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُودَ وَالنَّصَارَىٰ أَوْلِيَاءَ (المائدة: ٥١)

{O you who believe! Take not the Jews and the Nasarah as friends.}³

Death

He died in the era of Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه in 34 AH at the age of 72 in Shaam.

Sayyidina Khabbab Ibn Al-Arat رضي الله عنه

Sayyidina Khabbab رضي الله عنه belonged to the Banu Tameem. Someone had kidnapped him when he was a child and sold him in

①. Isabah v4 p28

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p10

③. Isabah v4 p28. Tafseer Bayan ul-Qur'an (Surah al-Ma'idah, verse 51)

Makkah where Umm Anmar¹ (انمار) bought and enslaved him. He was one of those who answered the Prophet's call positively in the very incipient stage of Islam. He was then subjected to all types of torture². he was an ironsmith in pre-Islamic days and carried on in that profession after embracing Islam. During the course of his professional services, some money was due to him from Aas ibn Wa'il which he went to claim from him but Aas said that he would pay only when he repudiated Muhammad's ﷺ prophethood. Khabbab رضي الله عنه said, "I cannot reject him even if you die and receive." Aas asked if it was possible to come back to life after death. In answer, Sayyidina Khabbab رضي الله عنه said, "Of course!" Aas said, "I will then have much wealth and many children and I will pay you your debt at that time." The verse of surah Maryam were revealed on this occasion: افرأيت الذي كفر باياتنا ونرثه ما يقول وياتينا فردا — that is, verses 77 to 80.³

{Have you considered him who disbelieve on Our revelations and says, "I shall certainly be given wealth and children?" Has he looked into the unseen or has he taken a pledge from the Compassionate? Certainly not! We shall write down what he says, and we shall lengthen for him of the chastisement a length. And we shall inherit from him that which he says, and he shall come to us alone (Without his wealth and children)}

Merits

He was an early Muslim who gave many sacrifices for Islam. Because he was a slave, he had no one to offer him protection and everyone considered it rightful to molest him. The idolaters once made him lie down on the burning flames of a fire till the flames were extinguished by the fat on his back. Long time thereafter, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه saw his back and remarked, "I have not seen such a back all my life." There were white spots like leprosy because of the burning. Tired of the persecution he complained to the Prophet ﷺ one day and requested him to pray for him. He said, "Do not hurry. Earlier people endured greater hardships" (and he

①. Pronounced Ammaar

②. Isabah v4 p28. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p320

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter al-Ya'een wal al-Hidaad and Tafseer Maryam). Jami' Tirmizi (Tafseer Maryam)

mentioned some of them). "Surely this religion will emerge supreme!"¹

Sayyidina Ali عليه السلام said about him:

”رحم الله خباباً لقد اسلم راغباً وهاجر طائعاً وعاش مجاهداً وابتلى في جسمه احولاً ولن يضع الله اجر من احسن عملاً.“

"May Allah have mercy on Khabbab. He believed in Islam willingly and, of his own accord performed the hijrah, lived the life of a warrior and endured all kinds of torture. Surely Allah does not withhold the reward of those who do righteous deeds"²

He participated in the Battle of Badr and all other battles after that.³

He died in 37 AH in Kufah.⁴

Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Mu'az عليه السلام

Sayyidina Sa'id ibn Mu'az عليه السلام belonged to a branch of the tribe Aws, Banu Abdullah Ashhal. He had become a Believer before the Prophet came to Madinah at the hands of Mus'ab ibn Umayr عليه السلام. The Prophet ﷺ had sent him ahead of him to teach Islam to the people of Madinah.

Sayyidina Sa'd عليه السلام addressed the people of his clan Abdul Ashhad, saying, "O Fellow-tribesmen! what do you think of me?" They said, "You are our chief and have a high standing among us." So, Sa'd said, "It is unlawful for me to talk to you unless all of you, men and women, believe in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ." All the men and women agreed with him and became Muslims. Not one of them was deprived of faith.⁵ He was also the chief of the tribe of the Abdul Ashhal. The Aws was the Madinan tribe of the Ansars and very few people were peers of Sa'd عليه السلام. he was respected in the pre-Islamic period and again during Islam. The Prophet ﷺ had himself called him the chief of the people of Madinah.⁶ He was continuously engaged in preaching Islam and working for it. He fought every battle, beginning with the one at Badr. In the Battle of ①. Saheeh Bukhari v1 p510 (sign of Prophethood)

②. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p299

③. Isabah v2 p101. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p299

④. ibid'

⑤. Isabah v3 p88, Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p280

⑥. Saheeh Bukhari (Khurooj an Nabi ﷺ ila Banu Qurayza) Saheeh Muslim.

Trenches, he was wounded by an arrow shot by an idolater. Blood did not stop flowing though the wound was branded with hot iron which was a method of treatment in those days Sa'd prayed, "O Allah! You know that nothing is dearer to me than waging jihad in Your path against those who reject Your Prophet and drove him out of his house (at Makkah) O Allah, if the war against the Quraysh is yet not over then let me live a little longer and fight against them that I may wage jihad. But if the war is over, then let the wound be the cause of my martyrdom."¹ Some versions also have these words: "O Allah! Punish the Banu Qurayzah for their treachery before I die and cool my eyes thereby."² The Banu Qurayzah were a Jew tribe near Madinah. They had covenanted with the Prophet ﷺ that they would neither fight against the Muslims nor support their enemies. but, like other Jewish tribes, they too betrayed their promise and incited the idolaters of Makkah and other Arab tribes to fight the Muslims. These conspiracies led to the Battle of Trenches, Immediately the Prophet ﷺ returned to Madinah after this battle, he received Allah's command that he must advance to attack the Banu Qurayzah. So, he took a party of his Companions and after the siege had been laid for a month, they asked the Prophet ﷺ to decide their case but he got their permission to appoint Sa'd ibn Mu'az ؓ as arbitrator. He ruled that their fighting men should be killed and others should be enslaved. They remained him of their mutual pact but he did not change his judgement. The Prophet ﷺ confirmed his decision.³ Thus, the prayer of Sayyidina Sa'd ؓ after his injury was accepted. Immediately after the judgement was implemented, his wound opened and became cause of his martyrdom.

Merits

Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Mu'az ؓ was a handsome man, tall-statured equally dignified and honoured in religious and worldly circles. When he became Muslim, Islam received great strength in Madinah. When he was wounded in the Battle of Trenches, the

①. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim

②. Isabah v3 p87

③. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim

Prophet ﷺ had a tent pitched for him in the courtyard of Masjid Nabawi where he could be nursed within sight of the Prophet ﷺ when the Prophet ﷺ had appointed him as arbitrator in the affair of Banu Qurayzah, he came riding a beast and the Prophet ﷺ said, "قوموا الى سيدكم" "Stand up for your chief." His judgement was likened by the Prophet ﷺ to the judgement of Allah, and he got it executed. When he was about to die, the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him:

اللهم ان سعدا قد جاهد في سبيلك وصدق رسولك وقضى للذى عليه
فتقبل روحه بخير ماتقبلت به روحاً

"O Allah, Sa'd has waged jihad in Your path, bore testimony for Your Messenger and discharged his religious duties, let his soul be received in the best manner."

Sayyidina Sa'd opened his eyes on hearing that and said, "Assalaamu alaykum, O messenger of Allah! I bear witness to your Messengership." When he died, the Prophet ﷺ said:

جزاك الله خيراً فقد ائجرت ما وعدته ولينجزنك الله ما وعدك

(May Allah reward you in the best way. You fulfilled all the promises you made to Allah. Surely, Allah will fulfil all His promises)

Then he said, "Sa'd was Allah's pious slave on whose happy arrival the Throne of Allah rejoices. The gates of the heaven are opened. Seventy thousand angels descended from the sky to participate in his funeral, none of them had ever come down on earth before." The Companions were grieved on his death to such an extent as they never were at any other time even Sayyidina Abu Bakr and Sayyidina Umar wept and the Prophet ﷺ had clasped his beard to control himself in sorrow.¹

Meanwhile, the chief of Dumat ul-Jandal had sent a silken robe to the Prophet ﷺ. The Companions touched it again and again in wonder. He said to them, "Do you find it very good. The mantle of Sa'd ibn Mu'az in paradise is much better and softer than this."²

Sayyidina Sa'd's mother Sayyidah Kayshah was also a Sahabiyah. She was much grieved at his death. She composed a painful elegy and the Prophet ﷺ comforted her.

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula. Saheeh Muslim. Sunan Nasai

②. Saheeh Muslim

Death

He had a few days after being wounded in the Battle of Trenches in 5 AH. He was 37 years old then.

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Salaam ﷺ

He was from the famous tribe of Madinah, Qaynuqa'. His line of descent joined Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. He was a great Jewish scholar and his name before he became a Muslim was al-Husayn which the Prophet ﷺ changed to Abdullah.

He said that when he saw the Prophet ﷺ on his arrival at Madinah he knew that the face could not be the face of a liar. The first thing he heard from the Prophet ﷺ was:

افشوا السلام واطعموا الطعام والناس نياما تدخل الجنة بسلام

{Spread the (greeting) Salaam, feed the poor and offer salah when people are sleeping, and you will enter Paradise in peace.}

To spread salaam is to greet every Muslim whether you know him or not. Abdullah ibn Salaam then asked the Prophet ﷺ certain questions and on receiving their answers, he recited the Kalimah Shahadah and became a Muslim. The questions and their answers are found in a Hadith in Bukhari.¹ Abdullah said to the Prophet ﷺ that he should not let anyone know of his belief unless he had first asked the Jews how he (Abdullah) stood among them. So, the Prophet ﷺ invited a few Jews and asked them about this man to which they said: "خيرنا وابن خيرنا وافضلنا وابن افضلنا واعلمنا وابن اعلمنا" "He is the best of us and the most learned and his father too was the best and most learned of his times." He then asked them, "If he became a Muslim, what would you say about Islam?" They said that such a thing cannot be expected of him. He repeated his question many times and got the same reply each time. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Salaam ﷺ had concealed himself there and when the Jews had confirmed many times that he was a scholar, he presented himself before them and declared "اشهد ان لا اله الا الله واشهد ان محمداً رسول الله" and they reversed their opinion of him "شرنا وابن شرنا" "The worst of us, son of the worst of his times." Abdullah ﷺ said, "O Messenger of Allah! This is what I feared."¹

①. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter Abdullah ibn Salam's questions to the Prophet ﷺ)

Merits

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Salaam ﷺ was descended from Sayyidina Yusuf, the Prophet ﷺ, and he was a great Jewish scholar who renounced Judaism to become a Muslim. The Prophet ﷺ assured him that such people will get a two-fold reward,² and he had given him glad tidings of Paradise. Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas ﷺ said that after the Prophet ﷺ had eaten his meals one day, he said, "One who is assured of entry into Paradise will now come and eat it." Shortly thereafter, Abdullah ibn Salaam ﷺ came and ate what had remained from the meal.³ He is referred to often in the Qur'an without being named. For instance, in surah Ahqaf: verse 10:

وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ بَنِي إِسْرَآئِيلَ عَلَىٰ مِثْلِهِ فَأَمَّا وَاسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ (الاحقاف ١٠:٤٦)

{and a witness from among the children of Isra'il has already testified to its similarity (with earlier scripture) has believed while you are arrogant}.

and in ar-Ra'd verse 43

قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ وَمَنْ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ الْكِتَابِ (الرعد ٤٣:١٣)

{Say: Allah suffices as witness between me and you and whosoever has with knowledge of the Book}

The underlined words in both verses refer to Abdullah ibn Salaam ﷺ.³ His belief is declared to be evidence of the truth of Islam and the Prophet ﷺ.

Both Bukhari and Muslim have quoted Sayyidina Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas ﷺ as saying: ما سمعت رسول الله يقول لحي يمشی انه في الجنة الا لعبد الله بن سلام which means that the Prophet ﷺ gave glad tidings to only one person while he was alive that he would go to Paradise, and that person was Abdullah ibn Salaam. Both of them also quote the Prophet's words to Abdullah ﷺ "You will remain firm on Islam till

①. Jami' Tirmizi (Kitab an-Nikah). Saheeh Bukhari (Ta'leem ur Rajul)

②. Majma' Zawaid v9 p326

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues of Abdullah and Tafseer al-Ahqaf). Saheeh Bukhari (Virtues of Abdullah). Saheeh Muslim.

you die."¹

Sayyidina Mu'az ibn Jabal ؓ had instructed his close student Yazeed ibn Umayrah, while he was dying, to carry on learning from four Companions one of whom was Abdullah ibn Salaam ؓ who, he said was like the ten who were given glad tidings by the Prophet ﷺ.²

He died in Madinah in 43 AH.³ رضى الله عنه وارضاه

Sayyidina Mus'ab Ibn Umayr ؓ

It was yet the first year of Prophethood and only a handful of people had embraced Islam when Allah guided Mus'ab ibn Umayr to believe. He went to the Prophet ﷺ at Dar Arqam and embraced Islam at his hands. When his family members learnt of that, after some time, they placed restrictions on his movements outside the house and punished him. He continued to suffer till he migrated to Ethiopia in 6 AH with some other Muslims. Later, they were misled to believe that conditions had improved at Makkah, so some of them including Mus'ab ؓ, returned only to find the conditions as unfavourable as they had been. After some time, the Prophet ﷺ sent Mus'ab ibn Umayr ؓ and others to Madinah.⁴ he was the first person to migrate to Madinah.⁵

Merits

Sayyidina Mus'ab ibn Umayr ؓ was the most lovingly brought up young man of Makkah. His father was among the richest men of Makkah, and he loved Mus'ab very much getting him the finest garments. But when he became a Muslim, his parents severed ties of relationship with him and he faced all sort of difficulties, even hunger and thirst. The skin of his body that was raised with over-indulgence peeled and he could not even walk straight because of weakness. That is why the Prophet ﷺ sent him to madinah to serve as a teacher where he was instrumental in getting people to the fold of Islam.⁶

①. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim

②. Jami' Tirmizi. Tabaqat ibn Sa'd v2 p352 Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p26

③. Tazkirat ul-Huffaz v1 p27

④. Isabah v2 p101

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari Siyar A'lam an Nabula v1 p145

⑥. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p148

The Prophet ﷺ saw him, one day, with only a single piece of cloth wrapped round him and even that was patched up. He remembered his days of luxury and wept for him.¹

He is counted among scholars, the earliest of Believers and a migrant to madinah. The Prophet ﷺ had sent him ahead of everyone to Madinah to introduce Islam, and teach it, to the Madinans, and he observed the first Friday salah there.² He took part in the Battle of badr and, at Uhud, the Prophet ﷺ had entrusted him with the banner. He stood very close to the Prophet ﷺ in this battle and shielded him from enemy onslaught and, in the process, got his martyrdom.³ He had only a small sheet of cloth round him in which he was shrouded. His head was covered but feet were bare, so the izkhir (a kind of hay) was put on them. Sayyidina Khabbab ؓ said about him, "We, the Muhajirs, migrated with the Prophet ﷺ for the sake of Allah who is looked upon for reward. Some of us got nothing in this world but departed from here while in difficulty and hardship — Mus'ab was among them."⁴ He meant that many of them received reward in this world also but some, like Sayyidina Mus'ab ؓ, were martyred before Muslims, could find better times. They will receive all their reward in the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Khalid Ibn Waleed ؓ

The father of Khalid ibn Waleed was Waldd ibn al-Mughirah and his mother was Lubabah bint al-Harith, the real sister of Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها the Prophet's ﷺ wife. He was a Quraysh noble, a brave and courageous man. He fought wars against the Muslims for the Quraysh. In 7 or 8 AH, he left Makkah for Madinah with intention to become a Muslim. He met Amr ibn al-Aas on the way who also had the same intention and both of them came to Madinah together and embraced Islam at the hands of the Prophet ﷺ, first Khalid ؓ and then Amr ؓ.⁵

①. Jami' Tirmizi

②. Ikmal (by the Compiler of al-Mishkat)

③. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 p148

④. Saheeh Bukhari (Kitab al-Jana'iz)

⑤. Isabah v2 p98 Siyar A'lam an Nabula v1 p366

Merits

After embracing Islam, he spent his life against the infidels more courageously and virgorously than ever. The Prophet ﷺ called him Sayfullah (the sword of Allah). Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah said that he was sitting with the Prophet during a journey and he asked him about everyone who passed from there, "Who is he?" Abu Hurayrah told him the name of the man and the Prophet ﷺ commented on him. When he said about one that he was Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ, the Prophet ﷺ said نعم عبد الله خالد بن الوليد سيف من سيوف الله "The best of the slave of Allah is Khalid ibn Waleed — a sword of the swords of Allah."¹

When Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ sent him as commander of an army to crush the apostates, he said that he had heard the Prophet ﷺ say about him.

نعم عبد الله واخوالعشيرة خالد بن الوليد سيف من سيوف الله سله الله على الكفار والمنافقين

"He is the best slave of Allah, a sword of Allah that Allah has unsheathed for the disbelievers and hypocrites and polytheists."²

The Prophet ﷺ had sent an army to Muthah under the command of Zayd ibn Harithah ؓ with instructions that Ja'far ؓ should take over if he is martyred and Abdullah ibn Rawahah ؓ if he too is martyred,³ Fate had decreed, indeed, that all of them should be martyred. With the three commanders dead, the men selected Khalid ibn Waleed as their next Commander.⁴ At Madinah, before news could arrive from Muthah, the Prophet ﷺ informed his Companions ؓ that the three were martyred and the 'sword of Allah' had taken command and Allah had given victory to the Muslims at his hand.⁵ He had fought so ferociously that as many as nine swords were broken in his hands till he saw through the end with a Yamani sword.⁶ The Muslims had not achieved a total victory and Khalid had brought back his army safely and the

①. Jami' Tirmizi

②. Majma aza-Zawa'id (Refec: Musnad Ahmad)

③. Saheeh Bukhari

④. Fath al-bari v7 p512

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari

⑥. Saheeh Bukhari

Prophet ﷺ had called that safe return a victory.¹ This is also mentioned in a Hadith in Saheeh Muslim and Abu Dawood.²

Later, the army of Usamah overran the entire territory as we have seen in his account.

Even during the liberation of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ had entrusted him with a unit of the army³ and after that he led a party of the Companions to the Banu Jazimah. Those innocent people said صَبَانَا صَبَانَا (sabana, sabana) instead of اسلمنا aslamna believing believing that they were expressing their submission to Islam but the Muslims did not understand them and Khalid, in his excitement for jihad, killed some of them. Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Umar ﷺ who was one of the party prevented Khalid ﷺ from shedding further blood. When the Prophet ﷺ learnt of that he said, اللهم اني ابرأ اليك مما صنع خالد "O Allah, I am absolved of what Khalid did," but, even after that, he continued to send him as a commander of his armies.⁴ A little before Hajjat ul Wada', the Prophet ﷺ sent him as ameer of a party to Yaman.⁵ The Prophet ﷺ was very trustful of his bravery and fighting experience and gave him command over many expeditions. He also assigned to him the demolition of the idol, Uzza near Makkah.⁶

Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ placed similar reliance on Sayyidina Khalid ﷺ, making him commander of his armies. He had substantial contributions to his name against the apostates and in the victories over Romans and Iranians.

Abu Bakr ﷺ had appointed Khalid ibn Waleed ﷺ as commander of the army to tackle the false prophet Musaylimah who was killed with thousands of his henchmen. He had also killed Hormouz and arrested Ukaydir (of Dumat al-Jandal)

Sayyidina Abu Bakr ﷺ then made him governor of Shaam. Sayyidina Umar ﷺ replaced him by Abu Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah ﷺ and this large-hearted man when he got Umar's ﷺ letter, exclaimed "Umar has appointed ameer of ان عمر بعث عليكم امين هذه الامة"

①. Fath al-Bari v7 p579

②. Saheeh Muslim. Abu Dawood

③. Saheeh Bukhari. Saheeh Muslim. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula, v1 p266

④. Saheeh Bukhari

⑤. Saheeh Bukhari

⑥. Isabah v2 p98

Shaam one whom the Prophet ﷺ had called Ameen of the ummah."¹ he handed over charge of office without demur. Sayyidina Abu Ubaydah ؓ also reminded them that the Prophet ﷺ had said that Khalid was a 'sword of the swords of Allah'.²

However, Sayyidina Umar ؓ continued to regard him highly and at the time of his own death said:

لو ادركت خالد بن الوليد تم وليته فقد مت على ربي لقت سمعت عبدك

وخيلك يقول خالد سيف من سيوف الله سله الله على المشركين

"If Khalid ؓ were alive, I would have made him Khalifah, and then I would have said to Allah that I had heard His beloved, the Prophet ﷺ, say that Khalid is a sword of Allah's swords that Allah has unsheathed for the idolaters."³

During the last days of his life, Khalid ؓ said one day, "That night is dearest to me — and approved by Allah — when it was very cold and raining. I had used my shield as an umbrella. In the morning, I used it against the enemy."

Death

Sayyidina Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ died in 21 AH at Hima, but some historians say that he died at Madinah. He lamented at the time of his death that though he had wounds and scars all over his body. He was dying on his bed, not as a martyr. He also said that his horse and his weapons may be donated to Allah's cause and these were the only things he left behind.⁴

Sayyidina Amr Ibn Al-Aas ؓ

He was one of the chiefs of the Quraysh before he embraced Islam. He was very bold and very wise. He went to Madinah in 8 AH with Sayyidina Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ and became a Muslim. However, from what he said himself, it seems that he had become a Muslim before going to Madinah but met the Prophet and sword

①. Zawa'id (Refec Musnad Ahmad).

②. Isabah v2 p99

③. Siyar A'lam an Nabula v1 p372

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v1 pp382-384. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p350 (Refec: Tabarani, Isabah v2 p100)

⑤. Isabah v5 p2

allegiance at his hands in the company of Khalid ؓ.¹

This is what he said about himself:

{After the Battle of Trenches, I gathered some of my close Quraysh associates and told them that it seemed that Muhammad would triumph. So, rather than live under his rule, we should migrate to Ethiopia and live under the rule of the Negus. If the Makkans emerged victorious, we can return and our status is established already. They agreed with me. So, I took a log of gifts and went to the Negus. There I found Amr ibn Umayyah Dimiri who was the Prophet's ؓ envoy. I asked the Negus to hand over this man to us for he was an envoy of our enemy. We will kill him. The Negus was annoyed at my request and said, "Do you not know that he is the envoy of one who is Allah's Messenger in the same way as Prophet Musa ؑ was." The Negus asked me to obey him and the Prophet who was surely True and who would overcome his enemies as Prophet Musa ؑ had routed Fir'awn and his army.}

Then Awn ibn Aas offered bay'ah to Islam at the hands of the Negus and, leaving his compatriots behind, he began his journey to Madinah. He met Khalid ibn Waleed ؓ on the way and at Madinah he offered bay'ah to the Prophet and disclosed that he was a Muslim.²

In the Hadith transmitted by Saheeh Muslim there is some more detail. He said, "I went to the Prophet ؓ and requested him to let me have his hand so that I could offer bay'ah. When he did so, I pulled back my hand. He asked me what was wrong and I said that I had a condition. When we enquired what the condition was, I said, that my past sins must be forgiven — all of them. He said that I should know that after belief in Islam all past sins are forgiven."³

Merits

Sayyidina Amr ibn al-Aas ؓ, was a very courageous and intelligent man who showed tremendous valour on the battlefield. The Prophet ؓ made good use of his capabilities, and Amr ؓ said about it:

①. Isabah v5 p2

②. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p351

③. Siyar A'lam an-nabula v3 p66

”ما عدل بى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وبخالد منذ اسلما من اصحابه فى حربه.“

"He never thought of anyone equal to Khalid رضي الله عنه and me."¹

Even in the presence of elder Companions,² the Prophet ﷺ appointed him as commander. For instance, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه and Umar رضي الله عنه were participants of the Battle of Zaat as-Salasil, but Amr ibn al-Aas رضي الله عنه was appointed the commander. Immediately after the liberation of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ sent him over a party to the tribe Huzayl to break down the idol suwa. The custodian there said to Amr رضي الله عنه, "You cannot break it, for, it will protect itself." However, when Amr رضي الله عنه and those with him smashed it, the custodian saw its helplessness and became a Muslim.

The Prophet ﷺ said that Amr رضي الله عنه was a sincere believer³ and he too loved the Prophet very much. In the Hadith of Saheeh Muslim that we have seen above, it is also stated:

”ما كان احد احب الى من رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم ولا اجل فى عيني
منه وما كنت اطيع ان املا عيني منه اجلا لا له ولو سئلت ان اصفه اطلقت
لانى لم اكن املا عيني منه“

"After I became a Believer, no one was dearer and more respectable to me than the Prophet and I was so much overawed by him for long. Thus, I will not be able to describe him if anyone were to ask me about it. I had never seen him for any length of time."

In acknowledgement of his love, the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him

”اللهم صل على عمرو بن العاص فانه يحبك ويحب رسولك“

"O Allah bless Amr ibn al-Aas for he loves You and loves Your Messenger."⁴

Once he said thrice يرحم الله عمرواً "O Allah, show mercy to Amr ibn al-Aas." When someone asked him why he made the prayer, he

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p66

②. Fath al-Bari v7 p26. Majma az-Zawa'id v9 p352. on the authority of Tabarani, Isabah v5 p2, Siyar A'lam an Nabula v3 p57.

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues)

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p65.

said, "Amr spends lavishly in Allah's path."¹ In hadith transmitted by Jami' Tirmizi, the Prophet ﷺ is quoted to have said: "Amr is among the best people of the Quraysh."² Once, the Prophet ﷺ sent him message that he should report to him in attire of jihad. When he came the Prophet ﷺ said, "I am sending you as ameer of an army to place from where you will return Insha Allah safe and with booty." He said, "Messenger of Allah, I have not believed to gain wealth." He said, "Lawful wealth is the best thing for Allah's pious slave."³

Death

He died on the night of Eid in 43 AH in Egypt (Cairo) and was buried on the day of Eid ul-Fitr. His son Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas ﷺ, led the funeral salah.

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn al-Aas ﷺ

He was a companion son of a companion. Devoted worshipper, as ascetic, who kept vigil at night, faster often by day and recited the Qur'an very much — this was Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas. In fact, he had believed in Islam before his father did. He was the eldest son of his father who was not more than 21 years old at his birth.⁴

Merits

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas ﷺ was one of the meritorious Companions. He was a great worshipper, an ascetic and he engaged in worship at night. A hadith in Saheeh Bukhari describes these qualities. He said {My father married me to a girl of a noble family and he took good care of my wife from whom he also enquired about my conduct. One day she confided to him, "My husband is pious, righteous, and God-fearing but does not have any contract with me." My father passed this complaint to the Prophet ﷺ who said, "Send Abdullah to me." My father conveyed the Prophet's command to me and I went to him. He asked me, "What

①. Majma az-Zawa'id v9 p352

②. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues)

③. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p353

④. Siyar A'lam an-nabula v3 p91

is your practice of fasting?" I said that I fasted everyday. He asked me how I read the Qur'an and I told him that I recited it from beginning to end every night. He said to me, "Keep only three fasts every week." I said that I could do more, and he said that I should skip two days and fast one day. When I said that I had more strength, he said, "The best kind of fast is the fast of Dawood (عليه السلام which is to fast one day and skip the next to fast every alternate day). So you too may do accordingly and finish one reading of the Qur'an in seven nights."}

This Hadith discloses how Sayyidina Abdullah ibn al-Aas (رضي الله عنه) fasted and recited the Qur'an. It is stated in the end that this continued to be his practice till his old age. Rather, in old age, he used to recite to someone in the day time, at home the one-seventh portion of the Qur'an that he had to recite at night. And, if the schedule of fasting was disturbed anytime, he made it up later.¹

He used to shut the door of his room, blow out the light and weep before Allah all night. His eyes would swell.²

He has narrated many Ahadith of the Prophet (ﷺ) and also got his permission to write them down in his lifetime. He prepared a collection of Ahadith which he called Sadaqah. It is from this collection that Abu Dawood, Tirmizi Nasa'i etc. have transmitted on the authority of the chain — Amr ibn Shu'ayb from his father from his grand father. The number of the Ahadith he reported are seven hundred.³

He also reported from the elder Companions. He had many noted tabi'een as his students. The Prophet once said about him and his parents: "Abdullah, his father and his mother and these people of the house — what a wonderful people of the house they are!"⁴

Death

He died in Cairo in 65 AH and was buried there.⁵

-
- ❶. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter: How much of Qur'an to recite & Fasting alternate days).
 - ❷. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p91
 - ❸. Tahzeeb ul-Kamal
 - ❹. Majma' az-Zawa'id v9 p354
 - ❺. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p94 Asad al-Ghabah v3 p234. Tazkarat ul-Huffaz. v1 p42.

Sayyidina Abdullah Ibn Amr ibn Hizam ؓ

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ؓ was the father of Sayyidina Jabir ؓ. He had embraced Islam, before the Prophet's ؓ hijrah, at makkah and had attended the Second Pledge at Aqabah. The prophet had ؓ appointed him the nageeb of his tribe at Madinah. He participated in both the battles at badr and Uhud and was martyred in the latter.¹ he had a permonition of his martyrdom, so he said to his son, Sayyidina Jabir ؓ, "I think that I will be the first martyr tomorrow. Look after your sisters and pay the debt that I owe."²

Merits

He had great qualities. He went to Makkah to embrace Islam and then fought against the enemy in two battles. When he was martyred in the Battle of Uhud, the idolaters mutilated his body.

This had a great effect on Jabir ؓ who was a very young child and on Abdullah's ؓ sister, Fatimah bint Hizam. They cried and sobbed very much. The Prophet ؓ comforted them and said that an angel was casting its shadow on Abdullah ibn Amr.³ Sayyidina Jabir ؓ and his family members took his body to their family graveyard at madinah but the Prophet had it brought back and buried him with the other martyrs at the battlefield.⁴ There were many martyrs in this battle and of those who had survived, many were wounded. The Prophet ؓ was also wounded. Therefore, he permitted that two or three martyrs may be buried in one grave, the one who had known more of the Qur'an was placed nearer the qiblah.

Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr ؓ was also buried with one or two other martyrs and he was placed nearer to the qiblah. The Prophet ؓ said to Sayyidina Jabir ؓ, "Allah does not talk to anyone directly but has talked to your father directly, saying "O My slave! Ask what you want, I will give you what you desire." So your father said, "My Lord! Send me to the world again so that I

①. Isabah p110, Siyar A'lam an-nabula p325

②. Saheeh Bukhari

③. Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim

④. Jami' Tirmizi

may attain martyrdom again." Allah said, "I have decreed already that no one will return to the world once he dies."¹

Imam Maalik has narrated a strange case about the grave of Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Amr رضي الله عنه in his Muwatta: {The grave of Abdullah ibn Amr and Amr ibn Jamooh was inundated. Their graves were dug up so that their bodies might be transferred elsewhere. Their bodies were found to be intact as if they had died only on the previous day though they had been martyred forty-six years ago.}² The report in Saheeh Bukhari is from Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه {On the day of Uhud, we could not help but bury my father with another Companion. I was not happy with that, so six months after his martyrdom, I took him out of that grave and buried him in another. His body was just as on the day he was buried.}³ This means that his grave was opened twice — six months after his martyrdom and forty six years after his martyrdom. Similar experience was had with some other Companions رضي الله عنهم too.

Sayyidina Jabir Ibn Abdullah Ibn Amr رضي الله عنه

He was from Madinah and belonged to Khazraj clan. He had gone to Makkah in his childhood with his father and embraced Islam. When the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah, Jabir رضي الله عنه began his close association with him. He could not participate in the Battles of badr and Uhud because he was minor, the only son of his father and brother of nine sisters. However, thereafter he took part in every battle.

Merits

Sayyidina Jabir رضي الله عنه is not counted among the senior Companions because of his age but his knowledge and merit place him among the glorious frontrank Companions. he participated in a very large number of battles and, at the same time, he has also reported a large number of Ahadith. He said that he took part in nineteen battles after the Prophet's ﷺ death. He did not miss a single battle in which the Prophet ﷺ took part after the Battle of

①. Jami' Tirmizi (burial of martyrs)

②. Muwatta Imam Malik (barring two or more in one grave)

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Can a Corpse.

Uhud in which his father was martyred.¹ As for his Ahadith, he narrated 1540 Ahadith and he also transmitted from elder Companions. Similarly, many elder Companions and the tabi'een have transmitted his Ahadith.² The Prophet loved him very much because he was very young and the only son of his father. He had nine sisters to look after and a heavy debt to repay. When Sayyidina Jabir married, the Prophet asked him if he had married a previous unmarried girl or a widow or a divorcee. He said, "She is not an unmarried girl?" The Prophet asked him, "Why did you not marry a virgin?" His answer reflected his wisdom beyond his age and I have narrated this portion only to present his answer. He said, "O Messenger of Allah! My father died. He left behind nine daughters. I married an old woman that she might look after my sisters."³ It was because of his poor condition that the Prophet ﷺ took care of him. Once, he bought his camel and when he was dismounting it, the Prophet ﷺ asked him not to get down and when they reached Madinah he returned the camel to Jabir ﷺ together with its price. The Prophet ﷺ also prayed for him twenty five times.⁴

He had a longing to learn Ahadith and travelled for that. He travelled to Makkah to hear from a Companion some Ahadith and once to Egypt to get from a Companion there just one Hadith.⁵

He gave lessons in the Masjid Nabawi on Ahadith to Many students and seekers of knowledge.⁶

Death

He lived a long life and died in 78 AH. He was the last of those Companions to die who had gone to Makkah to embrace Islam and swear allegiance at Aqabah.

Sayyidina Zayd Ibn Thabit ﷺ

Sayyidina Zayd ibn Thabit ﷺ was from the tribe Khazraj. He

①. Saheeh Muslim

②. Isabah v1 p123. Siyar A'lam an-nabula v3 p191

③. Jami' Tirmizi

④. Isabah v1 p223.

⑤. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p191

⑥. Isabah v1 p223.

was a child of eleven years when the Prophet ﷺ came to Madinah but he had already become a Muslim and had also memorised seventeen surah (Chapters) of the Qur'an. He was taken to the Prophet ﷺ and he heard from him ten of the surah and also expressed pleasure.

Merits

Though young, he was placed among the knowledgeable Companions who were scholars and jurists. he was very intelligent and had a very good memory because of which the Prophet ﷺ chose him to learn Hebrew so that the Prophet ﷺ might communicate with neighbouring Jews. A Jew interpreter would have been required otherwise, and the Prophet ﷺ did not trust them. Sayyidina Zayb ibn Thabit ؓ learnt Hebrew in only seventeen days, and the Prophet ﷺ made him responsible for correspondence with the Jews.¹ He was also one of those who had memorised the entire Qur'an during the Prophet's life. Sayyidina Anas said:

جمع القرآن على عهد النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم اربعة كلهم من الانصار
ابى ومعاذ بن جبل وابوزيد وزيد بن ثابت

"Even while the Prophet ﷺ was alive, four Companions, who were all Ansars, had memorised the Qur'an. They were: Ubayy ibn Ka'b, Mu'az ibn Jabal, Abu Zayd, Zayd ibn Thabit."²

In the jihad against Musaylimah the liar at Yamamah in Yaman, many Muslims were martyred and among them were those who had committed the Qur'an to memory — though Musaylimah was defeated the killed. So, Sayyidina Umar ؓ suggested to Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ that the Qur'an must be written down officially lest those people who know it by heart become scare. (The Companions did have with them separate surah written down but the Qur'an as a whole was not found in a written form.) Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ was hesitant to do what the Prophet ﷺ had not done but after much consultation, the idea was approved. They chose Sayyidina Zayd ibn Thabit ؓ for that. Sayyidina Abu Bakr ؓ

①. Siyar A'lam an-nabula v2 p228

②. Isabah v3 p23. Saheeh Bukhari (Virtues) explained to him the need and said:

” انك رجل شاب عاقل لانتهمك قد كنت تكتب الوحي لرسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم فتتبع القرآه واجمعه“

"You are an intelligent young man and we rely on you for this work. You were also the Prophet's scribe for the wahy. So, search out the Qur'an and gather it together."

He also thought as Abu Bakr ؓ had thought that they would be doing something what the Prophet had not done, but finally he did come round to the idea. He got the different surah from the Companions ؓ and collected the Qur'an together in one book form.¹ He himself was a *Hafiz*² and there were other Hafiz too and many Companions ؓ knew the separate surah. He compiled them together.

Sayyidina Zayd ؓ was also aware of the rulings and commands of distribution of legacy. The Prophet ﷺ had said about him: "افرض امتي زيد بن ثابت" that he was the most aware of these issues.³

In the Battle of Tabook the Prophet ﷺ had taken away the standard from the hands of Sayyidina Umarah ibn Thabit ؓ. The former asked, "O Messenger of Allah, have you received a complaint against me?" The Prophet ﷺ explained to him that it was because Zayd ؓ was a Hafiz.

The Companions ؓ also respected him for his knowledge Sayyidina Umar ؓ, as Khalifah, kept him near him in Madinah and issued edict only in his presence.⁴

The sayings of the Companions ؓ on his death show how high they held him. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah ؓ said: "مات حبر الامة" "A great scholar of the ummah has died." Sayyidina Ibn Abbas ؓ said: "دفن اليوم علم كثير" "A great scholar was buried today." Sayyidina Abdullah ibn Abbas ؓ held him in high esteem. One day as he was mounting his horse, Ibn Abbas ؓ held the reins of the horse for him. Sayyidina Zayd ؓ said, "You are the respected cousin of the Prophet ﷺ, why do you do it?" Ibn Abbas ؓ said, "We respect

①. Saheeh Bukhari, Jami Tirmizi

②. One who has committed the Qur'an to memory.

③. Tirmizi (Virtues)

④. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p434

our ulama (Scholars) in this way." Other Companions ﷺ are also known to have spoken highly of him. Sayyidina Umar ﷺ often made him his deputy at Madinah when he went to perform Umarah or Hajj.¹ Sayyidina Hasan ﷺ had composed this elegy on his death.

ومن اللقوا في بعد حسان وابنه
ومن للمعاني بعد زيد بن ثابت

(Who will compose poetry after Hasan and his son.

Who is there to understand the Qur'an after Zayd ibn Thabit.)

Sayyidina Zayd ibn Thabit ﷺ died in 45 AH.

Sayyidina Jarir Ibn Abdullah Al-Bajali ﷺ

He belonged to the tribe Anmar within the tribe Najd. His father's name was Abdullah and mother's bajeelah. He was called al-Bajali because of his mother. He met the Prophet ﷺ in 10 AH and embraced Islam.¹

Merits

Although he came into the folds of Islam at very late period yet he is regarded among the chief Companions ﷺ. He was the chief of his tribe and the Prophet ﷺ had informed the Companions ﷺ of his coming aforehand. When he came to the Masjid Nabawi, the Prophet ﷺ was delivering a sermon and there was no space in the mosque for him to sit. The Prophet ﷺ spread his mantle for him and asked him to sit on it. He picked up the mantle and clasped it to his chest, saying اكرمك الله كما اكرمتني يا رسول الله (May Allah, give you honour as you have honoured me!). The Prophet ﷺ insisted that he must sit on the mantle and said: اشهد انك لا تبغى علواً في الارض "I bear witness that do not seek highness on earth nor with to make mischief." Jarir embraced Islam in the assembly. It is also reported the Companions ﷺ wished to know why the Prophet ﷺ treated him with extraordinary respect. He said: اذا اتاكم كريم قوم فاكرموه "If a chief of a people comes to you, you must respect him."² Even afterwards, the Prophet ﷺ showed him respect and Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ acknowledged that by saying: ما حجبني رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم منذ "Even after I embraced Islam and sought the

①. Isabah v1 p292

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p532 Az-Zawa'id v9 p372

Prophet's permission to enter, he always gave it to me and always met me with a smile."¹ In the pre-Islamic days, the people of Yaman had built a replica of the Ka'bah, calling it Zu al-Khulsah (ذو الخلصه) or the Yamin Ka'bah. They had some idols in it which they worshipped. The Prophet ﷺ said to Jarir, "If you demolish the fake Ka'bah. I will find peace." Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ said that he took a hundred and fifty strong horsemen to go to Yaman but he himself could not ride a horse and used to fall down if he tried. "When I told the Prophet ﷺ about it," he said, "he struck my chest with his hand and prayed اللهم ثبته واجعله هادياً مهدياً (O Allah! Let Jarir be steady on horse back and make him one guided and one who guides.)" Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ said, "After that I did not fall down from the horse. We then demolished the false Ka'bah and burnt it down. When the Prophet ﷺ learnt of it, he prayed for me and my colleagues five times."²

Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ was with the Prophet ﷺ during the Hajjat ul-Wada' and the Prophet ﷺ instructed him to ask the people to be quiet.³

Sayyidina Umar ﷺ had sent him to Iraq for the wars there, when he was Khalifah. He distinguished himself there and had a hand in the victory of Qadisiyah. After that, he resided in Kufah,⁴ where he lived the rest of his life.

He loved the people of Madinah, particularly the Ansars, very much Sayyidina Anas ﷺ said that in a journey Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ was very helpful to him and said, "Ever since I saw the Prophet's ﷺ kind treatment of the Ansars I swore to myself that I would help them whenever I get a chance." Muhammad ibn al-Muthana ﷺ and Muhammad ibn Bashr the narrators of this Hadith in Saheeh Muslim asserted that Sayyidina Jarir ﷺ was older than Sayyidina Anas ﷺ.⁵

Besides his excellent inner qualities, he was also a handsome man. Sayyidina Umar ﷺ used to call him, "Yusuf of this ummah!" He was a handsome and beautiful.⁶

①. Saheeh Bukhari. Saheeh Muslim

②. Saheeh Bukhari

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter: Quietening the scholars)

④. Isabah v1 p242

⑤. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues of Ansar)

⑥. Isabah v1 p242

Sayyidina Hassan Ibn Thabit رضي الله عنه

He was a Madinan of the Khazraj tribe. His father was Thabit and mother Far'iah who was also a Sahabiyah (women who had met the Prophet ﷺ). He was a great poet of Arabia and after he embraced Islam his poetry was composed for the Prophet, the Companions and Islam. He was therefore called Sayyid Shu'ara al-Mu'mineen (Chief of believing poets) and the Poet of Allah's Messenger ﷺ.¹

Merits

His poetry was more pricking than swords and spears in defence of Islam. He answered the poets of the idolaters convincingly. In a Hadith in Saheeh Muslim, he has said about the effect of his poetry on the disbeliever:

والذى بعثك بالحق لا فريتهم بلسانى فرى الا ديم

"By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I will tear off their hide with my tongue (poetry)"² The Prophet ﷺ would get a pulpit placed for Sayyidina Hassan in the Masjid Nabawi on which he stood and read his poetry in the Prophet's ﷺ presence. The Prophet ﷺ would say to him اللهم ایده بروح القدس "O Allah, help him through Jibreel." This would seem to request help for getting inspiration for poetry. There is in Jami' Tirmizi, the Prophet ﷺ saying about this prayer, "As long as Hassan defends through his poetry on behalf of Allah's Messenger, Allah helps him through Jibreel."³ The words are:

ان الله يوید حسان بروح القدس ما يفاخرا ويافح عن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم

Once Sayyidina Hassan رضي الله عنه was reciting poetry in the Masjid Nabawi when Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه passed by him and started at him. He protested, "Why do you stare. I have recited poetry in the mosque in the Prophet's ﷺ presence."

Sayyidah Ayshah held him in esteem because he defended

①. Isabah v2 p8. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p512

②. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues)

③. Saheeh Bukhari (Chapter Angels) Saheeh Muslim Virtues, Jami Tirmizi (on poetry)

Islam on behalf of the Prophet though she had a complaint against him for he had taken part in the affair of ifk (scandalising her). She had a cushion placed for him whenever he came. Her brother Sayyidina Abdur Rahman رضي الله عنه reminded her of the wrong he had done to her and yet she had a cushion placed for him to sit! She said, "He used to answer the idolaters on behalf of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and thus give him peace. He is now blind and I do hope that Allah will forgive him his mistake and not punish him in the Hereafter."¹ He was counted among the best poets and his poems are very highly placed in Islamic poetry. Let us look into that.

The Prophet's ﷺ paternal cousin Abu Sufyan ibn al-Harith used to deride the Prophet ﷺ. He had become a Muslim ver late in life) Sayyidina Hassan gave him sound rejoinders in his poetry and while he was at it he also composed an excellent poem in praise of the Prophet ﷺ. He also reminded Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه, "You are of the same family yet satirise the Prophet ﷺ while I am an outsider Yet I defend him."

هجوت محمداً فاجبت عنه وعند الله في ذاك الجزاء
(You satirise Muhammad I give you a rejoinder. I will get a reward from Allah for that!)

هجوت محمداً براً تقياً رسول الله شيمته الوفاء
(You satirised Muhammad who is vastly good, righteous and pious and Allah's Messenger whose habit is faithfulness.)

فان ابى ووالدتي وعرضي لعرض محمد منكم وقاء
(For parents, my honour be ransomed for O Muhammad)²

There are more verses in Saheeh Muslim and a treasury of his poetry in his Diwan, the like of which may not be found with other poets.

Sayyidina Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه

His name was Sakhr ibn Harb, but he was known by his kunyah. Abu Hanzalah was also his kunyah. He was among the Quraysh chiefs and one of the wisest men of Makkah. Although he

①. Jami' Tirmizi

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p514

was related to the Prophet ﷺ, he took a long time to embrace Islam. After the chiefs of Quraysh were slain in the Battle of Badr, he took over as commander of their armies in the Battles, of Uhud and of the Trenches. Just one day before the liberation of Makkah, he met the Prophet ﷺ when he and his Companions were stationed very near Makkah and either that very day or the next, he embraced Islam.¹

Merits

Abu Sufyan was a staunch enemy of Islam as long as he was a disbeliever, but from the day he became a Muslim he gave exceptional sacrifice for Islam and compensated for his previous conduct. Besides, the Prophet ﷺ has also said الاسلام يهدم ما كان قبله "Islam obliterates what (wrongs) had been (committed) before." As a disbeliever, he harassed the Muslims and the Prophet ﷺ as Abu Jahl and Abu Lahab had done, but after becoming a Believer, he joined the Muslims forthwith in the Battle of Hunayn and Battle of Ta'if. In the last-namaed he lost the sight of one eye. The Prophet ﷺ offered to pray for restoration of his eye, or he might prefer to go to Paradise instead. He said that he would endure the pain in the eye in return for entry into Paradise. He lost his second eye too in the Battle of Yarmook and he was totally blind. He was occupied in jihad in the Battle of Yarmook under the command of his son Sayyidina Yazeed ibn Abu Sufyan ؓ and he made the supplication loudly: يا نصر الله اقرب "O help of Allah, draw near!" He was totally blind but encouraged the Muslims to be steadfast and fight with determination.²

There is a Hadith in Saheeh Muslim and others that on the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet said من دخل دار ابي سفيان فهو امن (He who enters the house of Abu Sufyan is safe!)³ Thabit Bunani, the tabi'ee, said that the Prophet ﷺ included this house because, during his Makkan period, the Prophet ﷺ also had taken refuge there against persecution at the hands of the idolaters.⁴ Imam Nawavi has explained this Hadith: فيه تاليف لابي سفيان واطهار لشرفه "In

①. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v2 p105, Isabah v3 p238

②. Isabah v2 p238, Siyar A'lam an Nabula v2 p106

③. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter Conquest of Makkah)

④. Isabah v2 p238

this proclamation of the Prophet ﷺ there was, apart from winning over Abu Sufyan's heart, an expression of his excellence." It is also stated in a Hadith of Saheeh Muslim that after he had believed, Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه said to the Prophet ﷺ "Just as I had led the armies of the disbelievers in my disbelieving days, I crave to lead the Islamic army now." The Prophet ﷺ (was aware of his capabilities as a commander so he) accepted his request.¹

Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضي الله عنها was Abu Sufyan's daughter. We have read in her account that when Abu Sufyan learnt of her marriage to the Prophet ﷺ (while she was in Ethiopia), he expressed happiness and spoke highly of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ. His sons, Yazeed ibn Abu Sufyan and Mu'awiyah, also turned out to be excellent servants of Islam and leaders of Muslims. Yazeed too had believed on the day of liberation of Makkah. Thereafter, he took part in many battles and his fighting capabilities had a great hand in victories over Shaam and its neighbouring areas.

Sayyidina Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه died during the Khilafah Uthmaniyah.

Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه

He was born five years before Prophethood was bestowed on Sayyidina Muhammad ﷺ. He became a believer at the time of the Peace Treaty of Hudaibiyyah. He said, "When the Makkans prevented the Prophet ﷺ from performing umrah and the peace treaty was concluded and he was returning to Madinah, it became clear to me that he was a true Prophet. When he came to perform Umarah the next year, I was already a Muslim but fear of my parents had made me conceal my faith. On the day of liberation, when my parents became Muslims, I divulged to them my Islam."¹ After the liberation of Makkah, almost all people of this clan had come to Madinah.

Merits

Allah had bestowed on Sayyidina Mu'awiyah a large share of apparent and hidden perfection. He was very handsome, tall, digni-

①. Saheeh Muslim (Virtues)

②. Isabah v6 p113

fied, clement and extremely intelligent. The Prophet ﷺ had entrusted to him the writing down of wahy and communications.¹ He also prayed for him very often — for instance, اللهم علمه الكتاب والحساب وقه العذاب "O Allah teach him, writing and the science of calculations."² "ومكن له في البلاد" and establish him in countries upon countries," اللهم اجعله هادياً مهدياً واهدبه "O Allah, make him a means of guidance for Your slaves, and guide him."³ All these prayers of the Prophet ﷺ for him were granted. He was an excellent scribe. He was an expert in Mathematics. Allah had caused him to extend the frontiers of Islam to far off lands. He was himself guided and Allah alone knows how many people he brought to the guided path. As for the Hereafter that is in the hands of the Most Merciful of those who show mercy. He was an excellent warrior of the Islamic army even in the times of the Prophet ﷺ and kept progressing through his capabilities during the times of the three Khalifas. Sayyidina Umar ؓ had appointed him governor of Shaam and he continued to hold that office during the ear of Sayyidina Uthman ؓ.⁴ But after the martyrdom of Uthman ؓ, differences cropped up between him and Sayyidina Ali ؓ. Then Sayyidina Hasan ؓ abdicated Khilafah in his favour and he became Khalifah of the Muslims and Ameer ul-Mu'mineen for a stretch of time. He eliminated completely the conspiracies against Islam and there was peace everywhere affording an opportunity to send Islamic forces to propagate Islam to non-Islamic states and conquer them. This is dealt with exhaustively in al-bidayah wa an-Nihayah. he was very careful to abide by Islamic principles and teachings of the Prophet ﷺ even in battles with non-Muslims. Sulaym ibn Aamir said that a no-war pact was once concluded between Mu'awiyah and the Romans. When the pact was about to expire, Sayyidina Mu'awiyah built up the Islamic forces on the borders so that with the expiry of the pact, he could launch a full-scale attach. On the face of it, there was nothing wrong in it, but a Companion, Amr ibn Abash ؓ, came swiftly on his horse, calling out الله اكبر وفاء لا غدر (Allah is the Greatest! We must fulfil our commitment. Treachery is not lawful!)

①. Isabah v6 p113

②. Siyar A'lam an-Nabula v3 p124

③. Jami' Tirmizi (Virtues)

④. Isabah (account of Mu'awiyah).

He explained to Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه that the Prophet ﷺ had said, 'If anyone has concluded a pact or promise with another then he must not make alterations in it till the period has lapsed or it is annulled while both sides are equally poised.' Amr ibn Abash's رضي الله عنه meaning was that it was treachery to take advantage of the Roman's unawareness and amass armies at the borders to be able to invade them immediately on the expiry of the pact. Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه immediately ordered the army to return to the barracks.¹

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه has narrated a lengthy Hadith which brings out Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه piety and righteousness. The gist of it is: An ostentatious martyr, scholar and philanthropist will be the first (three kinds of people) to go to Hell. When Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه heard this Hadith from a student of Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه, he cried so much that those people who were there thought that he might die.

He was very careful to observe the sunnah. There is a saying of the Prophet ﷺ that women must not attach other (false) hair² to their own. When Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضي الله عنه learnt that some women of Madinah had begun to do that, he said once in a sermon, "Where have the ulama of Madinah gone away? Why do they not stop the women from doing that, for, Allah's Messenger ﷺ had disallowed that?"

Death

Sayyidina Mu'awiyah died in Rajab 60 AH. رضي الله عنه وارضاه

Through Allah's favour the series of Ma'rif ul-Hadith is completed with this volume.

①. Jami' Tirmizi (About Treachery)

②. Saheeh Muslim (Chapter: Disapproval of wearing false hair)

GLOSSARY

MEANING AND MESSAGE OF TRADITIONS

A'māl	اعمال	(pl of amal) deeds.
Ahādith	احاديث	pl of Hadith.
Ahl Kitāb	اهل كتاب	people of the Book. This term is used by the Qur'ān for Jews and Christians who follow a revealed religion.
Allahu Akbar	الله اكبر	Allah is the Greatest.
Asr	عصر	the afternoon salāh.
Azān	اذان	the call to salāh.
Ansār	انصار	Helper (s) People of Madinah who welcomed the Prophet ﷺ and Muhājir from Makkah.
Azl	عزل	coitus interruptus.
Azal	ازل	eternity.
Bay'ah	البيعة	covenant of allegiance.
Bid'ah	بدعة	innovation.
Barzakh	برزخ	intervening period between death and resurrection whether in grave or otherwise.
Du'a	دعا	supplication.
Eemān	ايمان	faith, belief in Islam.
Eed	عيد	festival Day marking the end of month of fasting is eed ul-fitr (1st Shawwal) and day of sacrifice is eed ul-azhā.
Fajr	فجر	the dawn salāh.
Fard	فرض	absolute obligation, an enjoined duty.
Ghusl	غسل	Bathing to remove legal impurity.
Hijrah	هجرة	migration. The Prophet's ﷺ migration to Madinah marking the beginning of the Islamic calendar.
Hadith	حديث	A saying, doing or practice, or silent approval of the Prophet ﷺ.
Hadith (Saheeh)	صحيح	a sound Hadith.
Hadith (Da'cef)	ضعيف	a weak Hadith.
Hadith (Mursal)	مرسل	incompletely transmitted Hadith.
Hadith (Marfoo')	مرفوع	Hadith traced back to the Prophet ﷺ.
Hadith (Mawdoo')	موضوع	an invented Hadith.
Hadith (Qudsi)	قدسي	That which Allah has said to the Prophet ﷺ through inspirations or dream and he has retold it in his own words.
Hajj	حج	pilgrimage. It is incumbent on every Muslim who has the ability to perform it once in his life time in the month of Zul Hajjah.
Durood	درود	a prayer for the Holy Prophet ﷺ to be blessed by Allah.
Chāsht	چاشت	optional salāh in the forenoon.
Hijāb	حجاب	veil worn or observed by women, seclusion of women, curtain.
Halāl	حلال	lawful.
Haram	حرام	unlawful, forbidden.

Ishā	عشاء	night salāh before retiring.
Istidrāj	استدراج	to give respite to a sinner to defer his punishment and let him innocue in more sins, so that he may be punished ultimately a severe punishment.
Istikhārah	استخارة	seeking guidance from Allah through salāh to tackle a situation or deed in the right way.
Istighfār	استغفار	to seek forgiveness of Allah.
Istinja	استنجا	abstention, cleansing of body after relieving oneself.
Iqamah	اقامة	words of azān called to signal the standing up of the congregation for salāh. An additional phrase is repeated twice and the words are called relatively quickly.
Imām	امام	leader of the congregation.
Ishraq	اشراق	optional salāh a little after sunrise.
Istisqa	استسقاء	a prayer (through salāh) for rain during drought.
Iftar	الطار	breaking fast after sunset during Ramadan.
I'tikāf	اعتكاف	seclusion for the purpose of worshiping Allah. Men do it in the mosque and women at home. There are different kinds of it, for instance, the last ten days of Ramadan.
Ihrām	احرام	the state which a pilgrim assumes during Hajj and Umrah imposing certain restrictions on him.
Iddah	عدة	waiting period for a divorced woman or widow after which she may remarry.
Ikhlās	اخلاص	sincerity.
Jihād	جهاد	war waged solely for the sake of Allah against enemies of Islam.
Jawāmi al-Kilām	جوامع الكلم	brief expressions most comprehensive in meaning.
Jizyah	جزية	the tax imposed on non-Muslims under state protection in Muslim countries.
Jannah	جنة	Paradise.
Jahannam	جهنم	Hell.
Khazecera		kind of dish of meat, flour and spices.
Kalimah	كلمة	expression, expression of belief لا اله الا الله محمد رسول الله
Khatim ul-Anbiya	خاتم الانبياء	The Seal of Prophets, the last of Prophets. (Prophet Muhammad ﷺ).
Kusoof	كسوف	Solar eclipse.
Khusoof	خسوف	lunar eclipse.
Khutbah	خطبة	sermon. Friday or eed sermon delivered from the minbar (pulpit).
Muhājir	مهاجر	The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ who had migrated to Madinah during the Prophet's ﷺ life time.
Musaddiq	مصدق	he who confirms or bears witness to a truth.
Muhaimin	مهيمن	one who supervises.
Maghrib	مغرب	sunset, the salāh after sunset.
Millat	ملة	faith, religion, creed.
Meezān	ميزان	scale.
Miswak	مسواك	a piece of tree's branch or root used as tooth cleaner.
Muqtadi	مقتدى	the worshippers who follow the Imam in congregational salāh.
Mahr	مهر	dower.

Lā ilāha illā Allāhu
Muhammadur
Rasool Allāh

لا اله الا الله محمد
رسول الله

There is no God but Allah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah.

La'nah

لعنة curse

Laylatul Qadr

ليلة القدر

Night of power, one of the odd nights in the last ten days of Ramadan when the Quran was revealed and which the worshipper has to search for.

Nikāh

نكاح

Marriage.

Sunnah

سنة

the norm of the Prophet ﷺ, his words and deeds.

Salāh

صلاة

prayer (five times a day). fajr, zuhr, asr, maghrib and ishā.

Shari'ah

شريعة

sacred law of Islam based on Qur'ān and sunnah.

Sawm

صوم fasting.

Sahābah

صحابية

Companion of the Prophet ﷺ.

Sa'ee

سعي

seven rounds between Safā and Marwah at Makkah during the pilgrimage.

Sahr or Suhoor

سحر يا سحر

meal taken before dawn to commence fasting.

Satr

ستر

veil, parts of body that need be covered - for men from navel down to knee and for women from head to feet.

Salaam

سلام greetings, peace.

Zakah

زكاة، زكوة

purity, purification. A portion or value of property given in charity to the poor (as the due of Allah) each year by those who qualify the minimum stipulated wealth.

Surah

سورة chapter of the Qur'ān.

Ta'bud

تعبد absolute worship.

Tābi'ee

تابعي

one who has seen a Companion or conversed with one.

Tawāf

طواف circumambulation of the Ka'bah.

Sajdah

سجدة prostration.

raka'ah

ركعة

(pl. raka'āt) unit of salāh made up of standing, bowing and two prostrations.

ruku'

ركوع bowing down in salāh.

tashahhud

تشهد

the recital in the sitting posture in salāh.

tasawwuf

تصوف

sufisim, adherence to sufism.

takbeer

تكبير to call out Allāhu Akbar.

tahleel

تهليل

to say لا اله الا الله (There is no God but Allah).

tasbeeh

تسبيح to glorify Allah.

tilāwah

تلوة

to recite the Qur'ān.

tahajjud

تهجد

optional salāh late in the night on getting up from sleep for it.

tayammum

تيمم dry ablution.

talbiyah

تلبية

to recite Labayk: لبيك اللهم لبيك، لبيك لا شريك لك، لبيك ان الحمد والنعمة لك و الملك لا شريك لك.

tawbah

توبة repentance.

Qiblah

قبة

the direction of the ka'bah which worshippers face in salāh.

Zuhr

ظهر

the noon salāh when the sun begins to decline.

Ummah

امة

a people or nation, community, who have received a message.

Nafil

نفل additional, optional, supererogatory.

Qiyamah	قيامة	The Day of Resurrection.
Sirāt	صراط	a narrow bridge that all will have to cross after resurrection.
Kawthar	كوثر	the pond and the river by this name in Paradise.
Zaqqoom	زقوم	a tree growing in Hell which is the food of the people of Hell.
Ghassaq	غساق	rubbish and impurity pouring of the bodies of those condemned (to Hell).
Sufi	صوفي	an adherent to Sufism, a saint who has reached the end of the path.
Sufism		see Tasawwuf.
Zuhd	زهد	having no love for the mundane benefits.
Zikr	ذكر	remembrance of Allah.
Wudu	وضو	ablution.
Siwak	سواك	same as miswak.
waqf		religious endowment.
witr	وتر	odd, the wajib three raka'āt salāh in the night after ishā salāh.
wajib	واجب	obligatory (slightly less than fard).
Salatul Hājah	صلوة الحاجة	two raka'āt salāh to seek fulfilment of need.
salāt ul Khawaf	صلوة الخوف	A particular way of offering congregational prayer in the battlefield.
Salāt ut Tasbeeh	صلوة التسبيح	the salāh of glorification, a four raka'āt salāh (optional) performed in a particular way.
Sadaqah	صدقة	charity.
Sadqatul fitr	صدقة الفطر	a charity given after completing fasting before salāh of Eed ul-fitr.
Janazah	جنازة	funeral.
Meeqāt	ميقات	The place beyond which a pilgrim cannot proceed without having assumed the ihram.
Rami	رمي	the throwing of pabbles at the Jimar in Minā by the pilgrims.
Jimar		(pl. of Jamrah): three stone pillars at Minā at which pilgrims throw pebbles.

INDEX

MEANING & MESSAGE OF TRADITIONS VOL. I

A

angles, existence: 80 actions judged by intentions
 Abu Hurayrah: 34, 85, 101, 103, 115, 119, 124, 129, 139, 141, 146, 149f, 161, 189f, 212f, 228f, 234f, 240f, 253, 268f, 277f, 288, 294, 302f, 316f, 322f, 338f, 344f, 349f, 358f, 364, 370f, 379f, 387, 399f, 411f, 418f, 427, 441f, 451f
 Abdullah ibn Umar: 89, 125, 160, 178, 188, 194, 246, 260, 272, 353, 372, 382, 406, 421f, 446
 Anas ibn Maalik: 90, 109, 119, 125f, 133f, 144, 150, 176, 183f, 202f, 212f, 230f, 250f, 258, 271, 276f, 293f, 354f, 365, 379f, 393, 398
 Abu Ayyub: 93, 316
 Abdullah ibn Abbas: 34, 97, 138, 141, 147, 151, 231, 257, 277, 285, 296, 381f, 429, 435, 438
 Abdullah ibn Mas'ood: 102, 142, 145, 158, 185, 251, 279, 290, 299, 320, 364, 377, 385, 396, 403f, 414f, 422f, 439
 Abdullah ibn 'Amr ibn al-Aas: 17, 135, 148, 166, 186, 197, 203, 213, 272, 310, 317, 338f, 344f, 392, 424f
 Asma ar-Rijaal: 17
 Abu ibn Hatim: 23, 187
 Abu Bakr: 31, 56, 115, 119, 123, 257f, 311, 350f
 Ali (ibn Abu Talib): 31, 159, 342, 414
 Abdur Rahman ibn Awf: 34
 Ahmad ibn Hanbal: 62
 Abu Salamah: 34
 Abdullah ibn Abu Bakr: 38
 Abdullah ibn Dinar: 38
 Abd Zinad: 38
 Abdur ibn Sa'eed: 38
 Abu Tuwalah: 39
 Abdal Aziz Dehlavi: 40
 ablution: 59
 azan: 59
 Abu Talha Ansari: 61, 359
 Abdullah ibn Mubarak: 62
 Abdullah Ghaznawi: 62
 A'mash Tabi'ee: 103
 Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri: 103, 119, 122, 143, 187, 199, 210f, 231, 243, 390, 398, 405, 425, 450
 Abu Zarr Ghifari: 111, 138, 241, 254, 288, 292, 315f, 324, 330, 356f, 365, 381, 409, 424, 456 adultery: 111, 147
 Abu Musa: 119, 260, 269, 370
 Amr ibn al-Aas: 121, 437
 Amr ibn Awf: 275
 Abu Umamah: 132, 282f, 360, 406f, 429
 Abbas ibn Abd Muttalib: 132, 252
 Abu Shurayh Khuza'i: 140

Aus ibn Surahbil: 145
 Abdullah ibn Ubayy: 149
 Abu Khizamah: 159
 Allah, attributes of: 161, 314, 442
 Allah, Seeing Him (see vision)
 Asma ul-Husna (see Allah attributes)
 Allah, responsibility of: 285
 Asma daughter of Abu Bakr: 180
 Abu Razeen Uqaili: 188, 227
 Ayshah: 196f, 248f, 256, 294f, 332, 339f, 352, 375f, 385f
 Asma daughter of Yazid: 200, 396
 Aadam, father of mankind: 209
 Auf ibn Maalik: 211
 Abdullah ibn Harith: 231
 Abu Burdah: 260
 Abu Darda: 283, 339, 433
 Amr ibn Shu'ayb: 291, 310
 Abu Kabshah al-Anmari: 303
 Abdullah ibn Abu Maryam: 305
 Abdullah ibn Shaddad: 313
 Abdullah ibn Aamir: 410
 Amr ibn Maymoon: 319
 Abu Juray Jabir: 321
 as Salaamu alayk: 321
 Abdullah ibn Ja'far: 345
 Abdur Rahman ibn Abdullah: 346
 Abul Qasim: 347
 Atyah ibn Urwah: 381
 anger, suppress: 382
 Abdullah ibn Sarjis: 384
 Ali ibn Husain Zainul Abideen: 395
 Abdur Rahman ibn Ghanam: 396
 Abu Barzah Aslami: 397
 Ammar ibn Yasir: 400
 Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Qarad: 404
 Ashtah ibn Qays: 409
 Abdullah ibn Abdul Hamsa: 415
 Ayaz ibn Himar: 416
 Abu Saeed ibn Abu Fadal: 451

B

Bustan ul Muhadditheen: 40
 Bilal: 55
 Badr Aalam: 64 blessing in provision: 104
 Badr, battle of: 113
 Banu an-Najr: 115
 bay'ah: 121
 Bahz ibn Hakeem: 145, 411
 barzakah: 171, 244
 Bara ibn Azib: 174
 bridge (see sirat)
 borrowing from a Jew: 297

C

Creator: 90
 Condolence to Mu'az: 431

D

Damam: 93

demonstration, practiced: 22

du'a (see supplication)

dajjal: 128, 183, 186

destiny (see also fate):

Divine Decree, stages of: 167 doubts: 168

deeds placed before Allah on Monday & Thursday: 374

E

eeaman (see Iman)

F

fasting: 76, 89, 91, 109

Fazlur Rahman Ganj Mooradabadi: 62 faith, branches of: 130 fortunate/unfortunate (see sa'eed/shafi) fate: 166

fire of Hell: 228f

G

Ghazali: 83(fn)

grave, questions: 174

Ghassaq: 231

H

Haji: 76, 89, 91, 121

Heaven, closer to: 93

Hell, further from: 93

Hadith, narrating: 95

Hadith, preservation: 16

Hujjatullah al-Balighah: 17

Hudaibiya: 24

Hisham ibn Urwah: 39

hijrah (see pilgrimage)

hostilities cease: 126

hawa and huda: 136

hypocrisy: 149, 328, 401, 452

Huzayfah: 158, 354, 396

Hathiyah: 201

Hanzalah ibn ar-Rabi: 259

Harithah ibn Wahb: 378, 417

Hakeem ibn Hizam: 426

I

intentions: 69

ikhlas: 72, 443

Islam, divided in 3 parts: 74

, what is: 76

, fundamental principles: 78

, five things: 89

, last & eternal: 60

Iman (see also faith): 76, 119

Ihsan: 76

invisible beings: 79

Ibn ul-Qayyim: 28, 83fn

Ibn Umar (see Abdullah)

Ibn Abbas (see Abdullah)

Ibn Mas'ood (see Abdullah)

Ishaq ibn Abdullah: 38

Ismail ibn Muhammad: 38

Iqamah: 59

istidraj: 105fn, 304f

Itbaan ibn Maalik: 113

intercession: 119, 206f

Ibn Ta'ymiyah: 148fn

Ibn Dailani: 157

Isa ibn Maryam: 186, 214

Imran ibn Husain: 211, 284, 422

Ibrahim, Prophet: 213

Imran ibn Hittan: 394

J

Jami' ul-Kilam: 73

Jibreel: 77, 87, 213, 234, 362

Jihad: 89, 94, 123, 143, 312

Jizyah: 34, 126

Jabir: 119, 124, 179, 184, 220, 256, 267, 274,

341, 347f, 356, 398, 412f

Jarir ibn Abdullah: 226, 343, 376

Jubayr ibn Nutayr: 281

Jew, borrowing from: 297

Jundub: 452

K

Ka'b ibn Ujra: 24

Ka'b ibn Maalik: 61, 276

Kalimah: 104, 110, 198, 298

Khayr: 119

Khawarij: 120, 129

Kalimah, do not call infidel one who recites: 128, 147f

Kauthar, pond: 201

Khanzalah ibn al-Rabi': 240

Ka'bn ibn Iyad: 275

Khuraym ibn Fatik: 404

L

Last Hour: 85, 171, 184, 242f

signs: 86, 188

lust & guidance (see hawa & huda)

Last Hour, description: 189f life long: 311

laughter kills the heart: 323

lahawla wala qu wata: 324

M

Migration: 69

Musaddiq: 81

Muhaimin: 81

Mother of Sunnah: 87

Mu'az ibn Jabal: 97, 106, 110, 117, 137, 254, 289, 326f, 340, 361, 388, 430f

Mughirah: 33, 206

Muhammad ibn Maslamah: 33

Mu'awiyah: 35, 332, 455

Muhammad ibn al-Munkadir: 38

Muhzama ibn Sulaiman: 38

Musa ibn Aqaba: 38

Miswar ibn Rifa'ah: 39

Maalik ibn Dukhaysh: 113

Murjiyah: 120

Mu'tazilah: 129

Modesty: 130

Mu'awiyah ibn Haidah: 145

Miqdad: 189

Musa, Prophet: 209

Mustawrid ibn Shaddad: 267

Muhammad ibn Labeed: 284

Mus'ab ibn Sa'd: 309

Maalik, Imam: 341

Maryam: 362

Miraj: 398

Mu'jizah: 441

Mahmood ibn Labeed: 450

N

Navavi: 84fn
 Nooh, Prophet: 23
 Najjar, Banu (see Banu)
 Nutfah: 164
 Nu'man ibn Basheer: 229, 233, 369
 Nadr: 259

O

ostentation: 449f

P

pilgrimage: 89, 121
 Prophet, last: (see Seal of Prophets) predestination (see Divine Decree)
 Prophet names surah that made him old: 257f piety and wealth do not go together generally: 301 parable of three men: 446f

Q

Questions, do not ask: 90f
 qiblah: 125, 127
 Qatadah ibn Nu'man: 271

R

Refutal: 82
 Rashid Ahmand Gangohi: 62
 Rahmat, ar (The Compassionate): 166, 343 revelation: 171
 reckoning, easy: 199
 Rahim, ar: 343
 riya: 449f

S

Salah: 76, 89, 91f, 109, 125, 150, 226
 Seal of Prophets: 15, 82
 Shabbir Ahmad Usmani: 83fn
 Sanadi: 84fn
 Sa'd, Banu: 93
 Sa'd: 32, 301, 442
 Salim ibn Abu Umayyah: 38
 Sa'd ibn Ishaq: 38
 Sa'eed ibn Abu Sa'eed: 38
 Salamah ibn Dinar: 38
 Salih ibn Kaysan: 38
 Safwan ibn Sulaim: 38
 Suyuti: 40
 Sufyan Suri: 62
 Supplication: 66, (in tahajjud) 342, 361
 Sandals of the Prophet: 116 seventy (and odd): 130, 353
 Saswan ibn Sulaym: 146
 Sufyan ibn Abdullah Thafati: 153
 sa'eed & shaqi: 164
 Sa'd ibn Mu'az: 180
 sirat: 201
 Sahl ibn Sa'd: 203, 268, 287, 307, 357, 384, 391
 Samurah: 205, 230
 Shu'ayb Rumi: 225
 Shaddad ibn Aws: 246, 449
 Sa'eed Maqburi: 295
 Shazlia: 325
 Sahl ibn Mu'az: 382
 Sufyan ibn Aseed: 407
 Suhayb: 428
 Sa'd ibn Ubada: 430

T

Ta'bud: 85
 ties of relationship: 93
 Talah ibn Ubaydullah: 96
 Tarikh al-Khulafa: 31
 theft: 111, 147
 Tariq Ashja'ee: 124 trumpet: 186, 244 terrible occasions, three: 195
 Thawban: 204
 Torah: 298
 three things true: 303 tahlil: 314
 taqwa: 330
 tahajjud: 342
 tawakkal: 434f
 Thabit ibn Zayd: 430

U

Umar ibn al-Khattab: 33, 69, 75, 103, 115, 123, 261, 298, 328, 362, 416, 437
 Umar stops Abu Hurayrah from delivering message: 116
 Umar ibn Abdul Aziz: 17
 Umm Salamah: 34
 Uthman ibn Affan: 35, 151, 178f, 215, 301
 Ubadah ibn Samit: 106, 405
 Ubayy ibn Ka'b: , 244, 430
 Urwah ibn Mas'ood: 186, 296
 Umamah: 200
 Utbah ibn Ubayd: 249
 Umm Darda: 283, 433
 Uqbah ibn Amir: 304, 392
 Ubayd ibn Khalid: 312
 Ubayd ibn Rifa'ah: 406
 Umm Kulsoom: 413
 Usama ibn Zayd: 430

V

Vision of Allah: 192f, 223f

W

Waliullah, Shah: 17, 63, 83fn, 164, 167
 Wahb ibn Kaysam: 38
 wudu (see ablution)
 wine: 147 writing (down - Arabic sense): 163 wahy (see revelation)
 Wasilah ibn al-Asqa: 375

Y

Yaman: 97
 Yahya ibn Sa'eed: 39
 Yazid ibn Ruman: 39
 Yazid ibn Abdullah: 39

Z

Zakah: 76, 89, 91f, 123
 Zayd ibn Thabit: 33, 158, 181, 278
 Zahid ibn Aslam: 38
 zikr: 65, 245, 314, 330
 Zaqqum: 232
 zuhd: 287f
 zahid defined: 288
 Zubayr: 373
 Zayd ibn Arkam: 415f
 Zayd ibn Taihah: 420
 Zaynab: 430

INDEX

MEANING & MESSAGE OF TRADITIONS VOL. II

A

- Abu Maalik Ash'ari: 21
 Abdullah ibn Abbas: 24, 50f, 60, 66f, 71f, 102, 124, 132, 137, 149, 184, 203f, 212f, 225, 243, 254, 269f, 284, 291f, 302, 311, 325, 339, 346, 352f, 365, 369, 397, 406, 414, 430f, 446, 463f, 488, 523f, 535f, 540, 544
 Abu Hurayrah: 26f, 36f, 44, 51, 58f, 64f, 71, 88, 102, 121, 129f, 148f, 158, 164f, 169, 174, 180f, 190f, 198, 206f, 224, 232, 238f, 248f, 258f, 272f, 280f, 285, 294, 316f, 323f, 341f, 367, 378f, 391f, 396f, 401, 406, 412f, 418f, 426, 432f, 438f, 449f, 455, 466f, 479f, 484f, 523, 527, 546f, 551f
 Ayshah: 29f, 43f, 49f, 61f, 74, 104f, 136, 144, 153, 171f, 205f, 216, 233f, 238f, 242f, 253, 261f, 281, 296, 306, 310, 317, 325f, 331, 339, 345, 368, 382, 392, 405, 423f, 428f, 433, 440, 446f, 456, 468f, 473f, 492, 500, 524, 529f, 535f
 Abu Ayyub Ansari: 30, 46, 102, 238, 456
 Ali ibn Abu Talib: 30, 52f, 65, 107, 167, 176, 228, 245, 263, 298f, 339, 374f, 467, 481, 507f, 515f
 Abu Uwanah: 46
 Abu Musa Ash'ari: 31, 194, 304, 322f, 332f, 390
 Abdullah ibn Mughaffal: 32
 Abdullah ibn Sarjis: 32
 Abu Zarr Ghifari: 34, 77, 89, 107, 257f, 394, 461
 Abdullah ibn Umar: 41, 52f, 64f, 103, 124, 141, 150f, 163f, 196f, 213f, 237f, 241, 278, 285f, 295f, 316, 330f, 348f, 375, 385, 432f, 440f, 482f, 490f, 518f, 525, 532, 548, 555f, 557fn
 Abu Umamah: 44, 157, 229, 249, 392f, 420
 Abdullah ibn Zubayr: 49, 231, 551
 Abu Haiyah: 54
 Abdullah ibn Zayd: 55, 109f, 311
 Amr ibn Shu'ayb: 56, 139, 538
 Anas: 60, 99f, 107f, 113f, 138, 150f, 159, 166, 202, 211f, 282, 288, 294f, 319f, 333, 380, 388, 395f, 404f, 425f, 437f, 447f, 516, 551
 Abu Rafi': 60
 Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas: 61, 86, 95, 271, 318, 354, 375, 379, 406, 421, 457, 538
 Abu Bakr: 75f, 175, 226f, 361
 Ammar ibn Yasir: 76, 436
 Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri: 77, 99, 122, 136, 210f, 241, 262, 280, 289, 320f, 326, 373, 396, 440, 447, 451, 470f, 545, 552
 Abu Darda: 84, 149, 260
 Abu Buraidah: 81
 Abdullah ibn Mas'ood: 91, 146f, 175, 192, 197f, 214f, 222f, 320, 332f, 351, 384f, 470, 483, 531
 Abu Umayr: 110, 292
 Abu Mahzurah: 114f
 Abu Usayd Sa'di: 134
 Abu Qatadah: 135, 166, 186, 258, 459, 469
 Abdullah ibn Arqam: 153
 Abu Mas'ood Ansari: 155, 162, 201, 400
 Abu Maalik Ash'ari: 158
 Abu Humayd as-Sa'idi: 172f, 196, 222
 Abu Hanifah Imam: 182
 Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa: 210, 264
 Abdullah ibn Sa'b: 184
 Abdullah ibn Utbah: 187
 Abu Waqid al-Layth: 192, 293
 Abu Zubayr Numairi: 195, 231
 Alqamah: 197
 Abdullah ibn Maalik: 203
 Awn ibn Abdullah: 204
 Awf ibn Maalik: 257, 343
 Abdullah ibn Qubays: 242
 Abdul Aziz ibn Jurayj: 243
 Allah – His Hand: 248 descent: 248 face: 248
 sat on the throne: 248
 Amr ibn Abasa: 249
 Aadam, father of mankind: 274
 Aws ibn Aws Thaqafi: 275
 Abdullah ibn Salaam: 276, 281, 397
 Abu al-Ja'd: 278
 Abdullah ibn Busr: 291
 Abdur Rahman ibn Samurah: 306
 Aamir Abdur Rami: 322
 Abu Burda: 332
 Abdullah ibn Ja'far: 334
 Aamir ibn Sa'd: 347
 Abu Marthad Ghanawi: 350
 Amr ibn Nazim: 351
 aamileen: 377
 Abdul Muttalib ibn Rabe'e: 380
 Abu Rafi': 382
 Asma bint Abu Bakr: 392
 Abu Talhah: 404, 517
 Aas ibn Wail: 407
 Abu Munzir: 425
 Amr ibn al-Aas: 437
 Aamir ibn Rabi': 452
 Abu Ubayd ibn Azhar: 471
 Abbas ibn Muttalib: 510, 541
 Abu Bakrah Thaqafi: 519
 Aabis ibn Rabe'e: 526
 Abu Abdullah Abdul Hadi: 557fn
 Abdullah ibn Saib: 527
 Abdur Rahman ibn Ya'mar duali: 528
 Abdullah ibn Qurth: 533
 Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr: 537
 Ayyash ibn Abu Rabia'h: 539
 Abu Shurayh Adawi: 542f

Amr ibn Sa'eed: 542f
 Abdullah ibn Adi: 544
 Abu Lulu: 550

B

Baqi, jannatul: 26
 Bilal: 62f, 96, 108f, 117f, 290, 394
 Buraidah: 96, 134, 241, 294, 352
 Bara: 188, 196f, 202, 299f

C

congregational salah: 40, 145f congregational, prolonging: 165f call to prayer: 109f

D devil, horns of: 101 durood: 219f drought: 309

 dajjal: 548

E eclipse: 303

F fitrah: 46

 fuqara: 377
 fi sabilillah: 378
 Fatimah bint Qays: 389
 Fatimah bint Muhammad: 507

G

green branch on grave: 24f ghaarimeen: 378

H

Huzayfah: 45, 204, 211, 256f, 266
 hadas: 63
 Hasan Basri: 140
 Hasan ibn Ali: 244
 Harith ibn Qabisah: 272
 Hamash ibn Abdullah: 298
 Hasan ibn Ali: 325
 Husain ibn Ali: 325
 Husain ibn Wahwah: 329
 Hamza: 340
 Hisham ibn Aamir: 348
 Hubshi ibn Junadah: 383
 Hamzah ibn Salamah: 446
 Hafshah: 461, 550
 Harith Thaqafi: 536

I

Ibn Umar (see Abdullah)
 Ibn Abbas (see Abdullah)
 Ibn Mas'ood (see Abdullah)
 Ibrahim, Prophet: 47, 326
 i'tikaf: 133
 Ibn Taymiyas: 175, 556fn
 Isa, Prophet: 257
 istikhara: 267f
 Ibrahim son of the Prophet: 303, 547f
 Ismail (Prophet): 326
 Ishaq (Prophet): 326
 ibnus Sabil: 378
 Ibn al-Firasi: 385
 Imam Baqar (see Muhammad ibn Ali) izkhar: 541

J

Jabir: 26, 31, 50f, 84, 119f, 126, 193, 158, 182, 189, 198f, 242, 267, 283f, 290f, 298f, 321, 327, 350, 448f, 489, 502f, 507, 516, 522f, 530f, 542
 Jibril: 44, 495
 jihad: 541, 550
 janabat: 64
 Jabbar ibn Sakhr: 159
 Jabir ibn Samurah: 183f, 283, 290, 545
 Jubayr ibn Mut'im: 187
 Jawzi: 270fn
 Jundub ibn Abdullah: 301
 Ja'far Sadiq: 349, 502
 Juhfa: 490
 Ja'far ibn Muhammad (see Ja'far Sadiq)

K

Kalimah: 62
 Ka'b ibn Maalik: 135
 Khallad ibn Rafi': 170f
 Ka'b ibn Ujrah: 221
 Kharijah ibn Huzayfa: 241
 Ka'b Ahbaar: 276
 Khallab ibn Sa'ib: 495

L

Laqet ibn Sabirah: 59 limbs of sajdah: 203

M

Mu'ar: 30
 Miswak: 43f
 Millat Hanifi: 47
 moustaches: 45f
 Mus'ab ibn Shaybah: 49
 Mustawrid ibn Shaddab: 59
 Mu'az ibn Jabal: 61, 165f, 189, 229, 327, 336f, 366
 Maimoonah: 66
 Muhammad ibn Amr: 98
 Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Zayd: 111
 Muhammad ibn Ammar: 240
 Maalik ibn Huwayrith: 121, 197
 Mu'awiyah: 123
 mosques, decoration of: 137f
 Mu'az ibn Abdullah al-Juhani: 184
 Ma'dan ibn Talhah: 208
 Mughirah ibn Shu'bah: 230, 250, 304
 Masrooq: 253
 Mu'azah Adawiyah: 261, 448, 461
 Mahmood Pasha: 303
 Muhammad ibn Khalid Sulami: 321
 Ma'qil: 327
 Mujaddid Alf-Thani: 334
 Maalik ibn Hubayrah: 346
 masaakeen: 377
 muwallafatul quloob: 378
 marthad ibn Abdullah: 395
 Mu'az ibn Zuhrah: 442
 Muhammad ibn Ali: 502
 Mulla Ali Qari: 557fn

N

Nu'man ibn Basheer: 104, 155f, 192, 293

Nubasha Huzali: 472, 534
Nafi': 521

P

Praise of Allah: 21 patience: 23
pilpit is on my pond, my: 552

Q

Quran: 22
Qatadah: 104
Qays ibn Abu Haazim: 165
qiblah: 169
Qabisah al-Hilali: 305
Qatadah ibn Milhan: 462
Qarnul Manazil: 490

R

relieving oneself, manners of: 28
Rubaiyi: 60
Rafi' ibn Khadeej: 105
Rifaah ibn Rafi': 170, 211
Rabi'ah ibn Ka'b: 208
riqaab: 378
rayyan: 419
Rabi' ibn Harith: 510

S sadaqah: 22

Salman Farsi: 27, 279, 415
salal, wait for: 40
Shabib ibn Abu Rooh: 42
Shurayh ibn Hani: 45
Sa'eed ibn Zayd: 57
Samurah ibn Jundub: 71, 374
Sayyar ibn Salaamah: 98
Sa'd: 120
Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas: 126, 228f, 546
Sharimeen: 378
Sulayman ibn Yasaar: 190
Sufyan Suri: 199
Sa'd ibn Ubadah: 330
Sulayman ibn Aamir: 402
Sahl ibn Sa'd: 419, 438, 495
Salman ibn Jabir: 441
Suraqa ibn Maalik: 505f
Saalim ibn Abdullah: 532
Salamah ibn Akwa: 533
tasbih: 22, 204
tahmid: 22
tahajjud: 45, 106, 179, 207, 235, 243f, 249f, 263
Thawban: 40, 230, 323, 386
Talqq ibn Habib: 49
talbiya: 124, 503
Talq ibn Ali Hanafi: 202
tahajjud: 420
taraweeh: 420
tariq ibn Shahab: 278
Talhah ibn Ubaydah: 529
Taqiuddin Subki: 556fn

U

Umar ibn al-Khattab: 29, 38, 76, 112f, 125, 191f, 216, 252, 238, 331f, 361, 370f, 386, 453, 459, 471f, 512, 526, 550

Uthman ibn Affan: 35, 53f, 89, 137
Ubadah ibn Samit: 87, 180, 317
Uqbah ibn Aamir: 90, 185, 204
Uthman ibn Abu al-Aas: 120
Uthman ibn Ma'zoon: 133
Umm Humayd Sa'idiyah: 142
Umm Habibah: 236, 239
Usama: 148
Umm Sulaym: 160
Umm Salamah: 246, 302, 328f, 375, 524
Ubayy ibn Ka'b: 165, 243f, 424f
Umm al-Fadl: 187
Ubaydah ibn Abu Rafi': 191
Ubaydah ibn Utbah: 192
Umar ibn Abdul Aziz: 205
Umm Hani: 261, 473
Ubayd ibn as-Sabbag: 280
Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah: 293
Uthman ibn Abul Aas: 325
Umm Atiya: 338f
Ubaydullah ibn Adi: 379
Umarah ibn Khuzaymah: 495

W

Waliullah Shah: 19f, 47, 81f, 114, 143, 182, 193, 277, 317, 412
wazifah: 22
Wathilah ibn al-Asqa: 140, 344f
Wabisah ibn Ma'bad: 159
Wail ibn Hajr: 196f, 203

Y

Ya'la: 67
Yazid ibn Khumair: 291
Yalamlam: 490
Yahya ibn Sa'eed: 549

Z

Zayd ibn Arqam: 32, 297
Zakaria ibn Abu Za'idah: 49
Zayd ibn Khalid: 90, 442
Ziyad ibn Harith: 120
Zaynab (Prophet's daughter): 338
Zubayr ibn Awwam: 387
Zaynab wife of Abdullah ibn Mas'ood: 403
Zirr ibn Hubaysh: 424
zikh: 430, 526
Zul Hulayfa: 489
Zaat - Iraq: 490
Zayd ibn Thabit: 492
Zahabi: 557fn

INDEX

MEANING & MESSAGE OF TRADITIONS PART 7-8

A

- Aadam, Prophet: 223, 285, 310
 Aamir ibn Sa'd: 143
 Abayah ibn Rifa'ah: 253
 Abbas: 290, 354, 511, 540, 541, 542, 543
 Abdul Haq Dehlawi: 36, 435
 Abdullah ibn Abbas: 24f, 35f, 116f, 133, 157f, 218, 252, 258, 313, 318, 343f, 357, 365, 381f, 409f, 488, 539, 543, 544, 545, 546, 578
 Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas: 32, 74, 107, 148f, 163, 203, 217f, 227f, 262, 281, 303, 614, 615
 Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Hizam: 616f, 617
 Abdullah ibn Hisham: 113
 Abdullah ibn Jafar: 78f
 Abdullah ibn Jahsh: 490
 Abdullah ibn Mas'ood: 27, 58, 63f, 89, 99, 206, 287, 382, 533, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 570
 Abdullah ibn Mughaffal: 536
 Abdullah ibn Rabi'ah: 80
 Abdullah ibn Saba: 402
 Abdullah ibn Salaam: 304f, 605, 606, 607
 Abdullah ibn Umar: 34, 40f, 46, 65, 95f, 107f, 113f, 122, 133f, 141f, 153, 170, 207, 217, 370f, 378, 392, 421, 440, 545f, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571
 Abdullah ibn Unays: 162
 Abdullah ibn Zubayr: 113, 155
 Abdur Rahman ibn Abū Bakr: 172, 475
 Abdur Rahman ibn Awf: 33f, 149, 181, 387, 443, 449f, 536
 Abdur Rahman ibn Khabab: 395
 Abdur Rahman ibn Saburah: 153
 Abdur Rahman ibn Samurah: 396
 Abdur Rahman ibn Zubayr: 48
 Abū Abs: 252
 Abū Ayyub Ansāri: 586, 587, 588, 589
 Abū Bakr: 25, 67, 91, 166, 172f, 181, 224, 238f, 272f, 292f, 304, 321, 339f, 351f, 358, 365, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 388f, 420f, 438f, 461, 472, 486, 511, 525, 553, 592, 609, 619
 Abū Bakrah: 157, 171
 Abū Darda: 93f, 175, 202, 583
 Abū Hanifah: 50, 106f
 Abu Hurayrah: 23f, 31f, 37f, 49f, 61f, 71f, 77f, 85f, 91, 99f, 110f, 115, 128f, 146f, 152f, 166, 202f, 208, 219, 225f, 236, 247f, 253f, 264f, 270f, 277f, 283, 297f, 303f, 309f, 315, 332f, 369f, 377, 391, 447f, 469, 488, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 572, 620
 Abū Hurrah Zaqqashi: 124
 Abū Huzayfah: 557
 Abū Ishaq Sabi'ee: 289
 Abū Jahl: 245, 381
 Abū Lahab: 245, 407, 520
 Abū Lulu: 386
 Abū Mas'ood Ansari: 70, 196, 236
 Abū Moosa Ash'ari: 25, 73, 199, 250, 358, 399, 476f, 535, 584, 585, 586
 Abū Nu'aym: 533
 Abū Qatadah: 71, 75, 110
 Abū Rafi: 220, 237
 Abū Sa'eed Khudri: 36f, 59, 91f, 149, 170, 196, 239, 246f, 261f, 286f, 311, 338, 355, 369, 384, 393, 534f
 Abū Sahlāh: 404
 Abū Salamah: 29, 54, 365, 484f
 Abū Sufyan: 506, 541, 624, 625, 626
 Abū Talhah Ansari: 119, 181
 Abū Tha'labah: 242
 Abu Ubaydah: 181, 187, 459f
 Abū Umamah: 72, 121, 134, 145, 160, 203, 300, 316
 Abū Umayyah Sha'bani: 243
 Abū Yassar: 71
 Abū Zarr Ghifari: 160, 378, 593
 Abza al-Khuza'ee: 198
 al-Hilaliyah: (see Zaynab bint Khuzaymah)
 Ali ibn Abū Tālib: 32, 98, 147, 156, 166, 181, 229, 273, 289f, 343f, 349f, 357, 377f, 388f, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 438f, 448, 470, 511, 524f, 546
 Ali ibn Husayn: 291
 Alqama ibn Wa'il: 159
 Ammar ibn Yaasir: 589, 590, 591
 Amr ibn al-Aas: 62, 437, 537, 611, 612, 613, 614
 Amr ibn Awf: 231
 Amr ibn Dinar: 116
 Amr ibn Murrah: 169
 Amr ibn Shu'ayb: 163
 Anas ibn Nadr: 531
 Anas: 33f, 88, 96f, 102f, 119, 131, 153, 196f, 203, 211f, 248f, 254, 264, 305, 318, 330f, 334, 357, 392, 397, 403, 417f, 476, 494f, 531, 574, 575, 576
 Asad ibn Abdul Uzza: 324
 Ash'ath ibn Qays: 158
 Asma bint Yazid: 52
 Asmaha: 31
 Asqalani: 325, 343
 Aswad: 333
 Ata ibn Yassar: 93
 Atiya Sa'di: 69
 Ayaad ibn Ghunam: 174
 Ayshah: 21f, 28f, 41, 48f, 81, 108, 128f, 172, 182, 187, 214, 292f, 304, 320f, 333f, 340f, 353f, 370f, 394, 403, 455f, 465f, 470, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 488, 496, 509, 523f, 623

B

Badruddin Ayni: 351
 Bara ibn Azib: 417f, 588
 Bilal ibn Hārith Muzaniyyi: 229
 Bilal: 93, 571, 572, 573, 574
 Buhayra: 326fn
 Buraydah: 151

D

Dihyah Kalbi: 508

F

Fadl ibn Abbas: 355
 Fatimah bint Khattāb: 38
 Fatimah: 32, 290, 342, 354, 410f, 412etc., 464f, 487, 521, 522, 523
 Fir'awn: 292
 Fudalah ibn Ubayd: 256

G

Ghailan ibn Salmah Thaqafi: 40
 Ghulam Ahmad Qadaymi: 277, 294

H

Haatib ibn Abū Balta'ah: 106
 Hafshah: 182, 465f, 482, 483, 509, 520
 Hakeem ibn Hizam: 97, 114
 Hamzah ibn Abdul Muttalib: 537, 538, 539
 Harith ibn Dirar: 502
 Hasan Askari: 291f
 Hasan Busri: 204f
 Hasan ibn Thabit: 623, 624
 Hasan: 291, 304, 416f, 487, 522, 523
 Hind bint Awf: 499
 Hubushi ibn Junadah: 420
 Husayn: 196, 291, 487, 522, 525, 526
 Huzayfah: 70, 237, 273, 460

I

Ibn Abbas: see Abdullah
 Ibn Abū Mulaykah: 388fn, 389
 Ibn Abū Shaybah: 382
 Ibn Khaldoun: 293
 Ibn Mas'ood: see Abdullah
 Ibn Sa'd: 354
 Ibn Taymiyah: 106, 296
 Ibn Umar: see Abdullah
 Ibrahim Prophet: 178, 316, 463f
 Imran ibn Husayn: 72, 78, 123, 283, 419
 Irbad ibn Jariyah: 216
 Isa, Prophet: 281f, 293f, 300f, 316, 326f, 416
 Isma'il Prophet: 316
 Ismah ibn Maalik: 409

J

Ja'd: 494
 Ja'far ibn Abū Talib: 511, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550
 Jabir ibn Abdullah: 617, 618
 Jabir: 38, 66, 70, 79, 87, 97, 124, 129f, 142, 211, 224, 240, 276, 288, 299, 315, 331f,
 444f, 570
 Jarir ibn Abdullah: 239, 621, 622
 Jibreel: 73, 320f, 326f, 416, 477

Jubayr ibn Mu'tim: 370, 473, 538
 Jundub: 207, 339
 Juwayriyah: 465f, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504

K

Kashmiri, Muhammad Anwer Shah: 293, 306
 Kayshah: 604
 Khabbab ibn Arat: 382, 600, 601, 602
 Khadijah: 114, 182, 320f, 328f, 406, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 513
 Khalid ibn Sa'eed: 30
 Khalid ibn Walid: 450, 536, 608, 609, 610, 611
 Khalid ibn Zayd: (see Abū Ayyub Ansari)
 Khawlah bin Hakim: 472
 Khawlah bint Awf: 499
 Khuwaylid: 324fn
 Khuzaym ibn Fatik: 162

M

Ma'mar ibn Abdullah: 104
 Ma'qal ibn Yasar: 271
 Ma'qib ibn Yasar: 168
 Maalik ibn Anas: 218
 Maalik, Imam: 106f
 Mahdi: 290f
 Mahmood ibn Labeed: 47
 Ma'imoon Kurdi: 29
 Maymunah: 465f, 498, 511, 512, 513, 608
 Miqdād ibn Aswad: 269
 Miqdām ibn Ma'dikarab: 59f, 219f, 588
 Miswar ibn Makhramah: 385
 Mu'awiyah: 93f, 122, 167, 437f, 481, 626, 627, 628
 Mu'az ibn Jabal: 44, 147, 154f, 206, 557, 596, 597, 598, 599
 Mu'az: 124
 Mughirah ibn Shu'bah: 23, 386, 451f
 Muhammad Abdul Shakoor Farooqi: 435
 Muhammad Anwar Shah: (see Kashmiri)
 Muhammad Hasan Amritsari, Mufti: 249
 Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Jahsh: 75
 Muhammad ibn Hanafiyah: 372f
 Muhammad ibn Ka'b al-Qurazi: 265
 Muhammad ibn Maslamah: 22
 Muhiyussunnah: 217
 Muhsin: 522
 Murrah ibn Ka'b: 398
 Mus'ab ibn Umayr: 266
 Mus'ab ibn Umayr: 607
 Musa, Prophet: 326f
 Musaylimah Kazzāb: 277, 376
 Muslim ibn Sa'eed: 404

N

Nafi': 142
 Namrood: 292
 Nawawi: 157f, 217
 Nu'man ibn Bashir: 67, 241

Q

Qais ibn Gharazah: 111
 Qays ibn Hazim: 445, 455
 Qays ibn Makramah: 317
 Qays ibn Zayd: 483

R

Raafi' ibn Khadeej: 61, 232
 Rabbani Mujaddid Alif Thani: 214
 Rayhanah bint Sham'oon: 465f
 Rifa'ah ibn Rafi': 111
 Rifa'ah Qurazi: 48
 Ruqayyah: 406f, 518, 519, 520

S

Sa'd ibn Abū Waqqas: 143f, 146, 181, 417, 454f, 544, 553
 Sa'd ibn Mu'az: 602, 603, 604, 605
 Sa'd ibn Ubadah: 137
 Sa'eed ibn Hurayrah: 112
 Sa'eed ibn Jubayr: 345f, 353
 Sa'eed ibn Musaiyb: 106, 408f
 Sa'eed ibn Zayd: 122, 181, 456f
 Sa'eed ibn Zubayr: 187, 382
 Sa'ib ibn Yazeed: 123
 Saba' ibn Abd Uzza: 538
 Safinah: 173, 272
 Safiyah: 34, 465f, 508, 509, 510
 Sahl ibn Hunayf: 249
 Sahl ibn Sa'd: 413
 Sakhawi: 197fn
 Salmah ibn al-Akwa': 76
 Salman Farsi: 446, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583
 Sarah: 463f
 Sawdah: 182, 465f, 471, 472
 Shabbir Ahmad Usmani: 214
 Shafi'ee, Imam: 107
 Shatbi: 214
 Shu'ayb: 388, 435
 Shuayb Roomi: 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596
 Suddi: 571
 Sufyan ibn Uyainah: 351f
 Sulayman, Shaykh: 353
 Suyuti: 197fn
 Swami Saraswati: 21fn

T

Ta'eemah ibn Adi: 538
 Tabrayzi: 315
 Talhah ibn Ubaydullah: 444f
 Talhah ibn Ubaydullah: 564
 Tawoos: 116
 Thabit ibn Ubayd: 411
 Thanawi: 249
 Thawban: 45, 266
 Thumamah ibn Hazm Qushayri: 138, 401
 Thumamah ibn Uthal: 537

U

Ubaidullah ibn Jahsh: 30
 Ubaydah ibn Saamit: 91, 599, 600
 Ubaydullah ibn Abdullah: 345
 Ubayy ibn Ka'b: 206, 312, 557, 559, 560, 561, 563
 Umar: 67, 89f, 94, 104f, 135f, 147, 166f, 173, 181, 224f, 272f, 292f, 304, 345f, 365, 372f, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389f, 438f, 456f, 432f, 498,

520, 525, 537, 542f, 553f, 558, 566, 593, 610

Umm Atiyah: 242
 Umm Darda: 583
 Umm Habibah: 30, 53, 465f, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508
 Umm Kulthum: 406f, 519, 520, 521
 Umm Room'an: 472
 Umm Salamah: 161, 289, 453, 465f, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488
 Umm Sulaym: 494
 Ummayyah ibn Sufwan: 120
 Uqabah ibn Aamir Juhani: 70, 337, 379
 Urs ibn Amirah: 240
 Urwah ibn Ali al-Ja'ab: 113f, 123
 Urwah ibn Zubayr: 481
 Usamah: 355, 376, 552, 553, 554, 555
 Utaybah: 407, 520
 Utbah: 407
 Uthman ibn Affan: 109, 138f, 153, 166, 181, 272, 344, 372, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 438f, 483, 520, 525, 569
 Uthman ibn Ma'zoom: 472

W

Waasilah ibn Asqa: 99
 Wahshi: 538
 Waliullah Shah: 92, 135, 190f, 405
 Waraqah ibn Nawfal: 324f

Y

Yazeed ibn Abū Maryam: 252

Z

Zayd ibn Harithah: 489, 516, 550, 551, 552, 608
 Zayd ibn Khalid: 254, 588
 Zayd ibn Thabit: 206, 618, 619, 620, 621
 Zaynab bint Jahsh: 53, 465f, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 551
 Zaynab bint Khuzaymah: 465f, 499, 500
 Zaynab bint Muhammad: 515, 516, 517, 518
 Zaynab: 406
 Zirr ibn Hubaysh: 417
 Zubayr ibn Adi: 271
 Zubayr: 181, 444f
 Zuhrah ibn Ma'bad: 113
 Zuhri: 343, 354, 365